PAUL YOUNG MOVING TO TOP OF CHARTS

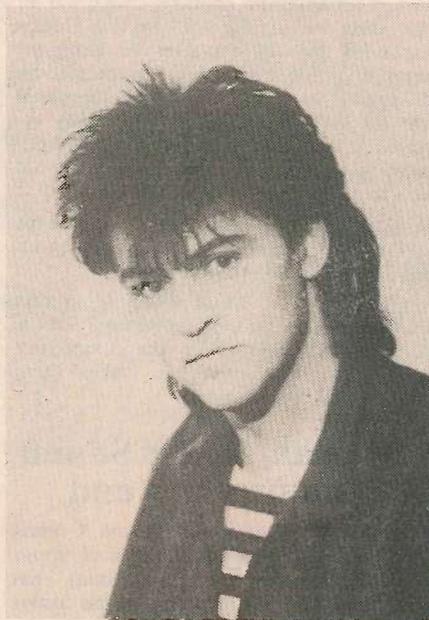

Columbia recording artist Paul Young's 2nd LP for the label, The Secret Of Association, is a Top 30 item after only 7 weeks of charting on the RPM 100 album survey. The LP's debut single, a biting cover of Daryl Hall's Everytime You Go Away, is rising rapidly into the Top 30 on the RPM singles survey. The LP was produced by Laurie Latham.

Long popular as a member of Streetband and The Q-Tips, singer Paul Young broke wide open internationally with the 1983 release of his solo debut LP, No Parlez. In Canada, there was palpable impact generated by the LP's first single, Wherever I Lay My Hat.

The Compleat label - distributed in Canada by Quality Records - has recently released a double-LP of Streetband material, including Toast, a Top 20 U.K. single.

While Streetband was by most appraisals apparently a pop/rock outfit, The Q-Tips were a full-blown soul revue - backing vocalists and all. They acquired a reputation as the hottest unsigned act in the U.K.

On the band's demise in 1982, Young signed with CBS, retained the services of Q-Tips keyboardist Ian Kewley, and began work on the No Parlez LP. Regrettably, following the inevitable touring that followed the LP's positive critical and commercial reception worldwide, Young strained his vocal chords and was forced to cancel a number of shows, notably 2 Wembley Stadium dates with Elton John.

Young subsequently recovered to do 2 Wembley shows late last year. The Secret

CKXL's Brad Phillips responds to criticism

In the May 25th issue of RPM some record company reps took Western Radio to task with regard to the hesitancy by some to add records until there is U.S. action, in spite of the hit status the record may have in the rest of Canada. Brad Phillips, Program Director of CKXL Calgary admits that stations in Western Canada sometimes do wait for U.S. chart action before adding a record.

"We're not going to tell you that we don't use U.S. music trades," said Phillips. "We'll add a record that's moving which has no U.S. action. I think Canadian programmers can use U.S. charts that have a U.S. data base. We can tap into this data base."

Phillips believes the musical tastes between Canadians and Americans aren't very different and that the use of U.S. trades by Canadian stations is an old complaint.

"Sure some record companies will phone to complain, but they have to understand that we're running a business," continues Phillips. "More often than not, a record company will bring it (the problem) to our attention."

Phillips acknowledged that the station does use a U.S. consultant, but not for music. "The consultant is used more for philosophical reasons, centering on presentation, image and format," he explains. He also pointed out that CKXL is on the Dire Straits single, Walk Of Life, although the song isn't receiving much attention in the U.S.

"We used to use Joint Communications," he continues. "The decision to use Johns was a company decision made by Moffat. There wasn't anyone in Canada who could offer what we needed. The services they provide us are general. They give us potential ideas that work in the States."

Phillips was asked if he believed some Canadian stations are insecure about their own judgements as far as making a commitment to a song.

"I would say that's a fair assessment," he answered. "We look at everyone's chart. We're in a fortunate position at Moffat in that we can phone other Moffat stations."

It should be pointed out that when Relax by Frankie Goes To Hollywood was a hit in several areas of the country, CKXL did air the single initially for a few weeks. Phillips explained that not long after this airing the previous music department at the station, dropped the song because of its lyrical content. When the single was finally released in the U.S., long after it had been a hit in Canada, the station again picked it up - to make up for the loss.

