Virgin warms up to Lakefield, Ontario family

The year of the Leahy

by Rod Gudino

The family name is an important institution, especially when it bears the weight of the achievements of the collective. Perfect examples are seen in the cases of the Kennedys, the Jacksons, the Osmonds, the Bradys, the Partridges... and the Leahys. Leahy (that's LAY-HEE) you say? Meet the grandest family collection to come out of Lakefield, Ontario. These five sisters and four brothers are in the midst of stepdancing their way into the Canadian heartland in the wake of their self-titled debut on Virgin.

"I'm almost embarrassed by the lack of conscious effort that goes into these things," explains 28-year-old Donnell, whose fiddling virtuosity has made him the natural centre to Leahy's cyclone of contemporary Celtic, folk and French-Canadian step-dancing. "By that I mean it's not that we're not trying but things just kind of happen."

The children, Donnell, Julie, Siobhean, Maria, Frank, Agnes, Doug, Erin and Angus developed their respective talents while growing up on a farm in Northern Ontario and not watching the television. Mom and dad started the ball rolling with a fiddle and a stepdance but the kids quickly took over, occasioning impromptu jams at the Leahy household that took the party to the wee hours of the night. It is not entirely surprising to hear Donnell say that things "just happened."

"It got to the point on Friday and Saturday

Voting begins March 15 for Canadian Blues Award

CBC Radio's national blues program, Saturday Night Blues, will begin accepting votes from listeners on March 15 to decide who will win this year's Great Canadian Blues Award.

The winner is chosen through response from listeners by mail, fax or e-mail. Entries should be sent to Saturday Night Blues, CBC Edmonton, Box 555, Edmonton, Alberta T5J 2P4. Fax 403-468-7468, E-Mail: fentunes@planet.eon.net and Web Site: www.radio.cbc.ca/radio/programs/snb nights, we'd show up at the farm, first thing you know someone would pull the fiddle out, then the guitar, and we'd be playing till three in the morning some nights," he says. "It was a blast. And we decided why not take it to a bar?"

This is the sixth year for the award. Previous winners include: Colin James, Richard "King Biscuit Boy" Newell, Dutch Mason, Donny "Mr. Downchild" Walsh and David Wilcox.

Saturday Night Blues, hosted by Holger Petersen, is heard Saturdays on CBC Radio beginning at 11:05 pm (11:35 pm NT).

Chance and convenience brought them to the Windsor House in Toronto, where the Leahys (then whittled down to five for their first public outing) cast the proverbial magic spell over an audience expecting just another bar band. What they got, and what Virgin reps later got when they experienced the Leahys in action, was an indigenous outburst of talent blown like a wind from the roaring sea. Here at last was something unsullied and genuine and as free as the wandering spirit. Listen to B Minor or Alabama and you've got the idea. Donnell attempts to put his finger on it by pointing out that the music-wise family nevertheless rarely listened to popular or even traditional music.

"I grew up playing the fiddle and not listening to fiddle very much," he explains. "Guitar players who listen to guitar players sound like guitar players. A Quebec fiddle player who only heard the French style of fiddle playing, that's what he would play. And a lot of fiddling is played by ear, so one can't help but sound like another fiddler if you listen to a lot of fiddling. I didn't consciously

Warner/Chappell signs Rebecca West

Cinnamon Toast recording artist Rebecca West Trio has jumped on the Warner/Chappell wagon as of last week. The band is comprised of Dale Hussey, Lukas Pearse and Allison Outhit, who fronts the group.

The trio had their genesis after Outhit, following a series of stints with several bands and meeting some success as a solo artist, teamed up with Lukas and Pearse in 1995. May of that year saw the release of the debut album, Burners On, which the band toured extensively to support, landing opening slots for Elastica and The Inbreds. The group followed with last year's release of Six More Weeks Of Winter, for which they are currently touring.

Rebecca West is the new addition to the Warner/Chappell team that includes Spirit Of The West, doughboys, Change Of Heart, Wendy Lands, Kardinal Offishall and Carla Marshal.

Jaymz Bee's Jelly band to RYH's Imperial Room

Jaymz Bee is taking his Royal Jelly Orchestra to the once-hot-dance-spot in Toronto, the Royal York Hotel's Imperial Room for a dinner/show date on March 13.

The evening will celebrate Clint East Woody Allen Aldo, originally released as a self-titled CD on Nepotism, Bee's own independent label. The album has been remixed, remastered, repackaged and released on LeisureLab/BMG as the follow-up to Cocktail: Shakin' & Stirred and A Christmas Cocktail, which gained Bee recognition across the country as "Canada's King of Cocktail."

The dinner/show package is $60.00 per person, and there are also show only tickets available for $20.00. There are two shows, one at 9 the other at 10:30. The dress is "classic casual".

In between sets, Bee's fave, DJ Senior Alvaro will spin discs. Being as "unpredictability" is Bee's middle name, there will be a few surprises.

not listen to fiddle music, it's just the way it happened. People would ask me so what do you listen to? And I would say nothing just because I was always working and in school or out of the house."

Music is the great love of the family and despite the fact that the developmental years did not include other people's music, the different members have since discovered commercial styles and formats and gravitated to their respective likes and loves. Maria has taken to country music in a big way ("put her in a country bar with a sea of cowboy hats and line dancing and she's on top of the world," informs her older brother); Aaron is "a real traditionalist" and Frank is into heavy metal. The different tastes have added a lot of flavours to the Leahy pot and, rather than violating the pristine fabric that enveloped this band, has allowed them to further personalise the traditional material they frequently work with.

"You have all these influences coming into one piece and what you get in the end is a real Leahy piece," says Donnell.

As for the fiddler, he claims he is still not listening to fiddle music but he wants to know all about the modern world and its exhaustive selection of music makers. "I've heard of Iggy Pop," he says unaffectedly. "Is he any good?"

Leahy the album, in stores this week, will take the family into an extensive media run and tour of North America and Europe, where interest for the band is already bubbling. The first single (with video) is the aptly titled A Call To Dance, and will be the family's formal calling card to an expectant industry and the commercial mainstream. There's a fiddle in the wind and the rumble of a storm and somewhere the rumour that 1997 will be the year of the Leahy is starting to sound very true indeed.

1996 was record year for Toronto's SkyDome

SkyDome Corporation, has revealed that the Toronto landmark hosted 278 public event days last year which represents a 68 per cent increase in bookings since its full year of operations in 1990, making it a record setting year.

Over the course of the year, 4,700,000 people passed through the turnstiles, generating a 50 per cent increase in net revenue from the 165 event days in 1990. It was also revealed that since 1990, more than 35 million people have visited SkyDome, a figure that includes the high attendance records of six million per year during the 1992/93 World Series years of the Blue Jays.

Domenic Vivolo, Vice President of Marketing and Sales, offers that "1997 is on pace for another record breaking year."

In early January of this year, The Three Tenors concert was a resounding success as was the World Wrestling Federation event, "two totally different shows which satisfied entirely different audiences. Our goal is to offer our consumers a wide range of quality entertainment, so that they can enjoy the SkyDome experience."

Coming up is the Donovan Bailey/Michael Johnson Race and the U2-Pop Tour. "These events bring the world to Toronto and in return, showcase Toronto and SkyDome to the world."

It was also pointed out that one of SkyDome's biggest challenges is in scheduling a proactive maintenance program in-between public events. "After eight years of use, SkyDome prides itself on its clean, well-maintained, almost new appearance. Our goal is to keep the building so well maintained that guests always feel that it looks as new as when they made their first visit here." SkyDome is famous the world over for being the first stadium to incorporate a fully retractable roof in its design.

WALT SAYS . . . !

Dingwall's no Dingwall!!!

Although he put his foot in his mouth over chawing tobacco, our federal Health Minister David Dingwall, sparked an interesting debate, well not really, it's only him so far. Because he's for stamping out tobacco which means pulling the plug on a lot of smoke-funded arts activities, he came up with an alternative. Let the hugely-profitable banks fund the arts. Not a bad idea.

Sure, they do a little here and a little there, but compared to what the tobacco people have been doing, it's like tellers and CEOs or, like oranges and apples. (EC: And their wages keep growing . . . CEOs that is!!!)

