STEW POT'S LOOK-OUT

WELL, HERE WE ARE GETTING NEAR TO THE END OF THE HOLIDAYS. I hope you sometimes saw a large, yellow thing called the sun. One friend of mine decided to take his holidays, and the only time the sun came out, he blinked and missed it! Actually, there are all sorts of reasons for the rotten weather this year. One of them is that thousands of icebergs have floated from the Arctic Circle much farther South than usual into the Atlantic, right into the path of the winds which affect our weather. That's why it's been cold and wet. I have my own theory. All of you who have been holidaying in Wales and the West Country have been eating too many ice creams.

TALL STOREY

The Editor employed a new secretary recently. She's very tall. I saw her for the first time when she went past the window to his office. A very tall girl. The Editor's office is on the fifth floor.

FAN CLUB NEWS!

Calling all followers of the Rolling Stones. If you haven't yet contacted them you can do so by writing to their fan club c/o Annabelle Smith, 69 New Oxford Street, London W.C.1.

After a decade of success, which included such fabulous hits as 'I Wanna Be Your Man', and 'It's All Over Now', the Stones' latest LP is called 'Exile On Main Street.'

BOOKSHELF

Here are two great new football books to kick off the beginning of the season. First, there's the FA Year Book, which has all the facts and figures of last season, plus the new season's full fixture list, all for only 35p. It's a real bargain at the price!

Next comes an extra bonus for winter-time reading with the

FA Book for Boys. It includes articles by Sir Alf Ramsey, Tommy Smith, Paul Madeley and many others. There are also lots of footballers, autographs and photographs—all for 60p.

Both books are published by William Heinemann Ltd.

Stewpot's Soccer Star Predictions

★Stewpot scores again! Yes, next week I'm going to give you MY predictions on which teams are going to reach the top of the football Leagues this season—and those which I think are due for relegation.

Sign of the Swan

[PHOTOGRAPHS BY PHILIPPA SCOTT]

PERHAPS YOU THOUGHT that human beings were the only living creatures to carry their own completely individual markings with them. In the case of you and I, the markings are our finger-prints —'dabs' as Scotland Yard call them. But did you know that wild swans have their own special kind of 'dabs' by which they are just as instantly recognisable?

I even know a girl who keeps the 'finger-prints' of over one-thousand wild swans in her head! When I tell you that her name is Dafila Scott, daughter of famous naturalist and Director of the Wildfowl Trust, Peter Scott, perhaps you won't be quite so surprised.

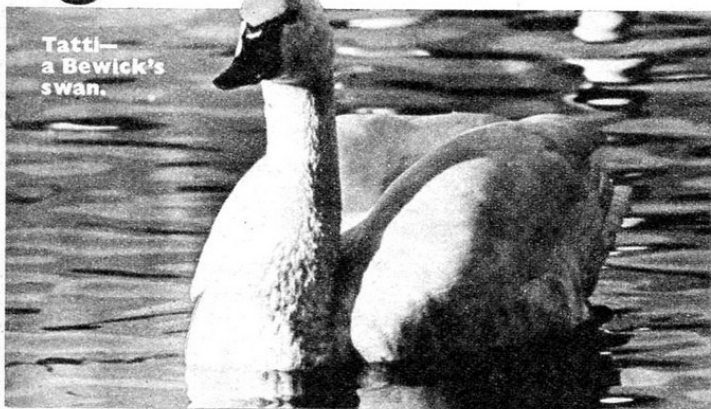

The story is a fascinating one. The wild swans are called Bewick's swans, after Thomas Bewick, the eighteenth-century naturalist.

Each winter they come to us after a two-thousand mile flight from their breeding grounds on the shores of the Kara Sea, in Siberia. >>>>>

Hook and Eye—a pair of Bewick's swans at Slimbridge. Every one has a different set of facial markings. (See next page.)

Sign of the Swan

➔ Several hundred Bewick's swans settle down at the Wildfowl Trust reserve at Slimbridge, Gloucestershire, where you can see them.

