WHO IN THE WORLD

Michael Stewart Appointed Prexy of United Artists Records, Music Pubberies. Story on Page 3.

In the opinion of the editors, this week the following records are the

SINGLE PICKS OF THE WEEK

A top flight whistle-along song that sounds contemporary and yet oldtime. The Spoonful sing a mouthful with the wonderful "Daydream" (Kama Sutra 208).

The Stones get a new beat song rolling and will roll thereby back into the Top 10 area. The lyric is, as usual with these fellows, intriguing (London 9823).

Tops are tops again with this strictly Detroit number. When they wake the group, they'll be high on the charts (Motown 1090).

SLEEPERS OF THE WEEK

When teenagers hear this wailer, nothing else will matter. It's by newcomer Rodge Martin, who won't be a new name long (Bragg 227).

The beat and the lyric will both draw the young buyers to this Jackie Lee follow-up. It's called "Your P-E-R-S-O-N-A-L-I-T-Y" (Mirwood 5509).

Johnny is due a big one and this revival of the oldie is just the ticket. Teens will go for "My Prayer" just like the teens of 10 years ago (Diamond 196).

ALBUMS OF THE WEEK

Neal Hefti is one of the new TV heroes because he wrote the title theme for the sensational new "Batman" show. That theme is included here along with other melodies inspired by the famed cartoon character. The record company is RCA Victor (LPM/LSP 3573).

Tony Bennett underscores his debut as a movie actor by doing a package of tunes from movies. He incorporates his new single "Maybe September," from his debut movie, "The Oscar," and his recent release, "The Shadow of Your Smile" (Columbia CL 2472; CS 9272).

Memphis is what's happening...

New Waxie Store

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Max ("Waxie Maxie") Silverstein, who has two of the top record stores in the area, will open a third in March in a shopping center, featuring a special section for "blue-eyed soul." His stores, named Quality Music, are expected to number four by year's end. They are primarily R&B.

Order & Precedent

The New Order, expected to sign with a major label soon, helped set a precedent last week when they entertained at the opening of Susan Stein's travel agency in Sak's Fifth Ave., the first time the store had been open on a Sunday. Group is now at Trude Heller's in New York. Also above: Decca's Mimi Hines.

Stewart Named President Of UA Records, Pubberies

Michael Stewart has been named President of United Artists Records and Music Publishing Companies, it was announced by David V. Picker, First Vice President of United Artists Corporation.

Stewart, who previously held the position of Executive Vice President of the Music and Record Division, joined the company in the summer of 1962 as Executive Vice President of UA's music publishing subsidiaries.

Picker to Work Closely with Stewart

Picker, while relinquishing the presidency of the Records and Music Publishing firms, will continue to work closely with Stewart in these areas.

In recent years, the UA Records and music companies have moved into a leading position in these highly competitive fields. The UA Records label has become world-famous for its albums of "Never On Sunday," the Beatles' smash hit, "A Hard Day's Night," one of the biggest-selling albums in the history of the record industry, and the soundtracks from all of the James Bond films, including "Goldfinger" and the current "Thunderball."

Additionally, UA Records has registered impressively with such popular artists as Ferrante and Teicher, Jay And The Americans, Patty Duke, Manfred Mann, Shirley Bassey, Bobby Goldsboro, Lena Horne and Jimmy Roselli. Its publishing activities also have become international in scope.

Formerly Headed Korwin, Dominion

Prior to joining UA, Stewart was head of Korwin Music and Dominion Music and was active in the publishing field for many years. He published the Academy-Award-winning "Never On Sunday," title-song from the Jules Dassin-Melina Mercouri film success.

Kole Joins Atlantic Rack Sales Division

Herb Kole has joined Atlantic-Atco as Coordinator of Rack Sales for the company. Kole will work with rack jobbers and distributors in strengthening and increasing Atlantic-Atco business with racks.

He will report to Len Sachs, director of album sales for Atlantic-Atco. Kole will work out of the company's New York offices, although a large percentage of his time will be spent on the road.

Handleman Manager

For the past year and a half, Kole has been manager of the Handleman Company branch in Camden, N.J., which services the entire East coast from Portland, Maine to Richmond, Va. Before that he was Moe Handelman's assistant in Chicago at the Handleman Company branch in that city for two and a half years. Kole broke into the record business with the King Records distribution branch in Chicago, where he was branch manager for six and a half years.

The post of Coordinator of Rack Sales is a newly created position at Atlantic-Atco.

Alpert, Brass Receive Citations

HOLLYWOOD — More than 250 dignitaries including foreign consuls general, federal, state and civic officials and Hollywood film celebrities turned out Feb. 7 to see popular recording stars Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass receive citations from the Mexican Government and from Los Angeles Mayor Samuel William Yorty, in the Grand Trianon Room of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel.

New Sound Praised

At the reception, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Hernando Court-right, Alpert and the Tijuana Brass were praised for having created a new sound in popular music. A plaque from the Mexican National Tourist Council was presented them by Manuel Munoz-Avina, regional director. It read: "In recognition of their outstanding contributions towards the promotion of Mexico and our Mexican Folk Music throughout the world in concert, on television and with recordings."

More than 5 million of their recordings have been sold world-wide during the past 18 months, according to Gil Friesen, Vice-President of A & M Records.

Col Announces 'Birthday' Wins

Columbia Records has announced the winners of the "Lucky Birthday Sweepstakes" contest. The drawing was held in New York on Jan. 11, and prizes valued at $365,000 will be awarded.

"360" Stereo System plus 365 Columbia albums, a 23" Westinghouse color television set, a portable Masterwork phonograph and a Masterwork AM/FM transistor radio.

Present were Columbia execs Clive Davis, Administrative VP; William P. Gallagher, VP, Columbia Label; Leonard Burkat, VP, Information and Design; Stanley Kavan, VP and General Manager, Columbia Records Sales Corporation; and Joseph Lyons, Director, Sales, Columbia Record Distributors. Robert Blashek, VP of the D. L. Blair Corporation, an independent judging organization which officiated in the contest, and Columbia Records vocalists Bobbe Norris and Bob Morrison also participated in the drawing.

The grand-prize winner is Mrs. Mildred Ingrum of Liberty, Ind. Second-prize winners are Richard Boyce of Sharon Hill, Pa., and Richard Sardisco of Rosemead, Calif. Boyce and Sardisco will each receive a 1966 Ford Mustang hardtop. Five third-prize winners will receive a Suzuki Motorcycle; the 10-fourth prize winners will each receive a Columbia "360" Stereo System plus 100 Columbia albums; the 25 fifth-prize winners will receive a 12" Westinghouse television set; the 50 sixth-prize winners will be awarded a Masterwork portable phonograph plus 50 Columbia albums; and 100 Masterwork AM/FM transistor radios will be awarded as seventh prizes.

In addition to the $365,000 in prizes awarded to the "Lucky Birthday Sweepstakes" contest winners, a 1966 Ford Mustang hardtop will be awarded to the owners of the Specialty Record Shop in Richmond, Ind., where Mrs. Ingrum obtained her sweepstakes entry form.

Dylan, Big 3 Sign

Big 3 Music Corporation has concluded a major music exploitation agreement with composer-artist Bob Dylan.

Pact calls for Big 3 to acquire U.S. and Canadian folio rights for all new Dylan material and to publish all future Dylan songs in the United Kingdom. Agreement was negotiated by Arnold Maxin, VP and General Manager of Big 3 and Albert Grossman, Dylan's personal manager.

Record Academy Announces Final Grammy Nominations

A country singer, a Mexican-styled instrumental group and an English instrumental-singing quartet top this year's lists of candidates for Grammys, the recording field's most coveted honors awarded annually by members of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS), according to tabulations released this week.

The singer is Nashville's Roger Miller whose "King of the Road" rendition has popped up in nine different categories. The instrumental outfit is Herb Alpert's Tijuana Brass, which has drawn enough votes in the next-to-final round to place in six divisions. And the English group, of course, the Beatles, whose recording of "Yesterday" has also captured six final spots, with its album of "Help" giving it four more chances for top recording field honors.

Record of Year

All three of these artists have been nominated for "Record of the Year" honors along with the Ramsey Lewis Trio's recording of "The 'In' Crowd" and Tony Bennett's rendition of "The Shadow of Your Smile." The latter selection also pops up in five additional categories, including "Best Song of the Year."

Miller, Alpert's Tijuana

Brass and the Beatles also qualify as finalists for the "Album of the Year" Grammy. Here they are joined by the sound track album from "The Sound of Music," singer Eddy Arnold's "My World" and Frank Sinatra's "September of My Years." The Sinatra selection appears in four categories, with another of his recordings, "It Was a Very Good Year," winding up in contention for two more awards.

Encompass 47 Categories

All in all, the Grammy Awards, which are based on quality of performance rather than quantity of sales, encompass 47 different categories, ranging from strict pop and contemporary to jazz, folk, country and western, rhythm and blues, Broadway shows, spoken word, religious, children's and classical music, with 11 categories devoted to the serious music field.

By the end of this month, Academy members will have returned their final ballots to the independent accounting firm of Haskins and Sells for tabulations. Winners of the Grammys will be announced on Tuesday evening, March 15, at star-studded awards ceremonies in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Nashville.

At that time the winner of the "Best Classical Album of the Year" will be determined. This category pits two veteran, world-famous pianists, Vladimir Horowitz and Artur Schnabel, against one another as well as against veteran conductor Leopold Stokowski, famed soprano Leontyne Price and a German production of the Berg opera, "Wozzeck." The Horowitz recording, "Horowitz at Carnegie Hall," and the one by Stokowski, "Ives Symphony, No. 4," also reached the final round in three other categories.

In Pop Field

In the pop field, nominations for "Best Song of the Year" include, in addition to "The Shadow of Your Smile," Miller's "King of the Road," "September of My Years," "Yesterday" and the theme from the film, "Umbrellas of Cherbourg," entitled "I Will Wait for You."

Interest is also running high in "Best New Artist of the Year" which is generously sprinkled with young talent. Competing here are the Byrds, Herman's Hermits, Tom Jones, Horst Jankowski, Marilyn Maye, Sonny and Cher and Glenn Yarbrough. New Talent also abounds in the newly-instituted quartet of Contemporary Music categories.

Scepter Appoints Bowden, Proctor

NEW YORK — Marvin Schlachter, Vice President of Scepter Records, has announced the appointment of John Bowden as Director of A & R for Hob Records, the gospel division of Scepter, and also the appointment of Carl Proctor to the national promotion staff of Scepter and Wand Records.

Bowden was affiliated with Fury Records from 1945 to 1959, where he traveled with Frankie Lyman's brother, Louis Lyman and the Tenn-Cords and later was Wilber Harrison's road manager. From 1959 to 1963 he was in charge of Revelation Records which was started by Bobby Robertson of Fury Records. Then in 1963, he started his own gospel label called Ark Records.

Had Interview Show

Proctor did an interview show on WWRL with Alma John in 1954 and later managed the Sarah Vaughan office. In 1960 he went to Chicago and started a Public Relations Agency called Proctor & Gardner Affiliates. Subsequently, he did promotion work for Summit Distributors and later for Vee Jay Records.

In 1964 he joined Mercury Records to do national promotion for Blue Rock, their Rhythm & Blues subsidiary where he became Product Manager. He is a member of the Board of Directors of NARA.

SESAC Marks Milestones

SESAC, a foremost music licensing organizations, marks its 35th anniversary in February, a milestone coinciding with the 81st birthday of the firm's founder and president, Paul Heinecke, who this year enters his 61st year in music.

