BOWIE 73 Pic by JOE STEVENS

FIVE YEARS AGO

		Work anding August 28, 1973
Less.
- 9	real
9		YOUNG LOVE Doory Owned (MGM)
		DANCING ON A SATURDAY NIGHTBirry Wing (Hell)
		YESTERDAY ONCE MORECarponiary (A & M)
		SMARTY PANTS Pirpl Chalcy (Rell) PM THE LEADER OF THE GANG
6	- 6	SPANISH EYES Al Martine (Capital)
4	- 7	YOU CAN DO MAGIC Limite it The Family Cookin'(Aveo)
		LIKE SISTER AND BROTHER Delbar (Bull)
21		RISING BUN
5	LB	WELCOME HOME Peters & Lee (Phillips)

TEN YEARS AGO

		Week ending August 28, 1968
Las	177
C. W	Feed
- 1		NELF YOURSELF Tom Junes (Docta)
- 5	- 2	PVE GOTTA GET A MUSSAGE TO YOUlive Gots (Polydor)
- 4		THIS GUY'S IN LOVE WITH YOU Herb Alpert (A & M)
6	- 8	DO IT AGAINBeach Boys (Capital
2		MONY MONY Tunny Junio & The Shoudelo (Major Minor)
13		I SAY A LITTLE PRAYERAretin Preshlin (Aditotic)
		PTRE Arthur Brown (Truck)
13		HIGH IN THE SXY Amon Corner (Dorner)
7	. 9	SUNSHINE GIRL
16	10	DANCE TO THE MUSIC Sty & The Family Stope (Direction)

15 YEARS AGO

Week ending August 30, 1963
	Last this Yaq.
1	- 1	BAD TO ME Billy J. Kresser (Pirlophone)
-	- 2	SNE LOVES YOU
3	- 3	174 TELLING YOU NOWFreshile and The Dreamers (Columbia)
- 6	- 4	IT'S ALL DY THE GAME
2	- 5	SWEETS POR MY SWEET Southern (Pyr)
3.1		FILL NEVER GET OVER YOU
13		YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A BABY TO CRY Corevolus (Decos)
-		POPE OLD Surfacts (Lension)
		LEGION'S LAST PATROL
10		I WANT TO STAY HERE Sterie Lewrence / Evdis Germe (CRS)
	-	t rest to state theme

SINGLES
Week ending September 2, 1978

U.S. SINGLES

			Week ending September 2, 1978
This Last
Week		řenk
	- 1	(1)	THREE TIMES A LADYCommodores
	2	(2)	GREASE Frankie Valli
	3	(7)	BOOGIE OOGIE Taste Of Honey
	4	(4)	HOT BLOODED Foreigner
	5	(6)	HOPELESSLY DEVOTED TO YOU
			Olivia Newton John
	6	(B)	AN EVERLASTING LOVEAndy Gibb
	7	(3)	MISS YOU Rofling Stones
	0	(11)	SHAME Evelyn "Champagne" King
	9	(5)	LOVE WILL FIND A WAYPablo Cruise
	10	(9)	MAGNET AND STEEL Walter Egan
	11	(14)	KISS YOU ALL OVERExile
	12	(15)	FOOL (IF YOU THINK IT'S OVER) Chris Rea
	13	(1B)	SUMMER NIGHTS
			John Travolta/Olivia Newton-John
	14	(27)	DON'T LOOK BACKBoston
	15	(20)	GOT TO GET YOU INTO MY LIFE
			Earth, Wind and Fire
	16	(19)	HOT CHILD IN THE CITY Nick Gilder
	17	(17)	YOURite Coolidge
	18	(10)	MY ANGEL BABYToby Beau
	19	(23)	REMINISCINGLittle River Band
	20	(22)	TWO TICKETS TO PARADISE Eddie Money
	21	(24)	CLOSE THE DOOR Teddy Pendergrass
		(25)	YOU NEEDED MEAnne Murray
	23	(26)	YOU AND I
	24	(30)	WHENEVER I CALL YOU "FRIEND"
			Young Langing

HOLLYWOOD NIGHTS
LOVE IS IN THE AIR
JUST WHAT I NEEDED
LIFE'S BEEN GOOD RIGHT DOWN THE LINE

Couriesy "CASH BOX"

26 (—) 27 (29) Bob Seger
John Paul Young Cars
Joe Walsh

ALBUMS

Week ending September 2, 1978 2 45 3 This Last Week 1 (1) SATTIBLAY MICHAEL SEPTEMBER 2 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
	This Last Week
1	(1)	SATURDAY MIGHT FEVER	30	9 1
	111	Various (RSO)	19	1
2	(3)	STREET LEGAL
		Bob Dylan (CBS)	11	2
3	(2)	NIGHT FLIGHT TO VENUS
4	(4)	Boney M (Atlantic/Hansa) WAR OF THE WORLDS	7	2
	(4)	Various (World Records)	9	4
5	(5)	GREASE Original Soundtrack (RSO)	8	5
6	(6)	20 GIANT HITS Noten Sisters (WEA)	6	2
7	(8)	LIVE & DANGEROUS
	1201	Thin Uzzy (Vertigo)	13 12	2
9	(10) (9)	SOME GIRLS Rolling Stones (EMI) 20 GOLDEN GREATS Hollies (EMI)	8	2
10	(7)	NATURAL HIGH		-
	1-1	Commodores (Motown)	7	7
-11	(13)	OCTAVE Moody Blues (Threshold)	12	4
12	(11)	CLASSIC ROCK
		London Symphony Orchestra (K-Tel)	4	11
13	(12) (14)	STAR PARTY Various Artists (K-Tel) OUT OF THE BLUE	3	31
14	(14)	Electric Light Orchestra (Jet)	37	3
15	()	WHO ARE YOUThe Who	1	15
16	(15)	KICK INSIDEKate Bush (EMI)	26	1
17	(17)	CAN'T STAND THE REZILLOS
		The Rezillos (Sire)	4	17
	(20)	TONIC FOR THE TROOPS	5	18
19	(24)	Boomtown Rate (Ensign)	9	7
20	(18)	"BUT SERKOUSLY FOLKS "	_	Ĺ
	,	Joe Weish (Asylum)	7	12
21	(19)	NEW SOOTS & PANTIES
		(an Dury (Stiff)	31	5
22	(15)	BAT OUT OF HELLMest Loaf (Epic) DOUBLE VISION	24	6
23	()	Foreigner (Atlantic)	1	23
24	(23)	HANDSWORTH REVOLUTION
		Steel Pulse (Island)	- 5	13
25	{27}	AND THEN THERE WERE THREE	-
	/045	Genesis (Charlsma)	32	2
26 27	(21) (—)	ABBA THE ALBUM Abba (Epic) JAMES GALWAY PLAYS SONGS FOR	32	'
21	(-7	ANNIE James Galway (RCA)	1	27
28	(22)	ROCK RULES OKVarious (K-Yel)	6	10
29	(26)	BLAMBrothers Johnson (A&M)	3	26
30	(29)	EVERYONE PLAYS DARTS
		Darts (Magnet)	10	5

BUBBLING UNDER ...

A SONG FOR ALL SEASONS — Renalssance (Warner Bros); LEO SAYER — Leo Sayer (Chrysalle); L — Godley/Creme (Marcury); WHO PAYS THE FERRYMAN — Yannis Merkopoulos (BBC).

U.S. ALBUMS

Week ending September 2, 1978

	Week anding September 2, 1978
This Last Week
1 (1)	GREASEVarious Artists
2 (2)	SOME GIRLSRalling Stones
3 (3)	DOUBLE VISION Foreigner
4 (4)	SGT PEPPER'S LONELY HEARTS CLUB
	BANDVarious Artists
5 (5)	NATURAL HIGHCommodores
6 (6)	WORLDS AWAYPablo Cruise
7 ()	DON'T LOOK BACKBoston
8 (7)	STRANGER IN TOWN
	Bob Seger & The Silver Bullet Band
9 (9)	SHADOW DANCINGAndy Gibb
10 (10)	"BUT SERIOUSLY FOLKS " Joe Walsh
11 (11)	LIFE IS A SONG WORTH SINGING
	Teddy Pendergress
12 (8)	SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER
	Bee Gees and Various Artists
13 (12)	CITY TO CITY
14 (15)	THE STRANGER Billy Josl
15 (8)	A TASTE OF HONEYTaste of Honey
16 (21)	BLAM The Brothers Johnson
12 (17)	TOGETHERNESSL.T.D.
18 (19)	COME GET IT Rick James NIGHTWATCH Kenny Loggins
19 (22)	NIGHTWATCHKenny Loggins
20 (16)	DARKNESS ON THE EDGE OF TOWN
21 (13)	PYRAMID Alan Parsons Project
21 (13) 22 (20)	OCTAVEMoody Blues
23 (30)	UNDER WRAPSSheun Cassidy
24 (14)	STREET LEGAL Bob Dylan
25 (23)	EVEN NOW Barry Manilow
26 (24)	BAT OUT OF HELL Meat Loaf
27 (28)	SMOOTH TALK Evelue "Chempegge" King
28 (29)	SMOOTH TALK Evelyn "Champagne" King LOVE ME AGAIN
29 (-)	THE CARS The Cars
30 (27)	RUNNING ON EMPTY Jackson Browne
94 (A7)	The residence of the Fall Comment of the Comment of Courtesy "CASH BOX"

VEVS Edited: TONY STEWART DESK

TELEVISION SWITCH OFF

most important groups in America's New Wave vanguard, disbanded last week. The split follows the critical backlash for their second affixm, "Adventare", and a disappointing Euro-tour when they often played to ball-full houses.

Ironically, only three weeks ago they presented six shows to espacity audiences at New York's Borton Line club. And for the first time they were gaining a popularity in the US that transcended cult status.
Although there were always russours of disharmony within the band, our New York coverapondent reports their break-up was naticable.

amicrable.
"There were no flights," second guitarist Richard Lloyd insisted.
But Telavision's four years together were based on a fragile structure of management problems and ego-clashes. In the early days a feroclous buttle between co-founders Tom Verlaine and Richard Hell resulted in the later being forced

He now claims there was a group meeting following the Bottom Line gigs. It was clear more of the lour players wanted to continue together, and would prefer to work on new ventures. At the weekend, Vertains said, "It happened a week ago. There was a full moon that night . . . Maby Grupe broke up on a full moon. So we wanted to too."

Lloyd has just produced the debut single by New York new wavers The Erusers, and it is likely he will join Ork Records as a house producer. He and Vertains will also record solo albums for their present label, Elektra.

According to the company's British publicist, Dave Walters, Verlains may form a new band with TV busdist, Fred Smith. But the future plans of drummer Billy Fices are not known.

Report: Joe Stevens (New York), Nick Kent and Tony Stewart.

TELEVISION'S Tom Verlaine

Musicians threaten to black Marquee club

THE WORLD famous Marquee club is to be blacked by the Musicians Union unless support groups who play there know they're not paying the minimum rates either."

But he is prepared to discuss pay policy with the MU, and a meeting was due to be held today.
Last week Evans said: "We are stot pulling any bands out over the weekend, but we are in a state of dispute.
"Any bands who intend to play the Marquee over the next week should really check with us first."

the Musicians Union unless support groups who play there are paid more.

MU Rock Organiser Mike Evans claims these bands are being "exphoited" by the London rock club, which celebrates its 21st birthday in April.

But owner Jack Barry refutes the charge. He counterclaims the MU is using the Marquee as a "scapegoar" in its efforts to enforce minimum prynents at all venues.

The dispute was declared in a letter sent to the club management last week by the enion's General Secretary, John Morton. It apparently follows unsuccessful attempts to arrange a meeting with Barry over the past eight months.

The union claims that months.

The union claims that support bands are only paid £5 to £10 for a gig there. They want fees raised to £9.50 a person for each show, and paid by the club and not the headliners as in present arrangements.

Said Evans: "The Marque is a conspicious example where one way or another they can pay these amounts."
He claimed that over the past 18 months he has received more complaints from MU members about low gig fees at the Marquee than any other London venue.

"The Marquee tends to trade more on its prestige," he said.

rade moranquee testos in trade more on its prestige," he said.

"I think they are exploiting the fact they're in a desirable position, stuck in the West End, and have got 20 years of history. Bands are obviously anxious to play there."

Jack Barry replied: "If I'm exploiting support bands why do we have at least 25 groups a day, seven days a week, asking to play at the club?

"The Marquee is the show-case for the music business."
He does agree that support groups are not paid enough, but this is because the Marquee is a "low-budget club". At present a headline plays there for a share of the door takings, usually 50 per cent, and agrees to pay the support.

The only way to improve fees, Barry said, would be to increase admission prices.

Barry believes that because of the Marquee's prestiglous name it is being unfairly singled out as a test case.

"If we're being blacked, I want to know why other venues aren't," said Barry. "I

Richman quits Lovers

JONATHAN RICHMAN left the Modern Lovers last week to launch a solo

He has already performed several low-frey solo shows in America. And there are plans for him to do the same in London at the end of September to coincide with the release of new Richman and Lovers album, "Modern Love Songs".

A statement by the company said: "At this precise moment we don't know the intentions of the other Modern Lovers except D. Sharpe's got himself tied up with Carla Bley."

Magazine dates

MAGAZINE, WHO tour Europe with Patti Smith this month, play two shows at Liverpoot Enic's on Savurday (2). One is an afternoon matinee, and the other an evening performance.

COSTELLO FOR RAR RALLY?

ELVIS COSTELLO is to headline a concert for London's second Rock Against Racism and Anti-Nazi League Carnival on September 24, RAR announced this week. But it is understood that Costello and The Attractions' appearance has not yet been confirmed.

The show will also feature Stam 69, Miaty and Aswad. RAR expect more supporters for this event than their last in April, when over 80,000 marched to Hackney's Victoria Park.

Park.
The crowd will meet at Speaker's Corner, Hyde Park at 2 pm then march to the concert site, somewhere in Brixton.

Yes: three days at Wemblev

CELEBRATING their October, Yes play three nights at the Wembley Arena — following a long US tour.

US tour.

On September 8 the group release their 18th album, "Torunste", which includes the current single, "Don't Kill The Winde".

Tichets for the Arean on October 26, 27 and 28 — their only British appearances this year. — will be available by mail order only in thrue weeks time.

time.
Prices are £5 and £4 postal ordem (no choques) and SAEs should be sent to: The Yea/Harvey Goldsmith Box Office, Chappella, 59 New Boud Streat, Loadon WI.

APOLLO 'DEBUT' HELD UP

THE planned reopening of the Glasgow Apollo this weekend has been weekenn has been cancelled.

Rory Gallagher's new group were to make their debut there on Friday in a special benefit for the Apollo Restoration Fund. And Sham 69 were to play there on Saturday.

But because Capital City Entertainments' offer to buy the theatre from its present owners has not yet been accepted, it was decided to call off the shows.

And for now Glasgow still does not have a rock venue. Unconfirmed ramours suggest that a second purchase offer has been made by the management of two other rock theatres.

WIRE, whose debut album "Pink Flag" was highly acclaimed, start a month long British tour this month.

Recently returned from their American live debut, the group also celease their second LP, "Chairs Missing", on September 8. Like the first, it is produced by Mike Thorne, and includes "I Am The Fly" which was braved as a single last March.

This fourthcoming four is:

This forthcoming tour is Wire's most extensive, although they played a short teries of shows in early summer, including a major concert at the Lycum. Another London appearance is to be arranged for inte October.

October,
Wire open at Newcastle
University (29), then play
Bircois Leisure Centre (30), Doncaster Outlook (October
2), Leeds Fan Club (3), York
Pop Club (4), Canterbury
Kent University (5), London
Clty Poly (6), Malvers Winter
Gardems (7), Leasurer University (9), Birminarham

Burbarelles (10), Bristof Brunet; College (11), Manchester Factory (12), two show's at Liverpool Eric's including a matinee (14), Plymouth Woods (16), Penzance Winter Garden (17), Eneter Roots (18), Coventry Lanchester Poly (19), Harrow Tech (20), High Wycombe Town Hall (21), Leicester University (24), Bradford University (25), Sheffield Limit (26), Middlesborough Roch Garden (27), and Huddersitical Poly (26). Burbareffus (10), Bristol Huddersfield Poly (28).

What You Waitin'For?

Only 15,000 copies of the newly recorded single from Stargard are available as a 6 minute U.S. disco mix on 12" pressings. And they won't be around for long. 12 MCA 382.

new single "Baby Face"

special U.S. mix from the album "Galaxy."

MCA RECORDS

AL STEWART releases AL STEWART releases his first album since the highly successful "Year Of The Cat" on September 8. Called "Time Passages" it's produced by Alan Parsons and Jeatures Tim Renwick, Parer Wood, Stuart Ellion Peter Wood, Stuart Elliot and Jeff Porcaro.

and Jeff Porcaro.

After touring America and Europe, Stewart plays six British concerts in December including two nights at London's Hammersmith Odeon (15716). He appears at Bristol Odeon (107),
Manchester Apollo (117), Edinburgh Odeon (12) and Birmingham Odeon (14).

PROGRESSIVE Tours are arranging a trip to Paris on September 8-11 to attend a two-day lestival starring General, Price is £39, including Genesis. Price is 4.39, including travel, accommodation and tickets. Applications should be made to 12 Porchester Place, London W2 (telephone 01-262 1676).

"MUSIC FOR Funsters", an EP by The V.I.P. a is available by mail order from Clive

Soloman, 66 High View, Pinner, Middlesex. The group play London Rock Garden tonight. Londou Shepherd's Bush Trafalgar (7), and from September 14 begin a Thursday night residency at the Nottingham Sandpiper.

TUBEWAY ARMY, who only recently released their first single. "Bombers", have disbanded. Beggar's Banquet still intend to release a group LP comprising demos, and lead singer-guitarist Valerium is now recording solo for the label.

THE MOONLIGHT Club at the Railway Hotel in London's West Hampstend is to begin Saturday and Wednesday shows on September 9 with Jab-Jab and Herbanan. At present the renue is only open Mondays and Tuesdays.

CAFE JACQUES release a new single, "Boulevard Of Broken Dreams", this Friday (1). Taken from the 40s musical, Hollywood Bubylon, with new music by keyboard player Peter Verich, it is the opening cut on the group's forthcoming second album

THE FIFTH annual Covent THE FIFTH annual Covept Garden Neighbourhood Festival is being held this Saturday and Sunday (23) at the New Community Garden in Endell Street. Running from Ilam to 11pm each day, the festival features street theatre, games and sideshows. Live music will be provided by a variety of multi-cultural groups.

A FREE carnival organised by Friends of the Earth and Rye Festival Benefit is being held in Rye this Saturday (2). Opening Rye this Saturday (2). Opening at Jpm it will feature sets by The Banned, Blast Farance And, The Fifes, The Physicals, Sammy Snatzy Mitchell, Hollywood Killers, Hippo, Delia Wing and George Beron. Fancy dress is welcomed.

THE ZONES begin an eight-date London tour this Sunday (3) at the Stoke NewIngton Pegasus. They play the Hope and Anchor (5), co-headline with The Skids at the Music Machine (7) and Nashville (8), Canning Town Bridge House (12), Nashville (14), Stoke Newington, Rochester Castle (15) and the Rock Garden (16).

SCOTTISH BAND The Joh are now a fourpiece with the addition of guitarist-vocalist Kevin Key. They make their first appearance as a quartet at London's Marquee on Sunday (3), followed by Nottingham Sandpiper (15), Islington Hape and Anchor (19).

BECKENHAM group Temals Shoes, who describe themselves as "the surburban band with the semi-detached sound", have signed to the Croydon independent label, Croydon independent label, Bonaparte.

Their debut single "(Do The) Medium Wave", is set for September release, and later this month they begin recording their first album. Meanwhile, the Shoes play lended! Brecknock on meanwhite, the Shoes play London's Brecknock on September 7, 17 and 27, and Brofuley Stockwell College (22).

WACKY POP SHOW TAKES TO THE ROAD

MANCHESTER band Tae Smirks, renowned for their wacky pop music and fancy dance routines onstage, this month begin their first headlining tour of Britain. And it includes a weekly residency at London's Marquee Club during October.

includes a weekly residency during October.

To coincide with the dates the group release their second single for Benerakley, "Rosemary". Backed with their own regate song, "Up Eb Up", it was produced by Chaz Jankel who worked with lan Dury on the LP "New Boots And Panties" and the single "What A Waste".

Concerts so far confirmed are at Liverpool Foly (28), Sheffield Foly (29), Warwick University (30), Kent University (October 3), Marquee (4), Reading University (12), Newcastle University (13), Manchester University (14), Warrington Carlton Club (16), Marquee (18), Portsmouth Poly (21), Plymouth Woods (23), Penzance Garde (24), Exeter Roots (25), Bristol University (27), London School of Economics (28), Marquec (30), Hudders-field Poly (November 1), Manchester Rustell Chul (2) and Sheffield Limit (3).

Damned group

THREE ORIGINAL Damped members are forming a group called Les Punks to play one concert at the London Camden Town Electric Ballroom on Tuesday (5).

Dave Vanian, Rat Scabiea and Captain Sensible will be joined by Motorkead's Lemmy and possibly other guests for this special.

THE POP GROUP APOLLO THEATRE THURSDAY 31st AUGUST at 7:30 TOP RANK SUITE CARDIFF FRIDAY 1st SEPTEMBER at 8:00 Married and spring the Company Street, William BIRMINGHAM ODEON SATURDAY 2nd SEPTEMBER at 7-30

This week's best selling SONGBOOKS MAIN HENDRIX 40 Greatest MEATLOAF Dut Out of Holl THE WHO A Decade of ... BOOKS SEX PISTOLS NO DOORS Comple 1. REX somebook PASH MUSIC STORES, 5 ELGIN CRESCENT, LONGON WIL

STRANGLERS' OPEN AIR GIG CONFIRMED

THE STRANGLERS are confirmed to play London's

THE STRANGLERS are confirmed to play London's Battersea Park on September 16, as exclusively reported by NAME two weeks ago.

Throughout this year attempts to stage a show in the capital have been unsuccessful. Now 8,000 people will have the chance to see the group in an open-air event running from noon until form.

The Stranglers are to be adding a large bill, including "at least one very big non-new wave name" yet to be announced.

The licence for the event is expected to be ratified by the GLC today (Thursday), and tickets priced £4 will be on sale tomorrow at Hariequin shops. Chappeth and usual outlets. Meanwhile The Stranglers now begin their tour at Beffast's Ulster Hall on September 7, followed by Port Rush Arcade Ballroom (8), and Dublin Top Hat (9).

Tour Der

Tour Der

Youth...
TANZ DER Youth, the group formed by ex-Damned guitarist Brian James, begin a British tour with two shows at London's Nashville this Saturday.

NEAT TWO SHOWS ALL CORROLL

The first set begins at 1 pm and admission is 75p. Then they play a normal evening show when admission is 21.

The band appear at Edinburgh Tiffanys (4), Nuneaton 77 Chub (5), Sheffied Limit (7), Birmingham Barbarellas (8), Liverpool Enic's (9), London Marquee (13), Reflord Porterhouse (15), Nortingham Sandpiper (16), Chelmaford Chancellor Half (17), Leeds F Chub (19), Newport Stowawsy (20), Plymouth Metro (21), Dudley 1918 (22), Middlesbrough Rock Garden (23), Swansea Circles (28), and Bristol Granary (30).

ROSE ROYCE, the nine piece LA group who first visited Britain a year ago following their success on the Car Wash soundtrack, following their success on the Car Wash soundtrack, undertake another major UK tour this month.

Supported by Stargard, the girl trio who recorded the disconit "Which Way Is Up", the dates include two shows at the London Hammersmith Odeon on October 4, starting at 6.30 and 9pm.

Rose Royce release a new single, "Love Don't Live Here Any More", on Friday (1), It's taken from the album "Rose Royce Strikes Again", which will be issued next week.

Opening at Birmingham Odeon (29), the tour then plays Liverpool Empire (30), Edinburgh Odeon (October 1), Newcastle City Hall (2), the two Hammersmith shows (4), Bristol Colston Hall (6), and Southampton Gaumont (7).

Tickets are priced £3, £2.50 and £2, with £3.50 lickets as well in London only

Lurker switch

THE LURKERS, now on an extensive UK tour, will appear at the London Lyceum and not the Chalk Farm Roundhouse on September 10.

Buzzcocks album. single next month

THE BUZZCOCKS release their second afoum, "Love Bites", on September 22. Produced by Martin Rusheni, it was recorded and mixed in London over two weeks, and features nine songs and two instrumentals including bassist Steve Garvey's composing debut with "Walking Distance".

Two tracks from the set, "Ever Fallen In Love With Someone You Shoukin't" and "Just Last", are released as a single on September 8.

The Bezzocks are support on Biondie's Euro-tour, and they open their own British tour on September 27.

Potter's Clay

KEYBOARD PLAYER John Potter, who recently left Wilko Johnson's Solid Senders, has formed his own band Potter's Clay.

Comprising Southend musi-cians Mike Mayaard (vocals), Buzz Barwell (drums), John Raymond (bass) and guitarist John Batty, they make their debut at the London Hope and Anchor this Saturday (2). They also play Southend Shrimpers Inn (Sunday) and the London Rock Garden (22).

Chiswick deal

CHISWICK RECORDS have CHISWICK RECORDS have signed a long-term licensing deal with EMf, and their first release together is "Radio Stars Holiday Album" this Friday (1).
Radio Stars have also added three more shows to their current UK rour, playing Leads Florde Green (67) and Middleton Civic Hall (20).
Their distes in Plymouth and Exeter have been changed round, and are now Plymouth Woods Centre (11) and Exeter Roots (13).

30-DATE SCHEDULE FOR LEO SAYER

Ultravox

ULTRAVOX,

recently played a sell-out five night run at Loudon's Marquee, begin a 24-date UK tour on September 12. And the same day they

UK tour on September 12.
And the same day they release a new album, "Systems Of Romance".
They play Nuneaton 77 Club (12), Leeds F Club (14), Scarborough Penthouse (15), Lincoln AJ's (16), Redear Coatham Bowl (17), Doncaster Outlook (18), Nortingham Sandpiper (20), Sheffield Limit Club (21), Reford Porterhouse (22), Liverpool Ene's (23), Swansea Curcles (25), Newport Stewsway (27), Plymouth (28), Bristol Yates Leisure Centre (29), St Albans Cly Hall (30), Birmingham Barbarellas (October 3), Preston Poly (4), Cleethorpes Winter Gardens (5), Manchester The Factory (6), Wakefield Unity Hall (7), Ediaburgh Astoria (10), Aberdeen Ratters (11), Donfermline Kinema (12), and Middlenhard Rock Garden (13).

Cancelled . . .

BRITISH TOURS by American artists Andrew Gold and Jessy Dison have been cancelled.

take to the road

NEXT MONTH Leo Sayer begins his most extensive British tour — his first visit here in over a year. It is costing £250,000 to stage over 30 concerts, including one at the London Palladium

Sayer will be appearing with the American band who played with him on his recent eight-week US tour. And he is still set to play six Christmas shows at the Manchester Apollo from Boxing re Apollo from Boxing Day.

Now firmly established as a family entertainer, Sayer — who this Friday releases the single, "I Can't Stop Loving You", from his sixth LP, "Leo Sayer" — films his own TV series later this month.

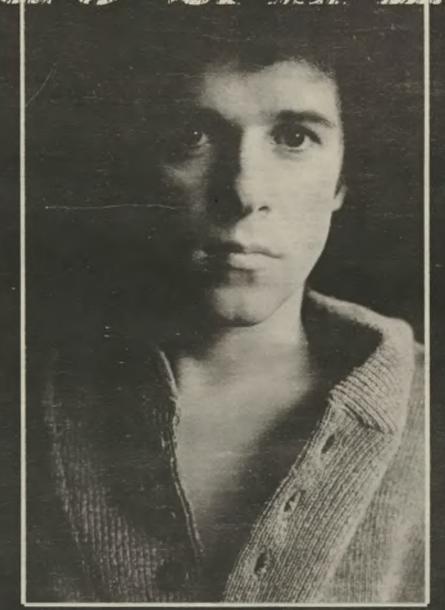

He opens at Bournemouth Winter Gardens on October 11, followed by:
Bristol Colston Hall (12), Paignton Festival Theatre (13), Glouesster Leisure Centre (14), Palladium (15), Nottingham Theatre Royal (18), Bradford St. George's Haill (19), Briddington Spa (20), Middlesbrough Town Hall (21), Blackpool Opera House (22), Ipswich Gaumont (25), Leiesster De Montfort Hall (26), Oxford New Theatre (27/28), Newesste City Hall (November 1), Dundee Caird Hall (2), Sethiburgh Usher Hall (November 1), Dundee Caird Hall (2), Sethiburgh Usher Hall (November 1), Dundee Caird Hall (2), Sethiburgh Usher Hall (November 1), Dundee Caird Hall (2), Sethiburgh Usher Hall (November 1), Dundee Caird Hall (3), Sheffield City Hall (3), Southampton Gaumont (10), Liverpool Empire (11), Birmingham Odeon (12), Portsmouth Guildhall (15), Brighton Centre (16), Cardiff Sapphire Gardens (17), Peterborough ABC (18), Croydon Fairfield Hall (19), Dublin PDS (21), and Derby Assembly Rooms (25).

Tickets are available by post from the venues, and at the and Derby Assembly Rooms (25).

Tickets are available by post from the venues, and at the Palladium are priced £5, £4, £3, £2.50 and £1.50.

PUREANDS

Leo Sayer. It's the name of the man and the title of his latest album. On it you'll find a mixture of his own as well but it's on the slower numbers that the Leo Sayer magic will reach out and touch you.

Leo Sayer is an album that's more introspective than his previous albums.

certainly find it on his latest album. Listen, that's all. Just listen.

LEO SAVER CDL 1198 ALSO AVAILABLE ON CASSETTE

BLONDIE AND THE BEAST

Debbie Harry & Co. Meet Market Penetration Uptown and Live To Tell The Tale.

FBBJE HARRY: a few more brisk calculations in the dry equation, and she will be a star. A household name. An object. An illusion, Well designed, well marketed. It's a modern story, of manipulation and desires, of repression and escapism, of cosmetics, the media, sex... and short, sharp pop music inuzak.

It's fun to observe. You can

sex. and strott, starp pop music/intrak.

It's fun to observe. You can but but but but but a vertex of sluny bedroom-dominating posters of her face and half-hidden body areas. The pulp dadles coosader her worth exploiting. Judith Simons of the Daily Express decides with relief that Barry and her boy frend Chris Stein are just like any other well brought up couple — articulate, polite. In reality just bored and tolerant. They are getting matried, "the Express article blushes, fastely. "That story!! probably coises a smoode." Harry carelessly romanks. Debbie Harry is 33, a sequin. If it halfs are different lengths, her ragged, bleached huir almost black around the back. Her face is wide, shighly oriental, with tree degrees and features at rulks with each other. She spin, She borps. She looks the her grid who sits next to you at college Boylriand Chris Stein thinks she's.

Buylriend Chris Stein thinks she's

She slouehes next to me on a sofa in a plush, decording that off Kings Rd and seems pretty dowdy. "I may not look real good now" she generously concedes, that some inakes up.

Ain. Yes. The transformation!

"Most of what I do it went to joint make me hask mysterious my skin ion! that bad, as not that I have to cove up high pushing my face or something.

I don't look horrendous. I don't think. I just look like regular y know. I become glamacous when I put the make-upo of .

Let's dwell on the glamour. Jor without this ingredient n's dubious.

that as many consumers would be attached to Blondie's abreviated popmusic Blondie's abreviated popmusic Blondie's agroup—but that's now how it works. Without Harry's visual pull Blondie would be lucky to be similarly placed.
Debbie Harry, with het looks of luminous scaames, her gloss, colourful mask, the owly risque clothes, the air of innovence with the beginnings of an inviting grin, is a careafusted idea of fermininty based on the product of a massinine society. She burders on the grotesque—like hie adrogenous foce of Poetrich or Garba—yest shimmers and emonates, as wind dibat challenges the male position of secure chars minim. And the little girls, they see got a runk on her.
This wild, sweet doll with the decorated eyes and masses of carefully thougher this suid agged Blondie to an all but American world-wide speces.

It's DIFFICH T to determine shoulder's role in the greation of all this. It's admitted that it was no accident that the group was named after the artificial color of the socialist's hair. The group rucfully recall earls New York Days when the Sala New Good Days when the Sala New Good barry to accompany a gig guide without mentioning the band. Yet't does seem that when the group appreciated the centralipation of the medical smaller oparatives they used Harry to gain alternion. There are piles of earcfully posed presures that east for the dailies to use 1 as week it was Harry in a schoolgirl in the salary to a schoolgirl in the salary to a schoolgirl in the salary to be a salary to be a schoolgirl in the salary to be a salary to a schoolgirl in the salary to be a salary to be a schoolgirl in the salary to be a salary to be a schoolgirl in the salary to be a salary to be a

Close Encounters: PAUL MORLEY (typewriter) PENNIE SMITH (camera)

BLONDIE

From previous page

whether I'll have any again. Rock'n'roll inspiration. Street level inspiration." Her washed out pessimism is pitiful.

pessimism is pitiful.

There's an upward curl at the corners of her thick pole lips when her new-found fame is mentioned, but it's still the answer of a caged animal.

"It's really funny, most of the time, going out—the punks, the kids, they're ok, it's people like shopkeepers and stuff like that, y'know, they have a different attitude, they have a different attitude, they have a tendancy to yell obacene things at me. More so than before."

Attitude, they have a tendancy to yell obscene things at me. More so than before."

She considers the concentration on her actuality to be the result of honeary. "Yeah, it's my own fault. By talking. By being real, if I was unreal it would be much easier. Unreal about what I was..." Images of days of choosy promiseuity surely flicker through her mind, but her blank look remains."... about what I am. It's nerve-racking now. I should have kept my big mount shut.

But surely it's how she looks, dresses and what she implies that's the problem. "Yeah" she glumly agrees, "my image is really strong. But yknow, that's like a gift. That's my gift. "The gift of a second rate beauticism. "Y'know, the glamour is part of Blondie, the best sort of groups have always had that visual plus music plus entertaining."

But, hasn't, in this case, the visual, the image, got out of hand? "I don't think so."

Well, for example, you can get four separate types of Debbie Harry posters — that's more than Farrah Fawett-Majors or Cheryl Ladd, and that scene entirely alien to where the band come from, what they're trying to do.

"Well, all those posters are

"Well, all those posters are independent. I get no money from them."

Sure. But that's the image people

Sure. But that's the image people are getting, and you don't seem to have hindered the process.

"well I'm going to have to stop that. Unfortunately I'm going to have to make a rule that there's going to be no photographers at my gigs whatever." There's a trace of a sigh. "I know a lot of people are going to be upset by that, but I also know that a lot of people are probably sick of seeing my picture in the paper. That's the way it's going to have to be."

HE KEEPS herself at a distance from all the exposure, both through the pressure of work and desire. "When I see things about me I go like THISI" she gestures, unusually extrovert, depicting cracking up.—"If I read anything crue! I have to have a couple of days to get over it or else I freak out. If it came at me all the time I'd go round throwing acid in people's faces or become a super."

As coincidental proof, Chris Stein, who'd been sitting a few feet away who'd been sitting a few feet away who'd been sitting a few feet away perhaps in silent protection, interrupts our halting converstation in snock urgency. He's holding a copy of last week's NME. "We have a message for Danny Baker." The lad had breathlessly non-reviewed their single. He wasn't keen. "Co fuck yourself!! You want to know what he save?"

No, don't tell me anything."
No, don't tell me anything."
No, don't tell me anything.
No obe tell mplores. "We didn't choos the single." she mumbles, to no one particular, "to at least that's on our side. Blame somebody else! Yes, that's it, it wasn't out selection, though we do like the some."

that's it, it wasn't our selection, though we do like the song."
So why did they let Chrysalis put it out? She turns to me, a little shocked, "Why? We've nothing to say about it. It's not in our contract." She turns to Stein. "It think it's time to slag off Blondie. They were nice to us for a while."

while..."
Stein: "They build them up then they knock them down. Hey 'there's something about the cover."
Harry: "The licking."
Stein: "Yeah." he reads a bit, ending with Danny's lights outside the church witticism. "What's he mean?"

"He means we have bingo in the basement."
Stein: "The difficulty is, when we're slagged off, it's not so much the music but, well, here jt's the picture sleeve, he's given one sentence about the music."

Harry: meanwhile, is getting angry.
"That guy wants to put on a blond wig and do what 1 do and see how good he is. I could write Danny Baker's column but he couldn't do what 1 do."
Stein: "Right on!"

Stein: "Right on!"
Her resentment erupts into a verbal challenge, "... and you can quote me on that. Tell him he can take me on, he can come on stage and sing a Damned song and I'll write his danned column for him!"

It seemed a good place to conclude conversation with Debbie Harry, me musing if only she could sing like Petula Clark.

Y MEETING with the group Blondie was in three parts, which superficially signifies the breakdown of the unit; first with three members of the bard in a flat above Debbie and Chris's, then Stein, then Merce.

heave Described and Chief S, their stein, then Harry.

Stein had hinted at derision and division within the group provoked by media attention centering on Harry. and inevitably through that, to a lesser extent on himself. "It happens, yeah" he shrugs, "It's bound to. It's there, what can you do? But it doesn't get in the way, there are more demanding outside group tensions ... like bureaucratic difficulties," he trails off. trails off.

"Marriage? That ston will probably cause a suicide."

Actually, keyboardsman and founder member James Destri, recent recruits guitarist Frank Infante and basist Nigel Harrison, (forummer Clem Burke was out of the room discovering be had German measles) have an admiration and affection for their vocalist that goes deeper than any mere duplomatic disguising of the rits for gress purposes.

