THREE GROUPS CANCELED

Production, Design and Content by Bonnie Gilder

HI, HULLABLOOERS!

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Labor Department broke the news last week that no more British groups will be granted H-1 visas. This is the visa that permits a group from England to work in this country, and without it, no singer or act from England would be able to perform here. The news meant a virtual ban on English groups, since they would not be able to do tours, shows, or anything but promotion while they are in America. Any person who wishes to perform for money in America, and who isn't from this country, must get one of these H-1 permits, which allows "any person or persons to perform a specified temporary service of a highly skilled nature while in this country."

THREE GROUPS CANCELED

The news meant the cancellation of tours by three groups already in this country: the Nashville Teens, The Hullabaloo, and The Zombies. The three groups were forced to leave their tours and fly back to England. The Beatles and Rolling Stones, who held H-1 visas at this time, are also threatened. Under the new law, these visas could be cancelled at any time, which would mean that the Beatles and the Stones could not perform in this country.

TRADE AGREEMENT

According to a trade agreement worked out between Britain and America, one American recording artist tours England for each English act who comes to this country. The new law would put an end to this too, since Fast Donato, who was to perform in England in exchange for the Nashville Teens, had to cancel out when the "Teens" visa was pulled.

The only foreseeable way to overcome the new rule is by using the H-2 visas, which would mean

Did you see me on to the other day? Boy, was I great! In fact, I was so good that I got an offer from a movie company to be the understudy to one of their top stars. But I turned it down. I never liked Lasse that much anyhow. Seriously though, that show was so much fun to do that I wish all of you could have been there. "HOW COME I WASN'T INVITED?" Oh, not I! Mind Sidemore again! Thank goodness she wasn't at the show... one look at her and the cameramen would have run screaming out into the street! Anyhow, before I go... to many of you KRLAs have written asking for more English pen pals that I want out and rounded up some more for you... so turn the page and sit down and write!

STARS VISIT ENGLAND

ENGLAND — "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling" is making lots of bits in England! Cilla Black covered the Righteous Brothers' version over there, and so did Barbara Ann. Both records were taken off with a leap... and then the Righteous Brothers version hit town, along with the Righteous Brothers! The boys got there last week, and today the song (by them) is number twelve, jumping up past both female versions. The boys are really tearing them up in Bessie land. Every one of their shows have been sold out with standing room only.

Other American artists currently in England are Chuck Berry and Del Shannon.

DJ SPOTLIGHT

AT THE REVELAIRE WITH REB!

Reb Foster's Revelaire certainly put Redondo Beach on the map! Here, Reb stands outside the Revelaire and looks at the "program." The club is on Catalina Street.

In the back of the club is the famous Rebel Room, with a snack bar and groovy private tables where you can sit and talk. If you can't dance, someone is sure to teach you!

After announcing Reb, the Showmen stand ready to back the acts appearing. This week it was Joey Paige and Kathy Marshall. Soon, it might be Reb doing his record!

Reb gets ready to introduce the next act, Kathy Marshall. That sweater he's wearing is blue suede in the front. Reb has some of the grooviest clothes around!

Photography by ROBIN HILL

Inside, the place is swinging! You can always be sure of meeting groovy people, and every Friday and Saturday the club is jam packed. Everyone has a real blast!

Here Reb sits with some friends in the Rebel Room. Between sets, everyone gathers here to make friends and get to know each other. The snack bar serves sandwiches and cakes.

Joey proceeds to wipe everyone out! This is one singer who is going big places fast! He's the one the Rolling Stones came to America to see a few weeks ago.

Kathy is one of the few girl instrumentalists in the world. She can really play, and she's only 14! She digs the Beatles and Stones, can play like them.

Eddie and the Showmen wail out with the groovy sounds. They sound exactly like the Beatles, and are just about as good looking! They've had several hit records.

Eddie and the Showmen start the nightly show. Reb always has the grooviest acts appear, and even if you can't dance, the show is worth coming to the club to see.

Joey does "Goodnight My Love" and the crowd goes wild! It's one of his most requested songs, and he may make a recording of it soon. Joey can really wail!

Joey and Reb take time out to talk to a few fans. Watch for guided tours of the Reb Faber's Cinnamon Cinder and Casey's dances in future issues.

RECORD REVIEW

By BOB EUBANKS

January seems to be the month for records...there've been so many groovy new ones released that it's hard to know which ones to review!

Just about the best on the list is Herman and the Hermits new one, "Can't You Hear My Heartbeat." Herman's smooth sound will surely make this a good follow up to "Something Good."

"King of the Road," by Roger Miller, is causing everyone to compare him to a singing Will Rodgers! It's got a groovy beat, and the words are just too much!

For those of you who want the exclusive Rolling Stones record of "Little Red Rooster," don't fret...it'll be on their next album released in this country...along with some surprising numbers by these five gear guys.

"Fanny Mae," by the Righteous Brothers, is a good change of pace for these two. Of course, nothing can ever touch "Lovin' Feeling" in my opinion, but this new one will make both Bob and Bill established hit-makers.

Brenda Lee can become the top girl singer again with "Thanks A Lot." It's a real rocker in Brenda's old tradition.

The Searchers newest is their best so far! "What Have They Done to the Rain" is a soft, groovy ballad that the boys do extremely well.

That just about closes it for this week. Be back in two with more records to review!

K*R*L*A*N*D—If the H-1 visa ban gets straightened out (and last minute flashes say it will) it looks like April is going to be the hottest month of the year as far as the group scene goes. Herman's Hermits will be here on the 16th to start the Dick Clark show, and will spend a week in K*R*L*A*N*D relaxing and doing some television shows. The Rolling Stones, who still have their H-1 permits, will start a series of concert dates across the country around the fifth of April. They would also like to spend at least three weeks here in California, their favorite place!

