Red 7 breaking out with MCA debut

MCA recording act Red 7 are on release with their self-titled debut LP. The San Francisco-based trio's record was produced primarily by Genesis bassist Mike Rutherford at the Fisher Lane Farm studio in Surrey, England. Relentless has been taken as the first single. The band consists of Gene Stashuk (lead vocals, guitar), Michael Becker (keyboards, background vocals), and Paul Revelli (drums, background vocals). The Red 7 LP is climbing the RPM 100 after 4 weeks of charting.

"The colour red is invincible. It is the colour not only of blood — it is the colour of creation. It is the only life giving colour in nature, filling the sprouting plant with life and giving warmth to everything in creation." — Frank Lloyd Wright.

Red 7 lyricist/vocalist Gene Stashuk has said that Frank Lloyd Wright's quote "signifies something about this band." Whatever that something may be, Red 7 have produced a worthy debut; a veiled homage to Genesis and other '80s progressive-pop acts.

It was Red 7's association with Marty Cohn and Relentless Management that secured their involvement with Mike Rutherford. Cohn decided, on hearing the band's demo, that it was worth determining if either Rutherford or Phil Collins — on tour in Oakland, Calif. with Genesis — would be interested in producing an LP.

"In fact, we had a number of people interested in doing the record," Gene Stashuk told RPM recently over the telephone from San Francisco. "Rupert Hine was a possibility, as was Steve Lillywhite, but for various reasons it wouldn't work out. Mike (Rutherford) listened to our demo, and even stayed an extra day in California. He arranged for us to record in Surrey (where the Genesis studio is located) over in England, which turned out well. He understood what we were trying to do."

A bonus for Red 7 was the addition of engineer/producer David Tickle to the team. Tickle, noted for his work with Peter Gabriel, recently produced Gowan's second Columbia LP.

The debut album's tracks are Relentless, Heartbeat, No Sorry, Less Than Perfect, The Way, This Dark Hour, Questions And Answers, Let Me Use You, Shades Of Grey, and Can't Much Anymore — with Rutherford playing bass on No Sorry, Can't Much Anymore, Less Than Perfect, and Heartbeat.

Thankfully, Rutherford's touch on the LP is even-handed; very little bombast and arrangements that highlight the various members' talents without becoming indulgent. Stashuk's lyrics, while frustratingly cryptic at times, generally show deft insight into the emotions and traumas that plague the people in his songs.

Stashuk is asked about the state of American pop music, specifically the 'country-rock' revival centered in Los Angeles. "I think that it's basically a trend, sort of like the 'flavour of the month' syndrome in England," Stashuk says. "I'm skeptical about America . . . it seems to be getting more trendy. In the long run, it's whether or not a band has good material. The same for this 'jazz' revival in England, if I'm going to listen to jazz I'll listen to someone like Dinah Washington — someone who can sing."

Red 7 recently returned from England where they spent time filming a video for the Heartbeat track. A video is imminent for Relentless. MCA serviced a 12" AOR sampler containing 4 tracks — Relentless, Heartbeat, The Way, and No Sorry — and appear to anticipate platinum sales on the LP in Canada. According to Stashuk, a March tour is a possibility for Canada, although nothing has been firmed at press time.

"It's honest," he says, in reference to the LP. "We're not trying to imitate anyone in particular, however we'd like to think that the band can be identified with San Francisco — that means a lot to us."

Don Gehman, who produced American Fool and Uh-Huh for John Cougar Mellencamp, co-produced 2 tracks. MCA reports that they have more than sold through on their initial retail shipments. The LP contains an inner sleeve with libretto. - KCW

Clapton tour includes Canadian dates

British blues guitar legend Eric Clapton will be playing several dates in Canada on his upcoming North American tour which kicks off in Dallas, Texas (Apr. 9).

Clapton will be touring in support of his new LP, Behind The Sun, released by WEA. The LP contains cuts produced by Phil Collins, who is about to release his own album, and by Ted Templeman and Lenny Waronker.

The tour has been divided into two parts. Canadian dates pencilled in to date are Montreal (May 1), Ottawa (2), and Quebec City (3). Other Canadian dates will be announced as they are firmed.

Clapton's band comprises noted bassist Donald "Duck" Dunn, keyboardist Chris Stainton, drummer Jamie Oldaker, guitarist Tim Renwick, and background vocalists Marcy Levy and Shaun Murphy.

