MUSICACTION receives full programmer support

Many in Canada's English-language recording community are shaking their heads in wonderment over the "spirit of support" their French-language counterparts are receiving from Quebec programmers. Albums by Quebec artists released during 1987 sold more than one million units. These included Patrick Norman's Quand on est en amour, which sold more than 200,000 copies; Celle qui va by Marjo, with over 175,000 units sold to date; Passe-Partout's Le Noel de Pruneau et Cannelle, which topped the 100,000 mark; and Michel Rivard's Un trou dans les nuages, now closing in on the 100,000 mark.

During 1987, MUSICACTION had a budget of $2.2 million, most of which came from Ottawa. However, it's expected that during this year the funds will be even larger because of contributions from broadcasters.

Michel Gelinas, Executive Director of MUSICACTION, The Honourable Flora MacDonald and Edith Butler, taken during MUSICACTION gold record celebration honouring Francophone artists. Gold awards were presented to the Federal Minister for successful LPs by Daniel Lavoie, Nuance, Michel Rivard, Marjo and two for Edith Butler.

Praxis trading halted amid news of sale

Shares of Praxis Technologies were listed at $0.45, down 6 cents (Jan 26/88). The 52-week high for this stock was $13.00 and the low was $0.40.

Trading was halted this same date, when information was apparently received that Cinram was planning an offer of 40 cents a share for Praxis' outstanding common shares.

Retailers vie for Jackson Wembley trip

As part of the new display contest, introduced by CBS Records, which kicks off Feb. 1st., three retailers will have a chance to win a week-long trip to England to see Michael Jackson in concert at Wembley Arena.

In conjunction with Pepsi, who are offering the same trip through their Bad In Britain contest, CBS will offer one grand prize each for three regions (Quebec and Maritimes, Ontario and the West) as well as runner-up prizes of Philips Walkmans and CBS six-packs of Top Gun cassettes.

Prizes will be awarded on the basis of photos submitted to CBS on a widely-distributed entry-form.

In some cases financial support from the latter has doubled. Tele-Metropole, for instance is supporting Quebec's recording industry with $100,000 per year for the next five years.

Michel Gelinas, the Director General of MUSICACTION, points out that "What's amazing is that in one year, regardless of everything else, the Francophone recording industry came up with ten gold albums, 2 single platinum and one double platinum certifications, of which MUSICACTION had half. We find this very positive. It does mean that all of this remains a commercial venture. We are indeed an industrial program . . . we are not a cultural program, so to speak."

Gelinas continues with, "Support from radio stations in Quebec was incredible last year. In terms of airplay, out of the Top 20 last year we had 16, as opposed to 9 the year before. Now, if we take a look at the Top 10,

FACTOR MPF program sets Feb. 29 deadline

FACTOR is now accepting applications from Canadian-owned and controlled record labels and record production companies for funding under the Multi-Project Funding Program (MPF). The program is designed to support Canadian-owned active labels doing business on a national basis.

Companies may qualify for a line of credit available for the 12 month period from Apr. 1, 1988 to Mar. 31, 1989. This line of credit is available to help finance the production of recording projects. It should be pointed out that FACTOR may fund up to 50 percent of the production costs of a project to a maximum of $60,000 per project.

Feb. 29, 1988 has been set as the deadline for submitting applications.

For more information call The Program Officer, Multi-Project Funding Program, in Toronto (Ina Amiraute) 416-368-8678, or in Vancouver (Judy Harnett) 604-874-5766.

Westwood One Canada increases use of Seltech

Westwood One Canada will be adding more than 10 hours of programming to the Seltech Satellite System delivery schedule, effective Feb. 1st. Randy Timmins of Westwood One Canada explains, "This dramatic increase in the use of Seltech Satellite is a direct result of Seltech's increased market penetration and their strong desire to serve their clients, both radio stations and program distributors."

