THE RADIO THAT "MADE GOOD"

The most critical judge of a radio set and its performance is the Radio Dealer. He has handled and listened to many hundreds of radios of all types and descriptions. He knows what it is all about and can't be fooled.

Before this critical audience of Radio Dealers, the Majestic Master Six and its companion model, the Century Six, have very definitely "made good."

We ourselves think that for a table model this is the PERFECT RADIO. Beautifully styled, it is one of the Majestic "Smart Sets of 1934." In general performance it is a good deal better than you'd expect—even of a Majestic.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

MEMBER the "Old Timer," that lovable old character who used to spin such enthralling yarns during those Empire Builder broadcasts a few years back? We've had many queries as to his whereabouts since that program went off the air. So we know that many of you will be pleased to know that he comes back on the air Sunday, October 8, at 1:30 o'clock.

His real name is Harvey Hayes. He is to appear in a series of programs over the NBC which will be sponsored by the Hoover Vacuum Company. He'll do the narrating on the air show. And how he can narrate!

Appearing with Mr. Hayes will be a chorus of sixty voices directed by Nobel Cain and a large orchestra.

On September 24 KFRC in San Francisco was nine years old. As you probably heard, it celebrated the occasion very appropriately the next night, September 25, during the Jamboree—birthday cake and everything. The cake, presented the station by Betty Crocker, stood about a foot high and was big enough around to make a score of little boys have tummy aches if they consumed it all. Nevertheless it was a grand party at the studio that night.

Radio has changed a lot since KFRC first squawked out to the world nine years ago. Harrison Holliday, its present manager, built the station and for several years afterwards was the announcer, operator, technician, publicity director, salesman, et al. But as we set forth above, radio has changed and now KFRC is one of the major stations of the West, with a large staff of employees and doing business that runs into the hundreds of thousands of dollars a year.

KYA is moving bag and baggage into the Hunter-Dulin Building, headquarters for the NBC in San Francisco by November 1. Its present lease at the Warfield Building expires on that date. The station, which is owned by the NBC, will bring its full staff along with it, probably occupying the twenty-first floor of the skyscraper, and will utilize the NBC's studios.

* * *

Another comedian, who is after some of those laurels set up by Wynn and Cantor, steps into the radio limelight on Sunday, October 8, over the NBC. He's Joe (Wanna buy a duck) Penner, practically new to radio but a wow in vaudeville. He'll do his turn from 4:30 to 5 p. m. on Sundays for Standard Brands. KGO gives it out locally.

We're just reminding you once again that the one and only John McCormack begins a series of weekly appearances on the NBC wire-up beginning Wednesday, October 11.

* * *

Walter Damrosch is back on the air with his "Music Appreciation Hours" via the NBC. This makes the sixth consecutive season that he has presented this feature via the network. Dial the program on Fridays from 8 to 9 a. m.

Good luck, Don Wilson. Hope you click big in the East.

The West coast lost one of its best all-around announcers with the departure a few days ago of the popular KFI mikeman who has been heard hundreds of times over the coast NBC chain. Wilson was drafted to serve as announcer on the East NBC chain, specializing in sports broadcasts.

John Eugene Hasty, who has penned many successful series and dramas for radio stations in the Bay district and produced a number of big broadcasts, including the recent "Standard On Parade," was recently named production director for the MacGregor and Solly electrical transcription company.

Other additions to the firm include: Cliff R. Engle, who will have charge of stations relations; C. R. Hampton, supervisor of sales promotion, and C. E. Martin, who will represent the firm in Chicago.

* * *

Frank Galvin at KTAB tips us off that Moore's Clothing Company has signed with the station for a series of football radio rallies on Friday nights at 8:30 o'clock. Coaches, glee clubs and university bands will be heard on the broadcasts.

* * *

KJBS will broadcast a special thirty-minute program on October 12 in cooperation with Blindcraft Week. Talent from the Blindcraft organization, all sightless, will present the program. As guest speaker, Alfred Cleary, city administrator, will tell the meaning of Blindcraft Week and its origination. The time is 2 p. m.

* * *

Fred J. Hart, manager of KQW, is vacationing in a resort in Napa County.