The Clapton LP, released on the Duck label, has been scheduled for Mar. 12. Forever Man, has been taken as the first single.

Big prizes in CFNY's Search

CFNY's 5th Great Ontario Talent Search offers arguably the most lucrative prizes in a Canadian contest of this nature.

The FM station's contest offers a $25,000 recording contract from Quality Records, a $25,000 grant from Labatt's to "further the winning act's career," and recording time courtesy of United Media Studios.

Researcher Earl Veale screened approximately 1,000 submissions in both 15 i.p.s. reel and cassette formats. The contest began Oct. 8 of last year with telephone responses determining the finalists after contestants' material was aired on CFNY. A panel of judges will narrow the finalists to 6, with those 6 presented to listeners to determine the winner.

The panel consists of Mark Caporal (PRO-Can), Larry Macrae (Quality Records), Ron Bruchel (CFNY), Liz Janik (CFNY's Streets of Ontario), and Peter Goodwin (Streets of Ontario).

The inclusion of Janik and Goodwin is only logical considering the duo's program has been responsible for exposing countless new acts to CFNY's listeners.

Columbia firms date for USA For Africa

Columbia Records was slated to release We Are The World — the single recorded by a group of 45 American recording stars under the name USA For Africa — on Mar. 7. A 12" single will also be released, and a music-video version was slated for a Mar. 8 release.

An LP, featuring the single as well as unreleased tracks by some of the artists who performed on the single and by others who were unable to attend, will follow on Apr. 1.

Columbia will donate its net proceeds from the single, 12", and LP to the USA for Africa foundation, a non-profit organization established to channel funds to suffering people in Africa and the U.S.

Distribution of monies donated to the USA for Africa foundation will be directed by Marty Rogol, executive director of the foundation. Current plans call for the monies to be split in the following 4 ways: 35% to Africa for immediate relief (heavy emphasis on medical care, medicine, and vaccines), 35% for seeds, fertilizer, farm implements, and the means to generate water supplies, approximately 20% to be used to create long term economic development policies in conjunction with local African communities, and 10% to be used to help the hungry and homeless in the U.S.

Spoons ink deal with Thriftys

Ready recording act The Spoons have inked a 1-yr. pact with Thriftys, Canada's largest jean and casual wear retailer. The agreement features the band in a TV "video" commercial, 60-sec. radio spots, and full colour posters for in-store plus personal appearances at Thriftys stores.

The deal with The Spoons marks the 2nd time Thriftys has combined its products with music. In October of last year, the firm celebrated the Jackson's Victory Tour with the announcement of a special promotion offering customers a chance to win Jacksons concert tickets and receive a discount on Thriftys' fashions.

Catalogue sales increase sparks MCA's new year

With the end of the year rush now history, the industry traditionally waits out a slow-down period, which fortunately hasn't been evident this year. "The positive aspect that I'm seeing for 1985," says Ross Reynolds, President MCA Records (Canada), "is practically renewed interest in catalogue."

The catalogue business has been going through a decline over the past 14 months, as dealers concentrated more on hit product. Ironically, much of this hit product can now be classified as catalogue, which may or may not have influenced some dealers to take a closer look at what is available as catalogue items.

Reynolds however, is talking about the more traditional standard artist that has been around for some time i.e. Elton John, Neil Diamond, the Who, and Olivia Newton-John. "That was a pleasant surprise," continues Reynolds, "the amount of repeat business after Christmas."

Island's Lee Silversides (Island is now distributed by MCA) has much confidence in the continuing sell through of their catalogue product, particularly U2, whose current success with Unforgettable Fire, has been a major factor in the group's previous LP releases, continuing to chalk up impressive sales.

There has also been a definite move toward cassette preference over albums for catalogue or mid-price product, much of this due to promotions that MCA has instigated over the Dobbis to VP Chrysalis N.Y.

Jack Craigo, President of Chrysalis Records, has announced the appointment of Rick Dobbis to the position of Vice-President, Marketing. As such, he will oversee all aspects of promotion, merchandising, sales, publicity, and creative services — as well as maintain liaison with CBS Records branch distribution.

Dobbis, who was previously Senior Vice-President, Artist Development at Arista Records, will be based in New York and report to Jack Craigo.

