TRIUMPH MAINTAIN STATUS WITH TOUR

Toronto-based trio Triumph, currently on release with their MCA Records debut Thunder Seven, are in the midst of a 90-date North American concert tour. The band consists of Mike Levine (bass), Gil Moore (drums), and Rik Emmett (guitar). Triumph have garnered a host of designations for their LPs in a career that spans nearly a decade. The Thunder Seven LP has surpassed gold (50,000 units or more in sales) status in Canada.

Triumph were born in the summer of 1975 in Toronto, when Moore and Levine asked Rik Emmett to join them in a band. Veterans of numerous late-'60s/early-'70s outfits, the duo were looking to put together a band that would last. The youthful Emmett fit the bill — canny, articulate, and possessor of a unique flash metal-cum-ballad guitar style. From the outset, the band's philosophy was simple: write direct, hard-hitting rock and roll interspersed with anthemic ballads; control as much of the business end of things as possible; and stay away from the traditional club circuit that drives so many new bands into the ground. Their first recorded effort — 1976's Triumph — was, and remains, one of the finest LPs ever released in this country by any band, new or old. Shamelessly derivative in places, Triumph nonetheless managed to pay a lot of homage while forging their own rock and roll imprimatur. The Triumph LP was followed by Rock 'N' Roll Machine — released as their debut U.S. LP. The U.S. release was a compilation of tracks from the Canadian debut and the Canadian Machine release. 1978 witnessed the band's first Canadian tour as well as their first U.S. tour later in the year. Since then, they have played to over 2 million people in North America and Europe, and attained six gold and three platinum records for their LP releases to date. Over 250,000 people were present for their appearance at the 1983 US Festival in California. For such a roadworthy band, the statistics connected with the current North American undertaking should come as no surprise. The band's crew numbers 25, loading 50 tons of equipment in and out of gigs continent-wide; this includes more than 1,200 lamps in custom trusses, 140 '747' landing lights, and sound gear capable of putting out 60,000 watts. Facts on the band are equally impressive. Rik Emmett is acknowledged by his peers to be one of the top rock and roll guitarists in the world. He routinely places in Guitar Player magazine's Top 10. In 1979, Performing Magazine cited Triumph as Innovators Of The Year. Innovative or not, the MCA bio quotes Emmett as saying that Triumph are "... simply a rock band; Triumph is not strictly heavy rock or precious metal or any other specific or weird combination." The band's MCA debut LP, in contrast to the pomp and excess of their concert trappings, sports a leaner sound than previous records. Produced by Triumph with legendary engineer/producer Eddie Kramer (Jimi Hendrix), the LP was recorded at Metalworks — the band's 48-track computerized MCI studio located in Mississauga, Ont. The LP's title is taken from a James Joyce book. The tracks are Spellbound, Rock Out Roll On, Midsummer's Daydream, Time Goes By, Time Canon, Killing Time, Little Boy Blues, Stranger In A Strange Land, Follow Your Heart, and Cool Down.

An indication of corporate confidence in Triumph's drawing power was evidenced in their selection to appear in a national TV campaign for Pepsi-Cola, directed at the lucrative teenage market. As Rik Emmett indicated in a recent story he wrote for a Toronto daily, many fans seem to look to the band for energy and inspiration. "With all of their youth, their spirit, their power, and their inspiration," he wrote, "it is THEY who are driving the band. I look out at their shining faces, their smiles, and see the enthusiasm that burns in their eyes. We are fulfilling each other's expectations; and now the roles are reversed — I am their instrument, and they are the biggest, strongest, and most important creative element of our band. This is what The Road is all about." -KCW

Canadian Talent Library merges with FACTOR

Peter Shurman, President of the Radio Division of Standard Broadcasting Corp. Ltd., has announced the merging of the Canadian Talent Library (CTL) with FACTOR, the Foundation to Assist Canadian Talent on Records. The new organization, FACTOR/CTL, was launched at a reception held in Toronto.

FACTOR, founded three years ago, supplies a range of financial support for Canadian recording artists in all musical fields.

Peter Shurman (l) President, Radio Division Standard Broadcasting and FACTOR's Duff Roman after signing agreement merging Canadian Talent Library with FACTOR.

