PEACE

will reign over program controversy only with the application of the GOLDEN RULE

SOME three hundred years ago a weary band of storm tossed refugees landed upon America's New England coast and dedicated a new country to personal liberty and freedom from persecution. The most precious heritage bequeathed to every American by history and preserved by the Constitution of the United States is the right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

By the martyrdom of our forbears and the fundamental law of the land we are adjured to be tolerant, to exercise forbearance, to refrain from forcing our views and preferences on others, to practice the Golden Rule doing unto others as we would have them do unto us.

Though you are a Baptist you would scarce demand that all Methodists be deported or shot. In a country founded on personal freedom each citizen is entitled to worship as he chooses, and all religions flourish side by side. Certainly by the same token each owner of a radio receiver is entitled to his own program preference whether it be bed-time stories, African jungle chants, modern jazz, or symphonies in B Minor, nor should be criticized nor suppressed in his preference. The air belongs to ALL the people. All have equal rights to specify what it shall hold for them. And there is "room enough" to satisfy all.

Likewise the advertisers who provide fine programs are entitled to consideration. These programs cost advertisers huge sums. Yet they make no direct charge. They depend entirely on your appreciation expressed in voluntary PATRONAGE, to pay the bill. When you like a program show this appreciation—even go out of your way to actually BUY the product or service whose originators make possible such programs. And be sure to tell the merchant you are buying that brand because you heard it advertised over the radio.

There will be better radio programs and more of them, and controversies on the subject will cease ONLY with the universal application of the Golden Rule—and the conscientious patronage of deserving radio advertisers.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

M. S. D., Oakland.—Charlie Wellman (KOL) grew up in Chicago, attended college one year and went into business. It was a lucrative automobile accessory business but Charlie yearned to be an actor. He had participated in numerous school activities, had entertained in various theatres and the flavor of the stage had lingered. Persistently, pleasingly. Thus with a final brave gesture, he relinquished all mundane industrial affairs, purchased some spats and became the "Prince of Pep." In the earliest days of radio, Charlie made strange predictions to his friends. He opined people would some day be paid for broadcasting. Of course they shook their heads sorrowfully. Serenely oblivious, he devoted himself to the new "toy." The rest you know. He is among the highest salaried artists on the air today. But that is as nothing to the latest. He has discarded the Pagliaccian mask which has shadowed recent years, for a genuine smile, for he has found the ideal woman. She became Mrs. Wellman a short time ago.

Mrs. C. G. C., Santa Maria.—Jerry Jermaine (KTAB) is neither petite nor blonde but a tall, stunning brunette with navy-blue eyes and a flawless skin. She has so many names it is difficult to keep up with them. Margaret Jarman is one—she used that in her opera days—Gretchen Cheeseman is another and then there is a Gladys somewhere or other. She is one of those magnetic personalities you read about in books who bowl an audience over the moment the curtains part. Her smile discloses the most perfect teeth you ever saw and her smart clothes occasion much oh-ing and ah-ing. Jerry never minces words; she is not dismayed or afraid and can make a "go" of anything she undertakes. She is married to a sinfully good-looking man whom she met while singing for the boys over in France during the war.

H. M. V., Oakland.—Pete King (KROW) is, as you assumed, an Irishman. He comes from a family of seven girls and three (counting himself) boys. His age is 35, and his birthplace, County Galway, Ireland. In 1901 he was brought to America, and eight years ago he married a California girl. The Kings have two handsome small sons, Robert Fourcade and Kevin Lloyd. Both are fair with long black lashes, and little Kevin has a mass of golden curls. If they grow to be as tall as their fond daddy, they'll tower 'way over six feet. Mr. King has light hair, blue eyes, weighs 210 pounds, is a great football fan, and his favorite dish is—you've guessed it—corned beef and cabbage.

Mrs. T. W., Seattle.—Effie Palmer (Ma Parker, NBC) has a long line of noble and ancestral lineages running back to Sir Robert Lawrence of Ashton Hall, Lancaster, England, in the Eleventh century. The descendants of this Knight of the Holy Cross came to America in 1635, and a certain John Lawrence was appointed mayor of New York when that city was called New Amsterdam. Miss Palmer was born on a farm on the outskirts of Albany, N. Y. Shortly afterwards her family moved to Boston, and it was there she received her education. After graduating from the Boston School of Speech and Expression, she took up Lyceum work, toured the United States and Europe, later appearing in Broadway productions, and in 1922 she joined the ranks of the broadcasters. Some of the features in which she has been heard are "Arabesque," "Collier's Hour," "The Couple Next Door," "Romance of Ancestors," "Family Goes Abroad," and the "Mountainville Series."

