

Erikson lights way for U.A.

Volume 19 No. 15
May 26, 1973

When United Artists Records bowed the Canadian scene as an independent, their Canadian Director, Stan Kulin, made it clear that he would be taking a long hard look at Canadian talent. With Kulin's many years in the business, it was only natural to expect that he would be cautious in a field that was far from developed. Like every other Canadian record company, United Artists was swamped with demo tapes, managers with "a hot new group" and artists themselves. For Kulin, and his right hand man, Allan Matthews, it was a matter of a search for top quality, and one of their first choices was Karl Erikson, a native of Port Washington, Wisconsin and a landed immigrant of Canada since 1969. Erikson couldn't be considered a great new find. He is twenty-five, considered by many as the over the hill age, and he has already experienced the wax race.

His musical/disc experience began when he was lecturing in Sociology for the Department of Education of South Australia in Adelaide. What got him down under was his Bachelor's degree in History and Anthropology from the University of Wisconsin with post graduate work in Archaeology. This led him to Uranium prospecting and oil exploration in Northern Canada - and

MUSICAL FRIENDS CHOPPED FROM CFCF

"Musical Friends", a major exposure vehicle for recording acts, both Canadian and foreign, has been cancelled by CFCF TV Montreal. The show, formerly "Like Young", has done very well in the ratings over the years and is currently syndicated to some twelve stations outside Montreal. CFCF gave "general production budget cutbacks" as justification for the axing.

In recent months the show has been exposing some four acts per week to the television audience, three of them usually Canadian. Host Jim McKenna has not yet announced his plans for the future.

LONDON RELEASES PHILIPS BUDGET LINE

London Records of Canada will release product, in this country, on the new budget line from Philips Records, Fontana. First release on the label is an album containing five orchestral pieces by Bach, by Kurt Redel, Chopin's Waltzes by Werner Haas, Wieniawski's violin concertos by Ivry Gitlis and Handel's "Fireworks Suite". New release will appear each month. Jacques Druelle, manager of London's classical division will oversee activities on the Fontana label.

COLUMBIA INTROS NEW CANADIAN SLEEVE

Columbia Records has announced the immediate introduction of a new single sleeve, to be used by the company on all product qualifying as Canadian content under the CRTC regulations. The sleeve resembles the Canadian flag, printed in red and white, but sans the maple leaf. A Columbia representative stated: "We feel this is yet another step in Columbia Records' continuing effort to promote Canadian talent". The new sleeve is supplemented by a new red Columbia label, again for Canadian product only, and the MAPL logo. The new design is intended to simplify quick identification of Canadian product by reviewers and radio personnel.

SHAW FEST TO PRESENT COHEN WORK

The Shaw Festival, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, will present "Sisters of Mercy", a musical based on the poems, prose and writings of Montrealer, Leonard Cohen, on July 5th. The Shaw presentation will be the international premiere of the work, owned jointly by CBS, who have recording rights to Cohen, and CHUM Limited, a company which operates a network of radio stations coast to coast in Canada.

The Cohen presentation, which will be one of the highlights of the Shaw Festival's inaugural season, was conceived and adapted for the stage by Gene Lesser, a New Yorker, and a member of the faculty of the Juilliard School of Music. Lesser will also direct the show.

ARD ENTERPRISES MARKETS ANTHEM

Kitchener-based company Ard Enterprises has released what it claims is the first ever solo vocal version of "O Canada" on a new, three-cut 45 rpm disc. The record contains three versions of the national anthem: one bilingual, one French and one English.

The Ard disc has been recommended to member stations by the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, and was praised by the Committee for an Independent Canada for being the first record to contain an English vocal version of the anthem. Bass-baritone Robert Dicknoether performed on the recording.

Ard Enterprises is marketing the record on a direct basis. Orders should be mailed to the company at P.O. Box 2124, Postal Station B, Kitchener, Ont. The cost per disc is $1.50, which includes postage, handling and tax.

HAIDA TO RELEASE TWO NEW SINGLES

Haida Records' Ray Pettinger reports that the A&M-distributed label will release two new singles in the immediate future, "Mayday" from Stallion Thumrock's debut Haida album, and "So Far Away" by former Spring lead guitarist, Terry Frewer. Stallion Thumrock have just completed a cross-Canada tour which included an appearance on the "Musical Friends" TVer. Group is scheduled to begin work on their second album for the label in June at the A&M studios in Los Angeles.

Frewer, now fully embarked on a solo career, travels to the Los Angeles studios in mid-summer to complete work on his first Haida album. Frewer was one of the prime forces behind Spring and was responsible for the writing and the vocalizing on the group's biggest hit for London, "A Country Boy Named Willy".

WATERGATE SCANDAL TOUCHES DISC BIZ.

The Watergate wiretapping scandal in the United States has finally touched the record business. Last week a Washington record store ran a tongue-in-cheek advertisement on the Watergate affair, but was surprised to find that there were a lot of people taking them up on the offer.

The Orpheus Discount Record Store offered albums at 49 cents to anyone "formerly a White House adviser or subpoenaed or indicted by a grand jury or Senate subcommittee or Jack Anderson". The special price was called a "Richard Kleindienst Memorial Sale".

A store spokesman said that Mr. Anderson, the Washington Post columnist who uncovered the sordid affair, was the first to arrive. He was accompanied by several children and went home with about ten records. Then followed a woman indicted in the takeover of the Bureau of Indian Affairs last summer.

To hold down what was becoming a rather expensive joke, the store placed a limit of three records per customer on its offer.

ALL TIME HIGH FOR LONDON CLASSICAL

Classical sales by London Records for the fiscal year ended March 31st, were the highest recorded to date, according to Jacques Druelle, manager of London's classical division. Druelle reported a substantial increase in disc sales and a dramatic rise in sales of Dolby cassettes. Classical lines handled by London include Philips, Telefunken, Alte Werk, Argo, Oiseau-Lyre, Societe Francaise du Son and Select.

THREE CANADIANS APPEAR ON WWVA

Three Canadian artists took over the second half of the "Jamboree USA" show, May 5th, produced in Wheeling, West Virginia, by WWVA Radio. The popular country show played host to Maple Street, a fast moving four-piece night club group, Roy McCaul and Winston James, Marathon recording artists. According to Bill Oja of the Hamilton Entertainment Agency, fan reaction was "incredible". St. James was called back for two encores following his rendition of the Wayne Newton hit, "Daddy Don't You Walk So Fast".

ANKA TO PRODUCE EDWIN HAWKINS LP

Ottawa-born Paul Anka is slated to produce the upcoming album by the Edwin Hawkins Singers. Anka, who is responsible for several of the compositions on the album, will work in close co-operation with John Harris, conductor, and Edwin Hawkins. The album will appear on the Buddha label, distributed here by Quality Records.

Anka has met considerable success both as a songwriter and performer. He is currently represented on the international charts with "Everything's Been Changed" by the Fifth Dimension; "While We're Still Young", Wayne Newton; "I'm Not Anyone" by Sammy Davis Jr.; the Edwin Hawkins Singers' "Jubilation" and his own "Hey Girl".

CAPAC AWARDS MADE FOR FOURTH TIME

CAPAC, the Composer, Authors and Publishers Association of Canada, has presented, for the fourth time, its Ernest MacMillan and William St. Clair Low fellowships to outstanding young composers. This year, Christian L'Ecuier of Montreal, a student of Jacques Hetu, and Bruce Pennycook of Toronto, a student of Dr. Lothar Klein, won the MacMillan and Low fellowships respectively. Each fellowship is valued at $2500, towards the continued study of music by the winner at the post-graduate level.

Both awards are named after outstanding figures in Canadian music. The late Sir Ernest MacMillan, former president of CAPAC, and William St. Clair Low, former general manager. Winners are chosen on the basis of three original compositions submitted to a panel of judges. This year, entries were judged by Victor Feldbrill, Norma Beecroft, Clermont Pepin and Dr. Lothar Klein.

