Hawaiian Boxoffice Dispute Leads To Lawsuit

The Commodores are suing promoter Ken Rosene of SRO Entertainment and the Hawaii Theatre in Honolulu claiming the group didn't get its share of ticket sales from a June 26th concert. The Commodores say they are owed $12,794 and are accusing Rosene of making unauthorized expense deductions from the proceeds. The suit also states the theatre broke its contract by releasing a portion of the proceeds to Rosene and SRO before the dispute was resolved. Rosene told POLLSTAR that when the concert ended, there was a dispute over the interpretation of the original agreement. He said, "We didn't want them to walk away with no money so we said, 'Let's settle for tonight on what I have and get you guys some money and then we can discuss the other later.'" But Rosene said the group was adamant about doing things its way and he disagreed. "The hall is basically holding the money that The Commodores think is theirs," Rosene said. "So the money isn't in my pocket. It's in limbo and the courts will decide whose money it is."

Promoters KISS'n'Make-up

The summer's hottest tour has yet to be determined, but one thing is for sure — some of the most amusing stuff is going on behind the scenes with the promoters. It all started when manager Doc McGee decided that this summer's KISS tour should be fun for all. Charrie Foglio from McGee Entertainment said that, per Doc's request, all promoters doing a KISS date must dress up like a character from the band. What has transpired can only be described as hysterical. Contemporary Productions' Irv Zuckerman told POLLSTAR that when he got the rider, he thought it would be fun to do so he eagerly went along with it. "It's probably something I would have done anyway," Zuckerman said, laughing at the thought. "And I had a million screaming fans wanting me to give them autographs. It was great. I realize now what it is like to be the star. In fact, I'm thinking about dressing up like every entertainer we do now. I mean, if this can work for me this way ... I may even give up this career and just go into trying to look like the act on stage. This is it! I'm kind of over the top about it now." Zuckerman said things really heated up when he went to the hotel with the band after the concert, still in full Paul Stanley regalia. "When I got to the hotel, people thought I was him for sure. The only problem was,

I needed higher heels. I needed about a foot higher heels in order to make it work. But, you know, what can I do?" In addition to full-face make-up, Zuckerman wore a collar with spikes, a leather bracelet and a leather vest exposing his hairy chest. "I felt I was in the ballpark," he said. Zuckerman dressed for the July 2nd show at the Kiel Center in St. Louis and Contemporary's Chris Fritz dressed as Gene Simmons for the July 3rd show at Kemper Arena in Kansas City. Zuckerman and Scott Gelman of Jam Productions said the exact same thing when asked if they had fun: "It was a hoot." And Paul Stanley is obviously the most popular KISS character. Jam's Jerry Mickelson and Bob Kelley from Mid-South Concerts both dressed up as the star-eyed rocker. Kelley said the one thing that surprised him about his transformation to Stanley was how long it took — nearly two hours. Randy Levy of Rose Presents also donned the Stanley look for the July 13th show at the St. Paul Civic Center. "It was a complete and total riot," Levy said. "I actually spent a half-hour in the audience and got a bunch of photos with all the other kids that dressed." He said his costume got written up by the music critic as a follow up to the show review. "It was absolutely the most fun imaginable and because I've known the guys in the band as long as I have, I went into their dressing room ... and I just had them on the floor because my outfit was so completely ridiculous." He said his wife found a pair of great boots to complement a pair of sheer red, white and black bellbottom pants his mother-in-law had given him about a year ago. Levy said he wore red suspenders with a black leather vest and used a Magic Marker to paint in chest and stomach hairs so he had "Paul's look." He said, "And I'm very tall, so the whole thing looked so completely absurd that I just couldn't stop laughing.... I said to the [band] ... 'I haven't met this many girls in years.'" So it seems Doc McGee's desire to make this tour fun for both the audience and the people behind the scenes is working. McGee said that's what the music industry is supposed to be about. And, no doubt, it's especially fun for all when KISS is doing such great business.

Nittany Lions Devour Eagles Tix

The Bryce Jordan Center at Penn State presents an award to its industry pals who brought The Eagles to the facility June 20th. The sold-out concert set records for attendance, gross and ticket sales. (L-R) Terry Bassett Inc.'s Paul Gongaware and Terry Bassett, Bryce Jordan GM Bob Howard, Bob Horvath of Eagles Touring and Electric Factory's Larry Magid and Neil Jacobsen.

The Palm Springs Pyramid

Nine community leaders in Palm Springs, Calif. — including the former executive director of the McCallum Theatre — were indicted June 27th for participating in an illegal $1 million pyramid scheme. Nancy Dolensek, McCallum's former executive director, was one of approximately 1,000 people involved in enticing people to pay money into an endless chain with the hopes of collecting large paybacks from others who would follow suit, according to the Los Angeles Times. The president of the theatre's board of trustees, Toni Graphos, told POLLSTAR Dolensek and two other McCallum Theatre employees were targeted in the DA's investigation. Only Dolensek and the theatre's former controller, Vickie Brown, were charged but all three resigned; Nancy Trapnell, director of development, resigned May 8th, Brown resigned June 18th and Dolensek resigned June 20th. Charles Gioia, who has been director of operations for nine years, replaced Dolensek as acting director. The specific roles of the nine suspects are unclear but the head of the fraud division of the Riverside County DA's office said the prominent community leaders used their positions of influence to draw friends and underlings into the scheme. The local college president, a school district superintendent, a retired judge, a television actor, a retired police captain and a school board trustee were among the impressive cast promoting the alleged illegal pyramid scheme.

Judge Blasts Snoop Dogg Prosecutors

Snoop Doggy Dogg's gun possession trial has been delayed until August 22nd, and that didn't make the judge very happy. When Snoop appeared for a hearing at the L.A. County Courthouse July 11th, Judge Paul Flynn blasted the district attorney's office for holding up the trial with continuances. According to news service reports, both the prosecution and the defense said they needed more time because lead attorneys were not available. The rapper was acquitted in February of murder charges, but the DA chose to go ahead with two previous charges against Snoop for being an ex-felon in possession of a gun. Snoop attorney Glen Shubb said the current charges involve a gun which was in a vehicle occupied by several people, including his client. Shubb said a misdemeanor possession charge has been combined with a similar felony charge. "This thing is ridiculous," Judge Flynn said. "Mr. Broadus [Snoop] has gone through a lengthy trial and the jury spoke. Two counts were joined in the original indictment, which should have never happened. It was clearly an attempt by the prosecution to jam the defendant."

