Nice Man Nabs Brockum

Nice Man Merchandising confirmed it has purchased the Brockum Group from John Labatt Ltd. Brockum had operated as a unit of BCL Group under the direction of concert promoter Michael Cohl. With Cohl now gone from BCL and Labatt's under new ownership, the merchandising giant was put up for sale. Terms of the purchase were not disclosed, but the combined strengths of the music-related goods merchandisers could amount to $150 million annually. Brockum's clients include the Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd and Soundgarden. Nice Man, which had been a much smaller operation, is owned by BMG Entertainment.

Oasis Faces Cold Canadian Welcome

Oasis walked out on its April 10th sold-out show at Vancouver's Pacific Coliseum when audience members wouldn't stop throwing stuff at them. Promoter Mark Norman of Perryscope Concert Productions told POLLSTAR the band was being pelted with shoes and coins. He said the British rockers warned the audience twice and then left the stage after about four songs. Apparently, a couple of the band members were hit in the head with coins and were concerned about their safety. "You get a coin to the head or in the eye, it can do some serious damage," Norman said. He pointed out that people who go to a show and throw coins at the artists aren't doing so because they're excited. "There's an intent to injure there," he said. Extra police were called to the venue after the walkout for fear of rioting by the thousands of angry fans. But Norman said, "We told the audience the show was over and they left very orderly — no problems at all." He said ticket-holders are getting back $16.50 of the $24.50 ticket price plus the Ticketmaster service charge. "And we're also giving out a $5 voucher which is redeemable against the ticket price for the rescheduled show." He said the band definitely wants to come back and play its whole show, hopefully without the flying footware and spare change.

It Wasn't Meant To Be

Fresno fans were livid when Ozzy Osbourne canceled his April 16th make-up date at the Selland Arena at the last minute. The initial show, originally scheduled for February 27th, was cancelled because Ozzy and his wife and manager, Sharon Osbourne, didn't want to fly in bad weather. This time, Sharon fell during a photo shoot and Ozzy wanted her to go to the hospital to make sure she wasn't seriously hurt. Sharon tried to refuse and said, "Let's just get on the plane," but Ozzy wouldn't have it. The Osbournes were extremely upset about disappointing the Fresno fans and are looking into doing a free show to make it up to them, according to a spokesperson. Sharon was not seriously hurt, although she had to stay off her feet for awhile.

A Rancid Night In Omaha

A Rancid concert at the Civic Music Hall in Omaha, Neb., went bad April 11th when fans started ripping up the cushions from the permanent seats and the band's frontman jumped into the center of the commotion. A scuffle with venue security ensued, resulting in 31 arrests. Several people required first aid and a few nose rings were apparently unceremoniously ripped out during the fracas. Music Hall public events manager Larry Lahaie said only a few moshers were involved in the initial antics. "Security was trying to stop the fighting, not the moshing, but the lead singer took offense to the way security was handling the

LONE STAR

The good-luck fairy must be a Lonestar fan. This is a group of guys that got together, hardly knowing each other, and intended to jam for a couple of months just to make a few extra bucks. When they played their first gig at Nashville's Backstage Pass after three or four practices, a booking agent caught the act and immediately put the group to work on the road. Later, before the band landed its record deal with BNA, the demand for product was so high that Wal-Mart asked for rights to sell Lonestar's independent CD.

Bassist/vocalist John Rich told POLLSTAR several members of the band were looking to score solo deals and Lonestar was just a way to pass some time and pay the bills. At the time, most of the members were working odd jobs delivering pizzas, mixing seed at a feed mill or detailing cars. "So we were doing jobs we didn't exactly like," Rich said. "Playing music was fun and we wanted to be able to play a little bit around town and maybe meet some people. It just kind of exploded on us."

The band's draw, Rich said, must have come from its heavy emphasis on vocals. When multi-instrumentalist Dean Sams was putting the band together, he was thinking not of great musicians but a lot of vocals — one thing that a lot of the bar bands around the country don't have, Rich said. "They have one pretty good singer and they're normally all real good players. We were just the opposite. With the exception of our guitar player, we were all mediocre players and pretty good singers. So I think the vocals and all the harmony that we could throw out ... kind of impressed everybody and made up for our lack of expertise on our instruments." Of course, as the band hit the road, playing about 500 dates in the first couple of years, the members became better musicians. "Now, we can hold our own playing," Rich said. "But in the beginning, it was pretty much the vocals selling the band."