He continues with, "For Westwood One Canada, this is just another step toward servicing radio stations by delivering quality programs on a schedule and at reasonable rates."

Timmins also points out that Westwood One Canada "is a leading radio program distributor with a mandate of helping stations cut costs, grow local revenues and build overall audience numbers, all while offering advertisers sponsorship benefits like targeted media, sales promotion opportunities, multi-brand marketing capability and enhanced image through program association."

Westwood One Canada is based in Toronto.

this jumps from 5 to 10, and let's look at the Top 5. We jumped to 5 in 1987 from three over the previous year . . . that means the Top 5 were local titles," which says something for Quebec radio stations. These disc jockeys, music directors and program directors are very supportive. They want Quebec artists to succeed . . . and that's what's going to make MUSICACTION a huge success story."

Attic's Mair strikes deal with Scandinavia's Sonet

Alexander Mair, President of Attic Records, sends news from MIDEM that "effective immediately, Sonet will be the exclusive Scandinavian distributor for the Attic label." Negotiations between Dag Haeggqvist, Sonet Music Group Chairman and Mair, led to the completion of the deal.

It should be pointed out that Attic was the first and only Canadian music company to receive a 1987 Canada Export Award from the Canadian government for their international licensing success.

In announcing the deal, Mair commented, "I've worked with Gunnar, Dag and the Sonet crew, off and on, for almost 20 years, but this is the first time we have ever discussed an exclusive licensing deal," continuing with "Attic is pleased to join such fine labels as Chrysalis, Island, Jive and Mute in the Sonet stable."

Haeggqvist returned the compliment with, "We have always had a tremendous respect for Alexander Mair and we have followed Attic's progress over the years with much interest. This is the right moment to start building Attic into an important label in Scandinavia."

With a roster of 13 Canadian artists, including Lee Aaron, The Nylons, and Haywire, Attic expects "to substantially increase its penetration of the Scandinavian market," concludes Mair.

WEA Canada introduces CD Super Saver Series

WEA Canada will make 130 compact disc titles available at a reduced price of $19.98 (suggested list), effective Mar. 1st. The program is being tagged as the Super Saver Series and will include such top selling artists as AC/DC, Phil Collins, Chicago, Ry Cooder, Led Zeppelin, Joni Mitchell, and Yes, to name a few.

"WEA's catalogue is among the most extensive in the industry," WEA's Vice President of Sales, Garry Newman, points out. "and many of the titles to be reduced are currently top selling full price items." He concludes with, "The compact disc is the fastest growing configuration in the pre-recorded music industry, and the Super Saver Series will definitely augment that momentum."

Hummel moves from IRS to Ontario Branch - MCA

Coralie Hummel has been appointed retail merchandising rep for MCA, and will be based at their Ontario Branch. She began her new duties mid-January.

Hummel was formerly with IRS Records.

COVER STORY - by Graeme Boyce*Supertramp finally back on track and on the road

Today, Supertramp's John Helliwell continuously infers that only now has the band regained its former composure and are recording again for the right reasons, as opposed to merely fulfilling contractual obligations or satisfying their fattened egos following the release of Crime Of The Century.

From updating the visual aspects of their live show to "embracing" the new technologies of the day; from employing (for the first time) a brass section on the last album to increasing the size of the touring band by four, which allows for proper reproduction of their best songs; and from playing several of Roger Hodgson's numbers to actually feeling relaxed. Obviously, some self-evaluation has taken place.

"Famous Last Words was made in a difficult period," Helliwell explains, "where Roger was wanting to leave, or the band to stop, or whatever, so it was difficult and it's reflected in the music. It's not quite a cohesive album as Breakfast In America was, and was still kind of on the light side.

"But it's a lot easier to see in retrospect and I think it really comes out in the music, but I don't know if it's so easy to see right then. Once you look at something in retrospect, it's very difficult to go back to your original opinions, to see what they were, because everything's coloured by your new experiences."

