Cockburn concert profits to aid Haida Council

Bruce Cockburn, who has dedicated much of his career to bringing attention to the problems of the Third World, has shifted his attention to one closer to home. Cockburn was approached by NDP Member of Parliament, Svend Robinson, suggesting a concert in aid of the Haida Nation, who are fighting for the preservation of South Moresby, an island off the coast of B.C.

Coincidentally, Cockburn had already been booked to play Vancouver (Feb. 22), as part of his World of Wonders concert tour, and he quickly decided to turn the Vancouver date into a fund raiser. As well as absorbing the cost incurred by his band and crew, estimated at about $5,000, the fee for his concert, expected to be about $15,000, will be turned over to the Council of the Haida Nation.

Cockburn will actually be playing 2 dates

MCA's sales & profits top record highs of '84

by Ross Reynolds
Executive Vice President,
MCA Records Canada Ltd.

MCA's sales and profits in 1985 topped the already record highs of 1984. With the addition of IRS to Chrysalis, Island and MCA, we are developing a well balanced roster. The most significant growth for the year came from the MCA label itself. 1985 also marked MCA's re-entry into the Canadian talent arena. Two gold and a platinum album were achieved by Triumph and the Headpins. Also, Hanover's first album was released late in the year.

Ross Reynolds

Motown will make the bright 1986 prospects for MCA even brighter. Each of the labels will see releases by multi-platinum artists such as Huey Lewis and The News, Billy Idol, Boston, Tom Petty, Triumph, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, U2, General Public, and Lionel Richie.

Also, the foundation that has been built over the past several years for a large number of developing artists will pay off in 1986.

in B.C. - Victoria's Royal Theatre (Feb. 21) and the Queen Elizabeth Theatre in Vancouver (22). His tour will also take him to Calgary's Jubilee (24), Edmonton's Jubilee (25), The Centennial in Saskatoon (26), The University of Regina (28), Winnipeg's Centennial (Mar. 1), Thunder Bay's Community Auditorium (2), The Empire Theatre in Sudbury (4), Toronto's Massey Hall (6 & 7), London's Alumni Hall (9), Kitchener's Centre In The Square (11), Hamilton Place (12), Kingston's Jock Hardy Arena (13), the National Arts Centre in Ottawa (14), Montreal's Spectrum for 2 shows (15), and Quebec City's St. Foy Auditorium (16), Dates for Cockburn's international World Of Wonders Tour will be announced later.

New Stones album dedicated to Ian Stewart

The new Rolling Stones album, expected to be shipped by CBS the third week in February, has been dedicated by the band to the late English session keyboardist Ian Stewart.

Stewart, who died last year, appeared on several Stones recordings over the years, and although was not an official member of the group, was considered the sixth member. Stewart also worked as one of the roadies for the band in the early years.

The album, entitled Dirty Work, represents the band's first album in 2 years. The album was produced by Steve Lillywhite and the Stones at Pathe Marconi Studios in Paris.

The first single, not known at press time, will be released later this month and will have the added support of a video.

Several guest artists appeared on the session including Jimmy Page, Bobby Womack, Tom Waits, Anton Fig, Don Covey, and Ivan Neville to name just a few.

A tour has been pencilled in for the spring, but there are no dates available. There is one report however, that the band will be playing Mosport as one of these dates. Mosport is just east of Toronto.

Toronto benefit set for fight against apartheid

Artists In Canada Against Apartheid will hold a benefit (Jan 28) at Toronto's The Holiday (Queen and Bathurst). It's hoped to raise enough to fund a one-and-a-half day multi-media educational festival (Feb. 27 and Mar. 1), to be held at the Rivoli.

Featured at the benefit will be the Aaron Davis Band, who will be joined by Mike Sloski, Ron Allen, Peter Bleakeney, Asher Horowitz and Step Raptis and others, to be announced as soon as they are firm. Davis, well-known keyboardist and composer, co-wrote with Basi Mahlasela, several anti-apartheid songs, the most notable being Mandela, which was made into a video.

Tickets are a minimum $5.00 donation and are available from SCM, DEC, the Toronto Percussion Centre or by calling 416-654-1098 or 537-7701.

Labels supplying only what sells - Hoffman

Ben Hoffman, President of the Toronto-based Record Peddler, reports that "Product available on independent labels, primarily those not connected with any major, gave us an above normal Christmas selling period." The Peddler wholesale and retail operation supplies import selections to more than 150 stores across the country.

