Broadcasters Fight Restrictive Legislation

PRACTICALLY unnoticed by the general public, there is being waged in Washington a bitter fight against legislation which, according to some members of the radio industry, menaces the very existence of broadcasters and threatens practically to eliminate much of the best program material now offered the public.

The battle revolves around what is known as the automatic copyright bill introduced by Congressman Vestal of Indiana, already passed by the House of Representatives and expected soon to come before the Senate. Under this legislation, all literary works would automatically become copyrighted and broadcasters using them without license subject to heavy penalties for infringement.

The automatic copyright, it is charged by broadcasting interests, would open the way for "racketeering," since it would give to authors, composers, and publishers the right to charge what they pleased for permission to perform their compositions, and to make whatever regulations surrounding such performance as they saw fit.

The average broadcasting station, it was declared during hearings on the bill before the Senate patents committee, uses about two hundred different pieces of copyright music a day. They now operate under licenses. The Vestal bill would enable the composers to demand a totally different arrangement from that which is now in force.

Under the bill, the committee was told, it would be possible to collect royalties from every station broadcasting a chain program in which copyright music was used. Further, the automatic copyright provision would make it impossible for a broadcaster to determine whether a particular composition was protected, and many stations would not dare use material of a doubtful nature, since to do so might render them subject to severe penalties for infringement.

If the legislation is to be enacted, it was urged, there should be a provision that only the station originating a chain program should be held subject to action in case of suit for violation of copyright. Otherwise, it was pointed out, a large number of broadcasters who used the program in good faith, relying upon the originating station to see that the law was not violated and themselves having no power or means of deleting any part of the program, might find themselves facing suits for heavy damages.

The OPEN CIRCUIT

This department is open to all. Send in your letters. Anonymous letters will not be published.

Maybe He's Right

I am very sorry to learn that there are a few people like E. F. M. of Fallon, Nevada, and R. E. H. of Barre, Washington, who want you to continue the Best Bets space. If either or both of them will send me their name and address I will either send them a scratch pad or a blue pencil. Three cheers for E. F. S. of Stockton. Also J. J. of San Francisco and A. S. of Sacramento.

I also agree with B. R. R. of Petaluma regarding football announcements. I quite often find two or more leading stations broadcasting the same game. I have taken a straw vote among my many friends, and out of the last check I found out of seventeen people fifteen wanted more pictures and none wanted the space wasted with Best Bets. Would you like to have their names and addresses?

Why do you make so many repetitions with the pictures? Do you realize that in the past five years you have published some of the leading artists' pictures not less than sixty times. It shouldn't be very hard for you to get pictures of the new stars.

It is a splendid magazine of its kind, but there is always room for improvement. In the past five years you have published exactly 2012 different artists, and if there had been no repetitions you would have published no less than 10,000 or nearly all of them. I can't offer any suggestions except give us more and more pictures and fewer repetitions.

L. R. B., Oakland, Calif., Jan. 20

A Nosegay of Orchids

I was very much discouraged to open my latest copy of BROADCAST WEEKLY and find your offer for the ninety-six pictures of radio artists. I might as well confess that I am a rabid collector of pictures of radio stars, so when I saw an opportunity to get thirty-two pictures I wanted very much with my subscription, I jumped at the chance. And now, to get the pictures of the other artists that I want just as much, I'd have to get another set of the first thirty-two. What could I do with them, give them to the unemployed to make soup from, or something? I think it is a low trick to include the first pictures with the later ones.

I want to donate a whole truckload of flowers to the members of KFRC and the Columbia network, with a special nosegay of orchids for Al Pearce. And I hope none of them suffer from hay fever. They deserve a lot of applause.

May I suggest to W. L. M. and family that if they don't like Meredith Willson's orchestration, suppose they write a few for the Jamboree. Or maybe that's not such a good idea. I have the deepest regard for the radio tubes, and they are too fragile to be submitted to such an ordeal.

Meredith Willson's arrangements are vastly superior to a great many others I have heard. Hurray for Meredith!

Miss F. O., Colfax, Calif., Jan. 22

A Line in Time

The letters one reads in the Open Circuit give one the impression that it is the listeners who prefer the mediocre programs who so frequently "take their pen in hand" to express their opinions. So I think if we who prefer the better type of program don't sit up and take notice, the first thing we know there will be nothing on the air but "crooners" and the "hoop-a-doop" stuff.

Personally, I think the majority of KFRC's local talent is—well, not so good, especially on the Happy Go Lucky Hour and the Jamboree. Their other programs have a few highlights—Charles Bulotti, for instance, a favorite of six years' standing.