The New World Chart

SoundScan has expanded its recorded music tracking system into Japan, making the international music world a little smaller. SoundScan's first week on line in Japan revealed that native artist Nanase Aikawa's album Red moved 415,000 units compared to the It Was Written album by Nas, which was the best seller in the U.S. at 146,000 units. The SoundScan data from Japan showed that Japanese artists had four of the top 10 albums in the world during the second week of July. SoundScan CEO Mike Fine said the new data is important to Japan because Japanese music execs

When Dishwalla frontman J.R. Richards speaks about his band and its current venture into mainstream popular music, words like "cool" and "weird" dominate his vocabulary. A&M was a cool choice for a label. It was cool that A&M was willing to commit quickly. Spending a lot of time on the road is cool because it helps a young band tighten-up. Selling a lot of records in Europe is cool. Being compared to Journey is cool. The arrangement with manager David Young of Bliss Artist Management is cool. The variety of artistic options when making a video is cool. Lipsyncing, however, is weird.

Richards said touring as a headliner before anyone knew who Dishwalla was was weird. Being homesick but wanting to stay on the road at the same time is weird. Creating a message for your audience is weird. And meeting a promoter who mistreats a band is weird.

In the beginning, the members of Dishwalla — Richards, Scot Alexander (bass), Rodney Browning (guitar), and George Pendergast (drums) — met in Santa Barbara, Calif. The band took some time to get their shit together, as Richards puts it, and then ventured down to Los Angeles for a couple of gigs. The band's shows were soon full of A&R types and a record deal, manager and agent weren't far behind.

Richards told POLLSTAR a lot of label reps would beat around the bush when it came to an actual commitment with the band but when A&M's Mark Mazzetti saw the group, there was no wavering on his part. "No messing around about it," Mazzetti told Dishwalla. "I want you guys. Here's a contract. Sign." The band had checked out a few different labels on both coasts, but A&M seemed like the cool choice because the whole attitude at the label is "really mellow and kinda laid back," Richards said.

Dishwalla met William Morris agent David Levine in a similarly straightforward way. Levine started coming to the shows and simply told the band, "You guys rock. I want to be your agent." Richards said the band members didn't really know how to respond, but they agreed to try him out. After landing the band on the Better Than Ezra tour — before the debut Dishwalla album was even released — the band members knew Levine would do right by them. "We lucked out," Richards said. "He just got people interested in us based on what they thought of the album and how we sounded, and not really, like, how we were doing at the stores."

Hailing from the northern edge of the Southern California coast, Richards and crew maintain their beach-town cool and do not stress over the complications that are coming with the band's growing success. You won't find surfer riffs or beach lingo on the band's debut, Pet Your Friends, but when it comes to attitude, Richards definitely shows his California-casual colors.

He doesn't let it bug him that Sassy magazine issued a "cute band alert" when Dishwalla debuted. And Richards doesn't mind when critics try to insult the band by invoking the name of Journey. "We just got reviewed the other night and this guy who just hated us compared us to Journey," Richards said. "He said we were the Journey of the '90s. I was like, 'That's cool. I like Journey. Whatever, dude.'" Richards went on to defend his position. "Journey sold millions of albums. They're unbelievable live and they're incredible musicians." Richards didn't get the dis. He believes whatever is cool to a person's ear is the right way to do it.

The band likes to be cool with promoters, too. Richards said, "We're the type of band that's totally laid back. We try to make it very comfortable for the venue when we cruise in. Especially because we bring in a lot of extra weird stuff too, which can freak some people out. So we just try to go, 'Hey, it's actually going to make the night really easy, so no stress.'" But occasionally Richards' stress-free attitude isn't matched by the promoter's. "Overall [the band is treated] really really well. You meet an occasional total prick sometimes but, that just goes with anything. It's just weird.... There's occasional times where I trip out that somebody asks you to come play at their club but then they end up being total assholes to you." Dishwalla tries to make it as easy as possible for promoters. But Richards doesn't forget the importance of fans to the band. "I'm totally totally into the show and I don't think it can really go off well unless you have harmony within all those things."

One thing that does concern Richards is an issue many bands face today — burnout from market saturation. Before the band's first single, "Counting Blue Cars," had even hit the charts, critics were saying the song had the potential of being played over and over again at radio and on MTV. Add to that the fact that the song is played on alternative, adult alternative and rock stations, and saturation is a viable concern. Richards looks back to Santa Barbara as an example of how easily the public can get sick of a band. "When I talk to my friends ... they're like, 'It was so cool for a while, when your song would come on the radio, everybody would say, 'turn it up.' But now, I've heard it so much that I'm sick of it and I'm trying to tune into another channel and you guys are on the other station being played at the same time.'"

Richards said, "That kind of freaks me out because you don't have much control over it. It's a bittersweet thing because it's great that they're that into it and they want to play it that much, but at the same time, you get worried that you're just going to start becoming one of those bands that's bumming everybody out because you're so over saturated."

Not being able to control how often your song is played doesn't sit well with Richards because he likes to keep his hands firmly on the steering wheel of Dishwalla. The band members have complete veto power over decision-making pertaining to Dishwalla, whether it be with the label, their agent or their manager. Richards said, "[They] have some strong opinions ... and usually they're pretty right on, so we definitely take those into account. But we pretty much choose where we want to go.... That's the cool thing about being in this band. We can do whatever we want." ★ now have a clearer picture of where indigenous artists stand in the global marketplace. The U.S. music industry benefits as well because the data gives a better picture of the competition week by week. Japan is just the latest stop for SoundScan. Its music retail sales tracking system is set to start up in Canada this fall and Fine told POLLSTAR the company is working on other parts of the world. "We hope to be up and running in parts of Asia and Europe in 1997," he said. As different countries start using SoundScan technology, their data will be incorporated into SoundScan's new international chart. "Right now, that chart consists of data from the U.S. and Japan," Fine said. "Canada will be added in a few months, and the chart will grow to encompass other countries as they come online." As more data becomes available, a definitive picture of the global music scene will emerge. This should also lead to more intelligent booking of international tours.

