Stage Diving Fatality

Safety in mosh pits is being addressed again following a death attributed to stage diving at a Brooklyn nightclub. The New York State Liquor Authority filed charges February 10th against the owners of the L'Amour nightclub charging it "permitted a disorderly premises" on December 17, 1994, the night 18-year old Christopher Mitchell fell from the stage and sustained fatal injuries. Mitchell was attending a Life of Agony show at the 1,750-capacity club when he decided to take a stage dive. His first dive came off without incident, according to eyewitness reports given to his parents, but when he got up to go for it a second time, a security guard allegedly pushed him off the stage. Mitchell fell on his head and was taken to an area hospital. Mitchell's mother got a call at 4:20 a.m. from police who told her that her son was at the emergency room with a bloody nose. However, Mitchell's injuries proved to be far more severe than originally reported to his family. He was taken into surgery and the following day, he died from a fractured skull and internal brain hemorrhaging. Police initially said the death appeared to be accidental, although the investigation had not been completed as of press time. An attorney for Mitchell's family, however, disagrees and said he plans to investigate whether or not Mitchell was forcibly pushed from the stage causing his injuries. The club's owner, Mige Restaurant Corp., is at risk of losing its liquor license due to the disorderly premises charge and unrelated charges of selling liquor to a minor and improper conduct. Mige Restaurant pled not guilty to the Liquor Authority's charges February 15th and a trial is pending. Club representatives could not be reached for comment as of press time..... That incident and the broader issues raised by moshing, body surfing and stage diving were also discussed on the February 22nd installment of the Phil Donahue Show. Mosh pit denizens, several members of the group Marilyn Manson, and crowd control consultants like Paul Wertheimer tried to explain the phenomena to Donahue and a group of largely horrified parents.

Who Will Lead Nipper?

Ever since Joe Galante announced he was stepping down as president of RCA Records and returning to Nashville, rumors have been circulating about who BMG would get to succeed him. A host of major industry players were said to have been offered the job but turned it down. In recent weeks, there have been published reports in both the trade and consumer press indicating that promoter John Scher was the front runner for the job. While there were certainly intense discussions about the gig, sources told POLLSTAR that Scher wasn't totally comfortable with the RCA situation and has now withdrawn from the running. Those sources, however, also indicated that Scher may well be actively considering another large corporate liaison for his future. Since departing PolyGram several months ago, Scher has had no problem keeping busy. He is active again in the affairs of Metropolitan Entertainment, the Grateful Dead's spring and summer tour, the management of new Mercury act Rusty Root, and is also heavily involved in the upcoming Broadway musical production of Victor Victoria with Julie Andrews.

Peter Asher Makes A Career Move

Peter Asher has relinquished his roll as one of the country's top artist managers to accept a post as senior VP of Sony Music Entertainment. Of his decision to leave the management side of the business, Asher said, "To be offered a position of the scope and importance of this one with a company like Sony Music is a dream come true and just about the only thing that could have tempted me away from my own management company." Asher will be based at Sony's New York HQ and will report directly to Tommy Mottola. At Sony, Asher will work with all of the company's labels, both international and domestic. He will also act as an exclusive producer for Sony Music artists. Asher's history as an acclaimed record producer is evident in his work with such diverse artists as Diana Ross, Mary's Danish, Ringo Starr, Cher and 10,000 Maniacs. He has produced eight Grammy award winning records and has twice been honored with a Grammy as Producer of the Year. Asher began his career in the music business in the '60s as half of British pop group Peter & (Continued Page 7)

World Radio History

Des'ree

When Des'ree Weekes was ready to start her professional career in the music business, she introduced her songs to her record company of choice, Sony Music, and was given a deal almost immediately. The recording contract came even though this London-born, West Indian descendent had never done a professional gig in her life and told the label, "If you want to send me home now, I'll understand." But somebody obviously knew she was worth a chance. She's had no problem proving herself abroad and now she's planting her spiritual seed on American soil for her first U.S. headline tour to support her sophomore release, I Ain't Movin', on the new Sony 550/Epic label.

