BEATRICE BENADERET, Comedienne

BEATRICE BENADARET, comedienne and vocalist, who is well known to radio listeners as Rheba Hausfawitz, Yiddish character on the KFRC Blue Monday Jamboree, is one of the most popular artists on the Pacific Coast.

Miss Benaderet started out to be a dramatic actress, but now she's doing comedy, and is also often featured as a vocalist.

Born in New York City not so many years ago, Miss Benaderet started her professional career at the age of 16 years, as the little French maid, Sidonie, in the "Prince of Pilsen." Her first dramatic effort was when she played the character of a 70-year-old person in a high school Christmas play. She made her debut before the microphone in 1926, and has appeared in the "Blue Monday Jamboree," "Hodge Podge Lodge," "Happy Go Lucky Hour," and "The Show," not to mention numerous KFRC dramatic presentations.

Miss Benaderet has but one superstition, which she brought from the stage. She never wears a pearl necklace. Her hobby is acquiring new dialects, which she uses during her air broadcasts.

As a special feature, the famous Grace Cathedral Boys' Choir of twenty voices will sing two special Easter hymns.

Welcome, Tommy Harris

Many readers of BROADCAST WEEKLY will be happy to welcome Tommy Harris back to the airwaves. He returned to reclaim his crown as "The Little King of Song," when he rejoined his fellow artists on the Carefree Carnival during the broadcast from San Francisco, Monday, April 8.

Illness forced Harris to relinquish his crown when he was stricken suddenly in New York six months ago. Brought back to his home in California, he has since been cured of the lung ailment which threatened to still his voice forever.

Tommy achieved nation-wide popularity on the Carefree Carnival. He was called East and things were just starting to break for him in a big way when he collapsed on the streets of New York. But now he's back with a wealth of good wishes from thousands of his radio friends.

Play Ball!

The opening game of the season between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field, Chicago, will be described by Pat Flanagan in a coast-to-coast broadcast between 12 noon and 2 p. m., P. S. T., on Tuesday, April 16. (See "Featurelogue" for stations under "Sports.")

Ted Husing will cover the game between the Boston Braves and the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds, New York, on Tuesday, April 23. This game will be especially interesting because it will mark the first appearance of Babe Ruth in New York as a member of the Boston Braves.

Easter Season Broadcasts

Many Unusual Programs Scheduled from Palestine, Grand Canyon, Seattle and Salt Lake City

By THE FORECASTER

THREE outstanding Easter Sunday programs, a special international relay from Jerusalem, and description of the Easter sunrise services in Arlington Cemetery and in the Hollywood Bowl, will be carried to the coast-to-coast radio audience over the Columbia network on Sunday, April 21.

Early risers Easter morning may tune in on the annual sunrise service at Arlington National Cemetery, which will be broadcast for the fifth successive year, between 4:30 and 5 a. m., P. S. T. A tribute to the dead at Arlington, the impressive ceremonies will take place in the famous Arlington Amphitheatre and will be attended by dignitaries of Congress, members of the Cabinet and other Washington notables.

Directly following the Arlington broadcast, CBS listeners will hear an equally famous sunrise service when, from 5 to 5:30 a. m., P. S. T., Columbia engineers will switch over to movieland's Hollywood Bowl. Attended by many of the picture colony's famous personalities, the services will include a reading by Mary Pickford, music by a 100-piece orchestra under the direction of Maurice Kohler, a choir of 300 voices, and hymns by the famous "Living Cross," made up of 200 white-garbed children. The invocation will be recited by Dr. C. Kleinhauser of the Hollywood Beverly Christian Church, and the benediction by Dr. E. H. Longbrake of the Rosewood Methodist Episcopal Church. A vocal solo by one of Hollywood's singing stars probably will be included in the broadcast.

Next will come an eye-witness description of the Easter celebrations in the birthplace of Christianity, Jerusalem. Arranged by Cesar Saerchinger, CBS Foreign Director, in cooperation with the Postmaster-General of Palestine and the Palestine and British Broadcasting Companies, the program will be heard in America between 8:15 and 8:30 a. m., P. S. T. It will open with the pealing of bells in one of the Holy City's landmarks, Christ Church, near Jaffa Gate. This will be followed by English descriptions of Easter Day activities in the ancient city.

