ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

HERE you are, limerick contestants. Here's the winner of our Limerick No. 1, published in the issue of December 3 to 9:

Mrs. J. Corey,
Route 3, Box 349,
San Jose, Calif.

Congratulations, Mrs. Corey. A check for one dollar is already in the mail, headed your way.

We reprint the limerick from that issue with the winning last line, which was submitted by the San Jose reader:

An ace of a wisecracker is Rubin.
He knows just when to boob 'em.
To Horace he'll say
Why don't you play—
The Heidt of all music to sooth 'em.

The decision of the limerick judges came only after long hours of reading and grading the scores of limericks submitted. The judges wish to give honorable mention to James J. Wolfson, 2400 Chestnut Street, San Francisco, and Harry Bowman, Palo Alto, Calif.

Ether Gleanings is awarding one dollar each week to the reader who submits the best last line to the limericks printed in this department. Below is Limerick No. 3. Fill in the last line and try for the prize. All limericks must be in this department by December 20. Act now. It's barrels of fun. And you've a chance to cash in on it, too.

Limerick No. 3

I say, vas you dere, Sharley?
Asks the Baron in folly.
This retort does evoke
The beginning of a joke

Persistent rumors that station KYA in San Francisco has been purchased by William Randolph Hearst continue to pop up. The story has been going about for some weeks, although no definite statement of the sale of the station has been made by NBC. Don E. Gilman, vice-president in charge of the Pacific Division of the network, which also owns KYA, told us just before going to press that if such a transaction had been made it was made in the East and he had not as yet been informed of it. Edward McCallum, manager of the station, professed ignorance of such a deal, also.

It will be recalled that Hearst attempted to purchase KYA three or four years ago, but was blocked just about the time the deal was clinched by a sudden rise in the sale price to a ridiculous amount. A court battle followed, but proved of no avail to the would-be purchaser.

The fine voice of Lawrence Tibbett will take wing over the ether when he appears on his first program in a series for the Firestone Tire people. Dial him on the NBC network December 18 at 8:30 o'clock.

* * *

Symbolic of the swiftness with which their razors are supposed to give you a shave, the Gillette Razor Company is taking just one minute every night of the week on KFRC to tell of the virtues of their product. It's an electrical transcription.

Hey, hey, you bachelors who go in for the culinary art. Lend an ear to Merton Bories, ex-KPO and NBC, who is now strutting his talents across the KJBS Theater of the Air at 9:45 every morning except Sunday. He deals out recipes of dishes particularly appealing to men, and what's more, interspersing it with piano "moosic."

Some renewals: Tim and Irene on NBC—thirteen weeks, by Humboldt Beer; Phil Harris and orchestra—for one year, by Northam Warren, manufacturers of Cutex products, on NBC Fridays 6 to 6:30 p. m.; Rudy Vallee and orchestra—for one year, by Fleishman Yeast—on NBC; Eddie Cantor, one year, by Chase and Sanborn Coffee, on NBC; Captain Dobbie for his "Ship of Joy" and "Del Monte Happytime," for one year, by California Packing Corporation, on NBC.

In our meanderings around the labyrinth of studios and swanky offices at the NBC t'other day, met up with John Swallow, producer and m. c. of "Hollywood on the Air" and in charge of all radio productions for the RKO studios in Hollywood.

He hopped to San Francisco to get the lowdown on some transmitting technicalities.

Possessor of a most pleasing personality, we found him easy to talk to and interesting.

"What kind of coöperation do you get from the stars for the 'Hollywood on the Air' programs"? we asked.

"Well," he came back at us almost before we had finished our question, "most of them are playing hall with us in grand style. They realize the tremendous publicity value of radio. One of the major Hollywood studios has been stubborn about letting its stars appear on the program, though, but I feel confident that they will break down soon.

"Are the stars paid who take part on the 'Hollywood on the Air' program"? was our next one.

"No, they are not. They are tickled to death of the opportunity of bringing themselves into the homes of such a tremendous audience and calling attention to their forthcoming pictures. Hang it, they ought to pay us."

Among those who have held out from the radio mikes are Wheeler and Woolsey, Swallow told us. "I know for a fact," he said, "that they recently turned down an offer for $5,000 a week to go on the air."

