

CHINA CRISIS FLAUNT NEW VIRGIN LP

Virgin recording act China Crisis are on release with their 3rd album for the label, Flaunt The Imperfection. Black Man Ray has been taken as the first single, released in 7" and 12" formats. Flaunt The Imperfection was produced by ex-Steely Dan member Walter Becker at Parkgate Studio in Sussex, England. The LP represents Becker's first production work since leaving Steely Dan and moving to Hawaii over 3 years ago.

The 2 core members of China Crisis, Eddie Lunden (guitars, vocals, occasional keyboards) and Garry Daly (Keyboards, vocals, occasional guitars), met while attending school in Liverpool. The duo, who shared an appreciation of Stevie Wonder, Eno, and David Bowie, began making tapes as part of a collective at school. They ultimately continued their songwriting following school between jobs as beer pump maker, hairdresser, and roof tiler. Their debut recorded effort was African And White, released as a single on the small Liverpool label, Inevitable. Virgin Records subsequently signed the duo, and in May of 1982, a Virgin single appeared - Scream Down On Me. Virgin re-released African And White in July of that year.

Concurrent with the release of a 3rd single - No More Blue Horizons - in late 1982, the duo did concert dates in the U.K. augmented by other musicians. In November of 1982, a debut LP was released, the full title of which was Difficult Shapes And Passive Rhythms - Some People Think It's Fun To Entertain. Christian was released as a single. The 2nd China Crisis LP was Working With Fire And Steel, Possible Pop Songs Volume II. In Canada, the title track was the band's debut single, followed by Wishful Thinking - released in May of 1984. Working With Fire And Steel was the band's debut in Canada.

Besides Lunden and Daly, China Crisis is: Kevin Wilkinson (drums, percussion), and Gary Johnson (bass). Producer Becker contributed synthesizer and percussion on the session.

Johnson, Lunden, and Daly penned all the material for the album which includes The Highest High, Strength Of Character, You Did Cut Me, Wall Of God, Gift Of Freedom, King In A Catholic Style, Blue Sea, and Bigger The Punch I'm Feeling . . . The World Spins - I'm Part Of It.

Regarding the song material, Daly recently told the Record Mirror's Eleanor Levy: "We got round a piano and sang these songs; they could even be covered by other people." In the same interview, Daly commented on Walter Becker: "He's a fantastic man. A real 'song' person. He didn't know who Trevor Horn was, which was brilliant. He lives in Hawaii and has only been to this country (Britain) twice, and the second time was to record with us. It was really weird, this bloke walking round with all these Scousers (Liverpudlians) in the country down south looking for the beach and the coconuts".

Flaunt The Imperfection presents strong writing combined with Walter Becker's occasionally overpowering production style. You Did Cut Me sports smooth vocals reminiscent of Becker's tenure with Steely Dan, while The Highest High has an almost Jazzy feel to it - spurred on by a lilting synth riff. Black Man Ray's melancholic mood is leavened somewhat by its fluid, entrancing melody line.

Flaunt The Imperfection is another notch on the China Crisis belt, and an auspicious - if hesitant - production debut for Walter Becker.

As previously reported in RPM, Virgin has employed a unique national campaign to generate interest in the new release, utilizing a jeweller's bag and 6 bogus diamonds as the promotional focus. Shorewood Packaging has manufactured a special 2-colour poster (blue and silver) for selected recipients in the PolyGram sales force, as well as radio and retail people. The first 15,000 copies of Flaunt The Imperfection will contain a 7" copy of a track entitled Animalistic - unavailable on the LP.

No tour dates have been announced at press time. -KCW

Tears Are Not Enough set for U.S. release

CBS Records and Ken Kragen of USA For Africa have confirmed that Tears Are Not Enough by Northern Lights will be taken as the next single from the USA For Africa LP for release in the U.S. all proceeds from the sale of the single will go to Northern Lights For Africa Society. The combined sales of the 7" and 12" singles in Canada are close to triple platinum (300,000 units sold).

The provincial government of Prince Edward Island has joined the B.C. and Ontario governments in donating their provincial sales taxes collected on the records to the Northern Lights For Africa Society.

Radio stations have also raised money for the Society through pledges from their listeners, in particular Toronto's Q107 and CHEZ-FM. The former raised $17,000 in pledges while the latter brought in more than $28,000 during their Ottawa Northern Lights Radiothon of Apr. 28. In view of the successful fundraising projects from these stations, a national radiothon is now being planned for this summer.

It should also be noted that the CHUM Group are currently running a series of free commercial announcements on all stations in support of the Tears single as well as the We Are The World LP by USA For Africa. The latter features the Tears track.