Two other CBS presentations inspired by the Easter holiday spirit will be the Salt Lake City Tabernacle program from 9 to 9:15 a. m., P. S. T., and that afternoon, from 12 noon to 2 p. m., P. S. T., the concert by the New York Philharmonic Symphony. The latter organization, under the direction of Arturo Toscanini, will include in the two-hour broadcast special Easter music from Wagner's opera, "Parsifal," featuring the "Parsifal Prelude" and "The Good Friday Spell." The following western stations will carry this broadcast: KFRC, KHJ, KMJ, KGW, KDB, KGB, KERN, KFBK, KOIN, KOL, KVI, KFPY, KSL, KOH, KLZ, KVOR.

Grand Canyon Easter Service To Be Heard on NBC Networks

Easter sunrise services from the depths of the Grand Canyon, marking the first broadcast from the famous stage, will be heard over an NBC transcontinental network at 4:30 a. m., P. S. T., on Sunday, April 21.

While more than 3,000 tourists and Arizonians look on, the Bishop of the Arizona diocese of the Episcopal Church will conduct the impressive Ante Communal service at a natural amphitheater in the canyon near Flagstaff.

The Bishop will be aided by three assistants and the forty-voice mixed a cappella choir of the Arizona State Teachers College. In addition to singing the service, the students will give a brief program of Easter music, under the direction of Elden A. Ardrey, head of the school's department of music.

Easter will be observed in Seattle with special sunrise services to be broadcast over an NBC nationwide network at 5 a. m., P. S. T. The services will be held under the auspices of the North End Easter Sunrise Service Committee, composed of thirty of Seattle's leading pastors and laymen.

A massed choir of over 500 voices composed of singers and choirs from Seattle churches will open the broadcast. Reverends B. P. Richardson, Ernest Barber and Peter W. Erickson will speak briefly. The Lord's Prayer will be read by Brigadier Dee of the Salvation Army. The Amphion Society, distinguished men's choral group, directed by Orville Belstad, and a 25-piece orchestra also will be heard during the hour's program.

KPO heads the NBC network of stations in the West broadcasting these programs.

Mary Garden "Commentator" For Symphony Series

Mary Garden, one of the most colorful personalities in the music world, now appears on the Standard Symphony program as commentator, Thursday evenings, over KPO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KFI. Apart from being one of the greatest creators of operatic rôles in the history of music, Miss Garden is believed to be the first woman to direct the destiny of a great opera house. As the head of the Chicago Grand Opera Company some years ago she achieved notable success.

A new career opened to Miss Garden when she was invited to appear on the current series of Standard Symphony programs. The success achieved by the former opera star during a nationwide Debussy lecture-recital tour led to this radio contract.

Miss Garden's contributions will be in the nature of informal opinions on composers, interesting anecdotes in connection with the writing of the compositions programmed and reminiscences of her own career.

Gaetano Merola directs the symphony orchestra.

Capt. "Bill" Royle Flies Again

Captain Bill Royle

A new series of broadcasts of timely interest is being heard via KJBS and KQW every Wednesday and Friday evening at 5 o'clock.

With tremendous interest in flying the Pacific, evident on every hand, these programs will doubtless prove both informative as well as splendid entertainment.

On Wednesday, April 17, Royle will devote his program to the exploits of Capt. D. M. Doolin, chief of the San Francisco Airport, and officially recognized War Ace of the 22nd Pursuit Squadron, who flew with Eddie Rickenbacker, Reed Chambers, and Ray Little.

The series will cover the thrills and adventures of war, air mail and commercial pilots. Capt. Royle will answer questions by listeners through the columns of BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Jean Wakefield Writes Theme

Jean Wakefield, talented young San Francisco radio singer and composer, has had one of her compositions accepted as the theme for a Horace Heidt's coast to coast program.

