WEATHERLY 'ROQs It's Official: Schuyler Heads RCA Nashville

Q106 (KKLQ)-San Diego's program director Kevin Weatherly jumped station and format this week. As of June 1, Kevin will be PD at Alternative KROQ-Los Angeles, replacing Andy Schuon who recently took a position with MTV.

A well-known Top 40 program director who has won numerous awards, Weatherly has spent the past three years at Q106. Before that he held the music director position at three top stations: KIIS/FM-Los Angeles, KMEL-San Francisco and KZZP-Phoenix.

"Kevin's programming acumen, musical savvy and Southern California experience make him an outstanding person to carry on the KROQ tradition of innovative and creative programming," said station GM Trip Reeb.

"It's never easy to leave a great radio station with incredible people," said Weatherly, "but the opportunity to join Infinity and program a station like KROQ in America's number one radio market is the perfect situation. I'm anxious to make the move from Top Forty to a completely new and exciting format, and look forward to the challenge of building on KROQ's legacy."

Last week's rumor is this week's reality: Songwriter/artist Thom Schuyler has been named Vice President of RCA Records Nashville Operations.

Jack Weston (VP/GM) and Josh Leo (VP/A&R) have done an excellent job in the past year and a half keeping RCA in a leading role within the marketplace," said label president Joe Galante. "The combination of these two talented executives under Thom's leadership will make RCA the only place to be."

An active member of the Country music community, Schuyler is currently Chairman of the Board of the Country Music Association and President of the International Songwriters Foundation and is on the board of Leadership Music. His hits include "16th Avenue" and "My Old Yellow Car." As an artist, he's recorded solo projects and in the eighties was a member of SKO (Schuyler, Knobloch & Overstreet) and SKB (Schuyler, Knobloch & Bickhardt).

"I've always looked at RCA as a legendary classic label and the current roster of artists continues to exemplify that," said Schuyler. "I've always respected the work that Jack Weston, Josh Leo and the RCA staff have done with the music. The offer came as a surprise to me and it may come as a surprise to others, but I see it as Joe's (Galante) continued belief in the Nashville creative community."

Schuyler officially starts in late summer, but is already active with the label.

Windham Hill/BMG Relationship Deepens

Expanding on a 1990 distribution deal, Windham Hill Productions and Bertelsmann Music Group (BMG) signed a new joint venture agreement on Monday, May 11. Windham Hill President/CEO Anne Robinson will continue to run the company for the label's Palo Alto, California headquarters.

The new agreement calls for BMG to manufacture, sell, distribute and market Windham Hill recordings in Europe, Latin America, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. It will cover Windham Hill co-founder Will Ackerman's new venture, Gang of Seven, which will produce narrative projects from theater to performance art. Among Gang of Seven's first signings is Gavin Seminar '92 keynoter Rick Reynolds. Ackerman's own album, The Opening of Doors, was released at the time of the agreement's signing.

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•ROBERT PALMER

The current Robert Palmer single, EVERY KINDA PEOPLE was actually Palmer's first hit single, released back in the Spring of 1978.

•QUEEN

Royalties from the sales of BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY, being donated by Queen to the Terrence Higgins AIDS Trust, have so far exceeded $1.75 million.

•LIONEL RICHIE

Lionel Richie was a member of The Commodores from 1970-1981 and has been working without his old Tuskegee, Alabama buddies since he sang ENDLESS LOVE with Diana Ross for the soundtrack to the film of the same title.

•SANTANA

The Spanish title of the new Santana album, Milagro, means miracle.

•WEIRD AL YANKOVIC

As an architecture student at Cal Poly, Weird Al Yankovic, a frustrated accordionist (aren't they all), submitted a couple of song parodies to disc jockey Dr. Demento, who played them on his syndicated radio show. The songs were ANOTHER ONE RIDES THE BUS (a takeoff on Queen's ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST) and YOU DON'T TAKE SHOWERS (a takeoff on Neil Diamond's YOU DON'T BRING ME FLOWERS).

•ANNIE LENNOX

In four of the past nine years Annie Lennox has won Best British Female Artist at the annual BRITS Awards ceremonies.

•TINA TURNER

For the past few years, Tina Turner has spent almost all her time at homes she owns in England and Germany.

•HEATHER MULLEN

Thirty-one year-old Heather Mullen was born in New York City, but grew up in Philadelphia. She was, until recently, a waitress in a Manhattan comedy club when she was discovered by singer Wendy Wall.

•JAMES TAYLOR

The next leg of James Taylor's New Moon Shine tour, which begins in June, will be recorded for a live album that could be out before the end of the year.

•JERMAINE JACKSON

When filming begins later this month on the ABC-TV mini-series based on the lives of the famous Jackson family, Jermaine Jackson will be pulling double duty. Not only is he a producer of the project, but he's also one of the few actual Jackson family members to have an acting role. He'll portray his father, Joe.

•PAM TILLIS

In 1977, Pam Tillis was touring the country in father Mel's band, singing backup in The Stutterettes.

•KRIS KROSS

Chris Smith and Chris Kelly, better known as Kris Kross, make their fashion statement by wearing their clothes backward. Apparently there is now a name for such Kross dressing and it's known in a few fashion circles as "Krossed-out."

•BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN

The Pointer Sisters had a big hit single with the Bruce Springsteen composition FIRE. Did you know that Bruce wrote it for Elvis Presley only weeks before Elvis died.

•NICKY HOLLAND

As a songwriter, Nicky Holland has written or co-written songs for Tears For Fears, Oleta Adams, Cyndi Lauper, Celine Dion and Jill Sobule.

•RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS

The Red Hot Chili Peppers formed a decade ago. The two surviving members from the original line-up are lead singer Anthony Keidis and bassman Flea.

•RINGO STARR

Born Richard Starkey nearly fifty years ago in Liverpool, Ringo Starr had his first non-Beatle hit single in 1971 with IT DON'T COME EASY.

•k.d. lang

A native of Consort, Alberta, k.d. lang was chosen to perform at the closing ceremonies of the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary where she was affectionately introduced as "The Rose Of Alberta."

•CHER

Ten years ago this Spring, Cher was starring on Broadway in the musical "Come Back To The Five And Dime Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean," directed by Robert Altman.

•LINDA RONSTADT

A second Simpsons' album is being planned for later this year and one of the proposed performances is a duet between Homer Simpson and Linda Ronstadt on Willie Nelson's FUNNYHOWTIMESLIPSAWAY.

•RODNEY CROWELL

Singer Rodney Crowell had been a solo recording act for ten years before having his first number one Country single with I COULDN'T LEAVE YOU IF I TRIED in September of 1988.

"Since launching our distribution agreement with BMG in 1990, we've been interested in exploring an expanded relationship that would allow us to utilize a wider array of BMG's capabilities while permitting Windham Hill to retain its creative stamp and organizational strategy," said Robinson. "BMG's philosophy of seeking strong partnerships, rather than simply acquiring new companies, struck us as the most appealing and potentially rewarding path to follow in evolving Windham Hill's core business through the nineties."

Windham Hill Jazz is home to such artists as Tuck & Patti, Andy Narell and Bluesiana. Its subsidiary, High Street covers singer/songwriters and alternative bands.

London Tops A&M Urban Dept.

Miller London, most recently Vice President of Marketing at RCA Records, has joined A&M Records as Senior Vice President and General Manager of the label's Urban Music Department.

London worked at Motown Records for 21 years before leaving the label in 1990 to become a vice president at RCA.

"I had a close vantage point from which to watch and appreciate A&M during the years that I spent working Motown through the independent distribution system," said London. "I'm very excited to be involved in continuing the new chapter of success at A&M."

Said label president Al Cafaro: "Miller's vast experience and sense of teamwork are essential to our success. I'm thrilled to have him with us."

Gillespie, Fontaine Add to Chaos

Gillespie

Fontaine

The newly-formed Chaos Recordings added two new executives this week.

