What Pay For the Piper?

ONE fundamental fact every radio listener should keep constantly in mind. Radio is not a government-subsidized gratuity, a rich man's philanthropy, or a nature-nurtured phenomenon. It is a commercial industry. It can spend for programs only what it earns. If programs are to improve, its earnings must increase.

Under the "American Plan" the broadcaster is not permitted to charge an "admission fee," levy assessments, or solicit contributions. He receives no financial aid from the Government. He must derive practically his entire income from the sale of time and talent to radio sponsors. And sponsors, of necessity, demand value-received for every dollar they spend.

Their advertising must pay. It must produce results commensurate with its cost. The number of people they can reach and sell by radio, measures the maximum amount they can be persuaded to spend for radio. Obviously, therefore, the broadcaster's income, which must cover all program costs, can be augmented only by increasing the size and responsiveness of the radio audience. And that can be accomplished only by the active and sustained coöperation of all those constituting that audience. Upon it the fate and future of radio depend. It is a prime necessity. More, it is a duty.

Sharing its many joys and blessings automatically creates the obligation of contributing in some form and measure to its maintenance and support. This obligation is the more sacred and binding because its discharge is so simple and left entirely to each listener's individual conscience.

It asks only an occasional expression of gratitude and appreciation to sponsors and broadcasters—the timely exercise of a little friendly thoughtfulness when merchandise is selected and purchased—the simple practice of the "Golden Rule." And these cost practically nothing.

How many post cards, letters, and telegrams have you sent to radio headquarters during the past year? Get the habit. Speak loud and often. Give good talent the encouragement and support it deserves. To the sponsor and broadcaster, silence does not imply consent—it signifies disapproval. No matter how good the program, unless it evokes a favorable expression from sufficient listeners, its days on the air are numbered.

Such expression is the more welcome and effective when it takes the form of patronage. The sponsor measures radio's value and effectiveness in terms of sales. Whatever else his program does it MUST sell merchandise. The more merchandise it sells, obviously the more he can spend for radio programs. So every purchase of radio-advertised products is a valuable contribution to better radio programs.

Other considerations being equal, give preference to the brands that give you radio. Try them, anyway. You may be surprised to find you'll like them even better than the brands you are now using. Write the manufacturer and tell him you enjoy and appreciate his program, the influence it has on your purchases. If some brand you now favor is not at present on the air, write that manufacturer, too, and remind him so meritorious a product should be radio-advertised. When you make your purchases over the counter or by mail, be sure to say you heard it advertised on the air.

The entire progress of radio depends upon this sustained coöperation on the part of an alert and appreciative audience. The responsibility rests squarely upon the shoulders of every listener.

ETHER GLEANINGS

By J. CLARENCE MYERS

THE past few weeks has seen the passing from this worldly stage of three great personalities in the western radio domain—two of them builders of the broadcasting art, who pioneered radio entertainment in California; the third an artist who was deserving of the devotion that was given him from a nation-wide radio audience.

Julius S. Brunton, granddaddy of KJBS, which his son, Ralph, has nursed from what we long ago monickered San Francisco's "baby broadcaster"—to an important metropolitan disseminator of entertainment and information and more recently to the major link in a California chain—answered the roll call of the Grim Reaper some weeks ago following a brief illness.

Don Lee, who made millions in the automobile business but who later found that the broadcasting art was even more fascinating, who started out with the purchase of a single station—KFRC in San Francisco some eight or more years ago, then branched out to a state-wide network, like Mr. Brunton, was overtaken by death suddenly.

Russ Columbo, whose romantic songs had won the admiration of millions from coast to coast and border to border, likewise came to a sudden end when an antique pistol in the hands of his lifelong friend accidentally went off.

The legion who find entertainment, knowledge, information, and pleasant pastime from their radio receiving sets will do well to bear in mind that those three gentlemen were responsible for much of the high grade broadcasting that is to be had today.

