TOP PRIORITY

Lenny Kravitz, "Rock N' Roll is Dead," Virgin

While you will have to wait until Wednesday to officially add/play the new single from his upcoming record Circus, Lenny Kravitz is a lock for the priority position this week based on the anticipation level alone. Beginning Wednesday, MTV will be airing the video for "Rock N' Roll is Dead" in stress rotation (20-25 spins per week). The entire album will be the subject of a world premiere broadcast and interview on September 5th. Conclusions drawn to the effect that there will be entirely too much national buzz to afford avoiding this cut are accurate. And the song is happenin', to boot. Kravitz goes a step beyond "Are You Gonna Go My Way" in terms of the rock guitar essence in the music. Kravitz rails at the business of corporate culture as it relates to rock and roll, highlighting the rock-star poseur mentality as the very pox against the genre. Given his success of late, Kravitz is certainly in a position to make the comment about the inside and the outside of the business of music. Sidestepping the hypocrisy might be a little difficult, but Kravitz calls it as he sees it. Honesty in self-expression is what makes more sense (cents) for Lenny Kravitz at this point in time.

COR

Vince Neil, "The Crawl," Warner Bros.

The former frontman for the Crüe makes the move toward the future on this track, a Crüe-ish guitar rumbler that opens with a nod to Pantera in the guitar department. The highly-anticipated album Carved in Stone hits the streets on September 12th. Judging from this first effort, Neil will be walking amongst Dokken and Skid Row as he makes the pass out of the late '80s glory days into a straight-ahead '90s rock relevance. "The Crawl" grants a slight tip of the hat toward Alice in Chains while rocking in reminder of the old days, minus the million-note guitar solos. KILO is one of the first out of the chute.

ROCK ALTERNATIVE

Goo Goo Dolls, "Name," Warner Bros.

Slowly but steadily, the conversion from "Flat Top" to "Name" is being made by the Bunny-folk, and radio is responding without a peep's worth of dismay. It was after all KROQ that led the way to bring this song into the single-zone for others at Alternative. Over the past few weeks the track has been building, and the full mainstream switch has been made as of this week. "Name" is a great song, the video is very expressive and will probably do very well, and the early indicators from radio suggest that this is the track that will break this bard. KICT's Sherry McKinnon says "It's a wonderful song. We've been on this band's singles since the last album. 'Flat Top' was good, and this one's great." KEGL's Duane Doherty suggests "It's too early to tell, but if there's a hit on this album, it's 'Name.'"

COR CUTS

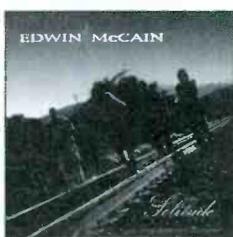

Ugly Kid Joe, "Milkman's Son," Mercury

With more musicality than you might initially expect, Ugly Kid Joe come back around to feast upon the notion that straight-ahead rock can still live a hearty existence at Rock Radio. 13 adds this week go a long way toward proving that. KEGL, KIOZ, KQRC, WAAF, KILQ, WDRK and others make the early leap into the fray that is a mature rock band taking out their playful nature on an unsuspecting radio crew. While some are waiting to see more progress, WOZN's Dano Amann doesn't need to see numbers to know it's happening. "I like this song! This one is made for the radio - it has hooks all over the place. Why did they wait so long?"

Edwin McCain, "Solitude," Lava/Atlantic

The laid-back singer/songwriter groove of "Solitude" certainly worked on the vocalist for Hootie and the Blowfish on the first couple of listens. So much so that as Darius Rucker and McCain got to be better friends in their Carolina college days, Rucker made plenty of offers to come back around and sing on the tune if McCain ever got a deal to record it. So even in the face of the Hootie similarity, WDRK's Addison Wakeford stresses the difference. "Good people are finally catching on that this is a different band than Hootie. This is another great record that hits my adult audience as well as the female demo." That's the story, and the proof in the pudding is the cross-format development that "Solitude" is making, including some more adds at COR. WKQZ's Rick Church notes adult appeal even at the early stages. "Solitude" shows 19 increases, including WAVF (22-24), WRUF (9-16), WXKE (3-7), KZBB (8-14) and others.

Paw, "Hope I Die Tonight," A&M

This time out, the band is poised for stardom. Radio agrees thus far. Adds this week at KUFO, ZROC, WBZX and WHMH go along with the already-listed converts like KLOS, WAXQ, KISW, WDRK and many others. The projections look promising for Paw. KISW's Cathy Faulkner voices her confidence. "It's doing great for us, and the record's not yet on the streets." Ronni Hunter at WBZX sees it as a timing issue. "That's a great record. We played the last one to minor success, but the timing is better for them now. It's a better song, and we think it should do well." Paw picked up 18 increases at COR this week, including a bump from KLOS (14-18).

TOP CHOICES

Shudder to Think, "So Into You," Epic

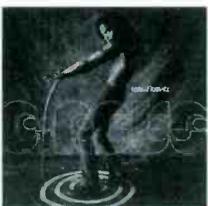

You may have been a fan of "X-French T-Shirt," and if you were and gave it airplay attention, you'll be delighted to hear this follow-up. Certainly it holds more cards in the accessibility department. "So Into You" begins with a crazedly frail vocal, which hangs out in thin air until the charge of the electric guitars after the first verse. The Dischord Records graduates have made the transition to the corporate environment of Epic without losing the edgy dimension of their sound. The Atlanta Rhythm Section tune never sounded so good, to say the least. Butch Vig behind the dials didn't hurt the edginess of the overall feel, either. The original version is practically unrecognizable.

Wakeland, "Half of You," Giant

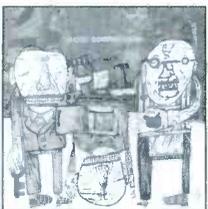

The debut release on Giant for this four year-old Oklahoma City band is a festival of three minute hooky, modern pop/rock songs. On the recorded end of things, Howard Benson (Seed, Motorhead) and Gavin MacKillop (Toad The Wet Sprocket, The Church, Goo Goo Dolls) were called in for production and mixing duties, respectively. The resulting effort is a perky combination of songwriting smarts, ultra-catchy hooks and full-bodied radio-ready sound elements that should make Wakeland terrifically appealing to both the Alternative crowd and the modern-leaning mainstream rockers.

Lenny Kravitz, "Rock and Roll is Dead," Virgin

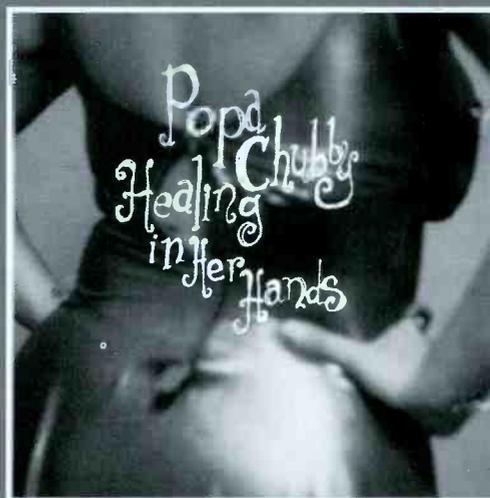

In terms of fusing the modern edge with the classic sounds of rock and roll's yesterday, Lenny Kravitz is a lock. Rare Earth guitar sounds, Sly-ish vocal vibe and raw production techniques blend together to create a sound that is comfortable for rock fans looking for modern perspective. Lyrically, the song is a challenge to complacency. The attitude and energy within the grooves is charged with a spirit that is young and vital. Maybe that's the point - that the old image of rock and roll is dead, according to Kravitz. We'll just have to push onward with the new thing - repackaged classic sounds with modern sociological perspective. Plenty of pre-release buzz, and a guaranteed MTV stress rotation for the video. The track arrives at your doorstep Wednesday.

Quicksand, "Landmine Spring," Island

This New York band made some quick work of "Thorn in My Side," and further their street buzz with this polished effort. Early airplay is happening at WENZ, KTCL, KNRX, WHTG, KXRR, WRXS and others on the Alternative front, and WAAF, WAXQ, WKLL, KNCN, WKZQ, WDZR and others at the COR level have come in early. Walter and the boys have converted a New York hard-core history into rock and roll that is mainstream enough to work for both the Alternative stations and the edgy COR contingent at the same time.

"When music goes too far out and is in danger of becoming a technique, people always come back to basic honesty. The blues will never die." - Jimi Hendrix

BoDeans, "Good Things," Reprise

The first single release from what might very well be the best-sounding live album of the year, Joe Dirt Car, is a glistening example of this band's prowess in the live arena. "Good Things" captures the essence of a BoDeans show in more ways than one. The interpretation of the studio version is classic Sammy Llanas and Kurt Neumann, including the dramatic drawing-out of the lower-tempo portions of the song. The crowd reaction is also typical BoDeans concert behavior. While the tracks were recorded on "home turf" - Chicago and Milwaukee - the resulting vibe reflects the purest possibilities for pleasing your audience. The songs are amazingly catchy pop productions that inspire as well as entertain. Your audience will be singing them back to the radio just like this crowd did to the band at this particular show.

Never the Bride, "Saving Grace," Atlantic

The growl of an angry cat vs. the Etheridge B-3/acoustic guitar mix makes Never The Bride a contender for ballad consideration this week. The rock edge is determined by the energetic female vocal resurrection of rock women at the format. What was once territory owned by Etheridge and Raitt almost exclusively, Rock Radio has again let their guard down and entertained EOE notions of fair play. "Saving Grace" is not necessarily anything new. But it is raw and passionate, flavors which are working to strong results these days.

Charlie Sexton Sextet, "Sunday Clothes," MCA

This Austin young'un has all of the tools great rock artists need. He has a physical presence that is rife with star power potential. He is a great guitarist, and subsequently arranges thoughtful rock tunes with powerfully tasteful guitar-based ideas. He is an exceptional lyricist. And he's got friends in high places. James McMurtry lends his pen to "Sunday Clothes" and paints some tumbleweeds into the landscape for Sexton, who was already tasting the dusty trail of roots rock success and Heritage Rock revelation with "Learning to Crawl." Charlie picks up

KJOT, KZBB and others this week, joining KATP, KYYS, WHEB, WIMK, WSTZ, WHDQ KJBJ and others already on.

Van Morrison, "Days Like These," Polydor

Who can argue with the legitimacy of Van Morrison? While "Brown-Eyed Girl" blasts out of karaoke speakers from the redwood forest to the New York islands this summer, don't forget the implications of the name recognition. There isn't a soul who travails these haunts that hasn't held Van the Man in respectful light.

New music from the classic crooner never strays far from familiar, and "Days Like These" sways along like the soundtrack to every beachcombers breezy night avoiding the city traffic in favor of the romance of escapism.

SKY AND ISLAND SAY BYE

Sky Daniels

In one of the year's most surprising announcements, Island Records and Sky Daniels have parted company, citing philosophical differences. Sky comments, "I learned a lot while at Island. It's exciting to see the artist development of such acts as Melissa Etheridge, Meat Puppets and PM Dawn now come to fruition. Stay tuned for an equally exciting new announcement from me." Sky had been with the label for four years, starting as VP/Rock Promotion, and serving as Sr. VP for a little over a year.

Don't be surprised to see Alternative VP Steve Leeds and Pop VP Joe Riccitelli move up the corporate ladder.

KY FOR DUNCAN

John Duncan

After a little over a year at WRDU/Raleigh, John Duncan will be rejoining Citicasters to program KYYS/Kansas City. Of the scene at 'RDU, John comments, "It's very difficult to leave a place you love like WRDU and WTRG. We've had lots of success and the operation here is filled with great people. I've had a few offers from other companies over the past year, but it took a station like KYYS and a company like Citicasters to interest me. I guess it's like a homecoming for me. I worked for them when they owned Lazer 103 in Milwaukee, and I was always impressed by their station roster, the high caliber of their people and their commitment to win." John starts in KC on the 28th. Expect an extensive talent search for the WRDU PD position.

In making the announcement, Sr. VP/Promotion Burt Baumgartner commented, "During the first five years I knew Dennis, I was promoting records to him while he held programming positions at several radio stations. He then brought that depth of experience with him to Columbia, where he was one of my key promotion reps. He's evolved into one of the best in the business, and he'll be playing a vital role in the success of The WORK Group in his new post." Reese came to WORK from Columbia, where he began as LPM for the Carolinas/Tennessee region in 1992, and in '93, held a similar position in New England. His radio resume includes on-air and programming stints at I-95, Power 96, and Hot 105 in Miami, Y-106 in Orlando, and Kiss 102/Charlotte.

MCA REORGANIZES ALT DEPARTMENT; WENDY NAYLOR NAMED VP

the very best alternative promotion team in the business...our artists and associated labels deserve nothing less. Wendy Naylor brings her expertise, enthusiasm and passion to the table and I am confident that under her leadership, this new department will exceed all of our expectations. I am very pleased to welcome Wendy and her team to our company." Sr. VP/Promotion Mark Gorlick added, "With the recent success that MCA has achieved in the alternative music world, this is a natural evolution to broaden our horizons and complement the efforts of our local promotion staff. The addition of these people further demonstrates the company's commitment to this vital music genre." Naylor joins MCA from the independent alternative promotion firm of Mike Jacobs & Assoc., of which she was a founding partner. Prior to that, she coordinated national promotion activities for Mute Records, and was employed by the artist management company, Second Vision. From 1989 to '93, Naylor worked at KDGE/Dallas. In '91, she was made APD, and was elevated to PD the following year. "This is an amazing opportunity for me, both personally and professionally," stated Naylor. "I am thrilled to be in a position to lead MCA's commitment to alternative music and I look forward to working closely with Richard Palmese, Randy, Mark and the label's highly talented staff of promotion professionals. Together we can create and establish a new vision which melds both radio and-retail."

Send resumes to Vera Savvic, TVT Records, 23 East Fourth Street, New York, NY 10003.

Former EMI National Alternative Promotion Director Shanna Fischer has joined Harry Levy's independent promotion company, Levitation Entertainment. Fischer will handle Alternative promotion duties, based in New York. Levy told Noise, "I felt this was the right time to get back into alternative, and with Shanna, I know I have the perfect person to do it with."

Wake up the kids and turn up the volume.... Bon Jovi gave a special outdoor performance on the Late Show With David Letterman last week when they played in front of thousands on 53rd St. in the city that never sleeps or bathes.

Boston's new Triple A converts WLYT

had barely made the format change when Arista's Howard Leon showed up on their doorstep. They chatted the day away and then posed for this snapshot (l-r): GM Dan Lankford, PD Joanne Doody, Howard, and MD Mike Mullaney. At the end of the day as Howard's car drove out of sight, the 'LYT staff were overheard to say, "Now that we've made it through our first visit from Howard, we can handle anything!" MediaAmerica, Inc., the New York based radio network and syndicator, has announced that Ira Berger has joined the firm as Managing Director. Berger, who will be based in Dallas, is spearheading MediaAmerica's sales effort for all of the Southwestern region of the states and will be responsible for advertising sales and the marketing of all MediaAmerica programming. MediaAmerica, Inc. Vice President, General Sales Manager Michelle Jennings had this to say about the appointment, "We are thrilled to have Ira on board, spearheading our new Dallas office. His experience and expertise in the Southwest will only enhance service to clients in this region." Previously Berger was at Kenyon & Eckhardt then Westwood One.

KZBB/Fort Smith (a.k.a. Star 98) recently made a big change in their marketing strategy and image. They began the change with an on-air funeral for the name Star 98, immediately followed by the presentation of the station's new name Zebra 97.9 and liner "We've earned our stripes". A party on Fort Smith's main street culminated the change-over with performances by Wild T and the Spirit and Corey Stevens and the Texas Flood.

Effective August 2nd, WCIZ-FM Watertown had a change in on-air duties. Program Director Ted Bilodeau segued into Afternoon Drive with Afternoon Driver Carl Craft making the move to mornings at the Rock and Roll Authority. The move will enable Ted to concentrate more on management, programming and the operation of two radio stations, while it will also encourage further growth of Craft's blooming radio abilities. Current morning co-hostess Pam Haze will continue her a.m. duties with Carl.

On Wednesday, July 19th Dave & Tom, the morning team for 94.5 KATS/Yakima, went on the air in support of a local teen stricken with cancer. In an attempt to raise money for Krystal Davis, whose family doesn't have health insurance, the duo vowed to stay on the air until they had raised $10,000. On Wednesday, Soni from Hootie & The Blowfish donated $500 and by Friday afternoon over $11,000 had been raised. To go along with the station support over 50 area businesses contributed to the drive. To date, over $13,200 has been raised.

Live 105/San Francisco posted their all time best 3.5 share in the Spring 1995 Arbitron ratings up from a 2.9 Winter book. The station also continued to reign among its target demo, Adults 18-34 with a 6.9 share. Live 105 notched the second spot in the Adult 18-49 group with a 4.8 share. The Modern Rock station also made gains in the 25-54 Male demographic, now sitting 4th in the Bay Area with a 4.2. VP/GM Pat McNally was thrilled. "We're number one - hip hop hooray."

Bob Moore

by Bill Hard

You say your GM is afraid of change? Not KLSX's Bob Moore. He introduced L.A. to Classic Rock when he flipped AC KBST from AC back in '86. After he took over Pirate Radio from Scott Shannon in '91, Bob stole Carey Curelop from KLOS, then brought in Greg Stevens and consultant Tom Barnes when Curelop rejoined KLOS. And isn't he the guy who flipped that Houston property to Country last fall after being there just a couple of months? Now Bob has made what's probably his most dramatic station overhaul to date, changing KLSX to Walt Sabo's Rock Talk format. On the air only a little over a week now, the new KLSX has already caused tons of talk. Whether it's Howard bashing the new direction or all the debate over Kato Kaelin, Mr. Moore has once again succeeded in making radio headlines.