Dobbis has also held positions with Blue Sky and CBS Records.

past few months. "On an average basis," continues Reynolds, "cassettes are outselling albums, but you have to take a look at the demographics, which, of course makes it difficult to generalize. On the new release of a very contemporary type of artist, the LP will substantially outsell cassette — as the act develops into a front line, major artist, the cassette percentage then comes up and surpasses the LP. It really depends on the type of album."

Many dealers have changed their thinking about catalogue product. Those who did stock catalogue over the Christmas period discovered that while shoppers were drawn into the store for hit product, they were also attracted by the mid-price items, and while rummaging through these bins, came across recordings they believed were no longer available. This interest has continued into March with some dealers taking the initiative by running their own in-store promotions.

Mid price items are also being given priority by some dealers in view of what one describes as "the hit list items — and the limit as to what the consumer is willing to spend." It was found that even with the popularity (chart action) of the act, the record buyer wouldn't move until the LP was reduced in price, which narrowed their markup considerably. "It's still a very chancy business at retail," said one dealer. "I'm happy to see radio stations like CJCL and CKEY becoming popular with their 'gold' format. We have customers coming in looking specifically for product they heard on these stations."

King takes chair as DJ for Q-Jazz

Composer/pianist Bill King will host the revived Q-Jazz program on rock FM station Q-107. The program will debut Mar. 10 and run weekly from 10-11 AM.

King intends to play the newest jazz releases from Canada and the U.S. as well as present a profile segment each week. The first program will feature Sarah Vaughan, Phyllis Hyman, Liberty Silver, and Ivy Steele.

A native of Jeffersonville, Ind., King backed numerous bands in the '60s as well as providing direction for Janis Joplin and Linda Ronstadt. In the '70s, he worked for the Pointer Sisters and Carol Burnett. In 1984, he founded the Night Passage label — devoted to showcasing "quality artists" who King felt had been overlooked.

"Bob Mackowycz called me up," King told RPM in a telephone conversation, "and said that he and Gary Slight (Q's PD) wanted a performer to come in and do the program. I went down to see them and that was it. I'm really excited because it means a chance to give jazz more exposure in the Toronto market."

King cited performers like Pat Metheny and Wynton Marsalis as being indicative of influential jazz artists in the '80s.

Broadcaster Mackowycz is host of Q-107's The 6 O'Clock Rock Report.

Edmunds releases on Jinga label

One of probably few bright spots in the demise last year of Anaheim, Calif. - based Rocshire Records is the steadily developing career of singer/songwriter Geoff Edmunds.

Currently on release with Saturday Night, a single on his own Jinga label, Edmunds is attempting to interest Canadian labels in an LP's worth of unreleased material. Saturday Night has been serviced to country and A/C stations nationally.

Everybody Loves My Rock & Roll, taken as a single from Edmunds' lone LP (Geoff Edmunds) on MCA/Rocshire, was serviced extensively by MCA Records and Scott Richards, head of Rocshire's Canadian arm. One aspect of the campaign was the over 100 interviews Edmunds gave in the summer and fall of 1984.

Arriving in Canada from his native Wales approximately 15 years ago, Edmunds found work virtually immediately as a journalist, eventually settling in Calgary and founding his own publishing business. He subsequently sold his business to begin a music career in earnest.

Saturday Night, backed with She Made A Fool, was produced by Mark Goodman and qualifies as 4 parts Cancon.

CBS honours Saturn for artists support

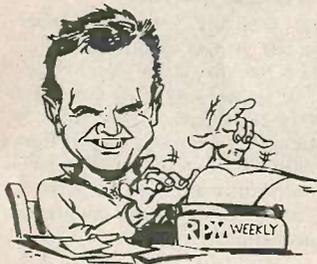

CBS Records recently presented Saturn Distributors with a special commemorative award recognizing "Saturn Distributors' outstanding support of CBS artists during 1984."

The plaque presented contained 11 singles — 7 gold and 4 platinum. The gold ones were Matthew Wilder/Break My Stride, Herbie Hancock/Rokit, Weird Al Yankovic/Eat It, Deniece Williams/Let's Hear It For The Boy, Steve Perry/Oh Sherrie, Bruce Springsteen/Dancing In The Dark, and Julio Iglesias & Diana Ross/All Of You. The platinum were Bonnie Tyler/Total Eclipse, Cyndi Lauper/Girls Just Wanna Have Fun, Nena/99 Luftballons, and Kenny Loggins/Footloose.

