Government Educating Public

PROBABLY at no time in the history of the country have the people of the United States been so close to the Federal Government, yet so accustomed have they become to hearing high officials over the radio during the past few years that few realize just how much information regarding governmental activities is being given them.

By far the most frequent use of radio is made by the Department of Agriculture, with its daily talks on farm matters, its market news and weather reports. These have become so intimately connected with the lives of millions of farmers that a very distinct loss would be felt should these programs, distributed through more than 100 stations, be discontinued.

The Department of Agriculture is not the only branch of the government to be heard regularly, however. Dr. Julius Klein, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, and before that director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, one of the best informed men in the country regarding industrial affairs here and abroad, appears regularly over a chain of stations with informative addresses regarding the activities of his department, one of the most telling features of which is the humor with which otherwise arid subjects are lightened for popular consideration.

President Hoover can by no means be called a stranger to the public. Making frequent addresses before important gatherings, he has no objection to their being broadcast and is always generously willing to make a special radio talk to help a worthy cause or commemorate a historic event.

The members of his Cabinet also have frequently acceded to requests that they discuss important subjects of their departments over the air. Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, too, are frequently heard, there being little difficulty in convincing some of them that an eager populace waits to hear their views—quite the other way, sometimes.

On the lighter side of the program the bands of the three services—the Army, the Navy and the Marine Corps—are frequent and very popular performers over the radio, and their programs have shown the public that its government is not devoted merely to dry routine, but fosters as well the special talents of the men who wear its uniform.

All this government participation in broadcasting is not the result of haphazard attempts to get "features" for the radio audience. A well-defined policy of bringing the government to the people has been followed for a number of years. Publicity services are maintained in all the departments to acquaint the public through the newspapers with what they are doing on the taxpayers' money. The Army and Navy gladly co-operate with the motion picture companies in producing films in which Army or Navy life is depicted, and demand only that the story pictured shall be true to life and not distorted. Thus it was but a logical step to co-operate with the broadcasters in their attempts to picture the government.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

H. A., Seattle.—Phillips H. Lord (Seth Parker) was born in Hartford, Vermont, twenty-eight years ago. He is a man of force and drive and gentleness; decidedly good-looking with visionary, blue-gray eyes, a broad intellectual forehead, smooth dark hair and a wide, kindly mouth. He was a high school principal prior to becoming a broadcaster, is an accomplished musician and author of numberless sketches and tales. His favorite recreation lies in boating, his best game is tennis, he enjoys reading poetry and humor and has a small boy's appreciation of home-made jellies. Aversions? Only one. It is lack of punctuality. He is a devoted husband and father. There are two little girls, the eldest is four years old, the youngest six months. Mrs. Lord portrays—no, not the Ma Parker of the Sunday night "githerings," but Lizzie. She is a New England girl, young and attractive, a slender brunette with a smile that fills her eyes and is endowed with an enthusiasm that reanimates the dulllest of dull atmospheres. Ma Parker is played by Effie Palmer.

V. F., Sacramento.—Grace Sanderson Michie's works are being syndicated throughout the East and in Canada. Retired? Dear, dear, what a gruesome thought! Not Grace. Why, her typewriter would simply up and die were she to neglect it for a single day. You'll be hearing some sensational stories soon that she is playing on its keys at this moment. Wish I could tell you something about them, but it's a dead secret.

* * *

C. H., Oakland.—Gertrude Lyne may be heard over the following stations: KROW, KTAB and KJBS (La Vida broadcasts). Her initial radio appearance took place eight years ago when she played with Wendall Hall over a southern station. Gertrude's home town is Los Angeles; she studied at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, has played in some of the finest theaters of our large cities, composed many piano and organ solos and now devotes much of her time to writing popular songs. Her most recent number is "I'm Burning Your Old Love Letters." She is of medium height and weight, has greenish-gray eyes, brown hair and curiously fascinating crooked eyebrows that seem always to be asking some unanswerable question. She is competent, dominating, resourceful with just a bit of sadness in her smile.