Crime Of The Century, Crises What Crises, Even In The Quietest Moments, and then Breakfast In America, one after the other, the bandmembers were top of the class in the studio and on the radio. However, all was not rosy, as Helliwell admits, in the wake of Hodgson's departure.

"We made the Famous Last Words album and then we knew Roger was leaving, yet we did the tour anyway, so then it was time for the band to re-establish itself. We decided to make Brother Where You Bound, which was rather on the heavy side, and not really commercial, like we had been with Breakfast, and we decided to go the opposite way to re-establish some of the things about Supertramp that had been around since

WALT SAYS

By popular demand . . . !!

I can't tell you how many people have asked me when RPM will do the 3DIM thing again. Three Days In March was one of the most important events of the year, and to answer the many programmers who have been asking: we will be announcing soon, the return of 3DIM in March of 1989 as part of RPM's 25th Anniversary Celebration. A number of record companies are interested in sponsoring events as part of this celebration and a couple of really big names will be in attendance. (EC: Has it really been 25 years?) There's a lot of excitement in the industry about this already.

It's only a coincidence . . . !!

No way do I even want to suggest that the scheduling of the Junos for March of 1989 is an attempt to cash in on RPM's 25th Anniversary Celebration, but even as I write, I hear rumours that the Junos are being moved to March 1989. It seems that back when the Junos began, it was decreed that the logical time was March and it seems we were right. Somehow, it seems the Junos have been plagued with bad press and controversy and the dailies just have a field day when the

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership." - Pierre Juneau volunteer committees make one change after another and seem to be grasping for answers to a show that was topping the ratings and now can't even compete with the Miss Canada Pageant for ratings. Of all the specials the CBC does, I really think this is really one of the best. Somehow we have to try to make it back into an award show!

Pringle not "bitchy" enough . . . ??

Well, a theatre critic from one of Toronto's dailies, thought Peter Pringle's portrayal of Noel Coward lacked the "bitchiness" of the late and great playwright/actor. On the contrary, from Pringle's opening lines, I felt I was in the company of this famous Englishman. Physically, Pringle was almost the reincarnation of the controversial Coward, even down to his phrasing and "queer" mannerisms. I was never a Coward fan, granted, he was brilliant in his field, but too "left field" for me. However, I do have a couple of criticisms of the show. I would have preferred a setting like the Imperial Room of the Royal York Hotel . . . and two songs, the only two I remember Coward for, which I believe should have been included: Mad About The Boy and Let's Fall In Love ("Bees do it, birds do it . . . even teenagers squeezed into jeans do it . . ."). By the way, this is the type of "musical drama" New Yorkers would love . . . and I'm sure Donald Tarlton (Donald K. Donald), has plans for an "on" or "off" Broadway production. (EC: The first-nighter audience loved the show!)

Kudos to Gino . . . the great!!

Is there a greater PR person in Canada than Gino Empry? Who else could have arranged for Fabian to hand out hot dogs or Lou Christie to put it in a bag? Would you like Knowlton Nash to take a dog off the grill or Barbara Hamilton to put mustard on it? Perhaps Craig Russell would hand you the relish. (EC: Would you relish that??) I don't want to name drop, but here are some of the other people who were out in the cold, selling

REFLECTING AND PROJECTING THE EIGHTIES

CD's, touring acts and home videos are priority

Compact discs continue to command the attention of the industry, and, over the next week or so, we will hear of a major acquisition in this field that will make headline news.

As the importance and popularity of compact discs grow, there will be more pressure brought to bear to have the software price reduced, and in some cases, this is now being done. However, as Ross Reynolds cautions in his message that follows: "We shouldn't over-react and prematurely kill black vinyl." There are still a few million households where the turntable is "king" and it will take a few years yet to convert these people to the "silence" of the compact disc.

The home video market has never looked better as our contributors indicate, but video sell-through is finally growing, which could create yet another plus for this entertainment field.