Mothers and fathers: Tell your son about this one: KTAB is now broadcasting a serial script act titled "Rusty, the Boy Aviator." Dial it from 5 to 5:15 p. m. every weekday except Saturday. It is written especially to appeal to the air-minded youth and relates in drama form the adventures of a boy and two war-time aviators in a trip around the world.

Jack MacKinnon, 15-year-old San Francisco boy, takes the principal role.

The Standard Oil Company has added station KGU in Honolulu to the network of NBC stations releasing the Standard Symphony concert on Thursday evening, December 21. It may become a permanent arrangement. The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will broadcast on that night.

* * *

As we set forth in these pages in a previous issue, the NBC is going to bring us another season of broadcasts of grand opera from the Metropolitan Opera House in New York.

The initial one will be Christmas Day, when Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" will be broadcast across the country. KGO will release all of the operas.

In announcing the opera broadcasts, M. H. Aylesworth, president of the NBC, stated that more than a score of the operas will be radioed by his organization during the fourteen weeks season. He also pointed out that the continuation of grand opera at the famous old Metropolitan was made possible this year by the guarantee fund of $300,000 obtained through radio and stage appeals made last spring. The NBC cooperated with the committee to raise the fund, which was headed by Lucrezia Bori.

* * *

Lena May Leland, who conducts the Friendly Hour on KQW daily except Sundays from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m., is one of the few mistresses of ceremonies on the air. The tremendous popularity of her sixty-minute pot pourrie broadcast attracts many persons to the San Jose studios, who come to watch the popular star and her assisting artists work.

* * *

As usual they had to paste up the S. R. O. (standing room only) sign when the KFRC Jamboreadors, captained by Harrison Holliday, appeared at the Sacramento Civic Auditorium recently. They presented two hours in the spacious auditorium under the auspices of the Sacramento Bee and the Sacramento merchants. The place bulged to overflowing with humanity at both performances.

TUNG-SOL'S reputation as a precision manufacturer was established long before radio was born.

Look at the light bulbs in your automobile. They are probably Tung-Sols, because most of the cars in America have for years been initially equipped with Tung-Sol bulbs.

Can you think of any product on which precision methods of manufacture are more important or rigid standards of quality more vital than the light bulbs on which the safety of millions of motorists depends?

And if the leading automobile engineers in the world's greatest automobile owning nation have for years found Tung-Sol bulbs so outstandingly superior that they have specified them repeatedly, isn't that a tribute to Tung-Sol's standing as a manufacturer of precision built products?

To build good radio tubes demands precisely the same type of manufacturing operation as to build good automobile bulbs. And when it comes to that kind of experience, Tung-Sol stands alone!

Look for the dealer in your community who sells Tung-Sol radio tubes. The fact that he has the Tung-Sol franchise is in itself a sign of dependability and evidence of his desire to give you reliable merchandise and service.

They call it the

LONG-LIFE TUBE

... and absolute precision in every single manufacturing operation maintains that Tung-Sol reputation!

You can't see what makes Tung-Sol a longer lasting tube, and even the readings on the dealer's testing apparatus tell only part of the story. . . But it's the years of experience in precision production, the use of processes and the adherence to inspection standards which in many respects are unique in the tube industry, that show up after months of perfect performance in your set. . . And after all, flawless performance is the important thing you buy when you buy any tube, because the finest receiver in the world is only as good as the tubes in it. . . Try Tung-Sols in your radio next time you need tubes and convince yourself that they actually do give better service longer.

The OPEN CIRCUIT

This department is open to all. Send in your letters. Anonymous letters will not be published. Give full name and address.

BROADCAST WEEKLY seems a necessity to me in spite of the fact that the daily papers give the programs in full. However, one does not get the interesting bits of the personalities of radio in that way. I miss the splendid editorials it used to give us; also the questions answered by "Gypsy."