KGO has always been our favorite station.

We are for good music, drama, and interesting and instructive talks.

B. E. R., Novato, Calif., Jan. 17.

Starr Ranks Ace-High Here

Like other subscribers, I surely enjoy KFRC. The Happy Go Lucky Hour sure is good. Only I don't see why they don't have it on Saturdays. That is the only day we that go to school can listen.

We enjoy the NBC players very much.

But KYA's Sunshine Hour also is very good. We get to listen to that on Saturdays.

Why should Charlie Hamp be the highest paid individual radio star? There are just as many more good artists. Henry Starr is, to my estimation, just as good.

Miss H. S. I., Santa Clara, Jan. 21.

Page Mr. Olsen, Please

Why do we hear so little of Robert Olsen these days? He is the finest local artist that we have. Any advertiser who featured him would be sure of a large and worthwhile audience.

We in this household prefer the pictures to the Best Bets. We never have used the space, but always mark with a colored pencil the programs we are interested in, and believe me, not a mark is placed beside a jazz program. However, there are many who prefer the jazz programs, so we ought to have both kinds, but it just seems as though some nights nothing but jazz prevails on every station.

Mrs. M. G., San Francisco, Jan. 30.

Thanks, F. M.

I don't expect this to be printed, but since there are so many controversies these days, I thought I'd like to get in the fray.

First, I want to say that I like the Happy Go Lucky Hour as much, if not more, than J. B. and the rest, and also agree that it should be put on in the evening, say, from 9 to 10. This would give the artists an extra day off, as they would have to give way to the Janiboree on Mondays.

You can count one vote for your suggestion of February 1, by printing programs with spaces for marking them, I believe you'll end the battle of Best Bets vs. Pictures.

In closing, I want to say that I like BROADCAST WEEKLY very much, and wish it perpetual good luck.

F. M., San Francisco, Jan. 29.

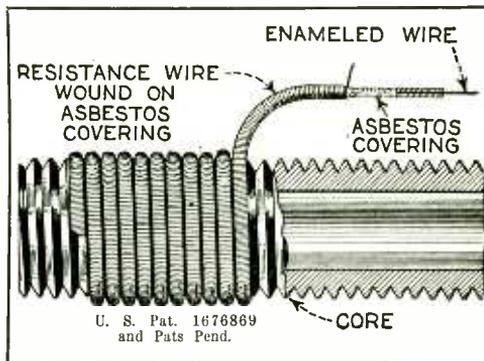

Why Squawk, Says E. W.

Well! Well! And Dear! Dear! and Tutt! Tutt! W. L. M. must have got out on the wrong side of the bed, according to his letter published in last week's Open Circuit! We—my family and I—are for KFRC first, last, and all the time, including—oh most certainly including—Mededith Willson! He is one of the best.

Anyway, if a person doesn't like a program, why squawk about it? There are plenty of stations on the air. Personally, I don't care for organ music, but it would be impossible for every station to have organ music at the same time.

We vote for the Open Circuit, more pictures, more news and gossip, and KFRC. But as for the favorite announcer and singer—can't be done; too many good singers.

E. W. and Family, Redwood City, Jan. 26.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Dick Rickard, master of ceremonies for the Don Lee chain's morning "Feminine Fancies" program has had a varied and colorful career in spite of his extreme youth. He has made fourteen round trips to Alaska on passenger vessels, and a half a dozen to the Orient on the Dollar liners. For several months he was connected with an aviation experiment to determine if radio broadcasting could be carried on successfully from an airplane. During that time he was in the air each day. He is a graduate of the University of Washington, majoring in English literature.

• • • Caryl Coleman, NBC producer, started his career, like so many radio folk, on the stage. More properly speaking, it was a tent show. Caryl was in his 'teens, and thrilled with pride when they gave him the juvenile lead part in "Old Homestead." He earned $18 a week, which looked bigger to him at that time than any of the salaries he has won since.

• • • Sam Wineland, KFVB's fine musical director, has a background of both concert and microphone training, and an unusual ability to direct classical and popular programs. He started out at the tender age of ten being a child prodigy, and when he was sixteen Luigi von Kunitz, eminent Austrian violinist and concert master, was so impressed by his talent that he took the youthful virtuoso to Vienna. He studied at the Brussel Conservatory for two years under Cesar Thomas, and had, as a fellow student, the American composer, Charles Wakefield Cadman.

