The Junos - the star system is working!!!

This year's Juno Awards presentation (Nov. 4) would indicate that Canada's star system is finally in place. The 90-min. television spectacular is no longer an industry-oriented event nor is it "just another CBC variety special". After 15 years of pushing and pulling and dealing more with politics than the resources at hand - the Junos have been elevated into a recognizable national happening.

Produced by Perry Rosemond, in conjunction with the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (CARAS), and the CBC, the Junos were hosted by Andrea Martin and Martin Short, a pair of professionals whose unique brand of comedy set the pace for the marathon showcasing of talent and in fact, added a note of relief to what could have been a boring session.

There was some criticism of the show, which will probably not go unnoticed elsewhere in this edition, but on average, the consensus of opinion by industry people would put this year's Junos in the "best yet" category.

Surprises, there were very few. Bryan Adams made a fairly good sweep - taking 3 out of 5 awards he was nominated for (Male Vocalist, Album and Songwriter, the latter shared with Jim Vallance). Last year he won 4 Junos - the 4th being as Producer of the Year.

It was obvious from the audience reaction that Corey Hart's win of the Best Single (Never Surrender) certainly was a highlight of the evening, being as he was up against Adams. Never Surrender has been on the RPM 100 singles survey for 26 weeks, topping the chart on July 6, a position it held for 4 consecutive weeks.

Another well-deserved win was the Gowan video of A Criminal Mind, which won director Rob Quartly the Video Juno of The Year.

Tina Turner brought the house to its feet when she was brought on stage to make the presentation of the International Single of The Year, which went to Foreigner for I Want To Know What Love Is. Turner wasn't finished however, much to the delight of the audience as she went on to perform her new single, One Of The Living, and then brought Bryan Adams on stage for a duet of It's Only Love.

A special Juno was presented to Prime Minister Brian Mulroney by this year's Producer of The Year, David Foster. The Prime Minister accepted the award on behalf of the Canadian people. The Juno was for the Tears Are Not Enough single by Northern Lights, which was produced and co-written by Foster with Bryan Adams, and which raised more than $2.5 million for the African Relief Fund. It was Foster's suggestion that the people of Canada be presented with this special Juno.

Another highlight of the evening was the inducting into the Juno Hall of Fame of legendary country star Wilf Carter, who was on hand to receive the honours from CARAS President Peter Steinmetz. Also presented was the Walt Grealis Achievement Award which was awarded posthumously to Hugh Joseph, recognizing him for his work in establishing recorded sound in North America. Mr. Joseph died earlier this year at the age of 89, and ironically it was he who discovered and launched the careers of both Wilf Carter and Hank Snow. The award, was presented to Don Kollar, Vice President and General Manager of RCA's Record Division by Mark Elliott of CFRA Ottawa, who is also an ABC rep. The award will be on permanent display in Ottawa.

Crystal Globe Award presented to Loverboy

Vancouver's Loverboy were presented with the Crystal Globe Award from CBS Records International. The cut crystal statue, designed by Tiffany's represents more than 5 million units sold, outside the artists home territory.

The coveted award was presented by CBS President Walter Yetnikoff. Other recipients of the award are Neil Diamond, Michael Jackson, Bob Dylan, Julio Iglesias and Barbra Streisand.

The award was presented at a reception held in Loverboys honour in New York on Nov. 6.

Ralph Lockwood hosts CKGM morning drive

Chum Quebec, new owners of CKGM in Montreal, have announced the return of Ralph Lockwood to the station as their new morning drive personality. Lockwood had been with CKGM for most of the '70s before leaving to pursue interests in television as well as establishing himself as "the English voice of the Montreal Concordes."

Commenting on the appointment, CKGM General Manager Lee Hambleton noted, "With Ralph returning to CKGM and with Terry diMonte on CHOM-FM, I have absolutely no doubt that we have the strongest AM/FM morning combination in all of Montreal radio."

WAT SAYS

Bob Muir leaves Virgin

The rumour that Bob Muir is leaving Virgin is true. Nothing official at press time - so that's it for now.

Best Junos yet!!

It must have been hell around that certain daily when the cub reporters gathered 'round to Juno-bash and found . . . they had tied in to hype the show and it really was the best production they ever had. There were even R&B awards. I heard Liberty Silver being interviewed and she said the R&B award should be for everybody. Even Bryan Adams might win it. Is she trying to get P.G. started again?? By the way, in my book, Liberty Silver stole the show.

Giant Juno monument stolen . . . ??