Destri, of boyrish charm, who writes a lot of the groups material and who spoke with unburried articulation, summed up the group's opinion on the uneverness of attention: "The thing about Debbie gering the press is hard, especially early on, but we eventually decided that if we're good, it will come to us in time.

"But the thing is, there's two sides to it. I probably would never have had muste published as early as I did if it wasn't for Debbie's charisma. Debbie's charisma is helping me get 'Picture This', a song I co-wrote, up into the charts. There's two sides to the coin—people ask isn't it really hard working with Debbie Harry, people never ask isn't it nice, isn't it good—which it is.

"We gave a star, we're glad to have good — which it is.

"We gave a star, we're glad to have a star, but you must remember we would never have got as far if the representation within ourselves had been stifled — which it's never been. The thing that makes Blondie albums and making the start when the start was the good — which they are — is the fact that they are six people."

S O BLONDIE are a group of musicians. Let's dwell on the music blonde music has always been a leisurely nostalgia combined with slumming, primitive modern charge and approach. Their pop songs are multi-levelled pieces, slightly more than a minor distening experience. Details of adventure are few, but compatible with the prime necessities: hooks, melody and impact. Harry's limsy vocals emphasise an aspect of delicacy. It's a very easy sound, smooth, shiny and hollow, like a china egg. It's asperior radio music, and Blondie's new album "Parallel Lines" sees them further entrenched into the ideology of the radio record, with major emphasis on depth and beat for the American market. A consolidation of position at one end, and in terms of the sound of the record, a direct aim at the crucial, almost impregnable American barrier.

It is produced by Mike Chapman, almost impregnable American barrier.

It is produced by Mike Chapman, whose surname will be more familiar if you couple it with Chian. On paper this seems as interesting a move as Talking Heads and Devo using Brian Eno. In Blondie's instance maybe there was a lack of conflict between the two parties, Chapman's own ideas dominating over Blondie's more experimental desires. Stein commented: "The new album is very definable, normal stuff. We had a few ideas that Chapman didn't want to go on ... spacier parts that were left off the final mix. Everyone asks if we're selling out by going commercial, but I view it as a challenge to try to produce something that has mass appeal. To me it's more a challenge to try and write hit songs than to do something esateria.

esoteric."

Destri: "The electronics on the album suffered, but the clarity is so good. Chapman's very perceptive and hardworking. A good pop production, and Chapman's excellent for that. The electronics are subdued, 'I'm really sorry about that, but it we'd made an album with Brian Eng I don't hink hard have had the I'm really sorry about that, but it we'd made an album with Brian End I don't think we'd have had the commercial accessibility we're going to get with this."

Two apparent opposites emerge:
Eno to Chapman, conflict to composure, chaos to cool, experimentation to accessibility. Two different formulae. Blandie maybe wish to balance these two lines?

Destri: "Yeah, I want exactly that. With this album I wanted a cut that would please the artists — I wanted the album to jump around. I think the rest of the group wanted to ... but Mike was saked to do a clean pop job by Chrysalis and I can't blame Chrysalis for wanting him to do that."

Marks of a compromise that don't seem to hur! Blandie's feelings too much. It's a compromise that gives them a direction, and a purpose, that they seem pleased to take. Destri has no hang ups about calling Blondie a pop group. "I consider Roxy Music a pop group. I consider Roxy Music a pop group. A different definition of loop."

The group take very seriously the pop group. A different definition of pop? The group take very seriously the processes of creating what Chris Stein calls 'mass appeal' music, an ulterior motive is a further sweetening of the bitter compromise pill. Their purpose? "What we want to do." Destri charms "is to get as many people interested in Blondic as possible so we can show them what we really believe! Not exactly any means to an end, but we'll use as many hooks as possible to get an audience and as possible to get an audience and then show them what we really want to do"

Infante and Harrison, slightly taken aback at Destri's candid impetuousness, chorus "But we're doing what we want to do now," and Destri hurriedly agrees. But the Destri hurrically agrees. But the message is across.

This is the Bowie Theory. Here is an important influence on the group. The shrewd and planned attitude of building the large audience, and then to some extent freewheeling whilst still creatively acrive. What Blondie would love to do is prepare a record of music less rounded, less pretty. More spontaneous, not produced to ### Condigue. page. 38

■ Continues page 38

Don't look back, it's here!

Boston have returned with another incredible album
'Don't Look Back'— every bit as mindbending as the stunning
Boston' debut album.
Take off to a new world with Boston and Don't Look Back.

S

A

E

0

MATTHEWS

IAN MATTHEWS STEALIN' HOME

Distributed by Charmdale Record Distributors Lt-182 Acton Lane, London NW10 Telephone 01-961 3133/2866 Telex 8813067

Available through HMV Shops, Harlequin Record Shops, Virgin Record Shops, Selected Boots, Debenhams, WIH Smith Record Departments and all leading independent record stores. Appearing with Renaissance Sept 3 Southampton Gaumont Sept 4 Portsmouth

Guild Hall
Sept 5
Bristol
Colston Hall
Sept 7
Birmingham
Hippodrome
Sept 8

Manchester Apollo Sept 10 Hammersmith Odeon

Also solo appearances at Dingwalls Sept 15 & 16

NEMS Agency Agency Representative Joe Stattery Telephone 01-730 9461

ROC 106

L I N' H O M E

I used to think Albertos was a Spurs centre-forward until I read . . .

EAR NORMAN,
Wow, ch Norm, here I am in New York with Bruce and it's weird. Not a bit like Manchester.
They all talk funny and wave theur arms around a lot. I think the reason they wave their arms around a lot is because it's 90 degrees here in the Big Apple (bloody Baking Apple if you ask me), as us hep cats call it.
Do you remember what my mum told us before we left England? Abous how on telly things were dead violent in New York? Well, boy oh boy, was she right. Seven of us got mugged on the plane when we were only halfway over the Arlantic. The pilot—a nice goy when he'd sobered up—explained that it was all part of their service to get us used to the American way of life. The Americans are a very thoughtful people like that.
Like the big black man who offered to take our bags for us at the airport.
Like I feel really sorry for him, because he was so kind helping us out, but us being tired as newts from the flight, lost sight of him in the crowd. I be the Ill still be there when we catch our flight back. Anyway, Norman, I digress.

our flight back. Anyway, Norman, I bet he'll still be there when we catch our flight back. Anyway, Norman, I digress.

The first thing that I noticed about New York (apart from the heat and the violence) was, there wasn't any --wait for it, Norm -- mo dogshift That's right. You see, they passed a law (ha ha) two weeks ago that made it a crime to leave your dog's shit in the street. You have to buy little plastic shovels called 'poop socops'; and it's been such a success that on the street where our hotel is (I think it's called the Bowery) lots of people were taking advantage of the clean-up by lying down on the sidewalk. Some of these guys were so overcome with happiness that they'd bought a drink to celebrate, and I think one or two of them might have had a bit too much. It must have been drink because there wasn't any food in their vomit.

This Bowery place has got a club on the alled CBB's, and they let us in for nothing when we told them that we were George Harrison's cousin. It was a really strange place, full of what Bruce called ambience, but the only one I saw was outside, helping a poor lad who'd OD'd.

The police in New York have a special medical technique for helping lad who'd OD'd.

The police in New York have a special medical technique for helping people who've had a bit too much of anything. It's a bit like acupuncture, only instead of needles, they use long pieces of wood to hit the pressure recipe with.

points with.

I don't know what the lads at home would make of the band that were playing at this gig. They were called The Cramps, and they're a transvestite rockabilly punk group. I know it's not my place to criticise but—if they were playing in our back garden I'd draw the curtains.

Beating on the prat with a baseball bet — BRUCE MITCHELL offers C. P. LEE a lesson in America's favourite sporting pastime. Pic: ROBERTA BAYLEY

TALES OF THE ROACH MOTE

C. P. LEE of Alberto Y Lost Trios Paranoias pens a Letter From America to his alter-ego Norman Sleak, who finds the grisly missive lying on the mat after the long hitch back from Reading

Mind you, we were lucky to see anybody, 'cos we nearly didn't get out of the hotel. You see, the first thing we did was put the telly os. En up Norm., it's brill! It goes on forever. 24 hours a day. I tell you what — I bet the cameraman's knackered. Every night at 9.30 they show old Groucho Marra quiz shows, but as a punishment for particularly hideous crimes they make you sit up all night and watch people like Jackson Browne or Harry Chapin in concert.

Mind you, there are thirteen channels to choose from, so with nerves of steel and a steady hand you can keep flipping the channels until you find something that you like. It took us four days, and then it was Monty Pythen on the educational Monty Python on the concational channel.

The standard of shows over here makes Crossroads look like it was produced by the Royal Shakespeare Company, and with all the ads they show we wondered why they just didn't forget the programmes and show the ads.

Tell you what Norm, we went to see this belting black lad called Bo Diddley, and he was bloody great. If he ever put a record out I think he might have a hit. Mind you he was a bit of a drag at times, playing loads of riffs I've heard white bands use — still, ho was very entertaining which is more than can be said for the band that were on before him. They played for five hours between eleven and midnight, and they came from Texas.

I think they were called The Big Fat Slobs In T-Shirts Boogie Band and they all had beards and ponytails (maybe they were on horse?). They made Bruce cry, but I didn't think they were that good.

they were that good.

Eh, guess what Norm? Guesa who came into the bur of our hotel when I was trying to fix my digital watch?
Patti bloody Smith, that's who. I got such a shock! It transpires she was staying there while she had new roaches fitted in her other hotel.

Now steady on Norm, not the kind of roaches you're thinking of. If you tried smoking one of these fookers they'd beat the shit out of you. It's a bug. A big bug.

It's not even an it. It's a them. Millions of them. They advertise loads of things on the telly that you can buy to kill them with. Like appalm and baseball bats. The best one is a box called the 'Roach Motel'. They check in, but they don't check. one is a box called the 'Kosta more.'
'They check in, but they don't check

"They check in, but they don't check out."

As they enter, they trigger off a very small machine gue, being as how they re immune to almost all known insecticides. Scientists reckon that the roaches will develop body armour and then even the 'roach motel' will go out of business.

then even the 'roach motel' will go out of business.

One of the drawbecks to New York, eh Norm? Still, you've got to take the rough with the smooth. Like for instance, the radio. Most of the black people over here seem to carry huge portebbe radios around with them everywhere. If you're really hip you have it slung over your shoulder on a Fender guitar strap. Cool uh?

However, now for the rough bit. I always thought that the Yanks were well off. They re not, and what's more I can prove it, because the radio stations have only got drive records. They play them all the time. Just like that episode of The Goodfee when they ran a private radio station and the only thing they could broadcast was "A Walk In The Black Forest". In New York, day in and day out, they New York, day in and day out, they play "Yoothawannathawan are you sare? Yes I am, OOH OOH OOH".

— Travoltanewron clone in sickening excess of terminal ersatz grease; and the Monday morning sickness fever of thank God it's Tuesday, with the grunning goan of birds goddess Donna Summer time I sigh, other time I lithp. Record number three on are countdown of extassy here on WNBC are the fabulous Bee Gees, but to be honest Norm, I don't remember very much after they announce them, because I turn green and the buttons pop off my shirt and arghib. New York, day in and day out, they and the buttons pop off my shirt and arghib.

Well Norman, time for me to go and wring out my shirt. You'd fit in well here Norman, except you'd have to trade your greateout in for a ponytail and a Lone Star T-shirt. Oh yeah, one bed point, they haven't got any mandies over here, only downers. Still, boys will be boys as the girls all say, so keep dropping those pills Norm and scratch a few records for me till I get back.

Have A Nice Day.

Have A Nice Day, C. P. LEE New York, August, 78

THROUGS

MEANWHILE, BACK HERE IN REAL LIFE . . .

FTER's pre-event buzz of honky paranoia, the → paranoia, the Notting Hill Carnival turned out to be a low-key, enjoyable event.
Credit for this must go to reduced crowds, greyish weather, and the massive saturation tactics of 'Hammer' McNee and his boys in blue, whose constant crowd manipulation never allowed the rudis in the crowd to build up a head of steam, Plenty of action, no bang.

Pictures: CHRIS L. URCA MRODES

ODEON CLOSURE BUNGLED

good councillor had imputiently tried to shut lown rock concerts at the eramith Odeon. esday his real ch

Apparently, Mr Knott hain't Apparently, Mr Knott hain't news that any objections to a new maic licence should have been objed with the GLC at the end of dry, unless they were particularly Councillor Knott's, it was deeme waren's. The rock biz and Odeon people sighed with relief at the stay of this resucratic execution.

A Labour committee

resurratic execution.

A. Labour committee member, sanctior Les Wicks, sensibly sale; answired in many we wouldn't get anywher less we had many more apecific amples of disturbances.

Tropose that we monitor have complaints going to person, and then oppose the next year if we find it

But what would the ramification we been if Knott hadn't been tangled by the local government he had below the book of the file didn't regard it no complete failure.

"I don't expect this year's licence to be halted now," he mid realistically.
"But I should think that Hanh's will be very heavily rapped over the knockles by the GLC."

Naughty, anughty...

But watch out kids, the bendy hareaucomic eve in on you far the next.

bareaucratic eye is on you for the year. You are being "monitored"!

TONY STEWART STEPHEN GROCOTT

RUDI pictured in Cernaby Street after a wash and brush-up in the NME kirchen. Note NME newshound dashing of on assignment (left). Evidence: DENIS O'REGAN.

CARBON TETRACHLORIDE OVERCOMING THE IRISH

HROUGH my TV vision, timelock in my brain/ Minimum sensation — aximum pain."

So begins the second single from Belfast band Rudi, it's called "Overcome By Fumes" and it's a song about carbon tetrachloride (cleaning fluid) inhalation — the stuff that makes your head feel like a ball of lead on a wayward conveyor belt

"Furnes" is a definite improvement over their debut single "Big Time", which was a moderately enjoyable first time effort released on a local independent label called Good Vibrations. But it failed to capture the full breadth of their imaginative qualities, the foremost of which is an uncanny knack of writing brief seminal compositions centred on the time-bonoured Holy Trinity and making it sound so gawdann simple. Rush (the monicker is knocked off an old song by The Jook) were formed in 1975 by Ronnie Matthews and Brian Young after the latter was thunderbolted by Marc Bolan and caught the bug to play rock 'a roll. Since then they 've worked through line-up changes and logical progressions in their set content—from glam to tecnybop to punk—until they arrived at their present set of 18 originals, some still ragged as the edges, but all brimming with potential.

The band line-up is Graham Marshall (druns), Gordon Blair (bass), Brian Young (guitar and vocals), and Ronnie Matthews (guitar and vocals). Living in Ulster has given the band vocas), and Ronne Matthews (guitar and vocals). Living in Ulster has given the band an opportunity to attain their own particular style by absorbing and assimilating influences without being stifled in their formative stages by stifled in their formative stages by over-zealous scrutiny.

But as Ronnie explains: "We've gone as far as we can in Ulster." The group now think it's time to head out and look for success in Babylon(don). "We're not waiting for the bastards to come out here and find us, we're going out there to find them." says Bran. Which is exactly what they've just done. They were last seen camping out in Carnaby Street.

I think they've a good chance of making it; the band know they have. They describe their new songs as "distant lyrical and musical progressions"— songs like "All

"distant lyrical and musical progressions" — songs like "All Systems Go", "Jerk" and the unrecorded classic "Time To Be Proud" — and they te right.

But the firit time I ever talked to Ron he gave me the real reason why Rudi are gonna be BIG, "We're good looking," be said. "We'll get our pictures in Jackie." looking," he said. pictures in Jackie.

Not much you can say to that.

GAVIN MARTIN

LEICESTER SQ. STREETDANCE

HE TROUBLE all began last April on a penceful — Sunday afternoon in West London's Rupert Street.

Two birect performers, David Mishon and Judy Boyle, were emerting the improvised children's take Willie The Clinkerlet to a small remaind of the control of the con retries the Etimizetes to a similar crowd of interested passen-by, when a policeman approached and, without prior warming, arrested them for "obstraction".

He those the wrong people to arrest.

He chose the wrong people to arrest.

Mahou and Boyle are part of a loose grouping of musicians, actors and activits know as The Demollition Decorators. Their arrest sparked a feed with the forces of law and order that has been escalating ever since.

The position of street baskers has always been somewhat unclear.
Where one policeman merely looks, listens and passes by, another may stop, arrest and book charges. Of late the latter breed has become the more continon.

continon.

New Zealanders Boyle (22) and Minhom (21) were organily scheduled to appear in court on August 8, where they infended to plead not gally. The Decorators decided to make a day of Decorators decided to make a day of it.

In court the maglatrate's eyebrows recocheted periodically an aapporters aporting finning opink and orange hair and on thandlad costumes crowded for over two looms to hear the case. However, the daily router of prostitutes and assault canes proved internalizable, and the hunkers' cane was adjourned until September 21.

Still, the caraival atmosphere of hanjos, phacards and unicycles, plus a both full of rotting vegetables with Decorators maintains Arif sitting regally in the tub, brought a smalle to the Bow Street coppers and a modicum of press coverage to the Demoltion Decorators. As it happens, the Decorators welcomed the recess. They seized the time it gave them to further their demonstrations and their free mustic campalga. An even bigger spectacle in provided of Bow Street come.

campaign. An even bigger spectacle in promised for Bow Street come

The Friday before last saw the first of the Demolition Decorators' "apecial events" in Leicester Square. Publicised via word of month and a mention in Time Out, the Decorators materialised in the square at 9.30 pm with mops, brooms and hoovers, sporting masks fashloned from Omo and Tampax packets. They proceeded to begin cleaning the square and handing out copies of their free music manifesto.

Left: Arif protests in colourful fashion, Pic: CHRIS SCHWARZ.

Next they set up a table with some broke out.

In a whire of blue lights and sirens,

In a whire of bine lights and sirens, saveral police care converged on the square—shortly to be reinforced by a van whose presence was totally superfluous in wiew of the strictly non-violent attitude of the crowd.

Three other Demolition crew were arrested and the police cleared the square. End of one demonstration. Or was h?

Suddenly unother aprains up. The Decorators decided to storm Baw Street mich.—and about 100 demonstration not off down the street, carrying their instant carabad with them along Longarer to greet Arti's release with a suitable celebration. His case comes up on October 5.

His case comes up on October 5. Undaunted, the Decorators staged a smaller scale repeat performance over the weekend. They won't come

In the meantime, Leicenter Square looks a good bet for five music these Friday evenings . . .

ELISSA VAN POZNAK

The THREE DECREES flow in this week to perform at a special charity dinner at The Kings Country Club, Eastbourne on 27th July in front of 48th Prince Charles. Shalla Forguson commonted on the prospect of meeting HRM Prince Charles, "We have all been longing to meat him. I understand he is only supposed to watch us, but, who knows, we might even get him up on stage for a quick boole".

From publicist Jenny Halsall's newsletter. She can pick 'em!

AMERICAN DREAMS OF A MOTORS MECHANIC

OTORS GUITARIST and semi-fledged solo artiste Bram tchaikovsky was smoking with the boys upstairs when I arrived at publicist/manager Richard Ogden's bijou office in funky W.9.
"I dunno," boomed the ever-genial Ogden. "Everything I touch these days turns to red vinyl."

turns to red vinyl."

The majority of the Ogden roster is renowned for its districtly heavy flavour. Not too sold on subtleties is our Dick. His philosophy: "If it makes yer ears bleed, sign it."

The Motors commenced their meleoric rise to fame with some of that loud momentum ringing in their skulls, spmarket FIM with catchy riffs and mod-con promotion. So it went until their second album, "Approved", and the discovery that the Nick Garvey and Andy McMaster songeriting team was more intent on carving a niche toughening up a peculiarly British popsound.

It was NME'; Paul Rambali who observed in a singles column that their new 45 "Forget About

It was NME's Paul Rambali who observed in a singles column that their new 45 "Forget About You" hore a remarkable resemblance to a White "Plains drifter of some summers vintage.

Definitely out of time.

Yet here's earthy Bram Tchaikovsky (formerly Peter Bramall) with an accent stronger than the Lincoffishire poacher's alibit and a spanking new power tro to boot! Micky Broadbent on bass and ex-Heavy Metal Kid Meith Bower and down. Keith Boyce on drums.

slow Garvey and McMaster time to tunesmith.

Not a self-confessed fun of The Motors myself. I cynically opine to Tebaikovsky that it looks like the game's up, old son. Sorry I spoke: "I'm fed up with people saying," are The Motors packed up? The truth is that Andy and Nick are signed to Virgin.

"They are The Motors.
"If me or Rick quit they'd carry on, because they don't need us said we don't need them.
"In many ways I'm hoping they record the third album without us. They aren't happy on the road, whereas I love it. Andy hates performing, gets bloody sick and nervous andigestion. Nick's forte is behind a desk."

Local government, that sort of thing? "Ee, no—a mixin" desk!"

Quite the opposite is our Bram, happen. The Quite the opposite is our Bram, happen. The lod gets reet preved sitting at home writing and the like.

the like.
"I hate it. That's why we've got Battle Axe together (the band's original name — now it's just Bram Tchaikovsky) for these few dates. It was inevitable I'd tour on my own. After all, if the Motors are having six months off . . . ("to come up with more hits and make more money," Oggers interjorst quickly) . . . then why the 'ell should I sit on me aree? In any case I In this guise Tchaikovsky is set fair to sign a deal, not with Virgin, but with Andrew Lauder's Radar. All this whate The Motors, save for a Marquee warm-up and a Reading date, are off

Marquee warm-up and a Reading date, are off the road for six mooths to allow the notoriously

Not, as you might expect, Bob Marley's BMW (B.M and the Wailers, y'dig?) — but an anonymous (though exceedingly hip) BMW sent to us a person whose name we've lost.

think Andy would get fed up if it gets any more successful."

TCHAIKOVSKY has fronted bands before. One of his previous outfits, Smith, was on the verge of signing with Purple; another, Heroes, fell foul of the re-think taking place post

One of his previous outlits, Smith, was on the verge of signing with Purple; another, Heroes, fell foul of the re-think taking place post pub-rock, punk seed sowing time.

His carrent solo work amounts to an EP, produced by Garvey, and some rougher ballast. Acquaintance with this material led me to surmise that his direction was several kilometres west of the commercially viable Motors.

"I can't disagree — I don't have a lot to do with it. The new single sounds like loads of hings, don't like it mubit. But I joined on a second audition after I'd learnt Nick's style off in two weeks. The conditions were that it was Nick and Andy's band, you go in and earn your wages. So I do."

The faster and louder element in The Motors' early Mutt Lange model was not the bag Garvey had in mind, although they managed to reproduce that same feel on the road for a while until they realised it wasn't comfortable.

Under this guise they undertook a tour of America, ironically getting bracketed with the then rife new wave stigma. Despite some snoty reactions Stateside, Tchaikovsky was sufficiently impressed to consider making a living in America with his own band.

The Ogden connection will serve him well. While The Motors will probably continue as a songwriting duo in the manner of 10cc (my speculation), the Tchaikovsky appreach is the old fashioned up and at 'em lade band, eminently suited to high watter, stacks of Marshalls and a coalescence of minimum foppery plus maximum volume a la Brane's heroes Status Quo and another erstrubile Anglo trio who hopped off to America, thank God, the dreaded UFO.

Not to misrepresent Bram, though — his material is tinged with a sweetening teminiscent of Steve Miller. A track on the EP that impressed Radar is called "Sarah Smites" (I'm sure Hall and Oates cance up with summars similar).

Tchaikovsky won't feel many qualms when he bids farewell to the Lincolnshire flats and packs sure Hall and Orates came up with summat similar).

Tchaikovsky won't feel many qualms when he bids farewell to the Lincolnshire flats and packs his toothbrush for the great unknown.

"The problem with England is the clubs — and the promoters are mostly a lot of shit. I can't be loyal to an ideal of England, and there's no future being loyal to small numbers. I've been in the business too long to get trapped. Reality is that you get no respect unless you're big in America. Look at Quo, don't mean shit there. Let's face it, the sole aim of playing America is big stages, a lot of fun and making a fook of a lot of money."

- just a Motors employee

Any deal Bram signs with Radar will cut Virgin to the quick. Upon calling Ogden in for a business chat, Virgin boas Richard Branson found himself in a petile. Echanicovsky had no intention of staying with the family. It appears The Motors' management were not pleased that their infamous "Annin to de Motors" ad campaign (undeniably tasteless as it was — it won an award for same in Variery) was rejected by the Virgin/Epic axis in America. "Fook 'em . . . if we'd done that and been sued by Nixon it would have been great. Radar know that I'll slay the buggers over there."

Bram's interest is certainly live performance. He waxes lyrical on his attitudes to recorded.

Bram's interest is certainly live performance. He waxes lyrical on his attitudes to recorded sound. "Studio stuff to couldn't give two fooks for, as long as it's good. Live you use harmonisers and all these gadgets anyway." Any stocess story for Bram would bring the general Motors into a conflict of interests, yes? "Well, Andy (McMaster) was a bit furnry about it. He's a bit crazy, tends to lash out if be thinks he's getting ripped off, which he has been. None of us are young — he's 37. The atmosphere improved after I did this, we're tighter now. Andy has come round too, y'know how it is with genius like. "I wanted 'em to do 'Sarah Smiles' on the 'Approved' album bur it didn't work so I kept it book."

bock." Tchaikovsky avows that The Motors are still a priority in his professional life. All the evidence suggests that they offer a job he enjoys. But it is a job, and his own band's dealings will determine just how much he continues to enjoy it. Stay runed.

THRICES

BLACKMAIL CORNER

THE SLEAZY snepshot you see above passed discreetly into our grubby little hands last week. No, it's not Freddie Mercury practising his arias by the kitchen sink (where Queen are concerned perhaps that should read kitsch'n'sink! — in fact it's none other than The Tom Robinson Bend's lead guiterist Denny Kustow, caught at an, shem, party practising his . . . well, what would you call-

Now this is the sort of thing that gives TRB a bed name.
Or at least, it's the sort of thing that makes Or at least, it's the sort of thing that makes the less enlightened among us write latters like the one that appeared in a recent issue of "Rock On" magazine, expressing a desire to do serious injury to Tom Robinson because of his sexual preferences. The letter, incidentally, won a £5 record token.

And there was BLACKMAIL CORNER thinking it had a monopoly on unprincipled between.

THE

those lovable offenders of public good taste, The Bay City Rollers. It appears singer Les Melkeows hiew his cool at a recent LA press conference and walked out on the band anishs in Surry of contant pies. An off-the-cuff remark from manager Tam Paton, who is fact has no intention of replacing the temperamental McKeown, led to a spate of Johany Rotten joins the Rodlers storler. "Somebody and, "Who would you consider replacing him with?" and I said 'Anybody from Johany Rotten to Andy Williams'. On-broasty Andy Williams's low Williams's Devices of Anys," Joked Paton.

Nearcheleos, he did enquire of Thrifts weather Rotten currently has a manager. He hasn't, we told him.

"Sensible fellow." Paton replied, "You can tell him from me that he should stay that way." ORE VICARIOUS scindal from

OOR WOODY

DISCO WORLD DOMINATION

ENRY FORD should be adopted as the patron saint of disco—the music that gives true meaning to the terms assembly line and manufactured terms assembly line and 'manufactured'.

This message came over loud and clear from reports of the recent International Disco Forum organised by the trade magazine Billiboard.

For three days delegates from 14 countries discussed various aspects of what is now a $4 billion a year industry. Nell Begert, president of Cambhinca Records, the most successful and aggrentive of the independent componies, delivered the keysonde addressed "1578," he said, "will long he remembered as the erm when millions of A mericans got back on their feet, "The disco phenomenon is real.

"It is more than just the sale of millions of records. It is more than the sound that's sweeping through discos and radio stations all over the radio stations all over the world.

"It is a major influence in the world of finition. It is a dynamic factor in contemporary advertising. It is a message from factor in contemporary advertising. It is a message from the product — FUN."

Pointing to the image success of disco movies, be said disco will also "lend itself beautifully to videocametre and videoclist cocordings, and a whole new art form will develop." (Note about the nest of the fact that flogers's partner in Casabiance is Peter Galiers, a longitude accounting to the state of the said of the said flogers's partner in Casabiance is Peter Galiers, a longitude accounting of the said of the said flogers's partner in Casabiance is Peter Galiers, a longitude in the said of the said flogers's partner in Casabiance is Peter Galiers, a longitude in the said of the music said in the said in the

you probably won't be interested in what I have to any."

Disco ownership, he claimed, is "more than light and sound." The key to success in "market analysis". He even quoted the powerful steel magante Henry Kañser: "Find a used and Cill H"—that's how to pian a disco."

Plind you, they could have been talking about steel instead of music. One speaker and there were three steps owners of discos should bear in mind: the opening process, the operation of the facility and the control of the operation once it's open.

the control of the operation once it's open.

As in the fast faced business, franchisting is now a big thing, Michael O'Harro of Trampa, currently spreading autooutid in the US, said their franchisting fee is $15,000 plus 5% of the grow. His personal consultant's fee is $1000 a day.

Next page

EW SINGLE

EMI 2848

• From pravious page

One major subject of discussion among the DJs was midosination
— and small wonder. Furis Westbrook of 2001 Clube claimed:
"DJs are important, but so are all our employees. We're not out to create starn. They follow a song-for-long playlist which is programmed in our home office by a musical director. We're not looking for creative DJs." No, Jast macking-minders.

Michael O'Harro had the whole thing worked out to a fine art. By bits calculations, "There should be one customer per week for every thing worked out to a fine art. By list calculations, "There should be one customer per week for every two square feet, and every customer should speed a minimum of 35 per visit for drinks." The forum evan head its own tame professor — Richard Peterson, professor of sociology/anthropology, who gave a talk ewitided "Sob-Calture Ramifications of the Disco Phenomeron in America". He called disco one of the three 20th Century revolutions in smale, following jast and rock in roll. Disco, he chimned, was a return to the jazz image — urbane, chie, with an element of decadence. Disco, malike rock, provided a certarn to security from the police. As he put it, "there will never be a disco hit which targes off the pigs".

disco hit which urges 'off the page'."
The disco generation was also exploring a new semanity, he claimed — nex without gender.
Like punk, disco lo bring led by a small banch of independent record companies, bitaing a trail for the majors to lollow as soon as they scent there's enough money in it to make it a mass-market proposition. But analike pank, which was the closest ne've had to real people's music in recent years, disco's roots are purely synthetic.

As one speaker pointed out, when saked why there weren't more five acts in discos, "Disco music is heavily produced studio waste. Most people don't black of disco acts as people."

DICK TRACY

THRIGOS

BEACHED BY THE NEW WAVE

City Boy look back on four years under the iron fist of fashion and spill the secrets of survival ...

ATE HAS always shown
City Boy little mercy.
They've been together
four years, signed to Phonogram for three, produced a grand total of six singles and four albums—and not until August '78 did the single '5.7.0.5" scale the dizzy heights to chart success (and even that had to be re-written after being banned for being too controversial).

being banned for being too controversial).

Yet now, after being beached by the new wave, they're still alive and well and quite amazingly unresentful. In '75, along with superlative reviews for their debut album "City Boy", they left their native Birmingham to tour with Thin Lizzy, with their first single in the loving embrace of the Radio I pleylist.

"We thought we'd made it," grins singer Steve Broughton.

"We were wrong," adds vocal sidekick Lol Mason.

In 1976 came an equally-acclaimed second album, "Dinner At The Ritz", taking their stage art into the realras of vaudeville and 30's music hall and steering the band even further away from the headbanging rock that was bulldozing a path across the nation's airwaves.

By May 77 their third album, "Young Men Gone West", made its appearance with a noticeably more commercial feel. Had they decided to modify their whole approach?

"It wasn't a case of modifying things," says Lol defensively, "we just went right to the other end of the spectrum. It wasn't a case of modifying things," says Lol defensively, "we just went right to make an ultra-commercial album."

attempt to make an ultra-commercial album."

"We started scarching for a new direction," says Steve, "and we found about ten directions. As a result the album sounds like a K-Tel Greatest Hits all done by one band."

They immediately set out on a UK tour supporting The Sutherland Brothers, but audiences were still in short supply. Then, desperately in need of an ego-boost, the band headed for America five months later and slogged their way round 30 cities to a vastly greater reaction.

"It was perting less and less worth playing here," reflects Lot. "As well as losing money, it was very depressing you know, going to Darlington to play about 50 people, it just didn't make sense."

Do they think British audiences are more conditioned by what's fashionable?

Steve: "Oh no, I think they're just more restricted in their outlook, purely because of the radio situation. We've got Radio 1 here, and they didn't take to us then. The Top 40 radio stations in America didn't want to know about us either, but we picked up a lot of plays on the album stations in the States — which gave us a kind of cult following."

So if there'd been more album stations in the UK, would they have caught on any faster?

"Without a doubt," asserts Steve, "I think our stuff is tailor-made for album programmes. If there was just one album station then everyone would have a much wider choice. It would be a really positive move for rock music."

would be a really positive move for rock music."
5.7.0.5", however, did eventually make it on British radio, after enjoying a little success in Germany and Holland in its unceasored form, entitled "Turn On To Jessis". They reckon the only reason it got played over there was that no-one could understand a single word.
What was it about, anyway?
"Filth," comes Steve's lightning retort. "Sex and religion, which are taboo on radio the pair of them. It's about a time Lol and myself spent in the dry area of Kansas. There's no bars, the only place you can get a the dry area of Kansas. There's no bars, the only place you can get a drink is in one of these 'religious' chbs, with topless waitresses with dollar bills stuffed in their G-strings, and out of the jukebox is blaring this 'Jesus Is The Saviour' music. 'It was bizarre — I mean that kind of thing just doesn't happen in Birmingham!'

But havious to consections that finite.

But having tos tone down their first barraingham!"
But having to tone down their first chart single, and wait four years for any recognition for the band and its pest three albums. . . . didn't that provoke a little cynisism?
"Not at all," Steve says, magnanimously. "I'm just glad it happened now, as opposed to when 'Dinner At The Ritz' came out. If it had happened then we probably would have turned out to be a completely different kind of band, and made a complete mess of everything. We couldn't have handled huge egos at the time, but now we've got the experience." Will one hit single mean an orientation towards more commercial orientation towards more commercial music?

Lol: "We're not going to gear ourselves to producing hit singles to the exclusion of everything else, but we've learnt a lot about bow you can appeal without toning any credibility."

Did they think about pop music in larger terms than just instant appeal? "If you want to be so arrogant as to call it an 'art form'," says Steve, waxing philosophical, "which I don't particularly believe it is, then it's the only art form in history which has been for today. Every other art form has only been appreciated maybe hundreds of years after the creator of that art has died.

"If an urist creates something, it should be for that moment, and if it's appreciated for that moment, than it's served its parpose. It doesn't have to hang around and be a classic for ever and ever,"

"We live in a disposable age," adds Lol, "and that's a disposable art.

That's why they make records out of plastic—so you can ecycle them."

As stalwart pre-punk musicians, do they think the new way has been at.

plastic — so you can recycle them."
As stalwart pre-punk musicians, do they think the new wave has been at all constructive?
Lot: "It woke up a lot of people who'd been listening to Led Zeppetin for Christ knows how long. There's a load of good people who've come out of this movement who wouldn't have been recognised before — like Ian Dury, and great new bands like the Rats and XTC."

"The only destructive thing it's done to the rock business," says Steve with a little less reserve, "is to shold us down for four years. But now you've got people going into recording down for four years. But now you've got people going into recording studios and making records like 'Jitted John' — it's like the whole punk/new wave thing turning round and taking the piss out of itself. It's really funny. It's like us in that respect, in that it's tongue-in-cheek. It's joke, and it should be treated as such."

You reckon you're tongue, in-cheek?

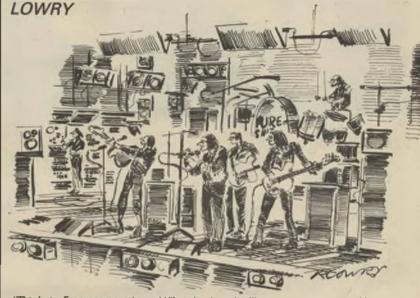

Steve: "If you can tell me anywhere else I can put my tongue, I'd be very interested to know."

Lot: "Tongue-in-cheek? After four years, you've got to be!"

MARK ELLEN

MARK ELLEN

"Thank you. For our next number we'd like to insult any intelligence you may possess with fireworks, dry ice, smoke bombs, histrianic posturing, pretentious back projections, oafish bawling and turgld guitar scratching at brein damaging noise levels."

You're meant to be looking at the Commodore you fools

PIC. DENIS O'REGAN

COMMODORES: MOTOWN'S BLACK BEATLES

HOW'S about it,
Expressways Moosik?
We're broadcasin' at ya
from the command module.
Commodore Steamship,
Commodore Steamship,
Commodore Country, sitting right down town, Tuskogee, Alabama, modulatin', right straddled at 27-25. We'ear tell you bin out o' toon of our station. Go hang it in your ear, big brothers, 'cause now we're keyed tup on your charts you can't be denying a comeback.
Ah-kinda let the locals know w'as hap'nin'; check it? Break-break.
Teo-four, Commodore. This here's Honkey Ridge; can I speak a piece?
We'preclate the heavy duty obligation and if you'll 'scuse the cotton-pickin' nod out we'll run down a 10-13 on your situation. Understand though, I'm tight-thed in a 10-60 not on this communication. Break.

Break.

Ah-right, 4-10 bis brother. Good.

Ah-right, 4-10 bis brother. Good.

