Dick Maloney to launch Easy Listening Awards

Dick Maloney, well-known on-air personality at CFMO Ottawa and a popular easy listening recording artist and supper club entertainer, has founded the Academy of Easy Listening Music. The Academy is described as "an organization of people involved in easy listening music, whose aim is to promote and give recognition to this category of music."

Telemedia & Q107 host Juno Countdown

Countdown To The Junos will be a national phone-in show, allowing the general public to ask questions and talk with various Juno nominees. Hosting the show, for the second consecutive year, is Q107's Bob Mackowicz from the station's Toronto studios.

Receiving the "satellite transmitted and delivered" signal will be CHEZ Ottawa, CKPT Peterborough, 94FM Thunder Bay, CFCB North Bay, CITI Winnipeg, 99FM Prince Albert, K97 Edmonton, CKIK Calgary, CFMI Vancouver, CKTK Kitimat, CHTK Prince Rupert, CHIM Kelowna, and CJKL Kirkland Lake.

Telemedia's Doug Thompson, who is producing the show, reports that "Unfortunately, the biggest problem we had was the time zone. The stations in the east would have received our signal at 1 or 2 am."

The Countdown will be broadcast Nov. 2 from 10 pm to 12 pm. Appearing live at the studio will be Kim Mitchell, Honeymoon Suite, and Platinum Blonde. Phoners will be conducted with Gowan, Glass Tiger, and Loverboy's Mike Reno. David Foster is also a tentative interviewee.

Switchback looking to replace Thompson

Shawn Thompson, who hosts Switchback, a Toronto 5 (CBC-TV) production, is leaving the show, to "give all his energy to his role on CBS' Guiding Light." Producer Doug Syrota is now looking for Thompson's replacement.

Says Program Director, Alex Frame, "Shawn has been terrific for Switchback. He's been part of a team that has made the show one of the most creative and talked about in this market, and I look forward to working together on other projects."

In exiting the show, Thompson explains, "My hectic schedule simply became too much, but Switchback has been great. It's produced some of the most original television that's been done in this city in a long time."

Thompson's last show will be Sunday, Nov. 30.

Priority for the new Academy is the staging of a yearly awards show to be officially known as the Easy Listening Music Awards Show. The show will be produced by the Ottawa-based Rosewood Productions, of which Gloria McRae is President. Maloney will be host/entertainer for the awards evening.

Membership to the Academy of Easy Listening Music (ELA) is open to performers, musicians, songwriters, broadcasters, theatrical agents and managers, authors, and "anyone who supports easy listening music within the industry," says McRae, who continues with "The objectives of ELA is to promote communication and develop a higher profile for Canadian easy listening music in Canada and abroad - and to provide a unified voice for the Canadian easy listening music industry." ELA is also building towards organizing an annual Canadian and American easy listening music week convention to be held in Ottawa in conjunction with the awards show.

Categories for the proposed awards show have been classified under the heading of Records: Singer (Male/Female), Instrumentalist, Group, Songwriter, Song of The Year, Music Comedy (1 performer), Easy Listening Radio Station, and Easy Listening Radio Personality; Clubs: Male/Female Singer (Cassettes or Videos); Instrumentalist (not on records, in clubs or lounges), and Group (not on records, in clubs or lounges).

Also being considered are Entertainer of The Year and Hall of Fame awards.

The Academy is currently putting together a Selection Committee of experts in the field of easy listening music. The

Honeymoon Suite wins at Tokyo song festival

Honeymoon Suite won 2 out of 9 possible awards at the World Popular Song Festival, held in Tokyo (Oct. 27). The WEA recording band was one of 12 finalists chosen from more than 2,000 entries, representing 58 countries, reportedly a record number for this Yamaha-sponsored event.

The band won a Gold Prize for Those Were The Days, the song that was submitted, and which was written by keyboardist Ray Coburn, who has since left the group. They also won a "special audience reaction" award for their live performance at the festival. This award was chosen by computer which monitored the volume of applause.

After a short concert tour in Japan, Honeymoon Suite return to Canada and their first date will be an autograph session at the Bay's main store in Toronto (Nov. 8). They will be in attendance at the Juno Awards (10), and swing into their Canadian/U.S. tour, which includes Kitchener (12), Kingston (13), Ottawa (14), Sudbury (15), Thunder Bay (17), Fargo, North Dakota (18), Medina, Minn. (21), New Munich (22), Oshkosh (23), Toledo (25), Youngstown, Ohio (26), Niagara Falls, Ont. (27), Detroit (28), London (29), and Guelph (30).

December sees the band in the Maritimes with dates in Sydney (3), Charlottetown (4), Fredericton (5), Halifax (6), and Moncton (7). They also have unconfirmed dates in members of this committee will review the nominees, and pick a winner from each category. The names of the committee members will be announced at a later date, along with further details on the proposed awards show.

Those interested in joining the Academy should contact Gloria McRae at Rosewood Productions: 613-238-5213 (day) or 613-225-4070 (night).

RCA supports Aretha LP with its first cass-single

RCA/Ariola Canada are testing the waters with the release of their first ever cassette-single for the current Aretha Franklin release, Jumpin' Jack Flash. The single was taken from her new Arista album titled Aretha.