There are some real spine-chillers in those electrically transcribed drama productions which are going on the air these nights for Miracle Diamonds Company. They are clever stories and well acted. Three stations in the Bay district are broadcasting them now: KJBS, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 4:15 to 4:30 p. m.; KQW, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:45 to 8, and Saturdays from 8:15 to 8:30 p. m.; KTAB, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8:45 to 9 p. m. Each episode is a complete story in itself.

* * *

A new religious type program has been booked on KYA entitled "Fellowship of the Air." It may be dialed Sunday mornings, 9 to 9:15 o'clock. Rev. Julian McPheeters conducts the programs.

* * *

The undertaking business, too, has realized the value in radio advertising. N. Gray and Company of San Francisco have a new program on KYA at 9:30 p. m. Sundays called: "Beauty that Endures."

* * *

Dan Doran, with whom we used to work quite a few years ago on a San Francisco newspaper, is directing those Irish programs on KGGC that are broadcast every Thursday night from 7 to 8 o'clock.

* * *

Tony Wons, who created something like a sensation a couple of years back when he was teamed with Morton Downey in nation-girdling broadcasts, is back. You can dial him Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays on the CBS stations (KFRC locally) from 8:30 to 8:45 a. m. He is monickered "The Hoosier Philosopher."

* * *

And did you know that the comely Bluettes, NBC vocalizing trio—Marion Peck, Theresa Aezer and Meredith Gregor—are working before the KFI-KECA and KHJ microphones in Los Angeles? They recently completed a job on Warner Brothers' lot in Hollywood singing a few ditties in Kay Francis' new picture: "House on Fifty-sixth Street."

* * *

Bob Roberts, KTAB manager, explains his perpetual "Rand and McNally" tan is brought about by the San Francisco Bay breezes which blow through his whiskers whilst he maneuvers his recently purchased yacht hither and yon on Sundays.

Earl Sanderson, formerly associated with KFWI, is now announcing at KTAB.

• • • October 7 to 14 is "Blindcraft" week, and many notables will be heard in interesting talks over the following stations: October 7—KFRC, 11:50 a. m., Mayor Angelo Rossi. October 9—KTAB, 6:15 p. m., Edwin S. Moore and Chief Quinn; KJBS, 11:45 a. m., Congresswoman Kahn; KPO, 8:30 p. m., John L. McNab. October 10—KFRC, 4:05 p. m., Louis Byington; KYA, 6:15 p. m., Arthur Brouillet; KJBS, 3:15 p. m., Captain Ireland. October 12—KTAB, 4:45 p. m., John D. Barry; KJBS, 2 p. m., Blindcraft Ensemble, with Chief Administrator A. J. Cleary as speaker. October 13—KYA, 6:15 p. m., Henry Boyen. October 14—KFRC, 11:50 a. m., Ruth A. Quinan, president and general manager of "Blindcraft."

• • • Stuart Buchanan, KNX's ace football announcer, begins his twenty-third consecutive year of activity in football . . . his work is broadcasting now . . . used to be a quarterback at Wabash, where he was taught by Jesse Harper, the man who showed Knute Rockne and Bill Spaulding what the pigskin was all about. . . .

• • • On his recent visit to Vienna, H. V. Kaltenborn, Columbia's news analyst, was interviewed over the Austrian radio network on the subject of President Roosevelt's Recovery Program. When he first received the invitation, he was tempted to depart from his invariable custom of speaking extemporaneously and write out questions and answers in advance. However, with full confidence in his German, he walked into the studio without a script. His German, true to his hopes, was quite adequate for answering all the radio interviewer's questions. What Kaltenborn had not bargained for, though, was the unusually flowery politeness of his interrogator, and, in these instances, his German was no match for elaborate phrases of courtesy directed to him.

• • • Floyd Gibbons, in the course of preparing material for his Johns-Manville program, on which he will report the activities of the NRA, will seek first-hand information from General Johnson.

• • • People seem to travel in circles. Take Harry Richman, for instance. Several years ago he sang his songs in an expensively decorated, well-crowded room on Fifty-sixth Street, Manhattan, every night. That was Manhattan's ace night club of the time, the Club Richman. Then, by way of numerous editions of George White's "Scandals," night club engagements abroad, the Hollywood studios, and radio, he traveled the invisible circle. Now he is back in New York working his vocal wonders on modern songs every Wednesday night in the Fred Waring show at Carnegie Hall. The stage entrance of the venerable concert hall is on Fifty-sixth Street. Two doors away is the entrance to the Richman Beer Garden—the same room that was once the Club Richman. And Harry usually drops in there after the broadcast for a sandwich and a glass of light.

