WEA Celebrates Starforce CD's Boost Flagging German Sales

Loch Stresses Need To Push Cassettes

by Mike Hennessey

Montreux: Three major problems to which the European record industry needs to address itself with urgency were outlined by Siegfried Loch, president of WEA Europe, when he opened the three-day WEA Skarforce Roadshow here October 2nd: a progressive decline in the sales of viryl albums; a "distressing" slump in casestess als in "distressing" slump in casestess als in "distressing" slump in case and the way of the continental Europe at a time when cassette volume in the USA and UK was exceeding that of 1p disses;

Addressing WEA staffmen from 20 countries at the predominantly European gathering, Loch said that, thanks to the success of compact disc, the declining sales of singles and black lyß did not hur the industry as much as it might have, and the picture could have been even more favourable had CD production been able to keep

Berlin- In an effort to win back the listeners in the 35-45 age bracket and to bring the station in line with American pop radio, the second channel of the German-based station RIAS has changed its playlist system, effective this week. 5% Increase In Monetary Value

by Wolfgang Spahr

Despite unit sales being down in virtually all areas of the LP, cassette and singles sectors, the German record industry posted a 5% upturn in monetary value in the first half of this year compared with the 1985 figures.

And compact disc sales action was the prime reason. CD sales in Germany were up some 200% on the January-June period of last year, according to figures from the German Phono Association, which represents 99% of all domestic sales.

Aided by CD enthusiasm, the German industry has stabilised over the past couple of years, says association chairman Friedel Schmidt, also managing director of Ariola. Shortfall in CD software production will, he predicts, be overcome by the end of this year, with another four CD plants set to go on stream, with more to follow in 1987

CD is the key source of optimism, says the association. First half sales of singles in Germany were 15.9 million units, down 10.2%, though maxisingle sales remained steady at 7.1 million. LPs sales weren't good; budget-priced sales down 20.7% to 7.3 million, and normal-priced product down 3.7% to 18.2 million.

Cassette sales were a shade better, by comparison. Bugglet cassettes were down just 1.9% to 15.5, standard price tapes down 8.3% to 4.4 million. And on the CD front, both pop sales and classical give a total CD sales figure of 4.6 million units in the first six months.

Spanish Rock Sponsorship On The Up

Videotaping Attracts Company Support

Sponsorship of rock music concerts and festivals in Spain could at last become a growth industry following the success of Chupete Productions, an aggressive new company which has festival in produced the Sun Festival in Ibiza for the past two years. For the first event, in 1985, there was only partial sponsorship, from SEAT, for a festival bill which included Hombres G, Jimmy Page and Chris Squire. But this year Chupete raised back-up money from such major firms as Marthoro, Seven Up, Iberia

Airlines and Le Clip-Swiss Quartz

(which also sponsors the Montreux

The extra sponsorship revenue enabled Chupete Productions president Roger Furrer to turn a one-day festival into a three-day event, with the artist roster including Dr. & The Medies. Dr. Feelgood, Nina Hagen, Amazulu, Rebeldes and Meninos Do

Swiss Radio Band Folds Up

After 40 years of success, the SRG Radio Band is to disband at the end of the year. But the decision, from the director of the Swiss Broadcasting Assn. (SRG). Andreas Blum, comes as no real surprise to insiders.

A two-year experimental period to try to trim costs and find financial salvation for the band failed. It costs some $ 1.5 million a year to run. The government-sponsored SRG network has a total operational budget of approximately $ 30 million.

The problems for the Swiss government's stations have increased because of the competition from private broadcasting, which permits commercials on a restricted basis Now three musical directors and eight musicians will lose their jobs. The directors, Hans Moeckel, Cedric Dumont and Peter Jacques, have won wide acclaim for their work. The Syndicate of Swiss Media Workers says the SRG move is a "confession of cultural bankruptcy."

Hamley says he started his venture

Diamond Capital Presents Music Awards

The Diamond Awards Festival, which will take place for the first time in the Antwerp Sportpaleis in Belgium December 5-6 aims to become one of the most significant television programmes in the field of modern music. Says Jean-Marie Sohie, formerly creasing the understanding of, and the employed by Ariola and now manager of the I.D.P.-City 7 Group: "The European Champions' Championship is considered to be the best organised in the world by the majority of top tennis players, and we are convinced we can do the same when it comes to a festival with music & artists. First reactions to the festival have been very positive, Dutch TROS has also guaranteed a nationwide t.v. broadcast and a number of well known artists have already confirmed their participation."