WALT SAYS

How's that for giving . . . ?

Saturn's Leonard Kennedy has moved quickly to guarantee a bundle of money for the Northern Lights For Africa. He has sent a letter to his customers advising that Saturn will donate their time and expenses to the cause. The cost price to Saturn is $1.75 for the 7" and $4.15 for the 12" with suggested lists of $2.49 and $5.98 respectively. Saturn's customers receive this product at their cost, which leaves a healthy chunk for the charity. And, how about the initial order from Saturn . . . 50,000 copies of the 7" and 15,000 of the 12".

Sore losers . . . ?

When I discovered all the excitement and enthusiasm that went into organizing the Ontario Music Industry Softball League, I was really impressed. In fact, RPM came up with the money for the trophy which was presented to the winning team (WEA Wackers) at the awards dinner. A group, calling themselves The Ontario Music Industry Softball League Liberation Army, lifted the cup that night, and demanded a payoff (ransom) of sorts - a cute little prank. The league executive are now worried about the cup . . . nothing has been heard from the cupnappers for some time. If they don't have the cup returned within the next two weeks, they will take the last $300 out of their fund to pay for another cup. Let's be fair. If you have the cup, give me a call, you don't have to identify yourself, tell me where I can pick it up (trash-can, park bench or whatever) and nothing more will be said about it.

Big Country is a celebration!!!

The Big Country Awards Banquet being held late in April may be viewed by some country people as a bit too pricey, but it must be remembered that it is self-sustaining. No artist will be asked to play a benefit for the Big Country Awards. No government agency will be asked for a handout. No brewery will become involved to promote their product. That makes the event particularly unique in this industry. That alone is cause to celebrate.

CFOX readies release of Vancouver Seeds II

CFOX-FM 98 is readying the third in their Vancouver Seeds album series. Vancouver Seeds III will be released in late spring and will be distributed throughout B.C. province by MCA.

CFOX has presented Spotlight '85 throughout February, described by the station's Promo Director, Peter Taylor, as "the most ambitious and successful new music talent hunt in the city's history."

More than 300 tapes were submitted for the project and 6 acts will be showcased on the LP with 2 tracks each. The six acts are Cinebar, Nite Vigil, Jump, L. Kabonc, Rayve, and M.T. Vessels. The semi-finalists had their performances recorded live at the Town Pump in Gastown. Executive Producer John Beaudoin says: "I believe that this is some of the finest, undiscovered talent that I've seen in a long, long time."

"The Vancouver Seeds project was debuted in November of 1979," says Taylor, concluding with "Vancouver Seeds represents the culmination of efforts by the FOX and the local music community to showcase and promote new, up-and-coming musical talent."

All proceeds from the sale of Vancouver Seeds III will go to support the Vancouver Food Bank.

Rare Gershwin material released on Fanfare

Toronto-based Fanfare Records will release an album of original Gershwin piano compositions - never before available on commercial recordings - entitled The Unknown George Gershwin.

The LP features the debut of American pianist Kevin Cole, under the supervision of Gershwin authority Edward Jablonski. Included are such rarities as Short Story, All The Livelong Day, Till Then, and Wake Up Brother And Dance.

The LP, part of Fanfare's ongoing Gershwin series, is aimed at both the casual collector and the Gershwin buff, and will be available in both the U.S. and Canada in early March. A European release is planned for shortly after.

Cats headed for nine lives!!!

Although it isn't professional to critique on a show seen in previews, I think it is appropriate in this case because when you heap praise on a production prior to its opening, it is, in fact, a plus!

These words came from RPM's Stan Klees: "If you have seen the London production of Cats and the New York version, you might approach the Canadian production with some apprehension. The London production is done 'in the round' and the New York production is done principally outside the proscenium arch. Both have a large stage to work with. Both original productions depend on large elaborate and mechanical sets which would not be reasonable in a travelling version. As the first act went by at the preview, it was obvious there were rough edges that weren't there in the original which had run for months. These will all disappear in time. Wondering what they would do with the elaborate set for Grownliger's Last Stand, I found the Canadian innovation much better than either of the originals. The other difficult apparatus was for the Journey To The Heavyside Layer. Again the Toronto production has met that challenge with great innovation, and again, it comes off better than the original. After seeing all 3 productions, it was only natural to view the Canadian production very critically. However, in every respect, what I saw on the Toronto stage is shaping up to be better than what I saw in London or New York, and certainly you are getting your money's worth. You not only don't have to travel outside the country, but you are paying for your tickets with Canadian dollars."