Vocals may be the band's initial hook for fans, but Rich said touring is the reason Lonestar is able to exist. "I know Shania Twain nowadays is selling all those records and not touring, but I think she's a total exception," he said. "When we went out and played all those days out on the road before we had a record deal, it just got us really tight musically and it also let us know if we could live with each other out on the road." And with all the touring, Rich said Lonestar was able to build a fan base before getting a record deal was even an issue. In fact, Lonestar became one of the few country acts to record an independent album, on its own Lonestar Records, to satisfy the fans' desire for product and to make a little extra money. "We had fans all over the U.S. and in Canada that were buying our music," Rich said.

The band built that strong fan base by playing one venue at a time for runs of up to two weeks. "People would tell their friends, 'Hey there's this band down there. They're pretty good. You oughta go hear em,'" Rich said. "And by the time we would leave, it'd be packed like every night.... You figure we hit 50 or 60 cities in two years, spending a week or two weeks at each one of them. You don't get millions of fans doing that but you get a lot of really die-hard fans that know your music and are pulling for you."

In fact, Lonestar had so many fans wanting to buy product, that Wal-Mart bought about 40,000 copies of the band's indie album to sell in its stores. Rich said, "Some of the bosses at Wal-Mart heard us and approached us about getting some of [our albums] in their stores because they had people coming in ... asking if we had an album in there — people that didn't realize that we didn't have a record deal."

Rich said though it isn't real common for a country band to work off an indie release, "it works in rock'n'roll and it definitely worked for us." And being a self supporting band, able to sell its own records, was a bonus when major labels came calling. "Having the album out in the store already and having sales show up on SoundScan and stuff, I mean, we're showing this to the record label going, 'We're already selling records out here. There's people that already know us that are buying our stuff.' So they felt it was a lot less of a risk to sign us with that going on."

Even though Lonestar was on a roll enjoying its bit of self-made success, Rich said every label in Nashville, at one point or another, passed on the band, including BNA. But BNA apparently came to its senses when label chief Joe Galante resumed the reins in Nashville. Rich said producer Don Cook knew Galante was coming back to BNA and called him in New York and said, "Hey, I got this band you need to sign. Since you're coming back, this will be a great way for you to kind of kick the door back open for yourself in Nashville." Rich said, "We flew up to New York City and sat down in Joe Galante's office in a big skyscraper in Manhattan and just had a couple guitars and sang three or four songs for him and talked to him for about 30 minutes and flew back to Nashville. And by the time we got back, he had left messages at everybody's house that we had the record deal."

Lonestar's agent, Greg Oswald at William Morris Agency, has the band continuing its non-stop tour, mostly headlining clubs and fairs. And the band is packin' em in. The plan is to have Lonestar open arena-level shows by the end of the year. And as far as the group is concerned, the bigger the better. "The bigger the stage, the crazier our show gets," Rich said. "And the better it gets and the bigger the crowd, the better we play. We have a good response from people in the clubs but when we play the bigger places, it's just pretty unreal what happens." ★ situation," Lahaie said. Things got a little hairy when Rancid singer Tim Armstrong and about 15 roadies and stage crew members jumped into the pit but Lahaie said the whole incident was over in a matter of minutes. "The band went backstage, took a deep breath, came back out and played the rest of their set," he said. Damage to the hall was originally estimated to be $10,000 but Lahaie said that figure could go down before the bill goes out to Contemporary Productions, which promoted the show. The Rancid gig was the last mosh-friendly show for the fixed-seat Music Hall. The venue said it had decided to stop holding concerts of that kind before the show was booked.

Record Company Roundtable

RCA has appointed Danny Heaps as senior VP of artist development and marketing for the label. Under Heaps' direction, a new department has been formed to incorporate marketing, product management and publicity functions. Previously, Heaps' affiliation with the Addis Wechsler Entertainment Company had him involved in the management of acts like Soul Asylum, Fishbone and Bad Religion..... Atlantic Records is reorganizing its jazz music activities. Label founder and co-chairman/co-CEO Ahmet Ertegun will directly oversee the musical direction of the jazz program. A&R VP Yves Beauvais has been named VP/Jazz and A&R, taking over day-to-day supervision of the company's jazz activities. Atlantic senior VP and record producer Arif Mardin will serve as jazz A&R consultant..... Def Jam Recordings will switch from Island Records to Mercury Records for support in marketing, radio promotion, sales and production. Island had provided the support services for the label since 1994, when PolyGram acquired 50 percent of RAL / Def Jam. Def Jam is currently experiencing success with a number of artists including LL Cool J, Montell Jordan and Method Man.

