Mexico Threatens Allocations

WITH more than thirty Mexican broadcasting stations on the air, operating on frequencies used in the United States and Canada, conditions in many sections of the country are becoming complicated, with Mexican and Canadian programs inextricably mixed with American features.

Considerable complaint has been voiced regarding the situation, which has come about as a result of Mexico not having participated in the division of frequencies by which interference between American and Canadian stations was largely eliminated some time ago. The Mexican stations, not being bound by any compact, are operating on any frequencies they like, some flatly on channels used in this country or Canada, others on wavelengths in between the frequencies used here.

In order to iron out the difficulty, it is probable that another conference of government officials of the United States, Canada and Mexico, and possibly Cuba, where there are also a number of stations which penetrate the United States, may be called in the near future. Officials of the United States Government are reluctant, however, to take any steps along this line, since such a conference undoubtedly could have no other result than to reduce the number of frequencies allotted to United States broadcasters.

Canada, it is believed, would welcome such a conference, which would give her an opportunity to register a strong protest against the present set-up as being too restrictive to her stations, granting her exclusive use of only a half-dozen frequencies and joint use of a dozen others. Canadian officials and broadcasters have long contended that these frequencies are insufficient for the eighty stations of the Dominion.

While, on the basis of the comparative number of stations in the two countries, Canada has a fair proportion of the available frequencies, it is contended that the Canadian stations have a much larger territory to serve than have any stations in the United States and that powerful stations which penetrate large portions of Canada are operating in this country on the shared frequencies. American programs, it is declared, are more easily picked up in many parts of the Dominion than are those of the Canadian stations.

Naturally, if any conference was called for the purpose of allocating frequencies, Mexico would demand several for her stations, which could be secured only by reducing the number allowed the United States. Cuba, too, if included, would want some channels, it is presumed, and this, coupled with the demand for more facilities by Canada, to which the American delegation might possibly have to accede, would severely restrict broadcasting in this country. Accordingly, American officials are unwilling to start anything which might end unsatisfactorily to them and will not take any steps to initiate a conference until conditions become so bad as to make action imperative.

More Praise for KFRC

A hand for KFRC. Almost two years ago by accident I tuned in on the Happy Go Lucky Hour; since then have been a daily listener. I think Al Pearce and his gang are wonderful, and we don't like to hear slighting things said about them, so look out.

Hazel Warner, Norman, and Tommy Harris, can't be beat. When they sing you know what it is all about. It would take too much space to say all I think of Al and his gang, but keep up the good work. You don't know how much good the little sunshine does that you send out each afternoon.

"People's Melody a Minute" program is an enjoyable half-hour. It gives us who can't hear our favorite artists in the afternoon a chance to hear them in the evening.

Mrs. M. L. J., Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 15.

Dramas Continue to Be Popular

I enjoy the BROADCAST WEEKLY very much and gain much information therefrom which I would not otherwise receive.

But I cannot understand why it is that when a program is advertised in the BROADCAST WEEKLY as well as the newspapers, why they don't broadcast the change at the time. Here one keeps sitting and waiting and waiting for their "pet" program to come on and it does not come on, and the announcer doesn't take the trouble to let you know it is off indefinitely (giving the reason why also would help). Also if he would only say it was changed, postponed or something, and inform his audiences when it will be resumed, if ever, it would surely help some.

Another thing, I would like more pictures, as anyone can use the margin of their book (if no other paper is available) to jot down what the best bets of the day are.

I for one do not care for all the music—singing and jazz. So I am a booster for more dramas, sketches, etc. Also why can't we have some of them to last an hour instead of so many ten and fifteen-minute ones. Some of them come on the air two and three at the same time, while other evenings and on Sundays there are none at all.

We used to have some from KFRC, but lately all they think about is singing and jazz. The CBS used to put on a whole hour every Friday evening—True Story Hour—but they have discontinued even that since daylight saving last summer. What if it does come on earlier in the evening than 10 o'clock. Any time after six is all right for me.

KGO-NBC is my favorite station on the air, as they have more modern dramas than any other station, only they are not long enough. Would like more romances like Jack and Ethyl used to give in Let's Get Associated.

