ANOTHER "TOUGH GUY"

By JUNIOR STAFF

THE publisher, editor and circulation manager of BROADCAST WEEKLY have gone fishing. Maybe they are cooking up another expansion program, or just fish. I doubt it. Ever since President Roosevelt returned from his vacation and declared himself a two-fisted fighting man, these fellows have been talking about going fishing.

"When I return," said the boss, "I'm going to be a 'TOUGH GUY' like the President. So you had better keep things humming around here." It doesn't take an executive order to make me realize what that means. If he comes back any tougher than when he left—and there's been no "humming" around here—I'll be off fishing myself for a long, long time. And I can't cast a fly or bait hellgramites worth a darn.

It's a cinch that I must do something to save my neck. Got nothing against trout fishing, but it occurs to me that something should be done to reform these "program fishers." It's hard on the nerves of the rest of the family, wastes a lot of time and in the end they miss half the program they really wanted to hear.

So here's the idea. Let's start fishing the "program fishers" out of the pools of despair. We have ten days to do it. A lot of people have been nibbling at a subscription and I want you readers to help me pull 'em in before the boss gets back.

If an army of twenty thousand BROADCAST

WEEKLY readers, and what is left of the staff, can't lick the rubber boots off the executive branch of this family, I'm a jelly-fish. All YOU have to do is to cast over the fence to a neighbor, or get a friend or relative on the line and tell them what a "wow" the New BROADCAST WEEKLY is. Then have them remit a dollar bill for six months' subscription or one-fifty for a year, pronto.

Gee! What a break that would be for me. Twenty thousand new subscribers in ten days! One apiece! Some of you who feel prosperous could subscribe for a friend or relative. Never mind telling me about the one that "got away." I'll get plenty of that when the boss gets back.

Elsewhere in this issue is printed your official permit to catch "program fishers." Please use only this one if you join me in this ten-day fishing campaign for new or renewal subscriptions. If I get enough of them returned before the boss gets back, I'll string them across Market Street and make his catch look like what the cat left in the goldfish bowl.

Either there's going to be ANOTHER "tough guy" sitting with his feet on the mahogany, waiting to give the Chief the works, with a lot of new and renewal subscriptions within the next ten days, or else . . . . .!

P. S.—I ditched the Chief's editorial for the above. Unless it brings BIG returns, I'm in a tough spot.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

THE recent sensational prison break by two convicts from San Quentin in California, their daring dash for liberty in a stolen police auto and subsequent battle to the death with the authorities without doubt was the most forceful argument for radio-equipped vehicles for all city, state and national police.

Had the state patrol officers' cars been radio-equipped the two desperados no doubt would have been rounded up within a very short time after their break, one official was quoted in the press as stating.

Instead, the criminals managed to evade the web of the law for more than twenty-four hours while they zig-zagged around the state, finally meeting their doom in San Bernardino in southern California.

The lack of radio-equipped cars in the state service was blamed by this official in the failure of the authorities to capture the hunted ones long before they were.

Radio today has become the greatest enemy of the arch-criminal and petty thief alike. Traveling many times faster than the fleetest crook, something like 186,000 miles a second, its voice can penetrate anywhere.

It is the bane of existence of the modern crook.

Radio is being used with tremendous success in most of the large metropolitan cities of the country. Chief of Police William Quinn has frequently told this reporter that the radio has been the greatest aid in running down criminals in San Francisco.

Only recently fifty-eight California counties were joined in a state-wide radio and teletype hook-up to stamp out crime.

Clarence S. Morrill, state bureau chief of the California Peace Officers' Association, stated recently:

"Under this plan the California Peace Officers' Association is organizing separate units in different districts, these groups to flash crime reports and movements of gangsters to police and sheriffs throughout the state. These officers are linked with the state-wide teletype, also with radio crime broadcast stations now being operated in thirty-five police and sheriff headquarters."

Bulletins on crime movements thus reach every police and sheriff radio-equipped car in the state-wide network.

But—every police and sheriff car is not yet radio-equipped. Since the recent San Quentin break, no doubt prompt action will be taken to negotiate the installations as quickly as possible.

Quite a few fortnights ago we chronicled here the news that WLW, the pioneer Cincinnati station, was contemplating the construction of a Herculean transmitting station—500,000 watts in power.

Last week that transmitter, which had been the dream of the station owners for a number of years, had its voice lifted to that power. And in honor of the occasion a big chain program was presented over the NBC, with congratulatory programs coming back to WLW from New York, Washington and Chicago.

This column would be interested to hear from any of its readers who are now able to pick up WLW direct.

Admiral Byrd's broadcasts from Little America which are put over the CBS coast to coast and border to border chain every Saturday, have interested England. Dear ole Lunnon put in a request for the broadcasts and so CBS is shipping them across the ocean by short wave. So now most of Europe, besides America, is gluing its ears to the loud-speaker to listen to this brave explorer and scientist and his party tell what is happening down there at the southernmost tip of Mother Earth. By the way, if you haven't heard them, the Byrd broadcasts are released over CBS stations every Saturday at 6 p. m., Pacific time.

Another CBS event worthy of particular note is the planned broadcast from Washington, D. C., on May 20 coincident with the one hundredth anniversary of the death of Lafayette. A joint session of Congress will be held at that time in Washington to pay tribute to the famous figure of history and it is expected that President Roosevelt will be one of the speakers. The broadcast is scheduled from 8 to 9 a. m.

Gerald J. Kenny, a prominent figure in the life of San Francisco for the past quarter century and for the past ten years associated with the Public Defender's office, has just started a series of radio talks over KQW of San Jose and San Francisco.

Kenny, now Public Defender of the city and county of San Francisco, is speaking under the general topic: "The Administration of Justice." He is heard Saturday nights at 6:30 o'clock. Among the subjects he will cover in his talks will be crime problems and prevention, probation, parole, the police department, grand juries and functions of the courts.