Trace the history of your decision to switch to Rock Talk.

Bob: This change was made because we couldn't continue to sit in the middle of the pack. It just wasn't fair to the company. We are a company that likes to win. You don't win from the middle of the pack. Andy Bloom actually started doing the research back in December, which kept coming back to two things — if you are going to have Howard Stern as your morning show, you better follow him with non-musical, entertaining, provocative, high profile personalities. We have a 584,000 lead-in to the rest of the radio station. Most radio stations are trying to build a successful morning show, but we had the exact opposite. We had a hugely successful morning show and we were trying to scratch and claw our way to success with the rest of the station. When we got done with several perceptual studies, focus groups — you name it, everything under the sun — we decided that talk was really the only option. At that point, we started a national talent search. The first thing we did was to look locally, but here in Los Angeles, everybody is under a nine year contract with 400 non-competes. That pretty much eliminated going to the traditional outlets to hire their morning shows, etc.

You felt you could nab an already successful team and simply dump the music?

Bob: No question. Kevin and the Bean are a perfect example. They are being restricted by playing music.

So are Mark and Brian. They deserve to be in an environment where they can do non-musical entertainment.

Since you were contractually boxed out of stealing an existing local morning show, what next?

Bob: We started going around the country and looking at various talent. We talked to over 100 people.

Was it a tough decision on Kato?

Bob: It was a tough decision until I sat down with him and found the guy to have a great wit, tons of charm, and a really winning personality. Given the opportunity, I was convinced that he could do a great radio show. Plus, he had the experience of going to numerous radio stations to do the standard special guest type thing. Everybody was very impressed with him. He is a very pleasant, pleasing, funny, congenial person. In a one-on-one situation, he'll win you over in two seconds.

You obviously researched that hire. What did you find?

Bob: There is a group of males who envy Kato tremendously, but think he is a cool guy. Women, particularly the 25-34 demo, really love him. We saw group scores that were through the roof. You could go into a group and show Sam Donaldson, Connie Chung, Dan Rather, Dave Letterman, Jay Leno and Kato Kaelin, and he had a 98% recognition. The favorability scores ranged from the high 50s to 60%, which is fairly typical. Not everybody loves him, not everybody hates him.

But more love him than hate him.

Bob: Yes. We knew in a very jaded community like L.A. that we were going to run into some opposition. I am very hopeful that Kato can get through that first round. Unfortunately, he has been admonished by the courts, and can't discuss his testimony. Anybody and everybody can take shots at him, but he can't comment on any of that until the trial is over.

But if he can't talk about the trial, what makes you think he can keep the audience entertained?

Bob: That comes down to topic control, which we're confident Kato and his partner Bob Helaman are on top of. It's a group effort. Bob is a standup comedian and a writer. He works with Louie Anderson, and he did radio previously at WLIR/Long Island.

So you feel like Kato is miles from flying without a net?

Bob: Miles and miles from flying without a net.

Were you friends before this deal was consummated?

Bob: No. Even though we are both from Wisconsin, I have to say that we were not friends prior to this. He hung in a different circle than I did.

Out of curiosity, how would you contrast the two circles?

Bob: One was very hip and chic, the rollers of Los Angeles. I am a Valleyite, there is a huge difference. I work in radio, I guess I should just say that.

You heard these tapes, of course, but beyond that it was mostly a function of just checking the vibe.

Bob: There is no question. You know with Kato you are going to get notoriety. There are no ifs, ands or buts. He was Larry King's guest at a White House dinner. He was a guest host on Talk Soup. He has been on every talk show in America. He is such a charismatic personality.

You absolutely entertain the likelihood that this will be a long-running relationship?

REAL RADIO
97.1 KLSX

Bob: Oh, yeah.

Have you signed him to a contract that has some term to it?

Bob: Definitely.

What's the most encouraging sign to date?

Bob: His presence has generated tens of thousands of calls. I'm not going to sit here and tell you they have all been positive. The key to Kato's success is that he took his fifteen minutes of fame and he became a pop icon figure, and he can joke about himself. He wasn't arrested with Divine Brown. He didn't drop dead in front of the Viper club. He wasn't on Heidi's list. To this date, he has perpetrated no crime. He hasn't jumped off a bridge. People have to remember this isn't a guy who did anything. He was living in a guest house on an estate where the accused 'perpetrator' of a crime lived. It wasn't like Kato has been indicted or that he was part of the crime. Here's a kid who came out here fifteen years ago to go into show business. That was what his goal was coming from Wisconsin. He has been an actor, he has run a casting company, and has done other things associated with the business, but has always been on the fringe. His goal was always centered on being a celebrity in Hollywood.

Part of Kato's persona is that trademark half-sentence delivery. You think that works okay on air?

Bob: I think it does, especially when he's bantering with real people. His show is more, by design, a comedic look at entertainment — Hollywood and television. That's something most people in this town want to talk about. Look what's happening with Friends.

People are changing their Thursday night habits because they have to watch Mad About You and Friends. What does this say about the 25-40 year old age group? I know people who don't go out on Thursday night because they have to watch this television block. They're literally living their lives through this group.

find two people who came through that pop culture and have survived into the '90s and have real interesting perspectives on things.' They're both also big fans of Howard.

Too bad Howard hasn't returned the favor regarding your new format.

The key to Kato's success is that he took his fifteen minutes of fame and he became a pop icon figure, and he can joke about himself. He wasn't arrested with Divine Brown. He didn't drop dead in front of the Viper club. He wasn't on Heidi's list. To this date, he has perpetrated no crime.

How did you decide on the Ken Ober/Susan Olsen combo?

Bob: The biggest topic on Ken's MTV game show Remote Control was anything 'Brady.' Look at any guy or girl in their mid-thirties, and television had the largest single affect on their lives. Television in the '70s had one show that stood out amongst all the rest of them for those people, and that was the Brady Bunch. It was the perfectly adjusted family that everybody always wanted but never had. The cutest Brady? Susan, who happens to be a regular guest on Howard Stern, and who is a huge fan of his. Ken and Susan had a natural chemistry. Ken is a stand-up comedian, kind of an '80s MTV guy. She's a '70s woman, who's now very creative, funny and lively. We thought, 'If we're trying to reach 18-34's, let's go

Bob: 'Radio Hindenberg. Howard Stern all morning, land-fill all day.' And those were some of the nicer things he said. But seriously, we had to have a station made up of people who understood the creativity, the wisdom, the knowledge and the intelligence of Howard Stern, because the last thing I can do is have people on the air who are talking about how they don't get Howard Stern, or how he shouldn't do this or that.

Explain Howard's diss-a-thon?

Bob: I think that Howard wanted to make his point about the radio station. He has joked about the fact that his show is the only thing that should be on any radio station. If you look at his success, rebroadcasting him all day long isn't such a bad idea.

Would you put Pee Wee Herman on the air?

Bob: If Pee Wee could do a compelling, interesting talk show, I would. The voice might get to us eventually.

Was the allure of Young Talk/Rock Talk so strong that you really didn't consider any other music based format?

Bob: No. We looked at two other alternate music formats, but the research just kept coming back that Rock Talk was the hole, especially, with Howard Stern as the lead-off.

Can you tell us what Plan B would have been?

Bob: I don't want to alert too many of my competitors in the marketplace because I think there are two musical niches that still exist in Los Angeles. One of them, we were very seriously considering.

Did SBR approach you on their Rock Alternative format?

Bob: Yes. I think it's an excellent format. There is a strong possibility that something like that would work in Los Angeles.

What took you so long?

Bob: Not wanting to throw in the towel on Classic Rock. The truth of the matter is, had KLOS not terminated Joe Bensen and Bob Coburn, we would have probably gone earlier. We felt the opportunity that we had to pick up those talents made it worth one last shot.

Was your new direction a hard sell?

Bob: To the company? No. They were tremendously supportive. Everybody is fighting to get the big morning show, and we have the best morning show in America. #1 Men 25-54. You dream about those numbers. Then we dropped off to #16, #20, and #25, obviously not even in the race. I'm a firm believer that this will be the future of FM radio. The first one in is going to win. I think we are going to be a model. I shouldn't say that we are carrying this torch because the Loop has been doing this for several years.

I've heard their average jock salary isn't that far from half a mil a year.

Bob: This is a very expensive format. But you feel your potential ratings gains are worth the outlay?

Bob: I will quote one of the great general managers in this business who told me, 'You go from ten units an hour to fifteen.' That's a one-third increase in inventory. You pay for it through compelling radio done by unique talent that can garner the numbers.

Explain why the combination of

We had to have a station made up of people who understood the creativity, the wisdom, the knowledge and the intelligence of Howard Stern, because the last thing I can do is have people on the air who are talking about how they don't get Howard Stern.

Classic Rock and Howard has been so successful to date.

Bob: In the beginning, you generate this massive audience and a certain percentage are loyal and stay with the radio station after Howard's show. In the last two or three years, though, it's like a road map after his show. That audience obviously has more choices than ever before — from Alternative to Album Rock to Hot Male AC to Sports formats. When we looked at where the Stern audience went, it was scary. They didn't go one or two places, they went about twelve different places. The fragmentation has hurt what formerly operated as a real smooth transition.

We were reaching a mainly male audience and a good Classic Rock station always is going to have a strong male audience. It was an easy transition. However, the business has gotten a lot smarter in the last few years and competing stations started offering options that the Stern audience liked better.

Howard and Classic Rock falling out of bed. Whoda thunk it?

Bob: I wish there was a clear-cut path. It would have been much easier for me to say, 'I am going to move the music ten years later' or 'I am going to go on a semi-Alternative stance and I will just carry that huge mass of audience that goes to KROQ afterwards.' I think that 91X has proven that can work. There is probably more compatibility because if you look at Howard's personal musical choice, here is a guy who talks about White Zombie and Soundgarden and Nine Inch Nails. I also believe that Howard could work on an AC station.

And you'd guess those music formats are now a better match-up than Classic Rock?

Bob: It's not that Howard and Classic Rock are incompatible everywhere. Here in L.A., Classic Rock got fragmented by the Arrow. KSCA took a percentage. We obviously have shared a strong amount with KLOS in recent years, and now there's Star, which is really a Hot Rock Male AC.

And your feeling about the future of Classic Rock in general?

Bob: I would hate to throw in the towel on Classic Rock because there are examples around the country in the right marketplace where it is still successful. What you have to do is move it to that next generation. In 1980, or whenever it was, The Police were the most radical Alternative group there was. In 1985, they were an AC act. So when you look at The Pretenders and Talking Heads and a lot of stuff that most Classic Rock stations don't touch, all of those things have to be incorporated in the format — Robert Palmer, INXS, etc. I just think there is a huge body of music from '80-'85 that has to fold into Classic Rock. That also includes Def Leppard, Scorpions, etc.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

What is your new target demo?

Bob: Our target is 25-34 Adults.

And from a talk perspective, the Rush Limbaughs of the world offer nothing of interest to that age group?

Bob: No, that audience is all 50 plus. There are two reasons this format works: first, 76% of 18-49 listening is already on FM, so that is a huge advantage; second, we're now giving our target the audio version of what has become the biggest entertainment phenomenon there is. If you look at television, that is all you see. E! Entertainment has built a show called Talk Soup, which is one of their highest rated shows, and it's strictly about all the phenomena of talk. The third important element is that these 18-49 year olds, and 25-34's specifically, have no outlet to communicate their views on anything. The trick is to take out the politics and just concentrate on stuff that happens in the daily lives of 25-34 year olds. You come out of the Stern show, and that target 34-year-old is hearing about things he can relate to — marriage or relationship, his job, getting along with co-workers, dealing with the work-place, money. He could give a damn about Newt Gingrich. He could care less about Medicare. He could give a shit about the subway because he is never going to ride on it. He doesn't even know it exists. He doesn't know anybody on welfare, and probably never will. This is a guy who makes fifty to sixty thousand dollars a year. He is probably college educated because if you look at the Stern profile, those are the people we are after. They need a place to vent their frustrations. They need a place to talk about things that they like to relate to. If you go to a cocktail party and you talk about politics, there are X amount of people that participate. If you talk about hard issues, there are X amount of people that participate. If you talk about whether Waterworld is worth topics that your particular brand of Talk radio likes to focus on?

Bob: The hot topics really are what affects the 34-year-old man or woman on a daily basis. What we found is those hot topics are relationships — whether it's marriage, divorce, getting married, getting divorced, breaking up with a lover, or falling in love. It's job or work related — getting along with co-workers, bosses who don't like you, bosses who treat you mean, co-workers who you can't get along with. It's things that are irrelevant, but very important to day-to-day living.

Yeah, and they always want to talk about sex.

Bob: There is no question at times they do. Yesterday one of the topics of The Regular Guys was when this caller went to the Bahamas on his honeymoon, and he freaked out when he and his wife had to go to this nude beach. That spurred hundreds of calls from people talking about what an experience it is to go to a nude beach. I've lived in California for 26 years, and I have never been to one. I don't even know where they are, but I'll tell you one thing, our listeners sure can describe them pretty accurately.

What previous market successes factored into your new direction?

Bob: There are three markets you could point to and claim success: The Loop in Chicago, Real Radio in Orlando, and JFK in Washington, as far as carving a unique niche that can't be duplicated.

Do you see the KLOS recent ratings gains as a sign that they're headed straight for a legit 4 share?

Bob: I will answer that with one sim-$180 million, everybody has an opinion.

But do you ever sense the Sally Jesse Raphaels of the world may be nearing the end of their run, if only due to over-saturation of the genre?

Bob: If you look at the fall line-up, there's Bonaducci, Stephanie Miller, George and Alana, and about fifteen more new ones jumping into the fray. Jenny Jones is renewed. It seems to me the public demand is bigger than ever.

Do you have a hit-list of hot

ple statement — alternative music is so powerful that if somebody plays a prominent amount of it, they're going to be successful. In a market like Los Angeles, you can't leave it all to one carrier. KLOS has done a very good job of capitalizing on the huge wealth of Alternative product that is available. I don't know if they will do a 4 share, but I do think they will remain successful.

When do you expect to turn the corner?

Bob: I think that it is going to be sooner than a lot of people might think. I have never been good at predicting books. When you look at ratings it is always scary. I think that AccuRatings might show it quicker than Arbitron because of methodology.

How hard a sell do you expect to have before you reach your ratings goals?

Bob: We have two advantages: first, we have a product which is stimulating and exciting; second, it's a product that generates a tremendous amount of phone calls. These phone calls are all 60-90 seconds in length, so you turn over a lot of people. It's rock n' roll formatics, but it's done with a non-musical direction.

When the advertisers listen to the station, they hear so many people calling in. The interactive involvement makes it hard to turn off. Case in point, we had an advertiser who wasn't sure and wanted to look at it for awhile, our response was, 'Are you listening to the station? Do you have friends that listen to the station? Do you hear phone calls on the air?'

Did you lose much business in the transition?

Bob: No. Virtually lost nothing.

How much rate dancing did you have to do to keep them around?

Bob: We have been in the business for a long time. It's a privately held business that has been in Los Angeles since 1979. People have confidence and faith in our ability to deliver a good viable product.

You are doing Modern Rock on the weekend?

Bob: Modern Rock would be a mis-label for us. We are doing an '80s album and what would be '80s Modern Rock.'

Jonathon Brandmeier gave me some really good advice. He said, 'You know, every once in awhile the phones don't sizzle for four straight hours. No one ever got hurt by playing a couple of records.'

It would be offensive to Modern Rockers to call Pretenders, INXS, R.E.M., Peter Gabriel, and Robert Palmer 'Modern Rock.'

Was that a researched decision?

Bob: Very much so. There is a huge hole in the marketplace with KLOS' shift, with Arrow being stuck in the '70s. Thank God they are here because there is nobody exposing late '70s through early '80s music right now. When you really look at Tom Petty and Pink Floyd and U2, there are these huge successful rock superstars that are not really being exposed in the market. Two important points: 1) This is a rock n' roll radio station that just happens not to play records Monday through Friday; 2) This is a radio station that is a lifestyle radio station. It's music on the weekends, and if a holiday falls on a weekday, we play music, because when this age group goes home on the weekends, the last thing they want to hear about is co-workers, relationships, any of the things they have to deal with Monday through Friday. They want to party, let their hair down, forget about everything. The same thing is true if Fourth of July is on a Tuesday. This radio station is on a holiday when the audience is on holiday. For instance, we are going to be carrying the Rock n' Roll Hall Of Fame special.

Do you envision integrating more music as time goes on?

Bob: Jonathon Brandmeier gave me some really good advice. He said, 'You know, every once in awhile the phones don't sizzle for four straight hours. No one ever got hurt by playing a couple of records.' The difference is, do you play one record or two records an hour as a break, or do you play a formatted six records an hour. That is the difference.

You were pretty pumped up when you put Pirate on the air, but you sound even more psyched now.

Bob: Walk around inside this radio station and there's attitude, buzz and feeling that you just can't duplicate. You look at the action on the phones, the positive faxes that we are getting and the people that are starting to get into this, and it's just real exciting.

TRIPLE ACE

Sarah McLachlan, "I Will Remember You," (from The Brothers McMullen soundtrack) Arista Zeb Norris/WXLE, "Format favorite Sarah is back and 'XLE is on the case. This gentle tune avoids soundtrack-itis via inclusion on an independent film rather than the usual blockbuster, boring, crapola flick. More reminiscent of her earlier work, Sarah's high profile will put this across." Steve Cole/KSPN, "No one delivers an intimate passionate and breathless vocal like Sarah McLachlan.

This gorgeous piece sends immediate shivers through the body, and the eyes quickly go glassy as one is transported through one's own memory banks. This track, as with most quiet McLachlan tunes, will provide a welcome contemplative break from the rock n' roll regimen. Meltdown expected." Dave Leonard/WKZE, "This one is definitely going in. It's great to have something new from Sarah McLachlan. I think she's one of the best female artists in the format right now and this is absolutely going to work." Mike Richter/WVRV, "I saw her perform with the Chieftains and she was great. 'I'll Remember You' really knocked me out."

