Island lends weight in war against drunk drivers

Teenagers, and they really don't know how lucky they are, today enjoy the benefits of many intense and elaborate awareness campaigns delivering the simple message that drinking and driving do not mix; it's an all too often fatal combination, an accident just waiting to happen.

Those who are sincerely fortunate enough to survive an accident, involving people who decide to drink and drive, can only emphasize that if all the time and money spent saves just one life then those efforts are indeed justified.

For many though, there was a time when throwing (literally) a case into the back seat and driving off down the road was a Friday night norm. Hopefully, times are a changin'.

This month Island Records are releasing a single titled This Is Life, recorded by past Grammy winner Robbie Dupree, and hopefully programmers and the music industry in general will take notice. The singer's brother-in-law, a father of six, was killed by a

A&M hopes consumers will pick the Raisins

The commercials produced for the California Raisin Board are pure marketing genius. When I Heard It Through The Grapevine was aired, no one would have predicted "The California Raisins" would spur not only sales of raisins but also sales of records as well.

Agreeably "extremely" popular with North American audiences, A&M have rush-released a compilation of songs by The Raisins, featuring Buddy Miles on vocals, that includes classics - and recent hits - such as Lean On Me, Stand By Me, La Bamba and Mony Mony; as well as When A Man Loves A Woman.

The album shipped close to gold, as retailers across the country expect heavy demand, while I Heard It Through The Grapevine has been released as a single.

Blondes and Loverboy set to roll in new year

Canadian fans of Platinum Blonde will be pleased to hear the band should be on the road again by mid-January, beginning a cross-country tour in the Maritimes and proceeding west thereafter. While labelmates

Platinum Blonde's Mark Holmes and new drummer Sascha (I) dropped by the studios of Toronto Rocks this month to present producer Joel Goldberg and host Brad Giffen a platinum award for their latest album Contact. The band's video for Connect Me has now been completed, after being shot at the Astralight club in Mississauga.

Any proceeds from the sale of the 7" single will be directed towards the PRIDE (Parents to Reduce Impaired Driving Everywhere) organization, informs the label's Bill Meehan, who adds that police communities will also have available for local distribution several thousand specially

A&A's publicly denounce CBS price increases

According to a tersely worded statement issued from the corporate offices of A&A Records and Tapes, the retailer says the recent decision by CBS to raise wholesale prices of their new and best selling product by an average of 12 percent, which equates to a $2.00 retail price increase, is a "seemingly" flagrant abuse of the public trust.

"We feel that the CBS price increase represents an unjustified rip-off of the Canadian consumer. It is apparent to us that in this circumstance a multi-national corporation has created sufficient internal pressure such as to radically diminish the commercial opportunities for a Canadian-owned retail company to provide fairly priced goods to its customers," explains the communique.

CBS' Don Oates has previously suggested (RPM Nov. 7) the actual price increases were forthcoming anyway, given the fact that the label hadn't increased their prices in three years, yet admitted they were indeed due largely to counter the current problem foreign exporting agreements create for domestic manufacturers.

However, the retailing giant is now calling upon the public to challenge, through protest, the label and their "unprincipled act of commercial 'piracy,'" by contacting the various federal governmental ministries; such as the Departments of: Consumer and Corporate Affairs; Industry, Trade & Commerce; and Communications.

Loverboy, following a recent two-week press tour of Europe, are gearing up for a world tour, also set to commence next month.

Loverboy's latest video, Love Will Rise Again, directed by David Fincher (with L.A.'s Propaganda Studios) and shot entirely at a Vancouver soundstage, depicts the band's live performance, but with a "twist" - a tornado interrupts the show.

Former Headpin Brian "Too Loud" MacLeod has been assisting both Loverboy guitarist Paul Dean with the production of his first solo album, expected next summer, as well as Billy Newton-Davis on his second Columbia effort.

Loverboy's Dean, Mike Reno and Matt Frenette have also contributed on several tracks for the latter, reports CBS' Art Graham. Andy Goldmark (Pointer Sisters, Jeffrey Osborne) will be putting the "finishing touches" on the album in New York this month.

