Phil Collins Goes Casual

Atlantic recording artist Phil Collins is on release with No Jacket Required, his 3rd solo LP. One More Night has been taken as the first single. Collins, a member of Atlantic recording act Genesis since 1970, garnered solo renown in Canada with his 2 previous efforts — Face Value and Hello, I Must Be Going. In addition to his duties as drummer/vocalist with Genesis, Collins has produced several major LPs and recorded with acts such as Brian Eno and Robert Plant.

Renowned for over a decade internationally as a crack drummer and crucial element in the success of Genesis, Phil Collins has also fashioned a reputation for himself as a producer for artists ranging from John Martyn to Eric Clapton.

Collins' recent collaboration with Earth Wind & Fire's Philip Bailey produced a Top 30 LP — Chinese Wall — and a No. 1 single, Easy Lover. He played drums and sang on the LP in addition to producing it.

Collins first appeared as a member of Genesis on 1971's Nursery Cryme, an LP that included the now classic The Musical Box. Over the next 4 years, Genesis firmed their reputation as one of the most skilled and instrumentally potent progressive-rock bands of the '70s. While some critics assailed the band's veiled pretentiousness and frequently elliptic lyrics, many were won over by the textural, keyboard-dominated sound of LPs like Selling England By The Pound and The Lamb Lies Down On Broadway.

There were those who speculated that the departure of vocalist Peter Gabriel in 1975 amounted to the end for Genesis, but in the intervening decade Collins has given the lie to such considerations — taking the band from its position as an occasionally overblown pomp-rock spectacle (circa Gabriel) to the slick, tight, '80s-pop outfit that is Genesis today.

By the 1981 release of his debut solo LP, Face Value, Collins had recorded with Brand X — something of a recreational project — and done session work with composer/producer Brian Eno and British rock legends Thin Lizzy.

Face Value, an LP that sold in excess of 400,000 copies in Canada yielded 2 hit singles — I Missed Again and In The Air Tonight. I Missed Again, a Top 10 single, was as brassy (courtesy the Phoenix Horns) and uptempo as In The Air Tonight was ominous and moody; the latter featured a by-now-famous imprimatur — Collins' booming drum fills surrounding a frequently syncopated backbeat. Face Value went to No. 1 in May of 1981.

Hello, I Must Be Going — the second Collins solo LP — sold less than Face Value, but sustained Collins' profile as a solo writer and performer of substance. The LP, released in 1982, provided 3 singles — You Can't Hurry

Love, popularized by The Supremes, I Don't Care Anymore, and I Cannot Believe It's True.

1982 also witnessed the first Collins production projects — John Martyn's Glorious Fool and Frida's Something's Going On.

Collins accepted Robert Plant's offer to join his debut tour of North America in 1983. Critics subsequently noted Collins as instrumental in the success of Plant's shows.

Collins was busy behind the board once again in 1984, producing LPs for Adam Ant (Strip) and Bailey. 1984 was also noteworthy for the No. 1 status accorded Against All Odds (Take A Look At Me Now), a Collins vocal from the film Against All Odds.

Eric Clapton's new LP, Behind The Sun, lists Collins as one of the record's producers. He should hit North America soon to tour behind No Jacket Required, however no Canadian dates have been firmed as of yet. The new LP shipped over platinum in Canada, and presumably will replicate Collins' previous successes at retail and radio given his high profile at present. No Jacket Required was produced by Collins and Hugh Padgham.—KCW

Campus media session for LaMarche LP

A&M Records held a "campus media only" reception Feb. 19 at their Toronto offices in order to premiere the new LP from Jim LaMarche, Searching For The Sunrise. The video for the LP's first single, Innocent Little Boys Cry, was also premiered. The LP ships to radio Mar. 11.

Thirty-one student reps attended, from Toronto-area colleges such as Seneca, Humber, and Scarborough (UofT), as well as from centres outside Toronto — University of Guelph, Western (London), and University of Waterloo. A&M officials expressed regret that nobody representing Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in Toronto attended the session. Toronto retail representation came from Record Peddler, Star Records, and A&A's downtown location.

