Radio's Share in Child Development

RADIO'S contribution to public safety is one of its outstanding achievements. Radio-directed police cars and motorcycles reach the scene of a crime within a matter of seconds after the alarm is sounded, frequently arriving in time to catch the law-breakers "red-handed" or prevent the offense entirely.

Even though the offenders escape temporarily, however far or fast they flee, the broadcast of their crime and of their description has preceded them, and multiplying the likelihood of their apprehension simultaneously serves as a crime deterrent. Peace officers universally declare radio to be the greatest boon to law enforcement developed during modern times.

But there are other even more effective and as yet little-used ways in which radio can and will gradually minimize moral delinquency and suppress crime by eradicating criminal instincts and tendencies.

Those who have to deal with crime agree that it is a juvenile problem. America's "public enemy number one" is a mere youth of twenty-five. Records show that by far the greater bulk of the country's prison population is made up of youngsters, many of them still in their teens. Had they had the proper guidance, education and environment during childhood they would not now be a menace and expense to society, a liability to themselves, and a disgrace to their parents.

Bring up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. Properly mold the plastic mind and heart of youth and the result is a stalwart, upright citizen. Feed wholesome, stimulating ideas to the avid imagination of youth, and the man emerging from that carefully nurtured chrysalis will be after the pattern of God.

This is a real goal for so great and versatile a force as radio. But, like other great instrumentalities, it can serve only to the extent it is shaped and inspired from within and aided and understood from without.

Many far-sighted sponsors are already featuring children's programs. Most of these are meritorious, some obviously as carefully planned and elaborately staged as the star programs for adults. But more are needed. And, if properly conceived and presented, will pay their sponsors handsome, ever-increasing dividends in addition to serving their beneficent social purpose. Radio probably has more room for expansion and development in this than in any other one field.

Have you children? Help them find such programs, and encourage their regular listening. Go through your Broadcast Weekly schedules, then test out the program yourself. Somewhat of a chore at first, perhaps, but the reward will be rich as you travel down future years of peace and happiness with the matured child as you foresaw him in your fondest dreams.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

REPORTS eking out from time to time from various spots on the map, particularly Los Angeles, that the National Broadcasting Company is readying to move its Pacific Coast headquarters to Los Angeles, are without foundation.

So says Lloyd Yoder, press chief for the NBC here, in commenting on reports printed in a Los Angeles publication recently.

It is true that the NBC is opening a Los Angeles office with a staff of approximately ten and, according to Yoder, more productions will originate in Hollywood at the RKO radio studios than heretofore. It is only logical what with all the available talent of the first rank in Hollywood that the network should concentrate on more productions from there. But, our informant stated, the NBC will definitely make San Francisco its Pacific division headquarters.

To date Harold Bock, ex-KFRC publicity writer, and Nadine Amos, press department secretary, have been shipped to the new network offices in the south.

Bock will write publicity for all programs originating at the RKO-NBC studios and Miss Amos is assistant to the copy preparer for the Richfield Reporter.

Wheatenaville steps back on the ether stage on August 27, but will operate from a new home. The daily script act, generally conceded to be one of the foremost of its type on the air, is to be aired via the Columbia-Don Lee network from 5:15 to 5:30 p. m. Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. The act was forced to divorce the NBC—where it had been for the past two seasons—because the network could not furnish it the time that it wanted. Fourteen stations will be linked up in the present CBS setup for the west coast release of the Billy Bachelor series. Tom Hutchinson, who directs and plays the principal character in the series, returned recently from a conference with the sponsors in the East. He informed this reporter that all the leading characters will be played by the same cast that has been identified with the act for a long time—namely, Harold Peary, Roberta Hoyt, Bert Horton and Tom Hutchinson.

Tom Ashwell, whose background as a radio playwright, producer and actor qualifies him for the job, has recently been appointed program manager of KYA.

Among Ashwell's most successful radio scripts was "Threads of Tradition."

The approach of the fall season is the signal for the return of many of the big coast to coast sponsored broadcast programs. According to present indications, the air is going to be filled to overflowing with pre-tentious and important things to listen to. Both CBS and NBC report a record list of reservations for programs. That means that many new ones will greet our ears this season. Among the old favorites to return within the next few weeks will be: Amos 'n' Andy on September 17; Lee S. Roberts on September 18; Warden Lewis E. Lawes in "20,000 Years in Sing Sing" on September 19; John McCormack on the same date; Albert Payson Terhune with a series of dog stories on September 23; Little Orphan Annie on October 1; Ed Wynn, the Fire Chief, on October 2, and Walter Winchell on November 4.