• • • Stuart Strong, who is heard on KJBS every week-day at 8:30 a. m. as The Observer is rapidly extending his activities in the field of special announcing. Although his continuous microphone experience is of less than a year's duration, Stuart has a distinguished service record as a speaker, won in the 1928 presidential campaign, and at the University of California, where he participated in thirty-seven intercollegiate forensic battles. His hobbies are dogs, basketball and work.

• • • Marie Leon, soprano of San Jose who is now singing over KPO, belongs to one of the oldest and most prominent families. Her grandfather, Lazard Lion, came to California in 1845 and in 1852 opened a store in San Francisco on the site which is now occupied by a leading department store. Later he went to San Jose and opened a furniture store, which is still flourishing—the institution celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary this month. Miss Leon is a niece of the late Ed Jobson, famous character actor of the movies. Miss Leon is a regular artist of the 9:30 to 10:30 Wednesday morning periods.

• • • The rewards of right living are not always what one expects, according to Clarence C. Moore, bass soloist and announcer at KOA, Denver. Moore has gone to church all his life. One Sunday recently he directed the choir, sang a solo, and helped pass the collection plate. Then on the way out, he slipped on the steps and for the next two weeks had to walk on crutches.

• • • The capacity of Carric Andrew's bantam Austin was strained not long ago when Clarence Talbot, KGA's "diminutive" six foot four inch announcer with his camel-hair coat, Bob Crosby, brother to the famous Bing, and Carric Andrew with his heavy camel-hair coat, all loaded themselves within the limits of poor "Betsy Austin" even to the point of closing the doors. Needless to say, the unloading caused commotion.

• • • Tommy Harris, KFRC popular singer, featured daily on the Happy Go Lucky Hour, is making personal appearances at the Roof Garden Cafe on Saturday nights.

• • • Vernon Rickard, radio tenor, well known on the Pacific Coast for his beautiful interpretations of popular ballads and musical comedy and light opera songs—also appearing in leading rôles in stage productions of several well-known musical comedies, is heard from KMTR every week on several programs with the studio orchestra.

United Broadcasting Company
 5 to 6 P.M.—Calvary Church, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGB, KGER
 Tonight over the UBC chain KGER, sister station of "The Silver Network of the Golden West," will release the services of the Calvary Church from Placentia, California, from 5 to 6 o'clock. This is the first early evening inspirational hour to be released by the Pacific Coast network of the United Broadcasting Company.
 7 to 7:30—Calendar of the Air, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KORE, KTAB, KGB
 Elihu Root will be honored during the "Calendar of the Air" at 7 o'clock this evening. This famous statesman was born on the 15th of February, 1845, and the United Broadcasting Company will attempt to give radio listeners the most interesting highlights of his life.
 It is important also that on this day, in 1898, the U. S. Battleship "Maine" was sunk in the harbor of Havana, Cuba. This serious incident, which was a proximate cause of the war with Spain, will also be a topic for considerable discussion during the radio calendar tonight.
 7:30 to 8—Sunday Serenade, KVOS, KXL, KGB
 (String group and vocalists.)
 8 to 8:30—Brick English Orchestra, KVOS. KTM, KGB
 (Dance band.)
 8:30 to 9—Album of Familiar Faces, KVOS, KXL, KGB

The character sketches of Noreen Gam-mill during the UBC broadcast at 8:30 o'clock tonight will be varied and interesting. On the first page of her "Album of Familiar Faces" she will paint the troubled mood of a hostess preparing a dinner party for fourteen guests. The second of the interpretations will be that of a waitress in a cheap cafe in New York, and the last will be the picture of a hills woman from Sunset Gap in the Caroline mountain country. "A mountaineer whose heart and soul have been steeled and tempered through years of hardship, but whose love for her son shines forth as a beacon in the wilderness."

9 to 9:30—On Parade, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KFVB, KGB
 It is fitting that "Stars and Stripes Forever," by John Phillip Sousa, king of martial music, should usher in the "On Parade" program played by Liborius Hauptmann's orchestra.
 "National Emblem" Bagley
 "Marche Triomphale Creole" Kriens
 "Marche et Cortege," from the
 "Queen of Sheba" Goldmark
 "Metropolitan" Frey
 "Over There" Geo. M. Cohan
 "Charlatan" Sousa
 "Aces High" Boulton
 "The Ameer" Victor Herbert
 "All America" Zamecnik