If it's true that the big black Juno that looks like something designed for a graveyard - is missing - it's possible the designer is redesigning it or a certain smooth talking government biggy has arranged to have it disappear and hopes that it is redesigned. What an ugly thing it was!!!

Herd at the Junos . . . !!!

Stampeding!!! What time does it start? FOUR-THIRTY??? What time do we eat?

... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

TEN O'CLOCK??? What is this an endurance test? From 4.30 to 12.30 is EIGHT HOURS!!! That's a long time. Don't give us too much of a good thing. Yes, Luba did look like a grape. (EC: Yeah! But wasn't she great). And the PM standing in front of the Reagan-like podium with the crest. . . I don't know!

From where I sat . . . !!!

The PR and handling of the press and other media at the Junos was exceptional - and a great deal of credit should go to Joanne Smale and Carol Markes-George. They did a fantastic job in spite of the stampeding by all those writers. (EC: Where the hell did they all come from?) For a while there I thought we were going to be over-Junoed. At the event itself . . . the press was handled very well, and again the PR was outstanding. Has this industry moved ahead . . . ALRIGHT!!

One slipped past us!!

Whenever an ad comes into RPM's classifieds and specifies gender, we simply change it to obey this country's rights. Well, one slipped past us and didn't the male chauvinists get excited? We actually used the word female. (EC: Where was Captain Highliner that day?? Or anyway???) If we ever go to war, will we conscript "persons"? Will a female ever play for the Maple Leafs or Blue Jays??? Should we advertise that a male stripper is required . . . and they can be either male or female?? The real question is . . . would they have hired a guy???

Is that really him . . . ??

Someone pointed to a well-known Canadian artist and referred to him as "the very heavily subsidized so-and-so . . . !!!"

Play ball or write orders???

Rumour has it that WEA is looking for a salesPERSON for their Toronto Branch. The lucky applicant must be able to play left field and bat right-handed. By the way the WEA bunch on the West Coast are "lording" it over the other branches. The Vancouver Branch has been the "Branch of the Month" for the last 3 months. Why don't you grab a switch-hitter from Vancouver Garry. . . ??

Excuse me . . . !!!

Is there a problem in this country over what is being referred to as "explicit lyrics" . . . ?? There hasn't been . . . but CBC-TV are doing their best to create one. If there's one sure way to sell a lot of records . . . bringing attention to them is the way to do it. Putting a warning sticker on an album is a sure way to make it a top seller.

Now, who gets what free . . . ??

While the Toronto Star is waging a gallant fight to find out exactly who got free tickets for the Bruce Springsteen concert recently held in the Big Potato - the Star claims they would like to list the names. We always thought newspapers got freebies and wondered if their names would be there as well. Meanwhile somebody asked why Michael Cohl wasn't invited to the Junos. Perhaps the Star would like to print the names of those who got free tickets to the Junos.

Will Compact Discs take over . . . ??

There is every indication that compact discs will, in fact, become the major competitor to the cassette. The biggest problem facing the CD market is the availability of product. Sony has taken over the CBS CD plant in Terra Haute, Indiana, and rumours are rife that a couple, or 3 plants are on the drawing board in the U.S. and at least 4 in Canada. With so many being involved in this new "lab-type" manufacturing process, there could be a lot of confusion. I would hope that these people would consider entering into a joint venture with a free-standing agreement. That way, the market could be serviced very quickly and probably avoid many of the problems that have been plaguing the manufacturing of CD's - not to mention the profit factor.

I think I should tell you that EC: is Elvira Caprese, who has helpfully edited all the Walt Said columns in the past. W.G.

RECORDS TO RADIO

Attic's Cancon roster scoring internationally

by Ralph Alfonso
Director, Press and Promotion
Attic Records

Firstly, a big HELLO to our friends in Western Canada whom I saw again during my recent 2-week promo tour with Lee Aaron. She's quite the lady and I know she surprised a lot of people by being one of the nicest, most down-to-earth performers you'd ever want to meet. The video for Barely Holdin On is in regular rotation on MuchMusic, and is definitely a major breakthrough: a sign that the industry is recognizing Lee Aaron for the major rock artist she is, and not confining her to the ghetto of a specific musical genre.

Lee is currently on a massive 2-month tour of Europe where she is headlining 2-3000 seat halls. Her London concert is being filmed for home-video release throughout Europe. There is no question that her next album will break through worldwide and that Lee Aaron will be the major Canadian success story of 1986.

Did you see Lee and Belinda Metz on the Junos? Definitely 2 of the most glamorous ladies in rock!