Cuban cigars anyone??? So much for the Helms/Bertram Law. Strolling down Windsor's Ouellette Street, I noticed several cigar smoking outlets. You know, come in for a 35 buck Cuban cigar and a cup of whatever. The emphasis is on Cuban cigars, blatantly displayed on window posters. Checking a couple of them, I found that most of their clientele was from across the river. Cars with Michigan licence plates were making quick stops with the driver or passenger running into the shops and picking up THEIR choice of Cuban cigars. One guy had three boxes of these huge stogies, and I asked him if he was in for a big smoke weekend in Windsor. He said "No! I'm buying them for friends," but he didn't say what side of the border they were on. (EC: Now you've done it!!!)

Rush O.C.??? The Order of Canada got a great boost with members of Rush becoming the latest members. Now they'll have to be billed as Rush O.C. The news spread quickly to that NAFTA bunch in Washington and apparently there was a hurried meeting called. Brace yourself. A couple of committee members, Canada haters from away

Bite that poisoned apple

Anyone racing to acquire a television station licence has to think carefully about the future of television around the world. I doubt very much that re-transmission of foreign fare is going to be the goldmine that it was in the past. With a dish hanging outside every window . . . in a few years, there really won't be much need for local stations except for local news, weather and local events. The cable, phone wires or pizza dish will bring in hundreds of programs from all over the world. The real winners will be the producers of these shows. If you don't create programming on a universal scale . . . you are out of the picture . . . so to speak. Some of the geniuses of television are already doing this with Canadian produced shows that are being seen all over the world. The rest seem to be waiting to see just how damaging the new technology will be. It is of interest because it will create work for Canadians who want to see this country move ahead and become a world leader in culture and arts and entertainment. In a few years we will see what cable, wire and dish will do to all that foreign content now on local stations!

-Walt

with Elvira Capreese

back, are tabling a bill to oppose the Order of Canada being bestowed on those who represent Canadian culture. One guy says it's unfair, like a split-run concert tour in the U.S. where American artists don't have such a great promotional tool. (EC: That's so bizarre, it's gotta be true!!!)

Hit/non-hit going GOING???

Watch for the CRTC to drop its hit-non-hit restrictions for FM programming, another nail in the AM coffin unless broadcasters turn their attention to this much-maligned and endangered band. One chain that once boasted the most powerful AM stations in the land should take a look at their history before they slide into the lake. Mobiles, personalities, in-ner-face promotions and first-to-break records. That's how they built their reputation. Everything old could be new again. (EC: They could begin by looking through RPM's archives!!!)

Forbidden Planet!!! Yankees have this disdain for the media in their own country, and when these know-it-alls come up to Canada, they bring this disrespect with them. So it was that when Planet Hollywood opened in Toronto, the media was left out in the cold. The event, which was expected to draw 50,000 rubberneckers, drew a mere 3,000, according to one of the dailies. The media got notices a few hours before telling them to march at a downtown hotel for their passes. They were instructed that they would be herded to a designated area where they would wait . . . and the instructions were that they could not leave that area for any reason until the event was over. (EC: HELP!!!) Some of the media actually were star struck enough to go along with all this bullshit, but in the end, the results were what counts and it turned out to be one of the biggest non-events of the year. They'll just have to learn that if you do business in Canada . . . the rules are different. The media in Canada is treated with a great deal of respect. The media can be the best friend you have, but I'm sure Planet Hollywood really doesn't need the media or any public relations. Canadians will flock to the hamburger tourist trap to be gushed over by the help to the point of nausea.

Media out in the cold!!! Inside were a few stars, a couple of football players, Gino Empry, a few of the more forceful people who phoned and threw tantrum to get passes, but, without a yellow tag, they didn't get into the VIP room (EC: I thought VIP rooms were outlawed by the Canadian Constitution???) I hear Rush were offered one ticket and the Bare Naked Ladies were also offered one ticket, and one showed up, dressed. Al Waxman received an invite, but not Sarah. The president of the SkyDome received an invite, but not his wife. Toronto Mayor Barbara Hall declined her invitation, probably because the giant hamburger display reminded her of MegaCity. Anyway, welcome to Canada Planet Hollywood. We dined there before it opened and, like Cynthia Wine, we gave it four thumbs down. As for Canadians . . . let them eat cake. (EC: May the cardboard cutout of Sylvester Stallone fall over on you!!!)

A celebration of ballet!!! Stars of the 21st Century, the 3rd Annual International Ballet Gala, an AIDS fundraiser was held at Toronto's Hummingbird Centre March 1. Never having seen a ballet, this was an exceptional treat with ballet stars from around the world. This wasn't nod-off time. On the contrary the Grand Pas Classique by Greta Hodgkinson and Rex Harrington of the National Ballet of Canada, and the following performances came close to being a spiritual uplifting with incredible effortless acrobatic movements. A look at who was there will give you some idea of the hugely satisfying program: from Italy's Ballo del Teatro alla Scala, Marta Romagna and Roberto Bolle; Angel Corella, Paloma Herrera from the American Ballet Theatre; Bolshoi Ballet's Anna Antonicheva and Dmitri Belogolovtsev; Carol Arbo from Ballet de L'Opéra de Paris; Kirov Ballet's Ulyana Lopatkina; Vladimir Malakhov who dances for the American Ballet Theatre, Stuttgart Ballet and Vienna State Opera Ballet; and Igor Zelensky, who dances for the Kirov Ballet and New York City Ballet. The loud bravos and cheers and standing ovations brought me up short. This artsy audience knew how to show their appreciation. My vote went to the Italian duo who danced Don Quixote's Pas De Deux. (EC: I didn't know you had such class!!!)

Rod Chicorli has been appointed production manager/operations coordinator for Toronto's EZ Rock 97.2FM. The new position confirms Chicorli's ever increasing role in supporting the program director in various aspects of his duties. He will continue his present duties as production manager, but will now officially carry the responsibilities of, among other things, talent scheduling and payroll, station remote activity, event coordination and other communications with staff pertaining to programming issues.

Hot 93FM Saskatoon and the city's branches of Bank of Montreal has partnered to launch a first-of-its-kind fund-raising campaign flying the banner "Toonies For Tots". The funds raised will go towards Saskatoon's children's charities. The station is asking listeners to collect a minimum of $50 in donations at their businesses and take it to any of Bank of Montreal's eight Saskatoon locations. Each $50 contributor will be entered to win a grand prize of two tickets to every Saskatchewan Place concert for a year from Hot 93FM.

Blood and Fire steps Outside

Last week Outside Music announced they had firmed a distribution arrangement in Canada with England's Blood And Fire label that will make available Blood And Fire's existing catalogue of sixteen titles and future classic reggae releases available at a domestic price for the first time in Canada.

Founded in April of 1993, the Manchester based label was the joint venture of Elliot Rashman, Andy Dodd, Bob Harding and Jamaican music expert Steve Barrow. Simply Red frontman Mick Hucknall was also brought in as a partner and shareholder a few months later. Conceived as a high quality imprint for the re-issue on CD and vinyl classic reggae, the company established itself as a leader of the field in a short time. The response

by Lisa Trainor

Noted local artist, and former RPM staffer, Steven Houston will be on hand this weekend at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre for Canadian Music Week with a number of his detailed and colourful portraits of notable Canadian musicians on display at RPM's exhibitor booth.

CBC Radio is closing down its Music Resources office as of March 31. The closure is just another result of CBC cuts. All news CDs, press releases and relevant material should now be directed to Nicholas Fick at CBC's Toronto Music Library. You can contact him at 416-205-5904. Mailing address is CBC Music Library, P.O. Box 500, Station A, Toronto, Ontario M5W 1E6. For parcel delivery send to CBC Music Library, Room 28-100, 206 Wellington St. West, Toronto, Ontario M5V 3G7. Dianne Collins, who headed up the Music Resources office isn't leaving for good. CBC will shortly start up a digital radio service (GALAXIE) to be carried on the new satellite service Express-Vu. This service will provide upwards of 30 channels of speciality music from opera and jazz to celtic and worldbeat. Collins will be programming the Adult Contemporary channel. She can be reached at home at 416-406-5775. Her address is 40 Wardell Street, Toronto, Ontario M5M 2L5. Collins also reveals that CBC has agreed to a stepped-up royalty schedule for artists from the public and media alike has been overwhelmingly positive, and anticipation for future releases, which number approximately six a year, continues to build as new audiences discover the enormous influence of Jamaica in contemporary forms of urban and dance music. With popularity increasing, the label is currently being distributed in eighteen different countries.

