Volume 19 No. 17
June 9, 1973

What happened to Cliff Edwards, who chucked the distasteful life of a wax gypsy to settle down with his wife and child and concentrate on his acting career? It's the old story, once bitten by the discobiz bug, withdrawal is almost impossible - unless you lacked talent to begin with.

Well, Cliff Edwards is back and this time he has the added vocal beauty of his wife Ann. Their vehicle, "Carry On", penned by seventeen year old Erik Fader.

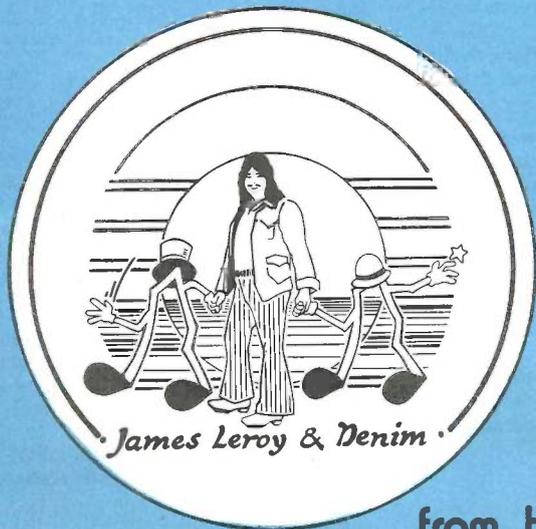

Much has been written about Cliff Edwards. Remember "Stay Awhile" and "Fly Little White Dove, Fly"? He fronted the group that made these songs known internationally - The Bells. They were seen on the "Johnny Carson Show" as well as Guy Lombardo's famous "New Years Eve" television party. But, life has its ups and downs and groups split and reform, plunge and soar. Both Cliff and his wife decided to kick the group scene - she to pay more attention to their child and he to pursue other ventures.

As a solo act, Cliff tried his hand with a Marty Reno composition, "Uncle Dad and Auntie Mom", which revealed his country side, but didn't do much more than to tell the industry that he was back in the business. However, like Edwards says: "A guy will get a hit if he happens to get a good song in that

KING CRIMSON/STRAWBS FRIDAY MAY 18, 1973.

A full Massey Hall greeted the Crimson/Strawbs concert to kick off one of the very big weekends for music for Toronto.

The Strawbs, led by Dave Cousins, lead guitarist and only original member left gave a weak opening. Equipment and sound management both contributed to this. Even their well promoted "Part of the Union" deck wasn't up to par. But as the set neared its end they managed to get it all together and did a fine stage rendition of "Tears and Pavan" from their latest "Bursting at the Seams" album. The unique vocals and combination of experienced musicians ranks them highly among their British brethren.

Then there was the usual lengthy intermission that is more than common and less than desired at rock concerts.

King Crimson is new again. Robert Fripp

AVENUE'S "ROCKS OFF" TELLS WAX HAPPENINGS

Avenue's "numero uno" Rocks Off publication joins the family of wax watchers with stories and things about G.A.S. UP and Avenue of America. Top of the action for Rocks Off goes to Abraham's Children, the group that brought G.A.S. into the fold. Their "Time" album which includes their current hit "Thank You". Contemporary and adult contemporary programmers have given a hefty push to this group. Their U.S. release is also showing signs of breaking. The Children, who recently tore up this year's Sertoma benefit in Hamilton, are currently touring the Atlantic provinces where it has been reported that an overflow of requests has necessitated in the tour being extended.

McLAUCHLAN'S SINGLE STILL SHOWING GAINS

When Columbia first released Murray McLauchlan's latest single, the A&R Department settled on the "Lose We" side as having the most potential. Country stations across the country gave a surprise boost to the single by going on the flip, "Farmer's Song". Some of the more aggressive contemporary stations tagged the "Farmer's Song" hit on first hearing. One of these was CJON in St. John's Newfoundland. Jim Sward, General Manager of CKGM in Montreal and who apparently assists, to some degree, in the programming of CJON, picked the single and recommended McLauchlan as the headliner for a special concert to be attended by members of the CRTC. Unfortunately he couldn't make the concert but he did play a special benefit concert for the musicians of Newfoundland.

In the opinion of Geoff Stirling, Chairman of the Board, comprising CJON, CKGM, CHOM, CJOM and CKWW, the McLauchlan deck was played at CJON because "they are convinced, and were convinced, that it is going to be the number one hit in the nation". All the other stations in the Stirling chain are also airing the single.

is the only member of the original group and has managed to keep the standard of Crimson high throughout the many changes that this band has undergone. Former Yes drummer, Bill Bruford, was surrounded by an elaborate assembly of drums, chinese gongs and other percussion instruments, and David Cross, another new addition, proved once again how valuable an electric violinist can be to the constituency of any band.

Crimson stuck to material from their new and only LP "Larks' Tongues in Aspic", giving the audience a good opportunity to absorb themselves into the space age symphonic rock that dominates their style. With a minimum of vocals and a maximum of improvised melody, the crowd was enveloped in a trance only to be awoken by the end of the set. An encore followed: and it was the encore that everyone was waiting for... "21st. Century Schizoid Man"... a King Crimson original. The concert was over and the audience was pleased. Saul Podemski

G.A.S. recently bowed a European giant, "Ghostrider" by Popcorn given an early send off by CKOC's Nevin Grant. Adult contemporary programmers are also play-listing this single.

MUCH'S SUMMERLEA REPS DICK JAMES

Much's publishing arm, Summerlea Music Limited, has firmed an agreement with Dick James Music Inc. whereby they will be representing their catalogue in Canada.

