Public Participation Programs

THE magnitude and significance of great forces and movements are seldom apparent to the generation that gives them origin or direction. This does not, however, absolve a people from its righteous responsibility for the proper current progress of such forces or their practical application to the solution of existing problems.

In common with other arts and industries radio is now going through a perilous period. Its future is in the shaping during this era of transition. Revolutionary tendencies and ideas are rampant. The scourge of base modernism seeking new fields in which to spread its moral blight, is taking the air route to the sacred precincts of the family fireside. Albeit broadcasting stations, sponsors and artists deserve an occasional homily, the responsibility is not theirs alone. If radio is to triumph over the many obstacles besetting its progress, and realize full fruition as a transcendent force for human uplift, then the public, the real custodian in the case, must share this responsibility and provide the guidance and inspiration necessary.

To this end the time is ripe, the need urgent for a closer relationship and broader understanding between radio and its audience. In the conduct of public business and the execution of public trust the day of secret diplomacy is past. People want to know the whys and wherefores. Broadcasters will do well to recognize this fact, take the public into their confidence in connection with what is going on behind the scenes, and frankly ask audience assistance in solving problems common to both. This could be effectively accomplished by a series of ingenuous broadcasts designed for the purpose, and by extensive publicity through such portion of the press as is friendly. Speaking for the representative radio audience of the West, BROADCAST WEEKLY pledges a generous and sympathetic response to such a policy.

Public participation programs offer another means of bringing the audience into closer harmony and more friendly relationship with stations and artists—song fests, spelling bees, radio star identification contests, and other similar entertainment in which the audience can actually play a part. Perhaps you can think of others. Send your suggestions to BROADCAST WEEKLY, and we will see that they are passed on to the proper persons. Such programs would likewise serve as an antidote for discouragement and despair, in combating which the most important requisite is to concentrate the mind on something other than the trouble and worries of the moment. No man can or need long remain dejected or despondent if he will but square his shoulders, throw back his head, open his mouth and sing, regardless of how unmusical the result may be. And in the privacy of his own home he may do it unobserved and unabashed. The next time the radio announcer invites you to join in, try it. Or do it without an invitation. When the lilting air of an old time song comes throbbing over the air, don't merely sit and listen, sing—and notice how much fresher, happier, stronger you feel, how much brighter, friendlier the whole world seems.

Though the achievements you have been pursuing elude you tantalizingly as so many shimmering mirages, despair not. Courage and faith are omniscient, their reward inevitable no matter how long delayed. Work harder, practice the Christian virtues, sing more. And the rest will follow.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

THE western radio audience in general (at least, so it seemed) went on a rampage when Pepsodent, without warning, yanked The Goldbergs, serial drama, off the NBC wire-up west of the Rockies. And such a war whoop that listening legion let out! Echoes of it are still being heard. Mention of the dire act continues as a mighty sore spot, too.

Never before in the recollection of this chronicler of radio happenings was such a combined demonstration and tribute to a broadcast program given than that received by the network in behalf of the popular script act.

The first night The Goldbergs were omitted from the program, telephone calls by the thousands boomed in, loading all the exchanges in the city to capacity and completely swamping the NBC switchboard operator. More than 3,500 calls were tabulated that one night by the NBC, and many more escaped tabulation.

At this writing Henry Maas of the NBC commercial department informed us that more than 8,000 telephone calls had been received by KPO alone, not including 6,406 received by other network stations—KECA, KEX, KJR, KGA and KDYL. Stations on the KGO network likewise received telephonic queries as to the whereabouts of the Goldbergs in spite of the fact that they never were heard from that outlet.

Add to these telephone messages several thousand irate letters, telegrams and even personal calls and you have a grand total that closely resembles the figures in Germany's war debt, or sumpin'.

What to do about it? The NBC execs are not wasting any time scratching their heads. No sir-r-ee. Of course they weren't responsible in any way with the feature being taken off the air. But they are doing their level best to get it back on again. Every telephone call, letter, telegram and personal call is closely tabulated and the information is shipped back to the sponsor as fast as they come in.

The Goldbergs are still on the air in the eastern states.

The program, which was brought to the West for the first time a few short months ago, won the favor of thousands of listeners almost overnight. At the time it was pulled off the air here it rivaled any program released out here in popularity.