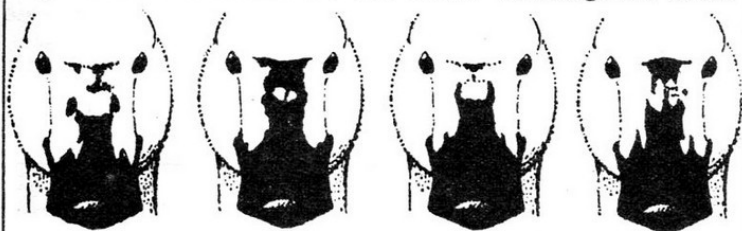

It has been known for some years that every Bewick's swan has a different set of yellow and black markings on its face and bill. Once you know this, it is fairly easy to work out a system of face-prints, and this is exactly what Peter Scott, his wife Philippa and daughter Dafila—assisted by a scientist, Mary Evans—have done.

The face-prints system really got under way one winter a few years back, when Dafila had nothing to do but look out of the window at the swans.

At Slimbridge now, there's an elaborate filing system complete with photographs. Each swan has a name—there are pairs like Kon and Tiki and Porgy and Bess. Every October, the Scott family waits anxiously for the swans to return, to see who has brought a family with them and who has got 'married'.

So far, in ten years, among one-thousand-four-hundred named swans, there have only been two recorded cases of divorce. Bewick swans seem to stay together for life and their face-prints record their faithfulness to each other.

Silhouetted below is Dafila Scott who looks out upon swans at Slimbridge from the studio. Also, Peter Scott's drawings show just four of the infinite number of different markings on Bewick' swans. No two swans' markings are alike.

LIFT OFF

Aretha Franklin made her first recording at the age of eighteen—and within a few short years built up such a strong following that she is now referred to simply as 'Lady Soul'.

Aretha comes by her musical talents naturally. She is one of five children of the Reverend C. L. Franklin of Detroit, a respected figure in the world of gospel music.

When she was fourteen, Aretha joined her father on his evangelistic tours. For four years she created such a sensation as soloist with her father's choir in American churches that she was considered by many to be the new queen of gospel music.

The great Aretha Franklin

But when she was eighteen Aretha gave serious thought to singing blues. Needless to say, her career blossomed and she's never looked back since.

In 1966, Aretha Franklin joined Atlantic Records and her first single, 'I Never Loved A Man The Way I Love You', became an immediate hit, selling over 1,000,000 copies and turning into one of the biggest records of 1967. It also earned her a certified gold record and brought her the national and international acclaim she had long deserved.

Today, with a string of million-sellers behind her, her latest single 'All The King's Horses' is climbing the American charts. It was released in this country a few days ago and I'm sure it will be warmly received by her English fans.

Bye for now.

Outward bound bother next week!

The trapped sorcerer takes a trip!

AH, SERGEANT! ANYTHING TO REPORT? HAVE YOU FOUND THEM?

LAST SEEN BY THE RAILWAY POLICE, SIR, THERE WAS A SPOT OF BOTHER WITH THE OLD MAN. BUT THEY VANISHED INTO THIN AIR. HOWEVER...

A LORRY-LOAD OF VALUABLE MACHINE PARTS WAS STOLEN AROUND THE SAME TIME! WE'RE WORKING ON THE IDEA THERE MAY BE SOME CONNECTION...

MEANWHILE...

CATWEAZLE - WAKE UP!

OOOHHH! WHERE... WHERE ARE WE?

DUNNO. EVERYTHING'S DEAD QUIET. I THINK WE MUST BE PARKED IN A GARAGE SOMEWHERE...

WILT THOU HAVE ME CAST A SPELL FOR OUR FREEDOM?

LUMME! WHATEVER'S HAPPENING?

IT'S AS THOUGH WE'RE BEING LIFTED!

