The Week's Special Events on the Air

By THE FORECASTER

PROGRAM producers are active again, with many new and promising features for the week. The National Educational Association Convention programs occupy both networks from Monday to Thursday. The CBS schedule, 12:45 Monday, 11:15 Tuesday, and 11:15 Thursday. The NBC will broadcast five sessions: Tuesday, 2 p. m.; Wednesday, 9 a. m. and 5:45 p. m.; Thursday, 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. Another Educational event is the address by J. W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education over NBC, 8:30 a. m., Thursday, from Columbus, Ohio.

Other events of the week include the first programs of the Western World Wave Club over KJBS on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 9:15 p. m.

Stoopnagle and Budd join Waring's Pennsylvanians over CBS on Tuesday at 5 p. m., and Edwin C. Hill adds 6:30 p. m. on Tuesday to his present CBS schedule of Monday and Wednesday at 4:15.

KGB, San Diego, is the originating point for the CBS airing of "Spanish Serenade" on Saturday at 7 p. m., not forgetting Ted Fio-Rito's "Summer Hour," CBS, Sunday at 3 p. m. Ray Paige's "Musical Mirror" at 7 p. m., and the Brahms Festival over KGO net on Monday at 3:30 and 4:30, Thursday.

Symphonic music rules the air waves this week with the Los Angeles Symphony (over CBS) at 8 p. m., Tuesday and Thursday; Howard Barlow, Sunday at 11 a. m., and the Portland Symphony on Saturday at 3 p. m. NBC offers Kansas City Philharmonic with De Wolf Hopper on Sunday at 1 p. m., and Standard Symphony on Thursday at 8:15 p. m. Regular symphonic NBC features still remain on the schedule.

Gogo DeLys, French-Canadian vocal star of the NBC "Hit Parade," has been invited to appear as guest artist at the Canadian Festival of Music to be held at Toronto during August. In addition to featuring a group of numbers, Miss DeLys will present several American artists with whom she has appeared on the air.

This Week's Cover

Walter Paterson, Kathleen Wilson and Frank L. Cooley, players in One Man's Family, NBC, who play Capt. Nicholas Lacey, Claudia Barbour and the minister.

THE Sunday Evening Hour, CBS, signs off this week, as does "Newspaper Adventures," KFRG, and Fred Allen's "Town Hall Tonight," NBC. Claude Sweeten's "Salon Moderne" has a new spot—8:30 instead of 7 and we wish this excellent feature could find a spot and hold it. Bea Lillie also signs off.

CBS shuffles the schedule with many changes. Among them, Sunday, Eddie Dunstetter, at 9:30 a. m. instead of 10:30; "He, She and They," 10 a. m. instead of 9:30; "Between the Bookends," 10:30 instead of 10 a. m. and "Happy Hollow," 10:45 instead of 10:30. On Wednesday, "Gravel Pit Courtroom" replaces "Mr. and Mrs." at 9:15 a. m. (also Friday). "Sunset Serenade" replaces Ted Fio-Rito at 4:30 p. m. and Gino Mancini, tenor, steps into the Claude Hopkins Orchestra spot at 7 p. m., Wednesday, followed at 7:30 by "Moon Glow" with Connie Gates and organist.

Ted Fio Rito Pinch Hits for Wayne King

Ted Fio Rito and his orchestra have supplanted Wayne King's musical aggregation on the latter's regular Sunday and Monday evening spots from 6 to 6:30 p. m. over the Columbia network.

Maestro King, who has enjoyed one of the most prolonged and successful radio careers on record, has joined with his men in taking a well-earned vacation.

Beginning with the broadcast of July 7, Wayne King will again take over the baton, to continue his dreamy waltzes for the duration of the series.

Ethel Merman's presence in Hollywood to play a feature rôle in the new Eddie Cantor picture, tentatively titled "Dreamland," has been postponed because of her Sunday night broadcasts from the New York CBS studios.

"The Show Must Go On"

George Frame Brown was willing to submit to a little surgery, but balked at being out of Tony and Gus, the NBC radio sketch of which he is author and co-star. Confined to his bed in Manhattan's Lenox Hill Hospital after an operation, Brown insisted that the show go on from his bedside. So it was arranged to "pipe in" the patient from the hospital during his convalescence.