There are many interesting sidelights in connection with the Goldbergs going off the air. For instance:

The chief operator of the Skyline exchange thought that there was a shipwreck in the harbor because of the tremendous amount of calls coming through.

Hundreds of women called in and between sobs and tears informed the operator that "The Goldbergs were the best on the air and they didn't see why they had to be taken away from them."

Many large corporations were getting up petitions protesting the absence of the Goldbergs.

The first night they were not on the air the NBC operator handled fifteen telephone calls simultaneously for one and a half hours. That is, she opened the keys to all the incoming trunk lines at once and said: "The Goldbergs program has been cancelled."

Robert Olsen, whose 18-karat voice made him the toast of the dial spinning legion a few years back, is hitting the ether high spots again after an absence which was altogether too long. Up until that time Captain Dobbie's program folded he had been making occasional appearances on the Happy-time. Now he may be heard on KTAB programs.

Walter Damrosch, grand old man of "music," and an NBC symphony orchestra, are back on the air—Tuesday nights from 7 to 8 o'clock, giving a series of five concerts. They fill the spot left open by Lucky Strike. KGO is the local outlet.

Neptune Beach, Alameda amusement park, has taken on the sponsorship of Ernie Smith's Sports Page of the Air over KTAB.

Another series of broadcasts of the Hollywood Bowl Symphonies is being planned by the Union Oil Company, we learn. They are scheduled to be released on the KGO network in July and August.

KFRC and its newspaper affiliate of nearly nine years standing were divorced recently, the station immediately becoming wedded to the San Francisco Examiner.

The Call-Bulletin which came to the parting of the ways with the Don Lee station, amiably, at the same time entered a newspaper broadcasting partnership with KPO, incidentally the station with which it was affiliated more than ten years ago.

Arrangements for the newspaper-radio hook-ups were made by Emile J. Gough, national director of the Hearst Radio Service.

To KFRC the Examiner is furnishing the nightly sport news broadcasts, a daily talk by Prudence Penny, household expert and a Sports Parade.

Luther ("Duke") Meyer (no relation) is dishing out news broadcasts thrice daily over KPO and in addition the NBC station gets morning chats by Ann Welcome, fashion talks and a Sports Revue.

Californians, Inc., the Northern California tourist advertising organization, has gone on the air. Each Wednesday it is presenting a program from 8 to 8:30 o'clock featuring songs, tales and music associated with the history and scenic attractions of Northern and Central California.

The gang at KYA told us to be sure and tell you about the program by the San Francisco Symphony Choir from 7 to 7:30 o'clock on May 5. We've kept our promise.

Spring studio moving seems to be the thing this month. KTAB has moved into its spacious studios in O'Farrell Street, San Francisco. And now word comes that KROW has just moved to new studios in the Prudential Loan Association Building in Oakland. The entire second floor of the building has been leased by the station and will house one main studio and an auxiliary studio as well as executive offices, control, audition and rehearsal rooms.

Arthur Miller, manager of KROW, also announces the appointment of Billy Sherwood, formerly of KYA and KGA, as production manager.

The Tanforan Race Track, just south of San Francisco, where the ponies dig up the turf daily, is sponsoring a quarter hour program on KTAB six nights a week at 7:45 o'clock, giving the results of the day's racing.

From our Northwest scout, John Haughn, Jr., we receive this:

The Fisher's Flouring Mills announce several changes in their program over KOMO. The music of Vic Meyers' orchestra will hereafter be heard on Saturday at 8:30 instead of Tuesday and "Musical Mannequins" will occupy the vacated Tuesday evening spot. Both half hour features are to be heard also over KGW. The concern will also sponsor "The Four Shades of Rhythm," a new program to be heard every Monday over KOMO and KGW. "Golden Memories" is now scheduled on KOMO only.

Radio Plays Are "Junk"

I HEARTILY agree with Patsy of Larkspur as to radio plays. She calls them "junk," but most of them are worse than that. If all the plays now on the air with the exception of four or five of the best ones were taken from us no one would be losing anything worthwhile. Personally I've just turned to something else because I figured someone must like them or they wouldn't be on the air. But recently there hasn't seemed to be much else to turn to. One evening about 5:15, I couldn't find anything but plays or speeches on any of the NBC or Columbia stations—in fact, every available station on the coast as far as our reception here is concerned. Finally I thought I would see if I could get anything better from the east and tuned in to a Chicago station. Believe it or not, they were having a play broadcast! I gave up in despair and turned the radio off.