All copyright applications coming under control of the James' catalogue will now be looked after by the Montreal offices of Summerlea.

RCA'S AMRAN TO HOST CBC MORNING SHOW

David Amran, referred to as "The original crazy David" and "a Harpo Marx Beethoven" has settled into doing twenty shows for the CBC. He will host the network's "This Country in the Morning" sometime during July. He is also set for a Riverboat date in early June.

Amran is an "odd ball" in the wax business and has obviously made a big buck on being unique. He has many credits including the scoring of "Splendor in the Grass" and "The Manchurian Candidate". He has composed a triple concerto for full orchestra and jazz quintet. Besides being the in-house composer with the New York Philharmonic he has been a guest conductor with the Toronto Symphony - did a bit of "musical jousting" with Bob Dylan, composed an opera of "Twelfth Night" and appeared in concert at the Filmore East. He has also shared the bill with Rita Coolidge, Kris Kristofferson and Ramblin' Jack Elliott.

A believer in bringing music back to the people, Amran tried hard to prove his point with his RCA album, "No More Walls" which was followed up by his most recent album release, "Subway Nights".

LEWIS/CAMERON OFF WITH BOOT SINGLES

Latest from Boot are singles by Bill Lewis and Little John Cameron. The Lewis deck, "Sleepy Country Roads" (BT074) is receiving an extra boost from Stompin' Tom Connors for whom Lewis plays lead guitar. Bill and his brothers were, at one time, one of the most popular groups in Cape Breton. Unfortunately the group broke up with brother Bob moving to Toronto where he became associated with the Carlton Showband. Bill Lewis followed but took a different direction - playing lead guitar and fronting Stompin' Tom's band, The Rovin' Cowboys.

Little John Cameron is already known across the country from previous record releases. His latest release "Lost On The Road Again" (CN021) is on the Cynda label, a subsidiary of Boot. Cameron got his start as a member of the Sons of Erin. He split this group, married, and settled in St. John's Newfoundland, where he spends most of his time performing and adding to his song library. Two of his past pennings, "Tribute To Newfoundland" and "Sit Down Mr. Music Man" have become standards throughout the Atlantic provinces.

GEORGE HAMILTON IV RECEIVES UK HONOURS

George Hamilton IV, now emerging with what could be his biggest hit in many years, "Dirty Old Man", was recently honoured at the Fifth International Festival of Country Music in London, England. Hamilton has attended the Wembley Festival each year, the only artist to do so. He again hosted and performed at the festival, the largest yet, where he was again presented with the Billboard/Record Mirror Award as top international U.S. male country vocalist.

On hand to watch the popular Hamilton bring the audience to its feet were Hamilton's entire family, his mother, father, wife and three children. It was also announced at the Festival that a third BBC-TV series for Hamilton (as host) had been scheduled for the fall.

TSO SAYS ANCERL IS LEAVING IN 1975

The Toronto Symphony has announced that Maestro Karel Ancerl will retire as music director of the Toronto Symphony at the expiration of his contract. The news came in a press release and noted that Ancerl's contract expires in August 1975.

Frank McEachren, TSO president said "it will be a most formidable task to find a new music director" to succeed Ancerl, who quoted health reasons in giving his two-year's notice to the Symphony.

McEachren said "We are deeply conscious of the very great contribution the Maestro has made to the music scene in Toronto. I am sure his many well-wishers will be delighted to know that he intends to remain in Toronto and will continue his conducting association with our Orchestra after his retirement."

Recording records from the radio is unlawful

This comment is based on a letter from Gerry Beadle of Toronto who writes as follows:

Recently I received in the mail (as did thousands of others no doubt) a brochure from (an oil company) advertising a portable cassette recorder. In this brochure was printed the following statement describing the uses of the recorder:

Save, too, on records . . . by recording directly from radio. Lets you build a complete treasury of your favorite music while listening to AM or FM radio. Saves money on tapes and records.

This is a direct encouragement by the advertiser to get the public at large to break the laws of Canada under the copyright act. There is no mention that the unauthorized recording of the music is in fact a breach of this law and punishable in the courts of the land.

Advertisers should be banned from making such statements. If this flagrant enticement to break the law is not punishable through the courts, it should be.

With the growing popularity of cassette recorders some people who don't care if they break the law and cheat the artists, composers, authors and publishers out of royalties and record companies out of sales are, no doubt, going to continue to record radio performances but something is definitely wrong when advertisers are allowed to encourage it.

Hope you agree.

It is true that two copyrights are violated every time someone pirates a record off the radio. Both the composition and the actual recording are copyrighted. Both are protected by law against duplication by unauthorized persons no matter what the use.

Strangely enough, the public is unaware that recording records off the radio is illegal.

Don't blame the manufacturer of the recorders for putting this additional frill into the machine. It can be very handy to record certain things the radio that are not copyrighted like the speeches of the Queen or the Prime Minister. What that manufacturer shouldn't do is encourage people to break the law by recording records (or music of any kind) off the radio.

What it amounts to, is that the brochure is encouraging people to break the law. Radio stations have been known to do the same thing by encouraging their listeners to record from the radio. Strange that this should happen, since the listener then has a recording that will keep him away from the radio. Obviously the same reason radio stations don't encourage listeners to buy records (directly) and many radio stations don't want to accept advertising from record companies. It makes sense.

What can be done about it? The music publishers associations, and the record manufacturers' association should bring this to the attention of the offender. A letter would do.

It is clearly stated in the Copyright Act that such practises are violations of the Act.

It is just as unlawful as using an office copier to copy pages of a book or sheet music, and although it goes on all the time, it is hard to prevent, but above all shouldn't be encouraged.

