THE LEADING RADIO GUIDE OF THE PACIFIC COAST

Does 10 Years of Consistently Successful Radio Manufacture Mean Anything to You?

IT was just ten years ago that the first radio receiving set bearing the name "CROSLEY" made its appearance. Admittedly, in the light of present-day radio receiving sets, it was a crude thing. But, like the original carbon incandescent light of Edison's—like the cumbersome and ungainly original Ford—it was a pioneer.

Since that beginning, thousands of radio manufacturers and radio pioneers have come and gone. But—through all of the turmoil and vicissitudes—all of the struggle and strife—all of the ups and downs—which radio, as a new and then untried business has passed, Crosley has built and maintained a leadership among the few outstanding successes who have survived. This survival has been due to only one thing—the giving to the public of the utmost in radio for the least in money expended. "You're THERE with a Crosley" has become part of the national language. "Built as only Crosley can build them" is what folks look for today in the finest to be offered in radio receiving sets.

Crosley was also a pioneer in the development of straight line quality production methods which materially reduced the cost of manufacturing radio receiving sets—and these savings were passed on to your customers. Public approval of this policy has resulted in a constantly increasing demand for Crosley products, a demand which has made possible the building of the great new factories at Cincinnati and the finest of all broadcasting studio plants in America (the Nation's Station . . . WLW).

In the past, Crosley has proved that no manufacturer in the radio business can possibly approach the beauty of Crosley cabinets, the performance of Crosley sets, the tone of Crosley speakers, and many other features characteristic of Crosley radio receivers.

Now comes something entirely new—and Crosley would naturally be expected to accomplish it. The new Crosley sets set a mark at which all radio manufacturers will shoot. These days are price days—but price does not mean everything. What you get for your dollar means everything, provided the price is low. Crosley gives more for the dollar than any other radio manufacturer.

No radio manufacturer in America can undersell Crosley and deliver the same performance—the quality of reception—the same highly desirable cabinet beauty. Phone or write us TODAY. We will immediately demonstrate any of the New Crosley Models for you—then you'll know for yourself that they are the greatest radio value ever offered to the American public.

RADIO SET CENSUS DISAPPOINTING

FAR fewer radio receiving sets are in use in this country than has been estimated by even the most conservative interests, it is indicated by results of the count made by the United States Census Bureau in connection with its 1930 census of population.

Figures for the entire country are not yet available, but data so far compiled indicates that the total number of sets will probably be found not to reach 10,000,000, instead of the more than 15,000,000 receivers estimated by the industry and by the Department of Commerce from fragmentary surveys made from time to time.

The states for which data have so far been completed show approximately one-third of their families as possessing receiving sets, the figures covering thirty-three states and the District of Columbia, where 12,296,408 families reported 4,096,181 sets. The percentage of families owning sets ranged from 5.4 in Mississippi to 54.9 in Connecticut.

Among the fifteen states for which computations have not yet been completed are a number in which the proportion of set-owning families will be very high, among them California, Illinois, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island, but it is not anticipated that these states will be able to do more than to bring the total of sets for the country to the 10,000,000 mark.

It is believed by the radio industry that the number of set owners has increased tremendously since the census was taken, more than fifteen months ago, but it is admitted by even the most optimistic that a new count today would not give the total of 15,000,000 which was so generally believed more than a year ago would be found by the Census Bureau.

There is, however, a bright side to the picture. With but little more than one-third of the country's families owning receiving sets, there is a tremendous field for sales in future years. With the definite knowledge of conditions gained by the census and the use of production figures in the future, the industry at all times will know just how close to the mythical "saturation" point it is approaching and will be able to plan accordingly.

Plans are already being made to take advantage of the Census Bureau's work. Production of sets to invade markets as yet little exploited has passed the blueprint stage with a number of manufacturers, and the near future will see sets for homes now equipped with electricity, using new tubes which take but little current and powered by batteries capable of operating six months without recharging; new types of electric sets to meet varying grades of income, and other developments required to satisfy the needs of consumers which are not met by the equipment now on the market.

HAWAII GREETS HAPPYTIMERS

Captain Dobbsie Captures Hawaii

CAPTAIN DOBBSIE and his Shell Happytimers, whose Shell Ship of Joy cruises have brought pleasure to hundreds of thousands of mainland fans, surpassed all previous records and earned lasting recognition as radio's ambassadors of good will and wholesome entertainment on the Shell Happytime cruise to Hawaii.

Hailed as stellar entertainers upon their arrival in Honolulu, the famous Shell group had lost all other identity and were regarded as the Pacific Coast's emissaries of friendship to the Islands when Hawaii finally said "Aloha."

"Its value to the Islands can not be computed," said the Honolulu Advertiser, in commenting editorially upon the Ship of Joy's visit. And the value of the cruise to the sponsors is similarly beyond figurative estimation, in the opinion of E. H. Sanders, Shell's advertising and sales promotion manager. "We are more than gratified in the knowledge that the project was successful far beyond our expectations, and that it was regarded as we had intended—as a gesture of friendliness and fellowship to the people of the Islands," Mr. Sanders said. "The new and closer relationships established by this experiment are, to my mind, striking evidences of how big a part international radio broadcasts will soon come to play in coordinating the personal interests of people throughout the civilized world."

Enthused over the programs emanating from the Malolo's studio during the voyage from the mainland, Hawaii's welcome upon the arrival of the Shell Ship of Joy was a joyous one. Greeted by girls of the Royal Hawaiian Glee Club, Mayor Fred Wright of Honolulu, and other prominent residents, including Duke Kahanamoku, internationally known swimming star, the Happytimers were started on an eventful two and one-half day fete. "And not one dull moment," Captain Dobbsie declares.

