TO BILLY PAGE

A BRIGHT and prosperous New Year to Billy.
I trust you won't think my limericks silly—
They are written by one
Who since you begun
Your first broadcast—has heard you willy-nilly.

ON BROADCAST WEEKLY's front page
That clever young man, Billy Page,
As Jack Barbour he's smart,
And is doing his part
To make Wesson Oil all the rage.

With Snowdrift we can always be sure
Our pies are more popular than before.
No one can abuse it,
For the Barbours all use it,
And I hear Jack's—Oh! Boy! Give me more.

Also in dear old Memory Lane
Billy might very well be quite vain.
He's played all these years,
With laughter and tears,
Billy Smithers—all our love you gain.

Now the Bugle has a great name;
Billy Smithers is playing the game.
As Editor-in-Chief,
'Tis my belief
The Bugle will keep its fair fame.

You asked for a Limerick Ad;
Myself I don't think these are bad.
Those you've had up to now
Weren't much of a wow.
In fact these are the best you have had.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year to BROADCAST WEEKLY—a grand little paper.
Hope you will print these limericks.

Mrs. H. B. S., Hemet, Calif.

AS a subscriber to BROADCAST WEEKLY I find it a very enjoyable little magazine, especially the personal notes about artists and programs.

However, I should like to submit the following suggestion, which in my estimation, would be an improvement. Why not have all the programs at each hour and half hour listed together. As it is now we are obliged to go all over two pages to find the most suitable program at any given time. I have had other people agree with me on this.

Also I think it would be a good idea to include KSL and KOA in your list, as we can tune them in almost as easily as the coast stations, although I notice you list KSL on some days.

Best of success,

Arthur H. P., Klamath Falls, Ore.

I WOULD like to have you settle an argument for me. Some of my family think "Seth Parker" cruise broadcast every Tuesday evening is a fake and that it is broadcasted in regular station, while others think it is broadcasted on ship but the ship is in one port all the time. Kindly advise the truth on this broadcast. Am advised that a lot of people would rather have Philip Lord take part of Seth Parker and broadcast his programs on Sunday evening like he use to.
[EDITOR'S NOTE: See first item on Microphone Gossip page, this issue, for information on Seth Parker.]

Sometime ago I heard Al Pearce and his Gang were to play in Butte at the Fox Theater and when they were on tour they never came here. Why didn't they come to Butte?

Do you know of any other radio stars that are on tour and will come this way?

Yours truly,

Wilbur J., Butte, Montana.

MY grandmother takes the magazine and we enjoy it very much. Your Open Circuit and Microphone Gossip is very interesting.

We have a regular program for every evening, and when something is changed it spoils everything. The new hour for One Man's Family is especially bad. It means we cannot hear Myrt and Marge. They are very interesting and we don't like to miss their last evening in the week. Friday night is also the usual night for we young folks to go out. That means we must miss our favorite program. That is the reason I am going to urge everyone who feels the same as I do to let the sponsors know. I am sure that if enough of us want it they will use the old hour for One Man's Family.

I wish all the radio fans a very prosperous new year.

M. C. K., Calistoga.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

DAME RUMOR has it that Campana, already sponsoring two coast to coast etherizations over the NBC, is warming up for the third.

From the same source we get it that Carveth Wells, the noted author and traveler is to be heard on a coast to coaster under the protecting wing of a sponsor, right soon now.

Tom Gerun of the Bal Tabarin in San Francisco took his band on tour January 24, and is being replaced temporarily by Kay Kyser, the lad with the Louisiana drawl, and his musical cohorts. You will remember that the latter were a great success when they appeared at the Bal last year while Gerun was making a lot of new friends at the World's Fair in Chicago.

In addition to the nightly dance "moosic" broadcast from the Bal over KGO, there is a special half-hour of entertainment from 6:15 to 6:45 o'clock, which features Tim and Irene, Will Aubrey, another comic, and Kay Kyser.

Dot Kay, blues singer, who has been heard on various stations in the bay area of late, has been signed by the NBC.

In addition to KGO, KPO is also now releasing those Metropolitan Opera House productions on the NBC. Eighty-one stations are broadcasting the operas, released on Saturdays.