At one time, in Canada, there were only a handful of managers. We can now boast a very large number of "highly professional" managers, and they are successfully shaping their acts for the international arena. Over the next few weeks we will get closer to these people, many of whom represent acts commanding attention, not only in Canada but in the U.S. as well as the European market. Touring and where to tour is very important in maintaining an image for our new and established artists, and Balmur, representing Anne Murray and Frank Mills, is a leader in established acts. Balmur's Leonard Rambeau touches on the importance of touring.

make CDs more affordable has been extremely favourable. I anticipate that our CD penetration will continue to grow as the appetites of newly acquired CD machines need to be satisfied. While the decline of the LP has been well documented, we shouldn't over-react and prematurely kill black vinyl. Our figures indicate that the "record freak" still prefers to collect LPs.

In short, 1988 will be a very exciting year.

Balmur sets pace with U.S. & Canadian tours

*Leonard T. Rambeau
President, Balmur Ltd.*

1987 was another successful and productive year for Balmur Ltd. Anne Murray performed her first ever coast-to-coast Canadian tour with Ford of Canada as her first corporate sponsor. Highlights of her touring year included six SRO nights at Toronto's O'Keefe Centre, a sold-out concert at New York City's Radio City Music Hall and a crowd of 17,500 that greeted her at the State Fair in Columbus, Ohio! Anne's current album, Harmony, went gold here in Canada and in the U.S. album catalogue record sales increased, resulting in the following RIAA certifications - two gold, two platinum and one triple platinum record(s).

Frank Mills released an adventuresome project - Transitions - which brought him more in line with the synthesized world of new age music, as well as garnering him a U.S. signing with Capitol Records. Frank successfully appeared in forty-one concert dates throughout the country in 1987 and both television network Christmas specials were repeated this past December.

The "record freak" still prefers to collect LPs

*Ross Reynolds
Executive Vice President & General Manager
MCA Records (Canada)*

Year-end comments from the industry clearly indicate that optimism is a pre-requisite for being involved in the record business.

At the risk of being repetitive, 1987 was another very good year for MCA, with a sales growth of over 20 percent from 1986. This growth has been consistent, so that over the past four years, our sales have more than tripled. During that time the company has progressed from waiting for the next Olivia

Newton-John album to consistently being represented at the top of the charts. Also, we now have strong product in each area of music from urban contemporary, through pop, to new age. We are particularly pleased with our country product and our growing ability to handle it.

Obviously, this sales growth has been very gratifying, but it is even more exciting to have seen a group of MCA veterans combine with a number of new people to develop into the best team that I've ever worked with.

With the "what have you done for me lately" nature of our business, a good year always raises the question of how to top it. I am very optimistic that we will grow again in 1988. There are 1988 releases scheduled for almost every one of our major artists. In addition, a number of our developing acts are being set up to become major sellers in the coming year. Also, we see significant sales potential in the February release of the Vancouver band, BLVD.

SIBERRY'S SIMULTANEOUS SINGLE

This week sees the simultaneous release in the United States and Canada of the new single from Jane Siberry's Duke Street album, THE WALKING. The single, INGRID AND THE FOOTMAN, has been edited to 3:56 from its original 7:00 minute length. Our guess: a major hit is on the way.

American and European concerts will follow a Canadian tour which starts in early March. Jane Siberry, like so many other distinctive Canadian songwriters, is a member of CAPAC which provides a wide and diverse repertoire of music for all Canadian broadcasters.

COUNTRY

John Mills gets RDR push

Latest to the Rosedale roster is John Mills with his debut single, Alone With The Night, one of his own originals. The session was produced by Andy Thompson at Northumberland 29 Studios. Joe Wood, of RDR Promotions, is gearing his promotion at both the country and A/C markets, and he's already received favourable comments from both markets.