Another Vancouverite, and new CBS signing, Barney Bentall is recording his debut album at Mushroom Studios with producer David Tickle, the LP is expected early spring.

"It's pretty moving, and it's a good song, and it's a good message for the time of the year," he says, actually understating the message.

Police chiefs across the country, rather quickly realizing the cassette package's potential, plan to keep the giveaway program implemented until June, and graduation, a statistically bad time of the year for young drivers. The video, already being aired by MuchMusic, will be taken into schools being visited by policemen and shown to students as well.

"The message is 'Don't drink and drive,'" Meehan concludes. "We're not making any money and if any kid listens to this and realizes that here's a guy who had six kids . . . I mean if it works anywhere, then it's worth it."

Driving while under the influence is a very sad problem that society must endure, and though its final solution is an individual one; it remains to this day an expensive war, yet with each bloody death another battle is lost.

REM bandmembers were presented Canadian "double gold" for their albums Life's Rich Pageant and Document following their recent show in Chicago by MCA and IRS Records' executives. First row: Graham Powers, Jefferson Holt (mgr), Michael Stipe, Paul Orescan and Coralie Hummel. Back row: Mike Mills, Bill Berry, Jay Boberg (Pres. IRS), Peter Buck, Randy Lennox, Miles Copeland (Chairman, IRS) and Lesley Soldat.

Shechtman leaves CBC to reactivate indie label

Returning to the private sector, following seven years with CBC Enterprises, noted industry veteran Allen Shechtman has recently reopened Truly Fine Records and Silver Bullet Productions. The former was active in "pre-Cancon" days through to the late 70s, while the latter produced the masters and provided "career guidance" to artists.

Shechtman who moved from the Ramada Inn chain in 1972, where he served in the capacity as Entertainment Director, to Change Records, later becoming their Vice-President of Business Affairs, accepted a position with CBC Marketing in 1979 and created their commercial and mail-order marketing record division, the SM5000 "musicaviva and jazzimage" lines.

Truly Fine, according to Shechtman, will ostensibly release classical and jazz artist's work. The first release for the label is titled Paul Brodie and Eric Robertson, a collection of classical saxophone and organ material, recorded by Anton Kwiatkowski at the Humbercrest United Church in Toronto.

1987 - a year of pleasant musical surprises

The new year started off with Paul Simon's album Graceland topping the chart until Feb. 21, keenly displaying the buying power of the upper demographic, but moving quickly over the Christmas season was Bon Jovi's Slippery When Wet, and after finally capturing the top spot remained there until it was eventually bumped by The Joshua Tree in mid-April.

While the consumers of Graceland and Slippery When Wet were really at opposite ends of the retail spectrum, U2's diamond-selling effort has a "universal" appeal and hence has stayed in the Top 5 throughout the year.

Other key releases entering the charts during this period included Steve Earle's Guitar Town, Crowded House, K.D. Lang's Angel With A Lariat, Club Nouveau's Life Love & Pain, Gowan's Great Dirty World, Bryan Adams' Into The Fire and Whitesnake's self-titled album.

It wasn't until Whitney Houston's new album hit No. 1, on June 27, that The Joshua Tree was displaced from its lofty position, and Whitney didn't budge until a movie soundtrack called La Bamba eclipsed it, on the strength of the film and its runaway smash hit of the same title.

During these months other albums that did remarkably well included some of this current holiday season's strongest sellers, such as (though not to over look new product from Prince, David Bowie, The Cult, The Nylons, Suzanne Vega, Heart, Glenn Medeiros, Kenny G, Gino Vannelli and The Grateful Dead) Fleetwood Mac's Tango In The Night, Elton John's Live In Australia, Def Leppard's Hysteria and Haywire's Don't Just Stand There.

Recently certified gold, and now signed to Atlantic stateside, Blue Rodeo's Outskirts album charted in September, though released in April, and has proven to be one of the year's most pleasant surprises. Yet in the very same breath the success of Rita MacNeil's amazing album cannot be overlooked either.