Grant Maxwell, former owner of KZM, Oakland, and brother to Ted Maxwell, author of NBC's "Memory Lane" scripts, is the new production manager of KTAB. He succeeded Irene Sorensen, who recently resigned.

Mary Wood, petite NBC songstress, has gone platinum. Formerly was adorned with beautiful hazel-colored hair.

* * *

Banjo-eyed Eddie Cantor, accompanied by two of his daughters, was a visitor in San Francisco last week. Attended Will Rogers' opening in Eugene O'Neill's "Ah Wilderness" at a local theater, the horse races at Tanforan, just south of the city, and the Monday night broadcast of the M. J. B. Demi-Tasse Revue, NBC event.

* * *

Our southern California scout wised us to the fact that Sister Aimee McPherson's offspring, Roberta Semple, is now on the air Tuesdays and Wednesdays at 7:30 p. m. with a children's program. But, alas, he failed to mention the station. Roberta is known as "Aunt Birdie" to the dialers.

* * *

All rumors notwithstanding, John Eugene Hasty, noted radio playwright, is still associated with MacGregor and Sollie recording laboratories as production manager. And is still penning Eb and Zeb, "The Hawk," "Hilarities" and a few others. When it was announced that he was assigned the job of collaborating on the writing of the Bank of America show, "Leaders of Tomorrow," the word got about that he had left the recording company.

* * *

Ed Ludes, who grew up with radio since it was a pup, for several years sound effects technician at the NBC in San Francisco, was recently named a network announcer. He stepped into the shoes of Milton Wood. The latter deserted radio for ranching on a farm near Chico. Jerry McGee, assistant sound effects engineer, got Ludes' job and James Lyon went up the ranks from office boy to assistant to McGee.

* * *

Van Fleming, one-half of the once famous comic team of Van and Don, ex-NBC, recently became a member of the staff of KEX, Portland.

* * *

Jimmy Cook's Sidelines, one of the newer KTAB features, is going great guns on that station. In breezy style, Cook comments on current politics and shares those remarks with pungent paragraphs concerning Hollywood luminaries and late pictures. His Wednesday night at 10 broadcasts are the recipient of much fan mail.

Cook, a young chap, some time ago proved himself a brilliant and promising writer and now is adding to that accomplishment with his mike spiels.

* * *

Oliver Morosco, of the theatrical family of Moroscos, is now associated with KMTR, Hollywood, producing dramas every Saturday night at 9:30 o'clock.

* * *

A new dance aggregation is NBC-ing over the network from the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco these nights. It's the Williams-Walsh orchestra, which succeeded Jay Whidden. Both Williams and Walsh were formerly members of Anson Weeks' orchestra. The latter, on tour, is now playing at the Club Forest in New Orleans.

* * *

While on the subject we'll inform you that Tom Gerun of the San Francisco Bal Tabarin is winding up an engagement at Huston, Texas, and goes from there June 6 to Lakeside Park, Denver.

* * *

Pee-wee Eddie Peabody, the struttin-ist banjoist we ever saw or heard, is going big guns on radio in the East. He is featured on a sponsored program over the WEA-F-NBC network in the East and found it necessary to cancel an engagement to make some movie shorts in Hollywood because of demands for him on the other side of the country.

* * *

'Member Charlie Wellman, the "Prince of Pep"? He's a vet in radio on the coast and once was featured on a network for S. & W. He is confined to a Hollywood hospital with a serious illness.

* * *

KFWB, Warner Bros.' station in the film capital, boasts real Hawaiian royalty on its staff—Princess Leilelu and Prince Lei Lani.

* * *

Clinton E. (Buddy) Twiss, who is doing such a grand job as master of ceremonies on the M. J. B. Demi-Tasse Revue Monday nights over the NBC Western network, was picked from an audition of all the NBC announcers in San Francisco for the job.

* * *

Rumors are flitting about that Tom Meighan, former movie idol, is negotiating with sponsors for a big radio series.

* * *

Kate Smith, on theatrical tour, appeared as guest artist over KHJ in Los Angeles recently and last week gave the KFRC tunner-ners a treat.

* * *

KEX is constructing a new vertical type antenna, which is the very latest wrinkle in broadcast transmission.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Joe Penner has been married six years. In his first show, "The Greenwich Village Follies," he met Elinor Mae Vogt, and in a few weeks they were married. Martin Sampter, his best man at the wedding, is now Joe's manager and personal representative.

• • • Ernie Smith, popular Pacific Coast sportscaster heard on KYA nightly, has achieved an enviable record. The suntanned Ernie has been broadcasting since 1927 and has never missed a program due to illness or accident on which he was to be featured. With an average of ten programs a week for the last seven years, Ernie believes that he holds a record of some sort.

• • • The First Nighter program, broadcast over the networks of the National Broadcasting Company for almost three years and a half, has been renewed by the Campana Corporation for fifty-two more weeks, or until May, 1935.

Thus for another full year radio listeners are assured of weekly dramatic performances in the Little Theatre off Times Square, that mythical playhouse which millions attend weekly. Coming to the NBC networks Thanksgiving night of 1930, First Nighter has established an all-time record for programs of its type. Countless millions have attended its performances by radio and some 36,000 actually have seen June Meredith, Don Ameche, Cliff Soubier and other members of the cast stage their weekly shows in Studio E of the Chicago NBC headquarters.

• • • Bill Goodwin, assistant production manager at KHJ, suggested to Linda Lee recently that she announce her own songs when making a radio appearance.

"It's a shame not to get more of that nice southern drawl on the air," said Bill.