Already back after a lapse are the Langendorf Pictorial with Rush Hughes, the American Bosch Radio Explorers' Club and Dennis King and Louis Katzman's orchestra—all NBC.

Here are some of the affairs to be premiered on the NBC right soon now:

Tony Wons (remember him) in a musical-dramatic bill called the "House by the Side of the Road," beginning September 2 . . . Mohawk Treasure Chest, orchestra and soloists, September 6 . . . Maybelline Musical Romance, musical series and guest motion picture stars, on September 16 . . . On the same date the Pontiac Motor Company returns with a new feature . . . September 23 the Campana Sales Company will present a broadcast show the details of which are not yet available.

One of the newer KQW ether affairs is the Italian Radio Theater, a thrice weekly half hour show, announcements for which are made both in Italian and English. Eugene Mancini, who has been staging similar radio productions for the past six and a half years, is producing this one. You can dial it Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. On Mondays and Fridays, Mancini presents radio dramatizations of well known Italian plays. They are directed by Primo Brunetti, who was formerly associated with M-G-M and Fox Pictures in Hollywood. Guido Trento assists Mancini in producing the programs which besides the players are contributed to by a string trio and various vocal artists of the Italian colony.

Benny Rubin is the new master of ceremonies for "Hollywood on the Air," an NBC coast to coast.

Plucked from here, thar and everywhar:

Al Pearce bought himself a swanky new home in Hollywood and had all his gang out to help him dedicate it recently . . . A more versatile girl than Jean Wakefield is hard to find . . . the talented KYA miss, besides singing and playing piano, writes many of her own songs, takes roles in various skits and black-outs, writes many of them and produces her own shows . . . Our Los Angeles scout greases the wire that the Bing Crosby twins are still housed in incubators at the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital and probably won't be home with pops and moms till at least a week . . . Harrison Holliday continues to be a swell m. c. on the Jamboree . . . And in walks the credit line in radio . . . Just as the movies give credit lines before the picture is shown, to the directors, assistants, art director and technical staff, so should those behind the scenes of a big broadcast be handed out some credit, avers KFAC chiefs. And so that Los Angeles station in addition to dishing out the name of the announcer to the program also is telling the public the monicker of that very important guy, the technician on the job (he can make or break a program, ya know) . . . Baron Keyes, who has been in radio since way back when, is now conducting his Klickity Klack Klub for youngsters over KECA five days a week . . . Bing Crosby and Lanny Ross are reported to head the list of fifty well known radio and screen people who are making electrical transcriptions to be released nationally in behalf of the various Community Chests this winter . . . Incidentally, we hear that the crowds have been so great up at the KFI studios on the nights that Lanny Ross sings for the Showboat program that the station has found it necessary to issue tickets for seats, gratis, of course . . . Ronald Smith, production manager for the Northern California Broadcasting System, is busier than the proverbial wet hen, cooking up many new ether features for the fall and winter season to be piped simultaneously over KJBS and KQW . . . At present three or four chain broadcasts go out daily . . . Kenneth Spencer, NBC colored basso, has departed to take a course at the Eastman School of Music . . . Perry Askam of "Desert Song" fame has affixed his monicker to a contract as staff artist at KMTR . . . Ted White is back on the air, this time with Al Pearce and his Gang . . . Laurance Cross and his Cross-Cuts will go on two transcontinental programs over NBC facilities August 23 and 30, 11 to 11:30 a. m. . . Jimmie Cook, whose "Sidelines" on KTAB took hold in a big way, is scheduled to return to that station with a similar program in September . . . He is now on an Alaskan vacation . . . And, speaking of vacations, Cecil Underwood hopped up from Hollywood to Clear Lake for his . . . The Arion Trio is back after their trip to the South Seas, but the NBC hasn't arranged for their appearance on the net yet . . . Ralph Edwards is writing and producing KTAB's new variety show wafted out Wednesdays at 7:30 . . . Dave Glickman, w. k. publicity scrivener about town, has just been appointed press relations man for Don Lee's KFRC . . . From Honolulu comes the word that Ralph Bryan, ex-KQW voice, has been made program and production manager of station KGMB, which is now managed by Fred J. Hart, former manager of KQW . . . Gabrielle DeLys is making her first appearance as an actress before the microphone in Death Valley Days on August 28 . . . Reports are flying about that agents for Henry Ford have offered Mary Pickford $5,000 a program if she will go on the air for the tin lizzie king . . . Charlie Marshall may soon be known as a recording star as well as microphone luminary—his tests for Brunswick were all successful.