I always feel privileged to "listen in" and do so systematically when possible, to the various fine programs, and the air is full of them. I have no patience with people who say "I turn on the radio and get nothing but jazz." With the great privilege of radio we must have advertising, and if we do not listen we miss many fine artists. How much of the best in music is given us by both NBC and KFRC without advertising! The fine symphony orchestras of the West. And did you hear the Minneapolis Symphony last night? Beautiful! And right at home! The Charles Hart orchestra, the Arion Trio, Josef Hornik, Emil Polak, Meredith Willson, in his "The Orchestra" on Tuesday evening; Paul Carson and Alvino Rey, The Lindens, Sarah Kreindler, Gwynfi Jones Saturday morning on "The Magazine." Easton Kent in his clever Japanese Gardener role, and later song recital Wednesday morning on "The Magazine." Irving Kennedy in his "Magic Melodies." Everett Foster, John Teel. These are a few of my favorites; there are others.

The dramas are most of them well acted, as well as the "skits" and dramatic sketches.

Those who do not listen to "Ranger Jim Robins" on "The Farm and Home Hour" on Monday miss a treat as well as a lesson. I could not help but cogitate on what took place in the "Stars of the West" "Acme" program a couple of weeks ago. The original cast was very pleasing. In fact the "Acme" of good taste, just enough of two kinds of music to make a perfect whole. Suddenly one "star" dimmed completely, another, then necessarily was overcast. When he appeared again what happened was so incongruous that one could not but take notice in that the (so-called) Irish tenor stood attention while the lesser star scintillated in the song, "That's the Irish in Me." One could see the writing on the wall, crude though it was. Be that as it may, we must appreciate the business of pleasing sponsors—the blending of voices and personalities in the various programs.

"Wheatenville" is a pleasing program and well done. It advertises a good cereal, and since Nelson Case says it's good for the complexion we ordered an extra package.

The Lee S. Roberts "Memory Box" is always good.

Now I must stop as I've advertised quite enough for one sitting. I'm ever thankful for radio, and the men and means whereby it has been brought into our homes.

More success to BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Sincerely,

R. M. McK., Oakland, Calif.

I AM writing to tell you that I enjoy your BROADCAST WEEKLY very much. I also read the letters and comments on the radio broadcasts.

I am greatly in need of some information. Where! Oh! Where! have the following artists gone? I heard them on the "Blue Monday Jamboree" two years ago, but they have disappeared. Here are the names of the lost artists: Bill Wright, Tommy Monroe, Arnold Maguire, Eugene Hawes as Pedro Gonzales, Edna O'Keefe and others who use to be on the "Blue Monday Jamboree."

I don't see why the NBC-KGO cannot broadcast "Al Pearce and Gang" at a later hour so that we Middle Westerners that live east of the Rockies can listen to them, too. The only stations from the Pacific Coast I can tune in clear and loud are KFI, KPO, KNX and KSL, 7:30 or 8 p. m. and later, C. S. T.

Where are the "Arizona Wranglers" that use to broadcast over KNX? Are they off the air for good?

Thanking you for your fine magazine, and wishing you and the BROADCAST WEEKLY a successful year.

Sincerely,

John R. O'C., St. Paul, Minn.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following artists are still heard on various KFRC programs including the Blue Monday Jamboree (which is now broadcast on Thursday nights, 9:15 to 10 p. m.): Edna O'Keefe, William Wright and Arnold Maguire. Eugene Hawes is appearing over Los Angeles stations.

The Arizona Wranglers recently returned to KNX after a personal appearance tour. They are broadcasting under the name of Sheriff Underwood's Range Riders.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Radio engineers of the National Broadcasting Company are checking their data on radio's latest achievement, the transmission of the human voice from the stratosphere, attained during the ascent of Lieut-Commander T. G. W. Settle, U. S. N., and Major Chester L. Fordney, U. S. Marine Corps, to an approximate height of 59,000 feet recently.

Never before had the human voice been heard from an altitude above the atmospheric levels and yet so clearly were the voices of Commander Settle and Major Fordney heard during the seven broadcasts relayed to the public over NBC network facilities, that listeners found it hard to believe that the broadcasts were the first attempted from such a height. By means of short-wave transmitters, the National Broadcasting Company was in almost constant communication with the balloonists from the moment they began their ascent in Akron, Ohio, at 8:29 a. m. CST, until shortly before they landed near Bridgeton, N. J., at 4:50 p. m., CST.