CTL was formed at a time when the Canadian recording industry was in its infancy — and has since produced 263 LPs and 18 singles, with a total of about 4,000 selections by Canadian artists. The merger is effective

LP/U.S. management for Manteca

Ready recording act Manteca are currently in production for their 3rd LP. The ensemble's bio describes their music as a "synthesis of styles — incorporating influences from salsa, jazz, funk, African, and calypso."

Founded in Toronto in 1979 by percussionist Matt Zimbel and bassist Henry Heilling, Manteca are managed by SPI. Their previous Ready LPs were Manteca (1982) and Strength In Numbers (1984).

Percussionist Zimbel, in a recent interview with RPM, lauded the label for their efforts in Canada as well as abroad.

"Ready has really worked hard," Zimbel asserts. "They've licensed more Manteca product internationally than any other Ready act. Everybody's behind us at the label."

Zimbel says that the new LP will be more melodic than previous records, and have a "warmer" sound.

Born in the U.S., Zimbel began playing professionally at the age of 17, influenced by artists such as Santana and Weather Report. He has played as sideman on over 50 records, produced for other artists, and cites Thomas Dolby, Laurie Anderson, and Bach's Brandenburg Concertos as current favourites.

Manteca are firmed for several dates in the near future including Toronto's Bamboo (Apr. 11-14) and the University of Waterloo (May 2).

The band is about to sign with a major U.S. management firm. Manteca LPs are available in the U.S. on import only. Ready Records' product is distributed in Canada by WEA Music.

May 1st, with CTL Executive Director Jackie Rae joining the new organization as Executive Consultant and Producer. Earl Rosen will continue as Executive Director, his position with FACTOR. Said Standard's Shurman: "FACTOR/CTL will offer financial and promotional assistance to developing artists, and because it will have a financial interest in the success of its supported artists, it will have the opportunity to earn a substantial return on its investments. These returns, of course, will be funnelled back to enhance the fund and expand its capability for further talent development."

Five independent acts for '85 U-Knows

Nominations (or "suggestions") in the Best Independent Artist category for the 1985 U-Know Awards are Sandro Carlo Camerin, Direktive 17, Walt Ohama, Ken Ramm, and Rave Revues. The awards, sponsored by Toronto radio station CFNY-FM, will take place Apr. 24 at the Toronto Convention Centre. A thumbnail assessment of each artist follows.

Sandro Carlo Camerin's LP release, Real To Reel, was recorded in Vancouver last year. Carmerin characterizes his music as "eclectic". "I'm a guitarist," he explains, "so the record is diverse. I think that we're a fortunate generation being able to grow up listening to music all the way from rock to jazz." Camerin became a professional musician in 1977, and has been teaching for 15 years. He will return to the project in August — continuing his writing and forming a band to tour the material. Guitarist Ken Ramm's 12" Coach House release, Ramm, contains two tracks — Spark The Universe and Sail Away. Ramm, a product of Boston's Berklee College of Music, has studied with Gary Burton, Pat Metheny, and Mick Goodrick. Ramm will be on release in early May with an LP featuring Bill Laswell (Mick Jagger) and Neil Peart of Rush. "I think that my inclusion on the ballot means a good acknowledgement of a lot of work and effort," says Ramm.

Direktive 17, based in Toronto, are on release with a self-titled LP on the Macbeth label. Vocalist Andy Maize appreciates the recognition that inclusion on the U-Know ballot will bring, but laments the fact that "... most of what we hear on the radio today is controlled by major companies." The band consists of Maize (vocals, trumpet), Craig Bradshaw (guitar), Bob Siamro (bass), and Myron Wasyliv (drums). Walt Ohama has released an LP entitled I Fear What I Might Hear. He characterizes his music as technopop or modern pop. Ohama is based in Ranier, Alta., 120 miles from Calgary. "I'm free to do what I want here," he explains. "I'm not distracted by trends." Ohama's previous release was a mini-LP, Midnite News. He is essentially a one-man band, producing music with synthesizer, sequencers, vocoders, and digital drums. Ohama is currently writing, and will perform in June at Toronto's Rivoli. Rave Revues' LP is Voices, released on the World Records label.

