Care in the community: Ed Sheeran and Justin Bieber stay put at No.1

■ BY ALAN JONES

d Sheeran's No.6 Collaborations Project drops this week, and supplies three of this week's Top 6.

First single I Don't Care, a collaboration with Justin Bieber, spends its eighth straight week at the summit on consumption of 63,836 units (including 56,793 from sales-equivalent streams), while second sample, Cross Me (feat. Chance The Rapper and PNB Rock) is pushed down 4-6 (38,444 sales) and third trailer, Beautiful People (feat. Khalid), opens at No.3 (54,557 sales), becoming Sheeran's 24th Top 10 entry, and Khalid's fifth, as well as Sheeran's 49th Top 75 entry and Khalid's 20th. Of course, a change in chart regulations since the March 2017 release of Sheeran's last album ÷ – which provided nine of the Top 10 singles on debut – means that only three of his new LP's tracks will be allowed to chart at once.

Despite Sheeran's dominance, Señorita remains at No.2 (60,366 sales) for Shawn Mendes & Camila Cabello, while Stormzy's Crown edges 5-4 (41,656 sales).

After teetering in the teens for three weeks, Mad Love becomes Mabel's third Top 10 hit, rising 13-8 (32,254 sales).

Sigala & Becky Hill's Wish You Well has had a longer gestation, and also enters to the Top 10, climbing for the fifth time in a row since release (11-9, 31,117 sales).

Lewis Capaldi's Glastonbury debut results in a Top 10 re-entry for Someone You Loved (14-10, 29,671 sales) and a bounce for Hold Me While You Wait (6-5, 39,835 sales).

Completing the Top 10, Lil Nas X's Old Town Road holds at No.7 (34,707 sales).

ACR halves the sales-equivalent streams allocated to Stormzy's Vossi Bop, which put together a run of nine straight weeks in the Top 5 but sinks 3-14 (27,524 sales).

Chris Brown and Justin Bieber both score their 56th Top 75 hits with Don't Check On Me, a new track on Brown's Indigo album, which debuts at No.29 (15,991 sales). The track also features vocals from the previously uncharted Ink, a female vocalist not to be mistaken for sometime Brown foil, male rapper Kid Ink.

Whitney Houston racked up 32 Top 40 hits between 1985 and her 2012 death, the last of which was in 2009. Her first new Top 40 hit since is Higher Love (No.36, 13,504 sales), Norwegian producer Kygo's update of her version of the Steve Winwood hit, which appeared only on the Japanese version of her 1990 album, I'm Your Baby Tonight. The track is credited to Kygo & Whitney Houston, and is his 12th hit.

Also new to the chart: Not Today (No.43, 12,204 sales) by The Plug presents Dappy & Tory Lanez; Hate Me (No.45, 11,772 sales), a collaboration between Ellie

Ed Sheeran & Justin Bieber - I Don't Care (Asylum/Def Jam)

This week's sales: 63,836 | Downloads: 7,043 | Streams: 56,793 | Total sales to date: 645,994 |

Taking care of business: Ed Sheeran and Justin Bieber are
No.1 for an eighth week

Goulding and Juice Wrld that provides her 28th hit, his sixth; It's You (77-51, 10,237 sales), the maiden hit for R&B singer/rapper Ali Gatie from Canada; Castles (85-52, 10,125 sales), the third hit for Freya Ridings; Leave Dat Trap (No.53, 10,055 sales), a drill collaboration that provides Unknown T's third hit and AJ Tracey's 11th; Thiago Silva (No.57, 9,800 sales), the 16th hit for Dave and the 12th for AJ Tracey; and Big Mood (No.66, 8,693 sales), the second hit for K-Trap. AJ Tracey also scores his third Top 20 hit, with Ladbroke Grove rising 21-16 (24,000 sales).

Also climbing to new peaks are: 3 Nights (26-20, 20,060 sales) by Dominic Fike, Strike A Pose (27-22, 19,395 sales) by Young T & Bugsey feat. Aitch, Summer Days (33-26, 17,653 sales) by Martin Garrix feat. Macklemore & Patrick Stump, Find U Again (37-31, 15,310 sales) by Mark Ronson feat. Camila Cabello, Truth Hurts (60-42, 12,325 sales) by Lizzo, Call You Mine (54-50, 10,648 sales) by The Chainsmokers & Bebe Rexha, I Could Get Used To This (66-60, 9,331 sales) by Becky Hill & Weiss and Ran$om (62-61, 9,268 sales) by Lil Tecca.

Singles consumption tops 19 million mark for the first time, surpassing the previous peak of 18,963,339 set in the final week of 2018. Overall singles sales are up 1.66% week-on-week at 19,065,306, 21.69% above same week 2018 sales of 15,666,764. Paid-for sales are up 8.68% at 770,359, and are 22.15% below same week 2018 sales of 989,537. They are below same-week, previous-year sales for the 309th week in a row.

Kylie-rated: Glasto effect propels Kylie Minogue to the top vive days after her emotional and triumphant performance on Glastonbury's Pyramid stage, Kylie Minogue's new compilation Step Back In Time: The Definitive Collection storms to a No.1 debut on the album chart. A worthy winner after her performance at Worthy Farm, BARB overnight audience ratings suggested that three million tuned in to watch her - more than twice the figure for any other act - clearing the way for Step Back In Time to secure a No.1 album on consumption of 31,980 units (including 1,225 from sales-equivalent streams). Step Back In Time is Minogue's seventh No.1 album. The only woman to have more is Madonna (12), although Barbra Streisand also has seven if we count the Streisand/Kristofferson soundtrack A Star Is Born. Step Back In Time also debuts at No.1 on the vinyl and cassette album charts, with sales of 5,682 copies in the former format, and 2,047 in the latter format.