Faced with an increasing number of simultaneous worldwide releases, Hoffman says "It always appears as if everything is being released. However, in reality these domestic companies are releasing the major sellers. There is a vast amount of product that is still available - untouched by these companies."

He continues with "Most major labels know how important imports are in breaking their acts, in creating a ground swell and a demand. Really, the amount of advanced copy we release is negligible as opposed to the domestic releases."

Hoffman points out that he has 2 problems "not related to the product, but general economic conditions." He explains that the import business "is cyclical, usually lasting 2 to 3 years - and right now the value of foreign currencies is increasing - which is increasing our cost at the source which in turn is increasing our retail prices."

He concludes with "The interesting thing is that the area of music that suffers is the commercial, popular stuff . . . whereas the odd-ball product continues to sell because it's being bought by the fanatical, fringe element."

MCA Records Canada has become the licensee for all Motown product in Canada, effective Jan. 1/86. Seen above (l to r) Ross Reynolds (Executive Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. MCA Canada), Jay Lasker, Pres. Motown Records), Irving Azoff (Pres. MCA Records & Music Group), Myron Roth, (Ex. Vice Pres. MCA Records/Music Group).

Murray nominated for American Music Awards

Anne Murray has been nominated for 2 more American Music Awards in the categories of Best Female Vocalist, Country and Best Video, Female Country, the latter for Time Don't Run Out On Me. For this award she is up against Crystal Gayle and Janie Fricke. For the vocal award her competitors are Dolly Parton and Gayle.

The Capitol recording star has already won 2 AMA's as well as 4 Grammys.

During the awards show, scheduled for ABC-TV (Jan. 27) from Los Angeles, Murray will perform her latest single, Now And Forever (You And Me).

PRO Canada's determination pays!

There will be good news for ALL publishers and writers, which will be made known next week. You'll have to wait for the official announcement, but PRO Canada dug in on one of their issues with the Copyright Appeal Board and took it to a higher court - a 3-man tribunal, whose decision has opened what was considered a closed door.

The Hawk is 51 . . . !!

Can you believe it? Ronnie Hawkins was 51 years old on Jan. 9 and a bunch of his friends, including B.J., got together at the Black Hawk Inn (EC: the Black Hawk Inn???) and gave him a surprise party. Guess what he said after the noise had died down? What else . . . let's have a party!!! Congratulations Ronnie, we didn't think you'd make it.

A touch of Cannes in Toronto!!

If you are among the lucky going to MIDEM this year, you can sample a touch of Cannes cuisine, right here in Toronto. Andre Guilbert, who owned the Caribou, one of the more popular of restaurants in Cannes, has opened Le maison d'Azur at 80 Front St. East in the Market Square. The food, the prices, and the exceptional French hospitality offered by Andre and his wife should make

Has Anne Murray got a hit . . . ??

You can bet my reputation on it. When Capitol's promo rep, Stephen Young, dropped by with Anne's new single, Now And Forever, and insisted that I listen to it . . . I was pleasantly shocked. Anne has now officially entered the pop and soft rock world, not that she was too far away from it before. This single is so unlike what she has done in the past, even the dyed-in-the-wool rockers like Toronto's CHUM-AM and CFTR, Montreal's CKGM, and C100 FM in Halifax made it an immediate add. Does this mean Anne has removed herself from the country field? Well, not competely. Ernie Steeves, Music Director at CHAM in Hamilton, and one of the recognized country pickers in the business, has given the nod to the new single. By the way, David Foster produced and arranged and co-wrote the song with Jim Vallance and Randy Goodman.

Speaking of hits . . . !!

Watch for chart burners from Mr. Mister (Kyrie), and Starship (Sara). On the album front look for quick chart action for Midge Ure (The Gift) Paul Hardcastle, and TV's Greatest Hits. The latter was a front page pick in our last issue.

Marsbar says goodbye . . . ??

Well, not quite, but he has left the air. Dave (Marsbar) Marsden officially hung up his CFNY-FM (Toronto) mike Sat. Jan. 11. He

Capitol release for Rock Of Ages series

Described as "a conceptual timepiece . . . a compilation of hits, collector's favourites and trendsetting tracks" Capitol released the 12-LP/cassette Starline Rock Of Ages series in time for the peak buying season. The timing was apparently good with impressive sales being chalked up over the recent holiday season.

Each of the 12 records are unique, offering a theme depicting either a time or artists that have stood out. The series covers rock 'n' roll, rockabilly, early soul, instrumental rock, surf music and Doo Wop.