• • • The sixteen members of the San Diego Indoor Sports Club, composed entirely of members who are confined to their wheel chairs visited the Monday, November 27, matinee broadcast of the Al Pearce show at the Fox Theatre. After the show the Gang autographed their pictures for them. They have not missed a single broadcast since March 6, when the Pearce show went on NBC.

• • • Bill Doemling's colleagues from KHJ descended on the genial announcer and m.c. en masse to help him celebrate his twenty-fourth birthday. It was a surprise attack and Bill's thinning hair stood on end at the suddenness of the onslaught. The evening was a huge success from an entertainment standpoint with Paul Rickenbacker, sedate production chief for Don Lee, unbending and obliging with several German ditties. Paul then joined with Mona Lowe, his wife, in rendering many touching duets. This so moved Chas. (Snake) Bulotti, that the bass-voiced announcer turned songbird.—Note: the party broke up immediately after Charlie's offerings.

• • • Clarkin Dennis, Singer, has been added to the staff of KHJ. Dennis, who started radio in the Atwater Kent auditions of 1932, was featured with Earl Hines at the Grand Terrace Cafe in Chicago and at the Coconut Grove with Teddy Joyce. He made his local radio debut with the Sunday night "Merrymakers" and will be featured in his own sustaining program with the Islanders.

• • • The Eb and Zeb broadcasts, in which Al Pearce plays two different characters, are now sponsored on 27 different stations over the country.

• • • C. Ellsworth Wylie, General Manager of KHJ and the Don Lee Broadcasting System, has received a letter from H. L. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, congratulating the Don Lee staff on its excellent work during the recent broadcast from the dirigible U. S. S. Macon on Navy Day, October 27.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote, in part, "The reports received indicate that this broadcast was highly successful and I wish to express appreciation of your splendid coöperation with the Navy during its 'day at home to our people.'"

• • • Sponsors of the Chase and Sanborn Hour have just signed Eddie Cantor to a new contract covering his broadcasting on the program through the end of 1934. Coming at a time when there is considerable speculation as to whether the vogue for radio comedy is on the wane, the action of the sponsors is taken to indicate confidence that radio fans are going to continue to appreciate the sort of entertainment Cantor gives, as much as they have in the past.

The hour with Cantor as star reached No. 1 rating in the surveys designed to show radio popularity. He started on the program in 1931.

The new contract comes in the same week as Eddie's appointment to be President Roosevelt's representative, with Marie Dressler and A. Lawrence Lowell, on the motion picture code authority. As in previous years, Eddie will be able to take time off in the spring and summer for picture activities.

• • • Vera Van, blonde songstress with a "blue-velvet voice" and the distinctive music of Jacques Renard's Orchestra are being heard with Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd since the two comedians returned to the air over a nation-wide Columbia network on Saturday, December 16. The singer and band appear with the comics every Wednesday and Saturday for Pontiac at 6:15 p. m. Her engagement on this new series marks the first time that Miss Van has appeared on the air for a sponsor. Along with Bing Crosby and the Boswell Sisters, she is among those who was graduated from "California Melodies" to the Columbia staff. Vera started singing over the network from New York in June of this year and since that time her unique interpretations of popular melodies have won her a large following. The Renard orchestra is an outstanding radio favorite. It was introduced to the nation on the six-a-week series with Morton Downey and Ton Wons during the 1931-32 season. After a year's absence from the airwaves, portly Jacques and his men resumed broadcasting six months ago. Ray Sinatra, the conductor's close friend and one of radio's leading pianists, will make the arrangements for the orchestra.

• • • True Boardman, who plays the role of George Washington in KMTR's "Our Romantic Presidents," toured the country with Ruth Chatterton in "The Green Hat" when he was but 10 years old. He is heard Friday nights from 8 to 8:30 o'clock over the Hollywood station in this historical drama. Boardman is the son of Virginia Boardman, noted character actress of the stage and screen . . . Wallace Kadell, who also plays a leading part in "Our Romantic Presidents," will play one of the court guards in Paramount studio's version of "Catherine the Great."

• • • Phil Hanna, tenor in the Al Pearce Three Cheers Trio, will marry Ruth Porter of Spokane, on December 25. Just the immediate members of the families will be present at the ceremony. Phil met his finance during the Gang's trip North last summer. She is 18. Phil is 23.