Lang & Prophet get CJOC nod

New to the CJOC Lethbridge playlist is Ronnie Prophet's Fire In The Feeling and Tune Into My Wave by K.D. Lang. Music Director Brent Estabrooks is also giving priority play to Carroll Baker's Cheater's Moon, Highway To Heaven by the Stoker Brothers, Bruce Golden's Three Broken Hearts and Patricia Conroy's My Heart's On Fire, to name just a few. Also looking good at the station is Wheels by Restless Heart, Tennessee Flat

Top Box by Rosanne Cash, and Michael Johnson's Cryin' Shame.

Rita MacNeil added to BX-93 playlist

Although Rita MacNeil's latest single, Leave Her Memory, isn't being pushed to country stations, the country-flavoured keyboard work has obviously caught the attention of BX-93 Music Director Dave Collins. The song, a MacNeil original, produced by Ralph Dillon, is added to the station's playlist this week.

Olov pushing new Mattson single

Larry Mattson makes a very strong bid for the charts with his latest Olov single, Candlelight & Wine. Mattson returned to the business last year, after a lengthy absence and made his presence known with the release of Without You, followed by Poor Hard Working Man and a Christmas single, The Spirit

Mercey Bros firmed for RYH's Imperial Room

The Mercey Brothers, a household name in Canada's country/pop field, will be playing the Imperial Room of Toronto's Royal York Hotel from Feb. 15 through 20. It's a rare occasion for a Canadian country act to play this prestigious room. It was only in recent years when publicist Gino Empry was able to open the room to this "fun" type of entertainment, pulling good houses for dates by Carroll Baker and by Ronnie Hawkins.

The Mercey Brothers, have been an integral part of Canada's country music scene for almost 25 years. The band went through a personnel change a few years ago and Larry and Lloyd, the two remaining brothers, put together a dynamic vocal harmonizing group, injected with a wealth of new writing talent. The combination of their new sound and material has guaranteed this Elmira, Ontario band, a greater acceptance by country programmers and a never-ending journey up the charts.

Ken Harnden moves onto the charts

Ken Harnden parlays his RCA debut, She Knows I Can't Say No, into a chart item. A high pressure promotion campaign by Music Brokers, has broken the Harnden single in several markets. The single, which he co-wrote with Marinus Vandertogt, was produced in Canada by Mike Francis and qualified as four-parts Cancon. Harnden is no stranger to the business. He's chalked up more than 15 years as a recording artist, most notably with The Proverbs, a Canadian Gospel group, based in Nashville. He went on to help form Cedar Creek in 1980, where he was featured grammers and a never-ending journey up the charts.

The Merceys have just come down off the charts with their Top 10 single, Raised By The Radio. They are currently working on their next single, Straight To Your Heart, which will be released in time for Valentine's Day, and their Imperial Room opening. They are also putting together their next LP, titled Latest & Greatest - Volume II.

The Mercey Brothers recently finalized a distribution deal with Electric Distributors, and expect to be much more visible in the stores with their product.

on lead vocals, and backed many of the top names in the business as well as appearing on the Grammy Awards show. Harnden is now living back in Canada.

Michael T. Wall gets some help at Kinck Sound for his Christmas song, Sarah Claus, from his two daughters Sabrina Kathryn (7 yrs. old), and Sarah Anne (10 yrs. old). Wall is currently working on another single.

Debbie Myers charts with Destiny single Perseverance has paid off for the Destiny label, with offices in Nepean, Ontario. Their release of Strong Enough To Bend by Debbie Myers, is now forming a strong pattern of programmer acceptance. The plug side was written by Don Schlitz with Beth Nielson Chapman, both of the MTM Music Group in Nashville. The session was produced by Mike Francis, who also doubles on mandolin, acoustic and lead guitar. Ron Dann supplied the steel work and dobro, while Ron Boroughs plays keyboards and synthesizers. Barry Keane is on drums and percussion, while Jim Pirie plays acoustic guitar, and Kim Brant plays bass. Background vocals are supplied by Judy Tate and Stephanie Taylor.