The packaging is also unique, displaying original art and historic photos. On the back of each album is an overview of the album concept, listing each song with historical musical notes and photos of the artists.

The 12-package set includes Let The Good Times Roll - Early Rock Classics 1952 - 1958, 'Till My Dreamin' Comes True - West Coast Rock 1958 - 1964, Eddie Cochran and Gene Vincent - Their Finest Years 1956 & 1958, Let's Have A Party - The Rockabilly Influence 1950 - 1960, Summer Means Fun - California Surf Music 1962 - 1974, Only In America - East Coast Rock 1959 - 1968, In The Still Of The Night - The Doo Wop Groups 1951 - 1962, I Want To Take You Higher - American Soul 1966 - 1972, On The Road Again - Rock's New Frontiers 1966 - 1970, Good Vibrations - Sounds Of The Top 40 Radio 1964 - 1967, Hurt So Bad - Early Sixties Soul 1960 - 1965, and Teen Beat - Instrumental Rock 1957 - 1965.

will now assume the position all good old rockers would like to - that of Director of Operations and Programming - for CFNY.

Now that's PR the way I like it!!

They must have a new PR person at Playboy. They are showing a lot more interest in rock music stars. Lisa Cole, Publicity Coordinator for the "girlie" magazine (EC: Girlie magazine???) That expression hasn't been used since Jaws was a tadpole!!!) sent me a copy. She stressed however, that I only read the piece on what she calls "a rare look inside the personal life of John Mellencamp." (EC: Whatever happened to Cougar???)

Censorship isn't necessary . . . !!

All that noise from Winnipeg recently about a gross performance by a rock artist and the call for banning his future concerts wasn't necessary. Audiences have a habit of looking after things themselves. Perhaps Toronto audiences had enough of his last concert when he played to a fairly good house. This time his date had to be cancelled and someone said it was because of a lack of ticket sales. Of course he didn't have an anthem going for him this trip.

Employment opportunities . . . ??

Are there openings in the broadcast and recording industries? You bet there are. Take a look at page 15 this week. There's a great opportunity for an Operations Manager for a large record retail chain; an opening for a secretary with a nationally-recognized awards academy; and lots of opportunities for on-air news and music communicators.

Connors and Reynolds . . . ???

Now picture this scenerio . . . Scruff Connors (late of Q107 in Toronto) and Joey Reynolds (late of a lot of stations) together in the city of Brotherly Love. Scruff apparently heard that Joey was on the loose (EC: What else is new???) and asked him to join him on the air in Philadelphia. Now that will be a hot . . . very hot show!!!