Paul Heinecke

Throughout his lifetime, Heinecke has believed that music is the one common denominator—the instrument for promoting better international understanding. In 1931, the radio industry was in its infancy and yet Heinecke foresaw the new era of radio as the key to greater music appreciation and the means through which good music would be brought to people everywhere. His ideas and plans for a wired music service smoothed the way for the background music services so familiar to the world today.

Realizing the potential of the broadcasting medium, SESAC has worked closely over the years with the radio and television industry and today has performance licenses in effect in every State of the Union. Approximately 98% of all the AM stations on the air as well as some 95% of all TV stations in operation are licensed by SESAC. Additional performance licenses are in effect at hundreds of hotels, motels, theaters, night clubs, stadia, cabarets, concert halls and amusement parks.

SESAC opened a branch office in Nashville two years ago to further expand its already active role in country music. In addition, it has concluded agreements with 24 performance and mechanical licensing organizations through-record departments. Grossman revealed that the licenses, which are effective immediately, bring the number of leased departments currently operated by Merco Enterprises to 28.

"The addition of these four, heavy traffic Masters departments," Grossman stated, "will substantially increase both our retail volume and earnings."

In addition to its 28 leased departments, Merco sells records to, and provides merchandising services for, approximately 100 retail record departments and 40 "junior" departments in variety stores and college book stores located in 22 states.

THREE STAR ★★★ PICKS

BATMAN THEME (Miller, ASCAP)
 NAROM'S BLUES (White Cliffs, BMI)
RONNIE KOLE TRIO—White Cliffs 1585.
 Another rendition of the "Batman" theme—this one a little zanier than the rest and could get play thereby.

 SECRET LOVE (Remick, ASCAP)
 LOVE ME JUST A LITTLE BIT (Forsythe, ASCAP)
KETTY LESTER—Tower 208.

Ketty gives velvet 1966 touch to this Oscar winning tune. Give it time and room.

 HELP ME—PART I (Kilynn-Pronto, BMI)
 HELP ME—PART II (Kilynn-Pronto, BMI)
RAY SHARPE—Atco 6402.

Partytime instrumental with Ray giving instructions on how to join the fun. R/Bet.

 MR. MOON (Monona, BMI)
 WHY DID YOU LEAVE ME (Ringneck, BMI)
DENNY DALE AND THE HONEYMOONS—Soma 1447.

Sultry, slow ballad making noise around and about. Watch this one shine.

 LIE . . . LIPS . . . LIE (Rate Rite, BMI)
 I GOTTA KEEP MOVIN'
 (Champion-Brianbert BMI)
GROVER MITCHELL—Decca 31909.

A likely candidate for r/b honors. Grover gives a little swing to the number.

 LOTTA LOTTA LOVIN' (Song, BMI)
 RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET
 (Shapiro-Bernstein, ASCAP)

TINO AND THE REVLONS—Dearborn 540.
 Slice has a lot of the Bo Diddley beat in it. Good for dancing and good timing.

 GOOD FOR A LIFETIME (South Mountain, BMI)
 ONCE BEFORE (Valiant, ASCAP)

AL HIBBLER—Satin 401.
 Subtle and sexily soft crooner has a new ballad that could catch. Velvet slice.

 THE WORLD ISN'T BIG ENOUGH
 (Blue Balloon, BMI)
 SHE GETS EVERYTHING SHE WANTS
 (Geld-Udell, ASCAP)

ANDREA CARROLL—United Artists 982.
 New thrush has appealing little girl quality and lush teen ballad to offer. Nice debut.

 SOUL AT SUNRISE (Sagittarius, BMI)
 JUST A MINUTE (Sagittarius, BMI)

JUGGY—Sue 140.
 Raunchy instrumental with top notch Juggy Murray arrangement. Handclapping and other sparkling features.

 WHY WON'T THEY LET ME BE (Ryerson, BMI)
 MEET ME ON THE BOTTOM (Ryerson, BMI)
JACKIE WASHINGTON—Vanguard 35036.

Easy beat song with meaningful lyric. Jackie underplays the emotion here.

FOUR STAR★★★★ PICKS

THINK I'LL GO SOMEWHERE AND CRY
 MYSELF TO SLEEP (Moss Rose, BMI)
 HELLO MEMORY (Moss Rose, BMI)
AL MARTINO—Capitol 5598.

Country flavor here gives special tang to the new Martino cut. Watch it climb again.

 INSIDE—LOOKING OUT (Ludlow, BMI)
THE ANIMALS—MGM 13468.

Fellows are in blues torment and teens will love the intensity of the deck.

 ONE OF US MUST KNOW (SOONER OR LATER)
 (Dwarf, ASCAP)
QUEEN JANE APPROXIMATELY (Witmark, ASCAP)
BOB DYLAN—Columbia 4-43541.

The Dylan delivery again on a typical Dylan love ode. He and the girl-of-the-moment are breaking up.

 SHE BLEW A GOOD THING (Sagittarius, BMI)
 OUT TO LUNCH (Sagittarius, BMI)
THE POETS—Symbol 214.

The girl made a mistake and the Poets tell the story with rock fervor.

 KOCKA—MOW—MOW (Checkmate, BMI)
 UGLY GIRL (Checkmate, BMI)
THE DINKS—Sully 925.

Fellows seem to be into something good and their second disk follows the fun lead of the first.

 LET'S NOT PRETEND ANYMORE (Garpax, BMI)
 WHAT A RELIEF, IT'S ALL OVER (Garpax, BMI)
THE DUDES—Gaiety 112.

Steady and irresistible beat will drive home the rock point here. Dudes done dood it.

 RAGS TO RICHES (Saunders, ASCAP)
 I WANT YOU TO WORRY (Cavalcade, ASCAP)
LENNY WELCH—Kapp 740.

The Richard Adler-Jerry Ross oldie in a refreshing new set-up from the dramatic Lenny.

 I SPY (FOR THE FBI) (Trio-Brian Bert, BMI)
 SNAKE HIP MAMA (Overcome-Denise, BMI)
JAMO THOMAS—Thomas 303.

Another spy r/b tune that could hit the bigtime. The beat is there and so is the vocal fun.

 HONEST I DO (Try Me, BMI)
 HONEST I DO PT. 2 (Try Me, BMI)
JAMES CRAWFORD—Omen 12.

Good r/b performance here will wow the listeners. The cat really gets into the bag.

 A PUBLIC EXECUTION (Sunnybrook, BMI)
 ALL FOR YOU (Sunnybrook, BMI)
MOUSE—Fraternity 956.

Well done protest type song Mouse will get the cheese with. Lyrics capture imagination.

 LOVEY KRAVEZIT (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)
 THE DOLL HOUSE IS EMPTY
 (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)

THE EVERLY BROTHERS—Warner Bros. 5698.
 Cute lyric and magnetic melody should parlay into a hit.

ONE MORE HEARTACHE (Jobete, BMI)
 WHEN I HAD YOUR LOVE (Jobete, BMI)
MARVIN GAYE—Tamla 54129.

A new slice straight from Marvin and Detroit to the charts. Never lets up on its driving way.

 IF YOU GOT A MINUTE BABY (Dreamers, BMI)
 WHEN I'M HOME WITH YOU (Dreamers, BMI)
FREDDIE AND THE DREAMERS—Mercury 72548.

Funky deck geared for fun. The group from England knows how to cut a hit disk. Here it is.

 YOU'RE SO GOOD TO ME (Sea of Tunes, BMI)
 THANK YOU AND GOODNIGHT
 (Grand Canyon, BMI)

DEBRA SWISHER—Boom 60001.
 Hefty throated newcomer here with a Brian Wilson song. Lots of beat on the Boom side.

 OH, SUCH A STRANGER (Acuff-Rose, BMI)
 TRULY YOURS (George Pincus, ASCAP)
PAUL ANKA—RCA Victor 47-8764.

A new country ballad and a new softness to the Anka voice. Chorus is along. Deserves a big following.

 THE DEVIL'S GOT MY WOMAN
 (Blind Lemon, BMI)

CANDY MAN (Blind Lemon, BMI)
THE RISING SONS—Columbia 4-43534.

Very bluesy, gritty song from new Col contractees. The fellows have the feeling for the groove.

 IT FEELS SO NICE (Figure, BMI)
 IT WAS SO NICE WHILE IT LASTED (Nom, BMI)

SAM AND DAVE—Roulette 4671.
 Twosome get to wailing here and buyers will agree that it's very nice. Terp-ing fun.

 ONE POTATO (LeBill, BMI)
THE ELITE—Charay 17.

A clever beat is at the base of this lickety split tune. They couple good playing and nonsense lyric to effect.

 (I SPY) FOR THE F. B. I. (Trio-Brian Bert, BMI)
 FOXEY DEVIL (Champion-Durbina, BMI)
LUTHER INGRAM AND THE G-MEN—Smash 2019.

Clapping and tapping on this version of the new r/b spy song. Luther and men have the knack.

 I CAN'T HELP THIS FEELING I FEEL
 (Mills, ASCAP)

I STILL SEND HER FLOWERS (Cromwell, ASCAP)
JOHN DAVIDSON—Columbia 4-43531.

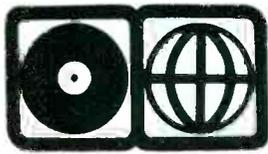

Rocketing young singer preems for Col with pretty, contemporary ballad of love. Could click.

 LOVEY KRAVEZIT (Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI)
 I'M COMIN' HOME BABE (Jimskip, BMI)

JOHNNY WALSH—Columbia 4-43532.
 The ditty from "The Silencers" is infectious and Johnny Walsh will get attention with it.

ALBUM REVIEWS

PICK HITS

LIGHTNIN' STRIKES

LOU CHRISTIE—MGM E/SE 4360.

For this fellow lightning has struck more than once and he's out to prove that he can make it strike whenever he wants. On this album he shows his voice off on a variety of tunes—most of these in the very modern idiom. One side of the disk is devoted to tunes he wrote himself (among them the smash "Lightnin'."). Others are "If I Fell," "Going Out of My Head," etc.

JORDAN CHRISTOPHER HAS THE KNACK

United Artists—UAL 3479; UAS 6479.

This is the lad's first album by himself. He has a flexible voice that can treat a rock number or a standard with the proper respect. He runs the gamut from the Lennon-McCartney "I've Just Seen A Face" to a musicalized version of a Shakespeare lyric. Big future.

THE ACADEMY AWARD SONGS

HENRY MANCINI—RCA Victor LPM 6013; LSP 6013.

This guy knows what to do to an Oscar song. He wrote a few of them himself. He varies the tempos and has his lilting chorus croon along. Tunes are all here from the first, "The Continental" to the last "Chim Chim Cheree." Each band is classy, but Record World fave: "Thanks for Memory."

BASIE MEETS BOND

COUNT BASIE—United Artists UAL 3480; UAS 6480.

A superb piano player, conductor and arranger, the Count puts his stock in Bond here. He interprets themes from the quartet of James Bond movies. The bands blare and soothe in the standard Basie pattern and will delight fans of Basie and/or Bond. "Thunderball," "From Russia With Love" etc.

THE MCGUIRE SISTERS RIGHT NOW!

ABC-Paramount ABC 530; ABCS 530.

Chris, Phyllis and Dottie make their debut on ABC and they sound as good as ever. One of the cutest sides "Truer Than You Were" is just about to be released as a single. Other ingredients are "How Come You Do Me Like You Do Do Do," "My Melancholy Baby" and "Nevertheless."

THE MAN FROM O. R. G. A. N.

DICK HYMAN—Command 891 SD; RS 891 SD.

The theme for the albums is themes from spy movies. What a trend we've been having. Hyman collects movie and TV music from the likes of "Thunderball," "The Ipcress File," "The Honey West Show," "The Third Man," "The Man From U.N.C.L.E." and more. The playing is fast and funky.