After an ear-splitting ovation at the dock, the Happytimers were loaded in open automobiles and, escorted by motorcycle police, were taken to Iolani palace, where they were greeted by Governor Lawrence M. Judd.

Thereafter their visit was one crowded series of receptions, celebrations, and spontaneous radio broadcasts. Thursday noon the Happytimers were guests of the Chamber of Commerce, where the entertainment and welcoming proceedings were broadcast from a remote control station established by KGU. Another program from KGU preceded a sight-seeing tour of the city. The Ship of Joy's crew then visited the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children. A swim at Waikiki, dinner at the Royal Hawaiian, and an entertainment by Island singers and instrumentalists, also broadcast by KGU, climaxed the eventful day of arrival.

Friday's big feature was the evening broadcast to the coast, an "All Hawaii" broadcast during which the Happytimers and Island officials told the world about Hawaii over the NBC network which picked up the broadcast from the gardens of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Between scheduled and special broadcasts Friday, the entire cast had again enjoyed the hospitality of their Island fans on a sight-seeing tour. They sailed at noon Saturday after broadcasting the regular Shell Happytime and a special morning Island program from KGU. The sailing was one of the most colorful ever witnessed, Hawaiian residents declared. Thousands of residents, headed by city and Territory officials, bid the Malolo farewell.

The broadcasts from the Malolo en route to Hawaii and on the return trip to Los Angeles were highly successful from a technical standpoint, due to the untiring efforts of the NBC and RCA engineers. The broadcasts on the return voyage were even better than those on the outgoing trip, due to the correction of minor technical "bugs" by Joseph Baker, NBC engineer in charge on the Malolo and the NBC San Francisco headquarters engineering staff.

James Dole, Hawaiian pineapple king; Frank Atherton, Hawaiian financier, and numerous other men famed in the business and professional world made up a "billion dollar radio chorus," heard frequently during the trip to the Islands. Captain Charles A. Berndtson of the Malolo, who also took part in several broadcasts, proved to be a radio personality in his own right.

From every angle, the Malolo Happytime cruise was eminently successful. Our editorial hats are off to Mr. Sanders, who conceived the idea, and to Captain Dobbsie, who so ably directed its execution.

More Drama from KFRC

I enjoy the letters in the "Open Circuit" very much, and I also enjoy the little side-lights on radio that are printed in Gypsy's column and by the Dyal Turner.

I am glad to see other people like drama on the air, because that is what I like the best. I would never miss hearing Memory Lane, and I am beginning to look upon Captain Post as one of the family.

I think the "Stranger Than Fiction" stories are very interesting and enjoyable, and my family firmly believes that the man who plays Colonel Andrews must write the stories, or else he could not be so good.

Then too the "Happy Go Lucky" Hour is so cheerful I wish it could be broadcast at night during the dinner hour. I am sure many of your other readers must feel the same way. And why doesn't KFRC give us more drama? We enjoyed the Emperor of the World so much.

Best wishes to your magazine. Keep up the good work.

Likes the KYA Organ Recitals

It is not my practice to write radio fan or boost letters, but articles which have appeared in two recent numbers of your valuable radio guide relative to certain programs and types of programs move me to add some word of appreciation of my own.

As the owner of a radio set, as a teacher in the San Francisco public school system, and as one who must do his "listening in" during the evening hours, particularly the later evening hours, I am profoundly grateful for the few available really worthwhile programs that have come to us over local stations during that portion of the day.

Particularly fine are the organ recitals and a few of the orchestral programs and string ensemble offerings. Ninety per cent of the rest of the broadcasts of the evening hours are so trashy, or appeal to so low a standard of appreciation, that one is constrained to ponder with some degree of alarm the tendencies of our present-day likes and dislikes, if radio stations feel compelled to continue such programs in order to gratify popular demand.

I noted, with particular interest, the comment made by one of your correspondents on the organ recitals offered by Miss Dollo Sargent over station KYA. In my opinion there is no organist broadcasting who brings finer artistry to organ interpretations or who puts more of heart and soul into the music of this mighty instrument than does Miss Sargent. She is unquestionably the finest artist on the staff of this station, and outside of the excellent commentary of John D. Barry, her contribution to the evening program is the only truly outstanding offering which station KYA presents.

Congratulations on your excellent service to radioland.

Edward W. L., San Francisco, July 23.

Phonographs and Lemonade

What a great laugh I got out of "L. A.'s" letter from Watsonville, preferring the phonograph to radio!

The party objects to advertising! I also can imagine the attitude that would be taken if asked to pay a tax for the entertainment so freely given! Also, I certainly would grasp the opportunity to own the original Mona Lisa, if it did have across it the stamp, "Watch your Adam's apple"! I could sensibly see beyond the writing into the beauty of the artists' work.

I find the higher the type of program, the less advertising. They realize that people that appreciate this sort of entertainment are intelligent enough to understand the reason of the sponsor's efforts to please us. To return the compliment, can't we purchase their wares when needed. This sort of thing will bring still better programs to you.

What joy to hear nationally and internationally famous people come into the privacy of my home at no cost whatever! What a small fee to pay for the enjoyment derived—to hear what the sponsor has to offer.

"L. A." says his tubes are getting more and more rest. Maybe they are ready to lie down and die—why not try buying a new set with the soft low tones and realize the true beauty of the program offered? What a difference.

"L. A." knows where to find the weather report, but otherwise uses the phonograph. What a cramped world to live in. Broaden out, brother, even if they tell you how to wash your hair and protect it. After all, isn't that desirable information?