"Why, Mistah Goodwin," Linda retorted in a shower of broad vowels, "Ah don't have a Suthun accent. Ah talk just the same as you do."

• • • Eva Smith Hackett, directing genius of the Hackett Players, will direct the dramatic section of the Business and Professional Women's Club in the presentation of "Mystery Island," a thrilling tale from the pen of Sam Moore. The characters will parade before the microphone of KGGC Friday evening, May 18, from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

• • • The first time Georgie Stoll, musical director, heard a quartet of four students singing in try-outs for the Shell Show, he cocked his head to one side, closed his eyes and listened. They sang again, and then again.

Today radio fans hear these same voices every Monday night on the Shell Show, billed as the "Harmony Aces." A merger of two quartets created the "Harmony Aces." Sidney Overstreet, baritone, had a quartet in Texas. It was broken up. LeRoy Hurt, second tenor, who plays the guitar, also had one, but one of his boys left. Overstreet and Hurt took with them Allister Ward, bass, and Sidney Phiifer, first tenor.

At the first rehearsal they discovered their ability to imitate musical instruments. Practice produced some remarkable results. They are new in radio, but their fan mail would indicate that they are veterans. Before their appearance on the Shell Show the boys had been singing only in schools, churches and at private parties. Their parents do not want them to sing in theaters or cabarets. The boys don't attend either of these amusement places because they are all going to school and have definite objectives.

• • • James Melton, handsome young American tenor, who has enjoyed wide popularity in radio for a number of years began his career as a professional singer with the original Roxy Gang. Later he joined up with the "Revelers" and, for several years was the leading tenor with this group. Last year Melton made his concert debut at Rown Hall. He resigned from the "Revelers" about six months ago and has been free-lancing ever since. Mr. Melton is in wide demand as a guest artist.

• • • A romance of eight months in the cast of Al Pearce's gang culminated in Portland recently with the marriage of Jackie Archer and Earl Hatch. She is twenty-six and he is twenty-seven. Hatch joined the gang last September as a pianist, being teamed in duos with Jackie. Jackie is a graduate of Knox College, and has been chief organist at some of America's largest theatres. Earl has had several bands of his own and was with Jimmie Joy for several years. He was playing the drums in the pit of the home town theatre at Greeley, Colorado, when he was only ten. He plays the piano, vibraphone and accordion, and pilots his own airplane.

- • • Peggy Allenby, dramatic actress of the Palmolive Beauty Box Theatre, became the mother of an eight-pound daughter April 20. Miss Allenby is Mrs. John McGovern away from the microphone.
- • • The young monkey that was given to Bill Sharples of KNX by the man that owns "Josephine," the movie monkey, is dead! Bill was proud of the little fellow and they became great pals—but the animal was too much of a show-off much to his disadvantage, for he climbed a pole that supported high-tension wires—no more monkey! The body was laid to rest on the Sharples ranch in Sharplesville.
- • • Alice White, cinema star presented as guest artist on a recent Shell Show, takes her radio work seriously. She put so much realism into her dramatic playlet that when the pay-off called for tears she let 'em go. But she forgot about the mascara and was momentarily blinded so that Rush Hughes had to lead her off the stage—amid enthusiastic applause of the appreciative Radio Playhouse audience.
- • • The original Professor Knickelbein's School Days was revived by Dick Le Grand for the "Happy-Go-Lucky Hour" over KHJ and affiliated stations of the Columbia-Don Lee network Monday afternoon, and received with universal acclaim by the studio audience. The novelty, for which Le Grande claims to have sufficient gags to continue indefinitely, features Le Grande, Charlie Lung, Windy Hearn, Norman Neilson, Betty Jane Rhodes, Linda Lee, Pedro Gonzales and Bobby Gross. It will henceforth be heard on the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour every Monday.
- • • Zeke, "bad boy" of the NBC hillbilly quartet—Pappy, Zeke, Ezra and Elton—always appears at the studios in a pair of Pappy's old pants. Pappy is over six feet tall and weighs more than 250 pounds, while Zeke is almost a foot shorter and 100 pounds lighter.
- • • Ben Grauer, NBC announcer, has appeared in motion pictures with Theda Bara, Pauline Frederick and Carlisle Blackwell, before the talkie era. Now, with an excellent speaking voice, he can't even get a screen test.
- • • One of the things that has made Gladys Swarthout of the Metropolitan Opera Company an immediate success with her fellow players in radio is the natural simplicity of her ways. At rehearsals of the Palmolive Beauty Box Theatre the glamorous Swarthout is no more conspicuous than a member of the chorus.
- • • Frederic Bittke, NBC baritone, doubled in perilous stunts for many famous stars of the silent movies when he was a youth.
- • • Eddie Cantor insists that the fifty roses he received the other day after his speech at the Advertising Club have nothing to do with his age. We checked the records—Eddie originated January 31, 1892.
- • • A pall fell over the KHJ studios recently when it was suddenly announced that Bill Doemling, Bill Robson and Raymond Paige were dead. It turned out to be one of Bill Doemling's half-truthful gags. It seems that Doemling has a fish pond at his home and has named all the fish inmates after various people at KHJ. Recently some of the fish developed a fungus disease with the result that the three named Doemling, Robson and Paige passed on to the happy hunting grounds or wherever it is fish go when they die. Doemling claims that he knows all the fish by name, so that there can be no mistake about the identity. Pulling a long face, he also reported that Frank Gill, Clarence Hamilton, Paul Rickenbacker and Ole Swenson are not looking any too well, and it wouldn't surprise him a bit if he had to go out and buy a new KHJ staff for his pool.
- • • When Fred Waring couldn't make the glee club at Penn State during his undergraduate days, he retaliated by forming his own band, as you probably know. For the first time radio listeners heard the reason why Fred couldn't make the singing society, when he started to do a duet version with Babs Ryan of the tune, "Couldn't You?" from the Waring show "Rah Rah Daze," during the recent broadcast. The first three or four words were all right, but then Fred gave up and decided just to talk the lyric. Maybe the director of the Penn State Glee Club was right after all. Fred still insists that he's going to keep right on trying to become a warbler, and to that end he rehearses every morning in his shower.
- • • The production schedule on the Shell Show, Monday night variety hour, requires the seven-day-a-week efforts of three men, calling for script conferences, auditions and rehearsals each day right up to 5 p. m. Monday, the day of the broadcast.
- • • Warner's has signed Ruth Etting for a series of shorts. The first will be entitled "Ruth Must Be Served."
- • • Will Aubrey, NBC's "Bard of the Byways," has never been married, never had a romance and "never even came close to one"—so he says.