THE 'NEW' LOOK

FONTELLA BASS—Checker 2997.

Teens answered the "Rescue Me" call to the tune of a Top 10 hit and here's the resultant album with "Rescue Me" a featured item. Fontella also shows she can do many things with her supple voice as she reprises "Our Day Will Come," "I'm a Woman," "Since I Fell For You" and others of the r/b standard ilk.

NIGHT SOUNDS—SAN FRANCISCO

JOE BUSHKIN—Decca (7)4731.

Only rarely these days does Joe Bushkin, one of the masters of pop piano playing, sit down to record an album. When he does, it's a pleasure. Here's the latest effort, with the stress on recent hits—"More," "I Left My Heart in San Francisco," "Who Can I Turn To," "I Only Miss Her When I Think of Her." Keen.

PEE WEE PLAYS PRETTY

PEE WEE SPITELERA—RCA Victor LPM 3511; LSP 3511.

The fellow plays a beautiful clarinet. The music he's chosen here couldn't be easier on the ear. Tunes include "Tansy," "Hard Times are Gone," "Golden Earrings," "Blue Clarinet," "Ebb Tide" and others. Ork and chorus are along for the fun. Al Hirt's sidekick is great on his own.

WOMAN TALK

CARMEN McRAE—Mainstream 56065; S/6065.

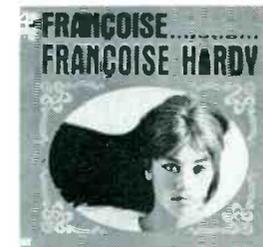

There aren't many gal singers who treat a lyric with the knowhow Carmen McRae brings into play. Technically she knows what's going on, too. She takes on some difficult jazz numbers here like "Woman Talk" and she also intones "The Shadow of Your Smile," "Feelin' Good," "I Wish I Were in Love Again." Class package.

FRANCOISE

FRANCOISE HARDY—A Corners of the World FCL 4231; FCS 4231.

The Gallic gal with the sweet, breezy voice has another set of French songs to woo Francophiles stateside. Most of the songs are about love—after all, they're French. Most of them are unfamiliar and all the more entrancing for their newness.

THE MAD SHOW

ORIGINAL CAST—Columbia OL 6530; OS 2930.

What this is is the absolutely Mad show—or, to clarify that, the almost absolutely "Mad" show. The new revue contains material that runs the gamut from pretty good to hilarious. In the latter category is "The Boy From . . ." spoofed terrifically by Linda Lavin, and "The Real Thing," done faultlessly by Paul Sand. Other laughs dispensed by Jo Anne Worley, McIntyre Dixon and Dick Libertini.

WHEN YOU TAKE MORE THAN YOU GIVE
(T. M., BMI)

FALLING SUGAR (T. M., BMI)
KELLY AND GAIL—Colpix 798.

Gritty rock number sung gustily by new Bob Marcucci finds. A singalong element here too.

TEACH ME (HOW TO DO THE PHILLY DOG)
(Sanavan, BMI)

BABY I NEED YOU (Sanavan, BMI)
THE MANHATTANS—Carnival 514.

The sweet group blend will attract teens to this love ballad. Good dance tune.

BIG TIME FUN (Myto, BMI)
HOW'S YOUR NEW LOVE TREATING YOU?
(Myto, BMI)

THE DEBONAIRE—Golden World 38.

Bouncy and bright new group does effervescent job on this rock item. Welcome it.

CAROL'S GOT A COBRA (Beverly Glen, BMI)
I HATE TO SEE YOU CRYING (Anihanbar, BMI)
THE CHAINS—HBR 460.

A new car cut should interest the teens who are still gone on that craze. Smooth chanting by fellows.

IN A LITTLE SPANISH TOWN (Feist, ASCAP)
TENNESSEE WALTZ (Acuff-Rose, BMI)
DOC SEVERINSEN—Command 4080.

The trumpeter gives a spicy reading to the evergreen. An instrumental deserv- ing of attention.

Single Reviews

ARE YOU GUILTY? (Carlson, BMI)
CRYING OVER YOU (Carlson, BMI)

LONNIE MACK—Fraternity 957.

A song with country lilt and likewise delivery from Lonnie. With proper breaks, this could make it.

MY HEART WILL NEVER KNOW
(Al Gallico, BMI)

ROSE MARIE (Harms, ASCAP)
RAY HUTCHINSON—Epic 5-9889.

An attractive ballad well crooned by this new lad. His sound is very smooth and sellable.

THERE STANDS A LADY (Acuff-Rose, BMI)
THE LAST ROSE (Acuff-Rose, BMI)
MARK DINNING—Hickory 1368.

Soft and appealing ballad with folk flavor. A couple of listens could turn this into a big hit.

I HEAR YOU SAY (I LOVE YOU BABY)
(Trio, BMI)

FALLING IN LOVE (Trio, BMI)
ANDY KIM—Red Bird 10040.

Lavishly arranged teenage love song penned by singer Kim with experts Ellie Greenwich and Jeff Barry.

THE SKUNK PART I (Mac-Avery, BMI)
THE SKUNK PART II (Mac-Avery, BMI)

DYNA-TONES—Alto 2020.

Groovy instrumental here to turn dancers on. Fine playing on a good rhythm number.

I'M GONNA GET SOME LOVE (Borchetta, BMI)
BABY PLEASE DANCE WITH ME
(Borchetta, BMI)

THE CALIFORNIA SONS—Coastline 1001.

Tune sails along happily as done by this new group. Surf sound to a great extent. Good songs.

ANYONE IN THE WORLD (Saturday, BMI)
PUSHING A GOOD THING TOO FAR
(Saturday, BMI)

SANDY WILLIAMS—
4 Corners of the World 137.

The Linzer-Randell team has penned this tune very much in tune with the times. Sandy does perky job.

BROKE AND LONELY (O-Cal, BMI)
THE GOOD LIFE (Paris, ASCAP)

LIL GREENWOOD & RENE ROBIN—
Tangerine 956.

Irresistible beat number from this duo will have the teens working it on out.

RCA Sets Tape Marketing Dept., Tarr as Manager

The RCA Victor Record Division this week announced establishment of a new Recorded Tape Marketing Department and named Irwin Tarr, formerly Manager, Planning and Merchandising, as its Manager.

Announcement came from Harry E. Jenkins, Division Vice President, Marketing. Jenkins said that establishment of the new activity reflected not only the exceptional initial success of Stereo 8 cartridges but also the importance RCA attaches to the future growth potential of recorded tape in both autos and the home.

"Our choice of Mr. Tarr to head this department was logical," said Jenkins. "since as our Manager of Planning and Merchandising, Tarr guided the development and introduction of Stereo 8 Tape Cartridges. The success of Stereo 8 has resulted in expansion of our tape duplicating facilities as well as creation of this new marketing function to see that our recorded tape products reach the widest possible market," said Jenkins.

Sparked Rack Distribution

Tarr, who will continue to report to Jenkins, joined RCA Victor in 1951, as Manager, Red Seal Promotion. In 1953, he became Manager, Special Markets. At that time, Tarr sparked the broadening of record distribution through rack jobbers, who now account for approximately 40 to 50 per cent of all record sales.

In 1962, premium record sales and educational record sales were added to the activity. This was followed by his appointment in 1963 as Manager, Planning and Merchandising, in which capacity he spearheaded RCA Victor's entry into the Stereo 8 business.

MGM Intros 3 Budget Lines

In a pincers movement to corner the budget line market, Mort Nasatir, President of MGM Records, has this week unwrapped three new budget line labels. They are: VSP (Verve Special Product-Jazz), Heliodor (Classical) and Leo the Lion (Children). Both VSP and Heliodor are designed to retail for $2.50, the children's line will be available in mono only at $1.98.

Nasatir introduced the new budget label to distributors and their sales staff at a special series of meetings held in New York Feb. 7, Chicago Feb. 8 and Los Angeles Feb. 9, conducted by Sol Greenberg, Director of Album Sales, and Phil Picone, who has joined the company as Rack Sales Manager. Nasatir pointed out that the introduction of the new budget lines comes one year after the successful operation of the company's initial budget line venture, Metro Records, which has proved beyond a shadow of a doubt the ever-growing available market for budget line merchandise.

McCallum Crowd Buys 2,000 LP's

NEW YORK—David McCallum jetted into New York the other weekend to make a personal appearance at Macy's plugging his Capitol "Music—A Part of Me" LP disk.

The crowd never saw him. And McCallum reacted to his non-appearance with concern.

The reason he was kept from the crowd was that it far exceeded Macy's estimate and proper security measures and therefore not been taken. The store figured on 6,000 or 7,000 and between 10,000 and 15,000 showed up.

Macy's had stocked 2,000 copies of the McCallum disk. All were sold by 10 a.m.

For McCallum, who chatted with Record World, it was a major disappointment to miss seeing the fans (who hooted and hollered throughout the store plotting ways to get to their secluded idol). But the unexpected size of the crowd was not without gratification for TV's Ilya.

McCallum talked to the press in an executive lunchroom several floors above the maddening crowd, and discussed his

Berry Gordy: Hometown Success Story

Motown Records' Berry Gordy Jr.—who started in business with a borrowed $700 nine years ago and now grosses $8 million a year—is spotlighted in the February issue of Ebony magazine.

Making his success story all the more unusual is that Gordy did it all without leaving Detroit. In fact, Motown has given Detroit—for that matter, the whole state of Michigan—a new kind of international reputation. When Michigan's Governor George Romney visited England, he was "mobbed by a horde of teen-agers." As he prepared to sign autographs, a youth asked: "Tell us, now, is it true that you've met the Supremes?"

While the Supremes and other groups have played a key role in Motown's skyrocketing success, Motown isn't limited to rock 'n' roll, or even, exactly, to records. Actually, Motown is just one name in Berry's empire—called Hitsville U.S.A.—which includes eight record labels, a management service for 100 performers and a sheet music publishing company.

Gordy intends to keep his multi-million dollar music empire in Detroit, it was learned. "People try to get us to move away to take on New York or Hollywood or one of those places. But Berry is crazy about this town," says his sister, Mrs. Esther Edwards, Vice President of the firm.

Ebony recounts how Gordy, as a youngster, won honorable mention on a Frankie Carle talent show "and never got over the call of the stage."

"I did other things," Gordy admits. "I was a plasterer for a while in my father's business, and took a job on a automobile assembly line. But I always wrote songs."

Nine years ago, he borrowed $700 from his father's credit union and took the plunge into the recording business. And the firm recently made headlines by signing up such established performers as Tony Martin, Barbara McNair and Billy Eckstine.

Hitsville is one firm that really deserves to be called "one big happy family," it was noted: "No less than ten Gordys and in-laws take part in the firm."

Atlantic to RCA Club

Atlantic-Atco Records has concluded a deal with the RCA Victor Record Club. Agreement enables the club to make available to its members Atlantic and Atco LPs, and Stax, Volt, Dial and Focus LPs for which

Atlantic has distribution rights

Nesuhi Ertegun, Vice President of Atlantic Records, stated in reference to the Club agreement: "We are very pleased with the arrangement we have concluded with the RCA Victor Record Club to offer our LPs to their members. We believe that availability of our LPs through the Club will complement sales of our albums through regular retail channels like stores and racks. It will enable us to reach that segment of the record buying public which prefers to purchase LPs via mail order."

Under the terms of the agreement, Ertegun noted, the RCA Victor Record Club will have access to a great variety of material in the Atlantic-Atco catalogs. "We expect a substantial amount of product to be made available by the club, in every category: pop, rock and roll, rhythm and blues, jazz and folk-rock," said Ertegun.