Klees is in the enviable position of having seen the London production once, and the New York production 4 times, which makes him more qualified to comment than most reviewers with the dailies. Correct me if I'm wrong (EC: Klees certainly has connections in theatre!!!).

The New Year has begun where '84 left off - BUSY

Promo Profile - by Lynda Kay

Solo releases from Sade, Alison Moyet, Mick Jagger and Gowan have all received critical acclaim, heavy radio airplay and substantial record sales.

Sade and Alison Moyet both recently were honoured at the British Industry Awards, when Sade's Diamond Life LP was voted Album of the Year, while Alison Moyet was named Female Vocalist of the Year. Both ladies will hopefully tour Canada in mid to late 1985.

Mick Jagger, on the other hand, has attained gold status with his first solo release She's The Boss. Currently in Paris, Jagger is working with the rest of the Rolling Stones on their first release for CBS.

As for Gowan, he's just returned from playing the Misty Moon in Halifax with Coney Hatch. He is currently headed west on a promotional tour in support of his latest LP "Strange Animal."

An abundance of product is scheduled for release in the next few months, all of which will fulfill a variety of musical tastes. Heading the list is the single Tears Are Not Enough, which is tentatively set for release the second week of March. This will also be included in the U.S.A. for Africa LP which is slated for release April 1. The American single from that LP We Are The World is due out March 15. Other key pop albums slated for release include, Slade - Rogues Gallery — they hit gold with their last LP — this one is sure to put them over (the) platinum status. Porky's Revenge, the soundtrack to the third Porky's film, includes tunes from such notables as Dave Edmunds, Jeff Beck, George Harrison and Willie Nelson. Speaking of Jeff Beck, his solo LP is set for April release. Titled Get Workin', it includes a track written by CBS Records' A&R Director, David Bendeth. Look also for releases from newly signed Carly Simon, the Romantics, Ozzy Osbourne, Cheap Trick, Kenny Loggins and Accept.

On the country side, CBS is hot, with several new live country LP's from George Jones, Mickey Gilley and Moe Bandy and Joe Stampley. Willie Nelson, a perennial favourite, has his first release of 1985 ready to go, entitled Me And Paul. Several country tours are also set for Canada and these include — George Jones, Mickey Gilley and Mark Gray and Ricky Skaggs — all within the next six months.

The last week of February saw two of our Canadian acts in Toronto filming videos for their upcoming LP releases. Winnipeg based Orphan were in town working with Deborah Samuels of Schulz Productions and Leydon Zar, who are signed to the Montreal based Unidisc label, were in shooting with Ron Bertie of Champagne pictures. Both LP's are scheduled for April release. As for Platinum Blonde, they are hard at work on their second LP with producer Ed Offord who is known for his work with Yes and the Police. Look for this LP to be out late spring.

(As for upcoming tours) — Stevie Ray Vaughan is set to tour southern Ontario at the end of March with True North's Johnny Macleod and the Young Pioneers confirmed to open. Also scheduled in the country at the same time are the Eurogliders, who will do a national cross-country tour, hitting Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton, Toronto and Montreal in support of their debut LP — This Island.

It looks like 1985 is shaping up to be as exciting a year as 1984 for CBS.

RCA names Colavecchio to Montreal post

Colavecchio will be responsible for all Record Division sales and promotional activities in the Quebec marketplace. He joins RCA from A&M Records, where he has spent the last 3 years as their Montreal Branch Manager.

Fewer Cancon releases but higher quality - Stone

Bob Stone, who heads up the multi-million dollar Bowmanville, Ontario-based World Records, has found a decided shift in thinking by Canadian independent recording artists, which may have affected the quantitative factor. "There are fewer independent releases in Canada," says Stone, "but a much better and higher quality product — and of a much more specialized nature."

Bob Stone

World, the major packager of Canadian content recordings, a reputation that has been building over the past 20 years, has clients stretching from Resolute Bay in Canada's Arctic (Eskimo Throat Songs), through several U.S. states and into the Caribbean.