COLUMBIA'S RODIER OPENS AT EGERTONS

Roger Rodier's first engagement in Toronto was given a boost with an opening night party by Columbia Records. The setting was Toronto's newest folk club, Egerton's, where Rodier will appear for one week (May 28-June 2).

Rodier is considered to be one of Columbia's most valuable finds from the province of Quebec and is regarded as French Canada's leading poet. A big plus is the fact that he has been accepted, to some degree, by English Canada.

It was back in October of last year when Columbia released Rodier's first single, "Listen To These Chords I Play". Rodier's product had first been previewed during RPM's C4 in Montreal and many programmers attending went away with a warm feeling toward the young Quebec artist. They later charted and playlisted the single on its release, which gave Rodier a door opener for the English Canadian market.

Now, eight months later, Columbia's A&R department have gotten around to follow-up action in the form of an album, "Upon Velveteur", plus a keepsake booklet containing the words, long hand and typed, of the selections on his new album (ES90095).

NFLD. MUSIC ON CBC-TV THIS SUMMER

Down through the years Newfoundlanders have been fond of singing, and in every cove and hamlet throughout the Island people have been singing for hundreds of years . . . singing about the joys and tragedies of their existence. And now this summer the rest of Canada will be exposed to these unique folksongs on "All Around the Circle", a CBC-TV program that has just started running in the Saturday 8PM time slot.

"All Around the Circle" has been running as a Maritimes summer replacement series and as a Newfoundland staple since 1964, but this is the first time it will have been seen nationally. The musical mixture will contain traditional folksongs of English, Irish and Scottish ancestry, old-time jigs and reels, plus country tunes of various origins. The series is produced in St. John's.

One unique feature of the program is that CBC announcer Doug Laite, besides hosting the program, also sings. The other regulars on the series are: lead instrumentalist, Ray Walsh; vocalists: Evan Purchase, John White and Carol Brothers.

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

The Programmers BOOK REVIEW

THOSE OLDIES BUT GOODIES
A Guide to 50's Record Collecting
by Steve Propes
Collier-Macmillan Canada Limited
Price - $2.45

There is a new breed of record collector who is concentrating on the golden age of rock and R&B... the 50's.

In this book Propes puts together a convenient guide to the hits of the era and makes available background on the companies, the labels and the artists. He also indicates the prices at which rare original copies are being exchanged among collectors.

The book does serve a good purpose as far as programmers are concerned. With the current trend toward programming oldies, the programmers can pick up a great deal of valuable information. The book also brings into focus some of the traditional oldies that may have been forgotten by many a programmer, and is a definite aid to young programmers who may not have been old enough to relive all the hits of the era.

Based on the readability of the pages and pages of listings, the book may even indicate to some programmers that more of the hits of the 50's should be played by radio stations trying to capture the nostalgia of the era for their listeners who are now 20 years older.

You may think that this book is going to list nothing but records that won't be available. Wrong! Many if not most of the records listed are available on LPs and on collections of past hits. What the book does do is show the oldies that were part of the beginning of the rock and R&B era.

Just think of the 16 year old who grooved to these tunes. He is now 30 to 39 years of age and maybe he would like to hear a radio station play the music of his record buying years.

BELL PRODUCT SCORES GOLD FOR QUALITY

Bell Records, distributed in Canada by Quality, is currently represented on the charts with three singles all selling more than one million copies. Top of the list is Dawn's "Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Ole Oak Tree" has now surpassed the Canadian equivalent of two million units sold which could put it in line for an RPM Platinum Award (150,000 units).

The Vicki Lawrence deck, "The Night The Lights Went Out in Georgia", a country crossover hit, has shown strong indications of chalking up two million (Canadian) sales.

The Sweet round out the activity with their "Little Willy" single, which topped the RPM 100 Singles chart May 26/73. Sales of this outing have already exceeded one million.

NEW TORONTO ROCK SHOWCASE: THE SPIGOT

Canadian contemporary musicians have yet another venue to play in Toronto with the announcement of the opening of The Spigot, a new night spot with a policy of booking two major rock acts each week.

The Spigot opened its doors on May 28th at the West Point Motor Hotel, 2285 Lakeshore Blvd. West, with Aquarius recording artists Mashmakan playing three days and being followed by Special recording artists Downchild Blues Band for three days.

Club managers Carl Georgevich and Bob Vasileff say The Spigot will combine comfortable decor with the best names in rock. The club has been lavishly decorated with wall-to-wall carpeting, a large stage, wooden ceiling beams and a dance floor. As for entertainment, the "name" status of the acts has necessitated a one dollar cover charge.

The lineup at the Spigot for the weeks after opening: Capitol's Flying Circus June 4-6; Yorkville's Manchild June 7-9; Capitol's Truck June 11-13; and Brutus June 14-16.

QUALITY'S MORTEN TO BELL CONFERENCE

Bob Morten, national promotion manager for Quality Records attended Bell's two day conference (May 17-18) at the Essex House in New York. Hosting the get-together was Bell's vice-president promotion, Steve Wax.

Top executives from the label were on hand to meet with the A&R and promotion people representing distributors from across the U.S. Discussion centred around "Information exchanges" and "creative seminars" dealing with the promotion of Bell product. The meet also gave Morten the opportunity to meet with his U.S. counterparts and to point up Canada's importance in the world record industry.

GRT'S HAPPY HOOKER GETS BOOST FROM LAW

What many recording artists would like to have happen to them has given a helping hand to Xaviera Hollander's new GRT album - it has been banned. The first show of a police state came from Peel County where their crown attorney, F. John Greenwood tagged the album obscene. Apparently he doesn't consider her books obscene because her album is recorded "rather than written, and could give forced exposure to people that might not want it", adding "I think it requires at least a test (in court) when this kind of thing comes out. It's up to us to set some sort of standard."