Lord have mercy. Kinda sorry, sorry, sorry to hear that, that's for doggone sure. Inst kinda squeeze the fruit, ya dig? The dog got his sait pointed smaight up in the air, giving in the wind and surring to ya. Easy-speak the people, watch those surkey searjethers sood buddy and bodacious 73. I'll be passing the numbers to ya and playing dead.

The Lone Groover

OMMODORES are Motown's Black Beatles. At least, that's what the corporation would ake you to believe and in terms of the group's international popularity they're telling no lies. They're probably the biggost black act in the world.

CBS would contest that Earth, Wind & Fire are the main men. I'm not sure. I know it's a close-man thang an'my money's on Commodores [asuse when they're not CB] jive-talking they're making music that's a deal more realistic than the Katimbe crew.

'Course, there's realism and realism. Lite when you're backed up realism. Lite when you're backed up realism. Lite when you're backed up the shit kicked out of you by a bunch of demented goons, you're unlikely to be humming love sougs through your busted teeth or thinking of

-102 8, (CHANGE) WITCHESONY, MUTTER

DIRK and STIG embark on solo careers

The world has been rocked recently with the announcement that the Rutles have disbanded. Rutles have disbanded.
The Pre-Fab Four - as they came to be known - rose from obscurity to become the world's most famous group. Now that they have split.
Dirk and Stig have already begun a solo project which promises to overshadow anything the Rutles ever accomplished.

Dirk and Stig who founded the Rutles with Barry and Ron have recorded the internationally famou-rock anthem. Ging Gang Gookie' as their first solo single.

Goods as their mat soon aingle.
But not content with recording their own tribute to the Scout and Guide movements, Dirk their causis wit to moto cycling apperstar Barry Sheene. Flip side of the single is 'Mr Sheene', as acid rock track in the George Formby mould "I thought Mr. Sheene was a furniture polish before I discovered Brut 33" and Stig. "Then Dirk introduced me to Barry at the Frinton 500 race GING GANG GOOLIE

Maddio

DIRK & STIG-

GING GANG GOOLIE

Mister Sheene EMI 2852

FIRST 25,000 IN DAG

An Able Label

introducing The Smashed Kneecap as the hot new dance fad. On the other hand, if you're a part of the black American generation that of the black American generation that is finally achieving some degree of cqual opportunity and freedom of expression, you're just as unlikely to be whining about how hard done-by you are or composing distribes against 'the system.

It is on that level that Commodores are more accessible than E., W&F, for whereas the latter are on a mystic trip.

are more accessible than E, W&F, for whereas the latter are on a mystic trip of Cosmic Awareness that results in some horrendously pretentious gulf in their songs, these guys are just unaffected pop-rockers dealing in romance 'n' sex 'a' dancia'.

Their world-wide success didn't arrive overnight. The six amore from the pub of sincer/writer/musticians at the bub of singer/writer/musicians at the hub of singer/writer/musicians at the hub of the enterprise first got together as The Jays at school in Tuskegee in the late-f6bs.

One vacation they journeyed up to New York to starve then run into Benny Ashburn, an ex-biguous aslesman turned small-time entrepreneur who found them a gig in Harlem and became their manager.

Big Badger Belly, as he was dubbed when the group got on their CB kick, is still the genial giant behind the group as well as overseeing Commodorse Entertainment Corp. Initially his bustling resulted in a one-off flop tingle on Atlantic and some summer restdences in unlikely one-off flop single on Atlantic and some summer residences in unlikely wenues, like the job on board S.S. France that brought them to Europe eight or nine years ago, when they appeared at Ronnie Scott's amid a blaze of indifference.

About the same time, circa 1970, they were contracted to Motown via Suzanne de Passe and immediately engineed the open particular of the composition bisrachy.

Suranne dePasse and immediately confused the corporation hierarchy because, as a tell-contained group, they didn't fit into the established roundabout of house producers, arrangers and writers using house musicians to back phiable singers.

After the group finished school little happened for about three years except a tour with The Jackson 5 and a few exploratory sessions produced by Gloria Jones and Pam Sawyer, from which a couple of singles were released on the corp's Mowest subsidiary.

Then in 1974, transfered to the parent label, they finally hit with a funky instrumental called "Machine Gun", written by keyboard player Millan Williams and produced by the group with James Carmichael, their production partner on all but one of their subsequent recordings.

Largely through disco reaction, "Machine Gun" also crept into the British Top 20 in 1974 bet if wasa't until "Easy" caught the public car last summer that the group was again successful over here. Meanwhile, they'd been breaking big all over the world, predominantly with harmonic love balleds written and built around lead singer Lionel Richie.

love ballads written and built around lead singer [Johne] Richie. Their strength is that they've absorbed numerous musical traits without creating anonymous, grey lowest-common-denominator musak. Their records reflect enough of the different styles to appeal to diverse andiences.

audiences.

They're not strictly disco; most of their uptempo cuts are too complex for the endless boogie. Yet they're fundy enough to shift all but real peg-legs not the dance floor.

Neither are they strictly sweet soul; their ballads are often as close to straight white pop as they are to yesteryear's soul music. Yet their harmonies and the vocal maancrisms of Richie are 'black' enough to appeal to the majority of folk who enjoyed more traditional soul groups.

Also, probably unconsciously — a natural result of the different personalities within the group — their natural result of the different personalities within the group—their songs bridge age groups and races. For instance, their latest bit, "Three Times A Lady," is a natural smash with the highly-strung MOR market, whereas they can just as easily stip into a jive rap that would undoubtedly, gosh, shock the same audience.

audience.
Finally, the production of their records is second to none. 'Three Times A Lady' in less capable hands would have been just another godawful sloppy dirge. Some, itie the turkey tearjeriters 'round here, would mairtain it is anyway. Me, I reckon that if any group feels inclined to indulge its sentimentality to such an extreme, at least let them do it half as well as Commodores.

CLIFF WHITE THRIDOS

ROCK MOVIE ASSAULT CONTINUES

Fun people in "Sergeant Pepper

TOWTHAT major music mories have demonstrated the large megabuck potential of combining the two mediums it seems that—as predicted in Trills at the start of the year — everyone and its uncle are trying to get in on the

Just take a look; at some of the projects currently being discussed:

discussed:

O Director Hall Ashry is trying to get blick Jugger for the life in a screen adaptation of Robert Heinlein's Stranger is A Strange Land, a role Bowle as interested in some years back.

O Bruce Springston, Olivia Newton-John and John Lennon's the line-up William A. Leny would the for his movie Street Jensey, to be filmed on location in Landen.

O Jet Lag, the Elton's Rod collaboration, is progressing are supported to the control of the collaboration, is progressing are supported to the control of the collaboration, is progressing are supported to the control of the collaboration, is progressing are supported to the control of the collaboration is progressing are supported to the collaboration of the collaboration is progressing are supported to the collaboration of the collaboration of co-star Tony Curtin and Jack Lemmon.

Phil Walden, Capricera Records
boos, is readying The Otis Redding Story, reconstructing his triendship with the man during the Civil Rights ean in the South.

Alice Cooper and Wolfman Jack are discussing phass for a modern-day borror metical.

Music movie boom ploneers fitobert Stipwood and Alant Carr also have a member of new projects in the works, atthough their partnership looks in danger of dissolving, Stigwood plans a nequel to Sanuday Night Feorr (with or without Turnothis), a sequel to Grease (currently titled Summer Schooly, a movie of Euist, (he has had bleasur Rice & Lloyd-Webber under contract ever since they began

Silgwood has offered John John Kennedy half a million backs to play his ladder as a young man.

Care, meanwhile, has signed a feature film deal with three major studies — MGM, Universal and Columbia — for own major marke anch. Yer MGM has will do a contemporary motion! "he the style of the old MGM menically "called Riviero which was written with Olivia Newton-John, Keth Carradine, Militad B Baryamili ov and Marcello Musicolana in mind.

Although unany major shelles we currently in a hadding pattern due to the lighted success of Fif and American Hoi Wax, the Stigwood Care affines is tenging wheed, examining one case as iney to.

One of these is the sale of the maste mavie can gent as they to.

One of these is the sale of the mastern which we had a sale of Carele King, Frier Frampton and Floetwood Mac, the next three best-relling albums of all sime; it has grossed 285 million dollars compared to the movie's take of 110 million dollars.

The same is true of Grease, whose lange success has led to the contributed sales of the stage musical in a big way.

After all, the original Broadway.

their attention to the stage unmixed in a big way.

After all, the original Broadway producers of Grazes became instant millionaires on the sale of the screen rights, and have since cursed another sizeable fortune through their 12 per cent share of the movie's gross. With the Dracula hoom, the success in the U.S. of The Rocky de Filis to pouse, experiment filis to pouse, experiment filis to pouse, experiment filis to pouse filis fil

Variety magaine reports:

"Backlanding representatives are now reading sit vance illustreatment to suggest being more maners of ideas to help out fitter-valued items."

Edily Justing of Ancillary Enterprises, the firm merchanding

Edils Justing Di Annasse, Estephine, the firm merchandising Penner, nave:

They came my with the logo that Enceded, any because of that we are itemating Sqt Penner jeans, whirts, believ and above. Everything in Pepper is themshood with logos. It is the about purfect movie for merchandising Cyre ever seen."

Following the moreon of The Stud, the album of which sold 259,000 copies in two months, firent Walker are moving in the same direction. They have now bired Dick Rome, former A & R bon of Docca, as consultant on their record and music netherities.

consultant on their record and manic activities.

Rowe is currently working on an album of space disco music to tie-in with Foot, a cheap-bridget alien encounter movie Bress Walker have nequired for distribution in the UK. They too are now studying like scripts on the basis of their music merchandiang potential.

What about out, I hear you say. That just doesn't come into it.

DICK TRACY

THE END

Vee hav vays of makink you experiment

F YOU Vant, Give Me Love" by S. Quatro read the label on the jukebox. The bar was filled with a motley crew of locals: Wolfgang, Hans and Jurgen, one of whom periodically shattered a glass on the floor and cursed.

At least I assume it was a curse.

At least I assume it was a curse.

Like everything else, it was in German — since our location was a small viltage near the Rhein, a few miles from Connie Plank's

wunderstudio near Koln.

I'd albumy househ Plank's existing winderstudio near Koln.

I'd always thought Plank's studio was in the middle of a steelworks, surrounded by hissing steam and clanking heavy industrial processes.
But surprise, surprise — as the car sped out of the wonderful modern-age Koln/Bonn airport and past the Zeppelin factory we were in the middle of beautiful tranquil woodland.
The studio isn't even in a utiliane but.

woodland.
The studio isn't even in a village but backs on to mountains and a clear lake. And the music which fills the ancient courtyard is the music of Ultravox.

TTEMPTS at doing something a little different in the progressive rock field all too often result in vapid poetics and a lot of inept noodling on the Moog synthesizer.

However, recently, and concurrent with the new wave explosion — and therefore largely either obscured by or confused with it — has emerged a new sound. Yes, another new sound!

Unfortunately, this piece is not about Germans. It's about ULTRAVOX. However, it does take place in Germany. Will that do?

This one is crisp, clean, digital, slightly mechanical yet showing an slightly mechanical yet showing an incheative eroticism—a geometric, jerky quickstep. In this loose category I would place the work of Eno, XTC, Talking Heads, Pere Ubu, Devo, Bowie's "Low" and "Heroes".

Part of the sound comes from the work of Neu, Cluster, La Dusseldorf and, of course, Kraftwerk.

Another part nerhan, comes from and, of course, Kraftwerk.

Another part perhaps, comes from Roxy Music. And Ultravox are also in this area, which is why I was visiting them in Germany.

Eno is a key figure in all this. He produced some of the tracks on Ultravox's first album and he and Connie Plank produced Devo's first album in this studio.

If was here also than Plank.

It was here also than Plank recorded the early Kraftwerk — in tact "Autobahn" was the first albur recorded when the studio was in Germany and recently produced Talking Heads' second album, "More Songs About Buildings And Food", in Nassau where the Island Records studio has the same MCI board as the studio and the same MCL floar in the one at Connie's.

Eno is the link, the primary catalyst acting on groups in an area of music which is the practical application of cybernetics to rock: Pere Ubu employ 'systems' and 'processes' in the creation of their music just as Kraftwerk in in England that really had the experience to handle the things that we wanted to do. It's mostly geared to rock & roll or pop music in England. We wanted to find some place where we could try things out without being under the pressure of studio time. "Also, because Connie has worked.

"Also, because Connic has worked in the past with the German electronic bands be has the experience and the facilities."

facilities.

"The thing that's exciting about this place is that things are being made here as we are working — in the electronics workshop. They're constantly improving the equipment and half-way through a session something will be brought in that we can use."

Here Warren Cann mentioned how he was trying to get a distorted sound on his drums and the electronic workshop cooked up a distorter. (It's wortshop cooked up a dissorter. (it is surprisingly hard to get a good distorted sound in a modern studio. Everything works against it). Building one gave them a few ideas, so they went on and a built a mark two model for themselves.

So here the group were, No distractions. No sex even — just sunsets, lakes and the local brew.

LTRAVOX had a hard time when they started out. They joined Italand a few months after Roxy Music left and the critica made a meal out of the similarity that sometimes occurs in the voices of John Foux and Bryan Ferry—partly due to the fact that both are from the North of England.

When not being accused of being Roxy Music they were accused of jumping on the punk bandwagon, premunably on the basis that if you didn't look like Peter Frampton you ment be a punk.

ount took like Peter Frampton you must be a punk.
Ultravox never claimed to be a punk band. They started out liking groups like Neu and Tangerine.
Dream, though they did appreciate the new wave they found themselves in the middle of.
Four evoluined. "Pools below use in the middle of.

Foxx explained: "Probably we didn't fit into whatever was going on last year in a very easy manner. We weren't a punk band. But we had one brush with this thing called 'image' which was the cover of the first album. It works' we construde as in which was the cover of the first abum. It wasn't as contrived as is seemed. We just went own in the yard and hed this photograph taken. "We're quite happy to be outrelves because we aren't a corporate body, we're different individuals, very strongly different. But we've agreed to come together and we're found a way of working together than gives us a way of life that we enjoy a lot. It really is as simple as that. Because we can do all the things we want to do, like experimentally. "We can get very excited on stage. We can make contact of a kind with a lot of people. And it enables us to live the way we want to. That's as much as we want." So no labels — except possibly the

we want."

So no labels — except possibly the first British electronic band. Though even this they might question. "We feed European. The sort of background and melodies we tend to come out with just seemed to be sort of Germanic even before we came here. That's always been there."

NE thing which characterises these new bands is a well these new bands is a well worked out approach to their work.

"We've got a whole new way of working," said John. "We start off with an idea for a song and a sort of atmosphere that we want to have on it. Then we find the noises that are appropriate to that atmosphere, and then follow that through and ideas come on.

"We get mistaken ideas sometimes, especially with synthesizers. But it's great! We can't really predict what we're going to end up with. That's what makes the excitement."

So how d'you thank all this will go down in England?
"No idea!"
They laush

"No idea!"
They laugh.
All this may sound very mechanical and soulless, but it's not.
"That's one thing that we've not forgotten. The emotional side is very important to us. It sounds very programmed and computerised and it is — but only because we feel that's a more elegant and efficient way of getting whatever we feel into the music."

inusic."

Any danger of getting too electronic is watched out for by Canadian drummer Warren Cann.
"I don't want to knock people who are into the electronic side of experimental aussic but to me it always seems they get so far out that they start disappearing up their own backsides.

what I have manage to keep doing is that we manage to keep power — although not necessarily a heavy thing. I mean, we might keep the power based around, say, an emotion, a feeling of a song, an Viol CAN hear yourself how this fusion of rock and electronics sounds by checking out their latest single, "Slow Motion", which is even available (as usual) as a 12°. It's not the best teack from the album (called "Systems Of Romance," out on September 8) but it is characteristic of their sound.

The future is here. See what you think.

Of. Fellywood Down At The Doctors NEW SINGLE UP 36444

The Doctor On Tour

- September
 22 PLYMOUTH Top Rank
 23 TORQUAY Town Hall
 24 TAUNTON Odeon
 25 MALVERN Winter Gardens
 26 DERBY Assembly Rooms
 27 NORWICH St Andrews Hall
- 28 CHELMSFJRD Odeon
 29 CAMBRIC .E Corn Exchange
 30 COVENTA Theatre
 October
 1 LEICESTIA De Montfort
 3 MANCHESTER Free Trade
 5 ABERDE N Capitol

- DUNDEE Caird Haif
 FEDINBURGH Odeon
 NEWCASTLE City Haif
 LIVERPOOL Empire
 SHEFFIELD City Haif
 GRAPFORD & Georges Hail BRAFORD TOP Renk
- 14 HASTINGS Pier
 15 HEMEL HEMSTEAD Pavillion
 16 READING Top Rank
 18 AOURNEMOUTH Winter Gardens
 19 PORTSMOUTH Guild Hail
 20 CANTERBURY Odeon

- 22 BRISTOL Colston Hall
 24 CARDIFF TOP Rent
 25 SWANSEA TOP Rank
 26 OXFORD New Thestre
 27 ILFORD Odeon
 28 HAMMERSMITH Odeon
 29 HAMMERSMITH Odeon

Radio Stars Holiday Album

Release date Sept 1 * Massive 47 date U.K.tour

September

- Aylesbury Friars Chelmsford Chancellor Hall Leeds Fforde Green
- Leeds Fforde Green

- Newcastle Mayfair
 Plymouth Woods Centre
 Penzance The Garden
 Wakefield Unity Hall
 Middlesbrough Rock Garden
- Middlesbrough Rock Garden Nr Doncaster

EMI

Bircote Sports Centre

- Hemel Hempstead Pavilion
- Yeovil Johnson Hall
- Bath Pavilion
- Slough College

- 28 Middleton Civic 29 Huddersfield Polytechnic 30 Huddersfield Polytechnic

- Dundee University Stirling University
- Aberdeen Ruffles Edinburgh Tiffany's

- Glasgow Stratholyde University Belfast Ulster Hall
- Portrush Arcadia
- Cork Arcadia Dublin McGonagles Leicester University
- Liverpool University
- Batley Crumpet Club Manchester Salford University
- Bradford University
 Saltburn Philmore Country Club Carlisle Market Hall
- Sheffield Top Rank

- 26 Malvern Winter Gardens
- Aberystwyth University Birmingham University Colchester Woods Centre

- 30 Hastings Pier
- 31 Canterbury Odeon

- Keele University
- Birmingham The Gig
- Redford Porterhouse
- Lincoln A J's London Roundhouse

Licensed Repertoire Division, EMI Records Ltd., 9 Thaver St., London W J. 01-486-7144

seem muddled. On the one hand, they favour euthanssia (often seen as a libertarian cause), while on the other they condemn pornography. Their singer boasts at one stage: "I'm gorno shock you from your complacency". But he never gets close.

The daftest part of the whole exercise is the music itself: a stale Doobte Brothers rehash. As outrageous exhibitionists, these guys simply fail to get out of the closet. Mercy kilking seems the best they can hope for. As concentration camp guards, they would have made very good poodle breeders.

LIMP TRUNCHEON AWARD

• LIMP TRUNCHEON AWARD WHITE S.S.: Mercy Killing (C.I.A. Records). These chaps seem desperately determined to present themselves as a fiendishly sinister fascist plot. Their name obviously has Nazi connotations, unless S.S. stands for Shit Shovellers. Equally, there are copious lyric sheets setting out their political opinions, which are intended to be right-wing and rispue, but just seem muddled. On the one hand, shey leavour euthanssia foften seen as a good poodle breeders.

THE PLEASERS: You Don't Know
(Arista). In the dim and distant past (i.e. last year) The Pleasers were being touted as the next big thing on the strength of their uncanny knack of imitating the early Beatles. So far this particular talent has paid The Pleasers no dividends. One reason is that Eric Idle connected the Beatles' nostalgia market with. The Rutles. Another is that while The Pleasers are great at writing pastiches of Beatles' album tracks, they're less impressive with their attempts at hit singles. To be precise, they write Rops. This is another one. It could perhaps have found a place on "With The Beatles" discreetly nucked away on side two.
But as for the singles charts in 1978,
that bird has flown.

LINDISFARNE: Inke Box Gymax

LINDISFARNE: Juke Box Gypny LINDISFARNE: Juke Box Cypsy (Mercury). A deceptively slight pop song by Alan Hell which grows in strength the more you hear it. Just thing to consolidate Lindistane's comeback. The group have been accused of adopting a smoother approach to their music, as though they've turned their back on Newcastle Brown drinkers in Javour of the Tequila Sunrise set. No doubt there's some truth in this charge. But Hell and his lot established their radical, working class credentials way back. It's difficult to blame them now for seeking a wider audience.

BOSTON: Don't Look Back (Eptc).
Looking back appears to be exactly what Tom Schoftz did in concocting this attempt at a new "More Than A Feeting". Same blueprint, same overdubbing. Sadly, not the same calibre of tune at all. What's locking is a memorable melody and a catchy chorus. No amount of agonised studio work can make up for that.

worst can make up for usat.

HE ART: Magazine (Arista). This particular magazine sounds as though it's been hanging round too long in dentists' waiting rooms. That's because its release has been held up by legal squabbles between record companies. (Artistic freedom is a wonderful thing). The sad truth, however, is that it's difficult to tell why the moguls bothered to fight. The Sisters Wilson have sice, cute voices, and a slick rock band, but this is a dreary, unmemorable song. Fleetwood Plastic Mac.

SINGLE OF THE WEEK STATUS QUO: Again And Again (Vertigo). Suitably repetitive title for repetitions group. But then repetition has always been an essential quality of the best pop and rock.

Indeed, at times Quo have seemed more punk-like than most new wave bands. Their songs were fast, frantic, and effortlessly dumb long before The Rumones turned all that into an art form, and many of their followers are brutish enough to make Sid Victous look like Norman Scott.

The fact that the Quo have long hair is neither here nor there. (Rumours that those flowing tocks have bee shorn must be untrue, since you can still hear all that

LEO SAYER: I Can't Stop Loving You (Claysalia). Not to be confuted with the classic Ray Charles tear-jerker, this mawkish little song finds Leo at his least endearing, it's an attempt, perhaps, to soore a hit as big as the dire "When I Need You" of some years back. Sawer's more fun.

some years back. Sayer's more fun when he does disco. His voice is simply too whining to carry off big ballads like this with any conviction

MILLIE JACKSON: Sweet Music

Man (Spring). The song's no great shakes, but Millie's superb vocals put all the strangulated wheeting of white "soul" singers in perspective. No matter that Millie has some paltry lyrics, abe performs with a passion that transcends their banality. Lovely.

NINA SEMONE: Baltimore (CTE). A cutt figure from the '60s, Nina Simone could usually be relied upon for a gritty, emotional performance.

Maybe the years have made her blander. This Rendy Newman song has been given a gilded reggae facade, and Ms Simone's vocal matches its glossy style. The whole thing seems entirely inappropriate, both for the town and the lyrics.

BILL HALEY AND THE COMETS: The Salats Rock's Roll (MCA EP). "From the Album 'Armchair Rock's Roll." That's what it says here, and they're not joking. All Bill Haley's songs sound like re-makes of "Rock Around The Clock" and these are no exception. It's true that Haley's as much of a hair getting caught in their guitar strings). Anyway, the point is that rock just does not come my more simple-minded than this these days. Quo have clearly learnt very little in all their years in the biz, and a joily soul things for.

ood thing too.
The chorus sounds a bit like "Little Queenie", but involves the phrase "Again and again" repeated again and again. Sort of repetition squared. There are two snags. Even Quo followers must draw the line somewhere, and the 300 previous Quo singles may prove enough to satiate even them.

Also, producer Pip Williams has added redundant rass and keyboards to the opening chords. Sheer blasphemy.

Reviewed this week by BOB EDMANDS

founding father as Elvis was, but no one ever accused him of being energetic.

YVONNE ELLIMAN: Savansab (RSO). Somewhat daringly. Ms Elliman bas put out a single that wasn't written by The Bee Gees. No matter that this song it an overblown, pompous singalong, Ms Elliman gets the chance to show off her woral range instead of mumbling away over a dumb disso riff. Good to see that she amounts to rather more than just another subsidiary of The Gibb Bros ledustries (Inc) Co Ltd Corporation and Nephews. YVONNE ELLIMAN: Savannah

KEVIN LAMB: On The Wrong Track (Arista). You said it. If Kevin Lamb had been on the right track, he'd still be only as much fun as a goods train full of nutty slack. Macho worsks on a plodding balled that's never once in danger of jumping the rails. Totally buffered.

THE BROTHERS JOHNSON: Ain't We Punkin' Now (A and M). If disco is ever to be raised above the level of pap, then The Brothers Johnson are the guys to do it. This est sounds disturbingly like KC and the Sunshine Band's "That's The Way I Like It", but the appeal of the Bros lies in their distinctive style. A spilley rhythm guitar sound, pondernos bass, and cartoon character vocals. Plus you get Quincy Jones' arrangements which are glossy but inspired. The only oddity here is that their last hit "Strawberry Letter 23" is on the flip, effortlessly upstaging the A-side.

SHERRY: Let's Go Wild (Mannet). SHERRY: Let's Go Wild (Magnet). What an absurd idea. Whoever heard of a "wild" disco record? As a musical form, it's far too calculated and inflexible to allow any spontaneity. Besides, no one's going to get too excited by the sentiments expressed here. Consider the opening lines of the lyrics: "When I'm wrapped up in your arms, I feel the power of your charms," Let's go mild.

L.T.D.: Holding On (A and M), L.T.D. as in limited, and holding on as in skin of the teeth. A [2" disco single thet's 12" too many.

THE SUBURBS: Memory;
FINGERPRINTS: Space Gbt; SPOOKS: 1980-1998 (Twin Tone EP); THE B-52e; Rock Lobster
(B-52e). The Ramones apart, a lot of American new wave music has always seemed intrinsically daft. Like British cowboy films shot on the South Downs. Two of the three EPs from Twin Tone records in Minneapolis make this point well enough.
The Suburbs and Fingerprints both owe an obvious debt to the early days of British punk. The songs are pointlessly fast, the vocals butch and unkempt. In contrast, The Spooks have a novel style. The singer sounds a bit like Arthur Brown in his heyday, and there's a sort of cosmic Bo Diddley backing which helps create a nicely surreal effect. Fity the band are all so pretty looking.

The B-52s from Athens, Georgia would have had a daring name at the height of the Vietnam war. As it happens, they're quite a weird group. A singer who sounds like he could do voice overs on Walt Disney nautre films, and a nicely bizarre song about lobsters. Worth investigating. pointlessly fast, the vocals butch and

THE BRATZ: The Bratz Are Coming (Famous Records). With a name like the Bratz, why does their lead singer sound as though he's wearing a chunky knit sweater and auditioning for the Spinners? Maybe he's reality a trudy howling rock vocalist, but it doesn't come across on this home mede single. Still, there's a couple of nifty guitarrists somewhere in there, and the arrangement is ambitious. The song mainly comaists of its title, but there's no harm in that.

THE GENTS: Get Out Of My Bed THE GENTS: Get Ont Of My Bed (Genth). This band's hard rock style recalls Eddie And The Hot Rods, but it's a pity they've named themselves after a toilet. Not that there's anything supersoft about them. Indeed, this has the sort of attack that kills 99% of household germs. Well worth taking the plunge and splashing out on. One day they'll probably pull out the big one.

Y TRWYNAU COCH: "Wanted Ar Y Tu Fas" {Recordian Sgwar}. Strictly a load of coch. These guys are Weath, they sing in Westh, and aim at a Weish audience. Odd then that they bother to send out their press releases in English. Apparently, once translated their name turns out to be "The Red Noses" and the song is called "Always On The Outside," Seems an appropriate title. A nico. cased "Anways On The Cutsede; Seems an appropriate title. A nice, tune, but they might as well be slightly in Chinese for all the attention they're going to get. Correction — Latin would be a more suitable choice if they want to be deliberately perverse.

LITTLE BUDDY AND THE KIDS: "Hanging On" (Honeymoon); JOHNNY KEY WITH THE KOOL
KATS: "Fallin' For You" (Allgator).
If much American new wave sounds If unch American new wave sounds stilly, it's totally convincing compared to British rockabilly. Little Buddy And The Kids are so earnest in their mock American accounts that you can't help but be amused. Great sleeve, though, Johnny Key And The Kool Kats have got the cracker vocals better together, but when there's such a vast catalogue of higher grade American material available, it's not clear who they think will have it. clear who they think will buy it

KEITH ARMSTRONG: "An Amazing Grace" (Old Knew Wave Records). Keith Armstrong evidently fancies himself as the new wave's answer to Larry Adler. "An Amazing Grace" is (of all things) a harmonica instrumental. Like a speeded-up version of The William Tell Overture. Still, at feats the gob stays in the gob-iron instead of spraying the punters. punters.

SON 2157 Produced by John Graham Reed

Sonet Records Ltd., 121 Leidbury Road, London W11 2RP.

THE NME CONSUMER'S GUIDE TO

DAVIE JONES WITH THE KING BEES (A) Lize Jene (Conn) (B) Louie Louie Go Home (Revere) Production: Leslie Corn. Musical Director: Laslie Core. Vocalion Pop V 8221. Released: June 1984,

Director: Lessile Cone. Vocasion Pop V. 9221. Released: June 1994.

ENCOURAGED BY the first wave of public enthusiasm for The Rolling Stones. Vocasion-Pop is now-defunct subsidiary of Decos Records principally devoted to just and Relia was eager to sign similar bands whom they hoped would each the public imagination on a similar easts. They chanced their arm with two groups: Band John And The Mocd from Present) and Cavid John Amment of the World from Present) and Cavid John Amment of the World from Present and Cavid John Amment of the World from Present and Cavid John And The Mocd from Present of the World from Present of the World from Present and Cavid John Amment of the World from Present and Cavid John Amment of the World from Present of the World for the World for the World from Present of the World John And The Modd single, displays more manner arms in common with Latter-day Bowle than does the authentic cricie.

The Manisch BDVS

THE MANISH BOYS (A) I Phy The Foot (Malone) (B) Take thy The (Jones) Production: Shell Talmy, Parlophone R 5250, Released: March 5 1905, S226. Released: March 5 1995.

LIKE THE Rolling Stones, Bowie'e next band copped their fame from the title of a Muddy Waters song. Appropriately enough, the number they chose for what was to be their only recording was the urban blues classio: "I rily The Fool", made famous by blues singer 60/bby "Blue" Bland and written by "Deadric Malone" (e collective pseudonym for various members of Bland's band). Over an autremely sympathistic and sensitive accompaniment which sectured sterking guitar fills and a beefy though badly recorded brass section. Bowis handles the song in a manner that pays tribute to the conventions and stylistic devices of black blues without ever resorting to slavish imitations of the master.

"Take My Tip" was the first of his own."

ever resorting to slavish imitations of the misster.

Take My Tip!" was the first of his own compositions that Bowle sver resorded, and it is firmly bessed in the tradition of the Jazzier wing of Britan R&s, utilising the style of the organ-deminated bends lad by Georgie Farms and Zood Money. The track is chiefly notable for its lightly ewinging backbeer, antiquing melody and tonguer-wiseling physical or "Take An almost identical version of "Take Tip!" by one Konny Miller (also My Tip!" by one Konny Miller (also the Control of Take Andrews (Stateside SS 405).

(Jones) (8) Baby Loves That Way (Jones) Production: Shel Yalmy, Parliphone R 5315, Released; August 20 1985,

SO WHO are you, anyway? "You've Got A Habit Of Leaving" sounds almost exactly like The Who's then-current noise—the Tellmy connection (Shel was then also producing The Who and The Kintel) can't have hart. Virtrage Pop Art. It's stardlingly similar to "Anyway Anyhow Anywhere" apart from Bowie's fey yocal and tubercutar mouth-herp. We'd love to know who pleys on it... The 8-side opens with shriekingly tebly guiter, and Bowie a sounds far more comfortable with the tempo. Alarmingly similar to the way "You Really Got A Hold On Me" would've sounded if the young "Oo had gotten their hands on it.

DAVID BOWIE AND THE LOWER THIRD (A) Can't Help Thinking About Me (Bowle) (B) And 1 Say To Myrelf (Bowle) Production: Uncredited (most likely to be Tony Hebth), Pyo 7N 17020. Released; January 14 1966.

BY NOW, Bowie (the change of name

By CHARLES SHAAR MURRAY & ROY CARR

had been prompted by a desire to evoid confusion with Davy Jones of The Montoses) had bulk up a more then reasonable following by supporting the High Numbers (later to become The Who) at Radio Luxembourg-sponsored Marquee gigs. At this time, he was managed by ex-Moody Blues roadie Ralph Mortan (soon supplement by impressive Ken Pitt) and was recording for Pye under the direction of Tory Hatch (stop) laughing at the back there?) This recording displays precious few trees of Bower's R&B beginnings, but predictes his Amthony Newtey fixation. Without doubt the most outstanding of his trio of Pye singles, it is introverted Mod page which bears recognisable limiting to fess aggressive work of The Kinks, The Who and — signity more remarkey—the Sonewood assembly as the performance, Bower old dissemit to have outgrown the more obvious influences of his youth to emerge with vocal style almultaneously sensitive. dignified and above all confident. The song could very well be drawing — however peripherally. — on the composer's disrupted and disruptive home align.

DAVID BOWIE
(A) Do Anything You Say (Bawie)
(8) Good Morning Girl (Bowle) Production: Uncredited (again, probably Teny Hatch), Pys 7N 17079.
Released: April 1 1986.

FROM THIS point on, Sowie recorded strictly se a solo artist, since Ken Pitt saw him as something more than a member of or front-man for a club band. Appropriately, it was released on All Foots Day.
A startlingly derivative and tacktustre brace of anjainals could accrebly be imagined, fishing as awtowardly as they do between a variety of stools. The Asside sounds like the type of song that Ray Davies was discarding as unworthy of the Kinks and offering to unknowns who would remain so. "Good Monning Girl" as an unlikely hybrid of settly Who and Flamingo School, saved only by an intersating interlude where Bowle scats along with the lead guitar.

(A)1 Dig Everything (Bowle) (B) I'm Not Lesing Sleep (Bowle) Production: Uncredited (probably Tony Hatch), Pye 7N 17157, Released: August 19 1868.

NOT BY any stretch of the imagination an auspicious artefact from our subject's formative years. With the obligatory pumping Hammond organ and axotic percussion, it bears an unfortunets resemblance to the less Impressive work of the Paul Jones-fronted tine-up of Mentred Mann. The vocal is uncharacteristically nerveus. Bowde could conceiveably have appeared crooning this in the mandetory discotteque seguence of any trappy "Swengin" London" movie of the time.

The coupling te a put-down sone of the time.

The coupling is a put-down song of the type that Peto Townshend was occasionally writing at the time; it attempts to be contribe but succeede only in being patulant.

197. Released: Decreeber 2 1986.

AN EARLY manifestation of the Edwardian fixation that efficied the more whimsical areas of mid-60e Erippo (The Kinks' "Anthur Or The Rice And Fatt Of The British Emple" and The Bearles. "Sig Papper" were its fullest flowering). Very much in the serio-comic show-tune-fart-song Idiom exempitied by the Anthony Newley/Lease Britishes accord for Stop The World Wart To Get Off, it talls the fairty obsurd talls of a World Wart 1 hero loaking his sweetheart to the leader of an alternoon-in-the-perk breas band. The fairty business melodrama of Bowie's fairty characters melodrama of Bowie's receptantine openings of the tube and const.

"The Ruckite is a far more serious a flair."

elephantine deperings of the tuba and cornet.

The Belide is a far more serious affeir, and probably the most moving and pertirent work that Bowie produced prior to "Space Codity". Sung in the second person to a young provincial would-be Mod trying to run with the hip kids in the Big Smoke. "The London Boys" is a slow, agonised portrayal of the inevitable cornedown from the amphetamine activitation of "Bry Generation".

If anything, this song le doubly Generation". If anything, this song is doubly relevant in 1978 as a whole new generation of London Boys task their chances in Wardour Street.

Apochryphs: legend has it that a group of the firm shown as IT he Elastic Band were once making a dreadful meas of whigh to record a Bowde song in the studio, thus prompting Bowie's anguished or of "Rubber Band, you're playing my tune out of tune."

(A) The Laughing Gnome (Bowle) (B) The Gospel According To Tony Day (Bowle) (Bowle) Produced: Mike Vernon, Derem DM 123. Released: April 14 1967, Rebaued: September 8 1973.

UNDOUBTEDLY THE most embarrassing example of Bowie juvenals to be reactivated 4rts his graduation to Big League standom for fact, when it reached No. 4 In the pharta and sold in excess of 250,000 copies six years after its initial raises a bout the only unembarrassed party was Decca Records.

Records).

The principal glimmics of "The Laughing Gnorms" was the timeless technical standby of kiddle records from The Chipmunks to The Smurfs: the speeded-up elf voice. Interestingly enough, Bown has used the technique of variapeed vocals to far more serious effect on his later records. Possibly the most generous assessment of "The Laughing Gnorms" would be as Bowle's equivalent to The Beatles' "Yellow Submarine."

Laury acquirements of the Beauce acquirements of the Submarine. Submarine is a hersth catalogue of Lallyre and distillusionmann, a shronicte of Individual defeats. A more incongruous running mete for "The Laughing Gnome" is wall-nigh inconceivable.

LOVE YOU TILL TUESDAY Side One: Uncle Aktheur/Seil Me A Coat/Rubbre Bend/Love You Till Tuender/There is A Happy Lend /We Are Hungry Rien/When I Live Rify Dreem
Side Two: Utitle Bombedker/Silly Boy Blua/Coms And Buy Rify Toyrs/Join The Gang/She's Got Riedalls/Meld Of Bond Street/Pieces Mr Gravedigger
Produced: Rifle Vermon. Avranged: Dek
Fearriety. David Bowle. Deram DML
1007. Released: June 1987.