The RCA Victor Club will issue its first Atlantic-Atco releases to its members in June. The initial release comprises eight LPs.

Playing 'Game'

Arranger John Abbott, center, flanked by Dee Anthony, prexy of American Music Makers Records, and Eddie Rossi, featured singer with the Daytrippers, at a recent session at the Capitol Studios, N. Y. Abbott, the arranging force behind the Reparata & the Delrons hits, handled arranging and conducting chores on the Daytrippers' AMM release, "That's Part of the Game." Audio Fidelity has purchased disk.

Money Music

The rise of P. F. Sloan as a song writer has been sensational. We were very happy to receive a call from him and Jay Lasker last week. Their "California Dreamin'," Mamas and Papas, Dunhill, has brought a whole new sound to town and helped get ABC-Paramount hot.

After a fast rise in Boston, the record spread slowly and then broke wide open with gigantic sales in S.F., Seattle, Baltimore, Sacramento, Providence, Norfolk, Syracuse, San Bernardino, San Diego, Birmingham, San Jose, Washington, Cincinnati, etc. With any new concept in sound, it takes time for both deejays and the public to get accustomed, but I think these very talented kids can look forward to a bright career. They can do a lot of different things. The same goes for Sloan.

The Bobby Fuller 4 is a giant in Detroit, Boston, Washington, Phoenix, San Jose, Denver, Chicago, etc. . . . "The Cheater," Bob Kuban, now gone in Boston, San Francisco. That one couldn't miss . . . The Bob Lind, "Elusive Butterfly," is gigantic in L.A., S.F., Boston, Columbus, Tampa, Cleveland, Phoenix, Miami (where it broke), etc. . . . The Ronnie Dove owns Detroit, Houston, N.Y. and the nation . . . "Call Me," Chris Montez, showed its real power in S.F., Milwaukee, Houston, Wash., Atlanta, Miami, San Jose, Birmingham, Oklahoma City, Cleveland, Detroit, Philadelphia. What a song! . . . 5 Americans is gone in Chicago, Syracuse, Birmingham, San Bernardino . . . "You Baby," Turtles, is a big winner . . . Barry Sadler has a thing going with "Green Berets." Would you believe No. 1?

The Sonny & Cher is a giant in Dallas, San Jose, Boston, going in L.A., Minneapolis, Houston, Seattle, New Orleans, Louisville, Albany, etc. . . . "Long Live Our Love," Shangri-Las, getting play everywhere with big Detroit action as always . . . "Andrea," Sunrays, is ditto and is big in S.F., Rochester, Chicago, etc. . . . "Rains Came," Sir Douglas, went Top 5 in Houston and San Antonio, it's a hit in Atlanta, and spread everywhere . . . "Michael," C.O.D.'s, refuses to quit with big action in Boston, Cleveland, Albany, Columbus, Memphis, Hartford, Detroit, Philadelphia, Chicago, Phoenix.

"Homeward Bound," Simon & Garfunkel, Columbia, is a smash . . . Pete Garris is so thrilled about "I'm So Lonesome," B. J. Thomas, he doesn't know what to say . . . "Walkin' My Cat," Norma Tanego, justifies the name of Bob and Dan Crewe's production firm, "Genius, Inc." . . . "Ain't Gonna Eat Out My Heart Anymore," Young Rascals, is an L.A. smash after giant N.Y.C. and Chicago sales. Is this a Top 3 CITY hit? . . . "Georgianna," Princetons, Colpix, is big in Cleveland and Chicago . . . Dallas action on "Public Execution," Mouse, Fraternity . . . "What A Girl Can't Do," Hangmen, is Top 3 in Washington . . . "From a Distance," P. F. Sloan, Dunhill, is getting action in San Diego. He sings well . . . "Listen People," Herman's Hermits, started in Boston at #1 and then it gets better. Meanwhile, "Moulty," Barbarians, Laurie, is also right up at the top in Boston and "Up and Down," McCoys, Bang, is starting first in Beantown . . . "Love Is All We Need," Mel Carter, is going good in Buffalo, Cleveland, Atlanta and is Top 5 in San Bernardino . . . "Sweet Pea," Tommy Roe, is Top 15 with Paul Drew in Atlanta . . . "Little Bit of Soap," Exciters, Bang, is going in Atlanta, Detroit, Houston, Denver, Rochester, S.F., Hartford.

R&B GOING BIG POP

One of the biggest records crossing pop is "Love Makes The World Go Round," Deon Jackson, Atco, which is Top 3 in Detroit and Philadelphia and Top 10 in Atlanta, hot in N.Y.C. etc. However, #1 on WQXI is "Scratch My Back," Slim Harpo (which we first gave you before Christmas in the R&B column). This smash is also Top 10 in Memphis and Houston, Top 5 in New Orleans, a smash in Baltimore, Washington, Detroit, Miami and spreading very fast . . . "This Can't Be True," Eddie Holman, is Top 3 in Pittsburgh and now in Atlanta (after big Philadelphia sales) . . . "Stop Her On Sight," Edwin Starr, Ric Tic, is a big breakout, and is big pop in Detroit and has spread to Atlanta with Paul. At WDRC, Hartford, Bertha Porter is on Eddie Holman, Lee Dorsey, Deon Jackson, Slim Harpo, Andre Kalban Heads Mills' New Printed Dept.

NEW YORK—The re-organization of the Printed Products Department of Mills Music, Inc., a project which took almost one year to accomplish, was completed this week with the inauguration of a new and wholly-automated system of warehousing and distribution, and the promotion of Bernard Kalban to the newly-created post of Printed Products Department Manager, it was announced by Richard L. Rosenthal, President of the company.

"To re-organize Mills Music's Printed Products Department, designed to give our customers the finest and most modern services available, a two-phase program was followed," Warren Ling, VP and General Manager explained.

The first phase of the operation was to assign code numbers to every piece of product in the Mills catalog. The catalog, one of the world's most extensive, includes more than 25,000 copyrights encompassing all areas of popular, educational and serious music. To do this, a corps of coders worked full-time for ten months to prepare the catalog for a program of electronic inventory and sales control.

The second phase of the operation was to physically transport the many millions of copies of sheet music, folios, band, orchestra, choral and other educational publications from their west Manhattan berth—where warehousing and shipping operations had been run for over 35 years—to the new automated warehouse in Brooklyn.

Now, with the two-phased program successfully completed and Kalban named head of the Printed Products Department, the company's new methods and procedures are in full operation. The new set-up will supply more rapid service to customers plus more meaningful sales and inventory data to Mills Music.

Kalban, who reports directly to Ling, has a staff of three managers within the department reporting to him. They are: Richard Johnson, promoted from the post of Coordinator of Publications to Educational Manager, the position formerly held by Kalban; Norman Warembud, Production Manager; and Robert Teck, National Sales Manager.

Smash - Fontana Starts '66 Big

CHICAGO—Smash and Fontana Records, which set a cumulative sales goal of $6,000,000 in sales for their fourth complete year, ending Dec. 31, 1965, topped that goal for the year and kicked off 1966 with the largest single month in their sales history during the past January, it was announced by Irving B. Green, President of Mercury Record Corp.

Irwin H. Steinberg, Exec VP of Mercury Record Corp. said that the Charles Fach headed dual label operation combines the best of indie and major label operations. Fach, he pointed out, concentrates on a limited artist roster but backs up this small, established team of artists with the diversified promotional, publicity, and manufacturing facilities of a major.

Fach explained that Roger Miller's contribution spearheaded the pace-setting period, with a number of Smash-Fontana catalogue items making vital contributions. Miller added his third Record Industry Association of America Gold Record award within nine months, when RIAA auditors confirmed the $1,000,000 worth of sales for "The Golden Hits of Roger Miller," Wednesday (9).

'Mr. C' Formed

NEW YORK — Tony Cabot, director of entertainment for Restaurant Associates, Inc., as well as musical director for the WOR-TV Cerebral Palsy Telethon for the past 14 years, and who also has recorded with his own orchestra for RCA Victor, announced the formation of a new record company to be known as Mr. C. Presents.

Karibarok Sound

Columbia Records' vocalist Bill Barnes has just released his first single for the label, "Repeat After Me." Single features a new sound called "Karibarok," which combines the sounds of the Caribbean with rock and roll.

BMI Names 3

The board of directors of BMI (Broadcast Music, Inc.) has named Leo Cherniavsky Assistant Vice President, foreign rights administration; Oliver Daniel, Assistant Vice President, concert music administration, and Howard Koenig, comptroller.

Harmony LPs, Tapes Get New Display

Columbia Records has designed a new rotating floor merchandiser display unit for Harmony albums and Columbia 4 Track Stereo tapes. The convenient browser type display unit is designed as a space saver, and will hold up to 300 albums or 150 4 track stereo tapes.

The display unit will be given free of charge to all dealers and rack jobbers who make quantity purchases of either Harmony albums, Columbia 4 Track Stereo Tape, or a combination of both. Distributors will contact their dealers regarding the terms of the purchase.

In addition, mounted tape covers will be available on the 300 best selling tapes in the Columbia catalog. The covers were designed as a space saving device for use in the display unit. A quantity of five mounted tape covers can be placed in a space large enough to accommodate only one actual tape. Mounted tape covers will be available to dealers and rack jobbers free of charge on all future tape releases.

R&B BEAT

WHERE IT'S AT

BY KAL RUDMAN

The Lovin' Soulsful

The R&B field is a field of love, make no mistake. This is also true of the C&W field. People take out what they put into these fields. The Country Music Association works day and night to improve the field, and now NARA is doing the same for the R&B field.

There are certain pop music labels who put nothing of themselves into the R&B field when asked to send artists for hops and shows, and yet expect to take out all the goodies. Then they smirk and scoff at the "squares" who toil to be of service.

These people are well known now, and there has never been more talk about their selfishness and supercilious, condescending attitude. Promo men for hard-working labels are no longer respecting a "gentlemen's agreement" and keeping silent. They are talking about the scoundrels "like dogs." There are no secrets anymore. The shades are up and there is light. It takes a wedge and a thunderbolt to smite a passage through the close-grained world. The cats are playing for real.

Kal Rudman

Butterball has resigned at WCHB, Detroit. He will announce his plans when ready . . . Fat Daddy is the new wake-up man at WWIN, Baltimore . . . Larry Dean now follows Paul to the noon hour . . . E. Rodney Jones will begin things at WCAM, Camden-Philadelphia when they are ready, so why ask him when?

LeBaron Taylor, WJLB, Detroit, tells me Mary Wells has the #1 record in town . . . The Apollas looks good for Russ Regan on Loma . . . LeBaron feels "Chain Of Love," Spellbinders, Columbia, is a smash for Dave Kapralik, and sez the "B" side of Verdelle Smith on Capitol, "Walk Tall," is breaking fast. The Edwin Starr is a giant in Detroit, and is the biggest Breakout in Philadelphia at WDAS and is a runaway hit. WJLB picked "We Go Together," Olympics and Aretha Franklin.

Pete Garris has two smashes on Wand: the Chuck & Maxine broke big in N.Y.C. (Rocky G & Gang ride again) and all over; "Desiree," Charts, is gone; and oh yes, "Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye," Billy Thompson, broke big in Miami off WAME.

Eddie Thomas just called as happy as a lark, because he has a smash breakout on "I Spy For the F.B.I.," Jamo Thomas, in Chicago, San Francisco, Atlanta, Detroit and (as Lucky Cordell confirms) in Chicago . . . Lucky has gone with: "Keep On Running," Spencer Davis; "I Testify," Otis Clay, Onerdful; Chuck & Maxine; "Hump Back," Eldridge Holmes, Jet Set; Eddie & Ernie; "Move On," Curtis Griffen; "I Had A Dream," Johnny Taylor, Stax; "Walking the Girl," Smiley Lewis, Loma; "Shake Me," 4 Tops. His breakouts are: Mary Wells; Edwin Starr; Wilson Pickett; Bobby Moore; Christine Cooper; and of course, Jamo Thomas.