• • • George Parsell, "Wizard of the Banjo," formerly with Horace Heidt, the Arizona Cowboys, and NBC artists' staff, is now awakening musical echoes in the Lake County (California) mountains with his own six piece orchestra at historic Adams Springs. George says he finds that Adams mineral water is a great tonic for musicians—or most any one.

• • • The Al Pearce Gang boasts of three champions in amateur athletics. Phil Hanna, Three Cheers top tenor, has a top tennis rating in California and won the Canadian doubles Junior Championship when he was just out of high school. Walter Kelsey, violinist, has a row of cups as long as a boarding house arm which he won in tennis matches in California and Washington. And Cecil Lee, instrumentalist, was a feather-weight amateur champion, once getting a draw with Frankie Klick. Kelsey, Lee and Cal Pearce are par golfers.

• • • Julius Brunton, president and general manager of Julius Brunton and Sons, Inc., Willard storage battery distributors in San Francisco, died Friday morning, August 10, at the University of California Hospital. The deceased was the father of Ralph Brunton, owner and manager of the Northern California Broadcasting System, which operates KJBS and KQW. Also surviving are Mott Brunton and Sherwood Brunton, sons, and Inez Brunton, sister, of Palo Alto.

• • • Abe Lyman and his famous Hollywood orchestra are to be guests of the Canadian National Exposition, to be held at Toronto during the latter part of August. Mr. Lyman, who is scheduled to open the fair on August 27 with his characteristic rhythms, will play during a five-day stay in Toronto, to an estimated audience of a million American and Canadian visitors to the Exposition grounds.

• • • The California State Fair, to be held at Sacramento, September 1 to 10, inclusive, will feature, among other radio acts, the famous KFRC Blue Monday Jamboree. This variety show will be broadcast over the nationwide Columbia network as it appears before vast Fair crowds Monday, September 10, at 8 p. m.

• • • Jack Carter, KNX's "Boy from London," is in a Los Angeles hospital with a serious knee injury sustained last week-end when he slipped and shattered his knee-cap on a cement floor during a ping-pong game. It will be several days—following observation—before surgeons decide exactly what course to take in treatment of the injury. Meanwhile Jack's afternoon and early evening remote control announcing shifts have been taken over by Glenn Hardie, and the late night Paris Inn spot is being handled by John Clarke, who has relieved on Saturday nights at the Inn for several years.

• • • The sponsors of most radio programs boast about the quantity of the fan mail which comes in as a result of their broadcasts. The sponsors of the Beauty Box Theater can boast also of the quality of the responses. Very few letters are "mash notes" to the singers and actors; very many contain intelligent and enlightened criticism. Many more recall seeing and hearing the original productions on the stage, and comment favorably on the fidelity with which they are brought to radio.

• • • Gene of Gene and Glenn, Gillette Blue Blade comics heard Mondays through Fridays over the NBC red network, has given up the idea of keeping a dog in New York City. His first fox terrier ran away, the second one followed a Cleveland friend's car out of town and a third was politely stolen by an autograph seeker at NBC the other night. When Gene moved into a new hotel he carried a suitcase carrying case for dogs and when the manager saw it, he said sternly, "You can't keep dogs, Mr. Carroll." Gene said, "You're telling me?"

• • • H. C. Connette, well-known Pacific Coast radio writer whose skits are heard on KYA, claims that he is not a superstitious individual, but he still believes that each script which he writes must have some mention of food in it or else it's due to be a "flop." Consequently the listener who follows "Connie's" plays is continually reminded of the virtues of a rib steak or lemon meringue pie.

• • • Jerry Wilford, "The Old Bachelor" of KTAB, has turned dramatist. And his efforts, if they be judged by the enthusiastic fan mail, have been most successful. His stories are those of the California oil fields, based on fact, replete with all the thrilling situations, excitement and noises of the fields. Jerry Wilford himself takes the leading role of "Ten Day" Jack Howard, crack trouble-shooter of the oil industry.