1007. Hereesed: June 1907.

A LISTENER strictly accustemed to David Bowie in his assorted 170s gulses would probably find "Love You Till Tuesday" sither shocking or else simply quaint, its musicel either is thestricel in the most liveral possible sense — a far cry from the primitive R&B and Swinging London pop of Bowie's previous (and commercially untsuccestful) recordings.

It becomes considerably less baffing, however, when the backrage policica are taken into consideration.

In his role as Bowie's manager and a Contitues over page

Continues over page

From previous page

winded with the gaining attenting and clean in years leave. The foreign through the control of the property of the property of the control of the control of the control of an interest control of the control of an interest throughout an agreement within council and in columnia the property of the control of the c

TreEM mail began a new year threads in transmission leatheren. "Space Celebry" and "Love You Till Tuesday". For on maters never update, take a deep breath.

area his relativistics according of the Community, for the Parish Nazivity and Community, for the Parish Nazivity and Community, for the Parish Nazivity and Community and

Titled Erroll generotive feeting breasth. 1989

Titled Erroll generotive feeting breasth. 1989

Titled Erroll generotive feeting feeting for the feeting of the feeting of Visiones, Babrichery 897 1319, Replaced Michael 8 1796.

AT 1198 proctorus, Dende, Toner Visiones and Blanc Botten were obtained non-involved and Blanc Botten were obtained non-involved and Blanc Botten were obtained non-involved and Blanc Botten Proceedings of the Proceedings o

Dette re-leaved this compilation in 3 with a new cover phono to conform rath flower's "Ziggy Diardian" image.

(Bowlet 8) Manuary Of A Free Testinal Part 2 Bowlet

January 17 SETA

International Control of the American Section 2015 of the Section 201

NEW MUSICAL EXPRESS

accusate over meally to take potential of the earth again.
Marylate that or existently here!
Marylate that or existently here or existently always to have the form of the existency and gift free overpred greater, but the existency part of gift free overpred greater, but the existency part of gift free overpred greater, but the existency part of gift free overpred greater, but the existency of gift free overpred greater, and the existency of gift free overpred greater over the disk to book when when the first free disk to book with the disk to book greater.

The most characteristic free free the existency of the free that the existency of the free that the existency of the free that the existency of the disk to book greater in the greater of the existency of the free that the existency of the disk to compare which the existence of the existence construction for Pales - Solve said as security for Term October - Solve - Solve said of the Solve Share of Solve Solve said of Solve Share Solve provide Solve Solve

DAVE CASH DAVID SOWIE SUSTY SPRINGFIELD

M. M. D. ANDERS BY MAY

MARQUEO ARISIS

GER DAVID BOWIE MO THE LOWER THRID

AND THE BUZZ

From previous page

* From previous page incidentally, Horman chirps "the earth is a beast" in place of Bowle's chisply enunciated "the earth is a birch!"— he'd problety have run screeming out at the studio if he'd understood the lyrics.
"Oh You Pretty Things" segues discitly late "Eight Line Foem", a fusion still life with Ronson's muted guitar delicately framed by Bowle's leisuredy plane chords. "Life On Mars?" is another mesterplace of aleight-of-hand, where Walsamen at his most omats cultifee with Ronson's bombastic string arrangement and sorld guitar.

waiting to party sind single a relevoor son Zowle, with playful trumpet from Bolder.

The able closes with Bowle at his darkest and most metaphrysical mood.

"Quicksond" — not to be confused with the Merrha and The Vandellas song of the same name — is twight worlds apart. Over delicate yet ominious 12-string societic guiltar, Bowle ruminates on the possible collision between the waitone philosophias he house to be a relevant to the possible collision.

Act Two, Scene One commences with "Fill Your Heart", a twee flower-power statement betrowed from Biff Rose and Paul Williams, which Bowle present set what can only be assumed to be a sardonic counterpoint to the arrouse business which preceded it. Stiff, he sounds as if he had a lot of frue singing it.

"Andy Wartho!" Streaded with a sergonic ecourage point of the serrous business which preceded it. Stiff, he business which preceded it. Stiff, he sounds as if he had a lot of fun singling.

"Anchy Werthot" (prefixed with a studio back-chail thero), which is the first of three tributs / vignetics, allowe Bowie's sense of humour to sesent itself and is chiefly remarkable for what John Mendelsohn referred to in Rolling Store as its "extraordinery ell-seoustic-guine at the west trying to do with acoustic guinare what The Valvet Underground were doing with electrical.

"Song For Bob Dyfen" is a distillation of all the please that were then circulating for the Zim's return, festiuring a vocal on the zone side of without and the affectionate side of periody. "Queen Bitch" is a Forewa and for the most period side of without and the affectionate side of periody. "Queen Bitch" is a Forewa and for the most period side of without and the side of w

(A) Changes (Bowle) (B) Andy Warhol (Bowle) Production: Kan Scott (essisted by the actor), RCA 2160, Released: January 7, 1872.

FOR REASONS best known only to himself and Mickie Most (certure on the RAK, genchance) Bowles had given Peter Noone the most obviously eingleworthy track from "Hunky Dary", so that left "Changes." It garnered much devourable command and buzz, but Unspectacular seles.

(A) Statman (Bowie) (B) Suffregetts City (Bowie) Production: David Bowie, Ken Scott RCA 2138, Released: April 14 1972,

RCA 2199. Released: April 14 1972.

THE LONG-delayed breathrhough. Since the beginning of 1972, Bowle and his bend (Ronson, Woodmansey and occasionalty plants Robin Lurnlay) had been gloging around the British lakes performing what would later be referred to as the Ziggy Set. Bowle had grabbad the headless by announcing his bisevuelity and he and the band had adopted their new look: the make-up, dyed heir and catsuits.

The new stage act (Including the celebrated electric blow) ob routine where Bowle would kneel in front of Ronno, hug the guinarret's ass and delicately apply his sige and tongue to Rosson's sanded-down Les Paul Custom), this songs and the whole outrageous cancept were just commercial dynamics, and more people were interested in Bowle then at any time since the "Spece Oddity" hit of three years seriler.

paying attention regarded "Starman" as the follow-up to the sage of Major Torn. Themsetically, "Starman" is a light-hearted approach to heavier themes previously stated in "On You Persty Things" and elsewhere. Fractionally within the four-minute barrier, "Starman" is a perfectly constructed and executed pap song which node to both "Somewhere Over The Reinbow" and "You Keep Me Hangin" On," and which noticeably inhabits the same universe as T. Rex. Bollan was not smooth and and the two stars was defected uncomplimentary about each other in print. By the way, the song accurately predicts the plan of close Tongunians of The Third Korn.

The B-aids "Suffragetro City" can be more parafielely discussed in the context of the "Tiggry Starduct" siburn, which followed in June.

followed in June
THE RISE AND FALL OF ZIGGY
STARDUST AND THE SPIDERS FROM MARS
Side One: Five Years / Soul Love /
Moonage Daydream / Starmen / It Ain't

Miconage Daydream r Carlotte Mang Office of the Carlotte Mang On To Yourself / Zigoy Standard / Star / Hang On To Yourself / Zigoy Standard / Suffragerte City / Rock in Roll Suicide Promotion: David Bowle, Ken Scott Arrangement: David Bowle, Mick Roneon. RCA SF8287. Released June 1972.

THE GRAND elem and argusbly (at least, we'll argue for at least, an hour with anytone who says different) the definitive rack and roll concept album, and by far the most cooper commend any rock artist has ever mede on his own art forth the most cooper commend any rock artist has ever mede on his own art forth on the street of the next action-packad year of Bowle's career, a year which was its own artistle justification in that those next 12 another were although the artistic patients of the mean street of the stree

his game-plan for universal stardom, and at no point do exector and creation menge more totally, "Hang On To Yourself" is e delightful rock and rott concoction, with a riff one-per "Sweatself" for four perits "Summertime Blues". It's all-time-for-nest rock and rott with one foot in the 150e and the other in the late "70s. A tot of punk rocks are were that 80wis and 60olan sound this time finding still are) and listening to this in mid"8 the connection is crystal elser: from the arrogant sensuality of the lyric to the Ramonic double-time buzz-saw guitar. An extra treat is that """non (part) "mon (part) "more flat in the sensuality of the pirit to the Ramonic double-time buzz-saw guitar. An extra treat is that """non (part) "more flat in the Grouple Song Hall Of Fame and decleate the last varse to Steve Jones.

The title track condenses the entire piot into just under three-and-s-half minutes send Ziggy begins to bear a distinct resemblance to the letts star-crossed Jimi Hendrix. Narrated by ane of The Spiders, the song pays tributs to Ziggy's grits (and "God-given ass"), describes the dissentions and petty featousy writhin the group, and in start verse chronicles Ziggy's spiritual deciries.

The univelee to take the line "When the perty jestousy within the group, and in sel sigst verse chronicles Ziggy's spiritual decline. Rie unwise to take the line "When the hide had killed the man I had to break up the band" if face value. Aware that all rock performers are in danger of inadvectors eaff-percoly when inspiration flags, and style degenerates into manesters. Sowie sands Ziggy into permanent retirement both on and off virty. Maybe from Standust is fiving in retirement of Powys Square these days. "Sufficient City" finds Ziggy in the process of carding up. Pregued by Inthe Standusters, which was the standuster of Powys Square these days. "Sufficient on the Standusters, which was the standuster of Powys Square these days of the standusters of Powys Square these days of the standusters of Powys Square these days of the standusters of Powys Square the day in the process of carding up. Pregued by the Standusters, which was the standusters of Powys Square the Square the Square the Square the Square the Square the Square than the Square the Square the Square the Square that the Square the Square that the Square the Square that the Square that the Square the Square that the Square that the Square the Square that the Square the Square that the Square that the Square that the Squa classic rock shot. Dig the A to F chang shift.

The title of the album's final track "Rock" rikolis Suicide" achieved the sistus of slogen, adorning many jacket sacks of the time. The song depicte Ziggy broken and alone, concoled by his est remeining fan and it provided the amotional climax to almost all the Ziggy pigs, especially the Grands Finals at Hermmanmith Odeon when, as Bowle sang "You're not alone" glimme your hands" thousands of little pink fingers punctured the spotlight as they stretched beesechingly towards him. Rock and roll's greetess enalysis of itself, an object lesson in how to record and larger vocals and the blueprim for rock standom all in one package. How could anyone resist it? If you did — you were wrong.

[A) John, I'm Only Daricing () (Bowle) (B) Heng On To Yourself () (Bowle) Production: () David Bowle, Ken Scott for Gern. RCA 2263 Released September 1, 1872.

To Gern RCA 2563 Released September 1, 1872.

THERE ARE reportedly at least three seperate and distinct versions of this controversite single, nor of which are commercially available. This could get complicated, so pay storetion, First of all, there's the ariginal single, nor of which are commercially available. This could get complicated, so pay storetion, First of all, there's the ariginal single version, nowadays only available on later pressings of the "Changesonebowie". On pitting the "Aladdin's Same" sessions and included on early pressings of "Changesonebowie". Well apare you all the gerl about metrix numbers and such, but just remembers: the album version is now on the about. For what it's word with the entire entire the entire that it is single is now on the about. For what it's word with the entire the entire that it is now on the about. For what it's word with the entire the single is now on the about. For what it's word with the entire the entire that it is now before the entire the entire that it is not before the entire that it is not the entire that it is not before the entire that it is not the entire that it is not before the entire that it is not befor wise.

"Hang On To Yourself" was straight off the album and completely unakers

[A] Do anything you say ? I dig everything (Bowle) (B) Can't Nelp Thinking About Me/I'm Not Losing Sleep (Bowle). Production: uncredited (most Rkely Tony Netch, right?). Py FAX 8002 (33% rpm). Released; October 6 1972.

WHEN YOU'RE hot, you're hot. You can tell because all the oldies start surfacing. The Pye boundy-hunters dragged out four of their alx Bowie menters for this EP, but frustrated collectors by keeping two of them in the vaults where to Bowie's probable reliefs they still remain.

(A) The Jean Genie () (Bowle) (B) Ziggy Stardust () (Bowle) Production: () David Bowle (for Mainman) () David Bowle, Kan Scott (for Geni. RCA 2302. Released November 24 1972.

BACK TO basics: both Bowle and Ronson had a felr old chunk of British R&S buzzing around in their systems, and on "Jean Genie" a Yardbirde-play-Muddy Waters riff rubs shoulders with a hyric reminiscent of the spic eleans of The Vehret Underground.

The protagonist is loosely besed on 1997 Pop, and the title is some agnt of obscurs pun on the name of Jean Genat, a Franch novellst who was no slouch at the alease game himself.
A tritle stiff and restrained on was,
"Jean Genie" was always a screeming yellow zonker line (ale best demonstrated on "The Santa Monica Bootleg", where Bowle punches out the riff alongalde Ronno on a spare Lee Paul, Though in reached No 2 in the UK chairs, a lettow RLS act made No 1 the following month with a single that purely by coincidence utilized the earne riff. The Swert's "Blockbuster" had a totally over-the-top gimmich production that just about covered up the inadequacies of the song, Was DB worried? Not a tot.

The B-side was another in RCA's
"Cellect The Zinon" after time on the

worried? Not a tot.
The 8-side was another in RCA's
"Celled The 'Ziggy' album on the instalment plan" series.

(A) Drive-In Saturday (Scottle-Phoenix) (Bowle) (B) Around And Around (Berty) Production: David Bowle, Ken Scott (for Meinmen), Armagement: David Bowle, Mich Rosson, RCA 2352, Released: April 6-1973.

Select Romoon. RCA 2552. Released: April 6 1873.

ACKGROUND: WHEN Bowie leuriched his "Save Mot The Hoople" campaign, he first offered them a demo of "Suffregette City" which for various execons clinit vork out as intended, ee he laid "All The Young Dudes" on them. Any readers over the egg of five should know that that workhad out just line. The Mort/Malman relacionerhip autosquently detectorated, which is why they never got their hands on "Drive-in Saturday" as a follow-up. Written as a reach of seeing strange slives domes from a train window during nocturnal transite between Santia and Phoenix, it was premiered accounted by a Printed Section of the Country of the Country

tion Mainman). Arrangement: Devid Bewie, Mick Renson, RCA RS 1801.
Released April 1973.

"ALADDIN SANE" was the first album that Sovier made from a position of stardom, and it was all too obvious that the heat was on and that he was under pressure from fans, critics and the business. "Fifty man? Of Mon?, Jeave me above... "I The songs was written too fast. The album is fragmented and even though it contains much secellent material the whole is addly unastistying; considerably less than the sum of the parts.

No better exemple of this hurried shoddiness can be found than the lead-in track. "Watch That Man". A solid presention rocker in the Stones. "Exile" tredition, it doesn't even sound tike a finished mix: Bowle's vocal la thin, tinny and virtually buried under the weight of the horrs, guism and backing vocals. Somewhere in the comission Rorson can be detected peeling off a few standard Keef licks. They have improved given more time.

The becking track that Bowle and Rorson can be detected peeling off a few standard keef licks. They have improved given more time.

The becking track that Bowle and Rorson can be into little timp places.

The title track, which follows, is far more fully realized. An examination of the prefude to war and one of DB's most turpose places, it conteins wirtuses opinistics from New Yorker Milke Garuon joined the team during the 72 US tour. Starting with omisious contribution dominates the artier places.

Cecil Taylor, Garaon e contribution of the prefude to war and one of DB's most european places, it conteins wirtuses permanel of the prefude to war and one of DB's most european places, it conteins wirtuses permanel places.

Cecil Taylor, Garaon e contribution of the prefude to war and one of DB's most european places, it conteins wirtuses opinistics from New Yorker Milke Garuon joined the team during the 72 US tour. Starting with omisous conteins wirtuses opinistics from New Yorker Milke Garuon jet peeling and one of DB's most european places, it conteins with the order of the track of political violents in the Motor City, with Jushila Franklin and Linda Levin welling southly in the bedgeound. The lytic contains oblique raferences to the contains oblique raferences to procession of two Jolins.

"Cracked Actor" eart to one of procession of two Jolins.

"Cracked Actor" eart to one of Sonno's parented guiser-stemming Yardbird fifty, reveals that during his travels Bowle had head some hot Hollywood poop about one of Timesitown's respected middle-aged actors that never made it into Rona Bernet's column. It reveals little else accept that Bowle's acapabilities with a mouth-harp are decidedly limited.

Bowle's escond overthy European effort ("Time" I attempts to make a clean Brecht of things.

Brecht of things process arising with a process of the control of "Night" disease the last chord of last chord of the last chord of t

(A) Life On Mers? (*) (Bowle) (B) The Man Who Sold The World () (B) The Man Who sole rise system.

(Bowle)
Production () Ken Soott essisted by the sctor () Temy Viscomit RCA 2316.
Released: June 22, 1973.
AS CAN be deduced from its No 3 chert placing, both Bowis and RCA were justified in their belief that this (*) Hunky Dory" actract would now receive the attention that it deserved. Both sides identical to the album versions.

(A) The Laughing Gnome (Bawle). (B) The Gospel According To Tony Day (Bawle) Production: Mike Vernon, Derem DM 123, Released September 8 1973.

OH BY jingo, how embereasing (unigger).

(A) Sorrow (Feldman - Goldstein -Gottahrer) (B) Amsterdam (Brel - Shuman) Production: Ken Scott, David Bowle, RCA 2424, Released September 28 1973.

GCA 2424. Released September 28 1973.

AS A preview of "Pin Upe" — a personal selection of "608 Britrock golden moments — Bowie nomehow menaged to select the least successful performance of the lot for the first post-"retirement" single. Updating the Messeys' old his with a thoroughly poncy string arrangament lhamp your head, Ronson! and ridiculously effete yocals. "Sorrow" gave more comfort to his enemies than his fons.

The B-side was no more accouraging: a harmmy, drunken overstatement of Jeques Peris "Amsterdam" sung to an acoustic guites and a hungover engineer. It sounds positively tacky when compared to the megulificant engineer, it sounds positively tacky when compared to the megulificant engineer. It sounds positively tacky "My Deeth" on "The Sente Monica Bootleg" and on a Russell Harry Plus show earlier in "73.

(The authors regret that no correspondence can be entered into on the subjects of bootlegs or rardies.)

VIR SCRI is my profile bester skan Streisand's or not:

AND DESCRIPTION OF

KRIS an' ALI squabble over a big MACK in CONVOY

Convoy

Directed by Sam Peckinpah Starring Kris Kristofferson, Ernest Borgnine and Ali McGraw

REACTIONS TO Sam Peckinpah's movies range from liberal outrage to a mindless and bloodthirsty approval. At his best — Guns In The Afternoon,
Major Dundee, The Wild
Bunch, Bring Me The Head
Of Alfredo García — his vision relegates these reactions to the irrelevance of noises off. His latest isn't his best — but that doesn't mean a hunting licence for the snipers either.

Peckinpah, a South-Westerner of pioneer stock, was weaned on the Old Testament and The Law—it sure shows — and has added to these granite inflexibilities a taste for the fatalistic philosophy of Old Mexico. Noe much point, then, pulling his claw-hammer coat to the issues of school milk and useful debate.

bate. In Convoy he has found a

Directed by Robert Clouse Starring Bruce Lee (EMI)

BRUCE LEE's last (unfinished) mucie gets resurrected — the Kung Fu industry's Glant with Lee as industry's Glant with Lee as Dean.

Lee surfaces to take out his enemies one by one and the familiar revenge patient arrives at a predictable finale.
Requisite ham performances and opponents are sprinkled around with the nonchalance of was sure.

arouse soy sauce.
But the old magic prevails.
Still a few kicks for devotees of the crouching killer.

Ouvld Brittal

David Brittein

COOL COMBO

Sven Klang's Combo

Directed by Stellen Olsson Starring Lers Goren Nilsson (Essential)

DOFF THE BERETS, boys. The Swedish cinema, hitherto hot staff at death and depression, has come up with a low-bodget feature which tops all of Hollywood's attempts to capture the jazz life on celluloid. Where the Americans invariably centre on characters so outspan and inflated — Bird, Bir, Billie — that you wonder which way the abstractm is blowing, discrete Olssoo has filmed a conflict of ideas.

His central character is a cotalyst, not a hero, with the result that instead of the usual gac-whizzing cast of sam— "He wam't shit around a paternity soit. but Christ could be waill?" — we get a community we care about, regardless of musical talent.

taleut.

Sven Klang, the bassist bandleader of a small-town semi-pro ouffir, recruits a new afto player who is way out of their league. His initial smugness soon sours as he realises that the mew man is also highty-gara sheed of the sudience, a closed circuit of obsession, and knocking off his little bird, the band checuit of obsession, and knocking off his little bird, the band vocalist.

The rest of the band are beautifully observed — the over-eathweissit dobblings of the planist, the poetle but ungilted ache of the drammer, the cheapshate receivede of the leader. Lans Goran Nilsson is not only a superb altoist, but plays precisely that '50 mixture of solipsism and caudous mysticism, curt until cornered when he will give vent to apostrophic ramblings.

It's not unlike a Milos Forman film in its gentle humour, the camera delighting in the tarty dance lands and the everyday awkwardness of the average man. There's a great comic scene where the pianist and drammer sacak hits from the altoman's drink, believing it to be a mercotic, and then attack their instruments like men possessed; it's gin.

The real action is between concepts of music, catering industry or ganantle. "Armangements? What's the point?" says Sven, while Lasee blows his Bopper's heart out on the parade ground — "2 don't give a shit for the Queen, the Fing or the Army?" — and alreapily deserts.

Period detail is accurate, but it isn't a nostalgia film. The music, and the argument, won't lie dows.

Brian Case

"Come back with that sax, Eugene — there's more SCREEN over

Game Of

debate. In Convoy he has found a modern equivalent for the Western in the code and community of America's truckers. Macho, anti-union, a-political, individualistic, they resemble the loggers of Kessey's Sometimes A Great Notion, and although the story duplicates Sugerland Express in its spoataneous populait possession, Peckinpah's thrust is darkly amarchic rather than humanizarian. Rubber Duck (Kris Kristofferson) has a long-running feud with the sheriff (Ermest Borgnine), a bribe-taking, trap-setting blight on the highway who likes nothing better than chawing truckers' ass. That he's bitten off more than be can chaw here becomes evident when he picks on a lack driver (Frankhem A insert).

and finds a full-scale and rings a ruis-scare slow-moston truck-stop brawl on his hands. Truckers, like The Wild Bunch — "we're not associated with anyone" — stick together like shit to a stick together like shit to a blanket. With Rubber Duck at the head, and the sheriff in Rustered pursuit, the convoy of trucks hightail it for the state line into New Mexico. News travels fast on CB radio, recruiting a massive column of motorised goodbuddies = "Ah'd plamb admire t join yuh, Rubbuh" — crashing the barriers and drumming up brass band welcomes in the townships. Plain folks detest regulations, regulate themselves.

themselves.

Higher authorities take a venal hand, but are unilaterally bumped to the rails because this is strictly between The Last Of The Breed. Borgnine doesn't hit it off with the FBI, doesn't not not with the Paya and Kristofferson can't abide the pragmatic State Governor who tries to climb on his bandwagon, and in the last analysis — well, nearly — it's down to the sheriff's machine and the unstrument. gun and the unstoppable Rubber Duck's cargo of explosives.

Coapoy is a stuntman's nightmare which makes for exhibit ating cinema. Mutual of Omaha would be mad to touch

Bob Herron who, doubling for Borgnine, skids a car off the tumpike, through a hoarding, across a barn roof and bellyflops into the shrubbery— and madder yet to extend Hearth and Home to any of the sunbaked hamlets that become omelettes under the 18-wheelers.

Scenes that linger include the sinister time-up of huffing

Scenes that larger include the sinister line-up of huffing pagernauts before the assault on the jailhouse, the dust trails during the chase, and the mechanised cavalry skyline at nightfall. Characterisation is a lot less detailed, confusing the flat for the epic.

The role of Ali McGraw, a choto-iournalist who hitches a

The role of Ali McGraw, a photo-journalist who hitches a ride, is intended as a sort of In-Tourist guide to regulate our opinion of the truckers' world. "Why do they atways follow you?" she asks Kristofferson, and gets a dusty answer: grassroots leaders simply ARE. Like the hero of Cuns In The Alternoon he intends to enter his house justified, even if that entails a pine box.

The movie lacks the terrifying Jacobean

the move cack the terrifying Jacobean imagination of his best work, but fills the vacuum with playful self-parody to conclud an Olympian laughter. Junior Bonnet.

Brian Casa

evident when he picks on a black driver (Franklyn Ajaye)

DOUG McCLURE (right) goes for the big one.

Warlords Of Atlantis

Directed by Kevin Connor Starring Doug McClure and Peter Gilmore

(EMI)

FiNE, UPIGHT lamily entertainment from the people who brought you The Land That Time Forgot and other equally low budget, sligh yield book of mounter funtany roungs.

While the plot is agalated to inclinde nach evergrees my frecist in the Bermunda Triangle, allems and a colourful, if dilaplated, city of Athania, the schian differs in huntry perspecific emisor to testal.

Which is, of course, of also into the Zanege, Changes and giant mutated squalds and ech, and gasp with relief us Doog NeCherr—playing the advanturous best dependable disdry digue—leads his charge of inhorn Virtuarian engineers and other inclinient types to an irely.

Resh-life daddles, measurable, with the able to find justilization to most for surrendering the Estanday afternoon in the sight on an eye.

Bram will have to make do with various adminstance of Cyd Charloc's legs, will insert of the ultrave to the day with various adminstance of conservation of the Vivia.

Paul Ramball

An Unmarried Woman

Directed by Paul Mazursky Starring Jill Clayburgh and Alan Bates

PAUL MAZURSKY creates PAUL MAZURSKY creates fairy takes for Sunday supplement readers. Bob and Carol and Ted and Alice documented the problems of wealthy Californian couples confronted with a large bed and therapy hang-ups, while An Unmarned Woman deals with the forced like. with the forced liberation of a woman whose husband deserts both her and her penthouse for a young girl. As with all Mazursky's films the dialogue is pointed.

performance noteworthy (in this case Jill Clayburgh as Erica), and there are topical quirks enough to lend the well-incled characters a castain conditions.

well-heeled characters a certain credibility — street realism for the golden slipper set. So why is An Unmarried Women infuriating?

Because when dealing with ecounter groups Mazursky also thakes a finger at the abundities of West Coast Union. arourances of west Coast trivin, yet here success depends on a willingness to suspend diabelief for total empathy with the main character and her gidded difficulties.

Erica does her anguish around the New York art scene, where she holds down a part time job. For fulfilment, you understand, not for money. Without sex for seven whole weeks — gosh — Erica is driven to see a shrink, paid for by hubby. The shrink (a poker-faced zombie rumoured to be Mazursky's own) tells her to get it on with just anybody. The fact that Jill Chayburgh is a decade women chant he decade younger than the middle-aged has been she is middle-agod has-been she is poortraying, and has an uncanny ability to simultaneously suffer and look radiant, means Erica is as popular as a startlet. Enter Alan Bates, hundbarnes samiling fangues handsome, sensitive, famous artist and a man of such outstanding wonderfulness, this is obviously Hollywood, not New York. Listen, I hung around those same Soho parties in a similar state to Erica's, but the only interesting artist there was a

Punk In London

Directed by Wolfgang

ON THE WAY to the ICA I tried to outline briefly to my n girlfriend about punk and the times we had. While she had wasted time in discos the whole of London was being alight! When I was 19 it was a very good year . . . The least said about this good year...

The least said about this numbingly dull piece of magic lansers the better for all. Shows on an ast tway size screen, Punk Im Lomdon appears to last abous Jose days when in fact. I'm assured it was only 90 minutes. The 'sound' is in minutes, but he was not you stain through your soumpes it's only suff like." Well, er, the, er, reason for punk nock being so great is that it's political, and before punk came along nobody had ever thought about singing political songs..." (ex Lunker Arturo Bassick).
Take no notice of the hand out because there is no Pistols or Clash, nor is there any Buzzeceks or Roxy Club shots (cept exterior). However there is not all through Comments.

Buzzeocks or Rosy Club shots (expe exterior), However there is lots of Wayne County, Chelsea, Miles Copeland, Kilipoys, Alan Edwards and the manager of the Marquee. Lots of people got up and left before they too grew a beak and feathers and those who stayed (mainly hard core punks in full dress) felt premy daft when the lights came up.

Danny Baker

52-year-old unemployed signpainter. However, after two meetings, Mr Yummy wants to live in but Erica prefers to be in love. He creaters emerging slobs of creates expensive globs of pointed canvas; she scrambles eggs.

Life has a new meaning.
Am I jealous? You betcha, honey. I'll trude my triumphs for Erica's kind of suffering any day. Martha Ellen Zenfall

MARTIN MULL in FM, bemused by BRENDA's VENUS

Directed by John A Alonzo (CIC)

FM CONTAINS the perm of a good idea, a progressive Los Angeles radio station flighting to retain its integrity against the sore odds of commercialism and advertiser's greed. But germs spread diseases and the film soon falls foul of the ille is and the film soon falls foul of the ills is attempts to expose. The plot, the dialogue and the cast of weeky' Americans are movely another symptom of the rampant psychobabble jank which constitutes the average American's latefligence quota. The tabric has been built than a Walt Dinney weepy and the piling on of melodramatic tab-plots (the fading ver jock, the breathy mother symbol DF who quits for good them returns to fight the good light, the stereotype what it is spade) finally proves so incling in reality that any serious point is foot amidst the walking of anticase rispbervies. The real selling angle of the film is the surgle. But hold on—ande from the title song (Steely Dam), and two in-concert appearances by Linda Rousiadt (awful as usual) and Jimmy Buffett (see Roustadt), the much heraided Romanity, the much heralded cast of star minten is an nineightly con, their times featuring only as background drone. Tom Petty fones much credibility for appearing in the flesh, particularly as we've read about this supposed disilite of the LA coke smoothles. In John Alburo's version of America, namy licutemans twice flucts SE Asian and the policemen don't shoot on sight. The cast divides into goodles and baddies until finally the station boat turns up goodles and badmer uses finally the station boas turns up on his white horse to restore a on his white bosse to restore a waytherd ulcrams.

FM is worse than escaphet.

Shot on a shoestring — the only set is the finale of QSKV (nootic: "We serve come down to earth") — the film heralfs the bundlent cheapening of the movie industry with solled rock and roll backs.

Dig this — lev Azoff ; management until polls in

Dig this — lev Azoff's management untils pulls in visyl appearances from the Eagles, Walsh, the Dam, Senga and Petty (probably a few more, ton). Don't see this illm and give these people your money, they selther need nor deserve it.

If you must to have your deterve ir.

If you want to have your tatelligence inmulted there are chaper ways than sitting through this exeruciating mean

Mon Ball

In 4-track stereo and colour.

Artificial Eye are pleased announce the opening date of Written & Directed By Bob Dylan

Opening Thursday 7th September

at the CAMBEN PLAZA

2)) Camden High Street NWI 485 2443

The ultimate road movie, in its four hours, in 4-track stereo, it covers Dylan's background as a poet/singer, his fight for minority causes in USA, gives a frank look at his private life, and features many of his most famous. songs - all reflected through the travellings of the 1976
Rolling Thundet Revue There has never been a film

Starring Bob Dylan and Joan Baez

with Sara Dylan, Ronce Blakley, Allen Ginsberg, Rubin Carles, Mick Ronson, Harry Dean Stanton, Bob Neuwirlh, David Blue, Arlo Guthrie, Roger McGuinn, Scarlet Rivera and many others.

47 songs
Songs ming by Bob Dylan in the film. When I Paint My Masterpiece lists A Hard Rains A Contra Fail People Get Ready I Want You in Aunt Me Babe Knockin On Heaven's Door Humicane She Belongs To Me in Takes A Lot To Laugh it Takes a Train to Cry If You See Her Say Helto Romance in Durating One Too Marry Mortangs One More Cup of Coffee Sala Party's Gone To Laredo Never Let Me Go Sad-Eyed Lady of the Lowlands Tangled Up in Blue Just Like a Woman Songs sang by Joan Baez in the film Suzanne Diamonius and Rust

Advance Booking Form Postal bookings now available performances from Thursday

7th September Tickets £250 (all seats) Performances twice daily at 250 and 730 pm

To Camden Plaza Cinema 2) Camden High Street Undon NWI

18 x Offices

Book now for the complete and original version (4 hours) of Bob Dylan's own movie starting the musicions on the Rolling Thunder Revue Tour.

Please send me ticket(s) for Renaldo & Clara as follows Office Use On Time Date 2nd choice 3rd choice

Note: Ticklets cannot be booked more than I month in advanc-Prefor from middle/back seat stalls Tenclose a cheque-crossed postal order for £ tmack-out to Authoral Eye) plus a Stamped Addressed Envelope

Address Personal Bookings Tackets will be available from the Camden Plaza from Priday 25th August during opening hours

Montreux and Middlesbrough and all that jazz!

September's issue reports on Europe's major jazz festivals. From Montreux, traditionally Europe's most important jezz event, from Middlesbrough's first jazz festival and from the Blues Festival featuring Buddy Guy, Junior Wells and the Chicago Blues All Stars. Plus interviews with Annette Peacock, Carla Blay, Joe Tax and Jamaica's top reggae group Culture — plus a chance to win one of twelve prizes in a great disco competition because there's more to inzz then meets the ear

These Shoes Were Made For - -

whether it's apprehension or excitement that's making me so jumpy, I step off the bus and tag onto the tail end of the leather coats in the queue.

A cruising police car, probably on the lookout to make up their night quota, gives the kids something to talk about everybody has a story to tell about the police each more fantastic and unbelievable than the one before.

fantastic and unbelievable than the one before.

It's 11, 30pm and the doors don't open till midnight. The young hopefuls in front of me can't be more than 12 or 13. They make me feel old as Hades, which makes me think that perhaps this sin't such a good idea after all. In fact I'm not even sure what I'm doing here. Come to that I'm not sure what anybody else is doing here either. For my part I suppose I could port it down to nostalgia — though that wouldn't be strictly true — but what the hell have 12 year old anots got to be nostalgic about?

Kay Gee-Bee, Sheffield? Yeah well, when I was a regular Northern Soul freak this want't even a venue.

I remember when I was a kid, younger than them, eight maybe nine. On Sunday afternoons in summer we'd invariably be playing football in the park — football was extremely important to me then as I'd fairly well made my mind up to turn professional whea I quit school — and at some stage in the afternoon, the game would come to a temporary haft as one or other of us picked up on the high, rattling buzz coming up the hill from the main road and pass the wordround.

Almost immediately the first scoot round.

Almost immediately the first scoot would tip the crest and hone into focus. They were Lammis mostly, though the real hard-core rode Vespas, mirrors everywhere, it seemed, and tank acrials with small triangular flags, no crash helmets and some with back rests supporting the most beautiful girls anywhere ever. They would pass us by in one circuit, laid back and cook sare, then cut their engines and cool their heels at the park gates, amoothing their expensive haircutts and maybe poliahing the dirt off their polaroids. We would'continue our game, playing harder off their polaroids. We would continue our game, playing harder than ever, showing off no doubt. Some of them lived on the same estate as me. A couple were my friends older brother, which made me crazy jealous or account of hose they'd count made they do not have been added to and down the front of the park and talk knowingly of their bothers' sould music, which meant exactly costinue. knowingly of their buddings and longing in music, which meant exactly nothing to me then. I didn't know what this soul music thing was, but I was pretty sure they didn't play it on the radio—and I didn't have a record player in those days.

After Dennis Law and Jimmy Greaves those boys on their shiny motor scooters were the absolute to me. As far as I was concerned they were the sharpest, coolest, most in control cats on planet Earth. And I don't think I believed in God. . . .

BLL. THE FIRST wave of kids are in and the evening's first jock is spinning a clutch of newise — at least they're new one on me but, there again, it's been five maybe six years since I saw the insulation of a Northern Soul club.

mayor as years since I saw ite insue of a Northern Soul club.

The usual type of place this — big, well-sprang dancefloor, tables and chairs, all functional rather than decorative around three sides of the floor, a couple of outsize helicopter fans hung from the low ceiling and minimal lighting.

There's a low, abaky-looking stage at the bottom end of the room on which the jocks do their thing.

Off to the right of the stage there's a small room with a lunch counter peddling soft refreshment. I hang out here for a while drinking hot chocolate. Soon a young guy with a now-you-see-me, now-you-don't moustache and a green Fred Perty cooccuste. Soots a young guy with a now-you-scon't moustache and a green Fred Perry a while. He is maybe 16 or 17 and he thinks I'm a new face. This makes me

A couple of years later my A couple of years later my fact that the couple of years later my fact the couple of years later my fact that the couple of the ince routines, both fantastic and rkward. Weekends we'd out off to the youth club dance, though in reality it was the girls who did all the dancing. We would just sit around and watch, sipping Cokes or coffee and smoking under-age cigarettes, transcally trying to look at least five years older than we actually were. The only work-outs we'd eyer do to musicin public was done be sholler than white the product of the prod circles like madmen patil we were dog

Eventually, when we were old enough, we started banging out in real soul clubs where we got to actually

JOHN W HAMBLETT in search of the Soul of the North put some of the secret dance training into operation on genuine dance floors. Of course, by this time the mode had all but feded from the secne mods had all but faded from the scene completely. Their music lived on, I suppose, through us though I can't claim that we were ever aware of uphotding any kind of tradition, honourable or otherwise. I mean, it wasn't anything no conscious as that, it wasn't anything no conscious as that, it was simply the most unatoppable dance music ever. I'm not even sure where the mod scene faded out and Northern Soul 100k over — as far as we were concerned we just grew into a pair of shoes somebody else grew out of

ALK IS THAT some of the kids are going on to the Cleethorpes Winter Gardens for the All Dayer straight from here. I kind of semi-toy with the idea of making the trip myself, but I know it's not really on. I haven't put the right kind of preparation in, have I? Come home trom work Friday night, straight to bed, get up Saturday dinner time for something to eat and back to bed, up again and out for a drink then on the nighter, a two or three hour travelling preak and then anything up to a 12 hour stretch at a dayer. No, I haven't put that kind of preparation in. Still, Cleethorpes Winter Cardens, I remember some times at that place. I find myself an empty chair and prop my feet up on a pile of hold-alls and pick up a waste gumjar off the table to my immediate right. And I think to myself that if there's no speed about, as I'd been told earlier, how come all these goddam jam jars about the place with waste gum labels stuck on them?