Mrs. M. K., San Francisco.—Tom of Tom and Dud (KYA) is known to his business acquaintances and friends as Alfred T. Smith. His birthplace is Ottawa, Ontario, and his age is twenty-eight. He has blue eyes, dark brown hair, weighs 178 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. He has worked in logging camps, played hockey with the Ottawa Senators, traveled through Canada, the United States, Australia, the Orient, and just every place, really. His recently heard Pirate Stories were based on actual experiences in the South Seas and he has notes galore for future use on all sorts of quaint countries. His hobby is fishing, his favorite music that of Victor Herbert's, and his paramount interest is his family. He is the father of three lovely daughters, the eldest eleven, and the youngest two months of age.

J. M. G., Everett.—James R. Harvey has abandoned radio for a business of his own which requires all of his time. He now conducts a successful grocery establishment in Seattle.

A. B., Seattle.—Little Jack Little is about thirty years old. His birthplace is London, England, and his real name is Jack Leonard. Anthony Wons (Tony's Scrap Book) was born in Menasha, Wisconsin, in 1891. Yes, he is married. Mrs. Wons was Ruby Hill before her marriage to Tony.

A. B., Oakland.—The Vagabond-of-the-Air (KFRG) is Jerry Wilford, formerly of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. T. C. E., Oakland.—Frederic Bittke broadcasts on Friday night between 7:30 and 8 o'clock. Yes, he does sing in English, French and Italian, also for that matter, but the demands for German songs have crowded out the others of late. Direct your request to him at KFRG. He never ignores even the most trifling missive and is always happy to be governed in his selections by the wishes of his air audience.

Mrs. E. R., Sacramento.—Barbara Lee (KPO) greets an out-of-a-clear-sky guest with a cordial "of course we can put you up. The more the merrier." She means it too. Her hospitality is wholly unaffected, her heart, ample and warm. At an extremely youthful age Barbara fell in love with and married a widower with five children. They adored their stepmother and she adored them. It was a jolly, fun-loving home and later when it became augmented by three members it was jollier still. They are all grown now, the boys and girls; scattered over the globe but never a Christmas season passes without a wonderful reunion and in the center of the group is Barbara, young and fresh as the days when she rose with the dawn to get them off to school and hurry through her household tasks that she might attend 10 o'clock rehearsal. Her triumphs on the stage and in pictures were many and glorious; as glorious as her happy home life. I'll tell you about them some day.

Nadine, Sacramento.—Dud Williamson (KYA) suggests the warrior bold with his dashing air of indescribable charm, his daring, significant eyes and his hair of raven hue. He is 6 feet one inch in height, weighs 190 pounds, has powerful brown hands and a firm set jaw. Exactly like you read about, my dear. His ancestry is English, he was born in the Yukon, educated in a military academy in the East, has appeared in several screen successes, toured in vaudeville and entered the radio field about your years ago. He is twenty-seven. Yes, married. (Want my hankie?)

Programs as Good as Products

I wish to agree with several hundred BROADCAST WEEKLY readers that to change your magazine would be to lose several hundred readers. But enlarge the "Open Circuit." It's a good department and gives one a chance to pop off.

I congratulate S & W on their wonderful programs and also on their products. I have reasons to know that these products are all they claim them to be, if not better. So I say S & W keep up the good work. Business is good. Thanking you, I am

K. W. S., San Francisco, April 20.

More Old Time Hymns

I just want to add my word of praise for your excellent weekly magazine. It is fine. And I agree with Fern T. K. of Bellevue, Washington, that we would like more "old-time hymns."

Radio is such a blessing, especially to the aged and shut-ins, and especially those who are deprived of attending church services. "Seth Parker's Sunday Evening" is about the only program in the whole week that is just what the devout old people want—old-fashioned singing.

Last summer we spent five months in Long Beach, California, and KFOX had thirty minutes Sunday morning called "The Family Hour," by Clarence Carey, and it consisted of hymns by a quartet and duo, and some excellent records by Marion Talley. Between each record, he would read a wonderful poem. Many had more real religion in them than many a sermon.

My mother, who is ill and aged, so enjoyed it, and I hear others say the same. Seems like our dear elderly people should be considered in making up the programs.

To be sure there are sermons Sunday, but so many are such poor speakers, and some way their singing doesn't carry through very often. I understand KFOX has published a booklet of Clarence's poems. We cannot get Long Beach here.

Mr. Cross of "Cross Cuts" has a good voice and could give such a program. Just think what it would mean to a lot of elderly shut-ins if they could have say fifteen minutes each day of "hymns and a poem or two."

So many of the church services are spoiled by calls for money or this, that and the other thing.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of NBC is my idea of a good clear speaker. Also Dr. Cadman of NBC.