The usual top-selling Cancon acts aside, the future of Canadian rock 'n' roll actually looks very bright, with bands like The Box, Haywire, Frozen Ghost, The Northern Pikes, Chalk Circle, 54:40, The Jitters and The Grapes of Wrath paving the way.

Throughout the year, and before the fall "monsters" were subsequently released, consumers had displayed quite an appetite for "various artist" packages. Selling exceedingly well, and on occasion spawning hit single after hit single, were the soundtracks to The Mission, Beverly Hills Cop II, La Bamba and Who's That Girl, as well as, more recently, Dirty Dancing.

The first week of September, John Mellencamp's Lonesome Jubilee (currently No. 1) was released, then Michael Jackson (No. 1, Oct. 3), Pink Floyd, Billy Idol (No. 1, Nov. 21), Bruce Springsteen (No. 1, Oct. 31), Sting and Billy Joel took the music industry into October.

Jackson's Bad certifies quintuple platinum

Leading the CRIA November certifications this month is Michael Jackson's Bad album, which has now surpassed the quintuple platinum and seven platinum certifications, sixteen gold albums, one platinum single and five gold singles.

Def Leppard (Hysteria), John Cougar Mellencamp (The Lonesome Jubilee) and Bruce Springsteen (Tunnel Of Love) all had their respective albums surpass the triple platinum mark this past month.

Four Canadian projects led the way in the platinum category: Passé Partout (Le Noel De Pruneau Et Du Cannelle), Platinum Blonde (Contact), Marjo (Celle Qui Va) and The Box (Closer Together). Also hitting this level were Kiss (Crazy Nights), Billy Idol (Vital Idol) and George Michael (Faith).

Reaching gold were Chalk Circle (Men-

But the great flood certainly hasn't been stemmed. There's now "hot" new albums from Loverboy, Aerosmith, REM, Rush, Mick Jagger, Kiss, Yes, Van Morrison, Jethro Tull, Supertramp, George Harrison, INXS, Robbie Robertson, Bryan Ferry, Triumph, George Michael, Stevie Wonder, Madonna, Paul McCartney, The Eurythmics and Foreigner.

Yet perhaps the biggest album released lately, and quite a potent collaboration of many of these artists, is the album A Very Special Christmas for the Special Olympics.

After reading through all those names, it's obvious a lot of quality product was released this past year. The top-selling acts were always, and seemingly, offset by a variety of up 'n' comers over the course of the entire year, and criticisms of radio not helping break "new" artists have somewhat dissipated.

ding Wall), Edith Butler (Party Pour Danser), Celine Dion (Incognito), T'Pau (self-titled), Starship (No Protection), Roger Waters (Radio KAOS), ABC (Alphabet City), Belinda Carlisle (Heaven On Earth), Bananarama (Wow), Pseudo Echo (Love An Adventure), Carly Simon (Coming Around Again), Billy Idol (Vital Idol), Jennifer Rush (Heart Over Mind) and George Michael (Faith), as well as Reba McEntire (Greatest Hits) and George Strait (Ocean Front Property); a good boost for country programmers.

Singles selling well included Los Lobos' version of La Bamba, which has now eclipsed platinum, while Joey Gregorash's Together, T'Pau's Heart And Soul, Los Lobos' La Bamba, Billy Idol's Mony Mony and U2's I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For have all sold in excess of gold.

FROM EVERYONE AT CAPAC:

A very Happy Holiday!

From all CAPAC's 17,000 songwriters lyricists, composers and music publishers - and the staff at our offices in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver - our best wishes for a happy holiday season, and our hopes for a peaceful, graceful and prosperous 1988.

To the people at Canadian radio and television who program music represented by CAPAC, special greetings. To those at record companies (large and small) who release music by Canadian writers and artists, our applause, and to the retailers who sell it, our gratitude.

WHAT SAYS

CBS release single to help "man made" star

This January 28, 1988, marks the second anniversary of the U.S. space shuttle Challenger's explosion and subsequent disaster. A teacher at Concord High School, Christa McAuliffe, was aboard that day.

Through the Quebec-based Traffic label, a share of the monies raised by the sale of a CBS-released single, performed by the Concord High School Chorus, will be hence forwarded to the Christa McAuliffe Scholarship Fund at that New Hampshire school.