In closing, when you roll your rugs, as you say, and play the phonograph for dancing, I must say your parties can't be so "hot" when there are seven or ten perfectly good night club orchestras on the air waiting to enter your home. But, probably you serve lemonade at your parties!

Thomas G. J., San Francisco, July 24

Short but Sweet

In looking over the Open Circuit letters of this week I see one signed "Wanda G. B.," and I heartily endorse her letter in every respect. Her choice of artists suits me fine. I bought my radio December 25, 1925, and am still using it, and on the same day subscribed to BROADCAST WEEKLY and have never been without it; could not do without it. I cannot mention any special department, for I like every one the best.

'Nuf Said

When I read Dyal Turner's Critique of the Week, I could have wrung his neck to think he could say Al Pearce and the Happy Go Lucky Hour are no good. Why, the Happy Go Lucky Hour is the best on the air and Al is one of the best announcers.

Tommy Harris is my favorite. He surely hits the right spot when he starts reciting through his songs. Norman Neilson and Ray Hendricks have splendid voices. George Taylor's "On With the Show" is also good. Sorry George, but nothing is quite as good as the Happy Go Lucky Hour.

Concerning jazz and classics: I for one like jazz far better than classics, though the latter may be the best music. The old folks might enjoy classics, but not the younger generation, together with a large number of the elder people.

Why isn't Hazel Warner on the Jamboree? She beats Jane Green a couple of miles.

Gerda Lundberg on Station KTAB is losing her popularity by singing only "kid-die" songs. She has a beautiful voice when she sings popular tunes. I prefer Cecil and Sally to Amos 'n' Andy. Well, I think I have said enough in this letter, which I hope to see in print. I will close, wishing you continued success.

What's Become of the Artist Club Idea?

From the looks of things the Artist Club idea didn't go over. I was keen for it. In fact, I thought the idea had some wonderful possibilities. From the artist's standpoint it had still greater possibilities. I'm surprised that some of them didn't realize the prestige to be gotten from such a stunt. Maybe it's not too late—I would like to hear from others.

SILHOUETTES

GLEN ELLISON has been successful in more lines of artistic endeavor than is usual for one man. Born on the Highlands of Scotland, with the real Celtic temperament. He showed at an early age marked musical ability and won a diploma for musical proficiency at the age of twelve.

GLEN ELLISON

After school days he tried a business position, but as he says, his pockets were filled more with musical literature than price lists, and soon a musical career won him over and he went to the Royal Academy of Music in London as a student for five years under the Welsh singer, D. Frangcon Davis. While there he won many prizes, scholarships and medals for singing, opera, and drama. In drama he played leading rôles in a few of Bernard Shaw's plays, as well as musical parts.

His next step was grand opera in Australia when he played leading rôles in "Faust," "Il Trovatore," "Lily of Killarney," "Bells of Normandy," and other old English operas.

Then came an American trip, after which he settled in New York and became one of the leading Edison recording artists and made over forty Scotch records. Mr. Edison once remarked that Mr. Ellison had the finest recording voice of any of his artists and all his records had larger sales as a rule than any of the Edison artists.

Mr. Ellison is well known to American audiences through his many tours in vaudeville on the Keith-Orpheum circuit, where he did a single and won his way finally to electric lights on Broadway, New York.

The baritone was a great friend of Elbert Hubbard and has in his possession a copy of Hubbard's "A Message to Garcia," on which the author wrote, "To Glen Ellison, a great artist, and better, a big man," with love and blessing. Elbert Hubbard."

In appearance Mr. Ellison is about average height, with broad, heavy shoulders, and believing the reputation of Scotchmen. He has a smile that is winning and ever present.

WALES, the land of coal miners and music, was the birthplace of Gwynfi Jones, NBC tenor. Gwynfi and his nine brothers early learned to wield a pick in the mines like their father and, like him, to sing. At the age of eight young Gwynfi played the drum and fife in a Treherbert band, and studied the piano.

To be the best singer in such a musical family as his was no small achievement, and the entire community watched the development of the gifted boy. He tried out for the County Council scholarship which would have given him the training he felt he required before he could try to make the family fortune out of his voice. He planned to study at the London Conservatory of Music if he won, and his heart was set on victory. His dreams were rudely shattered when the judges gave the coveted scholarship to a girl.

Later, however, he was enabled to study at the London Conservatory, where he received a certificate as an instrumentalist as well as a vocal artist. His ability as a pianist has attracted much attention, and he is an excellent performer on the Flugel horn, an instrument seldom heard in this country. He made several tours in England as Flugelist with brass bands.

In 1924 a friend who had come to California made a thousand dollars in a real estate deal and advanced the sum to Gwynfi, enabling him to bring his family to California. The courageous young Welshman arrived with only his two hands and his golden Welsh voice as assets. For some time the hands had to support the voice, as he worked in a construction plant until his voice gained him engagements, and radio opened an avenue to him.

Besides singing in many NBC programs now, Jones is heard at San Francisco and transbay churches, and occasionally in recital. His numbers mostly are semi-classics, though he interprets rôles in studio operas and is heard occasionally in the lovely folk songs of his native Wales.

GWYNFI JONES

IF THE bold, bad Earls of Desmond whose history is so bound up with that of the famous days in which they lived and helped to rule England, could see what their little girl Dorothy is doing these days, they'd be surprised.

The slender, charming girl who is the descendant of one of the oldest families of Europe, is an exponent of one of the newest arts—radio acting. NBC audiences are familiar with her voice in many of the dramas presented in the San Francisco studios of the National Broadcasting Company.

Dorothy Desmond has a famous ancestry on both sides of her family. Her mother was a Wells, of the family which helped to found the Wells-Fargo Bank, and her father was related to the Choates and Coolidges of New England.