The Mighty Angel Of Anaheim

The Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim was thrilled to kick off its summer season with three sold-out shows by Garth Brooks. The country star tipped his Stetson to more than 54,000 fans June 22-24. Brooks is seen here collecting team jerseys from the Pond's John Nicoletti (L) and Tim Ryan.

Death, Drugs & Dismissal

Smashing Pumpkins backup keyboard player Jonathan Melvoin, 34, was found dead July 12th of an apparent heroin overdose at the Regency Hotel in New York City. After shooting drugs together the night before, both the band's drummer, Jimmy Chamberlin, and Melvoin passed out at about 3:30 a.m. in the room they were sharing, police said. When Chamberlin woke, he couldn't rouse Melvoin. When the paramedics arrived, Melvoin was pronounced dead. Chamberlin was arrested, charged with possession of heroin and then a few days later, he was kicked out of the band. "Today we are sorry to tell our friends and fans that we have decided to sever our relationship with our friend and drummer Jimmy Chamberlin," the band said in a statement issued July 17th. "For nine years, we have battled with Jimmy's struggles with the insidious disease of drug and alcohol addiction. It has nearly destroyed everything we are and stand for." The band said it plans to seek an immediate replacement and finish the tour that started earlier this year. Chamberlin was ordered to appear in court August 13th. The Smashing Pumpkins postponed all of its dates in July but the August 17-23 run on the West Coast remained on the books as of press time. Melvoin's death and Chamberlin's arrest added more fuel to the fire about the increasing use of heroin in the music business. An aggressive campaign led by NARAS has been looking at possible ways to combat the recent wave of drug-related casualties. Ironically, Melvoin's father, jazz musician and arranger Michael Melvoin, was once head of NARAS. Melvoin's sister, Wendy Melvoin, is best known for the time she spent as a member of Prince's band, The Revolution, and her own project, Wendy & Lisa. Melvoin had drummed for The Dickies, and The Family, which was a Prince side project. Before he started the tour with the band, Melvoin, who was also a certified emergency medical technician, told a high school newspaper reporter that "the Pumpkins are drug free and alcohol free." Melvoin was buried July 15th in Lincoln, New Hampshire.

Fight Night At The Garden

Madison Square Garden is still feeling the heat in the aftermath of the July 11th boxing-match-turned-riot that rocked the arena. Since the riot, the NYPD has taken it upon itself to patrol the arena during public events. Officers were reportedly stationed inside the Garden for the first time last week during the "Quadrophenia" show. Up until now, private Garden security had protected the arena with the NYPD keeping its distance. But Mayor Rudolph Giuliani criticized arena security after the riot, saying guards waited too long to ask for police help. Garden spokesman Chris Weiller told POLLSTAR, "Our security and usher detail was as it is for a sold-out Knicks or Rangers game and certainly at the level it was at in our previous fights which had over 17,000 people. This fight had about 11,000." Weiller said the Garden will continue to host boxing events and is currently looking at the venue's operating procedures to determine if any changes need to be made. The melee at the Garden erupted live on HBO after the boxing match between Riddick Bowe and Polish fighter Andrew Golota. The brawl started when Golota, who was well on his way to an upset victory, was disqualified in the seventh round for repeatedly landing low blows. Bowe laid on the canvas writhing in pain as the referee lifted his hand to signal victory. Then all at once, members of the Bowe camp flooded the ring, Golota was struck on the head several times by a walkie-talkie and fights broke out throughout the building. Chairs were tossed across the venue. A man in a wheelchair got knocked to the ground. Golota's 74-year-old trainer, Lou Duva, was flat on his back with chest pains

THE ALBUM NETWORK HOTTEST SALES NATIONWIDE

EURO NEWSUnited Kingdom

● BRYAN ADAMS' planned open air show at Glasgow's Ibrox Stadium on July 20th has been moved to an indoor venue. This means the capacity drops from one show with a potential of 35,000 to two nights at the SECC with around 8,000 capacity each. The official reason given was that the stadium required alterations, but while the Adams show at Wembley Stadium is selling well, other shows around Europe have reported sales below par. Promoters have attributed this to the lack of a chart-topping record from Adams this summer and a delay in his album release.

● When NELSON MANDELA came to the UK for his historic state visit, the ROYAL ALBERT HALL was the chosen venue for one of his evenings. The RAH team had to keep the show under wraps as long as possible for security reasons. The concert was a collaboration between South African and British musicians, organised by the Prince's Trust in association with HARVEY GOLDSMITH. PHIL COLLINS performed with his big band line-up for the first time in the UK, conducted by QUINCY JONES and featuring TONY BENNETT. Other major artists included HUGH MASEKELA and LADYSMITH BLACK MAMBAZO and with a 5,000 capacity crowd of charity invitees including the Queen and Prince Charles as well as President Mandela, around £30,000 pounds was raised for charity.

● The RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS played a sold-out WEMBLEY ARENA show at the end of this European stint and kept everyone guessing as to whether it was their last ever gig. It certainly looked like it with Anthony Kiedis strapped up with a bad back, Flea in full-fledged naked mode and the whole band trashing the set and giving away guitars at the end of the night. However, the word from agency Fair Warning Wasted Talent is that it might be the last show for a while, as the band needs time out, but they have not announced a split.

● OASIS has confirmed the support line-up for its Knebworth concerts next month, but the full Loch Lomond bill has still to be announced. The bands include the Manic Street Preachers, the Chemical Brothers the Bootleg Beatles, the Charlatans, Cast, Dreadzone and Kula Shaker. Meanwhile, the band has reached a partial settlement in its dispute with former drummer Tony McCarroll. In the agreement so far, McCarroll will receive 80% of a one-fifth share of royalties on the two albums and singles in question. However a court hearing is still in the works and is not due to take place until 1997.

● MCP has announced two shows at Wembley Arena on September 13-14 in aid of the tenth anniversary of the charity Childline. The cast will be a "Top of The Pops" sponsored bill featuring Bjork, Ocean Colour Scene, Cast, Terrorvision, Kula Shaker, and Sleeper, with a teen-pop night featuring Boyzone, 3T, Ant & Dec, Michelle Gayle, Outhere Brothers, Louise and East 17. However, EAST 17's appearance has a question mark over it as the band has had to postpone the planned 8-date tour of UK arenas. The band's press machine has cited health problems and the dates have been put back to December. Some reports suggested that ticket sales were slow, but Wembley Arena sales were at a healthy 7,000 mark and the NEC also reports steady sales.