The first two pioneered the art, constantly combing out the rough spots, ever striving to make radio listening more pleasant. To them the radio audience owes a silent vote of thanks.

If all of those who have been soothed and comforted by the fertile voice of the late Russ Columbo would bear his memory in kind thoughts we feel certain that his paths in the other world will be easier to tread.

California's fiery Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial chair—Upton Sinclair—is making a series of radio broadcasts over the Don Lee network of nine stations in this state. The program, a quarter hour each Monday night from 7:15 to 7:30 o'clock, is entitled "End Poverty League." It will consist of talks by the aspirant and his backers.

Why the suffering Sam Hill the majority of radio stations have to clutter up the morning hours with an over-abundance of gab about this, that or the other, is more than we can savvy. We had a vacation just recently and while lounging around thought we'd like a little music between the chapters of our favorite murder mystery. And here's a sample of what we got—a discourse on how to peel onions without shedding tears, from another station a talk on how to launch a floating kidney, still another twist of the dial enlightened us that black and velvet were just the thing this fall—in desperation and with gritting teeth and hair on end (both of them) we spun the dial northeastward and the fruits of our labor was this—"have you pyorrhoea?—four out of five have, you know—why not see your favorite dentist, Dr. I. Pullum, today" . . . You guessed it. The radio was shut off in disgust. Why, we wonder, do they have to crowd all of that blah-blah in the morning hours? If they were spread out over the day it would be for the benefit of all, we believe. Anyhow our contention is that something ought to be done about it when six or seven of the leading stations are putting out talks at the same time of the day and there is practically no music on the air. No doubt others have done the same as I.

For a liberal education taken in easy doses we suggest you lend an ear some time to the Voice of Experience, who etherizes over the CBS hook-up from coast to coast five mornings a week.

Military bands are few and far between on the air. Realizing this, the Carborundum Company is going to use that type of entertainment on its weekly coast to coast broadcasts over the CBS wire-up beginning September 22. The hour will be 7 to 7:30 p. m., our time. Don Lee network stations will release it on this coast.

Tommy Harris, the NBC's little giant of song, who went east on a bid from the broadcasting company's New York office, made his debut over the network in that section of the country just recently. He appeared on a program which included Tim and Irene, likewise "graduates" of the local network program factory.

Raymond Knight and his Cuckoos, who have been disporting before the NBC microphones these many months, concluded their radio engagement last week. Incidentally this doesn't leave Knight without anything to do, for he is the author of the popular script act "Wheatenville," which is now heard over the CBS stations five days a week.

The Lipton Tea folk have finally bought a radio program, after auditioning every type of show for several years. As you have probably already heard from the air, they will sponsor the Blue Monday Jamboree over the Don Lee network beginning September 17.

All of which calls to our mind that KFRC is in the midst of preparations now for the celebration of its tenth anniversary. It will be a gala affair, with special programs going out for a twenty-four hour stretch on September 24. The piece de resistance will occur during the Blue Monday Jamboree on that night. Harrison Holliday, who built the original KFRC, will celebrate his connection with the organization. He will act as master of ceremonies, as usual.

Rube Wolf, whose "horse laugh" and screwy antics have amused many thousands in the theater, is now being heard with his Edgewater Beach orchestra over the coast to coast CBS wire-up on Saturday nights, the program being released here at 8 o'clock.

The NBC's Myron Niesley has taken a leave of absence and hied himself off to southern California.

Two program events of interest are scheduled to occur on the National Broadcasting Company's entertainment set-up Saturday, September 15.

The Radio City Party, sponsored by RCA Radiotrons, returns to the air to be heard from 5 to 5:30 p. m. John B. Kennedy will be the m. c. for the show. Frank Black's orchestra will grind out the music. A unique feature of the affair will be the introduction of outstanding microphone personalities on the various other programs that go out over the same network. Each week there will be a different star or two from another program who will "guest artist" it on this RCA event.

