NO VESTED RIGHT TO AIR

ARMED with a decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago that broadcasters have no vested rights in the air, the Federal Radio Commission next fall is expected to proceed with its plans to relieve congestion by the elimination of a number of inferior stations.

The decision by the court was rendered in the case of Station WMBB-WOK, relicensing of which was refused by the commission. The owners of the station announced their intention of broadcasting without a license, and injunction proceedings were instituted by the Department of Commerce, the appellate court affirming the injunction granted by the District Court.

Owners of the station fought the injunction proceedings on the ground that they had invested large sums in the erection of the station and the development of its business, and that the radio commission had acted arbitrarily in denying a renewal of the license without providing any compensation for loss of their property rights.

In sustaining the Government's contention that the broadcaster had acquired no vested rights, the court declared: "We are well satisfied that there is a vital difference between the rights of one whose property is confiscated by judicial decree and the rights of one to the use of the air, which right is dependent upon a Government permit limited both as to extent and time. The former is vested. The latter is permissive."

The radio commission, since its creation in 1927, has succeeded in reducing the number of broadcasting stations by more than 125 through the refusal to relicense stations guilty of violations of the radio law or regulations, but has hesitated to eliminate stations not guilty of actual violations but which are felt not to be rendering service in the "public interest, convenience and necessity" because of the question of property rights. The commission's efforts in this direction, it is believed, now will be directed largely toward the relief of high-grade stations which are forced to share time with stations in the same area which do not meet the commission's standards of good broadcasting.

Cases of this nature have already come before the commission, and there are pending for consideration next fall examiner's reports recommending the removal of stations. The time division requirement between the stations is an expedient resulting from the existence of an excess number of broadcasting stations. Such time division is a handicap to the stations involved, financially and from an operating standpoint, and accordingly limits the maximum service to the listening public.

Under such circumstances, public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by a consolidation of assignments in a progressive, well managed and adequately financed station through the elimination of stations which do not meet standards of good broadcasting.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Ted, Newhall.—Edna O'Keefe (KFRC) is not married. Engaged? One hears rumors, but Edna denies them as fast as they start flying about. She insists, oh, so emphatically, that her heart belongs to no one. Ab-so-lute-ly, no one. Age? Nineteen or twenty. Eyes? Brown, large and naughtily inclined. Hair, dark, nearly black. Usually elaborately fluffy. Then again, quite sleekly smooth. Edna has moods, you see. Her height is 5 feet 2 inches, her weight, 115 pounds, generally. Remember the moods. Ancestry? Irish and Italian. Birthplace? San Francisco. Any other names? Patricia. You will find the rest of your questions answered elsewhere on this page.

E. M. K., Oakland.—Sid Goodwin (NBC) was born on a bleak February day in Chicago about thirty-five years ago. His grandfather was born in County Cork, his grandmother in Dublin, his father in Pennsylvania, and his mother in Minnesota. He is married to a most attractive lady (formerly of the stage) and has a little tomboy daughter who has inherited from both sides of the house pronounced dramatic and musical ability. In appearance Sid is much younger than his years would indicate. He is slightly built, is blond and blue-eyed, with features cut clearly and sensitively. After leaving school, he was educated in Portland, by the way—he worked as a copy flunky on the Oregon Journal. But "Aw heck" (his favorite expression), that wasn't exciting. So, if you please, he went to San Diego and joined the old Lubin picture company. He became homesick, went back to Portland, was made a member of the Baker Stock Co., owned and operated by Portland's Mayor, zigzagged from the theater to newspaper work for a while, and then completely went radio.

B. R., Los Angeles—Noel Archer (KFI) was born in Chicago twenty-five years ago, has gray eyes, light brown hair, is 5 feet 10 inches tall, and weighs 135 pounds. Miss Allman (KHJ) spells her first name E-l-v-i-a. Olive Palmer (Palmolive, NBC) is known to her intimates as Virginia Rae. Paul Oliver's right name is Frank Munn.

M. E., Los Angeles.—José Bohr, associated with KFI a short time ago, has left the air lanes and is reported producing a picture which he himself has written. Hank Simmons (CBS) is in private life Harry Browne, an actor with many years of experience. John Favre, the blind cellist who has been appearing with the Lindens on the Shell Happytime, is in the East, where, it is said, he has submitted to an operation in the hope his sight may be gained.

J. C., Oakland.—Monroe Upton (KFRC) is single. At least he was single before he left for vacation. As this is written he has not yet returned. Al Pearce is married. Cal is not. Both brothers are Native Sons, in their thirties. Both measure 6 feet 1 inch. Both are athletically inclined, and there all similarities cease. Al weighs approximately 190 pounds, has blue-green eyes and light hair. Cal's weight is 170, his eyes are brown and his hair is quite black. The Eb and Zeb sketches are presented by Al Pearce and William Wright. Yes, Tommy Harris is married.