• • • Those high-powered orchestra leaders who stand up and wave a stick and get all the limelight certainly have an easy life. Take Anson Weeks, whose Hotel Mark Hopkins orchestra is heard over NBC networks. Here's a sample day of his, taken from his calendar, at random:

It was Monday, the day when Anson and his orchestra are featured on the M. J. B. Demi Tasse Revue, so Anson was rehearsing before eight that morning. The rehearsal finished, he and the orchestra went to the Warfield Theatre and played the first of four shows there that day; then to a department store, where they gave a concert for Living Music Week; then back to the Warfield Theatre for two more shows; then to NBC's studios for the M. J. B. Revue; then back to the Warfield. Then they departed for the Hotel Mark Hopkins to settle down to some serious playing until 1 a. m.

• • • KMTR boasts the only live talent program in Southern California, between 6 and 7 a. m. daily except Sunday, when the same program is released between 8 and 9 a. m. Shug Fisher and Joe Bradley, cowboy singers, formerly with the Beverly Hillbillies, are the entertainers, and are going over big with their early audience.

• • • The autograph sharks were chasing the stars after the Maxwell House Show Boat broadcast in NBC's Cathedral studio Thursday night, and Muriel Wilson, the Mary Lou of the program, was signing away at a great rate. Suddenly a long printed sheet was slipped under her hand and a voice commanded, "Your autograph, please, Miss Wilson, right on this line."

With pen paused in midair, the soprano halted to look over the sheet. It was an application for insurance.

She didn't sign.

• • • Viola Philo, soprano of Roxy's gang and Radio City Music Hall, celebrated her fifth anniversary as a member of Roxy's group on September 17. During the five years with Roxy, Viola Philo took time off for a European concert tour and for a cross-country concert tour here with Schumann-Heink. At only seventeen years of age she sang with the Metropolitan Opera Company and later joined Roxy. Miss Philo appears regularly on Roxy's Sunday broadcast over the network of the National Broadcasting Company.

• • • Bob Brown, Chicago NBC announcer, has been a hobo for four and one-half years. He is a member in good standing of the International Itinerant Workers' Union, Hoboes of America. On stationery with the proper seals and signatures, he was recently notified of the Hoboes' silver anniversary dinner, held at Waiters' hall, 180 West Randolph Street.

Bob met Jeff Davis when the king of the "rod riders" told his experiences for seven weeks over station WLW. Bob was his announcer and made such a hit with the head of the hobo dynasty that he was soon formally initiated into the organization. The recent invitation was personally signed by King Jeff Davis.

• • • John McCormack, famous Irish-American tenor, and possibly the most beloved singer of his generation, will begin his first extended series of radio concerts October 11. The celebrated singer, whose occasional guest appearances before the microphone in the past have attracted nationwide interest, will be heard over an NBC-KGO network each Wednesday evening at 6:30 p. m.

William Daly, well-known radio musical director, composer and arranger, and former guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra, will accompany McCormack on the half-hour recitals. Daly will direct a fourteen-piece string orchestra. McCormack's repertory for the series will be made up of songs which millions have heard him sing on his worldwide concert tours and on phonograph recordings, and new compositions which the tenor has selected from the works of contemporary writers. Both classical and semi-classical numbers will be included, and an occasional operatic aria, reminiscent of McCormack's career with the Metropolitan Opera Company, will add to the variety of the offerings.

• • • Drury Lane, of Reveries fame on KNX, having his recently won tennis championship virtually snatched from him, to take its place by the side of other KNX trophies in the executive offices . . . why is it that lots of good singers go in hard for tennis?

• • • Deems Taylor, music critic and composer, who introduces and makes fun of Messrs. Whiteman and Jolson on the Kraft hour, is an expert furniture maker in his spare time. Among the furnishings of his house in Stamford, Connecticut, are many specimens of his craftsmanship.

• • • Barney Rapp is distinguished as being the last bandleader to lead an orchestra in the famed old Reisenweber's before it closed. Also, for being the one dance orchestra leader in the annals who actually enjoys dancing himself; he puts himself in the shoes of dancers to judge the tempo of music they enjoy. His soloists are: Babs Miller, a winning blonde with a throaty warble; Eddie Ryan; and tremendous "Buddy" Welcome, who is often mistaken for a dinosaur.