W. K. A., Modesto.—Bill Sharples (KNX) hails from McKeesport, Pa., is 45 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighs 130 pounds, has blue eyes, and black hair that is brushed straight back. After leaving the University of Pennsylvania, he went into the automobile business. The goddess Success was his constant companion, his loyal champion, and then suddenly, when Bill was in his mid-thirties, she deserted him. Left him, just like that! He lost everything, simply everything he had possessed. His comeback reads like fiction. It was by no means an easy task, but Bill Sharples loves to conquer. Eight years back he began broadcasting. It has kept him more than occupied since. He has the distinction of having presented programs from the studios of 112 stations.

Don, San Jose.—Kevin Ahearn now sings at Station KMTR. Yes, Helen Stone is a flyer. Don, An aviatrix. (Not to be confused with "flighty.")

D. R., Spokane.—Homer Sweetman (KJR) is 22 years old, has light brown hair, blue eyes, is 5 feet 11½ inches tall, and weighs 165 pounds. His birthplace is Seattle, and the date of his arrival on this plane is February 12. He left Seattle at the age of 12 for San Francisco, finished high school, organized a band and toured all over the globe, returning to the Pacific Coast two years later. At present he is studying law in conjunction with his radio activities and, although it necessitates arising at sun-up, he seems not to mind. He has a flair for things artistic, reads a great deal, likes to play handball, and has to fight his way through admiring ladies whenever he makes a personal appearance.

Pauline, Willows.—Floyd Wright (KPO) is a young bachelor, 6 feet in altitude, 148 in poundage, with gray-blue eyes, and light brown hair, gor-gee-ously marcelled. Honestly, Pauline, it's be-u-ti-ful! You'd like Floyd. He is natural and unaffected. Something of a dreamer and idealist. Half eighteenth century and half twentieth, if you know what I mean. Always immaculately groomed. His addiction to air ferries is perfectly scandalous, and his aversion to vacuum cleaners is the only impolite thing about him. P. S.—Indeed, we remember the County Fair, and how we should love to accept your invitation, but it is impossible for us to get away just now.

More Suggestions

A recent annual subscriber, but a weekly purchaser for nearly three years, I feel like adding to a very imperfect ballot with certain comments on other letters, etc.

Mrs. Gertrude B.'s suggestion for station coöperation is excellent. Inevitably peoples' tastes vary. While I dislike jazz intensely I realize some like it and it would not be fair to ignore their likes to meet mine. But it is more than irritating to search over the dial for some "decent" music in vain. We used to have the radio on regularly during dinner, somewhere between 6 and 7 p. m., since the time change we have had to quit! It seems to me the Lucky Strike was passable two or three years ago, now it is hopeless, and the same wretched stuff three evenings a week is rather steep. The "Packard" program used to be dandy; the last two evenings impossible. To lie in bed and listen to the radio used to be great; at times now one has to shut it off—last evening (Saturday) for example. My radio is a Philco nine-tube, so can get a good many stations. But power lines are very troublesome and reception varies in consequences. One can generally be sure during the day to get KFI, KPO, KGO, KFRC, KTAB if code signals don't interfere—which they do very often, and sometimes extending way up the dial. Ten-thirty a. m. today (Sunday) only KPO available below KHJ, and now the "Yeast Foamers!" Why jazz Sunday morning? Between code and power noises reception is bad; KHJ poor and the only other station just now is KROW (I think), pretty poor. L. W. L. has the idea too; let those who want jazz, speeches, "poor" music of one sort and another have their innings, but surely it ought to be possible for some station that can be heard normally to provide decent music at the same time; not necessarily "heavy" stuff; opera is good, but there is a lot of lighter music that is really musical.

Cannot stations be given in the WEEKLY in regular order every day? Alphabetically, for example. Now one has to search for a particular station, and rarely is it in the same place two days running. Given that change the WEEKLY would be almost perfect, more so if some other stations were included regularly, such as KTM and if the chains other than NBC and CBS were listed regularly too. It would help if the keys were given for the chain stations; one can't remember all of them. Some organ programs are fine, example from the Tabernacle; but it is rather irritating to go to bed expecting a good organ, then have to get out and shut off the radio because jazz comes instead. I realize changes will occur too late for correction at times, but I do wonder whether some could not be avoided.

This is intended as constructive criticism and represents the ideas of a good number. By such expressions of opinion improvements may follow.

Why Is It?

For some time I have been buying copies of the BROADCAST WEEKLY, each week-end. We have indeed enjoyed it, particularly the comments on artists and programs, and the pictures of the artists.

With all due respect to the excellent programs furnished by practically all of the stations, I have wondered why there was not more comment upon some of the very lovely programs that we hear over station KYA. Certainly, there could be no more delightful programs than the splendid organ recitals of Miss Dolla Sargent, particularly those in which she is assisted by Miss Bobby Freshman and Miss Lucy Day.

Can't we have pictures of these three delightful artists and radio entertainers very soon? Thank you so much for all you are doing to make radioland and radio fans happier. I am enclosing a brief request for comment on these three artists by Gypsy, whose lively and intimate comment on radio people is one of the really fine things in your magazine.