The sheet music for Tears is being published worldwide by Warner Music. Several arrangements of the song (piano and vocal, band, orchestra, etc.) will be available in music stores this month.

1st quarter for WEA "outstanding" - Newman

"Our 1st quarter was nothing less than outstanding," enthuses Garry Newman, Vice President of Sales for WEA Music Canada.

"The two most powerful things going for us are the Phil Collins (No Jacket Required) and Madonna (Like A Virgin) albums; this is our one-two punch. Last month (April), we shipped out 75,000 Collins LPs and 74,000 of Madonna's." Both LPs remain in the Top 5 of the RPM 100 album survey.

Newman reports that Julian Lennon's Valotte LP is "still going strong", while the

Garry Newman

2nd single (Gigolo) from David Lee Roth's solo EP Crazy From The Heat has fuelled sales figures for the EP.

"We moved 20,000 units of Honeymoon Suite's LP in April," says Newman, referring to a major Canadian signing on the label. "The Stay In The Light single (the LP's 3rd) is carrying the LP along nicely."

Newman is also expecting Prince to follow through at retail with his new set, Around The World In A Day, which received mixed reviews from the critics, but which is selling steadily. "We hope that the first single, Raspberry Beret, will give us that little extra push," continues Newman.

WEA's 1st quarter '85 runs December, January, and February.

Newman concludes with "I'm having trouble filling back orders. All aspects of the last 6 months are just outstanding."

A&M prepares launch for Supertramp's 9th

A&M is pulling all stops in the promotion of Supertramp's 9th album, set for a May 13th. release. The release date coincides with a label bash at Toronto's Diamond, as well as a tie-in with Much-Music.

The band: lead vocalist Rick Davies, saxman John Helliwell, bassist Dougie Thomson, and drummer Bob Siembenberg will be on hand for the promotion. It's interesting to note that Supertramp have sold in excess of 35 million records, their most successful albums being, Crime Of The Century, Crisis? What Crisis, Even In The Quietest Moments, and Breakfast In America.

Helliwell was asked recently why it is that Supertramp has been such a force in rock music since 1973. "The key reasons why we've kept going on," explains Helliwell, "is that our roots go pretty deep compared to some bands whose influences may only go back a few years. Our roots go back quite a long time - jazz, R&B, The Beatles, and the '50s and '60s."

Supertramp has a soft spot in their heart for Canada, and in particular the Canadian operation of A&M. It was through

A&M that Supertramp became a nationally-recognized name in Canada before becoming one of the world's premiere bands, and are still considered "totally unique" to the Canadian market. They enjoyed twin million-selling albums with Crime and Breakfast and have sold more than 5 million records in Canada alone.

Supertramp (Roger Hodgson, Dougie Thomson, Rick Davies, and John Anthony Helliwell) back in 1979, with Charly Prevost, when Winnipeg Mayor Bill Norrie made them Honorary Citizens of the city.

Born In The USA top seller - CBS

Bruce Springsteen's Born In The USA album is now listed by Columbia as the "biggest selling album" in the history of the label. The album, still in the Top 10 of the RPM 100, topped the chart on July 7, 1984, a position it held for 7 weeks. The album is now well over 9 times platinum in Canada (900,000 units sold).

Of the 4 singles released from the album, Cover Me, Born In The USA, I'm On Fire and Dancing In The Dark, the latter has surpassed the platinum level. A 5th single from the album, Glory Days, is being readied for release. The Springsteen image is also being stroked with the popularity of his Trapped track from the USA For Africa LP. There are no plans to issue this track as a single at time of writing.

It's expected Born In The USA will hit diamond status in Canada shortly. "The way it's been selling," says Don Oates, Vice President of Marketing & Sales for CBS Records Canada "at the longest period I would say the LP will hit the diamond mark within a month. With the 5th single, it could very well be as soon as 2 weeks."

Oates was reluctant to say how far he thinks the Springsteen album will go, in view of his early predictions of Michael Jackson's Thriller album, which had surpassed expectations.

"It depends on a number of things," Oates continues. "Whether there will be more concert dates, and if there's more singles. There's more songs on the album that are strong enough to be singles."

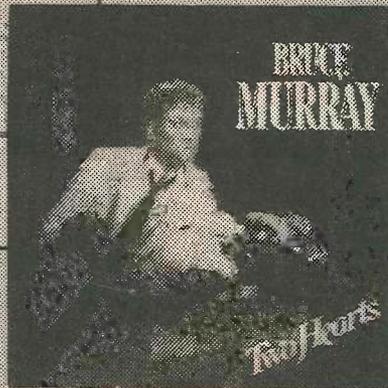

The Springsteen phenomenon is not an overnight happening. He has been in the business for more than 15 years, and it wasn't too long ago when his album sales, which weren't too significant, were primarily confined to the Ontario market. Much of this was due his touring of Ontario.