• Geordie Gillespie has been named National Director, Alternative/Dance Promotion. He most recently held a similar position at EMI Records. In the early '80s Gillespie was founder and producer of the group KONK, and went on to work in record promotion and as a tour manager. "Geordie has been a key player in a diverse group of musical genres for several years," said Chaos Vice President, Promotion Ron Geslin. "His experience in the dance, club, metal, college and alternative areas uniquely qualifies him for this key position..."

• Justin Fontaine is National Director, Promotion, West Coast for the label. He comes from Chrysalis Records' Los Angeles branch, where he was National Director, Top 40 Promotion. Before working at Chrysalis, Fontaine was a Regional Promotion Manager for Mercury Records. "Justin's promotion experience brings to the Chaos label an admirable array of relationships developed carefully and credibly over a long period of time," said Geslin. "We are overjoyed to welcome him to our new team."

A High Profile For Ross

Billboard Senior Radio Editor Sean Ross moved to the record side of the business this week, taking a position in A&R at Profile Records.

Ross told us that he met Profile president Cory Robbins at

A self-confessed "record junkie," Ross took home Gavin's trivia crown twice. He will start at Profile on June 1.

Sikes To Address Conclave '92

FCC Chairman Alfred Sikes will be the keynote speaker at Conclave '92, which convenes in Minneapolis on July 16 and runs through July 19. Sikes' speech on Friday July 17 at 11 a.m. will center on the rules he's been responsible for constructing since he began his tenure at the FCC.

Securing Sikes as a keynoter is a coup for the Conclave, as it's his first speech in front of a programming conference, and his last before the lifting of limits of ownership rule takes effect on August 1.

Conclave officials will be announcing more speakers shortly. Call (612) 927-6427 or write 4517 Minnetonka Blvd., Suite 104, Minneapolis, MN 55416 for info.

CD Scratches: Gone With the Sand

You held out for as long as you could against technology before coughing up for your first CD player, only to discover that one of your favorite CDs skips just like those annoying records used to. Before suffering pangs of caveat emptor, relax. Thanks to a new patented system you can erase scratches in CDs using different grades of sandpaper.

Memorex is distributing a kit capable of removing fairly deep scratches that impair a laser's ability to read the data on a disc. After the digital code on a disc is read, a microprocessor converts the pattern into music. The kit improves on existing cleaning systems by using sandpaper to grind down portions of a CD's shell that can become scratched and harmed.

Although extremely deep scratches embedded on the labeled side of a disc are impossible to repair, most can be remedied—unless you're using discs as part-time frisbees or skeets. David Beran

RADI-O-RAMA

Cadillac Jack exits WAEB-Allentown to become MD/Night Personality at WPHR-Cleveland. Formerly Power 108, the station's dance/urban slant has been abandoned in favor of "Top 40 with a modern rock influence." Management is filing for new call letters, WENZ, and deejays are already using the moniker, "The End"...As speculated, Trevor Carey is replacing Don Parker as program director at B95 (KBOS)-Fresno, CA. Parker hasn't announced plans. Stepping up to Carey's former slot as MD is Assistant MD Kevin Murphy...As of presstime, the PD slot at Z100 (KKRZ)-Portland, OR, was still open...After a two and a half year vacation (!), Michael J. Lang re-joins Energy98 (KRRG)-Laredo, TX as PM Driver/Production Director...

ROTATIONS

Maverick Records' Executive Vice President is Ronnie June Dashev not Julie Dashev, as reported last week. We apologize for any confusion...In left field: Deborah Lansing has been named Vice President of Promotion for Left Field Records. She comes from Paramount Pictures where she was a Director's Assistant...Videophiles take note: On June 23, the uncut version of the The Rolling Stones' 1970 documentary Gimme Shelter will be available on home video...

David Linton is Vice President, R&B Promotion at the PolyGram Label Group (PLG).

Charley Lake is Vice President of Pop Promotion at Motown Records.

Sarah Haynes is VP, National Promotion at Relativity.

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

In a letter faxed to me a few weeks ago, Rex Holiday, PD of WQPW Valdosta, GA, expressed bewilderment as to why Top 40 programmers, especially those not in major markets, "feel pushed to one niche or the other." Just like Joe Dawson of WBXX Battle Creek, MI mentioned here (Gavin 4/17 and 4/24), Rex also acknowledges "the pressure down here in the smaller markets is more intense because of the greater percentage of sponsors who still buy what THEY listen to."

He goes on to pose this question—"Is there a substantial amount of territory between 'Top 40' and 'Mass Appeal'?" Rex pulls no punches in disagreeing with those who feel variety should be found by tuning in to stations that offer specialized programming.

"Dial hopping," he notes, "is at best inconvenient, and at worst, dangerous; try finding one of those tiny electronic buttons in your car while in motion on the Atlanta perimeter. Even the in-home listener typically doesn't have a remote for their receiver, so they have to stop what they're doing, get to the unit, and search."

"Narrowcasting encourages, nay, demands these behaviors for the vast majority of the population. I've always cherished the music directors and personalities who could grab and hold my attention for hours at a time without fatigue."

The answer, of course, claims Rex is simple, "variety, variety, variety. Does some high-caliber research team have to build some major statistical base to justify what is common base: the vast majority of sellable demos accept, indeed prefer, a wide sampling of music?"

As expected, it was a battle royale in the MOST ADDED category with a lot of big names and some great music vying for airplay. Hard as it is to believe, there are some programmers who claimed they didn't add LUTHER VANDROSS AND JANET JACKSON because of the B.B.D./RALPH T. rap portion of this production. There are lots of reasons to not add a record, but this shouldn't be one of 'em when a record this important comes around. All it takes is a razor blade—and the rap is gone! In fact, Steve Chase, PD at KOYE Laredo, TX, has already done the editing and says he'll be happy to send out copies to those stations that want it. Just call him at (512) 723-4396.

A blowout week for WILSON PHILLIPS, who are showing massive gains in every region of the country. Races into the top thirty at KX92 Alexandria, MN 31-22 and MD Mike Lommen reports, "top ten requests around the clock—an all demo winner." HIT FACTOR jumps to 14% with top twenty stats at WCIL 28-18, MIX 99.9KHI 23-17, WYHY 24-18, WHSB 22-13, WVIC 20-15, WNCI 17-10, KSKU 24-17, KHNTN 21-15, etc.

Early gains for ANNIE LENNOX reflect positive audience response, especially from those upper demos. Moves into the top twenty at KISM Bellingham, WA 25-17 and APD/MD Michael Jack Kirby notes, "solid top ten requests 18-plus." Strong at KWOD Sacramento 15-10, WNCI Columbus 18-14, CKOI/FM Montreal 27-24, 102 ZOO Ashtabula, OH 25-19 and KYYY Bismarck, ND 40-31. New on: KSND, WJZQ, KPAT, WRKY, WNVZ and KYEE.

With a solid base built at Album radio, the BLACK CROWES land at Top 40's doorstep in a big way. Early believers charting it top thirty include KEGL, WNFI, WLVI, KLZ, KYYZ/FM, KPKY, Z104.5, Y107, KQCL/FM and KZZT. Expect them to occupy a CHARTBOUND slot next week.

At KLUC Las Vegas, APD/MD Cat Thomas moves TAG into the top fifteen. Three-week trend is 24-19-15 and Cat says, "We were spiking it here and there before we ADDED it. It's getting strong results from women 18-24—callout is already 50% positive and it's top twenty on the phones." ADDs at: KDWB, WHSB, KCHH, KACI, KISM, KWYR, KLIS, KRQU, WCGQ, WYKS, etc. Plus, check out another hot move at KDON Monterey/Salinas, CA 29-23.

CHAKA KHAN charts Top Ten at KS104 Denver 11-9 and is closing in fast at Y95 Phoenix 15-11. She's also Top Ten at HOT 97 New York and KMEL San Francisco, with gains at WZOU 15-12, KZ103 26-18 "it's picked up the tempo of the station and is getting requests," 102 ZOO 30-24, WXLC 35-30, HOT 97.7 30-27, KSTN 25-19, KWIN 33-27, etc. ADDED at: WDEK, KKBG, WJAT/FM, WIQQ and KIIIK.

