MICROPHONE GOSSIP

A cartoon illustration of a man with a large nose, wearing a suit and tie, holding a microphone to his mouth as if speaking. He is positioned behind a microphone stand with a microphone. The illustration is integrated into the title 'MICROPHONE GOSSIP'.

• • • Some hobbies of KTAB performers: Glenhall Taylor, collector of tinfoil; Jerry Jermaine, cooking; Grant Pollock, collector of poetry; Roger Krupp, models in clay; Ernie Smith likes his early morning swim; Beverly Hillbillies, living out of doors; Alma La Marr, at the beach with her police dog; Paul McNally and Clem Kennedy, golfing; Elbert Lachelle, listens to all radio programs.

• • • Paul Carson, NBC organist, receives many an odd letter, but he was somewhat surprised the other day when he read this one:

"Dear Mr. Carson: I'm about to become a bridegroom, and you are to blame. It was your music, in the Bridge to Dreamland last Sunday night which did it—under the spell of your program, I seem to have proposed to the blonde I was calling on, and she, equally bewitched, appears to have accepted me.

"All I ask is that next Sunday night you play two pieces on your program—'I Love You Truly' for my fiancée, and better make it 'Asleep in the Deep' for me."

• • • Morton Downey once sold phonographs for $15 a week and was paid only eight, forcing him to sing to live. And a few years later the same people found his own records their best-sellers.

• • • Frank Cope, chief alarm clock ringer at KJBS, had a birthday the other day and was the recipient of a number of cards and other gifts from his early morning listeners. Oh yes, he received a few alarm clocks, too—six, to be exact.

• • • John Eugene Hasty, who pens the "Eb and Zeb" serial, is probably one of the most versatile radio writers and is one of the oldest in the point of service.

Hasty wrote the first radio serial to be broadcast on the Pacific Coast. It was "The Moonlight Minstrels" and was winged out by KFRC six years ago.

He penned the radio continuity for the Kolb and Dill serial, "The Dinglebenders." In past years he has written such serials and radio features as "Emperor of the World," "Stranger Than Fiction," "Confessions of a Con Man," "Romantic Forty-niners," and wrote material for Frank Watanabe.

• • • Gene Clark is the possessor of the "new" voice heard on the KJBS announcing staff. Clark, while one of the youngest announcers in the business, has had several years of experience in radio. He also sings and plays the violin.

• • • Victor Linfoot, NBC announcer in San Francisco, is the brother of Rosalie Barker Frye, contralto who will sing with the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company next fall.

• • • Godfrey Ludlow, NBC violinist, spent four years in a German prison camp during the World War. With the exception of the last year of his imprisonment he was not allowed to have his violin.

• • • Mona Lowe, NBC contralto and blues singer, has doubled for two well-known film actresses in pictures which required vocal work of the leading lady.

• • • Bobbe Deane, NBC actress, has a beautiful white Russian wolfhound named Czarina, and a Great Dane named Eric.

• • • Nathan Stewart, NBC baritone, was an aviator during the war. He was a member of the Two Hundred and Fifty-Sixth Air Squadron, and one of the unit of flyers assembled to defend London against air raids.

• • • Alvino Rey, leader of the NBC Rhythmadors, played the banjo and guitar in Phil Spitalny's orchestra before he was out of his 'teens. He was the youngest dance orchestra player, regularly employed, in the country.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

Mrs. A. L., Sacramento.—Henry Schumer (NBC) was a radio fan long before he had any thought of entering the business, and when he was initiated into the newer form of expression he did not dream of forsaking his dear footlights, but now he devotes himself to the microphone exclusively. The only time he gets a wee bit homesick, he says, is when he happens to be sitting out front in one of the theaters wherein he has played. He began his career 'way back when the ability to memorize an entire script in a few short hours and a thorough knowledge of fencing, not to mention acquaintanceship with Shakespearean lines, were definitely required of an actor, and during his theater days he enacted some fourteen hundred roles. Music is his favorite diversion, and frequently he is to be found at some tennis court, not racing about but watching "youth" and studying the types and reactions near at hand. He is one of those lovable characters who, though facing sixty, is not dismayed or shocked by the antics of the present generation.