Also, a "portion" of the proceeds from the sale of the single Christmas On The Moon, written by Michel Blanchard and Pierre Robichaud, will be channelled into "Project Arsat Christa-R1," a huge inflatable reflector, capable of orbiting the earth - a man made star.

This project, conceptualized by Pierre Comte over six years ago, is being helped to fruition by the Montreal organization, Zolt's Second Foundation, who are publishers of the song.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

MuchMusic to air special showing Haywire's Japan

This Dec. 27 (5 pm EST) MuchMusic will be airing a half hour special detailing Haywire's recent trip to Japan for the World Popular Song Festival, and features material shot by the band, as well as their gold medal winning performance at the annual event.

Attic Record's Steve Waxman, Director of Publicity and Promotion, says "with Dance Desire a hit, Black And Blue climbing charts, and their tour with Helix about to end; this special should maintain the momentum for the album (Don't Just Stand There), which by the way has just gone platinum."

Canada-only release for new de Burgh package

A&M Records have released a Chris de Burgh specially priced EP containing a new single, The Simple Truth, as well as tracks from previous albums and a live version of The Head And The Heart.

The other tracks are The Girl With April In Her Eyes, The Ecstasy Of Flight (I Love The Night) and his smash single Lady In Red.

Luba's CD compilation released now on cassette

According to Capitol Records "due to the initial heavy demand" for the Over 60 Minutes With . . . Luba compilation CD, the label has released the 16-track package, in limited edition only, on cassette.

Containing songs from her previous albums Secrets And Sins and Between The Earth & Sky (also The Best Is Yet To Come, taken from the 9½ Weeks soundtrack), as well as the live recording of When A Man Loves A Woman, the package should at least keep one of Canada's only female "rockers" in the spotlight until new product is completed.

U.S. music trade info on disk could help managers

Designed to run on IBM PCs, or compatibles with 512K RAM and MS-DOS 2.1 or higher, two Californian-based companies have joined forces to release the 1988 "electronics" version of the Music Industry Directory, among others, on disk.

Originally released in print this past summer, the directories are quite essential for those wishing to conclude future business stateside; as they contain booking agents, managers, record companies and distributors, recording studios and radio listings, reaching in total over 14,000 key music professionals.

Augie Blume, the former National Promotion Manager for RCA and now President of Music Industry Resources, which entered into a joint venture with Knowledge Access International for completion of the project, says "We wanted a powerful, yet easy to use retrieval system that could generate mailing labels and telemarketing cards, and allow user added notes to records."

New FM guitarist Simon Brerley, currently on tour with the band along with new drummer Randy Cooke, is seen above performing between Cam Hawkins and Nash The Slash at their recent show in Cambridge at The Highlands.

Records On Wheels (Cambridge) store owner Vic Mirco offers FM's Cam Hawkins and Nash The Slash a bottle of champagne, following the band's successful recent autograph session in his store. Also pictured, with new bandmembers Simon Brerley and Randy Cooke, is FM96's Ken Green.

Compiled weekly from record store, radio station and record company reports.

COVER STORY - by Graeme BoyceThe Mistletones - a three year game plan in effect

It's been several years since there's been an album released by a group whose members were all former students of St. Michaels Choir School in Toronto; yet The Mistletones and their album, Acappella Christmas, now join the esteemed crowd of The Four Lads and The Crewcuts.

Released on their own label, Holly Records, and distributed nationally by Trend, the album - as opposed to their previous effort - features the talents of guesting vocalists: Liberty Silver, Salome Bey, Siobhan Crawley and Sherry Kean, as well as the production skills of Peter Mann, who produced the previous Nylons albums.

Whereas three years ago, when the group last recorded an album (for Duke Street), there were no female singers; this time around the group wanted a "distinguished" sound.

"The ladies stuff went really quickly," Kenny recalls, "it was the 24-track work on the bedtracks that took 500 hours in the studio. But these girls came in and waled away a couple of tracks and Peter edited the best of what he liked."