Outside plans to release the Blood And Fire catalogue this month, and the forthcoming release schedule includes programmes featuring the work of legendary producers Yabby U, Morwell Unlimited and Bunny Lee as well as several one-off projects and the initiation of a deejay series focusing on the best work of Jamaican rappers I. Roy, U. Brown, Trinity and Prince Jazzbo.

Houston -- best known for his commemorative sports originals, including the successful painting Saturday Night Hero -- is a graduate of Graphic Design at Dawson College in Montreal and spent the late '70s and early '80s as RPM's art director.

"It's nice to have my art shown with the RPM display, because I guess you could say RPM is where I got my start," says Houston.

Depictions of Rush, Alanah Myles, Burton Cummings as well as a one-of-a-kind, hand-painted Gibson guitar with the likeness of 1996 Juno hall-of-famer John Kaye of Steppenwolf will be part of Houston's display at CMW.

Having enjoyed a successful career in commercial art as both a designer and illustrator, Houston has most recently been commissioned to produce a commemorative print for Allan Frew & Friends II -- a charity benefit to raise money for children and families living with cancer -- which will include Dan Hill, Ray Lyell, Tom Wilson, Moxy Fruvous, John Allan Cameron, Amy Sky, Lighthouse, Marc Jordan, Jeff Healey, Junkhouse, Tom Cochrane and a host of others.

Houston has enjoyed commercial success in the past with projects commissioned by Molson, Sony and the NHL and his fine attention to detail has been captured on a number of original works including a series of painted hockey sticks in commemoration of the '91 Canada Cup.

Sphere Clown Band celebrates 20th year

The Sphere Clown Band, affectionately dubbed "Canada's top recording clown band," turns 20 this year and kicked off their birthday celebrations with two family concerts at Minkler Auditorium (Seneca College) on Feb. 23.

For the past 20 years, this multi-talented group of singer/songwriter/instrumentalists has been singing and dancing their way into the hearts of children and adults in both Canada and the U.S. They've played concert halls, festivals, fairs, schools and for special events. In 1995 they were the only Canadian children's act to appear in Holland's Wereld Kinderfestival and Scotland's Festival Fringe, which is held annually in Edinburgh.

Over the years, the band has released four albums, all of which were critically-acclaimed. The first release, I Can Do Anything, was a finalist for a Juno Award; the second, Sharing, was certified gold, making them only the eighth Canadian children's act in history to achieve that mark; selections from the third, Kidstuff, are played daily on Radio Aahs, the U.S. children's radio network; and Clowntown, the most recent release, earned the prestigious U.S. Parent's Choice Foundation Approval.

In the planning stages is a tour of China, Singapore and Australia for late summer and fall.

The band comprises Patty, who plays nine instruments, piano, violin, viola, accordion, banjo, guitar, flute, bass, and piccolo, and as a hobby she gives classical music recitals; Pooky, who plays accordion, drums and fiddle and is an avid photographer who likes to photograph ghost towns in his spare time; Busy Bee, who is heard on flute and horns; and Peeper, the youngest member at 12, who is already a multi-instrumentalist, playing drums, piano and flute, who at the age of 10 when he became a SOCAN writer, was the youngest professional songwriter in Canada.

The band writes all its own music, and jokes. Here are a couple of the latter: "What's round and angry? A vicious circle." And, "What did the clown get when he crossed a jaguar and an elephant? A fancy car with a big trunk." Or how about, "What did the clown get when she crossed a cat with a lemon? A sourpuss." And, "Why did the clown have to stop tap dancing? He kept falling in the sink."

#1 SOCAN plaque to Baxter and Yates

David Baxter and Lori Yates received their first SOCAN No. 1 plaques at a Feb. 20/97 presentation at Toronto's Cameron House.

Baxter and Yates wrote These Are The Days which was translated into French (Usure des jours) by Jean-Pierre Matte and recorded by Martine St-Clair. The French version topped Le Palmarès Top 50 Francophone chart on Feb. 3/97. Baxter and Yates credit Mercury/Polydor President Doug Chappell with influencing St-Clair to record the song which became a huge hit in Quebec.

SOCAN's Manager of Member Services, Lynne Foster, made the presentations to the two Toronto songwriters, who have written close to 30 songs together. Three of these songs were included on Yates' last album, Breaking Point. Five more of their co-writes are slated for her next record which she is currently working on for Virgin/EMI. Baxter continues to keep busy writing and producing and keeping up a heavy schedule as a session musician.

New Releases

Lack, Louise Post and Jim Shapiro continue in the vein of the previous two albums, mainly heavy guitar rock that displays a tendency to grunge out every once in a while. The feminine touches (mainly the tough girl stuff from the lyric sheet) give the band a grl group growl that has put its stamp on fans. Production from Bob Rock and mixing by Randy Staub has contributed significantly to the mountain of hard rock found on Straight, Awesome, Shuttering and Volcano Girls, the latter which is already charting. A second week in the top 40 on SoundScan's album chart is a good indicator to where this one is going. -RG

MICHAEL BROOK -Ambient
Albino Alligator O.S.T.
4AD 7003-Q

Toronto native Michael Brook has made a name for himself by being a star session musician on par with the likes of Brian and Roger Eno, both with whom he has worked in the past. His wizardry into matters technical made him the inventor of a device called the Infinite Guitar, heard on some of U2's work, stuff by Dan Lanois and all over Kevin Spacey's directorial debut. Albino Alligator is the movie, something about a bank heist gone wrong and a bunch of bumbling robbers stuck in a room for an hour and a half. You're probably thinking Reservoir Dogs but this is Kevin Spacey we are talking about here and if the soundtrack is any

THE TARANTINO CONNECTION -Soundtrack
Various Artists
MCA 80325-J

If one thing can be said about Quentin Tarantino is that he makes good movies, and man, has he got an ear for music. We certainly don't need to rehash the story behind the monumental success that was Pulp Fiction. The Soundtrack now do we? The Tarantino Connection is a collection of the best of the best from all and any of the films Tarantino had anything even remotely to do with. Besides Pulp Fiction, we are presented with selections from Reservoir Dogs, True Romance, Natural Born Killers, From Dusk Till Dawn and Desperado. What that amounts to is an essential soundtrack that throws together material like The Blasters' Dark Night, Charlie Sexton's Graceland, George Baker's Little Green Bag, Urge Overkill's Girl, You'll Be A Woman Soon, Cowboy Junkies' Sweet Jane, Dire Straits' Six Blade Knife and of course, Dick Dale's Misirlou. A total of fourteen tracks with two takes of the man himself rapid firing dialogue about the music and voilà, you've got a complete package with some heavy retail potential. Incidentally, the album had an early debut on SoundScan at #77 and should hang in there for the next few months. -RG indication (which, make no mistake, it is) there is a lot of internal atmosphere explored on the film. Brook's ingenuity in the studio has been the catalyst behind this slew of dark, abstract pieces which provide the soundscape for the images, a soundscape that recalls Steve Jansen and Richard Barbieri's work on Stories Across Borders. Admittedly pretty obscure territory, Albino Alligator has the privilege of standing as a soundtrack and of boasting guest appearances from Michael Stipe, Jimmy Scott and executive production work from Flea (!). Apparently the movie has already come and gone but we've heard there are some possibilities of a cult following once it goes to video. Whether that happens or no, the soundtrack remains a profound feat of organic, electro-ambient music. -RG

VERUCA SALT -Alternative
Eight Arms To Hold You
MCA 30001-J

MCA continue their winning streak for the first quarter with the newest from Veruca Salt, the band that did the ingenious when it copped a name from the skinny brat in Charlie And The Chocolate Factory. Eight Arms To Hold You is the follow up from last year's Blow It Out Your Ass EP which was the follow up to American Thighs, the album that made this foursome a top ranker in the modern rock market. Nina Gordon, Steve