M. W., San Francisco, Jan. 16.

J. B. Answers Mrs. D.

Have just received my "weekly radio dish" and may I suggest, Mrs. D., you refer back to your little BROADCAST WEEKLY, in which they were so kind to print my letter and see if you do not find where I stated I am one of many who find it necessary to be employed away from home, and not next door to a radio. When one is absent from home from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., how in the world can one listen to a program which originates between 10 and 11 a. m.? How I wish I could, as I would not have to miss the Happy Go Lucky Hour from 2 to 3 p. m.

I'll grant other stations have good features, some perhaps overshadowing some of KFRC's presentations, but my selection is based on an all-round performance.

Yes, C. B. H., KHJ has some very good features and I am glad to see you agree with me about Norman.

Second the motion on H. E. C.'s suggestion Happy Go Lucky Hour be presented in the evening, or if that is not possible, have it on Saturday afternoons, too, when a great number of us would be able to hear it once a week then.

Why can't these radio stations give BROADCAST WEEKLY subscribers a break and co-operate with the WEEKLY and give us the right line-up on their programs? Or, if this isn't possible, to at least announce why a certain program is not presented.

It isn't disappointing enough to arrange one's engagements so one can be at home to hear a certain program but then have some dreadful program put on in its stead without a word of explanation. These disappointments are coming all too often of late.

The best of luck to BROADCAST WEEKLY.

J. B., Fresno, Calif., Jan. 14

"Happy Go Lucky Hour" Must Be Popular

I've been saving up a lot of gab for your pages and now's just about the right time to spring it.

First, about the best bets. If Miss E. F. S. of Stockton wants pictures of radio stars, why doesn't she buy them instead of E. F. M. buying a notebook. A notebook is often mislaid, while the best bets are in a most convenient place.

To prove that all great minds run in the same channel, I heartily agree with H. E. C. of Gridley about KFRC's popularity, more open circuit news, and having the Happy Go Lucky Hour in the evening. It is truly the best hour of entertainment that could possibly be placed on the air, but if it were placed on the air during the evening, then the rest of us could enjoy it too. As it is, the only ones who can enjoy it are housewives. Not being of that sex, I would like to see us fellows getting equal rights.

I also agree with Mrs. S. about the UBC system. Beside the NBC and CBS systems, the UBC looks like a flea beside an elephant. It has proven the ruin of KTAB.

What this country needs is not a good five-cent cigar, but station announcers that will announce the call letters of the station and not keep us waiting for three or four selections to log the station.

In closing, I wan't to say that I certainly miss the daily schedules that you used to have along with the daily programs. Been reading BROADCAST WEEKLY for six years and expect to for another six.

D. X., Vallejo, Calif., Jan. 17.

There Are Always Two Sides

We are writing in to ask Mrs. S. just why she blames UBC just because she cannot hear her KTAB favorites. In this city of the "owls," ten o'clock is just the beginning of the evening. Now just why can't KTAB present a program then, instead of playing phonograph records.

Another thing, just why have the KTAB "Night Owls" disappeared, as this program was presented from 11:30 until 1 a. m. You can hardly blame that on United Broadcast.

In our estimation, the "Night Owls" was one of the best programs on the air, but how could it be otherwise with the dashing Jimmie Kendrick presiding, the one and only Gerda Lundberg, Alice Blue, Muzzy Marcellino, the Chilly Peppers, and others. As United couldn't have taken this program off, and KTAB didn't, well then, just who are we to blame.

Mrs. E., San Francisco, Jan. 17.

More Support for "Home Talent"

This is my first attempt, but am going to try to make it register. Thanks to those who applaud the "Trial of Vivian Ware." Hope there are more such skits in the near future. Hope those who disagree bust their radio sets, thus loosing what they enjoy.

In looking over the January 18-24 issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY, I heartily endorse sentiments of Mrs. S. of San Francisco, dated January 5. Please drop the U. B. C. without a question and give the "home talent" a chance. Will enjoy seeing what kind of an uproar this will cause.