Germany

● In a very mixed market this summer, one of the hottest new acts in Germany is FAITHLESS, who with their Insomnia record are only being kept off the number one chart spot by the Fugees, says German promoter MICHAEL BISPING at ASS. A British band, Faithless is doing better in Germany than back home. Another ASS act doing the business is JAZZKANTINE, a German jazzmatazz-style project which is currently in a run of 110 dates, including 30 festival performances and 80 shows in venues of 1,000 to 3,000 capacity.

● The IBD agency says that although it's getting harder to book tours for smaller, unknown bands, its role as a Europe-wide booker can help some American bands to avoid the TAX PITFALLS in Germany. "IBD is the contractor and we get all the income as well as the receipts and invoices are addressed to IBD and paid directly by us," says Sabine Waltz. "Since we are German and our receipts are from German companies, we don't have to bother, unless our acts make a hell of a lot of money, which is not often the case! But also, because of the US-German tax treaty, every American can earn $20,000 per year tax free if he can prove that they're paying tax in the US. If we book all of Europe, our bands are lucky - but if we only book bands for Germany, it means our function becomes that of a promoter and the band will have to pay withholding tax." Waltz says a recent tax audit confirmed that they were doing things by the book. Waltz is the manager for Foetus worldwide, and IBD has tours coming up with Bevis Frond, Barkmarket, 7 Year Bitch, James Chance, Dead Moon, and The Pharcyde.

Holland

● The FEDERATION OF DUTCH CLUBS (VNP) has published the first comprehensive, independent survey of the club market in Holland. The most significant factor to emerge from the report was that the dance market continues to gain strength. Most venues still see rock as their core business, with 54 percent of shows catering to this market, while dance events total only 22 percent of shows. However, when it comes to audience patterns, dance vs rock is almost on an even keel. Attendance figures at the clubs surveyed over a year (1994-95) showed that overall, 46 percent came for rock gigs and 44 percent for dance shows. The survey also looked at the financing of clubs, structural problems — many are in converted old buildings and the government is imposing more rules regarding noise levels and modifications — and how to deal with changes in the market. The positive conclusions drawn were that clubs in Holland have a very strong identity as cultural centres — on an equal footing with theatres and museums. They are also widely regarded as being at the forefront of new music and as adapting successfully to changes in trends and audience demographics. However it was also noted that the club circuit is coming under increasing pressure because of the changes at a social and political level. The VNP was started in 1993 and the membership tally is currently 46 which covers virtually the whole club circuit in the country, from small local youth venues, to well-known international clubs such as the Paradiso (where the VNP office is based).

Belgium

● This year's TOURHOUT WERCHTER FESTIVAL (5-7 July) had a good attendance overall, with 200,000 people at the twin-site event. The Werchter site fared the best with a sell-out on the second day at 60,000 and 43,000 on the first day, while at Tourhout, 40,000 attended on the first day and 55,000 on the second. Promoter Herman Schueremans said, "All the acts proved in practice what in theory we thought was a strong festival bill across the board." The bill spanned a range of artists from Therapy?, Underworld, The Prodigy, Neil Young and the Red Hot Chili Peppers. But one of the new breakthroughs were the Fun Lovin Criminals. Schueremans said the Belgian press had been criticising the addition of unknowns, FLC, to the bill, but they were one of the surprise successes of the weekend. The summer doesn't get any less busy for Schueremans, with six sold-out TINA TURNER shows coming up at the Flanders Expo next month - a total of 132,000 tickets sold.

Denmark

● ICO ROCK has a busy end-of-summer schedule with the Stone Roses, Coolio, Backstreet Boys, Barkmarket, Paul Young, Alanna Myles, Ray Charles, James Chance, Fish, Bad Manners, Detrimental and the Deep Blue Something (who have been making an impact in Denmark with recent album sales of 20,000).

Finland

● The oversubscribed festival market in Finland has suffered this summer says promoter RISTO JUVONEN, co-producer of four summer events. PROVINSSIROCK (July 8-9) mustered around 10,000 people each day out of a potential 20,000 capacity — the bill included the Cure, Iggy Pop, Henry Rollins, Ash, and H-Blockx. Meanwhile MESSILA FESTIVAL (June 20-22), where The Sex Pistols started their tour had an attendance of 16,000, half of last year's audience. On the same weekend NUMMIROCK improved on last year's attendance with 12,000 punters (the bill catered to the heavy rock audience, with Deep Purple, Iron Maiden, Helloween and Sepultura). The only festival Juvonen was involved in which sold out — in advance — was the 19th LAKESIDE FESTIVAL (June 29), which had Lynyrd Skynyrd playing Finland for the first time and 15,000 people thought that was a big occasion. Meanwhile, RUISROCK at Turku (June 28-30) drew a mixed audience over three days, ranging from 13,000 for the night as he was hit by an unidentified attacker. It took 30 minutes to restore peace and evacuate the Garden. The melee, described in one report as a "wild, chair-throwing fracas," resulted in 16 arrests and 22 injuries. Three Brooklyn men who were injured during the fighting filed a $4.5 million lawsuit against the arena, Bowe and his manager, Rock Newman. MSG senior VP John Cirillo said, "Our security acted responsibly and we will defend ourselves vigorously against any lawsuits." Bowe's camp is taking most of the blame for the riot and its $5 million paycheck has been impounded until the investigation is completed.