In spite of all this dignified heritage, Dorothy's greatest ambition in life, when she was a little girl, was to be a dancer. In St. Louis, where her father was a manufacturing chemist, she began her dancing studies, continuing them in California when her family moved here. There followed a course with the Pavley-Oukrainsky School in Chicago, and the two famous dancers offered her a world tour with them.

Dorothy had had some experience in acting and when she was offered a stage contract at the same time as the dance offer came, she accepted the former, because it gave her the part of Rosalind in "As You Like It." Following that engagement she was associated with Gregory Kelly and Madge Kennedy in "Badges."

A master scholarship in dramatics, with instructor rating, was offered by a large conservatory in New York. Dorothy won it and held the post for a year. On her return to California, she was included in the Fulton Theatre cast for three years. One more trip to New York brought her the leading roles in a stock company on the edge of New York City. The stock company expired, but Dorothy stepped into the principal feminine part of "Skidding" at the Nora Bayes Theatre.

She and Tom Kelly met and a swift romance blossomed. In proof of the latter, there are two pretty Kelly babies in a big house in Berkeley.

DOROTHY DESMOND

IT WAS Mr. Allen's dream that his little daughter Eleanor should one day grow up and become a famous violinist. To that end he gave her the best instruction that the home town, Livingstone, Montana, boasted and took her on trips to Chicago to hear the famous violinists play, including Maude Powell.

Other forces got in their deadly work, however. Eleanor, for some strange reason or other, had a dream of her own. She wanted to be an organist. When she attended Oberlin Conservatory of Music in Oberlin, Ohio, for four years she concentrated her attention upon the organ and piano, and let her violin training slide. Papa reconciled himself to the switch in instruments, content that she remain musically ambitious.

ELEANOR ALLEN

Eleanor Allen was the guiding musical light of her little home town, Livingstone, Montana, that lies at the entrance of Yellowstone Park. While in high school she did all the accompanying for everybody in town, nobly doing her duty by all the gals who wrestled with "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," "Perfect Day," "Little Pink Rose" and the rest of them. She was the organist (on the little reed organ) in her church. And she also, to the great delight of her school-mates, dispensed quantities of what was called "rag-time" at the parties, both formal and informal. Quite a local scandal was caused when they prevailed upon her to substitute some rag-time for her classical number at a recital which featured her. The last minute change found her auditors very much unprepared.

After college the family moved to St. Paul, and Eleanor taught at McPhail's School of Music for one year. Then she returned to her native state to play the organ in Helena's leading movie palace. From there she crashed the gates of vaudeville.

But Eleanor wasn't satisfied with traveling about the country. She wanted to work on Broadway. So she went to the manager of Loew's State Theatre and asked him for the organist's job. She has been wondering ever since what moved him to give it to her. She was the first woman organist at that theatre. She remained there for about three years and returned to New York. She came to San Francisco direct from her New York engagement and has been staff organist on KFRC since her arrival.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Sound effects by Forsythe, means the KHJ Merry-makers and a laugh. Forsythe is a nut and a musician. He is nuts over sound effects and always has been. He has over 500 sound effects under patent and his barn is a most curious and interesting laboratory. Some $20,000 worth of insurance is placed on these noise making gadgets. When the motion picture industry is stumped for the right noise at the right time, it stands with hat in hand at Charley's door. The Honorable Forsythe is also Detective Blue in the coastwide comedy skit series, Black and Blue.

• • • Douglas Gilbert, who beards industrial giants in their secretary-guarded offices and tells their story on the Fortune Builders program, broadcast over a nationwide Columbia network, knows at least as many of the nation's business leaders as any interviewer today. One story he hasn't told over the air concerns John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who had consented to a private interview. Finding him busy, Gilbert whiled away a few moments examining the books which line the walls of the magnificent Rockefeller office. He pulled out one book to look at it, and found it was a handsomely bound block of wood. "Evidently Mr. Rockefeller had been watching to see what would happen," says Douglas Gilbert, "because he caught my eye when I turned around. He didn't say anything; just smiled."

• • • Ivy Holt, former star of KPO, who thrilled the station audiences with the magnificence of her contralto voice seven years ago, returned to the scenes of her former triumphs to renew old friendships and to look over the new studios.

• • • Like perhaps no other department of the show business, every mistake, error or success of any member of a station's staff is immediately relayed to the wide, wide world via the microphone. Consequently the staff and artists of a radio station have a spirit of cooperative discipline uppermost in their minds at all times.

So when a technician at KNX, Hollywood, was given orders by his superior to always use two microphones on such skits as Frank Watanabe and the Honorable Archie, he was only upset for a moment when Tom Breneman's "Tom and Wash" came on the air the next evening.

With a peremptory "Use two 'mikes,'" he dismissed the matter from his mind.

Picture poor Tom's embarrassment! He does both characters himself.

But on one recent night he was detained in town and decided to put his car in a garage and take a 3 A. M. train home. As the day had been a strenuous one, he fell asleep on the train. Finally awaking suddenly as the conductor shouted a station, he dashed off the train, thinking that he had ridden too far. After the train had pulled away he found himself in Harrison, one stop short of Rye. There wasn't a single taxi in sight and the silver-voiced tenor was frowning over the prospect of a long walk home when he saw a milk wagon plodding along. The driver's offer of a lift was gladly accepted. Picture the man whose voice thrills you, and you, and you, riding in style at four in the morning, surrounded by milk bottles, and behind a plodding nag. Picture him also being let off at his own doorstep with two bottles of milk and a pint of cream. The "Good Samaritan" was Downey's own milkman.