High debut at WKQP Hornell, NY is DELBERT McCLINTON's "Every Time I Roll The Dice" at #30. MD Brian Hurlburt reports it's number eight in overall requests and is generating "lots of curiosity calls." K96 Richmond, IN takes it 16-10 and PD Jim Roads says, "We're getting top five phones—it's a killer song here." Other gains at WKMZ 39-27, KFBD 19-13 and KDOG 33-27. New on: KTMT, WHDQ, WAPE, KLAZ, KGWY, KAFX, KQIX, KX92, B96.9, WAVT, etc.

Chart moves kicking in for GOOD 2 GO's "Never Satisfied," with a HIT FACTOR increase of 13% to 25%. KKFR Phoenix APD/MD Dena Yasner charts it 16-12 and tells us research-wise there are "no negatives and it's building steadily." Hot at POWER 102 Fresno 23-17, WNCI 15-13, KISS 108 Boston 29-26, KHNTN Modesto/Merced 28-23, B95 Fresno 21-18, KCHH Chico 35-30, WYHY Nashville 28-24, KTFM San Antonio 21-17 and KMEL 30-26. ADDs at: WDFX Detroit and KQMQ Honolulu.

JODECI maintains Top Five status at both WPGC and KMEL, on top of high debut honors for KTFM at #19! New believers include: HOT 102, WPFM, WCGQ, WZOU, WYHY, KWIN, KCHH and KPLZ. It debuts at #35 for KOYE Laredo where they're "starting to see retail action after just a week and a half of airplay."

Top thirty activity for CLUBLAND featuring ZEMMYA HAMILTON at B96 Chicago, HOT 97, KMEL and WILD 107 San Francisco, KKFR, WZOU Boston, KTFM and KWIN Stockton. ADDED at: FUN 107 New Bedford, MA, Y95, KISS 108 and KCAQ Oxnard, CA.

RATINGS & RESEARCH

THE DIARY REVIEW OR NOT THE DIARY REVIEW?

Why did the station's share go down? Why did the station's cume "disappear" from a particular cell? Is there a slogan or rounded frequency identification problem in the market? How do listeners identify your station in the diary? How accurate was the editing? Is there any call letter confusion with diary keepers in the market? Many times, seeing the diaries themselves will answer these questions and many more.

Arbitron subscribers in good standing have been granted the right to visit the Laurel facility to review the raw product that is used in producing the audience estimates. The Diary Review is a process that must be scheduled in advance with Arbitron since they have nearly 1500 visits per year. At the end of each survey period, Arbitron sends subscribers a response card. They can use this card to sign up for a Diary Review. The date is assigned via lottery. However, four-book subscribers get priority. The assigned date is also subject to the market release date and the station's invoices must be current.

Do you need to conduct a diary review yourself, hire a company to do it for you, or not do it at all? The first question to ask is, "What do I want to learn?" There are some very good reasons to view the diaries:

1. The only place to get the comments that diary keepers are encouraged to put on the back of the diary is by visiting the Diary Review rooms at Arbitron. Some programmers find the comments helpful in seeing how listeners feel about the radio station or its personalities. The comments may also yield differences of opinion between age groups. Perhaps there are even some comments that can be put to use by the sales department. You might think of reading diary comments as a mini-focus group.

2. How does the audience identify the radio station? Do they write down what they are listening to by call letters, by slogan, by positioner, by personalities, by sporting event, by exact frequency or by rounded frequency? Many diary reviewers tally each of the diaries by type of identifier used by the diary keeper and then calculate a percentage. Knowing the percentage of each type of identifier will be a report card on the station's marketing effort. Too many identifiers probably mean audience confusion. The wrong type of identifier, such as round frequency identification instead of the exact frequency, can cause the dreaded ascription process to be initiated. Most programmers work hard at getting the audience to remember the stations "name." The diary review is the only way to find out whether the audience has learned the station's name.

3. Some visit to audit. This means meticulous verification of the diary mentions in the mechanical diary. The hope is to find no errors in the process that manually enters the diary information into the computer. The audit is also used to determine if Arbitron followed its editing rules. There are literally hundreds of rules and procedures employed in the editing of radio diaries. The audit is used to determine if Arbitron followed those rules and procedures. There have been times when an entire market report has been reissued because of an entry mistake; however, this has become rare in recent years. About one reissue situation occurs per year.

There are several companies that will conduct diary reviews for stations. Consult the box on this page. Why hire a consultant to review diaries? First of all, the station may save travel expenses and considerable time for the executives. If you are in a large market, additional help will be required to get through all the diaries in the one day allotted for each station. Speed will count in conducting the Review, so experienced assistance will help achieve the goal.

If you choose to do the review yourself, here are some helpful hints:

1. Do your homework. Know exactly what you want to accomplish on the visit. Plan on how you are going to organize the day. You will be amazed how fast eight hours will go when reviewing diaries.

2. Wear comfortable clothes, but remember you will be surrounded by representatives from up to nine other radio stations.

3. Bring a tape recorder if you want to record comments. Yes, and make sure the batteries are fresh or the adapter is with you and that you have sufficient fresh tape! Computers are forbidden.

4. Buy a Station Mechanical. It will help you locate the diaries you really want to see. The Station Mechanical also has many other applications in the data analysis once you have seen the diaries.

Diary Reviews can yield significant information, but make sure you make a plan to get the most out of your visit.

P.S. Watch out for those paper cuts!

DASEFX's "They Want EFX," which was our Top Tip May 1, becomes this week's "Hot" debuting at #34! And we said we were going out on a limb?! CE CE PENISTON's "Keep On Walking," our Top Tip, has been added at OC104, WCDX, WKYS, K98, KFXZ, WFKX, WJMI, WLOU, WJFX and KDKO, while its Hit Factor takes an 18-29% jump. Our Record To Watch, VANESSA WILLIAMS' "Just For Tonight," looks like it's headed in the same direction as the first three releases from her "Comfort Zone" album—straight to the top. Some adds include KJMM, KJLH, WVOI, WXVI, WXOK, WFXA, WBLX, KRUS, and WUSL. Andy Henderson, WQKI-St. Matthews, likes LUTHER VANDROSS and JANET JACKSON's "The Best Things In Life Are Free," and says, "I feel this one is a natural hit." Matt Morton, WXOK-Baton Rouge, says, "Great record—surprising and high-powered!" Hollywood Higgins, KRUS-Ruston, says, "Interesting combination—great song." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, likes SHANICE & JOHNNY GILL's "Silent Prayer," saying "I was hoping they would release this one when I first heard Shanice's CD. Johnny Gill put the finishing touches on this great song." Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, likes AL JARREAU's "It's Not Hard To Love You" and says, "It's not hard to like this." Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, says to watch ELDEBARGE's "You Know What I Like" saying, "You just gotta like this one. It has the potential to be one of his biggest hits." Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

AL JARREAU - It's Not Hard To Love You (Reprise)

Just about a week or two ago I popped Hearts Horizon into my home CD player, tracked to "All Or Nothing At All," and wondered if Jarreau was planning to release something new during the summer. Coincidentally, this week Al releases the first single from his new album, Heaven and Hearth. "It's Not Hard To Love You's" mid-tempo beats and harmonies are nice, but there's no doubt the performance is 100% Jarreau.

JOE PUBLIC - I Miss You (Columbia)

The quartet from Buffalo, NY swerves from their uptempo "Live And Learn" to this seductive ballad, "I Miss You." Jake, J.R., Dew and Kev live band sound has eleven believers, including: WFKX-Jackson, K98-Monroe, WKYS-Washington, D.C. and KMZX-Little Rock.

SHANICE - Silent Prayer (Motown)

The Inner Child is working her third single and this time she's aided by label-mate Johnny Gill. Shanice's prayer for the safe return of her long-distance soldier-lover is echoed with vocals by Gill. Her sensitive and emotional performance is outstanding on yet another Narada Michael Walden-penned and produced song.