Not A Greek Tragedy

Short Items Of Note

It's quite possible that CountryFest '96 brought together the largest gathering of country music fans in history July 13th at Atlanta Motor Speedway. But unfortunately, the success didn't come without a hitch. Nine videotapes of the show that were to be used for a CBS television special were stolen from a golf cart. "We just know it was some guys who hopped on the golf cart and drove away in it," Warner/Avalon's Suzanne Baugh told POLLSTAR. She said, "We scoured the grounds. We just weren't able to find them anywhere." Apparently, the lost footage wasn't critical to the TV special and it aired as scheduled on July 17th.... Consumers interested in the class action lawsuit against the six major CD manufacturers don't have to go out of their way to join the suit as long as they live in the District of Columbia or one of 14 states mentioned in the lawsuit. The suit, filed in Tennessee, claims the manufacturers have kept CD prices artificially high. A lawyer for one of the plaintiffs said people living in certain states don't have to do anything to participate. Those states are Alabama, California, Florida, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Tennessee, West Virginia and Wisconsin. Consumers must have purchased a CD made by Sony, WEA, UNI, MCA, EMI, PolyGram or BMG since June 26, 1992.... Atlanta-based concert promoter Peter Conlon said he was thrilled when he was asked to run with the Olympic torch. Conlon's one mile run July 13th was turned into a big celebration when a party bus filled with more than two dozen friends and business associates drove three hours to Statesboro, Ga., to cheer Conlon during his participation in the windup to the 1996 Olympic games.... A civic group in South Korea wants to stop Michael Jackson from doing a concert in Seoul despite the fact that the Sports and Culture Minister has given preliminary authorization to Taewon Arts for a concert in October. The protesters plan to hold a signature drive and street demonstrations to force the government to ban MJ due to the allegations of child molestation made against him. In other MJ news, the judge hearing a wrongful termination suit brought by former employees of the superstar said the trial will not be televised or tape-recorded.... Frank Riley of Monterey Peninsula Artists will deliver the keynote address at Gavin's SFO3 conference. Riley's July 26th speech will commence at 10:30 a.m. at the S.F. Press Club.

Deals, Moves & Changes

After seven years together, Billy Ray Cyrus and his manager, Jack McFadden, will end their personal management and booking relationship effective July 24th. There is no word yet on who will handle those chores for Cyrus in the future.... Ogden Entertainment will provide facility management and food and beverage service to the new $127.5 million Old Town Entertainment Center in Temecula, Calif. Zev Buffman's project, scheduled to open for Christmas 1997, will feature a 2,200-seat Opera House, a 1,450-seat Cabaret Theatre, and a 6,000-seat Wild West Arena.... Steve Backer has been named head of marketing at The Enclave. He is based out of the label's New York office and reports to prexy Tom Zutaut. Backer was most recently GM of Giant Records.... Mitchell Krasnow has been named senior VP of A&R at Krasnow Entertainment. Krasnow previously spent 12 years at Elektra.... Who Has The Rights To Sunsplash?

Reggae Sunsplash Inc. has conquered one battle in the fight to get trademark protection for the name and logo of Reggae Sunsplash in the U.S. Festival founder and producer Tony Johnson started Sunsplash in Jamaica in association with his company there, Synergy Productions. "And I invited all the partners to join me in producing the Jamaican event," Johnson told POLLSTAR. "Eventually, we had philosophical differences in terms of where the festival was going and how it was being handled." So Johnson brought Sunsplash to the U.S. in 1985 independent of Synergy and started another company based out of California, Reggae Sunsplash Inc. Now, Synergy, which owns trademark rights in Jamaica, is opposing Johnson's application to register Reggae Sunsplash in America. Recently, the U.S. Department of Commerce Trademark Trial and Appeal Board ruled against Synergy's motion for summary judgment. The Board found that Synergy failed to submit competent evidence to support its motion and that the company's Jamaican trademark registrations give it no trademark rights in the U.S. Now the case goes to court. Johnson, who is still a 25 percent shareholder in Synergy, said the discovery phase of the case is closed and trial dates have been set. He said a final decision regarding the merit of Synergy's opposition should be made by January. In the meantime, the '96 Sunsplash tour is underway in the U.S. and will continue on to Japan, Malaysia and Singapore.

Record Business Shifts & Start-Ups

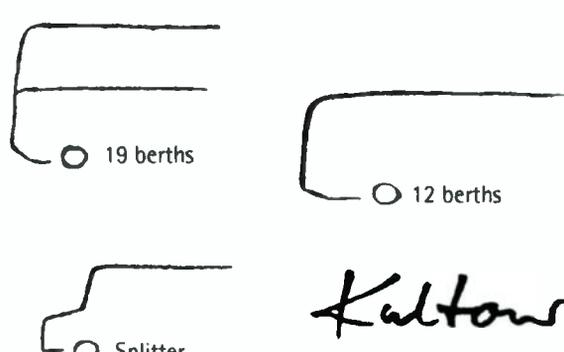

Al Teller, former top exec at MCA Music Entertainment Group, has launched Red Ant Entertainment, a multifaceted music enterprise. Teller and his deep pocketed partner, Wasserstein Perella Entertainment, announced the $100 million venture July 17th. Red Ant will focus on the development of an independent record label. The label will initially build its roster out of alternative and urban contemporary artists and will move into country music in the future. Red Ant also plans to undertake other music-related projects such as publishing, the acquisition of other labels, the creation of a major music enterprise on the World Wide Web and the financing and production of music intensive films. Teller will serve as chairman and CEO of the new venture which will be based in Los Angeles and have an office in New York..... Sony Music Entertainment launched a new division to be headed by David Glew, currently chairman of Epic Records Group. The division, Sony Music Independent Labels, will comprise Sony Music's new and future stand-alone labels, including 550 Music and The WORK Group. The So So Def, Big Cat and Ruffhouse labels will remain with Columbia Records Group and Yab Yum, MJJ Music and Immortal will remain with Epic Records Group. SMIL plans to acquire additional stand-alone labels in the near future..... Pioneer Electronic Corp. of Japan has jumped into the music business with a new record label, Pioneer Music Group, based out of Franklin, Tenn. The move comes 15 months after Pioneer posted a $90 million write-off related to its ill-fated investments in two Hollywood ventures — movie studio Carolco Pictures and home entertainment software distributor Live Entertainment, according to The Wall Street Journal. Charlie Lico has been named president/CEO of the new label. In the early '90s, he was a VP at Liberty Records. Lico has appointed Bernie Leadon as the label's VP of A&R. Leadon was a founding member of the Eagles. Despite the fact that Pioneer Music Group is located only 30 minutes away from Nashville, Lico said the country music genre is a lesser priority than the rock and folk markets. The company plans to release three to four albums in its first year although a distribution deal has not been set.