Brown's sudden illness didn't ruffle the composure of members of the Tony and Gus cast. Hasty last minute changes arranged for Brown to be stricken with "poison ivy." Thus written out of the cast, Mario Chamlee, featured singer of the program, who has the rôle of an Italian youth with operatic ambitions, took the spotlight. Fortunately, the script called for Chamlee to present his "first concert" in New York.

Bernie to Appear in San Francisco July 9

Ben Bernie (Yowsuh, the Old Maestro himself) will arrive in San Francisco with all his lads on Tuesday, July 9, for a brief visit.

They will present their regular weekly broadcast for the East from NBC's 111 Sutter Street studios at 4 p.m., P.S.T., then will pack up their instruments and move into the Fairmont Hotel for the evening, playing there for dancers. They expect to leave the following morning.

Connie Gates Starred in New Series

"Moon-Glow" is a new program tailor-made to the talents of its star, Connie Gates, on the Columbia network on Wednesday, from 7:30 to 7:45 p.m., E.S.T. Described as "an island of song bounded on four sides by a torrent of jazz," the "Moon-Glow" program is styled as an attempt at something entirely different in radio production. The moon is again put to use as program background.

Jolly, Isn't It? Haw!

John Watt, the British Broadcasting Corporation's air producer and "compere," a word borrowed from the French, meaning the equivalent of "master-of-ceremonies," who was interviewed on CBS by Kate Smith, had Columbia studio folk intrigued with more than a thick English accent. It was his fantastic name. "Yes, it is rather queer, isn't it?" he answered those who could not refrain from commenting. "You know," he said, "I'm quite the laughing stock back home. Everyone I meet asks me, 'I say, John, how is your brother, Kilo?'"

No. 26

News and Comment

The "Symphony" Comes Into Its Own

NOT many years ago lovers of serious music would wait for months for an opportunity to hear a good symphony orchestra. Occasional concerts were major social and cultural events, viewed by the uninformed as "high brow" affairs, and an avowed love for the symphony was considered merely a pose.

But today the entire country is symphony minded to the extent that if sustained interest counts, symphonic music has become the most generally "popular" of all musical entertainment.

The better radio hours, "symphonize" their popular music, and it is hailed by the multitudes. All of which goes to show that popular music is familiar music, and the higher its quality the more popular.

Standard Oil, in sponsoring eight consecutive years of symphonic broadcasts, has contributed magnificently to a better understanding of symphonic works. By selecting works that are first of all musical, they have avoided the pitfall of inviting ridicule by lovers of beautiful music who are impatient with the conceit of the innovator whose first idea is to be "different."

The current week offers splendid fare for lovers of good music, superbly performed. The Los Angeles Symphony, under Henry Svedrofsky, offers two concerts: on Tuesday, July 2, over CBS at 8 p. m., and Thursday at the same hour.

The Tuesday concert programs, Mozart's overture to the "Marriage of Figaro," and part of the seldom heard concerto for viola in B Minor by Handel; the brilliant "A Night on Bald Mountain" by Moussorgsky and Moskowski's brilliant "Bolero."

The July 4 program, features Victor Herbert's "American Fantasy," Nevin's "Day in Venice," the "Dirge" from MacDowell's "Second Indian Suite" and "Irish Tune" and "Shepherds Hey" by Percy Grainger.

The Standard Symphony at 8:15 Thursday offers Herbert's "Pan Americana" and selections from "Naughty Marietta"; two Indian Dances by Charles Skelton, selections from the "Grand Canyon Suite" by Ferde Grofe, and the "El Capitan" March by John Philip Sousa.

These concerts, while featuring lighter music than is usual, will be refreshing and stimulating to all devotees of good music.

Other symphonic features include the Portland Symphony on Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. over CBS; the popular Howard Barlow Symphony Hour at 11 Sunday morning, CBS, and the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra at 1 p. m. Sunday over NBC.

Program notes of major symphonic works will be published in future issues of BROADCAST WEEKLY.