"Searching For My Love," Bobby Moore, Checker, is a smash in Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore and Detroit. I agree with Lucky and Jimmy Bishop that "Too Much," Entertainers, Chess, is a gas. Sounds like "So Fine," "Daddy G," and another song or two all in one . . . Nickie Lee reports "Chain Reaction," Spellbinders, a Miami hit and LeBaron Taylor sez "Smash!" . . . The Mary Wells and the Edwin Starr are two of the biggest national breakouts of the week. Also, big are Jamo Thomas and Chuck and Maxine . . . "Desiree," Charts, Wand, can't miss . . . "Baby, I Need You," Manhattans, is a hit.

Watch: "I Don't Have To Worry," Jaye W. King, Skyscraper, and "I Can't Stand It," Jimmy Holiday, Diplomacy . . . "You Bring Me Down," Royalettes, MGM, selling well . . . Verve

BY ALAN FREEMAN

Alan Freeman

I've decided that the time has come when we should have equality for all men and women. I had a letter from Record World's editor-in-chief Sid Parnes, and he calmly made it known to me that he's off to Mexico for a vacation, and reminds me with a very large, black-printed P.S. that he expects the column to keep rolling in as always, and that he'll send me a card!

I wonder just why I should sit slaving over a hot typewriter while he sits like a Fort Knox managing director in a different kind of heat, perhaps gently fondling a slave known as Scotch on the Rocks. Ah well, that's life I guess, and we go on being slaves and masters and the point is, I'm tired of being a slave . . . I want to be a master, but I might add, one always mindful of equality for all!

Now while I remember it, I'll be perfectly happy to tell you that I'm a slave at the moment to a record that's come from you by the Mama's & the Papa's called "California Dreamin'." I think it might well be the best American record we've had over here in 1966 so far, and although I never have great hopes when an American pop record has a local theme about it, this one is of such great production (congratulations, Lou Adler) I feel it can't fail. Don't forget that when our Cliff Richard made a record some years back entitled "Livin' Doll," I said it wouldn't sell a copy. It did, actually it sold a MILLION. So don't ring me and I won't ring you!

Grand Old Man of Song

I turned on the radio last night, and who did I hear? Your Pat Boone. He's over here for some TV shows, and last night he was on the BBC's "Late Saturday Night" hosted by ace DJ Pete Murray. Pat had some very interesting things to say, particularly as to how his own children were great fans of the Rolling Stones and Herman's Hermits, etc., and as to how they considered "Dad" was the grand old man of song. I laughed, and thought how refreshing it was to hear honesty from one so full of talent, because in my estimation, talent never gets old. It matures, broadens and lives.

How refreshing it is, too, Saturday night after Saturday night to hear the interviewing technique of Pete Murray. He's one of the few who asks a worthwhile question and seems genuinely to want to know the answers. How often do we all hear the interviewer ask a question, give the answer and leave poor Fred or Mary with the chance to take a deep breath, and come out with a long thought-about answer of . . . "Yes!" Mind you, there's always the interviewer who allows the interviewee to say . . . "No" . . . no?

I can tell you with great authority, however, that the pop buying record public of Great Britain has needed no probing, and has come out with a very big Yeah Yeah Yeah for Nancy Sinatra's "These Boots Are Made For Walking"! She's raced into the Top 10 and with a bit of luck in the next two weeks could make a No. 1. One of Nancy's biggest problems is one Cilla Black who's above Nancy, and heading towards that same No. 1 with "Love's Just a Broken Heart." We have another gal over here who's very young and enormously talented, and it's somewhat of a mystery that she hasn't been in the chart-topping big-time more often. The name's Lulu, and at last she's on the way with "Call Me."

You'll be glad to know that your Mitch Ryder's moving in the right direction with that tremendous piece of pop entitled, "Jenny Take a Ride" . . . the Nashville Teens could force Top 20 calculations with one of their best records yet entitled "The Hard Way" . . . A group called "Truth" is making impact with the Lennon/McCartney song, "Girl" . . . And from all reports, Bob Dylan might have another major British success with "Can You Please

This Week's Top 10 in Britain

1. "MICHELLE"—The Overlanders.
2. "KEEP ON RUNNING"—Spencer Davis Group.
3. "LOVE'S JUST A BROKEN HEART"—Cilla Black.
4. "SPANISH FLEA"—Herb Alpert.
5. "YOU WERE ON MY MIND"—Chrispian St. Peters.
6. "A MUST TO AVOID"—Herman's Hermits.
7. "THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR WALKING"—Nancy Sinatra.
8. "DAY TRIPPER" / "WE CAN WORK IT OUT"—The Beatles.
9. "A GROOVY KIND OF LOVE"—The Mindbenders.
10. "LET'S HANG ON"—The Four Seasons.

Crawl Out Your Window." I mustn't forget to tell you that as a certain Miss Barbra Streisand puts a little more oo la la into the hearts of the inhabitants of Paris, she put a little modern, old-fashioned color into the British Top 20.

Finally, if the beans are still jumping in Mexico, I hope they all jump on top of you-know-who! Ole!

Money Music

Williams, Christine Cooper, Carla Thomas, B. Bland . . . Gil Haag, KDKA, Pittsburgh is on the Royalettes; Christine Cooper; Deon Jackson; Lee Dorsey; Springers; Jr. Walker . . . Jerry McFarlane, WKYC, Cleveland, is cooking R&B stuff, too. . . . "Put Yourself In My Place," Elgins, and "My Baby," Martha and Vandellas, looks good. The first Motown release on the Isley Brothers, "This Old Heart" is another certain smash for "The Genius Team" of Brian and Eddie Holland and LaMont Dozier . . . The Marvin Gaye is a sure formula hit. It is well made . . . "Walk Tall," Verdelle Smith, Capitol, broke R&B at WJLB, Detroit . . . The Wilson Pickett, 634-5789 on Atlantic is a certain Top 20 trade chart item . . . The Googie Rene is selling in many markets.

Pop Rambling

"Somewhere There's Love," Margaret Whiting, London, is a smooth music smash . . . "Sharing You" has to be an adult hit. If Timi Yuro or Georgia Gibbs or Patti Page or Nancy Wilson covered it, it would set the nation ablaze. Do you agree? . . . "You Ain't Tuff," Uniques, Paula, is now a smash through the Southwest. Stan Lewis should re-service the nation or let George Jay do it. It's Top 3 in Dallas and going in Erie . . . Another fantastic record (it sounds like it was cut by Tamla-Motown) is "Time Won't Let Me," Outsiders, Capitol, and it's a hit in Cleveland, Columbus, and Pittsburgh. Hy Lit loves this record, and is all out to break it on WIBG, Philadelphia. Lit's Top "Sleeper Left-Field" choice is the Outcrowd's "Get Yourself Together" on Omen, Pt. 1. I agree with Hy that Jerry Moss, LeLan Rogers and friends should start promoting this record. In fact, I think it could go big R&B. Everyone but Hy has been afraid to go out on a limb with The Out Crowd. Hy also feels The Isley Brothers have a giant (which it already is pop and R&B in Detroit).

Russ (Mr. Double Sinceres) Regan, head of Loma, wrote a smash for Freddie Cannon called "Dedication Song" . . . "Woman," Peter & Gordon, looks good . . . "Shadow of Your Smile," Jet Set is lovely . . . "Juanita Banana, Peels, Karate, making Eddie Newmark happy with Miami action . . . "Keep On Running," Spencer Davis, Atco, is getting the play it needs . . . Allen Hotlen put "Happy Whistler," Jimmy Haskell, Capitol, on WIP, and immediately about 70 good music stations in this territory followed suit—which shows the influence of Metro-Media and their fantastic ratings. Everybody will follow the trail blazed by a WINNER.

It appears that "I Spy For The F.B.I." will be a hit record. It has already busted R&B in Chicago, Atlanta, S. F., Detroit, etc. on Thomas label by Jamo Thomas, and Smash label has a version out by Luther Ingram . . . "Think About Me," Gaylan Ladd, MGM, is a smash in Houston and Beaumont, and Paul Drew reports it spreading to Louisiana, the Carolinas, etc. . . .

Taking Care of Business

BY DEL SHIELDS

Sunny Weather Ahead for Roy

New York took time out this week to welcome a new artist: Roy Meriwether, whose first Columbia album, "Soup and Onions," released a few weeks ago, is causing a lot of excitement. The album has launched this 19-year-old pianist on a career that promises to be one of the most successful.

Fresh out of Dayton, Ohio, this self-taught pianist has arranged a number of standards that are a delight to hear. "Cast Your Fate," "Satin Doll," "Exodus" and "A Taste of Honey" comprise a package that should be one of the big jazz albums of the year. And "Little Lousy Jane" and the title tune, "Soup and Onions," display lilting swing with gentle dabs of rock.

You might ask what Roy has. Has he come up with a new direction? Has he established a new school?

It is not that Roy is that much of an innovator. After all, he's only 19. And he is self-taught. It is what he does with what he has and how he does it that catches the ear.

He has a solid, two-fisted approach. He swings hard. He displays a fresh and youthful attack that is clear and spirited. Throughout, there is the feeling of an artist in love with his work. And he creates without disregarding harmonic forms.

It also is pleasing to sit down and talk with a youngster about his influences and the advice given him by his parents. In this day of reckless rebellion and unwarranted protest, it is reassuring and refreshing to meet a Roy Meriwether.

There is a happy touch in his playing. He proves that

Roy Meriwether Trio
Philip Paul, Roy, Lester Bass

happiness is not a handicap. And we are the better for it all.

Can he be compared to other jazz pianists? I don't think we need to. What is really important is that disk jockeys, R&B, rock and roll, pop and good music are joining their jazz constituents by sharing the enthusiasm of his music with their listeners. And they are serving up full portions of his "Soup and Onions."

Roy is defying classification, other than being good and entertaining. He is most welcome to an academy that slowly is beginning to realize that there are a lot of jazz lovers under 30.

Roy is exciting and his membership among the imposing list of talented jazz pianists is a valid one and indeed welcome.

SHORT CHORUSES . . . The concert at Carnegie Hall that headlined Miss Sarah Vaughan and Arthur Prysock was a pure gas. It's been a long time since the Divine One was in such fine voice. It was an occasion when all the tributes paid to her became a beautiful reality on stage, and it was clearly evident that her fans had been waiting for this night. A night to remember.

Wand Releasing Hot 'Desiree'

NEW YORK—Scepter-Wand Records' Marv Schlachter reports hit action on the golden oldie, "Desiree," by the original group on the tune, the Charts. Master was purchased from Lenny Lewis' B&L Productions and was produced for B&L by Bob Schwaid.

B&L also has signed a long-term contract with Scepter-Wand for the Charts to be released on the Wand label.

Ediss Forms Kismet Label

PITTSBURGH—Stan Ediss, formerly with World Artists Records, has opened his own record company, Kismet Records, in the Penn-Sheraton Hotel, Suite 394.

Ediss has completed his distribution set-up, with coverage from coast-to-coast. He will be traveling throughout the U.S. seeking masters and talent. A subsidiary of Kismet will be Promotion Unlimited.

RCA Records 'Ivanov'

RCA Victor has acquired the rights to record the Alexander Cohen production of Chekov's drama, "Ivanov," which will arrive on Broadway at the Schubert Theater May 3 starring Sir John Gielgud and Vivien Leigh.