Follyfoot

AFTER A FIRE IN HIS OWN STABLES, BRIGADIER HORACE BLYTH BRINGS HIS VALUABLE RACE-HORSE, BRIGHT SABRE, TO BOARD AT FOLLYFOOT. BLYTH CANNOT STAND THE SIGHT OF SLUGGER, AND THE TWO OF THEM HAVE A VIOLENT ROW — WHICH ENDS WITH SLUGGER GOING OFF IN A HUFF. COME EVENING, HE HASN'T RETURNED — BUT IN THE DEAD OF NIGHT...

HELLO! I THOUGHT I HEARD SOMETHING! WHO'S THAT DOWN BY BRIGHT SABRE'S STABLE..?

BUT WHEN STEVE REACHES THE WALL, THE SHADOWY FIGURE HAS GONE...

WHAT'S GOING ON?

I DUNNO, DORA! I THOUGHT IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN SLUGGER COMING BACK...

HEY, YOU! JUST A MINUTE!

HEY! BRIGHT SABRE'S EATING SOMETHING...

GOOD GRIEF! IT'S HAY — WITH BANEWEED MIXED IN WITH IT!

ARE YOU SURE?

OF COURSE I AM! IT'S POISON! STEVE — WE'VE GOT TO GIVE BRIGHT SABRE AN EMETIC DOSE — FAST!

THEY RACE BACK TO THE HOUSE...

THANK GOODNESS YOU HEARD THE NOISE! BRIGHT SABRE WOULD HAVE BEEN IN A BAD WAY BY MORNING!

I'M GOING TO PHONE BRIGADIER BLYTH! SOMEONE'S DELIBERATELY TRYING TO GET AT HIS HORSE, AND HE'S GOT TO BE TOLD!

Based on the Yorkshire Television series Follyfoot © 1972 Yorkshire Television Ltd.

BLYTH IS THUNDERSTRUCK...

FIRST THE STABLE FIRE - NOW THIS! I'LL BE ROUND WITH THE POLICE FIRST THING IN THE MORNING, MY BOY!

THE BRIGADIER IS THERE AT THE CRACK OF DAWN...

IT'S A MERCY, SOME SCOUNDREL'S OBVIOUSLY SCHEMING TO NOBBLE HIM. HE'S FAVOURITE FOR THE SUMMER CUP, YOU KNOW!

BRIGHT SABRE'S ALL RIGHT, THANK GOODNESS!

M. NOBLE

THAT'S AT THE END OF THE WEEK, WE'LL KEEP HIM UNDER CONSTANT GUARD TILL THEN, I PROMISE.

GOOD MAN, MY JOCKEY AND TRAINER WILL BE COMING ACROSS, OF COURSE...

FINE. GIVE HIM A RUB DOWN, WHILE WE SEE WHAT THE POLICE ARE UP TO!

OKAY, BRIGADIER?

A FEW FOOTPRINTS, SIR - BUT NOTHING DEFINITE TO GO ON. NO CHANCE OF PRINTS ON THE STABLE DOOR, I'M AFRAID...

BUT THE DASHED VILLAIN CAME BACK LAST NIGHT, HEY? THAT'S ABOUT THE STRENGTH OF IT!

HOI, SARGE! I FOUND THIS OUT THE BACK!

HE'S BEEN MISSING SINCE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON...

OH, NO! IT'S SLUGGER'S HAT!

IT COULDN'T HAVE BEEN HIM! NOT SLUGGER!

THE MAN DETESTS ME - THERE'S THE MOTIVE! HIS HAT - THERE'S THE EVIDENCE!

MEANWHILE, IN A LONELY COTTAGE ACROSS THE MOORS...

PITY I MESSED UP THE POISONWEED BIT, MISTER SEFTON - BUT I DID PLANT OUR FRIEND'S HAT!

GOOD ENOUGH, NIPPER. IF WE CAN'T NOBBLE THE HORSE, WE'LL HAVE A GO AT THE JOCKEY...

YOU WON'T GET AWAY WITH THIS, YOU ROTTEN LAYABOUTS!

OH, YES, WE SHALL, OLD CHUM - AND YOU'LL GET ALL THE BLAME!