Another thorn in the side is the way they are dishing out electrical transcriptions and trying to make us like it. There is scarcely a major station on the coast immune. If we must listen to recordings most of us would prefer a victrola—we can choose something we like at least. Yet there are people who read only the best magazines who fall for the trash given them through radio drama—electrical transcriptions or otherwise.

However, according to most of the letters in BROADCAST WEEKLY the majority of its readers have nothing to do but listen to the radio all day. For most of them are always asking for more plays. Evidently they have neither jobs nor homes to take care of, for who can do housework, prepare and serve meals to a family and listen to plays all the time. Perhaps it is just that those who have something to do have no time to write in and voice an opinion. What mother who has children in school can stop and listen to a play or a lot of patter at a quarter to twelve noon? The advertisers should realize their daytime audience is made up almost entirely of housewives and unemployed. Would a housewife patronize an advertiser who gives her a program she might like to listen to at a time when she is too busy to do so? It isn't probable.

There is just one program I would like to protest against. They take a good quartet like the Olympians and put them on a program and call it "Song Heaven." Have you ever listened? Not often, I imagine, for it is really too terrible. As a matter of fact, no good song ever dies, so how could there be a "Song Heaven." Maybe it's supposed to be comedy, but it borders on the ridiculous.

SILHOUETTES

JOSEF HORNİK, NBC orchestra conductor, traveled 15,000 miles to become a radio star. NBC's Music Doctor, whose quaint accent makes this Monday evening program a favorite with listeners, was born in Vienna, Austria, and every program in which he plays his violin or conducts the orchestra has its characteristic Viennese touch of sheer melody.

The son of a merchant, Hornik is the only member of his family who chose music for a career. He was a tiny boy when he first demanded a fiddle for his birthday—and he still recalls the disappointment that followed what he got—a toy drum. By the time he was old enough to hold a real violin, however, he was taking lessons at the Conservatory in his native city, and when he was fourteen he made his debut there, then toured Munich, Stuttgart, and other cities of Germany. When he was sixteen he played a command performance before the Emperor Franz Josef, an event which he admits does not thrill him in retrospect as it might.

"It was over with before I realized it was begun," he explains. "Two other young musicians also played before him that day, and the three of us went to the Palace together, and were ushered into a small salon where the Emperor sat. Each of us played in turn, and he nodded and smiled benevolently—like any other kindly old man."

When he had completed his three years of military service, Hornik was selected by Franz Lehar to supply the violin music heard from off-stage in "The Count of Luxemburg" and he traveled with the Lehar operetta production through Europe.

When "The Count of Luxemburg" closed, the young violinist organized a salon quartet with which he traveled through Russia, playing engagements at the hotels in large cities. It was in the halcyon period before the World War, and Samara, Moscow, Warsaw, St. Petersburg, Vladivostok and Kobe, Japan, were bright with a now-historic gayety.

The four young musicians, with money pouring in freely, made a brief excursion into Japan, then returned to Vladivostok, intending to retrace their route, when a bullet from the Sarajevo's assassin's revolver changed the face of the earth.

Sitting in the hotel bar at Vladivostok, Hornik overheard a group of Russian officers deciding to break the instruments of the Austrian musicians, and he and his companions left for Japan by the next boat—the last to get out of Vladivostok before the war storm broke.

The four comrades played their way through Japan and across the Pacific to San Francisco. Hornik played the violin in the Hotel St. Francis for a time, then went to Stockton, where he met the girl who now is Mrs. Hornik. Hornik became a benedict and an American citizen in the same year, and returned to San Francisco, where he joined the orchestra of the California theatre. He spent eight years at the California as first violin and later orchestra leader, then one day he met a musician friend who was a member of the NBC staff.

"Come up and see the studios," invited the friend, and Josef accepted his invitation, only to find himself, almost before he knew it, facing a microphone. He has been with the National Broadcasting Company for five and a half years now, and still gets a thrill out of realizing the immensity of the audience radio reaches. Directs more than a dozen programs, such as the Sunday Evening Concert, Wings of Music, Music Garden, and Pacific Serenaders, and enjoys broadening his accent in the Music Doctor almost as much as he does the letters his characterization brings him.

Golf and fishing are his favorite sports; pinochle his favorite card game, and philosophy his favorite reading material, with a strong emphasis upon Schopenhauer and Spinoza.