New Dutch Rock Label Founded

by Willem Hoos

Willem Jan van de Wetering, for six years general manager of the Dutch arm of French record company Carrere, has set up a new label to specialise in rock repertoire. He is also expanding into merchandising and book publishing.

First signing to Touch Down is Dutch veteran rocker Herman Brood and his band Wild Romance, with a debut single 'Weep' just out. Other names on the roster: One Fine Day, a new Dutch seven-piece band; new five-strong band The Dame, just out with an LP, a classically-slanted girl rock team, featured September 29th on a VARA half-hour TV special; the girl duo Bombitas, formerly with Wild Romance: and soon to be signed is Roberto Jacketti and The Scooters.

Carrere product is distributed by CNR in the Benelux. Van de Wetering has also set up Artist Merchandising, with an initial deal with Dutch girl disco trio Mai Tai, set to lend their name to cosmetic lines, and other major Dutch names will follow

Centaur Books, his publishing venture, is launched with investment from CNR president Willem van Kooten. Like Artist Merchandising and Carrere, it will be housed in CNR's Weesp headquarters. First book is 'Children Write For Africa', from an anti-famine campaign initiated by top Dutch girl singing act the Dolly Dots. Six other books are to be published before the end of the year, including one written and drawn by Herman Brood place, although the national characteristics of each country are not being repressed. Loch said: "Music has no barriers and, by its nature, travels faster than any other marketable product. We have to be ready for this big European market."

Reviewing WEA's performance in Europe, Loch said that while the overall turnover in the market was up by 5 percent thanks to CD the WFA growth factor had been of the order of Il percent, with a tally of 100 certified discs (double platinum, platinum, gold and silver) achieved in the first nine months of this year.

"This success is firstly due to the repertoire we received from our three American labels," Loch said, "espe cially Warner Bros. Our business with product from the American companies has increased by 18 percent over last year." The UK had also been a tremendous source of talent over the

On the subject of promotion, Loch sounded a warning, pointing out that although it was an important element in marketing, it was only good as long as it helped to build artists and sell product. "Many come to us and ask for our repertoire free of charge because they feel they are promoting our products. I do not necessarily believe this. And we certainly have to charge for the use of our repertoire in such forms of media as cable television.

MTV Shifts To New Programming

US's MTV has announced major changes in programming at a time when the channel is also undergoing a significant move in personnel (see Moving Chairs). Breaking new acts, together with a stronger emphasis on the programming of rock videos are the main priorities of the 24-hour music channel which claims that the shifts are aimed at satisfying audience requirements rather than the record labels.

Sam Kaiser, newly appointed vice president of programming, says that the channel should be "on the vanguard of breakin grock 'n roll. There's a tremendous hole in the market for a style of music that has been the bedrock of the industry. We want to fill that need." According to Les Garland, senior vice president of programming, MTV's rotation list should achieve a better balance between top acts and 'baby acts'.

A clearer distinction is also sought between MTV and sister station VH-1, the former being aimed at a rock audience and the latter at AC

Billy Idol's Visual Image Vital For European Breakthrough

New LP Whiplash Smile Out October 20

Chrysalis are putting the final touches to Billy Idol's fourth album, entitled 'Whiplash Smile' which will be released October 20. With the single 'To Be A Lover' already out and with its entry into the UK charts at 42 last week, Chrysalis' International director Mike Allen believes that they have come up with the best record Billy Idol has made to date

'Whiplash Smile' contains ten tracks, the majority of which are written by Idol himself with the exception of four which are co-written by Idol and Steve Stevens. Only one of the ten tracks is a cover, the current single 'To Be A Lover', a version of the song by Booker T & The MG's known for their hits with 'Green Onions', 'Soul Limbo' and 'Time Is Tight', 'To Be A Lover' is supported by an extremely powerful video directed by Dave Mallet. The clip features the band in a boxing ring together with three backing female vocalists, intermingled amusingly highlighting the difference with Idol himself.