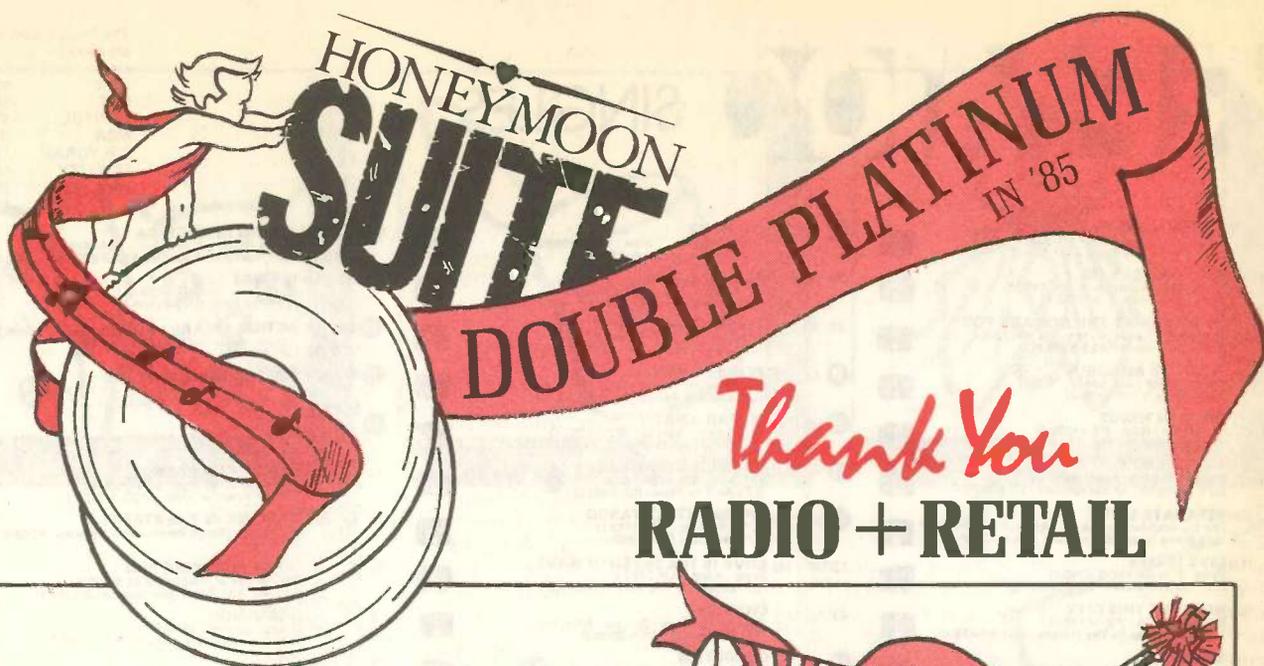

The industry at a glance. . . !!

Beginning this week, you will notice that we have introduced a new format for our front cover. This new concept will very quickly bring to the attention of radio programmers and retailers all the important singles and albums of the week. We are always concerned that the industry professionals are people who don't have time to track one record at a time.

COVER STORY

Pop stars & winos? - Shriekback's Andrews

Touring last fall with Simple Minds were U.K.'s Shriekback. The latter is currently on release with Oil And Gold, an innovative recording that has enjoyed considerable success at the various campuses across the nation.

Shriekback comprises of Barry Andrews (formerly with XTC), Dave Allen (Gang Of Four), Martin Baker and two new additions following the departure of Carl Marsh last fall. The new members are Steve Halliwell on keyboards and Buzz Chanter on guitars.

During their stay in Toronto, RPM spoke with Andrews at the Island offices, prior to their show.

"I think the lyrics to Hammerheads say it all," states Andrews. "They all think we're big and clever, really we don't know anything at all. Actually we work from instinct and to me that's a measure of true intelligence."

When asked if the band could produce 'dumb' music as long as it sells - would he be happy? Andrews replies: "The pure truth is you need more than money and if you're really intelligent, if you really go with what your heart, body and spirit tells you to do, it isn't just the money.

"If it was then all the people with loads of money would be really happy. What you need is something that nurtures you, is satisfying and excites you, so that when you get out of bed you can't wait to get on the phone and get things moving. Like you can't wait to find out how the next project you're working on is going to turn out."

He continues "But you need the money as well - you've got to pay the rent, the phone bills and you've got to have fun: go round the world and spend loads of cash, of course.

"But you need that balance in your life: the cash and the love. That's what my intelligence tells me - that I want to live my life in that way - to be somebody. Not some drugged up person lying in a hotel room, writing rubbish, got loads of money but really can't live with himself anymore."

Andrews says that his work with Shriekback is "completely satisfying" but suggests, "It's a headache sometimes. Sometimes I hate everyone in it, I hate the music, the record and everybody who ever got involved with us - sometimes. That's the biggest truth about it.

"It takes a lot to wind yourself up to 'big popstar mode' - like before I go on stage and make a big dick of myself." Andrews explains further: "There is a sort of way which one views oneself which colours the way one interacts with the world. Like some people think themselves as winos and behold after a while their bodies start to obey them. Their clothes represent it and the way they carry on to the people on the street. I've always found that interesting: the transition between a normal person and a wino, it's completely in their heads not the circumstances for the way they are and what they created.

"The convex is also true though, I mean I've seen it in my friends - they think they're big stars and after a bit, a few years - you see them and they are big stars, their pictures are on the front of magazines."

Andrews concludes with, "Now, I know with the success that I've had has been a question not of really any circumstantial things going on in the world but really what I created in that little place in my head that determines how I'm perceived."

Shriekback are currently in England preparing material for their upcoming, follow-up LP to Oil And Gold.

RCA/Ariola on trial for "chart-hogging"!

by Peter Simpson
Counsel For The Defense,
RCA/Ariola International

Your Honour, Ladies and Gentlemen of the jury, my client, RCA/Ariola, has decided to enter a plea of "no contest" against the charge of "chart-hogging," but feels that the court deserves an explanation of its continuing practice of filling the charts with specifically RCA/Ariola product. There are several other people involved, most of whom must share the responsibility for my client's high concentration of hits.

For one, a certain Mr Mister continues to release hit after hit. With Broken Wings still sitting in the top 10 in several markets across the country, their second single from the Welcome To The Real World album, entitled Kyrie, has already broken out, with playlists and early chart numbers piling up. As well, another recent number one song, We Built This City by Starship, is being quickly matched by the haunting ballad, Sara!