THE COVER GIRLS - Wishing On A Star (Epic)

Rose Royce released "Wishing On A Star" in 1978, Will Downing remade it as a slow tender ballad in 1990 and now, in 1992, The Cover Girls sweeten this 'cover' with their vocals and more orchestrations than previous versions, which should please even those who loved the original.

TROOP - Whatever It Takes (To Make You Stay) (Atlantic)

Troop started with "Mamacita" and continued to make hits with "Spread My Wings" and "All I Do Is Think Of You." A little age and more mature vocals and harmonies find these five guys coming out with a real strong mid-tempo jam.

SUE ANN CARWELL - 7 Days, 7 Nights (MCA)

Check it out—Sue Ann is back and she has an offer few could refuse. The 40-second intro with Sue Ann's wailing is just the fuse to an unexpected explosion that will rock you 'til your feet hurt. Sue Ann Carwell appropriately titled her forthcoming album, Painkiller. Skip the Motrin and pop "7 Days, 7 Nights."

TEVIN CAMPBELL - Strawberry Letter 23 (Qwest/Warner Bros.)

Tevin follows-up his #1 single, "Goodbye," with an updated Hip-hop version of the Brothers Johnson's "Strawberry Letter 23" that he probably heard the first time as an oldie. Worth the spin.

SONOGLAD TO MEET YOU

It's a gorgeous Spring day in San Francisco. The convertible top is down and the radio's cranked past eleven. It's obvious from the smile on his face that The Soup Dragons' frontman Sean Dickson is digging the San Francisco scene.

"What is this crap?" Sean asks, turning down the guitar-buzz that's emanating from the car speakers.

"It's the old Soup Dragons!" I crack. Sean slowly pulls his sunglasses off his face and turns to me. Clearly, he's not amused. I mean, if looks could kill I'd be dead. After a tion followed, with singles like "Can't Take No More" and "Soft As Your Face" reaching the top of the indie charts. By 1987, the Scotsmen felt they were ready to sign with a major label. Enter Sire Records. After releasing two albums—the American catch-up effort Hang Ten! and This Is Our Art—the company decided they weren't quite ready for The Soup Dragons and promptly dropped them.

America didn't hear from The Soup Dragons again until 1990, when the band resurfaced with a new drummer (Paul Quinn), a new sound and a new label—not to mention a massive McCulloch explains, "We didn't go into the studio with any pre-conceived notions. We tried to ignore anything that we'd done before so we could make something that was definite again. If you go in with a formula, it just becomes self-parody."

Sean continues, "When I start understanding why this record sells more copies than that one I'm gonna stop 'cos that's when I feel bands make bad records. That's why I don't really buy the idea that every record you put out has to sell better than the last."

If there is one thing made crystal couple seconds under his stony, piercing gaze, I will myself to evaporate. The next best thing would be for him to turn around and face front, which, thankfully, he does.

GROWING UP IN THE BIG BAD WORLD

Despite this hiccup, Sean Dickson turns out to be quite an affable, outgoing person who, when you've got him on a subject he's interested in, loves to talk. And while his band is a subject he's more than happy to talk about, he prefers to focus on The Soup Dragon's present rather than dwell on its past, which seems to have gone something like this:

Dickson, guitarist Jim McCulloch, bassist Sushil Dade and drummer Ross Sinclair formed The Soup Dragons—a power-pop guitar band—in Glasgow during the mid-eighties. Their three-and-a-half-minute musical style immediately struck a chord with critics who fondly, albeit somewhat lazily, labeled the band as the Buzzcacks' second-coming. After the success of their first single ("Whole Wide World," a one-off for the indie label Subway), the band signed with Big Life and continued to release singles in conjunction with their own Raw TV Products label, a partnership that still exists today.

Two more years of chart dominahit, the re-vamped version of an obscure Rolling Stones song, "I'm Free."

The success of "I'm Free"—both on radio and on MTV—opened a lot of doors, not only for The Soup Dragons, but for the many dance-oriented British artists that followed. A year or so later, how does the band feel about the song?

"We met (Jamaican dub artist) Junior Reid at a party and found out he was into what we were doing," Sean explains. "We wanted to shock a lot of people, because basically they see us as a white, indie, guitar band. I wanted to tell them to fuck off. I mean, if we want to use a Jamaican dub artist, we will. It summed up the idea of the song—'I'm free to do what I want any old time.'"

"I like that the song contained lots of different cultures and appealed to different cultures. It's a unique record. There will never be a song like that again, because anybody that tries it will sound false. It's a space in time," he concludes.

A space in time that couldn't be reproduced by any other band and purposefully wouldn't be reproduced by The Soup Dragons. For the new album, Hotwired, guitarist Jim clear throughout our conversation, it's the fact that The Soup Dragons make music for themselves. If people around the world like it and buy it, then all the better. But as Sean explains, making records is a labor of love.

"I've got this really naive attitude that I don't know what it is that people want to hear, so I just make records for myself. It's hard to explain," he begins, "but when you're at home in an everyday situation and write the songs and make an album, you're not thinking about someone on the other side of the world hearing it and interpreting it. You just make it. It's just you, the band and the engineer, and you're making it 'cos you want to enjoy it."

A self-confessed studio junkie, Sean continues, "When we mix a song, we spend half a day just jumping about and enjoying it. The problem is that then you've got to release it to the rest of the world. That's when the record loses its virginity."

"I remember the very last mix on Hotwired—it was six o'clock in the morning when we finished. We just looked at each other and said 'Oh fuck. The rest of the world's got to hear it now.' Sometimes you do something that's so close to you, you don't think the rest of the world will understand it. That happened with Lovegod—people didn't understand it.

"Your records have to grow up in the big bad world. You make them, and when you're finished, other people come in and love or abuse them. It's at that point you have to stand up and say, 'I'm proud of this and I don't give a fuck what people think about it.' And I really don't—I'm not just saying that. I really feel this is the best album that's going to be released this year."

"We create a relationship with everybody we work with so they understand us as people," Sean explains in a we-won't-make-the-same-mistake-twice tone of voice. "These people are not stupid. They're human beings and they work with music everyday. They must have some love for it," he reasons, "or they wouldn't be doing it."

"We just say, 'Please don't fuck about with our art work. Please don't touch our videos.' We care right down to the way our adverts are worded. There are some ways we don't want to be represented, and we say so.

for me.' Either you like the record or you don't. We thought that every track on Hotwired could be a single. I wanted to release the album as a box of seven-inch singles 'cos I think it would completely freak people out."

"Freaking people out" or exploring extremes seems to be what the band strives for. "There are too many big-headed bands that think they're God's gift to music," Sean continues unselfconsciously. "We think we're God's gift to music because we believe in ourselves, not because everyone says we are. I like it when we get really great press and really shit press because it's extreme—we create extreme views in people's minds. Either you get it completely or you totally miss the point."

As our conversation comes to an end, Sean leaves with a parting shot. "It's about time people started being themselves and creating something that's their own. That's what The Beatles and The Stones and all the great bands of the world have done. They had something that was their own, and their character completely shone through the music. If something is unique it will last through history."

We wanted to shock a lot of people, because basically they see us as a white, indie guitar band.

His creative output is a very personal subject for Dickson, who not only writes the band's material but co-produces it as well. Because he takes things so personally, I wonder if there will ever be a time when he'd give up the performing side of music and just concentrate on production?

"I'd like to produce bands that have something that I could take a little further—be more creative with. If I have time, I'm going to work with Definition Of Sound when I get back home," he waxes enthusiastically. "I'd really like to find the time 'cos they're a great band. They've got these great hooks and melodies—they make great pop songs that are also rap."

Obviously a music lover, Sean continues, "The minute I stop being a music fan I'll do something else—but I don't think I'll ever stop. It's like a drug—it's something I get off on. I might get bored with the way the music business works, but if the music's strong enough you can rise above it."

An interesting point from a band that had a less-than-perfect label experience in the early part of their career. You can bet that this time around, The Soup Dragons took steps to ensure a more productive relationship with their current label, Mercury.