Rocky Good-bye

The 115-year-old Rocky Point amusement park in Warwick, R.I., is no more. A Kent County Superior Court judge ruled April 12th that the park's owners should not be forced to keep the park open. The owners offered to pay the city $610,000 in property taxes if they were allowed to go through with plans to auction off Rocky Point's assets. Warwick lawyers asked the judge to block the sale and order the owners to stick to a plan worked out in U.S. Bankruptcy Court last year. Under that plan, the park would have stayed open while the owners paid back taxes. But the city's lawyers failed to prove Rocky Point would remain profitable if left open and the judge said if the park kept operating, the owners would not be able to pay the taxes owed to the city. All of the 126-acre park's assets — from the rides to the table settings — were auctioned off April 16th and 17th. The auction was expected to net around $2 million.

Legal Grievs

than half as called for under federal copyright ownership law. Connick claimed that McLean tried to change his royalty deal after the third album the pair co-wrote. But U.S. District Judge Miriam Goldman Cedarbaum threw out the suit because the Copyright Act treats the authors of a joint work as co-owners of that copyright. The judge said a contract would have to specify otherwise for a percentage less than 50 to be valid. If the ruling stands, it could mean at least an additional $100,000 income for McLean. The judge gave Connick 30 days to bring another lawsuit contesting the deal on other grounds..... Milli Vanilli's Rob Pilatus pleaded no contest to assault charges April 15th and was sentenced to six months in a residential drug rehab program followed by three months in jail. Pilatus reportedly admitted he violated his probation from an earlier criminal conviction and that he was responsible for three attacks from December to February in West Los Angeles, according to a city attorney's office report. Less than a week prior to the no contest plea, Pilatus was arrested in West Hollywood and charged for driving with a suspended license. The lip-synching star was pulled over for running a stop sign, taken into custody on outstanding warrants and released on a $35,000 bond. According to officials, that bail amount was the sum needed to cover recent charges of battery, trespass, joyriding, auto theft, assault, making terrorist threats and vandalism.

Subtle Steven

Firefighters Save The Fox

The Fox Theatre in Atlanta had a close call April 15th when a four-alarm fire gutted the restaurant next door. The fire broke out around 6 a.m. in the ceiling of the Adams At The Fox restaurant. More than 100 firefighters fought the blaze and protected the Fox, a 67-year old former movie palace that now hosts concerts and theatrical productions. Assistant Fire Chief Gerard Rioux told firefighters, "I don't care what you do, don't let it get into the Fox." At one point, it was feared that flames had spread to the historic landmark, but a fire wall did its job and the building received only minor smoke and water damage. The restaurant and some theatre offices not located in the Fox itself were gutted. Several dozen cleaning people were called in and the theatre was ready for the April 16th opening night of "Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat." The theatre's staff quickly secured temporary office space in a nearby building and proceeded with business as usual.

Country Music Senators

Marley's Estate Triumphs

A $6 million judgment against Bob Marley's lawyer and accountant was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court April 15th. Marley's estate sued lawyer David Steinberg, accountant Marvin Zolt and Rita Marley, accusing them of using forged documents to divert $13.4 million from the late singer's estate. In 1992, a jury ruled that Rita Marley was not responsible for diverting funds but found that Steinberg and Zolt violated a federal racketeering law and committed fraud. The two men were ordered to pay the estate $2.9 million in damages plus $3 million in attorney's fees. The 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the award before it was sent to the Supreme Court.

Short Items Of Note

It looks like there's no chance Madonna will be touring in the next year. The Material Girl is four months pregnant by her 29-year-old fitness instructor, Carlos Leon. Maddy, who is currently in Budapest filming the movie version of "Evita," is "deliriously happy" about the news, her publicist said. The Maternal Girl can presumably cancel that advertisement for sperm donors now..... Indiana University is naming its new $6 million, privately-funded indoor sports practice facility the John Mellencamp Pavilion, after Bloomington's famous homeboy. Mellencamp, who has lived in Bloomington for 20 years, donated $1.5 million for the new facility. The rocker said he hopes the gift will enhance the university and its sports programs. IU is the last of the Big Ten schools to build an indoor practice facility..... Mother nature spared indie label CMC International Records in Zebulon, N.C., as a tornado ripped apart buildings within 100 yards of the company's headquarters. Label staffers watched the violent twister get closer and closer until they ran for the back corner of the building and crawled under desks. Miraculously, the tornado