LaMarche's video for Innocent Little Boys Cry, filmed last November in Woodstock, Ont., was directed by Patricia Sims and produced by Jamie Boyd — noted for his critically acclaimed documentary, Falasha: Exile of the Black Jews.

The video features LaMarche's wife, as well as segments from the Yugoslavian film Cruel Diagonals.

The lineup of guest artists firmed at press time is: Liberty Silver, Tony Flaim, Jo-Ann Brooks & Jeff Jones, Smokey Burke, Kenny Neal, Liz Tilden, Eugene Smith, Diane Brooks, B.J. Reed, Heather Katz, Danny Middlebrook, Danny "B", and Nancy Simmons.

Cook & Tyson team for Porky's III soundtrack

Toronto songwriters B.J. Cook and David Tyson will have their composition, Has Heaven Had A Change Of Heart, included in the original soundtrack from Porky's Revenge, the third sequel to the film series following Porky's I and II. The track was produced by Tyson at ZaZa Sound in Toronto. Cook is well known in Canadian music circles as both a songwriter and background vocalist for session work. Tyson, also a recognized songwriter has written material for several name Canadian acts and has also produced sessions. These include The Arrows, and most recently Belinda Metz. He has also co-wrote with Eddy Schwartz. The Cook/Tyson composition is represented by ATV Music.

The soundtrack, which features guitarist Dave Edmunds and his friends, has been scheduled for a late March release by CBS. Edmunds' friends include Robert Plant and Phil Collins, under the guise of The Crawling Kingsnakes, as well as Carl Perkins, Jeff Beck, The Stray Cats, Willie Nelson, George Harrison, and The Fabulous Thunderbirds.

Ex-Beatle George Harrison performs his version of a previously-unreleased Bob Dylan composition, I Don't Want To Do It. The Fabulous Thunderbirds cover the Lloyd Price classic Stagger Lee, and Willie Nelson performs Elvis Presley's Love Me Tender.

Gold and platinum to John Waite for his single, Missing You, and LP, No Brakes, respectively, during his visit to Toronto. Capitol-EMI President Dave Evans makes the presentation at company's office.

Kornelsen to Capitol Nat'l Promo Manager

Capitol-EMI President J.D. Evans has officially announced Olie Kornelsen's appointment to the position of National Promotion Manager.

Kornelsen joined Capitol in 1976, starting as Regional Promotion Rep for the Alberta/Saskatchewan area. In 1980 he moved to the Toronto Branch (Ont. Promotion), and in 1982 was appointed Artist Relations Manager — a position he held until this appointment.

Kornelsen's new position will make him responsible for the activities of the Capitol promotion team across Canada, as well as the Press and Publicity functions.

WAH SAYS

Heavy metal losing ground???

Those labels, overflowing with heavy metal acts, could be heading for trouble. The U.S. would appear to be hell bent on continuing their softening of the market and they are now getting a hand from the all powerful MTV music channel. Recording artists need more than radio play today to break into the market - they need video, and if MTV, and the other music channels are going to a tight and softer playlist . . . there could be trouble for the nonconformists.

Out in the cold!!!

Seems that one of the Toronto dailies' nose for news types was left standing out in the cold when the megastar session for the Ethiopian relief fund was going on. Insiders felt it was better to have him outside in the cold than inside trying to cause another racial incident!!!

Nothing official but . . . !!!

I hear that justice was summarily dealt with this past week when a fine of $1,000. was handed down is an industry individual who was found guilty of "passing off". His employee was also found guilty and given a suspended sentence with an absolute discharge. That's 2 down, but whatever happened to that charge involving the high flier?

Gone to the dogs, stealing the show!!

Seen at a recent reception and TV launch, a certain RPM person who says he never likes to work with children or dogs, knew how to steal the show when he picked up that dog, and all the TV cameras made a beeline in his direction. Once a ham, always a ham, even when you have to go to the dogs to steal the show. By the way, the dog is a drunk and likes beer and scotch and coke. It happens to the best of us!!!

Speaking of going to the dogs!!!

It might be interesting to know how many listeners turned off the Grammys when the fans started to scream. Nice affair. Very dignified, except for the hootin' and hollerin' from the peanut gallery. They should rethink the value of all that distraction. On the other hand, the Academy Awards may be missing something when they don't have all that fan response.