THE HOT CORNER

Neal Casal, "Day In The Sun," Zoo Zeb Norris/WXLE, "The Jayhawks meet the Black Crowes in Neil Young's living room. Great lyrics, and a great sound that works even better on the air. Try it you'll like it." Steve Cole/KSPN, "Neal Casal employs a very pleasant, earthy approach to the single 'Day In The Sun.' His voice really reminds me of John Waite (only younger and hipper, Neal...sorry) and the instrumental track has a nice grit that reminds me of Pete Drogé. But regardless of influence, this is very airplayable Triple A material — melodic and instantly accessible." Dave Leonard/WKZE, "Louise added it and she loves it." Ron Sorenson/KFMG, "We're playing the first track 'Day In The Sun.' It has lovely harmonies, great sound, excellent production — not a tough decision. Sybil McGuire/WMMM, "I think Neal Casal is a singer/songwriter with great promise."

Wakeland, "Magnetic," Giant When asked "what is the first thing that comes to mind when you hear Oklahoma?" most people will probably respond with remembrances of the tragic bombing that happened there a few months ago. Let's change that negative first impression. Everyone should now associate the state of Oklahoma with the melodic sounds of Wakeland. It looks like their persistence has paid off. After three years of constant gigging, whatever the costs may have been, Wakeland have produced a truly Magnetic record. Their sound falls somewhere in the range of the Gin Blossoms with a harder edge, which will undoubtedly insure this bands success on all formats of radio. Hold up something metal and attract these cuts for your listeners: the debut single "Half Of You," "Don't Worry," "Falling Again" and "Rain Song."

TRIPLE CROWN

BoDeans, "Joe Dirt Car," Slash/Reprise

After five studio albums of their likeable, down-home, midwestern bar-band anthems, the BoDeans decided to do something for their fans, make a live album. This record is the Bodeans in their purest form. Some live albums are just a slipshod, thrown together representation of a previous tour, recorded to fulfill contract obligations — this is not one of those projects. Sam Llanas and Kurt Neumann are the core of the band and man, do they perform. Sam's vocals are sharp and distinct and Kurt's guitar is underrated, but brilliant as always. Wow, almost forgot, those harmonies!!! The single "Good Things" is already picking up spins on KSCA, KZON, WMMM, WYEP, WIVI, WKZE and WBZC, with WXLE's Zeb Norris opining, "A mid-summer live release from the BoDeans makes for wonderful listening when sitting around the "cee-ment" pond. These guys kill live, and it's about time they committed that sound to wax."

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

The Charlie Sexton Sextet, "Sunday Clothes," MCA

"Sunday Clothes" has been making waves across the format barriers, with increasing activity at AOR and CHR, and Triple A support continues: Ron Sorenson KFMG, "Charlie came by the station in his Monday clothes on July 31st, and played a swell live set, and he also did a dynamite live show that night. He is a wonderful human being. If your station is not wearing his 'Sunday Clothes' than your way underdressed." Colter Langan/KMMS, "The whole album from Charlie Sexton sounds great. It's good American roots Triple A music that appeals to a much wider audience." Dave King/WJSE, "Sunday Clothes' is the best track on the album because it can cross more format territory than the others. I really like Charlie Sexton and this is a strong album and another strong track." Sybil McGuire/WMMM, "This is a great, accessible album that's been underappreciated. I think the Charlie Sexton Sextet is a core band that could be incredible in many formats." Johnny Vincent/WIVI, "I saw Charlie Sexton in a small venue several years ago... but until Under The Wishing Tree, I haven't followed him. Whatever he's been up to — it's paid off. 'Sunday Clothes' is the strongest cut on the album." Ian Taylor/WKVT, "This is a fine song by Charlie Sexton from a great album." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "We're playing 'Sunday Clothes' and we loved it. I especially like the storyline about dressing up in his Sunday clothes and having his hair slicked back, and how different he feels in his Sunday clothes than how he actually is."

Welcome to the future — the only place where you will find computer generated mass murderers and a cool soundtrack to go with 'em. We haven't seen the flick, but have heard the accompanying tunes — believe us, they're to die for. The album contains thirteen high energy fresh cuts from the blade of a serial killer. "Party Man" from The Worldbeaters & Peter Gabriel with lyrics by Tori Amos is the first track to catch the ear of Triple A, with early adds from KGSR, KFMG and KBXR. Also check out William Orbit's "Into The Paradise," and "Build It With Love" from the Londonbeat

Sarah McLachlan

You will find a brand new track from Sarah McLachlan on the soundtrack to a movie called The Brothers McMullen (Arista). The movie was a big hit at the Sundance Film Festival, and the soundtrack is mostly Celtic music, save for "I Will Remember You" from Sarah. It's a beautiful song, and a no brainer. Nuff said.

Rob Laufer

You may remember Rob Laufer from his self-produced indie release Swimming Lesson, or from his stirring performance at the Constantine Dinner at last year's A3 Summit. His new album, Wonderwood (Discovery), is packed with great songs that show a real maturation since the last one. If you're in the mood for a beefed-up full-band sound, try "Reactionary Girl," "Do You Fly In Your Dreams," or "How I Fell." For the kinder, gentler Laufer, check out "Strange Blue Flower" and "I Can Find It."

Jonatha Brooke & The Story

I'm very pleased that the departure of Jennifer Kimball from The Story has not effected the sound that Jonatha Brooke has cultivated. Her new version of the band (the only difference is the absence of Kimball, and Abe Laboriel replacing Ben Wittman on drums) picks up where they left off. The album, Plumb (Blue Thumb/GRP) is preceded by a three-song CDPro, featuring the song "Nothing Sacred," which has already picked up a few early adds. Written by Jonatha and her husband/keyboardist/producer Alain Mallet, the song builds throughout, and has an almost eerie quality that is heightened by Brooke's angelic vocals. "War" features Bruce Cockburn on guitar and vocals, and sounds like it was written as a vehicle for the Canadian songwriter. "West Point" sounds the most like the old Story.

Peter Gabriel

Peter Gabriel and The Worldbeaters have a song called "Party Man" on the Virtuosity OST (RadioActive). Written by Gabriel and Tori Amos, the song sounds like something from his Us CD. With a Spanish guitar sound, and Gabriel's signature tone, this song should react very well. Also on the soundtrack is a song called "No Talking Just Head" performed by Deborah Harry (of Blondie fame) and the other members of Talking Heads. It may not be for airplay, but it's interesting nonetheless.

The Radiators

One of the best live bands on the touring circuit today, The Radiators are back with their first studio album in four years. "The Rads" have been perfecting their unique musical stew for seventeen years, and their marathon concerts of "Fish Head Music" have become legendary not only in their native New Orleans, but throughout the country. The songs on New Dark Ages (W.A.R.?) reveal a tight sound that could only come from years of playing together. Try "Umbilical," "Last Getaway," "Papaya," and the title track for starters.

Robben Ford

Bluesmeister Robben Ford is back, and sounding gritty and smooth as only he can. His playing is impeccable, and his voice is in fine form on the album Handful of Blues (Blue Thumb/GRP). You should have a three track sampler from Ford and his band The Blue Line. All three tracks are great, but the highlight is the cover of "Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood." Of the originals, we like "Running Out On Me."

Ke'

From the first words of "Strange World," it is clear that Ke' has tremendous vocal talent. The songs on his debut album, I Am, are as stylistically varied as the places he was raised: London, Paris, California and Kansas. "Strange World" is a very cool sounding song that reminds me somewhat of Jeff Buckley.

Brooks Williams

One of the best folk albums to cross my desk in a long time is Knife Edge (Green Linnet) from Brooks Williams. Produced by Bruce Cockburn's guitarist Colin Linden, the album is strong from start to finish, and reminds me of the first time I heard David Wilcox. "You Don't Know My Mind" is a blues-tinged tune that had me tapping my toes throughout. Others to try are "Monterey Pines," "Caves Of Missouri," and "Wanderer's Song."

Natasha's Ghost

Natasha's Ghost, one of the hot bands in San Diego these days, has released a fine debut album in Everything Under The Moon (FUA Records). They have a raw quality to their music that is quite compelling, yet they sound tight and focused. "Sometimes" is almost Concrete Blonde-ish in its dark power. "Catch My Breath" is propelled by an acoustic guitar and the vocals of Kelly Neill. Also worthy of a listen is the track "Loaded," which will make a perfect segue with Kevin Gilbert's "When You Give Your Love To Me."

Lonesome Romeos

Seven Years In Bed (Curb) from Lonesome Romeos was a pleasant surprise. I had no idea what to expect when I popped this one in and found what sounds like a huge hit in the song "Sunny's Day." The song sounds familiar yet contemporary, and a perfect fit along side much of today's progressive/alternative music. We also like "My Glass Eye," "King Of The Ditch," and "Waiting In The Fire."

A Death In The Family: A Tribute To Jerry Garcia By Dennis Constantine

The news came Wednesday morning, and we stood around in shock and mourned the passing of a great musician and the end of an era, in music and in our lives. Jerry Garcia, the inspirational leader of the Grateful Dead, was found dead at the age of 53 at Serenity Knolls, a residential treatment center for drug addiction in Marin County, California.

The Grateful Dead epitomizes the attitude of AAA radio. The Dead have never conformed to the traditional rules of the music industry. Instead of following a formula to success, the Dead forged their own path and gathered a massive following. Last year, the Grateful Dead grossed $52.4 million from their concerts, despite the fact that they haven't released an album since 1989.

Jerry Garcia was the inspiration behind the Grateful Dead's success. He and the band approached their music as art, at a time when much of the other musicians were approaching their music as a "profession." The Grateful Dead's music was about art, as opposed to science, and every show was different and inspired in its own way. They had the courage and desire to recreate their art every day, never leaving their fans feeling that they had nothing new to offer. They rewarded their loyal following with dedication and inspiration. Their concerts were more than music, they were events, and they made an impact on the lives of those who attended the show.

A progressive station can become the number one station in the market (just as the Dead are number one at the box office) by remaining true to a vision. AAA stations were really the only stations that could play deep tracks by the Dead, where most other stations could only give the news a passing glance and fulfill their Dead "obligation" by playing "Casey Jones" and "Truckin'." Triple A radio stations around the country paid tribute to the Grateful Dead on Wednesday with music specials. Some stations played bootleg tapes of concerts. Networks put together special feeds with interview segments featuring Jerry Garcia. Deadheads gathered on on-line services and mourned their leader. Candlelight vigils were held at parks around the country. To Deadheads, the death of Jerry Garcia has as much impact as the death of Elvis Presley to his fans eighteen years earlier.

In a modern world of apocalyptic rock stars who make their money from hate, Jerry Garcia made his from love. The world of rock and roll will never be quite the same.

Jerry Garcia can serve as an inspiration to AAA radio. We can learn from his passion for music and his belief that a band can transcend the limits of the star-making machinery. Triple A radio is about being an artistic expression, as opposed to being a science experiment.

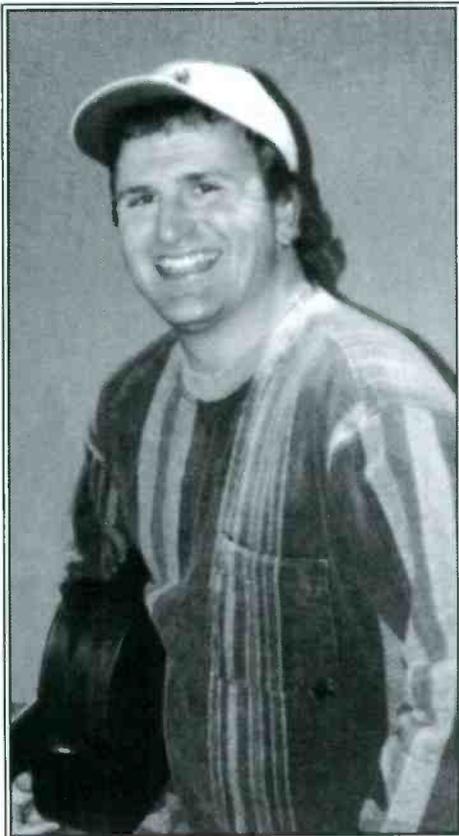

Constantine Consulting clients, including WRLT/Nashville, WXPN/Philadelphia, KMTT/Seattle, and KGSR/Austin, all devoted significant hours of their broadcast day on Wednesday honoring the breadth and depth of Jerry Garcia's musical contributions. You can reach Dennis Constantine at (303) 440-5470, Fax (303) 449-5043, E-Mail: Denver@aol.com.

Good-bye Jerry. You will be missed.

LOST DOGS & MIXED BLESSINGS

BY JON PETERSON

Before packing up and moving on to his new music duties at WRLT in Nashville, Jon Peterson interviewed John Prine on the air in the WCBE studio when he was in town to promote his latest release, Lost Dogs & Mixed Blessings...

People tell me all sorts of things. Recently, this guy told me that he's a bartender down at the Shamrock Club, on the south side of Columbus — and it sounded like he was making up this bull story, but he said that he worked this private party for about 50 people, and that John Prine was there and he sang.

Prine: Yeah, that was me. A buddy of mine had a 50th birthday party, and I got an invitation to go to it. I don't know if they expected us or not, but my girlfriend, myself and our baby, Jack, got on a plane and went to Columbus. It was a surprise party, and after he arrived, we came around the corner with our guitars singing 'Blow Up Your TV.' I thought he was going to die!

A little intimate concert with John Prine, boy that's great! But this weekend you're actually kicking off a major tour with a full band behind you. How long has it been since you've played with a full band in a live setting?

Prine: I had a band on the last tour, but we didn't have any drums. This time, we've got bass and drums — a five piece band and myself. It's been about 10 years since I had a five piece band behind me.

You came to Columbus two or three years ago with Nanci Griffith, which was a great double bill. But let's talk a little about everything in between — sounding big, sounding small, and so on. In the '50s, you had rock n' roll idols, Jerry Lee Lewis and Chuck Berry, but somehow you got stuck in this singer-songwriter folk camp. How did that happen?

Prine: Well, my older brother taught me how to play guitar and he was into bluegrass. He taught me a Carter family song with a flatpick sound, and with a thumb pick he taught me Elizabeth Thompson's 'Freight Train.' Soon I started putting my own words to those simple melodies after I learned three chords. So I guess if somebody else would have taught me — like if Sedovia had taught me how to play guitar, I might be playing classical music.

So, you just wanted to start doing your own stuff before someone got around to teaching you all those fancy Chuck Berry licks.

Prine: That's it!

Let's talk about the writing, you started writing very young. You wrote some of your first songs at age 14, and then in the Army, you were writing stuff for amusement, just to keep your head sane while doing labor intensive jobs. Is that how you started writing little songs, just to entertain yourself?

Prine: Yeah, it was kind of hobby. I just made 'em up and I sang them as long as I enjoyed them, and then I'd forget them.

Something to do while carrying the mail.

Prine: There's not much else to do out here once you learn where the mail's supposed to go.

I recently read an article where you said you'd quit writing a song for a hotdog! Tell me about the discipline of songwriting. How do distractions and 'stream of consciousness' intersect with the craft of writing?

Prine: When you're writing something, it is better to get it done all at once, just keep on going with it even if it seems like it's not going anywhere, 'Now I'm saving this, but it's not what I do.' I'll do anything just to get away from it. I'll go get a White Castle...anything! Matter of fact, I think that's what I'll do when I get out here.

Sounds like a good idea, can I come? In the studio, some of your projects strung out over months and months. Your last LP was almost a year in the making.

Prine: That one took a year, this one took two and a half years — and I'm more used to going in for three days or two weeks.

I mentioned 'stream of consciousness' earlier. A lot of what you do relies heavily on word plays and puns and stuff like that. Tell us how your interests in language and vocabulary came about?

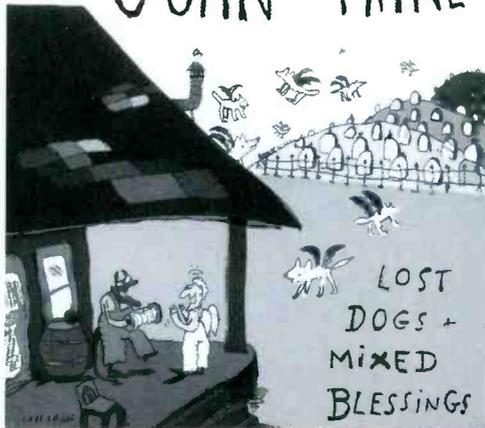

Prine: I'm not sure. It was either that or math, and I didn't like math, so...

Did your grandparents instill a certain amount of folk wisdom or something?

Prine: No, not in particular. They could tell a pretty good story, but I thought that was natural. I thought everybody had storytellers in their families.

Talking about families and old traditions, is there a longing for simpler times in what you write about?

JOHN PRINE

Prine: I don't know. I guess it's just my age and my era. With the kids coming around today, 'chaos' is the norm.

I recently read a piece where you were asked if you were cynical about the world and you said, 'Well, if you're cynical about a crazy world and try to make sense of it, then you can find something positive about it.'

Prine: I call it 'optimism/pessimism' — admit everything that's wrong at the beginning, and then all that's left are the positives.

Good point. Some writers are very insular and don't like to deal with that 'big ol' crazy world.' I'm wondering about the influence of other external things, like listening to other writers. Are you still soaking up new influences?

Prine: I don't worry about my influences. I mean a tree or a fast car could influence me. Sometimes I get stuck listening to the old stuff. I like Jerry Lee Lewis a whole lot, I like his voice.

He's got a brand new album out.

Prine: Yeah, I know. I haven't heard any of it yet.