A. O. H., Oakland, Calif., Jan. 15.

How About It, KFRC?

I certainly can sympathize with H. E. C. of Gridley, who wants the Happy Go Lucky Hour on in the evening. I feel the same way. It is an excellent program—a peppy master of ceremonies, and plenty of fine talent.

Why can't the Happy Go Lucky Hour be put on about two nights a week—say, Tuesday and Thursday nights, so as not to interfere with the afternoon programs. No afternoon Happy Go Lucky Hours would probably mean no audiences, and that would be a disappointment for many.

Let's have that popularity contest and more pictures.

W. R., North Sacramento, Calif., Jan. 15.

Would This Style Help?

Here's a suggestion. How would our readers like all programs printed as below with space for marking the various features? We will be guided by the response we get. Let us know.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Those who picture radio continuity writers' lives as luxurious existences ought to try being one for a time. Carlton E. Morse, who writes mystery serials and "Let's Get Associated" dramas for NBC listeners to hear, has written what would constitute twelve novels of sixty-five thousand words apiece in 1930. Caryl Coleman, NBC producer and writer, finished a continuity for a musical program, composed all of classics, the other day and then turned around and wrote a brilliant "Sparklets" continuity all in humorous verse. And Henry de Lasaux leaps blithely from the serious, reverent tone of his Bible stories continuities to black-face and vaudeville skits for the air.

• • • Who is the Golden State Blue Monday Jamboree's newest comedian—the rib-rollicking Swede, Axel Larsen? The answer is: Pete Barlow. And in case you are still in the dark, Pete Barlow is KFRC's percussion expert. What! You don't know what a percussion expert is? Give me your hand until we get through this timber. Well, a percussion expert is a drummer.

Pete Barlow has been hitting things in orchestras for a great many years. At one time he was percussionist extraordinary for the Minneapolis Symphony. But his musical career didn't interfere with two years of intermittent appearances in vaudeville throughout the East doing Swede character songs and dialect. Incidentally, "Pete" has shot a 69 at Lincoln; he's a great golfer.

• • • The "Auto Gypsies," known as John and Jane, heard over KQW, San Jose, every Friday night, are portrayed by Lena May Leland, pianist and musical director of KQW, and Gordon Brown, announcer.

• • • Johnny Murray, KFVB's popular young tenor, attended the Damrosch Institute of Musical Art in New York for three years and then studied with Frank Carroll Giffin, renowned teacher of voice. After touring nearly every state in the Union and parts of Europe singing and playing trumpet, he came to California as a feature in the "Good News" show. Then came a session with Gus Arnheim at the Cocoanut Grove, and after that a two-year contract with First National Studios. Johnny's voice doubled for Richard Barthelmess in "Weary River" and "Drag," and played in the "Dawn Patrol."

• • • Dorothy Lewis, leading contralto and assistant program director of the United Broadcasting Company, has spent nearly six years on the concert platform and vaudeville stage. During this time her two cousins, Hilda Graham and Richard Earle, both of the profession, were constantly traveling in the same territory, but they never crossed paths or worked in the same town at the same time. Recently both Miss Graham and Mr. Earle were added to the UBC dramatic staff, and the three cousins had their first meeting. They now frequently work on the same programs.

• • • Little Bobby Oakes, who plays the part of Buddy in the dramas broadcast by Old Wagon Tongue over KOA, Denver, knows the limits to which filial requests may go. After his most recent rehearsal at the station, he was heard to telephone his father and say, "Daddy, will you come after me now—I mean after you've listened to Amos 'n' Andy?"

• • • Ralph R. Brunton, general manager of KJBS, has just placed an order for a new Western Electric transmitter which will include the most recent developments in radio telephone engineering. In fact, the final experiments on this new transmission equipment, which includes several new and revolutionary features, have not yet been completed by the Western Electric Company's engineers. Preliminary work on the new KJBS installation will commence in the near future.

• • • Eulala Dean, popular blues singer of KJR and the Northwest Broadcasting System, has taken two months leave of absence to take a rest and vacation period. She is departing for the southwestern part of the United States, and will drive. On her trips she expects to sing at various stations in Oregon, California, Nevada, and Arizona as guest artist.