Now please don't think I am complaining at your programs, just telling what we would like. How do you know unless we tell you? Thanking you,

Dr. Nettie E. S., Oroville, Calif., April 15.

Best Wishes from Idaho

I have been buying the BROADCAST WEEKLY since its first publication and will say that it's the best book of its kind on the newsstands. You can pick out what you like every night without any trouble at all, and we would like to have the entertainers, that we like, know how we feel about them, so here goes. At KGO, Paul Carson and The Spotlight Revue are the best programs, and we never miss either one and are always sorry when it's time for Mr. Carson to quit. His old time melodies are just wonderful and I want to thank him here for playing the pieces I have been asking him to play. At KTM Miss Dorothy Lee's Reader's Hour is the best program and we never miss that either. The Ranch Boys are good, too. We get their program at this station, too. At KOA we never miss Erminie De La Vergne nor the Solitary Cowboys. They are the best programs from that station. I guess we are partial to old time music and the way those three artists can play we are hoping that they will play for longer periods. If possible would you publish a picture of Paul Carson of KGO, Dorothy Dee of Pickwick Station KTM and Erminie De La Vergne of KOA at Denver? We would sure like to have their pictures and will appreciate it very much. We are sending the BROADCAST WEEKLY and these three artists our best wishes and good luck from Idaho. Thanking you very much, we are,
Your Boosters,

*Harold G. and Fred S., Twin Falls, Idaho,

Here's One from a Bachelor

You don't seem to be getting so many letters from Nevada. Well here's one from a bachelor.

I noticed in your letter column that one woman wanted to keep the jazz out of the classic. I'm in favor of that, only keep them both off the air more and fill in with more mystery serials, cowboy plays, cowboy orchestras and plays of any sort.

The Great Northern puts on a fine program. The Sherlock Holmes stories are very interesting, too.

The BROADCAST WEEKLY saves me a lot of dial twisting, as I can tell from it what I'm missing, if anything, at some other station. Here's to some vaudeville stuff.

Jazz, What Is It?

Allow me to lift my voice in unison with Helen, M. P., Rolling Bay, Wash., in an earnest protest against the garbling of the classics through "special arrangements" or out-and-out jazzing them. Is nothing sacred to the American public any more?

Jazzing of the classics is fully in line with one act in the picture "Torch Song," which I saw in preview a short time ago. In this act a bunch of men and women are dancing to the tune of "Onward Christian Soldier." The moral and cultural standards of the public must have sunk very low indeed when producers and publishers—who always keep their finger on the public pulse—will dare to offer us sacrilegious movies and the classics in the form of jazz.

Jazz—what is it? A music teacher explained to me some time ago that jazz is strictly of American origin and, therefore, our national music.

Now, it so happened that about forty-five years ago I spent a year and a half on a big game-hunting expedition in central Africa and many a night I sat around the campfire listening to "the band" of one or another savage tribe play their wild and weird jungle music on their primitive instruments.

There was the savage, staccato strumming of the strings, the plaintive wailing and moaning of the reed flutes (imitated by the saxophone in the jazz orchestra), all blending into a savage, never-changing, all dominating rhythm. It was weird, unharmonic and uncanny, and yet in perfect harmony with the musicians were the savage, dusky, undulating, gyrating dancers in their jungle setting.

I left Africa and I never heard jungle music again until many years later when I heard the very same thing in this country in a slightly modified form on account of our more perfect instruments, under the name of "Ragtime," which later, after the rhythm was brought back to its original jungle savagery, was renamed jazz.

No, I don't think it is possible to convince any man or woman who ever have had the pungent smell of the African jungle in their nostrils that jazz is American music, and we ought to be thankful for that because the Lord knows we have enough of national sins to answer for without fathering this musical monstrosity called jazz.

The programs coming to us over the two great broadcasting systems are, with a few exceptions now and then, excellent, and many of the local programs are also good while others are below all criticism.

It passes my understanding how the sponsors of these junk programs can expect to sell goods by making people mad at them. If they do, they have discovered a new system of salesmanship hitherto unknown to the business world.

If I had to rely on this kind of program for entertainment in my home, I would surely dispose of my expensive and very excellent radio set and go back to the phonograph.

A. M. B., Glendale, Calif., March 16.

How About It, Al?