KIWANIANS RECOGNIZE CONTEMPORARY SCENE

The Edmonton Kiwanis Club have been striving for three years to remove the snob appeal associated with their annual Music Festival - and it is apparently working. This year, their Spring Fling allowed six non-union and seven union groups to strut their stuff before an audience of more than 2300 at the Jubilee Auditorium.

The non-union groups were: Joe Bearcrotch, Meadowlark Lemon, Blackjack, Prairie, Brimstone, Cypress and Paladin's Ride. The union groups were: Bacchus, Missouri, Butler, Samuel Sad, Griffin and North West Passage.

Organizers of the rock festival were Bob Heule, Bud Squair and Mrs. Cora Molstad. Mike White of Studio City Musical Ltd. was in charge of stage direction with Bob McCord of CHED handling emcee duties. Adjudicating this year was Walt Grealis of RPM with an assist from Davey John McLachlan of Studio City Musical Ltd.

Taking top honours in the Class A Union category with a score of 85 out of a possible 100 was Griffin, a local group. Their prizes consisted of three hours of free studio time arranged by GRT of Canada Ltd., in conjunction with Tommy Banks' Century II Productions. The tape will be the property of the group with GRT having the first option of listening to the demo. Runners up to Griffin were Bacchus with 75 and Butler

MUSIC STUDENTS ON KEEBLE CABLE

Through the co-operation of the Royal Conservatory of Music and the Toronto Daily Star, Keeble Cable, a CATV service in the Metropolitan Toronto area, will present a series of weekly half-hour programs featuring outstanding students of the Conservatory in recital. Said Dr. David Ouchterlony, principal of the Conservatory, "Activities . . . are at their height in late May and early June, and our students are at the peak of their form . . . Therefore we're planning to produce the entire series in the span of a week or ten days in the early part of June, although the programs will not actually be broadcast until the beginning of the next television season in September."

The programs, to be produced at the expense of the Toronto Daily Star, will be shown in the Metro Toronto area, by most cable systems, according to Gordon Keeble, president of Keeble Cable, and will also be made available for national distribution.

MARCH RECORD PRODUCTION INCREASES

Canadian manufacturers produced some 4.8 million phonograph records in March of this year, as opposed to 4.73 million in March of 1972. Pre-recorded tapes took a gigantic leap over the year, with 950,784 eight track cartridges and cassettes being produced in March, 1973, as compared to 561,234 in the same month last year. Additional information on record manufacturing statistics may be had from Statistics Canada by ordering their Service Bulletin, Miscellaneous Industries, Volume 1, No. 2.

The Class B non-union category winner was Cypress with a score of 80. Their prizes consisted of the Tommy Banks Trophy; one hundred dollars worth of records from Capitol Records (Canada) and one month of free rehearsal space in the rehearsal rooms of Studio City Musical Ltd.

Individual trophies went to Best Drummer - Steven Lemiski of Paladin's Ride (Keen Kraft Music Ltd.); Best Guitarist - Ray Sabourin/Prairie (National Music Ltd.); Best Vocalist - Rob Martin/Prairie (Robert Lang Entertainment Productions); Best Bass Player - Kim Solar/Meadowlark Lemon (Arcade Music Centre Ltd.); and Best Keyboard Player - Tim Hurlburt/Cypress (National Music Ltd.)

RPM arranged with the Kiwanis for the awarding of an RPM Special Award for originality which went to Blackjack from Athabaska.

The Edmonton Kiwanis Music Festival is the largest of its kind in Canada, and, with the introduction of the rock competition, has increased its popularity in the Edmonton area. Those wishing to sit in on the competition were charged one dollar which helped offset some of the expenses. An added attraction during intermission was local group Sage, who appeared through the courtesy of the Edmonton Musicians & Union, Local 390.

ISAAC HAYES TO O'KEEFE FOR A WEEK

Stax recording artist and Academy Award winner, Isaac Hayes, is inked into Toronto's O'Keefe Centre for a week-long stay, May 21-26. One of the best known success stories in American black music, Hayes climbed from the Tennessee cotton fields to the Academy Awards stage to receive an Oscar for his score of the film "Shaft".

Hayes will appear with the Isaac Hayes Movement and Hot, Buttered and Soul, a trio of female vocalists. Stax product is distributed in Canada by Polydor Records of Montreal.

UNION COMPLAINS TO CRTC RE NO RADIO AIR

The Sudbury and District Labour Council recently grabbed a lot of press publicity across Canada for their presentation of UK recording group The Strawbs in a Sudbury concert May 19. The Council hit the newspapers when it complained to the Canadian Radio-Television Commission about the refusal of local radio stations to play the Strawbs' latest single record.

The single, "Part of the Union", speaks of "always get my way if I strike for higher pay" and of "the lies of the company spies". The labour group claims anti-union feeling is behind the decision of Sudbury radio not to air the record.

Chuck Babcock, station manager of CHNO, said no pressure had been placed on his station by International Nickel Company, the city's largest employer. But Babcock did

HI PRODUCTIONS OFF WITH HAYMER SINGLE

Hi Productions, a Vancouver-based production company, bows the scene with a new label concept. Initial single release is by Denis Haymer on the Jayham label. There is no plug side, as such. One side, "Through Your Eyes" is considered the rock side showing an orange label. This side was a co-penning of Peter Jaeger and George A. Nicholson. The other side, a yellow label, "When There Is Love" was written by Peter Jaeger and is considered programming material for the Adult Contemporary station. Both songs are published by Cerise Music.

Haymer is a new vocalist from Vancouver. The production took place in Vancouver with the mother plates being manufactured in Los Angeles. There is no information on national distribution.

PROGRAMMING ADJUSTED ON NORTHERN GROUP

Programming adjustments which have brought four northern Ontario radio stations into a contemporary music format have now been completed, according to staffers of the newly-reorganized Northern Broadcasting System. Previously, stations CFCH, CKGB, CJKL and CJTT were featuring middle of the road, but have now switched to contemporary. (Certain records, though, are classed "restricted" from certain time blocks.) Record companies are asked to add full contemporary record service at all four radio stations. A limited amount of country programming has also been retained on the stations.

The programming adjustments came about with the recent purchase of four Thompson-Davies radio stations by a company which has now become one of the Canadian broadcasting biggies, namely Northern Broadcasting System. The firm is headed by Irving Zucker and managed by Robert Ancell. The Northern group consists of one FM station (CKGB-FM Timmins), three French AM stations (CFCL Timmins and satellites CFLK Kapuskasing/CFLH Hearst), and four English AM stations (CFCH North Bay, CKGB Timmins, CJKL Kirkland Lake and satellite CJTT New Liskeard).

say "after reviewing the record, we decided not to play it. This is a major labour town and everyone who thinks of a company thinks of Inco . . . it's inflammatory." He said policy might be different if the record was Top 25 but at the time it ranked 72 on the RPM national single survey.

Meantime at CKSO, personnel there indicated that the decision not to air the record was made without consulting Inco.

CRTC spokesmen in Ottawa, commenting on the complaint filed by the Sudbury and District Labour Council, said the Commission would never force any radio station to play any specific record.

Do-it-yourself Canadian content regulations

Who says the CRTC doesn't listen to broadcasters? In the new proposals for an FM radio policy, the CRTC says, "In the past, some broadcasters have urged the Commission to permit them to determine self-imposed levels of content in recorded music."

It is true that many broadcasters have said that if the AM regulations had not been imposed on them, they would have accomplished as much or more on their own. To this day, many broadcasters still say that if the AM Canadian music content regulations were withdrawn, the record industry would move ahead much faster.

So with the FM regulations, the CRTC will allow each station to indicate what they think is fair as to the amount of CanCon they can provide without affecting their programming.

It will be interesting to see just how high and just how low some of the broadcasters will go with their percentage.

Obviously the Commission does react to suggestions. In this new do-it-yourself formula of regulations, Canadian content is an outstanding example.

The first question that comes to mind, is whether the CRTC already has air checks of most or all Canadian stations and already know what they have programmed in Canadian content without regulations.

It must seem obvious that the CRTC could very well know what FM can do without any legislation, and now it is asking the stations to make a firm commitment on what they would like to do.