The second program we have reference to on this date is the reappearance of the lightning talker, Floyd Gibbons. His tonguefest will start at 8 o'clock and will be heard each Saturday thereafter.

"The Gibson Family," an original musical comedy, hits the ether spaces over the NBC facilities on the same date—September 15—from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock. The story is by Courtney Riley Cooper and music by Howard Dietz and Arthur Schwartz. Conrad Thibault and Lois Bennett are co-starred in it. The sponsor is Procter and Gamble.

Rollon Parker, at one time associated with the NBC in a production capacity, has been added to the KTAB staff, according to an announcement coming to us from Grant Maxwell, production boss at that broadcaster. Parker's principal task is writing and producing the station's nightly variety show.

The NBC has moved that Saturday night National Barn Dance a half hour later. It pops through the nation's loud speakers now from 7 to 8 o'clock.

A letter from Ralph Bryan, now production boss at Honolulu's KGMB, says that Bob Cutter, Harry Owen's featured vocalist at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, has recently been made chief announcer there.

Our Hollywood snooper says that the autograph nuts are having one grand time since they found out that many of the talkie stars are making electrical transcriptions for radio broadcasting at the Freeman Lang Sound studios. Just recently Roscoe Ates and Anita Page made recordings for the Alka Seltzer "Comedy Stars of Hollywood" series. And the Community Chest series, launched a month ago when Bing Crosby did a disc, has just added Ruth Etting and Lanny Ross. The big name stars brought their own bodyguard to the recording studios.

KYA has been broadcasting the performances from the Odeon Music Hall in the Fairmont Hotel Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Cora Lee Scott and Lorraine Craver are two new names on the KYA artist roster. The former a vocalist and the latter a pianist.

Word from Fred J. Hart, who recently took over the management of station KGMB in Honolulu, states that that station has received the exclusive right to broadcast the features of the World Broadcasting System, assuring the audience the finest in programs and music. The World programs are electrically transcribed. KGMB likewise is a member of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Conrad Thibault, the singer, is going to be a very busy person this fall what with his being starred on two big transcontinental broadcasts a week, each for a different company. This on top of his other radio appearances, concert work and making recordings. He will appear in Procter and Gamble's new broadcast show of original operettas, beginning Saturday, September 15. KGO will release them here from 5:30 to 6:30 o'clock. Lois Bennett likewise will be heard. His other important program will be launched October 3 by General Foods for their product, Log Cabin Syrup. Gloria LaVay and Lou White, the organist, will share honors with him. The program will be released from 8:30 to 9 p. m.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Although only one girl, Rowene Williams, was judged national winner in the auditions for a part in the "Hollywood Hotel" broadcasts, a program to begin this fall, featuring the noted movie juvenile, Dick Powell, approximately two hundred women throughout the country have obtained radio engagements as a result of the contest.

According to answers to a query sent to the stations which coöperated in the nationwide hunt, more than fifty are broadcasting for commercial sponsors. Many stations reported that they expect to find positions for others whose talent was revealed in the local and regional auditions. Also, about eighty-five of the singers have been engaged for stage, club, and orchestra solo work.

Nearly one hundred of the successful girls never faced a microphone before the "Hollywood Hotel" auditions:

• • • A new program of unusual appeal is offered by KGGC twice weekly featuring the Yal Gypsies. The talented young misses answer to the name of Beatrice St. John, whose violin creates both popular and gypsy melodies with unusual tonal beauty, and Bernice Burnett, at whose command the piano lends intricate and exacting accompaniment. Tune in Monday night at 7:15 and Wednesday night at 8:15 for this musical treat.

• • • New honors have come to Georgie Stoll, whose music has been entertaining western radio audiences on the Shell Show for the past seven months. Georgie and his band will continue to appear on the Shell Show over NBC each Monday night, but in addition, Georgie Stoll and his music will be heard nationally over CBS with Bing Crosby on Tuesday nights, beginning September 18.