"Bruce has been on the borderline of becoming a big star for many years," Oates explains. "His River album showed the potential for big sales, but it was a double album. I think the Springsteen fan, being in the older demographic, is more apt to be album buyers. Touring was the most essential part. This man is incredibly strong onstage. Nobody can go to a show and not get caught up in the energy - nobody. There's also a mystique and charisma about him." Oates concludes with: "Even at the USA For Africa recording session, other name artists were in awe of him."

WATSAYS

Someone's gonna get burned . . . !!

Just because someone's from the boon-docks doesn't mean they're going to lay down and play dead when the big city slickers make a move on them. There's a "boonie" who is in the process of gathering a very powerful defense that could make the Yonge Street crowd very uneasy.

Where's Hatfield when we need him . . . ?

Nice to see a CD plant for Ontario, to open by February for $6 million . . . sounds like a pipedream, particularly since the big bust. There was a project underway, a few months ago, with the New Brunswick government . . . and a major label . . . to finance a CD plant for the Moncton area. The press apparently got hold of the details and mounted a devastating editorial attack that created enough panic to have the government back out. They didn't want another Bricklin on their hands. Perhaps the timing wasn't right . . . but now, with the growing popularity of Compact Discs, and if someone has $30 million to lay out - a CD operation could make sense.

Determination pays off!!!

Nice to see Paul Orescan moving up in the business - now taking on the job of Product Manager for I.R.S. Paul's only been in the business 2 years, having apprenticed at A&M, first with Michael Godin in A&R, an excellent teacher, which led him into repping I.R.S. in promotion and other allied duties. When I.R.S. moved to MCA, they asked Paul to come aboard. (EC: After only 2 years . . . awesome!!!)

Excuse me . . . !!

It was a full house at the club rooms of the Variety Club (Toronto) for a very quiet tribute to Terry Lynd (May 7). Terry was retiring from A.R.S. It was so quiet that Al Dubin had to write out his bar order. He didn't want to be heard ordering another . . . and another . . . and another. Jack Robertson emceed the non-roast event, and pointed out that unlike the usual industry roast/tributes . . . there wouldn't be any "tasteless one-liners". (EC: I wonder if he was referring to anyone in particular?)

Goddard - an expert on black music . . . ?

Well . . . the veteran (EC: you can take that two ways!!) rock and roll critic from the Toronto Star, Peter Goddard, will be showing his expertise in black music when he keynotes this year's Black Music Awards (May 22). The Ballroom of the Sheraton in Toronto will be the setting for the noon day gathering.

It's hard to believe . . . !!

Yes . . . it is hard to believe that Anne Murray could sell out Toronto's O'Keefe

Let's be fair!!!

CBS Records Canada has become aware of retail outlets that are pricing the charity singles Tears Are Not Enough and We Are The World above the suggested list of $2.49.

It is very disappointing to CBS Records Canada to think that these retailers would take advantage of the popularity of this item by increasing its price in order to make a profit. In pricing the singles, CBS made every effort to ensure that the rackjobbers and retailers would be able to recoup out of pocket expenses. The cost prices established for our accounts on these singles were substantially higher than regular with the difference being collected by CBS Records Canada Ltd. on behalf of our accounts and transferred to the Northern Lights For Africa (Society) and USA For Africa.

CBS Records would like the consumer to know that every effort has been made to ensure that these singles retail at the Suggested List Price of $2.49 (or less) and that all profits from their sales at this price will be contributed to the appropriate charitable society.

Welcome back Big Country!!!

Last night (Apr. 28) it was my pleasure to attend the most beautiful occasion honouring the country music people and their industry.

The Big Country Awards have brought a credibility factor to the 'country' music industry that would not have been achieved without your assistance.

for a full week. In fact, customers were paying for the privilege of standing as well - rarely seen in Canadian concert halls. Anne's opening night was a blow to the doom beaters who like to criticize her for the way she walks, dresses, dances . . . and anything else that critics like to be negative about. This was her night, proven by standing ovation after standing ovation. It was indeed hard to believe that this was a Toronto audience. Of course the bulk of the audience was made up of Maritimers. The Capitol people, who must have used Gino Empry's "Beautiful People" list, hosted an after-show reception that was well-handled and afforded most of the invited guests to have a chat with "The Madam".

Does country music sell . . . ??