"I mean, I still worry about things like when someone tells me they like our music. I can't help wondering if they're into it 'cos the music's good or because they think it's going to be successful. It kind of scares me when people tell me that one of my songs is going to be a hit."

Continuing with a confidence that's sometimes mistaken for egotism, Sean states, "I think it'd be really brilliant to have my record in the Top 40 next to Mariah Carey or someone 'cos it just shows everybody else how shit they are. It puts everything into context. If we can break down as many doors with this album as we did with 'I'm Free,' that'd be great 'cos it means we've managed to convince people about our music."

"I hate music snobs who go, 'Oh it's not heavy enough' or 'Oh it's not poppy enough

STEVE WARINER - A Woman Loves (Arista)
Coming off yet another number one record, Steve releases a beautiful song extolling women's virtues. Need we say that this should go over well with your female demos?

TANYA TUCKER - If Your Heart Ain't Busy Tonight (Liberty)
Tanya is at her best on these light-hearted romantic romps. Sounds like a sure hit.

HAL KETCHUM - Five O'Clock World (Curb)
You'll probably remember this song, which was a hit for the Vogues in 1966. Ketchum, who always loved the song, worked up an arrangement to surprise his producer Allen Reynolds, who wrote the song way back when. The version they came up with is brilliant, and shows a new vocal side of Ketchum.

THE MAVERICKS - Hey Good Lookin' (MCA)
MCA's latest signing is this smokin' Miami band whose lead singer and songwriter, Raul Malo, is Cuban-American. This cover of Hank's classic is a good introduction to the band's 'maverick' sound, and the album has got lots of great original material to offer.

BILLY DEAN - Billy The Kid (Liberty/SBK)
Dean co-wrote this song about the loss of carefree spirit that comes with responsibility. The cut has been a favorite with album-cut minded programmers for months.

THE REMINGTONS - Two-Timin' Me (BNA)
The Remingtons change the pace with this up-tempo number from their debut album.

KARLA TAYLOR - Little By Little (Curb)
What a great song! Taylor has a wonderful, unique voice, and this song allows her to show it off.

PLEASE NOTE: The Gavin Report will be closed on Memorial Day, May 25th. During that week, you can call in your reports on Friday, May 22nd and on Tuesday, May 26th. Thanks!

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

One More On

Record Promotion

My column in the December 6, 1991 issue of the Gavin Report, "Music Promotion Pressure," presented a reader letter critical of certain promotion practices the writer had experienced as the music director of a small radio station. I printed responses in the January 17 and January 24 issues, but all of them—pro and con—came only from radio. To date, I have received nothing from a record promotion person on it; but I have one more letter defending promotion practices from a radio station (these letters tended to be more critical than supportive of the record promoters, but this is the second letter stoutly defending most of those engaged in promotional activity). In fairness, and in keeping with the policy of anonymity I observed in printing the previous letters, here it is:

"I am a Program Director at a small A/C station. I am also Music Director and PM Drive host. Obviously I am very busy, as are many of my colleagues in radio and fellow Gavin Reporters.

"I understand the concerns of some other radio people who have written and complained about the enormous commitment of time required to deal with record promoters. I do feel, though, that the record promoters in many cases are getting a bad rap.

"I think you have to understand that these folks are just doing their job. The independents and the label people are just trying the best way they can to get their product on the air. I don't think it's fair to hold record promoters to a separate set of standards simply because they require some of our time. I'm not saying there aren't a few record promotion people who can get out of hand; there are, but there are in any profession.

"To cope with all the calls and to handle my other responsibilities, I have set up three hours per day when I'll take music calls. I have found this works the best, because then you don't have every record promoter calling you on the same day within the same couple of hours. Sure, I can't always take their calls because of something else urgent I have to do, but I haven't heard any complaints yet.

"As one writer mentioned, it certainly can be inconvenient to hang up from one person calling about a certain record, and then get a call right back from someone else about the same record. Just keep in mind that they are just doing their job, and maybe mention that you just talked with the label about this record, and ask if they have any new information to add.

And as concerns undue pressure, I've had, very rarely, a promotion person mention (for example) the availability of giveaways in such a way that seems less than aboveboard—in other words, you do this and I'll give you that. On those rare occasions I make a mental note not to ever ask for or accept promotional material from that person again.

"Of course, as some of the previous writers mentioned, a PD knows what songs will work on their air and what won't. But really, a good promotion person is still going to try to get you to change your mind—that's their job! It's your radio station; you should do what you think is appropriate. If you get someone on the phone who treats you with discourtesy, just don't take their calls for a while—they will come around. My honest feeling is that, yes, there are some isolated incidents of bad and rude promotion people, but for the most part I have no complaints about record promotion folks, and I don't think they have any complaints about me."

The record and radio industries have a mutually beneficial symbiotic relationship which I hope will continue indefinitely. There needs to be mutual respect between people representing each. Perhaps this will end the discussion of the subject for the time being, but I still am interested in presenting comment from somebody in the record industry on the subject; surely there are examples of radio people who treat record people badly on the phone. But if not, this subject will go on the shelf for a while.

More from the mailbag next week! ●

HEAR & THERE

by Sheila Rene

Gun's primary writer and vocalist Mark Rankin called up while he was in the states doing phone interviews. You can cut his wonderful Scottish accent with a knife. The band's new release, Gallus, was recorded in the same Glasgow studio as the band's A&M debut Taking On The World, mainly because there were no demos cut for this album—the songs were written and recorded on the spot. Since Gun had been touring as the opening act on the European leg of the Rolling Stones' Steel Wheels tour, they didn't have time to prepare. As for the album's title, "gallus" was Scottish slang for natty, as in clothes, but it has been modified to mean "cool chic." When I mentioned the writing is stronger on this album, Rankin replied, "With this album the songwriting has improved tenfold. It has far better songs because I have more experience and more confidence. We're incredibly happy with it." "Steal Your Fire" is the first single and it's pulling in adds across the country. Mark met Def Leppard leader Joe Elliott at a soccer game between Gun and members of Iron Maiden. Gun then sent Elliott a copy of Gallus, and a week later Elliott called the band and asked them to be the opener on Leppard's European tour. This is the second really big break for Gun. They'll do some headlining dates after the Leppard shows and will hit U.S. shores in late July...

Bits & Pieces: Congratulations to Slaughter, already Top 10 with their new EMI Records Group album The Wild Life. In June the band launches a major summer tour with Ozzy Osbourne and Ugly Kid Joe. The Wild Life promises to be their biggest selling album ever...Charisma is listening to what radio has to say about Nia Peeples' self-titled album. The ballad, "Faces Of Love," with backing vocals by Peeples' husband, singer/producer Howard Hewett, was released to Pop radio on May 8th and goes to A/C on May 18. It was produced by Sturken & Rogers, the same team that worked on her last hit single, "Street Of Dreams"...Bill Champlin, two-time Grammy winner and lead singer for the super-group Chicago, has released his first solo album since 1981 on Japan's Bondai Records. It'll be out on Bill's birthday, May 21, one day before Chicago begins a 27-city U.S. tour..."Shakin' The Cage" is the first single from The Zoo which features Mick Fleetwood on drums and Bukka Bramlett on vocals. The band has already completed a Marty Callner-produced video. Guitarists Billy Thorpe and Gregg Wright, bassist Tom Lily and keyboardist Brett Tuggle complete the Zoo lineup. Look for the album on June 16 with a tour to follow...

On June 8, Guns N' Roses' first pay-per-view performance will be beamed to the United States from Paris. "Guns N' Roses Invade Paris!" will be presented by PolyGram Diversified Entertainment and Soundgarden will open. Winging their way to Europe to meet up with GNR by mid-June is Faith No More, whose new Slash/Reprise album Angel Dust is a masterpiece...

IRS Records is calling on the public to help them find the wildest, craziest American bands for a movie tentatively titled "Blow My Mind." Over the years IRS has produced several supermusic films including Penelope Spheeris' "Decline Of Western Civilization Part II: The Metal Years," and "Urgh! A Music War!" Demo tapes, photos, videos or even just a vivid description should be to Nick Turner, IRS Records, 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604, or call (818) 505-1925. The film will be shot in Los Angeles beginning in July...