The cassette single, like the 12" release, carries 5 different versions of the song: an album mix, street mix, street mix-radio edit, master dub mix, and beat dub mix.

The single was produced by Keith Richards, who also guests, along with Ron Wood, on guitar. The majority of the album was produced by Narada Michael Walden. Franklin produced 2 tracks: I Knew You Were Waiting (For Me), a duet with George Michael, and If You Need My Love Tonight, a duet with Larry Graham, formerly with Sly & The Family Stone.

It's interesting to note that the album jacket art work is by Andy Warhol. The poster to support the album will also carry Warhol's signature.

Franklin's previous LP release, Who's Zoomin Who, is now well over the platinum mark in Canada. While Jumpin Jack Flash continues to climb the RPM 100 Singles Chart, the new album makes its debut onto the RPM chart this week at No. 94.

Quebec, which will be announced at a later date.

The band's current single, All Along You Knew, written by Derry Grehan, features the flute of Ian Anderson (Jethro Tull), and is expected to move up the charts quickly.

Ex-Spoons member Rob Preuss is now the permanent keyboardist for the band.

A highlight of Honeymoon Suite's latest single, All Along You Knew, is the flute insertion by Jethro Tull's Ian Anderson, seen above with the Suite's Derry Grehan.

Radio promotions create national buzz for Junos

Warren Cosford, Director of Special Projects for the CHUM Group, reports the Dream Trip To The Junos contest, currently underway at 7 major market radio stations, was conceived and originated "to bring the excitement of the Junos to somewhere other than Toronto." The contest, co-sponsored by The Bay, offers the winners an all expense paid trip to the Juno Awards, and a special luncheon with Honeymoon Suite atop the CN Tower.

High-powered promotion launches Parallel One

Combining an extensive advertising and publicity campaign, Canada's newest independent record label, Vancouver's Parallel One have embarked on an ambitious plan to catapult Body Electric and JATO into national prominence.

Heading the company are Scott Andrews and Gordon Sinclair, who have hired LDA-The Music Brokers, and Promotionally Yours . . . Martin/Kierens, both based in Toronto, to handle promotion and publicity respectively.

Andrews has a Master's Degree in Music and has taught at New York's Julliard School of Music, Previous to co-managing Anne Mortifee with Valerie Hennell King, which drew him "closer to the popular music scene," he was a founding Director of both the B.C. Touring Council and the B.C. Choral Federation.

Sinclair's background is in the areas of hospitality, the import and sales of artwork and antiques, and real estate.

Andrews and Sinclair met in 1985 while the latter was accompanying JATO to Victoria from Edmonton - and a year later the pair formed Parallel One Productions - signing Body Electric and JATO to their label.

Both have acknowledged the need for independent labels "to enhance each of its different faculties in order to give young Canadian talent the voice to be heard."

With regard to their music policy, Andrews reveals that both he and Sinclair "have similar musical tastes. If we're turned onto it - we'll sign it." He concludes with "It's a risk-taking commitment to quality that keeps the numbers down and the quality high."

A record/video launch party for Body Electric's new single, Strangers In Love, will be held at Toronto's Plan 9 (formerly The West Side Grill) on Nov. 8.

cheon with Honeymoon Suite atop the CN Tower.

The participating stations are Edmonton's K-Lite, Winnipeg's CFRW, Windsor's OM-FM, Kingston's CKLC, Montreal's CHOM FM, C-100 of Halifax, and Ottawa's CFGO. Cosford points out that being a CHUM affiliate was not a prerequisite and he had hoped to enlist stations in Peterborough and St. John's as well, but there weren't Bay stores in those cities.

CFGO's Program Director Trudy Chamberlain says, "We were ecstatic," when asked the station's reaction when initially approached by Cosford. "It's such an expensive endeavour," she continues, "and except for the airfare, it's not costing us anything. What a coup."

Ian Davies, OM-FM's Program Director points out that quite possibly one of their winners may be an American. "One of our qualifiers is from Dearborn (Michigan), and he is just as excited as any Canadian at the chance of eating with Bryan Adams or Gordon Lightfoot - as well as travelling in limos and attending the luncheon with Honeymoon Suite."

Both Davies and Chamberlain express the degree of organization is unprecedented. "I can't believe how well organized the contest is," remarks Chamberlain. "We're not used to this." Cosford has supplied each station with artist voicer liners (from Corey Hart to Platinum Blonde), mailing stickers and press releases.

"With the saturation we have from the U.S., contests that have high appeal are key in this market," explains Davies. "The liners those artists did, gave the contest that much more credibility, and we're very thankful for their cooperation." Accompanying OM-FM's contest winners will be Andy Stuart - the station's morning personality.

Cosford maintains this is the only contest to feature an "official" photographer and an "official" dessert. Renowned Toronto photographer Raj Rama has been commissioned to document each station's Dream Trip To The Junos, and the CN Tower's Executive Chef, Nigel Shute, has created a Honeymoon Sweet for the luncheon.