I want to ask you about a guy you were compared to when you first started, Bob Dylan.

Prine: Oh, Bob Dylan's great! I saw him a couple of years ago in Ireland. On the same night, they had Ray Charles, Bob Dylan and Van Morrison. Man, what a great show!

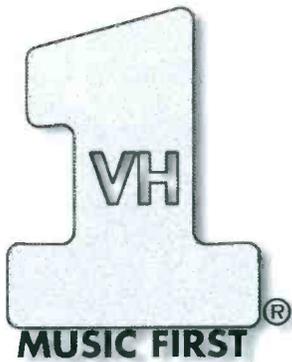

And similar to Dylan, you too evolved from a guy with an acoustic guitar into a 'bluesrock' sound with your first departure, your Common Sense LP. Then after that, you made a rockabilly-type album.

Prine: Well, I always look at an album as the latest collection of songs. If they sound like they should rock, then you do that. There's no particular 'planned direction' or anything like that. The next patch of songs, they may be Mexican or something!

That's too cool, John! Just go with the flow. And I'm sure that our listeners are elated that the flow took you into Studio A today. Thanks so much for stopping by.

Prine: No problem...thank you!

Roosevelt 'Booba' Barnes & The Playboys The Heartbroken Man

Rooster Records

by Bruce Bjorkman, host of 1490 Bluez Blvd.
<BZY/Salem, OR

The adage, "less is more" is very much a truism so far as this new release from Rooster Records is concerned. In the same vein as Fat Possum artists Jr. Kimbrough and RL Burnside, Roosevelt "Booba" Barnes is as authentic a Mississippi delta juke joint schooled bluesman as you can get these days. There's no fancy overdubbing, no special effects. This is one hundred percent totally live in the studio recording. "Booba" kicks off the show with a deep growling baritone, which befits Barnes' hauntingly realistic imitation of Howlin' Wolf on "Tell Me About Your Last Love Affair," "Rockin' Daddy," "Louise, Louise Blues" and "No Place to Go (How Many More Years)." Standouts on this release are: "How Long This Must Go On," "Blind Man/I Pity The Fool" and "Tin Pan Alley" - with its haunting echo effect that puts you smack dab into some squalid alley with the blind man. Barnes' guitar and harmonica playing are of the minimalist school-there's not a lot of flash, just solid work. Likewise for his band, The Playboys, they're solid and supportive, without getting in the way of the star show. This is "gettin' down there to the roots brother" stuff and while maybe not all glitz and polish - still is a very well produced effort. The Heartbroken Man is a reminder to us all that authentic Mississippi juke joint blues are being kept alive and true to form by such performers as "Booba." It's a welcome change of pace, and a simpler, purer style of blues that deserves not to be forgotten.

Elvin Bishop Ace In The Hole

by David R. Day, producer The Blues Highway, 94.9 FM Boise/Nampa, Idaho

Hope your neighbors like Elvin Bishop. Ace In The Hole is one of those CDs you just have to turn up loud. My old tube receiver is seldom over 3. It is at 6 right now and I'll turn it up a notch when I finish this. Elvin Bishop is a blues man from way back. Elvin's sing-song with a hard edge vocal is the perfect foil for his poignantly ironic lyrics. A veteran of the club scene, Bishop manages to combine professional recording techniques with the up tempo groove of a live performance. Elvin's band is very clever: when I saw them live at the Blues Bouquet back in February, I was particularly taken by Daddy Ray on sax. All the guys in the band play a key role on Ace In The Hole. Listen to the bass/percussion riffs on "Think." Elvin is going to be seeing "Some Of That Money" with this release. Like his earlier work, this is "Big Fun." Title cut "Ace In The Hole", tastily backed by harpist Charlie Musselwhite, is one of the CD's only "serious" songs. With titles like "Another Mule Kickin In Your Stall," "Fishin" and "Party Till the Cows Come Home" the former Butterfield Bluesman's humor shines throughout. Also of interest is a peaceful instrumental remake of the '70s hit "Fooled Around and Fell in Love." It says at the beginning of "Home Of The Blues": "If you like the blues, make some noise!" So turn up Ace In The Hole and let your neighbors enjoy.

Alligator records president Bruce Iglauer broke his longtime bachelorhood and married Jo Kolanda on Saturday, August 5, in a lovely private ceremony in Milwaukee. Sunday they brought the party to Chicago, and celebrated with friends from around the world with a blues blowout at Buddy Guy's Legends. Not only were the likes of Buddy Guy and Junior Wells in attendance, but so were blues stars like Lonnie Brooks, Carey Bell, Bob Margolin, C.J. Chenier, Tinsley Ellis, Saffire, Fenton Robinson, Dave Hole, Luther Allison, Koko Taylor... The live music started at three o'clock in the afternoon and continued almost non-stop until after midnight. The crowd, an appreciative group consisting of friends gathered over Iglauer's 20+ years in the music industry, was treated to performance after performance by the artists in attendance. Ronnie Baker Brooks was the MC, and led the house band (the Lonnie Brooks Band). Many thanks to Bruce and Jo for the fantastic shindig; congratulations and best wishes for a wonderful life together!

Concert Review

The B.B. King Blues Spectacular Gresham, Oregon

Bruce Bjorkman, host 1490 Bluez Blvd. KBZY, Salem/OR

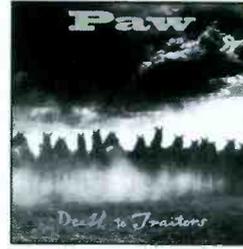

The bill consisted of some of the biggest names of the blues: B.B. King, Etta James, Elvin Bishop, J. Geils & Magic Dick,

Jimmy Vaughan and even 12-year-old guitar wizard Nathan Cavaleri. And it was all to take place on one stage at the picturesque Mt. Hood Community College, located at the base of Oregon's most spectacular mountain, Mt. Hood. You couldn't have asked for better weather: it was sunny and very warm, with a refreshing evening breeze which kept things cool while hot blues emanated from the stage. Magic Dick and J. Geils kicked off the show with numbers from their popular Rounder release, Bluestime, and invited their ole buddy Elvin Bishop up to joint them. (Unfortunately, the show started half an hour later than expected, due to traffic jams which slowed things up a bit, so this set wasn't as long as I would have liked.) Next came R&B belter, Etta James, who put on a hell of a show, albeit with some nasty body language. Jimmy Vaughan tore up the stage with some incendiary playing. He did many of the tunes from Strange Pleasures and some numbers that he and brother Stevie had composed, including a snazzy version of "DFW." Vaughan's trio of backup singers are a show unto themselves! But the highlight of the evening for me was the return of the boss of the blues, B.B. King. Fresh off a tour of China, B.B. and his band did not disappoint. King played a relaxed set, often trading licks and notes with his bass player or organ player. However, B.B. didn't stop there — he had a few days 12-year-old — Nathan Cavaleri, who had just completed a week's worth of studio time on his new release, scheduled for February 1996. Here was the Boss 'n' the Kid, trading licks and showing off, with the crowd roaring its approval nonstop. All in all, the Blues Spectacular was just that: spectacular, well-run and organized. Don't miss it when it comes to a town near you!

HARD Hitters

COVER Pick

Paw, Death to Traitors (A&M)

As if the recent heat wave isn't enough, the blue collar rock of Death to Traitors will have radio working up a sweat to Paw's Midwest grinding tunes. The chipper strains of "Hope I Die Tonight" have been spotted on both Hard Hitters and COR radio (the track debuted on both charts this week), but for those of you who were looking for even more snap, crackle and pop will find that edge you search for right off the bat. Kicking off the release is "No Such Luck", a song that hooks you immediately with some feedback laced guitar work that segues into a slashing, yet melodic rhythm. The mixing of crashing grooves with a memorable melodic touch and a heaping serving of genuine vibe is what sets their music apart from others. This is beer drinking and gun-rack-on-the-back-of-the-truck music. There is something both comforting and rousing that Hennessy and company bring to table. While sifting through the CD also be sure to make stops at "Swollen", "Death to Traitors", "Glue Mouth Kid", and "Max the Silent". Their last release, the 1993 Dragline, went a long way in establishing Paw as a group with promise, selling a more than respectable 100,000 copies. Those sales help set a stable base for them to build on, and with the obvious dedication of the A&M crew, rock radio will be sharing many a beer with the boys of Paw for some time to come.

HARD Hitters

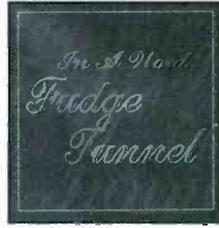

TOP Picks

Belladonna, Belladonna (Mausoleum)

It has been a long wait for new music from Joey Belladonna and his band, but with the power level on "Rob You Blind" taking more than one programmer by surprise, the anticipation for the full is pretty high. His familiar voice, which brought to life early Anthrax material like "Indians", "I Am the Law", and "Got the Time", is still in prime condition. Hearing him on these songs is like the return of an old friend. Top phones have already been reported at KISW, KQAL, and KUNV, with the single racking up enough spins to climb up to #23 on the Hard Hitters chart. On this release, Joey gives his new band room to show off their chops. The opening "Blunt Man" is a mid tempo rocker that builds momentum with a rhythm growing like a snowball rolling down a mountain. Another good choice, "Perfection" (already getting play at WXTB) has grinding guitar action - complete with a full fledged mosh-ready bridge - that runs throughout this song and will put a smile on your face. Other options: the staccato riffs of "Last Call"; the fluent "R.I.P." (don't let the placid intro fool you); or the closing "1-900". There is no attempt at reaching any new trendy crowds, just good hard edged metal, and enough of it to keep Belladonna parked on the air into the fall and winter.

Fudge Tunnel, In A Word (Earache)

While Black Sabbath may have invented the monolithic style of thick, heavy walls of guitar riffs, Fudge Tunnel have certainly taken the torch of bludgeoningly heavy music and created a new art form. Many a parent would listen to their formidable offerings and merely dismiss them as noise. Still any fan will tell you the band manages to corral that noise and unleash an unyielding display of sonic rhythms. This is hardly a greatest hits package, but In A Word is a true time capsule that touches on all aspects of the English band's career so far. The picks from the 1990 John Peel sessions (British radio broadcasts renown for displaying the best in cutting edge music) features "Sex Mammoth", the song that originally put them in the pages of NME and Sounds, and live cuts from their debut Hate Songs in E Minor. The broadcasts from New York and the '92 John Peel performance pulls material from Creep Diets. A sample of their Dynamo Festival appearance is included, along with a handful of unreleased B-Sides such as "Sweet Meat" and the Sabbath cover "Changes". While In A Word doesn't have new material per se, there is plenty of previously unavailable recordings to keep the die hard fans happy. Fudge Tunnel have progressed since their "First Movement"; their brand of musical punishment displayed on this collection is as lethal as ever.

White Zombie, "Electric Head Pt. 2 (The Ecstasy)" (Geffen)

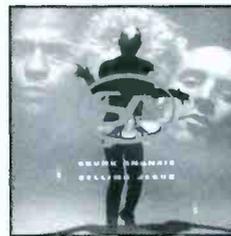

Do we need to tell you twice? Didn't think so. White Zombie were faced with the daunting task of following up a major label debut which garnered enough of a cult following to make David Koresh jealous. Not only did they meet expectations, they surpassed them. They have mainstream and alternative programmers playing a (gasp!) metal band. Having just recently slipped from an eleven week stint at #1, "Electric Head Pt. 2" is landing on your desk to remind you that White Zombie is our find and we plan to continue banging their ear splitting, bass-driven grooves until our ears bleed. The song itself is one of the most volatile on Astro Creep. "Electric Head" is surely seeing action at many a strip club as well as on Hard Hitters radio. Included on the CD-pro is a new version of "Blood, Milk, and Sky", the song that not only closes the CD, but closes the band's explosive live show as well. The reign of Zombie in 1995 is not even close to ending, turn your brain into an "Electric Head" and watch the requests continue filing in.

Battlegrounds: A Collection of Hardcore Cyberpunk (Mokum/Roadrunner)

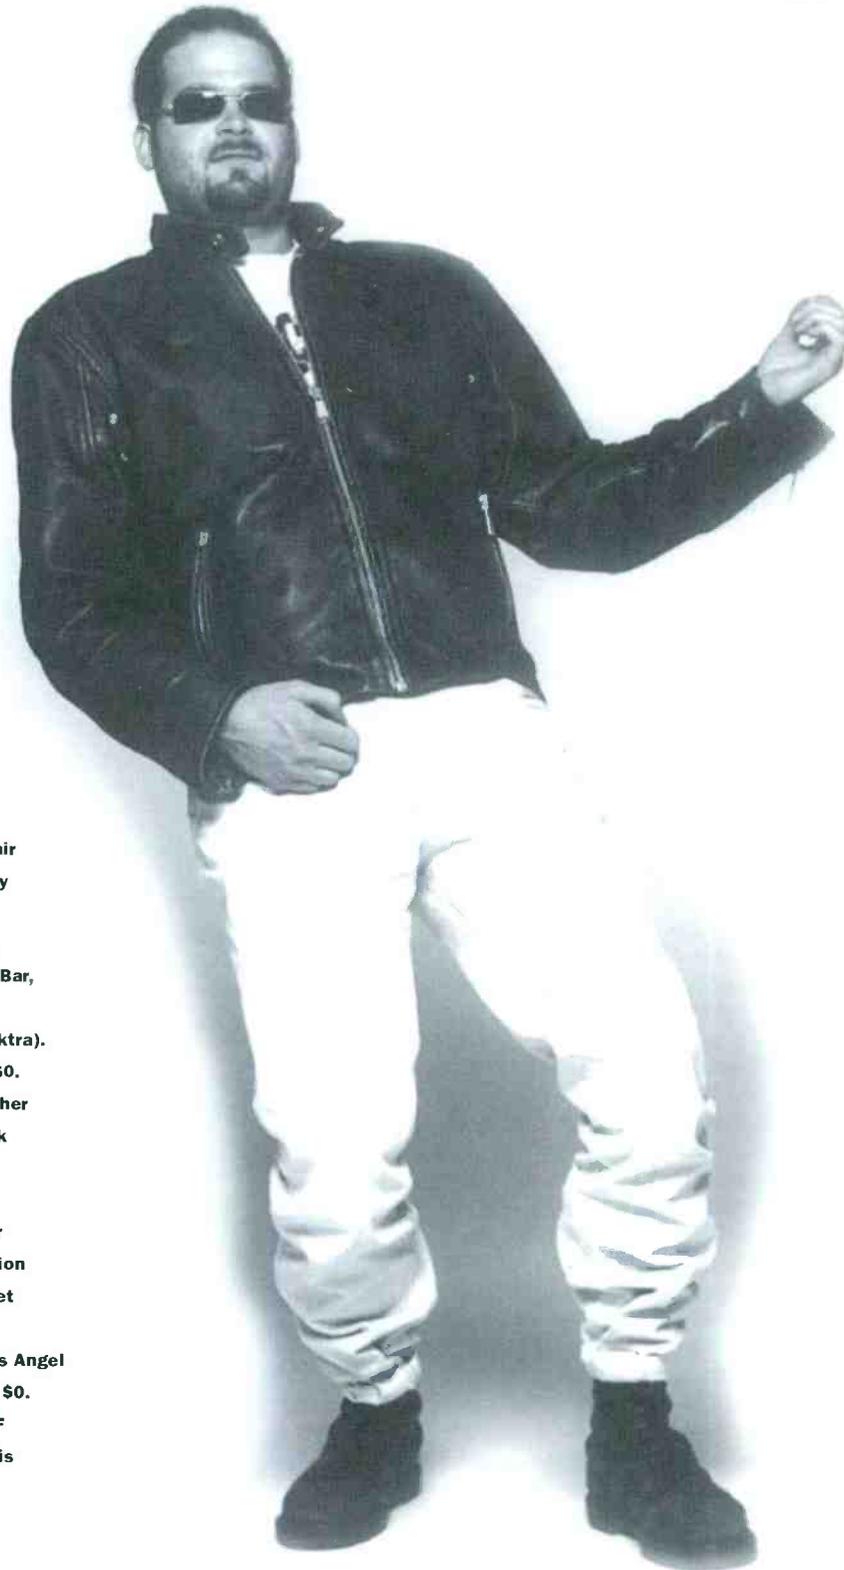

This isn't your standard Hard Hitters fare but then this format has always been open to new extremes in music. Battlegrounds is a compilation that exemplifies the latest rage of extreme music in Europe - Gabber. These sounds are to industrial/techno music what death metal is to rock. At first listen you may dismiss this as just dance music, but if you really examine the hyper-speed that these artists deliver in their electronically programmed creations, your body will more likely find itself banging around rather than dancing. Some of the more experimental stations out there have already tried out this collection, such as WSOU (who gave it 12 spins this week), WDBM and KZAK, both of which are testing the Annihilator track, "I'll Show You My Gun". The combination of industrial styled music pumped up with raging guitars has become increasingly popular with Hard Hitters stations, and the aural assault on this collection is the next logical step. Like a soundtrack to Armageddon, let Battlegrounds give your audience a musical sneak peek into the next century.

Skunk Anansie, "Selling Jesus" (Epic)

It's been a long time since a hard rock band has come out of England with a rumbling street buzz that has hints of a breakthrough monster all over it. The song in your hands now - "Selling Jesus" - has been released in England (along with the single "I Can Dream") to critical acclaim from both fans and the rock bible Kerrang!. The band has a strong visual impact with charismatic lead singer Skin adopting a white streak across her shaven head, but it is ultimately the music that will hit the bulls-eye for them. "Selling Jesus" is an angry, kinetic song that attacks like a barracuda. While it may not be metal in the traditional sense of the word, the slashing riffs and frenzied rhythm are as heavy as it gets. Described by Elle Europe as "Grace Jones meets Rage Against the Machine", Skin's vocals are equally strong in depth and intensity as she takes the band to the next level. Set to arrive stateside this week, grab on to this rocket as it blasts into the musical stratosphere.