Allow me to add my voice of approval to those who have already written letters praising the full page pictures. I especially enjoyed seeing the pictures of all the artists on the different programs—the Spotlight Revue, Memory Lane, S & W, etc. However, all the groups published so far have been of NBC programs. How come? Why not give us CDLBS fans a break? I should very much like to see pictures of the artists on the Jamboree, Happy-Go-Lucky Hour, Merrymakers, and the Hallelujah Hour. At least please put in large pictures of Ted Osborne, Ken Niles, Cecil Wright and Ronald Graham.

As so many people (count me among them) have requested that the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour be put on a couple times a week in the evenings, I think we ought to get some kind of a reply on the matter from Al Pearce in the Open Circuit. How about it?

Bessie E., Sacramento, Calif., April 17

... SILHOUETTES ...

BLACK and Blue go north and up! Beginning Tuesday, April 27, these two indomitable and impossible deck-a-tives went north over the Columbia-Don Lee chain to convulse the entire Pacific Coast nightly in a cataclysm of tummy chuckles that will be recorded by seismographs around the world.

BLACK and BLUE

Black and Blue! Too dumb to die—too innocent to live—too helpless in their side-splitting blunderings to succeed without the frequent interventions of hilarious fate—too well plotted by their authors, Earnshaw & Morgan, to fail to triumph in the end. We do not have to worry. Our only job is to sit back, to listen, and to laugh.

Graduating from one of the country's leading correspondence schools in the science of criminology several months ago, Black and Blue quickly applied their wisdom like a mustard plaster on the chest of crime. There is hardly a boy in Southern California who can't recount their valiant adventures, their amazing triumphs over the deepest black-dyed plots of those incorrigible curs who make the nights hideous in this day of so-called sneeringly, modern civilization.

Of course, you must understand that Black and Blue are merely aliases hiding the true identity of our master crime-snatchers from those who seek revenge. Black is Charley Forsythe, sound effect engineer for KHJ, and Blue is Len Wright, the drummer boy of Raymond Paige's orchestra. Some night you will hear the staccato bark of machine guns, two blood-curdling screams followed swiftly by two death rattles interrupting the smooth outward flow of a KHJ broadcast. Then you will know that Black and Blue have died gloriously on the battlefield of duty, and that the last strong bulwark defending civilization from the hideous hoards of organized crime have perished from this earth. Woe unto the hour. Whoa!

SERGEANT "DOC" WELLS, commander of more than eight thousand members of the KROW Smiling Army, transplants his life on the battlefield of France to the great battlefield of life and charges his inspirational broadcasts with loads of "smiling ammunition."

"Doc" Wells was the first man to enlist in the Canadian forces at the beginning of the World War in 1914, and originated while in the front line trenches the famous "Tin Can Band" of the Canadian army which entertained, on one occasion, British royalty.

"Doc" Wells was severely wounded and gassed at the second battle of Ypres, where he suffered the loss of any arm. When his company commander was killed, he took command and although surrounded by the enemy, held the position until only six men remained alive. He was finally captured and spent five months in a German prison camp. In August of 1915 he escaped into Holland and was later returned to England.

Unfit for further active service "Doc" Wells was appointed official lecturer for the Canadian forces and toured United States and Canada with the war film "Canada's Fighting Forces." Later upon America's entering the World War, he was engaged by the Red Cross and Liberty Loan committee to give a series of lectures throughout this country, during which tour he was accredited with the sale of more than $8,000,000 in Liberty Bonds. The smiling army commander of radio also toured Canada with his own musical comedy company and later his own dramatic company in "Clouded Honor."

Wells has just completed another book entitled "Sunshine and Shadows of Life," which was published recently.

As commander-in-chief of KROW's Smiling Army, Wells has a vast army of listeners, not only in the western states, but also up in Canada, Alaska and Australia, where he is well known as a writer, lecturer, and dramatist.

His inaugural broadcast on the air was in August, 1930, over KROW and has, since that time, enlisted more than 8,000 members into the "Smiling Army of the Air."

"DOC" WELLS

“A hail from Gorga, an’ singing’ with my banjo comes natural, Ah guess,” explains Ed, the Boy from the South, who sings southern melodies over KROW, Oakland.

This boy from the south is a bit over 30 years old. Singing southern ditties “comes natural” because Ed has sung in many a southern minstrel. His daily broadcasts have much originality because he composes many of the southern songs he uses.