V. Y. S., San Francisco, June 15

Tony—Won't You Come Back?

Sure enjoy your weekly very much, pictures and all. But am disappointed in some of the programs being discontinued, for instance, as follows: Tony's Scrapbook, which was a very interesting program. Then the Dodge Twins, which were not on the air last Monday as scheduled, and sure did miss them. Now, lots of my friends think the same about these two programs. So, KFRC, why don't you give us Tony and the Dodge Twins back again. Also would like to see the pictures of Seth Parker and Ma Parker and their neighbors and Tony, or I should say Anthony Wons, and the Vagabond of the Air.

Wishing you the best of luck.

Alice C. W., San Jose, June 8

It's the Increasing Demand

For a long time I have been buying the BROADCAST WEEKLY at the newsstands, and now, for some reason, I am having difficulty in purchasing it.

I usually like to buy it on Saturday so I may look over the programs for the coming week.

I have to make a trip to Seattle in order to get your little magazine, and last week I went three times before I finally found it, which, I believe, will give you some idea of how much I think of the BROADCAST WEEKLY.

At one place where I have been buying your book, they told me you quit publishing three weeks ago. I knew that was untrue and didn't hesitate to tell them so.

So am enclosing my subscription, and when it expires I'll renew it, as there is only one thing will cause me to do without the BROADCAST WEEKLY, and that is that you do stop publication.

Now that is off my mind, I wish to say a few words about something else. Why must people knock programs and artists who are on the air?

There are enough different programs, and they are so varied there is really no reason for complaint. Those people who can only get one station on their radios and don't like it should save their pennies and buy themselves a new set, one that, if they don't like one station, they can turn their dial and get something else.

I don't like dill pickles myself, but I don't insist every one quit eating them. Imagine if you can, everyone in this land of ours eating one kind of food, wearing one kind of clothes, living in one kind of house, listening to one kind of music. You think about it, if you wish; I don't want to.

Everyone is boosting for KFRC and KGO—more power to them, and include KNX and all the other southern stations in that; but I wish to say a word of kindness for our own KJR and the NWBC up here. I like every one at KJR and wish them the best of luck, as they are giving us the best they have every day, trying to please and entertain us as is every other station on the air.

Best wishes to the BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Elaine C., Mercer Island, Wash., June 14

P. S. I agree with R. L. P. of Oakland. For goodness sake, don't leave out any pictures. That's half the interest in your magazine. E. C.

To Critics of Jazz

I have read the articles published in this week's BROADCAST WEEKLY in regard to jazz music.

I was a student of music for many years, and I, for one, can appreciate the music and arrangement of the programs of our country's leading dance bands, as well as the music broadcast from our symphony orchestras.

To all the critics of jazz music, the following article will likely be of interest. I will copy only part of the article, taken from The Etude magazine of August, 1924, which follows: "On the other hand, the melodic and rhythmic inventive skill of many of the composers of jazz, such men as Berlin, Confrey, Gershwin, and Cohan, is extraordinary. Passing through the skilled hands of such orchestral leaders of high-class jazz orchestras conducted by Paul Whiteman, Isham Jones, Waring, and others, the effects have been such that serious musicians such as John Alden Carpenter, Percy Grainger, and Loepold Stokowski have predicted that jazz will have an immense influence upon musical composition, not only of America but also of the world."

My wife and I are "all for" your little magazine.

Alfred D., Monterey, Calif., June 7

... SILHOUETTES ...

CHIEF among the distinguishing traits of Dorothy Churchill, KFWI, San Francisco, staff artist (aside from her unusually pleasing lyric coloratura voice) is the fact that she does not love to cook, hates housekeeping, and cares not a tinker's darn for the Italian dishes.

DOROTHY CHURCHILL

Thoroughly cosmopolitan, having studied and lived in New York and most of the European capitals, sung in successful operettas, and worked in pictures in Hollywood, she is now a San Franciscan by choice.

And how's this for versatility? She personally manages a large estate near Napa, voraciously devours the financial pages in the dailies, and as a pet hobby supports a school for poor mountain children in Tennessee.

On the air Miss Churchill does the "better things" so well that obstinate program directors won't let her realize her pet yen to sing jazz.

IN Reno, Nevada, they called Ted White "the tenor who sings the soul of a song." It wasn't a press agent who coined the expression, but a music critic, and radio audiences, wherever Ted is heard, echo the thought.

This dark-haired, slow-smiling, slow-talking lad with the soft Southern accent, who is a frequent soloist with NBC's Vagabonds, didn't intend to be a singer when he left college. It was his ambition to become a good newspaper man, but after he achieved that aim, destiny drew him to an entirely different path.