Commenting on 'Whiplash Smile', Mike Allen says: "The whole thing is a stunning package which fully uses Billy's strong visual image. We think of him as an artist whose music is unique in 1986 and we are aiming for a sales platform from which we can take him to the point where in 1987 he will be acknowledged as one of the world's biggest artists."

The marketing campaign is concentrating on merchandising items focussing on the artist's image as depicted on the album sleeve. These images will run through shop posters, fly posters, t-shirts, in-store banners and 3D-counter displays.

Since Idol is currently in the States and therefore unavailable to Europe due to commitments over there. Chrysalis is backing the release with selected editorial coverage between October through to December, to en-

one of his typical enigmatic comments

on the group's 2nd album: "The first

In 1987 Billy Idol is to undertake his first world tour, 'The Return To Splendour' tour, which will bring his visual live performances to European stages for the first time. Comments Allen: "European audiences will certainly look forward to the tour, following his American success which was established in autumn 1983 when 'Rebel Yell' (Billy's 2nd album), started to filter into the rest of the world's markets. Germany, Italy and France were the three countries which gave the artist most support and this was largely due to Idol's appearance on television. His most significant tv appearances were in Germany and Italy and these were the European territories which led a Europe-wide break which resulted in 'Rebel Yell' selling just short of three quarters of a million

Name that quote: "I coulda been a contender.". Yes, of course it's Mar-Ion Brando in 'On The Waterfront' and now that epic film line is the inspiration for the new single by Heaven 17. 'Contenders', and it's an intriguing sound vocally and percussively. The band's new album will follow in November * *He went and changed his mind. Bob Geldof will now not be launching his single 'This Is The World Calling' on board HMS Ark Royal as we and everybody else were led to believe last week. He happens to be doing something else that day, apparently. Anyway the single's out on October 24th and Geldof's album will follow in late November. Advance sales for the softcover edition of his autobiography 'Is That It' have reached a quarter of a million in the UK prior to the publish date this week * Mark Knopfler's 'Going Home', previously the theme from the Bill Forsyth film 'Local Hero', has not been adopted as the official theme music for the Crusader Challenge, which is Britain's entry for the 1987 America's Cup yacht race * No sooner the news of the Madness split, than details of a new band to be formed by four members of the band, Suggs, Karl, Chrissy Boy and Lee. They already have enough material for an album, and they plan a new year launch. The farewell single by the familiar Madness line-up will be released soon along with another greatest hits album, and the future of Bedders and Woody is unknown as yet.

Second LP Comes Clean

After their top 5 return to business with 'Rage Hard' Frankie Goes To Hollywood release their second long play, 'Liverpool' on October 20. Produced by Stephen Lipson, with a guest appearance from Liverpool comedian Stan Boardman, the album contains 8 original songs: 'Warriors Of The Wasteland', 'Rage Hard', 'Kill The Pain', 'Maximum Joy', 'Watching The Wildlife', 'Lunar Bay', 'For Heavens Sake' and 'Is Anybody Out There?'. The cassette and compact disc will contain exactly the same music as the record, but will as usual include eight page photo-booklets. A single will follow in November: as yet it is not sure whether this will be a new song or a track from the album. FGTH live shows will be announced

It is Madonna's third no. 1 hit in the UK following her '85 'Into The Groove' and this years 'Papa Don't Preach'. An incredible jump for Nick Berry whose Every Loser Wins zooms to 4 from 66. Three other additions to the Top 10 include A-Ha's I've Been Losing You (8-14), Status Quo's In The Army Now (9-29) and Pet Shop Boys with their new song Suburbia (10-23). The remixed version of Polices' Don't Stand So Close To Me is highest new entry (32) and other entries for Paul Hardcastle with The Wizard (the theme for Top Of The Pops) (34) and the Bob Clearmountain produced Don't Get Me Wrong sung by Chrissy Hynde and her Pretenders (35). Other entries for Nik Kershaw (Nobody Knows), Gwen Guthrie (Close To You) and Sinitta with Like The First Time. ### THERESA MAIUKO UNDERCOVER LOVER

The first Portugese act with potential international success.