• • • Sam Hayes, genial six foot four sports and program announcer of KTAB, appeared some time back on that station's revue program as Abdu ben Lentil, fake eastern mystic and expounder of problems. Since the last appearance of Abdu, Sam has been beseiged with letters demanding that he trace straying husband, lost oil fields, and that he patch broken hearts. That kind of thing is all right up to a certain point, but when Sam's mail was received at his home addressed to Abdu and arriving in lavender-hued and perfumed envelopes, then Mrs. Hayes, a delightful little lady, put her tiny foot down, and while Sam is still going strong, we hear that Abdu is dead.

• • • Lulu Daniels, operatic soprano, a newcomer to the KROW staff of artists, has had many years of operatic work in Europe.

• • • Elizabeth N. Bell, who recently crossed the Atlantic to see what the other side of the globe looked like, became so interested in radio aboard ship that as soon as she arrived back in San Francisco she sought a position with KPO. Result is that "Betty" is now deeply engrossed in untangling the many problems of KPO's Traffic Department.

• • • William Roeth, pianist in the KFRC Concert Orchestra, received his first practical musical experience in his native town of Dortmund, Germany, where he played with the city orchestra for four years. Although he was an accomplished musician, he was still a young man when he came to America over seventeen years ago.

• • • Although it has been a policy for a number of years, numerous owners of new sets have asked KNX, Hollywood, why it is silent from 1 to 1:30 p. m. except Saturday and Sunday.

The answer is that this period is used by the transmission force to check over the apparatus and make minor repairs where found necessary, etc. The break comes in the middle of sixteen hours' broadcasting and the time out has been found best in the interest of listeners.

• • • Usually when a girl changes her name she knows what her new name is going to be. Not so with Shirley Dale, who conducts two very popular programs over station KJBS. Miss Dale's real name is Elma Woodling. When she first came to KJBS someone decided that her name was not fancy enough, so two of the announcers suggested "Shirley" instead of Elma; then a continuity writer thought her last name was too long, so he put his finger in the pie. When Elma Woodling returned from lunch that day they told her she was Shirley Dale, which she has since learned to like.

• • • Jean Kantner, KJR and Northwest Broadcasting System baritone, is not only a good vocalist, but a good golfer. He is now known as the golf champion of the NWBS staff.

Golf is the year-round sport of the NWBS staff. A tournament was started at the beginning of the winter season. Fifteen of the best golfers in the NWBS staff of 125 persons carried through the winter months and ended at the beginning of the year with Kantner coming out in the lead.

• • • Rush Hughes, continuity writing and announcing son of novelist Rupert Hughes, has developed a new method of continuity construction since joining the United Broadcasting Company. He announces everything that he writes, so he conceived the idea of speaking the thoughts that are to be broadcast at a later date into a dictaphone from which a secretary transcribes the finished product to paper. Rush says that this scheme assures him of doing a job that is natural.

• • • Someone interested in statistics figured out the other day that Eddie Albright during his "Bookworm Period" at KNX, Hollywood, daily except Sunday, in the course of reading ninety-nine books to date, had broadcast approximately 10,000,000 words.

If Eddie had broadcast these continuously day and night, it would have required three hours less than sixty days and sixty nights without interruption to have accomplished the task.

• • • Bill Cowles, KFRC's vocal director, worked for a long time in the movies helping to make "Marianne," "The Hollywood Revue," and "Rainbow Man."

He was pianist for the Rounders Quartet for a long time, on the stage, over the air, and making records.

And all this despite the fact he is a youth of only twenty-seven. He has been very busy ever since he left the University of Southern California several years ago.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Helen, Oakland.—Charles Carter (KFRC) is a San Francisco lad of American-born parents whose antecedents were English, Welsh and French. His birth date is August 15, 1915. He is tall for his age and growing so fast that were I to give his height at the moment it would be incorrect by the time you read it. Charles has just graduated from Wilkins high school and plans to enter college next semester. He admits girls are all right. Helen, but is not greatly impressed by them. Tommy Harris, also a San Franciscan, is 19 or 20, of Jewish parentage, 5 feet 2 inches tall, hazel-eyed, dark-haired. Yes, he has a "girl friend." Robert Olsen's only understudy is his young son.