Des'ree has an intelligence, maturity, and awareness of her inner-self and the world around her that makes it hard to believe this singer/songwriter is only 25 years of age. Her passion for expressing herself through music started as she began singing along to her parent's records at the age of three in London. She later became exposed to literature and poetry during the three years her family spent in her father's native Barbados in the Caribbean. "I lived out there at the start of my formative years, just as I was becoming aware of the arts and culture and started looking at it from a different, less juvenile angle," she said. "Being exposed to reggae, I developed quite an admiration and respect for Bob Marley, Freddie McGregor, Aswad and Third World."

When Des'ree went back to London at age 13, she immediately wrote her first song. She said her spare-time hobby of writing poetry evolved into songwriting. As she wrote more and more, Des'ree realized her songs were strong and could stand up to most anything she heard on the radio. And she must not have been too far off in her thinking because that first song she wrote, "Love Is Here," appears on her latest album. That song, she said, "is the one that told me, 'Look you to have to take it seriously and maybe even satisfy your curiosity as to if it would be possible. Could I make a go of it even though I hadn't been on the circuit, as it were, doing backing vocals, session singing or singing in bands?'"

Continuing to write songs, continuing to be curious of whether she could be as successful as she felt she could and knowing nothing about the music industry, Des'ree decided to start looking for a record deal. She said, "I literally looked up in a manual and found the address of a big major record company and took them some a capella tapes." That major (which she didn't name) called Des'ree's home raving about the tapes. She met with a rep from the label but, she said, "I felt that it wasn't to be that I would sign to that particular label because I still wanted to pursue my studies because my aim was to go to the university and get my degree."

Though Des'ree decided she wasn't quite ready to jump into her music career at that point, she held on to the confidence that she could do it when she was ready. "I thought, 'Shoot, if I can just send a tape with just my voice and my songs and nothing else, imagine when they're properly done what the effect could be.'"

And she was absolutely right. In May of 1991, when she was ready to make the dream a reality, the Sony deal came through and she signed to Epic. Apparently, Des'ree told her manager to send the demo tape to the person at CBS who signed Terence Trent D'Arby. She said the decision to approach Sony once she was ready had nothing to do with research or success record or anything of the sort. She said it came more from childhood memories. "When I listened to Sam Cooke, I was very much into his music and his voice and I'd always take the vinyl out of the record case and say 'Oh CBS.' There was something that used to go, 'Bing!' in my head. The same with Michael Jackson, 'Ping! Epic.' And I thought, 'Yea, I want to be signed to CBS, which is now Sony.'" Des'ree said though the decision was totally instinctive, it was the right one.

Since her record company signing, Des'ree has spent much of her time touring and supporting her first album, Mind Adventures, in Europe, Japan and Australia where it has brought her a good bit of attention. That record was not released in America. But since I Ain't Movin' has brought Des'ree onto U.S. soil, success is becoming abundant with mega airplay on VH-1 and MTV. With her music, which she terms "acoustic soul," Des'ree has also been designated as one of the new divas of R&B.

Des'ree said the lyrics she writes are an extension of her personality, who she is and what she believes in. And after she had gotten a good taste of the music business, touring behind her first album, she did some growing up and changing. Those changes are reflected in her latest release. "I Ain't Movin', was written at a time when I went through a lot of healing and focusing on myself and understanding who I was," she said. "And it was written at a time [at the end of '92] which was quite a reflective, rejuvenating, meditative time for me. I sat down. I reflected. I watched the sun rise and the sun set. I absorbed and enjoyed nature and all of its glory around me, really. And I said to myself, 'Well, I can't enjoy any of this unless I enjoy myself, unless I learn to love myself,' hence [the lyrics], 'I ain't moving from my face, from my race, from my history.' And 'I gotta be bad, bold, wiser, hard, tough, stronger, cool, calm and together in order to do this.'"

Des'ree recently did some U.S. dates with Seal and is just getting ready to start a six week tour of her own that will cut across America and into Canada. Her responsible agent is Jeff Frasco at the William Morris Agency in Los Angeles. Des'ree is managed by David Wernham at Wildlife Management. ★