• • • Born in San Francisco "more than sixty years ago," Olive West, NBC character actress, is a direct descendant of Miles Standish and Priscilla Alden Standish. After years on the stage in all parts of the United States under the banners of such famous producers as Belasco and Frohman, Miss West is now a permanent resident of San Francisco. Unable to give up acting entirely, Miss West has found a new expression for her art in radio. She is heard regularly over NBC as Jerusha Scroggins in Memory Lane, a study of small-town life by H. C. Connette.

The sandy-haired word-slinger had chosen his vacation at that time so he could attend the commencement exercises at Brown University and his class reunion. As luck would have it he was taken ill the day before the festivities started. And, to make it worse, he was up and about again the day after they were over.

• • • Reinald Werrenrath, famous American baritone now with NBC, once aided the Salvation Army in the capacity of singer. It happened a number of years ago in the aristocratic town of Beaufort, S. Werrenrath joined the singers and for half an hour the man whom metropolitan concert audiences payed fancy prices to hear, entertained the town with his best collection of songs while the citizens, ignorant of his identity, rained pennies and nickels.

BY GYPSY

Doris, Oakland.—Wyn (KFRC) has but one aversion. It is idleness. She simply loves to set things in motion. Blessed with amazing good health, ambition, and creative ability, she can not be content to sit with folded hands. After finishing school, she entered the concert field. Then, quite out of a clear sky, she married, took up interior decorating, and forgot about audiences and such things. The old urge to accomplish something refused to lie dormant. So she opened an art shoppe. It was a joy—she adored it—but her husband's business took him to another city and there was nothing left to do but bid the shoppe farewell. (Marriage is the only old-fashioned thing about Wyn.) In the meantime, however, radio had come along. Suddenly our lady-dynamo was in the midst of it. She has carried on for six years, and you may safely jot it down in the little red book—wherever she may be, if there's a broadcasting station, you will never be without Wyn's Daily Chats.

Mrs. H. D., Sacramento.—Little Jack Little (NBC) is 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighs 130 pounds, is sturdily built, and is demi-blond in complexion. He was born in London, England, transplanted to Waterloo, Iowa, when he attained the age of nine, began his musical education, under the direction of his talented mother, before he could reach an octave, and made his first public appearance shortly after coming to America. His real name is John Leonard.

M. A., Santa Barbara.—Harry Vonzell (CBS) is 23 years old, gives as his birthplace, Indianapolis, Indiana, and answers in the affirmative when asked if he is married. He was living in Los Angeles, working in a railway office, when radio beckoned. The Richfield Reporter (NBC) is Sam Hayes, a minister's son, former Stanford University student and actor. June Purcell now sings over Station KFVB. Henry Halstead's broadcasts originate at KGER. Louise Howatt is with KMTR.

G. T., Berkeley.—The Melody Boys, "Sharp and Flat" (KTAB), permit, nay, "cordially invite" fans to witness their broadcasts. Better write them, however, to insure a front row seat. (KTAB, Oakland studio.)

D. D., Oakland.—Jean Kent (KLX) was forced into radio. Her sister Wyn (uh huh, Wyn of KFRC) needed a substitute. The voice must be as nearly like her own as possible. Jean's was. But, thought Wyn, Jean would be timid about facing a microphone. She had had no experience. Still, Wyn simply could not be two places at once and the other appointment was frightfully important. An inspiration smote her. She prepared a program, added a few instructions, flung the papers in her sister's lap, and tore down the street. After the first bewildered—well, emotions—Jean consulted her conscience. The blood is thick in that family. Resolutely she crossed her fingers and did her duty. It happened four years ago. She was assigned to a broadcast of her own almost immediately and, although she has lost the terror of that eventful day, she still crosses her fingers and keeps them crossed throughout her daily programs. (More another time.)

Kitty, Sacramento.—Charles Carter (KFRC) is tall and slim and celebrates his sixteenth birthday on August 15. His eyes are blue, his hair is richly brown and curly, and his interest in girls, if one is to believe Charlie, is quite, quite negligible. He is bent on becoming an actor, devotes much time to books, likes to ride horseback, and spends hours listening to phonograph records of his screen idol, Chevalier. Cecil Wright plays the guitar, Jews harp, and harmonica, and dresses like a rodeo hero. Cleanliness being Cecil's chief pride, when he emerges from wherever he emerges, the white cowboy hat rakishly topping his black hair is immaculately white. My dear, it positively dazzles one. And do the girls exclaim! His height is 5 feet 10½ inches, his weight 174 pounds. He has brown eyes and is twenty-three years old. Not married. Norman Neilson is twenty-six years of age, has blond hair, blue eyes, weighs about 140 pounds, and is 5 feet 9 inches tall.

Curious, Los Gatos.—Yes, Bennie Walker (NBC) is married. His wife is not affiliated with radio. She was a professional violinist prior to changing her name, but gave up all "outside" interests for the more absorbing ones of home-building. Benny's surname, you know, is McLaughlin. The McLaughlins have a very gay and exciting home; a lovely garden (Benny always wears a boutonniere), a dog and a cat and a parrot. Oh! I forgot—the parrot was recently given away. Mrs. McLaughlin felt quite badly about parting with him, but Benny, it seems, didn't mind—greatly. Mr. Parrot had a sort of professional-jealousy complex. The Dodge Sisters are an eastern team. The others to whom you refer are at the moment so-called "victims of the depression."

Mrs. L. O., Bremerton.—Curtis Benton is the fights announcer on KNX. He is somewhere between forty and fifty years of age, has a tremendous amount of good humor, and is a scenario writer and producer by profession. Married, one daughter of high school teens.