Contrary to common belief, including mine, country music does sell in Canada. WEA's Garry Newman, not known to be countrified, but who can spot a winner no matter what music form, supplied me with a very "interesting" sales picture of their rather large roster of country items. The figures, of course, are privy to me, but with this kind of sales track record, wouldn't it be a "hoot" if WEA could only adopt a Cancan country policy . . . and do I have some hot suggestions for them!!

Once again, thank you for allowing me to be a part of it all.

Heaven a hit for Adams - second time around

Heaven, the latest A&M single release by Bryan Adams is on the way to becoming a hit in Canada - for some radio stations - the second time around. Although never released as a single in Canada or the U.S. commercially, nor as a radio only disc, Heaven was one of the highlighted tracks on the soundtrack by the same title, a soundtrack released by A&M that featured several big name acts. In view of the popularity of Adams at that time, some radio stations carried the track which was then given heavy exposure.

J.P. Guilbert, Director of Promotions for A&M Records Canada, explained that there were some radio programmers who believed it would be unwise to release the song as a single, in view of the heavy airplay

J.P. Guilbert

Bryan Adams was the special guest as CFOX-FM presented the Canadian debut of Rockline, which has been on the air in the U.S. for the past 4 years. Listeners from across North America, had the chance to talk directly to Adams.

it had already garnered - some saying they wouldn't air the single.

"It was already a hit in Canada and radio listeners loved the song although they couldn't buy it as a single," Guilbert recalls. "Some radio people told me we were crazy to release it as a single, but if they had a live version they might play it."

Guilbert went on to explain that "The song never got that much attention in the U.S. originally, so I suggested they go ahead and release the single first. They did, and they created the base for the song." The U.S. release gained almost immediate trade chart action and A&M Canada then released the single with the commercial version on one side and the live version on the flip.

Guilbert pointed out that A&M Canada usually builds Cancon acts in Canada first. However, in the case of Adams, with such strong initial U.S. reaction to Heaven, the Canadian operation was forced to release the single, which is now bulleting up the RPM 100 Singles chart.

More African relief with Sask. release

A project organized by Saskatoon-based songwriter Bryan Arndt will result in the release of an African benefit song this summer. Arrangements have been made to record Let's Fight The Hunger at Studio West (near Saskatoon) in July.

The musicians who will record the song will be known collectively as Wheat Heart. Arndt, inspired by other benefit efforts in Canada, the U.S., and the U.K., wrote the song's lyrics, and collaborated with North Battleford musician/songwriter Cory Hildebrand on the music.

Says Arndt: "Some people will say that we are just jumping on the bandwagon . . . but we say 'why not'. Not only is it something positive the local music community can do, but our project is timely and I think the whole idea will catch on."

Arndt hopes to keep 10% of the monies generated by the song in Saskatchewan to be distributed "to a variety of organizations".

Blaine Wilkins, speaking for Studio West, says the single should be ready for retail province-wide by late August. Further information is available from Wheat Heart, P.O. Box 7732, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. S7K 4R5.

Roth video highlights WEA compilation

WEA Video Compilation No. 34 is highlighted by the David Lee Roth cut of Just A Gigolo/I Ain't Got Nobody. The single has made impressive gains up the RPM 100 singles chart and brought even greater attention to his album, Crazy From The Heat. The single has also become top fare for A/C programmers.

Valdy debuts on Duke Street

Valdy is on release with his debut LP for the Duke Street label, titled Notes From Places. It's That Melody has been taken as the first single. Produced by Claire Lawrence, Notes From Places marks Valdy's first "pop" release in 4 years. The LP was recorded at the Pinewood and Mushroom studios in Vancouver, and mixed at Le Studio in Quebec. Notes qualifies as 4 parts Cancon.

Valdy

Valdy characterizes the record as "an evolution of styles", and says he feels that, to him, his vocal "has never sounded better."

A recording artist for over a decade, Valdy came to prominence with his 1972 single, Rock And Roll Song. In the intervening years, he has forged a reputation as a hardworking (almost 250 dates a year) and articulate singer/songwriter. He notes that "editing has kept Notes From Places' songs generally in the country and adult contemporary area".

At this writing, Valdy was preparing to return to British Columbia to appear in an episode of CBC-TV's The Beachcombers.

Valdy attended the Big Country Awards, held in Toronto (Apr. 28) during which he presented the Country Single of The Year Award to Balmur's Leonard Rambeau, on behalf of Anne Murray for her duet with Dave Loggins titled Nobody Loves Me Like You Do.

One upcoming date of note for Valdy is May 23 at Toronto's Ontario Place.