A new frolic-type broadcast hits the air via the Don Lee network on February 2—Borden's Friday Frolic—which should prove both fast and novel. The Borden Company has signed a twenty-six weeks contract, and will broadcast direct from the stage, featuring Fanchon and Marco acts being played in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle, San Diego, and other coast towns. M. J. B., you recall, tried out that idea some weeks back, but didn't keep it. The opening program will originate in Los Angeles. The time is to be from 8:45 to 9:15 o'clock.

Gary Breckner, former sports announcer for KHJ, has been named production manager for KGB, Don Lee's station at San Diego.

Helene Hughes, soprano, and Bill Carey are two new staff artists at KFRC. The former has been singing at local theatres for several years, and Carey, a jazz singer, comes from Ted Fio-Rito's orchestra.

The best demonstration of genuine co-operation among the bay district radio broadcasting stations ever witnessed by this scribbler occurred on the recent twenty-sixth anniversary program of KQW of San Jose and San Francisco.

Each of the ten stations sent their own talent to KQW to participate on the special birthday salute broadcast on the evening of January 15. A total of twenty-two artists participated, exclusive of the speakers, which included Mayor Angelo Rossi of San Francisco; United States District Attorney H. H. McPike, and Dr. Charles D. Herrold, inventor, who built KQW twenty-six years ago.

The spirit of friendliness and coöperation was uppermost in the artists, too. They put everything "they had" into their song, story, monologue, or musical selection. Of course, there was friendly rivalry, and each act and artist tried to outdo the others—as the result a commendable program was forthcoming. Fred J. Hart, Eva P. Hart, and the gang at the station are still counting and reading the several thousand letters that came in on the birthday program.

The artists who participated on the KQW event included: Doric Quartet (Harry Stanton, Everett Foster, Myron Neisley, and Ben Klassen), Emil Polak, director and accompanist, from the NBC; Adhesive Pontoon (Arnold Maguire), from KFRC and CBS; Cap'n Dobbsie (Hugh Barrett Dobbs) of the Del Monte Ship of Joy; Jean Wakefield, song stylist and composer of KTAB; Lou Tobin, "the man of a thousand voices," and Maurice Gunsky, famous ballad singer, both from MacGregor and Sollie Recording Laboratories; Nat Goldstein, his accompanist; Fred Skinner, "red hot" pianist of KLX; Bob Allen, pianist of KYA; Art Fadden, pianist of KJBS; Cumberland Hillbillies from KROW, and the Olympians: Sig Arndt and Earl Wright of KGGC.

To the best of this writer's knowledge, it was the first time that every radio station in the San Francisco bay area had collaborated in a program for one of its brother stations.

As a prebirthday event, KQW held a special 1 to 2 a. m. broadcast on the morning of January 14.

DX-ers from all over the map are writing in to the station their reports of having picked up the program which was m.c.-ed by Ralph Bryan. The participants included: Antone Holfsted's Orchestra; Geno Meski, accordionist; and the Hillbillies, "Sandy" Warren, "Curley" Rose, and "Slim" Cowin.

If you have any fish yarns to tell, don't go around KFRC spouting 'em off. You're liable to get hurt. It's a sore spot with six of the boys there, at least. Not so long ago someone organized a fishing trip to Clear Lake in Lake County, California. Harrison Holliday, Arnold Maguire, Claude Sweeten, Jennison Parker, Ellis Levy, and Earle Smith made up the party. After fishing all day, not one in the party so much as got a nibble.

KYA has a novel stunt in the offing. On February 6 it will broadcast a two-way conversation between an airplane flying over San Francisco's skyscrapers, and men in the studio. It will be a feature of the Floyd Bennett Aviation Forum on that date, from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

Unique is that program called "Chinese Echoes" on KTAB. It is an authentic reproduction of broadcasts from the Oriental stations in China. The program is on Sunday from 7 to 7:15 o'clock, and is conducted by Paul Quan, of San Francisco's Chinatown.

Rabbi Elliott Burstein has resumed his series of talks over KYA, and is being heard Sundays from 5:45 to 6 p. m.

Charles Hamp, the renowned radio warbler, was the guest artist of George Taylor on his Radio Frolic over KTAB the other day. Hamp stopped over at San Francisco on his way to New York, where 'tis whispered he is about to close with a sponsor for a coast to coast broadcast.