• • • There were 3,800 persons crammed into Carnegie Hall to see the debut of Harry Richman and Milton Berle on the Fred Waring program, and there were plenty more in Fifty-seventh Street wishing they had come earlier.

• • • K M T R Amateur Night, held each Saturday evening between 9 and 10, not only attracts more than capacity crowds to the studios, but raises havoc in ye olde American home. Phone calls to the tune of over a hundred per program give advice, protest, and in general take an interest in the awarding of the cash prizes to the winning contestants.

• • • Phil Harris, who has been making new friends in New York, is a believer in friendship. It was a pal who first pushed the blushing Phil in front of a microphone and made him sing. From then on Phil's progress was rapid.

• • • The Columbia Dramatic Guild took a step recently toward solving the fears of parents concerning the effect of exceptionally tense radio programs on children. A dramatization of Edgar Allan Poe's horror story, "The Black Cat," was preceded by the announcement: "Young children are advised not to listen to the following program."

• • • Did you know that the sound effects for Captain Henry's Show Boat are the most elaborate on the air? The various noises are so intricate, and so much an integral part of the show that the sponsors of the program hire two free-lance technicians who have devised scores of special contraptions to produce exactly the sounds called for in the script. The wheezy show boat calliope tune which inaugurates the program every Thursday evening is played on a life-sized calliope, which is run by compressed air. It has not been tuned for years—purposely, so it will sound like a real show boat. The thrashing and churning of the paddle wheels are produced by a miniature mill wheel which splashes around in a metal tank of water before a microphone. The deep-timbered moan of a river boat's whistle comes from a wooden box which gives just the right effect, if it is blown properly. So, with the help of two men and the gadgets, all the sounds and noises of the actual docking of a big river steamer are reproduced with faithful accuracy every Thursday evening as Captain Henry's Show Boat warps into her landing on her mythical trip along the Mississippi River.

• • • Harry McNaughton, known as Bottle to the millions who tune in Phil Baker the Armour Jester, believes that he is the world's luckiest man. Harry went through the entire war—he spent three years and nine months in the trenches—without receiving a scratch. Later he was in the ill-fated Pathe studios when they burned down, and he again escaped without any injury, although many of his friends perished.

• • • Naylor Rogers, executive vice-president and general manager of KNX, radiating his customary enthusiasm and contemplating a sell-out of all time on the leading major stations in the southland by Thanksgiving. . . . N. R.'s just come back from the East with a pocketful of eastern business for KNX.

• • • Stephen Fox is going to apply for a job in Gracie Allen's Shakespearean Theater because eight of the last nine leading characters he has portrayed in Columbia Dramatic Guild productions have been madmen.

• • • Tito Guizar sang for two hours steadily at a fashionable party in Old Westbury, Long Island, recently to fill twenty requests for songs in four languages.

• • • Thomas Freebairn Smith—KNX's latest announcing addition—is parading around the Chandu studio wearing a newly discovered red moustache, which surprises him as much as the rest of the KNX staff.

• • • This is the tale of a maestro and a violin. For his broadcasts with Floyd Gibbons, Victor Young has to fly to Chicago. So he does. But he ships his violin by train, because he would not risk having anything happen to his fiddle.

• • • Despite the fact that he's nursing a sore throat and a head cold since he arrived in Hollywood, Rubinoff is enthusiastic about the California climate.

"It's wonderful for my Strad," he explained between sniffs and sneezes. "The climate here seems to have a smoothness that actually improves the tone of the violin."

Thankee, lady.

Eddie Fitzgerald Opens the Morning Mail

Huh, Claude?

Was that a knock?

Well, well, our old friend Eddie Fitzgerald is announcing the Feminine Fancies program for Don Lee. It is difficult to believe, because the Fitzgerald was formerly loud in his contempt for wireless. But sure enough, listeners-in will find the Fitzgerald doin' the honors for "the neighbors," as he calls them. And he has raised the standard of the broadcast so that people over ten can enjoy it. He has a pleasant enough voice, too, and speaks clearly and naturally, with no attempt to make it ritzy. He did mention once that he was going into a huddle with himself to acquire an Oxford accent, but nothing came of it.

One more question . . .

Already yet!