Majors dropping Cancon acts???

There are strong rumours that one major is taking a second look at its Cancon roster, and is considering "trimming the fat". Breaking a Cancon act today is much more expensive and hazardous than it was a couple of years ago, and if you can't get the nod from the parent/sister company in the U.S., the difficulties are compounded. Those who are doing well with Cancon have been careful not to overload their roster. Marketing strategy and eventual success is much better served with a leaner roster.

Got you by the short ones, Stan!!!

In answer to Stan Kulin's offer of a job to Joe Summers (see last week's column) Joe sent along a little photocopied goody to Stan pointing up some past promotions used by A&M and now being used by WEA. Joe's notation to Stan: "Since you are using some of our great ideas and themes from the past, I may as well do your press releases."

David Foster shines at Grammys

Up until just this year, not too many knew who David Foster was, a sad commentary for the Canadian recording industry. This year, Foster, who was born in Victoria, B.C. and now lives in Vancouver, picked up 2 Grammys: as Producer of The Year, for producing Chicago, which he tied with Lionel Richie, and for best instrumental arrangement, accompanying vocals for Chicago's Hard Habit To Break. Did you know that Foster won a Grammy several years ago for Earth, Wind & Fire's hit, After The Love Is Gone. This song, by the way was written about his breakup with his first wife B.J. Cook, who now lives in Toronto, and is perhaps Foster's biggest booster.

They don't like earrings???

If you're male and planning a visit to Czechoslovakia, make sure you remove your earring, if you wear one, and for sure if you're male and wear 2. Government authorities apparently cancelled Bruce Cockburn's date at the Festival of Political Songs in Sokolow one day before he was scheduled to appear. The reason - Bruce wears an earring. Because it's a political issue that deals with a communist country, the U.S. music industry and media are reportedly taking the incident seriously. However, here in Toronto, True North, Bruce's label, shrugged off the incident as just an unfortunate development. Bruce is currently making waves with his protest single, If I Had A Rocket Launcher.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

THE FIRM - Rock
The Firm - Atlantic - 78-12391-Q

This collaboration between guitar hero Jimmy Page and vocalist Paul Rodgers while having a few soft spots, generally reaffirms the reputations of both as formative rock influences of the '60s and '70s. With the assistance of Chris Slade (drums), and Tony Franklin (bass, synthesizer), the duo have assembled 8 original tracks and the Mann/Weil/Spector classic You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling. Radioactive, currently shooting up playlists, has been taken as the first single, but there are others to note here: Closer, with its Zeppelinesque guitar riff and clipped horn bursts, and Rodgers' Money Can't Buy - very reminiscent of his better work with Bad Company.

Overall, a tentative but sincere debut that presumably signals the active return of both the band's principals to a business bereft of them for far too long.

Produced by Page and Rodgers at The Sol Studios, Berkshire, England. Terrific jacket art work, but word of mouth will sell this one.

MICK JAGGER - Pop
She's The Boss - Columbia - FC-39940-H

Jagger's debut solo LP after more than 20 years with the Stones. Variety of material held together by the trademark vocal. Key are Lonely At The Top and Just Another Night, the latter taken as the first single and breaking Top 30 after only 5 weeks of charting on the RPM 100. Variety of name acts have given an assist here including guitarists Jeff Beck, Pete Townshend and Nile Rodgers, Herbie Hancock on organ and Sly Dunbar on drums. Jagger co-produced this package at Compass Point Studios in Nassau with Rodgers, and with Bill Laswell/Material.

UTOPIA - Pop
POV - Passport - PB-6044-W

One of 3 releases in 1985 from band fronted by writer/musician/video pioneer Todd Rundgren, Key is Play This Game. Produced by Rundgren with bandmate Willie Wilcox. Computer-generated jacket art.

GUS HARDIN - Country
Wall Of Tears - RCA - CPL1-5358-N

Currently heading for the Top 10 on the RPM Country 60 with her single, All Tangled Up In Love. This Bob McDill/Jim Weatherly penning was given an added boost with the guesting of Earl Thomas Conley. Also key is the Dave Loggins/Don Schlitz writing of My Mind Is On You. Set produced by Mark Wright.