His favorite anecdote concerns a long, hard program in which he and the orchestra and the singers all worked hard—only to discover later they had not even been on the air—the program had been cancelled and they had not been notified.

• • • Bert Lahr, clown of stage and air, and Lee Sims and Ilomay Bailey, piano and vocal duo, assisted by other distinguished artists, will be featured at the first broadcast of the new radio show which will replace Eddie Cantor on the Chase and Sanborn program for the summer, beginning Sunday, April 30, at 4 p. m., over a nationwide NBC network.

Cantor will give his last program of the current season on Sunday, April 23, and then will depart for Hollywood to make a motion picture. He will return to the Chase and Sanborn program in September.

• • • There's a story of grim reality, or rare courage and intense behind-the-scenes activity surrounding the new "Myrt and Marge" mystery—"Where is Myrt?"—heard over the Columbia network every night except Saturday and Sunday at 7:45 p. m. On the air Myrt is mysteriously missing. Friends, attorneys, theatrical associates, newspapermen and radio stations are following her elusive trail.

In real life Myrtle Vail is being attended by day and night nurses and a physician in her home in Chicago. The telephone is disconnected and visitors are barred. Her jaw is fractured and her face painfully cut, the result of an automobile accident. She cannot even talk with those attending her.

Removal of an author and principal might have forced the act from the air, but Myrtle Vail had barely recovered from the anesthetic after an emergency operation, when she was scribbling a note asking that Bobby Brown, director of the series, be summoned. At 2 a. m. when he entered the sickroom, a bandaged hand extended a note: "Just see what a wreck I am. We'll have to revamp tonight's script and may be lots more. The Doc will explain this unusual silence."

Until daylight this strangest of all script conferences continued despite the doctor's disapproval. At daylight a new "Myrt and Marge" was on paper—one without a Myrt. Brown went to the studio. The cast was called in. By noon the new story was in rehearsal. What might have been a tragedy had been turned into the greatest radio mystery since "Who Killed Ray Hunt?"

• • • Art Lindsay, late of NBC in San Francisco, has just been added to the KMTR staff in the position of copy writer. However, this is just a part of his new duties, for the young good looking blade is the possessor of a fine baritone which will shortly trickle through the ether on the KMTR frequency. He and "Cookie" the California Sunshine Girl fell into each others arms when they met the other day; it was hastily explained to Cookies' hubby that the two of them had worked NBC together a few seasons ago.

• • • KFWE announces a new schedule for Joe Wright and his orchestra whose broadcast originates in the beautiful and newly decorated Lido Cafe on Columbus Avenue and Lombard Street. Here after their dance programs will be broadcast Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 11 to 11:30 in the evening. The Saturday evening program by Joe Wright will be from 11 p. m. to midnight.

• • • The public schools of Long Beach, California, badly damaged by the recent earthquake, have solved the problem of keeping classes in action until repairs can be made by using the daily broadcasts of the American School of the Air for their studies.

Station KHJ, Los Angeles outlet for the School of the Air broadcasts, has been requested by the Long Beach School Board to rush all available copies of the Teachers' Manual and Class Room Guide issued by the Columbia Broadcasting System's educational department as a classroom aid to the broadcasts. The manual suggests visual aids to the radio study course, which covers history, geography, literature, music, elementary science and current events.

• • • Cliff Hall, straight man for Jack Pearl, when Der Baron is the Magic Carpet gagger Thursday nights, went to Culver Military Academy when he was a boy, but ran away at 16 and joined the navy. His parents bought his release after a year and a half, but when the war came he enlisted again and left the navy as chief boatswain's mate. Now he is the chief booster's mate.

• • • The Slavic pianist, Charles W. Chylinski (KYA), whose real name, by the way, is Karol—is an attorney by profession. He was admitted to the bar in Michigan in 1917. Music, however, continued to claim his most enthusiastic attention and at the first opportunity he went to Europe to study at the University of Toulouse, France.

• • • To the roster of KJBS has been added the name of Joyce Adele Clark.

Sopranoing lustily, the newcomer, a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Clark, on April 2, was immediately signed for future engagements over the station.

Clark is an announcer and continuity writer at KJBS and has been passing around "long smokes" profusely since the "blessed event."