Radio Guild in New Sunday Series

NBC's Radio Guild, which has been one of the most popular dramatic series on the air for years, will move to a Sunday morning period on July 7, in order that additional listeners may be able to enjoy it, those who are otherwise occupied on week day afternoons.

The Guild programs will be heard from 10:30 to 11:30 a. m., Pacific Standard Time, over an NBC-KPO network, following the close of the Theatre of the Air series, which proved that Sunday morning is an ideal time for presentation of dramatic programs.

The series will be opened with four repeat performances, plays which already have achieved wide response in their radio adaptations. These will be John Galsworthy's "Justice," which has been heard twice before over NBC networks; "Clear All Wires," by Sam and Bella Spewack, which has been given once before; Wildred Brooke-Ley's "Chopin," which has been presented three times, and Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," with Mendelssohn's famous incidental music, which has been heard four times before on the air.

The famous weekly dramatic series was inaugurated by the NBC in 1929, and has been running continuously since. Many of the present actors have been with the group ever since the first performance, and all are widely experienced radio "trouper."

Prior to July 7, the Radio Guild will continue to be heard in its regular Monday afternoon period over KGO and KDYL.

Stoopnagle and Budd in New Series with Waring

On Tuesday, July 2, and each succeeding Tuesday, Colonel Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle and Budd begin their new program series with Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians on a nationwide Columbia Broadcasting System network.

The Colonel and Budd, who will be co-starred with Waring and his popular musical group, have revealed that they will institute several novel ideas. Goldfish throughout the world look upon the Colonel as their greatest benefactor. He is inventor of the revolving goldfish bowl, which saves the fish the trouble of swimming around.

The Colonel and Budd collaborated on their famous self-jumping checker. After long experiment, they succeeded in crossing an ordinary wooden checker with a Mexican jumping bean.

Among other noteworthy contributions to humanity and the arts by Stoopnagle and Budd are the cellophane umbrella, which permits one to look up and tell when it has stopped raining, and the cellophane mattress, which allows a person to look under the bed before retiring without bending over.

"Good Eggs" Get Together

Harold Hodge and his "Good Egg Club," on KFVB at 6:30 p. m. each Tuesday and Thursday, will be back on the mainland in July. During June the imaginary "Skyrocket Express" has been visiting the coast of Africa with episodes telling about the characteristics and superstitions of the natives.

KFVB's "Good Egg Club"—at 6:30 p. m. Tuesdays and Thursdays—has launched a contest for the children, and it will run to July 1. Prizes will all be cash awards.

Judges will be Eugene Inge, radio editor of the Los Angeles Herald-Express; Zuma Palmer, radio operator of the Hollywood Citizen-News; Dr. Ralph L. Power, radio counselor; Prudence Penny of the Los Angeles Examiner.; and Oscar Kantner, athletic and sports promoter.

All-Star Baseball Game from Cleveland Stadium

Baseball's most thrilling show, the all-star game between picked teams of the American and National leagues, will be described over National Broadcasting Company networks on Monday, July 8, direct from the Municipal Stadium at Cleveland, according to plans approved by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of organized baseball.

NBC announcers will describe the spectacular play-by-play details of the third annual contest between the major league rival teams, directed this year on the playing field by Frank Frisch, manager of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals of the National league, and Mickey Cochrane, pilot of the Detroit Tigers, American League pennant winners.

It is expected that a colorful crowd of 80,000 will jam Cleveland's huge Municipal Stadium to see the battle on Monday, July 8. In case of postponement the game will be scheduled for Tuesday, July 9.

The umpires will call "batter up" at 10:30 a. m., Pacific standard time. Other details of the broadcast over NBC networks will be announced later.

Condolences After Show Boat "Disaster"

Following the melodramatic burning last week of Captain Henry's mythical show boat, scores of telegrams of sympathy were received by the skipper. One fan, deeply moved by the tragedy, wanted to know if the old side-wheeler was insured.

Alvino Rey, guitar soloist with Horace Heidt's Brigadiers, and holder of a pilot's license, is haunting Chicago air fields, in search of a plane for use during his summer stay there.

* Monday through Friday.