PAVEMENT -Rock/Alternative
Brighten The Corners
Matador 55226-F

If you know anything about this label you'll have an idea of the kind of fiercely independent bare bones rock alternative it has dedicated itself to releasing. Pavement seem to be the commercial cream of the label's crop, having somehow appealed to the mainstream without compromising its independent quasi-amateur production values and songmanship. The album is released in the aftermath of a few major motion picture appearances, including I Shot Andy Warhol and Brain Candy, both happy pills for the decidedly alternative. The quintet feel at home in such a district, wavering between lopsided ditties like Transport Is Arranged and Passat Dream and dependable garage rock'n'roll of Stereo and Date With Ikea. Again, the commercial potential is already being proven with a surprisingly high #64 debut on SoundScan's retail album makes for some unique and creative songwriting. Legendary bassist Ron Carter guests along with hip-hop innovators The Roots. -LT

moe. -Rock

No Doy
550 Music 67744-H
 While a personal agenda to "dominate the world through music and love" may prove to be a rather tasking venture, there is every faith that moe. -- the upstate New York quartet of Chris Mazur, Chuck Garvey, Al Schnier and Rob Derhak -- will be dominating some serious record sales with the release of No Doy, their first major-label effort. The quirky songsmiths with the deadly serious musical skills cleverly blend traditional, jazz, chart. Stereo is to be serviced to radio and video soon and a sizeable European and North American tour is to follow. Keep an eye out for further developments... it could be important. -RG

ERYKAH BADU -R&B
Baduizm
Kedar 53027-J

A voice that whispers more than a few parallels with the great Billie Holiday is something that newcomer Erykah Badu takes as high compliment. And though her style and talent merits such comparisons, Badu says it's not an intentional thing and admits to being more inspired by the likes of Stevie Wonder and Niecey Williams. Baduizm, the debut album from Badu and the first release on the Kedar Entertainment label, is a collection of poised, hypnotic music that mixes the very best of southern black soul with the contemporary sounds of hip-hop that Badu cites as a strong musical influence. On & On, the first single, is making huge gains at radio and its accompanying video is in heavy rotation at Much Music -- in fact it was the Choice Cut for the week of March 3. With the exception of Touch A 4 Leaf Clover, all tracks are originals penned by Badu; her southern grace and feminine world view blues, rock, punk and country music in a way that creates a style that manages to emulate the influences they cite in the Allman Brothers, Camper Van Beethoven and Primus in a way that not only creates their own style but also throws some serious Red Hot Chili Peppers and Dick Dale-like surfabilly into the mix (check out She Sends Me and 32 Things.) Produced by John Porter (Roxxy Music, The Smiths, Taj Mahal, Buddy Guy, Keb' Mo') No Doy is a collection of southern-rock flavoured pop songs that hold much appeal in their cross-over potential. -LT

HANDSOME -Rock/Alternative
Handsone
Epic 67558-H

Originating out of the NYC underground scene of the '80s that spurned forth a new generation of musicians who are now transforming the mainstream, Handsome is no stranger to the heavy metal/punk sound that seems to have penetrated what defines the music of the '90s; in fact their first gig was played at the world famous punk breeding ground, CBGBs. Formed in '93 by Helmet-founding member Peter Mengede,

ALBUM PICK

THE AGE OF ELECTRIC -Alternative
Make A Pest A Pet
God's Teeth Ethel/Universal 81021-J

That Alanis song keeps coming back to us when listening to this record: "You live/you learn." Sure, the two sets of brothers from Age Of Electric know a little about that, having consistently outdone themselves with every new effort (or side effort for that matter). The self-titled debut from 1995 was all power chord and melodic vocal work, but it was miles away from Kurt and Ryan Dahle's Limblifter, which slapped lots of groove into the raw mix. Now we've got the newest release from AOE and, wonder of wonders, more groove, more backing vocals, more singing, more melody, and generally just a lot more. Universal and a growing fan-base are thanking the powers that be that the band didn't break up in a year of squabbles and brotherly rivalry and managed to put this album out, primarily because it has everything to put these guys in the forefront of the domestic alternative scene for the remainder of the year. Tunes like Remote Control, Nothing Happens, My Mistake, Exist To Resist and especially I Don't Mind will give this release the muscle to wrestle the top spots from the competition on alternative radio. Since 1991 the band have scooped up awards, been nominated for awards and impressed the hell out of anyone who was privileged enough to get within listening range. From the sounds of it, there is lots more of that just waiting to happen. -RG bassist Eddie Napi and drummer Peter Hines who, as a member of the Cro-Mags, spent time touring with the likes of heavy metal thrash-meisters Motorhead. The self-titled debut effort, produced by the band with Terry Date (Soundgarden, White Zombie, Screaming Trees, Pantera), is full of the kind of heavy, grinding sound that, although extremely reminiscent of Soundgarden, holds enough individuality to stand alone as a headline act. And don't look for any power-ballad schlock here, there's none to be found; Handsome is 12 original tracks of head-banging fun. -LT

The Breits -Pop/Rock
The Breits
Alert 81032-F

Long the talents in the shadows for the likes of Amanda Marshall, Holly Cole, k.d. Lang, Cory Hart, Lisa DalBello, Rational Youth, Boy's Brigade and a score of others, McKerrow, Ontario natives the Breits (twins Gary and Garth and Kevin) have joined forces with bass player Ian DeSouza to release this, their debut release on Alert records. The 12 original tracks of light-spirited jangly-pop music are extremely radio-friendly with the kind of bittersweet, introspective lyrics that appeal to a wide variety of musical tastes. Produced by Kevin and Gary, who incidentally wrote everything but the lead single No Regrets (which was a collaborative effort between Garth and his wife Sue), the Breits is a perfect springboard effort from some talented musicians who have spent more than their fair share of time making other artists sound good. -LT

GENE -Pop/Alternative
Drawn To The Deep End
Polydor 314 537 310-Q

With a debut album, Olympian, that sold in excess of 70,000 copies in the UK, this sophomore release from pop-darlings Gene has some heavy footsteps to follow in. The good news is that there are 12 strong tracks here to help the boys out; in fact We Could Be Kings, with its accompanying video by Alex Hemming (Portishead) has already reached top-20 status in the UK. Produced by Christopher Merrick Hughes, Drawn To The Deep End continues much in the style of the debut album which merited strong comparisons to the likes of the Smiths, the Style Council and English Beat. Gorgeously swaggering vocals à la Morrissey mix well with poetic lyricism and up-beat Brit-pop to create the extremely successful sound that has done so nicely for the band. Singles like Why I Was Born, Fighting Fit and the first North American single Where Are They Now? should do well to rack up the radio spins. -LT

LEGENDARY ENTERTAINERS - Canadiana
We're From Canada Volume 1
Opening Day-9901

Destined to become collector's items, this series presents popular entertainers who were either born in Canada or made their initial reputations here. Volume 1 is a two-CD collection of 37 tracks. On side 1 the artists are tenor Harold Jarvis singing O Canada in 1908 with surprising lyrics; an unidentified player (or players) of the Peace Tower carillon; Geoffrey Waddington conducting the Eveready Orchestra; the Peerless Quartette; the Harry Thomas Trio; The Dumbells; the Hart House String Quartet; Six Brown Brothers; Joseph Smith and the Mount Royal Orchestra; Ben Hokes and the Victor Salon Orchestra conducted by Rosario Bourdon. None of the recordings were made before 1928. Some of the artists are unfamiliar but not the music. It's mostly of the pop or light concert variety. And the sound is remarkable. Side 2 is in more familiar territory. The artists are Mart Kenney and his orchestra; George Wade and the Cornhuskers; the CNE Chorus; Beatrice Lillie; pianist Ernest Seitz; The Happy Gang; Montreal born singer Dick Todd and Guy Lombardo. Space doesn't permit mention of all the titles, but take our word for it that each selection is enjoyable and not simply as a novelty. Every offering is musically sound; a voyage of discovery for some, a journey down memory lane for others. Concerning the former, give an especial listen to Guy Lombardo's 1928 recording of Sweethearts On Parade. Of course, the orchestra sounds different from its later days -- Lombardo was constantly refining its distinctive sound -- but just what is the difference here? It's the violin played by the maestro himself. Quite delightful and a reminder that his violin was once the lead instrument. -BW