Mrs. H. F. G., Los Angeles.—Jack Carter (KNX) is master of ceremonies on the "Royal Order of Optimistic Doughnuts" program. Until recently the cast under his direction was made up of colored folk, but the new arrangement calls for various artists, both professional and amateur.

* * *

Mrs. W. M., Fort Bragg.—Donald Novis may be heard over NBC-KPO on Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday afternoons from 2:45 to 3 o'clock. Don's climb to radio fame began in 1928, when he won first prize in the Atwater Kent audition. He was born in England in 1906, has lived in the vicinity of Los Angeles since a youngster, and is the son of a Pasadena shoe merchant. His mother and sister are singers, and a brother, now on the concert stage, studied in Italy. There is a youthful Mrs. Novis, Julietta, who is prominent in radio circles down Los Angeles way.

Claire, Sacramento.—Irma Glen is in private life Mrs. Ted Hill, wife of a Chicago business man. Dorothy Lewis is a Portland, Oregon, girl. Lily Pons was born in Cannes, France, entered the piano department of the Paris Conservatoire at fourteen, played in European stock four years later, and started her singing career six years ago. Yes, our own Bernice Berwin wrote "Facing Forty," recently presented over NBC.

P. L. F., Sacramento.—Mary Wood (NBC) is 5 feet 2 inches in height, weighs 112 pounds, has lovely blue eyes, rich brown hair, and the most fascinating way of changing facial expression—something like slow-motion pictures. (Ted White has that same characteristic.) There is a deliberateness of manner about Mary as though she thinks out every move before playing her cards, still she seems not to be conscious of the matter and in all my contacts with her I have not found her to be coldly calculative or shrewd. She designs most of her clothes, always looks like the proverbial million, goes in for white and pastel shades, and usually wears crinkly white violets, live flowers, never artificial. Her education was obtained in Denver with a flourishing touch added in New York and, in addition to keeping up her vocal studies, she puts in many hours daily in her brother's dancing classes.

Mrs. C. L. A., San Francisco.—Helen Stone may be heard over KGB. The "Singing Lady" on NBC-KPO is Claire Uphure, and her accompanist is Mildred Bailey. Tito Guizar hails from Mexico. The Beverly Hill Billies have gone to Hollywood, where they are booked for an engagement at Warner Brothers' Theater. Floyd Gibbons has been married, according to report, but is unattached at present. The Clark Sisters are now singing over Station KLLX.

Alice, Berkeley.—Keltner Williamson is a connoisseur of pipes and rare tobaccos. Kenneth Niles collects pencils. Pearl King Tanner cannot resist real and unusual designs in lace. Theodore Strong goes in for odd stationery. Lily Laguna writes her personal letters in Mexican dialect. Kay Van Riper must have genuine leather bindings on all of her books. Gladys Weimer is a scrapbook addict. Lilah Clark buys five-year diaries and when she discovers that she has more on hand than she can ever fill she gives them away. However, that doesn't prevent her from purchasing more. Little books with keys are simply too alluring. Johnny Patrick (Cecil, of Cecil and Sally) collects cameras.

* * *

Mrs. D. S., San Francisco.—Kathryn Thompson (KPRC, Happytime) is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 100 pounds, has brown eyes and golden brown hair. She was born in Portland, Oregon, went to school in Long Beach, received her education in Los Angeles and began her professional career in San Diego. Her hobbies are listed as sun-baths, swimming, gardening and hiking and her favorite dish is ice cream. She is in her early twenties, single, celebrates her birthday on August 8 and is of English parentage. Her mother formerly appeared as concert pianist in European cities of note.

Flo, Sacramento.—Myron Neisley (NBC) is 6 feet tall, weighs 175 pounds, has blue eyes and light brown hair. Oh, yes, and very beautiful teeth. He was born in Abilene, Kansas, graduated from the University of Kansas, attended University of Pennsylvania and started out to be a chemist. Sang in concert and vaudeville for about three years and joined the ranks of broadcaster as a member of the Rounders quartet. Dick Rickard is down in San Diego with the Don Lee station. Charles Runyan (NBC) has two children, both boys. The eldest is about seven years old and the youngest was one year old last month.