U.K. News Report

■ SHAGGY narrowly escaped serious injury when a lighting rig collapsed in Poland before his show. The Jamaican singer was due to perform at the Poznan Arena on April 12, but the lighting rig collapsed during soundcheck, injuring six musicians. Luckily, the injuries were not serious and only two shows were cancelled, with the band resuming the tour in Warsaw two days later. Agent Colin Davie at Talent Factory, who would have been faced with the task of cancelling the remaining 47 shows on the tour, says the Polish promoters, AMC, handled the incident very well and are dealing with the ticket refunds and the insurance aftermath. Jem Linsey at AMC says it is too early to blame anyone. "I don't want to point any fingers," he told POLLSTAR. "The prosecutor came in after the incident, carried out an inspection, compiled a report and we have to wait and see what his verdict is. Everyone is devastated about what happened, and we are relieved that there were no fatalities."

■ With the SEX PISTOLS invasion of Europe looming large, publicists continue to fuel the 40-something rebel image of the reformed band with news of whose been turning them down because of their reputation. Tour producer John Giddings at Solo-ITG offered the gig to Greek promoter Nikos Sachpasidis at Half Note, but was flatly turned down. Sachpasidis said it was because the band's Greek fans would almost certainly cause trouble. He replied to Giddings: "I do not want... for the sake of one band to risk ruining the live industry in Greece, as it will take a long time for the concert goers to regain their faith in live shows. For this reason I personally ask that you do not offer this show to any other promoter in Greece, as I do not believe that anyone will be able to foresee or prevent any major problems which shall be inevitable." Sachpasidis, who is quoted in a Pistols press release, stands by his decision. He told POLLSTAR: "Even if the band take my refusal and make a campaign out of it, it will be to the benefit of Half Note Productions, because we care about what we have taken great pains to achieve over the past 18 years."

■ SOUND CITY '96 in Leeds was voted a big success with attendances at shows and industry panels well up on last year. The live line-up featured 29 signed bands representing a cross-section of UK and international talent with headlining performances coming from the Manic Street Preachers, Garbage, Ash, and Sleeper to name but a few. Other highlights included the slightly unusual billing of the Presidents of the USA with Ocean Colour Scene, which went down exceptionally well and performances from the two key bands leading the Swedish (mini) "invasion" - The Cardigans and The Wannadies. Unsigned bands which stood out from the 120 participating included Rapid City (a local 8-piece funk band), Super 8, which attracted such a big audience even the A&R people had trouble getting in; MK13 and Black Star Liner (who will support Transglobal Underground later this year). At the industry panels the demo jury attracted one of the biggest audiences, with 550 attending. Panel members including Dave Wibberley from Chrysalis Music, Diane Young from Anxious Records and Gillian Porter from EMI were practically mobbed as chairman Horace Truebridge from the Musicians Union closed the session. As Leeds is left to soak up the benefits of this year's musical feast, the organising committee has yet to decide which provincial town will be the next Sound City.

■ It was inevitable that the TAKE THAT split saga would run and run. This week's episode in the boy band soap opera saw rebel band member Robbie Williams, who quit last summer, send an open letter to The Sun newspaper requesting a reunion (already?) summer stadium gig to say a "proper goodbye to the fans". All parties deny that this is a publicity stunt and Take That's manager Nigel Martin-Smith has dismissed the whole idea as a "cheap trick".

■ The two best attended small festivals in the UK have joined the run of summer ticket sales. WOMAD is promoting its usual selection of world music with over 50 artists from 20 countries on six stages over the weekend of July 19-21. There is no featured headliner at this stage, although the Whirl-y-gig dance tent bill includes Zion Train, Loup Garou, Transglobal Underground and Banco de Gaia. Last year's event attracted 23,000 over the weekend. The CAMBRIDGE FOLK FESTIVAL, also a record sell-out in 1995, is set for July 26-28 and this year will feature Ray Davies, The Saw Doctors, Alison Krauss & Union Station, plus the Penguin Cafe Orchestra, Oysterband, Luka Bloom with others still to be confirmed.