• • • Johnny Murray, master of ceremonies on the Franco-Hi-Jinks Bread program, which made its debut over KHJ and affiliated stations of the Columbia-Don Lee network recently, received such a barrage of flowers from friends and admirers that the stage at the Figueroa Playhouse, where the broadcast originates, was almost covered with blossoms. Not knowing what to do with the floral tributes after the show was off the air, Johnny ordered them sent to the Crippled Children's hospital on Sunset Boulevard. They filled a good-sized truck when they were delivered at the hospital late Sunday night.

• • • The beautiful, well-modulated voice of Betty Crocker, internationally famous cooking authority, will commence its tenth year of popular radio broadcasting on September 1, 1934. Her program, the oldest continuous service broadcast in the world, has grown from a humble one-station beginning to its present status of 49 radio stations extending from coast to coast. And Betty Crocker's audience has been conservatively estimated at 3,000,000 women per program.

In 1924 Betty Crocker commenced her series of programs over a single station in Minneapolis and St. Paul. Year by year a larger number of radio stations broadcast Betty Crocker's helpful service talks. Today her millions of admirers eagerly await her year 'round talks broadcast twice weekly.

• • • Elvia Allman, whose Mrs. Terwilliger skits are a regular feature of the Merry-makers, heard over KHJ and other Columbia-Don Lee stations every Sunday night, had a bad moment when she answered the phone Monday morning.

"Hello, Mrs. Terwilliger," said a masculine voice on the other end of the wire, "this is Mr. Dinwiddie. I'll be glad to come over and sit on the porch any time you say."

For once Elvia was speechless. The name Mr. Dinwiddie is a figment of her imagination, and it had never occurred to her before that there might be a real person with the same name. The incarnation of Elvia's fiction masterpiece, however, was quite nice about it, Elvia reports. He admits that he gets a terrible ribbing at his office every Monday morning, but enjoys the Mrs. Terwilliger skits so much that he doesn't really mind.

• • • Cecil Teague, featured organist at KOIN, is the author of several books on musical education. He spends part of his spare time composing. His hobbies are tennis, chess, collecting oil paintings and etchings, reading books on philosophy and world politics.

• • • Don Thompson, NBC producer of special broadcasts, left August 9 for Los Angeles, where he took a plane for Mexico City, spending some thirteen hours in the air in order to have his vacation with his wife, who is a member of a well-known Mexican family. Mrs. Thompson is a student at the University of Mexico, where she and her sister, Judith Martinez, well-known photographer, are delving into their native country's archeological past. Both are keenly interested in the Mayan, Aztec and other civilizations which left their impress on Mexico. This will be Don's first visit to the city where his wife was born.

• • • Thelma Vance, songstress, heard on the Little Show broadcasts on KYA three nights a week, is about the smallest artist appearing before local microphones. Thelma, in her early twenties, is four feet eleven inches in height and weighs 87 pounds. She is rightly termed "The Thimble Full of TNT" by those listeners who follow these broadcasts.

• • • When the Voice of Experience went to Washington to open his theater tour he had as his guest at luncheon Gertrude Niesen . . . Although they had broadcast from the same studios for more than a year they had never met before . . . She was closing and the Voice opening personal engagements.

• • • Kay Kyser, for the first time since coming to the Pacific Coast, is featuring a girl singer. Her name is Eadie Adams and she is a blonde, of course, Kay still being "that way" about 'em.

• • • Jack Owens, young tenor of the NBC Breakfast Club, got $22.50 a week for his first radio job in Wichita, Kansas. He both sang and acted as station janitor. Later they fired him from the janitoring part and reduced his pay to $10 a week.

• • • Irene Beasley's sister, Agnes, who has a secretarial position in New York, is the singer's "best friend and severest critic." She listens to each of Miss Beasley's NBC broadcasts and then writes Irene long letters—commending, criticizing, and making suggestions for future programs.

• • • One of the most persistent radio fan clubs in the country is made up of forty members of the Seattle Civic Opera Company. Marshall Sohl, KHJ staff tenor, has just received a fan letter signed by the full forty. Most of them knew him when he sang with the opera company. Now they get together at someone's home or at a beach party and listen to his voice via radio every time he is scheduled over the Columbia-Don Lee network.

• • • KTAB's Radio Frolic at 1 o'clock each afternoon is stepping right along. With George Taylor at the helm, a parade of radio personalities, including Gertrude Ahearn, Charlie Carter, the Surf Riders, Clem Kennedy, Roland Drayer, Don Church and Gertrude Chavis, broadcast thirty fast minutes of pot-pourri and fun.