It is a lilting march, entitled "Charge of the Heidt Brigade," written especially for Horace Heidt and his Brigadiers. The broadcasts originate each Tuesday and Thursday in the KFRC studios at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Wakefield has an assignment to assist Heidt with continuity and special features on these broadcasts.

Grofe with Burns and Allen

Ferde Grofe's Orchestra and the Buccaneers male vocal octet will join the Burns and Allen program each Wednesday, between 6:30 and 7 p. m., P. S. T., starting April 17.

Grofe, long associated with modern American music, has composed many selections reflecting the national mood. Best known among these are "Mississippi Suite" and "Grand Canyon Suite."

Heidt's Brigadiers in Favorite Melodies

On two transcontinental programs originating at KFRC, Tuesday, April 16, and Thursday, April 18, Horace Heidt and his Brigadiers will present unusual arrangements of several favorite melodies, with vocals by Alyce King, Charles Goodman, Bob McCoy, the Radio Ramblers, the Six King Sisters and the Glee Club.

Tuesday Horace will present "Lullaby of Broadway," "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "I Was Lucky," "Lovely to Look At" and "Soon."

Thursday's program will include "Two Seats in the Balcony," "Nothing But a Nothing," "Little Grass Shack," "Song of the Islands," "Haunting Me" and "I'm Misunderstood." The time is 7:30 to 7:45, p. m.

Beginning Sunday, April 14, Jack Benny and Mary Livingstone will stage their Sunday evening broadcasts from Hollywood. This will not affect their regular schedule. Jack is making a new feature picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The programs will originate on the RKO lot.

The "Prize Romance" series over KHJ and affiliated stations, combines appeal to lovers of good music and zest for prize contests. Marshall Sohl, tenor and Margit Hegedus, violin soloist are featured on the program.

Members of a national organization of professional men have applied for tickets to see a performance of Captain Henry's Show Boat in the summer of 1936. They would like to come earlier, but that's when they will gather in New York for their annual convention. In a letter to the Show Boat sponsors, an officer of the organization said he wished to reserve the entire studio in Radio City from which the program is broadcast Thursday evenings.

It's All In Fun

What In Public?

Bernardine Flynn, the Sade of NBC's Vic and Sade, still laughs over the slip made by Don Ameche. They were cast opposite each other in a Civil War radio drama and were supposed to be young lovers preparing to elope. Don's line was: "Hurry up and get your clothes or I'll take you without them!" Ameche, however, added one extra word, and said "Hurry up and get your clothes on or I'll take you without them!" Somehow, says Bernardine, they managed to finish the show, but she can't remember how.

Ma Perkins Says:

"A man may be tongue-tied in love, but marriage is a sure cure."

Ψ

"A child is an appetite surrounded by curiosity."

Ψ

"No," said Ma Perkins to the dumbest man in the world, "Gargoyle is not something you do with mouth wash."

Ψ

"The curious thing about a picnic is that the ants get the food—but you get the stomach ache."

Ψ

"Life is full of compensations. Just think, a bald-headed man never has dandruff."

Radio Trademarks

Mary Livingstone: "Okay, Toots."
 Kate Smith: "Helloooo. Everybody."
 President Roosevelt: "My Friends."
 Lou Holtz: "My Fraands."
 Beatrice Lillie: "Coo."
 Ed Wynn: Sooooo!

Ψ

Prohibition Note

Phil Baker was invited to a cocktail party. "Bring along your accordion," the host suggested. Phil looked puzzled. "Why? he asked. "My accordion doesn't drink!"

The one-armed paper hanger with the hives had nothing on an NBC sound effects technician imitating a team and wagon pulling into a driveway. He clamps a sink plunger under his left arm, using the left hand to run a roller skate to and fro on a graveled board, while with his right hand he raps another sink plunger against the first to represent the beat of the horses' hoofs. The roller skate on the graveled board sounds like wagon wheels, and when the team comes to a halt, the busy sound effects man must snort.

Barry McKinley says he learned tap dancing through side-stepping the truant officer.