• • • Don Dean, the singing orchestra leader who is the outstanding star of the South American airwaves, flew from Buenos Aires to Chicago to appear over the Columbia network during one of the "Myrt and Marge" broadcasts.

While Myrtle Vail was in South America gathering material for their new radio series she met Dean, an entertainer from the United States. He originally went to the Argentine capital on a three months' contract, but proved so popular in that short period that he remained for three years. At Myrt's invitation he made the special flight to Chicago for her broadcast over Columbia. While in the Windy City, he also appeared with the "Myrt and Marge" cast in behalf of the Radio Community Fund Drive at the Chicago Stadium.

• • • Al Pearce has a great many assistants in his activities but there is one job he likes to do himself. That is, to take care of the thousands of toys that come in each year for the children in the hospitals. Last year, with two helpers, he worked until two and three in the morning, night after night, unwrapping them and getting them ready for distribution. He doesn't find it work—he loves it.

• • • One of the toughest instrumental assignments in radio, according to the musicians, is that of tooting a trumpet in B. A. Rolfe's orchestra. Rolfe, famous as a trumpet soloist, uses his trumpet section to get effects many other leaders don't use simply because they don't know how to play them.

• • • Scouts report sighting Kay Van Riper (KFWB) attired in shorts and a silk blouse, pedalling her way on a bicycle up the hills in Hollywoodland. It was also reported that a car trailed the pretty blonde actress author-ess just in case! During the past week Miss Van Riper, who has been ill, announced that she gained four pounds.

• • • Frank Black, the maestro, is one of the casualties of the opening of Radio City. As he sat down in a chair to start the largest orchestra ever heard in New York—400 men—to rehearse, the conductor's chair toppled over backwards and he sustained painful leg injuries.

• • • "Polly Armstrong" of the "H Bar O Ranch" show, KHJ is Jean Darling of the flickering celluloids? Yep, little Jean, age 11, has been leading lady for "Our Gang" comedies for four years, having made thirty-six silent and seven talking pictures and was headlined in vaudeville over the RKO and Faramount-Public circuits in the east and middle west.

• • • Tom Coakley's orchestra players call him "Imrock." The leader of the Palace Hotel Rose Bowl Room orchestra writes his name "Thomas I. Coakley," but has always stubbornly refused to divulge what the second initial stands for. A bright clarinet-player decided it must be "Imrock."

• • • A basketball game was the cause of Walter Campbell of KOA, Denver, entering the radio game. A station at Nashville had scheduled a game and engaged Campbell to try his luck. The result, a regular berth as announcer and shortly thereafter director-announcer of the station.

• • • At the age of eleven the ambition of Phil Harris, who is heard with his orchestra over NBC, was to become a daring young man on a flying trapeze, but all that ended when his slide for life from a tree top went wrong one day and young Harris was sent to the hospital for repairs.

• • • Lindsay MacHarrie, Los Angeles writer and producer, has again entered the active radio field. Gus Mack, manager of KMTR, announced that MacHarrie will become program director of the Hollywood station.

A super-program of welcome for the new executive was presented by the KMTR staff, headed by Salvatore Santarella and his concert orchestra, "Topsy," and an array of guest artists including Jack and Grace Stern, participated

• • • Hazel Warner, songbird of the South, received a tiny box containing four beautiful semi-precious stones in last week's mail. Further inquiry disclosed that the stones were sent by an approving jeweler in the northern part of the state. Hazel blushed prettily as she refused to reveal the donor's name.

• • • Sylvano Dale, noted tap dancer who appears before the microphone with the Magnolia Minstrels, is the only dancer regularly employed in radio. He has played every kind of dancing rôle before the microphone, from his own specialty, tap dancing, to the part of a "hooch" dancer in a carnival.

• • • Alice Faye: The blond warbler with Rudy Vallee's orchestra is a New Yorker. Her parents have been in one form or another of entertainment business, her father as moving picture director. She never sang professionally until Rudy brought her to the microphone. She danced in George White's "Scandals" and Vallee met her then and learned of her ambition to sing. Previously she had been a Chester Hale girl in vaudeville and was briefly in N. T. G.'s Revue.