Next year, Cosford also hopes many U.S. border stations will run coincidental Juno promotions, as several actually approached him this year. "It's logical," says Cosford, "Bryan Adams, Anne Murray, Gordon Lightfoot, and Loverboy are international stars - why wouldn't they want to get involved?"

CARAS B.C. Chapter holds membership brunch

The B.C. Chapter of the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (CARAS) held their First Annual Membership Brunch in Vancouver (Sept. 30). "I think we got a better cross-section of the industry and related businesses than anyone expected," said Membership Chairman Michael Godin. "We had about 200 people - lots of radio and studio people, along with musicians and management company people."

B.C. CARAS membership brunch (l to r) Greg Smith (CP Air), Lynn Partridge (B.C. CARAS Chairperson), Peter Steinmetz (Pres. National CARAS) and Paul Mercs (winner).

Following a brief audio-visual presentation board members described the "benefits and goals" of CARAS and its B.C. Chapter. There were 86 new members who registered that day, bringing the lone provincial chapter to almost 20 percent of the national CARAS membership.

"B.C. has always had the quality, in terms of national presence," says the Chapter's Chairperson Lynne Partridge, "and now that we have the quantity to back it up, we can accomplish great things."

A draw was held after the meeting and Pal Mercs won the door prize, a trip for 2 to the Juno Awards in Toronto, courtesy Canadian Pacific Airlines and the Hilton Harbour Castle Hotel.

WHAT SAYS

Has it really been 30 years??

I remember when I first called on CHYM in Kitchener, Ontario and was greeted by a gracious and charming young lady who introduced herself as Molly Zakrewski. She had such a cultured English accent, it took me by surprise. Turned out she had married a Polish man. That was almost 30 years ago . . . and now Molly is retiring . . . and Randy Sharrard of WEA tells me she was quite emotional at the little going away party, when he presented her with a gold record. This was the first gold record Molly had received in all those years of programming this important station. We hate to see you go Molly . . . all the best.

Don't count albums out yet!!

Bob Stone, over at World Records, tells me his business is up significantly over last year, and most of the business is in albums. So, before you throw out your record racks and bins, make sure you're not throwing the baby out with the bath water (EC: Are you sure that's the right expression?) After I mentioned in my column that a major store had thrown out their record racks, a well-fed and known retailer was prowling the lanes looking for these treasures. Someone told him, the next millionaire "to be made by the majors," would be opening a store dealing strictly in deletes.

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership." - Pierre Juneau

Juno fever is catching on!!

Well . . . it's getting close once again and the Juno fever is beginning to take hold. I don't think I've seen a year like this . . . with all the cooperation that's going on between CARAS, the dailies and radio stations. Even the brewery people have got caught up in the excitement. They don't really know what it's all about, but they'll be there in force, with all their friends . . . because it's the place to be. (EC: Is that why there's so many faces without names at these functions? Whatever happened to the good old industry events?)

Their time has come!!

Joanne Smale invited me to a magazine launch last week where I was pleasantly surprised by the excitement that had been generated . . . due to the promotion and publicity expertise of Joanne and her group. The new magazine, Tiger Lily, is described as "a global magazine, founded by and focusing on women of colour." What I saw and heard from this group primarily representing third world people was very impressive and they've already attracted interest from 7 countries. The official launch of the magazine will be a Nov. 7 gala at Toronto's Westin Hotel.

Speaking of receptions . . . !!

I've got to tip my hat to Joyce Barslow, who did the promotion and publicity for this year's Miss Canada Pageant. For the luncheon at Toronto's Triumph Hotel, tables of 10 were set up to enable the media to lunch with 3 or 4 of the girls . . . which allowed for a very important personal look at these talented women. Miss Yukon, for instance, was a grocery clerk, back in Yellowknife . . . and she was 1 of 3 contestants entered in the local competition. Unfortunately the last game of the World Series, which had been rained out, bumped the CTV telecasting of the pageant, but there was enough excitement generated for the pageant, that the girls did have their day. Much of the success of this pageant is due the involvement of radio stations across the country, who sponsored many of the local competitions.

Lot's of "exposure" for Jive's Fox!

Exposure is an understatement, I thought the poster was hot! The single-jacket is exposing about as much as I could take...but the music is what counts and if her single can chalk up sales of 1.5 million in Europe then maybe there is more here than meets the eye. Speaking of hot...look for this young lady on the front page very shortly.

Brighton Rock candy . . . ??

Walking into the boardroom the other day I noticed what looked like a stick of dynamite on the table. Not wanting anyone of importance injured, I asked Elvira if she would mind opening the mail for me, which included this dangerous looking object. She loves opening the mail . . . particularly packages. The dangerous looking object, it turns out, was the latest promotion by WEA. Inside the tube was a large roll of Brighton Rock candy, a cute promotion to launch Brighton Rock's new album. I never knew there was such a thing as Brighton Rock candy . . . now I know about the band . . . and something historical about this English town.

Speaking of promotion . . . people!

WEA's Dave Tollington, an old promo "person" at heart, and who learned the basics of the business right here at RPM . . . years and years ago, when he worked for us . . . quite often surprises me. He knows I get into the office, most mornings, around 8 am . . . and how nice it is to have him drop in occasionally with hot coffee and muffins. Kind of starts the day off right . . . wouldn't you say??