Announcement was made by George R. Marek, VP and General Manager, the RCA Victor Record Division, who will co-produce the album with Joe Linhart, A and R producer. The recording will take place prior to the play's New York opening and is scheduled in RCA's Studio B on Feb. 27.

R. Gittleman Dead

Rubin Gittleman, father of Danny Gittleman of US Records, Fall River, Mass., died last week in Miami of a heart attack. He was around 70. Services were held in Fall River.

Colpix' Jones Set For Rock TV Series

There was a time when a rock and roll act couldn't get a prime time slot. That time is so far in the past that NBC is now readying a comedy series for next season called "The Monkees" and dealing with the daily antics of—guess what?—a rock and roll group.

It'll star Colpix' David Jones, plus Mickey Braddock and folksingers Peter Tork and Mike Blessing.

Surely records will follow if the show clicks.

Club Review

New Jazz Band Vanguard Click

NEW YORK—The big band business got a shot in the arm last week at the Village Vanguard when the Jazz Band, a new 18-piece group, made its debut. The combine, co-led by drummer Mel Lewis and trumpeter Thad Jones, proved to be as lively and melodious an aggregation as advance press reported.

Much credit for the band's instant success must go to an imaginative set of arrangements done by Jones and lead trombonist Bob Brookmeyer; however, the lion's share of the credit must go to the swing-free spirit of the band which engendered the kind of excitement absent from big bands for so long. Group is only six weeks old.

R & B Beat

has a very nice new Chantells, "You're Welcome To My Heart."

Morris Levy found a Sam and Dave in the can called, "It Feels So Nice" and it's out on Roulette . . . "1000 Miles Away" Wayne Anthony, is selling for Morris.

"My Judgment Day," Darrow Fletcher, Groovy, was played first by Ken Hawkins, Will Rudd and John Slade, and now charts Top 10 on WJMO with big Cleveland sales on this "B" side. Then Lucky Cordell turned it over at WVON, after getting big adult hop reaction, and the first order in Chicago on this side was for 3,200 . . . As I told "Hitsville" when it came out, the HIT Supremes side is, "Everything Is Good About You." Hy Lit of WIBG fully agrees with me. Now let's really see how many soul brothers care enough to bother to turn it over as they did the Mary Wells for Jerry Wexler. This is the acid test to determine where you stand with people, and what they really feel.

Almost every top R&B station picked or went on "Keep On Running," Spencer Davis, Atco, which is #1 in England. It was covered by a major with an R&B artist . . . Wilson Pickett should go Top 20 in the trade charts. Can this record be denied by the pop stations?

"Help Me," Ray Sharp, sounds like a stone "down" winner . . . "I Want Someone," Mad Lads, is a smash in Memphis, Philadelphia, etc. . . Both sides of Johnny Taylor, "I Had A Dream" and "Changes" are happening . . . "Jerkin The Dog," Mighty Hannibal, Decca, hit #1 in Memphis. Now are you happy, Joey Bonner? . . . Joe Smith, Miami-based indie promo man, is offering a prize of one free copy of a record that was listed by an important station for six consecutive weeks, and never played once. Would you believe five weeks? (Yes!)

Jimmy Bishop broke Edwin Starr and "Gotta Be Strong." Intruders (Ben E. Krass), wide open in Philadelphia. Watch for some sensational announcements concerning the top-level deejays coming to work in Philadelphia soon. This town will feature the greatest concentration of power R&B jocks ever in one city, and it is smoking hot already.

Jerry Wexler just checked me on the Wilson Pickett sales. I will tell you that they are unbelievable. It is a certain Top 10 record. Jerry is very excited about his "Solid Gold Soul" LP that features the top selling past hits by Wilson Pickett, Otis Redding, Solomon Burke, Ben E. King. Listening to this soul LP is an overwhelming experience.

Stan Lewis called to report that "Moving On," Curtis Griffen, Jewel, went on WVON, Chicago, and is selling in N.Y., Charlotte, Dallas, S.F., New Orleans, Detroit, & Memphis. The new Bobby Powell is called "Do Something For Yourself" and it is powerful. It flips me.

The Mad Lads is a Stone Smash in Philadelphia . . . John Hardy broke "Can't Get No Satisfaction" out of the Otis Redding LP. So big, Jim Stewart has to release it as a single. It is the biggest R&B thing in S.F. It should go pop there.

Tener Gives Awards

WINTER PARK, FLA.—On Feb. 10, Tener Enterprises, Inc., presented 10 certificates of merit to thank those people/institutions who were most beneficial during 1965.

The certificates were awarded to Walt Lee of Disc Distributors, Boston, Mass.; Carl Gerace of Delta Records, Buffalo, New York; promoter Joe Smith of Miami; promoter Herb Lutz of Dallas; Art Knight of WICE, Providence; Bernie Dittman of WABB, Mobile; Wild Bill Carter of WHOO, Orlando; Bill Vermillion of WLOF, Orlando; Eddie Matthews of Mike Records, New York City, and Charlie Daniels of Tulsa.

Tener recently received clearance for an R&B subsidiary label, Hype. The first release, "I'm Up Tight," by Paul Sindab, is scheduled for February.

Premier's New Midwest Agent

NEW YORK—Frank Barsalona, President of Premier Talent Associates, announces the addition of Richard D. Knutson to the staff of booking agents. Knutson comes from the Midwest where he was president of the R. D. Knutson Agency, with headquarters in Fargo, N. D.

In his new capacity, he will book for clubs, fairs, colleges and one nighters in the Midwest. Among the acts which he will book are Herman's Hermits, Freddie & the Dreamers, the Yardbirds, the Animals, Beau Brummels, Mitch Ryder & the Detroit Wheels, Anthony & the Imperials, Wayne Fontana, Shangri-Las, Freddie Cannon, Jimmy Clanton, Ronettes and Tommy Roe.

Friends Indeed Stuarti's Creed

Epic recording artist Enzo Stuarti has built his life and career around his philosophy of friendship and personal contact with audiences. Enzo's night club career necessitates extensive travel and in each town he makes and keeps innumerable friends.

Enzo
Stuarti

Maintaining a list of over 5,600 people with whom he keeps in touch, Enzo handles this extensive correspondence himself while he travels and employs neither mailing service nor secretary. His great interest in people and his phenomenal memory make it possible for him to correspond with each of these friends about their special interests. At each appearance a good share of the crowds he attracts is composed of his friends from that area. Last Christmas the Stuartis received over 2,300 Christmas cards.

Among the people with whom Enzo corresponds are 1,000 disk jockies. His letters to them are always on a sincere personal basis rather than on a professional basis, taking the interests and hobbies of each into consideration.

Enzo feels that TV has separated the performer from the important personal contact with his audience and that it is, after all, "the individual members of the audience who are responsible for the performer being able to enjoy success and its accompanying material benefits."

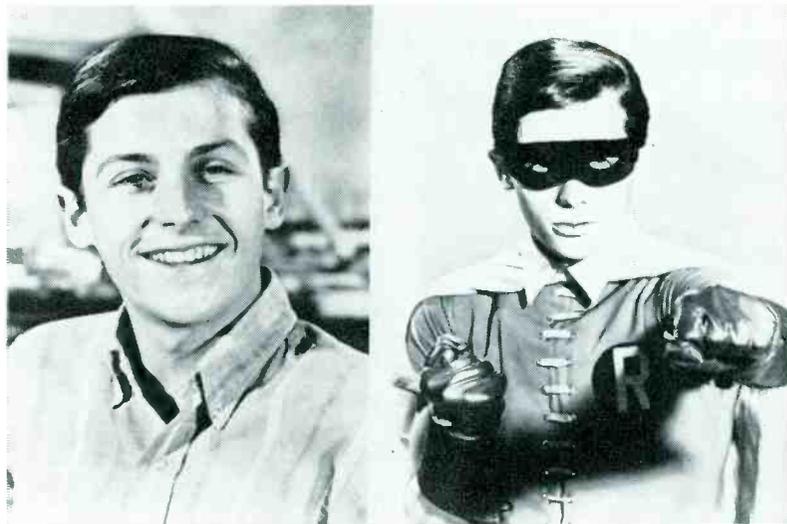

Enzo's recording plans include an upcoming LP date in Rome, where he records all of his albums.

His theme song: "We're Not Strangers, We're Just Friends Who Haven't Met."

Because of the action on Enzo Stuarti's single "That Wonderful Girl of Mine," Epic is rushing Enzo into an LP recording session. The LP will be titled, "That Wonderful Girl of Mine."

It's Batmensch!

Allen and Rossi have just completed a promising laugh LP, "Batmensch and Rubin," on Mercury, a delicatessen-flavored spoof of the current "Batman" craze. Album will be out next week.

Burt Ward as Robin

Robin Sings On ABC!

Burt Ward, the young actor who portrays Dick Grayson, otherwise known as Robin, on ABC-TV's new "Batman" series, has been signed to an exclusive recording contract by ABC-Paramount Records, announces label president Larry Newton.

Ward, who never held an acting job prior to his "Batman" assignment, graduated from Beverly Hills High School in California and spent the summer of 1965 as a stagehand in Bucks County, Pa. He auditioned for the role of Robin, was selected as one of five finalists for the coveted part, and finally was chosen to play Batman's young sidekick.

Contract arrangements were handled between ABC-Paramount and Johnny Dugan in Hollywood. Bob Thiele, ABC's director of artists & repertoire, flew to Hollywood this week to record young Ward, and the first disk will be rushed into release.

Money Music

"Chinese Checkers," Souljers, Rampart, is hitting in Detroit off CKLW and in many other markets . . . Ted Kelleme of Columbia in Philadelphia tells me that "Soup and Onions," Roy Meriwether, broke wide open. The LP is also large. This 19-year-old soul brother should become a major artist shortly.

Jerry Wexler just checked me on the play on Spencer Davis. I don't think there is a pop station that isn't on it. He gave me the sales figures on his R&B records. I can tell you this: After you subtract the tremendous returns on many so-called pop hits, I can assure you that the real HEART of this business is in the R&B single . . . The Sonny and Cher has real sales muscle, believe it. Dig Jerry's "Solid Gold Soul" LP that has the top hits of Ben E. King, Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett and Solomon Burke. He released an instrumental on "Louie, Louie" by Travis Womack (who had "Scratchy").

Matty Singer relays a message from Al Cahn of ABC that "Conquistadores," Chico Hamilton, Impulse, is over 15,000 in California. With exposure, it can be a big jazz item . . . Lloyd Leipzig of United Artists tells me that the Lena Horne LP, "Lena In Hollywood," has two very hot cuts in it: "Never On Sunday" where she wails like blazes, and "Singin' in the Rain" which is distinguished by the fact that she sings the verse and you don't know what the song is until she finally laces into the familiar portion.

Sol Rabinowitz checked in and I agree that he has a smash with "Lullaby Of Love," Poppies, Epic (which is based on Brahms Lullaby.) It's picked all through Dallas, Houston, New Orleans, Philadelphia and everywhere . . . "Woman," Peter & Gordon, is cooking in the Southwest and other areas . . . The Humdinger tells me that "Phoenix Love Theme," the Brass Ring, Dunhill, broke wide open on WLS, Chicago, and other markets. The movie is a solid hit according to Time Magazine, so the record should go big nationally . . . Columbia should have a C&W-Pop smash with "Tippy Toeing," Harden 3, which is breaking the same way as the Statler Bros. . . . The new Vogues and new James Brown are smashes.

BEVERLY HILLS — If Dunhill is an elegant title (derived from the dancing act of the same name, whence came one of its three partners), it is also somewhat ambiguous. For it embraces an organization rapidly expanding in many different areas, an organization which more than one major concern has endeavored to buy out but which remains a giant in the independent field.