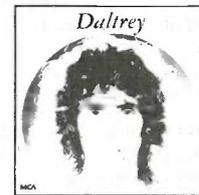

The album contains much heavy breathing involving orgies as well as a pot smoking scene.

Involved in the ban is a Sam The Record Man store in Bramalea. Chinguacousy Township police borrowed a sample copy of the album and, after a close listen, returned to the store and advised the manager that he could be prosecuted if he continued selling the album.

Howahya?

"Daltrey" is without a doubt one of the finest albums I have ever heard! Roger's single "Giving It All Away" appears BB 87*, CB 82, RW 106*. Fair trade action on an unusually good 45. The FM airplay in about 6 major Canadian cities is unprecedented.

Another good thing, "Satin Sheets" by Jeanne Pruett is already a no. 1 country single, but look here; BB 63*, CB 47*, RW 69* on their respective Hot 100's!!! The no. is MCA 40015. Please audition carefully, this is a pure Nashville sound that has a very commercial lyric.

R&B Monster

A Wand single has been creeping up on all of us and it now seems to be really happening. "Leaving Me" by the Independents goes like this... RW 19*, CB 19, BB 21*. Also... Hamilton's "Records that will be hits", Rudman's "Among the Biggies", Gavin's "Gaining in Several Markets", and Randal's "Contributor Reports" with the comment "proving to be an out-and-out monster where played". Dealers order Wand no. WND 11252.

Chart Country

Carrying on Decca's tradition, MCA keeps a strong country line-up at all times. The current trades show MCA with 14 singles and 8 albums in the charts. Radio guys - please drop me a note if you are missing any MCA country 45's needed for airplay.

Touring Artists

After several years of very very heavy sales, our pride and joy, The Mom and Dads, will appear at five dance dates in Ontario. Previously the group did a few Tommy Hunter shows in Toronto, but their dance tours out west are legendary. Ontario is as follows: June 8 Kingston, 9 Lindsay, 13 Brantford, 15 Belleville, and 16 Peterborough. Our business at hand will be to promote the great new album, "Dance With The Mom and Dads". Selections include "Tennessee Waltz", "Sweet Georgia Brown", "My Happiness", "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You", "Over The Waves", "Yes Sir That's My Baby", "Moonlight On The Manitolin", "Redwing", "Who's Sorry Now", "You Call Everybody Darling", "Wabash Cannonball", "Amazing Grace".

Comment

National sales from Neil Diamond month have been very gratifying. This particular exercise was proof positive to us that our sales and promo men work superbly together.

GOLDEN BANJO CLASSICS

Maurice Bolyer
Cachet CA1005

Combined LaBuick Sound promotion and radio play have made this album one of the top sellers in Canadian content. Produced at Sound Canada Studios (Toronto) the double record set contains a treasure of MOR listening from a Southern Medley "Camptown Races" etc. to a Salute to Al Jolson "Toot Toot, Tootsie" and others, to jigs, reels and waltzes, "Irish Washer Woman", "Till We Meet Again", "Tom Dooley" etc. Instrument backing and arranger unknown, but should be mentioned because of importance of production.

HOW ARE YOU THIS MORNING

Bob Dalrymple
Word WC5536
Produced at Vancouver's Can-Base Studios by Bob Brooks, set is remarkably well done. Dalrymple's voice is heavily contemporary-oriented with a standout performance by Jim Woodyard, lead acoustic guitar, mandolin and piano, and Doug Robertson on bass. Gospel folk have much to look forward to with this expensive session.

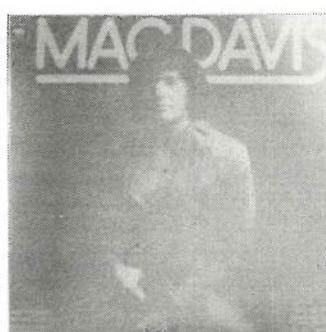

DALTREY

Roger Daltrey
Track MCA328-J
Co-produced by Adam Faith, no less, "Daltrey" is an excellent vehicle for the Who's lead singer. With the instrumentation played down a little, Daltrey really shines. "One Man Band" is our favourite cut, but the entire album must be considered a solid delight. Big things are to be expected from Daltrey as a solo artist.

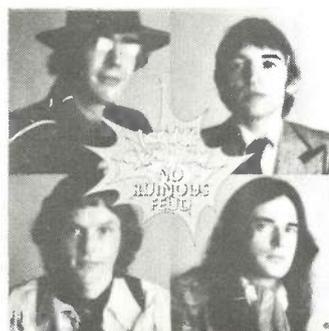

COMPARTMENTS

Jose Feliciano
RCA APL1-0141/N
Never too far off the scene Feliciano bolsters his current tour with this set which features instrumental assists from Seals and Crofts, Loggins and Messina, Leon Russell, Bill Withers, Larry Knechtel, Steve Cropper, Jesse Ehrlich and horn arrangements by Jim Horn. Seals and Crofts work on "Fail Me" exceptionally.

MAC DAVIS

Columbia KC32206/H
One of the first country artists, after Johnny Cash, to cross-over into the contemporary field, Davis should see good sales with this set which contains his current hit "Your Side of the Bed", a very lush production that almost removes him from the country market - a pity.

NO RUINOUS FEUD

Incredible String Band
Warner Bros MS2139/P
One of the most aggressive of innovative groups out of the UK, the String Band incorporates oboe, bass clarinet, viola, vibraphone with a gentle mix of vocals that makes this set a must for the progressive rockers. Country and MOR programmers should give a listen to their selection of "Jigs" with Robin Williamson on the fiddle.