The crooks put a cunning plan into action next week!

YOUR VIEW

This week, Ray Armstrong, 'Colin' of Southern Television's 'Freewheelers', makes the selection of letters, and other items from the LOOK-IN Postbag—including the £2 Star Letter...

STAR LETTER

In the 'Magpie' feature in LOOK-IN Number 28, Doug, Sue and Tony mentioned their visit to Red Deer River in Canada, where the remains of dinosaurs are often found. They suggested that they might find an early ancestor of Murgatroyd. I think that Murgatroyd's most likely ancestor would have been Archaeopteryx, which lived in the Upper Jurrastic Age (about 147 million years ago) and was about the size of a present-day pigeon. Unlike most birds of its time, Archaeopteryx had feathers.

Philip Lings,
Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire.

★ I'll pass on the message to Murgatroyd, Philip. I'm sure he'll be pleased to know about his great-great-great-etc.-etc.-grandfather!

'KNOCKOUT' BOUT!

On 8th March, 1971, Muhammed Ali met Joe Frazier to battle out the heavyweight championship of the world, at Madison Square Gardens, New York.

For the fifteen-round fight, they earned £1,041,666 each, which works out at £23,148 a minute of actual fighting. That, in turn, amounts to about £385 per second. Quite a tidy little sum!

Andrew Boyd,
West Lothian.

★ Just to show I've been doing my homework, too, Andrew, there was an attendance of 21,455 spectators, and the fight ended in Muhammed Ali (or Cassius Clay) receiving his first defeat in thirty-two fights. But since then, of course, he's beaten the world's best heavyweights, and it looks as though he'll soon get a return fight with 'Smokin' Joe', as Frazier is known. The picture from the fight shows Frazier flooring Muhammed Ali.

GREENFINGER

I had a problem: I love wearing rings, especially copper ones, but I found that after wearing them for a while they left horrible green marks on my fingers. Then a friend told me what to do: paint the inside of each ring with nail-varnish. And it works!

Sonia Brunow,
Hungerford, Berkshire.

★ And there's a useful tip passed on for all readers with rings on their fingers (and it probably works for bells on your toes, too!).

TEA-TIME TERROR

I came home from school to find that my mother was out. She had left a message for me on a piece torn from a newspaper. "Your tea is in the oven," it read—under a big black headline reading: GOVERNMENT HEALTH WARNING!

Graham Wright,
Middlesbrough, Teesside.

★ I'll bet you didn't go hungry, all the same, Graham!

JUNIOR CINEMA

Above: Steve McQueen seems to be winning his argument with a steer in JUNIOR BONNER. The film was a tough assignment for an actor who insists on doing his own stunts, instead of relying on a 'stand-in' to take the hard knocks.

Can you recognize his other films shown here? They are:
 1. MAGNIFICENT 7—1960
 2. NEVADA SMITH—1965
 3. BULLITT—1968
 4. LE MANS—1970
 5. THE GREAT ESCAPE—1963
 6. JUNIOR BONNER again!

Ride 'Em, Steve!

After the first week of filming on his new movie, JUNIOR BONNER, now on release, Steve McQueen was reported to be suffering from a badly-cut nose, a sprained finger and a suspected fracture of the wrist. This won't surprise you if you see the film! McQueen plays a rodeo rider who is thrown from 'bucking bronchos' time after time...

"In future I'm leaving the horses to John Wayne," McQueen remarked when the film of JUNIOR BONNER was at last 'in the can' — "the great thing about cars and motor-bikes is that they don't kick, and never bite!" McQueen, as anyone who saw his daredevil motor-cycle antics in THE GREAT ESCAPE or his expert driving in BULLITT or LE MANS will know, is in his element with horse-power—even if the four-legged kind leaves him cold.

And Tough Guy Number Two...