■ EUROPEAN FESTIVAL UPDATE: Blue Star Promotion in Germany will be starting its festival career with a new date for the hard lifted above the CMC offices and touched down again just a few hundred yards past the building. The storm claimed several lives and caused severe damage throughout the town..... Production Group International (PGI) of Arlington, VA, a global events, entertainment, exhibitions and business communications company, has announced two major acquisitions in recent weeks. The company has taken over major competitor Ray Block Productions, a national business communications producer headquartered in New York City, and Phoenix-based Timberline Productions, a national presentation, special events and video production company..... The Martin Guitar Company has joined forces with MTV to produce a limited edition "Unplugged" guitar, inspired by the successful acoustic concert specials. Martin guitars have been played by just about every famous guitarist in the world including Eric Clapton, Keith Richards, Neil Young, Kurt Cobain and Paul Simon. Martin Guitar Company was formed 163 years ago and has been operated by six generations of the family..... The remaining ashes of Jerry Garcia were scattered in the San Francisco Bay beneath the Golden Gate Bridge April 15th. Garcia's family — including his daughters and his widow — band members and close friends gathered on a private yacht for the ceremony. Bob Weir read a poem from Mickey Hart and those on board threw flowers into the waves after the ashes were scattered.

Bubbles On Track

The Bubble Factory principals (Sid, Jon and Bill Sheinberg) and MCA Music Entertainment Group have formed a joint venture record label to be called The Track Factory. The new label will primarily focus on soundtrack albums inspired by The Bubble Factory's film production activity. Music and film industry vet Tim Sexton was named prexy of the venture. (Standing L-R) Zach Horowitz, prexy MCA Music Entertainment Group; Caroline Debbane, director of product management, soundtracks for MCA Records; Jay Boberg, prexy MCA Records and Abbey Konowitch, executive VP MCA Records. (Seated L-R) Sid Sheinberg and Tim Sexton.

Never An End To Lawsuits In Neverland

Former employees of Michael Jackson can go forward with a wrongful termination lawsuit against the King Of Pop, a Santa Barbara County Superior Court judge ruled April 12th. The suit claims the plaintiffs — three bodyguards, a maid and an administrative assistant — were forced to resign because they wouldn't divulge grand jury testimony in MJ's molestation investigation. The three ex-bodyguards were subpoenaed to testify before the Los Angeles County Grand Jury in 1994 and the former maid gave a deposition. The suit says MJ installed listening devices at his Neverland Ranch, allegedly so he could find out what his employees were saying about the molestation suit and investigation against him. The plaintiffs said they received harassing phone calls and that some of MJ's bodyguards threatened to hurt, and even kill, them. They also claim that ranch supervisors combed through confidential personnel records to harass them and their families. The suit names — in addition to MJ — several bodyguards and a couple of Neverland execs as defendants. The plaintiffs' attorney, Michael P. Ring, said the judge's summary judgement ruled in favor of his clients on all issues except one charge of sexual harassment. "We are confident as we head toward the trial," he said. The jury trial is set to begin May 6th in Santa Maria — unless there's a quick settlement or the defense requests that an appellate court halt the civil proceedings. A court conference was set for April 22nd. And in a separate case, another former security guard is suing MJ claiming he was fired for exposing perjury that occurred in connection with the child molestation allegations. Jerome Johnson's suit, filed April 16th, claims he and other MJ employees were pressured to lie to the grand jury. Johnson said he overheard a telephone call in which the security chief for MJ Productions admitted he had "protected [MJ] in front of the grand jury." Johnson claims he was fired in April 1995 after reporting the conversation to two other executives.

Raging Against The Machine

Rage Against the Machine found out that "Saturday Night Live" is not the place for political protest. According to the Los Angeles Times, the band members tried to hang American flags upside-down on their amps during their April 13th "SNL" performance. The politically outspoken band was protesting the show's guest host, former presidential candidate Steve Forbes. Stagehands removed the flags before the band performed its song "Bulls On Parade." Usually, "SNL" musical guests do two numbers, but Rage Against the Machine didn't get a second chance. An NBC spokesman told the Times that the show ran long and the second song had to be cut. Yeah, sure.

We are proud to say that Evan & Jaron Band have amazed the eastern half of the country since they've become a 5-piece and my monthly calendar fills up before many clubs begin theirs. They will be covering the East Coast from June 16th - July 18th before they return to Atlanta in time for the Olympics. /// Angie Aparo has already made a name for himself in the music rooms of the Southeast. The single, "Seed," has been receiving airplay in the South without the support of a major label. June dates are moving quickly (May is done). /// We are happy to have signed Fendal. They have southeast avails in June and July with a couple of scattered May avails.