THE British Broadcasting Corporation has announced its intention to extend the Empire Station at Daventry, which is now operating with a power of 15 kilowatts, by the addition of two new transmitters employing 40 kilowatts each. The two existing outfits will then be combined to form one transmitter with a maximum output of 40 kilosecond successful year with this station. Orchestral music is provided by a real "hot" studio orchestra, and the leader can frequently be overheard shouting his "Come on, boys, let's have it."

Most announcements are given in English, and the signature song is a well-known organ selection. The frequency used is 6.11 meg.

These Javanese broadcasters are becoming so numerous on the abbreviated wavelengths that the attentive listener has become somewhat bewildered as to the correct calls and locations. Most of the transmitters belong to the famous NIROM chain in the Dutch East Indies, the key station of which is YDA, a 10-kilowatt outfit which is located at Tandjongprick, near Batavia. This transmitter operates from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. on 6.04 meg., and from 2:30 to 7 a. m. (to 8:30 on Saturdays) on 3.04 meg. The latter schedule only is audible in this country, and then only irregularly.

The most reliable station for America's Pacific Coast is YDA2, a relay station which broadcasts with 1500 watts on 6.12 meg. Incidentally, a new relay transmitter has been reported with good volume every Sunday morning between 2:30 and 7 a. m. on a frequency of about 10.95 meg. This station is not listed, and is evidently a new outlet for the network.

The NIROM also operates an East-Java network, with YDB of Sourabaya on 4.47 meg. acting as key station. The same schedule as that of the western chain is maintained.

The only broadcast station on this island which is heard consistently in America is PMY of Bandoeng, which usually crosses the Pacific with a fair signal between 2 and 6 a. m. on a frequency of 5:14 meg. However, a number of other transmitters are on the air every morning in the wee small hours, and present a good target for the DX fan. Best bets include YDU3 on 5.26 meg., YDL2 on 4.81 meg., and YDU2 on 4.60 meg.

Station COC of Havana, Cuba, the famous "Voice of the Evergreen Land," has been on the air several evenings recently as late as 6:40 p. m., relaying the programs of CMBB and pleading for Cuba's share of the popular American tourist trade. COC also has a regular Sunday evening schedule until 7 p. m. on 6.01 meg., and do not forget the Saturday night programs of typical Cuban music between 8 and 9 p. m.

Despite many reports to the contrary, station HJ1ABE of Cartagena, Colombia, is still on the air with its regular Monday evening programs. During the past few weeks, reception has been particularly good during these transmissions between 7:30 and 8:30 p. m. A variety show takes up the first thirty minutes, and is followed at 8 p. m. by the famous "Hawaiian Boys of HJ1ABE," who only a few weeks ago celebrated their

A man of many musical moods is Sam Moore, genial master of ceremonies of the KFRC-Don Lee "Happy-Go-Lucky" program. Tune in—or attend in person—some afternoon at two o'clock and hear—or hear and see—the versatile Mr. Moore bring true melodies from the strangest instruments! For instance, there is a plain old ordinary kitchen washboard, but when Sam strums it with thimble fingers, there is nothing plain or ordinary about the music he produces. He has another washboard that has gone musical and now masquerades as a bass viol. The instrument he calls a bass horn used to be a radio loudspeaker. We cannot help thinking of Mrs. Moore and how carefully she must have to guard furniture and other household necessities, lest Sam will turn them into pianos or trumpets or something that makes music. The versatility of Sam Moore is matched by the variety of his program themes. Every day brings something different: Monday is Sunshine Day, the day that Sam personally escorts convalescents to his broadcasts; Tuesday, School Day; Wednesday, Old Timers; Thursday, Hill Billie; Friday, the Happy-Go-Lucky minstrel show.

From publicity to sales managing. At least, that is the newest step forward in the career of Bob Putnam. He used to publicize KROW, but now he is the San Francisco sales manager. Congratulations and our very best wishes, Mr. Putnam!

What's in a name? That seems the logical thing to ask, after hearing Mac McMahon, sports commentator, in a KGGC interview with Lord Lansdowne, light weight title grappler. For the English champion's real title is truly something to defend. His name—no foolin'—happens to be Patrick Algernon Marmaduke G. Finnington.