"We started small and concentrated on volume," continues Stone, which has resulted in an energy-packed organization in a rural setting with a complete in-house operation that can supply the new or established recording artist or group, product that World classifies as "worldclass."

Stone believes there is a much more discriminating client emerging insofar as independents are concerned. "What we are seeing," says Stone, "is a client who is doing a lot of research, resulting in the release of product for which there is a need or a command for. We're seeing a much better type of production and product — a reason for its release — not just that it's another record and the broadcasters have a commitment to the CRTC to air it." Stone believes that this attitude has opened the door to more Cancon being aired. "I hear a lot more of the records that we are custom pressing, being played on major radio stations," says Stone.

Although there has been a drop off in Cancon production, Stone does dispute the latest industry report indicating there were only 563 Cancon releases in 1983. "This was information apparently supplied by over 90 firms," Stone explains. "We put more than that through in 1983, that was Canadian content." Stone believes the domestic market is much more stable today than in previous years, particularly in the specialized field.

It's interesting to note that World's Canadian success has spilled over into the U.S., primarily through word of mouth. Each day they have 2 major shipments to the U.S. and just recently added the Audio Visual Services of AT&T to their client roster which also includes American Universities as well as rock and pop groups. Just last year World sold more product in the state of Washington than they did in Ontario.

Quality control is top priority at World,

Jazz category for PRO Canada competition

A total of $8,000 will be awarded this spring by the Performing Rights Organization of Canada Limited (PRO Canada) to Canadian composers aged 30 and under who are successful in the organization's 7th annual Young Composers' Composition. For the first time, composers who write for jazz ensembles — minimum 5 players — will be eligible to enter.

PRO Canada is a non-profit music licensing organization representing more than 17,000 Canadian composers, authors, and music publishers.

Four other categories in the competition are Music for orchestra (12 instruments or more), Music for solo instrument or chamber ensemble (up to 11 instruments), Music for voice(s) with or without instruments, and Electronic and computer music (including music with voice(s) and/or instruments).

Deadline for submissions is Apr. 30. Application forms may be obtained from PRO Canada's offices in Toronto, Montreal, Vancouver, Edmonton, and Halifax.

much to the discomfort of some of their suppliers. They insist on the best vinyl and tape available and house their albums in virgin double-white board which allows for more rigidity. The cost is a little more but their policy is to run only one grade, which they believe benefits their customers in the long run.

Coming up for World (Shotgun-Gimmie Holdings) is a move into the Compact Disc market. "We've found an outside North American/Japan supplier of CD's, not connected with a major," says Stone, "and we have orders pending for them."

The success of World Records would appear to be contrary to the negatives and innuendos that plague the domestic recording industry. The fact remains obvious that World is highly successful — a success that was built on a solid Canadian content foundation.

Bowie Jazzin' video available in Canada

Jazzin' For Blue Jean, David Bowie's 22-min. short film directed by Julian Temple, has been cleared for release in Canada by Capitol-EMI. Released in most territories last September, the film will run exclusively on the MuchMusic channel until Mar. 12.

Director Temple, who was responsible for The Great Rock 'n' Roll Swindle and the Stones' Undercover video, is the director of a new film — Absolute Beginners. Based on the Colin MacInnes novel, the film recounts Britain in the '50s, specifically the youth/jazz subculture. David Bowie has been invited to write a song for Absolute Beginners, and will more than likely take a cameo role.

Several British musicians have recently cited the MacInnes novel's influence on their writing and lifestyles. Temple's apparent intent is to demonstrate through the film the influence that music of the '50s has had on that of the '80s.

ALBUMS

HUGH MARSH - Jazz Fusion
The Bear Walks - Duke Street DSR-31009-P

Potentially the instrumental LP of the year, violinist Marsh's debut shows him more than capable of occupying the limelight after untold years as a competent but underrated sideman.

The real excitement here is Versace - the LP's centerpiece. Peter Cardinali's gutsy bass line propels Marsh and saxophonist Michael Brecker through a musical maelstrom.

Key also is Laura With The Laughing Eyes, penned by Marsh and Jon Goldsmith. Produced by Cardinali at Manta Sound in Toronto. Destined for inclusion on many 'best of '85 lists. Inner sleeve with session information. Cancon.