The diminutive, hard-working maestro and violinist reached the goal of his ambitions through being associated with Crosby in making pictures at Paramount. Highly pleased with the work of the young showman-composer-director in the studio and his masterful handling of the band on the Shell Show, Crosby selected Stoll for the coveted honor on the air waves. Stoll was able to make his new connections through the courteous coöperation of the Shell Oil Company, which holds a contract for Georgie's services exclusively.

• • • After a vacation in Hollywood, Peggy Keenan of the piano team, Peggy Keenan and Sandra Phillips, has left by motor for New York where she will join her keyboard partner and their orchestra for a featured role in a film to be made in Manhattan by Broadcast Pictures, and released through Paramount.

Norma Terris and Russell Markert and the Radio City dancers will appear in the film with Miss Keenan and Miss Phillips.

• • • "May I, as a product and lover of radio try to convey to you just how much I enjoy your broadcasts," writes Rudy Vallee in a letter to Al Pearce, heard over NBC from Los Angeles. After some individual praise of the Pearce show Vallee says, "I would like very much to be able to include you on one of our broadcasts sometime during the month of October or November, as I contemplate making another picture at that time and will be on the Coast."

• • • William E. Shea, prolific young writer whose half-hour dramatic offerings are heard via KYA, holds the distinction of having had a story accepted by a newspaper at the tender age of nine. In later years, before becoming a radio scribe, Bill spent several years with a newspaper in Montana. Ripley might do well to look up this young fellow's record.

• • • A unique and outstanding broadcast over KOIN is "The Wanderer." Gene Baker, bass-baritone, is featured in the role of the wandering singer who visits many lands in search for the best-loved songs. Baker's voice and personality fit him for such a role. His repertoire includes a wide variety of classic, standard, musical comedy, light operatic and popular songs. Baker is assisted by Cecil Teague, concert organist, in his song delineations. "The Wanderer" has been a regular feature over KOIN for three and half years.

• • • For the first time since he went on the air for his present sponsors, Fred Allen gave his Wednesday evening performance in the largest NBC studio in Radio City, the one that seats 1,500 persons, last week. It was a gala night for hundreds who had never before been able to get tickets.

• • • The Melodettes, four harmonious colored girls, who voice over KYA, are equally at home singing spiritual, religious and popular selections. Their offerings on their Sunday program are religious and secular songs while their appearance on the Saturday Night Bath Day Party mirth-show is of popular nature.

• • • John F. Ness, for many years promotion manager and later Assistant Managing Editor of the Los Angeles Times, is the newest member of the KNX staff, according to an announcement by Naylor Rogers, general manager of the station. Ness, backed by his years of experience in the field, will handle station promotional work. So far as can be determined, his appointment gives KNX the distinction of being the first Los Angeles station to take the initiative in establishing a full-fledged Promotion Department.

• • • George Burns, most "patient" man in the world, and his pet grief, Gracie Allen, have just returned to New York on the S. S. Paris after a vacation in England and the Continent. They are starting work on their new program which will be a regular feature of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

On arrival in New York harbor, the comedy team was given the proverbial "twenty-one gun salute," none hitting Gracie—a catastrophe which greatly annoyed George.

• • • Along with the record of holding a variety of "firsts" in college, Kay Kyser has the reputation in his native town of Rocky Mount, N. C., of being the ring leader in a long string of the most ingenious juvenile deviltries known up to his time. The reputation still clings to him there, and on one of his rare visits home since he became a band leader, an old darkey who saw him step off the train, exclaimed, "Foh de lawd's sake! If dere ain't Rocky Mount's homelies' and mos' cussedes' boy come back again!"

• • • Walter Preston, NBC baritone, has just celebrated his tenth anniversary in radio with his 2,500th performance rejoicing that NBC bestows no service strips—his would clutter up the costume.

Ten years ago on August 24, Preston stood before the microphone in WEA's studio at 195 Broadway, and sent his singing baritone over the air waves for the first time. When the National Broadcasting Company was organized two years later he joined its staff and last week he finished his 2,500th performance on the air in "Hands Across the Border" on an NBC-KPO network. He believes that stands as a record.