Obituaries

Styx co-founder and original drummer John Panozzo, 47, was found dead in his Chicago apartment July 16th. His death was attributed to a gastrointestinal hemorrhage. Panozzo reportedly had been suffering cirrhosis of the liver brought on by chronic alcoholism. He was unable to join the band's current tour because of his poor health. The band, which originally broke up in '84, canceled its July 16th concert at the Garden State Arts Center in New Jersey and the July 17th show at Finger Lakes in New York. Styx was expected to resume its tour July 19th in Wisconsin..... Chas Chandler, 57, died July 17th in London. Chandler played bass for the Animals and was the artist manager and producer of The Jimi Hendrix Experience in the late '60s. Chandler later managed the British rock band Slade. Recently, he helped shepherd the development of the 10,000-capacity Newcastle Arena in England. Chandler was believed to have been ill for some months but no details of the cause of death were available..... Dewayne Hamilton, owner and GM of the Little Nashville Opry in Nashville, Ind., died July 13th after a long battle with cancer. Hamilton was one of the original founders of the theatre, which has hosted many of country music's top names since it opened in 1975. Rich Mischell of Mischell Productions told POLLSTAR the club will continue to operate as usual with Hamilton's son, Lincoln, taking over general operations. Mischell will continue to serve as booking agent for the venue as he has done for 16 years..... Lou Gottlieb, 72, died July 11th at a hospital in Sebastapol, Calif. Gottlieb was the bass player with the 1960s folk trio the Limelitters. He later became a counter-cultural icon in Northern California where he founded the Morning Star Ranch, a 61-acre parcel that became a commune until neighbors complained about long-hairs building shacks, digging holes for toilets, growing vegetables and smoking marijuana. Gottlieb revived The Limelitters in 1973 and had performed across the country with the group until earlier this year. His death was apparently caused by internal bleeding resulting from a battle with cancer.

PIEDMONT TALENT: Steve Hecht

For a man awaiting a heart transplant, Johnny "Clyde" Copeland has been busy. His new CD, Jungle Swing, was just released on Polygram/Verve. He recently guested with Hot Tuna on the Further Festival and has appeared on "Good Morning America" and CNN. He does have limited avails. // Corey Harris continues an incredible rookie year. After a few more support dates with Natalie Merchant, he returns to Europe and continues festival dates in the U.S. He tours with B.B. King in the Northeast in November. In between, he begins work on his second Alligator CD. // Rory Block will spend most of September/October overseas and will commence touring again with her knockout band in January. // Maria Muldaur has a new CD out in August on Telarc. A cross country tour is set for October/November. // After a busy summer, Terrance Simien will spend much of the fall working on his next CD. There are select avails through the end of the year. // Joanna Connor's new CD on Blind Pig will be released in October. Tour dates after that are being booked now. // R.L. Burnside's latest CD with Jon Spencer, Ass Pocket Of Whiskey, has garnered incredible reviews. Select dates with his own band and with the Fat Possum Mississippi Juke Joint Caravan are available. // Dates are also available on The Nighthawks, Bob Margolin, James Harman, Little Charlie and the Nightcats, Sugar Blue, Dave Thompson, and Rev. Billy C. Wirtz.

HELLO! BOOKING

Dale Watson will continue his combination truck-stop/honky tonk tour through mid-October. The tour, which began in early June, has been very well received, as has Dale's Hightone release, Blessed Or Damned, currently #4 with a bullet on Gavin's Americana chart. After late August dates with Jimmy Dale Gilmore in New Orleans, Houston, Austin and Dallas, Dale will hit the road again with September avails from the Midwest thru the Northeast. // Mango Jam is proud to announce the release of its third full-length recording and its signing to Shanachie Records. The release date is set for August 20th. Offers are now being taken for the Midwest, Colorado and Northeast. // The Honeydogs, including Golden Smog drummer Noah Levy, will hit the road beginning in September to support their recent October Records release, Everything, I Bet You. A Midwest to Texas and Nashville run will begin in Lincoln, Neb., September 18th, followed by a Northeast run from October 9-19. The band will continue to tour through the rest of the year with general Midwest avails, as well as a West Coast run November 6-16 and a Southeast run December 4-14. // Slim Dunlap has just emerged from the studio with a stellar new release. Expect Medium Cool/Restless to have it on the shelves mid-September with national tour dates to follow. In the meantime, there are general Midwest and college avails for Slim, either solo or with band.

BERKELEY: Connie Laventurier

When it rains it pours — CD releases that is. Jazz vocalist Marlena Shaw and her newly released Concord CD, Dangerous, have been climbing up the Gavin jazz charts the past few weeks. She has never strayed far from her jazz roots and has consistently built a strong following with her individual polished style. Look for a Vibe cover in September and a BET interview to air in the next few weeks. We have openings for Marlena and her quartet in the fall. // Brazilian pianist and vocalist Tania Maria has released a CD on TKM Records, Bluesillian. It's her first release sung entirely in English. Tania has just returned from a very successful European festival tour. We have routed dates for Tania in the South late September and the West/Southwest in mid to late January. // The Persuasions have just released a new Rounder/Bullseye CD, Sincerely and we are looking for fall dates. // Blind Pig artists Gospel Hummingbirds just returned from a successful Canadian festival tour where we understand that one fan broke her leg while dancing; now that's what we call being moved by the spirit. We have avails for routed dates in the Northeast and East in mid-October as well as a Labor Day weekend in the South. // You know, it's never too early to start thinking about your New Year's show. We have avails for all of the above as well as Tito Puente Latin Jazz Ensemble, Eddie Palmieri Octet and Poncho Sanchez Latin Jazz Band. As we like to say here at the Berkeley Agency, "Book early, book often."

GBA: Geoffrey Blumenauer

We are proud to add Les Dudek Band to the roster. Florida-based, this veteran of Steve Miller Band, Boz Scaggs and five solo albums for Columbia is touring as a quartet. Avails are East Coast until a September run on the West Coast. // Walter Wolfman Washington also tours the West Coast in September, his first journey to California in four years. // Iain Matthews plays The Roxy in West Hollywood August 14th and has the weekend open following that. His next record comes out July 23rd. // William Clarke hits the road in mid-September and has avails scattered all over the map until late October. His latest Alligator CD, The Hard Way, hits the stores this month. // Big Brother & The Holding Co., with new vocalist Lisa Battle, is playing a dozen dates in the Midwest and Northeast in August, the band's first tour in this part of the country in many years. // Moby Grape, fresh from its first reunion dates, will continue to do select West Coast dates into the fall with anchors in Santa Cruz August 9th and House of Blues - West Hollywood August 23rd. //

The above two groups are joined by Spirit and Terry Reid for a package we call California Blues Revue. // The Strawberry Alarm Clock has an East Coast anchor August 10th with avails on both sides. Now a five piece with three original members, the band is doing a 30th Anniversary tour. // Brian Auger & Oblivion Express is West Coast-based seeking dates immediately. // Davie Allan & The Arrows and Jon & The Nightriders team up August 17th at L.A.'s Roxy and the package avails are on both sides of this date.

