

HERE'S YOUR "FINAL EXAM"!

Be sure you can answer "YES" to these questions

1 Do you join us in our theme songs? . . . Here are the words

A. First Call to Breakfast

Good Morning Breakfast Clubbers, good morning to yah.
We got up bright and early to how-dy do yah.

The coffee is on, the fruit, the toast, the cereal, the skillet,

And Harry Kogen and his boys have tunes to fill it.

The gang's all here. Let's take a poll and sing our greeting,
So line up kids; I'il call the roll of this day's meeting.

Nancy Martin "how do yah do," and Marion Mann "how do yah do," and Jack Baker—"glad to see you."

The vagabonds are guests today, so romeos Breakfast Clubbers cadets (wake up and smile;

A day begun happy makes life worth-while,

Good Morning Breakfast Clubbers, good morning to yah.

Daddy, Mother, Sister, Brother, toss away all care.

America arise; the Breakfast Club is on the air.

B. Breakfast Clubbers, May We Salute You?

Good morning, Breakfast Clubbers, may we salute yah With second call to breakfast that is planned to suit you. I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning.

Second call to come to breakfast. Everybody come to breakfast.

Eat your meal with Don McNeill who serves a smile for you.

C. Swift's Call to Breakfast

Good morning, good morning. We like to see you smile. Good morning, good morning. It makes your life worth-while.

It's now Swift's call to breakfast and time to get a lift with America's favorite bacon that bears the brand of Swift.

Good morning, good morning.
This comes right from the heart.
Good morning, good morning.

It's now our time to start with a meat that makes the meal and our songs and laugh appeal.

Good morning, good morning. Take a slice with Don McNeill,

D. Fourth Call to Breakfast Good morning Breakfast Clubbers

It's time to sing ya Another cheery greeting So may we bring ya
Fourth call to breakfast
We call forth to breakfast
So every Breakfast Clubber Young and old Come join our happy carefree fold Yes wake up Breakfast Clubbers And smile a while A day begun happy Makes life worth while

2 Do you rise and shake to our polkas?

Join the gang around the breakfast table in a good ol' rousing polka as Maestro Kogen and the boys give out. Nothing like it for those early morning kinks.

3 Do you dream you're at the metropolitan?

Open the windows wide and give out with Jewel Song from Faust or Celeste Aida. Maybe another Breakfast Clubber in the neighborhood will hear you—get together-form an opera company—form a Breakfast Club!

4 Do you march around the breakfast table?

It keeps the kinks out of "home fronters," so line up the whole family and "M-a-r-e-h!" with our boys on the fighting fronts wherever they may be. Try making an obstacle course out of the furniture if you really want to get in shape.

you put up with our horseplay:

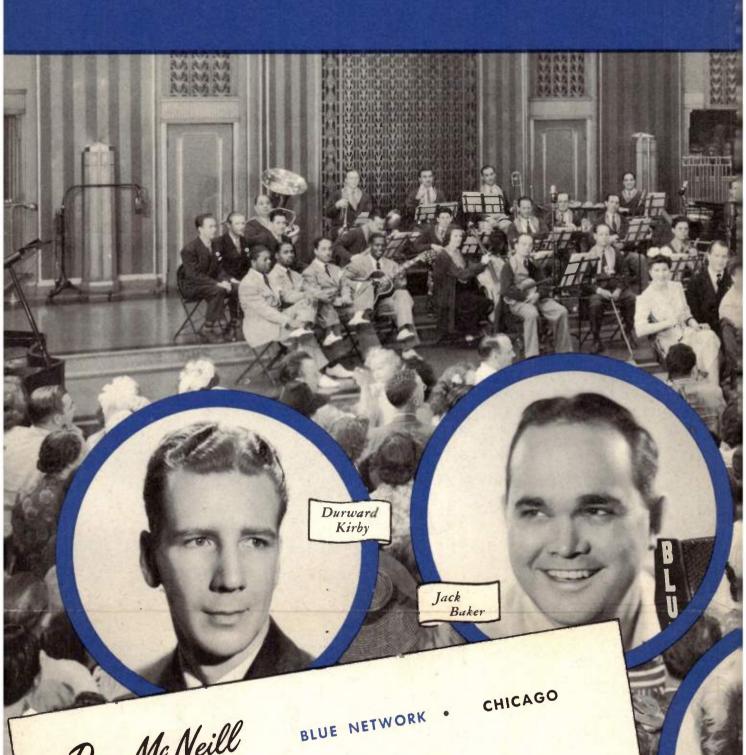

All Breakfast Clubbers are good sports. They come up smiling even though we may break a few eggs on their dome-or get them into an early morning jitter bug contest with Jack. It's all in fun and we love it.

PASS THE TEST?

SWELL!

NOW MEET THE GANG!

Your Friend

Don Mc Neill

Welcome, thrice welcome, to the Breakfast Club! You are now a Howdy do ya, Breakfast Clubber: full-fledged Charter Member of the Breakfast Club and your name

And what's a roster - just pull out that old card on any occasion and you're sure to find another member of the Breakfast Club close has been inscribed on the roster. You Charter Members have been hearing how other members from coast-to-coast are forming local chapters. Maybe you'd like to form one too.

Every club has an initiation fee - well, so have we for new members (not us ol Charter Members though), but - we're gonna members (not us of Charter Members though), but we're gon pay the initiation fee to the new members instead of having them pay us. (We're gonna cut us of Charter Members in on them pay us. this deal of course.) Now, here's the dope.

You just cut out the 3 application blanks and line up all your friends who haven't learned to wake up with a B. C. smile. Get them in the spirit and reap these big awards, by telling them of the fun and enjoyment you have in listening to the program. Have them listen for a whole week and then write us Charter Members about the part of our early morning party they like hest about the part of our early morning party they like best. All the dope is on the application blanks.

Let's be tough on 'em though - MAKE 'EM LISTEN.

Don't forget, Charter Members, we've got a special place reserved at the Breakfast Club when you're in Chicago. Drop us a line when you're coming and we'll save a seat for you when you're coming, and we'll save a seat for you. So long - And be good to yourself!