Warner Artists Take Major Share

by Machgiel Bakker

Montreux- The three-day product presentation of the WEA Starforce Roadshow '86 in Montreux concentrated on product from the American labels Atlantic, Elektra, Geffen and Warner Brothers as well as separate presentations from WEA International, MCA and WEA UK. All labels emphasized the large amount of artists that broke on a worldwide scale in '86. Tom Ruffino, vice-president international of Warner Bros presented the total worldsales based on the international royalty income, for Warner, European performances compared to 1985 showed a staggering 122.7% increase. Especially artists like A-Ha, Rod Stewart, Van Halen, ZZ Top, Prince and Madonna contributed to the overall success of WEA in 1986.

New Warner product included a new ballad by Sheila E. ('Touch Me'). the new Eric Clapton album 'Tearing Us Apart' produced by Phil Collins and featuring a duet with Tina Turner. and the new album of A-Ha entitled 'Scoundrel Days'. Fleetwood Mac have reunited for an album release in November and a track of that album, 'I Wanna Be With You Everywhere'. was highlighted. The new Madonna video 'Open Your Heart' had a world premiere at the WEA Roadshow and the rather explicit video with Madonna as the sexy dancer in a peepshow, was an unforgettable experience for some of the delegates.

Highlights of the Atlantic presentation included disco singer Stacey O who is picking up good media reactions with her single 'Two Of Hearts', metal outfit Ratt, Bad Company with a new single called 'This Love' and new material from Yes.

HOUSEHOLD NAME

According to Bob Krasnow, chairman/president of Elektra/Asylum/-Nonesuch, Anita Baker will be a household name very soon and he presented live material of the artist. Other Elektra highlights included a.o. George Duke, Linda Ronstadt (completing the Nelson Riddle project she started three years ago with the release of a new I.P. 'For Sentimental Reasons'), ex-Shalamar singer Howard Hewett and Cars' member Ben Orr with his first solo album Krasnow also introduced the Nonesuch label to the delegates a label that was founded to deal with new American music and composers. The definite highlight was Teresa Stratas' vocal interpretation of Kurt Weill's 'I'm A Stranger, Here Myself'.

Danny Heaps, president of Geffen International evaluated the few months that the label is now distributed by WEA. Seven Geffen acts will. come to Europe including much acclaimed singer/song writer Peter Case and US country rock act Lone Justice who have their new single 'Shelter' out soon. Other presentations included new material from Wang Chung tion for a surprise visit. Since Pele administration, opened the WEA International presentation by commenting on the impact that continental European product had on WEA's turnover this year. "Although the UK is still the supplier of international hits, continental European product travels around the world and the examples of WEA artists like Falco, who had both a no. I hit in the UK and the US, and Alphaville are ample proof of this. It is the task of every WEA company to find new talent, but once you find them you know you have the best company in the world to carry that act across the borders."

('Everybody Have Fun Tonight') and Cars frontman Ric Ocasek (album 'This Side Of Paradise') Manfred Bormann, v.p. product

Apart from WEA International signings like Afrika Bambaata, and Al Jarreau, strong material was presented joined the company this past February, he has become a full-time executive and 'goodwill ambassador' on behalf of WEA International, acting as a spokesman on issues like piracy and hometaping.

Lou Cook, president MCA Records, opened the MCA presentation by touching upon the three years relationship with WEA. "In those three vears our company turned from a catalogue-orientated company into a hit-orientated one. Our licence with WEA, in fact the first between two majors on a world-wide basis, has brought us many new talents". Vicepresident Stuart Watson presented the fourth-quarter releases for 1986: "never before have we had so much top product delivered since the commencement of our relationship with WEA."

The four major priorities for the ny, Spain, France, Holland and Italy. With their debut album selling worldwide 1.2 million copies, German band Alphaville presented their new single 'Universal Daddy'. Spain has a strong contender for crossover with Miguel Bose whose 'Nepa' was presented to much acclaim to the delegates. French rock act Gold had a no. I for weeks with the single 'Ville De Lumiere', the best selling local single for the WEA France company. Lots of good reactions as well for Dutch singer Gerard Joling who recently recorded a duet with Randy Crawford entitled 'Everybody Needs A Little Rain'.