The Philip Morris "ciggie" folks are on the air after having postponed their program for several weeks. They are on the NBC, featuring Leo Reisman's Orchestra, and Phil Dewey, baritone.

TOM COAKLEY, whose dance orchestra is being heard over NBC from the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, is an Oakland, California, boy who started out to be a lawyer but found music more profitable.

This dark-haired, smiling-eyed lad whose dance rhythms have become popular all over the West, is a graduate of the University of California, where he completed his studies in the law school last May. He took his bar examination recently, and is anxiously awaiting the results, because he expects to practice law some day.

It was while he was a student at St. Mary's College that he first became interested in dance music. He played drums himself, and organized a group of fellow students to help pay for their tuition. When he transferred to the University of California he continued leading orchestra for the same reason. He was graduated from U. C. in 1928, and immediately enrolled in the law school—still serious about his law business. He and his orchestra had become immensely popular by that time, but although wider horizons have opened before them many a time, Coakley has centered his engagements in California in order to continue his legal studies. He played at the Athens Club for two and a half years before being called to the Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood, from where he and the orchestra returned recently.

Several members of the Coakley orchestra have been with him since campus days. One of these is Carl Ravazza, tenor and violinist who has sung and played with Tom, refusing all other offers except for an interval when, at Tom's urging, he was featured under Anson Weeks' banner. Others are Jerry Rice, Lyle Bardo, Bud Bardo, Leon Green, Ellsworth Coates and George Kinney. Lyle Bardo, who arranges melodies for the group, was just fifteen years old when Coakley first enlisted his services. He had to buy his first pair of long trousers in order to play trumpet in the orchestra, and when his younger brother, Bud, was fifteen, he also donned longies to join Coakley as trombone player.

The youthful leader of this group is a brother of Frank Coakley, assistant district attorney of Alameda County. He played basketball at both St. Mary's and California, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi, Skull and Key, and Phi Delta Phi. Between his law studies and his music he has little time for anything else—"not even girls," he says, with a flashing smile that belies his statement. He hates cards of all kinds, doesn't expect to play golf under the age of fifty, and takes his exercise swimming and playing handball. His greatest fun is flying; he hopes some day to have time to learn to pilot a plane himself, but meantime he uses the sky in preference to other forms of travel, and enjoyed his Hollywood engagement because it gave him an excuse to commute between there and Oakland by air.

WHEN Mabel Todd was just a tiny tot emerging from coveralls into gingham dresses for school, her father erected a horizontal bar for her in the back yard of their Los Angeles home. Mabel called it her "actin' bar." She firmly believed that diligent practice at chinning herself and skinning the cat on her "actin' bar" would make her an actress fit to go on the stage.

At the age of six, she saw her first footlights. She sang "Oh Dry Those Tears" at the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium with Charles Wakefield Cadman. The eminent composer's interests in the child prodigy wasn't very sympathetically received by her mother, who was opposed to her daughter's theatrical ambitions.

But Mabel continued to exercise her natural talent for singing all during her school days. The break with her mother came during Mabel's first year at the University of California. She quit school to be a line girl at the old Belmont Theatre. She quit that first performance and formed a sister team with another girl. They earned enough money to take them to Chicago where they obtained work in vaudeville, with Paul Ash, and in the musical show, Flying High. With another partner, Mabel was in the Fanchon and Marco units for two years. While doing a turn in vaudeville with Johnny Dunn, they approached Morey Amsterdam for some material. Johnny told Mabel to be nice to Morey and maybe he wouldn't charge them so much. Mabel was so nice, Morey has been furnishing her with material free ever since. Mabel joined Al Pearce at Christmas, 1932, for her first radio experience. Now there are Mabel Todd clubs all over the coast. Yet she feels she is still just about as far from her ideal of an actress as she was when her tiny hands clung tenaciously to the "actin' bar" in her back yard. Morey Amsterdam, her fiancee and writer, has proven much more helpful to a young lady who wants to become a great actress and singer than an "actin' bar."

KTAB Presents Something New In Broadcasting

THEY say there is nothing new under the sun, but KTAB Broadcasting Station is proving to the contrary by having a novel spectacular carnival week beginning the first part of February.