FILINGS

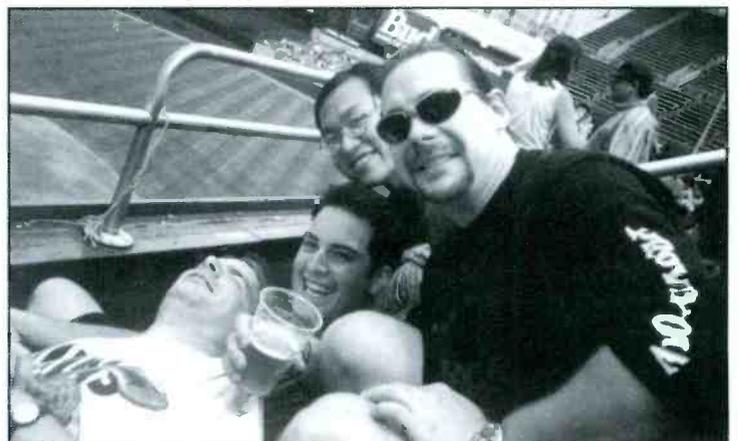

Today's top priority add comes in the form of the Paw (A&M) full length album Death To Traitors. The Lawrence, Kansas based band are currently sitting comfortably in a bulleted 38 position on the Hard Hitters Impact chart but with this week's arrival of the fourteen track album should vault the band into the upper echelon of the chart in no time... White Zombie (Geffen) have already staked claim on the upper quadrants of the Impact chart with the intent on staying there for some time longer now that the "Electric Head Pt. 2" CD-pro has landed on your desk for August 14th and 15th adds. When you spin it make a note that you have two different versions to choose from, the edit or the album version... The trio known simply as Fudge Tunnel (Earache) have put together a collection of their finest material and have called it In A Word. The disc features stuff from the Peel sessions, live cuts, samplings recorded at the Dynamo Festival, previously unreleased b-sides, among other things. Once you have this in your hands, you'd be remiss not to add it then play it... Joey Belladonna and crew have already climbed up to the 23rd position on the Hard Hitters chart (purely from the power of the "Rob You Blind" CD-pro). Now they bring to the metal masses the full length name-sake, Belladonna (Mausoleum)... The name might not be familiar but after just one listen the song will be. That's all that really needs to be said about the Skunk Anansie (Epic) single, "Selling Jesus". The track is the first culled from the band's upcoming album, Paranoid and Sunburnt. Sylvia Massey helped co-produce the disc, while Andy Wallace was controlling knobs on the mixing board... Look to the third week in August for the arrival of the Rancid (Epitaph) album, Time Bomb. Add the disc August 21st and 22nd... The first release in the New Chapter Series of material (courtesy of those in the Earache camp) will be the Coalesce 002 EP and the Silencer - Fear & Drinking EP. Add both of the EPs August 21st/22nd. P.S. they should be arriving in the same shipment as the new Fudge Tunnel album, In A Word... Coinciding with the August 18th big screen debut of Mortal Kombat will be the TVT Records released soundtrack. The disc features songs from Type O Negative, Napalm Death, Fear Factory, Sister Machine Gun, among others. If you are interested in the release contact those at TVT... For those of you into the sounds of Brujeria (Roadrunner) you will be interested in the upcoming release of Raza Odiada. The impact track is "La Migra". Add it August 21st and 22nd... My Dying Bride (Futurist) return August 21st and 22nd with the full Trinity album... Also going for adds the 21st and 22nd of August is The Gato Hunch from Stanford Prison Experiment (World Domination)... The much-talked about Down (EastWest/EEG) project (featuring the likes of Pantera's Phil Anselmo, C.O.C. guitarist/frontman Pepper Keenan, Kirk Windstein and Todd Strange from Crowbar, and stixman Jimmy Bower from Eyehategod). The single, "Lifer" goes for adds August 21st/22nd... The full length Shelter (Roadrunner) album, Mantra, debuts on the metal front for August 28th and 29th adds... Cathedral (Earache). The Carnival Bizarre. September 26th... Look to September for the arrival of new material from Machines Of Loving Grace (Atlantic). The album, Gilt, features such tracks as "Suicide King", "Serpico", "Casual User" and impact track "Richest Junkie"... What was once Demented Ted is now Beyond (Pavement) and will have a new album out in September... Look for new material from Internal Bleeding (Pavement) album, Voracious Contempt, to arrive on the metal front October 10th... Savatage (Atlantic) return in November. 🍻🍻🍻🍻 The final dates on the Sugar Ray (Atlantic) and Toadies (Interscope/AG) union are August 16th in Chicago, Illinois and on the 18th in St. Louis, Missouri. 🍻🍻🍻🍻 On the industry side of things, We Bite America is currently looking to hire a well organized, reliable person to work radio, publicity, and retail. Must have knowledge of roster (i.e. Optimum Wound Profile, Peter and the Test Tube Babies, Slapshot, Eisenvater) as well as the hard-core scene. Office is located downtown within the Victory Records Chicago office. If you are interested fax a resume to (312) 666-8665. Attn: I bite... The Mausoleum Records radio and publicity departments are in need of interns immediately and in the fall semester. All applicants must be able to work in New York City for 3 days a week. You can do this for credit or not, that's up to you. Radio department duties will be for metal and regular college formats (some might say Alternative). Publicity will include working with print and visual media and video. Travel expenses may be negotiated. Call Marc Meltzer at (212) 758-4636 x236 or fax your resume to (212) 758-4704... 🍻🍻🍻🍻 Peace.

Just in case there is another baseball strike WXZR is getting players in condition now! Oh wait. Actually the station held their first annual Z-Rock & Jock softball game to benefit Multiple Sclerosis. Up to bat is Bad Seed's Ron Colandrea for the Z-Rock team that not only went on to defeat the U.S. Marines, but also raise $2,000 for MS research.

Here we have a mandatory shot of The Tink, this time hanging around and making the best heavy metal faces possible with Phil Fasciana from Malevolent Creation, Russ Anderson from Forbidden, and down front is Jason Blachowicz of Malevolent Creation.

This shot dates back to the McGathy fun in New York, with some of the boys getting a bit out of hand Yankee Stadium, but we bet that things would be even more fun if this group of characters were riding in a New York taxi with a first time cabbie!!! Drinking some beer are Ryan King of WHUS, Dave Ciancio of WDBM, Phil Kong of McGathy, and Epic's Smitty.

Heather Nova, "Walk This World," WORK

Here's the story. Heather Nova was raised in the Caribbean, and developed her musical sensibilities from her parents' cassette collection rather than American radio. What was in the cassette box? The Velvet Underground, Roberta Flack, Neil Young, Van Morrison and The Stones, among others. She went to the Rhode Island School of Design to study painting and film, and rose through the ranks to find that her desire for filmmaking really centered on her love for the sound of films. She skipped out to New York, and then to London, where she fused her love for music and sound with her performance talent. Discovered quickly by Big Cat Records in London, an EP was released in the U.K., the now-highly-collectible These Walls, which led to tour dates in support of artists like Bob Mould and The Violent Femmes. Jump to the present tense, and already this year she and her band have performed over 50 dates with heavyweights like Neil Young/Pearl Jam, Pavement and The Cranberries. Her music is a compelling blend of pop and poetry, with a Tom Petty pace and a sexy delivery. She nails WHFS, WHTG, WEQX, WKOC, WLUM, WMRQ, REV 105, KEDJ and a host of others. This one's solid.

Rancid, "Time Bomb," Epitaph

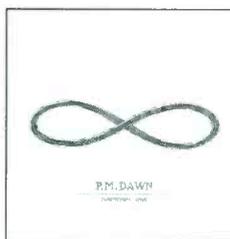

Talk about explosions! This catchy Clash-like brawler perks up into Top 5 Most Added territory this week with this first single from ...And Out Came the Wolves, an amazingly appropriate way for you to cover punk territory without losing the more-conservative jerks in your audience who push up the cume numbers. Catchy is certainly an adjective we can use here. The playful ska-sense of "Time Bomb" captures Rancid's creativity in a whole new light. They're definitely a factor. #3 Most Added this week, with action created at CIMX, KUKQ, WENZ, WHFS, REV 105, KPOI, WEQX and others. LIVE 105 jumped 8-17, and KROQ went 14-27.

Earth 18, "Dolores Haze," Giant

This band is reported to be amazing on stage. Their performance and light show are usually the first things brought up in conversations with those familiar with Earth 18. Translating theatrics and other rock and roll visually into audio brainfood is a daunting task, indeed. Earth 18 paints a colorful picture with this first official single release, "Dolores Haze." It's heavy and energetic in a way which escapes the traditional pale-faced portrayals of guitar, bass and drums. Production-wise, it is as large or larger than everything else out there right now. Radio-wise, it's just beginning its ascent. KUKQ leads the way.

PM Dawn, "Downtown Venus," Gee Street/Island

Complex and deep, PM Dawn pull a little of the artist formerly known as Prince thing into the mix of Alternative with "Downtown Venus," and it sounds like a track some can deal with at the format. Hooks are absolutely everywhere. The rhythm is very reminiscent of Deep Purple's "Hush." The storyline is woven by spiritualized lyrical elements that reflect the common purpose these two brothers from Jersey City find in their music. "All of the songs are gospel songs, they have a spiritual base," explains Prince Be/Reasons, one of the two Cordes brothers. "We didn't want to write love ballads. We wanted everything to have a spiritual aspect to it, even if there were images of love, sex, reality and depression. I really want these songs to affect people."

"Nature's Way,"
the new single. With Dave Pirner on co-lead vocals.

making the climb

Shudder To Think, "So Into You," Epic

Where "X-French T Shirt" really made the impact was in the uniqueness column. There was simply nothing out there that sounded like that tune. What's nuttier than a former Dischord artist covering this Atlanta Rhythm Section cheeseball? "So Into You" leads off with a barenaked vocal shudder, setting up the mid-tempo slacker groove that drives guitar-powered energy into the nakedness. The continual ebb and flow of the edge in Alternative music these days requires that somebody step up and toss around something special. Shudder To Think still retain the edge, and create a song that will come off as a bit more accessible in the process. Hey, it scores major points in the "You've got to be kidding" department. How can you resist?

Lenny Kravitz, "Rock and Roll is Dead," Virgin

So tell us what you really think, Lenny. Holding back the truth hasn't been tough for Kravitz. He has been praising the virtues of honest self-expression since he landed on the scene in '89 with "Let Love Rule." And while he blasts the very medium that has enabled him to purchase a few shiny material possessions, he points out the relative irony of the lyric. "Be whoever you are: be the person who's inside you," says Kravitz, who explains that the song is an attack on "The giant corporate white-bread bubble gum machine that we're all a part of, the cliched rock 'n roll lifestyle." Your slice will be shipped this week, to arrive on Wednesday ready for air.

Laughing Hyenas, Merry Go Round, Touch N' Go

The re-release of this EP, the band's debut Touch N' Go vinyl record from 1987, rekindles the screeching memories of the impact that this band had on the underground scene at the time. Added to the original track list are five songs from other sessions that previously haven't seen the laser beam of a CD. Vocalist John Brannon rages through these tracks like Jim Morrison on fire, occasionally crashing through metaphoric panes of glass. Butch Vig readily captures Brannon's raucous vibe on 10 of the 11 tracks (one is a live recording from a German gig in '89). All in all, the Laughing Hyenas still seem as furiously passionate and subversively relevant on CD today as they were on vinyl yesterday.

Jill Sobule, "Supermodel," Lava/Atlantic

She kissed a girl, now she wants to be Cindy Crawford. With 250 spins this week, and early attention from WOXY, WRXS, WHTG, KNNC, WEQX, KEDJ and others, she's likely doing more than a pose.

Alanis Morissette, "Hand in My Pocket," Maverick

The buzz is so large on this artist that tickets for her tour dates are being rationed like war-time food for us industry slime. Just as well - we're a lousy audience. This tune rises to 248 spins, and picks up 91X in the process.

311, "Don't Stay Home," Capricorn

The street level following that this band has at this time is huge. Radio is coming to the table, as this track picks up 78 more spins this week, and the nod from REV 105, WFNX, WXWX and others.

Supersuckers, "Born With A Tail," SubPop

WDOX, WDST, WRLG, WRXS, DMX and others add this one to go along with early spins from KNDD, KUKQ, WFNX, LIVE 105, CIMX, KBBT and others.

Pretty and Twisted, "Ride," Warner Bros.

Johnette Napolitano and friends post a net gain of 108 spins this week at the format, including a 16-29 pump at KXPX, and the assent from both WMAD and KRRK.

There aren't many artists who have the ability to out-modernize modern music. There certainly aren't 10 who have done so on a relatively consistent basis over the length of a career.

David Bowie has. Save for a few misadventures, Bowie has spent many years projecting his art ahead of the conventional modern wisdom that permeated even the most-revered cutting edge performers of the time.

You aren't able to play the first track from his forthcoming CD Outside until August 30th, but when you do receive it you will probably share my thoughts. The artist who redefined rock music in the late '70s has reunited with some compadres from that era (Producer Brian Eno, among others) to do more than just swim near the front of the pack in this fairly modern musical time. This ain't no "Blue Jean." Bowie's first single from this record, "The Hearts Filthy Lesson," fuses Aladdin Sane/Thin White Duke glory with a NIN-industrial futuristic feel.

He's done it again.

Thanks to MCA for the good time at The Ramones show in NYC last weekend. Gabba Gabba Hey Hey... TVT Records will release the soundtrack to the movie Mortal Kombat on August 18th. The CD will feature music from Type O-Negative, Fear Factory, KMFDM and Buckethead, among others. New Line Cinema is in charge of the film itself, which is based on the popular video game Mortal Kombat, one of the largest-selling video games in history... Rykodisc has unleashed "Strictly Commercial": The Best of Frank Zappa, a definitive sampling of the maestro's most accessible musical selections. It's the first official Zappa retrospective since Verve released Mothermania in 1969. Rykodisc has also teamed up with Voyager Software to develop CDLink Web pages for Zappa's Hot Rats and Elvis Costello's Imperial Bedroom CD's, enabling owners of the two discs to access detailed information that interacts with the audio-only discs. The web pages essentially turn the audio disc into an interactive multimedia CD. Pages are located at <http://www.shore.net/rykodisc>... The first 25,000 copies of Besides, Sugar's collection of B-sides and rarities, were packed with a separate bonus CD containing concert footage from the band's "File Under: Easy Listening" tour... John Doe's been X-ing this summer, but don't miss his solo release KissingSoHard on Rhino... Other new advances we heard this week: Red Hot Chili Peppers' first single "Warped," which you'll be seeing on Wednesday, is a trippy, hard-rockin' track. Candlebox's new one "Simple Lessons" will ship on 8/30, and is clearly a significant step forward for this band. Thanks to George at Warner for the sneak previews!... WENZ/Cleveland pitched in some creativity to help raise over $2,000 in donations for the victims of the recent explosion in Cleveland's Old Brooklyn district. An auction was held on the air on Friday July 28th that featured customized prize packages which each on-air personality created for the auction. Some of the ideas included a dream-date with morning co-host Tobin, a neon sculpture by Rick O'Bannon, a lawn mowing courtesy of Ted Kowalski, and the chance to be PD for a day with PD Phil Manning. Belkin Productions and MCA Concerts also kicked in some packages designed to inspire some donations... Congratulations to Atlantic Recording Artist Jewel for winning the Best Acoustic Artist, Album of the Year and Artist of the Year Awards at this year's San Diego Music Awards. And for nailing down WNEW this week... The 38th Annual Grammy Awards return to L.A. for 1996. The Host Committee will be led by co-chairs A&M Records President/CEO Al Cafaro and L.A. Times Executive Vice President/General Manager Eugene Falk... The National Alternative Network, in conjunction with Request music magazine is producing the 1995/96 Request audio files series, a weekly half-hour show featuring an eclectic mix of exclusive tracks, interviews and special segments. Musical styles range from alternative to jazz, with rockabilly and world beat as well. To submit material or garner more information, contact Shawn Stewart or Kevin Cole at REV 105, 612-338-2211...

MOVES - TVT National Alternative Promotions Director Jim McNeill segues to Mercury Records to head up the East Coast promotional effort at Alternative. The city of Vilnius, Lithuania, has decided to build a 6-foot statue honoring Frank Zappa, who died in 1993 at age 52 from prostate cancer. The statue will be erected in a park in the city's center, an honor that has previously been reserved for Communist party officials. The city says it will be the first Zappa statue in the world when it is unveiled as early as this fall. The monument was the idea of Vilnius' Frank Zappa Club.

Elvis Costello & The Attractions played a number of unreleased songs at a recent New York City concert including "Small Shallow Grave," co-written with Paul McCartney, and a song called "God Give Me Strength," co-written "by fax" with Burt Bacharach.

Jerry Garcia died of a heart attack August 9 at a drug treatment center in Forest Knolls, California, at age 53. A counselor at Serenity Knolls, a residential drug addiction treatment center, found Garcia in his room during the early morning hours. A nurse and sheriff's department staff were unable to revive him. A Grateful Dead spokesman said he didn't know why Garcia was at the treatment center. Ben & Jerry's ice cream company planned to continue selling its Cherry Garcia ice cream and frozen yogurt. "Cherry Garcia was meant as a tribute to Jerry while he was still alive. It's certainly a continuing tribute now that he's gone," says co-founder Ben Cohen. A new collection of neckties bearing Garcia's artwork will be introduced at the end of this month as scheduled.