• • • Ozzie Nelson is a product of Rutgers University and New Jersey Law School, from which he was graduated in 1930. He played quarterback for the college team and was intercollegiate welterweight boxing champion, as well as a member of the hockey, swimming and lacrosse teams. When he could not make the glee club, he took up the saxophone and then organized an orchestra for dance engagements. Played at many of the most popular restaurants and casinos around New York, usually with a network wire, but his first network commercial was the Bakers Broadcast, which he started with Joe Penner, September, 1933.

• • • Julie Kellar, KNX harpist, whose specially built "radio harp" has caused much comment in musical circles, has been appointed Professor of the Harp at the University of Southern California, she writes. Miss Kellar is one of the outstanding artists of the harp and is preparing a book on the history of this instrument, which is said to be the direct ancestor of our present day pianoforte.

• • • Joan Winters, the widow in the NBC Widow and Angel broadcasts, owns a prize-winning trick horse named Peter Pan, which has carried off numerous honors in horse shows.

• • • Bill Goodwin, KHJ's curly haired pride and joy, has revealed his hidden talents much to his colleague's dismay.—Yep, Bill has taken to singing. Over the network too! He crooned a number from "Gold Diggers of 1933" t'other night on the "Jack Ross' Dude Ranch" program. According to reports, Bill's well considered as an announcer, but as a crooner he's well considered as an announcer.

• • • Phil Hanna, tenor with the Three Cheers, on the two o'clock daily NBC show, jumped from Cheer Leader for the Los Angeles Junior College to a radio crooner's berth. So that's where crooners get their training!

• • • Glen Gray is a typical Casa Loman clean-cut and obliging—topping it all off with a nice smile. He was cashier in a Santa Fe railroad office, tooting a beloved sax after hours, when he decided to take two years for a try at music as a livelihood. Accordingly, he packed up and went to Chicago, where he studied at the American Conservatory and played odd jobs. It was a wild goose chase which took him to Detroit, then a boom city. He heard that sax players were being paid fabulously—and he joined up with Gene Goldkette, where he was one of the original Casa Loma investigators. He plays first sax—an important job.

• • • Earl Hatch, Al Pearce pianist, thought he played all the percussion instruments there are. But on a recent trip over to Agua Caliente he stumbled onto a new one—the Cymbalom. This particular Cymbalom was being played by a Hungarian at the Agua Caliente Hotel. It is a native Hungarian instrument. The man had two, so Earl bought the spare. He's afraid it might get nosed around that he can't play every percussion instrument made. The Cymbalom looks like an overgrown zither. It is played by striking the strings with padded hammers.

• • • Albert Spalding, the foremost American violinist you hear every Wednesday over Columbia-WABC, can remember every note of music he's played and has a phenomenal grasp of telephone numbers, but he can't remember names to save his life.

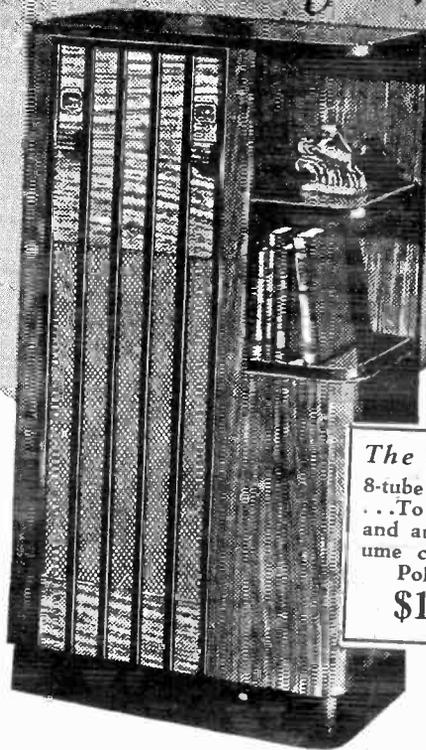

• • • John Gibson, "Sleepy Dolan" of Globe Headlines, who relieved Earle Hampton in writing these episodes during the latter's vacation, will continue his assignment of scripting this adventurous newspaper serial indefinitely.