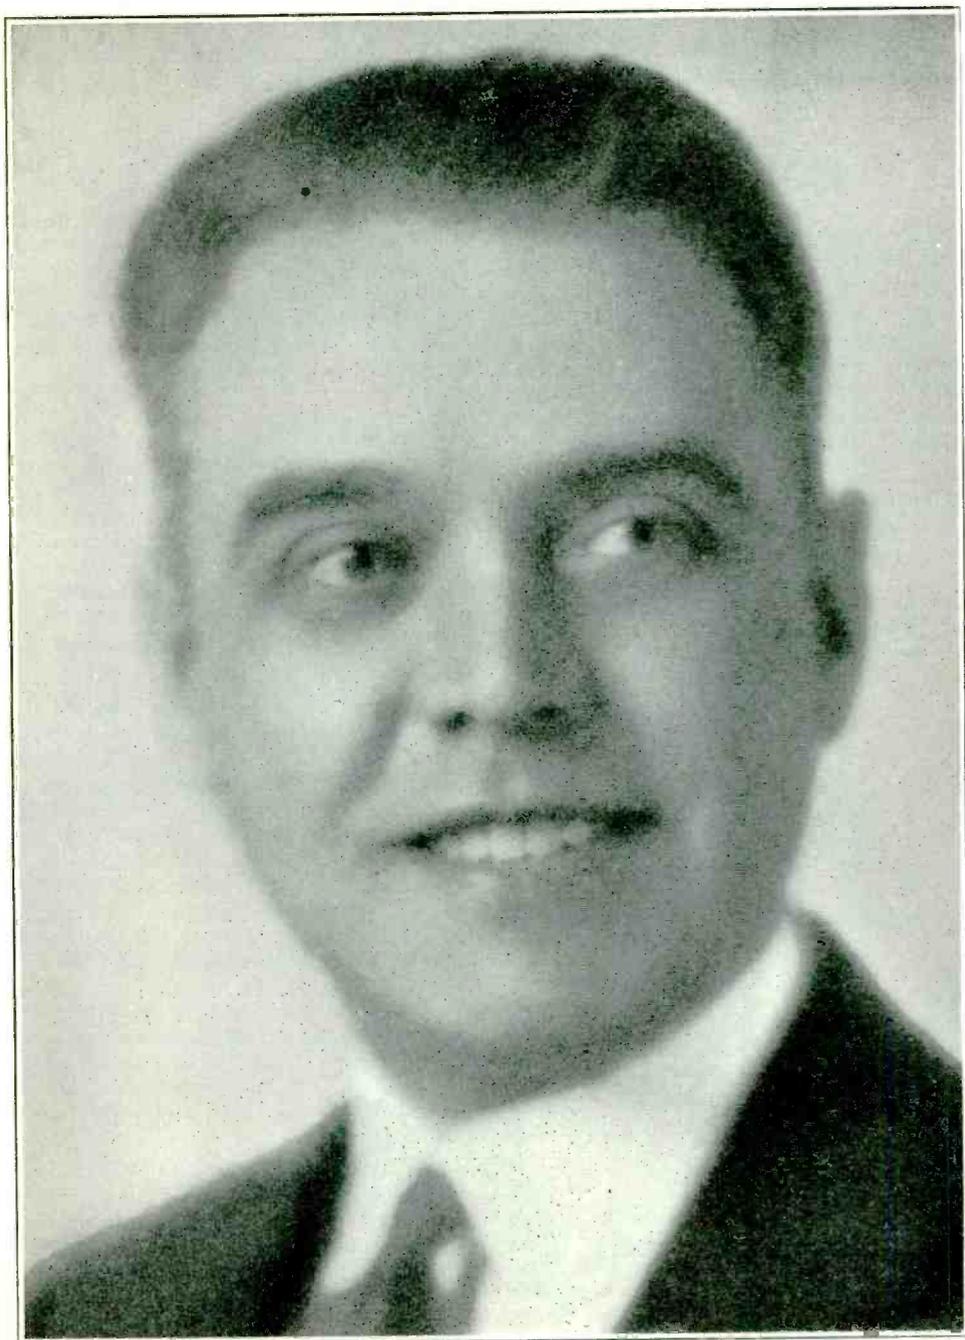

Grace, Glendale.—Neither Phillip Maxwell nor James K. Carden, who is D-17 Emperor (KFI), take part on other programs regularly. The broadcast is written by Major David Taylor, whose voice you hear in the roles of Lord Aberthorne and Hicks. He appears also in "Cactus Kate" and "Gypsyland." Major Taylor is about 35 years old, has lived in practically every country in the world, served with the British army during the war, and is a graduate of Aberdeen University in Scotland. He is 5 feet 8½ inches tall, weighs 178 pounds, has brown eyes, black hair, and a trim, ultra-trim moustache. He delves deeply in Egyptology, enjoys Kipling, symphony concerts, football, the theatre, roses, and oatmeal. Has a delightful Scotch brogue, is married—and—sh!—had an ancestor who was hanged for starting a rebellion.

CRITIQUE OF THE WEEK

By DYAL TURNER

JUANITA TENNYSON and Charles Bulotti are two good reasons for tuning in KFRC of a Sunday evenin'. The flute-like quality of Miss Tennyson's voice is distinctly pleasing. Always reminds me of fragrant meadows at sundown. Bulotti's buoyancy gets me as keyed up as a genuine and hearty invitation to a grand party. In all the time he has been on the air his voice has never sounded worn.

* * *

Gunnar Johansen, NBC's brilliant pianist, makes me wish with all my heart I could play. Like a conjuror he shakes the notes from his sleeves, turning that black and white keyboard upside down. It sobs for him. Storms for him. Pleads for him. Does anything and everything he wants it to. Lordy! What he gives to music lovers!