LA BOTTINE SOURIANTE - Roots/Traditional
En Spectacle
Musitor-2039

If, or most likely when, Quebec leaves Canada, much exhilarating music will go with it. As an example of what would be lost except on tour, we offer En Spectacle. Twice winner of a Juno (Best Roots/Traditional). La Bottine Souriante has been providing lively foot stompin' music for 20 years. It's not simply merde kickin' hoedown stuff; the orchestrations are sophisticated -- brass and reeds in addition to strings -- and performed with discipline. Yet, there is an essential feel to it that works its way right down (or up) to the visceral level. It is en fin, happy music; the music of happy people, not malcontents striving for they know not what. Well, enough of politicizing. En Spectacle is a 20th anniversary celebration recorded live last July in St. Saver and what a celebration it must have been, judging by the audience response. The musical excitement is virtually non stop and, even with the occasional infusion of a Latin American beat plus a Nashville brass sound, distinctly and decidedly Quebec. Best selections? Choisissez votre mais pour moi-même c'est Suite de la Sauvagesse et Ch'Pas Capable (La Montagne du Loup). Simply mind blowing, and so is the thought that such happy music might one day leave us. -BW

MONSTER MIKE WELCH - Rock n' blues
Axe To Grind
Tone-Cool-1159 (Denon)

To use the country vernacular, here's a bunch of barn-burnin' scorchers that'll knock your socks off, and Welch, if you can believe it, is only 17 years old. We're going through an era of "young is best," or so it would seem, so this kid fits the picture. Look past the "young" part here however. It's the fiery guitar licks and the growly, blues vocals that grab the ear. Just imagine what Welch will sound like when he grows up, no disrespect intended. Also a major plus for this youngster is his writing talent. He wrote or co-wrote all but one of these tracks, the exception being the title track, written by G.M. Perriwinkle and George Lewis. Welch solo wrote Take Your Best Shot and My Emptiness, both key tracks and the rest with George Lewis. Key here are Did She Say, Afraid Of My Own Tears and Time Standing Still. Welch no doubt gets much of his confidence from his highly professional band who cushion and enhance the breakaways of their younger member. They are George Leroy Lewis (rhythm guitar, Leslie guitar), Jon Ross (fender bass, upright bass) and Warren David Grant (drums). Produced by Richard Rosenblatt and the Monster Mike Welch Band. -WG

RIKI GEE - Country
Lonely City Cowboy
Dave's Records-031

Here's a release cleverly designed for all the lonely people. Pretty good writing material and all, with the exception of two tracks, written by Gee who resides in Guelph, Ontario. The material is reflective, not dismal and reveals a roots-minded personality who has the talent of putting his inner thoughts to music, and fancifully done with a warmly spirited vocal that caresses his material. The bed tracks were recorded locally at Joel & Eleanor's farm. The remainder of the recording was completed also locally, at Grange Street Sound and Ty Tyrfu Studios. The session people also deserve recognition. Accompanying Gee, who doubles on acoustic guitar and fiddle, are Jeff Bird (drums), and Tony Quarrington (electric guitars, dobro, guitjo). Other guests include Nonie Crete (back-up vocals), Lewis Melville (pedal steel), Chris Warren (accordion) and Gee's daughter Camille (back-up vocals, violin). Gee should see some radio action with the title track, All My Butts, and Everybody Fits, as well as with Don Freed's penning of Change Your Hobby but don't overlook Everybody Fits and You Are My Name. Produced by Gee and Randy Smith. Phone 519-821-3551 Fax 519-763-1332.-WG

OFRA HARNOY - Classical
Vivaldi Cello Concertos
RCA Victor Red Seal-68228-N

Toronto's Ofra Harnoy, regarded as "one of the finest cellists of her generation," continues her definitive survey of Vivaldi Cello concertos with this latest release. Includes the world premiere recording of Vivaldi's concerto in A Minor, RV 416. The cello, in the hands of this perfectionist, commands a majesty seldom heard for this droning instrument which has attained a significant stature only in the last couple of years. Also included are Concertos in A-Minor/a-moll/la mineur, RV 418; E-Flat/Es-dur/mi bémol majeur, RV 408; G-Minor/g-moll/sol mineur, RV 413 with Richard Stamp conducting the Toronto Chamber Orchestra; and Concerto for Violin, Cello & Orchestra in B-Flat/B-dur/si bémol majeur, RV 547 with conductor Paul Robinson, Igor Oistrakh on violin and Valerie Weeks on harpsichord and organ. Elizabeth Keenan is heard on harpsichord on all the other concertos with cello continuo by Mihai Tetel. The classical music genre aside, Harnoy's contemporary approach to the cello makes for relaxing and very easy listening, even with Vivaldi. Produced by Jacob Harnoy. -WG

We're Taking the Nation By Storm

Your Dance Music Connection

Times are a changin' for the Junos

Canada's star system has gained a new and energized sparkle this year. When the Juno Awards are telecast across the nation on March 9 on CBC-TV, the coveted awards will enter another dimension. In fact, the Juno people this year are promoting the annual awards show with the theme "The Whole World Is Listening."

Celine Dion, Alanis Morissette and Shania Twain will punch home the advent of women in entertainment by receiving International Achievement Awards and each has their own unique and extraordinary success stories that have catapulted them into international stardom.

Dion, a native of Charlemagne, Quebec and who retains her Canadian residency and who hosted the Juno Awards in 1993, has 10 Junos of her own. Her current CD, Falling Into You, has sold more than 15 million copies around the world. Collectively, she has sold more than 80 million albums worldwide. Her French-language album D'Eux has sold more than 700,000 copies, making it not only the top-selling French-language album of all time, but also the most successful album of any language in France. She most recently won two Grammy Awards for Album of the Year and for Best Pop Album for Falling Into You which was produced by Canadian David Foster.

Ottawa's Alanis Morissette has sold more than two million copies (double diamond) of her Jagged Little Pill album in Canada, part of the 20 million-plus sales around the world. She is also a five-time Juno Award winner.

Timmins, Ontario native Shania Twain has literally set the country music world on its ear. Her sophomore album, The Woman In Me became the best selling album by a female country artist of all time and with sales exceeding eight million copies, surpassed Patsy Cline's Greatest Hits album

Bryan Adams has also mined diamond over the years, his second in 1992 with Waking Up The Neighbours, his first being for reckless. Also enjoying diamond status over the years are Corey Hart, Alannah Myles and Tom Cochrane.

Canada's star system also resulted in another very interesting million-selling CD saga. The four CD, 78 track boxed set of Oh What A Feeling, issued by the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (CARAS) to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Juno Awards, sold more than one million units in just 75 days.

CARAS was able to present cheques for $1,244,715 and $415,600 to benefit the work of the Starlight Foundation Canada and Safehaven respectively. Also established through the monies raised was the CARAS Music Education Fund, which also benefits a scholarship program that rewards students in their final years of music and recording industry arts programs.

Margaret Konopacki and Melissa Gronsdahl of NextMedia, who are handling media for the Juno Awards, point up that "a gold record for sales of 50,000 copies of a record, once the aspiration of every new Canadian artist, has been replaced by platinum (100,000) as the mark of an artist's arrival as a significant player on the music scene." They go on to further point out that "A diamond certification for sales of a million records in Canada, once thought to be out of reach for all but the biggest of international superstars, has now become the regular domain of Canadian artists from all genres of music." They have also supplied an interesting breakdown of what the "ultimate bottom line effect" is on an artist's bank account from gold to platinum to diamond, using as a guideline "a few pertinent provisions from a typical artist contract of an unproven talent", which have been calculated at various sales levels. (See box)

Konopacki and Gronsdahl conclude with: "If you're looking for the silver lining in this apparent cloud, it comes with the artist's growing popularity stimulated primarily by subsequent radio and video exposure. This generates songwriter's royalties for recording artists who write their own songs and improves the artist's ability to tour. If an artist is particularly entrepreneurial, there's also the chance to sell their merchandise (T-shirts, programs, et cetera), an element of an artist's bottom line that has become particularly important over the years."

1. The basic royalty rate of 12 per cent is an "all in" rate, meaning the producer's royalty is included. The producer will receive a three per cent rate, making the "net" royalty rate nine per cent.

2. The net rate will be applied to the album's suggested retail price. For example, we will use

These are the numbers needed to convert the 12 per cent basic royalty rate to the amount paid per album, sometimes called a "penny rate".