"Unlike The Nylons," explains the group's Paul Kenny, "because we have choral training, and we have two guys in the group who have perfect pitch, we could come into this room and recreate what we have on this album.

"The Nylons are definately a 24-track band," he continues. "When The Nylons appear live, they're singing to a stage track. When we appear live, we're singing live. We can actually sing live. No memorex, all live."

After the various record companies and FACTOR had passed on approving funds for their project last summer, The Mistletones, a 12-member group, went to the bank and then into the studio, and the recording was completed six months later. Although Kenny is still seeking a "bona fide" distribution deal, he believes the product is timeless and can be sold over the next three years.

"We're not making records to capitalize on Christmas," he stresses, "we're making Christmas records." Hence, paying for the album themselves has allowed for some creative marketing strategies, such as corporate premiums. For instance, with every fill-up, a free copy of Acappella Christmas.

"The offers we got were fairly pathetic. I mean no advance, 12 percent and 'You pay your producer . . .' Well, we wanted to make a quality album and if you want to make a quality album, and you have a deal like that, you'd have to sell 100,000 at retail. So, they were very unrealistic offers.

"We'll pay it off over the next three years," he says, "and we won't pay it off solely from retail. We're going to look at other means of doing it. But a Christmas album presents other opportunities to offset the cost."

Kenny believes there are "at least 100" corporations that would buy 30,000 albums each, as either staff Christmas presents or as promotional gifts. That's triple diamond.

"It's unfortunate we have to pursue these methods of handing out our product for free but in order to offset the cost of making a quality product," he adds, "you have to take what you can get.

"We were a little worried about the dilution of the product by selling it out at a corporate premium but after we saw the bottom line costs, and the bank loan we had to get," Kenny concludes, "we quickly sucked up our concerns about the negative impact of having our album distributed by a camera store."

Paul Carrack, currently on tour with Roger Waters, met with Eddie Schwartz - one of the writers of Carrack's hit single Don't Shed A Tear - backstage after the band's Hamilton show.

Pacific Wave signs guitarist Camerin

Vancouver native Sandro Carlo Camerin, whose track Happiness is heard daily on the CBC as the theme song for Peter Gzowski's Morningside program, has released his latest recording, Shadows In The Dark, on the Pacific Wave label. The guitarist's last release, Real To Reel, was nominated for a CASBY and received airplay on many jazz programs across the country.

Distributed by Electric in Canada, the album, says The Province's Tom Harrison, "is a shining example of soft, mainstream jazz," that ventures into "classical and Spanish stylings."

Chrysalis label manager Cameron Carpenter (l) with Iva Davies, of Icehouse, following the band's show at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens, where they opened up for The Cars. Crazy, RPM Hot Single last week, continues to bullet up charts for the Australian act.

Labatt's sponsors tour to promote Lippingwell

Commencing in Toronto this Dec. 7, Dee Lippingwell, will be the first rock 'n' roll photographer to take an exhibition across Canada.

Sponsored by Labatt's Blue Live, tour stops will include Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Regina, Edmonton, Calgary and Victoria, before returning to her home base of Vancouver.

Titled The Best Seat In The House, Lippingwell's book features 150 portrait-like stage shots of musicians, with careful graphic detail given to the black and white medium that has become her signature - in addition to 24 "highly charged" colour pictures.

THE RADIO MARKET IS TO MIDEM WHAT MUSIC IS TO YOUR PROGRAMS.

25-29 JAN. 88
CANNES / FRANCE

Radio people all know that the success of their stations depends on the quality of the programs they broadcast. These programs are created, bought and sold like any other product. But not just anywhere: it all happens at MIP Radio, care of MIDEM. Which is hardly surprising, since when we talk about radio programs we usually mean music; and since MIDEM is the international music market, it's quite naturally the international radio program market. A market that's bound to keep on developing, as good programs become even more sought-after and audiences more discriminating. At MIP Radio, programmers meet the decision-makers: record producers, program producers and other radio executives, to make direct and useful contacts, but also to make deals.

MIP Radio is the place to present yourself and your programs. From the 25th to the 29th of January, 1988, your address should be Cannes, MIP Radio, care of MIDEM.