SILHOUETTES

THAT deep, rich, sympathetic voice coming over the air, bringing cheer and love and sunshine to those who hear it, has caused many to want to know the man behind the voice. There is something in the voice which attracts attention and causes many to want to know him and call him "friend." The following is a word picture of some of the things that have made "The Man Behind the Voice."

Charles Gerald Wilford, Jr., has lived a life different in many ways from that of the majority of people. He was born in Juneau, Alaska, on April 1, 1889. His parents were of Texas origin, and in their only child is found the unusual anomaly of an Alaskan being born of Texas parents. In this is found the solution to the questions asked about the Southern drawl and soft, slurring words so prevalent in the Southland.

The boy was born with a great love for animals, especially dogs. There in a land where much of man's success depended upon the strength and efforts of the lower animals, this trait soon proved to be quite a boon. He bought, traded and sold dog teams, in whole or in part, at an age when most boys are attending kindergarten and learning the relative positions of the alphabet; and during his boyhood and youth, hundreds of dogs passed through his hands. At present, Jerry is the proud owner of a three-year-old thoroughbred Irish Setter, named "Don Juan" . . . a presentation of one of Jerry's ardent friends of the air. An interesting coincident is the fact that Don Juan's birthday also falls on April 1! Don and Jerry are constant companions.

When Jerry was a young man the Wilford family moved to the States and found their home in Washington, Oregon and Montana. Here the boy was introduced to the many phases of ranch life, and some of the old-timers will remember him as a cowboy riding in rodeos as long ago as 1907.

From early childhood he showed an aptitude for mechanical contrivances of all kinds, and at different intervals the United States Patent Office has recorded numerous evidences of an active and inventive mind. In the search for the one niche which would afford an outlet for his many and varied accomplishments, he learned and followed many professions. As a structural steel engineer, he built some of the largest buildings in the Northwest. As an advertising designer, he created ideas and drawings which have borne the test of time for more than twenty years. As a hotel manager, he became known to many. As a real estate salesman he had few peers in the southern part of California.

As a printer and publisher, he achieved some degree of success. He is internationally renowned for his knowledge of bees and honey. But none of these things seemed fully to satisfy the many energies demanding expression embodied within the man.

Commercial radio first commanded his attention in 1923, and though he wandered away from it many times, he always returned. In 1929 he faced the microphone for the first time at KSL in Salt Lake City, where he created the lovable character of "The Old Vagabond of the Air." From the moment of that first . . . "Hello, everybody! . . . Doggone it, anyway!" . . . Jerry knew that his search was ended and he realized that this was the one field which could enable him to completely express his many accomplishments. "The Man Who Keeps Western America Awake," he was called, and at the invitation of Victor he became a recording artist, making famous "Springtime in the Rockies" and "The Utah Trail."

One of Jerry's pet hobbies, and one that is taking up most of his time now, is that of "Cooking." In 1933 . . . the idea occurred to him that a man would be the logical person to tell a woman what a man likes to eat! Accordingly . . . he created the character of "The Old Bachelor." He maintains that women would rather learn cooking from a man every time. This popular program may be heard every afternoon except Sunday over station KTAB, when Jerry generously shares his recipes for honest-to-goodness "grub" with his many friends of the air. He has one of the most extensive kitchen libraries in the world, which contains a collection of more than 100,000 cooking recipes. The most popular of his recipes is "jungle stew," which he cooks in a five-gallon oil can with the top cut off.

That deep bass voice of "The Old Vagabond of the Air" and "The Old Bachelor" emanates from the chest of a man who is in every respect a man. He is six feet and one-half inch in height; weighs 180 pounds; has light brown hair, brown eyes, is very erect and keeps himself in excellent condition. He is stern in the cause of what he believes to be right; unrelenting in the face of sham and hypocrisy; loving and gentle and entirely unselfish with those he loves; generous to a fault with all who make demands upon him; temperamental, but lovable; idealist and dreamer, but practical withal; a composer of songs and a recording artist; and in every way a real man's man.

Such is Jerry Wilford . . . "The Man Behind the Voice!"

ETHER ETCHINGS

By IOLA McREYNOLDS

Waltz Time. Meredith Willson and his orchestra carry us away on dreamy music while Jerry Kilgore announces in his own particular way and Ben Klassen, Waltz Time tenor, sings romantic songs that awaken romantic fancies.

"Romance Time." Let us take some of the titles of waltz songs, many of which have appeared on this program from time to time, and weave a romantic tale of our own!