A hit's a hit . . . !!

If a record was a hit on the RPM chart, 10, 15, 20 or 23 years ago . . . it's still a hit, according to the CRTC ruling . . . and they claim they have a file that lists all these hits. Now wouldn't that file be important to programmers, who would like to conform with the regulations, but who don't have RPM's charts from the past years? There's got to be a "better way" . . . and we're open for suggestions.

An Iron Maiden calendar . . . ??

Yes . . . and what a beautiful promotion that is. Olie Kornelsen of Capitol Records, sent along this latest promotion from the heavy metal band, which gives their fans, 12 pages of beautifully-detailed colour photos of the band. A terrific promotion, but unfortunately, it's not available in the stores.

And the Bob Seger tickets...thanks!

While rocker Bob Seger was in Toronto last week, performing 3 terrific shows at MLG, he and his band were presented double platinum for his Like A Rock album...and after nearly 20 years "on the road" there isn't a more deserving entertainer. His show was brilliantly orchestrated and thoroughly enjoyable. Thanks Capitol!!!

Appearing at this year's Junos...

The confirmed performers and presenters at the Junos...performing live via satellite from Amsterdam: Corey Hart. In person performances will be provided by Kim Mitchell, Luba, Honeymoon Suite, Glass Tiger, Gordon Lightfoot, Martine St-Clair. Singing a medley are the R&B nominees Liberty Silver, Erroll Starr, Glenn Ricketts, Billy Newton-Davis and Kenny Hamilton. The presenters include Claudja Barry, Maureen Forrester, Carroll Baker, Frank Mills, Bryan Adams, Jane Siberry, David Foster, Moe Koffman, Stu Jeffries, Peter Gzowski, Samantha Taylor, John Oates, Lorraine Segato, Sonia Benzra, Tracy Brown, Tad Campbell, J.D. Roberts, Mike Reno, Tom Cochrane, Mike Levine and K.D. Lang. With more to come...

Savannah keeps the heat turned up

by Debbie Wood - Savannah Records

Well, it looks like the long hot summer is finally over. For some, that means it's time for the inevitable "fall-out." Here at Savannah, however, we're keeping the heat turned up! We're settled in comfortably with our distributor, RCA, and we're stoking the fire with hits!

Canada's CCMA Male Vocalist of the Year, Terry Carisse, follows up the Top 10 success of Love Sweet Love with It Must Be October, a powerful ballad perfectly attuned to autumn programming needs. October, the second single from Terry's new album, None Of The Feeling Is Gone, has been added or charted at over 100 country stations to date and the list is still growing. In addition, the tune has gained considerable adult contemporary acceptance, with one of the first such adds to come from CFRB in Toronto. John Donabie, 'RB's Music Director reports that the single adds "a nice touch to our sound."

Anita Perras & Tim Taylor's debut 45 for Savannah may be Heading In The Wrong Direction, but this is one husband and wife team who are definitely on the right track!

Debbie Wood

Flush from Anita's Top 10 solo success with Heads You Win (Tails I Lose), Canada's reigning Country Duo of The Year travel east in November for Atlantic Canada concerts with Mickey Gilley and then out to Regina to tape a segment of the CBC television show Country West.

Out Of Hand Out Of Control, Terry Sumsion's new 45 from the Midnight Invitation LP, is indeed racing out of control at radio with over 80 stations already on the case. Meanwhile, Our Lovin' Place, the Savannah album that successfully launched Terry's career here in Canada, is working it's magic once again, this time in Britain for the independent Silver Dollar label. British critical and fan response has been so warm, plans are now being finalized for a 30-date concert tour of England and Scotland next

COVER STORY

The Georgia Satellites: back to the basics is best

Unlike many recent Elektra releases, the Georgia Satellites' debut album is "pure" rock 'n' roll. Certainly, neither Howard Jones nor Benjamin Orr are likely to suggest their influences were Jerry Lee Lewis or even The Sex Pistols. However, the label's latest signing from south of the Mason-Dixon are proud of their rock 'n' roll roots.

Lead singer and main songwriter, Dan Baird, agrees that a band breaking out of "the bible belt" is unusual, but "in particular a rock 'n' roll band that's not oriented towards that specific REM, Lets Active, pretty stuff," he says. "If you're a bunch of yahoos out there beating the hell out of your guitars, screaming and complaining about something - it's just really hard."

Among the many and varied comparisons being directed at the band, which include (as per the biography): Bob Dylan, Bad Company, The Rolling Stones, ZZ Top, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Aerosmith, and The Faces, Baird says "it's all true." The one common denominator being the raw power of guitarist Rick Richards.

"He plays so damn strong," relates Baird, "You don't hear people play like that anymore - and if they do - they play too many notes. But his sound is much bigger. It reminds me of Mick Ralphs, or the first 3 records of Billy Gibbons, and then it sounds like Angus Young. Then, at the same time, it reminds me of Paul Burlison back in the '50s. He studies his Chuck Berry, his John Lennon - all the big boys - all the way through, and here he is with the basics."