U.K. News Report

(London) Dance specialist PETER ELLIOT has decided to close the doors of his Manchester-based agency, BLAST HARD, and will be moving to London to join PRIMARY TALENT. Elliot says that Blast Hard was borne out of the rising Manchester music scene at the beginning of the nineties. It is a bit of a blow to the independent agency scene as Blast Hard ultimately found that the pressures of being a small independent outfit in the North of England, made it difficult for him to hang on to acts after they had reached a higher level. Acts that he lost to bigger booking agencies include the Brand New Heavies and the Happy Mondays. He takes with him his existing roster of over 30 acts, including Carleen Anderson, Mother Earth, Corduroy and The Groove Collective. Elliot says he considered several other London agencies before deciding on Primary. Talks between the two agencies had been going on for several months, so it is coincidental that the addition of a new agent at Primary follows so soon after Ian Huffam's departure..... The MANIC STREET PREACHERS have had to cancel their imminent tour of the US following the disappearance of band member, Richey James. He was last seen on February 1st and the police found his car abandoned by the Severn Bridge last week. Members of the band and management are extremely concerned because James has a history of depression and has not responded to public pleas for him to let someone know that he is ok. He spent several months in a private clinic last summer, undergoing treatment for a nervous, although the band were back on the road in the autumn for a successful tour. The last show they played was the London Astoria just before Christmas..... MORRISSEY wound up a sell-out tour of the UK on February 26th. True to his "difficult" reputation, the singer changed tour managers barely a week into the 18 date tour. Agent Mike Ilinic must have the right combination of stamina and patience to have stuck with him through the years..... R.E.M. have added another date to the UK leg of the tour on April 7 at Wembley Arena. Reports coming from Europe are mixed, but by the time they get here, they should be feeling at home with the live arena experience..... The BRITS AWARDS extravaganza occupied a large proportion of the British music establishment as it reached its annual climax at the Alexandra Palace last week. Media attention was intense and the British Phonographic Industry must feel they are a lot closer to their goal of elevating the event to Grammy-level. It was a very lavish production with some impressive live sets from E.17, Eternal and Take That to name but a few. PRINCE did show up to claim his award for the Best International Male Act, but he didn't perform because, apparently he wanted to do a 12 minute set and with such a packed show, there just wasn't time. Meanwhile, MADONNA flew in to perform live, but missed out on any awards. The biggest scoop of awards went to BLUR, for Best Group, Album, Single and Video. (It was also a timely announcement for promoters Metropolis, who went on sale with Blur's summer stadium show within two days of the Brits.) PAUL WELLER won Best Male Singer, but was noticeably absent, while OASIS flew back from the States to pick up a Best British Newcomer award. A Lifetime Achievement Award went to the real veteran popster, ELTON JOHN and also in the predictable section, M PEOPLE took their second award for Best Dance Act, and R.E.M. were voted Best International Band for the third time in the history of the Brits. But there were a couple of surprises - EDDI READER collecting the Best Female Singer and LISA LOEB winning Best International Newcomer..... MCP is co-ordinating the promotion of this year's SOUND CITY in Bristol from April 17 - 21. This annual event, now in its fourth year, is co-sponsored by the BPI, Musician's Union, BBC Radio 1 and the City Council. It will centre around a week of shows, live radio broadcasts, workshops and seminars at venues in the city. The line-up of bands so far comes from the stable of indie acts, including Radiohead, Orbital, Suede, Elastica, The Orb, Moist and EMF. This regional event, which picks a different city each year, is designed to highlight the local music scene, but it is ironic that the biggest acts to have emerged from Bristol in the past few years, Massive Attack and Portishead are not available to take part..... ERIC CLAPTON started his 12 date sell-out run at the Royal Albert Hall last week with Clarence Gatemouth Brown supporting him in an evening of good old fashioned R&B..... NEW SIGNINGS at Fair Warning Wasted Talent this week are Sophie B. Hawkins and Alt. At the Leighton-Pope Organisation, newcomers Ezio have been taken on (they have been getting a fair bit of attention); also, Babylon Zoo, Wynonna and Ron Sexsmith, who will be making his debut showcase tour of Europe in mid April. MPI has added Bayete, Dubstar, Gougue and Planet Claire to its roster.

Gordon. The duo amassed nine top 20 records, three of those went gold. Then in 1968, Asher took his first position as an industry executive when he was named the head of A&R for the Beatle's newly formed Apple Records. While at Apple, he signed and produced James Taylor. In 1971, Asher relocated to the States and founded Peter Asher Management. Asher's management company now represents a slew of acts including Joni Mitchell, James Taylor, Linda Ronstadt, Iris DeMent, Little Feat, Kirsty MacColl, Randy Newman and Warren Zevon. The company also has many producers and engineers as clients, including George Massenburg, Frank Wolf and Phil Ramone. At Peter Asher Management, Ira Koslow, who has been with the company for 19 years and is currently its senior VP, is assuming the presidency with Asher's departure. Gloria Boyce, who's been with the company since '71, will become senior VP. Cathy Kerr, who's been with the firm for a decade, was also upped to veep.