FAST LANE INT'L: George Michailow

Inner Circle of "Bad Boys fame, the legendary Dennis Brown and Nigerian reggae artist Majek Fashek are slated to perform at "Reggae in the Park" October 12-13 at Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. Dennis Brown will follow with a limited avails West Coast tour. // The Itals begin a U.S. tour in mid-October. // Culture, back from Europe to promote its latest release, One Stone, on RAS, resumes its U.S. tour at Irving Plaza in NYC August 17th and has select avails in the Northeast. // Ska band Regatta 69, out of Chapel Hill, N.C., has again been selected for an NACA showcase (Southeast region) with dozens of college dates already on the calendar. // O.J. Ekemode & the Nigerian All Stars bring their dynamic and uplifting afro beat sound to the Worldbeat '96 festival in Champaign, Ill., September 20th and at the Igunnoko Festival in Charlotte, N.C., October 5th with avails around both dates. // Fast Lane is pleased to announce two new additions to our roster of international artists: John King and Cobra. John King, the reggae/soca monarch of Barbados, will embark on a U.S. tour in support of his latest release, Yard Style, on Mesa/Bluemoon. Cobra, China's only all-female rock band, will be at the Womyns Festival in Michigan August 18th and will play select dates through November.

Between The Dates

With the summer season already filled with package tours — "The Furthur Festival," "Lollapalooza," "H.O.R.D.E.," to name a few — how will the latest package to be announced, "THE ENIT FESTIVAL" be different? First, we should emphasize the word, "Festival." In most markets ENIT is being offered as a festival, while in others it's being described as a concert. Founded by Perry Farrell, who was a key creative force behind Lollapalooza, ENIT as a festival may very well be the first tour to offer both a communal meal, and a cocktail hour. The start of every ENIT will feature the passing out of tree seeds to the audience, and where possible, the trees will be planted. In the markets that are hosting ENIT as a festival, the show will start at 4:00 p.m., and run through the night, culminating with an after-hours dance party that will wrap up around 6:00 a.m. the next day. For markets with stricter curfews, ENIT will be presented in its concert form, sans meals and drinks. Of the announced dates, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Holmdel, NJ, and the Great Woods Center in Mansfield, Mass, will hold the festival ENITS. Along with Farrell's Porno For Pyros, other acts include Black Grape, Love And Rockets, Buju Banton, Lady Miss Kier, Meat Beat Manifesto and The Orb.

He's the man who brought the world The Three Tenors, and now Tibor Rudas is presenting the THREE SOPRANOS, featuring Kathleen Costello, Kallen Esperian and Cynthia Lawrence. The event will take place amid the highrises in L.A. on September 5th. The 3,000-capacity site is a grassy area between the Century Plaza Hotel and the Century Plaza Towers, which most music industry insiders will remember as the home of the Concert Industry Consortium for the past two years. The performances will be recorded by Atlantic Records, and will be videotaped for a December airing on PBS as part of the network's national pledge drive. While tickets for the Three Tenors have ranged as high as $1,000, the Three Sopranos are priced at a modest $25, $50 and $100 per ticket.

It's FARM AID time again. This year's farmer benefit will take place October 12th at the University Of South Carolina's 80,000 seat Williams Rice Stadium. Hootie & The Blowfish played last year's Farm Aid show in Louisville and will act as hometown hosts for this year's event. Also joining Farm Aid founders Willie Nelson, John Mellencamp and Neil Young on the bill are the Beach Boys, Jewel, John Conlee, and Martina McBride.

Come October, Rhinestone Cowboy GLEN CAMPBELL is pulling up stakes and leaving Branson, Missouri and the theatre that bears his name for the wide open spaces of Arizona. Campbell, who has played in Branson for the past three years, said he wants to spend more time with his family in Phoenix and Flagstaff and is also threatening to take his show on the road next year too.

Last week, the King Of Pop met a prince and a sultan. The richest man in the known universe, the Sultan of Brunei, celebrated his 50th birthday last week by reportedly spending $15 million to bring in MICHAEL JACKSON to inaugurate the opening of the 30,000 Jerudong Amphitheatre. As a gift to his people, the Sultan hired MJ to give three free concerts at southeast Asia's latest shed which is located in the Jerudong amusement park. The theme, which is the largest amusement park in southeast Asia, never charges admission. Also in town for the Sultan's birthday festivities was Prince Charles. The Prince of Wales joined the Sultan for tea and polo while the royal divorce proceedings between Charles and Diana were just getting underway in England. The Sultan is estimated to be worth about $37 billion. However, it is difficult to separate the Sultan's personal wealth from that of the state of Brunei, where he holds the titles of defense minister, prime minister and absolute ruler. Brunei is located on the island of Borneo and its residents pay no income or sales taxes. Gasoline prices are subsidized, and low-interest loans are available for houses, cars and television.

Homegrown talent showcased at this year's Alaska State Fair won't include JEWEL, who started her career as a yodeling 6-year-and Jackson Browne pulled 22,000. Juvonen is philosophical about the losses, saying that the competition was tough and that with five festivals within six weeks, someone had to lose out. However, he is looking forward to Tina Turner's show on August 7, which was five tickets off being a total sell-out at 50,000.

Spain

o The first DR MUSIC FESTIVAL (July 12-14) was a huge success, exceeding promoter NEO SALA's expectations, with attendances of 27,000 over the weekend. "Our initial forecast was for 18,000 people," said Sala. Although there were a couple of tales of some acts finding the journey time a little tight (the site was around four hours from Barcelona), most were rewarded with a spectacular festival setting in the Pyrenees mountains. Highlights were Patti Smith (with a low-profile Michael Stipe hanging out), David Bowie, Lou Reed and Sepultura. The festival looks set to become a regular event, with plans to increase capacity to about 30,000 next year.

France

o Organisers of LES EUROCKEENNES FESTIVAL (July 5-7) are faced with the difficult task of restoring the picturesque peninsula site to its former glory after 85,000 people and some bad summer weather turned the weekend into a bit of a mudbath. It's an added cost for the organisers which could further the argument for moving sites. Although attendance was slightly down on last year, an increasing number of festival-goers had travelled from other countries in Europe, reflecting a growing trend for international festival trips. Thirty-six bands appeared on three stages over the weekend and yet again, the talent breakthrough was the Fun Lovin Criminals. Word is that a rep from the US office of EMI was at the Eurockeenes to check out the reaction to the Criminals as they're selling more records in Europe than back home.