Dukes of Stratosphear LP is XTC gone psychedelic

Virgin Records recently issued an album by The Dukes Of Stratosphear entitled 25 O'Clock, a psychedelic album which is really the British Virgin recording band XTC who went under a different title for the project.

Although the label knew the media and public would sooner or later find out the band was really XTC, they initially wanted to keep it a secret, but in Canada, the album jacket cover was stickered with the comment, "This is such a psychedelic platter you know it's pure eXTCy." The sticker became the clue to the giveaway, and news of the band's real identity came out sooner than expected.

Merck Mercuriadis, A&R Director/Product Manager for Virgin Records Canada, explained that the reason for this marketing strategy was to have the record accepted on its own terms rather than as an XTC album. Mercuriadis doubts whether the album signals the start of a psychedelic revival, but stresses there are people interested in this type of music.

"With everyone looking back at the '60s as such a great period, people are interested in psychedelia," he said. "There are also people who have never heard such bands as the Electric Prunes, the Yardbirds, Barry & The Remains and others".

"These are recent songs, but if this album had been released in '67, I think people today would see it in terms of the classic psychedelia. We're hoping the majors (stations) will give it the attention it deserves. I would like to think they would take it on in terms of the songs themselves."

Virgin Canada hoped that with the sticker, there would be some '60s style confusion started. The LP artwork and liner notes feature the traditional psychedelic graphics of the 1967/68 period. Virgin has no plans to release a single here although, one track, The Mole From The Ministry, was released in Britain. There are no plans of Canadian dates as of yet.

WASHAYS

Tears are not enough . . . !

The Tears Are Not Enough single is selling phenomenally-well - but it could sell much better if potential buyers knew where to get the record. Radio stations have been quick to lend their support to this record by Northern Lights, but unfortunately not all record stores are stocking the single. Saturn's Leonard Kennedy has been receiving calls from out of town service groups, high schools, and even the Red Cross, indicating a desire to lend their support to the project, but most were at a loss as to how they could purchase a copy or who to talk to. Perhaps programmers could refer their listeners to Columbia's Toronto address, who then could put them in touch with a supplier. By the way, Saturn have already gone through 60,000 of the 7" and 15,000 of the 12" singles. The single tops the RPM 100 singles chart this week.

It's Homegrown pickin' time again!

Q107's Gary Slaight has sent out his invitations to another Homegrown judging contest - the 7th in as many years. Out of these Homegrown productions have come Honey-moon Suite, Santers, Boys Brigade, Truth & Rights, and more. Gary has some real professional talent lined up this year to get the judges in a relaxed mood: Jeff Burns will apparently breakdance to a Dan Hill record, which shouldn't be too hard for Jeff if he does it to Sometimes When We Touch. The 25 semi-finalists will be narrowed down to 10, and they will be included on Homegrown VII. The setting is Heaven, which is down under Q107's offices - and the date is Apr. 18. You gotta have an invitation.

Speaking of Heaven . . . !!!

Our reporter Kevin Wynne attended a 'low-key' date by RCA's New Regime last week at Heaven, and apparently came away very impressed. He told us that the band has a "fresh" sound and the goods to follow through on the label's confidence in them. A debut LP is due shortly. Stay tuned!!

Get ready for THE golf tournament!!

Garry Newman called the other day to advise that the Ontario Music Industry's 12th Annual Golf Tournament will be held July 23 - same place as last year - Sleepy Hollow Golf & Country Club in Stouffville, which is just north of Toronto. They're starting to promo this fun event early this year - so you better get your name in. They can only accommodate 200 golfers.

What's in a name . . . ??

It was a year ago when Mel Shaw came up with the concept for a History of Cancon

Let's call a spade a spade . . . !!!

I noted with interest an item in a recent issue of Radio and Records concerning "Paper Adds" by radio stations. A "paper add" is when a station reports it is playing a record, when in fact, it is not.

R&R contends this can affect the statistics the trades give back to their readers, therefore a record appears stronger than it really is in reality.

R&R uses 164 reporting stations to compile its Country Chart. RPM lists 13 reporting country stations, think of the influence their stats have on this country chart. Think of the influence RPM's chart has on other country programmers. As they say on Hill Street Blues reruns - "Let's be careful out there!" So you're not an RPM reporting station. So you're not involved in "paper adds". Think about it - those reply cards you sent back to the record companies - do you really play all those records you say you do? Are they all rotated equal to others in the same category?