In case you would like to see the section of the FM proposals that deals with CanCon, we have reprinted it herewith:

"The Commission wishes to assure an enlarged exposure on FM for a broader variety of Canadian creative talent.

"The Commission recognizes that the contributions of Canadian artists differ widely in those areas of recorded music where the Commission expects FM most significantly to broaden its range of selection. In the past, some broadcasters have urged the Commission to permit them to determine self-imposed levels of content in recorded music. Accordingly, the Commission will not impose, for an interim period, requirements in this regard. Rather, it will invite suggestions from all FM broadcasters as to appropriate levels that should be achieved. Regulation may remain unnecessary if broadcasters concert their views and efforts to achieve effective and creative ways of involving Canadian talent in their music programming.

"The Commission is aware that the full exploitation of FM sound characteristics is achieved particularly in the performance of extended musical works and wishes to encourage the broadcast on FM of both traditional and contemporary works of this nature. The Commission will give the highest consideration and encouragement to the broadcast of extended works written, performed and produced by Canadians in Canada."

Record companies probably don't realize the full impact of the FM proposals and their possible effect on recorded music.

As FM grows in popularity, with the public, the FM regulations will become increasingly important to record exposure.

Each year, the number of FM receivers that are being sold and listened to is having a greater and greater effect on record sales.

FM will offer much more variety in music to the public. As more and more music is exposed, record sales will be realized.

Just an observation from this quarter; as radio in Canada becomes more and more involved in Canadianism, it will be necessary for the broadcast industry to exert a genuine effort to cooperate with the Canadian record makers in an effort to help create new stars and more recordings.

RYMAN/MCA CONTEST FOR NEIL DIAMOND

Neil Diamond's MCA product is getting a well deserved shot in the arm throughout the western provinces through MCA's promotion rep, Barry Ryman. Underway now and showing good returns is a contest that ties-in radio station CKNW New Westminster and Surrey Place Shopping Centre. MCA supplied the station with two hundred Diamond albums to be used in Surrey Place's Anniversary promotion that commenced May 9 and runs through June 2nd. In exchange for the albums, Diamond product is being featured in all of Surrey Place's newspaper ads as well as being mentioned in all of Surrey Place's commercial on-air ads which are run on various radio stations throughout the Lower Mainland.

Over the hump and into Calgary, Ryman has arranged a one thousand dollar Neil Diamond contest to commence June 4th on CKXL. The contest is to be run in two stages with two - Diamond albums to be given away every hour and the grand prize - a $1000.00 Birks diamond tagged The Neil Diamond.

The on-air game works on the premise that the radio station has Neil Diamond locked in a hotel room somewhere in the city. Listeners phone in to "knock" on one of these doors, with the jock acting as a guide. A rotating cart opens the door to humorous sound effects ie. a dog barking, woman screaming and the occasional clip from a Diamond hit. If the listener gets one of the sound effects, an album is awarded. If the door reveals a Diamond clip, the listener gets an album and becomes eligible for the draw on the diamond.

The draw for the diamond will be made on the Donny Burns show, June 18th.

CHED in Edmonton is running a similar contest with a $500. diamond as the grand prize.

finally to Australia. With all this education behind him he decided to explore the commercial music field. After cutting several radio commercials and doing back-up vocalist work for record sessions, he finally manipulated a solo album which was released on EMI throughout Australia. His next stop was Canada where he met Willi Morrison, an aggressive Scot who was tying up loose ends for Beechwood/Capitol Music. Needless to say Morrison moved in and signed Erikson to a songwriting contract with Capitol Music-CAPAC. Songwriting contracts are useless without a record release on a progressive label. Morrison, Kulin and Matthews agreed that Erikson had great potential and that United Artists was the label to do it for him.

Morrison and Ian Guenther took Erikson into RCA's Toronto studios and produced, for their own Three Hats Production company, Erikson's first album, "Aerogramme". The album, United Artists' first totally Canadian set, features six Erikson originals as well as penning by Gene MacLellan "Ain't No Telling", "Everybody's Going"; Shirley Eikhard "Right On Believing"; and Joan Guenther "Aaron's Song".

In an effort to zero in on the contemporary stations, it was decided to cull "Midnight Road" and "Enough Of God" from the album and release this as his first single. Erikson and U.A. found they were dealing with the world's toughest programmers. He made an exceptional impression with Adult Contemporary programmers and was able to influence some of the break-out markets and a couple of the majors - but nothing extraordinary. However, both Erikson and United Artists were mature enough to realize that the brass ring is often hard to catch and that perseverance usually pays off. What Erikson had going for him was a record company that wasn't about to be cooled by lack of action and a hustler like Willi Morrison who obviously had the backing of the giant Capitol Music. The groundwork was laid, U.A.'s parent company was impressed and released the Erikson single throughout the U.S. and the search was on for a follow-up release. Although Erikson was ready to go back into studios to lay down a couple more sides, there was so much belief in the album that it was decided to lift another single, with "Carnival Town", written by Erikson making it as the plug side and Gene MacLellan's "Ain't No Telling" as the flip. Again, the action was laboriously slow but this side is showing good signs of being a long, drawn out winner.

It's difficult to tag Erikson. One might assume that he's on the folk kick because of his heavy message effort: "... in the forest the beauty is quiet and slow and pays no regard to man except to surrender a little now and then; but you know that the trees will get it all back in time..."; but then he destroys you with "Aerogramme". So, what is he really? Probably many things to many people - perhaps that's the secret of success for Erikson.

HAHN PUBBERIES GENERATES ACTION

Bob Hahn, who heads up Laurentian/Rideau publishing houses, has moved back into prominence with the release of album product in the U.S. Hahn is very high on the album releases of Billy Mysner and Rick Neufeld and is finding strong U.S. interest in Neufeld compositions. There are now twenty Laurentian copyrights out in the U.S. with Polydor's "The Gentlemen" introducing ten Laurentian instrumentals.

The new Keith Barrie deck, "Apalachicola" is included in the Rideau catalogue. Ready for release is a single and a follow-up album by a new Canadian writer/artist, Lisa, of which eight compositions are published by Laurentian. Also ready are two more originals by Billy Mysner and two by Cliff Jones and product pending by another new artist, Cal Dodd. Five songs have been covered in French which makes a grand total of forty-nine releases. Says Hahn: "There is an increasing demand for good Canadian product."

GOLD

For the sixth consecutive time, Neil gets a RIAA gold LP. "Hot August Night" follows in the tradition of "Moods", "Stones", "Touching", "Taproot" and "Gold".

Brandnewlps - May releases are ready. Roger Daltrey's LP is dangerous. The record needs loud volume, undivided attention and any "help" you can get. As stated previously, Roger's 45 "Giving It All Away" is only a fragment of a great album. Speedy Keen's first project since Thunderclap Newman's "Something's In The Air" is on MCA. Speedy's unique style comes through on all cuts. Al Kooper's first production on his Sounds Of The South label is the Mose Jones Band featuring good strong commercial rock with a slight Kooper feel. D'ya like yer acappella? Well how about a new Persuasions record called "We Still Ain't Got No Band". Fantastic vocals (without the help of a band) from the group that usually tour with Cheech & Chong. That's it. Four excellent items that all need a musical home.

Thecontinuing saga: Dobie's "Drift Away" LP has healthy bullets; BB 72* CB 76* and RW 85*. Wishbone are selling out in concerts all across the U.S. and sales are very genuinely huge. Wishbone Four; BB 58*, CB 78* and RW 77*. Conway Twitty (America's no. 2 male country singer) and Loretta Lynn both have fantastic chart albums and singles.

Small records, big holes - R. Daltrey "Giving It All Away" J.J. Walker "L.A. Freeway" B. Ruzicka "Lately Love" (play at CHUM, CHED, CKGM, CKLW, CKRC, CFRN, CFCE, CJOB, CKY, CKXL, CKNW, CJCA).