The Manfred Mann will definitely be back, whether the visa ban is off or not. They will come in on the fifteenth to tape the Shindig show, and will spend a few days relaxing in town before flying to New York. Scheduled for the same type of tour are the Kinks, who have wanted to come to this country for a long time, and should arrive around the 20th.

Gerry and the Pacemakers may be the first group to lead the parade...plans are underway for Gerry to return during the last week of March. It isn't known yet whether Billy J. Kramer and the Dakotas will accompany him, but the odds are as though he might. Keep reading the BEAT for more news of when your favorite stars will be here in K*R*L*A*N*D!

BEATLES TO DO
SIX NEW SONGS

LONDON — If you want to get in touch with the Beatles...by phone, that is, get ready to place a call to London on February 16th! That's the date the four groovy guys will be recording six songs for their upcoming movie.

The recording session will take place in studio two at EMI, starting at 3:00, London time. The six songs were written by, of course, John and Paul. And here's a little scoop...a lot of you have been wondering which part Paul writes and which part John writes. Here's the lowdown...Paul writes the words and John writes the melody! Walter Shenson, the producer of the film, said that there is no title or release date yet, but the film will definitely be in color. Shenson was also the producer of "Hard Day's Night."

GROUPS IN TOWN

Get set for stars! Freddie and the Dreamers, the newest rage in England, make the local scene on February 11th. They will tape the Shindig and Dick Clark show for future showings, and will spend a week relaxing before leaving for Hong Kong.

Tony Hatch, one of the most famous producers and A and R men in England will also be in K*R*L*A*N*D in February. He'll get here on the 15th, joined later by Petula Clark, who's hit recording of "Downtown" was also written and produced by him. On February 17, the Rolling Stones will fly in for one day to stay with friends before going back to England. However, they are tentatively scheduled for a concert tour in April, and if possible, will be back then for a longer stay.

It's super scoop time in wax land, so let's go!

The Standells, those four groovy guys who've flipped all you girls all over the southland are really becoming movie stars! Their first try was in "Get Yourself a College Girl," with the D.C. 5 and the Animals, and now they've been signed to sing the title song in MGM's "Zebra In The Kitchen!"

If you want to make a hit with Keith Richards of the Rolling Stones, tell him you dig listening to Irma Thomas. She's one of his favorites!

Speaking of the Stones, the one with the wildest sense of humor is Brian. He's also the one who likes to call his friends at 3:00 in the morning just to say hello! And when they were in town a few weeks ago, Mick Jagger dated Toni Basil, the dancer he met on the TAMM show the last time they were in town.

Bobby Vee and his wife, Karen proudly welcomed an addition to the family. Their son, Jeffrey, was born last week at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Don't tell anyone, but John Lennon is calmly looking around for an island! Yep, John wants to buy a deserted island where he and Cyn and baby John can be alone without anyone to bother them. Hey, John, if we promise not to bother you, can we come along? (In England, you can actually LEASE desert islands!)

Now that Jerry Lewis' son Gary has a hit record, we wonder if he'll be joining the rat pack!

That's about it for this week...be back in a few more with more fax on wax! Bye!

Eddie and the Showman wait out with the groovy sounds. They sound exactly like the Beatles, and are just about as good looking! They've had several hit records.

Eddie and the Showman take the night show. Reb always has the grooviest acts appear, and even if you can't dance, the show is worth coming to the club to see.

Joey does "Goodnight My Love" and the crowd goes wild! It's one of his most requested songs, and he may make a recording of it soon. Joey can really wail!

Joey and Reb take time out to talk to a few fans. Watch for guided tours of the Bob Eubanks' Chameleon Cider and Casey's dances in future issues.

CONTEST CORNER!

It's goodie time again, and boy oh boy, do we have a goodie this week! Of course, we always do, don't we? After all, we're just about the greatest things going. And don't ask us where we're going, either! (Some joker always wants to get technical and spoil the whole thing!) Anyhow, back to the contest. You know, every contest in the BEAT is really easy to win. You tell something in twenty-five words or less, or you guess how many of something or other is what (huh?) or you do some ridiculous easy thing that won't interfere with all that work your teacher makes you do after school. (Very unfair of her, we think) (But don't tell her we said so . . . she's bigger than we are) Anyhow . . . it's high time you had to do something constructive to win. Something creative. Something like draw a picture of Maud Skidmore! (Stop making those noises) And here's what the prize is:

EVERY WEEK YOU SEE EXCLUSIVE PICTURES OF YOUR FAVORITE RECORD STARS AND D.J.S IN THE KRLA BEAT. EVERY WEEK YOU MUTTER UNDER YOUR BREATH THAT YOU'D LIKE TO GET YOUR HANDS ON SOME OF THOSE PICTURES. WELL NOW YOU CAN!

YES, YOU CAN WIN TEN (10) OF THE ORIGINAL PICTURES THAT APPEARED IN THE KRLA BEAT! TAKE YOUR PICK . . . BEATLES, ROLLING STONES, D.C. FIVE . . . ANY TEN OF YOUR FAVORITE PICTURES FROM THE BEAT WILL BE FIRST PRIZE IN THIS GROOVY CONTEST! THE WINNER WILL BE NOTIFIED BY US, AND GIVEN THEIR CHOICE! AND HERE'S ALL YOU HAVE TO DO:

What does Maud Skidmore look like? Do you think you know? Okay, then draw a picture of her! That's all there is to it . . . and you might be the winner! All drawings will be submitted to Reb Foster, who will pick the drawing that he thinks looks the most like Maud. And it might be your drawing! All entries must be in by February 15th. Winner will be notified by February 20th, and the winning drawing will be printed in the KRLA BEAT! Attach the entry blank below to your drawing.