• • • "Yah-but," who writes the scripts for the famous "Yahbut and Cheerily" act on the Shell Show, recently finished his 150th episode in the adventures of the two famed globe-trotters. He has used as his locale every known country on earth, and all of the principalities, islands and provinces he could remember or find out anything about. "Yah-but," who is Jennison Parker in real life, has sailed the seven seas in fact so his fictionization of adventure and difficulties as portrayed by the characters on this variety hour contains more truth than poetry, and sometimes interesting secrets which a few world travelers have recognized and commented upon.

• • • Irene Hubbard, "Maria" of Captain Henry's Showboat program over NBC networks recounts an incident of her early barnstorming days when she was on the legitimate stage.

In a small theatre in Joplin, Missouri, the house management had a notice tacked to the dressing room door reading: "If the audience isn't getting your stuff, try harder—it only means that they're dodging it." Beneath this, some wag had written—"And believe me, they're some dodgers!"

• • • The Williams Sisters, the trio Al Pearce brought back from the Northwest, are all under 20. Alice is 19, Ethelyn is 17, and Laura is 16.

• • • Claude Sweeten, KFRC's musical director and master violinist, is a descendant of President Andrew Jackson. That, of course, is no indication that Claude follows his eminent ancestor's example by applying the "spoils system" in selecting his musicians. His reputation for fair dealing is well known up and down the Pacific Coast.

• • • Lanny Ross, tenor of Capt. Henry's Showboat over NBC networks, is the first celebrity to have the famous black horse troop of A Century of Progress turn out twice in his honor. World's Fair officials got mixed in their dates, and thought Lanny was due to arrive a day earlier than he actually did. The troops had waited nearly an hour the first day before the mistake was discovered.

• • • The radio section of the Pacific Coast is bounded on the north and south by two famous members of the Niles family, both long associated with radio. KOL at Seattle proudly exhibits the elder Niles boy, Wen, who aids the station's musical staff by heading one of Washington's better orchestras. Los Angeles, on the other end, claims as its own, Ken Niles, famous throughout the west as a CBS announcer and master of ceremonies.

• • • A career as a singer was not the original ambition of James Melton, radio's most famous young tenor. The Melton family wanted Jimmy to become a lawyer and the future golden voice of radio enrolled in the Florida University with that objective in mind. The president of the university heard him sing one day and advised him to devote himself to the study of music instead.

• • • Norman Ross, NBC announcer in Chicago, has held all world's swimming records for distances greater than 150 yards up to and including one mile. At one time he held 72 American and foreign swimming titles. He has won nearly 500 cups and medals, one of which was presented by General Pershing, another by the late King Albert of the Belgians.

SILHOUETTES

DILLON OBER, KFVB drummer, was born in the town of New Martinsville, West Virginia. Never heard of it? Probably its chief claim to fame lies in the fact that it brought forth a drummer like Dillon Ober. To get back to the subject, this blessed event took place in 1904—April 8, to be exact. This likely young man with brown hair and eyes cherished the ambition of becoming a great drummer from the very first and, unlike many lads with similar ideas, was serious enough to work hard at it, with the result that he started his professional career at the age of nine. His first real opportunity came with the West Virginia University Orchestra on a test program from radio station KDKA, in Pittsburgh. That was in 1921. He later went to WOR and WNN in New York, and also did work with NBC and Columbia.

It seems strange that a drummer should be interested in dramatics, but Ober is, and his favorite role is that of a comic. If he had to leave radio and choose a new vocation he would try to break into pictures. His present ambition is to be a screen comic.

His radio favorites are Bing Crosby and Jack Benny. On the screen, Crosby is again his favorite; with Lionel Barrymore as a runner-up. He likes musical comedies by Jerome Kern.

He prefers the screen to radio and stage because it pays more and gives him more time for golf.

