SHORE RECORD

MORE STARS FOR THE JAZZ JAMBOREE

A MAZING as the response of "Melody Maker" readers has always been to the first announcements regarding application for tickets for the "Jazz Jamboree," this year's rush of would-he ticketholders has transcended anything ever known in connection with this event.

event.

Immediately following the preliminary announcement in last week's "M.M." of how tlekets were to be obtained came a rush of applications so great that the Stoll Theatre could have been sold out at least three times over.

The organisers—the Musicians' Social and Benevolent Council—are doing the best they can to cope with the hundreds of letters, but they point out that only about one-third of those who have applied can jossibly be accommodated with seats.

NO MORE SEATS

As announced last week, the strictest fairness is being observed in organising a "draw" for the applicants, and, as will readily be seen, everyone has about a three-to-one chance of getting in.

NO MORE applications can possibly be entertained, and readers are asked not to embarrass the organisers any further by writing in belated requests for admission.

In the meanwhile, those who do obtain seats are in for a scintillating show. In addition to the big attractions already announced, we learn just at press time of two more interesting acceptances.

Lou Preager and his full band (of Hammersmith Palais and B.B.C. fame) are appearing. Most readers will not need reminding that Lou has built up an extremely swingy pand, including such notable "cornermen" as Johnny Gray (tenor sax); Jack Garter (clarinet); Billy Penrose as Johnny Gray (tenor sax); Jack Carter (clarinet); Billy Penrose

Carter (clarinet); Billy Penrose (plano), etc.
One of the big sensations of this year's Jamboree will undoubtedly be the phenomenal 10-year-old drummer, Victor Feldman. Word has just been received that the Feldman Trio-Robert, Monty, and Victor—have also accepted, and there is little doubt that the super-playing of the boy genius will be one of the highspots of what looks like being a really grand show.

BARRETO FOR GIRO'S

FAMOUS Maestro of the rumba, Don Marino Barreto, with his full hand, is to be one of the big features at Giro's Club when this resort reopens shortly for the winter season. This engagement will in no wise affect Marino's regular commitment at the Embassy Club, where he has been for so long. He is making arrangements to "double" the two Jobs, since the first of his nightly appearances at the Embassy does not take place until about midnight.

Ur Inc ARMY

After spending seven weeks in hospital and undergoing two operations, ace-altoist Harry Hayes has been invalided out of the Army. He has been in the Welsh Gaurds for four and a half years, and, now that he is back in Civvy Street, intends developing the thriving tuition along the first of his nightly appearances at the Embassy does not take place until about midnight.

DECORDING HISTORY WAS MADE IN LONDON LAST SATURDAY (16th), WHEN MAJOR GLENN MILLER AND THE AMERICAN BAND OF THE A.E.F., WITH DINAH SHORE, RECORDED FOUR TITLES FOR THE H.M.V. LABEL AT THE GRAMOPHONE COMPANY'S STUDIOS AT ABBEY ROAD, HAMPSTEAD, N.W. (picture above).

The session—which took place before a small, specially invited audience of professional notabilities—was unique on two counts.

First, when Major Glenn Miller's present band ultimately returns to America, it will disband. These British records, therefore, will be the only means of perpetuating an orchestra which—apart from the magnificent work it has done for the Allied troops—has been a real musical eye-opener to the profession in this country.

It was specially formed for Army purposes, and is not, of course, the same band with which Glenn Miller has recorded in the States.

FIRST TIME TOGETHER

Secondly, this session was the first occasion that Dinah Shore and Glenn Miller have recorded together. In the States she is usually accompanied by Paul Laval and his Lower Basin Street outlits.

Credit for this double-handed recording scoop goes to enterprising E.M.l. recording manager Walter Moody, who conceived the idea over six weeks ago and successfully brought it to fruition, overcoming countiess difficulties and headaches in the process.

Titles recorded were "Stardust" and "All I Do is Dream of You," by Dinah Shore, with really beautiful backings by the Miller Band; and "Farewell Blues" and a new American tune, "I've Got a Heart Filled with Love," by the Orchestra.

IN AID OF CHARITIES

In the last-named title the vocal chorus was sung by Johnny Desmond, accompanied by the Grew Chiefs.
This unique session—which lasted for over four hours—gave us an opportunity to witness the painstaking thoroughness and terrific attention to detail of American musicians and artistes, and very impressive it was, too.

artistes, and very impressive it was, too.
The results were well worth all the trouble, and for impeccability of musiclanship and originality of scring these records will rank high in this year's list of best discs.

The MELODY MAKER is informed that the H.M.V. Company is aiming to bring the records out in their October 1-list, and another interesting point about them is that proceeds will be devoted to British and American Army charities.

RABIN CHANGES

Several changes of personnel have been announced in Oscar Rabin's Band in the past few weeks.

Newcomers to the band include Ken Mackintosh (1st alto); Bill Glover (alto sax, flute, etc.); berick Abbott (trumpet); Eddie Sweeney (trombone); Bob Smith (bass); Roy Davey (trumpet and xylophone); and George Bayton (tenor sax, etc.).

Ken Mackintosh has been in the first saxist's chair for a little time now, but the other changes have all taken place very recently, the latest being Roy Davey and George Bayton, who have switched over from David Miller's Band, which used to be under the meis of the Rabin office.

Of the newcomers, Mackintosh, Glover, Bayton and Abbott, together with the band's regular planist-novachordist, Bernie Fenton, are all keen arrangers, and Oscar Rabin is endeavouring, with the aid of these boys, to present a series of broadcasts in which a large number of the arrangements featured will have been produced by the members of the band themselves.

Changes are also on record in the vocal department. Bobby Young has left, and the vocal efforts of Terry Devon and Alan Dean are nowadays augmented by those of a new fifteen produced by the members of the band themselves.