V. Y. S., San Francisco.—Bobbie Freshman (KYA) has lovely brown eyes that seem to incarnate woman's most secret appeal for protection. Her manner is quietly unobtrusive; she may be seething within but outwardly she is as calm and unperturbed as an inanimate painting. Her hair is of a chestnut hue, she is 5 feet 3 inches in height, weighs 125 pounds, and goes in for severely tailored suits. As a tiny girl she had ambitions to become a circus rider. However, as she became absorbed in her study of the violin, the desire slipped slowly into oblivion. Still, she confesses to experiencing a tingling sensation at the sound of a steam calliope and frequently takes in a circus, there to throb with excitement when the golden-haired bareback rider dares the fates that be. Bobbie's colors are red and yellow; her favorite reading is biographical material. She loves to play Tschai-kowsky and is seldom without a string of gardenias.

Ellen, Tacoma.—Chet Cathers (KJR) was born in Evansville, Indiana, approximately 30 years ago. His parents also were born in Indiana. Chet has lived in various cities in the East and for eight years, prior to adopting Seattle, resided in Los Angeles. He is six feet tall, weighs 176 pounds, has brown eyes, dark hair and reads Shakespeare. He likes to eat, is married, devotes much time to composition and musical arrangements, would rather play Victor Herbert's works than any others, names as his favorite color, blue and is quite a football enthusiast. Before coming to radio he was by turns, a salesman, vaudeville artist and movie actor.

F. R. D., Oakland.—The Olympians (NBC) may be heard during the House of Color and Chase and Sanborn broadcasts. The voices you hear in this quartet belong to David Bell, first tenor, Gilbert Hyde Chick, second tenor, Joseph Tissier, baritone and Oliver Jones, basso. By the way—they have just received a beautiful engraved silver cup, the first prize offered in a vocal contest recently held in Southern California. Is their director, Mynard Jones, proud!

L. S. M., San Francisco.—Yes, Keltner Williamson whose plays are heard over NBC, is the writer who collaborated with Carleton E. Morse on the "Dragon in the Sun" about a year ago. Mr. Williamson is a singularly reticent man with commanding, yet curiously gentle eyes that see things other beings are not privileged to see. His reserve is as impenetrable and mysterious as the strange lands he explores. He is an archaeologist of vast experience, has made at least a dozen journeys to Central America and plans another expedition for the early part of the year.

Leave Well Enough Alone

When one reads exceptionally noteworthy letters like "Violet Olive J.'s" of San Francisco (July 9 issue), one heaves a big sigh of relief and of actual pleasure to find out that the forces of beauty and truth have not completely given way to cheapness and taudriness. Her sentiments are also mine, absolutely. To enjoy classical selections, one must not only have a cultural background but an educational one as well. And that absolutely does not mean being "high hat" either. The people who are the "high-hatters" are those who think that moronic thing called "jazz" is the only music there is. The truly educated person finds and enjoys the best in each. For there are good points to be found in all things. Most jazz I find very depressing, it does not cheer me up at all; it appeals to the physical, not the mental, side of one's make-up. I think that the Hollywood Bowl concerts each Saturday evening over KFI beat all the Jamborees and Happy Go Lucky hours together. They really stand for something and are not a passing fancy, a bauble to be played with, if you will.

And as for the proposal to put the Happy Go Lucky Hour on in the evening—heaven forbid! Aren't there enough Jamborees and Spotlight Revues on the air in the evenings without getting a further duplication? I certainly believe the Happy Go Lucky Hour performs a big service to the lonely housewife and shut-in in the afternoon. Leave well enough alone; don't ruin its service by transferring it from afternoon to evening.

KHJ and KFRC are to be commended on the many noteworthy concert programs that they produce every evening. I hope that they won't ruin that good record by going cheap—the way of least resistance.

In my opinion, practically all the stations in the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas have shown marked improvements in the last six months, excepting KTAB, KTM (this station has slipped quicker and farther than any other station recently), and KMCS; KTAB and KMCS because of mediocre programs; KTM because of objectionable ones.

All the rest have done more than their share to improve themselves.

Please don't change to hour listings. They are so inconvenient and awkward. The reason why I subscribed to your magazine was because of the far superior plan of station by station listings. They are easier to read, quicker to find, and better to look at. Why, any newspaper will give you the hour-by-hour listings. One takes a radio magazine to get superior service, not just a poor duplication. And, believe me, BROADCAST WEEKLY, as is, gives that superior service admirably; keep up the good work.