Passing before the microphone will be representative groups from all countries, marching to the step of their respective musical rendition.
 9:30 to 10—Traumerel, KVOS, KXA, KMED, KORE, KFVB, KGB, KGER
 James Whitcomb Riley's well known poem, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," will be the theme of the "Traumerel" feature from the "Silver Network of the Golden West" this evening at 9:30 o'clock. Old love songs that have been popular during the last few years will be played throughout the program. "Dear Old Girl," by Morse, will open the entertainment, and following this Jean Chown Williamson, contralto, will render two numbers: "One Little Dream of Love" and "L'amour, toujours l'amour."
 10 to 10:15—News, KXA, KORE

The "News" is broadcast on Sunday nights by Sam Hayes, announcer and continuity writer of the United Broadcasting Company, at 10 o'clock. This fifteen minutes a timely information is compiled from the latest news available.
 Mr. Hayes was formerly with Station KTAB of San Francisco, and has the distinction of being the one announcer with twenty-four football games to his broadcasting credit for a single season.

UBC

United Broadcasting Company

7 to 7:30 P.M.—Calendar of the Air, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGTB, KGB.
 The first historical anniversary of tonight's "Calendar of the Air" over the UBC network at 7 o'clock, will carry listeners back to the 17th century while the announcer tells the story of the tragic life of the beloved actor, Jean Baptiste Moliere.

Many people have read the "Arabian Nights," but few know of its origin. Antoine Galland, author of this "Mille et Une Nuits," traveled extensively in the Orient, and on one of his trips happened upon an old edition of "Arabian Nights" and decided to translate it. Monsieur Galland died February 17, 1715.

7:30 to 7:45—Hughespaper of the Air, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGTB, KGB, KGER

7:45 to 8—Three Jacks, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGTB, KFVB, KGB, KGER
 A variety of musical instruments will be featured by the "Three Jacks" this evening at 7:45 during the UBC program. Among the instruments to be heard by the radio audiences tonight are: Banjo, guitar, ukelele, accordion, piano and saxophone.

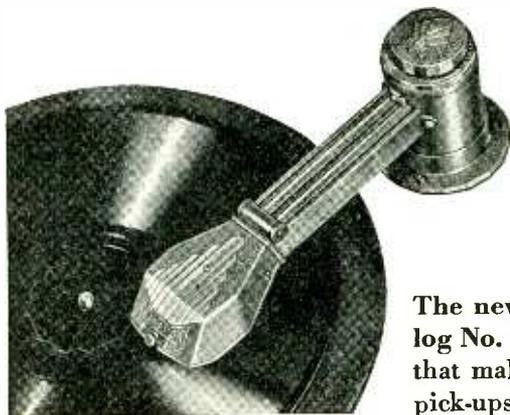

8 to 8:30—Highway Highlights, KGTB, KTM, KGB
 8:30 to 9—Life's Roulette, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGB, KGER

Last week High and Low, leading characters of Rena Vale's "Life's Roulette" comedy drama, were left securely in the Iron House. In tonight's episode "The Air," they are freed from jail after a clever scheme wherein they sell the jailer a carnival which does not exist.

9 to 10—Phantoms of Broadway, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KFVB, KGB, KGER

A tabloid from "The Three Musketeers," that stirring light opera by Rudolph Friml which set the "Great White Way" humming a few years ago, will be played by the UBC Orchestra this evening at 9 o'clock as the first selection of "Phantoms" of Broadway. Other numbers will be offered by the orchestra, under the direction of Liborius Hauptmann.
 10 to 10:15—Hughespaper of the Air, KVOS, KSL, KORE

When programs lag switch on your PHONOVOX

The new Master Phonovox Catalog No. 107. Contains 12 features that make it the greatest value in pick-ups today. List price $15.00.

RADIO programs can't be of the highest quality at all times. Sometimes programs fail to hold your interest or someone wants to dance when there is nothing on the air. That's when the owner of a Phonovox appreciates the value of this instrument. Merely switch from radio to phonograph, put on your favorite record and your records are reproduced with all their original charm and quality—through the amplifier in your radio set.

Remember, too, that static does not interfere with the electric reproduction of phonograph records. With a storm raging outside when all radio programs are ruined by crashes and crackles, you can listen to your PHONOVOX reproduce music and song just as free from noise as it is on days of perfect radio reception.