• • • Dick Teela is a leading candidate for the "meanest man in the world" this week. Knowing that two of his studio contemporaries were jigsaw puzzle addicts, and tiring of their tales of prowess in their favorite indoor sport. He bought them each a puzzle as a gift. But to make it just a little difficult he scrambled the two puzzles together. The two musicians for the past three days have appeared at the studio heavy-eyed and silent, but have refused to admit their defeat.

• • • Who says musicians are fickle in love?

Charles Hart and Meredith Willson, both NBC orchestra conductors, Everett Foster, NBC baritone, Rudy Pierce, NBC trombonist, and Mart Grauenhorst, NBC guitar player, all married their childhood sweethearts—and are still happily wed.

• • • "Colonel" Mann Prager, Imperial Jockey in "His Majesty" Ben Bernie's "The King's Horses," received a very perplexing bundle the other day. It was the outside wrappings of a box which at one time had contained an evidently tasty fruit cake sent to him by a fair young radio fan.

Instead of the cake, enclosed was a card from the Old Maestro, Ben Bernie, reading: "Fo'give me, fo'give me. Opened and eaten by mistake."

• • • Billy Sherwood, formerly of KYA and of KHQ, Spokane, is the new production manager at KROW.

New Oakland studios were opened recently in the Prudential Loan Association Building, 1803 Franklin Street. Arthur Miller is manager of the station.

• • • Not the least busy person during Ed Wynn's weekly broadcast over NBC networks is his valet, William Crowley. Wynn changes his costume seven or eight times during each program. Crowley arranges the queer assortment of freak hats, loud neckties, and unconventional coats neatly in order. Working with the skill of long experience, he aids the Fire Chief with each change between scenes.

• • • At the home of James Melton, the tenor, there is a Boston bull pup six months old. Every time Jimmie sits down to the piano to rehearse or vocalize, Socko parks beside him and howls. At first it annoyed Melton, but he says it has developed into an endurance contest to determine who gives up first. "And," says Melton, "I can sing a lot louder than the pup can howl."

• • • Webb Edwards, program manager of KGU, Honolulu, who recently paid the KFI-KECA boys and girls a visit, declared that Sam Hayes' nightly newscast and Phil Harris' orchestra are the two most popular programs in the islands. Sam's program keeps the American colony posted on what's doing, and Phil's boys furnish the "wicky-wacky" for the gals who wear the hey-dey ensembles.

According to Edwards, only two NBC features, the Magic Carpet series and the Voice of Firestone, are shortwaved to the islands for release by KGU. But the islanders should worry. Beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, KFI's 50,000 wattage keeps 'em well supplied.

• • • In one year 25,000 members have joined Uncle Rod's "Smile Club," a daily afternoon feature presented over KTAB.

• • • Glenhall Taylor, production manager of KTAB, is again installed in the studio offices on this side of the bay. Luther Putnam remains in charge of the Oakland outlet of the station.

• • • Tom Howard, the prize mental midget of the Best Foods Musical Grocery Store, has perfected his latest invention. It is a derby hat with a trap door in the lid so he can comb his hair without taking off his hat. Tom says that this saves untold wear and tear on the sweatband, not to mention the Howard brow, furrowed with the worries incident to making the wheels go around in the Musical Grocery Store.

• • • Johnny Marvin, the lonesome singer of the air, answers every fan letter and files it. . . James Melton's wife answers all his letters and they keep them. . . Graham Harris, who directs the "Pages of Romance" music, files his fan mail and enters every suggestion received in a book he is compiling on "musical moods." . . Frank Black, NBC general musical director, reads every letter and passes on to other departments all those containing suggestions. . . Jane Froman carries five trunks of fan mail with her wherever she goes. . . Those Boswell sisters have three secretaries answering their fan mail. . . Jack Pearl, the Thursday night Baron Munchausen, is having his bound in volumes. . . The Men About Town answer theirs with four different letters, one from each member of the trio and Arranger Will Donaldson. . . Leo Reisman frames interesting letters for his den. . . Mrs. Paul White-man keeps all the letters her husband gets. . .

• • • While Dobbsie is on a vacation, "Professor" Bob Bence is carrying on strenuous early morning exercise period over KFRC at 7:30. The Professor was no weakling when he started and what the agile six-footer may turn into by the time Dobbsie gets back is giving his studio mates some cause for thought.