SURPRISE VISIT

Germany presented the Italian duo Alhano & Romina Power with 'Sempre, Sempre' as well as a new single of Peter Schilling entitled 'All The Love I Need'. 'Emotional Man' will be the new single for Falco, simultaneously released all over the world early next year. The video to support the release of the single was modelled after performances by James Brown and Elvis Presley and this single was by far the most popular single, as a questionnaire, circulated around the 400 delegates, proved (the other favourite was Al Jarreau's 'L Is For Lover'). Worldfamous soccer player Pele joined the WEA International presentafrom European markets like Germa- next few months include Nik Kershaw, Kim Wilde, Boston and Patti LaBelle Nik Kershaw's last two lp's have sold over 1.5 million copies worldwide of which half of those in the UK. Patti LaBelle will start her European tour beginning of November and dates include Vienna, Rotterdam, London, Frankfurt, Munich, Dusseldorf and Hamburg. Live footage was presented of exceptional high quality and Patti will release her new single 'Something Special' this

Robert Palmer, Mark Knopfler and

The 'Grand Finale' of the WEA Roadshow '86 was reserved for the WEA UK presentation. Introduced by Siggi Loch as "the man who put us back on the map". WEA UK chairman Rob Dickins opened the WEA presentation by commenting on the role of the UK in the European market: "Our island mentality makes us sometimes a bit eccentric for other European. We have our own culture and it is sometimes hard for us to realise that we are part of Europe just as any other country". Fronted by marketing director Paul Conroy, the WEA UK force was definitely the most visible WEA team. The WEA UK presentation included a 40-minutes video, entitled 'The Soho File', highlighting singles from Hollywood Beyond, Red Box (new single 'For America'), Everything But The Girl ('Don't Leave Me Behind'). Little Richard, Howard Jones, Nick Kamen (produced by Madonna) and The Pretenders

With coach Nesuhi Ertegun closing the WEA Roadshow '86, the team spirit of WEA could not be better summarised by his final words: "I am proud to be part of this organisation, there is not one company with so much love for music and so much deciavs have left the station and Lanz and Brueggemann are now in charge of the day-to-day operations.

Out of a 24 hour playlist consisting of 60 songs, 5 of these songs are played every hour. The system guarantees that a song be played twice on a 24 hours basis, although a song never appears on the same hour. "The particular advantage of our new playlist system," says Lanz, "is that is gives us the opportunity to power songs if they are worth it. A song that deserves power rotation is put at different positions somewhere along the list of 60 tracks"

The hottest addition this week on European radio is Don't Stand So Close To Me, The Police's first single for three years. This Laurie Latham produced single is a re-recording of the old hit single and comes from the forthcoming album 'Every Breath You Take - The Singles', due out October 27. For those of you who can't get enough of this song, the 12" features, apart from the '86 version, a dance mix, a live version as well as the original version as it appeared on the 1980 album 'Zenyatta Mondatta'

Farley "Jackmaster" Funk's Love Can't Turn Around is beginning to get good reports from the continent, following its success in England. The disco single is second highest entry, following the Police debut at 37.

The Pet Shop Boys, the illustrious duo that put so much high energy and Italian disco into their material, have yet another single issued from their 'Please' album. Surburbia follows on the heels of hit singles like 'West End Girls', 'Opportunities' and 'Love Comes Quickly' and is new in the European Airplay Top 50 at 42 this week. On the B side of the single is the track Paninaro, a new song inspired by the Italian Paninari youth cult, featuring Chris Low rapping for the first time and produced by Pet Shop Boys. In Italy this track is released as a single. For the absolute Pet Shop Boys freaks there is also a 12" single consisting of Suburbia ('The Full Horror'-mix), 'Paninaro' and 'Jack The Lad', another new song produced by the

Other Airplay entries for Depeche Mode. German singer Sandra with her latest Hi! Hi! Hi! (from her forthcoming second album 'Mirrors'), and Kim Wilde.

Turning to the Hot 100 Singles, 4 new entries make up for a lively Top 10. While Holiday Rap sticks at no. 1 for the 4th consecutive week (together with A-Ha, the longest Continental top runner) and Rage Hard staying at 2 (the 2nd longplayer, Liverpool, out next week), Communards creep up to no. 3. Madonna could deliver her 3rd no. I hit in Europe as True Blue storms up the Hot 100 from 16 to 4, only in its second week! It is one of the fastest moving singles of this year, only equalled by the spectacular jumps earlier this year by Survivor's Burning Heart (from 19 to 4 in its second week) and Stephanie's Ouragan (from 95 to II in its second week!).