He would rather live in England than any place except America, but he doesn't care much where he buys his clothes. He says they never fit anyway.

His formula for keeping fit consists of a good diet and sufficient sleep. His idea of the most delectable dish imaginable is strawberry shortcake with lots of whipped cream.

Helps to keep himself in condition by golf. Enjoys watching football games, boxing matches, and golf tournaments.

Is married and thinks that domesticity is grand. Prior to his arrival in Hollywood, he lived for twelve years in New York. He is an assiduous reader of the daily papers. Owns a Boston bull pup and drives a Packard.

Dillon Ober has played with the nation's best orchestras. Among them are: Ben Bernie, Louis Katsman, and Bob Haring. He was for four years with the Capitol Grand Orchestra in New York City and was at that time the highest paid theatre drummer in the city.

He now plays with Jack Joy's orchestra over KFVB.

GEORGIE STOLL, maestro and violinist of "The Shell Show," heard every Monday night at 8 p. m. over NBC, is one of the hardest working young fellows in radio, which probably accounts for the fact that he has become a real star of the ether lanes. He works hard every day from 7 a. m. to 11 p. m., day after day.

He can write music and lyrics with the same quick, intense energy he uses when his sensitive fingers dance around on the fingerboard of his sweet-toned violin. He has a meteoric delivery in tennis. He's a star golfer too, proved by the fact he won the Motion Picture Golf Tournament at Agua Caliente, Mexico, last year, competing with celebrities of the film world. Rifle practice is another of his hobbies. He has a rare German rifle with telescopic sights, and he uses old phonograph records for targets. He swims, but refuses to ride horseback, or participate in any sport in which his fingers might be injured.

Stoll was born in Minneapolis and attended New York public schools. When he was eight his mother made him take up violin, and, though he protested then, he's now glad he did. At 15 years, during his summer vacation, he organized and got a job in a movie house for his first orchestra. He's been conducting them since.

In May 1921, he landed a job as master of ceremonies in a Portland theater. In 1929 he was called to San Francisco to organize his "Rythm Aces" and the whole town danced to his music. Finally he went to Hollywood. Lady Luck rode on his shoulder. He got auditions and made good. He directed the world premier of "Hell's Angels" at Grauman's Chinese Theater, wrote the overture for "Trader Horn," and followed as director of the premier of "Dinner at Eight," "Morocco" and other successes. He was guest conductor at the Hollywood Bowl, directing 95 musicians and 150 persons in a ballet chorus.

He spends days making special arrangements for his numbers to be used on "The Shell Show," rehearses each piece for hours. He buys every domestic and foreign record he can get, plays and studies them. He records all his own programs, replays them to himself to take off rough edges. His repertoire covers everything from the ridiculous to the sublime. He's married, lives in a hill-top home overlooking Hollywood. His hobby is collecting miniature statues of birds and animals. He belongs to Hollywood, and Hollywood likes him, stars and song writers often permitting him to use their tunes for their first broadcast.

It Couldn't Happen During Prohibition

May I offer my congratulations on your excellent knowledge of geography?

Located as we are, some eight miles out of Seattle, we are able, on any clear day, to gaze out of our south windows and see Mt. Rainier from its base to the perpetually snow-capped tip. To the best of our knowledge, this is yet improbable except from the western part of the states of Washington and Oregon.

A bouquet of orchids should be sent to the San Francisco NBC engineers for finally reaching a decision to transfer the more important hook-up programs to KPO. So many times neither station in this district carries the NBC programs, which necessitates tuning in to distant stations. KGO is rather noisy in this district, but KPO comes in with a vengeance, with very little fading. Thanks, San Francisco.