Michael Hutchence of INXS called the editor of Britain's GQ magazine when he saw a cover photo of his former girlfriend Helena Christensen with the headline "Would you trade her in for Paula Yates?" Hutchence recently ended a four-year relationship with model Christensen and is now dating Yates, who is Bob Geldof's former wife. Hutchence phoned magazine editor Michael VerMuelen demanding an explanation. "Hutchence told me Helena was in tears, Paula was insulted and then asked how we could be so insensitive," VerMuelen said. "On an anger scale of one to 10, I would give him 11. He just fired off a long, strong-worded invective at me."

Guitarist Johnny Ramone says people have been pleading with the Ramones not to break up after their current tour. Even Don Henley urged Ramone to keep the band going when the two met on a Los Angeles street, but Ramone says he didn't know the name. "He must have been somebody important because of the way he said, 'Hi, I'm Don Henley,'" Ramone says. "I didn't know who he was. I don't follow music. I follow '50s and early '60s music. I was never really an Eagles fan."

Toronto singer Holly Cole's latest album, "Temptation," sees her covering Tom Waits. "I think the feeling is that because he (Waits) has such an unorthodox delivery, his work is somehow difficult to interpret," she says. "Certainly his singing style has kept him out of the mainstream. But from my standpoint, his songs are so beautiful and cover such a broad spectrum of styles, why wouldn't you want to sing them?" Cole says she didn't want to copy Waits on the 16-song album. "I don't consider myself a female Tom Waits," she says. "My mandate in doing this record was never to sweeten up the songs, or make them more accessible. We wanted to re-arrange and re-invent them in our own way." Cole says she and Waits are both "theatrical performers" who aren't afraid to experiment. Cole just got back from a sixth tour of Japan, where her 1992 album "Blame It On My Youth" has sold over 200,000 copies.

Rod Stewart showed up to help a U.K. soccer team open its new stadium. He said helping out the Celtic team he mentions in the song "You're In My Heart" made him "more nervous than any concert." "I'm never nervous at concerts, no matter how big the venue, no matter where I am, but today was different. I've never been more nervous. The fans were unbelievable and the experience was fantastic," he said. "It was all so very special for me, a wonderful day. I actually broke off from a Mediterranean cruise to come here but it was worth it."

A 12-song Leonard Cohen tribute album will come out in September, entitled "Tower Of Song." It includes Billy Joel covering "Light As The Breeze," Sting and the Chieftains doing "Sisters Of Mercy," and Elton John and Bono performing "Hallelujah." The LP will also feature Willie Nelson, Aaron Neville, Suzanne Vega, Tori Amos, Martin Gore, Don Henley and Trisha Yearwood.

A Don Was-directed documentary on Brian Wilson called "I Just Wasn't Made For These Times" opens in New York on August 15 and will air on the Disney Channel later in this month.

Guitarist Danny Spitz has left Anthrax. Dimebag Darrell of Pantera is filling in until a permanent replacement for Spitz is named.

REM have delayed an upcoming New York-area concert because Pope John Paul II, known to be a bigger draw, is scheduled to perform nearby. The October 5 REM show at Meadowlands Arena in East Rutherford, New Jersey, has been pushed back to October 6, because the Pop is headlining at Giants Stadium on the 5th.

A herringbone tweed suit owned by Elton John sold for $1,475 and a pair of his platform shoes sold for $370 at a London auction John had criticized because his former housekeepers had kept the items. An acoustic guitar signed by the members of Nirvana sold for $2,766 at the same auction, and a "Sexual Healing" robe worn by Marvin Gaye sold for $5,131.

John Prince and his fiancée, Fione, are expecting a second child this fall. "I guess Fiona and I put the cart before the horse," Prince says. "We just got engaged and sometime next year we'll get married."

James Hall's 1993 album "My Love, Sex & Spirit" is being re-issued (on Geffen Records) in September, with new artwork and several remixed tracks. Hall will release a new album in mid-January. He hopes to be finished recording the album next month after he and his band return from Europe. Hall, by the way, married longtime girlfriend Laurel Keyes in late June.

Former Clash leader Joe Strummer has co-written songs from the upcoming album by the Brian Setzer Orchestra. He also performs on some of the tracks on the LP produced by Phil Ramone.

An AIDS awareness group distributed 3,000 free condoms to some of the 35,000 young fans attending a major rock concert in Cork, Ireland. Blur, James Taylor and Paul Weller were among the over 70 acts performing at the annual Feile concert at a sports stadium.

Tim Rice has been appointed president of the British Academy of Songwriters, Composers & Authors.

Cajun musician Michael Doucet will host a new public radio program featuring Louisiana music and food. Twenty-six stations have agreed to begin airing "South To Louisiana! A Cajun & Zydeco Music Show" begins as 26-week run October 5.

The Ugly Americans are recording their debut album (for Giant Records) in Los Angeles with producer Don Gehman. The LP should be out after the first of the year.

Former Concrete Blonde vocalist Johnette Napolitano has teamed up with former Wall Of Voodoo guitarist Marc Moreland and drummer Danny Montgomery for her new lineup, Pretty & Twisted, which has just released its debut album (on Warner Brothers Records). "It was very natural," Napolitano says. "I wanted to do as much as I could myself. One of the reasons I left Concrete Blonde was to push myself to do more. I really didn't have that much to do. I was basically recording, singing my part, getting drunk, going on tour, getting drunk, waiting to go on stage. I just didn't play enough." Napolitano worked with Moreland on a cover of the Carpenters' "Hurting Each Other" for the tribute album "If I Were A Carpenter." "Marc plays like I wish I could play. What I hear in my head is what Marc plays naturally. Danny is one of the best musicians I ever met, and the fact he is a drummer is a plus because I needed one," she says. "Marc and I have been friends for years. There's some people, you like their music but you don't really care to meet them as people. There are some people who are your friends, but you don't really like their music. There's just a few people I know that I really want to play with." The LP features an unpublished song by Janis Joplin called "Come Away With Me," which Napolitano hopes pleases Joplin's family. "In my mind, I had to think about this very carefully before I approached it. I could do the traditional Janis Joplin cartoon where I could be screaming the blues, but my take on it was, 'If Janis was around today, what would she be doing?' I really think as tight as she was with the black-music community, she would be in touch with hip-hop, with youth. She was very maternal. The lyrics are peaceful, soothing, and I thought the music should match that," she says. "I don't think her family was very pleased, but they let me put it on the record, which I appreciate very much."

Ali Farka Toure, the guitarist and singer from Mali, is on tour in the U.S. after his tour with Ry Cooder last summer was canceled because of the war between Tuareg nomads and the government of Mali. Toure doesn't want to talk about the politics in his African homeland. He'd rather talk about farming. "Agriculture is much more important than music," he says. "Because if you don't have a full stomach, you can't even make music."

1000 Mona Lisas had the plug pulled on them as they played at the US Open Surfing Championship in Huntington Beach, California, after the city's mayor objected to their use of the word "fuck." Lead singer Amando Prado agreed not to use the word again after being told through a sponsor about mayor Victor Leipzig's complaint. But the electricity was cut off as the band was playing a cover of Alanis Morissette's "You Oughta Know." The band's manager says the use of the word shouldn't have come as a surprise because the tape the band sent to get the gig included the song "In The Red," which contains the offending word. The band releases a self-titled debut EP (on RCA Records) next month.

Dream Theater will release an "authorized" version of their 22-minute live song "A Change Of Seasons" next month on an album with the same name. Andrew Kern purchased the gold- and rhinestone-studded cape for $3,250 from a man in the audience who caught it. Before he died in May, Kern decided to give the cape to Presley's former home. Demolition has begun of the Fillmore East in the East Village in New York City, 27 years after the venue was created by concert promoter Bill Graham. A real estate firm purchased the brick building last September, hoping the theater could be transformed into a film, video or audio production facility, but no one seemed interested in paying $12 million to $15 million to renovate it. High Tyme Productions Inc., filed a lawsuit in May 1993, claiming that the company mailed a promotional package in 1979 to Prince's business manager, including a song called "Girl And Purple Rain." While the judgement found lyrical similarities in three of High Tyme's 18 copyrighted songs, the magistrate said this was not enough to sustain the lawsuit. "Where Prince's music is polished, complex and varied, yet still distinctive, High Tyme's music is rough and not distinct from the many rhythm and blues and rock bands prevalent in the 1970s," Magistrate Robert Steinberg wrote.

Janet Jackson's greatest hits album coming out later this year will include two new songs.

Dodgy and Fun-Da-Mental are amongst bands supporting M-Power, a campaign to encourage young people to vote. One third of British 18 to 25-year-olds failed to register for voting at the last British election. The campaign is being organised by Active 88, the youth branch of Charter 88, (an organisation which seeks to promote electoral reforms in the UK such as proportional representation, and a written constitution) and the British Youth Council (a partly government-funded group which encourage young people to become actively involved in society at large). According to a spokesperson for M-Power: "We're not looking to benefit any particular party or influence voting in any way, we're hoping to provide a platform for youth issues. The only people we're looking to help are young people themselves." M-Power is hoping to set up stalls at gigs and is planning a benefit show at London's Royal Festival Hall on November 3. The British Home Office say they will allow M-Power to collect voter registration forms at gigs and then send them to the relevant authorities. Many commentators have put young people's apparent apathy to organised politics down to a combination of two factors: a perception that party politics have no direct bearing on their lives and an interest in single issue campaigns such as animal rights and the environment... Morrissey's new album will be released via RCA/BMG on August 28. 'Southpaw Grammar' will feature the following tracks: 'The Teachers Are Afraid Of The Pupils', 'Reader Meets Author', 'The Boy Racer', 'The Operation', 'Dagenham Dave' (not The Stranglers' song of the same name) will be the lead single. RCA will re-activate their early '70s logo as seen on releases by such artists as Lou Reed and David Bowie - for Morrissey... Artists performing included Black Grape, Elastica, Paul Weller, Supergrass, Kylie Minogue, The Boo Radleys, Tricky, and M People. According to Police Divisional Commander Chief Superintendent James Elliott: "The crowd inside were extremely well behaved and the fact that there were only 21 arrests out of a crowd that size proves that it went very well." Noteworthy incidents at the event included Menswear throwing 1,000 pounds of sterling into the crowd (all notes had "Have a drink on Menswear" written on them); Kylie Minogue and Nick Cave performing despite a broken leg. All proceeds from the show will go to War Child, a charity raising money to provide aid to Bosnia. All songs on the forthcoming project were written by frontman Mick Hucknall, who also co-produced with Stewart Levine... Julianne Regan, former singer with All About Eve, has recorded a new album. Former Levitation guitarist Bic Hayes and former Powder bassist Tim McTighe have been working with the singer. Redan says, "I'm really proud of all we achieved in All About Eve, but times have changed... I've changed! I can't wait to get out and play live. In fact, I can't wait to get out. I've been in the studio so long, I've forgotten what 'outside' looks like." No release date for Regan's debut solo project has yet been set... The BBC Radio One Network has recovered 600,000 listeners, according to official figures published by RAJAR. The station's total now stands at 11.1 million. In the mid-'70s, the station reached 27 million, but there was little competition from commercial broadcasters at that time. When current controller Matthew Bannister took over in 1993, he radically shook up the network, aiming it at a younger, hipper audience. At the time, Bannister was criticised, particularly when listening figures began to plummet and senior DJs voiced their concern. However, Radio One has a public service broadcasting mandate and many politicians were questioning whether the station should be sold off to the private sector. Aware of this, Bannister effectively conceded he would have to re-position Radio One and probably lose listeners. As Richard Eyre of London's Capital Radio says: "His strategy was not to do with audience at all. This where the idiot tabloids (who were heavily critical) got it wrong. His brief was to retain licence fee funding for the station by changing it radically to ensure that it wasn't a clone of commercial radio. This is not the man who presided over the biggest single disaster in broadcasting history." Successes for the revamped Radio One have included Chris Evan's breakfast slot (a major star in the UK via television work, Evans accepted Bannister's offer to take over the show despite several other lucrative offers) and specialist evening shows devoted to such areas as alternative and dance. All in all, a remarkable turnaround for a station widely assumed to be in crisis 12 months ago, not to mention being the station to tune to if you want to hear Take That, The Undertones and Oasis in the same hour. Strange to say, it works!... In The City, the annual Manchester-based UK music industry convention, will feature performances from such artists as Foo Fighters, Ash, The Chemical Brothers, Cast, Marc Almond, Boy George and Dodgy. The event will run from September 2-6. There will also be the usual seminars and workshops. Ticket details in UK Music News in the near future... Pulp's new single will be released in October. However, one track looks unlikely to get much airplay. 'Sorted For Es And Whizz' may, for obvious reasons, fall foul of the censor... R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe has been talking to a new British magazine kon about his sexuality. According to Stipe: "I don't really draw lines by gender... Okay, the difference between screwing a man and a woman - one's got a dick and one's got a pussy. That's the difference. It's an individual thing. Making love to different men is different. Making love to different women is different. It's not about being homosexual or heterosexual or whatever. I can't think of labels like that. I'm not homosexual and I'm not heterosexual. I'm... sexual... And I have sex with humans. It seems kinda natural."... Oasis and Portishead are joint favourites to take this year's Mercury Music Prize, the annual award given to the best British album of the year. The award will be presented on September 12. The nominees: Portishead - 'Dummy'; Oasis - 'Definitely Maybe'; Supergrass - 'I Should Coco'; Leftfield - 'Leftism'; PJ Harvey - 'To Bring You My Love'; James MacMillian (Scottish modern classical composer) - 'Seven Lost Words From The Cross'; Guy Barker (jazz trumpeter) 'Into The Blue'; Tricky - 'Maxinquaye'; Elastica - 'Elastica'; and Van Morrison - 'Days Like This'. The award carries a prize of 25,000 pounds sterling. Previous winners have been M People, Suede and Primal Scream... UB40 have been ordered to pay royalties to secretary Debbie Banks. Banks sued the band, claiming their hit 'Don't Break My Heart' contained lyrics based on one of her poems. Judge Mr. Justice Harman accepted that UB40 had acted in good faith when they paid former member Javid Khan (who claimed the song was entirely his) 10,000 pounds sterling for the song, but ruled Banks was entitled to payments for her contribution... Mike Scott has re-signed to Chrysalis. The former Waterboys' frontman was dropped by sister label Ensign three years ago. Scott will release his debut solo album 'Bring 'Em All In' on September 18, preceded by a single of the same name on September 4. The singer/songwriter will tour the UK in the same month... Oasis have completed work on their second album 'Morning Glory'. The much-anticipated project took only 15 days to record. The full track-listing: 'Hello', 'Roll With It', 'Wonderwall', 'Don't Look Back In Anger', 'Hey Now', 'Some Might Say', 'Cast No Shadow', 'She's Electric', 'Morning Glory' and 'Champagne Supernova'. According to producer Owen Morris: "It will wipe the field with any competition. It's astonishing."... Metallica have been criticised by the BPI for selling 'taper' tickets for their appearance at the August 25 Castle Donington Monsters Of Rock Festival. The tickets allow fans to record the band using video or tape equipment. However, the BPI's head of anti-piracy David Martin says: "I think bands like Metallica have an ambivalent attitude towards bootlegging and piracy... They may think that people only record for their own use, but those tapes end up in Italy or Germany where they'll be pressed up as CDs and sold back, sometimes as many as 20,000 copies and sometimes within three days of the concert."... Elastica are looking for a full-time keyboard player... Sisters of Mercy frontman Andrew Eldritch has sacked himself! Last week, Eldritch circulated a letter saying he would no longer sing in the studio with Sister of Mercy, but would continue to write and produce the band's material and perform at live shows as a singer. Eldritch says he is therefore free of his contract with EastWest. The label responded by saying Eldritch was still signed to EastWest, concluding, "We're glad to see he hasn't lost his sense of humour."... Bush's Nigel Pulsford has been recalling a drinking session with Oasis in Indianapolis: "We were very drunk. Liam Gallagher ended up messing about in the traffic and had a gun pulled on him! That guy has a charmed life." Bush are hoping to record their next album with producer Steve Albini... Cast's second single will be 'Alright' b/w 'Follow Me Down' and 'Meet Me', available via Polydor on September 4... Goldie, arguably the leading light in Britain's jungle movement, has opened an exhibition of his graffiti art. 'Urban Blues' is running at London's Blue Note Gallery. Goldie's debut album 'Timeless' has been receiving rave reviews in the UK... Aftrax, a band who their label NovaMute says perform "acid phunk", release 'Extended Play', an EP, on August 21... The Human League will be hitting the road for a rare tour of the UK this fall... The Beloved will return with a new single and album in the near future... EMF, the Wedding Present and Pop Will Eat Itself will all perform at the four-day Cover Bridge Inn music festival. With a capacity of only 500, the event's organisers claim the festival is probably the world's smallest!!! Taking place in September, the venue is the garden of a country pub in the Yorkshire Dales, north England... Teenage Fanclub's new single will be 'Neil Jung' (Creation), available on August 21. The track is taken from the band's current 'Grand Prix' album, but additional previously unreleased tracks on various formats are: 'My Life', 'Every Step Is A Way Through', a different version of 'Neil Jung', 'The Shadows', 'Traffic Jam', 'Hi Fi' and a cover of Yo La Tengo's 'I Heard You Looking'. Teenage Fanclub will tour the UK this fall... Swervedriver's latest album 'Ejector Seat Reservation' (Creation) has just been released to critical acclaim... Suggs, former singer with Madness, has been talking about his influence on the latest crop of British guitar bands. According to Suggs: "It's very funny with people like Blur. I find it difficult to find my own footprints, 'cos their feet are in 'em... No, ultimately it's great because I don't have to justify what I'm doing."