Despite some negative feedback, Phillips still believes Canadian radio is growing up enough to gain its own identity.

"If somebody doesn't keep their ears to the ground, then somebody else is going to get ahead. With the competitive situation, the competition makes them truer to their own market."

Sherman/Mister Sound restructures top end

R.J. Muckle, Vice President and General Manager of Sherman/Mister Sound stores (Capitol Records' Retail Division), has announced the restructuring of his senior management team - effective June 3.

Says Muckle, "We are adopting a national structure versus the regional one we were operating under; this will allow us to continue the aggressive merchandising programs that have been highly successful this year while ensuring maximum operational control in all our outlets."

Dave Hanson, formerly Western Region Manager, becomes National Merchandising Manager, responsible for product, advertising, and store creativity. He will be based in Toronto.

Sheldon Frymerman, formerly Central Region Manager, becomes National Operations Manager, responsible for all District Supervisors, stores, and store operations. He is based in Toronto.

Both Hanson and Frymerman will report to Muckle in their new positions.

Betty Stewart continues as the Administration Manager responsible for financial evaluation, budgets, and non-inventory buying.

"Our goal this year," explains Muckle, "is to maximize sales and profits in the Retail Division," concluding with, "This new national structure will greatly enhance our position in these areas."

Lucas ponders 'RB's 'Process of Change'

Ralph Lucas, Toronto AM station CFRB's new Program Director, believes programming changes implemented at the station earlier this year "may have been right", but that the method of implementation was wrong.

"I want to continue the process of change, but in a gradual fashion," Lucas says. "CFRB is lucky...it's dealing from a position of strength. But I'd like to think of the process from here on in as a quick evolution."

Lucas, experienced (20 years in radio) and articulate, believes that while the station's news/sports coverage remains something of a standard throughout the demographic, CFRB's music programming has been "blowing away" a generation of young listeners. "The station has to stay in touch with Toronto," Lucas responds, "My mandate involves modifications within each programming element. We do have a very loyal core audience, but there are also a lot of people we're missing out on."

Asked about corporate influence in these matters, Lucas responds, "The (PD) position here is relatively autonomous - I'm aware of the company's stand, but it doesn't intimidate me. I've spent half my career working for Standard-owned stations."

A native of Montreal, Lucas began his radio career in 1964 at Montreal's CFMB. Following a stint at CKGM, he went to Toronto, working for CFRB and CKFM - on a freelance/contract basis - before returning to Montreal. His position at CFRB currently follows time with CFQR and CJAD, the latter in a VP and Station Manager position.

Lucas is obviously challenged by what lies ahead. "I think that I can slice off some FM share," he says, continuing with "but a lot has happened in the 12 years since I was here. Obviously, the corporation recognizes the need for change - that's why I'm here. But it does take time; it's always wiser to know why certain things are in place before you try and change them."

Cop soundtrack cracks double platinum

The Beverly Hills Cop soundtrack, released on the MCA label, has surpassed double platinum status in Canada. This represents sales of 200,000 or more.

The LP has yielded chart action for several of its tracks - notably The Heat Is On (Glenn Frey), Neutron Dance (Pointer Sisters), and New Attitude (Patti Labelle).

The Frey single has gone gold in Canada (sales of 50,000 or more) with the former Eagle certain to play several Canadian dates this summer.

Just released from the soundtrack is the Shalamar single, Don't Get Stopped In Beverly Hills, in 7" and 12" formats, and coming up is Patti Labelle's Stir It Up in both singles formats.

Of Association was recorded in Paris (Pathe Marconi), Sussex (Park Gates), and London (Workhouse Studios).

Among the 11 tracks on Association there are 5 new songs penned by Young and Kewley: Everything Must Change, Tomb Of Memories, One Step Forward, Hot Fun, and This Means Anything.

Young's current touring band, The Royal Family is comprised of Johnny Turnbull (guitar), Matt Irving (keyboards), Ian Kewley (keyboards), Mark Pinder (drums), Pino Palladino (bass) and background singers George Chandler, Jimmy Chambers, and Tony Jackson. - KCW

WALT SAYS

We suffer from overkill . . . !!