In keeping with the times and in cooperation with the efforts of the Federal Government to keep business on the up-hill trend, it is our desire to promote better business by combining our radio facilities with newspaper publicity in a novel way of rendering a public service.

Every advertiser participating in this Carnival Week will offer a prize and run an interesting contest for our listeners. There will be hundreds of dollars worth of prizes awarded to listeners for their skill in the various contests to be held. This broadcast will be in the regular street carnival fashion with spielers, side shows, bally-hooers, in fact, everything that goes to make up a carnival spirit, beginning at 10 in the morning and lasting throughout the day until 10 at night. Here is an invitation to everyone to join us—admission, just turn your dial to 560 kilocycles and see what you can draw from the grab-bag, for instance ride on the Ferris Wheel with the Philco Radio and Television Corporation, and win one of the number of new radio sets they are giving to the person sending in the oldest Philco Radio, or join in with that hilarious side-show to be held by the Columbia Outfitting Company with all the freaks, including the Bearded Lady and don't forget our Hula dancers or our Fire-eating man, and be sure not let the kiddies hear the broadcast from the side-show of the sword-swallower—remember, we won't be responsible for casualties during our "better-time" carnival.

Spieler Frank Galvin will be very much on the job and of course the entire radio audience knows what a gala event to expect. Frank will have a number of his inimitable "Character" songs in the various side-shows and what better entertainment could one expect. Elbert La Chelle will be very much in evidence during this week in unusual programs and Elbert is one boy when it comes to pumping the old calliope and you should see Jean Wakefield shake a mean hoof. And a special side-show for "Women" only, with Roland Drayer and his throbbing voice coming over the ether. But, we mustn't tell you of all the events to take place because we know you'll be finding it out by listening to the BETTER TIMES CARNIVAL.

Pop! Oh, yes, we forgot to tell you about the different concessions. Are you a good shot? If so, be sure and try your skill on our shooting gallery and win a worth while prize. How about "Bingo?" The entire family will enjoy the fun and thrills of this game. Here's another thriller: Try hitting "Black Sambo" with a ball and knocking him into that tub of water. What fun! Keep the thought of the KTAB BETTER TIMES CARNIVAL uppermost in your mind—you will all have the time of your life, at no cost and with a little skill you will come out on top with a grand prize.

All these prizes will be on display for you to see at the different stores and organizations participating in this broadcast. Be sure and see them all and find out how many you can win. And be on the lookout for our full BETTER TIMES CARNIVAL Page in the San Francisco Examiner and the Oakland Post-Enquirer, announcing our sponsors and their contests and prizes. Don't miss one word on this BETTER TIMES CARNIVAL Page because KTAB is offering a cash prize to the person finding the word that is used the greatest number of times in both the San Francisco Examiner and the Oakland Post-Enquirer. Also in these papers you will find the rules of the various organizations holding contests. Be sure and read your local newspapers carefully as they will contain valuable information that you can't afford to miss.

All of our radio listeners are invited and your admission fee, don't forget, is just turn your dial to KTAB, 560 kilocycles. Listen one—listen all—to the KTAB BETTER TIMES CARNIVAL.

GUARANTEED CURE

Here are the greatest writings by Coleman Cox. Almost two thousand of his inspiring thoughts by which people all over the world in all walks of life have been helped to Happiness and Success.

Rome Stevenson, past president of the American Bankers Association, writes: "There should be one of these books on the desk of every executive in the land." A mother in Idaho writes: "The Coleman Cox books have been worth their weight in gold to my four boys and girls." The Warden of San Quentin Penitentiary wrote: "There would be far less than 5,000 men in this prison had they read your thoughts on right living and right business methods."

"Smile Awhile"

A book that should be in every home. No matter who you are, and how "blue" you may feel, there's a certain remedy somewhere in its 135 priceless pages. A help for business men, for wives and mothers; and even children will benefit by its cheerful common sense.

"Telling of Selling"

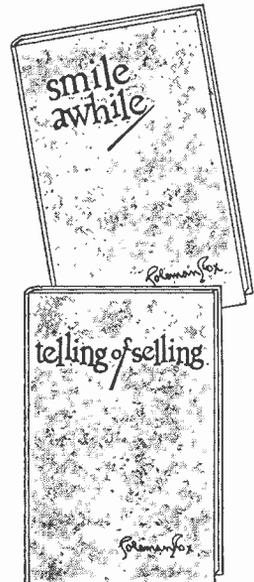

The thoughts, experiences, and observations from forty active years as salesman, sales manager, employer. Not a text-book; yet worth ten times more than any sales text book, because it makes YOU do the thinking, and its THE RIGHT KIND OF THINKING FOR SUCCESS.