Kim Wilde delivers her version of the Tamla-Motown classic You Keep Me Hangin' On, a single also to be found on her new album 'Another Step' released this week (see Albums Guide). Kim Wilde has a full European tour planned for October/December including concerts in Germany, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Scandinavia and France. An extensive European ty schedule is also

The farewell single of Wham!, Where Did Your Heart Go, is out this week and is getting the first tips of our correspondents although not in the same amount as used to be the case with other Wham! releases in the past.

The Stranglers come up with one of their most commercial singles for a long time, the Lou Reedlike Always The Sun, out on Epic this week.

Red Box release the follow up to last year's hit 'Lean On Me' entitled For America, Just like last year's hit it is a rather weird amalgam of different musical styles

Al Bano and Romina Power are a household name in Italy and their new album and single Sempre, Sempre, produced and arranged in Germany, make them a contender for the rest of Eurone as well. Sempre. Sempre is a hubbling synthesizer MOR single, ready for mainstream top 40

JUST IN TIME

Although European radio will not jump on Iron Maiden's latest album Somewhere In Time, it will undoubtedly attract many fans since the support of heavy metal fans is always the most loyal one. With a truly glossy and futuristic album cover, the digital processing and Martin Birch's stellar production, the album brings the band back in the European Hot 100, as the album is this week's highest entry in the Hot 100 at no. 15.

The success story of A-Ha is a truly amazing one. While the band was virtually unknown last year and only sold 30,000 units of their debut album outside the US, now their album is up to 2 million units and is gold or platinum in 11 markets around the world. Their second album Scoundrel Days is out this week and looking at the first reactions, it could follow the same course as the debut. Already the second best played album in Europe this week, it sees the band from a rougher edge and the band is suited to please both the older fans as well as bringing in new ones. Recommended: Scoundrel Days, Swing Of Things, Soft Rains Of April and The Weight Of The Wind.

Another new album, picking up considerable attention in its first week of release, is OMD's The Pacific Age. It is OMD's 7th album, following hit albums like 'Junk Culture' and 'Crush'. The duo, Andy McClusky and Paul Humpreys, (joined by four new bandmembers) have found their niche with their smooth and commercial brand of synthipop melodies tinged with elaborate symphonic arrangements. Best tracks include The Pacific Age, The Dead Girls and Goddess Of Love.

Kim Wilde releases her first album in two years entitled Another Step, the follow up to Teases And Dares'. The lp includes the recent hit 'Schoolgirl' as well as the title track performed with Junior. Also included is Say You Really Want Me, taken from the OST 'Running Scared'. With production credits shared by Richard James Burgess, Rod Temperton and Reinhold Heil (of Nenafame), the album is neatly divided in an up-tempo side and one filled with slower, moody ballads. Stand-outs include, I've Got So Much Love, Brothers and Missing.

Iggy Pop releases his debut album for A&M entitled Blah-Blah-Blah produced by David Bowie and David Richards. Featuring nine tracks of which five were co-written by Pop and Bowie. Although Iggy Pop still ventilates the 'angry young man' stance, the 'enfant terrible of rock' has softened his approach somewhat, especially through the inclusion of synthesizers in his music and several string arrangements. Nevertheless songs like Real Wild Child, Baby It Can't Fall and Cry For Love, still make him the punk rocker

We were always strong supporters of the Scottish band The Big Dish. Their first three singles, Big New Beginning, Prospect Street and Slide were long time favourites and as such heavily tipped in M&M. One by one, they all failed to make any impact, anywhere at all, which was of course a crying shame. Their debut album for Virgin, Swimmer, continues the brilliance of the former singles with material alternating between guitar-influenced and atmospheric, melodic material. Other key-cuts include Swimmer, the introspective Jealous and Beyond the Pale. Although Big Dish's material may tend to anonymity in the end, the strong vocals of Steven Lindsey lift the material up to a higher plane.