I hope so, because if you're not being truthful, the people who read those cards are getting a false impression. Then, guess who they tell? How many times have you heard on the phone - "What, you're not playing that song - everybody else in the country is "on it".

So, let's call a spade a spade - if you're not playing the record, say so. It may be harder to do, but at least we are being fair to each other and more importantly, we are not misinforming the record industry.

Bob Henry

radio show. He interviewed such names from the past as Stan Klees, George Struth, Paul White, Ron Scribner, Barry Allen, Duff Roman, Dave Mickey, Les Emmerson, Chad Allen, Ricky Patterson, Bobby Curtola, to name just a few. These people were very important during that era. One year ago Mel named the show Northern Lights. Why not . . . it's a great name, and it came up again with a greater meaning. Mel has now changed the name of his series.

Be careful with those 12" singles!!!

Record labels should be careful in promoting 12" singles to programmers. Some of them become quite annoyed - and will let you know what to do with it - quickly.

Sorry about that . . . !!!

There was a very rude and cutting comment in this column a few weeks back that stirred the object of the ridicule to say to a close confidant, "Everybody reads RPM". We always knew we had a big following, but what we didn't know was that my rotten comment would be so associated with this "person" and that the industry got to him in such a hurry!!! Should I say I'm sorry??

Now . . . that's a useful promo . . . !!

RCA's Tracy Keizer made my day when she brought me the beautiful Whitney Houston calendar, mounted and ready to hang on the wall. Now, here's a talent that's ready to bust out . . . and Tracy's not doing so bad either. Whitney will be in the Toronto area mid-April to promo her new RCA album.

No jacket required . . . ???

If you were wondering what the No Jacket Required title means . . . here's the explanation from Phil Collins: "It's one of those funny things that happens on tour . . . when you pay vast sums of money for a hotel room and they still don't consider you suitable enough to bring in the bar because you don't wear a jacket. Over the last couple of tours with Robert Plant, we had a couple of incidents." (EC: There are still some bars in the world, where you can't get in if you're wearing jeans).

We have to be fair !!!

When people phone about table arrangements for Big Country, we tell them that we give out the tables according to when we receive the full payment. It's the only fair way!

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Record bucks for OXFAM

Randy Bachman, K.D. Lang, and the Powder Blues are a few of the Vancouver-based artists who have contributed to a recently completed LP in aid of African famine victims. The centerpiece of the benefit LP for OXFAM is Open Your Heart — written by Duane O'Kane and Id Guinness. The initial pressing will be 1,300 with the LP slated to hit retail Apr. 16. It will sell for $7.99, with as much as $6.50 going to OXFAM. O'Kane and Guinness, employees of the Ministry of Human Resources, have each spent around 50 hours a week setting up the project over the last three months.

Chilliwack reforms

Chilliwack, the veteran west coast band formerly on the Solid Gold label, have reformed around founding member Bill Henderson. The lineup consists of Henderson (guitar, vocals), Claire Lawrence (sax, flute, keyboards), John Roles (guitar), Jerry Adolph (drums), Brian Nucombe (bass), and Robbie Gray (keyboards). Chilliwack are currently touring Ontario and Quebec. Remaining dates are: Kitchener (Apr. 12), Sudbury (13), London (14, 16), Kingston (17), Burlington (18), and Scarborough, Ont. (19).

Slugs to tour

Ritdong/A&M recording act Doug and the Slugs, currently on release with Love Shines, a single taken from their Popaganda LP, have been firmed for a slate of dates that began Apr. 10 in London, Ont. In addition to garnering 10 nominations for the CARAS

West Coast Music Awards, the Slugs were recently granted a VideoFACT award to assist in the production of a video for Love Shines. The remaining dates are: Montreal (Apr. 14), Halifax (17-20), Kingston (25), Oakville (26), Sudbury (27), Brandon (30), Prince Albert (May 1), Red Deer (2), Edmonton (3, 4), Whitehorse (17), Dawson City (18), Inuvik (19, 20), Canmore (23), Calgary (24, 25, 26), Victoria (30), Vancouver (Jun. 21, 22, 24, 25, 28), Calgary's Klondike Days (July 8-13), and Toronto (July 31).