Dunhill operates from the second floor of an otherwise conservative little building on Beverly Drive (321 South). If you bear right at the top of the stairway and proceed to the end of the hall, you will come to a door inscribed: "Dunhill Productions, Inc.; Trousdale Music Publishers, Inc.; Lou Adler."

Adler Awaiting

Here you will find the be-jeaned Lou Adler, anonymous behind outside sunglasses, mysterious beneath a wide-brimmed stetson, listening to the Johnny Rivers dub he cut the night before—which probably ran into the morning after. On his desk you will see a stack of mail, an ashtray full of half-smoked cigarettes, an assortment of trade papers and tip sheets with thick black rings around his current chart successes, and a test pressing of the album he has just cut with the Mamas and the Papas.

Lou has obtained some startling results both as a producer and as a publisher, and his consistency in both fields remains remarkable.

Here you will also find the little blonde from the Mamas and the Papas checking the sleeve of the aforementioned album with that slightly jaundiced eye you always have when you first see a photograph of yourself.

And here you will find writers P. F. Sloan and Steve Barri strumming and humming their newest tune which will probably reach your ears through Herman's Hermits or the Searchers or the Turtles. If you are a producer, it will probably wind up in your office accompanied by Andy ("Wipe-out") Wickham, England's surfing refugee and former pressman for the Stones, Hermits, Marianne Faithfull and others.

Roberts' Guiding Hand

'Round the corner is Bobby Roberts (of the Dunhills), second of the three partners controlling the Dunhill spectrum.

A shrewd, sharp-suited, smiling person, Bobby is the man who found Ann-Margret, is currently guiding such notables as Shelley Fabares and Kaye Stevens, and who represents the management side of the organization.

You will probably find Roberts on the telephone when you enter his office, and the chances are he will be talking to ABC-Television about the scheduled weekly series for Jan & Dean next season, or to Paramount moguls about the movie with Barry McGuire which shortly will be going into production. Dunhill Films has a non-exclusive contract with Paramount.

Or maybe he's on a long-distance to New York where Johnny Rivers recently wowed Basin St. East.

And when — or if — Bobby gets off that phone, you can bet your bottom dollar that there will be a Mama or a Papa waiting to ask him what they should say or what they should wear when they go on the "Hollywood Palace" TV show.

Anchor-Man Lasker

The lettering on the door across the hall from Bobby proudly announces "Dunhill Records: Jay Lasker," which is self-explanatory.

Lasker, whose skill and experience in the past with such companies as Reprise and Vee-Jay has become almost legend in the record industry, is the remaining partner.

Jay, an ex-attorney, has the somewhat fatherly image of anchor-man in the operation. From the tranquility of his office—a haven of tropical plants, glossy new album covers and cigar smoke—one cannot help feeling that should a hurricane ever destroy Beverly Hills, Jay and his cigar would still be there when the dust settled.

If Adler's office is where the hits are made, and Roberts' office is where the artists are made, then it is in Lasker's office that both commodities are sold. It is here that theories become fact, ideas become impersonal (but lucrative) shellac, and the future of yesterday becomes "where it's at" today—via exasperated phone calls to distributors, more of the same to program directors and long weekends in Pittsburgh, Pa., or Battle Creek, Mich. or wherever the need is greatest.

And there you have Dunhill. The staff remains small, the results big.

Audio Fi's Juanita Banana Slips Home

NEW YORK — Eddie Newmark, who joined the Audio Fidelity staff three weeks ago as Musical Director, released his first single on the Karate label called "Juanita Banana," and it looks like a hit.

The single is a novelty production recorded by a group called the Peels and produced by Howard Smith Productions. The record, after being played once at WQAM in Miami, resulted in frantic calls to both the station and retail stores. The same reaction has been duplicated to date in 25 markets.

Television shows including the Soupy Sales and Lloyd Thaxton programs went on the record, finding the music goes very well with visual skits. TV stations have been flooded with telephone calls, too.

All this exposure also led to a Peels audition for the "Tonight" show which resulted in a scheduled appearance within two or three weeks.

Audio Fidelity has gone on an extensive promotion for "Juanita Banana" with all radio stations around the country. Newmark has made sure that special attention be brought to this single and has had special yellow labels printed as outside mailers and a special enclosure showing Juanita Banana.

Big 'Batman'

Lewis Merenstein, National Sales Manager of Ambassador Records, announced that as of Feb. 8 orders for over 100,000 "Batman" LPs on Ambassador's newly formed Tifton Audio Series label have been shipped. The album was produced by Merenstein.

Shannon at Metric And Liberty

Vocalist-songwriter Del Shannon has signed an exclusive long-term contract with Liberty Records as a recording artist and as a writer for Metric Music, firm's publishing company, it was announced by Philip Skaff, Exec VP, Liberty Records, Inc.

Shannon has sold millions of records during the past few years with such hits as "Runaway," "Hats Off To Larry" and "Keep Searching," tunes he penned. Numerous other Shannon records have also reached the top ten on the trade charts. In 1962 and 1963, he was selected as the most popular American artist in England.

Pickwick's Deal With Cap of Canada

LONG ISLAND CITY, N.Y.—Cy Leslie, President of Pickwick International, Inc., has announced the signing of an exclusive, long-term distribution agreement with Capitol Records (Canada) Ltd., for the distribution of Pickwick/33 Records, Hilltop Records, Cavalier Records, Cricket Children's albums, Design Tapes and "Instant" Learning Records in Canada.

George Wade, Managing Director of Pickwick Records of Canada Ltd., will act as liaison between the world headquarters of Pickwick International in New York and Edward Leatham, Vice President and Records (Canada) Ltd. Wade General Manager of Capitol will continue to personally supervise the distribution of all Pickwick International product not included in the Capitol agreement through independent channels, just as he has done since his appointment in August, 1965.

'I'll Take Manila,' Etc. Says Patti Page Manager

'Servicemen Make East Hot Market'

BY DOUG McCLELLAND

NEW YORK—"The Far East is The Coming Record Market. It hasn't even been scratched." So says Jack Rael, personal manager of Patti Page, among others, who recently returned with the songstress from their now almost annual tour there.

With Patti and two musicians, Rael saw Tokyo, Okinawa, Hong Kong and Taiwan as major stopoffs and reports that the big upswing in interest in American music, records and recording artists probably stems mainly from our servicemen over there.

"They go with the local girls, shop in local shops, purchase things outside the PX. We have thousands of boys in Japan and many are still in Taiwan, plus Hong Kong has always been a pretty good market and servicemen come there on r & r—that's rest and rehabilitation."

Until about five years ago there had been a problem for stateside entertainers in Tokyo, Rael recalled. "You couldn't take money out until then. Three years ago it got even more loose."

Trips Month Long

Rael, whose Far East trips with Patti usually last a month or so, says that Manila is starting to become a good market, "although the economy there is very bad."

Patti may have been the first American recording artist to break through in the Far East. "In 1951 she was the biggest thing there," Rael continued. "She had 'Tennessee Waltz' and they named a club after her in Tokyo."

In Tokyo Patti wowed 'em this time at the Latin Quarter. And at Hong Kong's Civic Auditorium, "Patti's two shows were sold out well in advance of her arrival. She sold out there two years in a row—the only artist, as far as I know, who has done this," Rael informed.

"We played to over 1,000 people in Taiwan, worked there three days—five army and air force installations and one hotel. Okinawa is strictly army bases. They have beautiful clubs on the bases—the officer's clubs, the enlisted men's clubs, civilian clubs."

Prefer English

While in Tokyo, Patti recorded an LP in concert for Columbia Nippon, in English. "During a press conference there, we learned that the Japanese prefer to have our artists record in their own language." Which Patti has also just done here on the Columbia single, "Till You Come Back to Me."

Rael added that guitar instrumentalists are the current rage in Japan. "Many of the American groups that can't get work at home are enormously popular in Japan."

Patti's recent tour, one of her most successful, was, as usual, tough work, according to Rael. "Mainly because she has to work with different bands most of the time."

Rael, incidentally, also manages Enzo Stuarti, Gary Marshall and the Everly Brothers, the latter set for a Far Eastern tour soon, too.

Songwriter Ruth Roberts Versatile

NEW YORK — Songwriter Ruth Roberts dropped by Record World last week to let it be known she's very much back in pop songwriting circulation.

Until her recent "First Thing Ev'ry Morning" click, she hadn't penned a pop tune in quite a while, preferring to spend her time writing for kiddie TV shows ("Captain Kangaroo," etc.) and albums. (She also was on the Arthur Godfrey, Garry Moore and Merv Griffin staffs during recent years.)

Now, however, she has plenty of album cuts of "First Thing" plus a single on that one coming from Sarah Vaughan (Mercury). She's also written a few things for recent Teresa Brewer and Margaret Whiting dates.

Ruth will continue now to write for adults and kids alike.

Mitchel Reed and Cleve Hermann of KFWB-Hollywood are broadcasting the "Adventures of Ratman and Dobin" daily . . . WWVA-Wheeling, W. Va., recently had a highly successful Heart Fund Benefit with Buck Owens helming.

Howard Miller is back at his WIND-Chicago mike after a six-week vacation. That means station's Kurt Russell will return to his nighttime show and Dick Brown will do a late morning show . . . KGBS-Los Angeles reports excellent response to their new "town and country" format . . . WLS-Chicago man Mike Rapchak has a Nat Cole tribute coming up Feb. 19 . . . WCCN-FM-AM-Neillsville, Wisc., has purchased the Wisconsin Pavilion from the World's Fair and will use it for a new home. Tourists will be encouraged to visit.

Is a new trend shaping up in station five-minute features? Bob Hawkins has created "Superpickle" for airing on KVI-Seattle and other stations are doing similar things.

It is both heartening and, in a sense, disheartening to now report, many months later, that the "New Edition," sans the powerhouse star trouping of Kaye Ballard but with superior ensemble playing, is still New York theatergoers' best musical buy. In fact, with Danny Meehan, Dody Goodman, Bobby Short, Carol Arthur and Jane Manning deporting themselves in unified excellence, "TDA-FOTEWASTTEOCPR" is even better than before.

If you haven't already (and even if you have), you should become familiar with this unfamiliar but delightful collection of Porter tunes.—Doug McClelland.

label has been specifically designed so that the top half of the album covers visible on the racks gives an immediate thumbnail description of the contents of each package. Available in mono and stereo, the first group of 15 VSP album releases will include: "Perdido" The JATP All Stars, "The Art of the Ballad" featuring Stan Getz, Dizzy Gillespie, Oscar Peterson, Coleman Hawkins, Paul Gonsalves and Illinois Jacquet, "Classic Shearing" with the George Shearing Quintet, "Woody Herman—The First Herd At Carnegie Hall," "Piano Modern" featuring Art Tatum, John Lewis, Bud Powell, Cecil Taylor and Oscar Peterson, "Inside Outside" Count Basie and his Orchestra, "Night In Tunisia" Dizzy Gillespie and his Orchestra, "Eloquence" featuring Stan Getz, Lionel Hampton, Oscar Peterson, Ray Brown and Herb Ellis, "Lady" featuring Billie Holiday, "Stage Right" featuring Oscar Peterson, "Johnny Hodges and All The Dukes Men," "That Drummer's Band" with Gene Krupa and his Orchestra, "Two For The Blues" featuring Cannonball Adderly & Ray Brown, "Herbie Mann," and "How High the Moon" with the JATP All Stars.

The VSP project took almost six months to complete utilizing the combines efforts of Creed Taylor, the creative head of Verve Records, Jack Maher, Advertising Manager for MGM/Verve Records and Dom Cerulli, jazz expert and historian of the W. H. Schneider Agency.