Oddly enough, it was a national tragedy—President Harding's death—which changed Ted's whole life. Sent from New York to San Francisco by the United Press to cover the departure of the Harding funeral train, Ted's tenor voice, raised in informal singing among the newspaper men gathered on the coast from all sections of the country, roused comment. Ted had always liked to sing, but never took his voice seriously—in fact, he never even joined the Glee Club at Columbia University while he was a student there.

But members of the San Francisco Press Club insisted he sing at a club concert, so Ted good-naturedly did so. Then the Bohemian Club, San Francisco's famed and exclusive organization of writers, painters and celebrities, asked him to sing at the annual jinx in Bohemian Grove. Still willing to please, Ted consented, and was surprised to find an offer of a vaudeville contract waiting him when he returned to San Francisco.

He balanced the sum it offered against his salary as a newspaper man, and was shocked at the difference. Telegraphed his resignation to the New York office of the United Press, and became a singer in earnest. His vaudeville tour ended in the East, but a night club in New York quickly offered him a job. Since then, six busy years of continuous warbling in varied parts of the world have followed. Ted has sung in Havana, Panama City, Shanghai, China, Reno, and other spots where good singers are in demand.

Old-time Nevadans and brief residents in Reno, divorce bound, alike appreciated the unusual quality Ted brought to every song, a quality which lies either in his voice or his manner of singing—his followers can't decide which.

At any rate, that business of "singing the soul of a song" is said to have reconciled more than one prospective divorced couple, one or both of whose members were in Reno.

When Ruth Roland decided to produce Cornelius Vanderbilt's book "Reno" as a film, she imported Ted to Hollywood as an outstanding piece of Reno's "local color." The picture "flopped" but Ted got over in Hollywood just as he had done in Reno, and signed a radio contract.

When NBC's Artist's Service signed him for appearances in San Francisco, it was his first engagement in this city since he arrived here to cover the Harding train's departure.

Ted was born in Athen's Tennessee, where his father was a well-known physician. His favorite diversions are swimming, at which he is an expert, gardening, at which he is an enthusiastic amateur and books. Lous Bromfield and D. H. Lawrence are his favorite authors.

TED WHITE

SELDY ROACH, NBC actor who is known as "Dad" Roach to countless followers in western states where he has "trooped for half a century, has watched America grow up.

He started pioneering when he was a little boy of ten, coming across the continent in a prairie schooner, and he climaxed a long career of trying new things, when he stepped for the first time before the microphone in the San Francisco studios of the National Broadcasting Company, not long ago. Since then he has been heard in numerous NBC radio dramas, adventuring in the world's newest art.

Seldy was born in Illinois, but when he was ten years old, with eight brothers and sisters younger than himself, an intrepid pair of parents moved the family to Currier, Kansas. They lived in pioneer fashion just outside the settlement's stockade, where—the year was 1872—unfriendly Comanche Indians still roamed. They scalped some of the Roach's neighbors but never harmed Seldy and his family.

The little boy may have helped to protect the household through a friendship he struck up with some of the Comanche braves whom he found raiding a watermelon patch one day. Instead of running away, Seldy showed them how to pick the ripe melons instead of green ones, and the Indians thereafter never molested anything on the Roach homestead but the melons.

The Thespian instinct must have been strongly rooted in young Seldy, brought up so far from cities and theaters. He was only 17 when he joined a minstrel show in Colorado, and from that time on was a "trooper." Stock, repertoire, medicine shows, it was all the same to him. True to the traditions of his craft he could support Booth in "Hamlet" one season and make good in a "med" show the next.

SELDY ROACH

West and played in stock companies in San Francisco, Salt Lake City or Reno. "Dad" never left what he calls "the sagebrush"—California, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico. He stuck to these states on tours, and never felt the Broadway urge. His audiences were scattered through cities and small towns and

JEAN Clairmook, KFRC's petite star, is a small bundle of vital, interested energy, measuring about three and one-half feet, and barely bothering the scale at forty-nine pounds. She has large luminous brown eyes, chubby dimpled cheeks, and a row of flashing teeth that would have made Cleopatra writhe in envy.

Miss Clairmook's two principal loves are ice cream and gum. Or, "ice-krim," as she calls it. Creating a disturbance in the back yard at home is one of her major activities. She tends a bed of pansies, plays at washing clothes and keeping house, and invents a million other things to do together with her little playmate, Jeanette. Jeanette is one year Jean's senior and her inseparable companion. Jeanette is five. Their play together is many miles removed from the business of broadcasting.

Miss Clairmook laughs a great deal. However, this is putting rather a loose interpretation upon the word "laughs." It would be better to say that she giggles a great deal. It's just one of her methods of getting rid of her store of constantly replenished energy.

Jean at four is already a veteran entertainer. At the age of two and one-half she made her first public appearance singing "Ain't She Sweet." It was at a Shriner's luncheon and the affair was broadcast.