Let me also congratulate the producers of such interesting programs such as Memory Lane, Standard Symphony Hour, Sperry Smiles, Columbia Nit-Wits, and NBC's Matinee. And as for dance orchestras, I enjoy Rudy Vallee and the Camel Quarter Hour (Morton Downey and Tony Wons) the best. They're all excellent. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

David Brockton B., Pasadena, Calif., July 17

Likes the Pictures

I have been a reader of the BROADCAST WEEKLY for only nine months, but each week shows a decided improvement. The full picture idea went over with a loud bang, as it gives us a chance to see some of our radio friends.

KFRC is my favorite radio station and the Happy-Go-Lucky hour my favorite program.

Patsie G., Redwood City, July 10

Ebb and Zebb in Demand

May I suggest through your Open Circuit column that KFRC make a nightly feature of Ebb and Zebb. As it is now, they appear only on the Jamboree, and to me, and I believe to a great many others, they would be appreciated as a regular nightly feature. They are original and amusing which is a great deal more than can be said of some of the other teams now on the air.

Albert U., San Francisco, July 23.

Can't Praise "Broadcast" Enough

At last I have made up my mind to write and say how much I enjoy your magazine. I really can't praise it high enough.

If possible, I would like to see programs for the following stations KTAR, KLZ, KFPY, KFBK, KTM, and KMJ.

I am surprised at some people that write in and make a big fuss over some station that is not pleasing them, but they forget that they can turn it off if they want to. I believe that all artists try hard to please the public, or else they would not be on the air. We like all stations, but favor KGO, KPO, and KFRC, although other stations put on some good programs.

Wishing your magazine much success, I am,

Jack B. F., Oakland, Calif., July 16

We Sure Will

Just a word to say I have enjoyed your little book for a number of years and consider it the best radio magazine in circulation.

The editorials in the past few weeks have been exceptionally "meaty." I like Personal Pickups and in fact all the features. The new critic department is excellent.

Will you please ask Gypsy to give us information on the following artists: Lucy Day, Jack Meakin, Foster Cope, and Byron Mills?

Mrs. Alice P., Burlingame, July 14

Pearl King Tanner Fans, Get Busy

"Open Circuit" is a splendid name for this department, and I'd like to add "open mind," for its pages surely prove it worthy to be so called. Congratulations to you, Mr. Editor, for "your" open mindedness in giving to your readers such an opportunity to publicly express their preferences regarding radio programs and artists. Here's hoping it may have some beneficial effect upon the stations.

If this artist's club idea mentioned by some of the contributors to Open Circuit would give us the artists we prefer then we're for it a million, and in answer to A. F.'s letter here's another boost for Pearl King Tanner from those of us who like our plays real the same as we like our friends. Thank you, Mr. Editor, for letting me get that off my chest. There are singers as well as other actors whom we would like to mention under this heading, but we are following your lead, A. F., so go to it and more power to you.

Yours for wanting what we want
WHERE we want it.

A. J. F., Redwood City, July 18

Meeting the Artists

I was introduced to BROADCAST WEEKLY a few weeks ago, and I have since been a steady reader.

Besides enjoying the various excellent departments, I particularly like your practice of printing personals and biographies and of publishing photographs of the radio artists who expend their energy and exercise their talent to entertain us—and I am sure this feature is welcomed just as heartily by the fans as it is by the artists themselves. To be able to read about one's favorite artist and announcer, and to look at his or her picture is a pleasure that is enjoyed by every radio fan, and one which could be exceeded only by a personal introduction.

Wishing BROADCAST WEEKLY continued success, I am

SILHOUETTES

ANN LEAF, the busy little organist who for more than two years has broadcast her "Nocturne" programs daily over the Columbia, Don Lee System, who answers to "Mitey," "Little Organ Annie" and similar nicknames, made her first public appearance at the age of eleven.

ANN LEAF

After her graduation from High School in Omaha, she attended the Damrosch Institute of Musical Art in New York, and during the summer months she first acquainted herself with the pipe organ. Soon afterwards her family moved to Los Angeles, where she found a position on the console of a large motion picture theatre organ, and after a series of increasingly important engagements she went to New York and radio.

JANE GREEN, star of many revues and musical comedies, now scintillating before a KFRC microphone, came by her talent for entertainment honestly. It was right in the family. Her mother had played Topsy in Uncle Tom's Cabin hundreds of times. Her father was a musician. She had uncles in the circus business.

And so, little Jane wasn't compelled to blaze any new trails when she became interested in the show business in Los Angeles at the tender age of ten. Her home previous to that time had been Louisville, Kentucky.

During grammar and high school days Jane was active in musical and theatrical activities. After high school she walked into her first job, singing the popular songs of the day in a Los Angeles Cafe known as McKees. She smiles now when she confesses that she was only sixteen at the time.