Henley's All She Wants To Do Is Dance has also been a fast climber on the charts, followed closely by Foreigner's That Was Yesterday.

Registration up for MUSEXPO '85

Early indications are that participation in MUXEXPO '85 (the 10th International Record/Video and Music Industry Market to be held in London Oct. 16-18) will surpass that of previous dates. The the period ending Mar. 30, participation was up 22$ as compared with the same period for the last event in Acapulco, Mexico.

Said Roddy Shashoua, MUXEXPO Chairman: "We are experiencing a sizable renewed interest in the music business generally and toward MUXEXPO '85 and VIDEXPO '85. London, which I firmly believe is the world's creative music centre today, is proving to be a universally suitable and agreeable location to all companies contacted, the majority of whom are now confirming their participation requirements at MUXEXPO '85." he concludes with "We expect 1985 to be an excellent foundation year for having MUXEXPO, now in it's 10th year, successfully in London annually."

MUSIC

Crawley single charting

Siobhan Crawley's Freedom single, titled Closer, is currently gaining heavy A/C exposure across the country. The plug side was penned by Francois Valentyne. The flip is an instrumental version of the plug side. The single was produced by Peter Mann and qualifies as 4-parts Canon. Crawley, a veteran of the Ontario 'prestige' club circuit, released an album in 1982, titled Somewhere In Between, on Freedom, which was distributed in Canada by RCA.

The LP created a base at radio (specifically A/C and CHR) for Crawley, with the label releasing several singles. Produced in Toronto, musicians on the session included Bob Mann (guitar), Jim Davy and Francois Valentyne (synthesizers), Kevin McKenzie (drums), Peter Cardinali (bass), and Crawley's manager Jon Kubko (percussion).

Sears support for Tears

Sears Canada have indicated they will be making a contribution to the Northern Lights For Africa Society, based on the sales of the Tears Are Not Enough single. Saturn Distributing has been asked to monitor the shipments of the single to all Sears stores. Saturn, who supply the single to their clients - at their cost - initially shipped more than 5,000 pieces of the 7" single to the Sears stores in Ontario and Quebec.

Sweet 202 debuts with single

Vancouver-based Perry Smith and Sweet 202 have released their first single, I Can't Dance, a Smith original, on the Sweet 202 label. The pop-rock single, produced by Smith, is distributed through MacDylan Music. The group's manager, Francisco de la Vega, points out that "Perry Smith has concentrated his efforts to the development of the band, exclusively, in the studio, in preparation for a concert to debut wholly original material," concluding with "The group's music carries with it, a certain optimism." The band was formed in 1984.

Arrows prep for new A&M LP

A&M recording act The Arrows are set to record their 2nd LP for the label. Larry Alexander - currently working with Simon LeBon and Nick Rhodes of Duran Duran - will co-produce with David Tyson. The latter produced their debut, Stand Back. Sessions for the new LP are slated to begin in June at a Toronto studio. Sept. 1 has been given as a tentative release date. The Arrows are managed by Spontaneous Productions of Toronto.

Rational Youth's Heredity launch in Montreal (l to r) Andre Menard (Spectrum), Guy Brouillard (CKOI-FM), Richard Gamache (Capitol), Tracy Howe (Rational Youth).

Tour dates set for Cohen

Leonard Cohen will move out into the country on a promotion tour to support the release of Various Positions, his first LP in 5 years, and almost 10 years since he has agreed to tour. The LP was released in Europe during Christmas season, to coincide with his European tour and to date the LP has sold more than 250,000 copies. Canadian dates began in Ottawa on May 9, followed by Montreal (10), Toronto (11), Winnipeg (14), and Vancouver (15). The dailies have been eager to interview Cohen, resulting in excellent coverage.

PolyGram/Telarc ink agreement

PolyGram Canada and Telarc have announced an agreement whereby the former will handle marketing of Telarc compact discs in Canada. One of the first U.S. companies to market CD product, Telarc now sells 7 CDs for every 3 LPs. Established sellers in the company's CD line are Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture, Carl Orff's Carmina Burana, and Aaron Copeland's Fanfare For The Common Man. New releases include Andre Previn's recording of Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5, Requiem by Berlioz, and The Piano Concertos (Nos 2 and 4) by Beethoven.

Winter to Duke Street

Margaret Winter has been appointed Production Coordinator for Duke Street Records. Formerly with the Ready label, Winter takes over the chores of Bill Bobek who moves over to MuchMusic as National Publicity Manager. The latter was highly respected by the Duke Street people, who credit him with being "an excellent publicist and spokesman for the company, producing some of the best promotional/press coverage enjoyed by any Canadian artist." He was instrumental in the success of singer Jane Siberry's No Borders Here LP, which acquired a U.S. deal.