About a year ago she crashed the gates of the KFRC Happy Go Lucky Hour, a discovery of Al Pearce, the program's guiding spirit. Her first song on KFRC was "Whoopee," which she still sings occasionally as an encore at public appearances, to the great delight of the audiences. Her interpretation of the song is as unusual as it is amusing.

The first song she ever sang, however, was "Mary Lou." She sang that just about the time she was beginning to talk, either a little before or a little after. Her home town is San Francisco. She is an only child and lives with her father and mother at 807 Lyons Street.

JEAN CLAIRMOOK

many of those who are still his fans were children when they first applauded "Dad" Roach.

"Every time I step before the microphone I feel that I am talking to all of them at once—it's the greatest experience I've had since I first went on the stage!" says "Dad."

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

A cartoon illustration of a man with a large nose, wearing a suit and tie, speaking into a vintage microphone. The microphone is on a stand with a small base. The man has a friendly expression and is looking slightly to the side.

• • • Gene Powers, in charge of KHJ auditions, says that you have to listen to thousands in order to find just the right one. He married her a week or so ago. Her name used to be Laurette Lacey.

• • • Charles Hart, musical director, is back on the job at NBC after having traveled all the way from San Francisco to New Brunswick, New Jersey, to be with his father, Fred A. "Pop" Hart, on the occasion of his eightieth birthday. One of the features of the celebration was a testimonial concert given to his father by citizens in appreciation of the many things he has done for his city. Three of "Pop's" sons took part in the concert. Charles played the piano and two of the other sons, Frank and George, played the viola and the 'cello, respectively. The group, once known as the "Musical Harts," was originally organized by Hart, Senior.

• • • Cheerfully speeding along home from a midnight broadcast at KNX, Hollywood, the other night, Wesley Tourtelotte, noted organist, heard a dying gasp from his Pierce-Arrow—yep, he owns one—and he was marooned at 1:30 a. m., in the wilds of Hollywood. A passing motorist offered to push him home. Accepted! Then the Good Samaritan learned that Tourtelotte lived at the top of one of the Hollywood hills, or rather, mountains. But there was no backing out because they were plugging up the hill and if the pushing car stopped, the heavy Tourtelotte car would have crashed right back into it. Arrived at the top, Wesley thanked his helper, but the "That's all right" wasn't very cordial!

• • • You might possibly be interested in the fact that: Tommy Harris has gained ten pounds since joining the KFRC staff. Al Pearce went fishing on his vacation. Walter Bunker Jr. takes part in Bohemian Club theatricals. On Meredith Willson's only day off, Saturday, he comes to the KFRC studios just to hear the auditions for microphone aspirants. Harrison Holliway and Cal Pearce and Al Cormack have a lot of fun playing early morning golf. Dick Rickard spent the best part of a week in Los Angeles with his parents, who are down from Seattle; he caught six bonita and a flock of mackerel—but you should hear him tell about the 32-pound yellowtail he lost—at Catalina.

• • • Although she spent a part of her childhood on a California beach little Ann Leaf, CBS organist, never learned to swim. But she is moving into an apartment which boasts a fine swimming pool, and, the weather being what it is, she has decided to make up for lost time, and is now taking lessons.

• • • That old wheeze about a rolling stone gathering no moss is out. It becomes "a rolling Moss gathers no stones," which adaptation is made by John Moss who recently joined the KFI-KECA staff. And another thing Moss reverses—he stands six feet two inches, weighs 196 pounds, is blonde with very, very blue eyes, an engaging smile and sings bass. All of which is unorthodox as most everyone knows; that's tenor type—the usual basso being a chunk of a fellow hardly over five feet high. Moss was born in England 27 years ago. There he learned to paint, swim, wield an oar on his college crew and also a tennis racquet. He studied in the Royal Academy of Music, London, came to Victoria, B. C., for further instruction under a noted Italian teacher and then to San Francisco with Dr. H. B. Byeining. Moss has been in concert in Canada and United States—25 weeks as bass soloist in a San Francisco theatre and 60 weeks with radio station KFRC, San Francisco. In private life, he is still John Moss, bachelor.

• • • Success of the "library studio" for celebrities in the NBC Chicago headquarters has led the NBC in New York to transform a reception room into a similar studio there. The homelike atmosphere and its utter change from the appearance of a broadcasting studio puts the speaker at ease and has much to do with conquering "mike fright."

• • • A visitor made the almost fatal mistake of commenting, in the presence of John S. Young, recently, that announcers must have an easy time. NBC's dapper announcer had just finished telling the world about the music in a Russian program, and without saying a word handed to the visitor the program continuity script on which appeared the following names: Rachmaninoff, Rodjesivensky, Bachmetieff, Turchaninoff, Pratopopoff, Bogoyavlensky, Glazounov and Ippolitov-Ivanov. A somewhat flabbergasted visitor suddenly remembered a previous engagement elsewhere.