It was experience she wanted and shortly after she tried out for the Orpheum circuit and was turned down. Right then and there Miss Jane Green decided she should headline over the Orpheum circuit before she was through, just to show them a thing or two. And Miss Jane Green did, for quite a few seasons, just that little thing. Determination is also one of her qualities.

While she was still at the Cafe, Irene Castle and Anna Held saw her there and persuaded her to go to New York. The war happened along and Jane played the army camps of the country from coast to coast. It was Leon Errol who recommended her personable talents to Mr. Zeigfeld who booked her for the Zeigfeld Roof where she played a solid year. From then on engagements came thick and fast. Here are just a few to give you an idea. With John Murray Anderson in "What's in a Name"; "On the Century Roof" with Eddie Cantor for three seasons; with Schubert's Bernard Collier Revue; at the Tent Cafe, in New York; headlined over Keith Orpheum for several seasons; played at the Kit Kat Club in London; was starred in the Greenwich Village Follies and was featured in several Cafes in New York, Miami and Los Angeles. Now she has settled down to the quiet life of the radio.

Speaking of settling down, she was playing a radio engagement some two years ago when a young gentleman by the name of Ron Wilson presented himself as her accompanist. Well, to phrase it in the rustic manner, the upshot of the whole affair was they got married soon after. Mr. Wilson, in addition to being a piano player, is also an aviator which has earned him the title of the flying piano player.

She is just a little thing, five feet three inches tall (including French heels) and weighs in the vicinity of 118 pounds. Her eyes are brown, her hair reddish blonde.

She likes to be active. Golf she is fond of and swimming, also horseback riding. She has driven her own car for the past ten years. Now she is going in for aviation and the next thing we expect to hear is that she is commuting between San Francisco and Los Angeles for her programs on KFRC. The two weekly affairs in which she is featured are the Golden State Blue Monday Jamboree and the Thursday night Manhattan Reflections.

SOMETHING like twenty years ago there existed in the city of San Jose, California, an institution owned and operated by two brothers in their early teens which might be described as the Pearce Brothers Milk Distributing System.

The two brothers were Al and Cal Pearce, now associated with KFRC and the Don Lee Broadcasting System.

But wait a minute—there was a Happy-Go-Lucky element tied in with that earlier system. The boys were on their way through the local grammar and high schools and they built up a milk route working before and after school. There wasn't a great deal of time for sleep and meals. Al didn't fully realize that. He carried a banjo with him and many is the time Cal had to go out and remind him that business came first. He would be found entertaining a crowd some place with songs and banjo selections while frantic customers telephoned demanding their milk. That was really the beginning of the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour over KFRC and the Don Lee Coast Network.

When Al was ten and Cal a couple of years older the boys put on an act at the old Redman Theatre in San Jose, doing harmony numbers. That was their first public appearance with the commercial element involved. A very small amount of money changed hands, however—perhaps it shouldn't have been mentioned.

In high school, theatricals intrigued the hard working, melody loving brothers and they sang in the "Mikado." Al was Nankipoo. The parents of the students taking part agreed that it was the greatest production of the Mikado ever presented.

They sang in a church choir and were one-half of the San Jose High School quartet which was awarded a national prize at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and doubtless would have won the international prize had there been one in stock. Since then they have sung with the San Francisco Real Estate Glee Club and the Olympic Club. Before going ing in whole-heartedly for radio, however, they passed through a stage selling real estate.

Al is very fond of swimming and wooing the beneficent rays old old man sunshine. Cal's favorite sport is golf, and a row of cups at home testify to his skill.

PALE words fail in any attempt to silhouette Marian Boyle, popular pianist of KHQ in Spokane. Black and white can never do more than to faintly shadow her vivid personality. Her charm has the indescribable freshness of youth, of an abounding vitality and of a ready wit.

Marian was born a few years ago . . . oh maybe eighteen or twenty . . . in Vancouver, British Columbia. She was born with a heritage of big grey Irish eyes, softly waving brown hair, a ready smile and an unusually keen appreciation of good music. All of these qualities she still has . . . and how.

MARIAN BOYLE

She likes to swim, to motor, to dance. She plays a fair game of golf, but she has found that her early morning class to perfect her French, and her daytime and evening activities at the Studio interfere with making much real progress in the game at present. She plays piano solos of the finer type beautifully, plays popular numbers in duo arrangements with Norman Thue, conducts a Dinner Hour Quartette at the Davenport Hotel and the KHQ String Trio. She is considered a very sympathetic accompanist. Her favorite composer is Liszt. Her favorite reading, she says, is found in the upper reaches of a speedometer, but so far she has not collected much evidence in proof of this. Of course, her youth is in her favor . . . Though born in Canada, the family home was moved to Seattle while Marian was still quite small. She followed the customary little girl pursuits, and began the study of piano. She attended Holy Names Academy, and after finishing there, enrolled in the Cornish School of Music to continue her preparations for a "career."