Ψ

Jack Armstrong Has Double

Jack Armstrong, that wholesome and adventurous youth of the air, whose adventures are heard over KNX ever day (but Saturday and Sunday) at 6 p. m., has a real life double. His name is Jack Armstrong, he is president of his local Jack Armstrong Club, and he has a dog, believe it or not, of the same breed and color as Jack's "Arrow Champ."

Pacific Coast League baseball games from Seal Stadium, San Francisco, are now broadcast on Wednesday, Thursdays, and Saturdays by KYA.

Ernie Smith, who has aired baseball and football for eight years, has been assigned to cover the games for the radio fans. Unique among methods in baseball broadcasting is the plan to place microphones on the field for interviews with players and stars during the games.

Woos Wife, Saves Show!

A behind-the-scenes drama of radio, Frank Chapman, Gladys Swarthout, Fate and the Beauty Box production of "The Merry Widow." Miss Swarthout, prima donna of the program, rehearsed intensively for four days. Her husband, Chapman, called for her, prepared to rush her home so she could dress for the performance. The last rehearsal finished, most of the musicians had left the studio Suddenly the baritone scheduled to sing the rôle of Prince Danilo, suitor of "The Merry Widow," announced he couldn't go on. He was suddenly ill—much too ill to sing.

So Frank Chapman, a former Metropolitan Opera singer, was asked to step into the deserted boots of Prince Danilo. He had never learned the Lehar operetta; had no opportunity for rehearsal, but two hours later he was on the air, singing the unfamiliar rôle successfully.

"Two things saved my life," Chapman admits. "Not knowing the operetta in the first place, I wasn't confused by the radio arrangement. And then of course, I couldn't help feeling at home in a rôle that called for making love to my wife!"

It wasn't told to us . . . we only heard . . . that Ben, the Klassen, will be New York bound within a month. This time, it's supposed to be definite . . . more or less. Less, we hope. For "Waltz Time" wouldn't be any time at all without Tenor Ben.

What about Walter Beban? Someone asked us the other day. They remembered that gay Saturday night episode, the "Spotlight Revue" . . . particularly the dramatic satires or were they burlesque? Anyway, they were Beban. Nowadays, Beban is at KYA. Swell dance music and, when in San Francisco, you can find him in person presiding at Club Kalua. The newest Walter Beban rhapsody is "I Stared Into Space." Clarence Hays wrote the lyrics.

And even though KTAB has a lot of space up there on top of the Russ Building, there still isn't room enough for the audiences that the Nevada Nightholders attract. "Dude" Martin plans to take his boys on a theatrical tour, with personal appearances and broadcasting in the Al Pearce manner.

Seattle in San Francisco: Mabel Mohrman, not so long ago KOMO-KJR's prize pianist, is now the Little Club's good luck. . . . We also find there, Bob Munson, the big boy with the little uke, and those "blues" the way they do them up Seattle way. . . . Hermie Bauer, whose Olympic Hotel orchestra was a KOMO-KJR feature until recently, stopped over on his way to Santa Barbara.

Speaking of song writers. If you have ambitions in that direction, give a listen to Bill Brokaw's "Midnight Vagabond" series, heard on KTAB. Bill is sponsoring a song writing contest with prizes and everything!

Notes to me: From Hal Gibney, the ex-KTABite whose announcing job on a transcontinental, won a Portland offer. Hal writes that he's doing famously up there and handles several interesting remotes for KGW-KEX. . . . From Gogo Delys, whom Winchell calls "gogoregeous": Gogo, who has another big time commercial coming up, admits an overwhelming loneliness for the old home town.

Bill Hatch, musical director at KNX, lists as his most embarrassing broadcasting experience, the time he started to play "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," without music, and ended playing "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." A little confusing for the artist he was accompanying Bill admitted.

Ψ

Little Dorothy, daughter of George Crockett of the Crockett Family, heard nightly over KNX at 9:30, sang on the CBS network at the very early age of three.

Ψ

"Og—son of Fire," unique and amazing drama of the adventures of a pre-historic youth and his friends, is based on actual records and research discoveries about the world as it was a hundred thousand years ago.