• • • "Pete" Barlow, KFRC's versatile drummer, who takes the part of Axel on the Golden State Blue Monday Jamboree, on a recent trip to Sacramento with the Schwartz Ginger Band was descended upon by a delegation of high school orchestra drummers. They wanted some of the "low-down" on Pete's tricks on the drums. He spent a half-hour with them in the dressing room, explaining how he did it.

• • • Annette Hanshaw's habit of memorizing the words to her songs—including the ones she sings on Columbia's Van Heusen program—is one of long standing. According to her mother, Annette was a singer at the age of sixteen months, and by that time had learned the words of twenty-five songs.

• • • Charles Lyon, the announcer who never gropes for a word, has deserted the Chicago National Broadcasting Company studios temporarily to assist KOA, the Denver NBC station, through its summer vacation schedule.

Lyon, while one of the youngest, is one of the most popular announcers in the NBC organization. With several seasons on New York's Broadway and five years in "stock," he brought a rich background of acting experience with him when he entered radio two years ago. He still carries his Actor's Equity card.

• • • Sam Coslow, famous composer of popular songs and talking-picture music, is the latest celebrity to join the entertainment roster of KNX, Hollywood. Coslow is heard nightly except Fridays and Sundays singing with his orchestra. He has written the music and theme songs for such pictures as "The Vagabond King," "Paramount on Parade," "Honey" and "Dance of Life," and has composed several of the reigning song hits of the day. The phonograph companies bill him as "The Voice With It," so the fair fans of KNX will be given a chance to hear just what "It" is.

• • • Hearing his master's voice calling out his name, "Bill," a little fox terrier, dashed to the loudspeaker, wagged his tail ferociously and barked "hello" to Cecil Underwood the other night. When Cecil left Spokane to join the Pacific Division of NBC he gave his little four-footed pal to the best man at his wedding. In the two years of their separation "Bill" has heard and recognized Cecil's voice many times. But when, in a little dog skit in a recent Associated Spotlight Revue, Cecil was privileged to whistle and call out "Bill," the dog's joy knew no bounds.

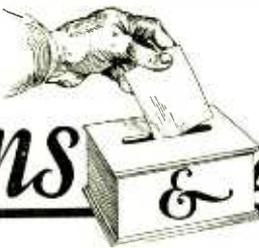

• • • The United States Marine Band swung into its first selection of the afternoon. Music flowed softly from the instruments. Stanley Bell, Columbia announcer in Washington, stood by, a satisfied look on his face. Crash! Stanley jumped. Flashed a worried look at the bandmen. Not a marine in the room changed expression. Not a note was lost. A look out the window explained things. A group of marines were indulging in a ball game. Somebody hit a home run—through the window of the broadcasting room at the barracks. But the marines kept the situation well in hand.

• • • When it comes to unique ideas for remote control broadcasting, the Paris Inn, feature of KNX, Hollywood, weekly schedule, makes a bid for recognition. Perhaps nowhere else in the country are forty entertainers presented every hour; a grand opera coach (incidentally a friend of the great Verdi) employed to rehearse the songsters; grand opera stars employed to entertain diners, or the proprietor an ex-opera singer, a holder of swimming records and a boniface.

The singing waiters, twenty of them, are hired first for their qualifications vocally. If they can't sing, they can't "wait." They must report for daily rehearsals and sing as they purvey viands. Even the captains and head waiters warble both at work and over the air.

Questions & Answers

By N. EARL BORCH, Consulting Radio Engineer

All questions should be put in clear, simple form, and should ask directly what is wanted. Give full name and address. Personal replies or diagram will be supplied for a fee of one dollar each.

QUESTION: What is the best length aerial for a Philco eleven-tube receiver? Also how to correctly tune it to the kilocycles. I have set it on the kilocycles from 550 to 770 and from 1000 to 1500. It is off five kilocycles from 770 to 1000. I have not found anyone so far that can tune it.—Alton M. B., Santa Rosa, June 7.

ANSWER: Your receiver is not critical to antenna length. From 60 to 100 feet flat top will be found very satisfactory. Height is an important factor. Generally the higher the better.

The balancing of this receiver cannot be done without the use of an oscillator. This oscillator must be set exactly at 175 kilocycles. Without this, it is useless to attempt to balance the dial readings. If you cannot find anyone in your city who has the correct equipment, I would suggest that you ship the set to the Philadelphia Storage Battery Co., at 218 Fremont Street, San Francisco, California. They will make the necessary adjustment for you, free of charge.

QUESTION.—I have been unable to find any dope about the pentode tube in any magazine. I would like to change my 171 power tube to a pentode. Will you please answer the following questions for me?

What size bias resistor is required for the pentode tube?

What is the correct value for the plate and grid resistance and the condenser between the plate and grid?

What type output transformer do you recommend? BEN J. S., Mill Valley, Calif.