Amazing Offer of Guaranteed Help

You want these two books. And you need them. So sure of that are we, that we will GUARANTEE you'll be stimulated by them. If any time during the first 7 days you have these books, the reading of several pages falls to cheer you up, mail them back to us and your money will be refunded.

Not Sold at Bookstores

Both books are usual library size, attractively bound with titles printed in gold. They cannot be bought at book stores or from other dealers anywhere. The price is two dollars a copy. Right now, while you are thinking about it, fill out the coupon at the bottom of the page and mail it to us.

• • • The inflexibility of an international agreement has made Phillips H. Lord, NBC star, one of the proudest men in radio. Phil, now sailing along the east coast in his four-masted schooner, the Seth Parker, will broadcast from various ports around the world over KNRA, newest National Broadcasting Company station.

Lord recently started a 'round-the-world cruise in the Seth Parker and broadcasts from coast cities under the auspices of the Frigidaire Corporation. He will be heard each Tuesday at 7 p. m., until the ship leaves Miami, Fla.

After he leaves the coastal waters of the United States, Lord will be heard from time to time over NBC networks. In order to carry out these plans, NBC applied to the Federal Radio Commission for a license for a shortwave transmitter aboard the Seth Parker.

In its report to the Commission, NBC requested call letters KNBC, KPHL (using Lord's initials), KSPE (for Seth Parker Expedition).

The Radio Commission granted the license but replied that under international radio agreements it would be impossible to grant the requested call letters since ships must use the same code letters for radio signal that they use for visual flag signals.

The schooner Georgette which was renamed Seth Parker, for years has been listed in the international marine registry under the code letters, long before NRA meant the New Deal. The Radio Commission, therefore, assigned the call letters KNRA to the new station.

KNRA operates on one kilowatt power and will send shortwave programs from the far corners of the earth for farbroadcasting over NBC networks.

• • • One of those rumors that are always cropping up about famous old violins got around again recently. Albert Spalding's Guarnerius was the center of it this time. The rumor was the one about the violin having been built by Guarnerius while he languished in a gloomy dungeon. Our rumor spiker asked Spalding about it and found out it was not so. The violin couldn't have been made in the dark because sunlight is needed to cure the wood during the process of manufacture. That was that.

• • • The visitors who are taken through the Radio City studios (N. Y.) by a corps of uniformed guides number approximately a thousand a day. From 9 a. m. to 11 p. m. there is a steady stream of men, women and children going through on the tour, which takes about an hour to complete. Among the high-lights of the tour are NBC's own weather-making machine, the world's largest air-conditioning plant, which supplied 20,000,000 cubic feet of fresh air each hour, and the main control board, nerve-center of the nation's two chief networks, NBC-WJZ and NBC-WEAF.

During December, the first full month since the tours were inaugurated, 27,885 persons were taken through the studios.

• • • C. Ellsworth Wylie, manager of KHJ, the Don Lee Broadcasting station in Los Angeles, recently announced the appointment of David Heenan as publicity director for KHJ. Heenan comes to KHJ from Bowman-Deute-Cummings advertising agency in San Francisco. He was assistant advertising manager of the Los Angeles Steamship Company in Los Angeles for several years until the consolidation of that line with the Matson Navigation Company interests two years ago. Prior to coming to the West Coast, he spent seven years in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he was engaged in newspaper and theatrical work.

• • • Helene Hughes, widely known and popular songstress has joined the staff at KFRC. Since she started her singing career in San Francisco in 1922, her melodious mezzo-soprano has been heard in many cities up and down the coast. She has appeared in many stage productions, and is well known to San Franciscans for her appearance at Police and Firemen's Balls and Shriners' affairs. Miss Hughes' latest professional engagement was singing for Norma Shearer in "Smiling Through."

• • • Sheriff Underwood and his famous Arizona Wranglers, who popularized "Strawberry Roan" in the West, are to go on tour with the Universal talking picture "Strawberry Roan," starring Ken Maynard.