BELINDA METZ - Pop
Electric Splash - Attic LAT-1202-W

Strong debut from vocalist Metz with big assists from producer David Tyson and guitarist/sidekick Bob Bartolucci. CHR radio should like the first single, What About Me - entering the RPM 100 at No. 94 with a bullet. Produced by Tyson, Cancon.

WHITNEY HOUSTON - POP/R&B
Whitney Houston - Arista - AC8-8212-N

A bright new talent with more than a handle on R&B and pop music, Whitney Houston has already found favour with A/C programmers. Key are two duets with Jermaine Jackson: Nobody Loves Me Like You Do, and Take Good Care Of My Heart, the latter is also included on Jackson's solo LP. Also includes Hold Me, a duet with Teddy Pen-dergrass, released last year as a single. Various producer credits: Jermaine Jackson, Kashif, Michael Masser and Narada Michael Walden. Clive Davis takes credit as Executive Producer.

GEORGE JONES - Country
First Time Live - Epic - FE39899-H

Timely release in view of Jones' current tour of Canada, and because of the live factor, should capture heavy airplay. Includes She's My Rock, and No Show Jones as well as a medley of I'll Share My World With You, The Window Up Above, The Grand Tour, and Walk Through This World With Me. Billy Sherrill produced.

RECKLESS - Rock
Heart Of Steel - Quality - SV-2136-M

An auspicious and cleanly produced debut from recently reformed Canadian band. Key track: Hot 'n Ready, supported by a video. Produced by Ross Munro.

CRYSTAL GAYLE - Pop/Country
Nobody Wants To Be Alone - Warner Bros - 92-51544-P

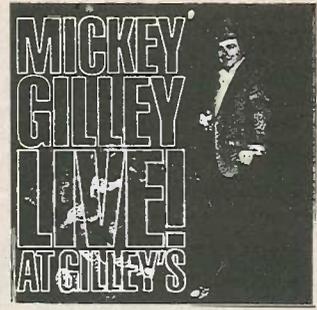

Now an established crossover artist, Crystal Gayle utilizes 2 producers here to get that message across. Michael Masser, who produced hits for Diana Ross and George Benson, takes Crystal into the pop field i.e. the title track, taken as the first single. On the country side, Crystal relies on producer Jimmy Bowen for such key tracks as Tonight, Tonight, and Someone Like You.

PAUL EISAN - MOR
Paul Eisan - CTL - S5263

Eisan wraps his vocals around compositions by Shirley Eikhard (Something That Lasts, I Live For Then), Bob Quinn (Your Heart Will Lead You Home), and Ambrose/Riley/Rae (Mobile), with extraordinarily smooth easy listening results. Should become top priority for those stations looking for well-produced Cancon pop. Produced by Jackie Rae.

MICKEY GILLEY - Country
Live At Gilley's - Epic FE-39900-P

Recorded live at Gilley's famous club, this

John Boylan production contains a couple of potentially powerful singles: Don't The Girls All Get Prettier At Closing Time, and Hold On To The Feeling, the latter with Anne Marie Giangiolo. This is pure country, Gilley style. Also contains the Jerry Lee Lewis classic, Great Balls Of Fire.

ROGER WHITTAKER - Pop
Songs From The Heart - CBS Direct - DMD2-067-H

This 2-record set of 20 big ones for Roger Whittaker has already proven its popularity in the U.S. where it sold more than 700,000 copies. Heavy TV promotion by CBS Direct should bring this one home in Canada. 18 of the cuts were recorded specifically for this package with Chet Atkins producing. Includes Annie's Song, Vaya Con Dios, Stranger On The Shore and Sentimental Journey. Excellent programming material.

DAVID SANBORN - Pop
Straight To The Heart - Warner Bros - 92-51501-P

Appropriate showcase for saxman Sanborn's solos. Key are Hideaway and Run For Cover. Produced by Marcus Miller.

AMY GRANT - Gospel/Pop
Age To Age - A&M - SP-5056-W

Surprisingly gutsy tracks from Christian vocalist Grant. Produced by Brown Bannister. Key track: Michael Card's I Have Decided.

GLADYS KNIGHT & THE PIPS - Pop
Life - Columbia - FC-39423-H

Gladys and her Pips roll into the '80s. Key are My Time (taken as the first single), and Do You Wanna Have Some Fun. Various producer credits.