New Prince LP scheduled

WEA Music of Canada is preparing for major retail action on the new Prince album Around The World In A Day, expected for an April 23 release. Prince's current album, Purple Rain, resulted in five hit singles, the most recent being Take Me With U. The LP has sold over 700,000 units in Canada alone. The new album, produced by Prince & The Revolution, marks his first studio album in some time, and is being released in a 4-colour gatefold jacket. Prince recently announced he was retiring from live performing to pursue recording and acting. He played the lead in the Purple Rain movie.

Canadian date for Madonna

Sire recording artist Madonna has been firmed for one Canadian date — Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto on May 23. The lone Canadian date is part of a 27-city tour for the singer. Madonna's second single from her Like A Virgin LP, Material Girl, has entered the Top 5 on RPM's 100 singles survey. The title track, taken as the first single, went to No. 1. The LP has attained triple platinum (300,000 copies or more) status in Canada. Madonna's international sales exceed 10 million. The Virgin Tour kicks off Apr. 10 in Seattle. Madonna will be backed by an 8-pc. band. Sire product is distributed in Canada by WEA Music.

B.C. label issues first single

Howard Exley, a former member of the Saskatoon 60's band the Oracles, has formed his own Kellexen label. Initial single, Let Me Down More Gently Than The Rain, was produced by Exley, the B-Side, In-Crowd Girls, was co-written by Exley and David Enns in 1965. They also wrote the plug side during the '70s. Coming up is an album, hopefully for a June release. Exley is now living in B.C.

New Ratt LP scheduled

Atlantic recording act Ratt, currently on tour in Japan, are slated to release a new LP in June. The working title is Invasion Of Your Privacy. Ratt's debut LP, Out Of The Cellar, is nearing double platinum (sales of 200,000 or more) status in Canada. The band's newest video, So You Think You're Tough, is a track from an EP recorded prior to the Atlantic signing. Atlantic recently reissued it. In related news, records by Warner Bros. acts John Fogerty (Centerfield) and David Lee Roth (Crazy From The Heat) have achieved double platinum and platinum (sales of 100,000 or more) status in Canada respectively. Geffen recording artist Don Henley has achieved platinum status with his Building The Perfect Beast LP. Atlantic, Warner Bros., and Geffen are all distributed in Canada by WEA Music.

ALBUMS

SAWYER BROWN - Country
Sawyer Brown - Capitol/Curb - ST-12391-F
 One of the bright new, bushy-tailed country groups to make an impression on the charts, Sawyer Brown follow their single success with this Randy Scruggs production. Leona their debut single is included here along with Step By Step, their current chart happening, which was penned by lead vocalist Mark Miller. Also key is Miller's penning of Broken Candy and his co-writing of Feel Like Me with producer Scruggs. A natural crossover group.

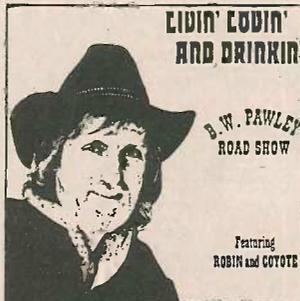

ROBBIE MacNEILL - Country/Pop
Pieces - SummerSalt - SSA-1184
 A top professional in the field of song-writing, producing, arranging and instrumental accompaniment, Robbie MacNeill finally reveals his vocal talents and leaves the rest of the session to the experts. The experts in this case are producer George Condon, arranger Eric Robertson and a who's who of the best in session people including guitarists Brian Russell and Jim Pirie, bassist Peter Cardinali, keyboardist Eric Robertson, Bob Lucier on steel, and percussionist Brian Leonard. As well, the background vocals were supplied by Sharon Lee Williams, Shawne Jackson, Stephanie Taylor, John Rutledge, and Debbie Fleming. Key is Once We Had Love, released as a single, but also notable is an incredible version of Robbie's Song For Jesus and A Million More. MacNeill wrote all the material for this Cancon session produced at Toronto's Manta Sound.