Just when dealers, record companies and some artists were saying that records, to aid worthy causes, had run their course, a rash of new ones came into the picture. No one has anything against good causes, but this industry seems to suffer from overkill. There must be other ways for the industry to help the needy. By the way, the record industry in Canada hasn't been a slacker when it comes to charities. (EC: Hear! Hear!)

Take the poster out first . . . !!!

A major label was so anxious to get their new, fast-breaking Cancon package out to the press they left a beautiful poster in the LP package . . . and bored it as a promo piece. The result was 4 neatly rounded holes through the face of this established rock star. No need to mention any names.

Classifieds are for everyone . . . !!!

If you take a look at our classified section this week, you will notice the wide variety of opportunities being offered. This week we have a record store for sale, a job with a record label for a bookkeeper, an opportunity for someone with production capabilities to take on a full time lecturing job at Fanshawe. (EC: Sounds like a hint!!)

A roast extraordinaire coming up???

They're already talking about a roast in September that will be the roast of all time, complete with "tasteless one-liners", I hope. Planned as one of the biggest fun nights in the history of the industry, this one promises to be the very best. You'll be hearing more, if the grapevine hasn't already tipped you. (EC: I wonder what the guerilla is doing that night?) Why . . . are you looking for a date??

Edith Butler is looking for material

During the recent P.R.O. Canada luncheon to launch SODRAC, I had the opportunity to talk with Edith Butler's personal manager, Lise Aubut. She informed me that Edith is looking for new song material for her next album and would like to tap the English Canadian market. If you have something that might be suitable for Edith, tape it and send it to Lise at 86 Chemin de la Cote Ste-Catherine, Outremont, P.Q. H2V 2A3.

Bryan Adams hits the top in U.S.

For the doombeaters and doubters who have been selling Cancon short for years, comes news that Bryan Adams hits the top of the U.S. trade charts this week with Heaven, his A&M single. The last Canadian to hit this magic number was Anne Murray in 1978 for her single, You Needed Me. Nick Gilder hit No. 1 a week earlier with Hot Child In The City, but Gilder was actually born in Britain. Ironically, both Adams and Gilder were singers for Sweeney Todd on Roxy Roller. Gilder aside, the last Canadian-born male to hit the top spot was Andy Kim (now Baron Longfellow) in 1975 with Rock Me Gently. The last Canadian group to reach the No. 1 spot was BTO with You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet . . . that was in 1974. BTO, oddly enough, were managed by Bruce Allen at the time . . . and he manages Adams, among many others.

Do we get phone calls? Are we right on?

We get plaudits and praise for our comments about that bunch of outsiders no one likes. We thought we were the only ones, but we have developed quite a following. Strange how great minds think alike and how many people out there have changed their minds!! (EC: Who could he mean?)

Several names guest on Beach Boys LP

Stevie Wonder, Ringo Starr, Gary Moore and Roy Hay of Culture Club are among several name artists who made guest appearances on the Beach Boys' new self-titled LP, released on the Caribou label.

Produced by Steve Levine (Culture Club), the album marks the band's first studio project in 5 years, and contains 4 new Brian Wilson compositions, a Stevie Wonder penning of I Do Love You, plus Passing Friend, written by Boy George.

Getcha Back, the first single taken from the album has moved quickly up the RPM 100 singles survey, cracking the Top 50 after only 2 weeks of charting.

The Beach Boys: Brian Wilson, Mike Love, Carl Wilson, and Al Jardine, are joined by Bruce Johnston, often referred to as "the 6th Beach Boy". It was Johnston who appeared for Brian Wilson when the latter was unable to make some dates.

Well . . . the BBM's are out once again!!

There's glasses tinkling at some radio stations . . . and teeth gnashing (in private) at others with the release of the latest BBM spring ratings. It's easy to get noses out of joint when reporting on who got the big numbers, so we prefer to stay away from that area of contention. It all depends on how you interpret the results and most station managers put on a happy face, even if they're on the bottom of the heap. There are no losers, just ask the guy at the bottom.

Better he should have stayed home!