It was after she had finished the regular course, and while she was there doing some Post Graduate work, that she was sent one day to answer a call for a pianist who could measure up to some very rigid requirements. Marian went, she measured up, she was accepted. Well, . . . to make a short story shorter, the engagement was as Staff Pianist at KHQ in Spokane, so Marian moved to Spokane. That was about two years ago, and there in Spokane, she is still living happily to this day.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Rudy Vallee, popular NBC orchestra leader and vocalist, and Fay Webb were married in West Orange, New Jersey, Monday, July 6. Judge Herbert Lighthipe performed the ceremony. The bride is from California, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Webb of Santa Monica. Webb is chief of police of that community. Vallee met his bride when he was making his picture, "The Vagabond Lover," in Hollywood two years ago. They are now at home in Vallee's new apartment at 55 Central Park West, New York City.

• • • Dale Wimbrow, CBS Dixie Troubadour, once thought that his family name was easily understandable when pronounced over the air, but he's beginning to change his mind. During the last few weeks he has received fan letters addressed to Dale Winslow, Wimplough, Window, Windrow, Woodrow, Wimpo, Rimbo, and dozens of other variations, some of them far from his real name.

• • • Listeners to recent episodes of Frank Watanabe and the Honorable Archie series at KNX, Hollywood, may have noted that the Honorable Archie apparently goes in extensively for horseback riding. As a matter of fact, the Honorable Archie, otherwise Reginald Sharland, noted moving picture star, is an ardent polo player, and every spare moment of his time is spent playing this arduous game.

• • • Tom Terriss, the Vagabond director heard every Monday night over KFVB, is English born, attended college at Christchurch, Oxford, and went around the world twice before he was twenty-one.

• • • An ordinary steel nail puller No. 13 is the latest acquisition to melody instruments which Sam Moore, "Sambo," of "Sambo and Ed," KPO's beloved vagabonds of the air, has added to his store of strange and unique music producers. Sambo has figured out a way to blow into the hole near the top in the manner of playing a flute and sliding the steel bar back and forth so that the plunger inside the hollow handle changes the space and the note and in Spanish numbers uses the nail claws at the end as "castanets." Extremely novel is not the explanation—it is amazing.

• • • Nora Schiller, heard on the KFRC Golden State Blue Monday Jamboree lately, is a Los Angeles girl. This is her first radio engagement. She has been doing a singing and dancing act in vaudeville for some time and has also made a number of shorts in Hollywood. Paul Ash featured her in his revues in Chicago.

• • • Reverse English was on the hearty chuckle which members of the planning board at KOA received recently at the expense of F. A. Anderson, who directs the Colorado Agricultural College broadcasts.

Music for future aggie programs was being discussed. "If we want something really different," suggested Freeman H. Talbot, KOA manager, who likes a joke even on himself, "we might have Mr. Anderson sing."

And that brought a chuckle to the board members, who for six years had intimately known the aggie pedagogue only as an expert on hog raising and chicken cholera and such things.

"Well," said Anderson slowly, "I might sing some of the things I did as soloist for several seasons with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra." And to heap more coals of fire, he disclosed that he had been a church soloist for many years and that only his consuming ambition to become a teacher had made him turn down attractive offers to go on the stage!

• • • James Mathew "Jimmie" Lyons, KPO's general office man, recently demonstrated that he can swing a mean "niblick" when he defeated a brilliant array of golfers in a contest held by Hale Brothers' employees. Jimmie putted and drove his way to win over such contenders as Homer Smith, last year's winner of the radio tournament in which NBC, KPO and KGO stars competed. Jimmie finished a bang-up second to Charles Bent, although he himself was "bent" on winning.

• • • Jack Joy, production manager of KFVB, has decided that a coat of tan would assist in his work, so he spends three afternoons at the beach, acquiring color and no doubt getting inspiration for his "Four Moods" program from long inward communings, while lying in the sun.

• • • Auntie McKasser (KHJ), the old and sturdy pal, the love-seared, noble soul who makes the world a better place each week with helpful hints and heart administrations for her little housewives, is none other and not only the versatile Elvia Allman. The stuff is written by Dick Creedon, a retired farmer. Several weeks ago a gentleman of the old school complained that Auntie was not the sort of female he wished his children to associate with. Consequently Auntie is given a bath and careful scrutiny now before being given the privilege of the microphone. It's very trying for the old gal, but all in the interests of democracy.