UPON VELVEATUR

Roger Rodier
Columbia ES 90095/H
Shades of October 1972, Rodier's "Listen To These Chords I Play" is in exciting company with soft, ballady contemporary/progressive material like "Am I Supposed To Let It By Again" with impressive guitar work by an unknown. Excellent showcase for Quebec's leading poet of today.

TWIN CITY PROMOTION FOR MONTY PYTHON GIGS

Monty Python's visit to Canada will be given a giant promotion boost by Quality Records. His two days at the Place des Arts in Montreal (June 7-8) should shape up into "sold out" houses. Quality's Quebec promoter, Nicole Dufour arranged for a ticket giveaway through CJAD, to run from May 26 through June 1st.

The Flying Circus group will be treated to an after gig party at the Picadilly Tube June 4. Press and radio types have been invited to the affair which is two fold - one to meet Python and his group and to be introduced to Toronto's newest group, Liverpool. This promotion was set up by the group's manager Vic Willson. Liverpool is a takeoff on the Beatles, dressed like Sgt. Pepper's Band and performing nothing but Beatle compositions.

BADGER "LIVE" OFF ON ATCO

England's newest recording group, Badger, bow their "live" set as their initial offering for Atco. The group is comprised of Tony Kaye (ex-keyboard man from Yes), Brian Parrish (formerly of Parrish and Gurvitz) on guitar, Roy Dyke, drums and Dave Foster, bass.

The album (SD7022) contains five Badger originals and one by Brian Parrish. Torontonians will remember Parrish when he and his partner appeared at the Friars last year. The taping took place at The Rainbow, considered one of London's popular nite spots.

CANCON PRODUCT STRONG ON CASH BOX

Though June is usually a slump month in the record business, it isn't a bad month as far as Canadian records on U.S. trade charts are concerned. The June 2 issue of Cash Box showed four Canadian singles making good progress.

Skylark's "Wildflower" held steady at 9; Edward Bear's "Close Your Eyes" was 32 with a bullet; Keith Hampshire's "First Cut Is The Deepest" was 55 with a bullet; and Anne Murray's "What About Me" was 65 with a bullet.

ANN BRIDGEFORTH DOES IT THE UNITED WAY

Anne Bridgeforth, Celebration recording artist (Quality), has been asked to be the voice of the 1973 United Appeal, now tagged the United Way. Miss Bridgeforth will perform a special arrangement of "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing" which was composed specially for the annual campaign. She came to the attention of the United Way Board of Directors through her Celebration single, "Lost A Lover" (CEL 2066X).

Miss Bridgeforth is currently appearing at the Bristol Place Hotel where she is being backed by the Peter Appleyard Quartet.

FLUDD MIXING THIRD ALBUM

Fludd, Daffodil recording group recently returned from a short stay in England, have just completed a tour of Ontario and the Western provinces. Dates included Niagara Falls, Kirkland Lake, Winnipeg, Fernie, Kimberly, Trail, Nelson, Vancouver, Salmon Arm, Kelowna, Penticton, Pt. Roberts, Washington and several dates in Alberta.

On their return to Toronto they booked time at Manta Sound to mix their third album which was taped at the Manor in Oxfordshire, England. Their tour, arranged by their manager William Tenn was coordinated by Bruce Allen Agency of Vancouver and Concept 376 in Toronto.

Newest single release is an edited version of "C'Mon C'Mon" from their "On" album.

BRUBECK "LIVE" ON ATLANTIC

Much concentration is being put on jazz, from almost every quarter. One of the masters, Dave Brubeck, assembled some of the super stars of jazzdom: Paul Desmond, alto sax; Gerry Mulligan, baritone sax; Jack Six, bass; and Alan Dawson, drums, for his Atlantic set "We're All Together Again For The First Time".

The album was taped "live" at the Olympia Theatre in Paris Oct. 26/72 and at the Philharmonie in Berlin Nov. 4/72. Outstanding cuts have been listed as "Truth", "Sweet Georgia Brown" and Desmond's "Take Five".

MELODIYA ANGEL SR-40225

The only works by Alexander Glazunov to achieve a degree of popularity in North America have been the ballet score "The Seasons", Op. 67 and the Violin Concerto. Here we have three unfamiliar works performed with warmth and affection by the Moscow Radio Symphony Orchestra. Scenes de ballet, Op. 52 was composed in 1894 as an orchestral work although its eight movements are strongly balletic in feeling. Poeme lyrique in Db Op. 12 is a quiet, melodic orchestral tone poem, about ten minutes in duration. The record ends with a Cortege solennel in G major, a brief pageant-like processional, again, highly balletic in feeling.

AT THE COURT OF VERSAILLES

Paul Kuentz conducting the Orchestre de Chambre
Paul Kuentz
ARCHIVE 198 333

This recording from Deutsche Grammophon's Archive seventh research period gives us an exciting glimpse into Versailles and the court of Louis XIV. Side one features the fourth of the Suites of "Symphonies pour les soupers du Roy" performed by an ensemble of strings, harpsichord, two oboes and bassoons, trumpet and timpani. The composer, Michel-Richard Delalande was a popular favorite at court and taught harpsichord to Louis XIV's daughters. Side two contains two suites by Jean-Joseph Mouret. Performances are spirited and idiomatic.