Some Friends Of The Children

Former Iron Butterfly Member Vanishes

Philip "Taylor" Kramer, 42, who once was a bassist with Iron Butterfly, disappeared last week and his family has pleaded for help in finding him. Kramer recorded two albums with Iron Butterfly in the mid '70s but left the music business to form his own high tech company. Most recently, he was working for Total Multimedia in Southern California. Kramer was last seen February 12th when he went to pick up a friend at Los Angeles International Airport. He had spoken to his wife twice that morning from his cellular phone and told her he would be meeting her for dinner that night. Kramer never arrived at the restaurant and he hasn't been seen or heard from since, according to Detective Tom Bennett of the Ventura County Sheriff's Department. According to Iron Butterfly member Ron Bushy, Kramer also called him shortly before he disappeared and also placed a 911 call. There is speculation that the incident might have something to do with an undisclosed revolutionary high tech invention. Although he was not taking part in the newly-reunited version of Iron Butterfly, the band members have joined the search with Kramer's family and are lending support wherever possible, according to manager Don Hulett. Hulett also said the FBI has gotten involved in the investigation, although Detective Bennett said there is no indication of foul play. But, Bennett said, "We're not ruling anything out." His van hasn't been located and there has been no activity on Kramer's cellular phone or credit cards since he placed the telephone calls on the morning he disappeared.

Short Items Of Note

Canadian rap musician Snow, whose real name is Darrin O'Brien, recently pleaded guilty to threatening hotel workers over a room mix-up in 1993. Prosecutors said he told the staffers, "I'm going to shoot you, you blood clot." Though he has a criminal record for assault, Snow said the threats were out of character. "That's not me," he said. "I couldn't shoot or kill anybody." The judge in the case told Snow, "You're no angel," as he slapped a $500 fine on the rapper.... Now that Heather Locklear and Richie Sambora have tied the knot, Locklear's ex decided to do the same. In a surprise, spur-of-the-moment wedding, Motley Crue drummer Tommy Lee wed "Baywatch" star Pamela Anderson on the beach in Cancun, Mexico. Anderson wore an appropriately-white teeny-tiny bikini, while Lee wore white Bermuda shorts and no shirt or shoes. The newlyweds are reportedly calling Lee's beachfront house in Malibu home.... Courtney Love is offering a reward for the return of a five-carat diamond and ruby engagement ring given to her by Kurt Cobain. The ring came up missing on Valentine's Day when it was inadvertently shipped to the wrong room at the Hotel Macklowe in Manhattan, according to the N.Y. Post.

A Record Year For The U.S. Record Business

The Recording Industry Association of America has reported $12 billion in domestic revenues for 1994. That's a 20 percent increase over the previous year. For the first time, more than 1 billion CDs, cassettes, vinyl records and music videos were shipped to retailers providing for a 17.5 percent jump from 955 million units in 1993. Industry experts have cited several changes in the music business to account for the increased numbers. For one thing, alternative rock hit the mainstream last year creating a major dash to the register for acts like Green Day and The Offspring. At the same time, renewed interest in long-time established acts like the Rolling Stones and the Eagles soared to a new high. Also, a new radio format geared toward more adventurous adult listeners surfaced advancing acts like Counting Crows and Sheryl Crow. RIAA chairman Jason Berman also

New Boston Garden Faces Fleeting Fame

The bank that won the bid to put its name on the new Boston Garden, Shawmut National Corp., agreed to be sold to Fleet Financial Group February 20th. But the question remains, will the Shawmut Center name ever see the light of day? A spokesperson at Boston Garden said it is the bank's call and no decision had been announced as of press time. The Shawmut name reportedly won't survive when the banking empires are merged. What will be the ninth-largest bank in the U.S. apparently plans to keep the moniker Fleet Financial. Will the under-construction venue now become the Fleet Center?