• • • Max Peacock, KROW's jovial and rotund young announcer, will join the ranks of Oakland benedicts shortly. He is to be married August 10 to Wanda Nelson at the First Presbyterian Church in Oakland. Miss Nelson heard Max's voice on the air, admired his air personality, met him through friends, and they shortly became engaged. The young couple will motor through Southern California on their honeymoon.

• • • Caltana Christoph is said to have one of the most unusual names in radio—or any place else, for that matter. Her mother was determined to get her an unusual name and used two states for sources, California and Montana, the first and last syllables respectively. Miss Christoph was born in Montana while her sisters had first seen the light in California. The reason for the choice of such an unusual name was the fact that Caltana was born on Friday, the 13th.

• • • "Exceptionally strong signals of excellent modulation" were received in Germany from W2XAF, Schenectady, during the short-wave broadcast of the Schmeling-Stribling title fight. The report, which was given in German from the ringside in Cleveland, was relayed to all stations of the Reichs Rundfunk Gesellschaft, which cooperated with NBC in the transatlantic program. Innumerable fans in the Fatherland were rewarded for an all-night vigil by hearing at dawn that Max had established himself as a great champion.

• • • When Irene Beasley, then a "schoolmarm" in a small town in Mississippi, first sang on the radio it was to help exploit a song she had written herself. And it was Art Gillham, then of Memphis, who introduced her to the microphone and taught her to overcome the stage fright which had formerly kept her from singing in public. She never saw Gillham again until he came to WABC to sing several months ago. Incidentally it was Dale Wimbrow, then the only Southerner at WABC, who secured Irene a Columbia audition two years ago. Now the roster of WABC's artists from Dixie has swelled considerably, with such representatives as Miss Beasley, Wimbrow, the three Boswell sisters—Connie, Martha, and Vet—Announcer Louis Dean and Kate Smith, "Songbird of the South."

• • • What he declares to have been one of the most wonderful orchestras he has ever directed is described by Emil Hilb, guest orchestra director of KNX, Hollywood, was a 65-piece symphony made up of German prisoners during the war.

Hilb himself was captured by the British and for two years was in a prison camp where he selected from his 72,000 fellow prisoners, this unusual orchestra. For two years Hilb was personal orchestra director to the Crown Prince of Germany.

• • • Eva De Vol, KPO's stellar coloratura soprano, has returned to the KPO microphone after a two weeks vacation period on the Russian River. The silver-voiced diminutive star, by the excellence of her singing, has demonstrated that a two-weeks' outing in the California sunshine does much to add its golden quality to performance.

• • • Giuseppe Creatore, "Svengali of the Baton," will direct his orchestra, including the famous saxophone octet, in a series of six concerts during the Interwoven program starting July 24. During this period Billy Jones and Ernie Hare will be on their annual vacation. The Interwoven Pair will resume their Friday evening offerings of tunes and tomfoolery on September 4.

You ought to go and compare, for example, the Parker Guaranteed for Life Duofold at $5 with guaranteed pens of other makes at $7.50, and even $8.25. Some are not within 22% of Parker's ink capacity, some not within 69%.

If Parker at only $5 surpasses pens priced 50% higher, isn't it mighty good proof that in pens at $10 the Parker Duofold De Luxe is a much finer instrument than others can afford to offer?

You won't find another at any price with Parker's Miracle Duofold Point that writes with Pressureless Touch—as easily as you breathe.

There isn't another with Parker's Adjustable Clip that lets the pen rest low and unexposed. Not another pen or pencil with Parker's Streamlined style—"America's shapeliest"—non-bulging and balanced. Not another with Parker's Invisible Filler—or Parker's range of jewel-like color effects.

Go and compare at the nearest pen counter. See how Parker gives your dollars their old-time buying power.

"Drive smoothly along with a beautiful song"

CRITIQUE OF THE WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

C ECIL AND SALLY, in the "Comic Strip of the Air," are just that to me. The episodes move slowly but definitely. I'm for 'em all the way. They're entertaining and wholesome. Amusing and natural. 'Nother thing—they display good sense in augmenting the cast when the script calls for other characters. Too many teams come out disastrously because Ole Man Ego prompts 'em to camouflaging.

* * *

I could stand more dramas from the pen of Keltner Williamson. His "Jungle" and "Two A. M.," recently presented over NBC, were knockouts. Talk about mental stimulus! I got so excited listening to that "over the top" thing that I all but chewed up my pipe. And the girl friend just about fainted. Man, she was sweet! That Hodgins chap who directs the players is no slouch, either. He pulls every ounce of acting ability out of his bunch every minute of the time they're on the air. My compliments, gentlemen!