Cy Trobbe would like a vacation, but it seems that no one else can "cook" Dinner at Six the way KYA audiences like to have it served. To date, Cy has conducted no less than 425 dinner concerts, much to the satisfaction of all those Jack Spratt families of radioland. You know the story: "Jack Spratt could stand no classics, his wife could stand no jazz. But Cyrus Trobbe pleased them both and neither one could razz."

Wandering around the NBC studios in Hale Bros., we discover: That Vella Reeve, that very charming hostess, is now lending her charm to the Magazine office. . . . That Barbara Jo Allen is reveling in swell new comedy character, Vera Vague. It is one of those bewildered, befuddled clubwomen. . . . Helen Troy is par excellence as Susie, the switchboard girl, which character boasts the ultra-ultra scripting of Johnny Patrick, the author and the Cecil and Sally. . . . That Ann Holden has another name and also a superb sense of humor. . . . And, in conclusion, that Uncle Benny's show is bigger and better than ever.

To go down to the sea in ships was the vacation dream of Lynn Church, KYA announcer. So Lynn booked passage on a freighter that was heading South. Just then business beckoned in the form of a call for record cutting. But Lynn made speedy work of it and, although he did miss his boat, he did go South—by motor.

KSFO Adds New Features

Twice weekly, KSFO broadcasts the music of Ray Teller's dance orchestra from the Grove at Guerneville on the Russian River. The programs are heard each Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 9:30, and will be on the air throughout the summer.

KSFO has inaugurated the idea of having an amateur song writers period. The program is heard every Thursday evening at 7:15. Each Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, KSFO also presents the weekly concert of the Oakland Municipal Band.

KQW Personalities

Joy Storm, program director of San Jose's KQW, got his first chance in radio six years ago while studying dramatic art at Nebraska University. An executive of station KFAB enjoyed his work and suggested a radio audition. Since then, Joy has been affiliated with stations of the northwest, including KJR, Seattle, and KGW-KEX, Portland. Besides program duties at KQW, Joy also writes continuity and announces for the station. His program, "Musings," is well known to KQW listeners. His chief interest is dramatic radio presentations.

Vic and Sade Mark

Third Year on the Air

On June 8, Vic and Sade, popular dramatic series portraying homely incidents of American family life, celebrates its third anniversary of continuous broadcasting. The sketch has been presented six days a week during most of the three-year period, and has never been on the air less than its present schedule of five days a week.

WORLD WAVE CLUB

Not to be outdone by the Cuban broadcasting salesman, station XEBT of Mexico City is demonstrating the delights of interior Mexico for the benefit of summer vacationists. This station also reads fan mail and dedicates musical numbers to listeners every Thursday night from 9 to 9:40 p. m. The frequency is 6.00 meg.

A letter from W3XAL of Bound Brook, N. J., informs us that the station now broadcasts on 17.78 meg. daily from 6 to 7 a. m., and on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from noon to 1 p. m. Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday programs are transmitted from 2 to 3 p. m. on 6.10 meg., and an experimental broadcast is featured Saturday only on the same frequency between 9 and 10 p. m.

As we go to press, best European reception is still being wafted over the ether via GSD on 11.75 meg. between 7 and 8 p. m. The same station is also heard fairly well between 3 and 5 p. m. and later between 8:30 and 10:30 p. m.

The DX Corner

The Fiji Island station VPD seems to have changed its schedule slightly, now not coming on the air until 10 p. m., and then usually only to test with Sydney. Listen in on 13.07 meg.

HKV of Bogota, Colombia, South America's strongest broadcaster so far as Pacific Coast listeners are concerned, is now broadcasting every Tuesday night until 8 p. m. on 8:80 meg., and irregularly on other nights.

HJ4ABB of Manizales, Colombia, has been heard several times lately until 7:30 p. m. on 6.11 meg. Letters from fans are read, and musical numbers are dedicated to listeners every Wednesday from 7 to 7:30.

New World-Wave Log Ready

The most complete, new, up-to-date log of short-wave stations is now available on request.

Send for your copy TODAY! Also report what foreign stations you are now hearing. Address, All-Wave Editor, Broadcast Weekly, 1114 Mission Street, San Francisco.