Because music is your business.

Slaught appoints Gross as VP

Standard Radio's Gary Slaught has appointed Howard Gross, formerly Manager of Seltech, to the position Vice-President and General Manager of the radio syndication division, St. Clair/Showcom. Gross will now be responsible for "substantially enhancing" the division's activities and "presence" in the field of radio syndication, in both Canada and internationally as well.

CHED wins crime prevention award

Edmonton radio station CHED was recently handed both the Provincial and Federal Solicitor General Crime Prevention Awards, presented annually to businesses that have made outstanding contributions to crime prevention in their respective communities, for their "extensive and innovative" campaign against impaired driving: If You Drink,

CFTR's annual toy drive for needy underway

Since its initiation during the holiday season of 1975, Toronto's annual Gift of Christmas Toy Drive has delivered 45,000 children an estimated 117,000 toys; a collaborative effort between CFTR, McDonald's, North York's firefighters and the Metropolitan Toronto "Christmas Bureau", who work with various social agencies to distribute the collected toys.

This year's toy drive for the underprivileged was "kicked off" on Dec. 2 at the Toronto Eaton Centre McDonald's by Mayor Art Eggleton and Santa Claus. Also on hand were Kim Mitchell, Blue Rodeo, FM, Chalk Circle, The Jitters, Frozen Ghost and CFTR on-air personality Mike Cooper.

The station's Director of Creative Services, Larry Fedoruk, says past response has been "heartwarming and generous," and to support the drive, CFTR plans several live remotes at mall locations across the city.

"We're confident that donations will far exceed those of all previous years," he concludes, "and help make this Christmas a happy one for children in need."

The Christmas Bureau, in operation since 1956, maintains a confidential "central registry" identifying recipients and organizations helping them; and Morguard Investments have donated a distribution warehouse for storage of the toys.

New Regima, backstage at Vancouver's Club Soda with CFOX's Martin Strong, Liz McKinney, Karen Hewko, Aksa Downs and Mary-Anne McKinney.

Campaigning since May 1986 against drinking and driving, 630 CHED Program Director Kevin McKanna (l) and Gorde Elund (r) receive their special awards from Sgt. Phil Barnott of the city's police department.

Don't Drive. CHED has committed over $500,000 towards the success of the campaign, which involved producing a nationally distributed special radio commercial for use by other stations.

Windsor's 2nd annual Toy Telethon, held this past Nov. 7, raised over $12,000 in pledges and nearly 3,000 donated toys for the city's less than fortunate children. An array of local celebrities, including OM-FM's Ken Venus (with microphone), hosted the event.

CFNY's Xmas party benefits Foodshare

Featuring "The Subartic Slimedeers," this year's CFNY Christmas party (Dec. 17, at Toronto club, The Copa) will benefit Foodshare; not only are proceeds being handed over but listeners are to bring along two cans of unperishable food also. The band, reveals the station's Darren Wasyluk, comprises staffers Ivar Hamilton, Skip Propop, Alan Cross, Fred Patterson and "Captain" Phil.

A trip for two to the Olympics is offered for the most outrageous Christmas costume.

Q-94's Franklin attempting marathon

Winnipeg's "lite rock" Q94 listeners are being solicited for toys during morning man Geoff Franklin's on air radio marathon attempt of 34 hours this Dec. 11 and 12th. Franklin, broadcasting from The Sofa Shop's front window, is also asking office party-goers to "drop by" and leave new unwrapped toys with him, for this the station's 5th annual such Christmas Miracle marathon.

Z99 plans to adopt DAT system

Red Deer radio station CIZZ FM99, already completely laser disc, plans to "quickly adopt a DAT system as the technology advances," says the station's Paul Clancy. Z99, now

Jarad assemble cast of veterans for WDRE

Following approval of his license to operate radio station WDRE (formerly WLIR), Ron Morey, owner of the Long Island-based Jarad Broadcasting, has made several key appointments, effective immediately, while confirming they "have every intention of maintaining the integrity of the new music format."