Ψ

Loyal Underwood, at present acting as "doorman" for the KNX "Amateur Hall of Fame," lists as among the most interesting years of his life, the six years he worked in pictures with Charles Chaplin. He can't remember the names of any of the pictures, but he can talk old times in an interesting fashion, about the great comedian.

Ψ

Heavy increase in auditions at the Oakland studios of KROW has necessitated auditions by appointment only.

Ψ

The new Early Birds Show on KROW may be popular with early risers. How about the announcer assigned to the task of getting up an hour earlier six days a week! KROW's schedule is now twenty hours on each week day.

The Radio Tattler

• • • Back in the days when Tony Wons was conducting a non-denominational church of the air, a gentle elderly woman watching his broadcast approached and presented him with a sealed envelope. Thinking it contained the usual bit of amateur verse or some home-made philosophy, Wons thanked her and put the envelope in his pocket. When he remembered to open it a few days later the philosopher was startled to discover that it contained four crisp fifty dollar bills!

• • • The original painting of the famous Weber City map designed by Amos 'n' Andy and sent to thousands of radio listeners was displayed at an artists' exhibit at Rockefeller Center in New York City. The "boys" spent three full days working out the details of the map. The actual painting was done by Fred Cooper, a young Chicago artist.

• • • Alice Frost, who is "Camela" on the "Caravan" program, recently had difficulty in persuading a man from Bergen, N. J., that she was not his long-lost daughter. The Jerseyite saw her picture in the papers and wrote in, insisting that she was his "little Mary" who had run away from home many years ago to pursue a stage career. After some trouble, he was finally convinced that Miss Frost's father was a Lutheran minister in Minneapolis.

• • • Mrs. Frieda Ross, mother of Lanny Ross, popular radio star, experienced what was probably the thrill of her lifetime when she went on the air as accompanist for her son on a recent program.

Years ago Mrs. Ross, who was accompanist for the great Pavlowa, planted in Lanny's mind her ardent love of music. One song in particular was her favorite, the Welsh folksong, "All Through the Night."

Years rolled back when Lanny sang that song again, to her accompaniment, as she taught him in his youth, and Lanny's mother saw her dreams fulfilled.

• • • Dorothy Page, beautiful contralto who has risen to stardom in less than a year, is now in Hollywood to fill a motion picture contract.

Dorothy, whose first public appearance was on magazine covers and Red Cross billboards for which she modeled, began her singing career with Seymour Simon's orchestra in 1932 after winning a Paul Whiteman audition. While singing with the orchestra in Chicago last spring she was offered an NBC contract. A few weeks after her microphone debut she was signed for her first sponsored program and has been heard regularly since then.

• • • Jack Benny and Don Bestor have patched up their "feud." From now on the comedian and the bandmaster will be the best of friends, although Don will still be in for considerable kidding because he insists on wearing spats.

The "feud" has been one of the phenomena of the current radio season. Started as a joke, it soon was taken seriously by listeners throughout the country. The climax was reached recently when Bestor and his band "walked off" the program. Many queries wanting to know if Don and Jack had permanently severed relations were received, asking whether something could not be done about bringing them together again.

It all started back at Christmas time when Jack gave every member of the cast with the exception of Bestor a present. For months listeners heard him worrying about what to buy the band leader. Bestor took the position that Benny was stalling—that he really had no intention of getting him anything. Jack considered this an unfriendly attitude and started criticizing the musicianship of Don and his boys. Feeling that he had been insulted, Don decided to leave the program—all in fun, of course.

Actually, Benny and Bestor are the best of friends and have been for years. They were associated in vaudeville long before either of them entered radio.

Lennie Hayton's New Show

Beginning Saturday, April 20, Lennie Hayton and his orchestra will be featured in the new Lucky Strike program, replacing the Sigmund Romberg musical. This new feature will be known as the "Hit Parade." Scheduled NBC coast to coast.