Music Copyright Societies Face Legislative Fight

Federal legislation that would allow restaurants and bars to play recorded or broadcast music through multiple speakers without having to pay licensing fees was introduced by Rep. F. James Sensenbrenner Jr., R-Wisc., January 1st and it is facing intense opposition from music licensing organizations. The legislation is similar to bills recently proposed in 10 states but according to Fred Cannon, legislative liaison for BMI, the federal bill is the most important. "This bill is going to adversely effect our songwriter's income and to us, that's the most important issue," he said. "It is unacceptable to songwriters that their songs ... be exploited by a third party for commercial gain [without] the right to be compensated for the use of their property." Not surprisingly, ASCAP reps feel the same way. Bill Thomas, manager of public affairs for ASCAP said, "The whole thing is completely objectionable. These are wish lists put together by the National Restaurant Association and other groups that don't want to pay for the music that they use in their establishments. This is a complete slam against every songwriter and music publisher in the country." The bills also want detailed information on every song represented by a specific licensing society, including personal information about the songwriters. Thomas said, "They want us to provide every one of our customers in America with the name, address and phone number of every single one of our members for every single song. Now, the last time I checked, the members of Pearl Jam did not want their names, addresses and phone numbers given out. But that's what this federal legislation says." In the Nation's Capitol, Sensenbrenner's bill has been referred to the House Judiciary Committee for study. As far as the state bills go, BMI is hoping to negotiate rather than legislate away the problems restaurants perceive as existing in the current system. Cannon said restaurants and retailers in Wyoming, New Hampshire and Washington state have decided to sit down with the performing rights societies to discuss the grievances. Both BMI and ASCAP say the complaints to their respective organizations are very few and each claims that the complaints the restaurant trade organization cites have not been substantiated. BMI and ASCAP both plan to go to the mat for their songwriters and are not taking the legislative onslaught lightly. Thomas said, "Our members expect us to represent their interests.... If this legislation goes through, songwriting as we know it will end. This federal bill, especially, is just so unbelievably dangerous. It's really important for songwriters and recording artists and their representatives to get involved." And Cannon said, "[BMI is] going to defend our affiliates and side against the passage of the bill because it strips away from them their personal property and doesn't compensate them for commercial exploitation." For their part, restaurant and bar owners say that under the current system, they are forced into signing arbitrary music licensing deals without any knowledge of exactly which pieces of music they are paying fees for.

A Fast Frank Sell-out

The La Crosse Center in Wisconsin presented Alan Jackson with a special plaque for making his February 1st concert the fastest sell-out in the venue's 15 year history. (L-R) Frank Productions' Fred Frank, venue director Glenn Walinski, Jackson, and Frank Productions' Herb Frank and Larry Frank.

JAMPAC Against Censorship

Nirvana's Krist Novoselic and the executive director of the Washington Music Industry Coalition, Richard White, announced the formation of JAMPAC, the Joint Artists' and Music Promotions Political Action Committee, February 4th during the Concert Industry Consortium's gathering in Los Angeles. JAMPAC is designed to represent the interests of artists, promoters and fans in regard to legislative censorship and community issues in Washington state. Others pledging their support of JAMPAC include Capitol Records, Monqui Presents, Gold Mountain Entertainment, Belltown Music Group, A&M Records, the RIAA and Susan Silver Management. JAMPAC plans to use its resources to support appropriate local and state ballot issues, endorse select candidates through direct campaign contributions, and, when necessary, provide the financial backing for extensive lobbying campaigns. In addition, JAMPAC is set to encourage public involvement on important legislative issues with a series of direct mail and information campaigns to the general public. Artists already lending support to JAMPAC include Pearl Jam, Soundgarden and Sky Cries Mary.

Obituaries

The former lead guitarist of the Replacements, Bob Stinson, 35, was found dead February 18th in his Minneapolis apartment. The cause of his death is still under investigation but it appears to have been either a deliberate or accidental drug overdose. When a friend found Stinson's body about 7 p.m., a syringe was found nearby. Stinson had a history of depression and drug abuse. He had been diagnosed with a manic-depressive disorder last year and was taking medication to combat intense mood swings. Friends and associates of Stinson said they weren't surprised to hear about the guitarist's death. "We all knew that it was coming but that didn't soften the blow one bit," said former Replacements bandmate Paul Westerberg. "We knew that Bob led the lifestyle he did but it hurt as much as if he'd been hit by a truck." Stinson recorded five records with the Replacements before he was ousted from the band in 1986..... Denny Cordell, 51, died February 18th of lymphoma at Mater Hospital in Dublin, Ireland. Cordell was an accomplished producer, publisher and