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW/SEATTLE

Hats off to Sponge. They had a great show at Seattle's Sup Hall. More so, KISW would like to thank the members of Sponge for spending the day at Bob's Garage. Not only did they re-record "Plowed," they recorded a new song, a Christmas tune and a Patsy Cline cover. The guys did great and we look forward to their return to the Northwest. We loved working with them. Congratulations to the KISW Miss Rock hydro, not only did we take 3rd in the Columbia Cup in Tri-cities on 7/28, but also took 3rd in Seattle's Texaco Cup as part of Seafair. Usually our boat drinks the lake, explodes, flips or burns up... we enjoyed not only finishing the race but bringing home the bronze. The Presidents of the United States of America, #1 phones this week with "Lump"!!! I have e-mail: KISW@compumedia.com.

ERIN CARMEN, WONE/AKRON

High on life and ready to rock! It was like peanut butter and chocolate, the perfect combination. Ziggy Marley, Blues Traveler, and the Black Crowes! Although it was raining, the H.O.R.D.E festival was alive and kicking in Pittsburgh last week. Thanks a million to John Kirsey and Barb Balchick (Reprise) for getting me there!! Thanks to Corey Stevens for coming into the WONE studios and putting on a killer show at Rockin' on the River... the listeners love him! Southern Culture on the skids "Soul City" Fu k n' rules! I can't wait to hear the rest of the album. Can I have a copy?

MAX VOLUME, KZAK/RENO

Dear Industry: As I look around these days, here where "Alternative" has become the mainstream, my heart goes out to the programmer who just woke up and said "Wow, we've got to get Alternative. It's what's going on." I wish I could give you some of my experience, help you understand what means something, and what does not. Yes, I grew up listening to KROQ. Yes, I know Andy Schuon, Lewis Largent, and Mike Halloran. But picking out the texture of your own musical landscape, is something you must feel from the gut. One day Bill Betts looked at me and said, "Yes Max, but is it good? I understand it means something in the arena, but is it good?" Play good songs. That's my philosophy. If it's good, I'll bet Greg Mull is on it. Grab your trade magazine, and see what Steve Masters is playing. Look to the leaders, if they're not playing it, it probably chokes. KZAK is in between a Classic Rocker and an Alternative. I am after the younger Classic rockers, and the older Modern Rockers. Picture this: the 30 year old Rocker, they grew up in the '80s with Bon Jovi, maybe they have a young family, maybe they are immersed in their career. At any rate, they have an address, have had for several years. They get diaries. They love Pearl Jam and Guns N' Roses. They love Collective Soul, and AC/DC. They want to take Alanis Morissette to the movies. Play Good Songs. KZAK just went from 5.4 to a 6.0 12+, we are No. 1, 18-34. I play Van Halen and Soundgarden, Aerosmith and White Zombie. I like big fat guitars. We play ROCK. Chris Payne is my music director, he has such intense passion for Rock Music, and so much street knowledge, that between him and myself, we have a gut feeling about what a good song is. However, in the words of Curliiss Johnson, "Making a winner is easier than keeping a station a winner, and on top."

THE HARD REPORT

AL SCOTT, KUFO/KBBT/PORTLAND

Wow! Welcome to my space on the page. It has been a rockin' week! This week at KUFO we added some really hip tunes. First off it's the new PAW tune "Hope I Die Tonight". Can't see anything wrong with playing these cats. We also added the latest shredder from White Zombie. This Electric Head Part 2 thing will grab you by the boo-boo! Finally got around to playing Ian Moore's Muddy Jesus as well. Now onto the really cool part of the week. We have been working up to our second annual Beat Fest forever, it seems. It was a very cool venue out in the hills called Champeog Park. Bush, Everclear, Better Than Ezra, Throwing Muses and The Presidents Of The United States Of America pummeled a sold out crowd all day long. Thanks to everyone who helped put this together. Especially all the labels involved. Even though it rained during Everclear and Bush, the crowd and the bands performed like champs. Special thanks go out to Monqui Presents for the fabulous job they did. Can't wait for next year. We added about a zillion tracks on The Beat this week. I'd say something cool about them all, but that would take forever. Look for Beat Fest pictures soon...if they turned out! Hurry up and send Dave and I all the cool stuff you have. In the meantime...Leave me alone! Peace.

KEVIN VARGAS, KISS/SAN ANTONIO

Bubba Wayne McManners tells me he's got a something we should check out that's perfect for us. My close personal tip-off man Kenny Ryback tells me this is something we should play. Jave Patterson our own expert in the loud stuff department tells me, "We should play this". I listen and agree. Could 4 Nixons fans be wrong? "Head" was a good reactionary record that had our night time outlaw radio audience saying "Who is this?" (Always a good sign). But!, and this is as big a but as Al Bundy's worst nightmare, here comes "Happy Song". Being drought time in S.A. with all the green gone brown, can we sing this mantra like a native American boogie waiting to produce atmospheric combustion! This song is so playable after you've added it to the system (selector in our case) you hit the "end" key and see the daypart to "open"! This is the song that will break this band! Also excellent interview by Bill in the 8/4 Hard Report on a man I had the pleasure to be associated with in Las Vegas, Alex DeMers. Alex was possibly the best consultant I've ever worked with (and I've worked with some really good ones!). However, I noticed Alex had nothing to say about his San Antonio client KZEP?!? If you can't say something nice...

DAVE DOUGLAS, WAAF/WESTBOROUGH

It's been a few weeks since the Spring Book arrived and now that the dust has settled I wanted to share some information that I found interesting regarding WAAF. This station is a New England powerhouse when it comes to regional coverage, for example: WAAF is #1 men 18-24 Men in Boston, MA, #1 18-24 Men in Worcester, MA, #1 18-24 Men in Springfield, MA, #2 18-24 Men in Manchester, NH, and #5 18-24 Men in Providence, RH. I am seeing now what I had heard regarding the power of WAAF in so many different markets. No wonder we help sell so many records! A quick congratulations to the KISW MISS ROCK hydroplane for a very impressive 3rd place finish at this year's Seattle Seafair Cup on Lake Washington... in spite of the crappy weather.

VINCE RICHARDS, WEDG/BUFFALO

WOW! After flipping to alternative just 6 weeks ago, 103.3 The Edge held Edgefest 95, August 6th on the shores of Lake Erie. 12,000 Edge listeners showed up to see the 10,000 Maniacs, Goo Goo Dolls, Universal Honey, The Toadies, and 8 other local bands. The event raised over $60,000 for 2 local charities. It was incredible! Thanks to everyone who helped make Edgefest the event of the summer. Thanks to the 10,000 Maniacs, anyone who thought they were dead after Natalie Merchant left are very wrong! After hearing some of their new material, the Maniacs are alive and well. Thanks to Peter Leek, the Goo Goo Dolls, Warner Brothers, Jeff Criden, Dave Lombardi, Goo manager Pat Magnarella, Universal Honey, Doug Dombrowski, The Toadies and everyone at Interscope, Michael Pappale, Rod Tarantino, John Kohl, and Karen Rait. Thanks to the Edge staff for making the event sound bigger than life. And last but not least, thanks to Bruce "Could Be" Moser at could be wild, you're the best!

TODD HALLER &

RECKLESS ERIC SCOTT HALL

CHANNEL Z/AUGUSTA

Hello from the now soggy and cool Channel Z! I spent my last week cruising Augusta looking for a place to store my stuff. Because we all know in radio, you live at your station. I also want to point out that I was cordially welcomed by the staff upon my arrival; which means I get my butt kicked every Monday by Kevin and Klein. At least for the first month. Channel Z and our listeners are now in the recovery stage from Lollapalooza '95. We sent the better half of our morning show, Greg Klein (at least that's what he tells me), up to the show. He and a bus load of Z Heads got to gaze at Courtney Love's breasts. And also get a peak at her Fruit Of The Looms. The big question is would they like to see them all over again? Greg says yes! Thanks to Scott Davenport and Geffen Records for making this an experience they will long remember. Cornhusker, Matthew Sweet makes his presence felt tonight at the Chastain Park Amphitheater in Atlanta. So, let's all stand up and give Michael Prince and Zoo Records a big round of applause. They made it possible for us to run a kick butt on-air promotion to get our listeners pumped for the show. I would also like to thank Myra Simpson from Atlantic Records for dropping by and cranking out the tunes. Plus, it gave us time to rap about Charlotte. Yes, we're both Tarheels. Oh yeah, one more thing! She looks so cute in her Catholic school girl outfit. Keep smilin' and surfin' at the Z.

CARL CRAFT, WCIZ/WATERTOWN

For anyone wishing to talk music my new hours are: Thursday and Friday between 11 am and 1:30 pm, eastern time. I made the big switch to morning drive last week... dump your stock in Bud, and put all your cash into the Maxwell House. On the music front, by now you should be playing the smash from the Goo's called, "Name." We've got four weeks under our belt and are seeing an increase in sales every week. 7 Mary 3 sounds familiar, yet distinctive enough to work, and from the 'bring my copy in from home to play on the air stack', Jayhawks "I'd Run Away" is a great song from a wonderful adult rock record.

If you get a chance to check out Hootie and The Blowfish, do it! They played an awesome two hour set for nearly 18,000 people! KQRC has now become technically correct... if you would like to communicate with Doug or I regarding music, you can use our new E-Mail addresses: DOUGS@ACCUNET.COM VKNIGHT@ACCUNET.COM. Now we just have to figure out how to check it! Top 5 White Zombie "More Human," Tripping Daisy "I Got A Girl," Toadies "Possum Kingdom," Bush "Comedown," and Silverchair "Tomorrow."

JOHN LENAC & JULIE BAHRE

KTOZ/SPRINGFIELD

Bye Bye to Fairsta '95! Nobody knows how to throw a fair like Missouri. The Channel Z booth was right across from the birthing center, so we witnessed at least one cow (excuse me - calf) born a day. In the meantime, we gave away a trip for four to Disney World the Monday after the fair, and our winner was damn sure excited! But the whole promotion was such a success, thank you, thank you, thank you Jeff McClusky and Tom Schmall of McClusky and Associates and Joel Habeshaw from Hollywood Records. What a turn out this weekend for The Greenberry Woods at Jordan Creek. The guys came in for an impromptu acoustic set that was very impressive. Thanks to Matt Pollack and The Folks at Elektra. Jordan Creek is the new site for our Channel Z Kegger Night party, $6.00 all you can drink (and let me tell you, that's a nice deal). We are anxiously awaiting the 311/Phunk Junkies show on Sept. 2nd at the Shrine Mosque. John's getting in shape for the Mosh Pit! I just wanna see sweaty bare naked chests! Plus, one of my favorite bands of the year The Dandy Warhols (Tim Kerr Records) are planning to visit our fair town. If you get a chance to check out their CD, you will see why we're so hot for them! I hear they're playing CMJ. We have more shows in the works, but they're being kept a secret. Ha!

KIM ROSSI, KMMS/BOZEMAN, MT.

Amidst all the craziness that we know as the summer of '95, residents of "Moose-Land" were treated to an incredible event on Sunday July 30th. The station put on a benefit concert for our local food shelf with Sonny Landreth & The Goners. A simple request to bring a can of food for admittance to the show resulted in over 800 lbs. of food collected for the Gallatin Valley food shelf. All those in attendance were amazed by Sonny's incredible slide guitarman ship, and the bands generosity. Not only did they play a killer show that kept people dancing and wanting more (2 encores), but, they also donated a nice slash of cash to the cause. Even when way up there in the Rockies, true Southern hospitality comes shining through! And speaking of the Southern side (or should I say "slide"), this past Friday evening during our Sweet Peas Art and Music festival, Stephen Bruton played a rockin' outside show for about 5,000 people. Many who have know become big fans of the man! Thanks to James Lewis, Ray Gmeiner & all the folks at the Zoo for helping to get both Sonny & Stephen into "The Moose" studios. Both delighted our listeners with some great tunes and lively interviews. One quick mention - my 2 new favorite albums are Bonepony's "Stomp Revival" & Ani Difranco's "Not a Pretty Girl". Check 'em out. See you in Boulder.

BOB BABECKI, WCDB/ALBANY

To make a long story short, I've spent the better part of the last month in NYC, I come back and I find that 1) the station transmitter was hit by lightning, and 2) there's a six year old running around the station brandishing a 2x4 at people. Huh? Anyway, the lightning knocked out the transmitter for a few days, which is why my reported spin counts this week were really low. Capeesh? My last trip to NYC was my third in the last month or so (dubbed the "couch tour" by somebody). I saw so many shows in the last three weeks that I won't mention them all, but thanks to those who supplied me with tix (you know who you are). I'm hoping to have a Metal newsletter out once a month, beginning in Sept. (assuming our computer is ready) and my station is going to have a home page on the internet featuring pictures and info about our members. I'm also still looking into E-mail, more on all this shit later. The phones here suck. If you call during my hours and there is no answer please try again in a few minutes. I'm there, but only one call at a time can get through and some calls are transferred to another line which I can't answer. This is why some of you have experienced the "endless ringing" phenomenon. Thanks to Marc and Beth from Mausoleum for inviting me to the Belladonna dinner and studio party a couple of weeks ago. Those guys are very cool. I've been under a lot of stress lately and I want to thank everyone who had a minute to offer an ear and some advice (you know who you are also). To quote Dennis Leary: "Life sucks, get a fuckin' helmet!" I'm outa here.

THE TINK

WVUD/WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

Why Hello there! To paraphrase a Bogie movie immortal line; "Shows I ain't afraid of no stinkin' shows!" That's to let you know that no matter what the damn heat index is I'm still going out and seeing live bands perform. Well, just 'cause they rule dude. Dokken are out supporting their new CD Dysfunctional! They rocked Big Kahuna's barge in Wilm, Del. White Zombie are the hottest working band (heat index 129 degrees) the night they played Merriweather with Kyuss and Babes in Toyland. One of the two Mikes invited us to see awe inspiring Queensryche. Naw, it was probably both Mikes (8-track and phone Mike). Souls at Zero showed WVUD a taste for the perverse at the Troc. Mami's Type-O-Negative and Life of Agony came back to town to perform their blast arama. Grip Inc./Morbid Angel show was so damn good I attended Philly and New York gigs. Of course in NYC I got to hang with Maria A. and Melodi/Metal Blade, Joe Guzick of Earache, Fierce's Chainsaw, and EMI's phone Mike. Thanks go out to Tommy Pasquale for opening the doors to see the stunning Kataklysm/Enslaved/Incantation/Abu, growl from the bowels show. Relapse renegades were in attendance Sean, Matt, and Andy. It was like an interior storm in the Wetlands, fantastic. FYI, Metal Blade's new signing, NYC's Karen Crisis will rock your world, mark my word.

SCOTT "LO/JACK" DOUGLAS

VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

So this is the week you get the Lenny Kravitz. Once and for all the wait is over! It's called Rock and Roll is Dead. Now, before you freak out about the title, you might want to read the back of the cereal box for the directions to the decoder ring. On the back of the CD package, the lyrics are printed out so check'em out. This song is a cooker! You'll have it Wednesday the 16th courtesy of your favorite Virgin or via your friendly Fed-Ex or UPS union employee. This is obvious, in-your-face, Lenny Kravitz at his rockin' best, with a tip o' the dreadlock to Zeppelin as well. Enjoy! Play it as often as you wish, there are no restrictions. Just be sure to turn your lights and wipers on because it rains rock and roll all over!! Pretty Smokin'!!! And, sitting firmly at the top of the charts and again the #1 most requested band in America is Brother Cane! This song looks like it has long legs, airplay, phones, good early call-out research (we're only 8 weeks into it), and sales developing very nicely in the heaviest airplay markets. Pow! We got the shit, yes we do!! Maid Of Gravity are just a heart beat away from appearing on the almighty Rock Monitor chart, there are some early phones beginning to develop here. This smells like a sleeper (without morning breath). So, give it a shot like most of the major market winners already on it and let's see if the voodoo works for you too!! David Bowie is sooner than you think. More of the Baby Grace story and the Heart's Filthy Lesson coming your way in the next coupla weeks. Lo/Jacks to: Todd "I'm married now" McCarthy, Jo "make me a sandwich" Robinson, Chuckie Telecommunications Bill, Vinnie Marino, and Dave "I can't STAND it" Jackson!

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROTHERS, 818-953-3739

No issues this week, just great music: The Go Go Dolls are finally exploding at radio! "Name" was not only a most-added record at Rock (with amazing adds including the likes of WIYY, KEGL, WHJY, WKLS, KRXQ, WZTA, WCMF, WDIZ, KLPX, WHEB, and more), but also picked up 15-plus more Alternative adds, a handful of AAA adds and even some CHR adds, (including airplay at Z100). The album has doubled in weekly sales. And now MTV has the video in "On" rotation, so this could go...all...the...way! Be a part of it. Now, in all that excitement, you might've forgotten that we're shipping the new Red Hot Chili Peppers song, "Warped" next week...yeah, right! "Warped" rocks, it's just what your listeners need, and it should be in your shiny little hooves on Wed. Aug. 16 (for adds on the 21st & 22nd). Coming in a few weeks: "Simple Lessons" from Candlebox. Huge. Give a few minutes of your time and check out "Ride" from Pretty & Twisted (featuring ex-Concrete Blonde Johnette Napolitano) and "Bob" from Evil Stig (that's Joan Jett with the Gits). Gits vocalist Mia Zapata was murdered two years ago in Seattle — that incident was the inspiration for Joan's "Go Home." This project will hopefully raise awareness of this crime so it can finally be solved. It's time to get busy, I'm out.