• • • So the Boswell sisters started to drive from Louisville to Kansas City for a theatrical date that meant $3500 for the week to them. Half way out, Connie Boswell asked how far they were from New Orleans. Their driver "Shorty" Maxwell, said about fourteen hours. Connie insisted that they cancel the vaudeville engagement, and they headed for New Orleans to visit Mama and Papa. "And why not?" asked Martha. "We haven't seen the home folks in six months!"

• • • Police Chief William J. Quinn of San Francisco, whose stories are heard over NBC station KPO Friday evenings, has taken up horseback riding and may be glimpsed in Golden Gate Park these mornings between 6:30 and 7:30. After an hour's gallop he still has energy enough left over to walk the three miles between his home and office.

• • • Amos 'n' Andy reverse their characters in real life. Andy (Charles Correll) always arrives at the NBC studio ten or fifteen minutes before time to broadcast, but Amos (Freeman Gosden) usually slips in with only a few minutes to spare because waiting in the studio makes him nervous. Correll diverts his thoughts by picking out soft melodies on the studio piano.

• • • Versatility personified—that's Eddie Peabody, the blond banjo wizard who is heard over an NBC-KGO network. Eddie is famous for the unique and original manner in which he plays and sings popular numbers. At a private concert for royalty in Europe, he astonished critics by offering a group of classics that included Schubert's "Serenade," Kreisler's Viennois, Beethoven's "Minuet in G," Von Suppe's "Poet and Peasant Overture," and the difficult Tchaikowsky's "1812 Overture"—all played on the banjo.

3. What languages, other than English, does Kelvin Keech speak?
4. Has Myrtle Vail, Myrt of "Myrt and Marge") any children?
5. Where was David Rubin-off born?
6. How do Fray and Braggiotti produce the tap-dancing sound effect heard occasionally in their two piano numbers?
7. What CBS concert pianist uses his own instrument when playing over the air.
8. How long have Gracie Allen and George Burns been married?
9. Are any members of the Goldberg cast related?
10. Which member of the John and Ned team does cartoons in his spare time?
11. By what means did Ozzie Nelson put himself through college?
12. What are George Davis' hobbies?
13. Where and when did Jerry Jermaine meet her husband?
14. What university did Mona Lowe attend?
15. When does Paul Rickenbacker celebrate his birthday?
16. What is Tom Gerun's pet aversion?
17. Why did Art Gillham forsake a medical course for music?
18. Who is the singing Mary Lou on the Maxwell House Show Boat programs?
19. What mannerisms distinguish some of our better known broadcasters?

ANSWERS

1. Johnnie Walker.
2. Yes. He has a daughter, aged two and a half years.
3. French, Russian, German, Spanish and Hawaiian.
4. Myrtle Vail is the mother of Donna Damerel (Marge) and a boy of 'teen age.
5. In Grodha, Russia.
6. By wearing thimbles on their fingers.
7. Ernest Hutcheson.
8. Seven years.
9. No.
10. Ned.
11. By playing for campus dances and coaching football at the Lincoln High School in Jersey City.
12. Graphology, numerology, fishing, studying foreign languages and exploiting young talent.

Good-by "one feature" gasolines!

EVERYONE wants split-second "quicker starting"—but not at the cost of good mileage. All of us want more "power"—but we also want a motor that does other things besides pull.

Actually, your motor needs three different kinds of energy. And you are bound to get engine waste from old-fashioned gasolines. They may have plenty of one kind of energy but too little of another.

Now in one fuel all three vital energies

In the new Shell 3-energy gasoline, not one of these three vital energies has been sacrificed. And Shell 3-energy gasoline is selected energy! No wasteful "gassy" fractions. No sluggish "wet" fuel. It is all pure energy from the very heart of petroleum.

What about anti-knock?

In a long series of octane rating tests made of every non-premium fuel now being sold in this market, the new Shell 3-energy gasoline has consistently scored the highest anti-knock rating of them all.

"QUICK ENERGY"—the energy you need in a hurry for starts, shifts, bursts of speed.

"POWER ENERGY"—the power flow for miles of smooth, economical driving; pull without strain.

"ANTI-KNOCK ENERGY"—to eliminate knocks in today's high-compression motors.

Never in your life-time have you known a motor fuel like this. It is colored golden amber for your protection.

Shell Service, Inc. stations and Shell dealers.

SHELL 3-energy GASOLINE

Reduces engine waste!

You are sure of Shell Shell service men seal every station tank when they fill it with gasoline. Thus you know what you are getting when you buy from a Shell pump.