Twenty-six Fox Theatres in Portland, Spokane and Seattle will present a series of "Amateur Shows," to select talent to appear on "National Amateur Night," broadcast from New York every Sunday afternoon. One winner will be chosen from each of the cities and expenses paid to New York. Details and results of the contest will be published in BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Harry "Parkyakarkas" Einstein, featured in Eddie Cantor's broadcasts, has been signed by Samuel Goldwyn to appear in Cantor's annual film musical which goes into production June 15.

Bill Sharples' program on KNX adds an additional quarter hour. It is now heard daily except Sunday from 6:45 to 8 a. m.

Starting May 5, a new coast-to-coaster will feature Ethel Merman, Ted Husing and Al Goodman's orchestra. Husing will emcee and Miss Merman will be the "stooge."

This Radio Set Never Gets Cold

I am sending you a list of programs we like, and listen to when on the air. I am sure glad to hear Tommy Harris is better. I hope he will be back soon and with the Big Ten. First on my list is Wayne King. We think he has the best music on the air; Guy Lombardo is next. I wish we could get his music oftener, as we don't get Hollywood very good. One Man's Family is next best I think. Then, Wendell Hall, and his ukulele; Walter Winchell, Jack Benny, and artists with Don Bestor's orchestra; the Melodious Silken Strings; Tom Coakley's orchestra; Jan Garber's orchestra; Jimmy Allen Flying Club; The In-Laws; Amos 'n' Andy; Red Davis; Blue Monday Jamboree; Big Ten; Town Hall; Ben Bernie's orchestra; Death Valley Days; Winning the West; the Gibson Family; Little Theatre, and Leo Reisman's Orchestra. We hear all news broadcasts too.

I think "Broadcast Weekly" is a fine magazine and everyone that has a radio should have one in their home. We couldn't do without ours and we sure get some nice programs on the air. I am not like lots of your writers; if I don't like one broadcast I tune in on another I like. I think there are a lot of cranks listening who want things all their own way. What do they want for nothing? If they had to pay for it, then they could "crank" about it.

Mrs. G. D. L., Pendleton, Ore.

Radio Programs Should Be Constructive, Thinks H. B.

These questions appeared in a recent issue of "Broadcast Weekly":

1. What part does broadcasting play in the everyday life of the average listener?
2. What specific service that only radio can render is of the greatest value to listeners?
3. What are the standards upon which the listener measures the value of a broadcasting medium or program?
4. What types of programs are practical as to effective presentation, suitable as to public welfare, successful as to listener acceptance?
5. What types of programs should be more frequently heard?
6. What programs should be eliminated?
7. What objectionable practices offend the listener.
8. What service would enable you to derive greater enjoyment and value from your radio? Here is how H. B. of Eugene, Oregon, answered them:

1. Radio is the dessert after the day's meal of corned beef and cabbage.
2. Radio is a success only in as far as it: Entertains, informs, encourages, uplifts; leaving the listener stronger, better and happier than he was at the beginning.
3. There should be more programs along historical, patriotic, religious, and educational lines. All programs should tend to develop the best there is within us. There is enough of the other kind about us.

As to those programs that should be eliminated—

6. All those that contribute to the undermining of the health, virtue, morality, honesty, the home, the church or the state. I refer especially to broadcasts that advertise intoxicating liquor, cigarettes and crime.

No program should be tolerated, which, if every American citizen should follow its lead there would be an ill effect upon the home, school, church, business or state.

H. B., Eugene, Oregon.

KNX has been officially designated by Army and Navy commanders as one of the high-powered stations whose signal is to be used to compute the position of planes while flying. Only high-powered, cleared channel stations, because of their far-reaching signals, can be used for this purpose. Army and Navy fliers tune KNX, compute its distance from another high-power station, and thus get their bearings in the air.

Friends of Thomas Freebairn-Smith, who have missed his pleasant English voice over KNX, will be glad to know that Tommy is back on the job. His too enthusiastic devotion to grass-hockey resulted in an injury which sent him to bed for several days, but didn't dampen any of his enthusiasm for hockey, which he plays regularly.

"Your English," popular NBC program that dramatizes the power of the spoken word and is presented each Sunday under the sponsorship of the Better-Speech Institute of America, will be brought to radio listeners on the Pacific Coast starting Sunday, April 14.