Clapton to Kingswood

Duck/WEA recording artist Eric Clapton has been filmed for a June 21 date at the Kingswood Music Theatre, located just north of Toronto. Clapton, who sold out his 1983 date at Kingswood, is regarded by many as one of the true 2nd generation guitar heroes. Behind The Sun, Clapton's current LP, has cracked the Top 20 on the RPM 100. Support for Clapton will be Graham Parker & The Shot, an Elektra recording act.

Tears For Fears dates firmed

Initial Canadian tour dates have been announced for Tears For Fears. They open at London, Ontario's Alumni Hall (May 25), followed by Kitchener's Centre In The Square (26), Hamilton Place (27), Toronto's Massey Hall (May 30 through June 1), Ottawa's Civic Centre (3), and Montreal's Theatre St-Denis (4 through 6). Other dates are pending. The group's current LP, Songs From The Big Chair is very close to topping the RPM 100 after only 11 weeks on release. Shout, taken as a single from the album, topped the RPM 100 singles survey on Mar. 30 after only 8 weeks on release, a position it held for 2 weeks. Everybody Wants To Rule The World, the band's current single, has already cracked the Top 10 of the RPM 100, after only 5 short weeks since entering the chart.

RADIO

CLIO nomination for CKGM

Keith Grigsby, Creative Director for Montreal's CKGM, reports that a public service message created for CKGM and McDonald's Restaurants by Ruth Ilyse, Creative Coordinator for Maisonneuve Broadcasting, has been nominated for a CLIO Award. The winners will be announced at the Awards Presentation which will take place at NYC's Waldorf Astoria (June 14). The radio message was created to promote the Toys For Tots Christmas drive promotion which was sponsored by CKGM and MacDonald's. Grigsby also points out that Ilyse was recently honoured with an award for creative excellence during the Ad and Sales Executive Club of Montreal's first annual Radio Day Awards. She was the only creative writer from a radio station to win such an award.

CBC promo'ing folk

While folk music has taken a bit of a backseat to today's music forms, CBC Radio endeavours to keep folk a part of the mainstream through the Saturday broadcasts of Simply Folk. This year will be a landmark for folk music with the 25th celebration of the Mariposa Folk Festival. During July Bob Chelmsick will air highlights from Mariposa's 25th anniversary festival as well as carrying its closing night concert live (July 28). Simply Folk will also air highlights from the Winnipeg and Vancouver Folk Festivals in July, and in August will visit the Maritimes.

Columbia recording artist, Gowan, currently enjoying platinum status with his Strange Animal LP, displays his recently won CASBY Award - an award he won as this year's Most Promising Male Vocalist.

CORRECTION

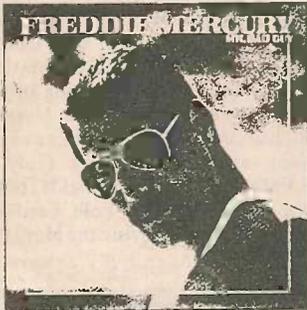

Attic recording act Katrina And The Waves are from Cambridge, England, not Cambridge, Ontario as reported in RPM (Apr. 27).

ALBUMS

THE BEAT FARMERS - Country Rock
Tables Of The New West
RNLP - 853-P

A solid pack of tunes from San Diego-based 'new country' act. Significant as one of the Rhino label's - recently signed to WEA - early entries. Key tracks: Bigger Stones, Reason To Believe. Produced by Steve Berlin.

FREDDIE MERCURY Pop
Mr Bad Guy
Columbia - FC 40071

All the techno-disco trappings in the world will never disguise Freddie's trademark yowl. In short, not a very stimulating record from a vocalist who is capable of so much more. Produced by Mack and The Bad Guy himself. I Was Born To Love You taken as a single. Inner sleeve with libretto.

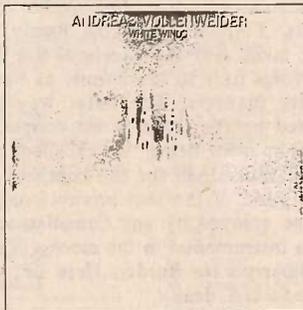

PAUL HYDE AND THE PAYOLAS Pop
Here's The World For Ya
A & M - SP 5025

The LP to put Paul Hyde and Co. into the international market. The name change was done presumably out of respect for U.S radio sensibilities. David Foster's crisp, vital production gives this record a real sheen. Key track : You're The Only Love, taken as the first single, should appeal to more than one radio format. Libretto. Produced by David Foster. Cancon.