DAN FOGELBERG - Country
High Country Snows
Epic - FE-39616-H
 Dan Fogelberg has discovered country music . . . or that should read "traditional music from which American contemporary music evolved". His cast of players are the selling points here: Ricky Skaggs, who lends a vocal assist with Herb Pedersen on the Earl Scruggs/Lester Flatt penning of Down The Road, guitarist Doc Watson on Fogelberg's Wolf Creek, and mouth harpist Charlie McCoy on 2 more Fogelberg originals, Shallow Rivers, and Sutter's Mill. All of the above are key. Go Down Easy will be the first single, accompanied by a video. Hot country fare that will find strong acceptance with the A/C crowd as well.

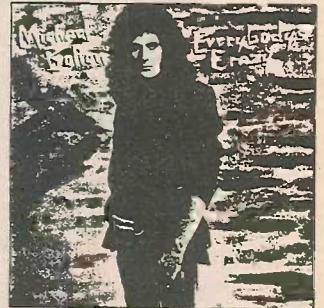

B.W. PAWLEY ROAD SHOW - Country
Livin' Lovin' And Drinkin'
Globe - G1015-N
 Produced by John Stewart at The Grange Studios (Cedar Valley, Ontario), The B.W. Pawley Road Show, strut their brand of contemporary and traditional country. First single, Ten Good Years, is beginning to take hold. Also key are Brian Pawley's teaming with guitarist Al Manning for the writing of Drinking You Outa My Mind and Pawley's solo effort, Out Of Control. Besides Manning on guitars, Mike Holder handles steel, Glenn LeCompte is on drums, Bill Shindle looks after bass, and Howard Willett does an impressive job on mouth harp. Maritime tour now underway which should give LP a boost.

RONI SOMMERS - Country
High Caliber
The Great North American
Phonodisc Company - NAP-4326
 Currently on release with One Heart Away (From Being In Love) included here, Roni Sommers displays her smooth vocal delivery on this Eastern Sound co-production by Dallas Harms and Mike Francis. The latter also supplies electric, Spanish and acoustic guitar backing. Also notable in this session are Jim Pirie on acoustic and Spanish guitars; steelman Steve Smith; keyboardist Bruce Ley; drummer Barry Keane and Ray Parker on synthesizer. Background vocals were supplied by Robert Armes, Shawne Jackson, Colina Phillips, and Sheree Jeacocke. Key, besides the single are Mike McCullough's Knowing That You're Gone, and the Deborah Allen/Rafe VanHoy penning of In Between Heartaches. G.N.A.P. is based in Dundas, Ontario.

MICHAEL BOLTON - Rock
Everybody's Crazy
Columbia - FC-39328-H
 American rock that goes right down the middle of the road. Title track taken as a single. Produced by Neil Kernon.

COUNTRY

New single from Eastman

Eddie Eastman follows his most recent single success, Dreaming All Over Again, with the Gilles Godard/Jeff Newman co-production of Take A Chance With Me. This Eastman original was produced in Nashville. Eddie recently teamed with Carroll Baker at the Country Radio Broadcasters Seminar where they performed a duet and solo numbers. Mary Womack took above photo.

Carroll Baker and Eddie Eastman perform duet for Country Radio Broadcasters Seminar, held in Nashville in early March.

Weber touring West

Paul Weber, currently on release with his Great North American Phonodisc single, She's No Lady, is currently on an 8-week tour of the West. Paul's duet with Joe Firth, Draggin' That Ball & Chain, is also catching airplay. A new Weber LP is expected to be released shortly. The project is a family LP that was recorded over Christmas at Kinck Sound in Toronto and includes his three sisters, Judy, Susan and Lynne, his brother Mike and his Dad, Smokey, along with various members of Joe Firth's Promised Land Band. Both Paul and Mike produced the LP which is titled The Weber Family — Together.

A parting blow

Dave Mulholland's final column tees off on the Edmonton host committee for Country Music Week '85. This group has been negotiating with a name U.S. country act to host the awards show. Says Mulholland: "The industry that has spent 10 years trying to get out from under the shadow of Nashville is now trying to put itself back in that shadow on its most important night of the year."