The fact the band was signed at all is "perplexing" to Baird and his fellow bandmembers. After all, once they had recorded their Keep The Faith EP, the band broke up, due to a lack of interest from any record label. Adding to this confusion, Baird can't understand why the band was signed, when radio formats have softened so much lately, and furthermore, why Elektra are even releasing a single.

"It's real strange," says Baird. "We're one of those bands that can basically only do spring.

Back on this side of the pond, Gary Fjellgaard, the pride of Gabriola Island and British Columbia's favourite country son, has gained the greatest national exposure of his career with coast to coast airplay on his current single, No Time To Lose. Released on October 15, this title-track 45 pulled from Gary's Savannah debut has already won play on most country radio stations and shows every indication of crossing over to adult contemporary radio as well.

As for Canada's favourite country rocker, Juno nominee Matt Minglewood (Country Male Vocalist), is currently scoring strong airplay with Far Side Of Town, single number 4 from Me And The Boys. Matt's promotional activity for the new 45 will intensify immediately after the Junos when he sets off on his annual fall concert tour, an excursion which will take him from Cape Breton Island to the shores of the Pacific before Dec. 25.

what we do. We couldn't tailor make anything to 'fit' the current trend or the new 'pop sensibilities' or anything like that. All that, to us, is just a bunch of weird phrases, invented by someone who is chasing after something."

Baird also maintains that with the single, the label will be "testing the water to see how Top 40 likes us, which to me," he continues "is cuckoo. I mean . . . I don't understand, a tune that was on the original EP 3 years ago that everybody passed on. But it makes you thankful for certain people, finally showing up in your life."

When Keep The Faith generated some sales and positive reviews in the U.K., Baird and Richards hooked up again, and signed to Praxis Entertainment, a management firm that brought the band to the attention of Elektra's Kevin Patrick, who subsequently signed them to a deal.

After 8 weeks of recording this past summer at Atlanta's Axis and Cheshire studios, Baird points out the label didn't get excited until the final mixes were completed. "Then they were saying, 'My God, they sound like a regular rock 'n' roll band.'"

Harkening back to those comparisons, Baird contends his band has "that sort of thing where it could fall apart at any minute. That sheer blind rush forward that Jerry Lee Lewis had, that the Pistols had, and Lou Reed, in his prime time, had, and Dylan on Highway 61. That rush forward - that's the stuff I admire. You've got a cross between that and liking old Aerosmith, Lynyrd Skynyrd - bands that were just good rock 'n' roll bands."

Finally, there is the Stones' comparison, and Baird offers, "I think the biggest thing they had was what is now the Keith and Ronnie - what used to be Keith and Brian - the 2 rhythm guitars - the one guitar played by 4 bands approach just make it so powerful and thick. And it always ended up such a huge thing that it was just undeniable, and that's what I think Rick and I learned from the Stones - more than anything else."

Alberta pays tribute to province's recording acts

The Alberta Recording Industry Association (A.R.I.A.) paid tribute to the province's top recording acts at a well-attended awards show held in Edmonton (Oct. 19). The show was co-hosted by Valerie Gregory of the Edmonton Sun, and Steve Burgess from K-Lite.

Edmonton's Tim Feehan won in the categories of Best Rock/Pop Performance and Male Recording Artist of The Year. Feehan is currently on the RPM 100 singles chart with his Scotti Bros. single, Where's The Fire, taken from The Wraith Soundtrack. Although Feehan was unable to attend the awards show, the audience did have a chance to see the new video that is giving him international recognition and is being used to promote the movie, The Wraith.

K.D. Lang, a Consort, Alberta native, won in the categories of Album (Truly Western Experience), Best Country/Folk/Gospel Artist, Performer of The Year On Record, and Female Recording Artist of The Year. She was also unable to attend, being in Nashville recording her new album.

Other winners were: Paul Hann (Best Recorded Performance by an Alberta Artist), Gaye Delorme (Session Player), The Edmonton Symphony Orchestra (Instrumental Artists), Rob Hewes (Engineer), Dan Lowe (Producer), and Jim Foster (Song - X-Ray Eyes).

The nominated songs by Kelita Haverland, Darkroom and the new band of Eddie Patterson were performed during the Classic Collins' sides released by Quality

Bob Mauro, Marketing Manager for Quality Special Products, reports the upcoming release of a Judy Collins' album titled Amazing Grace. The album has been preceded by a single of the Stephen Sondheim standard Send In The Clowns with Collins' arrangement of Amazing Grace on the flip.

Said Mauro, "We have included the title track, Amazing Grace and Send In The Clowns, because the popularity of both cuts defied a choice - we'll leave that to the public." Mauro concludes with "We would anticipate the saturation, advertising the album will enjoy (November through December) will create a renewed interest in Judy's work."

The album, produced by Collins, Tony Britten and Keith Grant, features the United Kingdom Symphony Orchestra and is released in the U.K. on the Telstar label. Quality has exclusive distribution rights in Canada.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement that 24-yr. old Darcy West had won the David Foster Songwriting Contest. Apparently West wasn't aware that his manager Toni Hammond had submitted his song, Cheating Ourselves Out Of Love, which "shocked" the Edmonton native. Luckily, West and his band, were in town to play the Cook County Saloon, and just managed to get to the show 10 minutes prior to his win being announced. He will be going to Los Angeles to record his song with Foster.