KING KOBRA - Rock

1985's Quiet Riot. Drummer Carmine Appice should know better. Key track: Hunger, the first video. Produced by Spencer Proffer.

LEYDEN ZAR Rock

Epic - AGE-2001

A genuinely uninspiring record. This is ground covered long ago by Loverboy and any number of keyboard-drenched rock bands. Recorded by Claude Allard, Robert Matichak, and Pete Tessier. CBS should have no trouble selling this to currently "safe" AOR playlists. Produced by Walter Rossi. Cancon.

DIGNEY FIGNUS - Pop
Digney Fignus - Columbia - CEP-39573-H
Label debut (mini-LP) from vocalist/guitarist Fignus. Fine rock and roll writing with techno-pop overtones. Key tracks: She's My Girl and Blue Movie. Produced by Fignus and Leroy Radcliffe.

Tyson releases on Stony Plain

Sylvia Tyson's latest single, Up In Smoke, has been released on the Edmonton-based Stony Plain label. The plug side was produced by Danny Greenspoon, while the flip, Lover Stranger, was produced by Don Potter and Tyson. Both sides are Tyson originals.

Lalonde bows Bolab label

Bobby Lalonde has introduced his own Bolab label with the release of Lisa, one of his own originals, a session which he produced. The single will be included on his album, Forty Shades Of Blue, scheduled for an early May release. Three of the tracks on the album were released previously as singles but have been re-mixed for the LP. They are the title track, Breezy Nights, and Play Old Man. Vassar Clements, one of the great fiddle players in the business, is featured on Rosin Up, and Just Kiddin. Bobby and his band recently toured the East Coast where they played to more than 40,000 at the Moncton Coliseum, as well as capacity crowds at Moncton's Urban Corral. A 45-minute segment of the Corral show was aired over CFQM-FM, followed by an interview with the station's Brad Donnelly. The Bolab label is based in St. Isidore, Ontario.

New Boehme single on Flyin' High

Dieter Boehme is on release with his current Flyin' High single, Midnight Liar. The single, penned by Boehme, was produced at Nashville's Hilltop Studios by Cam Shillington and qualifies as 3 parts Cancon. Boehme was born in Germany and currently makes his home in Kingston. Two more singles are slated for this year - Legend In My Spare Time, and I Do. Flyin' High Records is based in Odessa, Ontario.

Eastman off with new Artisan single

Take A Chance With Me is Eddie Eastman's new Artisan single, a strong follow-up to Dreaming All Over Again, which enjoyed 12 weeks of national charting. The new single was written by Eastman and produced by Gilles Godard. Eastman previewed the single in Nashville during the Country

Radio Broadcasters seminar where it was given on-the-spot approval by several programmers. As well, the song was one of Eastman's most popular on his recent Ronnie Prophet tour.

Eastman is back to Nashville in May for television appearances including Nashville Now, and a new cable production, Wrap-around Nashville. He returns to Canada (May 12) to begin a tour of the Maritimes and in June he will begin taping another series of TV specials for the CBC.

Bel Air & friends present Mother's Day concert

Bob Cousins, President of the Brampton, Ontario-based Bel Air label, is the driving force behind a Mother's Day Special concert to be held at Club Dallas (May 12). The line-up features Elaine Jarvis, Sonny Tompkins, Kim Atkins, Don MacDonald, Tony Lawler, Peter Solmes, James Adams, and Dale Bradley.

Billy Cann will be a special guest artist, with Larry Mattson and his daughter Larua performing as well. The event is being sponsored by Bel Air in conjunction with Club Dallas, CHAM Radio, and Orchard Studio.

All attending mothers will receive carnations, and there will be prizes for oldest and youngest and most prolific mother. The concert will be taped and aired on CHAM at a later date.

Minglewood to Savannah

Matt Minglewood returns to the recording scene through the signing of the group to the Quality-distributed Savannah label. Initial LP, Me And The Boys, will ship the latter part of May. The band is still rocking but with an obvious country edge. They are currently playing one-nighters through Ontario, the Prairie provinces and B.C., including the Town Pump in Vancouver, The Great Escape Festival in Invermere, B.C., Calgary's Town and Country and The Beaver Dam Festival in Manitoba.

Duet from Haig & Winters

Don Grashey, head honcho of the Thunder Bay-Ontario-based Golden Eagle label, sends along his latest production - Here We Go - a duet by Heather Haig and John Winters. Don is treating this release, which he produced in Nashville as a "double A" record. The duet side was co-written by Terry Carisse and Doug Rawlins while the other side, The Rhythm Cowboys Play, a Fay Walker original, features Winters as a solo. Don's promo people in Nashville are working each side as separate singles and apparently are gaining country programmer interest in the U.S.