For five months, Sheriff Underwood and his posse of Arizona Wranglers will tour the western states, putting on special shows in conjunction with the showing of the picture.

• • • Al Pearce flies between Los Angeles and San Francisco every week or so to record the Eb and Zeb programs. Al takes the part of Eb in these popular electrical transcriptions. He flew up Tuesday, January 2, recorded most of the night, and flew back to Los Angeles Wednesday morning in time for the Wednesday two o'clock broadcast rehearsals.

• • • Jimmy Durante has been signed to go on the Chase and Sanborn Hour with Rubinoff this year during the period that Eddie Cantor is off the air for moving picture activities. Durante's contract calls for 24 appearances.

In his series for this program last summer the man with the noble proboscis built up a large air following, his desperate efforts to finish "Inka, Dinka, Doo," his great symphony, proving particularly engaging.

Just when Cantor will take his spring leave of the radio to seek the studios of Hollywood has not been set.

• • • Although Harvey Hays, veteran dramatic star heard as narrator on the NBC Hoover Sentinels program, has a number of fine silk scarfs in his wardrobe, he always wears a somewhat ragged woolen muffler that he regards as his good luck charm. It was presented to him by an old Swedish woman, an ardent listener, who is more than seventy years old. The scarf was knitted by her mother more than 100 years ago and she presented it to Hays as her most valued possession. It now holds that same esteem with the actor.

• • • Yogi Yorgesson, Al Pearce comic, came to Los Angeles in 1930 from Seattle, looking for a job as singer, announcer or banjo player. Unsuccessful in finding work in any of those capacities he created the character of Yogi Yorgesson, Hindu mystic, a burlesque upon the air fakirs.

• • • Charles Eggleston, heard in NBC's Ma Perkins broadcasts, returned to his home in Cincinnati for Christmas to play the part of "Scrooge" in Dicken's "A Christmas Carol." It was the fourth consecutive year that he played the part of the famous old skin-flint, and he returned by special request because of the popularity his interpretations have found in previous broadcasts.

• • • Pat Barnes, versatile NBC star who affixes Patrick Henry Barnes to his checks, professes immediate Irish ancestry. Last summer he acted as master of ceremonies on Irish Republic Day at the World's Fair and now one of Pat's most prized possessions is a hand-woven combination rug and lap robe made in Ireland. It was a Christmas present from the Irish Republic.

• • • Eva Gruninger, NBC contralto who was featured on a recent Del Monte Ship of Joy broadcast with Captain Dobbsie, has received a letter from a listener on the Atlantic Coast who may be a long-lost cousin, since his name is Gruninger also, and his mother's first name was Eva.

• • • NBC announcer, Bob Brown, was the victim of a new racket recently. A ragged person hopped on the running board of his car when he was stopped by a stop light.

"Gimme your 'butt,' mister" he said, eyeing Bob's lighted cigarette. Bob obliged by offering him several cigarettes from his pack. "Thanks," said the racketeer counting the cigarettes, "that makes exactly three packages I have collected today, and it's only four o'clock.

• • • While a dramatic critic on a Kansas City newspaper, Goodman Ace of the "Easy Aces" once wrote a review on Jack Benny's vaudeville appearance, commenting on the latter's nasal and careless speaking voice. Now, radio listeners continually confuse his microphone voice with that of Benny's. . . . Isham Jones is the only one to hold cards in both the musicians' and coal miners' unions. He himself once labored in Ohio mines and each year renews his affiliation. . . . Nino Martini's father is custodian of the spot in Verona, Italy, where Romeo and Juliet supposedly were buried. . . . George Hall's father, a musician and ardent lover of classical music, will never listen to his son's broadcast in Tin Pan Alley's popular ditties. . . . Abe Lyman's most treasured possession is the set of original drum sticks he purchased with his pennies during his newsboy days in Chicago. . . . The real reason Guy Lombardo carries the fiddle under his arm while conducting his Royal Canadians is to give him poise. . . . After nine years of listening to Gracie Allen's "dumbercracks" George Burns is still madly in love with the sister of the missing brother. . . . Little Jack Little wrote his first song hit, "Jealous," back in 1922 when on the train to Pittsburgh to make his first broadcast as a tune-plugger. . . . Bing Crosby bet on a horse named "Bingo" and won, 40 to 1.