Motorhead is looking for a new drummer. Yes, Philthy "Animal" Taylor has left for greener pastures. Currently, bandmembers Lemmy, Wurzel and Phil Campbell are working with Mikkey Dee from Dokken and King Diamond on their follow-up to 1916. Word is they're planning to cover Ted Nugent's "Cat Scratch Fever"...

From the stage at the Sydney Entertainment Center in Australia, Prince commented on the violent aftermath of the Rodney King decision in Los Angeles. "I don't know if you've been watching the news," he said, "but there is some hellish shit going on in L.A. right now. Could it be we don't care about each other anymore?" Then the rocker quizzed the audience, "Is there any racism in this house? Is there any hate in this house? Are there any bad times in this house?" After the 12,000+ crowd roared "No!," Prince led them in a solemn chant of the lyrics "Love 4 Love," an anti-violent anthem from his Diamonds and Pearls album. Prince winds up his sold-out tour down under with a 45,000 seat gig at the Sydney Cricquet Field. He's the first rock musician ever allowed to play the stadium... ●

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

UPFRONT - DAVID SANBORN (ELEKTRA)

If you ever thought David Sanborn's music was in need of toughening-up, Upfront is bound to please you. In the pocket with a Booker T. & The MG's or James Brown feel, Upfront is tough as shoe leather. Produced by Marcus Miller, who was semi-responsible for Miles Davis' deep funk affairs, the songs on Upfront are centered around a God-sent Hammond B-3 organ played mostly by Ricky Peterson. Chemically bonded with drummer Steve Jordan (a respected New York rock and session player), Sanborn is a slave to the rhythm no matter the tempo, whether he's playing it sweet, as on "Benny" or King Curtis' "Soul Serenade," or nasty, as on the opening "Snakes." We feel Sanborn has never sounded more provocative than on his last two Elektra releases. Upfront is as tight and funky (taxi cab music?) as last year's Another Hand was weird and late night. Upfront is loaded with snatches of city life, as heard on the jammin' "Crossfire" or on the Salsa-flavored "Bang Bang." Eric Clapton is absolutely cookin' on the snakey "Full House." One thing is sure. Activity on Upfront is certainly going to separate the edge-infested foreground radio stations from the mellow yellows.

BLUES AND MORE, VOLUME 1 - HENRY BUTLER (WINDHAM HILL JAZZ)

You can be as funky or soulful as Monk or Tatum, but when you record strictly solo piano works, your technique—or "touch" as Miles used to say—is the deciding factor. Versatility and chops is one thing, but digital recording will exacerbate any careless habits a player might have picked up along that endless twisting highway of live gigging. New Orleans blues/jazz/gospel piano master Henry Butler cakewalks through such digital scrutiny. Compared to, say, the solo works of Marcus Roberts, Blues And More employs a more pastel, upbeat studio ambience and lacks a socio-historical agenda. Compared to Keith Jarrett's latest tasteful solo recordings, there's less mystique here. Jazz programmers cruising for harder Bop might prefer "The Breaks" or "Tritonal Commission." For simple fun in the sun, "Bo Diddley" is the set's E ticket. Incidentally, having Butler on the Windham Hill roster seems to have coaxed George Winston back into the studio, where he served as Butler's co-producer.

THE ANTIDOTE - RONNY JORDAN (4TH & BROADWAY)

This is a bold new release by young London guitarist Ronny Jordan. Although Jordan mines valuable roots from the artistry of Wes Montgomery and George Benson and got inspiration from playing in church, The Antidote's strength is its overwhelming street appeal. When Jordan covers an anthem like Miles' "So What," he isn't merely inserting warmed over R&B lines or his interpretation of velvety Quiet Storm grooves. He adopts a minimalist soloing stance and injects just the right amount of Hip-hop and contemporary funk, which brings Jazz head on with today's urban soundtrack. Tricky chemistry to be sure. It's similar to what Bruce Purse attempted when he combined Bop lines with Curtis Mayfield's spicy soul rhythms from Superfly.

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

Just how far into The Antidote Jazz/AA wants to journey depends on each station's spirit of experimentation. What's gratifying about this disc is that another black British artist isn't just watering down the Jazz idiom from afar, but instead adapts it to the intensified ultra-hip pop scene that's been entrenched in Britain since the days of the Beatles and Stones. We heartily recommend "Get To Grips," "So What" and the splendid WesMont-tinged title cut.

LIVE - CASSANDRA WILSON (JMT/POLYGRAM)

Yippee! Somebody rolled tape on the feisty, dangerously soulful vocals of Cassandra

Wilson. It was taped during her run through Germany, and we get a front-row opportunity to hear Wilson's music in a fuller, more dramatic context. That's particularly important because each of her last three releases—Blue Skies, Jumpworld and She Who Weeps—have distinct and diverse personalities. Here's a chance to savor her unified vision on one bandstand. Cassandra is truly amazing. She has the unbridled tempestuousness of Nina Simone and the intelligent intimacy of Sarah Vaughan. It's as if she's armed with the musical wisdom of a singer twice her age. As evidenced on scolding tracks like the new "My Corner Of The Sky" and the spiky "Desperate Move," her band is as flailing techno/syntho as the material warrants. Conversely, when Cassandra drops into standards with "Round Midnight," the band reverts to a traditional acoustic Jazz framework. Love the package's artwork. Work it out, Cassandra!

SPRING IS HERE - STAN GETZ (CONCORD JAZZ)

Since Jazz Radio programmers are, by and large, amazingly cognizant in taste and well entrenched in their genre, it's increasingly tough to catch 'em on their heels. When a great pioneer like Stan Getz passes, it's comforting to know they'll rarely succumb to blatantly opportunistic releases. Spring Is Here, coming on the heels of the wonderfully intimate People Time with pianist Kenny Barron, was recorded over a decade ago at San Francisco's now defunct Keystone Korner. In the late seventies, when Getz staged his American comeback, he played these kinds of gigs all the time. At one I attended, I remember seeing him dust off a splendiferously voice-like sax cameo and then retire off to the adjoining bar where he leaned up, stared off and just listened. In actuality, Getz was studiously checking out his sidemen and assessing their onstage balance. He then hopped back up and closed off the song. It those days he'd be wearing this Costa Del Sol tee-shirt, looking like he just hopped off a plane from Nassau. These sessions must have been taped before he became a laureate music teacher at Stanford and rented a flat up in SF's pricey Pacific Heights. Wow...don'cha just miss the Stanman?

HERE'S TO LIFE - SHIRLEY HORN with STRINGS (VERVE/POLYGRAM)

When super arranger Johnny Mandel struck gold for his work on Natalie Cole's Unforgettable sessions, he was already in cahoots with Shirley Horn, mapping out the orchestral arrangements for Here's To Life, the dazzling follow-up to the star-studded You Won't Forget Me. Mandel's tremendous success record harkens back to the fifties, before he moved to Los Angeles to work in films and television. Well known for crafting "The Shadow Of Your Smile," Mandel's turning back the clock by working with Jazz vocalists. For Horn, it's terrific timing. Both are fond of each other's art, so Here's To Life is a labor of love. We have our specific faves, no doubt different from others because of the many excellent selections. It's difficult to get past the stunningly sentimental title track, which opens the set. Same with "Quietly There" and "Where Do You Start?" Horn coaxes the listener into an introspective mood with her confessional vocals. Yes, the songs are sweet and lush, but the emotional swell of Horn's predicaments are tantalizing and ones we can personally identify with. Shirley goes one on one with the listener. "Return To Paradise" is as powerful and exotic as a tropical storm, so sweeping are the strings. And as towering as Mandel's arrangements are, Horn's piano work and rhythm section are never lost or buried.