From Classical Catalog

The first release of 15 Heliodor Classical Product has been culled from MGM's own classical catalog as from material supplied by DGG and will consist of selections by: Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Carl Orff, Gluck, Telemann, Bruckner, Bach, D'Indy, Saint-Saens, featuring some of the outstanding soloists as Rudolf Klepac, (Bassoonist), Adolf Sherbaum (Trumpet), Roman Totenberg (Violinist), David and Igor Oistrakh, Andres Segovia (Guitarist), Carl Weinrich (Organist), Richard Ellsasser (Organist), Menahem Pressler (Pianist) and Beveridge Webster (Pianist).

The 15 Leo The Lion album releases are all "quality product" with a full-length of appeal to the complete younger set.

Phil Brito, the singer, has opened a management office on West 57th Street.

Irv Biegel of Golden World Records is in New York visiting distributors in the East raving about his new hit "Stop Her on Sight" by Edwin Star on Ric Tic.

Warner Bros.-Reprise New York promo man Marvin Deane and wife Judi have a new baby boy, Jeffrey Michael.

John Nice, of Burlington Music Co., Ltd., London, was in the U.S. recently visiting affiliates in Memphis, Los Angeles, Nashville and San Francisco. Canada followed.

Stan Lewis, head of Jewel Record Corp., has made a strong move into the spiritual field with three new singles by Willie Morganfield. Latter joins Rev. David Robinson as the label's first two spiritual artists.

Herb Ostrow, whose new offices are at 200 W. 57th St. N.Y.C., has been pacted to produce sessions for Clark McClelland, Ricky Shaw, the Virgos, Mike Bailey, Tommy Swanson and Mel Clark, and will co-produce sessions with Henry Boye and Joe Favale for gal singer Little Fay.

background in music—growing up as the son of Sir Thomas Beecham's concert master. The extensive use of the oboe on his album stems from his ability to play that instrument, "because my father once told me there are not very many oboe players in the world; so if you play the oboe, you're assured of a good living."

McCallum, who returned to Los Angeles shortly after fleeing Macy's, was in the recording studios last week working on his second album.

It was suggested that the blonde, boyish actor with the mellifluous voice (that he won't use to sing—as yet) do a spoken word album with instrumental background. He didn't rule out the possibility.

RCA Spotlights C/W Catalog in Campaign

RCA Victor Records has announced its first massive sales campaign for 1966 with the introduction of a "Welcome to the Wide World of Country Music" merchandising program, spotlighting the label's impressive country music catalog. The program is in effect through March 31.

This is the first time in several seasons that the company has offered a program with full concentration on this product.

Keyed to the dual theme: "Welcome to the Wide World of Country Music," and "America's Favorite Country Music is on RCA Victor," the first-quarter program covers well over 200 album titles.

Eddy Arnold Spokesman

Spokesman for the sales campaign is country singer Eddy Arnold, currently heard on "I Want to Go with You" and the album, "My World." In conjunction with the campaign Arnold will head up a veritable caravan of country talent on a special concert tour, with appearances scheduled for Sacramento, Calif. (Feb. 21), Bakersfield, Calif. (Feb. 24),

Long Beach, Calif. (Feb. 25), Berkeley (Feb. 26), St. Louis, Mo. (Feb. 27), Chicago (March 1), Hartford, Conn. (March 2), Providence, R.I. (March 3), Boston (March 4), Milwaukee (March 5), Detroit (March 6), Cleveland (March 19), and Akron (March 20). Appearing with him on the tour will be Dottie West, Don Bowman, Jim Edward Brown and George Hamilton IV, all RCA Victor artists.

Spearheading the program are 18 new releases by Chet Atkins, Eddy Arnold, Jim Reeves, Hank Snow, Lorne Greene, Dottie West, Bobby Bare, Connie Smith, Porter Wagoner, Floyd Cramer, Homer and Jethro, Don Bowman, the Sons of the Pioneers, George Hamilton IV, and Archie Campbell. Waylon Jennings will make his album debut.

In addition, a February release entitled, "Country Hits Parade," by various artists will supplement the above named via Norma Jean, Hank Locklin, Skeeter Davis and Roger Miller.

A full-scale advertising and promotion campaign has been created.

Chart Signs Lynn

Lynn Anderson (daughter of songwriter Liz Anderson) has signed an exclusive recording contract with Chart Records, Inc. Her first single, a duet with Jerry Lane, is climbing. Lynn has also become a songwriter with several tunes already being recorded. Ribbon Music, Inc., of which her dad Casey Anderson is President, has signed Lynn to a writers' contract. The Andersons will be moving to Nashville sometime in '66.

Cash Sues Klan

NASHVILLE — Col artist Johnny Cash is suing the Ku Klux Klan for $25 million dollars over leaflets he said the Klan distributed recently, which described his Italian-born wife as a Negress and stated that his four children were "mongrelized."

In announcing the suit, Cash said, "What I resent is the attempt to make my children ashamed they were born. If there's a mongrel in the crowd, it's me, because I'm Irish and one-quarter Cherokee Indian." He also said that if he wins the money, he'll donate it to the defense budget.

NASHVILLE REPORT

Powerful Wright-Wells Package Coming Up

BY ED HAMILTON

Seaman Willie Moss of TV's "McHale's Navy," better known in these parts as Hickory recording artist Bobby Wright, will become a temporary addition to the Johnny Wright-Kitty Wells roadshow in May, June and July while he vacations from his role in that well-known show. Bobby, his wife Brenda and daughter Teresa Lee Ann will reside in Nashville during that three-month break.

The addition will make an exceptionally powerful Wright-Wells package since all the featured artists will have hit records going in their favor. Johnny's doing well with "Keep The Flag Flying"; Kitty's going great with "A Woman Half My Age"; Bill Phillips has out "Put It Off Until Tomorrow" and Bobby is really hot with his new Hickory release, "No, Not Quite."

Decca's Bill Anderson was guest speaker recently at the annual convention of the Georgia Association of Broadcasters. Bill spoke on "Country Music 1966" with his general theme being, "you don't have to be corny to be country." Sharing the spotlight with Bill was John Chancellor of NBC and Martin Agronski of CBS News.

Despite near-blizzard conditions, complete sellout crowds jammed arenas last week to hear a country music package featuring Webb Pierce, Ray Price, Jimmy Dickens, Red Sovine and Max Powell. The package worked Canada, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut and, on many occasions, was sold out at the gate weeks before time. The final show in Rochester, N.Y., had to be cancelled when snowdrifts got too deep to travel, but it was rescheduled for Feb. 13.

Mother Maybelle Carter got into the "answer" act with her new Columbia release, "I Told Them What You're Fighting For." Maybelle's is the answer to Dave Dudley's Mercury charter.

Monument Expansion Continues

In keeping with his expansion of the country division of Monument Records, Fred Foster signed and recorded two new artists on the roster. Billy Walker, long-time Columbia artist, did two sessions last week under the direction of Foster and former Challenge girl-type singer, Jeane Seely, did her first Monument dates the same night. Yours truly sat through both sessions and believe me, Fred's really got things rolling. Like he says, "Monument is artistry." And he's proving it!

"Sideman Makes Good" should be the title of the new Columbia release by guitarist Ray Edenton. Ray's out with a single and an album at the same time! The album's called "Uptown Country Music" and one side of the single, "Bad Times," was lifted from the album. Ray's completely surrounded by his talented studio sidekicks, most of them stars in their own right. There's Grady Martin, Floyd Cramer, Charlie McCoy, Boots Randolph, Harold Bradley, Buddy Harman, Joe Zinkam and several others. For all you guys out there who've been yelling for good instrumentals, Columbia's sending you Ray Edenton!

For the sixth consecutive year the Houston, Texas, Fire Department will look to a Country Music Extravaganza to beef up its Burial and Pension Fund. This year's shows arranged by Moeller Talent Agency will be held March 25 and 26 in the Sam Houston Coliseum and will headline Ray Price, Porter Wagoner, Jeane Seely, the Wilburn Brothers, Sonny James, Red Sovine, Merle Travis and Loretta Lynn. Over the past five years this type country music show has made the Fund 118,000 dollars richer! And that ain't hay!

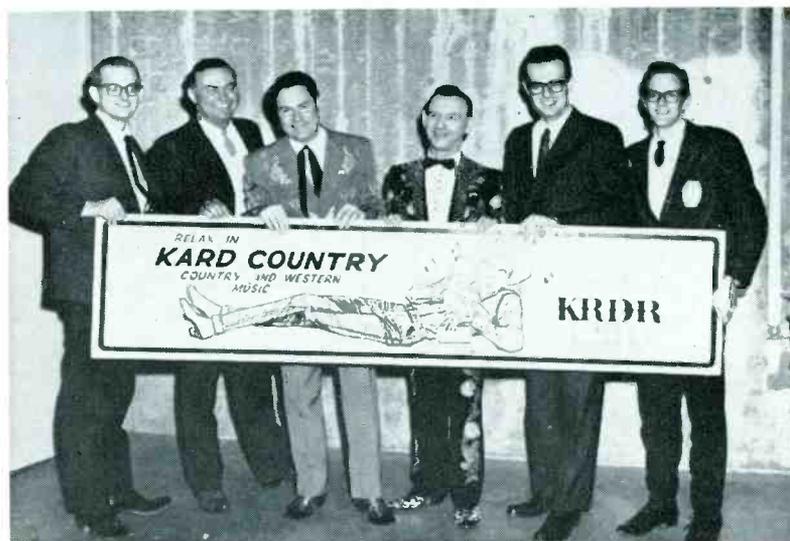

Columbia's Trio Los Panchos in town last week for album dates on country type tunes. These are the guys with the terrific harmony and great guitars. They also did a guest shot on the Opry while here.

MADISON, TENN.—Col. Jim Wilson, VP of Marketing for Starday Records, has announced the appointment of Tell Music as distributor for all Starday product in the Madison and Wisconsin areas.

KRDR Celebrates 3rd Big C/W Year

Albums, Tours In Hickory News

NASHVILLE—Hickory Records announced new album plans and important upcoming tours for a group of its artists, being set through the affiliated Acuff-Rose Artist Corporation.

In addition, it was announced that Don Gibson, key writer for Acuff-Rose Publications, has been booked by the agency wing for a return engagement on the Jimmy Dean TV show. Gibson arrives in New York for taping Monday (21).

On the chart front, Hickory is currently represented with four entries, including Bill Carlisle's "What Kind of Deal

Is This." Moving up fast are Bob Luman's "Five Miles from Home" and Ernie Ashworth's "I Wish." James O'Gwynn's "Red Light on My Heart" is now also showing in a number of station listings and charts. Beyond this, Bob Gallion's newest release, "Got the World by the Tail" and "Not Once But a Hundred Times," is getting two-sided play.

Hickory, as a result of Carlisle's success, is rushing out an album by the veteran chanter, "The Best of Bill Carlisle." Ashworth, who has had a string of recent top hits, is represented with a new album, issued just a month ago. Album plans are also in the works for Bob Luman and Gallion.

Meanwhile, on the booking front, Acuff-Rose Artists chief Howard Forrester has set both Carlisle and Luman for a tour of armed forces bases in Germany next month. Clyde Beavers is now on tour visiting bases in the Caribbean area, while Wilma Lee and Stony Cooper and the entire Clinch Mountain Gang left last week to make the circuit of armed forces bases in Germany.

Leroy Van Dyke's Son Drowned

NASHVILLE — Leroy Van Dyke's son, Ray Leroy Van Dyke, 5, drowned here last week, along with a companion, when both children fell through ice on a lake near the Van Dyke home.

A couple of other children saw the two boys fall and alerted neighbors and policemen, but rescuers were too late.

Van Dyke, who records for Warner Bros., was in Chicago on a date at the time of the accident.