A&R executive. His career began in the mid-60s when he managed Chet Baker. He went to work with Island Records in 1965 when the company was still based in Jamaica. He left Island to produce the Moody Blues first album. During his career, he also worked with Procol Harum, Joe Cocker, T. Rex, Tom Petty, Melissa Etheridge and the Cranberries among many others. He also formed two record companies including Shelter Records with Leon Russell. In 1972, he discovered Mudcrutch in Florida and signed it to Shelter. The band changed its name to Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers before Shelter released the debut recording in '76. In 1980, Cordell left the music business and began breeding race horses. But he returned in 1991 when Chris Blackwell asked him to rejoin Island as creative director. It was during that stint that he brought the Cranberries aboard and worked with Melissa Etheridge..... Darrell Robinson, 41, a veteran driver for Roadshow Services, died January 14th in Maryville, Tenn., from complications due to lung surgery..... Original Temptations member Melvin Franklin, 52, died of heart failure February 23rd at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles. Franklin was admitted to the hospital the week before his death following a series of seizures. His condition was complicated by other medical problems. Franklin had been unable to tour with the group since July due to his illness..... Jazz trumpeter Yank Lawson, 83, died February 18th. Lawson, whose career spanned six decades, played with many renowned combos during the big band era and was also the guest conductor of the Vienna Symphony Orchestra for 20 years. He had led the Monterey County Symphony for 17 years before retiring in '85.

"Dress like a typical American." That was the advice one Internet surfing Deadhead gave to comrades truckin' to the GRATEFUL DEAD performances in Salt Lake City. The 'net has been filled with advice to fans on how to avoid drug searches in a state long known for strict laws and penalties for drug possession. Other advice included, "remove all Grateful Dead stickers — a dead giveaway drugs may be on board." However, Utah Highway Patrol officials said they wouldn't be targeting fans during the band's three day run at the Delta Center. The shows went on without a hitch, though one fan said there were "fake Deadheads" in the crowd. "I saw one guy wearing a wig and a fake mustache," he said. And a local disk jockey might also want to eyeball the band's press kit more carefully before he tries to meet JERRY GARCIA again. KUTQ-FM disk jockey "CRAZY DAVE" BENTLEY said he only wanted to meet Garcia, when, broadcasting live on the air via the cellular phone he held in his hand, the Q99 jock knocked on a hotel door at the ungodly hour of 8 a.m., and asked the man who answered if he was Jerry Garcia. According to Bentley, road crew member William Grillo responded with a choice expletive and "Do I look like Jerry Garcia?" He then allegedly punched Bentley in the kisser. University of Utah police said Grillo was issued a misdemeanor assault citation. He faces a maximum $1,000 fine or six months in the local hoosegow. Grillo did not deny bopping the jock who maintains it was his, "right to go up there." One question that has been on our minds is how anyone could confuse a clean shaven, 5'9" drum roadie who sports a crewcut, with a 50ish rocker who, at times, has been mistaken for Santa Claus?..... BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN teamed up with THE E STREET BAND for the video shoot for "Murder Incorporated," one of four new songs on his greatest hits album which comes out Tuesday. Between director Jonathan Demme's takes, Bruce and the band entertained the 200 plus crowd at the New York City club Tramps with versions of "Badlands" and "Spirit In The Night." Springsteen has no tour plans for 95 and has been denying rumors that he will reunite with his old band..... After all these years, you would have thought it must have happened at least once, but CHUCK BERRY, LITTLE RICHARD and FATS DOMINO have never shared a stage. All that will change when the three rock legends take the stage at England's Sheffield Arena on May 17th. The stars will then play Wembley on May 17th and the 21st..... KENNY ROGERS may have found a new calling — impersonating himself. Rogers filled in for Kenny Rogers impersonator Mark Hinds at a "Legends In Concert" show at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas last Tuesday. Audience members weren't told about the switch, but most weren't fooled..... How many security guards does it take to cover a PHIL COLLINS show? Although we suspect it's a tad more than the rider calls for, when Collins takes his world tour to Jakarta, Indonesia for a March 25th show, 5,000 security guards will reportedly be in place inside and outside the venue. Seems that local authorities remember that at a Metallica concert two years ago, stone-throwing violence erupted and continued through the next day as hundreds of youths attacked cars and some luxury houses..... LINDA RONSTADT is returning to the road with her first rock/pop tour since 1990. See this week's Route Book for the dates..... Flashing back to the ROCK FESTIVALS of yesteryear, one thinks of Woodstock, Watkins Glen, Monterey Pop, California Jam, and WADENA. What, you don't remember the three days of fun and music at Wadena? The Wadena Rock Festival happened in 1970, and drew about 40,000 people to the tiny farming community located about 80 miles northwest of Dubuque, Iowa. Originally called "Galena at Wadena," because Galena, Illinois rejected the event, the festival featured Little Richard, Poco, The Guess Who, REO Speedwagon, and Johnny Winter. Now, just like last year's Woodstock anniversary, Wadena wants to do it again, but instead of three days, the musical frolic in the Iowa sunshine will be held to one day. Tim Corkery, assistant office manager for the Fayette County Engineers Office and the secretary-treasurer of the concert planning committee said the farm that hosted the original event is "in pretty bad shape. The house burned down a few years ago. The buildings are in bad shape. It's not a showplace." Drug use and nude dancing caused the original festival to draw just a bit of criticism from the locals. This time they hope to say no to drugs and yes to pigs, with the Fayette County Pork Producers selling sandwiches to the multitudes..... If Major League Baseball fields replacement players this season, the TORONTO SKYDOME may be one venue scrambling for events to fill its 50,000 seats. Because Ontario law prohibits strikebreakers, the Toronto Blue Jays have been considering replacement ballpark for their replacement players. Though the major league caliber Thunderdome in St. Petersburg is one venue under consideration, at the top of the list is the Jays' spring training camp at Dunedin, Florida. It will be a far cry from the 60,000 capacity SkyDome and its huge video boards. Dunedin Stadium has 6,000 seats and outfield billboards that advertise Molly Goodhead's grouper sandwiches.