And further, Your Honour, who could have predicted that the London Symphony Orchestra's pairing with Ian Anderson, on the old Jethro Tull song Bouree, would have led to major airplay? Certainly not the defendant. Another song that seems to be propelled by its own strength, Your Honour, is Chain Reaction, Diana Ross' new single. While the defendant, RCA/Ariola, was clearly aware of her status as one of the most successful hitmakers ever, the strength of this must surely rest with Diana, and with the writers of the song, The Brothers Gibb.

I would ask the jury to make special consideration of a label that must surely be considered at least a co-conspirator in the charge of "chart-hogging," Arista Records. With 1985 having established them as a veritable hit factory, they have launched in 1986 with as much strength and energy as any label. Leading their attack on the charts, in a most brutal way, is a young lady known as Whitney Houston, whose debut album has already yielded 2 hit singles. The third, How Will I Know, is now getting active chart motion across the country, and it's only just begun.

Another Arista conspirator, recently having toured through this very country, Your Honour, is the Thompson Twins. With King For A Day now in place on stations in all markets, this band is looking for its second single off the platinum Here's To Future Days album. Surely the fact that they had the nerve to play half a dozen outstanding shows from Vancouver to Halifax cannot be the defendant's fault.

And who could have known that the team of Dionne Warwick, Elton John, Stevie Wonder, and Gladys Knight, singing a Burt Bacharach/Carol Bayer Sager song, would have produced a national number one hit? Only magic, Your Honour, can produce records this beautiful; not the defendant's fault.

And finally Your Honour, in closing, the defendant wishes the court to know that without the support and confidence of radio programmers from coast-to-coast, the charge of "chart-hogging" against RCA/Ariola would never have arisen.

Virgin release schedule heavy in the new year

Laura Bartlett, National Promotion and Publicity Director for Virgin Records is looking forward to what she describes as "a really heavy first quarter."

Among some of that product is a new album from Feargal Sharkey, ex-Undertones' lead singer. The LP will be preceded by a 7" and 12" single of A Good Heart, which was written by Maria McKee of Lone Justice. The album, as yet untitled, was produced by Dave Stewart of the Eurythmics.

Also slated for a January release is the new Malcolm MacLaren LP, Swamp Thing. There will be a 12" single and accompanying video for the first single, Duck Rock Cheer.

Gary Moore, ex-member of Thin Lizzy, has teamed with the late Phil Lynott and 4 sets of producers for his 3rd solo effort. This album is entitled Run For Cover. There is no single information available at press time.

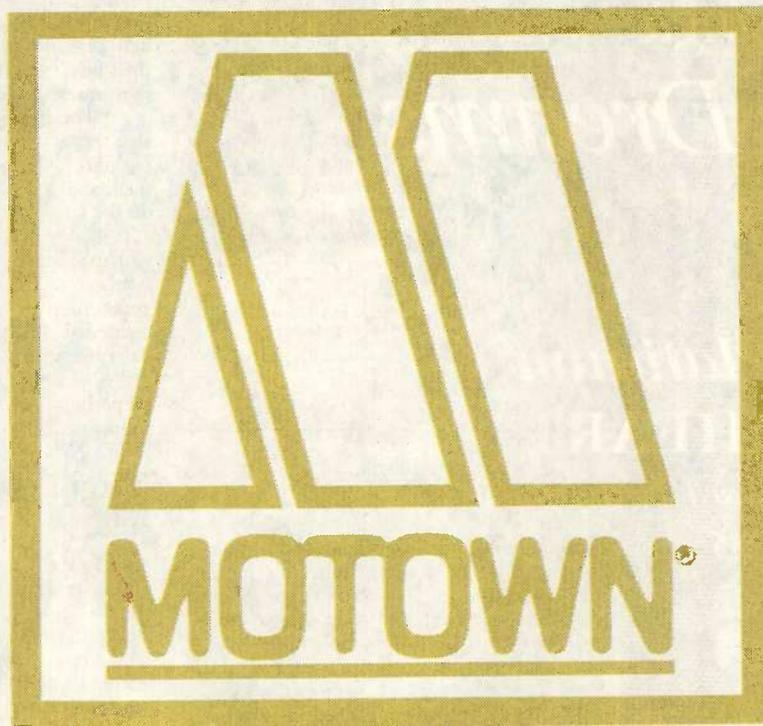

Towards February, Virgin should be releasing the long-awaited Faith Brothers album, Eventide, which is currently enjoying a great deal of chart success in the U.K.