ANSWER.—The bias resistor for this tube should be 418 ohms. The pentode tube has a very high amplification factor and, unless special means are taken to prevent interaction from plate back to the grid, the total amplification will be greatly reduced and the loud speaker is apt to howl. When a resistor is used as a means of providing grid bias, it is necessary to also use a large condenser across the bias resistor. The capacity of this condenser should be at least 15 to 20 micro-farads. A better method for providing the proper grid potential is to utilize the drop in voltage across the power choke. This can be done by the use of resistors of the proper resistance connected across the choke with tap to grid return taken at the proper place. If you will write me personally in care of BROADCAST WEEKLY, I shall be glad to send you complete information regarding this method.

The plate resistor for the pentode should be 150,000 ohm; the grid resistor 1 megohm and the coupling condenser .006 micro-farad.

The output load resistance for the pentode has a very critical value. It should be between 6000 and 8000 ohm. For a dynamic speaker output, I know of only one transformer which meets this requirement. This is the Thordarson type T-4843 transformer.

QUESTION.—My mother has been sick in bed for some time. She likes her radio very much, but as the bedroom is located far from where the receiver is, she cannot hear very much. Now, what I would like to ask you is if it is possible to use another speaker together with the one in my set. My set is a Radiola 82. Thanking you for your help in this matter, I am, very truly yours,

JOHN J. S., Burlingame, Calif.

ANSWER.—For a temporary connection it is hardly worth while to go to any great expense to connect an additional speaker. A magnetic speaker can be connected to the two plate terminals of the power tubes. This connection will somewhat impair the quality of the reproduction from the dynamic speaker but not enough to be very noticeable. To retain the same quality as with the dynamic speaker alone, it is necessary to change the output transformer of the receiver to one having secondary output terminals for both magnetic and dynamic speakers. Such a transformer is rather costly, and unless the installation is to be permanent, I would recommend the plate connections as outlined above. Your radio service man should be consulted when making this connection.

CRITIQUE of the WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

Around the Samovar with Peter Biljo, who comes over CBS, takes me back to New York to a quaint Russian restaurant on Second Avenue, where the sidekick and I were wont to mingle, bi-weekly, with long-haired men and short-haired ladies. The place was unpretentious, but it had an air. Peter and his aggregation were bedecked in colorful costumes and had scarcely enough room to move on the little platform that constituted their stage. The waiters wore those doo-dad costumes also and every man of 'em looked like a general. We used to sit back, heads against the wall and speculate upon their real identities. The food they served was excellent and the way they served it made you feel complimented all over. But the thing that got you, intoxicated you like no vodka could, was Peter's music. Lordy! It was potent.

"Are you listenin'?" It isn't what Tony Wons says but the way he says it. I wait all through the Camel broadcast for that phrase. Morton Downey's alright, too, I guess. The girl friend seems to think so. Tells me I'm an unappreciative moron 'cause I don't rave about him. Maybe I'm not up to his stuff. Somehow he's too heavenly to suit me. But what's the difference? She likes Mort and I like Tony and that oughta be fair enough. It's not that I'm opposed to tenors. Gosh no! I like Irving Kennedy and Paul Oliver and Donal Novis—I even like Rudy Vallee.

Sometimes I think I've outgrown the simpler civilization. And then comes Memory Lane. Bang goes the superior complex. Off comes the veneer. A queer sensation starts in the region of my heart and climbs up around my Adam's apple. I don't know what it is, exactly; but my collar seems suddenly to have shrunk. Yep! It's shed. Goshen Center surely does make for clean inhalations. I could stand Billy Smithers a shade less heroic. Such a model boy might have lived but I've never seen him.

The shortest half-hour on the air is an episode from a Carleton Morse story. Incidental, this fellow Morse has made a christian out of me. I used to gamble like nobody's business. Talk about your Sherlocks! Why I had the solution, the logical solution, of one of his hair-raisers doped out long before the serial was three episodes old. What I mean, I bet real cash. But did I ever win? I did not. That guy outsmarted me every time. He certainly goes strong on surprises.

* * *

The Interwoven Pair are amusing. Some of their jokes are pretty old, but they manage to wrangle a laugh. I feel cheated when I miss them. The fact that they seem to get so much fun out of their work has a whole lot to do with tuning in KGO when they're scheduled. Sorta include everybody.

* * *

I look forward to the Coca-Cola broadcast each Wednesday evening. Grantland Rice gets more out of an interview than anybody I know. Has a way of putting his subject in the foreground without losing any of his own prestige.

* * *

Numb and Dumb, who are featured on the NBC Road Show, are a big-time act. They can play as many return engagements as they will, far's I'm concerned. The rest of the show isn't so hot. It started out with a bang, but since the third or fourth week, has been floundering about like an indecision complex, as though wondering whether to struggle along as a 5-a-day or disintegrate into a public dance hall with "attractions." Seems to me there oughta be plenty of good headliners around town to warrant more balanced bills.