That's when I spot the 'moustache' and more. Feed Perry making for my on them?

That's when I spot the 'moustache' and green Fred Perry making for my space. After talking around the subject for a couple of minutes he comes across and tells me he's in fact a dealer. This strikes with as lunny to say the least of it there is had no hour ago he was ground of this ableaty fancet about how everybody thought Northern Spul was all about drugs and that simply wear's horting much about, but he can lay his hands on a few challess if feel so inclined, but I say than's okay because I've brought a little something along to cover emergencies.

I've brought a titte sometting along to cover emergencies.
... At the time I don't remember making a conscious split between North and South in musical terms, atthough I recall we used to feel incappressibly superior to the rest of she kids on our entire who used to the kids on our estate who used to watch Top Of The Pops every week with a religious fervour and only buy with a religious fervour and only buy chart singles.

I guess I just took it for granted that the southern youth had a comparative soul scene of their own. This was 1970/71 and the music we were dancing to was the early 60's sout of the mods, plus a lot of Tamla and no quite so many purpose-built new titles. The music had to be soul and it had to be at heart medium, need.

quite so many purpose-out new titles. The music had to be soul and it had to be at least medium-paced, preferably fast; slow cut precisely no ice at all with us.

The mods had had their clothes and we had ours, tailored to be functional rather than aesthetic. Our force was dancing and music, so clothes and venue were all adopted and adapted to raise the plane of dancing still higher. We didn't have be rose as such, not among musicians anyway. With a few notable exceptions, an arrist would have one or two Northern hits and fade never to be heard of again. Hell, if you showed me a picture of Major Lance even today (and he was one of the notable exceptions) I wouldn't recognise him...

OUND ABOUT THREE o'clock the kids who've been dancing oon-stop since midnight begin to flag a liftle and that's when the real aces take to the midnight begin to flag a little and that's when the real aces take to the floor.

Styles vary. The guys who've been strutting since the early days seem to be more restrained and in control, but that's just the 'good old days syndrome' showing up. The youngbloods go through more athletic routines more spins, splits and backdrops — very flash, very clever, but not as graceful somehow. They'll get older too eventually.

Meanwhite the jock is making a big his with me playing some of THE most sonsational soul sounds — guittering divine inspirations like Saxy Russell's wailing "Psychedelic Soul" and Sly's "Dance To The Music", so figure it's imperative that I sashay over and have a talk with him. Derek Sheldon is his name and he's a veteran from the Mojo days. He seems to think the Northern scene is taking a turn for the worse, teckning the kids will dance to anything these days as long as it's fast enough.

To demonstrate his point be puts on a current Kay Gee-Bec favourite, "Wait A Minute" by Tim Tam And The Turn Ons. It sounds like a Beach Boys outtake from 1965, but before the intre has played out the dance loar it micked solid and shere is some limits, with the prefix of his think that just so long aster is people are willing to ahake a tail feather to timeless things like Wynder K Frogg's version of "Green Door" and Dobie's "Out On The Floor" we can afford to put up with dross like Wet Turd And The Turn Offs.

By this time there's condensation on the mirrors, on the walls, hanging in droplets from the ceiling — there's even condensation on the backs of chairs. You sweat like a stuffed pig just sitting still.

Continues over page

Soul Of The North Continued

From previous page

All of a sudden I get an All of a student iget an over-powering urge to sample a cooler atmosphere, so I weave my way over to the foyer where action of a less freazied nature is going down. A record bar has been set here will be hide on hungrily. and the kids are hungrily flicking through records virtually unobtainable at straight record shops.

The very least they can expect to pay is probably 90p, though the average price for a relatively obtainable 45 is somewhere between £1.25 and £1.50. Of course, if your're a deejay then you have to be prepared to come up with the heavy duty goods and for those, according to Derek Sheldon, you have to be prepared to pay anything up to £200 per item. But generally, for the moderately rare jobs it's more like a £40 or £50 touch.

touch.

A true story — this gay, a dedicated Northern Soul freak, bought himself a single called "7 Day Lover" by some cat called 8000 somebody or other — can't remember his second name — and for this little gem he paid the princely sum of £180 sterling. The very next day it was re-issued on general release for £1.25. Mind you, he wann't unduly concerned at this turn of events since he did have an original label copy, and that's what counts.

counts.

And to think, I grew out of all this myself once, or at least I thought I had at the time. Grew my hair long and started wearing denim shirts and long traily scarves round my neck and saying things like "Farout, man", listening to The Rolling Stones and Led Zeppelin, smoking dope instead of dropping blues, Why, I even stopped dancing, started going to straight rock concerts and walking round the place with a serious expression on my face, even working up more than my fair share of righteous indignation at major wrongs that had to be righted IMMEDIATELY. And I didn't want to be a footballer anymore either. apymore either .

rods on regardless and it gets to be 5 o'clock turned and there's commtosed bodies all over the shop, a trip to the toilet is a major operation, a constant chorus of "Excuse me, cops, do you think I could just?" The foyer looks like the departure lounge at Froddy Laker's air terminal, in the toilet bowl floats an empty plastic pill bottle and I try and sink it with a stream of pies. You do fromy things at 5.30 in the morning.

Again I wonder how I'm going to make it through to 9

Again I wonder how I'm going to make it through to 9 o'clock, but somehow I know I will because the jock has just put on a rocord I can't resist and it's back out on the floor, energy coming from Christ knows where. And again I wonder just what the hell I'm doing here, what everyhody doing here, what everybody else is doing here, and what are they doing at the Casino and the Coatville, the Central, Nottingham, Blackpool—where are alf these bands they're supposed to be they're supposed to be forming?

Aren't they at all concerned with the socio-political implications inherent in this situation? What about the working class ethic, street level credibility, hanging out on street corners. Sex, violence, anarchy? No, no, no all they want to do is dance, dance, dance, dance.

At around about 6 o'clock people who have been asleep are more or less waking up and there's a pleasant and nacer's a present and refreshing smell of baby powder in the air as people dip into their badge-spattered hold-alls and fish out clean t-ahirts.

Can you imagine waking up in the corner of some stronger

Can you imagine waking up in the corner of some strange room that looks like a hassily converted bomb shelter with Taj Mahal's "Too Much Of Anything," playing at you loud as a tank attack — not only waking up to it, but feeling compelled to get up and dance to it almost as a matter of homeour?

honour?
This is when the real "Wiped out where did I go wrong and what have I done to deserve this?" paranois sweeps over me. But it's only a passing phase and, as I look around at all the smiling faces and dancing figures, I realise that at no other musical happening of any kind have I ever relet so completely at home. Were it not for the fact that virtually everybody in the place is a stranger to me then this could be my 15th birthday party.

OR A WHILE I was thinking of walking around asking people if they'd seen Joe Strummer or Jimmy Pursey lately, just for Jimmy Pursey lately, just for leughs. I mean you've got to put things in their proper perspective. There are thousands of kids in the North of England (and I'm not counting rouries) who attend Northern Soul gigs every week of the year, year in year out and to them Jimmy Pursey, Joe Strammer or any other of the contempory young men about London Town mean absolutely nothing, they aren't even faces in the paper because they don't read those kind of papers (as incredible as that may sound to incredible as that may sound to in these kids' reality Sham and Clash aren't even a speck on an approaching horizon, they simply don't exist. These people don't want to hear they amply don't want to hear songs about breaking out of Borsial, police violence or machine guns in Knightsbridge (I'd be withing to gamble that most of them don't even know where Knightsbridge is). All they want is to be left in peace to go to work on Monday to Friday and spend every weekend, the whole 46 hours if possible, dancing to the music they love, and they've done so as long as I can remember and will continue to do so long after this is nothing more than a vehicle for badly cooked fish and chip suppers.

a vehicle for badly cooked fish and chip suppers. Look, I'm not about to suggest that these kids have got the solution to anybody's problems and it's not the future of rock and roll, it's not future of anything, it's just down to a bunch of kids from the North (and you can make all the jokes you like about thait), and dancing is their karms and their culture and they're living out both the best way they can. Through all the custical trends and fads they've unical trends and fads they're living out both the best may they can. Through all the custical trends and fads they've I can't see anything changing fisem now.

As it happens I didn't make it through to the magic hour.
At 8.30 a sudden and undeniable lust to breathe undeniable lust to breathe fresh air his me and I picked my way over to the hat check girl to collect my bag and coat. Gingerly up the steps, trying not to step on anyone's face, I made the door. The sunlight im eat about eye level and only then do I remember that I forget my whose:

only then do I remember that I forgot my shades.
You go in at midnight and everything is pitch black, broken up by street lights and the reflections from closed shop windows, and the only people you see are the occasional drunk and the odd cruisins senuel car.

occasional grant and the odd crussing squad car.
You come out and the early morning sun makes everything too sharp and clear for comfort, and the only people you see are the milkroan, the occasional readsweeper or a fisherman looking for a river. Makes me feel like a Time Lord. Wish I'd remembered my shades though.

LIBUMS

DAVE EDMUNDS Trax On Wax (Swan Song)

EVERYBODY'S FAVOURITE oult an even bigger cult than Nick Lowe, his erstwhile companion in the reversible Rockpile — is the little Welsh rock'n'roller, Dave Edmunds. Edmunds is such an all round nice guy and perennial gifted loser it almost hurts. How one man can have so many credentials and yet, with one or two exceptions, so consistently fail to cash in on them is one of the mysteries of our time.

mysteries of our time.
Mind you, the spotlight-sidestepping Edmunds can be said to be his own worst enemy in this respect. It's well known which guest would fail to show should they throw a show should they throw a coming out party for Dave Edmunds . . . But maybe I'm fussing over a trivial point. After all, three years ago the avid Edmundophile had to make do with the odd production credit slipping out unheralded on some wacky, long-shot single perpetrated by one or other member of the pubrock mafia. The Rockfield recluse was meanwhile engrossed with his neanwhile engrossed with his successful though perhaps finally futile attempts at uncannily recreating the sound uncannily recreating the sound of a '50s Chess or Sun record or an early Brian Wilson construction, utilising the full armament of modern studio technology.

Since his Love Sculpture fastest-guitar-in-The-West days, Edmunds has spent more time in the rock classroom on his processing the statement of the stateme time in the rock classroom on his singular quest than probably anyone ette, pausing only to tess out an unjustly himbo-destined album in "Subtle As A Flying Mallet" plus the occasional million-selling single — just to keep the legend on ice.

Thus it's frustrating to note that the reasissance that began in '76 at an impromptul Hope & Anchor gig with fellow remissance men Nick Lowe Anchor gig with fellow renaissance men Nick Lowe reunissance men Nick Lowe and Ian Dury hasn't delivered the string of smash 45s I for one had my fingers crossed for. And as Edmunds himself bemoans here on a pliant country-rock (stand down, Eagles, and take a posthemous bow. Gram Partsons) dirry, what's the use of being "A1 On The Jukebox" and nowhere on the charts?

A rhetorical question, of course. Because even if we can't have them all the time, can t have them as the time, the charts won't erode the juke-box, which is in fact what this album closely resembles— except it doesn't take up so much space and it's a good deal change.

"Heart Of The City" from Nick Lowe's album with Lowe's vocal wiped off and Edmands dubbed on. Each one bristles predictably with echoes of a select pantheon of rock'n'roll greats, plus a few lesser-known influences. There are hours of fun to be had from leading this stuff — for instance are hours of fun to be had from tracing this stuff — for instance the Carl Perkins swipes, the letter-perfect Eddie Cochran intro to "Trouble Boys", the "Peggy Sue" ramblings of "Deborah" — let alone simply enjoying it for what it is. Because maybe "influence" is just a polite, handy term for the relationship between Edmunds and his source

Dave Edmunds — guitar by Gibson, cider by Bulmers and carpet by some old Persian or other . . .

Portait Of The Artist As A Cider Drinker

material. This music is like a material. This music is like a capsule history lesson from a jivin' teacher, yet it also transcends the narrow confines of that description, something which the painstakingly crafted "Get It" failed to do. Listening and the confines of the confine which the painstakingly crafted "Get It" failed to do. Listening and at the second confine which t

"Get It" failed to do. Listening to "Get It" was like strolling through a museum. Listening to "Trax On Wax" is like having a burndance in one. The reasons are simple. They have no small connection with the general toosening-up that has come from recording with a working band (Rockpile) and substituting the rough edges of a hot performance for the 36-track, eight-week, wall-of-Edmunds eight-week, wall-of-Edmunds epics. They have even more to do with the choice of songs. Instead of relying on traditional material, a trenchant choice of equally trenchant new songs in a traditional vein has been made — an album's worth of "I Knew The Bride", if you will.

—an album's worth of "I Knew The Bride", if you will. Crackling wit courtesy more often than not the pen of Nick Lowe, and delicious ironies courtesy the impriration of country singer George Jones, jump out from every verse. Only defective facial muscles could prevent the wry observations contained in "Trouble Boys", "Never Ben In Love", "Television", "Readers Wives" (sent in by Noel Brown of the late, lamentable Tooting Fruities) and Chuck Berry's vitriolis, post-jail spell "It's My Own Business," from raising a smile But speaking of Berry, it seems that Lowe and Edmunds have together come up with a modern-day edition of that man's fitted — with Lowe providing the humour and Edmunds the guitar solor. Or maybe what they really

Or maybe want trey treaty are is just a souzy, cynical version of The Everly Brothers. Whichever way you figure it this is wax worth making tracks for. Paul Ramball

JOANNE MACKELL Joanne Mackell (United Artists) Artists
POOR JOANNE Mackell!
Splashed across the music press, compared in a ludicrous press release to the Voice of God, flown in specially for a one-off liggers' gig and generally hyped to Timbukto and back — with promotion like that, who needs enemies? Parting the Red Sea would have been an anti-climax, but all she does is write and sing a pleasant bunch of lightweight pleasant bunch of tightweight rock songs.

Rather than God, her gruff busky drawl is reminiscent of Jaki Whitren, though she does have more inclination to rock and roll. Nevertheless, this is a and roil. revertneess, this as a surprisingly restrained album, Once or twice there's just a hint of early Tom Waits in her slow, easy tunes and weary constanticism. Then there's a recognisable Dylanish cho to "Ain't About To Love You", a counte of soncellar mid-terrero couple of appealing mid-tempo rockers and adequate versions of "Fire Down Below" and "Dr Feelgood".

Her lyrics, like bor music, display largely negative virtues. The album isn't wordy, or pretentious, and it's certainly not over-produced. But neither does it have the bite and sparkle necessary to entiven its basic plainners. It'd be interesting to hear Joanne Mackell with a rougher rock band than this — The Rumour, say — but before that she'll have to decide whether she wants to be a singer/songwriter or a rocker of the early Maggie Bell like. She straddles the two with limited success on this adourn, but isn't entirely convincing on either. Her lyrics, like ber music, convincing on either.

If United Artists give her time to develop, she could be very good. The odds must be about 1000-1.

THE POP The Pop (Automatic Import)

TOO BAD that a plethore of TOO BAD that a plethors of interesting vinyl emanting from hidden American corners is bedevilled by insular marketing and local coerie notoriety. The Pop carved their way out of El Lay with two enigmatic singles but whet the blade with this.

A monophilit offset by dire two enigmatic singles but whet the blade with this.

A monolith, offset by dire production (the rhythm section could have been recorded in a canning factory) and uncertain direction, it has unbelievievably potent moments, when it's bad it is very bad, with panache.

The Pop possesses two vocalists out of the Roky Erickson and Sky Saxon cave in David Swanson and Roger Prescott, a three stabbing guitar attack and dangerous vision.

"Animal Eyes" is pure Thirteenth Floor Elevators psychodeic junk, a masterpiece of garage psychosis taken to ledicrous extremes by its messy ending. masterpiece of garage psychois taken to Iudicrous extremes by its messy ending. That punch applied throughout would have made The Pop this year's severed brain band. Blood from another vein trans through "You Oughta Know", beautiful chiming runs paced at full tilt and they extract lush effects for the neo-bubblegum melodrama of "Walk In The Rain", one of the afbum's trio of classics and a pain-drenched dirge oozing crotic overtones of The Night Porter.

The deciding factor in Prescott and Swanson's claim to potential greatness comes to potential greatness comes from "Saturday Night Hitch Hiker", which details a sexual liaison on the highway with perverse relish. An infinity of ecstatic magic. American puals personified.

And now for the bad news: a personified. And now for the bad news: a boring re-make of the Kinks "I Need You" and an off-target jibe called "Ad Man" atmost redeemed by applying Fistols cliches to a nearly supersonic space bridge — only the Santos Sisters ever did this right, and that was in 1968. Meanwhile, best of the worst. "Leather And Lace" is equal to its tacky title by virtue of Twilley-eaque sensibility but has no single hook.

This group's future is determined by their ability to determined by their abulty it reproduce the genetic distortion of Roky's San Antonio warp. The competitive spirit of West Coast violence must look to bands of The Pop ilk for sustenance. For their sometimes traved forceing sometimes crazed ferocity I put my money on The Pop to tast the course. Maybe they should change their name to The Weasels.

LEO SAYER Leo Saver (Chrysalis)

THIS ALBUM marks Leo Sayer's attempt to refurbish his commercial viability — bence
the title, or rather lack of it.
In the wake of "Fleetwood Mac" there have been many who bithety assume that the amulet of an eponymous title is enough to service fame and who blithely assume that the amulet of an epolymous title is enough to revive fame and flagging fortunes. What Sayer seems to have overlooked is that F. Mac actually had a bunch of good songs, as well as an uncommon West Coast vitality; all "Leo Sayer" contains is doleful songs, mostly melodically uninspired and lyrically insipid.

It all marks a sad decline for Sayer, and proves ngain—if further proof were needed—that making albums in Los Angeles in not recommended to anyone who can possibly mange to make them anywhere else. As well as guests like Lindsay Buckingham and Davey Johnstone, most of the regular L.A. sessioneers have been mustered here, though not necessarily awakened.

Richard Perry produces rather like Ken Russell directed his Wordsworth film—trying hard to be straightforward and shed extravagances; the result is dispassionate professionalism. There's no boldness here. At ali.

Though several of the songs ali.

Though several of the songs were composed by Sayer and Tom Snow, other non-originals include "Dancing The Night Away", which comes from the Amazing Rhythm Aces "Too Stuffed To Junpo" (and which pre-dates The Melotors); it's easily the best out. There's also Andy Fairweather-Low's "La Booga Rooga", and "Something Fine"; from Jackson Browne's debut album. But ali Sayer's versions lack flair. album. But all Sayer's vers lack flair. I seem to remember that I seem to remember that "wallpaper music" was a term coined a decade ago by John Peel to describe the standard airwave pop from which newly-emergent "rock" was trying to differentiate itself. Albums like this make it clear that the distinction has now been reversed.

Bob Wolfinden

GATO BARBIERI

I'VE TOO much respect for Gato Barbieri — if only from his work with the Jazz Composers Orchestus — to quickly stamp this, as temptation urges, 'insipid muzak'. Simply, his gripping command and control of the command and control of the tenor sax negates such a wicked dismissal.

But "Tropico" does little for that respect. As his music, by instinct or intent, dropped on to the pathways of 70s popular music, particularly Latin and soul, Barbiert quickly captured and mastered its purer moments but got lost amongst its inviting accessibility and easiness. His head was turned.

Soston and big bird — these colonials, always stating the obvious

TOO PLUMP TO JUMP?

BOSTON Don't Look Back (Epic)

IN JUST one album Boston have gone from grandeur to blandeur, from self-confident artistry to a dithering self-parody.

self-parody.

Tom Scholts, the band's creator, has long delayed releasing this new set became he thought fisered be people lunking in the bushes, easily to attack. He was right, of course, but he's worked to hard at protecting his music that much of its breakens has been lost.

Boston's debut affoum was one of the all-time hig sollers. Six million maits. Sextuagle platinum, in the parliance of the trade. Scholts was pretty musch responsible for the band's entire success. The key songs were all his. He wrote, arranged and produced them. The band only went on tour after they were a smash.

and produced them. The band only went on tom after they were as mash.

Some cycles would say that the juggernaut rode on the back of one song "More Than A Feeling". An obviously huge hit single from the outset, it want unrivalled on the album. But that debut had a lot of style, Scholz, who previously worked for Polaroid, was accused of putting together a montage of other people's success formulae.

This was only partly true. You could hear, for example, a note perfect Emerson, Lake and Palmer peritche on one truck, and many other influences were readily detected. Scholz, however, had created a distinctive biend of woods and guitarn that carried the weight of even vocals and guitars that carried the weight of even the draggiest tune. He also had a sound sense of drams, as "Meee Than A Feeling" clearly showed, it was all a lot to live up to. On the evidence of this new album, far too stuch. One problem, of course, was that Scholt had 20 years to work on his debut, and two for his second album. That was a talking point even before this set was released. The principal thing that's lacking this time in tumpiration, and so amount of expensive high-technology studio work can disguise it. The title truck is no doubt meant to be the new monster, hat its methody and chorus simply aren't up to scratch. In common with other trucks, it's as smoothly rendered, it just alls its way past you, unless you concentrate really hard.

The only time the album grabs your attention just this its way past you, unders you concentrate really hard.

The only time the album grabs your attention and holds it is on a cut called "Party", which is evidently meant to be a Cappella retread, but never quite has the substance to make it. Elsewhere, there are some Floydian electronic bubblings on a brief instrumental called "The Journey", and they're nicely arranged, but somewhat soportific.

As for the side two opener "Feelin' Satisfied", a better title would have been "Feelin' Complacent". The song's an instant compenditum of American hard rock clickes. No doubt this album will sell several million caples on the strength of its predecessor, but there's frankly no thing here that "new enough to warrant a five quid tavestment.

It's a small personal tragedy for Scholz, who evidently takes his awaie butenachy seriously. Still, there must be plenty of connolations for a guy in his position. Maybe the ment time be could put out some deem tracks instead of drowning hismosti to overdube.

Bob Edmands

Bob Edmands

Barbieri's sax playing is not in question, though this record hardly holds his best. What surrounds it is. If you can mentally strip away the hornendously canned rhythms, strings and vocals, then place a real fiery'n'funky rhythm alongiside his climbing, effortlessly melodic sax work, it's a better groove. "Evil Eyes", which moves closest to this ideal, almost proves it. In consciously straining for sophistication' and 'sensuality'. Barbieri and company destroy any real company destroy any real chance of radically attaining same. Everything is contrived, planned out, still. For a master of emotion this is lamentable. Indeed, Barbieri is so far out of Poul Morley

KOKO TAYLOR The Earthshaker (Sones) ROOSEVELT CHARLES Mean Trouble Blues (Vanguard)

TWO ALBUMS which represent two extremes of the bloes. "The Earthshaker"

"The Earthshaker" represents a triumphant return to form by the magnificent Koko Taylor, whose recent Sonet album "I Got What it Takes" came as something of a disappointment after the two

Chess albums "Koto Taylor" and "Basic Soul."

Everyone struck by the disparity between Etta James' raucous, bluesy, high-energy live show and her somewhat overpolite and MOR oriented album on Warners should check out "The Earthshaker."
Taylor isn't remotely the singer that Etta is (who could be?) but she's got power, soul and the right instincts: backed up by a fine Chicago blues band, she puts on record that kind of stuff that Etta delivers live. Standouts: a devastating "Let The Good Times Roll", a recut "Wang Dang Doodde" (she's the only performer I can think of who could take one of Howlin' Wolf's greatest songs away from him) and "I'm A, Wosnan", a ferminisation of the "Mannish Boy" that Muddy cut to open up the "Hard Again" album last year. And back at the roots, Processite Charles was and

Roosevelt Charles was — at the time of this recording in 1900 — serving life in Angola for nurder. Sentenced in 1937, Charles' music is field hollers, hymns, spirituals and the rawest of country blues. An extraordinary and deeply affecting album, it's unthesistatingly recommended to anyone who wishes to follow black American music a little further back. "Mean Trouble Blues" is folk music in its literal sense: a preservation of an all but vanished cultural heritage, and music performed not because Roosevelt Charles was - at music performed not because there's a demand for it, or even there's a demand for it, or even because that's what its creator feels like doing. It's music that exists because it has to. Charles Shaur Murray

JOHN PRINE Bruised Orange (Asylum)

PRODUCED BY middle-weight New York singer-songwriter Steve Goodman, whose own work is also distinguished by its humour, "Bruised Orange" is an attempt to sell Prine to a wider audience.
Indeed, by all accounts a great edmirer of Prine, Goodman hasn't submerged
the man in the process; Prine's folk, country and blues roots are still plain to see. However, only the bizarre combination of Prine and co-writer Phil Spector pushes the album into the pop rock mainstream, their
"II You Don't Want My Love" being really the only song here that could fit neathy into an FM radio schedule.
Elsewhere, Prine's tunes, are he kind of thise use."!! I first in-radio schedule. Elsewhere, Prine's tunes are the kind of thing you'll find in folk clubs on either side of the Atlantic. Likeable enough, often helped by the punchy production and inspired instrumentation, the materiel rarely scratches below the skin.

Steve Clarke

THE CHIEFTAINS Cheifiains 7 (CBS)

GRAND TO see Paddy

Cheiptains / (CBS)

GRAND TO see Paddy

Moloney's merry ministrels swinging into action again on this, their first on CBS.

Despite rumours of personnel changes, "Chieftains
7" still features your essential Irish group, and mighty fine they sound too. I just don't think it's physically possible for them to come up with a bad album, although maybe their latest could be criticised in certain quarters for 'lack of development' or a failure to experiment.

The whole album slots together like a polished
symphony, exuding verve, technical proficiency and an absolute deight at the pleasure of simply playing the traditional music they so obviously love. As ever, it's a pleasure to hear as well.

Petrick Humphries

IMPORTS

'MASTERPIECES' (CBS/Sony), the Dylan treble-album mentioned in this column some weeks materialised.

The pockaging is superb—great sleeve shots plus a poster of pics snapped during The Zee's last Far Eastern rickshaw ride, and a book of lyrics while the 39 tracks that while the 39 tracks that comprise the set are not without interest to collectors, side four containing the live-in-Liverpool cut of "Just Like Tom Thumb's Blues", the version of "Positively 4th Street" that turned up on the "More Greatest Hits" album, the take of "Spanish Is The Loving Tongue" that became the 'B' side of "Watching The River Flow" and the versions of "Can I Please Craw Out Of Your Window" and "Mixed Up Confusions" that I mentioned recently.

Your Window" and "Mixed Up Confusions" that I mentioned recently. The last named is particularly interesting in that it illustrates that Dyfan was working with a band as early as 1963. "Masterpieces" is an okay, if expensive, acquisition theo — but if you want a copy, make your bid with some alacrity as the set is strictly a limited edition job! Virgin of Marble Arch are really providing gasp-category material these day. Latest on the non-stop, olde but goody conveyor belt from the U.S. is a 1972 "Current Audio Magazine — No. 1" (Current) had includes interviews with Ehris, Teddy Kemedy and Misch Jagger; a discourse on Manson provided by Ed Sandera ("Manson will break out — no doubt about it"); a report on a drug maid by the Federal Ruseau of Naccotics in Samueras (Manueras Andreas And care. Mention of E4 Sanders ceninds me that Virgin are also stocking copies of "The Fugs" (ESP), plus Yester and Henake" Farewell Alderbaran" (Straight), Jeff Sinnnons" "Lucille Has Messed My Mind Up" (Straight), Hendrix s "War Heroes" Warrier), Question Marit's "96 Tears" (Canseo), The Royal Guardamen's "Snoopy For President" (L'Aurie), "The Last Days At The Fillmore" (CBS) boxed-set and various other items.

items.
New releases of any real character have been few and far between. Gil Scatt Herom and Brian Jackson's "Secrets' (Arista) is doubtless worth a (Arista) is doubtless worth a probe, but, apart from that, only The Pips' "Callin" " (Casablanca): "Foul Play" (Arista), the soundtrack to the new Goldie Hawn movie; and Leon Redbone's "Champagne Charlie" (Warner) have seemed worth a jot in the motebook. The Redbone relates of the hark abrock at far. release digs back almost as far as Cooder's last history-duster, as Cooder's last history-duster, with re-runs of Jimmy Rodgers' "T.B. Blues", two Jelly Roll Morton songs and such doddering ditties as "Sweet Sue" (1928), "Big Bad Bill Is Sweet William Now" Bill Is Sweet William Now" (mid-20b), and "Alabama Jubitee" (1915). Participants are equally ancient, these including bluesmen Little Brother Montgomery (born 1907), Sammy Price (1908) and ex-Bob Willa steel-guitarist Leon McAuliffe (1917). Finally—the latest colour

Leon McAuliffe (1917).

Finally — the latest colour count from Pacific Records reveals that Deep Purple's "24 Carst" and ELO's "Master Of Rock" are now available in purple viny!; Lindo Renatadi's "Southern Belle" is in gold, Kate Bush's "The Kick Inside" comes in platinum, while Biondie's "Paraflel Lines" is available in lace undie white.

Fred Deline

Hotel Antarctica

CITY BOY Book Early (Venigo)

The soage of City Boy display as much technical accomplishment, sparkling polish and shimmering brilliance as Donay Osmoud's teeth. Maybe even more.

As examples of dexterity and craftmassible, they're strictly inspired. So how come it's so hard to like them?

Cicy Bay have always garaceed favourable reviews for their albums, and you can readily hear why they're so admired. Their high-pitched harmonies are impecable, their instrumental work close to flawhess. And when it comes to original soags, Lol Mason and Steve Broughton are as dever and with und literate as the original 16cc. Their current single is perhaps a lens good example of this than others on this album, such as "Cignrette" and "Moving In Circles".

If you bay this album, you

Circles".
If you buy this album, you certainly wou't be wasting your hard earned four quid. It's one of the classics around. But in common with all those old 3 occ albums, it's got less warmth than a Kraftwerk rhythm

A GB CB Pic: PENNIE SMITH track, less pastion than one of Donny's smiles. If City Boy weren't so good, perh they'd he far better.

NEWALBLAN-OUTNOWN CANT WAIT+NEW SNIGE+ON POUDOR 1ST 50 THROUGH THE DOOR RECEIVE FREE ALBUMS SEE THEM LIVE AT THE MARQUEE-SEPTEMBER 3RD

BUD POWELL The Amazing Bud Powell LESTER YOUNG The Aladdin Sessions GERRY MULLIGAN & LEE KONITZ Revelation
ORNETTE COLEMAN TRIO At The Golden Circle
DON CHERRY Where Is Brooklyn?
JOHN COLTRANE Blue Train High Step HANK MOBLEY Roll Call ART BLAKEY'S JAZZ MESSENGERS Roots & Herbs LEE MORGAN The Sidewinder (All Blue Note/United Amists)

CONTROVERSY MIGHT

CONTROVERSY MIGHT rage around Cecil Taylor, MicCoy Tymer and Keith Jarrett, but there was never any doubt about Bod Powell. Bed had it all from the start, and his first album back to 1947 was his greatest achievement, mental filmess and addiction eroding and darkening his genius over the next two decades. The Vogue album and the first two volumes of Blue Note's 'The Armazing Bad Powell' — the first of them re-thoused here — represent the pinnacle of modern jazz phase. There is a feasion

Omette Coleman and shin

Blue Note Hits An Old Note

BRIAN CASE Rummages Through The Riches Of A Front Rank Jazz Catalogue Now Available The Length And Breadth Of The Land between the hands, rochet-nasist righthand runs and thickening threatening chords, that finally got away from him; the mitrack is that he ever run the stallions of his temperament in tanden at all.

The Leuter Young double, "The Aindill Season", seems on the surface the antithesis of Powell's romantic agony. Bitche, insoleutly hip and contained, Leater's tenor lagt back, leans like a pixup recruiting for a whorehouse. The first modern ascophone player, he antilwed the paradox of neglect and limitation throughout his life, and died towing his face to the wall; "It takes pretty people to make the mittel pretty, and als't a stage pretty hustard in my hand." Well there are plenty on hand here, and the annale is mangulared.

"Revelation", a naceting between Geory Muligan and Lee Konitz, with tenors like AI Cohn, Zoot Simu and the great Allen Eager on hand, is liranly and finely in the Lestorius mode. If the course of Jazz flowed towards the expressionium of Powel, Konitz and his Cool School associates are still hanging in there with the poise and balance of Lester. Listen to Lee on "Too Marvellous For Words" and regret the universal monomental for extreptes.

The Ovnette Coleman Trio's "AI The Golden Circle" may lack the scope and staggering loventy-eas of the early Atlantic albums, but they still made great music and probably rectuited more punters to the cause of Free Music than during the quarter period, Leezon and Moffert confounded the pentimiers who declared Ornette's conception too wayward for any but the original rhythm innovators. Your aust could get off on "Dee Dee".

Don Cherry also proved he want't just a foil — no foil like an old foil — by quitting Ornette and striking out on his own. Pity Bine Note didn't re-release the beast 'Cherry, "Complete Commonion' and "Symphony For Improvious", though "Where In Brooklyn?" serven an a reminder of just how catachyunically good Pharoah Sanders was hack then, with the insunching pad of Grimen and Blackwell. The leader's traves are memorable and bulk over suspensions and accelerations which point up the contrast in horn styles, Lenor moving through everything like a missible, cornet spikidy circling.

The two Coltrane albums. "Blue Train" and "High Step" are probably not ensential with so much great Coltrane on the market; they catch him in mildly incompatable Hard Bob bands. Before the success of Jianay Suith, the label concentrated on beety blowing semions, not Trone's meal, but just laten to the harrowing power of his breaks on "Nixon, Dixon & Yutes Bhres" or

"Stue Truh" and --- often

"Bine Truba" and --- offen overlooked --- bin tenderneen with ballada like "I'm Old Fashioned". Hank Mobley'a "Roll Call" is a minor classic of Hard Bop, along with his still-deleted "Soul Station". Having spent years carefully and intelligently developing his own style, poor Mobley found hismelf out of fashion at a stroke. Coltrane had limily got it together, and that degree of intensity became the new orthodoxy. Hip of them to re-base this, Fashion is mainty economist, and best left to Brummel and Keynes.

The proto-typical Hard Bop ontift, Art Bakey's Jazz Messengers, have never out a duff record. "Roots & Herba" is by the edition with Wayne Shorter and the late Lee Morgan, less interesting than the later stuff with Freddle Hobbard by which time Shorter's writing had mastured. Bobby Timmous foulty plane killed me at the time, passes me by now; Blakey's dramming sever palls.

Oddy enough, Lee Mocgan's

palls.
Oddy enough, Lee Mocgan's commercially successful "The Sidewinder" still almighters despite a spare of instactions. Billy Higgins' politing bent throughout.
Joe Henderson's shinter entry on the title track, and Morgan's great trampet solo on "Torem Pole" will assuredly set as yet unfantched generations waving the tronsers.

Belan Case
(More Noise soon.)

Baldhead Bridge (Joe Gibbs-pre-release)

THERE WERE some things that I loved one time, but the dreams are gone that I thought were mine.

According to Joseph Hill, Jose Gibbs has two albums of Culture material remaining on tape from the "Two Sevens Clash" session, neither of which the group would like to see released, and judging from the first of these. "Baldhead Bridge" — the producer is already scraping the bottom of the barrel.

Actually, there is nothing especially wrong with this new LP, at least not in the performance of Culture, but at five quid on import it comes as an expensive outlay for eight tracks, two of which — "Baldhead Bridge" and "Zion Gate" — have both been previously available in 12" format with DJs. Besides, I prefer The Gladiators' reworking of the title track from

Studio One, "Mr. Baldwin".

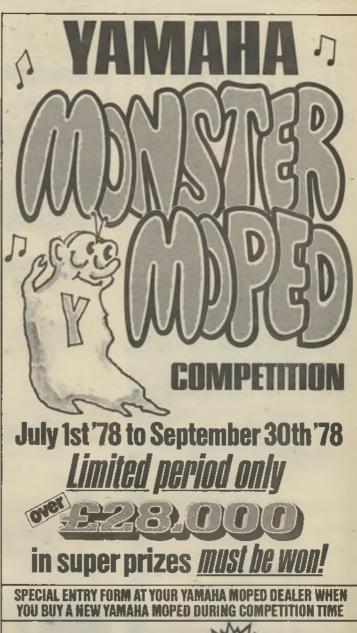

For the rest, "Behold I Come" and "Love Shines Brighter" are available in slightly different Icero on both the "Africa Stand Alone" bootleg album and Front Line "Herder Than The Rest" set, featuring productions preferable to Gibbs" laboured efforts here. "How Can I Leave Jah" is based on Dennis Brown's "How Can I Leave", with slightly different lyrics, and "So Long Babyton A Fool I (And I)" is nothing other than an updating of the Count Ossie "So Long Ras Tafari Call I"—also recorded by Dennis Brown — with a new set of words.

which leaves only "Them A Payaka" and
"Jah Love" as the two original titles on the album, and neither of these are among Culture's more inspired works.

I would assume this album is dedicated by Joe Gibbs to himself: baldhead bridge is burning down, Jah Ras Tafari.

