PREFACE

This manual, eighth in the "DIAL CORD STRINGING GUIDE" series, covers dial cord arrangements used in radios and TV receivers produced during 1959 and 1960. This Guide and others in the series are intended to make restringing jobs easier and less time-consuming.

Diagrams are consecutively numbered, the first being the next consecutive number after the last number used in volume seven.

The cumulative index lists receivers covered in Vols. 5 through 8.