You will also be interested in the Pacent Recordovox which enables you to make phonograph records at home with professional results and without the necessity of expensive apparatus. The Pacent Recordovox is designed to operate with the pre-grooved type of records which are available everywhere at small cost.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Mrs. E. L., Oakland.
—Dr. Lawrence L. Cross (KGO) is pastor of the North Brae Community Church in Berkeley. He was reared in Alabama, graduated from a university in Tennessee, married a Yankee girl and is the father of five small children. He is a tall, lean young man with blond, wavy hair, blue eyes and a charm that is more than voice (or accent) deep. Each morning Dr. Cross arises at 4:30, conscientiously goes through a set of exercises, leaps briskly into his car, drives to his study, buries himself in books and papers for a given period, and arrives at the NBC studios at 8 o'clock ready for the day. The enchanting little birds heard during his "Cross-cuts" are his liveliest hobby (and extravagance). Two of them are Alabama mockers, one is a Louisiana mocker, and the other two are German rollers. And the mockers, my dear—the rollers are not so fussy, but the mockers—live on imported worms!

Mrs. M., San Francisco.—Gerda Lundberg (KTAB) is the "Girl Friend" who has been affording you so much pleasure on the Bazaar program, and you have supposed correctly, she also appears in the Educating Wuzzy episodes as Helen of Troy. Samuel Dickson writes these college skits and the other characters are played by Peggy Jensen, Muzzy Marcelino and John Teel.

Anne, Vallejo.—Brother Bob (Ray Raymond) has been so busily occupied managing political affairs and his regular radio brokerage business that he has temporarily forsaken the microphone. However—no, I won't give the date just yet—he might not be caught up with himself, but you shall hear of his return in sufficient time to get his first broadcast.

J. A., Hood River.—Chet Cathers is six feet tall, weighs 176 pounds, has dark hair, brown eyes and is near the thirty mark. He is characteristically energetic, resourceful, and—not cynical—not skeptical—but just the least bit wary. Hails from Indiana, has had his share of travel and adventure, vaudeville and picture experience and made his home in Los Angeles for a number of years before joining the KJR staff. Yes, he is married. Hope you win your wager.

L. R., Sacramento.—Kenneth Niles (KHJ) recalls to the mind of every mother her own little "Sonny Boy" with a mental dear, dear, what shall I do with him? He ought to be spanked, he's absolutely incorrigible, but Agnes, I can't do it. I simply can't! He's too cute. You know the kind . . . Kennie has those big brown eyes . . . and curly hair, so crisp and brown (sigh, sigh), and he grins in that innocent, irresistible way (outrageous way). Not only do the mothers adore him, but the sweet young things do also, and the inbetweens. Really, it's a wonder he isn't utterly spoiled, but, L. R., he isn't. Not utterly. He's intelligent and keeps both feet on the ground and harbors the most surprising fine thoughts in that shapely head of his.

Joe, Los Angeles.—"Brother Crawford" of the Amos 'n' Andy episodes is portrayed by Freeman Gosden (Amos).

M. G., San Francisco.—Robert Olsen (KFRC) is heard on Sunday night between 8:45 and 9, during the Blue Monday Jamboree and on Friday morning between 9:30 and 10:30.

Rosalie, San Jose.—Andy and Virginia (KOIN) emphatically deny a matrimonial alliance. Virginia is a southern girl with soft dusky hair, blue eyes and nicely balanced features. Andy is of Pennsylvania Dutch stock; 5 feet 8 inches tall, 143 pounds, brown-eyed, sleek-haired, and wears a moustache. Both artists are young, impetuous and head over heels in love with their work. They have been partners for five years and are a delightful contrast.

Kay, Berkeley.—The Aeolian Trio (KPO) is composed of Cyrus Trobbe, Bruno Collette and George Nyklicek. The Sparklers are Harrison Ward, Harvey Orr, Urban Hartman and Don Rich. In the Harmonizers you hear Chuck Russell, Rod Neil and Frankie Delmar. Look under KFVB for Gus Arnheim's schedule and under KJBS for Art Fadden's appearances.

United Broadcasting Company

7 to 7:30 P.M.—Calendar of the Air, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KTAB, KGB
 The interesting and sad story of Lord Essex, once favorite of Queen Elizabeth, will be the first biographical review of the "Calendar of the Air" tonight at 7 o'clock over the UBC network. The execution of Essex was the first death warrant to be signed by this Queen of England.

Today is the birthday of the man who first proved that the earth was a flying planet the same as Jupiter and Saturn. This scientist, Copernicus, was born in 1473 in Thorn (then in Poland). Edgar Allen Poe and David Garrick, English actor of note, were both born on the 19th of February, and the UBC will attempt in the remaining few moments of the radio calendar, to give listeners a brief outline of the lives of these men.