It looks like we've got a hit single on our hands with Do You Think They Can Tell, by Vancouver's Body Electric. Lead singer/guitarist David Sinclair is the fellow with the acoustic guitar in the Tears Are Not Enough movie that David Foster initially teaches the song to. Radio stats include: CFTR, CHUM, CHUM-FM, CFRW, CJME, CHAB, CJBK, CKSL, CFGO, CFRA, CKPT, CFPL, CFPL-FM, VOCM-34, OZ-FM, CJCH, C-100-29, CFNB, CIHI, CKGM, CFRN, KIK, AM 106, and more, for a current total of over 100 stations.

The group's new mini-LP, Two Worlds, features the AOR cut, All Through The Night, and the soft/A/C track Don't Look Back. The video for the single has already debuted on MuchMusic and we're now looking at a possible Ontario tour next month. David Sinclair was in Toronto last week for promo that included appearances at CITY-TV's Toronto Rocks, CHUM-FM, CKFM, RPM and more.

Continuing to gain strength in Canada is Que Te Quiero (Kay-Teh-Key-Airo) from Katrina and The Waves. The video was added at Much last week and the 45 is already converting to chart. Current stats are: CKCK-34, VOCM, CJCH, C100, CIHI, CKGM, CKOI, CJAD, CKLC, CFRA, CKPT, CHUM, CFPL-FM, CKRA, and more. The group is currently in pre-production for their next LP.

Canadian fans can expect lots of new material.

We've just finished an amazing video for the title track to Razor's Evil Invaders LP. Directed by Chris Terry (Honeymoon Suite, Nylons, Helix) it's a superb documentary/concept-style video from this noted film-maker.

New on your desk is the debut LP from Montreal's Dagger (Not Afraid Of The Night). Key cuts are Do It Again, It's Alright, and Give 'Em What They Want. Group is managed by Paul Levesque (Luba). Expect some solid touring to support this release.

The Nylons are back in Canada with several tour stops in Western Canada during November. We're looking at a new LP for next spring.

PolyGram Video clips include Opus & KISS

Quality readies release of Jewel Of The Nile

Quality is preparing an early December release of the soundtrack from the 20th Century Fox film, Jewel Of The Nile, the sequel to Romancing The Stone. The film, starring Michael Douglas and Kathleen Turner, opens across Canada Dec. 11.

In addition to tracks from various Jive artists, the album will contain several tracks by Billy Ocean including a single which ships to radio Nov. 15. Ocean's current album, Suddenly, has been on the RPM 100 for over 50 weeks.

Palais des Festivals
Cannes, France
January 27-31, 1986

20TH
ANNIVERSARY

RESERVE YOUR PLACE NOW AT THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY MARKET

The buzz has already started in the Music Industry. MIDEM '86. In its 20th year, the world's greatest music show is expected to top the incredible level of business achieved this year by the American Music Industry.

MIDEM is the music world's largest international marketplace. To celebrate its 20th year, MIDEM '86 will be greater than ever, with over 7,500 professionals from 1,500 companies and 50 countries expected to participate.

Be there to meet the top producers, record companies, music publishers, and independents. Be there to promote your records and catalogs, push your artists, or negotiate distribution rights. Be there to connect with music video service companies at MIDEM Video Clip. Be there to view the latest innovations in studio equipment. Be there to participate in the 3rd International Radio Program Market. And at MIDEM, more than 900 journalists will be there to see you.

As an exhibitor, you'll find everything is done for you, including a fully furnished office with a phone and audio equipment. Just contact your local office for information about your stand and listening room.

But if all the business contacts in the world aren't enough, what else does MIDEM '86 have in store for you?

CELEBRATIONS!

The 20th Anniversary is being marked by a series of glittering events including galas, concerts, live broadcasts, and pleasant surprises that we'll keep up our sleeves until you arrive.

It would take months and great expense to line up the kind of international contacts you will make each day at MIDEM '86. Take a moment now and pick up the phone or fill out the coupon to take advantage of this excellent business opportunity!

Godard & RCA pact deal

Gilles Godard and RCA have firmed a distribution/production agreement, whereby RCA will distribute Godard's Book Shop label. Initial campaign will centre around the release of Godard's new album, Have I Got News For You. The album contains his recent chart happenner, We Won't Ever Say Goodbye as well as Nothing Good About Goodbye, his duet with Kelita Haverland. It's expected the title track will be taken as the next single from the album. In the meantime, Gilles has released a Christmas single titled It's Christmas For All, which he co-wrote with Tim Nichols. The single qualifies as 3-parts Cancon, and is just in time for those programmers looking to bring the holiday season in early.