Another highly touted group, Do Re Me, who have gone gold in their home territory of Australia, should be on release in the new year with their Domestic Harmony LP. Bartlett describes this group as "having the vocal range of Chrissie Hynde and sounding like early Talking Heads . . . brilliant pop."

Also expected are albums from Culture Club, Stephen Duffy, Loose Ends, and Human League.

IF THERE IS A RADIO STATION IN CANADA
NOT RECEIVING RPM EACH WEEK,
WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW ABOUT IT!!

There is GOLD
at the end of our rainbow.

AND THAT'S JUST THE BEGINNING.

ON JANUARY 1, 1986
WE ARE PROUD TO BE PART OF 'FOREVER'.

COUNTRY

Let's set record straight

It was reported in the Dec. 7th issue of RPM that Mike Francis was the producer of the Frank Trainor sessions resulting in the single releases of You Sure Didn't Waste Any Time, The Ring I Gave You, and The Chance That You Take With Your Heart. This information was supplied by way of a press release. However, it has been brought to my attention that Francis was only a player on the session and that Stan Campbell produced the session in late January of 1985 at Inception Sound (Toronto). Chad Irschik, one of the owners of the studio, was the engineer and Ron Dann was the leader. Stan is quite proud of the success Trainor has had with his singles, so was naturally upset that the true facts of the production were not known. Said Campbell, "You Sure Didn't Waste Any Time was getting a great deal of airplay everywhere. I was quite proud of it and wanted to be sure everyone knew that I produced it. I did this production in Canada rather than Nashville where I have done so much work." While we are on the subject of Stan Campbell, he has just produced 4 sides with Bobby McGee at Grant Avenue Studios in Hamilton and Bobby is shopping for a deal. Campbell used Mike Francis, Ron Dann, Ray Parker, Barry Keane, and Kim Brandt on the session.

Wray Ellis gains chart action

Wray Ellis, who releases on the Davisville label (Toronto) has been busy promoting his new single, Where's That Woman. The single, a Wray original was also produced by himself at Northumberland Studios. Session people included Evelyn Datl (keyboards), Cyril Rawson (guitars), Burke Carroll (steel), Bob McKinnon (drums), and Ellis on bass.

Don Williams releases on Capitol

Don Williams now releases on the Capitol label. His initial single release is a Dave Loggins penning of We've Got A Good Fire Goin, produced by Williams and Garth Fundis. Colourful picture sleeve should bring attention to this popular country traditionalist.

New Knight single from A.M.I.

Joey Knight starts the new year off with his latest single release, Sing One Just For You. This is a follow-up to Talkin Bout Love, Knight's debut on the Nashville-based A.M.I. label. The label's Director of Promotion, Harold Hodges, is moving in on this single with a hefty promotion which should garner Knight coast-to-coast chart action over the next few weeks. It's interesting to note that A.M.I. is also the release label for The Ellis Family Band, who had a good run up the RPM Country 60 with Don't Tease Me.

Chart action for Carol Johns

It's been a long haul, but Carol Johns is finally getting airplay on her 16th Avenue single, (Walkin A) Fine Line. We don't have too much information as to who produced or where, and there isn't a MAPL logo on the label copy. We do know however, that Carol is from Kitchener and her publicist, Anne Dixon of Byre Productions in Toronto writes: "If adaptability, perseverance and a sense of humour are star qualities, then Carol Johns lights up the sky." Carol and her Special Delivery band have been on the road constantly throughout the Western provinces and Ontario and now they are geared for an assault on New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. That little hook of Cancon could mean a world of difference.

MCA resurrects Boxcar Willie

MCA have brought out a whole new series from their Dot vault and one of particular interest is the self-titled Boxcar Willie album. This one was recorded at Willie Nelson's Pedernales Recording Studio in Austin, Texas. As a matter of fact, Willie not only plays guitar on the session but he does a couple of duets with Boxcar Willie. These duet tracks are Song Of Songs and Boxcar's My Home.

Tame & Talking release on SURN

Tame & Talking, a Toronto-based trio, have released their self-titled EP containing 5 originals. The trio, which was formed in 1981, comprises Robin Brooks (guitar, vocals), Rob Greenway (drums, vocals), and Jonathan Clark (bass).

Derek Christie, who manages and is currently promoting the group points out that "Although this record has been pressed as a promotional vehicle to introduce the group to the music industry within Canada and internationally, it is also being distributed and sold throughout Southern Ontario as well as other retail outlets across Canada."

The EP is released on the SURN label. A video of the Fallen Angel track has also been released.