... is Charlton Heston. For once, in his latest film, Heston doesn't wear a toga, a robe or a suit of armour. His many famous 'historical' rôles have included 'Moses' in THE TEN COMMANDMENTS (1956, and recently re-released); the title part in BEN HUR (1959), for which he won an 'Oscar'; the Spanish knight EL CID (1961); the great artist Michelangelo in THE AGONY AND THE ECSTASY (1965); and JULIUS CAESAR (1970). But in his new movie, now on release, he's the pilot of an airliner which is SKYJACKED!

Gunman aboard! A problem for pilot Charlton Heston in SKYJACKED.

TIMESLIP

PASSING THROUGH THE TIME-BARRIER, LIZ AND SIMON FIND THEMSELVES IN THE AFRICA OF 1910. WITH CASTOR, A MYSTERIOUS ROBOT, THEY ARE INVESTIGATING THE 'GOLDEN LEOPARD', WHICH IS LINKED WITH AN EXPLORER NAMED JOHN PARKER, WHO JOINS THEM. DISASTER OVERTAKES THEIR ENEMIES, DAWSON AND JUDD, BUT, MEANWHILE, THE INCREDIBLE CASTOR TOWS THE FRIENDS TOWARDS THEIR GOAL...

I REMEMBER EVERY DETAIL OF THE MAP. THE 'GOLDEN LEOPARD' IS IN THE AREA AHEAD.

WHAT IS IT, MISTER PARKER? A LIVE ANIMAL?

I'M NOT SURE - THAT'S WHY IT'S A LEGEND! BUT I THINK IT'S GOT SOMETHING TO DO WITH A PRIMITIVE CULT.

WE OUGHT TO ASK CASTOR. HE'S FROM ANOTHER WORLD, AND HE HAS A COMPUTER BRAIN.

NOW WE FIND OUT! THERE IS TEMPLE!

HE'S RIGHT - JUST AS ON MY MAP!

SUPPOSING JUDD AND DAWSON REACHED IT FIRST?

JUDD AND DAWSON ARE ALREADY PRISONERS...

SUKA! SUKA ... DEATH!

LET THEM BE SACRIFICED TO THE LEOPARD!

THE GOLDEN ONE CRIES OUT FOR PREY!

LOOK! THEY ARE JUDD AND DAWSON!

THEY'VE BEEN CAPTURED BY LEOPARD MEN! IT'S A PRETTY GRIM FATE, EVEN FOR THOSE MURDEROUS SCOUNDRELS.

CASTOR, PLEASE - YOU HAVE TO SAVE THEM! WE MUST HELP THEM, WHATEVER THEY'VE DONE!

I WILL CONSIDER IT...

MEANWHILE...

FEED THEM TO THE GOLDEN ONE! THE WHITE INTRUDERS MUST DIE!

NO! NO!

SUDDENLY...

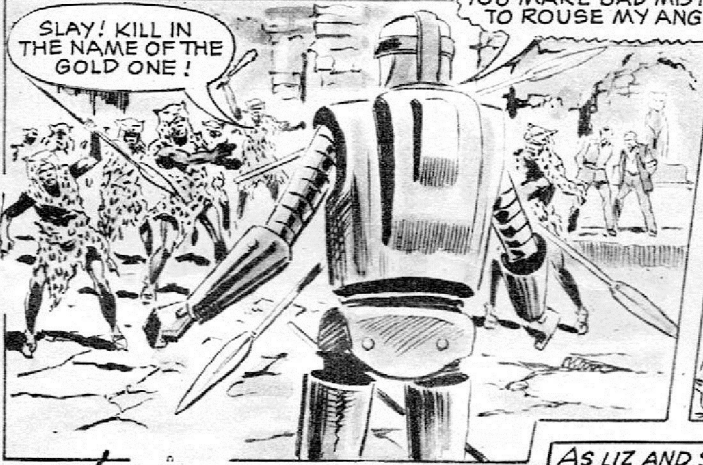

WAIT, O MEN OF THE LEOPARD! I - WHO AM GREATER THAN THE GOLD ONE - FORBID YOU! LET THE PRISONERS FREE!

THE ARMURED GIANT!