Ed just talks along in friendly fashion, seeming to confide in his listeners his own reactions as well as any fun or jokes going on in the studio. He succeeds in this without resorting to stupidly kittenish manners. He just buzzes along in his own way, giving vent to his likes and dislikes, expressing himself as he wishes. He is not afraid to remonstrate with the neighbors' insatiable fondness for such ballads as "Perfect Day."

Who said that?

Hymns on Wednesday?

It appears also that the neighbors write in for his opinion on such burning questions as married love and should married women work. Whereupon the one and only Fitzgerald offers them a treatise in reply which has plenty of common sense in it for the ladies to ponder.

Phew, that's over!

It's a great racket, and it would be interesting to know just how Eddie came to get in it. It is good to know that someone has the courage to talk to an adult on the air, and it proves that there are adults who will listen—if given anything to which they can lend an ear for an hour without growing painfully ill.

IT takes all kinds of people to make up the world, but heaven help the radio artists if everyone felt as Cornelia G. does about fan mail. After all, the mail an artist receives is his only way of knowing whether he is pleasing his audience. And then, too, I've received an answer from almost every artist I've ever written to, so that proves that they are really people and not idols as many people like to believe. However, I didn't set out to comment on other people's opinions, but to find out what has happened to those splendid editorials that greeted the reader's eye as soon as he opened the BROADCAST WEEKLY. I miss them—doesn't anyone else? Let us hope they have not gone to the land of memory never to return. That would be tragic. This is the third week they have been missing.

At last! The Sweetest Voice of the Air" is on the chain again—Hazel Warner, my dear, how nice it is to hear your sweet and beautiful voice on the S. & W. programs. Every time you croon your voice is sweeter than the last time. I do hope that we will hear more of your sweetness and charm on more chain programs.

And again I want to say that I shall be looking for the quick return of the editorial page. Good luck and best wishes to a magazine that is worthy of praise.

Sincerely,

Mildred E., Berkeley, Calif.

GENTLEMEN: Some time back you gave us a picture of the cast of "One Man's Family," which I placed in my album of my favorite stars. I foolishly allowed a friend of mine to talk me out of this picture, thinking that perhaps in the near future you would give us another picture of the cast, but to date none has appeared. Would it be asking too much of you to give us another picture of them, also a picture of Alvino Rey and the Crosscuts Gang? Some of my favorite programs are "One Man's Family," Amos 'n' Andy, Personal Close-ups, Death Valley Days, Farm and Home Hour, Waltz Time, Alvino Rey, Brevities, Marshall's Mavericks, Chester H. Rowell, News, Tom Mitchell, Johnnie O'Brien, S. & W. Mellow Melodies, Roads to Hollywood, Covered Wagon Jubilee, Vagabonds of the Hills, Standard on Parade and John and Ned. This does not include all of my favorites, but it would take up too much space to name them all. Al Pearce and Gang and the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour are both fine programs. Too bad they both come on at the same hour. Frank Watanabe and Archie are also a splendid program, but they come on with Amos 'n' Andy, which makes it bad again.

My favorite orchestras are Anson Weeks, Ben Bernie, Guy Lombardo, B. A. Rolfe, Wayne King, Walter Beban and Jess Stafford. My favorite music is Waltz Time, the old time dance music and jazz. There is a certain brand of jazz music that I dearly love, but it is seldom played and it seems to take well with everyone. I do not know just how to explain it, but it is what I would call the jazziest of jazz. My reason for liking jazz is not because I am young, for I am fifty years of age, but it seems to me it brings out all the beauty there is in dance music. So many people in BROADCAST WEEKLY have expressed their dislike for jazz that I take this occasion to express myself very much in favor of it.

Glad to see Raymond Paige, Hazel Warner and Norman Nielsen on the S. & W. program. Jack and Ethel are always good in any program. I like them. It was a keen disappointment to me to read in BROADCAST WEEKLY that the Sherlock Holmes sponsor saw fit to cancel this fine program. It seemed to be so popular with everyone I have heard speak of it. Yes, I will join the gang and shout it loud: We want Sherlock Holmes!

Like all the rest of BROADCAST WEEKLY readers, I have nothing but praise for this grand little radio magazine. The radio news alone is worth much more than the subscription price.

Before closing I would like to mention two more fine programs. They are Isle of Golden Dreams and Ernie Smith's Sport Page. Ernie makes his sports broadcast very interesting by interviewing so many athletes before the microphone.