CSI: Blu Hawley

Deacon Jones & his Vortex Blues Band Allstars are enjoying their support slot on the B.B. King Canadian tour through April 26th. In support of Deacon's new album and tour entitled Makin' Blues History, the band will be touring the West Coast through June 30th, then national accepting offers on blues festivals, fairs and other selected dates. /// NYC blues rocker and Johnny Winter's guitar sideman of 10 years, Jon Paris, has a new album on Fountainbleu Records entitled Rock The Universe and is looking for summer dates on his first West Coast tour to begin in late June. /// Extremely hot new blues rock band Blindside, anchored by ex-Badlands rhythm section Jeff Martin and Greg Chaison and including Stevie Ray Vaughan soundalike and guitar wizard Michael Onosko, is looking for West Coast dates this summer in support of its new album and third release on Blues Bureau International entitled Messenger Of The Blues.

SKIPPER'S: John Maylott

Harmonica giant Rock Bottom has limited Southeast avails in mid-August in support of his recent release on Double Trouble, Too Many Bad Habits. /// Halcyon has select avails during the last week in May between Tampa and Lafayette, La.

Between The Dates

■ Not that it was a big secret. For weeks members of the KISS Army have been burning up cyberspace with news of the tour, and last week, the band, wearing full makeup and leather, made it official by announcing the KISS reunion / full makeup tour at a press conference in NYC. KISS kicks off it's world tour at Detroit "Rock City's" Tiger Stadium on June 28th. From there it's indoor arenas as the band recreates its famous, pyrotechnic-laden, fire-breathing, blood-spitting stage presentation that brought them to prominence in the 1970's. It will be the first time in 15 years that all four original members have toured together. The band last performed in makeup in 1983. Only the first leg of the tour was released last week with dates covering the Midwest and East Coast of the U.S. Though Stone Temple Pilots will open the Detroit show, a support act for the rest of the tour has not yet been announced. West Coast fans will have to wait for the full KISS treatment but those attending the June 15th KROQ Weenie Roast radio festival show at Irvine Meadows will get an advance preview of the tour. See Route Book for the announced dates.

■ In an effort to make today's up & coming alternative acts visible on the street level, The Agency Group, in conjunction with various record labels, is presenting THE 3 X 5 TOUR. Each month the tour will have three different bands at a $5 ticket price. For May the tour features Limblifter, Stanford Prison Experiment and Local H. Along with the low ticket price, 300 cassette music samplers will be handed out to fans. In keeping with its "street-wise" theme, the tour purposely avoided corporate sponsorship. The Agency Group's Mark Davis, told POLLSTAR, "You've got a hundred alternative bands and maybe 5 key support slots available. What's the remaining 95 going to do? Play to empty clubs? We're trying to create a new avenue where it's a cool scene, nothing corporate being shoved down the kids throat and the rest of the stuff works itself out." Davis added that, with the exception of three stops, the shows will be for all ages.

■ The first annual X-MUSIC FEST, a Canadian music industry festival will run each day of the 1996 Canadian National Exhibition. There will be afternoon and evening headline concerts plus smaller live shows in adjacent venues. The X-Music Fest, which is being booked by David Bluestein and Brian Stutz also promises celebrity meet-n-greets plus a building showcasing the best of the Canadian Music industry. All concerts and events are included in the CNE admission price.

■ OASIS might have one of the biggest albums yet this year, but the lads' North American tour has been something less than perfect. Five minutes into their set in Vancouver, the band walked off the stage after the audience started pelting them with coins and a shoe. Then the group had to cancel Los Angeles and Phoenix when Noel Gallagher came down with tonsillitis. Though brother Liam is the group's lead singer, Noel does sing on some tracks, including their recent hit, "Don't Look Back In Anger." The band resumed the tour last Thursday in Denver.