JAMES DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA RECORDS

The Presidents of the United States of America has exploded out of the box. "Lump" is closed at Alternative and on nearly 50 rock stations after the first week. Already in on this song are KISW, WXTB, WAAF, KRXQ, KQRC, KSJO, WZTA, WRCX, KNRX, among others. Requests are already piling up. Not playing the "Presidents" is almost UN-American. Dandelion continues its growth. Sales and requests are beginning to kick in and the band is just hitting the road. We're on nearly a hundred radio stations with more and more believers every week. If you're not on "Weird Out" please take a good look. This song is really starting to perform and the band is out there working their butts off. Soul Asylum begins their tour this week just as we take the single "Just Like Anyone" to radio. We already have well over 300 spins on this song before we even mail out the CD-pro. It's just one more of a number of killer tracks on this album. Pink Floyd's next track "Coming Back To Life" is also on your desk. This is a great song that was undoubtedly one of the high-lights of Division Bell. We never worked this song, but now it takes on a life of its own. The live version is stunning and worthy of your undivided attention. Coming up: A great new song from Stabbing Westward called "What Do I Have To Do." This young band has made a great record that's totally compatible with what's going on right now at rock radio as well as Alternative. The next track from Mad Season is "Long Gone Day" featuring Screaming Trees' Mark Lanegan. Please watch for it.

MICHELLE KRUPKIN

VANGUARD RECORDS, 310-451-5727

This dialogue comes to us courtesy of our publicist, Meg MacDonald. Hello and let me be the first to welcome myself to this, the world of radio people. Michelle Krupkin, your normal dialogue provider, is in mourning due to the recent demise of Jerry Garcia (um, hello, natural causes?). Despite her grief she continues to plug Peter Case's Torn Again with ongoing success taking a break only to indulge in Cherry Garcia ice cream. True, we're not at #1 yet, but we're not #100 either and in view of the recent upheaval in the rock'n roll community combined with the uncanny resemblance between Peter and the former Grateful Dead leader, we're expecting things to pick up very soon. Peter Case's Torn Again received a three-star review in the Chicago Tribune and a three and a half star review in the Chicago Daily Herald. His nationwide tour continues to bring in outstanding album reviews hailing Torn Again as "...the album every Peter Case fan has been waiting for." Since I don't enjoy writing these dialogues it's very important we all try and get Michelle back in fighting form. We can't bring Jerry back, increasing your spins on Peter or adding him could expedite her recovery.

TODD & ABBA

ELECTRO-MAGNETIC INDUSTRIES (EMI)

212-245-4115

May we gush? Word has it that Brian Wilson and The Boo Radleys will be graces stages in NYC during the CMJ convention. If this comes to pass, dying happy is assured for at least one of us (Todd). CMJers will also get the chance to see EMI's own Fun Loving Criminals. None of you know anything about these guys yet but you will. They are by far the best music we'll deliver to Alternoland this year. Gregory Gray's "The Pope Does Not Smoke Dope" is happening with super-official-trend-setting-first-week-airplay at CKEY, WMRQ, WZRH, KEDG, WBER, WDST, KCRW, KKNB, WRXS, WCBR, WUNX and WXSX. Listen folks, this one will work just about anywhere. Keep in mind that the lyrical hook in this song is so strong and so obvious that your investment as a station will yield dividends more quickly than your average new artist. The number of spins necessary for this to get under the skin of your cume, is far smaller than the average unknown you are thinking about devoting playlist space to. Oh, and, uh, um, this is a bit, old school of us but, uh, the song's pretty amazing, too. Guru's new Jazzmatazz long player should be in hand by now. Our single will be "The Traveler." It's track #15 on the disc. Our ever-so-official-and-way-sincere add date is September 4th. The up-coming Mike Scott (he of Waterboys fame) solo debut for EMI defines brilliant, make your reservation for advance music now.

Modern 40 friends, let's re-name all radio the Teen Angst format. Ok? Brother Cane... Number One at Rock Radio BDS & Number One Requested! Hello? Modern rocker, KEGE (6.9 share) in MINN adds the record. What a great way to steal some listeners? "And Fools Shine On." You can win by looking at what is alive and kicking at all rock formats. The band can play their fuckin' guitars and write huge songs. That should excite you! Bands that actually know how to play will have careers. That is a brilliant idea, huh? Take advantage of the Rock Success and tap into the Requests, baby. Whale "Pay For Me." Loud, up-tempo, and FUN! Tour this fall with Tricky. Give Whale a test! There is an authentic new LA band on the road called The Geraldine Fibbers. They are full-on cosmic twang rock. Check out "Dragon Lady." Fierce vocals and vital lyrics. It has the guitar angst you need! The Verve fans are growing and buying records. Please make sure you see them live with Oasis in August and September. Check out "This Is Music," "A New Decade" and watch for the street and sold out shows to lead the way. This band has that special vibe and career truth that can light up Modern Rock Radio real soon. Godflesh, and Terrorizer. Extreme Noise Terror just went home after their first U.S. tour. Napalm Death EP and then a new full length called Diatribes. So are we looking forward to a hard cold winter or what. Call me for anything.

Summertime is without a doubt, my favorite time of the year, my lone pursuit (other than begging MD's pulleeze) is catching each and every ray whilst lifting the rum cup to my lips and keeping up with our various wayward songs. Otis, currently on tour with Die Cheerleader, took a night off to open for the Ramones at the Academy in New York! They then were whisked off to this country's core to spread their seed across the land, including an upcoming WJSE show in Atlantic City. Otis vs. Mel Torme? Yikes! Tree have just returned from three Lollapalooza dates, and are headed toward the Warped tour date in Northampton, the X Fest for WRXS, and the humongous "Hemp" fest on our own soil. Our back to school specials this year are Semisonic (formerly Pleasure), a large sounding band from Minneapolis, and Jacobono, a heavy hitting ensemble which includes former members of Strip Mind, Orangutang, and Heretix. See ya!

EPIC ROCK RADIO PROMOTIONS

Thought provoking idea of the week: If nothing ever sticks to Teflon, how do they get Teflon to stick to the pans? Epic sales on KoRn (almost 5500) and Silverchair (over 43,000) last week say something about the strength of Metal radio: We break bands! Not to say everything we touch turns to gold, but when we say "Watch Out!", we mean it - which gets me to my main topic: Skunk Anansie! Watch out! By now you should have added "Selling Jesus" and are spinning it and seeing reaction! Talk it up! Call for more info and lots of cool info on upcoming Prong and Ozzy! C-ya!

MIKE DEPIPPA & MIKE SCHNAPP EMI, 212-492-1852

Greetings from the EMI Rock Music Department where the eight track is still the preferred format of musical recordings. Although The Tea Party's latest isn't available on eight track, it is definitely worth being listened to on CD. Not only should The Edges Of Twilight be listened to, but it should also be played for all of your listeners. They continue to pick up spins every week, and thanks go out to everyone who is helping expose The Tea Party's deep, dark music to the metal audiences. The single is "Fire In The Head," but "The Bazaar," "Silence," and "Turn The Lamp Down Low" have also been getting positive response. Don't leave your listeners out, spin The Tea Party this week! More tour dates are on the way, call us for info. Another release that unfortunately is unavailable on eight track is The Dweller's debut Whatever Makes You Happy. Nonetheless, you might want to check it out. "Rocket Ride" is the single. And finally, moving from the world of eight tracks to CD-ROM's, Queensryche's very own CD-ROM will be available in the fall. We have the info on, just call or E-mail us at MDEPIPPA@AOL.COM and we'll fill you in on it. Don't forget to keep in touch.

MARCO BARBIERI METAL BLADE RECORDS, 805-522-9111

After close to five years at Metal Blade Records going Publicity and A + R I have decided to leave the company. Beginning September 1st I am excited to announce that I will be joining Century Media Records as their Director of Media Relations. I am thoroughly looking forward to this new challenge as the label has a tremendous potential with some of my favorite new artists (Tiamat, Sentenced, Nevermore, The Gathering, Only Living Witness, Moonspell, etc.). Century Media has a great, young staff comprised of some of the most respected people in the industry, many of which are my good friends, and all of who are hard working individuals intent on increasing the company's profile. Also, I will continue working on my magazine III Literature with the goal of making it even better and better. The tenth issue will hit September with a print run of 15,000 and over a hundred pages of packed information and a wealth of reviews and interviews. The distribution, frequency and professionalism of the magazine will increase as I am encouraged by the advancement III Literature has made in the last year. Finally, I have enjoyed my tenure at Metal Blade and will always consider it a wonderful and valuable experience where I have been able to meet many and accomplish even more.

MARC MELTZER MAUSOLEUM RECORDS, 800-957-6256

I still can't find Blue Jello, and quite frankly I'm not happy about it. Last Sunday's wok experience: Chicken Lo-Mein. Too much on the stir fry sauce, I took 120% of my daily allowance of sodium in this one meal. Finally, the full Belladonna. Your 13 course meal of Belladonna begins with a "Blunt, Man" and as we continue "Down And Out" through our journey we end by calling a "1-900" number. Ahhh, what a relief it is to have the full Belladonna. Add it today! Enjoy it and Spin it. Useless fact of the week: The average shower in the U.S. takes 12.2 minutes. Look for Schubert's "Reflections Of The Past" soon. New Wicked Maraya and Reign soon!! How's that for fun?! Those of you into the mellow, crunchy mellow metal look for Sharp 9. I'm also gonna have some compilations sometime soon in the Goth, industrial and Grrl mold. Lots of fun stuff from Mausoleum the rest of the year. Thank you, Good night!

It's a good guess that you're ill when you're coughing up little balls of GWAR spoooge. Yuck. Speaking of GWAR, X-Cops have just finished their tour. They'll be playing at CMJ as well. GWAR's Rag Na Rok is out in October and a tour comes with that order. Grip Inc. was godly at all the shows I've seen. Gus is a great performer. All are true professionals and I'm thoroughly proud. Keep spinning Power Of Inner Strength on a regular basis. Don't say it's too old. KoRn's older but that ain't stopping you from playing it, eh? Broken Hope's on the road with Suffocation in a couple of weeks. In September they open for Six Feet Under (Chris Barnes from Cannibal Corpse, Al West from Obituary, Terry Butler of Death, Massacre and Greg Gall). Killers tour in September. Decoryah is in your hands now. Call for info. Beats The Hell Out Of Me thank you for the support thus far. Please pass Rolling Thunder Music on to your Alternative directors so they can use it as well. King Diamond's The Spider's Lullabye is demanding your attention now. I can't believe how unbelievably LAME you're being with this CD. Do you have any clue whatsoever how responsible King is for the majority of bands you listen to, play and see in concert every year? Think about it. This man is the history of metal and last time I checked, the majority of you were supposedly doing metal shows. It makes perfect sense to me. Pick a couple of tracks and play them a few times. Then report them. Thank you.

SEAN MCKNIGHT RELAPSE/NUCLEAR BLAST AMERICA 717-397-9221

I have a dream, and that dream is Meshuggah's Destroy Erase Improve #1 everywhere (like at KSDB, WCKS and WERG); Death Is Just The Beginning III #1 (like at WXPL, KNON, and WBAU) and Mindrot's debut EP, Forlorn, #1. Well, since I can't have all them #1 at the same time (which doesn't seem fair, 'cause they all deserve to be), I guess I'll settle for the top 3 slots at every station in random order. Giveaways are available, just call me! On the way as you read this: Benediction's The Dreams You Dread and Hate by Sinister, ooooo, the pain, the pain! Until you get those little ditties of destruction, keep pushing Meshuggah and Death Is...ill, make them both #1 anyway, what the hell, we can have a tie can't we? That's all from Uncle Sean this week kiddies, now make my dreams come true, and go hurt someone with Meshuggah!

EDDIE WILLIAMSON CENTURY MEDIA RECORDS 310-399-6900

To whom it may concern, I would like to take this forum to address some bad publicity that has befallen the label. At this year's Milwaukee MetalFest Century Media paid a fee to have a promotional CD placed in the give away bags given to each attendee. Unbeknownst to us, a copy of a white supremacy magazine was included in the bags as well. Having not inspected the contents of the bags prior to distribution the representatives at the festival were extremely dismayed and, frankly, shocked at the prospects of such association. And, sure enough, after some bags were distributed unhappy fans came by asking us what we had to do with the magazine. Figuring to cut the company's losses, the reps decided to remove the literature from as many of the remaining bags possible. Some attendees did receive bags with the magazine. This has caused concern because Century Media Records in no way supports, endorses, underwrites, or advocates such racism. Our sincerest apologies to those who were offended. Coming soon: Moonspell and The Gathering (adds September 4-5).

Greetings from Brew-city! I can hardly contain my excitement folks...yes! Willy Porter debuts this week in Hard/Track #35/Hello this is just 2 weeks out for record "Cool Water"! Thanks for your continued belief and having the good sense to support a rising star building that "core-artist" base in your market!!! Will says Willy has already established himself as this! See our boy on the road with Toad and the Cranberries...look for some surprises on this tour...Fabulous Thunderbirds rocked the house in Austin last week celebrating the release of "Roll of the Dice". KGSR hosted this event for the hometown band. I love this album, its amazing the true great musicianship of this band. Kim Wilson's vocals are incredible and harp playing not to be believed! This album should be a welcome addition to all Adult Rock playlists, with Danny Kortchmar producing, it evokes memories of our humble roots and beginnings...dare I say...Rock and Roll!? Speaking of Rock and Roll...who hasn't listened to "Monte Warden's...Here I Am"...Monte and his stellar band out of Texas really put out a quality album! Solid songwriting and great vocals...the lead track insured this...Philadelphia Inquirer...1/2 stars! Kevin Gilbert, is an unbelievable talent. He or She who hasn't spent time with this record is missing the proverbial boat! "When you give your love to me"..."Goodness Gracious", "Tea for one"..."Tears of Audrey"..."Waiting"...people who know this, WXPN, KFMU, KZON, WRNR, WKZE, KBXR, KROK, KSPN, WMMM and others...This week include: WCLZ, WBOS! Susan Werner continues to impress on the road through the Midwest..."The man I used to Love"...add KMTT this week - check it out. Thanks for your continued support. See you on the road with W.P. and in Boulder!

DENNIS CONSTANTINE/JASON PARKER

CONSTANTINE CONSULTING

(303)-440-5470

We are happy to announce that James Dann has been upped at Constantine Consulting receiving the title Director of Development. James joined us in November 1994 following five years as the Denver-based promotion manager for MCA Records. In his new role, Dann will be working closely with Constantine client stations presentation and imaging of the on-air product as well as creative promotions and ideas that will enhance the lifestyle orientation of successful Progressive radio stations. Congratulations to KRSH PM driver Bill Bowker on his recent promotion to Music Director. In addition to his on-air duties, Bill will now be helping superwoman Zoe Zuest out with the music. In other news from the Crush this week, Mary Cilli has joined the staff as the stations Director of Promotions of Marketing. Congratulations also go out to Jon Peterson, who will be taking over as MD/Night Jock at WRLT/Nashville. Jon comes to us after a long run as MD/Midday Jock at non-comm WCBE/Columbus. Ironically, Jon is still scheduled to head the non-comm breakout session at the AAA summit later this month. Current WRLT MD David Hall is upped to APD under GM/PD Ned Horton. Speaking of Nashville, WRLT's sister station, alternative WRLG, is now simulcast on 93.7 FM, after the sale of that signal to Tuned-In-Broadcasting. Now the stations come at Nashville from two different directions, which should greatly increase their listenership. In music, Instant Living(Bar/None), the second release from Health and Happiness Show, is a huge step forward for this new band from New Jersey. There is a wealth of good tunes on the disc, including "Sugar In Your Eyes," "Tossed Like a Stone," "You Is Fine," and "I'll Be Your Train." Chris Anderson seems to have grown up on music similar to that of his fellow Floridian's The Allman Bros. his solo debut Old Friend(Relativity) showcases his phenomenal guitar technique, which has been described as a cross between Stevie Ray and Slowhand. "Your Gonna Need Me," the title song, "One Step Ahead of the Blues," "Crying For My Baby" and "When Will You Be Satisfied" are all good songs. Liquorice is a cool new band on 4AD, with an album called Listening Cap. With a sound somewhat reminiscent of Aimee Mann in her mellower mood, this band should find a home at progressive radio. "Trump Suit," "Team Player," and "Cheap Cuts" all sound like they work well on the air. The Freddy Jones Band's 3rd album North Avenue Wake Up Call(Capricorn) should continue the band's ascent into the top ranks of the progressive world. The best radio track is

"Waitress," an uptempo rocker that makes one instinctually reach for the volume knob. Other tracks that have grabbed us are "Ferris Wheel," "Rain" and "Warm Like Home." Vance Gilbert's second album Eugitives(Philo/Rounder) has just been released, and you should not miss it. "Scene of the Crime," "Proud of Prevention," "Lightnin' Rod" will all give you a good idea what Vance is all about. His cover of Smokey Robinson's "(The Love I Saw In You Was) Just A Mirage" is also a gem. X singer and guitarist John Doe is back with a new band he calls The John Doe Thing, and an album called Kissingsohard(Forward/Rino). You should have a four track CD Pro containing the lead track "Fallen Tears." With Doe's unmistakable voice and lyrics and a driving beat, this song should do well with X fans and new converts as well. Also of note is "Going Down Fast," which has a softer tone. Karia Bonoff, Kenny Edwards, Andrew Gold, and Wendy Waldman make up the group Bryndle. Their self-titled debut on MusicMasters is a wonderful album of folk songs. This supergroup collaborated on many of the tracks on this album, including "Take Me In," "Under The Rainbow" and "We Walled This Road," but the standout is the Gold original "Streets of Your Town." There is a great song on the album skin and blister(Warner Bros.) from Seven Day Diary called "He Can." The vocals of Pamela Laws and Nancy Hess mesh beautifully, and the emotional lyrics speak right to the heart. The Goo Goo Dolls are ostensibly an alternative act, and their sophomore release, A Boy Named Goo(Warner Bros.) has done well at that format. As with their last album, however, there is one mostly acoustic song that is getting some attention on the progressive side. "Name" has the potential to cross over and make this band a huge hit. Kate St. John, formerly of The Dream Academy and Channel Light Vessel, has a beautiful new album called Indescribable Night(Gyroscope/Caroline). While most of the record is too atmospheric for radio, the song "Paris Skies" just knocks me out. It's soft, but very adult-appealing.