Rock stars can influence their concert audiences, but taking on the legal system can have disastrous results. All a judge has to do is look at one of these rock spokespersons and he gets his establishment back up, but when he's told his judiciary system is archaic clang goes the door!!!

CBS has another diamond . . . !!!

Is retail soft? It might be for some labels, but CBS continues its roll and just as we go to press, news breaks that they have another diamond star that's one million units sold. The big prize goes to Bruce Springsteen for Born In The USA, which was released one year ago. Out of that LP came Dancing In The Dark, Cover Me, Born In The USA, I'm On Fire, and his current single, Glory Days. There aren't too many diamond winners, and CBS has had only 2 others: Meat Loaf and Michael Jackson. Maybe it was Springsteen's highly publicized marriage that brought him over the top.

It's all in the wrapping . . . !!!

Nash The Slash is taking on the giant Pepsi Cola company for what the statement of claim to the Ontario Supreme Court claims "misappropriation of his likeness, personality and identity". This one has been on the burner for some time, but now Nash is serious and he's asking for $1 million in damages. Apparently Pepsi Cola used a Nash The Slash lookalike on a Pepsi TV commercial which featured Rough Trade. The commercial had a shot of a man with bandages covering his face, and wearing dark glasses . . . and . . . according to Nash, whose real name is Jeff Plewman, and his lawyer David Himelfarb, the former created the bandage-wrapped character as a rock persona. Stay tuned.

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership." - Pierre Juneau

RECORDS TO RADIO

Major releases for summer at CBS

by Lynda Kay
 Manager Press/Publicity
 CBS Records

June and July are shaping up as months chock full of a variety of new product from established CBS acts.

Hot off the presses and to radio is Men At Work's latest LP, Two Hearts. The first single, Everything I Need, is locked in solidly at AOR, with CHR following suit. Also hitting radio is Beach Boys' latest LP, which includes their hit single and video Getcha Back.

Lynda Kay

On the Canadian side, Orphan's Salute is hitting the airwaves with a bang. Stations that have already added the single Lyin' To Me within days of release are CKIK, CFOX, CHOM, CITI-FM, Q107, CFMC, and CILA. Produced by Jon Astley and Phil Chapman, the LP has a simultaneous U.S. release.

Other domestic LPs set to hit the airwaves within the next 8 weeks are Loverboy's Loving Every Minute Of It and Platinum Blonde's Alien Shores.

Gowan continues to do well at radio. His latest single, Strange Animal, is halfway to gold, with the Strange Animal LP well on it's way to double platinum. The LP has just been released in the States while Gowan is set to tour the U.S. opening for Tears For Fears. All indications are that he will equal the success he has attained in Canada in the U.S.

Other releases to watch for in the next few weeks are Jeff Beck's Flash, Carly Simon's Carly, Weird Al Yankovic's Dare To Be Stupid (with his version of Like A Virgin retitled Like A Surgeon), Romantics' Rhythm Romance, Ozzy Osbourne's Ultimate Sin, Stevie Ray Vaughan's Soul To Soul, and, featuring 2 new tracks, Billy Joel's Greatest Hits.

CRTC task force on French-language pop

The CRTC has announced the formation of a "task force" on French-language popular music that would include "the participation of the broadcast, recording, and entertainment industries, as well as performers, government officials and other experts in the field."

This follows requests from French-language broadcasters for a reduction in the level of French-language vocal music required by the CRTC - now 65% of total music played. The broadcasters argue that production of French-language records has decreased, particularly in the areas of "rock-oriented and dance music."

There are also reports that influential French-language Tory members are concerned with the lack of exposure being given to French-language records and that a move is underway to influence the CRTC to increase, rather than reduce the percentage of French-language recordings, generally.

Sunnybrook staffers cut disc for research

The staff of the Toronto-Bayview Regional Cancer Centre (billing themselves as the Toronto-Bayview Regional Cancer Centre Singers) have recorded If We Try, a song released as a single to help finance a research facility at the centre, located at Sunnybrook Medical Centre in Toronto.

The song was penned and produced by Andrea Iscoe, spouse of cancer specialist Dr. Neill Iscoe.

