PRI was founded in 1983 as American Public Radio by five leading public radio stns to provide a diversity of program sources & production styles to the public radio audience. PRI joined forces with NPR & the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) to launch AMERICA ONE, a 24-hr English language audio channel serving all of Europe. Headquartered in Munich, AMERICA ONE's audience includes English-speaking Europeans & Americans living & working abroad. AMERICA ONE reaches this audience via direct-to-home satellite, cable & AM/FM radio stns throughout the continent. In addition to its ongoing programs, which include Garrison Keillor's A Prairie Home Companion, Whad'Ya Know? with Michael Feldman, Marketplace, & Saint Paul Sunday, the network distributes an average of four special programs per month & emphasizes progmg in four general areas: news & info, comedy/var, classical music & contemporary music. The new global radio news magazine The World is co-produced by PRI, BBC World Service & WGBH Boston. This one-hr weekday news program, distributed throughout the United States by PRI & in Europe on AMERICA ONE, is the first daily radio collaboration between U.S. public broadcasters & the BBC.

Canadian Radio Networks

Canadian Broadcasting Corp.

The Canadian Broadcasting Corp. (CBC) is a publicly owned corporation established by the Broadcasting Act (1936) of the Canadian Parliament to provide the national broadcast service in Canada in the two official languages, English & French. Under this legislation, the CBC is governed by the 1991 Broadcasting Act and subject to regulations of the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC).

Program Services: The CBC operates English and French AM & FM stereo networks. The programs on these networks is nearly all Canadian and virtually free of commercial advertising. CBC North broadcasts radio programs to Canada's north in English, French and seven native languages, serving the special needs of native & non-native groups in the Yukon, the Northwest Territories and northern Quebec. Radio Canada International is Canada's voice abroad. Broadcast on shortwave in seven languages, RCI's program reflects Canada's political, economic, social & cultural spectrum to an international audience. Newsworld is a 24-hour national satellite to cable English-language news & information service. Le Réseau de l'information (RDI) is a 24-hour national satellite to cable French-language news & information service. The heart of CBC's national distribution system is Canada's Anik E2 satellite, carrying programs through six different time zones. CBC's programming is broadcast over 684 AM & FM stations.