SILHOUETTES

PEGGY KEENAN recalls as the happiest memory of her youth the night she slept on a haystack under the stars, near her home in San Francisco, Cal. What she can't remember is the time when she wasn't playing the piano in public. Peggy, with Sandra Phillips, is a member of the two-piano team providing the musical background for Tony Wons' philosophizing over a Columbia network.

Miss Keenan's early public appearances were in the leading roles of "Slim Princess," "Modern Cinderella" and other amateur theatrical productions. At seventeen she directed a large chorus of mixed voices and at the same age was organist in a San Diego moving picture house.

As a child, the attractive red-haired Peggy always longed to be an actress. Her mother objected to these Thespian ambitions but encouraged her daughter's pursuit of a musical career. After being graduated from the Hanford High School Peggy attended the University of Southern California and the University of California, and then entered the Marta Oatman Dramatic School. Later she studied under Leopold Godowsky. At college she was elected to the honorary musical fraternity Pi Kappa Lambda. But although music was from the start her most important interest, Peggy also found time to play tennis and basketball, activities which contributed to the liteness of her slim figure.

Her professional debut as an entertainer came at the age of eighteen when Miss Keenan gave a piano concert in a Los Angeles "little theatre," appearing with Virgie Lee Mattoon, contralto, and Zara Lee, dancer. From 1923 to 1929 she traveled extensively here and in Europe, doing a concert tour of California with Miss Mattoon, giving concerts in Paris and Berlin. She worked in sketches on the vaudeville stage, and later played in "Black Velvet," "Smiling Danger" and "Love." If she had her choice, Peggy would like to settle in the south of France and spend her summers in Honolulu. Outdoor activities have always appealed to her. As a child she made a hobby of skating and collecting rare stones and metals in the Sierras. On her free days now she likes to go fishing and when the weather is not propitious for this pensive pastime she is content to stay at home and study astronomy.

THE state of Virginia has often toasted its beautiful women and its thoroughbreds, and now it can raise the glass to another boast, or toast (as you will) to Jeffrey Gill, that native son with the southern moonlight in his voice, and if you've ever felt the spell of southern moonlight, or better yet if you're homesick for it, turn that dial to KFRC. Drop anchor over your favorite morris chair and prepare to have yourself a time! . . . Romance is served on a silver platter by Jeffrey, even though he perches informally on the top of a high stool. This latter fact has caused much comment, since most singers seem to prefer standing before the microphone. Discussion reached a crescendo when Wolo, famous caricaturist, decided to catch Jeff in action during a broadcast. . . . Though only twenty-two years of age, Gill has had a full and interesting life. A few years of his early childhood were spent in Paris and Vienna, with a long jump to Texas for the bulk of his rearing and the university of that Lone Star State he also claims as Alma Mater. He married a schoolgirl sweetheart, but school and Hollywood did not mix and once again career triumphed over love. . . . Success came fast and furiously with Jeffrey's dramatic ability plus his voice. This opened the field of cinema and stage work which led to two of his most important successes, the J. J. Schubert show, My Maryland, and the Marion Davies production, Peg o' My Heart, in which Jeff tore the heart out of every colleen singing "Sweetheart Darlin'." He still uses this number as a theme song entrance to his chain broadcast over CBS. . . . From Hollywood's favorite tenor the slogan grew to California's thanks to the ether waves. And now we come to the present and to Gill, his most interesting work—radio. "Getting into the hearts and homes of the people is the grandest thing in the world!" says Jeff, enthusiastically, about broadcasting. Over the footlights has a thrill all its own, but this is even chummier and closer, a voice speaking to a hospital shut-in or a lonely girl or perhaps a mountaineer, even on shipboard. Reaching out into the vast territory of five states. . . . For down to the minute news, Dame Rumor has it that Jeffrey and Lysbeth Hughes, the singing harpist of Horace Heidt's Californians, are going places and doing things. As one Virginian to another,

WHEN THERE'S MUSIC
AT THE WHEEL

I never realized how much pleasure we'd get from a radio in our car—it's always in use when I'm driving alone . . .

I'm certainly sold on a car radio now—it makes long trips seem shorter, and I never miss an important broadcast while I'm on the road late at night . . .

I sure get a kick out of our new car radio . . . I'm glad Dad bought one for our car . . . I don't mind going places when I can get all the sports . . .

We all get a thrill out of driving since Dad put a Zenith radio in our car . . . it's grand to hear our favorite programs . . . we never miss them while on the road now.