DAVID HASSELHOFF - Pop
Night Rocker - CBS Associated - FZ-39893-H

Generally vain attempt to position actor Hasselhoff as a rocker. Produced by Joel Diamond. Do You Love Me - a classic tune - may click though.

CONEY HATCH - Rock
Friction - Anthem - ANR-1-1046-F

No surprises here on the Coneys' 3rd release, but Max Norman's meticulous production is a treat. Key track: Fantasy, taken as the first single.

ALAN GORRIE - Pop
Sleepless Nights - A&M - SP-5037-W

A sonically rewarding debut solo LP from former Average White Band member Gorrie, with cheering vocals arrayed over a pliantly funky backdrop. Produced by Gorrie and Jay Gruska. Key is Diary Of A Fool

B.W. Pawley gaining airplay

B.W. Pawley, who recently released his debut Globe single, Ten Good Years, is gaining steadily on major and secondary country markets. The B.W. Pawley Road Show, featuring Robin, and Coyote, have been touring Ontario and are heading out on a 1½ month tour of the Maritimes, after which they will be heading west for a couple of months. Pawley also has a duet with Robin, titled Outrun The Rain, which is now being readied for shipping. This single, along with Pawley's solo, is included on the latter's new LP, Lovin', Livin', and Drinkin'. The LP also includes a solo track by Robin, Some People Belong Together, which will also be released shortly. The Pawley album was produced by John Stewart at The Grange.

New release for Laura Vinson

The latest Royalty single from Laura Vinson & Redwyng is titled Alberta Crude. The plug side was written by the team of Vinson and Harrison, while the flip, You Give Me The Strength, is a Vinson original.

Nashville nod to Baker & Eastman

Carroll Baker and Eddie Eastman will give a special performance for the industry delegates on hand at the Nashville Palace (Mar. 7). The performance will follow the welcoming reception afforded the delegates to the Music Industry Professional Seminar. The special promotion was coordinated by Ed Keely, President of Artisan Records. Eastman's Artisan single, Dreaming All Over Again, is moving up the RPM Country 60, while Baker's Tembo release, I'm An Old Rock And Roller (Dancin To A Different Beat) is just beginning to break.

Fjellgaard launches project

Gary Fjellgaard, who releases on his own Slim Creek label, is currently putting the finishing touches on his new album project. Riding On The Wind has been taken as the first single. Born in Rose Valley, Saskatchewan, Fjellgaard is the son of a Norwegian immigrant. He is now living on Gabriola Island, B.C. Fjellgaard will be touring with the Ronnie Prophet Road Show which kicks off at the Sheraton Centre in Toronto (Mar. 20).

M.A.C.A Awards show set for March 10

The 9th Annual Manitoba Association of Country Arts (M.A.C.A.) Dinner and Awards Show will take place at Winnipeg's Westin Hotel (Mar. 10). This year will be the introduction of an all new show concept. This will include the presentation of awards in 12 different categories by 21 presenters, slides, videos with approximately 30 comments, 7 performing acts, 4 8-ft. screens for better viewing, and a show that will last about an hour and 45 minutes.

M.A.C.A. consists of five members of a Board of Directors, whose responsibility it is to put on the awards night to honour the best in Manitoba's Country Music Industry. The entertainers have their own Manitoba Association of Country Entertainment (M.A.C.E.), whose members vote on the winners in each category, with the exception of 2: Most Popular Band Of The Year, and The Golden Award. The former is a fan vote, while the latter is one arrived at by a M.A.C.A. Board of Directors vote and is presented to one who has contributed their talents to the Manitoba Country Music industry over the past years. This award would be compared to a Hall of Fame accolade.

Have a coffee with Godfrey

Paul Godfrey, who has been doing the morning man/PD duties at CHOK Sarnia, Ontario, since July of last year, has been running several successful promotions for his Bluewater listeners. One of the more successful, which ran at the beginning of the fall BBM, and for two weeks after the rating period, was the Get Mugged In The Morning promotion. Several hundred coffee mugs used in combination with a billboard campaign welcoming Godfrey to the station, were given away. "I couldn't believe the telephone response each morning," writes Godfrey.