* * *

Anybody who hangs onto a morning grouch after listening to Van and Don oughta be—le' see—what oughta be done to him? Something pretty terrible, anyhow. They're a coupla young hurricanes, these devil-may-cares with more imagination than sense which, if you ask me, is exactly what we need in this hard-time period of ours.

* * *

I'm gonna have a swell story for my grandchildren—if I ever have any grandchildren. It's gonna be about a pioneer or a missionary who converted the cold, cynical highbrows into recognizing the merits of a Saxophone and the pioneer's name'll be Mickey Gillett. Ever hear him? Say, doesn't he get the tone?

* * *

Been trying unsuccessfully to get away from the "Moon Over the Mountain." When it first came over it was a purty little ditty, but since listening to it hour after hour, day after day, it's sorta taken on a refined fiendishness that's changing my smoldering resentment into a gigantic howl of protest. Are music leaders paid, I wonder, every time they put the number on a program, or what is the graft, anyway? I should think station managers would give the matter a little attention. This business of running a tune into the ground, whether it's the "moon" or any other, is becoming a menace that should be checked and checked pronto.

* * *

Seldy Roach's magnificent simplicity goes deep down. Regardless of the rôle he portrays, his character lives and behaves normally. No show, no frothy theatricalisms, no waste. Just every-day naturalness. Part of his strength lies in his unique phrasing, but his greatest asset, the something that reaches through space and warms my heart, is his honest, weather-beaten sincerity.

* * *

Amelia hasn't spoken to me since the night CBS was putting through the television stunt. Gee! she's touchy. All I said was why the wide-eyed tension? And she said isn't Ted Husing wonderful? And I said yeah, wonderful like one of earth's futilities or something like that and she said didn't I appreciate superior intellect and I said not when it was poked at others on the bill, and for good measure, while I had the floor, I sounded off quickly with he's just the other side o' the record to me, the scratchy side (I'd heard that somewhere and thought it witty), and then she got sarcastic and turned on her heel—she's a swell heel-turner—and now I guess I'm out a bunch o' v'ilets or—gosh, I wonder if she's holdin' out for orchids?

* * *

Split Second Tales, "the fastest program on the air," is tough on a fellow's blood pressure, but I'm one of those strong men, you know—primitive and brave—I'll chance anything, almost. They do some gasping and panting in Split Seconds. It moves and no mistake. Bing—bang—BOOM—just like that. I wouldn't miss it for all the doctor's orders.

BATTLE LINES

drawn in two recent Conventions reveals radio's friends and foes—

WITH an enthusiasm exceeded only by their sincerity of purpose, members of the National Association of Broadcasters met in annual convention at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco, July 21 and 22, to rededicate their stations to the service of the American public and combine their resources for the betterment of radio programs and the solution of radio problems. The membership of this Association includes the representative broadcasting stations of every state in the Union, as well as the important network systems.

Upon the policies and prosperity of this group depends the future of American broadcasting. And the aggressiveness, the sincerity, the spirit of public service with which the current session of this great organization tackled the problems it faces in common with the public augurs well for future programs. Inasmuch as advertising is practically the sole support of these stations individually, and this advertising can continue only to the extent it results in actual sales, certainly it behooves every radio listener to buy radio-advertised products at every opportunity. Ask for these brands by name and be sure to tell the merchant your purchase is guided by radio advertising.

One of the high lights of the Broadcasters' Convention was a timely and forceful address by Mr. Don Gilman, Pacific Coast Director of the National Broadcasting Company. Mr. Gilman pointed out the splendid work done by his company's stations and other broadcasters, in eliminating undesirable advertising from the air, and in arranging programs so that the advertising carried would not mitigate public enjoyment. The unanimous applause and expressions of approval following this address indicated the sincerity with which all important stations are adhering to this practice.

Contrasted with this progressive, public-spirited attitude pervading the Broadcasters' Convention is the open antagonism manifested by the Oregon press at the annual convention of the Oregon Editorial Association in Salem, June 27. On that occasion, this Association, comprising editors and publishers of representative Oregon newspapers, officially passed a resolution urging its members to consider and publish radio broadcasting schedules, not as news, but to accept such schedules only as advertising and charge for their publication at regular advertising rates. BROADCAST WEEKLY readers are independent of newspapers, but if this recommendation is put into effect Oregon listeners who do depend upon newspapers for program guidance will either be deprived of that information, or radio stations will have to spend thousands of dollars annually to continue publication of these schedules in the daily papers of Oregon. And, of course, that means that many thousands of dollars less will be available for the programs themselves.

The animosity of the daily press toward radio, so thinly veiled for many years, has at last developed into an openly belligerent attitude, as shown in the recent Oregon incident and articles appearing in papers throughout the country. Regardless of the extent justified by the papers' contention that radio is eating into their revenue, the fact remains that advertising revenue pays for broadcast programs. The revenue must continue if the programs are to continue and improve. Therefore it behooves every radio listener to support radio broadcasters and advertisers, and buy radio-advertised products at every opportunity.

You ought to see the Difference In Your Favor

through Parker's large scale production

You ought to go and compare, for example, the Parker Guaranteed for Life Duofold at $5 with guaranteed pens of other makes at $7.50, and even $8.25. Some are not within 22% of Parker's ink capacity, some not within 69%.

If Parker at only $5 surpasses pens priced 50% higher, isn't it mighty good proof that in pens at $10 the Parker Duofold De Luxe is a much finer instrument than others can afford to offer?

You won't find another at any price with Parker's Miracle Duofold Point that writes with Pressureless Touch—as easily as you breathe.