Warren Cosford, after 17 years with CHUM Limited, has been named the station's Operations Manager, says Morey, who will assume the responsibilities of President and CEO of 92.7, which will be known as DARE 92.7 (92 seven).

Radio veteran Denis McNamara, who served previously as Program Director with WLIR for over a decade, has signed on as the new PD. From 1985 to 1986, he was the Album Rock consultant for Billboard and later that year put WXXP - Pittsburgh's first new music station - on the air.

Also appointed are Abe Goren, as General Sales Manager, and Stan Feinblatt, Local Sales Manager. The latter broadcast Mets baseball games for 18 years.

BEST WISHES FOR THE HOLIDAYS

owned by the newly created Shaw Radio Group, a subsidiary of Shaw Cable, is Central Alberta's only "rock source", Clancy continues, and they have planned a series of contests and promotions designed to enter the market "with a vengeance," which included on Nov. 2 giving away $25,000 cash and a Nissan ZX300.

Toronto's Dream Auction now a memory
According to CJEZ-FM's Assistant Manager Bill Ballentine, the 1987 Toronto Symphony Dream Auction "is now a memory." But what an auction . . . over the 9-day run the annual fundraiser - its 13th consecutive year - was successful in raising over $275,000. This was the first year the event was broadcast live on the station, with long-time Dream Auction associate Don Cameron reporting live from Oct. 31 through to Nov. 8 and profiling over 160 "dreams" up for bid.

President of new comedy service, Willy's Comedy Shack and Burger Emporium, Tim McLarty presents brochure to OM-FM's PD Ian Davies recently on a promotion swing for the service.

OM-FM's announcer wins with big lungs
Kicking off this year's Christmas Seals campaign in Windsor was the area's "Lung Power Challenge," and the Lung Association's winner was Pat McKenzie, an announcer with station OM-FM, who defeated over 25 local media personnel by filling a lung capacity bag with 6.3 litres of air and in the process established a new record in the individual category.

CJTT's Perras survives marathon
Initially hoping he might raise between $3,000 and 5,000 for his New Liskeard community Christmas Wish fund, CJTT's Mike Perras endured over 75 hours (Nov. 24 - 27) on the air and actually collected over $12,000 in pledges, he reports. Winning a contest for guessing how many hours Perras would last was grade eight student Tim Davies, who won himself a CD player. Most of the funds raised will be distributed by a "wish" process: anyone who knew of a friend or neighbour with a special wish was asked to write the station and outline details of the wish.

OM-FM raises cash for Heart foundation
Over 125 exercisers, who had collected pledges previously, participated in an

Dave Simone, pictured with one of the youngest "aerobithoners", helped out by announcing the instructors and conducting raffles at break times.

"aerobithon" hosted by OM-FM at the Windsor Racquet and Fitness Centre, helping to raise funds for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. The station's Dave Simone was on hand encouraging listeners, by making call-in reports every half hour, to come into the club and make donations. The event was termed "quite a success" by organizers, both in terms of money raised and number of eventual "aerobithoners."

CFMO kicks off Xmas Exchange drive
Held this past week (Dec. 6), again in conjunction with newspaper The Ottawa Citizen, Ottawa-Carleton area listeners contributed over $107,420 this year to CFMO's 10th Annual Christmas Exchange broadcast, the event which kicks off the holiday season's fundraiser for needy children. Special guests at the station's broadcast included Mayor Jim Durrell, Senator Royce Frith and Charles Lynch, who helped urge the public to phone in pledges. Over 7,000 families benefitted from last year's drive ($101,000) and received turkey dinners from the Christmas Exchange program recalls Linda Spalding, Promotion Director for the station.

CFRA continues Xmas fundraising
Organized with the assistance of, and on behalf of, the West Ottawa Lions club, 580 CFRA's 37th Annual Christmas Cheer Broadcast (Dec. 13), which last year raised over $51,000, will also support the region's Christmas Exchange program, offering families help during the holiday season, informs Promotions Coordinator Janet Burns.