Incidentally, "Sleepy" is a quiet sort of person in real life—but is he addicted to loud suits and heavy haberdashery? Phew!

• • • Bert Lahr, the ong-ong-onging comic, has hired a former newspaper editor to sit on the Lahr gag copy desk and direct the efforts of his material writers!

SILHOUETTES

FROM fish peddler to conductor of one of the most unusual radio programs of the year is the story of the rise of Elder Solomon Lightfoot Michaux, the "Happy Am I" negro preacher, heard with his singing congregation over a nation-wide Columbia network. The elder has been a familiar figure in the nation's Capital, but not until Columbia put a microphone in his church on the banks of the Potomac River did he and his homely expression of religion become the subject of household appreciation from coast to coast.

Born in Virginia, home of natural preachers and orators, Elder Michaux eventually worked his way to the establishment of the present "Church of God" in the nation's Capital. The edifice often is graced by the presence of Capital dignitaries, ex-Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson more than once having visited the church to see and hear the service. From this Church, Elder Michaux spreads his philosophy of religion—a philosophy which teaches that religion should make one happy and that the way of religion into a home is through the servant. President Franklin D. Roosevelt's personal valet is an attendant of Elder Michaux's church.

In this manner of teaching religion, Elder Michaux believes he is one hundred years ahead of his time. Holding to his creed of happiness for all, he begins all of his broadcasts with the stirring hymn "Happy Am I," written and dedicated to President Roosevelt during a revival meeting held in Washington's Griffith Stadium, where thousands stood in the drizzling rain. The first copy was hurried to the White House by special messenger right from the park.

Elder Michaux came to CBS in a series of daily early morning broadcasts over WJSV, Columbia's Washington station. By wide public request, this is still retained in addition to his network broadcast. Each morning, he usually asks his seen and unseen audience to "wipe off the sun and start the day clean and smiling." One of his prized responses is a letter from the Chief of Police of Washington thanking the elder for his work in helping to reduce crime in the Capital city. The elder has it framed in his office. Specifically, Elder Michaux was born in Newport News, Virginia. He deserted a fish peddling business he had established and entered the ministry at Hopewell, Virginia, in 1917, where he had his first church. Here, too, he had his first experience with radio, his church services being broadcast by the local station. This station broadcast the first baptismal conducted by the elder, when fully 20,000 persons lined the banks of Chesapeake Bay for the ceremony. Elder Michaux came to Washington in 1929 and immediately established the Washington Church of God under the Gospel Spreading Association. His church services were broadcast by WJSV as an independent station, and this program was the only one retained when the station joined the Columbia network. Early in 1933 the program was given to the coast-to-coast network, and today the fish peddler speaks to millions from New York to California.

Elder Michaux has jammed various public spots in Washington far beyond capacity ever since his arrival. Fire and police squads had to call for reserves to handle the crowds during his meeting in a big auditorium and request had to be made that no more songs be sung because of fear that the swaying of the crowd in time to the singing would actually bring down the crowded balconies.

Elder Michaux, despite his many and varied activities, holds his church strictly within the rules of the Gospel Spreading Association. He draws no salary. Once a month his congregation has a free-will offering for him. Consequently, he is not a hired preacher and cannot be fired and hence, as he puts it, "plays no favorites but God." No member of his church smokes, drinks or dances. One day in each month each member of the church fasts, the money they would have spent going to the unemployed. When the church assumes a debt, the congregation fasts an additional day to pay it off. The church supports homes for evicted families, the blind and otherwise crippled in Washington, Baltimore, and Newport News, Va. At present some eighty members of evicted families enjoy shelter in a special home in Washington. All these things, Elder Michaux says, enable his congregation to sing "Happy Am I," and mean it.

The "Smart Set" of Radio

Majestic

THE LIDO - $103.50

Here is a radio that "belongs" in modern settings, or will add a welcome touch of originality to more usual environments. A new and refreshing note in design that gets away from the deadly-dull monotony of the ordinary radio. Five different tones of woods are employed—from natural to ebony.

Houses the famous Majestic superheterodyne chassis with the new "DUO-VALVE" tubes. These tubes are also self-shielded—molten metal fused directly on the glass effectively shutting out interference.