* * *

If you want to hear an infant Eve doing a Hugh Barrett Dobbs, tune in some time to KROW about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and hear little Marylyne (Marylin) Grace. The program's a kick. She'll go far that li'l' girl. Speaking of child talent—the Cowboy Kids over NBC is a fine listen-in for youngsters. I don't hafta consult my Ingersoll for the broadcast because I always know from the way the lusty-lunged twins next door have piped down, the Cowboys are holding them enthralled.

IT'S A SYSTEM

Musical numbers at times consume more time during actual performance on the air than when rehearsed. To meet this contingency orchestral leaders at Columbia studios have devised a system of signals by which they can alter the program while it is in progress. Alternative endings are written into all dance scores and designated as "one" and "two." To indicate either, the conductor simply holds up one or two fingers. In addition the dance scores are divided into sub-sections, each of which is designated by a letter of the alphabet. By pantomiming one of these letters with his fingers, the conductor is also enabled to order a cut almost anywhere he wishes.

THE MAHONEY'S OF ITALY

Julia Mahoney, soprano soloist heard frequently on Columbia Revue programs, is fond of Italian folk songs, a liking she shares with Vincent Sorey, conductor of the feature.

But what is surprising is the fact that she has received numerous letters from Italians writing in their native language, congratulating her and asking her what part of Italy she comes from.

And Julia Mahoney, as Irish as Dublin, doesn't know whether to be flattered or not.

LORD BILGEWATER'S
LATEST BOOK

It is totally different from anything ever written by this Happy Go Lucky and Jamboree comedian, heard over the Don Lee chain.

Cram full of riddles, funny stories, anecdotes, and humorous poems.

Happy Go Lucky listeners had a hand in writing it, too. Contributions from fans all over the Pacific Coast have been included.

The engaging illustrations are by Frances Montgomery.

All "Bilgy's" fans will want a copy.

10—Mystery Serial: "The Game Called Murder," by Carlton E.
Morse: KGO, KSL, KOA

A parlor game undertaken in fun and ending in tragedy is the theme of Carlton E. Morse's thrilling new mystery serial, "The Game Called Murder," whose second episode will be broadcast tonight. Tonight's episode opens with Captain Post questioning all those who were present at the scene of the real murder. The killing was preceded by strange footsteps and the clanking of chains which, according to servants in the house, mark the appearance of the mansion's family phantom, "The Ghost Who Walks in Chains." Captain Post's cross-examination tonight brings out the strange history of the house, but has a sudden, dreadful interruption—and the grisley game of murder goes on.

Futuristic methods of conducting business and personal affairs are dramatized in the weekly Split Second Tales. The chief character in this tale is a girl whose fiance is an army officer in Honolulu. Word reaches her that he is not faithful and that he is devoting much time to an attractive widow. She is on the point of marrying another man when she receives proof of her fiance's loyalty. Characterized as "the fastest program on the air," this presentation employs novel sound effects which emphasize its speed.

"Romance" will be the theme of the Associated Spotlight Revue.
Because of this, the customary novelty and comedy numbers will be varied by several songs chosen for their melody and adherence to the romantic idea. But some of the irrepresible vocalists in the Spotlight cast will offer their own characteristic touches to the theme. Jack and Ethyl, the Associated stars, will appear in a gripping sea drama by Carlton E.
Morse. Old "Captain Ben," who introduces these Shipwreck Tales, will tell of how he and his sailors once found an ancient, waterlogged vessel, the hull of an old Spanish pirate ship, floating in mid-ocean with a young girl on board. Walter Beban promises a typical Beban sketch, dripping with romance and loving quips.
Caryl Coleman directs the Associated Spotlight Revue.

FOR THE ONE PRICE YOU GET DOUBLE-ACTION

You need only rub Associated Auto Polish on with an easy forward-and-back motion (not circular) and you get both Cleaning and Polishing.

That's double action!

It is an Associated Oil Company product, one of the "Sustained Quality" family of nine products for household and garage use. Associated Auto Polish protects your car's body and fenders from sun-checking and moisture.

And after application, a second "once-over" with a dry cloth renews the shiny luster at once.

Sold by Associated service stations and garages and progressive druggists, hardware dealers and grocers.

All the new features of Radio expressed in one supreme word-

HOWARD

With 2 PENTODES and
3 VARIABLE MU Tubes

OUT of years of experience in producing only the best in radio, HOWARD today crowns its long list of achievements with an instrument—marvelously new—entirely original and unduplicated in the slightest degree. This new HOWARD Super-Heterodyne has a musical range which extends to the far corners of "the full keyboard of sound." Music lovers can now have radio music of "mirror like" faithfulness. Under the shadows of a group of high powered radio stations the new HOWARD can easily handle a signal four times that which could be handled formerly without distortion.