The vocal arrangements for the session were done by Cynthia Allen-Campbell, a unit coordinator and part-time music teacher. Studio space was provided, free of charge, by Andy Thompson of Northumberland Studio in Campbellford, Ont.

The single, carrying a price tag of $5.00, is available at several Toronto and area locations including Sam The Record Man's downtown store and participating Sam's outlets, Song and Script, Records On Wheels, and the centre which is located on Bayview Avenue.

Honeymoon Suite present WEA platinum album to MuchMusic host Michael Williams for his effort in breaking the group's album.

WHISKEY JACK - Country
Whiskey Jack - Master Disc - WJS-8004

Toronto-based country quartet release their 3rd LP, produced by Chad Irschick at Inception Sound. The band has billed its sound as "an exciting bluegrass-influenced style of country music". Country programmers have been quick to roll with this sound, as evidenced by the national pattern of acceptance for One In A Million, the first single taken from the LP. Also key are Fiddlin Man and In The Morning.

STING - Pop
The Dream Of The Blue Turtles
A&M - SP-3750-W

An intelligent, spare, and beautifully resonant record that brings the awesome singing and writing talents of Sting into focus. The crack musicians assembled for the sessions seem to know when to dig in and when to lean back. All tracks are key. Deluxe 2-pg. inner sleeve with libretto. Produced by Sting and Pete Smith. If You Love Somebody Set Them Free, the debut single, is comfortably into the Top 30 on RPM's 100 singles survey after only 2 weeks of charting.

ORPHAN - Pop
Salute - Portrait - FR-40059-H

Second LP from Winnipeg quartet. Lyin' To Me taken as debut single. The group does most of the writing as a team however, key are the Chris Burke-Gaffney solo penning's of A Little Heart & Soul, The Way It Should Be, and Open Up The Skies. Hard yet mellow sound that could capture both the CHR and AOR markets. Co-produced by Phil Chapman and Jon Astley at Kingdom Sound in Syosset, New York. Aldo Nova is featured on guitar solo on Steel And Iron.

THE BEACH BOYS - Pop
The Beach Boys - Caribou - FZ-39946-H

Once around again for the seemingly eternal boys of summer. Key is Getcha Back, taken as a single and headed into the RPM Top 30. Produced by Steve Levine. Inner sleeve with libretto.

ROSANNE CASH - Country/Pop Rhythm & Romance
Columbia - FC-39463-H

Johnny's daughter has already made gains up the charts with her new single, I Don't Know Why You Don't Want Me, included here and written by herself and producer hubby Rodney Crowell. Country is obviously the target but the crossover action will happen all by itself. Rosanne wrote 8 of the selections here, but will probably be more successful with Tom Petty's Never Be You, and John Hiatt's Pink Bedroom, both key tracks.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC - Country
Southern Pacific - Warner Bros - 92-52061-P

A new country band featuring 2 former Doobie Bros., guitarist John McFee and drummer Keith Knudsen. Debut single, Someone's Gonna Love Me Tonight has already impressed country programmers and is making moves up the RPM Country 60. Key are Tom Petty's Thing About You, a duet between Tim Goodman and Emmylou Harris, and a rather surprising but delightful version of Foreigner's Luanne.

Bullfrog production for Bootleg

New from the Vancouver-based Rana label is the Bootleg debut of Weekend Cowboy, a Vancouver band that has been building up a strong following throughout B.C. and Washington state. The single has been picking up solid, across-the-board action, particularly in the West, with Hamilton's CHAM, indicating interest. The plug side, and flip (You've Got Me Hurtin') are both Ron Irving originals, published through Minkey Music (P.R.O. Canada), and was produced at Vancouver's Bullfrog Studios by Irving. The single has also been cut as a duet in Nashville by David Houston and Gary Buck, who are currently working on their duet of E.T. Still Means Ernest Tubb To Me. Irving is no stranger to the charts, having made a national niche for himself in 1981 with his solo release of Bluebird Lullaby. He was also the winner of 1st and 3rd places in the Songwriting Competition for the B.C. Country Music Awards of 1984. The other members of Bootleg are: bassist Gerry King, the voice-over on Kellogg's Raisin Bran, Labatt's Blue and many other national TV/radio commercials; guitarist Bryan Nelson, a noted studio musician, who twice won the Composer Award in the CFMI Songwriting Competition; and Dan Proulx, drummer, who is also a recognized studio session man for jingles and commercials. All of the Bootleg members with the exception of Proulx contribute songwriting material for their sound which has been tagged as

"Nashville dance - rockin' country music". The Rana label is owned by Fred Coch of Nelson, a highly-respected promoter of country music.