Runners up were Bill Kole, and the team of Peter Bacsalmasi and Sue Moss. They will receive 16 hours of studio time each.

Following the A.R.I.A. Awards presentations, Calgary's Sailcats, one of last year's David Foster Contest winners, plus Edmonton's Twenty Feet and This Fear, played a set of their original material.

McKay instrumental breaking at A/C

With the instrumental "new age" music form beginning to find a niche, Ottawa keyboardist Eric G. McKay, is showing indications of gaining a foothold in the market. Not that his single, Good Times, is, by any stretch of the imagination, the weird type of music that does fit the "new age" category. He does however, offer a gentle classical keyboard mix with a dynamic sax lead - and what is more important - the song is catchy, short (2:12), and perfect for intro's and extro's, not to dismiss feature play, of course.

The single, released on the Globe label and distributed by RCA, was produced by Jack Richardson, and is getting the added promotion boost from Music Box Dancer, publishers of the song.

"We've been working on this single for quite some time," says Kevin Shea, Ontario promo rep for RCA/Ariola, "and we are beginning to catch on at several A/C and middle of the road stations."

Music Box Dancer's John Loweth points out that he believed strongly "in the 'hit potential' of this catchy melody and decided that with an investment into the production of a couple of lead sax lines and a more dynamic percussion track, the tune just might have that extra something to make it go the distance."

When not tinkling with the piano, or writing material such as Good Times, Captain Eric G. McKay is busy at National Defense Headquarters in Ottawa, directing the maintenance of a fleet of aircraft.

ALBUMS

THE PRETENDERS - Pop
Get Close - Sire - 92-54881-P
 Don't Get Me Wrong, the first single taken from this Bob Clearmountain/Jimmy Iovine production, is bounding up the charts. The remainder of this set is simply superb. Chrissie's distinctive vocals carry the songs throughout, yet there is a great sessioning from Carlos Alomar (Light Of The Moon) and violinist Shankar (Tradition Of Love). Also found is Jimi Hendrix's Room Full Of Mirrors, produced by Steve Lillywhite.

ARETHA FRANKLIN - R&B/Soul
Aretha - Arista - AL-8442-N
 The Lady of Soul has returned with yet another hot album. The single Jumpin' Jack Flash preceded the album, with an impressive No. 30 spot on the RPM singles chart after only 5 weeks of release. The single is the theme song for the new motion picture of the same name. Key tracks include I Knew You Were Waiting (For Me) a duet with George Michael and He'll Come Along, the latter she produced.

SHARKS IN ITALY - Pop
Self-Titled - BonAire - BON-30-P
 Although lead vocalist Sandy Reid and Martin Slavin, lead guitarist, write well, the constant 'thump-crash' of the drum machine is too overbearing. Produced in the U.K. by John Rivers. This is a British band.

SAMANTHA FOX - Pop
Touch Me - Jive - 1012-1-J-N
 Fox is right! An incredible success already in the U.K. She should have no problem gaining "exposure" here in Canada (especially if you get the poster with the album). On the serious side, not vocally but in styles Samantha's a mixture of Madonna and Sheila E. It should be interesting to see how radio reacts to this set. It should do well at retail with the right "push". First single taken is Touch Me (I Want Your Body). All tracks are key. Recorded at Battery Studios in London with a variety of producers. A definite success if she doesn't get cut off at the knees with "her lyrical content is not suitable for radio."

THE VENETIANS - Pop/Rock
Calling In The Lions - Chrysalis - CHS-41555-J
 Unfortunately, this LP is going to be overshadowed by the label's "other" hot albums, but it's not a bad recording and deserves a listen anyway. Several key tracks - nothing for today's radio however. Check out One From The Heart.

SURVIVOR - Pop
When Seconds Count - Scotti Bros - FZ-40457-H
 Tracks with some promise include Is This Love, Rebel Son, Oceans, and Can't Let You Go. The label hopes this package will offer multi-format hits and Ron Nevison's production skills certainly add weight to those chances. Nevison shares production credits with Frankie Sullivan.

BENJAMIN ORR - Pop
The Lace - Elektra - 96 04601-P
 First solo effort for ex-Cars member Orr. Produced by Orr, Mike Shipley and Larry Klein. All tracks co-written by Orr and Dianne Gray Page. It almost seems like there has been 2 LP's released by the Cars within 2 months. Should appeal to radio while the Cars fans should keep it moving at retail. If distinctiveness and originality don't count - all tracks are key.

BERLIN - Pop
Count Three & Pray - Geffen - XGHS 24121-P
 Includes the hit single, Take My Breath Away (Love Theme From Top Gun), which held a No.2 position on the RPM 100 singles chart September 27. The LP was produced by Bob Ezrin with Andy Richards and Berlin. With the exception of Take My Breath Away which was produced by Giorgio Moroder. Key tracks are Like Flames, Pink And Velvet and Will I Ever Understand You.