Seiji Ozawa conducting the Orchestre de Paris
ANGEL S * 36910

Seiji Ozawa once again shows his flair for the twentieth century repertoire in this well conceived performance of the original 1910 version of the complete "Firebird" ballet by Stravinsky. His recent Angel recording of Stravinsky's Capriccio and Piano Concerto (S-36875) was also made with the Orchestre de Paris who respond enthusiastically to his direction. The complete ballet is over 45 minutes long and contains a sizable amount of music not utilized in the familiar Firebird suite.

A TCHAIKOVSKY SPECTACULAR

Andre Previn conducting the London Symphony Orchestra
ANGEL S-36890

Capitol Records should have a winner on their hands with this all Tchaikovsky concert. Andre Previn leads his magnificent orchestra, currently the finest in Britain, in a musical and beautifully proportioned performance of the "1812" Overture complete with artillery and carillon. Undoubtedly the finest performance I have heard to date. The concert continues with the popular Marche Slave Op. 31. Previn's strong, purposeful reading trims the work of much of its vulgarity. Side two concludes the concert with a moving performance of the Romeo and Juliet Fantasy Overture. For once, an album justifies its title. This is truly a "Tchaikovsky Spectacular" in every sense. The tired old war horses look like thoroughbreds after Previn's expert grooming.

WE'LL KEEP A WELCOME

Morriston Orpheus Choir
EMI SCX 6211

The popular Morriston Orpheus Choir made a recent highly successful appearance in Toronto and their many friends and admirers will welcome this E.M.I. Import available through Capitol Records. The famous Welsh all-male choir sing with virility and polish such popular favorites as The Holy City, the Bach-Gounod Ave Maria, Men of Harlech, Bless this House and the Welsh National Anthem, Land of My Fathers.

SZYMANOWSKI Piano Music
Martin Jones, pianist
ARGO ZRG 713

The twentieth century Polish composer Karol Szymanowski has been poorly represented in North American record catalogues and turns up very infrequently on concert programmes. This fine recording made in association with the Music Department of the University College, Cardiff, serves to introduce to us an interesting cross-section of his considerable output of pianoforte music. His music is in many ways similar to Scriabin, showing a marked influence from Chopin in the earlier works and progressing to a complex and highly individual maturity. The early style is represented here by Four Etudes Opus 4 and a brilliant Fantasie in F minor Op. 14. Later works are Metopes Op. 29 and Masques Op. 34. Performances by Martin Jones are superb in every way and Argo Recording engineers have captured beautifully the rich, sparkling tones of his Boiesendorfer grand.

sound but I don't think he will sustain anything. You have a hit today and miss the next twenty."

In this business there are surprises from every quarter. Polydor's Frank Gould and Allan Katz were apparently quite fired up over the Edwards' single. They flew into several major markets, hopefully to transfer their enthusiasm to some of the VIP programmers. They did get promise of play and a week later the label made moves to distribute this enthusiasm among the rest of the programmers and the press, and BY GOSH, it looks like it's working.

How do you influence a programmer to give an extra listen to a new record? One programmer observer noted: "Let's face it, I thought I was being shafted with another piece of la-dee-da crap. But, you know, in this business we're beginning to get more perceptive and you pick out things on Canadian records that you want to hang your hat on. First time out, I said no way to this single, but there was something that made me want to give it another listen. That's when I really got confused, and I knew I had something."

AVENUE OF AMERICA SIGNS FAMILY'S EVANS

A WEEKLY FEATURE IN RPM DESIGNED FOR CANADIAN

Programmers

FM policy: CAB's study get's rolling

With the CRTC's August 27 deadline for receiving comments on the FM proposals fast approaching, the Canadian Association of Broadcasters' study of the situation is off and running. Eight representatives are being chosen for the CAB's study group and the first meetings have already been held.

Co-chairing the CAB's "FM study committee" are Bill Ballantine of CKFM Toronto and Malcolm Scott of Telemedia Quebec. The other members are: John Birmingham of CKLC-FM Kingston, Paul Fockler of CJIC-FM Sault Ste. Marie, and Bob Laine of CHUM-FM Toronto. Three other members are to be appointed from regional associations of broadcasters, one from the Atlantic area's AAB, one from the West's WAB, and one from B.C.'s BCAB.

Initial meetings of the committee solicited opinions of programmers at the May 21 and 24 meetings of French-language broadcasters in Montreal and Quebec City. June begins with three scheduled "brainstorming" sessions June 2 at the WAB's annual meeting, June 8 in Vancouver and June 14 in Halifax. A Toronto meeting, likely to be the key meeting of the series, has not been scheduled due to a packed CAB and CRTC schedule, but may take place in late June or July.

One problem holding up the process of gathering information is that the program categories are not yet out, and also that many programmers haven't had a chance to visit the CRTC and ask specific questions about how the proposals might affect their specific station. However, co-chairman Bill Ballantine has indicated that stations who are confused by the policy should take the opportunity of meeting with CRTC people, who will attempt to answer questions. Only then can an informed opinion be offered to the FM study committee.

At each of the FM study committee's meetings, minutes are taken and the information becomes a raw digest of many conflicting opinions. The committee plans to condense and assemble these divergent opinions and will present the information to the CAB executive. Then the executive will decide what the "official" stand of the CAB should be, and instruct the study group on what should go into the final report.

Co-chairman Ballantine indicated to RPM that the CRTC emphasis during the formulation of new rules for FM, would be consultation. Juneau has said he's aiming FM toward "quality" and "diversity" and that everything else is "just the tools". And in developing those "tools" there will be full consultation, on a scale big enough that the misunderstandings of the 30% music rule will not happen. Juneau apparently feels that the AM music regulations created many hard feelings because consultation was not extensive enough, a mistake that CRTC people want to avoid in the introduction of the FM rules. CRTC staffers are reportedly on an "open door" policy toward radio stations, so that programmers can get specific answers to their questions.