Penny Reel

BRIAN E PAGE

ON HOW TO ADVERTISE ON THE LIVE PAGE PHONE BRIAN ON 01 261 615

01-437 6603

OPEN EVERY NATHT FROM 7 00 pm to 11 00 pm MEDICED ADMINISTON FOR STUDENTS AND MENS

BLUE MAX

JACKIE LYNTON H D BAND

ZAINE GRIFF

THE JOLT

THE ANTS

THE DODGERS

STAR JETS

Tue 5th and Wed 6th Se The Marries

ADAM AND

BLAST

FURNACE V.I.P.'s

SHAKESPEAROS

FAREWELL FESTIVAL FINAL WEEK FULLERS TRADITIONAL ALES

THE

DOLL BY DOLL

TANZ DER YOUTH

OLD CODGERS

MICKY JONES BAND CHAMPION

THE LATE SHOW

SANDY & THE BACKLINE

CORNER CROMWELL ROAD/NORTH END ROAD, W14 (Adjacent West Kensington Tube Tel: 01-603 6071)

Sept 2

MAYFLOWER MANCHESTER

BASTION, WHITE HART ACTON

LYCEUM LONDON

Sept 22

ERICS LIVERPOOL

NICK LOWE-TERRY WILLIAMS-BILLY BREMHER

BLAST FURNACE & THE HEATWAVES

THE PAVILION

SUNDAY 10th SEPTEMBER at 7-45

ARISTA
SEPT 3 PEGASUS, Stoke NewIngton
SEPT 5 MOPE & ANCHOR, Jalington
SEPT 7 MUSIC MACHINE, Mornington Creacent (+ SKIDS)
SEPT 18 NASHYLLE, West Kensington (+ SKIDS)
SEPT 12 BRIDGENOUSE, Canning Town
SEPT 14 NASHYILLE, West Kensington (headlinks)
SEPT 15 ROCHESTER CASTLE, Stoke NewIngton
SEPT 16 ROCK GARDEM, Covent Garden

SINGLE - SIGN OF THE TIMES OUT NOW

A.J.'S CLUB High Street, Lincoln.

THE NEXT BAND

THE CHEQUERS

with special guest ŧ

OR(I'M AWMKER(Ini)s-spelt)) BIGGU AND THE RED NOSED BURGLARS

LYCEUM BALLROOM THE STRAND

SUNDAY 10th SEPT. at 7.15pm £2.00 in advance £2.25 on door

Tickets available from the Lycoum Box Office 01-836 3715 and the Harvey Goldsmith Box Office at Chappells, 50 New Bond Street W1. 01-629 3453 (20p booking tee)

THE IMPRINTS HOLLIES TIDAL BASIN TAVERN, E16

SATURDAY
SEPTEMBER 2nd

FAMOUS MUSICIANS

gene (drume) een LANDSCAPE

down 61-763 7677/870 2001

TELEPHONE

GRAND HOTEL

JAPAN

testan E1.50

MICK FARREN

RACING CARS

SNIPS VIDEO KINGS

WARREN HARRY

n with this ed i

LANDSCAPE

+ P.C.O.J.

CITY BOY

HI-TENSION

FAIRPORT CONVENTION

LICENSED BARS - LIVE MUSIC - DANCING BPM + 2 AM MONDAY TO SATURDAY

SUNDAY NIGHT FEVER

Portcawl, Stoneleigh day - casual dress - 7pm to midnight Disco by Jumbo

EDDIE KENDRICKS

DELEGATION

THE BRIDGE HOUSE

23 BARKING ROAD, CANNING TOWN, E16 ZAINE GRIFF

BRIDGE HOUSE BLUES

THE YOUNG BUCKS

+ Support

REMUS DOWN BOULEVARD

Monday September 4th Tuesday September 5th FILTHY MCNASTY

SOUNDER

Saturday September 2nd 9pm - 2 am

HIRLWIND

+ support

LES PUNKS (Vanian, Sansible, Scables & Lemmy)

Admission £1.50

THOMAS A BECKET

TOUR DE FORCE ANGELO PALADINO THE MEMBERS STAA MARX STRAIGHT 8 REMUS DOWN BOULEVARD STREET BAND

LINDSEY ENTERTAINMENTS

01-407 1334

NATIONWIDE GIG GUIDE

COMPILED TONY

Thursday

BASILDON Double Sir. GENTRY BIRKENHEAD RESCUE: SPEDER BIRKINGHAM Burrel Organ: RICKY COOL & THE LCEBERGS BIRKINGHAM Radway Hotel: MAGNUM

REBEROS
BIRMINGHAM Railway Hotel: MAGNUM
BIRGHTON Albambra: STEVE BOYCE BAND
BIRGHTON Buccaneer: SHARAFIA BAIGHTON Richisond Hotel: WOODY AND THE SPLINTERS

BAIGHTON Richimond Hotel: WOODY AND THE SPLINTERS
BRISTOL Crocken: WORKING CLASS HEROES BRISTOL Crocken: WORKING CLASS HEROES CLEETHORPES Winter Gardens: SHAM 69
COVENTRY When Fippen: RENO DONCASTER Outlook: HARLOW GORLESTON Cap & Gown: THE NEEDLES HIGH WYCOMBE Negs Head: MICK FARREN & THE GOOD GUYS MENDAL Brewery Arts Centre: GEORGE MELLY & JOHN CHILTONS FEETWARMERS LEEDS Sherbebuy: THE VYE LIVERPOOL Gulbver's DRAMATIS PERSONAE LONDON CAMDEN Diagvalis: THE RECORDS LONDON CAMDEN Diagvalis: THE RECORDS LONDON CAMDEN Diagvalis: THE RECORDS LONDON CAMDIEN DIAGVALIS THE RECORDS LONDON CAMDIEN DIAGVALIS THE RECORDS LONDON CANNING TOWN Tidel Basis Tavern: EXDRECTORY

LONDON CANNING TOWN Tidel Base Taveth: EX-DIRECTORY
LONDON COVENT GARDEN Rock Garden: LAND-SCAPE
LONDON E.C.I. City Arms: FAME
LONDON HAMMERSMITH Seen. UNCLE PO
LONDON HAMMERSMETH The Rutland: FRED
RICKSHAW'S HOT GOOLES
LONDON HARROW ROAD Windsor Castle: THE

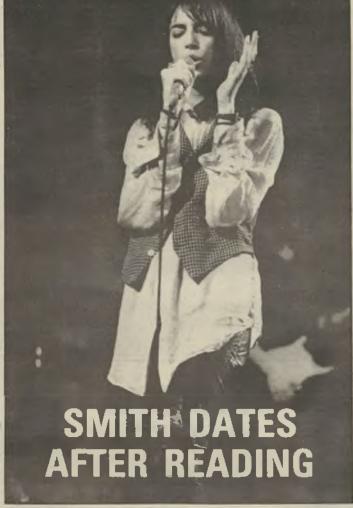

LONDON BARROW ROAD Windor Corle THE IDOLS
LONDON KENSINGTON De Villiers Baz: GOLD DUST TWINS
LONDON MERIQUE Club: BLUE MACS
LONDON OLD KENT ROAD Thomas A'Beckett: THE TUMBLERS
LONDON O'LD KENT ROAD Thomas A'Beckett: TRIBESMAN
LONDON STOCKWELL THE Flough SWIFT
LONDON STOKE NEWINGTON PERSONS RUNNING SAW'S FLUE SCKEAMING
MANCHESTER Apollo: PATTI SMITH DAND / POP GROUP

GROUP
MANCHESTER Pips: THE ACCELERATORS
MELTON MOWBRAY Plainted Lady: DOUGGIE
JAMES A SOUL TRAIN
MIDDLESBROUGH Rock Garden: BLITZKRIEG

MIDDLESBROCEST
BOP
NEWCASTLE Cooperage: ALWOODLEY JETS
NEWCASTLE The Hewthorn: AVALON
NOTTENGHAM Hearry Good Fedow: TEST TUBE
BABIES
NOTTENGHAM Imperial Hotel: PELICAN NOTTENGHAM Sandpaper PUNISHMENT OF LUXDRY

NOTTONGHAM Sandpuper PUNISHMENT OF LUXDRY OLDHAM Birch Hall Hotel: CHRIS BARBER BAND PLYMODYTH Woods CHAD DOUBLE XPOSURE PORTRUSH Areads): THE MOYORS POYNTON Folk Ceatre: STEVE CHILCOTT / YING TONG JOHN RUNCORN Cherry Tree: 29th & DEARBORN SHEPFIELD Limit Chib: C GAS 5 SULTHAMPTON Onslow Arms: STAA MARX SUNDERLAND Reflord House: BOYS OF THE LOUGH

LOUGH WATFORD Carey Place: HERE AND NOW / DESP-ERATE STRAITS YORK Viva Wine Bar: SPYDER BLUES BAND

Following her appearance as the Reading Festival, Patti Smith undertakes a short series of dates, visiting Manchester, Cardiff and Birmingham

Friday

AXMINSTER Guild Hall: CHEAP FLIGHTS
BRIMINGHAM Barrel Organ. THE ITALIANS BRIMINGHAM Railvay Hotel: SPITFIRE
BRIMINGHAM Elabehan Days: BAD EARTH
BLACKFOOL Ruskes Hotel: BRIAN DEWBURST
BOLTON Againsis: VINTAGE
BRIGHTON Buccasteer NIGHTRIDER
BRISTOL Crockers: WORKING CLASS HEROES
BURNLEY Highton Mount Bowling Club. BRIAN DEWHURST

DEWHURST
BURY ST. EDMONDS Gridin: N.W.10
CARDIFF Top Rank Suite: PATTI SMITHUTHE POP

CARDIFF Top Rank Suite: PATTI SMITH/THE POP GROUP
CASTLETON Cheshire Cheese: BOYS OF THE LOUGH
CROMER West Runton Pavilion: MAC CURTIS
DUDLEY I.B. & Club. THE LURKERS
EASTBOURNE Archery: STEVE BOYCE BAND
EDINBURGH Clouds SHAM 69
EDINBURGH Clouds SHAM 69
EDINBURGH DOMINION GERMET GEORGE MELLY
& JOHN CHILTON'S FEETWARMERS
HAYWARDS HEATH Clair Hall: DAVE BERRY & THE CRUISERS MUDDERSFIELD COACK HOUSE: ALWOODLEY
JETS

JETS
KNARESBOROUGH Falk Club: HOHN LEONARD &
JOHN SQUIREXEMPION
LEEDS Flode Green Botel: OGAS 5
LEEDS Poly BAR Club: AGONY COLUMN
LEEDS VINEY: THE VYE LONDON CAMDEN Dingwals: FISCHER-Z/THE INVADER:
LONDON CAMDEN Southampton Arms.
JETLY ROLL BILLIES BAND

INVADERS
LONDON CAMDEN Sowthampton Arms.
JELLYROLL SELUES BADU
LONDON CANNING TOWN Tidal Basin: DOG
WATCH
LONDON CHARING CROSS Global Village: CHUNA

STREET
LONDON COVENT GARDEN Rock Gorden: INCREDIBLE KIDDA BAND/RAY MORGAN QUARTET

QUARTET
LONDON RENSINGTON Nashwile: THE RICH
KIDSHARLOW
LONDON MAIDA VALE Chippenham: PASSENGERS

GERS
LONDON OXFORD STREET 100 Club: JABULA
LONDON PORTOBELLO ROAD Acklum HaltCUCKOONIGHT FLIGHTFCAR PARK
LONDON PUTNEY SAIR & GARCE: GREIG &
NIGEL'S FOLK AND BLUES NIGHT/JOHNNY G
LONDON ROTHERHTTHE Waterside Theaire:
REALISTS/MR COSGILL'S DELIGHT
LONDON SOUTHGATE Royaky; CHRIS HILL LONDON STOKE NEWINGTON PEGARMS: THE MONDOS

MONOS MANCHESTER Cartino Club: EXODUS MANCHESTER Cartino Club: EXODUS MELTON MOWBRAY Painted Lady DOUGIE JAMES & SOUR. TRAIN NEWCASTLE Maytar MOTORHEAD NOTTENGHAM Hearty Good Fellow: LAST CALL

NOTTINGHAM Imperual Hotel: SLIP HAZARD & THE BLIZZARDS NOTTINGHAM Sandpiper: INTELEKTUALS/MIAMI DOLPHINS RETPORD POTCHDOUSE: SORE THROAT
ROCHESTER King's Head RIGHT HAND BAND
SCARBOROUGIS Peruhouse: HEAD WATTER
SOUTHALL Hambor THEAT THE INTECTIONS
SOUTHEND CHIEF Parduno: THE SHADOWS
STALYBRIDGE Commercial: ANY TROUBLE
SUTTIN COLDFIELD Marismith Club: THE
STALYBRIDGE Commercial: ANY TROUBLE
SUTTIN COLDFIELD Marismith Club: THE
STALYBRIDGE Commercial: ANY TROUBLE
STANDARD BRUNCH COMMERCIAL THE SWINDON BRUNCH COMMERCIAL THE THENSIE
SWANDEA ARE CENTER: TALLSKER
SWINDON BRUNCH COMMERCIAL THE THOR THE STALDHIND DOGS
TAMWORTH ARE CENTER: PALLOMINO
TIPTON BrEWEY A BRIGE: O. D. SLOPE
TIVERTON Motel: ROSETTA STONE
VORK VIVA WINE BAIL THE VYE

Saturday

ABERTILLERY Six Bells: PEKOE ORANGE
ACLE Conservative Hall: THE NEEDLES
ASHBOURNE JIAM FERINAL BOYS OF THE LOUGH
AYESSBURY Friant: RADIO STARS
BANBURY Winter Gardens: SCRATCH
BEXIETL YOR Hotel: STEVE BOYCE BAND BIRMINGHAM Barbarella's: BENNY AND THE JETS
BIRMINGHAM Barrel Organ: BRENT FORD & THE NYLONG.

NYLONS
NYLONS
BIRMINGHAM KINGS HEATH Hare and Hounds: SILLY WIZARD
BIRMINGHAM Odeon: PATTI SMITH / THE POP
GROUP

Stewart'n'Gouldman of 10cc: gles at Liverpool and Birmingham

BOLTON Aquarius: VINTAGE BILLION Aquarius: VINTAGE BILLION Golden Cockeel: RED EYE BILLION BILLION GOLDEN G

LONDON MOTTING HILL Old Swan: DESPERATE STRAITS
LONDON SOUTHCATE ROYALY: FROGGY & HIS MONSTER ROADSHOW
LONDON STOKE NEWINGTON PEGNAGE BIG CHIEF MEZITON MOWBRAY PANED LADY: DOUGGIE
JAMES & SOUL TRAIN
NOTTINGHAM HEARTY GOOD FEILOW: OUTWARD BAND NOTTINGHAM SANDOIPET: STRANGE MIST /
PEACH

BAND

NOTTINGHAM Sandpiper: STRANGE MIST /
PEACH

OLDHAM Tower Club: SKREWDRIVER

OXITORD Corn Dolly: DOG WATCH

PETERLIEE Technical College Theatre: DISGUISE
PRESTON Picoadily: WITCHFYNDE

RETPORO Peterhouse: THE LURKERS

RYE Carrival: BANNED / BLAST FURNACE AND /

THE FLYS / THE PHYSICALS / SAMMY SNAZZY

MITCHELL / HOLLYWOOD KELLERS / DELTA

WING / GEORGE BACON

SHEPPIELD Fiests Club; DAYE BERRY & THE

CRUISERS

SOUTHEND Clife Pavilion: THE SHADOWS

STRATFORD-UPON-AVON Green Dragon; TIME

MACHINE

SWANNER GLOUCESTER PLACE Arts Workshop:

ACME QUARTET

TELHAM Black Hone: RIGHT HAND BAND

TORQUAY 400 Club: SOUL DIRECTION

YORK MINES

WISHAM CRUMENS BAY: HOWARD ELLIS BAND

WEST BROWNICH COSCH & Hotels: PALOMRNO

WINSPORD Civic Hall: ROSETTA STONE

WISHAW Crown Hotel (hundstone): THE PESTS

Sunday

ACCRINGTON Lakeland Lounge: WITCHFYNDE BILSTON THE Cock: PALOMINO ORIMINGHAM Railway Hotel: VIDEO BIRMINGHAM Sherwood: RENO BIRMINGHAM Strenblen Hotel: CHRIS BARBER

BLACKPOOL Stanley Park Bandstand THE BOF

BAND
BLACKPOOL Stanley Park Bandsland THE BOF
BAND
BLACKPOOL Stanley Park Bandsland THE BOF
BRIGHTON Afhambra: THE PIRANHAS
BRIGHTON RESOURCE CENTE: PIRANHAS
BRIGHTON RESOURCE CENTE: PIRANHASPILANTATIONNICKY & THE DOTS
CHELMSFORD Chancellor Hall: RADIO STARS
CORBY Elinive Social Cibic PARADOX
CROYDON Facricio Hall: THE SHADOWS DEAL Quarier Deck: RIGHT HAND BAND
DUBLIN Projects Arts Centre: PATIT SMITH
POETRY READING
FLEETWOOD North Euseine Hotel: BRIAN
DEWHURST
LEEDS Stanges Poot: HARLOW
LYPERPOOL Empice: 10cc
LONDON Batteries Nags Head: JUGULAR VEIN
LONDON COVENT GARDEN New Community
GRADICH STEEL HAND STANLES BRASS
GANDICH STEEL HAND STANLES BRASS
ANDICH STEEL HAND STANLES STEEL BAND SKALATORSTEEL AN' SKINYOUNG
BUCKSCLAPPERCLAWCALLY
LONDON COVENT GARDEN Rock Garden:
PISCHER Z
LONDON BAST HAM RUSKIN ATMS: DOG WATCH
LONDON TOLING STEEL CHE THE FIRE
LONDON OTOLING STEEL CHE
LONDON TOLING STEEL CHE
LONDON PSCHAM MOOTECHER THE FIRE
LONDON STOKE NEW STEEL CHESS
LONDON STOKE NEW STEEL CHESS
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE NEW STEEL CHESS
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE NEW STEEL CHESS
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON W.C.1 PINGATO OF WATCH
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE
LONDON STOKE PICKER
LONDON STOKE
LONDON ST

LOUGH
POYTON FOR CENTRE. MR GLADSTONE'S
BAGRETE ROYLE
SOUTHINGST Theatre: MIKE HARDING STALYBRIUGE COMMERCIAL: LDIOT ROUGE

Monday

AMPTHILL Foit Club: JOHN SOFTLY
BRIMINGHAM Barrel Organ, WIDE BOYS
BRIMINGHAM Barrel Organ, WIDE BOYS
BRIMINGHAM Night Out: THE TEMPTATIONS Week from Monday
BRIMINGHAM Odeon, 10 c.c.
BRISTOL, Stouchomie: BRENT FORD & THE
NYLONS
BURY Star Hint: BRIAN DEWHURST
CROYDON Fairfield Hair THE SHADOWS
CROYDON Red Seer; THE EDGE
DONCASTER Outlook: THE LURKERS
HALESOMN TIffany's BEENY AND THE JETS
HALIFAX Ringles Club: THE VYE
KELTY OBLIGHED HORGEN ALE AST SIDE
STIMPERS
LEEDS Marquis of Granty: AGONY COLLIMN/THE NEAT
LYERPOOL, Sportsman: DRAMATIS PERSONAE
LONDON CAMDEN Dingwits: TRANS-AM
LONDON COVENT GARDEN Rock Garden:
RESISTANCE

Continues over page

■ Continues over page

THURS 31 THE RECORDS TUES 5 THE EDGE WED 6 REGGAE REGULAR

ALL DRINKS 1/2 PRICE BEFORE 10PM

8pm-2am-Live Music-Licensed Bar-Disco-Restaurant

AT THE MAXWELL HALL TRIARS AYLESBURY

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 2nd 7.30 pm

RADIO STARS + SPECIAL GUESTS (AT ENORMOUS EXPENSE)

> THE BOYFRIENDS + THE REACTION

TRIANS

AT THE MAXWELL HALL AYLESBURY

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7th, 7.30 pm OPENING DATE OF 1978 BRITISH YOUR

AME

+ MICHAEL CHAPMAN

THE PORTERHOUSE

SORE THROAT THE

SHOWBIZ KIDS

ROCHESTER CASTLE

WHITE CATS

SPECIAL GUESTS

FROM FAIRY HILL

PATRIK FITZGERALD

Audition night T B A

THE INTELEKTUALS

EEL PIE ROCK CLUB

NO SWEAT

+ Simon Townshend Band Thursday August 31st

RED LION, High Street, Hounslow
Admission 21.00. Decre spent if pm. Membership 16p.
Enquiries: Pay Stand, Est Pio Sound. Telephone Chartery (60520) 62367

West Acton Sounds pre The second uprising at the White Hart, Acton

THE SATELLITES

+ The Condemned

See Jonothen Geu

BOGNOR ROCK IN WORLD TOUR

SENSATION! & MARX

READING Targett Sun. Sept 3rd CHRISTCHURCH Jumpers

> Mon. Sept 4th FAREHAM John Peel

LONDON Thomas a Becket

FARNHAM Coach and Horses

> LONDON Nashville

GUILDFORD Junction Tues. Sept 12th
PRATTS BOTTOM

The Aardvark

RUNNING SORE

THE MONOS BIG CHIEF

THE ZONES TIGHTS

STRAIGH: 8 COLD COMFORT

LAST THE WHITE BASTION!

246 HIGH ST. ACTON

JOHNNY MOPED

THE NIGHT + D.J. Jerry Floyd

Please come early Doors open 7.30pm

ROCK GARDEN SEPT 4th AND THEIR SPECIAL GUESTS: (TIKAKIFS Λ

RESISTANCE MUSIC, 27 CONWAY ST, LONDON WI

Greater London Arts Association YOUNG IAZZ MUSICIANS 79

ANS-AM'S BACK-TO-THE-CLUBS TOUR

Monday 4th Sept.

Tuesday 5th Sept. Thursday 7th Sept. Saturday 9th Sept. Sunday 10th Sept. Monday 11th Sept.

Tuesday 12th Sept.

e1

42

£1

Free

Dinowalls Rock Garden Marquee Troubador, Tonypandy Paddle Steamer, Cardiff Sandman, Port Talbot Rock Garden

WARNER BROS COUNTRY

EMMYLOU HARRIS AND THE HOT BAND GUY CLAR RODNEY CROWELL

HAMMERSMITH ODEON MON/TUES - 18/19 SEPT. at 7:30

THE DUBLIN CASTLE

Parkwey, NW1 [Camden Town Station] Friday, 1st September

BURN

+ TOP MARX

MORE BLONDIE

From page 8

schedules and demands.
Certainly Destri appears a little restless within the group's current format, and Stein's mildly subdued idealis's blanches a little faced with the limitations of their current output, yet will not deny that the music is from their hearts,
Destri caperily looks forward to. the masters from their nearts, Destrie agardy looks forward to "The Shift' (from pampering to innovating) — proud that they form part of a new pop idiom, excited that they are capable of other thangs.

MERICA rears its ugly head. America has failed to respond to a new wave influence, have resisted the melting of a resisted the melting of a 'dangerous' movement into The New Pop Music, to Bloodie have had minimal impact in the national charus, despite regional success. Destri-admits that for duli, economic reasons they cannot shift without cracking America, an almost impossible aronosaition. almost impossible proposition. Blondic, 'safe' in the rest of the world market, must world market, must concentrate on America: Chapman's production is direct and full, and Blondic music becomes very straight. They tout there later this year, hopeful.

Destri views the problem simply: "I really don't think we have to dilute what Blondic is to crack America. I think we just have to plan what singles we release over there, and continue as we are without continue as we are without changing." Niget Harrison butts in . . . "What we have to butts in ... "What we have to do is wait for the audience over there to change."

Stein views it typically sinisterly: "There is no new wave in America. I was told by a pretty heavy rock person that Immy Carter has actually put a stop to the new wave 'cos he considers it politically dangerous. Kids tell us they ask for Blondie records on their local radio station and are told the stations don't play new wave. There's just been one told the stations don't play new wave. There's just been one new wave hit, the Parti Smith song. Nothing else. Everything in America is set, it's just a lucking big system. The radio is locked into the group format, record comparies are great multi-million dollar systems, it's all a measure. great multi-million dollar systems, it's all a massive systems and there's very little room to change it. The audience are conditioned to the radio, the music press are so far behind, like The Dead Boys are Rolling Stones' token punk group. It's a joke!"

So Blondie boast subversive motives: Soften their music

So Blondie boast subversive motives. Soften their music, level it out, aim it low, crack America, then twist back to something less, er, palatable. It's a good excuse for compromise. The Patti Smith group use a similar one. We'll some the soften and the soften are soften as a similar one.

FTER chats in the fluts, everyone—group, assistants, pr., press—bundle into three cars to drive to the BBC. Blondie are on Top of the Pops, members of the fab-fast regular new rosta (B. Rats, Sham 69, X-Ray Spex, Jam, Rezillos, Buzzcocks, soon the Baashees (who'd have thought), Boytriends, Lurkers, Rich Kids, XTC.

Chris and Debbie snuggle up FTER chats in the flats.

Kids, XTC.
Chris and Debbie snuggle up together. Chris, concerned mightily with the paranormal, tells me I should write that all students should take up psychic research. "The Russians have a grip on the psychic research. "The Russiars have a grip on the Astral Plane," he announces. "Nanh," gripes Debbe. "Really, you may groan now but in 20 years you're gonna know about it. The Russians will be able to block American politicians' thoughts." Debbe ponders for a while, but is ponders for a white, but is more concerned that she hasn't been sick for weeks. "Ever since I stopped eating sugar." Blondie must rehearse, eat and record at the BBC from 3 till 9. Debbie plaintively rundles off, dragging a shopping trolley behind her full of the goodless of transformation. Stein, meanwhile, complains to me. He's producing a New York violinist cathed Walter Stedding for Red Star Records, improvised music: "I'll get knocked for the commercialism of Bloodie's new album, and at the other end I'll get slegged for working with Stedding for being too oblique! Huh!"

Stein is quite the angry young man. Not much pleases him. Top of the Pops does. He has the smug look of satisfaction as we chat in the labrynthine corridors of the Beeb, not far from where Jited John gibberishly knoks forward to meeting his heroise Debbie, who is busy becoming the illusion. Top of the Pops is working through the system, working with the system. We'd be happy to do free concerts, but we can't, we'd do two and that would be it, we'd be out of money. It would be all over. So we work with the system. I don't think TOTF is bad."

At 7.30 the group queeu up ingloriously outside studio number one, with The Jam, Hi-Tension, Bilbo and Jilted John, Burke had given record company people moments of panic by turning up at the very last minute; be'd been it.

company people moments of panic by turning up at the very last minute: he'd been in Carnaby Street getting a new

This fashion conscious, this can any states getting a few said.

This fashion conscious, this group. The group have broken away from black, white and red. Stein looks a little uncomfortable in a candy pink suit, Harrison in tight green pants, Infante in sharp black and white patterned trews. This is where the fun comes in!

Just before Blondic record their spot — Harry dransateally emerging with seconds to spare suitably that sead of the state of their spot — Harry dransateally emerging with seconds to spare suitably that west, sead of a state of their spot — Harry dransateally emerging with seconds to spare suitably that when we said of the shown moch Dr. Feelgood figured in what we were about to receive. Yeah? "Yeah. The important influence in New York. They came over just to play a few brief college dates and stuff, and the audience was totally made up of other bands and musicians. Just the thing of the short hair, the clothes, the shortness and starkness of the songs, the direction of the 3 piece, created a terrific buzz." Blondie are after David Essex and before blitted John. Blondie on Tap Of The Paps — illusion within illusion.

Top of the Pops jumps out at millions of people fast, colourful, funny, alive. It's put logether in a massive studio with 50 nervous kids cumbersomely shoved from podium to bodium, self-consciously shaking as the podium to bodium, self-consciously shaking as the group grotesquely and foolishly mime to their current tound.

It's dead and cumbersome.

Legs and Co. are all about three foot II and must work in Woollies in the day.

Blondie run through 'Picture
This' three times before getting it right. The group look embarrassed. Harry looks condused. On the screen it confused. On the screen it looks complete, a surreal carton. The phrase is larger than life, although that doesn't cover it. It's even nesty.

And 'Picture This' is the group's third hit in what looks like a steady run. They flew off that night to Europe and will be back in September to tour Britain in undoubted strumph. Stein attempts to qualify it: "! Britain in undoubted triumph. Stein attempts to qualify it: "I mean, I see Bob Marley being slagged off for being too commercial and I think that's really sad because what he's doing now is really pulling people together more than ever. He's finally going out on American radio. We saw him in Boston playing to 35,000 straight white college kids and everyone was going banamas and that to me is an actual revolutionary act, the fact that he's doing music that will pull people together, and if we can just bring people together with music, that's the real politics. We want to bring people music, that's the real politics.
We want to bring people together."

Blondie are a pop group. How they develop depends on how well they cope. You want to know more?

GIG GUIDE

From previous page

LONDON HARROW ROAD Windsor Castle: DOG WATCH LONDON PUTNEY Half Moon: HARVEY

LONDON PUTNEY Hall Moon: HARVEY ANDREWS
LONDON PUTNEY Star & Garter PENNY ROYAL
LONDON RONNE SCOT'S Club: HORACE SILVER
FOR 2 wecks from Monday
LONDON STOKE NEWINGTON Pegausus: CHINA
STREETTIGHTS
LONDON WEST HAMPSTEAD Railway Hotel:
POLICEMAGNETS
NEWCASTLE Cooperage: DEEP FREEZE
OXFORD Corn Dolly: SCRATCH
SWINTON Lancasarian Hall: ROSEITA STONE
MANCHESTER Band on the Wall: JOY DUTSION
NOTTINGHAM Imperial Hotel: GWAIHIR
PORTSMOUTH Guidhall: RENAISSANCE
SUNDERLAND Rock Club: MAC CURITS
TUNBRIDGE WELLS: Calverley: RIGHT HAND
BAND.

BAND YORK Vive's Wine Ber: CASS CUNANA BAND

Tuesday

BARNSLEY Civic Hall: MICK HARDING BIRMINGHAM Barrel Organ: RENO BIRMINGHAM Fighting Cocks: BRUJO BIRMINGHAM Fighting Cocks: BRUJO BIRMINGHAM MININGHAM FIGHT OF THE FIRMINGHAM RAILWAY HOTE: JAMESON RAJD BISHOPS STORTFORD Tried Leisurg Centre: REBEL BRIGHTON BALD DEPOSIT LIFE PIRAMHAR EBELL BRISTOL COLIDO HAII: RENAISSANCE

BRISTOL, Cobton Hall: RENAISSANCE
CHORLEY TATTON Community Centre: BRIAN
DEWHURST.
EDINBURCH ROYAL Princess Hotel: BOYS OF THE LOUGH
LONDON CAMDEN Dingwalls: THE EDGE
LONDON CTY ROAD City Arms: DOG WATCH
LONDON COVENT. GARDEN Rock Garden.
TRANS-AMY RESISTANCE
LONDON HARROW ROAD Window Castle:
SPRING OFFENSIVE
LONDON STOKE NEWINGTON Pegasus: HEROES/STRAIGHT 8
LONDON TICKEMAINGTON: JOHNNY G

LUNDON The Kemington: JOHNNY G
LONDON WEST HAMPSTEAD Railway Hotel:
HEROES / NECROMATS
LONDON WOOLWICH Transhed: REBEL
NEWCASTLE Cooperage: SABRE JETS
OXFORD Corn Dolly: THE EDGE
ST ANNES ON SEA (LANCS) Delmeany Hotel.
BRIAN DEWHURST
SWIDDON Brunel Rooms. CHEAP FLIGHTS
VORK Viva's Wine Bar. MIRAGE

Wednesday

ABERDEEN Rufles: SKREWDRIVER
ACTON White Hart: THE NIGHT
BATH Fernley Hote: WORKING CLASS HEROES
BIRMINGHAM BATTE! OTBAN BRUJO
BIRMINGHAM DATTE! OTBAN
BIRMINGHAM CARDON: 10 C.E
BIRMINGHAM CARDON: 10 C.E
BIRMINGHAM GOIDER EABIE: KILLING TIME
BIRMINGHAM GOIDER EABIE: KILLING TIME
BIRMINGHAM THE Sherwood: CARTOONS
BIRMINGHAM YARDEY BUILS HEAR! ROSES
BRADDORD St. George's Hall: CHRIS BARBER
BAND

BAND

HELTENHAM Plough Ins: ROADSTERS

CLITHERGE Dog & Partridge Hotel: BRIAN
DEWHURST

CUMBERNAULD Kestrel: CHARLEY BROWNE
DERBY The Bell Hotel: THE EDGE

EDHNBURGH Royal Princess Hold: BOYS OF THE FOLIGH

EDINBURGH Royal Princess Hotel: BOYS OF THE LOUGH.
LOUGH CONTROL TREATH BRIAN DEWHURST LEEDS Flords Green Hotel: RADIO STARS LINCOUN RAF Scampton: BERNY AND THE JETS LONDON CANDEN White Hart. THE DOLE LONDON CAMDEN BY BOYS REGGAE REGULANDEN CAMDEN Durgwalls: REGGAE REGULANDEN Dubbin Castle: O.K.
LONDON CAMDEN Dubbin Castle: O.K.
LONDON CAMDEN Music Machine: LANDSCAPE LONDON CANDING TOWN Bridge House: TRANS-AM

AM
LONDON COVENT GARDEN Rock Garden: LEE
FARDON'S LEGIONAIRES LONDON HAMMERSMITH Swan Hotel: THE LOCAS

DOLS

LONDON HARROW ROAD Windsor Castle: FAME
LONDON HARROW ROAD Windsor Castle: FAME
LONDON ISLINGTON Hope & Anchor: THE SKLDS
LONDON FECKHAM MOIntplier: BLUE MOON
LONDON PUTNEY Star & Garter: DANA SIMMONDS & GREIG'S FOLK & BLUES SHOWCASE
LONDON SOUTHALL White Hart: MAC CURTIS
LONDON SOUTHALL White Hart: MAC CURTIS
LONDON STOKE NEWLINGTON PEGRANS: DAVE LEWIS RAND

TONDON SPOKE NEWINGTON PERMISE DAVELEWIS BAND
MIDDLESEX H.M.S. Warrior: SOUL DIRECTION
NEWCASTLE THE COOPERIE: JUNCO PARTINERS
NORWICH Toppers: ALWOODLEY JETS
NOTTINGHAM Hearty GOOD FEIDON: GWAIHIR
NOTTINGHAM Imperial Hotel: SOME CHICKEN
NOTTINGHAM Sandpiper: ATLAS
REIGATE Cellars: JOHNNY G
SOLHHULL Golden Lion: THE FIRST BAND
SOUTHAMPTON Gaumont: TAMMY WYNETTE
SOUTH WOODEORD Railway BE!! ORIGINAL EAST SIDE STOMPERS
WOLVERHAMPTON CARUFOR'S Arms: SCRATCH
YORK Viva Wune Bar: THOSE NAUGHTY LUMPS

William Shakespeare, Geoff Chaucer, Harry Secombe, and now...

YOU

JOHN COOPER

will be proud to own the latest meisterwerk from Mr. John Cooper Clarke - 'Post-War Glamour Girls' and 'Kung Fu International', together on one sumptuous 7" edition.

Every copy of this breathtaking adventure in polysyllabic incision is stamped on luxurious black vinyl and surrounded by an extravagant full colour sleeve stuck together with real glue by experienced craftsmen.

Yet it is offered to you at the same cost as an ordinary single - a piffling price for such poignant pearls of wit and wisdom.

Grace your turntable with a little comic culture and the live version of KUNG FU INTERNATIONAL from John Cooper Clarke.

WHERE WORDS MAKE SENSE

WITH THE PUNKS Fronting stage right, and the Skinheads stage left, the eighteenth Reading Rock Festival kicked off with target practice at 3.30, featuring Dennis O'Brian at the grand many. at the grand piano. Together with his multi-racial backing band and three lady vocalists, he played selections of West Coast schmaltz, with a smattering of Las Vegas rock'n'roll. It was all exceptionally dire, and gracefully received with a shower of beer cans.

Next up, stage left, were The Automatics — the band that makes the sun band that makes the sun shine", said their vocalist Dave Philp, as the first of the party-fours sailed onto the scene. They played an energetic set of fast Stones-type R&B ("You Can't Catch Me") mainstream punk ("Watch Me Now!") and straight Me Now") and straight hard rockers like "When The Tanks Roll Over Poland Again", bringing on a keyboard player midway to augment their fairly thin overall sound. With a Jot of style, but not much power, they were, nonetheless very entertaining, and left the stage beneath a colossal hail of missiles.

By the time The New Hearts were out on the boards, the Festival was looking more like were out on the boards, the Festival was looking more like a vastly expensive ecconut shy Original band members Ian Paine and Dave Cairns, bless 'em, had taken the time to enlist three er. Widowmaker musicians, Paul Nichobs (drums), John Bertorelli (bass) and Huw Lloyd-Langton (lead guitat), for the afternoon's frolk in the fields. Within minutes, their heavy metal rampage was brought to a standstill by a loaded beer can handing squarely on Lloyd-Langton's head. While he was pouring blood (and screaming for bouts of single combat), the mob discovered they could have just as much fun lobbing lumps of

OOGIE OOZE and EER CANS

MARK ELLEN, MAX BELL and GRAHAM LOCK take an awayday to READING and discover the Dunkirk spirit, music for the criminally insane and other fine jazz for a summer's weekend. Bank Holiday Snaps:

PENNIE SMITH and DENIS O'REGAN

Inri at the roadies setting up the left-hand stage. Much credit to Ian Paine for his crowd handling, and not least for his version of "Hallelujah, I Love Her So".