Clarence Myers Has the Assignment

I have been listening to the broadcast of Jimmie Cook over KTAB on Wednesday nights at 10 o'clock and I would like to know something about Mr. Cook and his activities. I think his little program is particularly enjoyable, not only because his material is unusual, but also his delivery and voice are so very fine. I wouldn't miss his fifteen minutes for anything. Why is it in the program schedules his name is not listed and just "Political Highlights" is most misleading. People who do not care for politics would never tune in and so miss a wonderful program, because it is his stories and personality that make the program political highlights a very minor part of it. In his column in the Democratic Observer, which I also read with great interest, it is called "Jimmie Cook's Sidelines." That conveys a lot of meaning. I shall look for something about Mr. Cook in your magazine, which I take regularly. Thanking you in anticipation,

M. G. R., San Francisco.

Send Us a Can Opener

When are you ever going to take the picture of Ray Hendrix out? I have been buying your WEEKLY every week, but I have not seen one yet. Please get it out. He is now singing at the Ambassador Hotel with Ted Fio-Rito and his orchestra. The picture I refer to is at least a whole page, because small pictures I do not save. Please, because I'll have to keep writing to you. I will expect to see his picture appear in your next week's BROADCAST WEEKLY. Waiting, waiting. Please! Please! Please!

O. F. F., No address.

We Feel Better Without Our Red Flannels

Congratulations. The new spring dress of our progressive weekly is far superior to the discarded winter one. Wish we could have daylight savings time on the Pacific Coast. It would give us back Edward MacHugh, the Gospel singer. His singing of lovely old sacred songs at 8 a. m. started the day right. Everyone loves John and Ned and we all hope to have them on the air every day. Wishing you success,

Mrs. M. H., Oakland, Calif.

Hold the Phone—Someone Bustin' in on Andy's Line

One change in the new time schedules brings Amos 'n' Andy and Frank and Archie at the same time. I want to listen to both, but cannot when they are broadcast at the same time. Most Frank and Archie listeners are also Amos 'n' Andy fans. Cannot KNX change the time so as not to conflict with Amos 'n' Andy? Of course the NBC will not change. The sponsors for Frank and Archie want people to hear them, and it would be to their advantage to not have the program at the same time as another favorite of the same type.

P. S.—I like the new plan of listing programs.

A Letter of Appreciation Would Help

Your new program arrangement is the best you have yet tried. I see no need for improvement, unless you can arrange space, after a station, for the kilocycles.

Could program listings be more indicative of their type? We know what to expect from the older sponsors, but now arrivals are apt to be passed up by the very people interested in the particular program offered because we do not want to waste minutes on something we eventually don't want.

This week seems to offer the first program listing that we can reasonably believe will be up to date.

What suggestions can you offer to us who appreciate a fine sponsored program but who are already satisfied users of the same product sold by another sponsor?

N. C. P., Alameda, Calif.

Come, Gentlemen, Please the Lady

I take the BROADCAST WEEKLY and like it very much. The station I listen to most frequently is KNX, Hollywood, and I would like very much to see what the announcers look like, especially the one on the Crockett family's program, Mr. Hardy. So if you will please print their pictures in one of the BROADCAST WEEKLY magazines soon? Curiosity got the best of me, and I would like to see what this good-natured, laughing gentleman looks like.

Father Knickerbocker Gets His Head Deflated

Have just received this week's issue of BROADCAST WEEKLY and read the letters to "Ye Ed." I want to cast another vote for the new "set up." I can now take a pencil and in a few minutes check my radio programs for the day (or mainly evening, in my case), and it's no trouble to locate any program on the classified program page.

Am getting a kick out of our western programs going over so big in the East. Recently spent a year in the East, and after listening almost entirely to eastern programs, used to wonder what the New Yorkers had to get the "big head" about.

So Far, So Good

I do not know what will be the reaction of your readers in general to the new method you are using in listing programs, namely, by the hour of day instead of by stations, but for my part I find it a big improvement. It greatly facilitates the choice of programs. Above all, I appreciate your listing of chain programs according to their character and hope that this feature will eventually be expanded so as to include all programs listed in the time schedule.

Please accept my heartiest congratulations for these two very definite improvements in BROADCAST WEEKLY.

C. M. H., San Francisco.

"And Lo! About ben Adhem . . ."

With this, my first letter to BROADCAST WEEKLY, I wish to add my name to those who thoroughly enjoy your magazine. We have been taking it since Christmas, our first introduction to it being through a gift subscription from a California friend.

The new program listing is excellent. Although Seattle papers have resumed the printing of radio programs and the local stores' advertiser has been carrying them since last December, we have discarded both in favor of your classification.

The Lucky Strike people should be given three cheers and a tiger for continuing their opera broadcasting as long as they did. We did so enjoy the Saturday broadcasts, and only wished we might have been able to see as well as hear. Of course I mustn't forget to add the family vote for "One Man's Family" and "Myrt and Marge." The new time change helped considerably, although we were sorry to see Gilmore Circus fold up its tents. Other programs we enjoy are Amos 'n' Andy, Memory Lane, Al Pearce, Richfield News Flashes, and the Reader's Guide. Of course we listen to all symphony programs.

By the way, here's another vote of thanks to the announcers who make the programs interesting. There is no such animal on the air as a "poor" announcer, and I'd like to know one who doesn't earn all of his salary and more.

California Poppies from Santa Rosa

We have subscribed to your newsy little magazine for years and always enjoyed all of it, especially the Open Circuit, and "do they keep their hammer busy!"

Ease your thoughts; no complaints from our home department. Our likes are recorded instead. Here's going: One Man's Family, Memory Lane, First Nighter, Death Valley Days, Standard Oil Symphony, Myrt and Marge, Magazine of the Air, Mary's Friendly Garden, Wheatena Forest Ranger and many dramas we pick up at one station or another. We like KSL next to KGO. Al Pearce and Gang have good, clean humor, also.

We do miss Sherlock Holmes and many of those old programs as The Great Northern Old Timer, Jack and Ethel, Associated Historic Travels and the Gilmore Circus. They were all especially good, so here's hoping for their return or others coming on just as good.

Prosperity to your little magazine, and may it always remain "strictly radio," which has always seemed most fitting.