New Lord single shipping

Latest from the Kansas-based Comstock label is Anne Lord's new single, Stars In My Eyes, billed as a "Special Summer Release". The Vancouver-based Lord and her husband Roger, co-wrote the single which follows Anne's big win this year in the British Columbia Country Music Awards. She was voted Female Vocalist and Record Performer of The Year, and her Endlessly LP won the Album of The Year Award. Anne is the only Canadian country artist on an independent label to put 5 consecutive records into the U.S. Top 100 charts, and is now being accepted throughout the U.K. and Europe. The new Lord single is being promoted from Comstock's Kansas City headquarters by Marsha Puhl.

Ruth Ann splits management firm

In Tune Management & Consulting of Guelph, Ontario, has announced that they and Ruth Ann have "mutually agreed to terminate the management agreement in existence between the two parties."

Ellis solos on Davisville

Wray Ellis, known for several years as a studio session musician for many recording artists, makes his solo debut on the Davisville label. The single, Take A Chance, a Cyril Rawson original, was produced at Nashville's Chelsea Studio by Tony Migliore. The latter is also featured on keyboards. Wray's first road experience was with Rainbow Wind, a Southern rock band. After a couple of years of touring, he was asked to play bass for Cliff Edwards, and went on to perform with several name Cancon acts including Eddie Eastman, Glory-Anne Carriere, Ronnie Prophet, Marie Bottrell, and Kelita Haverland. The Davisville label is based in Toronto.

Carlton's raise funds for tornado victims

The Carlton Showband were recently scheduled for a concert in Barrie, Ontario (June 1), the day after a devastating tornado ripped through the area. The concert became a "special event" drawing a sold out crowd to the city's Dunlop Arena.

"What was to have been a normal concert situation for us turned out to be a fund raiser for the victims of the devastating tornado," said group manager Scoot Irwin. "We put a cardboard box onstage and solicited donations from the audience," he continued. "We deposited our entire fee from the engagement and when all was tallied, we had raised over $12,000."

The 7-piece band, now in its 21st year, is preparing a swing through Western Canada, which will bring them into Brooks, Alberta (July 5), Kyle (6), Calgary (7-11) for the Stampede, Moose Jaw (12), Nanton (16), and Red Deer (18-20).

Their new album, Reflections, will be released on the ESP label. A single, Fields Of Athenry, is scheduled for a July release.

Bluegrass is theme for International Caravan

Metro Toronto's International Caravan '85 will once again stage a Bluegrass showing at this year's Nashville Pavilion (June 21 through 29), the 3rd consecutive year for Dixon Hall, the neighbourhood community centre at 58 Sumach Street. There will be continuous entertainment, plus food and drink in the traditions of the Old South, plus a display of guitar-making.

Silver Birch (formerly Bluegrass Revival) will appear at the pavilion on Friday and Saturdays evenings (21, 22, 28 and 29). Sunday (23) will be a family affair with The Perry Family performing.

The Nashville Jammers, featuring Terri Craig and Anne LeBlanc, their friends and special guests on the 24th

The Bluegrass Network will be featured on Tuesday (25), with Strange Creek scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday (26-27).

Nightly on stage in front of Dixon Hall, the Ontario Rhythm Cloggers will strut their stuff, for their 3rd consecutive annual appearance. Directed by Sylvia Hunka, the group perform the traditional "flat-footin'" clog dances which date from early days of the American South.

In the Nashville Pavilion's Beergarden, in Dixon Hall's backyard, the Country Music Jammers will appear nightly (21-29) in informal jam sessions featuring traditional and contemporary country music.

The Nashville Pavilion is Dixon Hall's major fundraising activity of the year, and involves the efforts of more than 200 volunteers, including all of the entertainers who are donating their time and talent. Dixon Hall benefits only from the advance sale of Caravan Passports - until June 14.