2RO of Rome, Italy, is at last reaching the Pacific Coast on 9.64 meg. during the latter part of the "American Hour," which is broadcast every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 3 to 4:30 p. m.

PLV, Java's powerful commercial phone station, is now broadcasting its programs of eastern music every Tuesday morning between 7 and 7:30 a. m., and irregularly on other days at the same time. PLV is one of the strongest stations being received in this region at the present time, and should be easily picked up by all listeners.

PRF5 of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is now on the air quite often with special international broadcasts between 4 and 5:30 p. m., Sunday afternoons. The frequency—9.505 meg.

GLRZ, the steamship Aquitania, has been picked up by several listeners on the Pacific Coast recently near 8 p. m. The Aquitania's transmitter usually works on a frequency of about 8.30 meg.

This Week on KJBS

News for amateurs and short wave dialers is now broadcast on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 9:15 o'clock, over KJBS. Information pertaining to reception, short wave equipment and gossip is contained in the programs.

Recreation of sport highlights of the week are given Sunday evenings, from 9:15 to 9:45 o'clock, over KJBS. The high spots in the world of sports are dramatized, a point which is said to bring out the particular incidents more effectively.

World Wide United Press broadcasts over KJBS, daily except Sunday: 6, 10 a. m. and 12 noon; 3, 6 and 9 p. m.; on Sunday: 1 and 6 p. m.

Charlie Winner, now lending his infectious chuckle to "The Gibson Family" programs, has been one of Bea Lillie's staunchest fans for years, having appeared in two musical shows with her, "Oh, Please" and "No, No, Nanette!" . . . Jack Johnstone, author and director of the "Buck Rogers" series, has an encyclopedic memory for historical facts . . . Captain Tim Healy, mentor of the Stamp Club of the Air, has challenged Edgar Guest, the poet, to a horseshoe pitching match. . . . Zora Layman, in addition to being one of the most versatile singers on the air, is also an accomplished ventriloquist. . . . Frank Black, NBC musical director, is an enthusiastic listener to symphonic programs from abroad. . . . Husky young Robert Simmons, first tenor of the Revelers, is nursing a charleyhorse from an overdose of swimming last week. . . . Bernice Claire, thrilled at sailing on the Normandie to make a movie in London, flitted about her stateroom thanking everyone profusely for all the gifts and the carloads of flowers. . . . Pretty Gogo DeLys, a "regular guy," had lots of fun the other day helping one of the boys in Lennie Hayton's orchestra overhaul his car—Phil Duey still cherishes a bicycle that he bought when he was twelve years old, with the first money he ever earned, singing with his father's orchestra. . . . Jack Fulton's favorite radio is the Jack Benny show—these Jacks stick together! . . . That attractive brunette named Connie Gates has a pet mouse (of all things!) named Mildred. . . . Johnny Hauser admits his two outstanding weaknesses are large-eyed brunettes and leg-horn chickens. . . . Jimmy Melton says his favorite epigram is "A stitch in time gathers no moss." . . . Kay Thompson claims that her first mike performance went over with a bang—the microphone toppled over while she was adjusting it.

West Coast Artists Win Triumphs in the East

California's products are swamping the air waves—and we do not mean oranges and lemons. We mean radio talent. Most of the new talent that has flashed across the radio skies has been imported from California.

First there is lovely Virginia Verrill, at eighteen the star of her own show, with such notables as Johnny Green and his orchestra and Christopher Morley, the writer, supporting her. So that the Coast will not be without her vocal offerings, CBS has consented to give her a sustaining period of her own to go West, because the show on which she is being starred is an eastern highlight.

Then petite Gogo DeLys has landed with both feet, proving a hit from the time she sang on her first Phil Baker program some months ago and now one of the bright luminaries with Lennie Hayton's splendid musical aggregation Saturday nights. Miss DeLys has loads of personal charm, and the radio magazine lads and lassies are finding it out.