Carisse produces Golden single

Ottawa's Snocan label has released Bruce Golden's new single, Is That Your Heart Beating Or Mine. This is the 4th single taken from his Missing You album. This particular track was produced by Savannah recording artist Terry Carisse and qualifies as 4-parts Cancon. The plug side was penned by Kingston songwriter Joe Saunders.

Third single from Kelly's Move LP

Newfoundland native Terry Kelly, now living in Halifax, is on release with The Swinger, the third single from his On The Move album. The single and album are released on Kelly's own Gun label. The single was produced by Declan O'Doherty, who also co-wrote, with Kelly, his Christmas single, Old

Tyme Christmas. The latter was produced by Gilles Godard in Nashville and qualifies as 3-parts Cancon. This Christmas single impressed the people at A&A's so much that they put in an initial order of 2,500 singles. Terry's no slacker when it comes to record sales. His On The Move album has already chalked up sales of over 3,000, which is rare for a Cancon country LP.

Country videocassettes are popular

There has been indications that videocassettes of country performers are beginning to become popular. The latest come from a teaming of Kenny Rogers and Dolly Parton and from Ronnie Milsap. Released in both Beta and VHS, Kenny and Dolly's entry is titled Real Love and contains 30 of their performances including Islands In The Sun, Dolly's solo of Baby I'm Burnin', and Kenny's solo of Crazy. The Milsap cassette, also in Beta and VHS is titled Golden Video Hits and includes Any Day Now, Lost In The Fifties Tonight, and There's No Getting Over Me.

A cruel blow to Family Brown

Country music, in the past few years, hasn't been very well accepted as categories in the pop and rock-oriented Juno Awards and it was devastating to see this attitude so blatantly revealed this year. The excitement of being nominated for a Juno goes without saying, but being asked to perform on this highly popular television extravaganza would be the icing on the cake. The Family Brown, one of the most recognizable country groups in the nation, were nominated as Best Country Group, which they won, and they were asked to perform, which they did, but not as part of the televised portion of the show. How rewarding it would have been for those television viewers, who happen to like country music, to have seen The Family Brown - a class country act that could have boosted the image of country music to the 2 million-plus viewers of this TV special.

New album from McLauchlan

Murray McLauchlan is on release with his newest True North LP, entitled Midnight Break. The label issued 2 singles from the album, which might be a little confusing to programmers. One of the singles, I'm Best At Loving You, has been tagged as country, while When You Become A Memory is for the pop programmers.

Second single for Donna Green

Snowy River recording artist, Donna Green, has released her second single for the label titled Smile And Walk Away. This follows up her summer release of I'm Gonna Get Over You. Both were written by Ottawa's Alex Sinclair, who co-produced the session with Gwen Swick.

Skaggs plays West Coast

The Vancouver-based MCM & Associates have set 2 dates for Epic country star Ricky Skaggs. The first is at Vancouver's Queen Elizabeth Theatre (Nov. 17) followed by Victoria's Royal Theatre (18). Katy Moffatt, who was an Academy of Country Music New Female Artist nominee, opens both shows.

Recognizing Cancon country

More and more country programmers are integrating their American and Canadian country records for their charts and playlists. Many country programmers are finding it difficult to make a choice as to what should go on the playlist and they've been giving their listeners the opportunity to choose. Surprisingly enough, listeners are indicating that they like the approach of some of the Cancon artists, who have become more independent in their direction. Sampling stations across the country lately is very encouraging for a Cancon watcher. There are new acts beginning to get a foot in the door i.e. Pat Blyth, the Cole Younger Band, Rescue, Kevin Simpson, The Ellis Family Band, and The Stoker Brothers, not to mention big winners like Terry Carisse, Terry Sumsion, and Family Brown. There's obviously a Cancon country star system beginning to emerge.

New from WHISKEY JACK!

A side - Fiddlin' Man - A catchy Bob McNiven tune featuring some fine fiddlin' by Al Cherny who was the inspiration for the song.

B side - Is It Gonna Last - A country love song with a contemporary feel.

"Your new record is one of the best I've heard."

Carl Harris - CIGV Penticton

"Country programmers have gone for this sound in a big way as evidenced by the national pattern of support for One In A Million." - RPM Toronto

London setting credited for MUSEXPO success

MUSEXPO '85, the 10th International Record/Video and Music Industry Market, and VIDEXPO '85, the 4th International Video Exposition and Conference was held in London for the first time (Oct. 16-18) and, according to the organizers, was "quite successful". There were more than 600 companies from 33 countries participating in both events, drawing record/video executives and professionals from the U.K., U.S.A. Canada, West Germany, The Netherlands, Italy, Sweden, Saudi Arabia, Japan, and Greece, to name just a few.