Yonge St. makes its debut

Canadian country singer/songwriter Brett McNaull has become the first artist to be released on the new Toronto-based Yonge St. label with his single For Loving You. A former DJ in Estevan, and Kirkland Lake, where he presently makes his base, McNaull has been writing songs for 18 years, and wrote Whole Lot Of Pride which was recorded by Ocean and also came in second in the 1972 Hear Canada Singing Contest. The composition came ahead of songs written by such names as Bruce Cockburn, Dan Hill, and Shirley Eikhard. He also wrote Homeward Bound To The Country which gained much airplay. Yonge St. is headed by label president Doug Virgin, a former member of the group Deliverance. The next release from the label will be Nothing More We Can Do, a duet from Donny Jarrett & Lillian set for May 1st.

Haggertys off with B&C single

The Haggertys, a husband and wife team, are showing a national pattern of acceptance with their debut B&C single, Tonight I'll Make It Up To You. The single, a John Collins' original was co-produced by Collins and Eric Roy Baragar. B&C is based in Belleville, Ontario. The duo is backed by two other musicians and tour Ontario clubs as a 4-piece group. An album is in the works.

Ed Keeley promoting Cancon

The Nashville-based Ed Keeley Promotions is currently laying on a heavy promotion for three of Canada's top country names: Gilles Godard, Carroll Baker and Eddie Eastman. Godard has been a regular visitor to Nashville where he has been working with Pat Duke on writing and coordinating jingle packages for various radio stations. The pace has been hectic for Gilles, who says: "I feel the need to express things through an artistic point of view. To stay ahead in the music business, you have to keep coming up with something new and creative. I guess that's why I enjoy different projects such as these jingles I've been working on for the last few weeks." He is currently looking good on the RPM Country 60 with Hold On To What You Got. Gilles will be attending the Big Country Awards in Toronto (Apr. 28) where he has been nominated for four awards: Top Country Duo (with Kelita Haverland), Top Country Composer, Producer, and Best Country Single.

Geoff Edmunds is building

The Jinga single release, Saturday Night, by Geoff Edmunds is beginning to build a solid base, with heavy playlist action particularly in the West. The attraction with this single is Edmunds interpretation of Texas Swing. Hee Haw regulars Tommy Williams on fiddle and Russell Hicks on steel, provide some fine professional instrumental work on the session, produced by Mark Goodman. Edmunds is living in Victoria. His baby brother isn't doing too bad either, but not in the country field. Dave Edmunds, a noted British guitarist, is on release with High School Nights; with Porky's Revenge on the flip. Both sides were taken from the Porky's Revenge soundtrack.

Shooting Star bows Gerhardt

New from the West is Pretty Love Song by Ann Gerhardt and The Shooting Star Ranch Band. The single is released on the Edmonton-based Shooting Star label. The plug side was penned by Gerhardt. Shooting

Star comprises Roy Harms (guitar/vocals), John Goulet (guitar/vocals/keyboards), Wayne Harms (drums/vocals), and Glenn Harms (bass/vocals/keyboards).

BX-93 finalist on release

Tia (Hofgraft), one of the five finalists in the recent BX-93 Country Roads concert series, wasted no time in releasing her debut single. The young Simcoe, Ontario artist teamed with Brian Barry to write Chase The Sun which has been released on the Ti-Tam label. The session was produced by Ian Madge. Tia has played a variety of clubs/concerts from dinner clubs to country and bluegrass festivals. She has also appeared in locally produced musicals such as The King And I, The Sound Of Music and My Fair Lady. She is also known to national television audiences through her guest performances on the Tommy Hunter Show, the Family Brown Show as well as on Global and the Opry North radio show.

A voice from the past

Remember Gary Buck? The last we heard he was operating a country club in Calgary. Now, he's surfaced on disc once again. His new Quality single, E.T. Still Means Ernest Tubb To Me, is a duet by Gary and David Houston. Not too much info available on the single except it was produced by Tillman Franks.

Coming up from Natale

Lou Natale is readying his follow-up to Where Would I Be, his 5th single for Dee Communications and which did well across the country. The new single is titled Serenade Your Lady.

Globe LP release for Pawley

The B.W. Pawley Road Show, currently on release with their Globe single, Ten Good Years, can now tie their Maritime tour into a promotional vehicle for their just released album, Livin' Lovin' And Drinkin'. The LP, produced by John Stewart at The Grange Studios in Cedar Valley, Ontario, is a departure from their first album and features members of Pawley's Touring Band.