Gulley signed to RCA

Janet Henderson reports that J.K. Gulley has been signed to RCA and will release his debut single next month. Gulley came into prominence recently with his Big Country nomination as Composer of The Year for If This Is Love, the duet released by Ronnie Prophet and Glory-Anne Carriere. He also gained recognition across the country with his release earlier this year of Stay Lady Stay, released on the Prophet label. Gulley has been much sought after as a songwriter and recently had his works recorded by Carol Johns (Moonlight Rider), Debbie Drummond (Just Another Song On The Radio), and Mary Bailey (Don't Light The Fire If You Can't Control The Flame). It's also been learned that Hopeless Romantic, co-written by Gulley and Cyril Rawson, will be included on Marie Bottrell's new RCA album.

Aylward strikes again

Joe Aylward, who became nationally-known through his Panther single release All Aboard, taken from his album of the same title, returns to the scene with his latest single, Stakes Are High. The single was produced by Pat Riccio Jr. at Toronto's Eastern Sound. Aylward's backup group, Yelverton Express, comprises lead guitarist Tim Sanders, bassist Cecil White, drummer Michael Barnes, and fiddle players Dan Penney and Allan Fehrenback.

Duet by Damron & Mitchell

The latest RCA single from Dick Damron is the May 13th release of Falling In And Falling Out Of Love - a duet with Ginny Mitchell. The song, a Damron original, was taken from Dick's Last Dance On A Saturday Night album and produced by Mark Schatz at Glaser Studios. The flip, Softer Than Satin, was produced by Mike Francis at Toronto's Manta Sound, and is also included on the Saturday Night LP.

New single & baby for Karen McCall

Karen McCall, a proud new Momma (daughter's name is Krista Lynn) debuts her Spin single, Rebel Getaway. The single from the Kitchener, Ontario-based label, was written and produced by Doug Biggs and J. Richard Hutt at Cedartree Studio. This is the title track from Karen's upcoming mini-LP.

Heavy schedule for Sumsion

Savannah recording artist Terry Sumsion is currently playing concert and club dates that takes him to the end of July. He opens his May dates at Kingston's Rodeo Roadhouse (May 2), followed by the Clinton Arena (4), Kelly's in Walkerton (7-8), a date at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens for the Police Concert (10), Dallas in Hamilton (11), Jesse's in Stratford (16-18), the Coach House Tavern in Brantford (20-22), the CHOO Radio Chili Cookoff in Whitby (24) and closes out May at the Cobourg Arena (25). June dates begin at the Ayr Arena (8), followed by Baldwin's Sportway Inn (9), Hunt's Tavern in Burford (18), the Cayuga Speedway (22-23), Dallas in Hamilton (26-27), the Coldwater Arena (28), the Lion's Club Turkey Festival in Strathroy (29), and the Inverary Ball Park (30). July dates, at press time include London's Wonderland Gardens (8), the Big Valley Festival in Craven, Saskatchewan (20) and the Delta Fair in Ontario (31). Sumsion is currently making good gains with his current single, The Loneliest Star In Texas. His manager/producer Brian Ferriman reports Sumsion's concert/club gross is far ahead of last year's as evidenced by the heavy schedule above.

BOOKS

THE BEATLES
An Illustrated Diary
H.V. Fulpen
$11.95 - 175 Pages (PB)

Just what we need - another book on the Beatles. This one was written by the former head of the Dutch Beatles Fan Club and covers the group from 1963 through 1970. Fulpen's information is valuable for the Beatles fans. These were no doubt the most important years in the life of the group, but certainly not the most news-worthy years. Patching into the Beatles pre-1970 is somewhat of a yawn, considering what has happened to the individual members over the past few years. Fulpen goes into great detail and obviously spent many years researching the diary section of this book, which he admittedly has kept "fairly general". Early photos of the Beatles are always interesting and Fulpen has included some that have never been in print before. Besides going into detail about the early recordings by the Beatles, Fulpen has also arranged some interesting notes on the early bootleg albums, the very first Get Back To Toronto, released on the I.P.F. label in 1970. One other interesting item is a letter Paul McCartney wrote to Britain's Melody Maker on August 29th, 1970: "Dear Mailbag, In order to put out of it's misery the limping dog of the news story which has been dragging itself across your pages for the past year, my answer to the question, 'will the Beatles get together again'.... is no" and the letter was signed Paul McCartney.