BAD COMPANY - Rock
Fame And Fortune - Atlantic - 78-16841-P
 Whether it's Keith Olsen's production or not, Mick Ralphs just doesn't cut it anymore (with perhaps the title track as an exception). As well, new lead singer Brian Howe doesn't leave quite the impression as did Paul Rodgers. Executive producer credits to Mick Jones, which is probably why this record sounds more like Foreigner than Bad Company. This Love is label priority for radio play.

SHRIEKBACK - Pop/Rock
Big Night Music - Island - ISL-1110-J
 What a follow-up to Oil And Gold. From the opening bars of Black Light Trap, this set romps (and romps) through Gunning For The Buddha to Running On The Rocks, and if those tracks aren't diverse or stimulating enough, then on Shriekback march through The Shining Path ending the first side with Pretty Little Things, which have all only served as an introduction to the second side. This is the band's fifth LP, and intelligence, combined with a brooding intense maturity are keenly on display. Will be a hot item in the weeks to come.

DARREN WALTERS - Country/Instrumental
In Session - The Walters Family - 1-4561
 Perfect for intro's, extro's or feature play. Very rare and well-produced country instrumentals. This 16-yr. old multi-talented musician produced, arranged, mixed and reveals his musicianship on 9 instruments: fiddle, sax, drums, steel guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, piano, rhythm and lead guitars - quite an accomplishment. He also wrote Darren's Ride and does an incredible job on Cotton-Eyed Joe, which he arranged, as well as Ward Allen's Back-Up And Push. An excellent showpiece for this extraordinary family from Bright, Ont.

WILLIE NELSON - Country
Partners - Columbia - FC-39894-H
 What can be said about this veteran of the charts and country music in general. Produced by Chips Moman, who co-wrote the first single, Partners After All, with keyboardist Bobby Emmons. Also key is a Neil Young penning of Heart Of Gold, which should qualify as Cancon (ML).

THE O'KANES - Country/Pop
Self-Titled - Columbia - FC-40459-H
 Powerful country here from this pseudo-bluegrass team - Kieran Kane and Jamie O'Hara. Lots of down-home fiddle, hot mandolin, and even hotter banjo. Watch this pair chart very quickly. They are already doing it with their first single, Oh Darlin, now moving up the RPM Country 60. Also key are Gonna Walk That Line, and Bluegrass Blues. Most of the material co-written by the pair, but give a listen to Arthur Crudup's That's All Right Mama - should be a single.

Ronnie Prophet off with new single

Ronnie Prophet is off and making good inroads with his latest RCA single, Don't Take Her To Heart. The single was released the first week in September. Gilles Godard produced the single in Nashville and co-wrote the song with Tim Nichols. Also released is a single of For The Children, by Ronnie, with the flip, Enfants Du Pays by Gilles Godard. Both sides were written and produced by Gilles, Paul Roumeliotis and Marc Charbonneau. Proceeds from this single will go towards the Children's Hospital in Montreal. Ronnie will also be releasing a new duet with Glory-Anne Carriere of Lucky In Love. This single will be released on his own Prophet label. On the concert tour, Ronnie has landed the Hall of Fame Award Banquet for the American Fair Buyer's Association, which will be held in Las Vegas (Dec. 3). This is a coup for Ronnie, one of the most important showcases of the year - if you're in the concert business.

The majors pulled the plug out

Well . . . last week we complained about the lateness of American country releases in Canada . . . and guess what? This week we received several new releases at about the same time as the American trades. These included Gary Morris (Leave Me Lonely), Dwight Yoakam (It Won't Hurt), Hank Williams Jr. (Mind Your Own Business), John Conlee (The Carpenter), Dan Seals (You Still Move Me), and Don Williams (Then It's Love).

New singles from Book Shop

The Book Shop label has released a new single by The Double Eagle Band, titled Glory Train. The single was written by Mike Kuzyk and produced by Declan O'Doherty. Also from Book Shop comes the latest Gilles Godard single, I Wish We Could Have Stayed In Love, and a Jim and John Hager coupling of Easier Than Starting Over. The latter qualifies as 2-parts Cancon.

A hit out of the box . . . !!

The latest Little Devil single from the Stoker Bros. has been labelled by one country music observer as "a hit out of the box", and he's referring to I've Got You. The single was produced by Rick Whitelaw and Mickey Stoker at Toronto's Inception Sound. This is a Stoker original (see separate story).

Darren Walters . . . In Session!!

One of the more interesting Cancon albums to be released this year is from Darren Walters, titled In Session. The Walters Family, as a matter of fact, have a monopoly on this release. The album is released on The Walters Family album, the production took place at the Walters Family Studios (WFS), and Darren produced the session. Now, here's the real kicker - besides producing, mixing, arranging and engineering his own session, this youngest member of the family (he's 16-yrs. old) played every instrument on the session - all 9 of them - fiddle, sax, drums, steel guitar, bass guitar, mandolin, piano, rhythm and lead guitars. He wrote one of the tracks, Darren's Ride, and arranged the traditional Amazing Grace and Cotton-Eyed

Ginny Mitchell records Lightfoot classic

"I've always been the kind of person to go my own way in life, to do what felt right for me. That's why I chose to record Gordon Lightfoot's classic, Go My Way," says Sweet Briar recording artist Ginny Mitchell in explaining her latest single release. "Thanks to my producer, Mark Schatz and the folks at Glaser Bros. Studio in Nashville, the song really felt right for me - and I hope that my version goes your way too," is her message to country programmers.