His banjo and plaintive southern voice were great favorites during the World War, when he was “over there.” He served with the Fifth and Third Headquarters troops and spent forty-seven days in the front line trenches. And as may be expected, he instigated a minstrel show among his fellow members that was “the dawgondest thing you ever saw!” It was known as the “Fifth and Third Headquarters Troop Show” and won much popular favor. Ed is quite new to air audiences, having made his debut over the KROW microphone about two months ago. His hobbies outside interests, and favorite pastime center in fishing and hunting. A shotgun or a fishing pole would seem most natural on Ed’s shoulder. He is 6 feet tall and weighs 160 pounds, with humorous gray eyes and nice black hair, which all combine to make him the object of much feminine attention.

BILLY and Betty, that popular young couple whose thrilling adventures are heard daily over KXA, 7:30 to 7:45, are quite as interesting in real life as in their radio life. After graduating from college, Dorothy Friend Lawson, who enacts the part of Betty, came to San Francisco, where she became employed as a commercial artist. Franz remained in Seattle, establishing a Little Theatre and training a group of University players to make up his company. He produced such plays as “The Bat,” “Greed,” “The Last warning,” etc. Fate sent him to Hollywood and a stroke of chance soon established him as a protege of Belle Bennett of “Stella Dallas” game. At the very offset of his motion picture debut under the careful tutelage of Miss Bennett, an injured knee sent Franz back to Seattle to recuperate.

This injury, although cutting short his picture work, did not prevent him from doing pianologues over a local station. In the meantime, Dorothy returned from San Francisco and the friendship was renewed.

WALTON McKINNEY, who has been the leading tenor at KHQ in Spokane for several years, has often been rated the most popular artist between the Mississippi and the Cascades. He claims Washington as the land of his birth, and Washington is proud of Walton and proud that his popularity extends so far beyond the bounds of one state. It is, in fact, limited only by the radius of KHQ’s reception. His first successful public appearances were when he was starred in several plays given by the high schools of Seattle, but all through his school days, like a bright thread of color, Walton’s love of music ran through his activities, until in high school it began to show more prominently . . . began to outline the patterns in his life. An acquaintance with Henri LeBell, famed organist, led to an engagement as soloist at the Blue Mouse Theatre in Seattle, where he played four shows daily. This somewhat seriously interfered with his job as Assistant “Tire-Wrangler” in his brother’s shop . . . so Walton changed his last tire, changed coveralls for tux, and, for better or worse, followed the muse. His future was now definitely indicated. It has led through various engagements in local theatres, in road work, orchestra connections, and phonograph recording and into the newer field of radio entertaining. For a time his voice was to be heard over KOMO of Seattle, but three years ago he joined the staff of KHQ in Spokane, where his popularity has had a steady growth.

WALTON McKINNEY

Blue eyes and dark hair and unusually good taste in matters of dress are among some of his more outstanding points. Handball is one of his favorite forms of exercise and it is said that he sometimes enjoys both bridge and pinochle. A well-rounded personality added to his talents point to fine things in the future for Walton.

ture work, did not prevent him from doing pianologues over a local station. In the meantime, Dorothy returned from San Francisco and the friendship was renewed.

This incomparable duo have won an ever-increasing and enthusiastic audience and they hear from listeners in Denver, California, Alaska and British Columbia.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

A cartoon illustration of a man with a mustache and a suit, looking into a vintage microphone. The microphone is on a stand and has a small label on it. The man is positioned behind the microphone, with his head and shoulders visible.

• • • The ever-popular Tommy Harris of KFRC tells us that his most requested song is the original "Poor Kid," a foxtrot ballad by Walter Smith. Incidentally, it was Tommy who first introduced this new western hit to the public.

• • • What KFRC artists like to do when they aren't working: Meredith Willson relaxes his high-speed brain at a "talkie"; William Cowles, swims; "Mac," reads the Saturday Evening Post or the American Mercury; Merle Matthews goes for a boat ride; Cal Pearce plays golf; Charles Carter visits with the vaudevillians back-stage at the theaters; Anne Olander paints pictures; Herman Reinberg goes for long walks with his wife.