"It Happened in Monterey," with "Two Hearts in Three-Four Time." While dancing to a dreamy melody he said to her: "Spring Is in My Heart Again," for "My Dear, I Love You Truly." Smiling up at him she replied softly, "Your Eyes Have Told Me So."

"Waltzing in a Dream," forgetting all but each other he whispered, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," and she answered, "We'll Always Be Sweethearts," "Love, Here Is My Heart." Tenderly, then, he pleaded: "In the Shadows Let Me Come and Sing to You." In sweet surrender she replied: "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland," "My Wonderful One."

Swaying to the alluring waltz rhythm he asked her if she would love him "Always," and she answered yes, "My Dear, Always."

The night wanes and the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" come drifting on the air—"Find her, the one girl, 'tis the last dance tonight."

"Now, Good Night, Dear, Good Night," "A Thousand Good Nights."—"I'll See You Again."

"Waltz Time Is Romance Time."

If you've never heard Jerry Cooper, on KFRC, sing "Play to Me, Gypsy," you have never really heard it sung! He puts all our own wanderlust urgings, all our seeking after romance into expression when he sings this beautiful song that haunts us without us really knowing why.

We would say a few words in appreciation of Eddie Eben, the dynamic organist over KFVB, on the program which he terms Moments Musicale. He never stays long in a dreamy mood, choosing, rather, music in which there is plenty of action all the time. He plays with a martial rhythm that is at the same time full of ease and grace.

Programs of old time songs which are so popular are not presented by any aggregation with more appeal than by Earl C. Anthony's orchestra and singers over KFI on Thursday evening. To hear their theme song, "Remembering," puts us in just the right mood for anything else they may offer.

We venture to say that children are not the only ones whose hair stands on end while listening to some of the hair breadth escapes of Frank Buck in his successful attempts to "bring 'em back alive."

There is one expression that we hear Mr. Buck use which we might well adopt, and put into operation: "That's one thing I've got to figure out." No matter how impossible seems the accomplishment of the task in hand, he never for one moment allows doubt to hinder or prevent his success. (At least in the ones retold to us on these broadcasts.) These tales of adventure are told in a simple manner for the benefit of the children in the audience, but we are all children at heart when it comes to thrilling stories of adventure, and we can see beyond the simple telling of them to the hardship and danger involved in Mr. Buck's hazardous undertakings to supply zoos with live, man-eating animals of the jungle. And we are still child enough to experience little shivery chills up our spine as we listen to the mysterious "tum, tum" of the African drum!

By a Turn of the Dial

Let's take a chair by the radio,

And rest awhile.

Let's call up folks that we'd like to know,

By a turn of the dial.

We'll call comedians to make us laugh,

Forgetting our cares in their merry chaff,

Then from wells of information quaff—

By a turn of the dial.

We'll call symphony orchestras to feed our souls,

By a turn of the dial.

Get a glimpse of heaven while an organ rolls,

By a turn of the dial.

We'll hear dance bands that tempt our feet,

Our hearts will quicken to a loud drum's beat,

And will melt to a voice that is thrillingly sweet—

By a turn of the dial.

From a world of facts to a land of dreams,

By a turn of the dial.

We'll learn that life isn't all that it seems

Through each weary mile.

We'll meet up with friends both old and new,

On this "Stars of the Ether" rendezvous,

And we'll find the place where dreams come true—

By a turn of the dial.

NEXT TIME, TRY THE TRAIN!

THIS message is for people who don't travel much on trains—people with automobiles. We know how convenient an automobile is, but we think you'll find that trains are even more convenient for many trips. Next time you go, try the train and see.

Trains get you there for 2¢ a mile and less, and you know the total cost of the trip before you leave. You ride in roomy cars on heavy steel rails, the smoothest highway yet invented. You can read, write and rest without being jiggled around.

When meal time comes, S.P. dining cars serve delicious luncheons and dinners for as little as 80¢ and breakfasts for 50¢ and up.

At night your Pullman berth is a magic carpet that carries you hundreds of miles while you sleep. And Pullman charges everywhere in the West are one-third lower than they were last year.

WHAT IT COSTS

Between	One Way	Roundtrip
San Francisco and Los Angeles . . .	$ 9.47	$14.00
San Francisco and Portland . . .	12.00	20.00
Los Angeles and Portland . . .	19.00	30.00

—these fares are good in roomy coaches. Also good in tourist Pullmans (plus berth). Fares good in standard Pullmans are a little higher.