The Sham faction was soon to be soothed by the arrival of Radio Stans. Armed with such be adbanging material as "The Beast Of Barnsley", Andy Ellison aired his bronzed lorso while his band made u poise like a ten-ton truck ploughing through a succession of brick walls.

On to Penetration, whose main drawback was Pauline's total inability to communicate with such a massive audience.

It was a far cry from the Nashville Rooms, and she sounded nervous as hell. Despite that, the band were on fine form, especially lead guitarist Fred Purser.

It wasn't their greatest attempt at Patti Smith's "Free Money", but "V.I.P.", "Don't Dictate" and "Firing Squad" all went down a storm.

Prior to Sham 49's long-awaited appearance, the rival sectors had a chance to warm up with a quick can fight across the press enclosure. The band soon appeared with Jimmy Pursey flanked on both army of theremore nums.

Maniaes to a man, they alternated between repelling borders, hauling them back on stage, bawking out the chorus lines, and belting each other in the ribs. The whole event was a gruesome mixture of the amaring and the obnosious.

J.P. shovelled spadefuls of his blockhead antherns into the mouths of the masses ("Red London", "Borstal Breakout",
"What "Ave We Gott", et al), while yelling "Punks and Skinheads together, they said it wouldn't work!", and finally played his Unity mymp card by bringing on "Smiling' Steve Maniacs to a man, they Hillage to jam with the band, and show off his natty orange boiler-suit. Well, it did work but only for Sham 69.

but only for Sham 69.
On returning for the next set, we were met by blood-stained refugees, and the foto unexpected) news that the Skins had overrun the press enclosure. We made tracks to the areas, only to find another troupe of bridbrains were hard at work felling a couple of scaffolding towers. Never a dull woment, els?
Relative peace was soon restored by The Plinates, clad as ever in striped duds and leather galoshes, who launched into a blinding set of hard-core.

rock'n'roll. Johany Spence, his bass thundering through the foundations, started telling it like it was (and evidently still is), with such megaton stompers as "Johany B Goode's Good' and "Long Journey Home". There's a kind a reassuring class about this lot that's strong enough to put anyone in the right frame of mind.

"Voodoo" featured the Frank Farley drum kit, and bythe time Mick Green had hammered out "You Don's Own Me" and "Gibson Martin Fender", it looked as though Reading was back on the rails again.

We managed to bulldoze a path round to stage-left for Ullarwox, a band new to me, and certainly the most interesting to play all day. With most numbers set on a dram/bass heartbeat, weird guitar, white strobe lights and distant space keyboards, they could be filed under Music for the Clinically Insane. Their vocalist, swaying like a pendulum, looked completely detached, but without actually losing any command over the audience, and for songs as distracted as "Hiroshima". "Slow Motion" and "Quiet distracted as "Hiroshima";

"Slow Motion" and "Quiet Man" to make an impression without any really elaborate visuals as a back-up would suggest a minor triumph all round.
New Wave's got out of the pubs, into the halls and finally made it to the status of rock festivals — and The Juan's headlining show proved that when it comes to its barest, most basic, and best ingredients, they've got the whole thing sewn up. What it whole thing sewn up. What it walls in a been like for Paul Weller, gooning around in his must have been like for Paul Weller, gooning around in his Carnaby clothes, backing a guitat when his amps had blownout, and watching the night's casualties being shipped out past the monitors, I would hate to imagine, but it didn't stop him, or any of them, planting a surpoint seet.

Playing a stunning set.
As for the effortless As for the effortless drumming of Rick Buckler, and the matchless atyle of Bruce Foxton's bass, there isn't a rhythin section around who can touch them. Of all the numbers — and if you know them, they played them — the only two deserving a special mention were the uncommonly downbeat "Mr. Clean", and the hugely undermated "News Of The World", being the only occasion that Weller played any extended lead guitar. All the old Who comparisons returned in force

All the old Who comparisons returned in force as the band left the stage with Weller busting up his malfunctioning gear to John Peel's words of wisdom: "Rock is baser to the"

The match ran into injury time with a swift encore before Jimmy Pursey showed up to close Day One with a mass chanting of 'Liv-er-Pool'. It's a ptty that what he can do for Football, he can't do for Music.

SATURDAY

THE PAST TWO years are supposed to have heralded a new working atmosphere for the broad spectrum of British rock, Needless to say, you could hardly see the crack in the facade at Reading on Saturday.

It's a permanently on-going doje vu situation. The road to the arena lies strewn with the ill in tents, unkempt denim-clad, card-carrying, flag waving festival freakdom, they stumble through the human effluent and piss their blues away in an orgy of gross out swilling.

A large number are tourists, their smart sleeping bags and suntant shrining comfortably against a backdrop of festering baked bean cans and pools of blood and vomit.

baked bean cars and pools of blood and vomit.

On a day like this, miraculously bright and warm, what better headline act than the ultimate rock and roll dinosaur. Status Cho? How apt... the antithesis of change, Cho represent the great silent majority who detest any progressive change and wallow impostagin like it was a real ale river. Status Quo and their audience were certainly made for each other.

But headlining at Reading is of little importance, so safe is the top billing. The rest of the order is an illegical sidetrack based mostly on a battle of P.A. 's, with gladjatorial volume the objective.

To this end an interminably tedious procession of head tedious procession of head bangers troop on and off like extras in one of Fellini's bad

The Business, who started on the club circuit, are fighting an uphill battle here, and losing. Everything about the opening salvors is a opromise, a sell out to the lowest common denominator lowest common denominator. Ear splittingly mondane. Next are a sympho-rock Genesis imitation — a bad one at that. Lead vocajist and props man Phil Jones probably has a reasonable sense of humour but his sub-Lionel Bart / Charles Dickens melodemas are lost on me melodrams are lost on me.

The audience throws food and drink in appreciation but actually some of them really like it. For conspicious abuse of the Gibson SG and synthesised overkill. Next win

When a dissident lobs a When a dissident lobs a party size Watney spiggot at the stage two bouncers leap into the fray and stick the boot in. Loud and raucous cheers. Next end their set with Jones within the property of the set of the set with Jones within the set with Jones. swinging from a poose. There's swinging from a poose. There's a mecsage in there somewhere. Jeany Davren comes on and strusts her stuff, the kids get their rocks off — boogie Pavlovian style. Britain's answer to Meat Loaf swigs prints with the lads and has balls, so we're told. Just one of the boys. The band offers up note for note Led Zeppelin. "Stairway To Heaven", really keeping up with the times.

Dutch band Grappe Spertive provide some respite with a collection of mildly witer rock and roll parodies. Songs like "Beep Beep Love" and "I Shot My Manager" performed just like the records and to a continuous chant of boredom from the Quo contingent. Nutz are symptomatic of the Reading time wayp. They are Nuts are symptomatic of the Reading time warp. They are the kind of hard rock buildozer that you imagined went out with Dounkirk. Keeping originality to a minimum they coax the red meal animal emotions to fever pitch.

My head aches and a drowsy numbness overtakes my numbness overtakes me Tempers fray, foreign groupies swan around in ludicrous regalia, oblivious to the reality of the great British Bank to the great prices have holiday, where instead of going to Clacton or Southend the 70s inheritors opt to lose their aggression in an enclosure. The modern rock festival is a cattle market and an abattoir combined.

combined.
The cbullient Greg Kilha Band give the first good reason for justifying the title 'Festival' (definition: periodic musical performances of special importance). Last time I saw Kiln, at the Marquee, I felt he lacked charisma. Here he stands out like a lamp in a dark stands out like a lamp in a dark

Material from all his album drifts over at a sensible level, attention is paid to melody and pacing. You stand back and wonder at "Love's Make A Fool Of You", "Read Big Man", "Museum" and "All The Right Reasons". The meen has a personality. Should have done "Chinatown" though.

have done "Chuntrown" though.
Whatever promise the Kihn band inspired is immediately disipated by Lindleianne, whose reformation confirms them as a tiresome cabaret act, professional Geordies. What a bore. Where else would you see sameone playing the theme from Z-Cars on a harmonica and people having cardiac and people having cardiac arrests as a result?

Continues over

READING '78: Likely leds hit the Jeckpot by getting it down them during the Festivities (page 40), which included TOM ROBINSON (top left) taking on all-comers and JIMMY SHAM mistaking JOHN FEEL for a Skin — STEYE HILLAGE makes his excuses and leaves the way clear for 11-year old PAUL INDER, next year's thing. But what would Reading be without fish and tits (left) and PAUTI SMITH (above), who can make her guitar speak without even touching it, man. LATE RESULT: Reading 2, Wigan 0

READING

The one genuine high of the day was, of course, provided by Randy California and Splatt. A real star, three proper municians. I believe the time has now gone when a mass suddence on recognite the has now gone when a mass audience can recognise the goods. Still, Californis won all the guitar hero awards with his behind-the-head picking. He remained true to the ideal his band represent, leaving the boards to play stunning guitar amongst the fans down front. Without compromising talent California, Cassidy and Knight tumed in sterline ratent California, Cassady and Kright turned in sterling versions of "Nature's Way", "Like A Rolling Stone", "Hey Joe", "Lookin" Down" and "Watchtower". It's doubtful whether Hendrix would have created more impact. They certainly merited an encore although a disgruntled Peel reminded thom that "If Spirit do an encore it means less tim for Status Quo". Stuff that,

Spirit were magic and did "Wild Thing" in nyway. The brilliance of Spirit was proof positive of the redundancy of the groups who preceded them (Kinh excepted). Maybe they won themselves some new fans, too — they deserved the anothause.

applause. The timetabled impersonality of Reading was shown by the tectless way The Motors immediately took the stage. No relaxation, no econds of respite from the inexorable and predictable climax. The Motors were probably playing their last set with Bram Tchaikovsky on lead guitar and made heavy weather of the gig, despite the added bonus of beck-up vocalists and a rots of hit singles. Garvey seemed booser woealists and a rote of hit singles. Garvey seemed looser than usual, perhaps remembering that last year they opened at Reading as unknowns and now they're on the verge of retirement. It was an age before Status Quo appeared. Last year on this soot Ouo's alose was taken this spot Quo's place was taken by Thin Lizzy, who seemed to by Inn Lizzy, who seemed to have permanently damaged the memories of the punters who support most of the other H. M. outlits in these isles. But Quo showed that they would take no chances from the first riff.

They repeated this riff for the next hour and a half and the next nour and a nat and honour was apparently satisfied. What difference would it make if I criticised them? None. Status Quo are just there, looks like they always will be. After fifteen sways will ore. Alter lifecen years they've learnt that you don't need to progress to maintain your popularity. Give them what they want, what they know and dost of it. The evening went down, down, down, "Rockin' All Over The World" "Grodine". "Rod World", "Caroline", "Roll Over Lay Down" - laughably simple and brain-crushingly draining. Such a calculated exercise

Such a calculated exercise for them. It was at Reading in 1972 that Quo came of age for the second time as the surprise lessival hit. Since then they haven't changed one bit. No surprises now. Rossi and Parfitt must be bored stiff observation out the rame dier adchurning out the same diet ad They'll be back in 1984, too, you bet. The new wave just hasn't gone far enough. Britain remains a nation of nostalgic shop-keepers.

SUNDAY

NO, IT DIDN'T RAIN, but there was little else to celebrate on a dreary, disappointing Reading Sunday. The good bands could've been better, the bad bands were dreadful. And despite the much-vaunted invasion of the New Wave, nothing remotely new or innovatory occurred. Everyone played safe, and lost.

After The Fire began the proceedings at noon. They played the kind of set you'd bottom-of-the-bill band. Ponderous, dirge-like rock with silly titles like "Love Is Alive". Someone told me they were a Christian group, but this may just be a malicious rumour.

a malicious rumour.

Chelica were next, Gene October resplendent in red, crashing through a set of standard punk energetic at least, but mostly forgettable.
They worked laund, but their ploodding attempt to made statements about the Modern World was redundant at least 18 months ago.
Pacific Eardrum have no statements to make about anything. "Sitting On A Daisy" defines their level of lyrical ineptitude, and the lyrical ineptitude, and the music doesn't fare any better -- polite funk and piddling music doesn't fare any better polite funk and piddhing essays at jazz.

Bethand provided temporary relief until they, too, became wearisome. The songs from their first album, particularly "Soldier Boy" and "Who We Gonna Blame", were more forceful live, but their new songs were long-winded, and the band continue to indulge their tendency for overblown arrangements. They must have been listening to
"Quadrophenia" again.
With Squesee cume the first really inventive music, the first the and the first rock and roll of the afternon. They spoilt it all with Chris Difford's tedious and stupid 4th Form humour rap on "Deep Cuts", but "Take Me I'm Yours" still sounds fine and the classic rock and roll of livest of "Meters of " sounds fine and the classic rock and roll virtues of "Mess Around" and "Get Smart" had me grinning at last. They sounded far tougher than their album suggests, and came as a album suggests, and came as a pleasant surprise. As did John Otwey, I hate the records, on which be imitates a whining adolescent, but his range acrobatics provided some requisite light relief, and invoked the spirit of anarchy with more humour and spontancity than the Patti Smith securio could mnage. Smith group could manage later. The fuller sound later: The fuller sound provided by his new band improved the music, but Otway himself is the focus of every performance. The way he careered around the stage, swung from the scaffolding and put all the mikes out of action was a found pubbeld. Whether he put all the mixes out of action was a joy to behold. Maybe he should give up rock and roll and join a circus. The entertainment was continued in a less frenzied fashion by The Abbon Band, with their mixture of medieval dances and electric folk. The hand was automated by a trick and the street of the street was the street of the street was the street band was augmented by a trio of lady singers including June Tabor and two Morris Men Tabor and two Morris Men who jumped about and waved their hankies with great zest. Highlights were Rie Sanders' violin variations on John Coltrane and the moody, tragic "The Gresford Disaster". The

"The Gresford Disaster". The band seemed a little uneasy in the Rock Festival context, and they weren't the crowd's favourite—but they provided the most accomplished musiclarship of the day, and were the only people to try out some subtle tone changes and a variety of styles.

some subtle tone changes and a variety of styles.
In fact, I was beginning to enjoy myself, but Pmul Indee came on and put a stop to that. He wears long, yellow hair and a cowboy hat. He sings in a shrill, affected drawl and wrenches a horrible buzzing coine from his mitter. He wrencies a northe ouzzing noise from his guitar. He writes songs like "I Don's Wanna Go To Bed, I Just Wanna Rock'n'Roll" and does an unbearable version of "Honky Tonk Women" than the guidents in shame nuts. The Residents in shame "Honky Tonk Women" that puts The Residents to shame. Paul Inder is 11 years old, and Lemmy is his dad. I don't know how he ever got on to the bill, but I guess too many people have indulged his fantasies for too long. The least said the better.

After his, the Inn Cillian

Janusies for too long. The least said the better.
After this, the land Gillan Band appeared in the unusual guise of manna from leaven. The new "Dead Of Night" impressed, but best of all was the closing thud of "Smoke On The Water" complete, of course, with smoke and the first coloured lights of the evening. Corry, but effective — as was the choice of "Ludile" for an encore. I wish lan Gillan wouldn't scream like Tiny Tim, but the band performed their functional brand of heavy rock with a refreshing lack of pretension, though you could hardly call them inspiring.

Neither, on the night, were TRB. A few weeks back, in the sweaty confines of The Brecknock, they played an exhilarating set of mostly new songs. Tonight, the choice of material was more conservative and the passion was locking. They also spoiled "Blue Murder" by dragging it out for too long. However, Dolphin was funny on "Law'a'Order". Danny threw in some good guitar breaks, and we did get spirited renditions of "Up Against The Wall", "Motorway" and "Don't Take No For An Answer". No way were they bad, I was just hoping for something more than crowd-pleasers.

To say Foreignet were dire would be doing them an undeserved kindness. They were simply the worst "name" group I've ever seen. Genuine BOF hacks, churning out licks that were stale before the Boer War and padding them out with the most unith the most unith the most unith the most interby with the most interby Brecknock, they played an that were stale before the Boer War and padding them out with the most utterly incompetent and inconsequential solo jerk-offs. These guys don't have an ounce of real rock and roll in their souls. They were cumbersome, humourless, banal. God, they were AWTUL!

And so, the finale. Could Petti Swith turn in a Patti Sauth turnin a transcendent performance and save the day in a final blaze of triumph? In a word, no. She had her moments, but it was a restrained and only partly successful climax to a day of essential mediocrity that deserved no better and had promised even less. She never gave the impression that her heart was totally in it, but she did give enough to restore on y faith in music (somewhat bruised by now) and to provide a thoroughly entertaining, if surprisingly unadventurous, hour and a quarter.

A rather ropey start was

bour and a quarter.

A rather ropey start was beset by sound problems, but she hit ber stride with "Ghost Dance", followed by a breathtaking version of James Brown's "It's A Man's Men's Man's World" and a fiery race through The Byrds "So You
Warns Re A Rock And Roll

Iltrough The Byrds' "So You Wanna Be A Rock And Roll Star", "Ask The Angels" and "25th Floor" strayed dangerously close to mere HM flash, but she still ends strongly with the beautiful classic "Because The Night" and an impassioned "Gloria". The encore peaked on a powerfully ragged "My Generation", which the band then undermined with some half-hearted instrument trashing — token anarchy which failed to convince. A fragile "God Speed" and she was gone.

magne "God Speed" and she was gone. It seemed appropriate that the day should end on a B-side. A day on which nothing was revealed, and very little delivered.

No risks, no glory. The trouble with festivals.

See you in '84 , ,

72 Thomas philosophy 73 (Marries Marries Program 73 Charles Grand February 74 Program 75 Charles Grand February 75 Charles Feb

Pic by DENIS O'REGAN

YOUNG ONE Paul Lewis loses his grip. Pic by CHRISTINE SIVIOUR charisma. The mambers — "Push Button Lover", "Goodbye Alagha", "Ago Oll Reason", the rew stagle "Rock And Roll Radio et al.— was also before the stagle "Rock And Roll Radio et al.— was also before the stagle "Rock And Roll Radio et al.— was also before the stagle foot and John Holiday's pleatum propelled Rickenbacker 4-string. It was never boring; the Pyrico often sounded like they deserved to be heard. The formula was effective if a little rigid. High-kirking Lewis histronic vocals of beiling melodisminalism were soothingly interripe rad by well-rebursed wood hastonicus which echoed the best of and 60s notificance. A few foot of the common stagle was also been sometimed to be well as the proof Paul Wickers' keybourds, and competent— al unbiasprod— Richard Bull lead guitar completes from Paul Wickers' keybourds, and competent— al unbiasprod— Richard Bull lead guitar complete be franched product. The wooden clientele, rooted to their born, could have fase to the corrasion. They opted otherwise.

The Unimate song, a rendution of "Substituse", confirmed a bot about what could have been wrong. Just how many good times are left?

The Young Ones LEEDS

IF AUDIENCE participation requires a "conactence collective", no questions were answered on "New Wave Night" at suburban pub rock wenner, the Frode Grene. Mainsteam rock fans expect no anore than exhibitionist popiosig these days (no long as their view of the Baser more).

these days (no long as their view of the tage remains anompromosed), but The Young Ones deserved cover than an audience of nowbelmed, seed setting and the control of the c

Gabba-Gabba Gabriel

Peter Gabriel

The crowd are getting impution).
The support band — Interview — has been and gone.
The Close Encounters trailer is finished, and — apart from bawling out the inevitable "Wallyee" — all that's from bawling out the lacvitable "Wallyce" — all that's left to do is gawp at the safety curtain. Slow handedray give way to the strains of aco-symphonic moog music. At last the curtain rises, and the nudleuce stares at an unpeopled stage. An ensurement step-hader stands stage curter, flanked by another to its right.

The ceiling gastry is strewn with plain white utility lamps that hang of muorted lengths. There are perhaps four TV acreeus scattered around the stage. They're turned on, but instead of projecting an image they bazz soundlessly with white light.

There is no band. Most of all, there is no sign of Peter Gahriel.

Eventually he and the rest of the band, each of them

Gataries.
Eventually be and the rest of the band, each of them wearing what resemble (they might even be) fluorescent red round-workunn's vests, stantable onto the stage. They appear from the intimate auditorium not, as is customary, from from the intimate auditorium not, no is customary, from buckstage.

You don't notice Gubriel straight away. He positions bimself so that his body is flut against the highest part of the indeer. The band biasts into (nn apt) "On The Air", opening cut from the hat Gubriel album, and he somethow manages to leap down without blowing his cool. (That could'be been painful.—Ed.)

leap down without blowing his cool. (That could' be been painful.—Ed.)

The nound's appailing as Gobriel's voculs struggle against the confused might of his hand. But then this is Galariel's first show he over a year, the first of three 'secret gigs' prior to a Euro-tour and what, on paper, looks like a sthe-prior to be used to be supported to be been supported by a slightly surface and subject to be been supported by a slightly surface supported by the supported by t and original as ever.

If you want to talk in terms of New Wave, theo look no

Tennis Shoes BRECKNOCK, LONDON

"THE WAITING only makes the heartache worse", ran the ad, complete with tennis ball logo. I struck out for Camden Road, intrigued, The line comes fron "227", a typical Tennis Shoes song about lowe on a suburtion bus about love on a suburban bus route. A Bongos-derived pre-occupation with physical unattractiveness and English inhibitions and absurdities is also evident ("So Large", for instance, is about buttocks). Ken Dampier alone sports tennis cere.

Ken Dampier alone sports tennis gear.
But before you file them moder comedy, Ken announces one "For all those who prefer Arthur Conley to Saturday Night Fever" and the band hit a truly terocious groove on "Lost Insole". The guitars of Colin Minchin and John Bandle it had be preferable with the Bayley lock perfectly with the skin-tight rhythm section, totally transcending perody. Pete Hornsby's piano is inaudible, as throughout. Humour is mainly lyrical rather than visual, though slides are used to good effect and an arm-waving cut-out of Britain's richest woman highlights "Medium Wave" a fectional dance craze in the highlights "Medium Wave", a fictional dance craze in the tradition of "Do The Strand" and "The Sacro-liae". John's "Bad News Blues", a new, improved "Can Blue Men Sing The Whites?" is the one musical joke.

The band can't be divided into clowers and musiciare.

The band can't be drivided into clowns and musicians. Colin and Pete wrote some of the funniest songs, including "I Wanna Be A Suppository", which makes it on title alone. "From My Arsa To Yours" announces Pete, rampaging down front to a Ramnnes. down front to a Ram down front to a Ramone's back-beat as the medical definition is flashed on the wall. Lyrics are fortunately indecipherable.

Aside fron the jokes and visuals, Tennis Shoes are very able pop-rockers. Catch them before they give up their day jobs, in case their diversity gets lost in the transition.

Harry George

Two TENNIS SHOE-ettes: ""Ere, d'ye reckon his flies'll bust . . . 7" Pic by STEVE ADAMS

New Hope for the Hopelessly Bored!

COMING IN OCTOBER!

Distributed thru ROUGH TRADE, London; RECOMMENDED RECORDS, London; MUSIC 80X, Paris, CERESCO, Villeneuve; and SAM DISTRIBUTION, Stockholm.

Suries

FOR DETAILS OF ADVERTISING ON PLATTERSTALL CONTACT SUE FLETCHER ON 01-261 6172

GOLDEN OLDIES 99p

S — Words — William of John S — William of John S — William Oranger 1961 — A — Sign Piner, William District S — Sign Piner, William HE AVALOR - Venue / Storry See To Do

GOLDEN OLDIES 79p

SPECIAL OFFER L.P.

SARY AND A BURNING STATE OF THE SARY AND A S

VARIOUS L.Ps

SUMMER SALE term Today, Pay us a visit Just doors from Word State Hundrade of Geneino Bargas

DVERSEAS POSTAGE

11 any quantity of 2 75p per 127

8 uch post 2 0 stcheques to
5 12 CRAWBRDOM ROAD strong
5 12 CRAWBRDOM ROAD strong
6 statistics our existingum of Golde
6 statistics were 2500 refers Send 25

vereas 2 international Roby Composi-

OWIE BOWIE BOWIE

- 120 PIPIE IE IE IE IE IE IE

SPECIALS SPECIALS SPECIALS LP ASSESSMENT AND THE PARTY AN

Electron

Adrians

SPECIAL COLLECTOR'S EDITIONS IMPORTS FROM JAPAN

Leto of other authors inques his. SYLENS, DYLAN, EDS., SEATLES, ELO. DEEP PLOSES PRESULT, MLACH SOTS, SUMMANYS.

JACKSES

MINEL GOLDEN DOUBLE SPECIAL/CAT STETURES, LIVE BY JAPAN SYTLAN, JALIAS SETT, LERWICH/CORD, WIDDINGS JABANS, LERWICH/CORD, JARONS SETT, LERWICH/CORD, WIDDINGS JABANS, LERWICH/CORD, JACKS JAPAN SETT,
JAP

FIVES 55 ELM ROAD LEIGH on SEA, Essex

Parrit Records

160 7

And the second s

RARE DELETIONS FOR SALE

Lame salection of valuable dele Large selection of valuable dele-tions in Rare Record Soction at RECORD & TAPE EXCHANGE, 28 Pembridge Road, Nothing Hill Gate, London W11 Tcl. 227 3538) All Records and tapes also bought, sold or exchanged at 40 Nothing Hill Gate, London W11 and 90 Goldhawk Road, London W12.

CUT PRICE BLANK CASSETTES

Add part plays order METRO TX Dept MME, 204 Road, London, Tal: 69.724 MO TOO

WEST 4 RECORD COVERS 10.00 30 50 61 20 1000 (16.75 L) Fandament (10.00 16.15 L) 1000 (16.75 L) Fandament (10.15 L) 75 30 (16.15 L) 100 (16.75 L) 25 21 10 year (10.15 L) 100 (16.75 L) 100 (16.

PAPES & PECCORDS, NO CHECKINGS INC.
MEAD LONDON YOU DONE MAN

£1.15 Rock SINGLE ALBUMS! Discounts! To

Send for our bumper Free Meit order Catalogue listing almost 5,000 TITLES of brand new unplayed fully guaranteed albums at HUGE DISCOUNTS!

Besides our fast service we offer you

Cheap Imports! Discount Cassettes! Weekly News Sheets! Punk Singles! Export! Export!

Remember — We specialise in Rock

Either phone us at 0484 710880 (24 hour Ansafone) or write to: OZONE MAIL ORDER, Dept. NME, PO Box 21, 37 Sethel Street, Brighouse, W Yorks HD6 1A8 (Great Britala).

RECORD CORNER
27 BEDHORD WILL RALHAM SW 12
JOIN the 1900s who get our bookiet each fortnight. UK £1.20 per year. Oversees £1.45 per
A FEW OF OUR ELVIS
PRESELEY RECORDS
AT THE SAME AND THE

Region Stands Shouts Furth Franchi Level Ma Tombon Shoutson You Want Level Track Toddy Sheet of a Stance of Sheet Mark of Shouts Return to Sandan Shoutson of Shout Return to Sandan Shoutson of Shout Cyling In the Chegul I Shoutson in the she Sign location and Lovin (double 13 90)

A FEW OF OUR YOP SELLING ROCK, NEW WAYE AND IMPORTS

on, the European Street of

od Oor's Ook (121

N You Collect Records Make Sure You Try Us. Our Orders Are You Fry Us. Our Orders Are You Well Weeks.
PostPashings: U.K. Singles.—
1-5-15p. Over 5—25p. LPs and 1-1 = 200 Persons Over 5—25p. LPs and 1-1 = 200 Persons Persons Over 5—25p. LPs 1-1 = 200 Persons Pers

PORAPARTE TO

BONAPARTE SPECIALS

A distance of the property of

of June - Main Sellers -

NEWIES , LP/s

BONAPARTE NEWIES

A file of the control of the control

THE EXPERT EXPORTERS ATTENTION ALL OVERSEAS READERS

(U.K. readers should go quietly FRANTIC!)
If you live in NORWAY, DENMARK, SWEDEN, FINLAND, GERMANY, BELGIUM, HOLLAND, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, etc., why pay fa and over for your LPs when you can bus high quality new and unplayed LPs from the expert personal exporters for half that price.
Write today for full details including the new TANDY's catalogue plus list of new releases.

Trade enquiries welcome

TANDY'S RECORDS LTD. (DEPT. NX) Anderson Road Warley B66 48B Tel. 021-429 6441/2 Telen: TANDORDS 338024

HAVE YOU GONE

31

YET?

If you don't mind paying £4.00 for your LP's FRANTIC is not for you, but FRANTIC customers save up to £1.00 off the price of top selfting LP's and £2.00 off double albums Of course, they also enjoy the £ANTIC &8-bour service given by the experts of mail order

Write today for the new FRANTIC catalogue which contains 1,000 amering bargains

MAIL ÖRDER COMPANY WARLEY WEST MIDLAND 866 488 Tel. 021-429 6441/2

MISSED THAT HIT SOUND WHILE IT WAS AROUND? Get it from the dealer with all the classics.

singles listed below are only 75p each and are but a small sele-over 2,000 singles and 1,000 L P is listed at incredible priori

AMERICA LEMMARRY

JEFF BECK Hi he silver lawns DAVID BOWNE COMMODORES

DEEP PURPLE

EXCEPTERS DERRY &

Walk on the LEO SAYER When I nee Mersey NORMAN GREENBAUM SPACE Magic fly STRANGLERS Spirit in the sky HOLLIES Arthot Ebreethy Peaches ig MACLE PYTHON LEE JACKSON

GLADYS KNIGHT Notes the unite of the control of th JOHN MILES

ALBO A GREAT BARGAIN
100 HFT SINGLES — £13
100 SOUL SINGLES — £8
100 REGARE SINGLES — £8
(ALL ARE PLUS £2 IF OVERSEAS)

OLDIES UNLIMITED Department N 6/12 STAFFORD STREET

PLAYBACK RECORDS

ELVIS PRESLEY

VELVELETTE

DENNECE WILLIAMS

MODOW!

O POCK STREET LONDON HWY

STUART HENRY SOUND SYSTEMS

MIR PARK BURT

JOHN COLTRANS - Turning Paint,

Canaettes (all at only £2.99)

Stuart Henry Sound System 126 Maryletone Rd. London NW1 Yel. 01-487 5027 rier to Maryletone Reed s

Postage and packing — 1 Itam Overseas 50p per item. Shoppers CHECKER RECORDS

234 Grah Hackney, Lendon Et

SOUND AND MUSIC, 11 Stemhold Avenue, 5treethem, London SW2.

ALL TRADE ENQUIRIES WELCOME

FREE LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP TO CASSETTE LENDING LIBRARY

All Kinds of Music

For details of advertising in this section, contact Sue Fletcher on 01-261 6172.

ARE PAYING TOO MUCH FOR RECORDS AND CASSETTES

AND WE INTEND TO CHANGE ALL THIS DB RECORDS, N-120, PORTHMADOG, GWYNEDD, WALES, BRITISH ISLES (Tel 0766 21703185 Mon-Fri) IS THE WORLDS MOST COMPLETE RECORD SERVICE (OVER 20.000 REGULAR AND SAYISFIED CUSTOMERS WORLDWIDE)

REGULAR AND SATISFIED CUSTOMERS WORLDWIDE)

OUR EXCLUSIVE SERVICES —

1 ANY BRAND NEW LP OR CASSETTE SOLD WITHIN THE BRITISH ISLES AND DVERSEAS AT IDPTO (1 OFF FULL RETAIL PRICE Speedy and efficient service. Free catalogue listing nearly 3,000 like by over 200 different artists. EXPORT ENQUIRIES WELCOMED.

2. RECORD EXCHANGE AND PURCHASE SERVICE. YOU unwanted good condition LP's and cassettes bought for cash or exchanged for any brand new stems of your own choice. Send sinc. or phone for details FIRST (to items accepted unless official offer has been given beforehand).

Denotranal)

1. THOUSANDS OF QUALITY, GUARANTEED GOOD CONDITION USED LP's AT BARGAIN PRICES (UK SERVICE ONLY)

Every tem checked thoroughly before purchase and fully guaranteed.

Over 10,000 items in stock. Free catalogue available on request

SAVE LLE'S AT COB

PUNK & ROCK REGGAE & SOUL JAZZ & BLUES

47 Upper Street, Islington, Landon, N3 19 Lawer Goet Lane, Norwich

JOAN BAEZ: "Your policer Pic by TOM SHEEHAN HSP en are so wonderful

Joan Baez

WEMBI EY ARENA

WEMBLEY AREMA
THE FOLKIES' favourite Bleeding Heart turned out a predictable, lacklustre set — songs for multi-lingual pacifists and all people who have a blancmange where their brains should be.

She offered her own ansjor contribution to world peace by singing an Arab song followed by an Israeli song. Later, she sang a Lennon song followed by a McCartney song, so maybe a Beatles' reunion is part of her political programme.

There were no songs about current English or American dissidents (100 close to home, hub?), but a song for the Sakharova and a two-maint estimate of the Carcha during which someone shouled "wonder woman". Joan was irritated, but really it's true — she doles out exactly the same brand of leky preachiness.

but really it's true — she doles out exactly the name brain or licky preachiness.

She's been singing for over twenty years, but she's hardly developed at all — like some Kalka character wandering in circles around a non-existent goal. The audience, bright-eyed and well-scrubbed, applauded everything with gusto, glod to be confirmed in their simple-minded righteousness. It was like being back at school, with several thousand teacher's pets.

A used and depressing spectacle.

Graham Lock

Greham Lock

Ignatz HOPE AND ANCHOR, LONDON

HOW CURIOUS it is that. HOW CORTOLOR IT IS that, while many English groups seek to create a national identity by exaggerating their essential "Englishness", bands from north of the border derive their inspiration more freely from the music of the freely from the music of the U.S.A.

Thus Ignatz have a very American texture about their music, with passing references to funk and acid rock, and write songs with titles like "New York", "Downtown Saturday", and "Gasoline". The Scottish element comes through in between the songs and in the peculiarly embarrassing way they perform set pieces of comedy within the songs, as in the encore "Go Out And Get It" and something called "Doo within the songs, as in the encore "Go Out And Get It" and something called "Doo Doo DOO Dab", which were pretty tiresome. "Let's get scry, Let's all take our willies out", was just one example of the audience rap. Moaning aside, the music was exciting for the most part, and the presentation punchy and professional. Audrey Craig and Dave Amos share the vocal limelight, the latter sounding like a gruff Boz Scaggs out of Robert Pelmer. The whole ensemble is difficult to categorise which is one of their aims, but it doesn't necessarily make for a distinctive sound. Sometimes they travelbed through Average White Band territory, sometimes Stevie Wonder-land and occasionally ventured into sometimes stevic Wonder-land and occasionally ventured into the expressionist realms of Meatloaf. Gerard Lohan played guitar in a style often reminiscent of Santana; the break in "Breaklast At Tiffany's" particularly invoked rich images of "Caravanserai", though again too much self-conscious horseplay tended to spoil things towards the end.

tended to spoil things towards the end.
Gordon Dougall maintained an effective network of sounds from his organ (Getting sexy, was he? — Ed.) while John Mandy was little thort of sensational on bass, using several techniques to lead the instrument ever further into the realms of creative, melodic sound. He seemed to pluck out notes one could almost feel, harsh and vibrant behind the soft hammering of the organ and the melifluous guitar, and as most recent member is a gift-edged investment.

The piece de resistance was undoubtedly "Gasoline", an epic with echoes of "Superstition", Zappa and Meatloal, great vocals and petrol-driven guitar, which did more to get them an encore than the subsequent pieces.

Not a bad evening, but a little curate's eggish, if ye ken what I mean.

what I mean.

Nell Norman

FLY AWAY JOAN - COME BACK MARIANNE

Marianne Faithful WESTON-SUPER-MARE

FROM TEENAGE HIGH Society convent crumpet to shock-rock suicidal show-biz junkette; from cult films to provincial rep from Big in Eire country singles to minor punk band side-show novelty. In thirty years Marianne Faithful has lived it all and then some, and last Thursday on the BBC regional news spot Points West she looked every last day of ther age. dressed in a pink Helen Reddy trouser suit. nervously warding off witlessly probing innuendo Five hours later however, surrounded by the Webbington's variety nite-club depressing drunks and decor, squeezed in between the comic and the stripper she gave an

Jab Jab RED COW, LONDON

IF YOU want Osibisa good ite FOU want control about withes over Coconut Airways rock/reggae, Jab Jab are the hand for you. A bit harsh, maybe, but there's little meat in this particular mythrmic stew. Jab Jab fail to achieve armines it now serve of the Jab Jab Jail to achieve nattiness in any sense of the word. The songs are uniformly lightnesight. Joe Augustnee at least looks intentionally hilatious, while brother Charlie Roy could walk straight into Quintessence with his dippy robe and white organist Ron Bozo poes native with braded Bozo goes native with beaded plaits. Drummer Skinhead Dick, by contrast, exudes a Basie-like aura of unassuming professionalism.

The watery Hendrix guitar is particularly redundant on a leaden "All Along The Watchtower" and the drums Watchtower' and the drums alone are distinctive, culminating in a solo to rank with "Let There Be Drums", the original "Toad" and Mike Shrieve of Santana at Woodstock.