MR. TASTE - ED THIGPEN TRIO (JUSTIN TIME/MESA/BLUEMOON)

Ed Thigpen is truly a drummer's drummer. For six years he played with Ray Brown and Oscar Peterson and after that began an on-and-off association with Ella Fitzgerald. Thigpen is a consummate percussionist. He's the author of several instructional books on drums and percussion and has taught at a Swedish musical conservatory. He's downright incredible with the brushes—check out "Invitation" and "Some Time Ago." "Dewey Square" is lethal swing. And how about that solo on "Denise?" It's as if he makes his drum kit talk. Mr. Taste—featuring guitarist Tony Purrone and bassist Mads Vinding—is unlike any power trio Jazz recording this year. It's nimble and interlocking. No one player runs away with it. No bass, smash and crash here. Mr. Taste performs with surgical precision. Thigpen can wash a tune with broad, guiding strokes only to turn around and pinpoint very exacting riffs with laser beam detail. Each track is an sensational drum workshop in itself.

TIME WILL TELL - GRANT GEISSMAN (BLUEMOON)

On Time Will Tell, guitarist/Adult Alternative chart-topper Grant Geissman has taken the live-in-the-studio approach—with some minor alterations. He and his band performed the basics for each track live, only to sweeten up each tune with rhythm guitar and brass parts later and finally, filling in the string parts when needed. Pieces like "Looking Back" and the title track prosper from this best-of-both-worlds tactic. The arrangements are carefully meshed and augmented by guest soloists on woodwind. As is his custom, Geissman layers several acoustic and electric guitar, yet the basic rhythm tracks don't sound too triggered and clever, which gives the compositions extra bite, even when the themes flirt with sentimentality, as does the title cut. "Forbidden Fruit" has a subtle but endearing samba feel. The crescendoing strings duet with a punctuating tenor sax against the strong underpinnings of Geissman's acoustic chording. Grant bends down on one knee again for still another potential AA chestnut. On "This Time It's Real," Geissman again fancies that romantic sax/string/guitar thing. He even changes key for dynamics and emotional impact.

LABYRINTH - DOUG SMITH (AMERICAN GRAMAPHONE)

Guitarist Doug Smith presents Adult Alternative radio with a down home batch of songs from his latest entitled Labyrinth. It's a mixture of rarified solo pieces and also some larger band stuff. Smith arranges each acoustic guitar tune with simplicity so they don't sound Countryfied or Bluegrass. The strings ring and the harmonics pop. The frets squeak and there's plenty of dreadnought resonant decay following each strum. Violinist Darol Anger shares the acoustic picking limelight with Smith on the uptempo "Traveling Tune." On the guitar-only pieces, Labyrinth will faintly remind some of Leo Kottke's Capitol/Chrysalis recordings—particularly on tracks like the title cut and "A Fine Line." Our favorite is "Shadowcasting," with its rich bed of conga and sequenced percussion that doesn't betray the organic feel of the rest of the songs.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

THE SOUTHERN HARMONY AND MUSICAL COMPANION - THE BLACK CROWES (DEF AMERICAN)

Seems simple. If radio's gonna play classic rock, then make new classic rock. 'Twas only a few years ago that seventies fun-loving/hard drinking English bands like the Faces w/Rod Stewart and Ronnie Wood and Free began showing up on our automobile tape compilations. With some of that stuff still out of print, rock scribes assumed that it would be the Replacements or maybe even the Georgia Satellites who would fill the "Stay With Me" void. Enter the Black Crowes who burst out of Atlanta as decade-weary overnight sensations. Their major label debut, a sort of Paul Rodgers meets Otis Redding, was a contagious and slow-burning success. Ultimately the Crowes seemed to capture the support of adults bored with sobriety and alternative-types who were exchanging rare Apple-era Badfinger tapes. This year the Crowes are loaded for bear. Built on a foundation of unity and simplicity, the spirit of Otis gives way to Rod The Mod as the Crowes take their sweet time rocking out and barnstorming the overlapping Album/Alternative terrain. There's a whole batch of songs that will park this sucker on the top of the charts for weeks to come, including our fave, "My Morning Song" followed by "Remedy," "Sting Me," "No Speak No Slave," "Hotel Illness" and the loosey-goosey "Thorn In My Pride."

"LOVE YOUR MONEY" - DAISY CHAINSAW (A&M)

We traipsed all over London and Glasgow looking for this, and five months later it lands on our own doorstep. During the holiday season, BBC radio was playing this once an hour, butting Daisy Chainsaw's raunch up against the sedate and cerebral sounds of the late Freddie Mercury and Simply Red. Daisy Chainsaw touch off on a lot of weird root sounds simultaneously. If you fuse Gary Glitter, Jesus & Mary Chain and somebody's crazed little sister, you get a vague idea. Needless to say, turn that volume up, okay?

rites of passage - INDIGO GIRLS (EPIC)

As the Indigo Girls rope and corral a captive audience, they take the opportunity to expand their work to include tributes to poets, writers and thinkers. Rites Of Passage (or Passage Of Rites) covers lots of ground. Produced by Peter Collins (you may know him from Queensryche's success), the Indigos haven't quite yet resorted to metal violence. Rather, their songs are cleverly spiced up with additional instruments and occasional string and vocal arrangements, making Rites the most ambitious set of Indigosongs yet. Lots of individual pieces deserve singling out. Oozing with resentment, "Nashville" isn't exactly a flattering portrait of Music City. "Galileo" is a more positive piece, an icon to unpopular thought. Faves include "Ghost," "Virginia Woolf" and the opening "Three Hits," which is dedicated to poet Frank Stanford. "Joking" is an enjoyable, on-the-run song of abandon while Amy Ray's solo acoustic reading of Mark Knopfler's "Romeo And Juliet" careens dangerously close to blasphemy. Such are the fancies and foibles of experimentation. Players like bassist Sara Lee, fiddler Lisa Germano, all three Roche sisters, Donal Lunny, Banchee Budgie, Jackson Browne and David Crosby round out the contributing cast on this, the Indigos' finest.

"YOU'RE INVITED BUT YOUR FRIEND CAN'T COME" - VINCE NEIL (HOLLYWOOD)

Kind of a Damn Yankees/Motley Crue crossbreed as Vince Neil and guitarists Tommy Shaw and Jack Blades cook up a hot biscuit for the Encino Man movie soundtrack. This one enjoyed an enthusiastic first week, as many of us latched onto a song that sounded like a big fun studio concoction. Aww c'mon, loosen up and just enjoy it.

"THE EPIC CONTINUES" - BLACK CAT BONE (CHA- MELEON/ELEKTRA)

Closely influenced by Led Zeppelin, Black Cat Bone's "The Epic Continues" operates inside that tricky stop-and-start time signature frequently favored by Page and Bonham. That's where the similarity ends. Black Cat Bone are a damn tight quartet, a little like a four-ring circus flailing away. I sure like the give-and-take between the drummer and guitarist during that breakaway solo. Punchy stuff for your rockin' nights.

"DRIVING IN THE LAST SPIKE" - GENESIS (ATLANTIC)

Ten-minutes or not, "Driving In The Last Spike" is where a lot of the worlds of Genesis meet. It epitomizes the band's roots as story-tellers. After all, it was their neglect of the clock that built their audience—folks who had no choice but to lie back and enjoy. "Driving In The Last Spike" is an epic tale of how the railroad connected the English island, much to the sweat and toil of those unfortunate enough to have built it for pennies on the hour. Okay, I can understand the difficulties in dayparting a ten-minute rendition. But to start "Last Spike" at the six-minute mark (which is what the edit, in essence, does) seems a little ridiculous once you've heard the majesty of the entire piece. Do you and your listeners a big favor. Every once and a while throw in the entire main course rather than just a small morsel of this fine tale. It actually moves fast.

DIVA - ANNIE LENNOX (ARISTA)

In an interview, Eurythmic partner Dave Stewart spoke of the gut-wrenching angst Annie Lennox grafts onto a typical vocal track. Many a Eurythmic song, according to Stewart, was recorded by Lennox on an emotional tightrope, usually on the verge of tears. Imagine how much she put into this, her first solo album. While Stewart's devilishness is missed a little, Diva is a tremendous effort. Okay, it ain't rock n roll by the popular definition (though on an off-day I may quibble with the standard definition of just what rock is these days). However, consider Annie Lennox in the context of Diva. She puts her tremendous voice through a rigorous workout. Remember, she's traded vocal licks with Al Green and Aretha's gospel plus Stevie Wonder's harmonica licks. I've always considered her way underrated here in the United States. Produced by Steve Lipson, Diva is certainly keeper bound, headed for the home stack. Did you catch her brilliant performance of "Why" on Saturday Night Live?