• • • Harry McNaughton, known as Bottle to the millions who tune in Phil Baker, the Armour Jester, over NBC, believes that he is the world's luckiest man. Harry went through the entire war—he spent three years and nine months in the trenches—without receiving a scratch. Later he was in the ill-fated Pathe studios when they burned down, and he again escaped without any injury, although many of his friends perished.

• • • Alois Havrilla, NBC announcer, has been honored by having his biography included in the current "Who's Who" of Central Europe. The request for this information came to him from Zurich, Switzerland, and was addressed simply "Alois Havrilla Czecho-Slovakian announcer, New York."

• • • NBC's Tony Cabooch was recently presented with a watch and chain weighing over two pounds. An old Italian who would not trust the mails traveled from Louisville to Chicago. In turning over the massive timepiece to Tony, he explained, "My grandfather gave me this watch in Italy. I have ten children but I give the watch to you because you have done so much for my people."

• • • It was an errand of mercy which led Lily Pons to fame. If she hadn't played the piano for wounded soldiers in Parisian hospitals, and if they hadn't begged her to sing, she never would have been "discovered." A friend took her to a teacher who advised her to study opera. She did, and as a result, one of the greatest opera singers of the day was found.

• • • John de Jara Almonte, NBC evening general manager, recently discovered that there is a town named Almonte in Canada. He wondered what kind of a place it might be. He did not have long to wait, for a group of tourists from the Canadian town visited the NBC studios and called on Mr. Almonte. They told him all about their home town. "Greatest little city in the world," they assured him.

• • • B. A. Rolfe, the jovial maestro, gets fan letters from Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, and Hawaiian school children who listened to his music when he visited the Hawaiians. They all want him to return to the Islands and teach band music.

• • • The incidental music which accompanies Warden Lawes' broadcasts of real life crime stories over an NBC network each Wednesday evening is as complicated as it is important to the success of the program. Each week the script writer sends an elaborate cue sheet to Thomas Belviso, head of the NBC music department, to whom the delicate job of directing the musical portion of the broadcast is entrusted.

Belviso received a shock when the latest cue sheet came to his desk. When he recovered, he phoned the First Aid nurse to stand by during the broadcast, and told Spencer Dean, the well known NBC man-hunter, to be on hand. The cue sheet read: "5 (2)—Mysterioso music. Play until shot."

• • • Milkman, realtor, orchestra leader—what hasn't Al Pearce been during his short career. He's only 35 now. He recently volunteered the information that he was also a cook at one time. When he was 18, he cooked in a Reno restaurant for over six months. Maybe that's where he learned how to season a program, so the public would ask for a second helping.

• • • Robert Adams, well known and popular San Francisco actor, is adding to his many laurels by his characterization of Sir Ensor Doone, chief of the robber band in "Lorna Doone," in the radio serial now being presented over KFRC and the Columbia-Don Lee network. Under the title of "The Adventures of John Ridd," the thrilling story, based on R. D. Blackmore's famous novel, is unfolded every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 5 p.m. Mr. Adams, who is California-born, began his theatrical career in stock in Sacramento, San Diego, and San Francisco. He went East to create the role of "Laurie" in "Little Women," and later played in stock during several summers and six with Jessie Bonstelle in Buffalo. Among his outstanding characterizations have been the lead role in Booth Tarkington's "Clarence," which ran 76 weeks; the juvenile lead in the all-

English cast of "The Elder Son," in New York; and in "The Gold Fish" with Marjorie Rambeau, in San Francisco. He toured Australia and New Zealand in "Best People" and "Meet the Wife," and has appeared at the Alcazar and President Theaters in San Francisco. Others in the cast of "The Adventures of John Ridd" are Dorothy Scott as "Mother Melldrum"; Beatrice Benadere as "Mistress Nellie Ridd"; William H. Wright as "Carver Doone"; Monte Mohn as "Charlie Doone"; Peggy Bethers as "Betty Buxworthy" and "Sabina Doone"; Peter Hester as "Peter Fry"; Esther Sprague as "Annie Ridd"; Betty Jean Wright as "Susan Ridd"; and Ruthie Sprague as "Lorna Doone".