Columbia leads way in pressing

With almost two years of operation behind it, Columbia Records' fully automated pressing plant is coming into its own. The inevitable teething problems to be experienced in establishing such a complex operation have been overcome and according to Columbia's vice president in charge of manufacturing, Red Simpson, the plant is now one of the most efficient and precise in the world.

The plant went on line in July of 1971 following an intensive period of research and development by Columbia Canada and its international affiliates worldwide. The heart of the new operation is a strictly protected secret. The presses, which are a result of concentrated and expensive development by CBS, are reputed to be the finest in the world. Columbia is apparently convinced of that; they refuse photographers the privilege of photographing any press in its entirety. In addition the presses are protected by numerous patents.

The twenty six presses in Columbia Canada's set-up represent a considerable capital investment. However, since they require only minimal human assistance to operate, it is expected that the high initial cost will be more than offset by labour economies and greater consistency of product. In fact, in the less than two years that the presses have been operational, rejection rate has been extremely low.

Sophisticated electroplating equipment

The presses are backed up by an extensive and complete record manufacturing and packaging facility. The company boasts a completely up-to-date lacquering room, which, according to Simpson, is much in demand; total mastering and electro-plating equipment; as well as the inevitable end of line packaging equipment. Columbia's associate company, Shorewood Packaging, has brought the same kind of modernization to the packaging of Columbia-pressed product with their patented jacket-fabricating system.

Tape duplicating set-up

Although many of the technical aspects of the Columbia presses remain shrouded in mystery and secrecy, it is generally recognized that the plant is capable of producing well in excess of 100,000 units daily. According to Fred Wilmot, Columbia's head man, this huge capacity will be well put to use. Wilmot anticipates that Columbia's presses will be responsible for almost a third of all album product pressed in this country in the near future.

If the quantities being worked with are gigantic, the company is equally concerned with quality. According to Simpson, only the best vinyl compound is used; re-mixed vinyl being carefully controlled. In its quest for quality, Columbia has rejected the ultra-thin record in favour of a disc weighing somewhere in the area of 110 grams, about half-way between the traditional heavy record and the newer super light models.

The Columbia plant is based on the parent company's facility in Santa Maria, California. In fact, a representative from that fully automated plant was stationed in Canada for a considerable length of time helping to set-up the equipment here.

The Don Mills plant is the plant of the future today. To compete successfully with such an efficient operation, other major manufacturers in Canada will obviously be forced into seriously weighing their role in record pressing. Meanwhile, Columbia forges ahead, refining its production techniques, lowering its rejection rate, introducing greater economies. Canada, through the efforts of Columbia, has now entered the forefront in record manufacturing.

MERV SMITH SET FOR LP RELEASE

Merv Smith, Quality country artist, is looking good with his latest single release, "A Happy Wedding Day", a self penning. The session was taped in Nashville and is published by Pretty Picture-BMI.

Smith has just returned from Nashville where he completed an album session. The album, "Clean Clear Country", was produced by Travis Turk of Nashville's Creative Work Shop. Release is expected by the end of May.

NEW BESTSELLER: CRTC FM PROPOSALS

The latest bestseller in Canada these days is an 18-page booklet published by the Canadian Radio-Television Commission. Demands for copies of "A Proposal for an FM Radio Policy in the Private Sector" have reached such proportions that all supplies have been exhausted.

The CRTC anticipated that there would be a lot of interest in its policy paper, so it had 7000 copies printed, which is far above the normal press run. However, these were quickly snapped up and the CRTC has ordered another 1000 to fill the orders which continue to accumulate day by day.

Anyone who is interested can obtain a copy of the FM proposals at no charge, subject to a short delay in printing. They can be requested by telephoning (613) 995-8700, or writing to Monique Coupal, Secretary, CRTC, 100 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa, K1A 0N2.

TOBIAS TAPING IN UK STUDIOS

Tobias, MGM recording artist, is currently putting the finishing touches on his next album, which was taped at Air Studios in London, England. He just recently experienced a long run on the Canadian charts with his single, "I Just Want To Make Music". A follow-up release experienced strong national sales.

Accompanying Tobias on his UK trip is his brother/manager Tony Tobias. No release date has been set for the album or single release.

KRYTIUK BOWS MORNING LABEL

New on the label scene is Morning Records, a subsidiary outlet of Morning Music Limited. The new label will concentrate on MOR product and will be distributed by London Records. Present release policy calls for the release of a new album the 1st of every month with outstanding selections, culled as singles, to be released two weeks prior to the album. These releases will be mailed to all AM, FM and FM-stereo English and French stations having a MOR format.

Initial release was Werner Drexler and His Go-Go Sound with "Western Saloon" (MOS 1000) and Fred Forster and His Orchestra with "Candy Girl" (MOS 1001).

Set for June release is Drexler's "Feeling Fine" set to be followed by the July release of Forster's album "Enjoy Yourself". Mark Altman, general manager of Morning Music Limited, will supervise the affairs of the new label.

The above announcement was made by Jury Krytiuk, president of Morning Music Limited.

MURRAY/CAMERON NORTH OF 60

Capitol recording star, Anne Murray, and her tour mate, John Allan Cameron, who records for Columbia recently completed a tour of Northern Canada, a first for major Canadian recording stars. Their tour, arranged by Bruce Davidsen of the Vancouver-based International Promotion Consultants, was a tremendous success and pointed up the need for similar touring by name acts.

While in Churchill, Manitoba, the Murray/Cameron team experienced a "for-the-first-time" adventure - a dog-sled ride, courtesy Jane Sherman.

Other highlights of their eight-day tour will be broadcast on CBC Radio's "Showcase '73" series Saturday May 26 at 5:03PM on the AM network and at 1:03PM on the FM network. Additional glimpses of the tour that took them to Flin Flon, Yellowknife, Inuvik and Whitehorse will be included on "The Entertainers" Sunday May 27 at 1:03PM.

CODY/KING/ COLD BLOOD

Sunday May 13, 1973

Was it a night to remember? . . . in order of appearance . . . Cold Blood, featuring Lydia Pense, Freddie King Blues Band, and Commander Cody and his Lost Airmen. The setting - the O'Keefe Centre.

As emcee Jim Bauer pointed out at the start of the evening, the O'Keefe was by no means full.

Cold Blood, featuring Lydia Pense as lead female vocalist, started out the show. They were good and funky, but that's about it. They could have been better because essentially they are a fine band. Still, horn fans were pleased. They did some material from their latest album, "Thriller" and tried to get the audience up onto their feet, but couldn't. It was surely not a good introduction to Cold Blood.

The Freddie King Blues Hour proved to be the most enjoyable part of the whole concert. King, accompanied by a back up band which included his brother on bass, did what he does best . . . the blues. Along with the other four group members, the Blues Hour ended up being the most stimulating set of the show. "Ain't no Sunshine" and "Get Down" were just two of the numbers that combined to make a rock/blues set that could be rated "very good". If Freddie King won new fans to his already established following then it was at this concert. Following the concert date, the Blues Band played a one week engagement at the El Mocambo.

Although Commander Cody and his Lost Planet Airmen were the headline act, they made no headlines. It looked like they had the wrong audience because even though they were quite spectacular with their own brand of guitar twanging country rock and rolling, the audience began to thin out. But the ones who stayed seemed to take in what the Airmen were dishing out. The Airmen, including pianist Commander Cody use many and varied instruments to create what could possibly be termed as countrified rock and roll. The truck drivers in the audience kept on trucking to the truck driving numbers and everybody got a rush off the "Hot Rod Lincoln" rendition. There was no encore.

It was basically a quiet night at the O'Keefe Centre /Saul Podemski

PROKOFIEV Violin Concerto No. 1
Violin Concerto No. 2

Stoyka Milanova - Violinist
Bulgarian Radio and Television Symphony Orchestra conducted by Vassil Staphanov
SELECT CC-15.082

Select Label which is distributed in Canada by London Records offers a second release by the young Bulgarian violinist Stoyka Milanova. Her first release was a recording of the Violin concerto of J.S. Bach on Select CC-15.041. Here we find her in considerably different repertoire, performing the two Violin Concertos by Serge Prokofiev. The performances are exciting and technically fluent, with alert orchestral support. Much of the music's fantastic poetry is sensitively realized. Sound and pressings are excellent.