Australian News Report

(Sydney) Earlier this month, radio network TRIPLE J kept hammering the issue of whether or not there was a limit on tickets that individual consumers could purchase for PEARL JAM's concerts in Australia. Promoter Michael Chugg is saying that there was a limit whilst listeners were calling up saying that they bought tickets in bulk quantities. The issue is obviously far from over with some disgruntled, ticket-less fans planning a protest outside the Sydney Entertainment Centre on the night of the band's show there..... Australian rock legend and long term Los Angeles resident BILLY THORPE has been chosen by the Rugby League Association and Channel 9 to perform their 1995 promo for Friday Night Football. The song, "Friday Night Is Alright For Football," was written by American songwriter Jonathon Cain and originally used in the opening sequence of the film The Last Boy Scout. He's returning to Australia in March to help promote Friday Night Football as well as do a round of dates with the Aztecs..... Word I hear is that the replacement for MICHAEL SMELLIE's top job at BMG will be announced in mid February. Apparently the staff have opened a book on the whole bizzo with some pretty varied names being mentioned. Seems that Polydor's Paul Dickson is staying put with the Alexandria Mafia, and that Chris Gilbey (who works there already) has ruled himself out as a contender. Also rumored are publisher Colin Cornish and Nigel Sandiford who currently heads Electronic Arts and was formerly MD of PolyGram in New Zealand. Then there was talk that Mushroom's Simon Young might be a left-field choice - but the hard money is still on someone coming in from overseas..... It's getting close to the time that the Frontier Touring Company and Michael Coppel Presents need to announce their Easter rock'n'roll extravaganza. The word I hear is that in Sydney it's going to be held at the ST. IVES SHOWGROUND..... After a couple of years working with promoter Michael Coppel, CATHERINE SWAN is about to move across to Polydor Records where she'll be Victorian promotions manager. Good news for Polydor, not so good for Coppel who has a massive number of tours coming through - and Swan is tres efficient..... Last week, to promote the new album from SLASH's SNAKEPIT, MCA came up with the cool idea of taking some python snakes (with a handler, thank goodness) to major radio and retail outlets in Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane. Slash will be in Australia from March 8-14 doing a promotional tour which will apparently also include some acoustic shows..... The word I hear is that the BIG BACKYARD benefit concert planned for Melbourne is a few months time ain't going to happen. Apparently complications with at least one of the proposed feature bands made it all too difficult. Still, there'll be another Sydney concert this year..... April 27th is the date for the all important MUSIC INDUSTRY SUMMIT in Canberra. Word is that around 50 individuals will be invited to attend and, as you'd imagine, jockeying is already underway to be amongst those selected..... Coming up in May is an ASIAN MUSIC SHOWCASE by Australian artists which is being organised by Austrade. It'll start in Jakarta and wind its way through a number of other countries. No names on those participating as yet..... The much anticipated report from COOPERS & LYBRAND on funding of music industry organisations was completed early February and is in the hands of the relevant minister, Peter Cook. Although not released publicly, the inside word (read rumours) is that it recommends there be no more government funding for Export Music Australia, and that the Music Industry Advisory Council be terminated at the end of the year when its funding runs out. If what I'm told is correct, the big winners are Ausmusic who are recommended to become the peak industry body..... AC/DC are to be the subject of an interactive tribute album from Ariola and BMG. The concept is that of executive producer CHRIS GILBEY who was the A&R manager at Albert Productions when AC/DC were first signed. According to Gilbey, now VP of A&R for BMG's Ariola Interactive Entertainment division, "The album will have an interactive multimedia element...which enable the disc to be played on audio CD units and computers equipped with CD-ROM drives." The album will feature artists from a number of other major and indie labels. According to Gilbey the AC/DC tribute will also debut another worldwide innovation in interactive entertainment that they have just developed..... Following not only public demand, but that of the media, "Mr Natural," the lead track from the Bicycle EP MENTAL AS ANYTHING recorded and gave away at their live shows, has now been released through BMG Records. Their independent run of 5,000 were given away to loyal fans during their six week summer Bicycle tour. Mentals are currently preparing to record a new album which is due for August release. It'll be their first studio album in five years.