K. E. P., Santa Rosa.

We Are Getting Together, Folks

Finally comes my vote of congratulations. Was very much interested in your editorial and must admit I was one of those who did not approve of the new listing. However, I am not one to jump readily at conclusions and bided my time to see if the improvement would eventually attract my eye. You no doubt realize by this time the inevitable has happened and I have been won over. The magic started to work with last week's issue and I find myself completely surrendered with the latest issue.

I believe in allowing the other fellow a chance to prove his point before I complain, for I may find myself in an embarrassing position, as I would have in this instant—after receiving the third issue. With the best of luck to the new WEEKLY and the entire staff.

J. B., Fresno, Calif.

A Solid Hour of Enjoyment

DO YOU like good music? Enjoy Raymond Paige, one of America's most celebrated musical directors, and his famous orchestra.

Do you like good voices? Thrill to the lilting soprano of Nadine O'Connor, the rich tenor of Earl Hunsacker, the perfect harmony of the Three Rhythm Kings, the torch songs of Kay Thompson, and a chorus of 30 voices.

Do you like humor? Laugh with Elvia Allman and "grandpa," Gill and Doemling, Ole the Swede janitor, Sylvia Picker and tongue-twisting Joe Twerp.

Do you like surprises? A national or international favorite will be guest star each Sunday evening.

No matter what you like, you will find it on the S & W Merry-makers. A cast of 100—a veritable parade of all-star entertainers—insures you a solid hour of enjoyment. Be sure to tune in each Sunday evening!

Behind the Baton

Poly McClintock and Fred Waring were boyhood chums back in the little town of Tyrone, Pennsylvania. Together they organized what today is one of the most versatile aggregations on the air. Surprisingly enough, Poly of the whiskey voice sings tenor in the glee club.

Peewee Hunt of the Casa Loma orchestra has a new nickname. Two hundred pound Peewee's comical actions have earned him the appropriate title of Leviticus. Haw!

Ben Bernie's Tuesday night commercial is consistently good. Ben's grand band can always be depended upon to play a program of the latest and best dance hits, and Bernie is one of the few batoneers who gives his musicians full credit for work well done.

Jacques Purvis, trumpet player and novelty singer with Georgie Stoll's Shell Show orchestra, was at one time a member of Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians. He helped coach Waring's now famous Glee Club.

Jules Buffano, one of the Northwest's favorite dance units, recently completed a successful engagement at Seattle's Paramount theater. He is heard regularly over KOL.

Staccato. — Remember Charlie Agnew's Yeast Foamers? The band is now bowling 'em over in Birmingham, Alabama. . . . Phil Harris has just signed a renewal of his contract, which keeps him on the air from New York's Palais Royal until the late summer. . . . Yes, Bob Crosby, Bing's young brother, is on tour with Anson Weeks. . . . Johnny Robinson, whom we used to tune in from Portland, is now playing in Joplin, Missouri. . . . Herbie Kay seems to be going over much better in Denver than he did in San Francisco.

THE MAN BEHIND THE SCENES

"What makes the wheels go 'round, daddy?" is a question that thousands of youngsters ask thousands of fathers. And possibly the father explains in terms that are as clear to the child as Einstein's theory of relativity is to most.

Many people have asked a question of this kind regarding the S and W Merry-makers broadcast every Sunday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., over the Columbia Don Lee network. "What a show it is," they say. "Who is responsible for it; who is the man behind the scenes?"

Behind every show there is always one man about whom the public hears little—the man who gets most of the blame when things go wrong, and little of the credit when the show is a hit. In giving credit where credit is due, the S and W Merry-makers is one of the big hits of radio due to the genius of Mr. Mahlon Merrick, Production and Program Manager at the Los Angeles studios of the Columbia Don Lee Broadcasting System. The people at KHJ call him (behind his back) "the S and W Slavedriver."

Mahlon is not a Simon Legree—he is a great artist. He plays the violin like a master and has conducted symphony orchestras over the two great national broadcasting chains. He composes music, writes operas and directs dramatic productions. The S and W Merry-makers is his "pet" and he devotes his time to it unsparingly. He personally passes judgment upon and recommends the acts, reads all the scripts, goes over every number and then conducts tedious rehearsals hour after hour. The S and W Merry-makers is one of the finest variety broadcasts in America. It should not be otherwise with Mahlon Merrick, the "Ziegfeld of Radio," the man behind the scenes.

ETHER ETCHINGS

By IOLA McREYNOLDS

SHIP Ahoy!" Let's board the Del Monte Ship of Joy for a voyage with Captain Dobbsie and his crew. We will hear splendid music played by Meredith Willson and his orchestra, and will meet distinguished personages who go as passengers on this magic ship.

Captain Dobbsie has a way of filling his announcements with eager, romantic promise and we just know that on this half hour's voyage we are bound to make new discoveries, and we always do. Perhaps it is a good thought in a short sentence, or a beautiful poem read by our captain. It may be a song or a talk by some noted person whom we have admired but never met.

We never quite outgrow the love of "make believe," and in our cozy "staterooms" at home it isn't hard to fall in with the idea of a voyage on a make believe ship, whose cargo is made up of joy. And when at the end of the voyage we gather 'round the "Wishing Well," where the thoughts of hundreds of people go out to Someone, somewhere, we are deeply moved, and in our hearts echo Captain Dobbsie's "To you, my Beloved." What a WONDERFUL way to end a voyage on a Ship of Joy!

IT is with a thrill of anticipation that we board the Melody Train, on Sunday afternoon, midst the musical clang of the bell and melodious tones of the whistle, with Joseph Hornik as our engineer.