MAKE WE JOY
The Festival Singers of Canada
POLYDOR 2917 009

It is a rare event when one can rejoice for the release of a Canadian produced recording of Canadian artists. But the event is made doubly significant when the artists are Canada's Festival Singers which are second to none in the world today. The beautifully recorded Polydor disc is a joint project of the Composers, Authors and Publishers Association of Canada, Limited, and the Canadian Association of Broadcasters. The works selected are by a dozen Canadian composers including Godfrey Ridout, Kelsey Jones, Harry Freedman and Norma Beecroft. Featured with the choir in some works is another distinguished Canadian ensemble,

"The Canadian Brass" who perform with the Festival Singers in many of their concerts and tours. One word of criticism. Whoever designed the jacket has neglected to name the Canadian Brass as assisting artists and has also left off the name of Elmer Iseler, the group's brilliant director. Strange, how unprofessional we get when a Canadian classical production is involved!

WATTS PLAYS CHOPIN
Andre Watts - Pianist
COLUMBIA M 32041

The young American pianist Andre Watts has in his short career attracted a large and enthusiastic following. His many fans should be pleased with this Chopin recital which features for its major work the Sonata No. 2 in Bb minor Op. 35 which includes the famous Funeral March. The Fantasia in F minor Op. 49 which follows is one of Chopin's most inspired masterpieces, and the recital ends with three Etudes, one from Opus 10, and two from Opus 25. A well planned programme, smoothly executed.

SKY-SAILS
Text and electronic music by Ann Southam
mhc Company MH-93

Those of you who are interested in Electronic organized sound should not miss this important Canadian release produced by the mhc company, 359 Howland Avenue, Toronto, M5R 3C1, Ontario. Its creator, Ann Southam, is a graduate of the Faculty of Music of Toronto, and has studied composition with Dr. Samuel Dolin and electronic music with Gustav Ciamaga. She is composer-in-residence with the Toronto Dance Theatre, and an instructor in electronic music at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. The cover is a very beautiful watercolour by William Ronald and a 12 x 12 reproduction is included inside the jacket. I hope this album gets the kind of promotion and exposure it deserves.

BRAHMS A German Requiem
Four Serious Songs

Edith Mathis, Soprano; Dietrich Fischer - Dieskau; Edinburgh Festival Chorus
London Philharmonic Orchestra
Daniel Barenboim - conductor and pianist
DGG 2707 066

The stars of this performance are two of Europe's top artists, Edith Mathis and Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau. Their eloquent performances are superbly captured by Deutsche Grammophon's excellent sound. The London Philharmonic Orchestra was formed in 1932 by Sir Thomas Beecham and Sir Malcolm Sargent who built it into one of the greatest ensembles in Britain. It is now under the direction of Bernard Haitink. It is here conducted by Jacqueline du Pre's accompanist husband, Daniel Barenboim.

CANADIAN MUSIC IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY
The Toronto Symphony Orchestra conducted by Seiji Ozawa
ODYSSEY Y 31993

The musical world of Canada and especially Toronto was saddened by the recent death of Sir Ernest MacMillan who conducted the Toronto Symphony Orchestra from 1931 to 1956. This Odyssey release is a re-issue from a previously released two record set by the Toronto Symphony which included the Berlioz Symphony Fantastique, conducted by Seiji Ozawa. The opening work is "Two Sketches for Strings on French-Canadian Airs" composed by Sir Ernest MacMillan and it now becomes a beautiful and moving memorial to this great Canadian musician. Harry Freedman's Images is a popular and well-established work thanks to the fine performance given here by Ozawa. Side two begins with Triptyque by the late Pierre Mercure. The well-recorded disc concludes with Francois Morel's L'Etoile noire.

THEY LOVE ME
Genya Ravan
Dunhill DSX5014/N

This chick's off in a new direction with her success being her vocal strength. Unfortunately many reviewers will compare her with other blues/rock belters, which would be a disservice to a fantastic talent. She's now up front, crisp and clear, since shedding Ten Wheel Drive. It's not all belting. She's soft and almost manageable with "I'll Be With You" co-written by herself and her mentor, keyboard genius, Jim Price. The .43 cut of "You Got The Blue" will probably receive extra play from the progressive FMers and with a hefty guitar assist from John Uribe, "Don't Press Me" has all the earmarks of being strong single material.

LONG TIME REMEMBERING
Allan Capson
Marathon ALS355/C

Another Maritimer, Capson does up a fine set with an impressive back-up taped at Eastern Sound. He mixes originals with standards which complements his own unique styling. Contains his current hit "Love's Necessary Things". Check his country "Bridge Over Troubled Waters".

YESSONGS
Yes
Atlantic SD3100-P

If nothing else, Yes wins the packaging race with this three-disc, triple fold, four-colour effort. The music is almost as worthwhile. Raunchy, bluesy rock with definite and proven progressive young adult appeal. Many of the instrumental tracks tend to be a little too lengthy to maintain interest throughout, but overall, it's an exciting and powerful album.

I CAN SHOW YOU THE MORNING
Tom Kelly
Much CHLP 5006/K

An exceptionally strong folk country voice that displays a confidence seldom found on Canadian records. Contains his current happenner "Freedom Song" but don't overlook "Jennifer" and "Sing You A Love Song". Excellent use of steel (Ronn Dann) and weird subtlety on other instruments, enhancing Kelly's voice. Produced at Montreal's Studio Six by Bill Hill.

HANK SNOW SINGS GRAND OLE OPRY FAVOURITES
RCA APL1-0162

One of the popular Opry stars, Snow has been part of the Nashville scene since 1950 and here gets into some of the big ones including his current hit "North To Chicago" penned by Les Pouliot. The Nova Scotia legend is "right on" with "Everytime I Love Her", written by Monument's newest find Larry Gatlin.

COME ON BACK
Billy Stoltz
Big Wheel BW1201

Stoltz is one of the big country voices out of the east. Unfortunately he doesn't have national distribution. Copies obtainable through Rada Pressing, Vancouver. No info on writer or where album was taped. Stoltz is from Calgary. Title song released as single.

MAGIC MUSIC
Tamarac SKP1004/M

One of the original rock and roll groups who have retained their image of putting out fine original material, Cycle again bow the album scene. Set contains their current single release "Magic Music". Raunchy rock and ballady rock, Cycle keeps it all within their own clever styling of the music of today. Set adaptable to Contemporary and Adult Contemporary formats. Produced by group member Paul Clinch at Toronto's Sound Canada Studios.

HAGGARTS/ANDERSON/OWENS HEADLINE GARDENS SHOW

Jim and Don Haggart have been asked to headline a Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens show with Columbia's Lynn Anderson and Capitol's Buck Owens. Date is May 25, with the promoters listed as Community Parole Inc. Anchor man for the show is John McNamara who asked the Haggarts to participate in the Gardens show after catching their act at the Horseshoe. Of course the Haggarts have a natural tie-in with the parole system through their current country hit "Pictou County Jail" on the Arpeggio label.

The Haggarts, along with McNamara, will be canvassing the Toronto area over the next few weeks setting up television, radio and press interviews to bring attention to the big show. Not yet confirmed are ten Canadian acts as well as several other international names.

30,000 NEW PAUL SIMON LPs SOLD BY COLUMBIA

Charlie Camilleri, national promotion director for Columbia Records, reports unusually quick acceptance at the retail level for new single and album product by Paul Simon. Simon's new album "There Goes Rhymin' Simon" was shipped last Friday (18), a few days later than in the U.S., because of a minor production hassle that was resolved by bringing album covers up across the border. Camilleri reported that, two days before the shipping date, orders sitting at the Columbia order desk totalled 30,000 pieces.

Interest in the new Simon release has been sparked by his new single "Kodachrome" which is now airing on approximately half the key contemporary stations in Canada so far. The single, out two weeks before the album release, gained unusually quick radio airplay, with most stations giving it an "automatic add" to playlists within a couple of days of receipt.