• • • An admirer of Paul Carson, NBC organist, made certain that his request for three favorite musical selections would be answered. He sent it in the form of a big box, when Paul opened it, revealed three tall jars filled with whole, perfect fruits, in syrup. Each jar was labeled with the name of a composition. Paul opened the one marked "Liebstod" and "paid" for it with a magnificent Wagnerian performance on the organ the same evening, in his Sunday night recital.

• • • Cliff Howell, well known to the Southern California radio listeners for the past few years, has joined the KFWB announcing staff. He will handle many of the night features, and also announce for Gus Arnheim and his orchestra at the Coconut Grove.

• • • Work is progressing rapidly on the three-million-dollar civic auditorium for Long Beach. In the meantime, radio lines to the present civic auditorium and also the open-air bandstand for summer, enables KGER to broadcast the band concerts daily except Mondays. The new edifice will have ample equipment to continue broadcast from the new building, and a complete public address system will also be added to the apparatus for various uses of a civic nature.

• • • For those who aspire to be radio announcers, we recommend a test sponsored by Louis Dean who announces programs these days over CBS stations. According to Louis, no one has ever spoken it correctly at first attempt. Now just relax, take a deep breath and wrap your tongue around this: "The seething sea ceaseth and thus it sufficeth us"

• • • KHJ's Phantom of the Organ, who fritters away the midnight hour upon the studio organ for the benefit of the owl-eared element of the Columbia-Don Lee clientele, has withheld his name from publication for definite and excellent business reasons. Our musical spook looks like a well-fed cherub; has a snooty little mustache; wears horn-rimmed goggles and sputters pep and wisecracks. A member of the Phantom's Union would sneer at him.

• • • During his spare moments, Ronald Smith, studio manager at KJBS, is doing considerable experimenting with a new type of electric musical instrument which is as yet un-named. A maze of vacuum tubes, coils and condensers from the make-up of this interesting device, which Smith says the station's listeners will have a chance to hear, if he is successful in taming what has so far proved a very unruly brain-child.

• • • Marian Vrang, KROW vocalist, is a native daughter of Monterey, she is an accomplished singer, having studied under many leading instructors. Miss Vrang has made several appearances at national and state exhibitions at the civic auditorium at San Francisco, and is now heard over KROW's Veterans of Foreign Wars program.

• • • John Moss, after sixty successful weeks as staff basso on KFRC, has picked up his belongings (including copies of "Asleep in the Deep" and "When the Bells of the Lighthouse Ring Ding Dong") and gone to Los Angeles to accept a position there.

• • • Maurice Gunsky, veteran of radio, has returned to KPO, the scene of his first triumphs, in a regular six nights a week program, Monday to Saturday, for De Soto. Gunsky first attracted attention of the radio world back in 1925, when he appeared with Merton Bories. Since that time he has become famous throughout the country through his record releases.

• • • Election of Russel A. Provine as general manager of KJR and the Northwest Broadcasting System was recently announced. Mr. Provine has been treasurer of the NWBS since its organization in 1929. With the duties as general manager, he will continue as treasurer. The Northwest Broadcasting System owns and operates directly KGA, Spokane, and KJR, Seattle. Simultaneously, Mr. Provine becomes general manager of the Western Broadcasting System which operates KEX, Portland, a subsidiary company of the NWBS.

• • • That mad and ghastly laugh which appears just once, at an unexpected moment, in every Associated Spotlight Revue broadcast from the San Francisco studios on NBC Saturday night, has the audience guessing as to its origin. Bennie Walker, Bill Royle and every member of the Spotlight cast, including Walter Beban, has been held responsible—but it really emerges from the throat of Harold Peary, NBC baritone.

• • • Between programs, Columbia announcer Frank Knight frequently may be found sitting in the reception room brushing up on his French by reading from one of a number of Gallic volumes that line the walls. At his present speed, Knight estimates it will take him some fifteen years to read through the library.

• • • Just a year ago Bill Ray left his KFVB berth, where he had been commercial manager and chief announcer for some four years, and journeyed to Long Beach to become manager of C. Merwin Dobyns' KGER. Now the year's KGER service is at an end, and Bill Ray packs his dunnage bag and goes back to the big city, straight to his old haunt at KFVB, where he will be on the executive staff. Fans may perhaps also hear his announcing voice over KFVB some of these days again soon. Bill's ragtime review—not good, but loud—used to be one of his famous programs, and he also used to announce most Warner Brothers' premiers.