More Cancan from Comstock

Frank Fara, of the Kansas-based Comstock label, reports good initial reaction to the release of Billie J. Helmky's new single, Nothing Could Ever Be The Same. The single hit the Cash Box Country Chart at No. 83 with a bullet (Mar. 16). The plug side was written by Barbara DeStefano and produced by Patty Parker at Nashville's Sound Emporium. Helmky makes her home in Regina.

More clout for FACTOR

Telemidia Ontario — owner of eight Ontario radio stations and awaiting CRTC approval on the acquisition of two others — has joined the list of organizations that support FACTOR — the Foundation to Assist Canadian Talent on Records. Ocean Sound, the Vancouver recording facility, has also become a supporter of FACTOR. The studio joins a number of other companies who provide assistance to FACTOR-funded artists in the form of studio time. Said FACTOR's Executive Director Earl Rosen: "The contribution of the Sound studios to FACTOR now exceeds a value of $30,000 a year. Ocean Sound, like the other studios who support FACTOR, offers a range of first-rate facilities, and their new involvement with us is greatly appreciated."

CKTA turns back time

CKTA Taber, an established, contemporary, country music station serving Southern Alberta, is just coming down off their Mystery Country Gold promotion. Morning drive personality asks callers to try and identify the Mystery Country Gold. They are given one line from the song and if correctly

Conestoga honours to broadcast students

Ten students and graduates of Conestoga College's Broadcasting/Radio and Television program received a total of 12 awards at the program's 11th annual awards dinner, held Jan. 23 at the Waterloo Inn.

Guest speaker for the occasion was broadcaster/actor/producer Lorne Greene. Ap-answered the caller qualifies for a weekly draw to win one of 5 gold prizes, including a lighter, money clip, I.D. bracelet, pen or key chain. The Grand Prize of a Grandfather Clock, with a retail value of $2,000 was awarded on Mar. 15.

Derringer to MD - Q-107

John Derringer has been appointed Music Director at Toronto's CILQ-FM — better known as Q-107. The appointment is effective immediately, with Derringer reporting to Vice President Gary Slaight. Derringer, whose real name is Hayes, will continue to do his 3-7 shift at the station and co-host the 6 O'Clock Rock Report with Bob Mackowycz. The station's former Music Director was Samantha Taylor, now with CBC-TV's Video Hits program and CFNY-FM in Toronto.

CKBB/CKCB bows Pony Party

Barrie radio station CKBB and sister station CKCB Collingwood, launched their Pony Party (Apr. 1). Listeners are asked to phone the station and "pick the Pony parking place — behind door 1, 2, or 3." A sound effect randomizing system decides whether the caller is correct, and if they are they receive a special invitation to the Pony Party at the sponsoring car dealership's showroom on proximately 300 current students, alumni, broadcast industry and college representatives, and guests attended.

Two awards each were won by Scott Pettigrew and Mike Ongarato. Pettigrew, now with Stratford's CJCS, won a Newsman/Newsman of the Year Award, and the program's most prestigious award — Broadcaster of the Year. Ongarato, who graduates in 1985, received the Carl A. Pollock Memorial Award, and was named Radio Producer of the Year.

Dennis Chippa was named winner of the Newsman/Newsman of the Year Award for coverage of fast-breaking news. Chippa is currently a sportscaster with Wingham's CKNX-TV/Radio.

Craig Angles, currently with CKKW Radio in Kitchener, won the Year III Announcing Award, as well as Announcer of the Year.

The other Announcing Awards went to Paul Hill (Year I) and Jamie Hall (Year II). The largest single award — the $500 John Larke Memorial Award — was won by Brian Hunter. Peter Karowski was winner of the K.A. MacKenzie Memorial Award.

This year's Television Producer of the Year Award went to Peter Campbell.

Sponsors for this year's event included CAP Communications of Kitchener, CKSL Radio of London, CJOY/CKLA Radio of Guelph, Great Lakes Broadcasting Systems Ltd. of Kitchener, and the Central Canada Broadcasters Association.