IOEEEEKKK! HE IS STRONGER THAN A THOUSAND LEOPARDS! NNNNGH!

RUN FOR IT! IF WE'RE CAUGHT, WE'RE DEAD!

SLAY! KILL IN THE NAME OF THE GOLD ONE!

O LITTLE MEN, YOU MAKE BAD MISTAKE TO ROUSE MY ANGER...

THE LEOPARD MEN FOLLOW...

I STILL DON'T BELIEVE IT! IF I DIDN'T KNOW BETTER, I'D SAY I WAS DREAMING...

YOU'D BETTER BELIEVE IT! YOU CAN SEE WHAT HAPPENS WHEN CASTOR'S ANNOYED.

AS LIZ AND SIMON ENTER...

HEY, CASTOR, WHAT ABOUT THEM? THEY'RE ESCAPING!

IN MY BOAT! WE'LL BE LEFT HERE UNTIL THE LEOPARD MEN SUMMON ENOUGH COURAGE FOR ANOTHER ATTACK.

GOOD GRIEF! THAT MUST BE IT - A SACRED SYMBOL WORTH A FORTUNE IN GOLD. WE'LL LEAVE IT UNTOUCHED. IT'S BETTER THAT WAY.

EARTH'S LEGEND IS TRUE! MY MEMORY BANK WILL HOLD MUCH TO TELL MY SPACE MASTERS.

CASTOR SHAKES HIS HEAD...

FEAR NOT - I WILL GUIDE YOU TO SAFETY! I STILL HAVE MUCH TO LEARN OF THIS STRANGE PLACE AND TIME. WE DO IT TOGETHER.

THAT'S A GOOD IDEA! I DON'T THINK YOU'LL BE SEEING JUDD AND DAWSON AGAIN.

LIZ AND SIMON ARE SUDDENLY WHIRLING BACK THROUGH THE TIME-BARRIER...

IT'S NOT FAIR - I'M NOT READY TO GO!

I DIDN'T PLAN IT, LIZ! I GUESS OUR SAFARI JUST FINISHED...

THE NEXT THEY KNOW...

I'D LIKE TO HAVE FINISHED THE RETURN JOURNEY WITH CASTOR. NOW I ALMOST THINK WE IMAGINED HIM.

WE DIDN'T, THOUGH, WHO KNOWS? IN ANOTHER TIME TRIP WE MAY MEET HIM AGAIN.

HOW

HOW did we get our Royal Family?
Andrew Harstan, The Park Estate, Nottingham.

George the First of England.

Our Royal Family is descended from the ancient kings of England, before and after the Norman Conquest, and from the Kings of Scotland. It is also related to various European families, some now no longer royal. You may have heard, Andrew, that the Royal Family is of German origin. This is partly true, for in 1714 the British chose the Protestant George of Hanover in Germany to be king. He was the grandson of Charles the First's sister, Elizabeth, who married a German. George's claim was not as good as Charles the First's grandson and James the Second's son, Prince James Edward, but the Catholic King James had been deposed, and though his daughters, Mary and Anne, both became queens, their step-brother James Edward was not wanted by most people.

There were rebellions by his Scottish supporters in 1715 and 1745, the second led by Bonnie Prince Charlie, son of Prince James, but they both failed. So instead of James the Third we had George the First—and now Elizabeth the Second.

HOW did the Adam's apple get its name?
Jane Silveston, Worthing, Sussex.

Because of an old story that a piece of the forbidden fruit that Adam ate in the Garden of Eden got stuck in his throat at that spot!

HOW do we dream?
Jennifer Burns, Shrewsbury, Shropshire.

Though we see with our eyes, Jennifer, it is really our brains that are doing the work, and they often go on working just after we fall asleep and just before we wake—when dreams usually happen. As you know, we can still see pictures sometimes when we close our eyes, — always if we concentrate. Dreams are much clearer than these sort of pictures, but are really the same thing without being — usually — so sensible. They are still slightly mysterious, though, for experts still argue about how long dreams are, a few minutes or a very few seconds.