Combined CD/cassette retail list price	$13.98
Less: container charge (22.5%)	(3.15)
Royalty base	$10.85
Basic royalty rate	12%
Less: producer's royalty rate (3%)
"Net" royalty rate	x 9%
Penny rate	$ 0.97

	GOLD	PLATINUM	DIAMOND
Units shipped by record label	50,000	100,000	1,000,000
Less: free goods (20%)	(10,000)	(20,000)	(200,000)
Units on which royalties paid	40,000	80,000	800,000
Penny rate	$ 0.97	$ 0.97	$ 0.97
Royalty earnings	$ 38,800	$ 77,600	$ 776,000

Significant record company deductions include:

*Recording costs (musicians, engineers, studio time) of $150,000.

*Video production costs, assuming two videos costing $70,000 each (this cost is shared equally between artist and label).

*Independent promotion of $60,000 (also shared equally between artist and label).

*Advances for tour support and artist living expenses while recording the album, totalling $125,000.

The final calculation:

	GOLD	PLATINUM	DIAMOND
Royalty earnings	$38,800	$77,600	$776,000
Less: recording costs	(150,000)	(150,000)	(150,000)
Less: video costs (1/2 of $140,000)	(70,000)	(70,000)	(70,000)
Less: independent promotion (1/2 of $60,000)	(30,000)	(30,000)	(30,000)
Less: artist and tour support	(125,000)	(125,000)	(125,000)
Net royalty earnings	($336,200)	($297,400)	($401,000)

It should also be noted that the above calculations, which indicate an artist's break even point with a record label estimated to be around 500,000 copies sold, are for one album in isolation and the earnings can be reduced by unrecouped costs from other albums.

... about some of the 1997 Female Vocalist of The Year nominees

DEBORAH COX

Toronto-born Deborah Cox is best described as a soulful, fresh and vibrant singer whose vocal talent made her the bride of radio mere weeks after her self-titled Arista release hit the stands. With an unprecedented list of artists, co-writers, arrangers and producers by her side, including Clive Davis, Dallas Austin, Daryl Simmons, Babyface, Keith Crouch, Vincent Herbert, Keith Thomas, Vassal Benford and Larry "Rock" Campbell, Cox mesmerised audiences and industry folk alike. Sentimental enjoyed a strong reception and introduced Cox as the purveyor of the new smooth and the most promising female vocal force on the contemporary music scene. The track made it on RPM's Hit, A/C and Dance charts, as did Who do U Love, which peaked at #15 and #30 respectively. Where Do We Go From Here considerably broadened the impact the artist was having while proving that her debut was no one hit wonder. Juno time last year paid tribute to what is undoubtedly one of the strongest debuts of the year, awarding Cox with a Juno in the R&B/Soul Recording category. This year, Cox returns with a nomination for Female Vocalist of the Year.

CELINE DION

Celine Dion hardly needs introduction, having inaugurated the Olympics and graced the cover of Time Magazine in the wake of two double platinum albums. Nevertheless, accolades, awards, achievements and successes keep piling up for the 26 year-old Quebec native. At the heart of her success is her remarkable voice and pop perfect songs which displayed the ability to shoot sales through the roof. Case in point, Dion's Falling Into You reached the 700,000 unit mark on the strength of one single alone, Because You Loved Me. Once It's All Coming Back To Me Now hit the airwaves, the album hit the million mark. All of Dion's recent singles have peaked on RPM's Hit Tracks and Adult Contemporary charts, a feat not easily boasted. Major sales of over 30 million albums over the last three years have made Dion Canada's biggest export for 1996 with signs of similar triumphs being achieved this year with continuing sales of her latest album Live A Paris. Probably the most appropriate and natural nominee for this year's Juno Awards, Celine Dion is nominated in the categories of Best Selling Album (Live A Paris), Best Single (Because You Loved Me), Album Of The Year (Falling Into You) and Female Vocalist of the Year. As well, Dion enjoys the distinction of being one of the three artists to receive the newly created International Achievement Award for outstanding contributions in the international marketplace.

LARA FABIAN

Lara Fabian was propelled into the national spotlight with the release of her third album, titled Pure. Outstanding critical and retail success quickly followed, within two weeks of the album's release, Pure had gone platinum and debuted on the first published SoundScan national retail chart at #7. The unprecedented debut is the highest ever for a French recording, the success of which was mirrored with #1 spots for the singles Tout and Humana in Quebec radio. The Belgian-born chanteuse had previously had a string of lesser though significant triumphs prior to Pure. Her self-titled album sold in excess of 100,000 copies and her second effort, Carpe Diem, cleared the 240,000 unit mark. In 1995, Fabian was nominated for two Juno Awards, Best New Artist and Best Francophone Album and portrayed the voice of Esmeralda in the French version of Disney's The Hunchback Of Notre Dame. This year, Lara Fabian has been nominated in the categories of Best Selling Francophone Album and Female Vocalist Of The Year.

AMANDA MARSHALL

At twenty three, Amanda Marshall had more musical experience under her belt than most performers a decade older. Recognising her talent early, Marshall's parents enrolled her in the toddler's music program at Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music when she was just three years old. Early classical training gave way to interests in jazz and rock'n'roll, culminating with an impromptu singing stint for Jeff Healey. Months later, Marshall had put together a band and began playing clubs. when Healey offered her the opening slot on his Canadian national tour, Marshall knew she had been handed the proverbial golden opportunity. A tour with Tom Cochrane was to follow before she accepted a recording offer from Columbia. October of 1994 saw the release of the self-titled, David Tyson produced debut which took Canada by storm. Birmingham, the album's first single, was articulate and sensitive and ran a virtually unbreakable streak at radio. That single, along with Let It Rain, soon cracked the national Top Ten, while the album certified triple platinum in Canada by December of last year. Not surprising that Marshall became a shoo-in the New Solo artist category once award time came around last year. This year, Marshall has been nominated for single of the Year (Birmingham), Album of the Year and Female Vocalist of the Year.

TO: The Music Industry
RE: Selling Before Release Date

Stop the madness!!

Consumer confidence is on the line... Canadians hear and see advertisements heralding new releases on Tuesdays. The release of superstar product is a great boost to us all; we look forward to them with excitement and expend time and money to set them up. What message do we send when releases fall haphazardly into the market before the Tuesday release date?

The industry has undergone dramatic downward trending over the last two years, and our relationship and ability to work together is the key to exciting the music consumer in 1997. We appreciate our advance shipping and co-op privileges, and acknowledge that your policies should reflect a "spirit" of healthy competition between us, but everyone must adhere to them. Clearly, the winner in a healthy competitive market is the consumer. When consumers are motivated, everyone wins. What incentive do we have as retailers to promote new release events, if they are continually thwarted in this manner?

We urge all record companies to enforce their policies, and wholeheartedly support any initiatives labels may take in doing so.

54.40

54.40's career dates back fifteen years and seven albums to the early 1980s, when Brad Merritt's father owned a foundry in Surrey, BC. As a teenager, Merritt had a part-time job there; in fact the foundry was actually the first practice space for a band Merritt started with Neil Osborne, a band they named 54.40 once Phil Comparelli and Matt Johnson joined in. Little did they know at the time that they would become one of Canada's pre-eminent pop rock ensembles. Despite platinum selling albums, the band steadfastly occupied the alternative fringe for the longest time, but claimed theirs with the recent release of their seventh studio album titled Trusted By Millions. The album took shape over two years of touring, writing and jamming, and under the watchful direction of The Odds' Steven Drake resulted in the polished polyphony which has become the band's trademark. The first single, Lies To Me, blasted out of the gate at alternative radio and CHR making, Trusted a long awaited voice of Canadian contemporary rock. Their current, Crossing A Canyon, is following in the wake of that track, reaching #30 this week on RPM's Hits 100 chart. For their continuing efforts and the legacy they are rapidly developing, 54.40 are nominated as Group Of The Year for the 26th Annual Juno Awards.