What's in store for '88? A new album from both Anne and Frank and increased touring stateside for Anne. A possibility exists for a TV special for Anne and a second Christmas album is under discussion. We look forward to another successful year at radio and retail for both artists.

Home video rental is stronger than ever

Barry Stafford
President, B + Video Distributors

The Home Video Rental industry is stronger than ever, and if recent figures are any indicator, there is no way but up.

In 1985, 41 percent of Canadian households had VCRs with projections that by 1995 this number would reach 85 percent. The trend is for not only new hit releases but for a wide range of programming to meet consumer demand. B + Video Distributors is Canada's leading Adult Alternative product distributor, and I see indications of increased interest in good quality, low price product, which will broaden the video retailer's library. It's amazing . . . it has never surprised me that the consumer wants movies other than just the hits, and I'm happy to see that the retailers are finally responding to the consumer. Everything rents, if made available to the customer.

He is the one who makes the ultimate decision, and retailers are telling me, more and more, that their customers rent not only the new releases, but other types of programming as well. This should be encouraging news for all involved in the Home Video Industry: studios, distributors, retailers and consumers.

Video sell-through significant in growth

Randy Lennox
Director of Sales,
MCA Records Canada

In 1987, we at MCA Records Canada experienced our most successful year ever, as did another area of our business, Home Video

Last year, we saw a tremendous growth in video with the acquisition of many new labels such as Virgin Vision, Family Home Entertainment and I.V.E.

Our ongoing relationship with Cineplex and our own MCA/Universal also provided many first-rate releases.

Video sell-through saw significant growth due to the vast expansion of our lower priced catalogue as well as an ever increasing account base. In 1988, I see the sell-through market becoming increasingly important to our overall business with more and more record accounts being actively involved.

This area of our business is clearly the future of video, and MCA/Universal plan to continue being the leader in this field.

Crime Of The Century that had been lost.

"It wasn't a commercial move really, and we knew this. But we were also apprehensive about touring, so we delayed touring for a little while, just to see what was going to happen . . . and we actually started to get a good reaction from the album. So we went out on the road, but we didn't do any of Roger's numbers, yet we found we had sufficient to satisfy the crowds anyway."

One of the more positive aspects to come out of Hodgson's leaving the roost was the greater influence both Helliwell and keyboardist Rick Davies could exert on the new songs and their respective arrangements. Even though some of these songs have a jazzier, Latino feel, perhaps also leaning towards R&B, the latest albums haven't sold anywhere close to previous releases.

"Breakfast In America was our biggest selling album . . . the biggest selling album in the world in 1979, and yet it would have been silly of us to presume that we could keep that standard of sales," Helliwell remarks. "We didn't anticipate the next album selling that much."

"But when you talk about declining popularity, that is just a fact of when you have an album that big, it's all over the radio, and everybody knows it. Obviously there's going to be a lot more people wanting to see you, but throughout the years preceding it we had built up quite a following; now I think we've kept that following. We gained a lot of new fans then, but some of them just dropped away, because they're only there for one album."

The band, currently on tour across Canada and on release with their new single (the title track, Free As A Bird), hopes they'll now be respected for their musicianship; but as Helliwell says, their heads aren't in the clouds. Perhaps now though, with that attitude, their fans will be treated to those charismatic and entertaining shows Supertramp were once known for, but somehow lost along the way.

Admitting to making mistakes, Helliwell concludes, "We're never really satisfied with our albums, but I think we're very pleased with the last album overall. We've retained our sense of musicianship, and we had a policy right from Crime Of The Century that we would never support anyone . . . we would always do concerts and it cost us earlier financial success."

"We went against the wishes of the music industry people, but we stuck to our guns, because we felt it was right for us, and in the long run, it's worked. Sure, we made mistakes, but it seems to the way we have to go, and do things our way."