Kay Thompson, another ace vocalist from the West, brings even more than a voice to the loudspeaker—she brings ideas. And they have caught on to the point where a "Kay Thompson arrangement" is referred to as often as a "Ferde Grofe arrangement" was in the old days. She has sopped all the efforts of mixed vocalists, and with her three boys and Lennie Hayton's orchestra, she has something very definite to offer.

And in addition to all these already landed, we are told that Ruggles and Boland, Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon, Helen Hayes, and even Laurel and Hardy of the movies, are under consideration for starring rôles in the near future.

It would seem that California has come with both feet—and is still en route.

One of the reasons that talent has been developed out there, practically in carloads, while the output in the East has been rather sad of late, is that they let them take their own sweet time about it out there. It is a little difficult to be spontaneous when you are limited to three minutes' time.

United States Weather Bureau Pest Control Broadcasts

KNX has resumed its services to Southland citrus growers in the daily United States Weather Bureau Pest Control forecasts.

Issued at Pomona, the forecasts are invaluable to Southern California citrus growers. The predictions include temperatures, general weather conditions, relative humidity and dewpoint. Maximum day temperatures are forecast for San Bernardino, Riverside, Corona, Pomona, Santa Ana, San Fernando, and Santa Paula, each place a key station.

Station WXYZ, pioneer Michigan transmitter, will become associated with the National Broadcasting Company as the regular outlet for the NBC-WJZ network, effective September 29.

The University of California Law School seems to be the starting point for many of the West Coast's most popular dance orchestra maestros. Tom Coakley, a national favorite with dance orchestra fans, was a graduate of the Berkeley institution, and following closely in his footsteps is Bob Kinney, another graduate of the California Law School.

Bob Kinney and his orchestra are now a feature of the Hotel Del Monte, known the world over as a show place and a playground for sports lovers.

Kinney's band is composed of University of California students, and like Coakley, his success on the Berkeley campus led to greater opportunities.

Broadcasting on the western network of the Columbia chain, Kinney and his entertainers are heard every Friday and Saturday night, featuring the vocal work of Bob Saunders, Jim Tosteson, and Gil Wilke.

Pendarvis Summering at Palace

Paul Pendarvis has just signed a contract to stay on at the Palace Hotel the remainder of the summer which will take them up in to September, and maybe longer, pending the plans of Tom Coakley and his orchestra.

The Four Bartenders, a harmony combination of instruments and voices, are particularly popular during the intermission entertainment. Their offerings are all entirely danceable which the younger set seem to enjoy thoroughly.

Patricia Norman and Eddie Scope, two half-pint personality singers, are delightfully individual and in combination, while Jimmie Stewart is proving a hit with his romantic ballads. Pendarvis, himself, is a saxophonist and violinist, as well as a director.

The Pendarvis theme song is "My Sweetheart" and is used to open and close the band's program on KYA and KPO, on whose programs they are taking Tom Coakley's former spots.

Ether Jottings

Bob Snyder, popular young tenor of Pasadena, spends the week-end putting on the finishing touches to an all-stone cabin in San Dimas Canyon.

Margaret Ayler, employed in the KHJ production department, and Bert F. Sloman, read their own names in the "Vital Statistics" column today. They will wed at the Lutheran Church of Compton on Sunday.

When Kenneth C. Beaton (K. C. B.) was prevented by illness from appearing on a recent program of "Raymond Paige and K. C. B.," his brother, Welford Beaton, agreed to serve as a substitute. All went well until the final "I thank you," which brother Welford gave a bit hesitatingly, adding a wholly unexpected, "Gee, I guess I stumbled on that one."

Helen Hayes, a close friend of Joan Blaine's, frequently sits in on the "Mary Marlin" broadcasts in which Joan plays the title role.

Reginald Bryan Owen, son of Ruth Bryan Owen, United States Minister to Denmark, gave invaluable assistance to the Chicago CBS crew which flew to Nebraska to broadcast from the flood area.

Jane Cruisiberry—Mary Marlin Writer

One fine morning in May when Jane Cruisiberry, authoress of the "Story of Mary Marlin," was but twelve years old, she took it into her head to write a play. With no definite plot in mind she wrote the first act—the second act—the third act—but all of them were full of scenes! She wrote until September, finishing with a suitcase full of manuscripts divided into 18 acts with 35 scenes—and still the play wasn't finished! Oh, yes, "Gatherers of Flame"—the story of a fiery love affair that was successfully quenched—was the name of the "play."