A WEEKLY FEATURE IN RPM
DESIGNED FOR CANADIAN

Programmers

Now's the time to complain

The discussion of the CRTC's proposals for an FM policy is now starting to roll. Management at most of Canada's FM stations has now begun collecting the opinions of program directors, music directors and chief announcers for presentation in a radio station brief. This is a vital process, submitting reaction to the CRTC on its plans, because once the rules are final there will be no changes made. The time to make your objections is now.

To assist in this process we will recap the highlights of the CRTC proposals that are of particular interest to programmers. (For a full discussion, see RPM 5/5/73.)

— FM programming must be of higher quality than AM. While AM stations utilize a "rolling format", FM stations must develop specialized programs with themes running through them, and schedule them in blocks. Programming should widen the listener's mind and open him up to new experiences. New shows that haven't been heard before on radio must be developed, so listeners have more variety between different stations.

— Automation and programming FM as a "sideline" to AM must come to an end. These practices encourage non-creative programming and will not be tolerated.

— The need for new programs will lead to the development of new program production houses, and the CRTC will encourage such companies.

— Music will still be a major part of FM fare, but the CRTC wants more spoken word programming to be added. Music types used should be those that are not usually heard on other stations in the area. Announcers should be knowledgeable about music on the air instead of just giving song titles. No minimum CanCon quota imposed for the present but stations will be rewarded for airing "extended musical works", contemporary or traditional, if they are 100% Canadian.

— All simulcasting between AM and FM to be terminated.

— FM news to be different from AM. FM news should be longer, differently-written, and air at different times than on the parent AM station.

— Programs to come before commercials in station planning. Time limit of 10 minutes per hour stays as is, but CRTC favours clustering of spots to hold down number of interruptions. Irritating style announcements forbidden.

— Community members should be given time blocks to develop new shows on FM.

— Student groups and community members will be helped financially by the CRTC so they can get licences and develop new radio programming ideas.

— A new set of program categories to be introduced to better describe and clarify all the different types of programming that could be used on both AM and FM stations. New "proof of performance" rules to be introduced to encourage more variety in programming on both AM and FM, using the new categories.

The Programmers IN YOUR EAR

— Discussions to get under way on minimum standards of professionalism for broadcasters, both AM and FM. Accent is to be on higher quality programming on both AM and FM stations, with minimum requirements in the areas of "programming management, production, personnel performance, service to the intended audience, programming and schedule development . . . in short, all the areas which, taken together, constitute the underlying framework on which highly professional programming depends".

One of the biggest complaints so far in the discussions is of the vague wordings used throughout the proposals. "I wish the CRTC would say what it really means in its proposals," said one programmer. "The whole thing is so unclear that I don't know what is acceptable. When they talk about spoken word . . . that format doesn't exist any more on AM, so maybe a good length for a spoken word feature on FM should be five minutes. Five minutes on FM would be a lot more than AM, but the CRTC might be thinking in terms of a one-hour block. They haven't made this clear at all, so how can we react to it intelligently?"

Another programmer's reaction was to question why no distinction was made between a large and a small market. "In a small market, fine, the FM station can have a four-hour big band show, a progressive rock time period, some classical shows and maybe some country. The variety of programming will be good for the market. But in Toronto, for example, there are many more stations. It would be sensible to allow them to specialize more than in small towns, because there is already a bigger freedom of choice. But what has the CRTC said about this . . . nothing! They have placed big and small markets in the same category and told everyone to get into a mixed bag."

Yet a third reaction was to wonder about the new AM/FM programming categories. "Without those categories, I can't even begin to prepare a CRTC brief," said one FM music director. "They've put an August 27 deadline on the FM proposals, but there's no indication when the categories will be released. Those categories should be made public so I can see how much we already have in each category and so I can theorize as to what program types we would be able to introduce on the station. Without those categories, the discussion can't even get off the ground. The CRTC should either release the program categories immediately, or cancel the August 27 deadline for receiving comments."

And so the discussion continues. Make your feelings known, otherwise when the summer's over you could be staring a bunch of ridiculous new regulations in the face. Or worse still, the radio business could cease to be a profitable one, and you could be out of a job. So put your comments on paper and send them to the CRTC or to RPM. But do it soon.

CFRB WANTS TV TOO BUT NIXES BUSHNELL

Standard Broadcasting Ltd. of Toronto, operator of CFRB and CKFM, has long wanted to add a television arm, but it looks as if they will wait for a while longer. Standard has dropped its option to acquire control of Bushnell Communications Ltd. of Ottawa, apparently because the Ottawa television and cable company refused Standard a look at certain Bushnell information.

In a brief statement, Standard president Thornton Cran said that CFRB's company was "not afforded an opportunity to conduct the customary investigation of the business and affairs of Bushnell before exercising its option." The Toronto company had arranged in mid-March to buy between 51 and 55 per cent of Bushnell's 1.7 million issued shares from Western Broadcasting of Vancouver who hold the controlling interest and have been told by the CRTC to get rid of it. The Bushnell purchase would have cost Standard $15 per share (shares traded at $10.50 the day before on the Toronto exchange).

Bushnell claimed its refusal to let Standard Broadcasting check its files was a legal matter, that shareholders hadn't agreed to the release of information. Western president Frank Griffiths, now left without a buyer for the shares it must sell, said "all attempts to remedy Bushnell's refusal have been frustrated" but that he would keep trying.

HEARING DATE SET RE THUNDER BAY RADIO

The Canadian Radio-Television Commission last week fixed the date of the hearings to licence a new Thunder Bay AM radio station. There are seven competing applications which will be heard in Ottawa's Skyline Hotel commencing June 26. The 800 KHz frequency in Thunder Bay became vacant when the CRTC denied a renewal application submitted by CJLX.

Four of the applicants are representing companies to be incorporated. They are Richard George Andison of Thunder Bay; Walter J. Clemens of Thunder Bay; Alden E. Diehl of Windsor; and F. Baxter Ricard of Sudbury. There are three applications from already-incorporated bodies. One is from National Dream Corporation of Thunder Bay. The CBC has submitted an application for 800 KHz. And the final applicant was CFPA Thunder Bay, which wants to move onto a better frequency and abandon their present 1230 KHz set-up, which is currently only licenced for 1000 watts day and 250 night.

FINAL CHAPTER IN "NEWS CENSORSHIP"

What hopefully is now the final chapter in the controversial "CAB news censorship discussions" has come to pass with the Canadian Association of Broadcasters' rejection of the proposals at the CAB's recent annual meeting. Though the CAB likes the idea of improving the media-police relationship, the plan to put down regulations formally on paper was voted down by the member stations.

Thus the CRTC will not have to issue a final decision on the case, which would embarrass broadcasters. The Commission's last statement following its public hearing on the matter, was in the form of a "public notice" and the affair now seems likely to die at this stage.

A five-page statement outlining the proposed relationship between police and media became public in February. CAB president Don Hamilton, still sensitive of the bad publicity the document had caused with its overtones of censorship of news, reiterated that he felt the newspapers had blown the document far out of proportion. He repeated in his comments what the CRTC had said earlier, that the public right to know comes ahead of desires by police to keep information secret.

CBC STARTS ALBERTA REGION, PORTH UPPED

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has established an Alberta region with headquarters in Edmonton, marking a break from the previous system that saw Alberta radio & TV handled by the prairie regional office of the CBC (headquartered in Winnipeg). Wilfred Porth, manager of CBC Edmonton since the fall of 1970, has been named regional director.

Creation of the new region came as a result of Alberta's growing population and importance. The CBC operates Alberta radio stations CBR Calgary, CBX Edmonton, CBXT television and CBXFT French television.

Eugene Hallman of the CBC said that the new region would give stronger coverage of public affairs in the province. Additionally, he said that it would also foster more television coverage of events in Calgary, using Edmonton film and mobile units.

NEWSMEN: YOU'LL DIG HUDDLESTON SAYS CHED

Every so often in a radio station newsroom, as can happen in any field or work, employees tend to become stale and bored with the job. It may be a matter of the "same old routine" which seems dull after several months and can be reflected in half-hearted performance and a lack of fresh insights into the news, but whatever, this should be avoided.