Poland

o Andrzej Marzec Concerts ended the third SOPOT ROCK FESTIVAL (July 3-5) on a high note after three days of gigs attended by around 19,000 people. The bill featured a strong line-up of local bands with one international headline each night: The Foo Fighters (who started their summer tour of Europe at Sopot), Joe Satriani, and H-Blockx, who drew an 8,000-strong crowd, the biggest attendance of the three days. Promoter Jem Linsey says the festival has been building steadily since it was first established in 1994. The maximum capacity of the site, which is the dramatic setting of the pier on the Baltic Sea at Sopot, is 10,000. The key to the success of the event, according to Linsey is the strong line up of Polish bands. "These days, some local bands are outselling international acts in Poland," he told POLLSTAR. "Bands like the Acid Drinkers and Voovoo went down like a storm at the festival." Also crucial says Linsey, is the support of event sponsors Marlboro Music, which helps to keep the ticket price down.

Greece

o The first ROCK OF GODS FESTIVAL (July 12-14), had a successful debut, according to promoters ANOSI. Around 10,000 attended each of the three nights, which more than satisfied their expectations and confounded critics who had questioned the need for another festival only a week after Half Note's Rockin Athens weekend. The Rock of Gods audience was a completely different market and the highlight of the weekend, according to Manolis Kilismanis at Anosi, was Iggy Pop, who played for two energetic hours, despite bleeding profusely from a head injury after he hit himself with a microphone. Other performances which made the weekend were Moby, Bad Religion and Slayer. One casualty was the Foo Fighters who had to cancel due to Dave Grohl cracking a rib at T in the Park earlier that same weekend. Anosi heard only 6 hours before the show and managed to get an announcement out on the local radio stations, but only a handful of people asked for refunds. With the site having a flexible capacity of 15,000 to 50,000, Anosi hopes to see the event grow and will start work on next year's festival in September, when the Greek concert market reopens for business.

○ With the Opening Ceremonies of the Olympics in Atlanta last week our favorite Georgia Peach, RA, of RA Roth wishes he had the forethought to go into portable air-conditioning, fencing and tents. If you wonder why, the average comfort range temperature for the month of July in Atlanta is 102 degrees. Just makes you want to run a 25 mile marathon doesn't it? Last chance to submit who's doing what for the Olympics. If we haven't heard from you we're going to just assume that Light and Sound's handling everything including fences and tenting, catering, concessions, baby-sitting....

○ Bruce Springsteen and Wynonna will be gearing up to hit the road at the end of the summer (not together, of course) with Audio Analysts handling sound. Take a close look at those beams emanating from the alien space craft in this summer's blockbuster movie, "Independence Day." Chief lighting tech Neil Holcomb spec'ed eight Cyberlights after attending a demo at High End Systems. High End is also providing equipment for a documentary on the history of Abbey Road Studios in London.

○ Tom Littrel tells us about some musical chairs at Vari*lite and Showco with the recent departure of Tom Loving, former vice president of operations for Vari-lite. Clay Powers, former president of Showco has been reassigned as vice president of manufacturing operations for Vari-lite but will remain a director of Showco. Richard Bratcher, who has served as vice president and general manager of Showco will take over as president of Showco and will join the board of directors there. Rusty Brutsch, CEO of VLI, states, "I take great pride in the fact that long-term employees have come through the company ranks to assume these management positions...." Hey guys, hold out for more swag with your new contracts. We especially like the tropical print baseball caps. Additionally, Vari*lite has merged onto the information highway with a world wide vari*website at <http://www.vari-lite.com> for product information, specs, news releases and a current listing of Vari*lite Series 300 dealers.

○ Cinema Services of Las Vegas is the vendor for the H.O.R.D.E. Festival which is the first official tour for the "out on bail" High End Studio Color luminaire. Production manager / LD Paul Morrill has spec'ed 13 Studio Color Units as well as 34 Cyberlights and 14 Dataflash AF1000 strobes. Nice gig for High End Systems. Maybe you should all take a break over at your offices in Port Isabel. What? You have no offices in Port Isabel? Double check for us please, Debi, maybe you have a hacker using an illicit address doing research on High Tech Mega*Lighting Companies there. Either that or it had to do with an incorrect zipcode and some fancy computer program that matches cities and zips. Anyway, our apologies for the incorrect listing in the recent Concert Support Services Directory. High End is still in Austin, Texas 78758. Their phone and fax numbers are correct as listed.

○ And while we're in clean-up mode, there were two other corrections for the Concert Support Services Directory. In the Travel section, Buford Productions & Travel had an incorrect phone number listed for Debra Willard. She can be reached at the same number as owner Suzanne Lukas which is 818-509-7773..... In the Equipment Rental section, please note that S.S.T.'s office is located in Weehawken, NJ and not Union City. The zip and all else was correct..... Well the CSS Directory was 136 pages and filled with thousands of listings. Perhaps we should be thankful that we only needed to do three Hail Marys for absolution.

○ Quote of the Week: Road warrior words that will return to haunt you no matter how well-intentioned: "I can get you tickets!" Our dentist still isn't speaking to us after we sent him down to an Ozzy Osbourne concert twice... and Ozzy canceled both times. Would you submit to a root canal after that?

Dolly,
 On to Toronto!!... the MCA guys made the border crossing so easy... I slept through it! The Molson Amphitheatre is on a
 "f---in" island!! It's amazing... we went out fishing on Lake Ontario... caught 2 salmon and sailed right to the backstage dock 15 minutes before we went on. The catering was the best on our tour so far... and the Molson Canadian beer was ice cold. No wonder Molson Amphitheatre was voted best new amphitheatre. Broke a string during the encore but 16,000 crazy kids watching the cube video screens didn't even notice... had a great show! Everybody's playing Molson
 Amphitheatre... Buffett, Sting, Alan Jackson,
 The Eagles, Cranberries... and they're working dates
 for us in Calgary and Vancouver... nice people.
 That's all for now... one more Molson and zzzz
 Love, Mick P.S. See you in Atlanta...
 we play Lakewood on Tuesday!!