That the proposals were extremely vague in wording seemed to be the first reaction of many radio people, but there may be a good reason behind this. With the new emphasis on "proof of performance", what may emerge is a system where all FM stations must aim for quality radio, but each presents a separate proposal to the CRTC. The Commission would then judge each application on its own merits, varying programming requirements to fit each situation as it comes up. There are obvious differences between small and large FM markets and a "loose" approach would best be able to take these differences into account. On the other hand, it is difficult to administer a policy fairly if it varies a lot. It will be interesting to see how the Commission finally resolves these differences, but one thing's for sure: the CRTC is very willing to hold discussions and provide information to you the broadcaster. And an open, above-board approach of this type is just what is needed to lessen some of the paranoia of radio stations about what the "big, bad CRTC" plans to do next.

The Programmers LETTERS

FM CAN BUILD A BETTER CANADA

In regard to the CRTC's desire for discussion on the proposed FM policy, below is an open letter to the industry containing my thoughts on the matter. I feel quite strongly about what could happen or not happen to FM in the future. These thoughts are simply those of a concerned individual, and not expressing the view of the station I work for. I am sending a copy to Mr. Juneau.

If one can take RPM at its word, the majority of broadcasters in this country are adamantly against the proposals. This could possibly be true as the vast majority of the industry are concerned paramountly with making money. This is North America, friends! Capital of capitalism and all that!

Unfortunately, because of this priority, our culture suffers. Radio, like newspapers, television, magazines et al are communication mediums between individuals. As long as the broadcasting industry sees as its primary responsibility the need to keep up a high profit margin, little can be done to enrich our culture, to deepen it, to help all of us to live qualitatively better and more useful lives.

If the responsibility of the medium were changed to help the audience live a more fulfilled life, to offer information that stimulates growth in people, that builds them intellectually and emotionally, the benefits for our culture could be tremendous. And there is little doubt that it needs it. We need a spoken medium that works for the people and not for itself. A nation, like an individual, ideally grows and matures as it ages. If a nation is not given the information it needs to grow, like an individual, it remains immature. At the very least, we need a medium to mirror us as we really are, not to reflect a foreign or powdered-up image of what we are. Few segments of the broadcasting industry are concerned with providing this information.

The communications media, all of them, have a tremendously important responsibility to the people they serve. Surprisingly, few people in the business realize this. All of the media are to some extent or other misusing this responsibility.

I was shocked to see the FM proposals . . . shocked that a top level bureaucrat could come up with such far-reaching and culturally significant concepts. Ideally, they couldn't be much better. Some kinks have to be ironed out to make the system more practical for Canada 1973. To hit the populace with this in one hammer blow would drive the audience away. And that means no money to support the station. It is like dumping calculus on kindergarten, to use some hyperbole. I would suggest implementing the proposals in weighed sections, easing them in, in much the same way the 30 per cent AM regulations were done.

Let's not sterilize FM as AM has become. Let's create something new, farsighted, evolving, flexible, creative, something for the people. Who do you really feel a responsibility toward: your fellow human beings, or to a rising profit margin?

I throw my lot in with the people.

The Programmers NEW ON CHARTS

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

Paul Simon is the chart success of the week as his single went onto four major stations' charts: CFGO, CFRW, CKGM and CJME. They join previous charters CKXL, CKLW, CKOC and CKLG and the record is now confirmed on a national basis.

It was a good week for the Spinners and Anne Murray as three stations each gave them new chart numbers. The Spinners deck was being held back by reports of a bad word, but it turned out to be "hug". And so "One of A Kind" was charted at CKLW, CKOM and CKLG, to join the earlier chart stations CKRC, CFGO and CKOC. Annie's "What About Me" entered charts at CKLW, Radiomutuel and CKXL. She had been charted in previous weeks by CJBK, CKOM, CKOC, CKGM, CFGO and CHUM.

Murray McLauchlan continues super strong, as he hit charts at CKRC and CKLG. He was already charted previously at CFRW, CKGM, CJBK, CHUM and CKOC and has a good showing in playlists as well. Elvis Presley is starting to turn his massive airplay into chart numbers. He did it this week at CFRW and CJME, which join charts from CFGO, CKLW and CKRC in previous weeks.

Charlie Rich was charted by CKOC and CKLG this week (he was previously charted only at CFGO and CKLW). And with the numerous playlistings of "Behind Closed Doors" we can expect further growth.

"Bondi Junction" by Peter Foldy has been charted by CJME. From previous weeks: CKOC, CHUM and CHED charts.

And the Doobie Brothers finished a national sweep as CKGM and CKCK charted them; previous charts totalled CKOC, CHED, CKXL, CKRC, CFRW, CFGO, CKLG and CJME.

MLS WINNER

This week's Maple Leaf System winner is "Carry On" by Cliff and Ann Edwards.

The Programmers NEW ON PLAYLISTS

PRINCIPAL MARKETS

Bette Midler exploded onto Canadian AM airwaves this week with seven key stations jumping on the disc, namely CKLW, CJME, CHED, CKXL, CKCK, CFRN and CHAM. The song was previously playlisted on CFCF and CKY and also has three nice chart numbers (CKOC, CFGO and CKRC). A total smash all the way from early indications.

New York City also broke through all remaining airplay barriers this week. "I'm Doin' Fine Now" was playlisted by CJME, CKY, CKCK and CFRW. Previous airplay reports had come from CJBK, CFRN, CKOM, CFCF and CHED and the record has already been charted by CFGO, CKLW and CKXL.