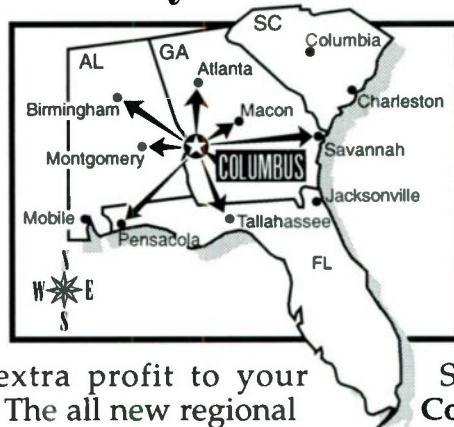

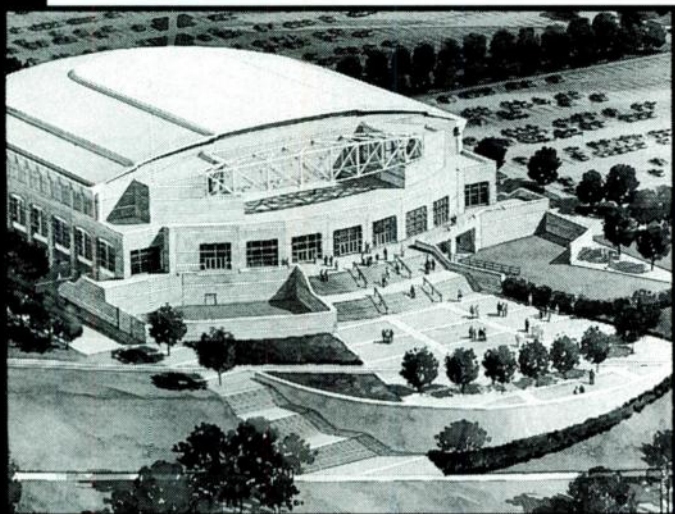

■ Not just a private performance, but a "secret performance" is what TINA TURNER gave to the family of the Sultan of Brunei. Brunei is a tiny oil-rich country carved out of a corner of Indonesia. Turner performed for an audience of 300 last week at a party to celebrate the 19th birthday of the niece of Sultan Hassanal Bokiah, the world's richest man, who rarely lets news of the royal families activities reach the outside world. "We have actually signed a form saying we haven't seen a thing," Turner's sound engineer Rory Madden said. "We haven't seen anything except decadence beyond belief. There were gold doors, gold everything and 10,000 roses flown in from London for the party."

■ Father of bluegrass music, BILL MONROE remains hospitalized. Monroe had been a patient at Nashville's Baptist hospital for the last four weeks, and was recently moved to a private hospital. According to Tony Conway of Buddy Lee Attractions, the country legend is undergoing test for circulatory ailments. His condition is reported as satisfactory.

Howdy and thanks to Cash from A-1 AUDIO for pointing out that K.D. LANG does indeed have a Meyer's Sound System but it is being provided by A-1 Audio. Mea culpa, bud. Hey, could you ask Mr. McAree why k.d. doesn't consider herself a proper noun? We grammarians want to know.

While we are passing out mea culpas, Atlanta wants you to know that David Butler is double duting for COLLECTIVE SOUL as lighting designer and tour manager. So, David, does that mean you have to wear two laminates?

LD Steve Kretzer is designing Prime Time Country for VARI*Lite NASHVILLE with 26 VL5s and 22 VL6s. Three Good Men in the rapidly growing Nashville office tell us that Han Henze is the LD/operator for Wynonna with an extensive Vari*lite system.

Lighting deity PETER MORSE has equipment from The Obie Company on MELISSA ETHERIDGE who is currently on break but is planning on starting back up next month for a six month leg. Steven Girmant is handling the lighting direction with Tech's Rob Smith and crew chief Don Jacobelly. Peter Morse is also designing MICHAEL BOLTON with direction by Bruce Spillman. Busy, busy, busy.

Gary Benner is the front-of-house sound man for TRACY BYRD for MD Systems of Nashville and is also two-hatting it as the production manager. MD Systems also has sound equipment out with Trisha Yearwood and Pam Tillis with audio engineers John Caswell and Alan Haege respectively.

Eric Todd over at BML has equipment out on the ALLMAN BROTHERS BAND for spring/summer tour with LD Earl Francis and crew chief David Oakes.

R. KELLY's "Top Secret Tour" is out with sound provided by Maryland Sound with FOH Tim Colvard and backed up by Roy Simmons (crew chief), Ishai Ratz, Carlton Brown and Shari Rachlin. R.A. Roth is providing the conventional lighting with lighting design by Justin Collie and direction by Tony Thompson. Light and Sound Design is providing the Icons with Tom Thompson and Chris Lodhem as support. Production managers are Alan Thompson and Mike "Huggy" Carter with production assistant Debra "Don't call me Debbie" Putnam. Backline crew include Lance "KC" Jackson, Ramone Huggins, Jim Burton and Chuck Bithorn — oh heck, while we're at it — June Brown, Brian Allan and June Ambrose are doing wardrobe, Dwight "Popcorn" Miller is stage manager and Bobby Carrell, Curtis Battles, Kevin Spinks, Lenny Guice, Robbie Alvarez, Dino Johnson and Gerald McDougald and among the touring personnel. Now let's see, what's left? Oh yeah, R. Kelly is ...err... doing vocals.