CHOK aids African fund

CHOK Hotline host Peter Henderson devoted 2½ hours of his talk show time to raise money for the African Famine Relief fund. His audience responded with more than $17,500 in pledges. Rev. Glenn Cooper of Point Edward and Brigden Presbyterian churches, a regular guest on the show, was on hand to answer questions and handle the administrative paperwork. The money was sent through the Presbyterian World Service and Development Fund because its administrative costs are not paid by the donations (mostly through government grants). The Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) is expected to match the pledges 3 to 1, making the eventual contribution $70,000. Henderson has hosted Henderson's Hotline for more than 9 years.

Dahlquist as Mame in Toronto Production

Patricia Dahlquist, a 1975 Juno winner as Best New Female Artist of The Year, stars as the "rich and outrageous socialite Mame", in the Canadian production of the highly-acclaimed Broadway musical.

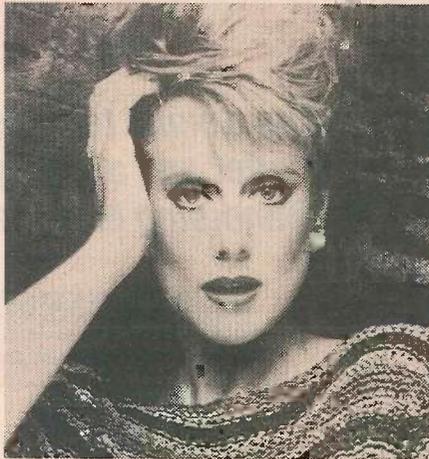

Opening at Toronto's Limelight Dinner Theatre, Feb. 21 for an indefinite run, Mame is directed by Adolf Toman, choreographed by Bob Ainsley, with musical direction by David Nelson. Sets are by Antonin Dimitrov with costumes by Olga Dimitrov.

Dahlquist is the perfect Mame for Canadian audiences. She translates the role to the setting of a dinner theatre with a great deal of understanding. Although the whole production would have benefitted from more extreme fashions for the fabulous Mame, in dinner theatre cost is always a factor. What might have helped Mame was a constant change of wigs and hairstyles and colours as she goes through her various periods. On a small stage, this would make the changes more definite.

Three youngsters take turn playing Patrick as a boy. Patrick, as a young man, is handled well by Brian Hill, who shows great promise as a singer and dancer. Pam Hyatt is an excellent Vera Charles and Peggy Mahon steals the show in the Agnes Gooch part, which is designed to steal the show.

Dahlquist started out in the business as a lounge singer and got her first break as a vocalist with Hagood Hardy & The Montage. She became one of the "fresh, new talents", in the recording business, releasing several singles and albums that established her on an international level. She also toured with several name acts including Gino Vanelli, going on to tour with her one-woman show.

Patricia Dahlquist

Commercials, jingles and industrial shows opened the door to theatre for Dahlquist and she moved quickly into leading roles, her most recent being the highly successful Canadian production of Best Little Whorehouse in Texas.

Luba goes gold with Secrets And Sins

Secrets And Sins, the debut LP from Capitol recording act Luba, has been certified gold. The designation is for Canadian sales in excess of 50,000 units. The LP's first single, Let It Go, has also gone gold.

Fronted by singer Luba Kowalchuk, the Montreal-based band recently completed a cross-Canada tour with A&M recording artist Bryan Adams. As support, Luba and her band garnered positive critical acclaim as well as encouraging responses from partisan audiences.

The second single from the Secrets And Sins LP, Storm Before The Calm, is inching into the RPM Top 50 after 9 weeks of charting. Secrets And Sins continues its inexorable climb up the RPM 100 after 30 weeks of charting.

Big Country cancel North American tour

Vertigo recording act Big Country have cancelled their imminent North American tour citing the need following "a very successful, hectic 2 years" for "a lengthy break with no 'group' activity whatsoever."

Prior to recording their 3rd LP in late summer, the band will quite likely release a single.

Meanwhile, they continue work on the "Restless Natives" soundtrack, with drummer Mark Brzezicki and bassist Tony Butler also working on Pete Townshend's latest project.

Vertigo product is distributed in Canada by Polygram.