There is nothing quite like a melody to open the gates of memory, and we're off on the Melody Train for a trip "back home." Soon familiar landmarks begin to appear, bringing with vividness memories of other days. There's the little schoolhouse where we were taught the "three Rs," reminding us of the little girl who sat across the aisle from us; of the little red-headed boy who carried our books and fought our battles; and there the meadow, lush and sweet with clover blossoms; the little stream that ran among the hills, with its deep pools shadowed by graceful birch and elm, holding shy, elusive beauties that could sometimes be coaxed to take the bait which we placed so invitingly before them. And there among the trees is the little white house with roses and lilacs growing around the door.

Later, perhaps, there was college and all that went with it. Young love that faded into a memory as sweet as the roses and lilacs and clover blossoms.

And then—day of days, when we really met "her" (or "him")! It may have been in the garden of the little house among the trees, or on the campus; it may have come like a flash of sunlight on a busy city street—it may have come in some other and more romantic way, and not so very long ago! But however it came, the Melody Train carries enough melodies to awaken poignant memories that are both sad and sweet, and it brings every experience right up to date as it lands us home again, bumping over the crossings into the home-town station.

IT is a sunny Sunday afternoon. Just right for a stroll in a garden, and here is a most charming one inviting our attention. Music Garden, with Charles Hart and his orchestra to escort us.

Flowers of melody, fragrant with remembrances; spritely airs as dainty as butterflies flitting from flower to flower or humming birds poised at the mouth of a honeysuckle blossom. Soft melodies like shadows beneath a tree to which a vagrant breeze is whispering lazily, while a near by fountain splashes musically, its spray a rainbow in the sunshine.

Lured by this peaceful retreat, we take a seat in the shadows and lose ourselves in the beauty of it all. Soon we hear a voice singing. The rich bass voice of Harry Stanton comes to us through the garden and we listen in deep appreciation as he sings to us.

A garden, a lazy afternoon and a serenade. Music Garden over KPO on Sunday afternoon.

WHEN Charles Runyan takes us "Away Back When," some of us wonder just when! To the age of "gray bonnets" and one-horse shays; hoop skirts and chivalry!

We wish, as we listen, that we could peep into the homes of all the other listeners; especially of those who have asked for these bygone melodies. It is an interesting program, and because of its uniqueness is like no other on the air. (Because of its uniqueness and antiqueness!)

Waltz Time, romance time! "Find her, the one girl," no doubt awakens memories and longings in the heart of more than one listener!

Gala Opening of "The Music Box"

Baton wielder Harry Barris, who is also the composer of "Little Dutch Mill," "I Surrender Dear," and other popular song hits, is slated to air his Music Box Orchestra over NBC three times a week. The orchestra takes its name from a palatial new San Francisco dinner club to be called "The Music Box," where Harry and his artists will provide the Terpsichorean toe teasing. The Club, under the management of Lloyd Campbell, will open Thursday night, May 17. Admission on this occasion will be by reservation only. Requests may be addressed to BROADCAST WEEKLY or to Mr. Campbell at "The Music Box," at Polk and O'Farrell Streets, San Francisco.

Saw the Big Bad Wolf?

The squeal of a pig put WBBM, Chicago, off the air for three minutes one afternoon a few weeks ago and cost the station $500 in disabled equipment. The pig was "Puddin-head," owned by Felix Adler, clown of the Ringling Brothers circus, who was making a guest appearance in the "Gossip Club" conducted by Eddie and Fannie Cavanaugh. The pig, trained to grunt at a given signal, emitted a loud squeal when a microphone was placed in front of it.

Historical Radio Scripts Go to Museum

From radio script to the State Historical Museum and source material for a class in history—such is the record of thirty-three scripts used in producing "Pioneers," a program sponsored by the People's Bank & Trust Company, Seattle, Wash., and broadcast over KJR. The series has been discontinued until September.

For two years the bank has sponsored this program. The second year the series, written by David Halpern of the KOMO-KJR continuity staff, consisted of authenticated stories of the Pacific Northwest—Washington, Oregon, British Columbia, and Alaska. W. L. Davis, professor of history at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash., and also a trustee of the Washington State Historical Museum, located in Tacoma, requested and received permission from the People's Bank & Trust Company to receive two copies of every one of the thirty-three scripts, one copy to go into the Washington State Historical Museum and the other to be used in teaching northwest history in the college.

Broadcast Changed to Save Life of Man

An entire radio broadcast was altered in Chicago April 24, in an effort to save the life of a jobless listener who planned to commit suicide.

"Please play 'The Last Round-up' in your program Tuesday, April 24," wrote an unidentified listener to "The Westerners" at station WLS. "When the song is ended I will be dead.

"Tuesday is my 32nd birthday. I expect it to be the most terrible I ever had. I have no job and no prospects and the only way I can give the things in life to the one I love is to kill myself so she can have my insurance. I want to do it while the song is being played. Please do this."

The letter was unsigned and program directors had no way of knowing what the results of their efforts would be, but they nevertheless altered the performance entirely for the benefit of the unemployed intended suicide.

W. H. Henley's "Invictus" ("My head is bloody but unbowed") was read, and the music was "Onward Christian Soldiers."

What effect, if any, it had on the despondent party could, of course, not be definitely ascertained, but a police check-up on that date showed no suicide due to despondency.

Costs $2 to Listen in Canada

The legality of Canada's $2 tax on radio sets has been upheld by the Canadian Supreme Court in reversing a Windsor magistrate's decision acquitting a non-license holder on the grounds that the act fixing the tax was obsolete.

KFAC Now Broadcasting 24 Hours

KFAC, Los Angeles, is now broadcasting twenty-four hours a day instead of closing down at midnight. This so-called "graveyard shift" consists entirely of phonograph recordings and transcriptions and is entitled "The Serenade."

France Collects Radio Tax

France has collected about $3,000,000 in radio set license fees since its new law requiring set registrations went into effect July 1, 1933. At the end of 1933 France had 1,367,715 registered sets.