CHOO Cook-Off aids handicapped children

The CHOO Chili Cook-Off '85 held at Heydenshore-On-The-Lake in Whitby, Ontario (May 24-26) drew record crowds despite a rainy last day. More than 4,000 country fans attended this popular event, the 6th such annual cook-off and talent search held by the station - this year in conjunction with the Durham Regional Police Association.

Mrs. Lorna Braid, Station Manager of CHOO Radio, turned over a cheque in the amount of $4,000 to the Durham Regional Police Association. The funds will go to aid handicapped children in the area.

The 3-day event featured several crowd-drawing competitions, including log sawing, nail driving, and a fiddle contest, pinata parties and treasure hunts, pancake breakfasts and a dunking tank plus the grand finals of the Annual CHOO Country Talent Search.

In the talent search there were 4 finalists: Herb Vine, Debra Thompson, April Suchiro, and Lesley White. The finalists were chosen from among 174 contestants who competed at the Oshawa Corral over a 17 week period. Judges for the finals were Pat Riccio Jr. (musical arranger for Anne Murray and an independent record producer), Bill Johnston (CHOO on-air personality), Barry Haugen (Manager, RCA Videos), Henry McQuirk (Country Music News), and RPM's Walt Grealis.

The winner of this year's search was April Suchiro. She received a $1,000 cash prize.

Spin's McCall to base in Florida

Canadian country singer Karen McCall, who just released her debut single, Rebel Getaway, on the Kitchener-based Spin label, has revealed that she will be changing her base of operation to Ft. Lauderdale. The move is expected to take place in October.

The reason for the move is an employment change for her husband. "I'm hoping the move will further my career, McCall noted. "Career-wise, I think it's for the better. I have worked a few dates in the States and the response has been very positive." She will also be looking into U.S. record releases.

In addition to her current promo visits to radio stations, McCall hopes to play Nashville's Fanfare in August, Country Music Week in Edmonton, and release her album in September. The 6-song mini-LP, The Rebel Getaway, has been in the works for a year and is being produced by Richard Hutt.

Her current single is beginning to indicate a solid pattern of acceptance with both country and A/C programmers. "Response to my new single has been great," she notes. "I'm surprised because it's a crossover song and I thought a few stations would say it wasn't country enough."

MUSIC

WHAM tops Much survey

Everything She Wants, the current single by Columbia recording act WHAM, has captured the No. 1 spot on the MuchMusic video channel's national survey for the week ending June 7.

New single from Lady Luck

Lady Luck, consisting of Joyanne Johnson (lead vocals, keyboards), James Redmond (guitars, electronics, synthesizers), and Barry Redmond (bass, computerized drums, sequenced bass), are on release with their debut Focus single, On A Night Like This. The plug side and flip (Destiny) were penned by the Redmonds and qualify as 4 parts Cancon. The single was produced by Ben Kaye and Yves Godin. Focus product is distributed by the Montreal-based Trans Canada Records.

New releases in CBC's SM5000 series

The CBC's SM5000 now includes 3 more releases: the Oktoberfest Operetta (Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Raffi Armenian); Beethoven's Sonatas For Violin And Piano (Steven Staryk, violin, and John Perry, piano); and Morawetz, Tchaikovsky, Kodaly, and Dvorak (Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Kazuhiro Koizumi).

New Artisan LP for Eastman

Eddie Eastman is on release with his Artisan LP, The Winning Side. Produced in Nashville by Eastman and Gilles Godard, The LP includes Eastman's current single, Take A Chance With Me, as well as a duet with Tembo recording artist Carroll Baker - How Close Am I To Losing You.

A native of Terra Nova, Nfld., Eastman came into prominence in 1976 via releases such as The Other Side Of Town, I Wonder What Those Lonely People Do, and Eastbound 401. Twice a Juno Award winner, Eastman is currently taping a 2nd season of his CBC TVer The Eddie Eastman Show - seen in selected markets last year. The series may air nationally pending completion of discussions currently underway.

Eastman has previously playlisted 28 singles nationwide, and will tour extensively in support of The Winning Side. The LP's packaging was coordinated through Glenda Richards and photographed by David Street. Artisan product is distributed by Applewood Productions.