The seminars, held each of the 3 mornings were panelled by experts in their field who tackled several situations, and quite successfully, with regard to problem areas in their respective endeavours. The panels covered Music Video Programming and Marketing, Video Programming and

W. Carsen appointed distributor for Agfa

At a recent Agfa Cassette product launch, James Slater, President of the Toronto-based W. Carsen, and Jochen Mogwitz, International Sales Director for Agfa-Gevaert in Germany, announced the appointment of the former as exclusive Canadian distributor for the new audio cassette tapes to the consumer market.

The new cassettes are actually improved versions of the Agfa line. The tapes are available in both 60 and 90 minute formats and in 4 different types: Agfa FeI Ferrocolour HD, FE I-S Superferro HDX, CrII StereoChrom HD, and CR II-S SuperChrom.

The new features of these tapes include a new hub design that allows 6 minutes more of extra tape, larger pressure pads, precision azimuth alignment, a new foil liner on both sides of the tape that reduces drag which eliminates alignment rollers as well as a specially-crafted 'five screw' fitted tape cassette.

Agfa-Gevaert has enjoyed over 4 decades of manufacturing experience of magnetic audio tapes, and Slater says, "We are certain that home audio enthusiasts will welcome the same high quality Agfa sound reproduction that professionals have been receiving and relying on for years."

Heavy Capitol promo for Dance Mix LP

Capitol Records have shipped Dance Mix, a compilation album of some of their top singles from the past 2 years. The EMI America LP has been designed for continuous dance play and is geared towards the club and dance market.

Included on the LP are Turn Your Back On Me (Kaja), Let's Dance (David Bowie), Strut and Sugar Walls (Sheena Easton), Crazy In The Night (Kim Carnes), Sidewalk Talk (Jellybean), Never Ending Story (Limahl), and It's My Life (Talk Talk).

Distribution/Home Entertainment; and Music Video Production and Creation.

During the 3-day event, music video entries in the IMV '85 were screened by a jury of leading professionals in the entertainment field. The awards were presented at an Awards Gala at the Hippodrome. The Gala featured an incredible laser/light/video show followed with a live performance by Edwin Starr, who releases on the Hippodrome label.

Other live artists showcases during the 3 days were The Roaring Boys at the Marquee, and the JoBoxers at the Roof Gardens Club.

Prominent Canadian industry people seen at this year's event included Alexander Mair, President Attic Records; Steve Thomson, President Backstage Productions International; Mark Goldman, Director, Audio Products, CBC Enterprises/Radio-Canada; Fred Rich, President A.R.S.; and Carole Pope, of Rough Trade. The latter was in London promoting a script for a TV movie.

Roddy S. Shashoua, Chairman of International Trade and Exhibitions, organizers of the event, was obviously very happy with the showing. He commented, "We are quite pleased with the results of our efforts with the overall event, especially considering that this was, in fact, the first time in London that such an event has ever been held." He concluded with "The event will most certainly show growth in future years now that a precedent has been well established this year."

Attic President Alexander Mair (l) and RPM's Stan Klees flank Heavy Metal's (U.K.) Managing Director Paul Birch.

Double LP and video for U.K.'s Iron Maiden

Iron Maiden, the U.K.'s foremost heavy metallers, are on release with their double album set and long-form video entitled Live After Death. The material was taken from their recently completed World Slavery tour. The tour began in Poland in August of 1984 and after performances in 24 countries, wound down in California in July of this year.

The album contains 3 sides culled from 4 nights at the Long Beach Arena in Los Angeles. Side 4 was lifted from their Hammersmith Odeon shows in London last year and is mostly older material.

Inside the gatefold jacket there are more than 200 colour photos from the tour, also included is an 8-page booklet.

The video was shot at their second show in Long Beach and features their entire North American stage show. The video contains one of Iron Maiden's new singles titled Sanctuary and was directed by Jim Yukich with a production tag of over $250,000.

Sanctuary and Murder In The Rue Morgue, the new singles which have been released in the U.K., are not included on the Live After Death LP. The band is donating royalties from these 2 tracks to anti-heroin and anti-drug abuse organizations in the U.K.

Sean LaRose of RPM (l) seen above with Steve Thomson of Backstage Productions, who just struck a deal with Sue Witham and Adrian Owlett of Nightflite Records.

Carole Pope, who releases on the Heavy Metal label in the U.K., dropped by the MUSEXPO booth, and is seen above with Sean LaRose of RPM.