* * *

I wish somebody'd tell me if the readers on the Pacific Feature Hour in the broadcast which originated at KFI, July 18, were high school kids or regulars. 'Course if they were untrained kids they could be forgiven.

* * *

Directors oughta go easy on English dramas. Or—if they've just gotta put 'em on, discretion should be shown in selecting the players. Only one actor in several hundred knows an authentic English accent.

* * *

I wax poetic when the Savino Tone Pictures float in. Like to close my eyes and visualize an enormous iridescent web in the process of being spun by a fantastic, unreal spider with a magic wand. The treble voices are so exquisitely intermingled with the violins, the deep voices with the cellos, I am lost in a maze of harmonious color, with senses drugged as by overpowering tube roses . . . sublimely unconscious of beginnings and endings, tomorrows and yesterdays. If your mood is suicidal and you feel the need of etheralism, tune in this broadcast some evening and drink, old pal, drink. It may leave you exhausted or refreshed, whatever the state of your constitution, but I assure you, brother, there's no headache after. CBS attraction.

* * *

Art Lindsay is doing double duty these days over KPO. Announcing and singing. He has a pleasing voice either way. Wide range with smooth persuasiveness. Gives a neat intimate touch. After all, most of us listen in at home, and it's comfortable not to be shouted at.

* * *

A CBS feature of interest is "Arabesque," a fascinating desert play. It is excellently cast and has a fine coating of sophistication running through the lines. Carries a load of romance. Feel like I've been to a modern movie holding hands with Amelia (the girl friend) after each chapter.

* * *

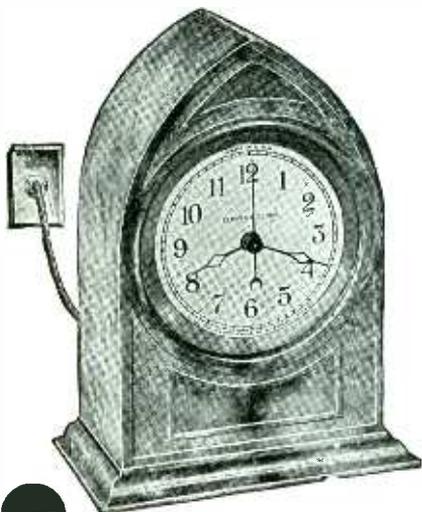

Dixie Dinah at KFRC has a pleasing voice, but her continuity is too doggy for the type of performance she offers. Minus the artificial words plus a dialect, she'd go a lot bigger.

* * *

The Spotlight Revue on Saturday nights, coming over NBC, is as nearly perfect as an hour and a half show can be. Music, drama, nonsense. Something for everybody. The high lights to me are the school scene, Jack and Ethyl, and the Walter Beban sketches. Professor Knicklebine and his scholars behave as though they were having the time of their lives. Jack and Ethyl furnish a serious but always exciting interval. Kinda wish they were doing the glamorous plays as in former days . . . never will forget Miss Berwin's beautiful work in Lola Montez. . . . but naturally I realize the more ambitious dramas would be impractical with their time cut in two. And now a hand for Beban. The boy is keen. Knows his stuff from the inside out. Manages to inject a prevailing news item or suggestion without leaving a bad taste in the mouth. An' that's somethin'!

Survey shows preference for dance music. Poland discards radio tax, adopts American commercial system.

"ON with the dance" say Philadelphia radio fans in a recent survey conducted by Mr. Herman S. Hettinger of the University of Pennsylvania covering 2,250 radio-owning families representing a very carefully selected cross-section of that city. A very intensive study of the radio habits of these families was made for the purpose of ascertaining the relation of individual musical preference to the listener's age and economical status. What must have been Mr. Hettinger's embarrassment to discover that a chosen audience of the cultured East but a few miles from those famous centers of learning, where Princeton and Harvard radiate their erudite effulgence, should be so careless as to openly admit a preference for just ordinary jazz. Whether Western taste has so far strayed from the paths blazed by the immortal composers no survey has yet shown. Perhaps, where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise, academic ambitions to the contrary notwithstanding.

The surest, most practical way to record a preference for any program is to purchase the merchandise of the advertiser sponsoring the program. Most important, such an expression of approval has the additional advantage of helping pay for the program and making its continuance possible. And don't forget to tell the merchant you heard it advertised over the radio.

Emulation is the most convincing form of flattery. None other than Poland, that country of dramatic history and musical genius which gave the world its one and only Paderewski, is reported to be adopting the American plan of commercial broadcasting. The present Polish system is operated by a private concessionaire of the government, for the support of which each radio owner is taxed $3.66 per set. But Dr. Sigismund Chamiec, director of the system, "Polskie Radjo," after an extended sojourn in this country observing the commercial American system, finds programs so much better here that he has decided to try the advertising plan in Poland. As this is being written, two United States Senators, the President of a great mid-western University, the Governor of that state, and three world-famous musicians are on the air in a single half-hour program. No wonder Dr. Sigismund was impressed. Maybe some day even proud and phlegmatic John Bull will get wise—who knows.