■ BY ALAN JONES

Minogue's latest coronation means that although its consumption increased 18.35% week-on-week after his own Glastonbury performance, Lewis Capaldi's Divinely Uninspired To A Hellish Extent – No.1 in five of its previous six weeks on release – dips 1-2 (22,490 sales). The Black Keys released eight albums in 12 years, the last of which, Turn Blue, provided only their sixth Top 75 album, their second Top 10 entry, and their highest placing to date, debuting and peaking at No.2 on sales of 33,037 in 2014. Their ninth album, Let's Rock, can't match that, opening this week at No.3 (10,303 sales).

Into the Top 75 for the 10th time, and the Top 10 for the seventh, Chris Brown opens at No.7 (7,368 sales) with ninth studio album, Indigo. Not content with racking up a multitude of chart albums with The Shadows and Cliff Richard, Shadows guitarist Hank Marvin has a profitable solo sideline. His new compilation, Gold debuts at No.9 (5,889 sales), becoming his 14th solo chart album since he first went it alone in 1969.

The Killers' incendiary Glastonbury set also triggered a big rise in sales/streaming of their catalogue. Their compilation Direct Hits is the main beneficiary, rocketing 55-6 to match its November 2013 debut/peak, with consumption up 323,38% week-on-week at 7,498 units. Their 2004 debut album Hot Fuss experiences a 247.07% uptick in consumption week-on-week to 2,367 units, enough for it to re-enter the chart at No.39, its first Top 40 appearance for two weeks shy of 10 years.

There are also Glastonbury-powered leaps of 10 places or more for Gang Signs & Prayers (73-14, 5,079 sales) by Stormzy, Greatest Hits (131-19, 3,635 sales) by The Cure, Psychodrama (40-27, 3,124 sales) by Dave, Cuz I Love You (111-43, 2,289 sales) by Lizzo, Sucker Punch (123-53, 1,919 sales) by Sigrid and Wanted On Voyage (80-55, 1,825 sales) by George Ezra, whose latest album, Staying At Tamara's rebounds 15-10,

Kylie Minogue - Step Back In Time: The Definitive Collection (BMG/Rhino) This week's sales: 31,980 | Physical: 25,992 | Downloads: 4,763 | Streams: 1,225 | Total sales to date: 31,980 |

Get outta her way: Kylie Minogue's new greatest hits set sold 25,992 physical copies in its first week with consumption at a seven week high of 5,344 units. Billie Eilish also gets a Glastonbury boost, with debut full length album, When We Fall Asleep, Where Do We Go? up 6-4 with consumption jumping 30.31% to 9,428 units.

Top 10 titles not mentioned above: Western Stars (3-5, 7,591 sales) by Bruce Springsteen and The Greatest Showman soundtrack (7-8, 6,063 sales).

A year to the week since The Re-Up (No.37, 2,226 sales) became the first chart entry from K-Trap, No Magic debuts at No.33 (2,762 sales). Thom Yorke has had six No.1 albums as linchpin of Radiohead, but also releases more challenging solo albums. His third solo album, the complex Anima, debuts at No.50 (2,076 sales), but has yet to be released physically.

With the film opening at No.2 on the box office chart, the soundtrack to the new Danny Boyle film, Yesterday – largely consisting of Himesh Patel's Beatles' covers – makes a second frame 68-40 jump (2,333 sales). It is also acting as a trigger for The Beatles' 2000 compilation 1, which climbs for the fourth week in a row, advancing 38-26 (3,251 sales) to occupy its highest chart berth since January 2016. Now That's What I Call Music! 102 is dethroned for the second time on the compilation chart, ceding to sister release Now That's What I Call A Summer Party 19, which opens at the summit on sales of 8,529 copies.

Overall album sales are up 1.73% week-on-week at 1,773,906, 1.68% above same week 2018 sales of 1,744,526. Sales-equivalent streams accounted for 1,183,139 sales, 66.70% of the total. Sales of paid-for albums are up 7.12% week-on-week at 590,767, 22.83% below same week 2018 sales of 765,530.

t has been a tough couple of weeks for Jess Glynne, who has had to cancel gigs for both exhaustion and a haemorrhaged vocal chord – but after being serviced in new mixes by Todd Edwards, her latest single, Jax Jones collaboration One Touch, edges 4-3 on the Commercial Pop club chart while leaping 6-1 on the Upfront club chart.

It is Jones' ninth Upfront No.1 and Glynne's fifth, coming nearly four years after her fourth, Don't Be So Hard On Yourself. But it is the Commercial Pop club chart that is Glynne's natural home – if One Touch does manage to reach pole position there, it will be her 13th No.1.

A year to the week since legendary Dutch DJ Tiesto last topped the Commercial Pop club chart with Dzeko, Preme & Post Malone collaboration Jackie Chan, he returns to pole with Ritual, a powerful new summer anthem on which he is accompanied by Jonas Blue & Rita Ora. Neither Blue nor Ora have nearly as long a career as him, but both have had a major presence on the Commercial Pop chart, with Ritual being Ora's 11th No.1 and Blue's eighth.

There's 'mad love' for Mabel in the Urban community, with her single of that title delivering her sixth Urban club chart No.1 this week, as it ascends into the Top 10 of the OCC chart. The track is also starting to blow up on the Commercial Pop club chart, where it debuts at No.17 this week, after being serviced in new Blinkie mixes.