Unable to figure out a proper ending for the masterpiece, she at last had the hero and heroine walk hand in hand into the Ganges River—a quite successful ending and a necessary one, since she had to return to school that fall.

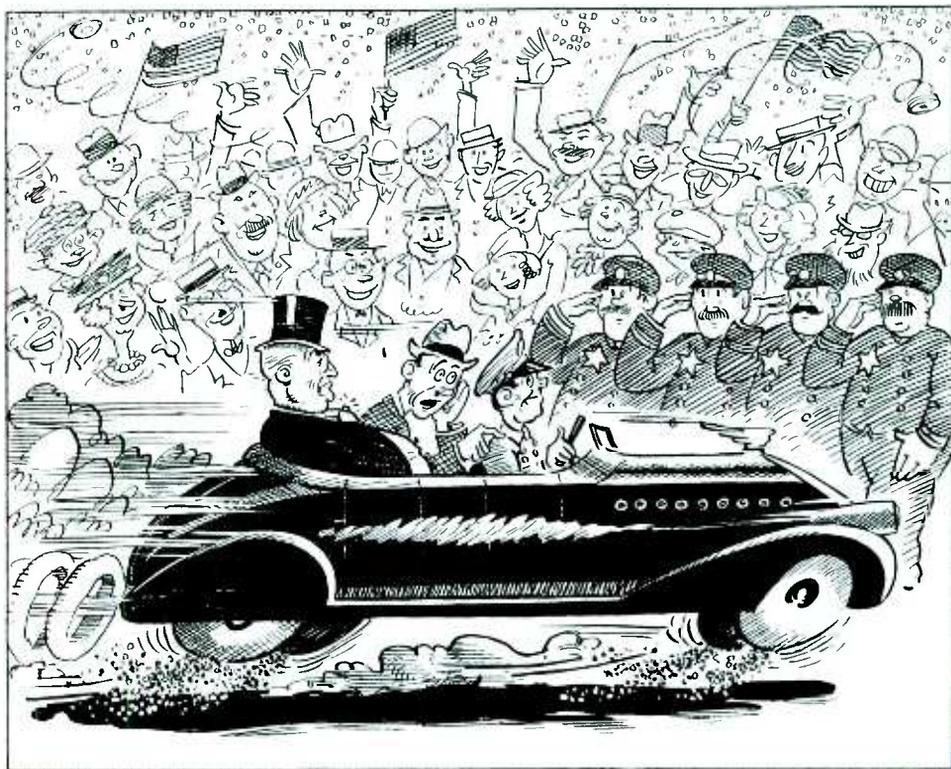

She claims now that that one little venture was prophetic—it proved her destined for radio writing. The idea seems to have worked out rather well, for she has turned her talents into a great deal of pleasure for the many Mary Marlin listeners, as witnessed by the fact that she has written the show ever since it has been on the air and has yet to reach the stopping place.

The "Story of Mary Marlin" is heard every day, except Saturday and Sunday, over CBS, at 8:30 P.S.T.

Lal Chand Mehra, well known for his inspirational Sunday broadcasts over KNX continuously since 1932, has earned recognition in the motion picture colony as technical advisor and actor in oriental pictures. He served in such capacity in "The Green Goddess" with George Arliss, "Kismet" with Otis Skinner, and in Paramount's "Lives of a Bengal Lancer." His most recent acting assignment was in "China Seas" for M. G. M.

Mr. Mehra comes from a high-caste Hindu family, was educated in India and America, holding degrees from the University of California, and has lectured on his country under the auspices of the University of California Extension Division for the past twelve years. He speaks every Sunday morning over KNX from 9 to 9:30 a. m.

Don Hambly, formerly on the program staff of KRE, Berkeley, has joined the production staff at KJBS. He replaced Gene Goldrup, who sailed June 21 for Honolulu and a spot as technical engineer of KGMB.

"Step on it, Gus! The Gov'nor wants to hear 'Amos 'n' Andy'."