Next time you sign your name to a letter, remember that is practically all that leading radio advertisers are doing today when they announce their name and product in connection with a fine program. Certainly enterprises voluntarily expending fifty million dollars annually for your enjoyment are entitled to add their signature. And if you like these programs, surely the least you can do is to ask for that brand when you purchase merchandise of that class. Patronize deserving radio advertisers.

THE network rivalry that has existed for many months between Morton Downey, Columbia Broadcasting System star, and “Amos ‘n’ Andy,” blackface comedians, was ended recently when Morton Downey signed a contract calling for his exclusive services on a nightly commercial hour. Showing that the rivalry was entirely a friendly one, the trio posed for this picture when they met for the first time at a New York hotel the other day. Left to right are Freeman Gosden (Amos), Morton Downey, and Charles J. Correll (Andy).

9—Stranger than Fiction, dramatic sketch: KGO, KOA
"The God of the Mountains" is the title of the Stranger Than Fiction play tonight
Based on actual facts, the play is from the joint pens of Leonard Reeg and Frank O'Neill. The scene of the drama is set in a certain community in the mountain country, where great excitement has been raging for weeks.
The cause of the commotion can be traced to the construction of a huge dam to store the waters of Echo Lake at the foot of Thunder Mountain, in an effort to create electricity for the district's needs.
Olive West has the main role in the character of Grandma Woods, who faces dispossession from her home which is built on the shores of Lake Echo. Barbara Joe Allen will have the role of Wanda, her granddaughter. Selvy Roach will be Uncle Matt, and Carlton Young the young engineer, Jim Carter.
Minor characterizations, Clark and a workman, will be portrayed by Henry Shumer and George Rand.

HOWARD

With 2 PENTODES and
3 VARIABLE MU Tubes

OUT of years of experience in producing only the best in radio, HOWARD today crowns its long list of achievements with an instrument—marvelously new—entirely original and unduplicated in the slightest degree. This new HOWARD Super-Heterodyne has a musical range which extends to the far corners of "the full keyboard of sound." Music lovers can now have radio music of "mirror like" faithfulness. Under the shadows of a group of high powered radio stations the new HOWARD can easily handle a signal four times that which could be handled formerly without distortion.

The New

As is expected in every new HOWARD product—this receiver employs the latest development in the art of tube building—the PENTODE and the VARIABLE MU tubes. All modern receivers must be equipped with these two new types of tubes! . . .

"Handling Husbands," an amusing radio play by Grace Z. Brown, of a husband with a fondness for poker, is the NBC drama hour offering tonight.

Michael Raffetto will play the amusing part of William Pratt, a great poker player and, according to his story, "always a winner"; Barbara Jo Allen will be Linda Pratt, the wife who undertakes to show her husband what a fool he is to throw his money away on cards; Henry Shumer will portray the role of Tim Brooks, who at a quiet evening at home with the Pratts spills the beans about "Bill's" card playing; Helen Muselman will have the part of Rene Roberts, a girl friend.

How the wife turns a trick on her husband which finally cures him of his gambling instincts is told.

Jack and Ethyl will play all of the roles in their new vehicle, one of a number of entertaining features to be heard on the Associated Spotlight Revue tonight.

Written by Carlton E. Morse, tonight's Jack and Ethyl episode relates the experiences of the Associated pair on the edge of San Francisco's Chinatown. The story tells of Peggy and Jim Porter, twins, who are on the Pacific Coast in search of their father, who disappeared after the war. They are following a six-year-old trail which they find exceedingly dim at times. Tonight they have trailed him to a print shop in San Francisco, and here they have another of their breath-taking experiences.

As the revue's master of ceremonies, Cecil Underwood, will be very much in evidence during the 90-minute show—the theme of which is "Farms." Those who will answer to the roll call include Bobbe Deane, Bernice Berwin, Harold Peary, Ted Maxwell, Irving Kennedy, Imelda Montagne, Annette Hastings, Marjorie Primley, Captain "Bill" Royle, Bennie Walker, Richard Le Grand, Harold Dana, Gwynn Jones, Leslie Brigham, and an orchestra led by Walter Beban.

"Way Down East," one of the most popular of the melodramas of the past, has received burlesque treatment at the hands of Walter Beban, and will be presented by members of the Spotlight cast as the concluding feature of the show. Beban will again be put on the "pan" when Underwood introduces the orchestra leader's latest dramatic effort as "another one of those atrocious Walter Beban farces."