Yours very truly,

C. N. H., Port Chicago, Calif.

P. S.—What has become of Cecil Wright? If he is still on the air what station can he be heard over? C. N. H.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Cecil Wright is appearing in theaters in the Pacific Northwest. Not on radio at present.)

WE think BROADCAST WEEKLY the best radio magazine on the market. When there is a better one, we feel sure BROADCAST WEEKLY will publish it. I read it from cover to cover, even the advertisements, and patronize the advertiser.

I think Cornelia G., of Berkeley, Calif., idea of a page for "Gems That Have Glistened" is very good.

Somehow I never can bring myself to write fan letters. Seems to me they are too busy to bother about letters from folks they have never heard of.

Some of the programs we never miss: One Man's Family, Memory Lane, Seth Parker, Feminine Fancies, Globe Headlines, The Philistine, John and Ned, Log o' the Day Crosscuts, Mellow'd Melodies. There are so many good programs that I wonder at folks complaining about the ones they don't like when it is so easy to turn the dial and find something worth while. Just so long as programs are kept clean I won't complain.

Best wishes for abundant prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. D., Hollister, Calif.

I HAVE been a constant reader of BROADCAST WEEKLY ever since its inception, and enjoy it more and more as time goes on. Frequently I get out my old copies and note the different artists who have passed into the discard, and with some regret, too, as there were many who gave us hours of good, wholesome, inspiring entertainment.

I am heartily in accord with the article by C. D. A., San Francisco, in this week's issue, particularly in the paragraph relating to the comment on the frequent appearances of certain artists: "some artists are rushed to death with an overcrowded schedule, while others, in many cases superior, are left free with nothing to do." It is quite true that it cannot be popular demand, for I find upon inquiry among my many contacts, it is clearly brought out that it is a sad fact that we listeners must hear the same ones over and over again, when we know of several really good artists, one or two who have gained national recognition, who are truly left with nothing to do. Is this the spirit of NRA? While it is true that entertainers of this class are under the professional classification, still they must eat and pay their bills. Why not distribute the work more evenly and make everyone happier—artists and public alike.

Another thing that will bear investigation is the sad but true fact that in certain orchestras, members are allowed to play two or three different instruments during the program, and also to do vocal work, for which they receive extra compensation, thus eliminating one or two others who might get that extra work. Is this fair, and again is it the spirit of this very worth while National policy, the NRA?

My sincere compliments to you for the clean, high grade magazine that you are publishing and may you continue to follow this policy and to improve as you have done in all these years. I would certainly welcome the return of the Critique which was discontinued so long ago.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. G. E. S., San Jose, Calif.

BEING a consistent subscriber of BROADCAST WEEKLY and a radio fan, and builder (amateur) of many years (1923) standing. I want to back you up in the "Sherlock Holmes" series program. If the G. Washington Coffee Company cannot see their way clear to sponsor, then by all means let the NBC sustain the program. Because my household says we want that program and those self-same players. No fooling.

J. H. N., Santa Cruz, Calif.

REACH out your hand to me, my friend, I'll take you to the rainbow's end.

You'll not regret, your coming here,

It's truly nice, so never fear.

You'll feel you've missed life's biggest thrill,

So stay a while, and get your fill

Of music that is soft and sweet:

'Twill help to make your day complete.

Now, can't you guess—well—yes, it seems—

Of course, Paul Carson's "Bridge to Dreams."

Glady's K., Ferndale, Wash.

ISN'T there something we can do to keep some of our good programs with us? First we had the Goldbergs, grew to love them and then what happened? That's what we would like to know. Then Sherlock Holmes, good, clean and entertaining stories. And the latest news is Vic and Sade leaving us. I could never understand why Vic and Sade weren't on an evening program where more could enjoy them. But to have them off the western hook-up is more than discouraging. The stories we have been getting over the Story Teller each week, also the stories Monday evening at 9 are not very enjoyable. Some are gruesome, some have very poor endings and some no endings at all. Why not take them off and give us something that we all want and more than enjoy. When our favorite program is being sponsored by a firm selling a product I am sure we all buy that product, also boost the same to our friends, in this way trying to do our bit and show our appreciation. We still have one bright little spot yet and that's our BROADCAST WEEKLY. Best of wishes for your continued success.