TICKET BUYERS KNOW THE DIFFERENCE

AND SO WILL YOU. COME EXPERIENCE THE DIFFERENCE THAT BRINGS ROCK'S BEST ACTS TO NORTH AMERICA'S FAVORITE VENUES.

• UNIVERSAL AMPHITHEATRE The venue of choice for Southern California's most important live events since 1972. No curfew, no sound restrictions, and no seat more than 150 feet from the stage! With easy access, spacious parking, flexible show times and the celebrated Universal CityWalk dining complex right on site.

• LAKEWOOD AMPHITHEATRE 7000 reserve seats under a pavilion roof & lawn seating for 11,500. Lakewood is Atlanta's only venue with convenient on-site parking. And with a location just 10 minutes from downtown Atlanta, it's no wonder Lakewood Amphitheatre attracts patrons from throughout the South East.

• BLOSSOM MUSIC CENTER Situated on 800 naturally wooded acres and conveniently located between Cleveland and Akron, the architectural award-winning Blossom Music Center is considered the industry hallmark. The home of Ohio's best music features spacious parking for 8500 cars on site, extensive picnic areas, and a natural oak air-conditioned stage.

• THE GORGE The most beautiful concert site in North America, overlooking the Columbia River Gorge in the "no rain" area of central Washington. This 18,500 capacity venue offers the flexibility of reserve tickets, now expanded to 6284, or all general admission tickets. Add to this a 100 acre campground right on site, and every show at the Gorge becomes a festival event attracting crowds from Seattle to Portland to Boise.

• FIDDLER'S GREEN The largest and most heavily attended concert venue in all of Colorado offers fans a pristine outdoor setting, convenient location, easy access to the venue, and the best performers playing the market. It's no wonder this venue attracts everyone from Metallica to Carreras, Van Halen to Van Cliburn, Lollapalooza to Steve & Eydie.

• STARPLEX AMPHITHEATRE Dallas' only true outdoor concert venue and consistently one of the top grossing amphitheatres in North America. Conveniently located just minutes from downtown and accessible from all major freeways throughout the Metroplex, the venue features spacious park plazas, over 6000 parking spaces, and a permanent video system that makes every view "front and center".

• MOLSON AMPHITHEATRE Opening in the summer of 1995, Molson Amphitheatre will be Canada's first real amphitheatre built for today's music. Situated on the shores of Lake Ontario, Toronto's favorite summer recreation area, this $15 million facility is poised to become the focal point for Toronto's exploding entertainment scene.