I MOTHER EARTH

I Mother earth first took shape around 1991, when brothers Jag and Christian Tanna met Edwin, and threw together an impromptu jam session. Almost a year later, they finally got together to form a band, scooping up a bass player, getting their name settled and putting together enough material for a live show. Their sets quickly became the talk of the alternative underground, often including spontaneous percussion jams and poetry readings and leading to a joint signing with EMI Music Canada and Capitol Records in the US. In 1992, I Mother Earth hooked up with producer Mike Clink to record Dig, a record that took them on an exhaustive tour through Europe with such bands as Radiohead, Rage Against The Machine, Primus, Tool, Porno For Pyros, Rollins Band and Stone Temple Pilots. January 1995 saw the release of Scenery And Fish, which was recorded in Quebec's prestigious Morin Heights Studio (formerly Le Studio). The album has gone on to top alternative radio charts with the single One More Astronaut, as well as Used To Be Alright. Currently, Scenery And Fish has sold through, with Dig backing it up with sales in excess of 100,000 (platinum) A cross Canada tour with Moist have made I Mother Earth one of the fastest growing alternative acts currently around, with strong sales for their most recent continuing. The band enjoys their first Juno nomination in the Group Of The Year category.

MOIST

Vancouver's Moist entered into the music scene in 1993, with a self-titled indie cassette that was put together in a matter of days. By the end of that year, the band had fulfilled its initial goals, landing a deal with EMI Music Publishing and recording a debut CD, Silver, which used half of the songs on the cassette with an additional five songs. With the release of a video for Push and the enormous support of MuchMusic, Moist sold 5,000 copies in just six weeks, the kind of numbers moved only by major labels in Canada. Soon thereafter EMI Music Canada signed the lads for a worldwide distribution deal, all the while Silver continued to sell to quadruple platinum status, thereby earning the group a Juno Award for Best New Band in 1994. By the time Silver hit platinum, Moist had released Creature which at the last tally has reached double platinum sales (Silver has since reached triple platinum). Singer/lyricist David Usher, guitarist Mark Makoway, bassist Jeff Pearce, drummer Paul Wilcox and keyboardist Kevin Young have hit the main artery of alternative pop and revealed themselves to be the leading modern rock act in the country. For the 26th Annual Juno Awards, Moist have been nominated in the Group category.

NOIR SILENCE

Long time contenders for the hottest band in the Quebec circuit, Noir Silence broke into national stardom with the release of their self-titled album last November. Created in January of 1993, Noir Silence were Cegep Rock (college contest) finalists and that same year received a SOCAN grant for the best song with L'Ange Perdu. They were also granted the Best Musical Group Award by the 1995 YTV Achievement Awards. The last seven months have been particularly impressive, with 115,000 copies sold of their self-titled debut, and the earning of three Felix at Le Gala de L'Adisq for Revelation Of The Year, Rock Band Of The Year and Rock Album Of The Year. A Francophone force with unwavering popularity, Noir Silence enters the new year with several Juno nominations, including Best Selling Album and Group of the Year.

THE TRAGICALLY HIP

The story of Kingston's most famous rock'n'roll exports begins in 1986 when a group of guys got together and decided to form a rock band. After a series of successful local club dates, the group released its first recording in 1987, an independently produced, self-titled EP distributed only in the Kingston area. The best was indeed yet to come. In December of '88, the band signed with MCA, who picked up that first EP. A year later came the first full-length album with MCA, Up To Here, recorded with Don Smith in Memphis. Producing such eventual Canadian staples as Blow At High Dough, New Orleans Is Sinking, 38 Years Old and Boots Or Hearts, the album went on to top triple platinum status in Canada. The album also earned the group a 1990 Juno for best new group. 1991's Road Apples ultimately spent more than 30 weeks on the album charts and Fully Completely, the Hip's third MCA album, eventually topped quintuple platinum sales. At that time The Hip became the first domestic act to enjoy three consecutive quintuple platinum releases. September of '94 saw the release of Day For Night, followed by Trouble At The Henhouse last year. Both albums have lived up to the legacy of their previous, with a historical #1 debut on RPM's charts for both albums. One of the more successful touring acts in Canadian history, the Hip are once again nominated in the North Star Rock Album and Album Of The Year (Trouble At The Henhouse), Single (Ahead By A Century), Group and Songwriter categories.

COUNTRY

Deana Carter continues to hold at #1 with We Danced Anyway. The single was taken from her Capitol Nashville release, Did I Shave My Legs For This which has certified as platinum (100,000 units). As reported last week, the follow-up single, Count Me In, should be at radio now.

Michelle Wright has the big mover this week. The Answer Is Yes bullets up to #23 from #40 after only four weeks, the fastest moving single in her career. The track was taken from her Arista release, For Me It's You, which is enjoying good retail sales. Wright's Chevy Thunder Tour '97 will bring the Arista country star to 33 Canadian cities. She is introducing a newcomer Julian Austin as her opening act. He has just been signed to BMG. His debut single, Little Ol' Kisses, is now at radio.

Paul Brandt isn't losing any time with his latest Reprise single. Take It From Me, the follow-up to I Meant To Do That (#68) is the most added this week entering the chart at #46.

KX96 Durham Radio looking for power increase

An application has been made to the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) to boost KX96FM Durham's New Country station to enable it to cover the entire Greater Toronto Area (GTA).

Robert J. Marshall, President of Durham Radio Inc., has been buoyed by the station's listener draw over the past year. He points out that the people of Durham Region have already made a decision to tune to the station. "The latest numbers indicate 57 per cent of the tuning to Durham Radio stations is to KX96. Now we would like to serve the whole area known as GTA. We want to take listeners within the 905 calling area into a whole new world of local news, information and music. We believe in the communities that make up the GTA, a community of neighbourhoods and small communities that make the GTA the community it is."

The power increase would give current listeners a much improved signal to the station that is committed to New Country.

Those wishing to support the power increase for KX96 should address their letters to the Secretary General, CRTC, Ottawa, Canada K1A 0N2. Deadline is March 20, 1997.

George Fox continues to bullet up the chart. I Give You My Word, his latest from WEA, jumps up to #31 from #42. Fox is currently playing a number of Alberta and BC dates, moving into Ontario for April (RPM Feb. 17/97). New dates include the Kapuskasing Educational Centre (April 30), the McIntyre Ballroom in Timmins (May 1), the Elliot Lake Civic Centre Theatre (2), the Coquitlam Festival in B.C. (Aug 1), and the Big Valley Jamboree in Camrose, Alberta (3).

Today's Country will feature Mila Mason on stage with the houseband on the March 9 edition. She will perform her current hit, Dark Horse, written by Canadian tunesmiths, Amanda Marshall, David Tyson and Dean McTaggart. Ron Hynes will also be stage centre as he performs a special acoustic version of his new single, Godspeed. Prairie Oyster are scheduled for the March 16 edition. They will perform several songs live from their current album, Blue Plate Special. The March 23 edition will feature Rick Trevino performing tracks from his Learning As You Go album.

Watch for CHLB-FM to bring country to the Lethbridge listening area. Bruce Andrei, a longtime RPM Picker at Q91 Drumheller, moves to the new station as music director.

Duane Steele makes an impressive entry on the chart with Two Names On An Overpass his latest Mercury release registering a #75. Taken from his P.O. Box 423 album, the song was written by Nashville writers Tim Mensy and Gary Harrison. Steele's album was recorded at Morin Heights Studio in Quebec's Laurentians. The single qualifies as two-parts Cancon (AP).

The Stampede have gone country with their latest single Hometown Boy, now catching the ears of country programmers. The trio, originally from Calgary and who moved to Toronto in the late sixties, were kings of pop and rock in 1971. In fact, that year they won five Juno Awards, all revolving around their international hit of Sweet City Woman, which is still programmed heavily on rock and A/C stations. The new single features Kim Berly on focus vocals. The track was taken from their upcoming Koch album, Sure Beats Workin', which was produced by Rich Dodson. Berly, Dodson and Ronnie King resurrected their act a couple of years ago and have been going gangbusters with club, festival and fair dates. The release of the new single is timely as they pencil in dates for the coming spring, summer and fall. The new single enters the chart at #92.

Stephanie Beaumont who has been getting solid support from the Atlantic provinces, makes a return to the chart with Just Like The Moon, which was inadvertently dropped last week. Taken from the Halifax native's Iron Music album, Love And

CJFX offers format of uptown-crossover country

Peter Stewart McCully, Program Director of CJFX, Antigonish, is proud to boast a format that continually adds locals to the playlist "to help them along", he says, adding, "After all, that's why were here."