Our favorite Swede, Eva Strom of PLATINUM TRAVEL in London, was in the office late on Easter Sunday booking rooms for the Rod Stewart tour. It just goes to show you that there is no such thing as weekends or holidays in this biz ... or overtime for that matter.

BRITANNIA ROW PRODUCTIONS have purchased a 112-cabinet Turbosound Flashlight system from Dallas-based video company Intelecon. This equipment will add another arena system to their inventory based in upstate New York, and is currently used with Oasis on the American leg of their tour.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: You know you've been on the road too long when you come home and refer to the kitchen as "catering."

rock fan's diary. HARD POP DAYS '96 is the first of what Blue Star's Carlos Fleischmann hopes will become an annual event. Bad Religion will headline the one-day rockfest, which will be the band's only festival appearance in Northern Germany. There will be a strong supporting cast of German rock bands, including the Fantastischen 4 and Such a Surge. Other international acts include Biohazard, The Flaming Lips and Millencolin (from Scandinavia). The site is centrally located in Bremen and will have a maximum capacity of 25,000, but Fleischmann is hoping for sales of 20,000 for the first year.

Australian News Report

GIL SCOTT-HERON, the 47-year-old singer and poet, was fined $3,750 in Brisbane just before Easter for importing cocaine and not declaring $12,000 in cash. Scott-Heron was arrested by Federal Police after arriving in Australia from London. His luggage contained four grams of cocaine, and he pleaded guilty to importing a prohibited substance, failing to declare the cash and possessing a marijuana pipe. His barrister said carrying the contraband was a stupid act done unthinkingly because his client was run down by diabetes and scoliosis (a curvature of the spine).

The big touring success of April has been BEN HARPER. Hardly a household name, (Virgin didn't even release his debut album locally) he's been selling out clubs around the country, averaging 1,000 people a night, and prompting the promoter to add extra shows wherever possible.

Promoter Paul Dainty hasn't sent out an official press release yet but sales for K.D. LANG's first performance tour of Australia have gone crazy. In less than half an hour, three Opera House gigs in Sydney on June 7-9 were sold out, forcing the addition of three more shows at the State Theatre (June 27-29) with all those selling out as well. Demand for Melbourne dates at the Palais Theatre is expected to match that in Sydney. In Perth, dates at the Concert Hall June 16-18 have all sold out, the same as in Brisbane with June 24-25 dates at the Lyric Theatre sold out. Lang's All You Can Eat album is almost double platinum in this country.

Roadshow Music have announced that the "UK's hottest and freshest pop-star duo," PJ AND DUNCAN, have been confirmed for a promotional tour of Australia and New Zealand in July.

Warner Music/East East have announced that duo THE EARTHMEN have been selected as national supports for ALANIS MORISSETTE's tour which begins in Perth on April 25. The band's current single, "Scene Stealer," is getting extensive airplay on Triple J. Following the Morissette tour The Earthmen will headline their own national tour with Rail and Automatic.

Word is that the CHARLIE DANIELS BAND will tour Australia in November.

Frontier Touring announced on April 15 that they were putting a "very limited" number of general admission tickets on sale for both RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS' Sydney concerts on May 14-15. Previous tickets at the Entertainment Centre for these shows sold out within an hour.

Roadshow Music act BELLYDANCE have been announced as the support act for JAMES BROWN's Sydney concert at the Entertainment Centre on April 27.

The latest rumours of a BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN tour of Australia are that The Boss won't be here until at least September. Meanwhile "60 Minutes" in Australia screened the American program's Springsteen interview on April 14.

On the eve of the release of METALLICA's 6 album, James Hatfield and Kirk Hammett will be in Australia for a promotional tour starting May 21 which will take in Sydney and Melbourne.

Hot rumour of the moment is that the PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA will be touring Australia mid-year.

ACE OF BASE arrived in Australia on April 16 for a promo tour of Sydney and Melbourne. Mercury Records have confirmed a LIONEL RICHIE promo tour of Sydney and Melbourne starting on May 4. Also strongly tipped for a promo tour before too long is JOAN OSBORNE.