The Spinners were playlisted by CJME, CKGM and CKY this week; also see "New On Charts" for action on that side.

Two new Canadian records got early acceptance: Ocean and Stampede. Ocean's "I Have A Following" went onto CKLW and CKOM in its first week out. The Stampede's "Minstrel Gypsy" was playlisted by CKOM and CFCF after CJME led the way last week.

Jim Stafford's MGM release looks good so far after seven days of release. He was added by CKOM and CFRN after CKLW did the same last week. And Albert Hammond is doing OK with "Free Electric Band" as CFRN and CFGO put him on the playlist. Previous playlists were CKLW with charts reported from CHED, CKOC and CKRC.

Two other Canadians doing well on early play are John Kay and Jack Schectman. John Kay was added by CFRW, CHLO and CFCF. Previous airplay stations were CFGO with charts at CKLG and CKLW. Jack Schectman was playlisted by CFGO and CFCF, joining CKLW from previous weeks.

BREAKOUT MARKETS

There are four records this week with "regional breakout" status on the strength of numerous playlist additions. The majors should watch closely the following four that are already off and running in smaller markets: "Rock Star"/Warpig; "Smoke on the Water"/Deep Purple; "Money"/Pink Floyd; and "Diamond Girl"/Seals & Crofts.

The following seven records are making the rest of the action in the smaller markets this week. They are already accepted on the principal market level as well: Paul Simon, John Kay, Murray McLauchlan, Michael Tarry, Jim Stafford, Spinners and Stylistics.

CHIN INTROS BUS REMOTE

Latest addition to CHIN Radio is a double decker bus to be used for FM remote broadcasts throughout Toronto. Their first broadcast from "The House Of Teak" has been tagged "a tremendous success".

The lower level of the Teakmobile has been converted into a broadcast studio with the upper deck as a lounge area for visitors.
Refreshments including Bittner's Knack-wurst, apple strudel and coffee are all served at all remote broadcasts. CHIN expects to utilize the bus at more than 100 FM remote broadcasts throughout the year.

Johnny Lombardi and his CHIN crew are now concentrating on their International Picnic '73, an annual three day Festival expected to draw more than 120,000 listeners. The setting is Toronto Island from July

The ProgrammersTRIBAL DRUM

A good programmer is hard to find . . . so if your station needs one, you might be interested in Keith Elshaw of CFTR Toronto. Elshaw is the man who looked after 'TR's switch from MOR to contemporary and invented a whole new way to program 1973 radio. Selecting music by "feel" instead of by "format" or "year of release", Elshaw came up with a sound that integrated well-selected gold (unannounced) into the format and gave CFTR a subliminal strength that had CHUM worried. Elshaw was also a pioneer in realizing that virtually every Beatles song (LP or 45) could be of benefit to an adult contemporary station and even went so far as to play several Beatles back to back every so often as a "surprise". And the listeners loved it . . . CFTR came out of the last BBM as tops in male 18 to 24's, and had they not been hit with a switch of morning men right before ratings week, the station circulation would probably have lifted it to "tied for third" from its present "tied for fourth" rating. Actually, considering the switch in music that CFTR put into effect, it's amazing the station was able to hang on to its ratings during the year of changeover and show a slight gain each rating. Elshaw's keen ear for Canadian music broke several hits in the Toronto market like James Leroy's "Touch of Magic" and record com-

RCA REORGANIZES
CDN. OPERATION

Effective June 1/73 RCA Records of Canada will operate on a new organizational concept.

Andy Nagy will head up operations in the province of Quebec and the Atlantic Provinces including A&R, promotion, sales and studio activities.

Ed Preston will take charge of the Central and Western regions (Ontario through to British Columbia) taking under his wing panies came to regard CFTR airplay as nearly as important as CHUM airtime as a result. Anyway, Elshaw is out now, and looking. Reason? The usual radio thing . . . change in management. (Station manager George Johns, now in U.S. radio, was replaced by Chuck Camroux from CHAM.) The new station manager has already made several changes. When The Programmers airchecked the "new" CFTR last week, we heard much more current material instead of a lot of gold, the station had started a policy of playing a sweep of Top 10 singles at the top of the hour to counter CHUM news, and the gold records that were heard varied from 1972 to 1955. The listeners saying "CFTR plays less commercials" were pulled from the air, and generally, things seemed to be slipping back to tried and true rock radio maxims. Anyway, if you're interested in contacting Keith Elshaw, call Dave Chadwick at The Programmers, (416) 425-0257.

all activity within the recording complex. Gerry Murphy moves from his post of branch manager in Vancouver to take on similar duties in Ontario. Mr. U. Schnack will take over the B.C. branch office. Promotion men in the west will continue in their present positions: John Ford, Ken Clarke, Doug Bonneville and Jim Hogg (B.C., Alberta and Manitoba respectively).

A&R responsibilities in Ontario are now divided into two categories with Barry Keane heading up the contemporary action and Barry Haugen handling country A&R and promotion. Also in Ontario, Glenda Roy becomes coordinator of national advertising and promotion.

Jack Feeney continues as manager of RCA's Toronto studios as well as president of Sunbury-Dunbar, the company's publishing arm. P.J. (Pat) McQuade has been appointed to head up a new department within the company. It will be his duty to develop and coordinate national sales programmes, and provide market data customer analysis, new release planning and concepts in product packaging.

In making the above announcement, R.F. (Bob) Cook, vice-president and general manager of RCA Ltd., noted: "It is a regional concept designed to strengthen our operating performance in the Canadian market and as a result will improve customer sales and profits with RCA product. By operating on a regional self-contained basis we will improve our internal communications and decision making which will most certainly improve our joint efficiency."