• • • Roy Ringwald, of KHJ and the Biltmore Trio, left for New York last week to sing with George White's Scandals at a weekly stipend of one thousand dollars. Roy is very young and mother wishes it wasn't the Scandals.

• • • Several years ago in the show business Frank Shaw used to introduce Ruby Adams to San Francisco theater audiences. Now Miss Adams introduces Shaw to KJBS listeners during her program each Monday and Friday afternoons commencing at 4:30 o'clock. Shaw recently returned from Chicago, bringing with him a new partner. He is Sam Rosen, a clever colored chap who answers to the name of Lucien. The trio is heard nightly during the midnight broadcast from Coffee Dan's.

• • • It was salesmanship that made Herman Reinberg KFRC cellist, a 'cello player. In Herman's home town of Lodz, Polish Russia, the Reinberg family was prominent in musical circles. A well-known 'cello player of the city had a 'cello to dispose of and he persuaded Herman's father that the boy was made to order to be a 'cellist because he had large hands. Herman got the job.

• • • Peru, the South American country of earthquakes and revolutions, has been added to the list of foreign countries where KJR has been received. An American, R. C. Brewer, chief engineer of the steamer Condon, reported the reception. It was at Talara, Peru. He reports that KJR and Talara are 4,300 miles by airline, and that the Talara harbor is surrounded by high hills all around. Good reception, too, for a station which is using only 5000 watts, he reported.

• • • The "Looking Glass" program, heard through KPO every Monday night, has struck a responsive chord with dialers of the station. Ray Shreck writes the continuity, and from the success which the program has attained to date his work marks him as a capable and thoroughly efficient program builder.

"Feminine Fancies" Changes Time

"FEMININE Fancies," one of the Don Lee chain's most valuable programs, because it is designed expressly to benefit the housewife with both information and entertainment, is now heard from 3 to 4 o'clock each afternoon except Saturday and Sunday, instead of during the morning hours.

In connection with the change from morning to afternoon time for Feminine Fancies Harrison Holliday, KFRC station manager, states that surveys show the housewife would rather have the service and entertainment that Feminine Fancies provides in the afternoon. The change was made to accommodate the people for whom the program is designed.

WM. H. WRIGHT

William H. Wright, who has built up an enviable reputation for himself in a dozen different rôles on KFRC, is now the master of ceremonies. He meets the constantly changing situations on the informal program with skill, tact and kindness.

Walter Kelsey, often referred to as the "musical athlete" because he plays so many different instruments, directs the music. A staff orchestra and a large number of the station's staff soloists are assigned to the program. These include Robert Olsen, the Clark Sisters (Ruth and Lila), Warren Luce and Madelaine de Mischel.

Following is a brief resume of the present schedule:

Mondays—Household trix, by Wyn; a short story by Fred Williams, read by Earl Towner; a talk on the Home Beautiful, by Fay Frazier.

Tuesdays — "Lip Stick," a dramatized serial by John Eugene Hasty; Friendship Club, conducted by Rita Murray.

Wednesdays—Romances of Famous Women, by Polly Linden; Garden Talk, by Henry C. Navelet; talk on Investments, by Rita Murray.

Thursdays—"Aunt Pedro."

Fridays—Dramatized story from old New England life.

Questions & Answers

By N. EARL BORCH

Consulting Engineer of the California Electrical Construction Company

All questions should be put in clear, simple form, and should ask directly what is wanted. Give full name and address. Personal replies or diagram will be supplied for a fee of one dollar each.

QUESTION: I have two electric clocks in my home, both very good (one a chime clock). They run on a 60-cycle and do not vary one second apart. I listen in at night for the correct time from the large stations. My clock will be perhaps five to ten seconds out the first time they broadcast, and one hour later when they advertise the second clock company I may be more than that, and, mind you, it has only been one hour since I checked it. What is the trouble—my clocks, the power company, or the radio announcer?—Lee T., Berkeley, Calif., April 4.

ANSWER: The frequency of the 60-cycle power line may be off a few seconds in a twenty-four-hour period. However, this discrepancy is compensated for by the utility company at 12 o'clock noon every day, so that over a period of time your clock is always correct. Would suggest that if you want to check the accuracy of your clocks, you do so from the Mare Island time signals from KPO at noon every day except Sunday.