CKWW to present Up With People
Up With People, an international organization offering youngsters "year long opportunities for cross-cultural education, diverse community service, on-stage musical performance experience and extensive world travel," will be presented in Windsor this Dec. 15 & 16 by CKWW. Featuring a cast of 125 students, the station's Promotion Coordinator Debra Tessier says it's "one of the few live musical shows in production that provides family type entertainment to audiences of all ages."

COUNTRY

River Unbroken from Dolly

Dolly Parton's recently released Greatest Hits Package was quickly followed by a new Parton LP entitled Rainbow. Country programmers shouldn't over look the first Columbia single The River Unbroken which was produced by Steve "Golde" Goldstein with Parton taking executive producer credits.

Christmas release from Larry Mattson

Larry Mattson's latest release The Spirit Of Christmas on the Olov label was recorded at Kinck Studios. Co-producing were Larry Mattson and Al Brisco. The track was penned by Larry Mattson and qualifies for 4 parts Cancan.

Hornsby penning for Nelson

Willie Nelson's latest Columbia single release, taken from his Island In The Sea LP, was penned by Bruce Hornsby, J. Hornsby and C. Hayden and produced by Nelson.

Christmas Time Is Here

Laurie Thain is currently on release with All I Want For Christmas Is You. The track was penned by Thain and produced by Bob McCullin at Century 21 Studios in Winnipeg. The single is backed with yet another Christmas song entitled Christmas Time Is Here. Thain is currently enjoying chart success with her latest single release Will You Take Me Walking.

MCA keeping up with Christmas selling season

MCA have released several country singles within the last week, keeping the programmers mind busy during the hottest selling time of the year. It's not going to be an easy choice considering the notable artists included, such as Emmylou Harris, Bellamy Brothers, Lee Greenwood and Waylon Jennings, to name a few. Obviously, the country music buyers will be well serviced for the Christmas season.

Emmylou Harris, who is still enjoying chart success with Those Memories Of You, her previous release with Dolly Parton and Linda Ronstadt, is back with Back In Baby's Arms. The Jimmy Bowen production was culled from the Planes, Trains, & Automobiles soundtrack; perhaps with crossover potential as well.

Stephanie Mills' Secret Lady, penned by the team of Mills and Howard Grate, and taken from her If I Were Your Woman album, was produced by La La for Teen Queen Music.

Waylon Jennings' My Rough And Rowdy Days follow-up entitled If Ole Hank Could Only See Us Now, culled from his A Man Called Hoss album, was co-produced by Jennings and Jimmy Bowen.

Lee Greenwood, who is still moving up charts with his single, the title track, If There's Any Justice, is now on release with Touch And Go Crazy. The latter was also co-produced by Bowen and Greenwood and taken from his If There's Any Justice LP.

John Anderson's Somewhere Between Ragged And Right, taken from his Blue Skies Again album, was penned by Waylon Jennings and Roger Murrah and co-produced by Anderson and Jimmy Bowen.

The Bellamy Brothers latest 7" entitled Santa Fe, on Curb Records, was produced by veteran Emory Gordy Jr. The David Bellamy and Ron Taylor penning was taken from the Brothers' Crazy From The Heart LP.

Watch for the release of James F. Taylor's "No Place to Fall" on Boomtown Records!

"This single has so much heart that if you squeeze the vinyl you'll draw blood!"

"James F. Taylor has done full justice in his interpretation of Dennis Charney's latest song!"

We're CHUM Group Radio, 1331 Yonge Street, Toronto. M4T 1Y1. Attn: Brad Jones, Talent Coordinator for the CHUM Group.

WANTED

Mature community-oriented morning person for the Telemedia chain. Tape and resume to: Program Director, CKGB Radio, Box 1046, Timmins, Ont., P4N 7H8.

WANTED

The best copy writer in Canada!!! If it's you, we already know that you love to create unique copy that moves product, you've probably been accused of being slightly bent by your colleagues. A lot of your scripts are off the wall but you know the assets of a straight or 2 voice sell and when to use them. You are loaded with contest ideas and station promos really excite your creative license. You could have done a better job of writing this ad and will include it with your resume. Name your price and let's negotiate. Reply to RPM Box 7946.