The whole family agrees heartily with D. E. S. of Oakland in regard to both the extremely inferior evening programs released by the networks, and the fact that Charles Hart was given the "blue slip" by KGO-KPO. Why not have, before 10 o'clock or 10:30, a half hour of dance music featuring a good Pacific Coast orchestra such as Tom Coakley's or Meredith Willson's, or an eastern orchestra having the quality of Wayne King? Then fill out the balance with good classics, with the addition of some modern American music, such as the "Manhattan" selections by Louis Alter, or the suites by Ferde Grofe. After 10:30 all working people ought to be in bed anyway, so who cares what goes over on any station after that time?

Best wishes for the continuation of your magazine. We really couldn't get along without it.

D. R. N., Seattle, Wash.

"Music Hath Its Charm"—When Music

In the last issue of your weekly I am delighted to see several letters from radio listeners who plead for retention of quality features in radio programs. I have been disappointed at the large percentage of cheap music that makes up the programs of so many stations. Whether rightly or not, youth is taking its ideals for life from what comes to the mind in attractive guise. The radio has access to the home to bring both amusement and culture. It follows, therefore, that radio is a moulder of thought in the family to a very great degree.

A man's character is to be judged in large measure by the use he makes of his leisure time. It is so with a nation. If a taste is cultivated for that which is ennobling and elevating the life will become richer and fuller and more useful to society. If taste is cultivated in the opposite direction society is bound to suffer the loss of the higher values.

Democracy can survive only when the citizenry as a whole and informed and willing to accept responsibility not only for a part in government but in every way for their own and the public good. "Ill fares that land, to hastening ills a prey, where wealth accumulates and men decay," someone has said, but the accumulation of wealth is not the only cause of decay. The insidious lowering of ideals in every department of life can mean nothing but decay for the nation.

It seems to me a patriotic duty to keep the standard of radio entertainment high. The things that make a nation great do not originate in places of cheap amusement.

R. C. C., Modesto, Calif.

Lady, You Win the Two-Seated Ball-Bearing Kilocycle

NBC: You've killed me.

My soul passed out on the one thousand and oneth dance band.

True, after their New Year's Eve performance I asked that you kiss all the orchestra leaders for me. (Soul kisses. Harmless, I assure you. Neither homicidal nor germicidal.)

I'ven asked that the four that played Auld Lang Syne at midnight be knighted or belted, though in the present jolly jazzarina it might be better to crown them—on the bean.

Dear old Irvin Cobb says he doesn't know that he ever saw a belted Earl, but he knows he has seen some that needed a good belting.

In belting an orchestra leader never, never use the buckle end of the belt. It hoits. Apply the accolade with discrimination.

My heaven is a place peopled entirely by orchestra leaders. I mean symphony, symphony, symphony leaders.

NBC: We beseech you do not let this mad melée of dance bands, with murdered melody, silence the Lute of Orpheus nor drown it "silvern thread of limpid melody" in wild Bacchantic wailings.

After centuries of climbing to the height of the symphony orchestra let us not revert to the hollow log, Nay, nay, lads, up and at 'em. Let the night, likewise the day, be filled with music—not jazz. It is really a compliment to say your music lulls to sleep; it means awakening of the soul. With dance bands rampant as at present the listener groans:

"The boistrous midnight festive clarion,

"The kettle drum and far-heard clarionet;

"Affray his ears" . . . until he prays:

"O for some drowsy Morphean amulet," sez Keats.

O the bliss of meeting Morpheus presented by Appollo! sez I.

M. L., Belmont.

Hell Hath No Fury Like the Scorn of a Classical Ear for Bleats and Blares

Hats off to D. E. W. who asks for good music. May all his followers speak their minds! I enclose a list of favorite stations, in fact, at this time of the year we can get few others. On this list for Friday and Saturday, lasting from six to twelve midnight, there are on each evening, twenty-three dance bands, not counting, as D. E. W. says, those listed so as to fool the dial twirler.

I enjoy symphony orchestras, selections from the old masters, even good military bands. But when I turn all the way down the dial and look all through the list of programs, and find nothing but bleating, blaring dance music. I turn the radio off with disgust and disappointment, and spend the evening with a magazine.