QUESTION: I am experiencing difficulty in tuning out KPO lately. Either my set is not as selective as it once was, or this station is covering a wider band than formerly. I have heard others in my neighborhood make the same complaint. What would you suggest doing to clear this station?—L. T. P., San Francisco, April 23.

ANSWER: No late change has been made at station KPO which would cause the station to cover a wider range on your dial. If one or more of your tubes are weak, the effect would be a loss in selectivity. If you are bothered with overlapping stations, I would suggest that you try connecting a small fixed condenser of approximately .0001 microfarad capacity in series with your aerial.

QUESTION: I have just recently purchased a radio set and find that I can't operate my set while the vacuum cleaner is going or while the toaster or iron is on. The vacuum cleaner drowns out the music while the toaster and iron diminish it so it's practically inaudible. Can you suggest a remedy?—Mrs. Arthur M., Stockton, April 23.

ANSWER: From your description it would seem that your aerial is not of the proper dimension. The result is that you must use too great a sensitivity of the receiver in order to receive the stations. The interference from the vacuum cleaner may be corrected by the installation of a line filter, mounted on the cleaner itself. The fading of signals, of which you complain, may be caused by a power line fluctuation. If the lights in the house flicker badly when the toaster or iron is turned on you may send in a complaint to the Stockton Music and Radio Trade Association.

QUESTION: Around dinner time each evening, when the radio is tuned on KGO or KPO, there is a noticeable popping which resembles the sound of popping corn. This noise usually lasts about an hour. Would this be the set or the station, or some outside interference?—Z. M., Oakland, April 22.

ANSWER: The popping noise of which you complain is not caused by the broadcast stations. The probability is that it is caused by an electric appliance located in your vicinity. If this becomes very annoying, I would suggest that you increase the length of your aerial by about thirty to fifty feet so that you can receive the station with the desired room volume with less sensitivity of the receiver itself. Or, if you already have a good aerial, you may make arrangement with your radio dealer for a trial of a good power line filter.

QUESTION: In what city in Mexico is station XED or XEB, 950 or 960 kilocycles? Thanking you.—A. J. C. Salina, Utah, April 20.

ANSWER: Station XED is located in Reynosa, Mexico, and is operating on 961 kilocycles. XEB is located in Mexico City and is operating on 899 kilocycles.

Gentlemen:

Using an inside aerial I have logged 196 stations on my new Philco highboy, among them eight Japanese and many other foreign stations. Although it is now the end of March and reception is not so good as during the cold months, I am still able to bring in these Japanese stations regularly.

Very truly yours,

The loves of Muriel La Salle will again occupy the microscopic attention of the Goshen Center Clan. Those who have followed Memory Lane will recall the romantic career of Muriel and how she won the affections of Howard Deetz, boss of the "Big Four" railroad paint gang. That was last summer and the suitor went on his way without winning her heart and hand. Deetz is back in Goshen Center and Muriel is in the unpleasant position of having two returned suitors on her hands at the same time. Edgar Mason the shoe drummer, is the other.

The action of the play is laid in an old French town in the year 1429. The town is being held by the English, who are at war with the French. Denis de Beaulieu, hero of the story, has been captured by the English. Although he carries a safe conduct pass, he is treated as a spy. He manages to escape and enters the home of Sire de Maletroit, a private citizen. Mistaken for a French captain who supposedly has wronged his host's niece, he is given the choice of either marrying the girl or being hanged.

Visiting some of the most interesting spots in California during a 90-minute radio tour, Associated Spotlight Revue Artists will be heard tonight. Music for this
"touring" program will be chosen chiefly from selections which sing
the praises of various counties, cities or other localities in the Golden State. A number of "black outs," brief comedy sketches, will have as their locale different sections of California. "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model," with Bobbe Deane in the title role, will be burlesqued by Walter Beban.
Harold Peary and Richard Le
Grand will be heard in their familiar roles of villain and lover.

S and W Mellow'd Coffee

The delightful fragrance and aroma, the rich, smooth mellowness of S and W Coffee has a universal appeal. Just so the extremely diversified programs, sponsored by S and W, provide radio entertainment to suit every person's taste . . . Charlie Wellman, S and W Prince of Pep . . . Cecil and Sally in "The Funniest Things" . . . S and W Mellow'd Melodies with noted soloists, Joseph Hornik directing the famous S and W String Orchestra, with Kenya Bill in tales of African Adventure and Romance.