There isn't another with Parker's Adjustable Clip that lets the pen rest low and unexposed. Not another pen or pencil with Parker's Streamlined style—"America's shapeliest"—non-bulging and balanced. Not another with Parker's Invisible Filler—or Parker's range of jewel-like color effects.

Go and compare at the nearest pen counter. See how Parker gives your dollars their old-time buying power.

Spanish program: Male quartet;
orchestra direction Roy Shield:
KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KFI,
KFSD, KSL, KOA

Confining their selections entirely to the colorful melodies and tantalizing rhythms of the music of Spain. A modern orchestral classic, recent popular tunes, older ballads from the land of charming maidens and dashing caballeros, and musical comedy excerpts are included among the numbers to be presented by a male quartet directed by Emil Polak and an orchestra led by Roy Shield.

Only the vast resources could produce Radio

NEW

—and only the world-famous GENERAL MOTORS could inspire such immediate and universal

JUST mention GENERAL MOTORS RADIO to anyone you know, and hear the answer flash back—"Oh, GENERAL MOTORS, if General Motors makes them they must be good." The name tells the story—vast resources, standard value, absolute dependability, superior performance, KNOWN WORTH. Over half the people in your community already own GENERAL MOTORS products—they KNOW. And the amazing performance of these brand new Super-Heterodynes absolutely clinches the argument: Automatic Volume Control, special new Tone Selector, Pentode Power Tubes and a host of other new features. The hit of the big Chicago Radio Show. Interest yourself in no radio until you see and hear these new GENERAL MOTORS Super-Heterodynes.

 "The Female of the Species," a drama based on facts laid in the underworld of France during the World War is tonight's play. Colonel Andrews will take the role of a criminal investigator who is faced with the task of tracking down the perpetrator of a daring army payroll robbery. How he follows a clue that takes him to a waterfront dive in Bordeaux and how a brave girl risks her life to help him is told in a story which is "stranger than fiction."

Dealing with a girl's mistake in an effort to find out something about her mother whom she can't remember, the play revolves around Mr. Templeton and his daughter Margot, Mrs. Brown, a friend from Paris, and the young lover, Tony. The play carries an unusual climax and does not have the conventional happy ending.

Marta Lincoln, the young mistress of Poverty Castle, has been mysteriously stabbed by the phantom sword before the eyes of the whole group in the tangle of the newest mystery that Captain Post is endeavoring to solve. In the excitement that follows, Julia care, Marta's friend, runs out into the hallway to a medicine cabinet and suddenly they hear the clanking sound which always indicates the presence of the "ghost in chains," followed by a blood-curdling scream from Julia. They race to the hallway to see what has happened to the girl and on returning to the room discover that another tragedy has occurred that throws the party into a panic and brings into the picture a new and more terrible menace than they had suspected before.

9—Cotton Pickers: Charles Marshall, Harold Peary, Tommy Monroe, Johnnie O'Brien, Alvino Rey, Southern Harmony Four: KGO, KGW, KOA

9:30—Associated Spotlight Revue: Sunshine Theme; dramatic, vocal and instrumental artists; Cecil Underwood, master of ceremonies: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KECA given over to a "Sunshine Theme," the revue appropriately opens with the orchestra, the male quartet and the Coquettes presenting a special arrangement of "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise." Other musical features include Bennie Walker singing "Keep Your Sunny Side Up" from the recent Janet Gaynor-Charles Farrell motion picture success, and the Cocol Four offering a close harmony version of that old-timer by Von Tilzer, "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie." Instrumental numbers will include a trombone solo by Joseph Zohn, playing "The Sunshine of Your Smile," Annette Hastings and Irving Kennedy will blend their voices in a duet version of "D'Ya Love Me?" from the Marilyn Miller stage and screen production of "Sunny," a musical show which is also the source of solos and quartet songs. Comedy highlights of the 90-minute show include a "build-up" between Cecil Underwood and Harold Peary which eventually leads to Peary singing "Sonny Boy," the Jolson song-hit. A "Guessing Contest," which takes the radio listener into the game, is one of the several variety features. Underwood will give the key phrase to the song which is to follow, with a member of the vocal ensemble humming one of the choruses with the orchestra. It will be up to listeners to guess the titles of the six songs selected for the "Guessing Contest," which will be presented during the 10:15 to 10:30 o'clock period of the show. "School Days" again presents a tirmul within the classroom when the new teacher becomes a hit too "hard-boiled" with the various members of the red, green and cream school house. "Snud" McGuire "sees red" and proves he also can be "hard-boiled," to the great discomfort of the teacher. Jack and Ethyl and Carlton E. Morse will recall their recent visit to the California Rodeo in a play which deals with the adventures of the Porter twins, Jimmie and Peggie, at this annual event. As the Porter twins, Jack and Ethyl will describe the bronco busting, steer riding and horse racing as staged before their eyes at Salinas. They will enact all of the characters introduced in the play which is by Morse. A screamingly funny farce written by Walter Behan, director of the orchestra, will bring the show to a close.

6 GREAT ACTS

and all about the Sun-shine!

Be sure to be at your radio Saturday, August 15, at 9:30 p. m. The Associated Spotlight Revue will be on the air with a show you'll surely want to hear.

18 Songs about the Sun
(and some more about "Sonny Boy" and "The Good Old Sunny South" done in the inimitable fashion you've learned to look for.)

3 Great Dramatic Extravanzas
(featuring the West's greatest radio dramatists, Jack and Ethyl, the ex-cruciating Walter Beban skit, and last but not least, the "Schooldays" gang, faster and funnier than ever.)

Music—Laughter—Drama
(The complete cast of 59 artists in a show that will mark a new high point in Associated Spotlight Revue performances.)

Presented with the compliments of the Associated Service-men at the red, green and cream stations and garages, and the