New Band at Hotel Mark Hopkins

Two of the most versatile members of Anson Week's celebrated orchestra, Griff Williams and Jimmy Walsh, have returned to the Hotel Mark Hopkins with their own orchestra. Jimmy Walsh, one of the original members of Weeks' orchestra when there were only five in the outfit, was a traveling salesman before he entered music. He was with Weeks for ten years as assistant director of the orchestra. He plays trombone.

Griff Williams is a former student of Stanford University. He had an orchestra of his own with whom he traveled around the world in 1927. He is well known as a pianist as well as a composer. Williams' directorial ability was recognized some months ago when he was engaged as director of the band at Edgewater Beach in San Francisco.

There are fourteen men in the new Williams-Walsh orchestra, most of whom are California boys. Some of them have been members of some of the best name bands in the country. Others have been featured in vaudeville both here and abroad.

Radio Telegraph Service Inaugurated

R. C. A. Communications, Inc., inaugurated the first of its new, inter-city radio-telegraph services April 26 between Boston, New York, Washington and San Francisco. Before June 1 Chicago and New Orleans will be added. Applications for construction permits have been filed with the Federal Radio Commission for authorization to join Seattle, Los Angeles and Detroit to the network. It is anticipated that other important cities will be added later.

The radio rates are based upon fifteen words at the regular wire-line rate for ten, and sixty lettergram words for the usual price of fifty.

The collection and delivery service of the hundreds of Western Union offices in the cities mentioned, in addition to the offices maintained by RCA, will be available to the public for the sending of radiograms "via RCA."

May Broadcast Fight

Negotiations are in progress for broadcasting the Baer-Carnera fight in the Queensborough Stadium, New York, June 14, during the Kraft-Phoenix period on NBC. If the deal is consummated, it will call for the championship bout going on at 10 p. m. EDT, and the regular studio talent line-up will stand by in case the fight does not fill the hour.

50,000 PARTICIPATE IN RADIO BALLOTING

Radio voting is an accomplished fact, reported WOR, Newark, following a Sunday night test, April 22, in which listeners in Essex County, N. J., took part. Dr. Nevil Monroe Hopkins, inventor and lecturer on electrical engineering at New York University, heading a group of members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, watched various types of meters in a sub-power station controlling the area, while a WOR announcer requested listeners to turn on electric lights. These recorded the additional load.

The final test was unique in that the listeners were asked to turn off their radio receivers for three seconds and then to turn them on again. This was the real test and definitely proved the practicability of voting by radio. The scientists estimated the power factor of each receiver at sixty-five watts, an estimate that other observers thought was rather conservative. But at that figure the computation showed that 50,000 receivers complied. With an average of four persons to a receiver, nearly half of the 500,000 population heard the tests.

In the method that will be used in the future the receivers will not have to be snapped off, but the technical effect will be much the same. A button on a small reactive apparatus will be pressed instead. The only thing that remains to be done, said one of the scientists, is to install reaction factor meters for the measuring purposes.

In the voting, questions compounded by four Newark newspapers got affirmative votes, some by great margins. The closest of them all was one asked by the Sunday Call: "Should state parks be established along New Jersey's coast line for the benefit of its residents?" The vote was 24,000 yeas to 22,000 nays. Forty-eight thousand persons tune in distant stations and 12,000 do not, according to a query put to listeners by the Newark Evening News radio editor, Hubert R. Ede. It brought 10,000 more responses from listeners than any other question. The increase was accounted for by the additional number of listeners responding to the request for the assistance of listeners.

One of the surprises of the voting was the almost unanimous opinion of listeners that "preparedness is the best means to avert war," in response to a question by the Star Eagle. A similar response was given to the question put by the Newark Ledger: "Do you favor jury reform in New Jersey?"

STUDENTS ENDORSE U. S. BROADCASTING

Though the need for certain reforms in American broadcasting was recognized, the system of commercially-sponsored radio programs was endorsed by delegates to George Washington University's conference of high school seniors of the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, April 14.

They resolved in favor of the American system shortly after hearing opposing views on the subject of radio control. The speakers were Tracy F. Tyler, of the National Committee on Radio in Education; Henry A. Bellows, Washington vice-president of CBS, and, at the final luncheon, Senator C. C. Dill, co-author of the Radio Act of 1927.

Mr. Tyler presented "evidence of growing dissatisfaction on the part of the American public with the present system of radio broadcasting," declaring he felt that radio in this country should be made "an instrument of spreading culture rather than a peanut vendor." He represents the educational group that has been attacking the present system of broadcasting and seeking wave lengths for education.

Mr. Bellows, pointing out that broadcasting has established itself as a vital force in our social scheme, showed the advantages of competition rather than a tax-supported system, and declared the American people must be satisfied with the present system or they would not purchase the products of the sponsors.

Senator Dill compared British and American radio from his experience in Europe and as the leader in Congress in radio legislation. His talk was broadcast. The students thereupon passed the following resolutions:

THAT the amount of time devoted to advertising is not disproportionate and that advertising over the radio is not objectionable except in minor elements.

That commercial broadcasting, by reason of competition, leads to superior rather than inferior programs.

That the American system of commercially sponsored broadcasting does not increase the cost of products but, by fostering mass consumption, may actually lower the cost.

That the adoption of the British system would not eliminate present shortcomings and would result in political control which would bring evils greater than those now existent.

That all possible steps should be taken to increase the interest and acceptability of advertising content in radio programs.

That educational potentialities should take precedence over mere entertainment value.

That the conference go on record as favoring increase in the personnel of the Federal Radio Commission by the appointment of chemists, bacteriologists and other experts having the power to prevent misrepresentation of the value of medicinal and chemical products advertised by radio.