The station's playlist is checkered with artists within its listening area, which is eastern Nova Scotia and Cape Breton Island. "We are best known for being the home of the Rankins, Barras, Ashley, Natalie MacMaster and John Allan Cameron, to name just a few."

McCully points out that the station's format is pretty varied. "It's a mix of uptown-crossover country, blended with A/C and our own maritime traditional flavour." Like most small stations, CJFX blocks some country and rock at night. The Ceilidh weeknights at 6:05 with Ray MacDonald features European and Maritime Celtic Traditional "and has been on the air forever."

The station's playlist indicates the records by local artists. Listed are Halifax's Stephanie Beaumont's with Just Like The Moon; Truro's Cindy Church with Sweet Dreams Of You; Sydney's Kenny Walsh with Just Feelin' Blue; Cape Breton's Murray Daigle with The Maritime Way, Pictou's Dave Gunning with Heading Home and also from Pictou, MacKeel with On That Day; St. Peter's Rosie Sampson with The Quiet Side Of Day; Rawlings Cross from Port Hawkesbury A Little Of Your Lovin'; and Nicholson, who comes from Truro, has a listing for his release of When Angels Brush Their Hair.

Interesting too is the fact that McCully is the first to give the nod to another interesting Port Hawkesbury native, Natalie MacMaster and the release of The Drunken Piper from her new album. That's Cookie Rankin supplying the vocal treatment. MacMaster was a big winner at this year's East Coast Music Awards, taking home three of the coveted awards: Female Artist, Roots Traditional Artist and Instrumental Artist. Her Fiddle and Bow release won Bruce Guthro a SOCAN Songwriter Award.

CJFX is a role model of a community station that goes that extra mile to promote the culture that dominates its listening area.

Dreams, the single re-enters the chart at #88. The song was written by Nashville writers Tia M. Silvers and Kim Richey and qualifies as two-parts Cancon (AP). The album was produced by Randall Prescott at his Lakeside Studio in the Ottawa Valley.

Watch for Sons of the Desert to hit hard with their debut single Whatever Comes First. The band was launched in Waco in 1990 and, after a bit of reorganizing, moved to Dallas in 1993. Canadian country programmers with a nose for new country acts, have given the nod to their single, which enters the chart at a humble #97.

Q91's Bob Preston gives the Pick Hit nod this week to Terry Kelly's Far Cry From Leavin' the title track of his Gun album. The song was written by Kelly and Ron Hynes. The Drumheller music director added three new Cancon singles this week. Besides the Kelly release, he has added Stephanie Beaumont's Just Like The Moon and Don Neilson's Home of the Brave. His other adds are Sawyer

Brown's Six Days on the Road, John Michael Montgomery's I Miss You A Little, Kevin Sharp's She's Sure Taking It Well, George Strait's One Night At A Time, and Bryan White's Sittin' On Go.

Gene Watson first made his impact in Canada with Paper Rosie, a song that was written by Canadian Dallas Harms. The song went to #1 on the RPM Country 100 (May 28/77). His last hit in Canada, The Jukebox Played Along, peaked at #25 (RPM - Oct. 2/89). Watson is back. He recently signed to Nashville's Step One Records, which is distributed in Canada by Edmonton-based Royalty Records. His debut for the label is titled Good Ol' Days. Change Her Mind has been taken as the first single and it's beginning to kick in south of the border.

Sherry Kennedy enjoyed an incredible launch of Ordinary Woman, her independent album release (RPM New Releases - Feb. 10/97) at the Thorncliff Greenview Community Centre in Calgary (March 1). Although the weather had closed in, a capacity crowd of more than 600 country music lovers battled the snow to catch Kennedy in action. Buses from Lethbridge and Fort Macleod came up for the party as well as fans from Carstairs, High River, Cochrane and Drumheller. A number of industry people also attended, including Jack MacDonald (CMA), Roy Warhurst and Harris Dvorkin of Ranchmans, among others. Several were surprised at the turnout. Kennedy did a 90-minute set and she was called back to do two encores. Following are just a few of the comments overheard: "It's not possible for one person to have that much energy and to be able to move so many people; I found it incredibly emotional. I laughed and cried. She's amazing; In the 35 years that I've been in the business, Sherry is a breath of fresh air in country music. She has an incredible voice; Just fantastic. Just incredible; What an incredible evening of entertainment; and, I'm going to the U2 concert. I only hope it's half as good as the Sherry Kennedy concert." Kennedy adds, "The band was very hot and the energy in the room was electric. It was so exciting." She'll Give You Something, written by Nashville writers Vern Dant and Will Robinson, has been taken as a single. Recorded at Vancouver's Mushroom and Soltone Studios, the album was produced by Tony Rudner and is released on the Sheaken label distributed by Vancouver-based Spinner Music.

Ron Hynes continues to make gains up both the country and A/C charts with Godspeed, his new EMI Canada single (#40). A Hynes original, the single was taken from his album Face To The Gale. Hynes has been firmed for a March 22 engagement at Toronto's Free Times Cafe. Ironically, Judy Pearly, who has owned and managed the trendy cafe for the past 16 years, is going head-to-head against Toronto's new "no smoking" bylaw. The 80-person capacity club and restaurant is located at 320 College Street, the longest running folk club in Toronto. The bylaw went into effect on March 3, but Pearly's opting to pay fines over banning smokers from lighting up in her establishment.

Janet Trecarten, music director at CISS-FM, picks Collin Raye's On The Verge. The Breakout single is Michelle Wright's The Answer Is Yes, which enters the station's Top 30 Countdown at #24. Trecarten also adds Reba McEntire's You Keep Me Hangin' On which holds down a #30 listing. The #1 single is Deana Carter's We Danced Anyway.

Morning Music country has been having much success south of the border. They scored two Top 10 hits on the RPM Country 100 with Tracy Lawrence's Is That A Tear (#1), written by Kenny Beard and John Jarrard and Rick Trevino's Running Out Of Reasons To Run (#6) written by Bob Regan and George Teren. New agreements have been reached with Judy Harris and Leslie Salzillo, owners of Nashville independent music publishing companies to include tracks on albums by Deana Carter, LeAnn Rimes, Alabama, Lorrie Morgan, Collin Raye and others. Mindy McCready's new single A Girl's Gotta Do (What A Girl's Gotta Do), now charting (#93) was written by Rick Bowles and Robert Byrne. Alabama's Sad Lookin' Moon, which entered the chart this week (#88) was written by band members Teddy Gentry, Randy Owen and Greg Fowler. I Miss You A Little, John Michael Montgomery's latest single, was written by Montgomery and Rich Fagan. Charted local cover recordings by Cheryl Hartin (Trouble With Angels), Leasa Fox (I Never Thought I'd Find You), and Grant Bastedo (I Saw The Rest Of My Life).

LeAnn Rimes is hotter than a pistol. Her new Curb release, Unchained Melody/The Early Years, moves onto the RPM Country Albums chart at an unbelievable #10. Blue, her previous release, is still chalking up excellent sales at retail and is at #2 this week, down from #1 last week. This album has been on the chart for 31 weeks. Her current single, Unchained Melody is still moving up the RPM Country 100, and slips into the #8 slot this week after nine weeks of charting.

JRFM and The Bridge fly Basics for Babies

Basics for Babies, the exclusive charity of Vancouver's New Country 93.7JRFm and 600 AM The Bridge, collected 30,000 pounds of baby supplies and $12,854.38 in cash donations, the most successful year in its program that began in 1994.

Donna Whalley, Promotion Director for the two stations, reveals that the cash donations were taken to H.J. Heinz "who matched them dollar for dollar and then sent an entire truckload of Heinz baby supplies worth more than the $25,000 to the Vancouver Food Band," where it will be divided among other participating food banks in the Lower Mainland.

Whalley also points out that the program "has grown over the last three years with about 250 organizations collecting cash and baby supplies specifically for Basics for Babies. With the help of the generous people in BC's Lower Mainland, 1996 was the most successful year yet."

Whalley goes on to reveal that the program "has helped increase public awareness of the need for baby food, diapers, pabulum and formula. The food banks have noticed that these items have become part of regular food bank donations which are needed all your round as hunger knows no season."

Whalley can be reached at 604-730-6559.