Fan, Los Angeles.—Gene Byrnes (KNX) dotes on cross-word puzzles, autobiographies, simple foods, red roses, wrestling matches, Bruce Barton, Jack London, symphonic music. He believes in destiny, admires George Arliss, dislikes avocados and artichokes, dashes off songs by the dozens, thinks nothing of holding down three or four jobs (each of a widely different nature) at the same time, has written innumerable sketches, four hundred poems, does clever cartoons, plays several instruments . . . and is possessed of a restless, untiring, self-assured, sturdy soul. He is thirty, 5 feet 7 inches tall, muscularly built, has hazel eyes, dark hair, and hails from Chicago.

B. F. S., San Diego.—Doris Dolan (KGER) leads a busy life indeed. When not at the studio she is collecting lucky elephants, writing short stories, teaching her five birds to sing, or lavishing luxuries upon her pedigree Pekinese. She was born in Colorado twenty-something years ago, is of French and Irish lineage, has auburn hair, blue eyes, interestingly uneven brows, a whimsical smile, is 5 feet tall, and weighs 118 pounds. Her favorite composer is Gershwin; she is characteristically generous and friendly, enjoys cooking—creates all manner of delectable dishes and excuses for using mushrooms—and has an insatiable appetite for books, violets, and melancholy minor airs. The color to which she responds most fervently is red, and her chosen exercise is horseback riding.

M. N. B.—San Francisco.—Dell Raymond was born in San Francisco. On her mother's side she is French, on her father's, Turkish. As a child she lived in Constantinople and other far-off places, was given every advantage, study in Italy, travel—everything. Everything save association with young people. Irked by this restriction, she contrived to elope with a youth met by chance, and ten years later found herself widowed with six small children to support and an avalanche of unpaid bills on her hands. Vowing never to separate her children, she managed to procure the services of a housekeeper, booked herself on the Orpheum and toured in vaudeville until four years ago, when she joined the KJBS staff. Now she again lives in San Francisco, her family is unbroken and her eldest son, who is 21, frequently appears in her programs.

Lola, Los Angeles.—Tom Wallace (KNX) enjoys the Saturday Evening Post and O. O. McIntyre likes ham and eggs, basketball and football, especially the latter; thinks the rose the fairest of flowers, blue a very pleasing color, Tschaiowsky the most interesting of composers and proof of his normalcy, admits to being just a wee bit superstitious. Wouldn't for anything accept the third light off a match and occasionally knocks on wood. His outstanding characteristic is having numberless irons in the fire at one time and—he will forget to mail letters, carrying them about for days and days. He is 31, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has blue eyes, tawny hair and such a gorgeous sense of humor.

* * *

W. G. M., Roseville.—The gentleman to whom you refer lived in San Francisco during 1920 and 1921.

D. M., Los Angeles.—Art Schwartz does not broadcast regularly, for with him radio is an avocation. His real business is managing a chain of music stores. However, you may occasionally get him over KFVB, KMTR, and KELW. Artie Mellinger has been called East, but expects to return to the Coast at an early date.

Two topics of absorbing interest occupy the minds of Goshen Centerites during this evening's broadcast. The first matter revolves around the new pastorate of the Reverend Hislop. Another topic of interest is the initial appearance of "The Bugle" as a bi-weekly newspaper. Billy Page, Eileen Piggott and Richard Le Grand head the cast of players as the Smithers family.

VENETIAN NIGHTS

Mellow'd Melodies

... the full moon paints a path of silver on the Grand Canal and tips the spires and domes of Saint Mark's with iridescence. Hark! .. the lilting rhythm of the Gondolier's song, timed to beat in tune to the sweep of the lazy oars. ... and from afar comes the sweet cadence of the Venetian Love Song. ...

Come with us tonight to Venice—city of Romance and of Love. Hear again the songs of the Gondoliers' Carnival—the songs of passionate southern love.