Eastman will premiere the entire Winning Side LP on the Nashville Network TVer New Country, airing in July on both sides of the border. Promo spots were completed earlier this year on Nashville Now and Wraparound shows aired in May.

later this month. Following the Garbo's engagement, King is slated to perform at Toronto's Harbourfront Jazz Festival in a lineup that will include bassist Dave Young and guitarist Rob Piltch.

Corley releases Square Rooms

Mecury recording artist Al Corley is on release with Square Rooms, a single available in both 7" and 12" formats. Distribution is through Polygram. Square Rooms was co-written with Harold Faltermeyer, currently seeing chart action with his Axel F single. Faltermeyer also produced and arranged the track for Corley.

Formerly a principal character in the American soap Dynasty, Corley is currently preparing material for an LP. Square Rooms has, according to the Polygram release, sold over 1 million copies worldwide, notching Top 10 slots in Austria, Belgium, and Switzerland.

New Hardy LP on Duke label

Duke Street Records has released Hagood Hardy's follow-up to his debut LP of last year, Chasing A Dream. Hardy's 2nd LP for the label will be Night Magic. Produced by Hardy and Andrew Hermant, Night Magic features artist such as Vern Dorge (saxophone) and Rob Piltch (guitar). Hardy plays piano and vibes. A Sometime Lover has been taken as the first single. According to the label's release, cassette formats of Night Magic contain A Nest In The Westin, a "straight jazz number indicative of Hagood's

'NY's Streets hosts El Mocambo dates

CFNY-FM's Streets Of Ontario, hosted by Liz Janik and Peter Goodwin, will present 4 shows at Toronto's El Mocambo during June and July.

The dates have been finalized as Paul James (June 15), Look People/Burning Building (22), Tulpa (27), and Direktive 17/Woods Are Full of Cuckoos (July 4).

The Tulpa date is a record release party. The band's debut Midnight LP, Mosaic Fish, is distributed in Europe through Rough Trade Records and is currently available in Canada.

Streets Of Ontario is heard on Sundays from 4 to 5 p.m.

The drawing power of Katrina & The Waves is evident here at the Ontario Place Forum (May 29) where they drew a crowd of 10,000 plus fans. Their Attic single, Walking On Sunshine is now established as a hit.

Deserter DiClemente anchors Tribe

Former Deserter Henry DiClemente is now the beat behind Toronto power-pop quartet The Tribe. The diminutive but powerful drummer is part of a current lineup that includes guitarist Mike Thomas, vocalist/guitarist/writer Leo Nieberg (ex-Blitz), and bassist Gary Quinn. The Tribe are slated to enter Toronto 24-track facility Comfort Sound to demo as many as 4 of the 25-odd tunes they have worked up.

RADIO

CKSL cops 2 awards

London's CKSL has received 2 awards from the Central Canada Region of the Radio and Television News Directors Association. Our Friends In Need, an investigative series on London charities, won the Dan McArthur Award, recognizing coverage of stories that stations research and present in greater depth. The Charlie Edwards Award was garnered as a result of the station's coverage of the tornado that swept through London on Labour Day last year. This award recognizes "enterprise and thoroughness in reporting spot news". The 2 entries will be judged in an upcoming national competition.

KX96 stages Hot Tracks contest

KX96 FM recently staged their Hot Tracks contest which put morning man Gary McGowan to work at the Brandon station weekdays between 7 and 9 where he played a portion of a special song and encouraged listeners to stay with the station for a repeat play of the day's Hot Track. The first caller to identify the subsequent play of the daily Hot Track won an LP and was entered in the Hot Tracks Grand Prize Draw. Debbie Lelonde of Brandon was selected as the Hot Tracks grand prize winner. She won a 2-week vacation in Orlando, Florida including return airfare and the use of a rental vehicle for the duration of her stay.

CJCH patches into Rockline

Halifax listeners are given the opportunity to "talk to the stars" every Tuesday at 12:30 a.m. during the exclusive hook-up of CJCH to Rockline. The 90-minute live radio music show originates from Los Angeles and is relayed by satellite to 12 Canadian