CHED News in Edmonton have found a way to beat this problem: hire a news consultant and have a seminar with all the station guys. The results are amazing . . . better professionalism on the job, a fresh attitude and excitement in the craft and a better awareness of where a newsman fits in today's radio. CHED used J. Paul Huddleston from Los Angeles, and to quote music director Wayne Bryant, "the guys really dug him. He is a super guy and really knows his stuff."

All the CHED staffers who participated in the seminar would recommend it heartily to other newsrooms. Huddleston can be reached through News Aid, 4009½ Ocean Front Walk, Marina Del Rey, California. Phone (213) 392-9783.

PROMO MEN TO HAVE BREAKFAST W/CHARLES

Arrangements have been finalized for the next monthly meeting of the Ontario Record Promotions Association. It will be held on Friday May 25 at 9.30 AM at the Watts Restaurant in Eglinton Square, Toronto. The guest speaker will be CHUM programmer Dave Charles.

The Ontario Record Promotions Association has met for the past four months in breakfast sessions to discuss topics varying from Canadian music concerts to the best way to promote on a radio station level. The Association consists of the Ontario promotion representatives of the various record companies.

INDUSTRY DEMANDS MORE KNOWLEDGABLE JOCKS!!!!

I'm on from 6.30 to 9.30 each weeknight. And I suppose being over 20 and a lot of my listeners are under that old age, things have changed. I remember when I was in high school things like Beatles, Stones, Byrds, Herman's Hermits and all the 60's artists. Today's younger audience are growing up in the Osmond-Cassidy-Alice Cooper age. Getting kids to remember or even try to think about such passe things is kind of hard. Remember, a lot of the 60's people are either out of the picture or seldom heard of. But the thing I am trying to get at is this: the audience determines what's what most of the time. CFCY has had some interesting rockumentaries the past few months and for the most part, I try to inform the audience of current happenings with their stars as much as possible. If more jocks read a little about the people they play, they would be much more informative. I don't mean long ad-libs about David Cassidy's new found love, but simple little things like features that pop up in the news every so often. Listening to CHUM and WABC, I notice their jocks are "Up" on what's happening: How many radio people can give out the members' names of groups like Steely Dan or The Temptations or even all the Osmonds? Sure, it's not all important. But certainly, today's listeners like to hear about their stars, just like we have learned about the 60's stars. Maybe, a whole new "group" of stars are being created and listener reaction has been super to the point where they would like to hear about them. I'm making it a point to learn as much as possible about these people as I did about the 60's rock scene. A jock has to be up on current affairs. Makes listening a little more interesting. Maybe, we all can't be CHUM's . . . but a little knowledge never hurts. As for the record companies and people inside the record world . . . keep all the bio's and info you have coming . . . we appreciate it.

Music Director
CFCY Charlottetown

POOR SHOWING BY PROGRAMMERS!!!

Last Tuesday evening May 8th, I was invited by John Murphy, Ontario Promotion Manager for RCA, to Smales Coffee House in London, to see and hear a new Canadian Artist. . . . Robert David. I accepted and was looking forward to an interesting evening with other Program and Music Directors, and an entertaining evening listening to the music of Robert David.

I was asked to be there at 8:30PM, and upon arriving about 5 minutes early, I noticed I was the first one there. I was greeted by John Smale, owner of the establishment, John Murphy of RCA, and Robert David. I was puzzled as to where everyone else was, but made no comment. At about 9:15 Robert went on stage, and during the concert, two other radio people arrived . . . quite a turn-out eh?

It seems to me the poor turn-out for this show definitely reflects the attitude of some Program and Music Directors towards Canadian Talent. It's the aspiring young Canadian Musician that needs the help, encouragement, and exposure, so that one day the International Music Scene will point to Canada as where its at musically. But if this reception we showed Robert David is any indication of the Programmers feelings, we've got a long way to go to sell Canadian Talent to Canadian Radio, before we ever expect to sell it to the world.

Musically the evening was a tremendous success, and Mr. David showed all the signs of a polished and talented musician, and his new album is proof of the calibre of entertainment available to us right here at home. To all of you who missed the show, get his album. Our copy is in our album rotation, and receiving a lot of air-play. . . maybe you should be on it too!!!

The Programmers NEW ON CHARTS

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

This week, five records broke through in sales and are now well on their way to Top 20 status. Each of the following discs has scored three major chart additions this week: Clint Holmes, Sylvia, Anne Murray, George Harrison and Three Dog Night; they also appear in "New On Playlists" which indicates we can expect further growth. Here are the details on the five biggies. Clint Holmes was charted at CJBK, CKGM and CFRW (previous weeks: CJME, CKXL, CKOM, CFGO, CHUM, CKOC, CKLW and CKLG). Sylvia was charted at CJBK, CKXL and CKLG (previous weeks: CHUM, CHED, CKOM, CKOC, CKGM, CJME, CKLW and CKRC). Anne Murray hit the chart at CKOC, CKGM and CFGO (previous weeks: CHUM). George Harrison was added to chart at CJME, CKXL, and CFGO (previous weeks: CHUM, CKOC and CKLG). And Three Dog Night entered charts this week at CJME, CKXL and CKLG (from last week: CKLW and CKOC); also numerous play-listings.

Michael Tarry's "Rosalie" got its first chart numbers this week after last week saw every contemporary major but two adding the disc. Tarry is charted now at CKOC and CHED. Meantime Billy Preston has finally broken in Canada after half a year; he was charted by CFGO and CKLG this week (previously charted at CKRC, and CKLW and he has playlist action too).

The Doobie Brothers this week were charted by CKXL and CFRW, after CFGO, CKLW, CJME and CKLG did the same in previous weeks. And the new Paul Simon hit CKOC's chart (CKLG last week) and also has many playlist reports.

The Programmers NEW ON PLAYLISTS

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

This week's smash airplay record is Elvis Presley's "Steamroller Blues". It was play-listed at CKCK, CHED, CJME, CFRW and CFGO this week after CKY, CFRN and CKOC added it in previous weeks. And the "King" also has "Steamroller" charted at CKLW and CKRC.

Murray McLauchlan was added to the playlist of CKCK and CJME and to the chart of CJBK over the last seven days. Murray's previous playlists totalled CFRW, CHLO and CFRN and his charts from previous weeks were recorded at CKOC and CHUM. This is a strong record that is jumping quickly after initial play.

Dr. John was added this week to CJME and CFRW, previously it was on playlists at CHAM and CHED. The record is already on charts at: CKLG, CKRC, CKXL, CFGO, CKLW, CKGM and CKOC.

Bob Ruzicka continues to gain airplay, with CJME, CFGO and CKY jumping on this week after CKGM, CFRN, CFCF, CHED and CKLW gave it play over the last two weeks. Another Canadian act doing okay is Bearfoot, whose "Only A Soldier" went onto CFRN and CFCF this week.

The new Bette Midler was added by CFCF, CFGO and CKY this week and it is already charted at CKRC and CKOC. And Bloodstone's "Natural High" is starting to gain airplay (CFRN and CFGO adding this week).

Barry White's long-titled song went on CKCK and CKY airplay this week, after CFRW, CHED, CFRN and CFCF added it in previous weeks. It is already on chart at CKRC, CKLG and CKXL. In a similarly spread-out pattern is the New York City disc, which it CJBK and CFRN airwaves this week (joining CKOM and CFCF from previous reports). The NYC are already charted at CFGO, CKLW and CKXL.

BREAKOUT MARKETS

Five records have achieved substantial penetration into the smaller markets but the majors are not hip to them as yet. This week's "breakouts" which you should watch closely for future gains, are: James Leroy's "You Look Good In Denim"; Gunhill Road's "Back When My Hair Was Short"; Tufano & Giammerese's "Music Everywhere"; Beverly Bremers' "Run To Him"; and Tom Jones' "Letter To Lucille". Good programming according to all reports.