- 7:30 to 7:45—Hughespaper of the Air, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGB, KGER
 7:45 to 8—Old Chestnuts Revue, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KGB, KGER

 8:30 to 9—Crystal and the Press, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KTAB, KFVB, KGB

Tonight's "Crystal and the Press" from the United Broadcasting Company studios at 8:30 o'clock will present "Empty House." This is a pathetic dramlogue of an old Shakespearean actor who, having gone into radio work, faces for the first time the blank, cold microphone and plays to his unseen audience which is to him nothing but an empty house.
 9 to 9:30—Musical Contrasts, KVOS, KXA, KSL, KMED, KORE, KTAB, KGB, KGER
 "Musical Contrasts," presented over the "Silver Network of the Golden West" at 9 o'clock tonight, will offer Pacific Coast listeners a variety of melodies. The feature will be offered as a musical appreciation program, presenting as "radio interloutsers" Bush Hughes and G. Donald Gray

- 9:30 to 10—Musical Paintings, KVOS, KXA, KXL, KMED, KORE, KTAB, KFVB, KGB, KGER

"Within the Walls of China" will be the "Musical Painting" of the UBC orchestra and vocal soloists tonight at 9:30 o'clock. The program will consist entirely of oriental music and will be presented in detail as follows:

- "In a Pagoda" Bratton
 "Within the Walls of China" Lively
 "Po Ling and Ming Toy" Friml
 Vocal selections by Paula Charte,
 "Chinese Lullaby" Bowers
 "Cherry Blossoms" Ketelby
 Vocal selections by Ralph Reily,

Mellow'd Melodies

Capturing the glamorous, romantic atmosphere of old New Orleans in the days of the creoles, this program of Mellow'd Melodies depicts the colorful gayety of the Mardi Gras . . . plantation melodies . . . street dances . . . a dainty old-fashioned minuet . . . the strumming of banjos . . . and an unusual arrangement of Old Man River.

"AND NOW
THE FAMILIAR
'LET'S GET ASSOCIATED'"

Cecil Underwood speaking

Now that the NBC Spotlight Revue has become the "Associated Spotlight Revue," everyone—the artists, themselves, the big oil company, and the huge audience that this feature consistently attracts on Saturday nights—everyone is wondering just what is coming next. To keep people guessing is a cardinal attribute of a good showing, and the Associated Spotlight Revue does this job very, very well.

Ted Maxwell, alias Jack of Jack and Ethyl fame, is gathering new laurels to his favored brow each week of the "Spotlight" these days. Jack found that being Master of Ceremonies was the "straw that broke the camel's back" (not that Jack has many of the characteristics of a camel, by the way). What with the "Do You Remember" period and the special Jack and Ethyl skit during the Spotlight, Jack is busier than well, you know. And doing a swell job, too, as Spotlight fans will tell you.

Speaking about Jack reminds us automatically of Ethyl. This charming young radio star's hobby is reported to be sewing, but we have a hunch that sewing these days is taking a very distant back seat. We never knew a girl who could handle so much so well as this very busy radio personality is handling on the air these hectic times.

And then, too, you'll remember Professor Knickelbine's hilarious "School Days" skit which is so ably conducted by the delightful Dick Le Grand. Not to speak of Walter Beban's "Humorous Highlights of History" that literally has the radio audience "rolling on the floor!" Walter, you know is also director of the Associated Equi-fractionated Orchestra.

Cecil Underwood, debonair Master of Ceremonies of the "Associated Spotlight Revue," had a decidedly worried look the first week or so of his new job. Cecil, you know, in addition to his long radio experience at KHQ, Spokane, learned a lot about life and other things in business college and in business in the Northwest, and you never saw a man take things more seriously than he does. Perhaps it's because he's a native son of Missouri, and he just has to be "shown" before he's convinced—as all good Missourians do.

The feminine contingent of the Spotlight Revue is perhaps the most delightful feminine contingent that any radio feature can boast. What with the Coquettes, and Ethyl, and that versatile Bobbie Deane, our good friends Bennie Walker and Dick Le Grand are hard pressed to keep their minds on their work—or so we have been told.

This "patter" about the Associated Spotlight Revue wouldn't be complete if something weren't said about Associated Oil Company's gratitude for its welcome into the Spotlight Revue ranks. You'll surely agree that this big oil company hasn't insisted on spoiling the show with too much insistence on its own sales problems. And the audience evidently appreciates it, according to the welcome mail that has been coming in since Associated entered the picture.