The single has already made inroads at country stations - with 19 adds within its first 14 days. "Best I've heard all month . . . Top 10 Canadian country for sure," says Don Landels of CKNL Fort St. John, B.C.

This is Mitchell's fifth single release in 3 years, and indications are that it could be her best. This single, and the flip, Can't Stop Now, will be included on her debut album, along with prior releases Burning A Hole In My Heart, and Hold What'cha Got.

Mitchell is currently working out of Santa Cruz with the band Go For Broke. She was back home in B.C. where she performed with Dick Damron at Expo '86 as well as on the Country Music Week Super Special, and at the Interior Provincial Exhibition at Armstrong, B.C.

Voted Canada's Vista Rising Star in 1985, Mitchell's duet with Dick Damron, won the Duo Award at this year's B.C.C.M.A. awards show.

Stoker Bros hit with new single

Brantford natives Mickey and DJ, known as the Stoker Bros., are currently on release with their 6th single, entitled I've Got You. A follow-up to their Top 20 single You Can't Hide From Love.

The single will also be on the Stoker Bros. debut self-titled LP, set for a late November release, on their Little Devil Records label. DJ, Mickey and X Stoker (Michael MacDonald) shared writing duties on the 10 track set.

DJ explains "We'd like to make a video, but we have to look at the financial standpoint of the whole thing. A video would best suit the last single scheduled to be taken off the LP, in the spring, entitled Fiddle My

Time A Way, because it's a fun tune, but we still have to see how the money is going."

The Stokers are really quite a talented pair of individuals. They have been recording seriously since 1984 and feel that their previous 6 releases did well. "We get a lot of airplay on some of the big country stations" says DJ. Mickey (the quiet one) does the vocals on the new single, but singing is only one of his talents, he also plays guitar, banjo and the fiddle on the album. While DJ takes care of bass guitar, keyboards and vocals.

Nominated for Group Of The Year at the last Big Country Awards - DJ feels "hopefully with the success of our 3 next singles and the release of our LP we will have a better chance next year."

When asked how this relatively new band can play live dates 340 days a year and fill the house almost all the time - Michael MacDonald replies "The Stoker Bros. are a good time, they can make the crowd feel like part of the show." MacDonald an ex-Stoker Bros. is currently promoting and tracking for the Stoker Bros.

Speaking of Dec. 25, all programmers please note: your Christmas gift from The Good Brothers will arrive a little early this year. Better Off Alone, the second single from their Delivering The Goods LP, ships to radio Nov. 15. One of the Brothers' own compositions, Better Off Alone, features Brian Good on lead vocals and soaring sax work from session ace Vern Dorge.

Savannah Records' latest signing is The Bobby Lalonde Band, a bilingual 4-pc. country rock group from the Ottawa Valley east of the nation's capital. The virtuoso fiddle playing of Bobby Lalonde, Canada's 1986 CCMA Instrumentalist of The Year, anchors the band's big, modern Alabama-type sound. Recently Bobby and the boys have spent considerable time in Nashville with producer Gilles Godard preparing material for early 1987 release.

Finally, to keep us all warm in the freezing month of January, we'll be releasing New Fool At An Old Game from newcomer Michelle Wright. Michelle's debut single, I Want To Count On You, is currently climbing RPM's Country 60, but we predict New Fool At An Old Game will be the real breakthrough record her tremendous talent deserves.

So that's it from Savannah for now. Remember - we're keeping the heat turned up.

The Right Time attracts attention for Hofgraff

Hamilton-based singer/songwriter Tia Hofgraff, who recently moved into the A/C field from country, reports she is receiving "the best response yet" with her latest single, The Right Time. Hofgraff is being given a promotional assist by Mary-Lynn Dodson of MPL Promotions.

The single, co-written by Hofgraff and Doug Cameron, was produced by Mike Francis, a well-known country picker and producer.

"I went into country music for fun," Hofgraff reveals, "and won studio time after winning the Canadian Open Country Singing Contest in 1984. I had just finished highschool and took part in several contests, but it was country music that opened a lot of doors for me."

Hofgraff noted that radio stations that play crossover are already familiar with her name, and she has been encouraged by their response to this her fourth single. A follow-up single, a ballad entitled Forget Me Not, is being readied for release in the new year. The same writing and production team was involved with this single. She pointed out that it was through Mike Francis that she originally hooked up with Doug Cameron, a recording artist in his own right who will shortly be on release with his own single. "I had written several songs," explains Hofgraff, and Mike (Francis) suggested I talk to Doug (Cameron). We worked on a few songs and discovered we worked well together, although we still continue to write our own songs."

In addition to having performed at halftime during some of the Blue Jays games this year, Hofgraff has also appeared on the Tommy Hunter and Family Brown shows.