Fourteen other records are making action in the breakout markets and majors simultaneously. Gaining this across-the-board play are the new ones from: Elvis Presley, Sylvia, Dr. John, Doobie Brothers, Bob Ruzicka, Barry White, Murray McLauchlan, Bette Midler, Anne Murray, Popcorn, Three Dog Night, Perry Como and Tom Middleton.

HELP

Announcer with pleasant voice required for modern country station. Send tape and resume to Peter Norman, CHOO, Ajax, Ontario.

Job opening for a copywriter with ideas. The last two years the station won awards at Canadian and New York commercial festivals. Would like a copywriter to help win more awards next year. Atmosphere is informal and production facilities are great. Salary commensurate with talent. Send tape and resume to "Copy", Box 1310, Station "R" Toronto.

Man who can communicate and accept responsibility is required for B.C. station. At least two years on-air experience with good knowledge of music; good pay for the right man. Send tape and resume to operations manager Mark Allan Lewis, CJDC, 901-102nd Avenue, Dawson Creek, B.C.

Writer-reporter, preferably bilingual, required for English radio station's news department. Send tape and resume to Robert Vairo, CKGM, 1310 Greene Avenue, Montreal 215, P.Q.

CKKC Nelson is automating very shortly so morning man Tony Karman is available. Two years experience which includes CKRM Regina. Phone Tony at CKKC at (604) 352-7277 or at home (604) 352-9445. He is available immediately.

CHED needs all night man for midnight-5.30 AM airshift. Tape and resume to Keith James, CHED, 10006-107 Street, Edmonton, Alberta.

Afternoon drive announcer with at least two years experience required. Photo, tape and resume to Prog Dir, CHSJ, 335 Union Street, Saint John, N.B.

Contemporary station needs a weekend swing shift jock. Do not phone. Send tape and resume to John Mackey, CKGM, 1310 Greene Avenue, Montreal 215, P.Q.

The Programmers BREAKING & STIFFING

Just like it did at CKLW, the Edgar Winter single "Frankenstein" shot to number one this week at CKOC, up from 6 last week. Balance of top five is: Paul McCartney (up from 9), plus Dawn, Lou Reed and War. Other jumpers: Jud Strunk from 11 to 6; Clint Holmes from 15 to 10; Sylvia from 22 to 16; Peter Foldy from 20 to 17; Strawbs from 21 to 18; Murray McLauchlan from 34 to 22; George Harrison from 38 to 23; Popcorn with "Ghoststrider" from 27 to 24; and Focus from 35 to 26.

CHSJ Saint John reports that Bob Ruzicka's "Lately Love" is getting the best phone response of any of the stuff they added last week.

A record you should know about that is still breaking in a number of smaller markets, is "Touch of Magic" by James Leroy. This disc started out as top three chart material in Ottawa, which was enough to get it onto the RPM 100. It climbed to number 6 on the strength of heavy Ontario sales in the April 14 issue, but now in mid-May more stations are adding it (guess the GRT mailing was a little slow!) . . . they include CKLW Windsor (just released on Mam label in U.S.) as well as numerous Maritime and Western stations. A good song . . . and Leroy has his follow-up "You Look Good In Denim" now gaining initial Ontario airplay.

CFRW's Winnipeg breaking product: Stealers Wheel from 4 to 2; Elton John from 20 to 9; Paul McCartney from 17 to 10; Gilbert O'Sullivan from 23 to 15; and Focus from 27 to 18.

CHEC's number one in Lethbridge is Edward Bear (from 3). Breaking in sales and requests: Raspberries, Sylvia, Jim Croce, George Harrison, Clint Holmes, Three Dog Night, Tom Middleton and Anne Murray.

Biggest jumper at CFGO Ottawa: Clint Holmes from 20 to 9.

Jud Strunk exploded in London this week, pushing Dawn from Number 1 on the CJBK All Hit 29 after a month and a half in that position. Jud Strunk moved from 10 to 1. Clint Holmes also broke open and jumped from 22 to 12. And Murray McLauchlan is selling well, and was moved from 26 to 18.

The Programmers TRIBAL DRUM

CJON St. John's presented its Avalon Spring Concert on May 12th. Newfoundland's top musical talent was featured. Hottest CJON new record is Doobie Brothers which gathered huge phone requests after just a couple of airplays.

From Bob Hamilton's sheet, an idea from the U.S. which may become more common on Canadian FM as the CRTC pushes for better programming. This was done by pioneer progressive rock station KSAN San Francisco. "Broadcasting from The Record Plant the station pulled not one record from 6 PM Friday to 6 AM Monday. One group after another hit the studio and went on the air with "Absolute perfect mixing" and "an incredible sound on the radio". Groups featured included The Rowan Brothers, Jesse Colin Young, Sha Na Na, Malo, Chambers Brothers, Elvin Bishop, Rita Coolidge, Kris Kristofferson and many more for a total of 60 full hours of live entertainment." properly sponsored and promoted, this type of thing could be very successful in Canada - and what's more, the CRTC would love you for using Canadian resources in this type of "extended length presentation."

Larry Green, longtime CHUM-FM staffer who left six months ago to go with GRT, has been rehired for the summer by the progressive station. Green will look after the "Free Summer" of promotions and giveaways and do the occasional airshift as well. Green's other project, hosting "Music City" on CITY-TV-79, is soon to go into reruns for the summer.

CHEX Peterborough asking listeners to answer their phone with "the man to see is Jack McGee (a local GM car dealer). Those who use the phrase that pays when CHEX calls win $100 jackpot which builds higher if not won that day.

Marathon's Joyce Seamone dropped in to hometown Bridgewater radio station CKBW during recent Maritime tour. Dave Oickle shows her top-selling album "Testing 1-2-3"

Valdy caused a fair-sized ripple in London when he played a May 4-5-6 date at Smale's Pace. One of the best ever coffee-house crowds came out to get into the Valdy philosophy and mellow music, with all shows near capacity.

New idea for radio feature: series on "The Great Con Artists". KIIS Los Angeles just started to produce this program, which looks at the careers of people from P.T. Barnum to Clifford Irving.

The Geoff Stirling-owned FM station in Windsor, CJOM, has prepared an impressive mailer that is being circulated to ad agencies and other media people. It shows all six Windsor AM and FM stations on a graph of hours tuned per week and CJOM has the greatest figure (each listener is tuned for 9.2 hours weekly). Brochure continues: "CJOM dominates FM in Windsor. . . progressive rock takes off in Windsor market. . . dramatic increase in audience of more than 57 percent. . . CJOM becomes Windsor's leading FM station."

Choice country programming: Donna Fargo, Dave Dudley, George Hamilton IV, Tanya Tucker and the Statler Brothers are the top 5 airplays at CJOB-FM in Winnipeg. Top 5 country at CKNB Campbellton: Mel Tillis, Roy Clark, Buck Owens, Brenda Lee and Charlie Rich.

Jay Jackson, who has been PD of CHOW Welland for years and years, has now left the station with plans unannounced. Sales manager Mike Mezzo has been upped to the post of CHOW general manager and for the interim is handling PD chores and making several format adjustments on which we hope to have the details fairly soon. Latest CHOW staff addition is J. Jay Jeffrie who was formerly PD at CHSJ Saint John.

KINGSTON DJ STAYS AWAKE FOR CANCER

Air personality Gary Shannon of CKWS Kingston recently spent a period of over fifty straight hours without sleep and in the process helped raise over $1000 for the Canadian Cancer Society.

Shannon, four to eight PM man, did his CKWS program Thursday, Friday and Saturday (April 26-28) from a local shopping centre and then spent his off air hours challenging passersby to games of table hockey and table tennis. CKWS-TV hostess Jacquie Perrin and other young ladies kept Shannon company during the day, and FM announcer Wayne Cavanaugh did the same at night.

Shannon wrapped up his stint at 6PM Saturday and when he was asked how he felt, replied that he looked forward to a long shower and then watching the late show on CKWS television.

The all-time record for announcers staying awake is 240 hours. This ten-day wakeathon was accomplished by Rhett Evers of WTFM New York, back in 1965.