SPIRITUALIZED - LASER GUIDED MELODIES (DEDICATED/RCA)

It's when you hear a record like Laser Guided Melodies that you wish you were in another profession—I mean trying to describe what you're hearing and how it makes you feel is, to say the least, a bit difficult. The thing is, Spiritualized mess with your head—they take you up, they tease you, they bring you down and in the end you don't know which way is up. It's unnerving. It's barely there, yet omnipresent. It's power. And it's only the beginning. Taking up where his former band, Spacemen 3, left off, Jason Pierce's Spiritualized move a step further with LGM—an experimental, but sure-footed leap of faith that leaves listeners, well, listening. If you want it easy, check out "You Know It's True," "I Want You" and "Run" (which borrows the words from JJ Cale's "Call Me The Breeze"). Those with a little patience might want to check out "Sway," the sardonic "200 Bars," "Shine A Light" and "Step Into The Breeze." It's weird, intense and very beautiful. LINDA RYAN

FLOP - & THE FALL OF THE MOPSQUEEZER (FRONTIER/BMG)

This is the kind of record that can put a smile on my face after a real crap day at the office. Flop's catchy, feel-good pop songs defy you not to sing—or at least bang your head—along. Heavy on guitars and sing-along melodies, what Flop may lack in finesse is more than made up for in sonic right-on-ness. Formed by members of Chemistry Set and Pure Joy, Flop take their (somewhat obvious) '60s influences and drag them kincking and screaming into the '90s. Well, screaming anyway. Faves include The Kinks' "Big Sky," "Parasite," "I Told A Lie," "Anne" and "Circus Freak." Oh yea—they're from Seattle. Bless this mess. LR

LEVITATION - "WORLD AROUND" (CAPITOL)

With a bass-heavy, wailing introduction, "World Around" makes its presence known to my speakers which resonate dangerously on their perch from the greeting. "World Around" is a dense, three-and-a-half minute pop song—probably the least likely radio hit to come from out of nowhere in quite some time. But that's what it is—a hit despite itself. Solid gone, man. LR of No Soul No Strain. A lot of this stuff smacks of the Beatles (there's a song called "Yea, Yea, Yea" and many segments have that unmistakable feel), but it's a healthy condition. The vitality of "Crashing Back To You's" ripping chorus and a lilting string section made me keep crashing back to it. Other highlights include the piano-laden "How Many More Times" and the harpsichord on the induced-sounding "Higher." Newcomers aboard will find this a first class journey. DAVID BERAN

EDWARD II - WICKED FOURPLAY (RHYTHM SAFARI)

This four-song EP is the prelude to Wicked Men, which should be on your desks soon. London-based Edward II is a tantalizing group who stood out on my deck because they cleverly mesh Caribbean rhythms with a mournful Celtic squeezebox. The tracks to lean on are the different versions of "Real World." Have these gents visited L.A. lately? They sure sound like they have. But then again, what's been going on in L.A. has been going on around the world, we've just closed our eyes to it. Edward II lets us know the Real World is everywhere. WestCoasters: look for the band to tour this summer. BEVERLY MIRE

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MARIAH CAREY - I'll Be There (Columbia) In many interviews Mariah has expressed her love for early R&B and Motown. Thanks to "MTV Unplugged," she got the chance to sing one of her faves—this #1 smash by the Jackson Five from 1970—the year of her birth. The emotion she pours into the performance, scheduled to air over Memorial Day weekend, leaves little doubt about her love for this ballad. Can't miss!

THE COVER GIRLS - Wishing On A Star (Epic) Yet another cover ballad this week. The difference is, the Rose Royce version never got the exposure it deserved. The new line-up of Cover Girls (new member Michelle Valentine joins Evelyn Escalera and Caroline Marie Jackson) remains true to the original, winding up with a sound perfect for summer romance.

EPHRAIM LEWIS - It Can't Be Forever (Elektra) No doubt some will hear a vocal similarity between this newcomer and fellow Englishman Seal, but Ephraim (pronounced E-Frame) says he was inspired by the voices of singers such as Marvin Gaye and Nat "King" Cole. This debut single weaves a seductive spell. File under the heading "Totally Cool."

COREY HART - Baby When I Call Your Name (Sire/Warner Bros.) What's Corey been up to these last few years? Try traveling the globe, experiencing life and coming up with material for his newest album, Attitude and Virtue. More than a half a decade has passed since he encouraged us to "Never Surrender" and now, in the '90s, Corey is taking his own advice. This newest release highlights his maturity as a singer and a writer and points to exciting times in the next phase of his career.

ATLANTIC STARR - Unconditional Love (Reprise) It's anyone's guess how many couples have held hands, hugged and looked into each other's eyes accompanied by the music of Atlantic Starr. Ballads, while certainly not all that they sing, are the forte of the Lewis clan. This pretty love song proves it once again.

PETER CASE - Dream About You (Geffen) As he demonstrated at the Gavin Seminar a few years back, all Peter needs is a guitar and an audience, and he can own the room. Since leaving The Plimsouls and going solo, he's received critical acclaim with his adventurous, cutting-edge approach. It's already established at Alternative radio, and I've been waiting patiently for this track to deliver its powerful uptempo Pop punch to Top 40.

NIA PEEPLES - Faces Of Love (Charisma) Off come the dancing shoes as Nia slows things down for a change. Who better to sing a love song with than your husband—especially when he happens to be Howard Hewett. The pair go face-to-face in the studio on the wings of a soft, beautiful song and production from Rythm Syndicate's Carl Sturken and Evan Rogers.

SIMPLY RED - For Your Babies (I don't believe in many things) (Atco/ EastWest America) Though it took convincing, a lot of programmers now admit they were too slow to react to Simply Red's last single, "Stars." This follow-up from singer/songwriter Mick Hucknall touches the heart and screams adult appeal.

ANNIE LENNOX - Diva (Arista) Don't know how serious Ms. Lennox is about the title of Diva for this set, as such a female singer is often presented as god-like or, at the very least, as a prima donna—or is it pre-Madonna? Annie Lennox has an ungod-like sense of humor and, at least visually, is often self-deprecating. What is serious is the purposefulness of her ability to work away from former Eurythmics partner Dave Stewart. Ms. Lennox is a respectable songwriter with a keen sense of melody and heartfelt lyric. Missing Eurythmics links may be Lennox's heavy doses of soulful vocals and Stewart's penchant for guitar riffs. But neither is missed as Lennox sails through a thick batch of ten originals and a campy re-make of an untimely and sexist hoot, KEEP YOUNG AND BEAUTIFUL. The set's opener and lead single, WHY, is the appropriate launching point for the lady's new career as a solo in that it's good to start with a hit. But there's no letup as she follows with future hits like COLD, PRECIOUS, the somewhat autobiographical LEGEND IN MY LIVING ROOM and humpty-dumpty love reflection of WALKING ON BROKEN GLASS. Annie approaches her solo career with bravado and the knowing confidence that comes from someone who's been there before.

THE KLF - Last Train To Trancentral (Arista) From the instant they arrived on the scene last year, The KLF made it abundantly clear they had a unique formula and strong identity. Part of a trilogy that began with "3 A.M. Eternal," this one's got to be my favorite by far.

SONIA - Be Young, Be Foolish, Be Happy (I.O./ RCA) It was more than a month ago that our first report on this remake came in from Beau Richards at WYAV Myrtle Beach, SC, where it takes a 19-14 move this week. A minor hit by The Tams in 1968, this cover is starting to happen at A/C and was just ADDED at WBBQ Augusta and Z102 (WZAT) Savannah. Beach music for the '90s! Allriiight!