On that date and weekly thereafter the program will be heard over a coast-to-coast network at 11 a. m., P. S. T. Previously "Your English" went on the air over an eastern network. KPO heads the NBC network of stations in the West broadcasting this program.

Sport fans are now turning to KGGC at 6:30 nightly, since Newell MacMahan has begun the issue of his "Sports Page of the Air." "Mac" is a veteran sports announcer, with a following of listeners among the devotees of all sports activities. KGGC broadcasts women's news at 10 a. m.; Sports Page at 6:30; Editorial Page at 7:30 and General News Broadcast at 9 p. m.

FIRST, we find a graphic illustration of the old familiar adage—"Even Actors Must Eat." This gustatorial episode is being enacted by none other than Earl Lee and Olive West of KPO, and other ethereal thoroughfares. (1)

You've guessed right—it's "Hank" and "Pink"—none other, with winsome Teddy of "One Man's Family." If adoptions were in order—these three charming youngsters would have a million new papas. (2)

Bettye Baird, often heard via KTAB is the next engaging radio personality to greet you with a cheery, hello! (3)

Here is a trio of "Winning the West" stars. Barbara Jo Allen and Helen Musselman seem to have Barton Yarborough guessing. (4)

She's 110 years old, and no "sissy." It's Dr. Charlotte Davenport, performing at the piano during Cobina Wright's "Hostess" program over KFRC-KHJ net. Dr. Davenport (playing the unseen piano), is the mother of eleven sons, the eldest being a mere stripling of ninety-three years. She counted among her friends Franz Liszt, Richard Wagner and Nietzsche. (5)

The sixth of our picture panorama is registering supreme intelligence, genius, pers . . . pers . . .—well, skip it! We couldn't spell it anyway. Yes, it's Donald Stuart; "Percy the Playwright" to you.

The charming smile that is directed to you, and you, and you, is that of the vivacious KROW luminary, "Dianita." Now will you see your dentist twice a year?—and smile as prettily. (7)

It may be either a vowel or a diphthong—it's Greek to us, as it should be, judging from the soulful expression of George Givot, that "Garrulous Greek"—butcher of perfectly good language—to the delight of millions. (8)

It must have been a good one to start Charlie MacAlister on another chuckle spree. This genial Emperor of Laughter is one of the west coast—east—all around the country, radio favorites.

But so-long, till next week when we bring you more pictures!

Stars. Can You Guess Who They Are?

Thru the Radioscope with Earle Ferris

New York, N. Y.

DON MARQUIS, famous scribe too rarely heard on the air, once remarked to his publisher, "I don't care what you call me, so long as my right name goes on the check." Your Manhattan Stargazer has unearthed a few of the favorite nicknames of well-known radio artists.

The celluloid frying pan is awarded to Don Ross, who calls his wife, Jane Froman, "Bunny-nose." Lady Bea Lillie-Peel answers to the elegant moniker "Butch." Jack Fulton is "Steamboat," for he is a descendant of Robert Fulton.

Old pals call Phil Baker "Speed" ever since he doubled two theatres in the same week as a headline act. Jimmy Melton of the lilting tenor voice is "Shorty," because he is six-foot-two. Hubby Frank Luther calls Zora Layman "Cute," and she retaliates by adopting the nickname Will Rogers gave Frank, "Sloo-foot."

Phil Spitalny's "Hour of Charm" girls call him "Vodka" as a tribute to his fiery Russian temperament. Tim Healy is "Cap," Gus Haenschen, "Happy," and to make everything end right, Louise Bernhardt is "Sweets."

Lady, You're Killing Us!

Beatrice Lillie was so impressed with George Arliss's autobiography, "Up the Years from Bloomsbury," that she has decided to write her own, and will call it "Down the Street from Bloomingdale's."

Junior Repartee

A Brooklynite read from his morning paper—"In Chicago, a man sang a song on a flagpole." "That's nothing," Junior piped up, "In New York, Captain Tim Healy delivered a talk on a stamp."