Rhythm, wer Mausichment

Woodstock.
Rhythm, yes. Nourishment
for the heart and mind, no.
Herry George

unexpectedly memorable performance. The first live appearance in her final (?) attempt to become a successful singer of note (rather than notoriety), this evening was intended as a lucrative (the Webbington pays the biggest money in the West Country) warm-up to a European tour and represented a daunting challenge. Over-rigorous rehearsals had occasioned a hoarse vocal collapse, but she had clearly taken steps to compensate and control her nerves, i.e. her eyes looked as though they'd been dipped in plexiglass. Still, in a black leotard and matching leather mini-skirt she is transformed into a stunning nymphette — Deborah Harry would choke on her Plurovite. Both her four-piece band, duly dressed the requisite new-wave way, and the set they played were frustratingly inconsistent. On the one hand they lifelessly pushed out strange, inappropriate choices like "Locomotion" and "Summertime Blues", but also were capable of a good version of Mink de Ville's "Party Girls", an excellent "Ail Along The Watchtower" and a moving, monumental rendition of "Sister Morphine", when they built to a taut climax with a power worthy of The Only Ones as tears surged over La Faithful's cheeks.

Allowing for the occasional disappearances in the higher registers, Marianne's phrasing and full, dark voice (overtones of Nico and Patti) show her to be a singer of substantial talent — with the right material she could surprise a lot of people. Suffice to say, my pre-packed cynicism was completely blown away. Let's hope all the tears really are behind her now.

David Housham

OPPORTUNITIES FURTHER ISSUE FOR MPORTANT INFO ON S WEEK' ONAL NEXT CAT

Keyboard ADDRESS  HOHNER NWE 2/8 -------

JOHN COOPER-CLARKE kicks out the cans. Pic by TOM SHEEHAN HSP

The Misfits Gordon the Moron Ed Banger Giro

MANCHESTER

MODERN CABARET entertainment. There is lively achievement in this field, and minimal formality and demands. Not just POP music but a bright and positive dramatic essence too. Shocking music, sharp people, vivacious visuals. Mickie Most was so close it hurts (lan Dury, Fabulous Poodles, The Rezillos, Boomtown Rats.) All a parody of discipline and intent.

parrody of discipline and intent.

Rabid Records have, and did have (John Cooper-Clarke, Slaughter and the Dogs), an impressive rosts of unimated modern cabaret acts.

Artificial, lively, inspired. Acts that sparkle with that elusive glitter of All Round Enterteinment. Rabid could stage a credible pentonnine.

A Priday night at the Russell Club — The Factory, a new mightchub in Manchester for wayward sounds and noises inspired by the ideals of genial gents Tony Wilson and Roger Eagle. A Rabid package (I don't know about alicantion, but the minor supporting role of eccentricity featured heavily).

The Miffilis, two adocuments.

heavily).
The Misfits, two adequately tarty-cled vulgar ladies, scurrilously introduced the new art of candid poetical bitching. Sneeringly reciting with gostipy disdain lines about such as the forbidden world of "Ladies Loos", sourceing some nervesty. squeezing some perversely touching romanticism out of this environment of guilt, and the way to 'liberation' through nymphomania, they squawked and tittered, feered and flounced, at once Hinge and Brackett, and Snatch. Or normally normal but oddly strance.

strange.
The Misfits as obnoxiously gleeful hostesses introduced Gordon the Moron (six foot gleeful hostesses introduced Gordon the Moron (six foot five, really alive). Gordon has chucked Julie, who now goes out with Dave the Biker, who writes songs for Barbara Dickirson. Gordon, incensed by that insecure wimp filted John's freak success, hus turned in his usual foothardy way to his own type of performance. His resentment and anger surfaces in desrespectful mimicry of current popular dances — modern to 'get on up'. After an ordinary boogie-jum intro supplied by the Rabid Rock Orchestra. groovy Gordon smoothly thanks spectators in best Martin Mull "thankyou, thankyou, thankyou, you're a thanks spectators in beat Martin Mull "shankyou, thankyou, the group fumble into a just recognisable stiff riff. Gordon's adopted woice sounds familiar, the elongated moans of an obvious schizoid. Ah, yes, Gordon the Modern Man shrewdly pays homage to the glossy Magazine. The tune, "The Light Pours Out Of Met": "I don't want to be a star", Gordon naughtly changes the lyric, "The silence shines out of my arse."

"You're a wonderful audience... lovely country. It's really good to be batck here." Next, "(I Can't Find My Way) Beck To Akron"—the Moron and his tuned combo sensitively.

To Akron"—the Moron and his tuned combo ensitively filtr with Devo jerk methods. Gordon is a man to look up to! Despite all, he can laugh at the world. This man is more than cool and trendy. So much more: "We're surrounded by really beautiful people. It's our first visit here. Lovely country, lots of green."

You want family fun? We'll give you family fun!

RABID PAYOLA SPECIAL

As compere, he introduced Ed Banger and his group Therapy. Eddle is too close a pal for me to pass critical comment on. Suffice to say his crassly extrovert comic rifferama (he loves the sound of breaking bricks, not glass, appreciate the subtlety) appeals directly to all willing head bangers. A clumsy but happy man, and wildly infectious.

happy man, and wildly infectious.

Concluding, Giro — some 'serious' music. Cunning craftstem who don't miss a trick in producing 'new Music'. Epileptic rhythms, restless guitar parts, shifting metal passages, ethereal psychedetic drifting; lost of space, stop and start. Lyrics that range from coy vignettes about crabs through to harsher messages. Hectic, beady, heavy. Yet no dimension, narrow imagination, low dynamics. All surface: very clever, but nothing to feel or use. They are a shell. And too self-satisfied. I needed no excuses to leave.

Paul Morley

Fischer Z THE NASHVILLE.

STEVE SKOLNICK and John Watts are classically trained, They also rock, This surprised

They also rock, This surprised me.
"Sailor meets Elvis
Costello," "visecracked Max,
Roogalator's manager. Not bad, Max. Skolnick does get that nickelodeon sound in a wholly different context, alternating with a kind of melodic white noise. With his huge bow rie and tails, he's Ron Maei to Watts' Russell. Watts takes no solos, but his aggressive guitar chording is the essential backbone to his parmer's expavagance. His singing is alternately ironic and plaintive, his stage presence almost endearing; a middle class cheeky chappie.

The endings get quirkier and class cheeky chappie.

The ending see quinkier and Wans sarkier as the set progresses. Fuchor Z music is clever and English without being passionless. This is rare and should be experienced.
Harry George

GORDON THE MORON (hiding behind elephant) antertains the masses.

John Cooper-Clarke Gordon The Moron Ed Banger GIFO ERIC'S LIVERPOOL

MANCHESTER, as we all know, is this year's Akroo. MARCHES HER, as we all snow, is this year's And Or last year's Leeds, or is it next Thursday's New Defin? Confusing. What's for sure is that a good proportion of that town's odder talents have found their way to Rabid Records, presenters of this proportion of that town's odder talents have found their way to Rubid Records, presenters of this intrigulag package.

It's an emy-evening set for under-28s, many of whom are breed by Gardan's 707P appearance with litted John, And yet, after a hambelle set, the haplen fellow exits to the swand has an incode, Gooden's a lever lad, so show, a charer, but with a gift for the (sm-unarketable) abused—there's a Devo pion-take, a 3-account version of "Heartheach" (three people chapped), a disco song (solody chapped) and an Elvis pios-take, "You Ain's Nothin's But A Goldfiths" (somebody laughed). At which potat the set collapsed, Gordon vaulshed and his group, The Frime Time Sackers, and macranity better thing of.

Gire, by contrast, know jost what they've shoots and, to judge from "Red Dead Meat" and the striking "Central Devention Centre", they've the makings of a truly 'modern' sound. Check them out.

Don't look now but here comes old Ed Banger ("and his Therapy group"), a slightly pixeled Bower-child who centertain with the determination of Gary Gitter. Come what may, Ed's still game. You want industrial rock? Well try "I Like The Sound Of Breaking Beicks". Foremost among Ed's plans for the future is a change of rame. Shrewd move. (Actually I lowed him.)

And linally it's time for the evan with "that certain nothing", the only poet you can dance to, John Cooper-Charle. From "Gaberdeen Augus" and the wittly polemical "You Never See a Nippte in The Dully Express" to the event of the cown come home but it is at hetter that you get it from the horse's mouth and, with a CBS deal, you should soon get the chance.

And later, at the grown-upst show, well. . . . Gordon direled his set to read poetry while amorted Suckers played me-form and he faced a harvage of over-places and chants of "Gordon tive feels points in the world"; the next Pope made a surprise guest appearance but Jilied John did not. Ed Banger redeemed his net to read poetry while amorted Suckers played me for redeemed his intentive with "Kinell Tomomy" and Jo

Doll By Doll ROCHESTER CASTLE,

ROCHESTER CASTLE, LONDON THEY WALK ON stage, stare at the audience, and begin playing a low-key instrumental. Then— BAM—into a hard rocker, "Lose Myself In You", and Doll By Doll don't let up again, they just get better and better.

again, viery just before.

There are a few ordinary numbers early on, the weakest being a punkish thing about having "bottle and guts" (yawn), but with the dramatic "Butcher Boy" the set takes off and builds to a tremendous elimax via a succession of remarkable instant classics.

Like "Teenage Lightning", a great arrect anthem, the 78 "All The Young Dudes" but swonger Or "Strip Show", digurified pop/soul for the modern world, Or "Palace Of Love", anguished vocals matched by a crescendo of controlled feedback controlled feedback (some what undermined at the Rochester Castle when one of the barmen close to the stage chose this moment to life a table in his teeth!).

The Velvets are an obvious influence, and they also remind me of the late, great Winkies. The sense power, the same promise. Packle Leven and Jo Shaw both know their way around a guitar, and the former's soul-influenced vocals are a perfect complement to his partner's straight-ahead rock style. Rhythm comes from Robin Spreafico on basa and druttumer Dave, whose scared-stiff-ol-life gaze into the floor exemplifies the air of paranots which the band seem to feed off.

floor exemplifies the air of paranota which the band seem to feed off.

You may have read that Doll By Doll are unrelievedly harrowing, and avoided their gigs for fear of being driven screaming into the night. Well, don't be nervous. They're internes and they're serious (and all presise to them for that), but they're also very enternaming and they play great rock and roll.

If they tighten up, and if the Music Bix doesn't screw them up, Doll By Doll will be leading as into the '80s, No kidding.

Graham Lock

Graham Lock

New Hearts MARQUEE, LONDON

A COFFIN borne solemnly A COFFIN borne solemny on to the stage, vocalist lan Paine emerging to fling a wreath to the audience. Black arm-bands and 'New Hearts are not dead...yet' T-shirts; this gig had an unmistakeable air of finality wit.

to it.

They crashed strough 90
minuses of loud modern pop, their entire repersoire, with the unmaccountable exception of
"I'm Nos Free But I'm Cheap," and from lan's throwaway comments it seems that this phase of the Hearts 'career has drawn to a close."

comments its cents that this phase of the Hearts' career has drawn to a close. They haven't seen much of the limelight since they were written off last year as second-sate new wave but with material as strong as "Here Come The Ordinanes," "Revolution, What Revolution," what 'Only Medimen Laugh", they should surely have come a los further by this stage. As things stand, they can pull or respeciable Marquee crowd, delight a growing body of hard core fans and produce songs which are consistently good but not yet great. They are too serious to be taken as anything else.

Kim Davis

Kim Davis

Souvenir Scarves

The Ring — Elvis Freeley Aton Abbe, Wings, Guese, Bloo-dle, Sati Castru, Bac Goos, Steward, Chewaldywaldy — Bavid Bowis —

Seed E.A.E. for prior and order R. HARRISON 10 Connection fixed INCOLDMELLS Shapmen, Linus

FLEECY LINED GREAT QUALITY

GREAT VALUE

+ 25p p&P white, navy & red in sizes a. m. L.

send cheque or P.O colour & size required to: Lazy Casuals 1 Caldicott Close Shillinglord Oxon

Genuine U.S. Forces Mountain Feather Sleeping Bags

£18.75

Limited Quantity Only of GENUME GOVERNMENT SURPLUS Swedish Airforce OP QUALITY Heavy Black Leather

£39.50

Jackets

Now The Genuine Article Superb Quality

Heavy Sheepskin Flying Jackets

Cash, Money or Postal Order Cheques, with order Salislaction or money refunded

NORTHERN SURPLUS STORES

Dept. NME 357 Leith Welk. Edinburgh Tel: 031-554 4179.

£1.75 mat + ap

NE PARK PRODUCTS (MESA) BERTON HOUSE, SENE PARK HYTHE, KENT, CT27 SX0

SHARON RIDSON (AIME IS) 2 Hotel Street, Lecture (E.S.A.)

Freijin, D.A.M.Y. Rox, Deve Constite, Once, Recents, A feet, office, a feet, a

MEY REEPERS ONLY 78p or php Don't Get Locked Out? PERSONAL CALLERS WELCOME!

2 Sherwood Street, opposite Regent Palace Hotel, Piccaelify Circus, Lor Born to Midnight "Oversees orders pisses and Zilp pilip

MAIL ORDER PROTECTION SCHEME

APOLLO TOUR MARKETING IAN DURY T-Shirts

Top Quality: Red lattering, dark blue fac-starf, primed on white T-Shirt £250 plus 30p pos-age and packing

£2.50

Grow Year Own
Gold dealgn on brack also 23.69 + 30p PBP
Step pilot chest sare
Deal large year near and Rease alter 14 days for de

APOLLO FOUR MARKETING BASEMENT STUDIO (HIME), 33 NORTON ROAD, HOVE, SUSSEX, BNS 3BF.

TRADE ENGLANCES
WELCOME

NEW POSTERS *

CARDS & POSITRS

DEBBIE (No 3) E1 10

CHERVI.

rvarzone E. 10 Bách (glus post) Neva Roneways (?), Sat. Night Fores, Nov Yes, Chenyl Ladd Z (hos pants) ($—Close Up), Othis N John in Greece. Nove es Hots 4, 5, 8, New Lynds Cattes IV Wonder Woman No. 1 Face. Also No. 3. Ronstedt 1:2-3-4. Reinbow, Genesia. Nugent, Pistols.

KURFA d2.76 à 20₀ A good cuarity solute A good cuarity solute form with whate entrodory. Chase son

COLDUNED
EMBROIDERED AUNTA exam + for min
that with carin diground 1 CHEESECLOTH

LOOMS

SHAPES (Dopt. Our shop is open all w

DRAPE COAT £8.99. 51, PAP th black valve lier, pocket flaps ad Vari Dyke culle sea 30kn to 46kr

DRAINPIPES £5.99

Same sitre stee

WAISTCOAT

£3.99 Sires 30in to 46in stel orders or cash

MAINLINE (N) 51 TWO MILE HILL ROAD KINGSWOOD BRISTOL, BS15 1BS

REACHES MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER MUSIC PAPER IN THIS COUNTRY

For further details ring. Sue Hayward on 01-261 6122

New Musical Express Classified Advertisments, Kings Reach Tower, Stamford Street, London, S.E.1

Fitt Sparky and Nessie Badges from JOHN SPARKY

BOX NUMBER REPLIES

Should be sent to NEW MUSICAL EXPRESS, King's Reach Tower, Stamford Street, London, S.E 1

THE GANG OF FOUR

Require experienced drummer Phone Dave 0532-444361

DISCOTHEQUE

For Sale Leasehold

sted in south east feast holiday centre. Good all year round trade. New business venturs makes quick sele imperative.

rite Box No. 3589, Room 2529, Hite Kings Reach Tower, London 821

EDUCATIONAL

Then its ...

HOMOSEXUAL? GAY?

information or advice a 031-556 4049 or 041-332 1725

SCOTTISH HOMOSEXUAL RIGHTS GROUP (formarly B.M.C.)

NOTE!

When placing a Classified Advertisement, please could you send payment either by cheque or postal orders, but NOT cash.

Computer Dating..

om Daleline ma

Two 'A' Levels or 'Old' Metriculation? INTERESTED IN GAINING A DEGREE IN THEATRE STUDIES COMBINED WITH LITERATURE?
OR MIEDIA AND COMMUNICATION?

AT THE HEART OF WARRINGTON'S NEW TOWN CHESHIRE

BOME VACANCES AVAILABLE FOR COURSES STARTING AT THE END OF THIS SEPTEMBER CHIEF HOW FOR THE HOTH HOME TO HOME TO HOME THE HOUSE HOUS

FOR SALE

ALMAYS FIRST with the latest pointers. E1 to olive 350 postage. Abbs. Xeas. Bush. Blonder 18 diffusion!, Dirica (Grassea). Farrian 15 different), Borrey M. Grassea). Farrian 15 different), Borrey M. Ber Gees. E1. O. Y. R.S. Chery Ledd; 14 different, Cleah, Dury, New Bowes. Etwa Memory. Terrorite Cleancy, Bewes so Altselin Sans. Saturday Night Faver. Altselin Sans. Saturday Night Faver. Who Stranglers. Law, Japan. Who Stranglers. Law, Japan. Who Stranglers. Law Control of Colores as experiences, Ispan et al. 19, 20 plus a e. Agranows, E. D. Stranglers. Law, Outer Machany. Sand Haller, Osmosia Sabbarh. Bowie, B.O.C. Dyfan. photos, badges, Tahirts, in, 69 St Petersgete, Stocks

AMERICAN ROCK MAGAZINES — SAE/IRC for Illustrated hat and order form — Graffit UK, 8 Shelbourne, Mart-borough, Wittshin.

borough, Wittshirs.

RADGES — $TONES, Print PLOYD,

forms, San Printes, Sabbath, Clarin, Jen.,

forms, San Printes, Sabbath, Clarin, Jen.,

forms, San Printes, Cong.,

forms, San Printes, Sabbath, Clarin, San

forms, Parkinsow, Desp Purphy, Sa
forms, Parkinsow, Desp Purphy, Sa
forms, Parkinsow, Desp Purphy, Sa forms, Parkinsow, Desp Purphy, San forms, Parkinsow, Desp Purphy, Desp Pur

BLUE GYSTER CULT — DON'T FEAR THE REAPER — 1-thirts. State thest and 3 colour chooses. Drily £2.50. Send chequesip. o's to. TITS, 24 Coach Road, Throckley, Newcasde-on-Tyne.

CLOBE-UP Bown photographs, UK 1978 four Three different immediate 10" x 8" colour photographs, C4.50. Chaquesto o.'s to: Andrew, 20st Calder food, Uncoln.

DYLAN AIRD BOWG AT EARLS COURT! — Exclusive close-up colour photos from both fours now available;
Set of 10 prints (5/s' s' 3/s') C3.40 or set of 20, 68.80 (plus 20p posteges). Also new BLUE OVSTER CULT, BLACK
SARBATH, ELO, GUERN, Rush,
Blonde, Runsweys, Yes, etc. for sample Peter Still Printography, 20 Claremont Road, E Twinterhalms, Micklesen.
FEDDES BALL Labbles and Aird Colored.

EDDIE BULL tishirts are deed good ELVIS — LOVE ME TENDER [Pic] — t-shirts. State chost and 3 colour chacase. Only 62:50. Sand chieques/p.c.'s to. TITS, 24 Coach Road, Throckley, Newsparts-on-Tyres.

Newscarte-on-Tyne.

EXCLUSIVE NEW POSTERS — Sex Pistols (2). Shen, Oury, Stronglers (2). Latry (2). Peritols (2). Cash A. Ray Spar — 50p seth > 12p os and p. 3 = 61.20 + 15p p. and p. 6 = 6.20 × 30p p. and p. 5 = 6.20 × 30p p. and p. 5 = 6.20 × 30p p. and p. 5 = 6.20 × 30p p. seth p. Sex Posters (1). Tour Marketon, Sessener Studio, 33 Norton Road, Hove, Supper, (Trade requirem as e.).

PADGATE COLLEGE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

FOR SALE

BETTER BADGES — RIGHT ON THE BUTTON 1117 200 EACH, SMALL — Coney Lou Black Sistes Steel Pulse.
Spilins Twinkis, Lary Sod, Sham Army,
Ne Future Debats, Saspeet, Devace, Aspaining — Debats, Saspeet, Devace,
Aspaining — Both Sides, Clash Crip
Rockers, 2009, RAF, Poly Virol, Anie
(3). ATV, Firm Squiri, Loue, Feeigoods, Willia, Poless, Castello, Crowse Start,
(4). Marian Lib, 1959, Redio Stars, South
Rock, Kett, Boys, 4 Doni Lore, Clash—
Pelice, Ramones — Eagle, Hortrods, McS, B.O.C. — MEDRANE SEE BADGY—Rush 14), Dael School, Stiff Life Fingers,
Julia (3). Dr. Oastel, Residens, Coban
Heels, Pard No. 4, Rammin Groovest, Den't F. With Varmidion, Dack Envy,
Jesus of Cool, Barnie Torms, Rush (Xá)
Seen, Devo Satisfacton, White Copes,
Seen, Devo Satisfacton, White Copes,
Seen, Devo Satisfacton, White Copes,
Control Satisfacton, White Copes,
Law Ferry, Complete Control, Rena,
Seon, Street, Ramones, Merchan, LouStaughters, Ramones, Merchan, Margel, Law Ferry, Complete Control, Rena,
Seon, Street, Ross, Rena, Seon, Servick, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Seen, Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Seen, Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Street, Ross, Part, Emispes, Who
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? Forward,
Sen Go Deb, But ... Well? F THOLESALE - MINIMUM ORDER 100, IN LOTE OF 10 - no pep Non-sellers can be srchanged cash in advence. AND LAST BUT NOT LEAST ... OUR NOTORIOUS D.I.Y. SERVICE IIIIII — send orcies of thin paper. NOT CARD of daim 2½ for be pressed on to your own unious personalised 2½ badge. — 200 or six for 10 off 22 50. As even 10 to 10 U.X. For Israe order, even 10 U.X. For Israe order, even 10 U.X. For Israe order, even 10 U.X. For Israe Day 10 U.X. For

FOR SALE

QUITAR PLAYER MAQAZING
July 78 femunes Jose Felinisen, Atlan
Rhythm Section, Barry Banley, Pr
Goddard, J.R. Cobb, Mag ChristiLarry McGes, Carmen Meetron, Be String Survey, American Cultur, Part gives regular columns — £1,05 Incl. pd
See Craffin UK.

JAN DURY — NEW BOOTS AND PANTIES — t-shirts. State chest and 3 calcut choices. Only £2.50 Send cheques/p.ofs to: TITS. 24 Coach Road. Throckley, Newcestle-on-Tyres.

of IT ain't Eddie Bull, it ein't worth a PRINTER CATALOGUE: Tom Robinson.

Assemble Several Record Scientification of the Control of Control

Co. 1 Generatoria Court, Coppens, Middleser, Trade enquirities westooms.

LUVE COLDUM ROCKPHOTOES —
OVALITY SHOTE A AMO QUINCLESS

ABER, SOWNE USANS, RUMANYAYE,
ABER, NEW GENERSIS, RUMANYAYE,
ABER, NEW GENERSIS, RUMANYAYE,
ABER, NEW GENERSIS, RUMANYAYE,
ABER, SOWNE USANS, RUMANYAYE,
ABER, SOWNE USANS, RUMANYAYE,
CASTONIC, Party, Royd, Elf. Feljes, Mice, Castonic, Patri, Stones, Stewart, Who,
Wringt, Fiery + many more 10 37 k pt bovidentes primts only C1 450 ptug 200 p & rockle, plus 256 for campile prim, r required, Interngly your inferential for — Oca Walks Photography. 158 Hemition Road, London SE7 ESW.

Walls Photography, 158 Hamston Road.
London SE2'2 SW.

asartvia. SPECIAL — TVB
BEATLES STORY now in stock —
E1.86. Incl. plap. Sen Greffel UK.
Pasadhase convenie— 27/jus dumenters cellophase convenie—— 27/jus dumenters printed black on varied coloured background. Prices per design: 1—450, 3-21.10. 8—159. 1;2-(2).0, 259-21.75,
567-57.50 —100-712.00 200-201
1000-100 Pal Included Michaen, 3
688 Avenue, Wallager, Reference and aniver POP BELT-15, fabblicus black and salver pop or punh — you referre it. Send C1.00 plus 120 p. and p. — Chatterouth Printes
40 Mescarine Avenue, Newharen, Susses POSTRAIT SPECIALS. This vesses.

plus 12p p and p — Chateworth Prints 40 Mescathe Avenue, Newhards Sussea PORTRAT SPECIALS: This week, Bowis 14" x 10" professionally hand drawn State Jopyshow style only CZ-80. Send checural Politic Pholomosty, Landbald, Merth Square, Landbald, Kent Speak, St. August 10 Merth Square, Landbald, Kent Speak, St. August 10 Merth Square, Landbald, Kent Speak, St. August 10 Merth Square, Landbald, August 10 Merth Square, Landbald, August 10 Merth Square, Landbald, August 10 Merth Square, Sandbald, August 10 Merth Squ

PLYIN T-BHRTIB. Destroy, Filth — Adverse, Clash, XTC, Squeece, Shum de bloodstained, Generation X, Jern Bloodstained] — small medium, letys C200 prius 25p 76P. Sourit Revnolds, 3ta Thornhill Road, Restroke, Stejbnoles.

PAINBOW — LONG LIVE ROCK N ROLL — 1-shirts. Stre chest + colour choices. Only E2.50. Send cheques-/g.o.'s to: TTPS, 24 Casch Raad, Throck-ley, Newtestie-on-Tyne.

New, Newcestie-on-Tyne STRANGLERS — BLACK AND WRITE — t-shrifs State chest + 3 colour choice. Only B2:50. Seed cheque-ra on a to. 1775, 24 Cocke Roeel, Thrida-ity, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
BHAM 68. T-shiri, Leger and and black screencyride on write shelt. SIMM, C125. — Eddle Bull, 56e Monita Roed. Lincote

Lincoln

TEDS GEAR drepps, drains, respects, storing s

FOR SALE

WAIN MALEN concert rarides for self-— size Purple, Rainbow, Coverdele Sebbeth, Genesia, BOC, AC/DC, UFO Rush, Krae etc. SAE for detaile to Mich 1' Southlend Avenue, Blyth, Northumber

Southead Avenue, Bhyth, Northumber-land.

WELCOME BACK BRATLES — the American magarine devoted printley to the Bertim. Summer 72 issues is now in stock — (10 files). See Gertfel UK. YOU TELL IT — WE PRINT IT — You slogan on a Cehin, State Christ and 3 colour cholose. Only 12:50. Send cheesuad p. is. to ... ETLS. 24 Cooch Road. Throckley, Newspatch-on-Type. 74: 677300

RECORDS WANTED

▲ QUECK service and top prices guaranteed for your unwanted LP's and cassance. Any quentry bought ser details with size for our cash ofter by return of post — Germ Records, Dupt NME P.O. Bos S4, Crockhernwall Road, Woodley, Reading, Bertal offer. A Wright, 39 Old Rectory Park. Persedown, Craigevon, N Ireland

CIECHOSLOVARIAN GUY would like to archange records with people into East Euro rock. Write to Mirpelan France Topografia 60001. Uppesso 1. Casc.

Illa to -sectionge moords with people into East Euro rock. With to Microsian into East Euro rock. With to Microsian East December 1 and Programmer 1 and Progra

TUITION

ORUM CORRESPONDENCE COURS, BOOK and Tape Turkon (MME). 168 Runnymede London, SM19 2RG ORUM CORRESPONDENCE course introducing a complete nine leason casente course Sand sax to S.L.B. DRUM School, 42 Artwinght Road, Marpie, Cheshool, 42 Artwinght Road, Marpie, Cheshool, 42 Artwinght Road, Marpie, Cheshool

BANDS

14p per won

MORE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES NEXT WEEK

RATES

10p per word

Engagements Wanted, Instruments For Sale, Instruments Wanted, Situations Vacant, Situations Wanted, Musicians Wanted, Vocalists Wanted, Work Wanted (Individuals only), Wanted.

________ NME CLASSIFIED ORDER FORM

Regular Breakman and B.L on Year Two Dip. N.E. is of the size that 'bify horizons have been breakman' by the notice, of animals..."

Use this form for your Classified ad.
Write your ad here in block capitals, One word per box. Name and ad-Name and address in the ad must be paid for.

Vocalists Wanted, Work Wanted (individuals	HEADING:	ADDRESS
only), Wanted.		(BLOCK CAPITALS)
14p per word		***************************************
Artistes Wented, Bands, Concerts, Disco
Scene (all sections), Employment Agency Licence, Fen Clubs, For Sale, Groups Wanted,		If your ad is to appear under Musicians
Insurance, Musical Services, Public Notices.		Wanted, Vocalists Wanted or Work Wanted.
Records For Sale, Recording, Records Wanted,		please indicate here which regional
Special Notices, Sound Equipment, Tuition, Travel, Transport.		heading
28p per word		All advertisements must be pre-paid.
Personal, Printing, Traders Announcements.		Lenctose P.O./Cheque value £
All other headings 14p per word. Box No. fee		Post to: NME CLASSIFIED ADS.
Heavy block capitals after the first two words		ROOM 2529, KING'S REACH TOWER.
are charged at double rate.		STAMFORD STREET, LONDON, SET 9LS.
b

ADDRESS.

RECORDS FOR SALE

ALBUM HIRE - c.a.e. details anne, Taw Records, Ceiver, Via Si

BEST SHOP in London for deleted 90's singles & LP's. Also film posters Curios, 461 Edgware Road, (on Little Vanice Bridge), Maide Valle, W.B.

BRUEBIRD RECORDS, New Wave, New Wave, New Wave, New Wave, New Wave, New Wave impossibles, reggae list. No. 5 is ready, ff we know you already you light che. If not you'd better limit a 3p state, so:— 166 Church Street, London, W2 1MA.

CASSETTE LIGRARY - Large sel tion: Annual subscription, no hire charges: Catalogues 20p:—C.C.L. 176s Combe Line, West Kingston, Surrey.
CHARTEUSTERS! S.e.s.: Dishery, 68/87 Wastern Road, Hove, Brighton.
Catlers, westcome

Cathris welcome
CHELTENNIAN MAS a new record
strop "OBJOHAN". 12 Greatwards
Streat, Music from the 60's onwards.
See You soon! — Tel. 29584.
CNDOSEY BUSIC — Strenglers
single, Driver, Phone 61 950 3250 sfor 6

COMPREHENSIVE DYLAN collec-tion, 46 albums, SAE detail.— 11 Royal Road, Disley, Cheshire.

Road, Dislay, Cheshire.

ILVIS ONGERAL. 19s — Jailfrouse
Rock, Blue Suede Shoes — elea Heley's
Rock-e-Bestle Boogle, Offers Pops 193
Southand Road, Wickford, Essex.

EX-TOP 30 records (1990-79) from 121/sp. Over 2,000 (61es, mont major 121/sp. Over 2,000 (61es, mont major
121/sp. Suer test. Deep My, 62
Variotes Steek, Livelpool, IS (IF)

FUT "MAVE You Heard the Word", eaton, V.G. Condition, Offers: 01 640

4394.

QOLDEN OLDRES, Unplayed fut sing-les from 50's/60's/70's For Inte, serot n.e. (large) to: Music Workshop, 57 High Street, Shanklin, I.O.W. HET SINGLES 1986-79. Lerge s.a.e T.S.M. Records, 220 Victoria Read West.

Cleveleys, Blackpool.

Jasenty PAGE. 1965 Immediate stople Batis of Phyrmony — Yes Armédia — 25 pp. Fhyrmony — Yes Armédia — 25 pp. Fhyrmony — Yes both on Ministed edition elbum. Officer.

"ANY DIVIS" OLDIES BROP — 1 The Pariot, Hempton Road, Hempton Hall, Middlesex. 01-97 6715 — OPEN Word-Str. 10.9 5.00 pm. CC-98ED: Mona 7 tues; 20,000 old deletud 65° and 12° a – 56°, and 65° sex B. M. Waterloo bearing the period of the sex B. M. Waterloo bearing the period of the sex B. M. Waterloo bearing the period of the sex B. M. Waterloo bearing the period of the sex B. M. Waterloop has been period of the sex B. M. Waterloop has

PASTELASTERS! THOUSANDS valiable '56-78.— S.s. a 24 Southwells, Edition Sustant

Middleton, Sussex, BLASE WHO 'The Last Time' — mi 1987. Offers SAE Brugh, & Beeck House Afenor Road, Sidoup, Kent.

self. Often SAE Beugh is Breechelorinal Aftener Read, Sideux, Kort.

STOPE B.S. SAY "ALL RUINGUMS
ARE DELETED" — Sur and Drugs 12import, E1.75. Hences and Drugs 12import, E1.75. Hences and Coverds.
Chespest in town, E2.50. Seaz 4 and 6 autographed. All other StVf atburns available. Demmed scappoot. — 50p.—
Humphrey Casen singles at 5 colours.

"Fo, Devo B Sulf in actioned virty, A.
Piece of Pits, 78p. Jilt Read MarphaImport langle. 72p white stocks last.
Problem Chief with pic cover, 76p. Just Water/Single in The Pain. 75p. Altern
Veter/Single in The Pain. 75p. Altern
Water/Single in The Pain. 75p. Altern
Alp only, 75c overs to buy, 6, 6, 8 and Stretcher Case and E7 and altern covers
— 20p sech. Sulf pic cover bedges inc.
Dury, Devo, W Enc. — 20b. Sex and Drugs sets — 50p sech. Self. 53. — 40p.
Rosters — Lens Lovich, J. Allan, E
Graham, I bury, Mickey Jupp. Just Water, 10p each. — Inn Dury Import self colour posters — Spi nich poet and pack on all orders. 25p seth poet and pack on all orders. 25p selh-poet and pack of Street, Carridon, W. 2. 017-229 8002.

TREE WIND. — Ready Steedy Who EP

TIME WIND. — Ready Steedy Who EP

THE WHO — Ready Steedy Who EP learning 1988 in original pic sleen, and year rans, Offices, 16 Mose Grove, Liver-col, LB GSB.

SECONDELAND $\)

ECONDELAND $\)

ECOND

Coupens):

0, 80WME Genesia, Dyten, Stade, s etc. 5000 + afburns, tapes, single 20p. Lieu SAE (IRC) 3 Airhton Way, by Say, Tyre and West. ZAPPA, New York with 'Punkys Whip' offers, SAE, 56 Swen Close, Herfield proret, Essex.

4000 ENGLES EPs, albume for suction. Pock, soul, 1868, pop. 1856-1977. Mostly deletions and imports of PCI or stamps for 80-page list to: 8 Camuldiam, 55 St. Mery's Meniorm, St. Mery's Terrace, London, W7 15M.

PERSONAL

ALONE MEET new friends, Inst-elve. confidential and efficient des. Write: countrywide introduc-ts, ME/Mertin House, Brighouse, orks.

AUSTRALIA, WORLDWIDE softwards. Destroy, Box 20 (BE), Salison, South Australia

BILLIARD TABLES bought and cold. Pephone Mr Villis, Harnel Hempstead Telephone Mr Vinie, von. 832345 seyume. BURBLES, THANK for 21, I love you.

Berty:

FACE OUT — Euroroot fanzine (free).

Chris Ferne, Zii Lionel Avenue.

FLYRING BAUCERE? Mentings, stywnsches, investigation, research,

photo ets. a.e. details: British UTO Society, 47 Berlaise Square, London.

MAY GUY, 28. seeks younger guys into punk — London, Amserdem, Photo please, Ros no. 3586. GAY YOUNG guy, lonely seeks some for klandship, Central Spotland. Photo epirelossed Sux no. 2667.

ARRE SCOTT for genuins friends, introduction opposite six with amority and thoughtfulness. — Details free. Stemp to Jane Scott 3/MM, North Street, Quadrans, Brighton, Sussex, BNI 3GL.

ARCK, MR. PUKE, please phome/Belfast or write.

PENIMEND MAGAZINE (or groups. Only 50p fortnightly, (pay are receiving 5). Write: Leisure Tim (RT88), Chorley, Lance.

POETRY WANTED over £1,700 in rizes annually. Subscription £10. For se criticism send to Regency Press, 43 ew Oxford St., WC1A 18H. Dept A3.

ROCK JOURNALISM and Print-graphy Booklat by as staffmen explains how magazines sever, job peesablities, how to get freelance contributions ecopsed etc. 65p plus 10p post / Package to: Intro Books, P.O. Box 3. Scotton, near Catenick Gerrison, N. Yorks D13-2NT.

WORLDWIDE PERFITERD Service 1,000 members in 149 countries. SAS states IFC, 20s Hatherleigh Road, Rurs-n Matter, Middleserv.

MUSICIANS WANTED

AMATEUR GUITARDET occio ber en material Ciute, 01 734 4318. day DITERRIBUNED SYNCHIST media oble-usiciánis. Must play retired fort/rock embers. Interested! Costee: Ag. Rit-jeir, Dermide, brieviethan, Peshian-ire, Scotland. price, Scotland, www.fetthan, Peeblands, Deutsmann, VOCALIST worldd, 0203 612020, gament, VOCALIST worldd, gament, VOCALIST worldd, gament, VOCALIST worldd, peebland, VOCALIST worldd, VOCALIST

O283 STAGE.

PUBIK SINGER, no P.A., no experience wants to join group. Trus punits only. Withs to: Terry, 4 Knappers Way, Rendon, Suffolk.
REFLARES DRISHNER, 10-20 with own bit and transport winted for London punit bend. 01 748 6574.

condon punk bend, 01 746 6574.
URLGERTLY WANTED for flow Wevband with contract and imminent singleraiseas, good lead and rhythm guitarints with own sequences and willing to travel. Temporary accommodation condided. Ring Geneth, Learnington Spe.
25109 after 6 pm.

25100 after 5 pen.
WARFED: YOUNG guiterist and keyboards for New band. Dury, Sovie, iggy, Costallo. No blootheads. Telephone, Sheffleld $84535, after 6.30.

MUSICAL SERVICES

ABOUT 100 BANDS, groups, process Keenest proces London's helding Entertainerent Agency. Reymens, 01 247 5531. ABSOLUTELY FREE(I) ~ Songwrit Magamb suplims copyright, ABSOLUTELY TREE! 19 — Songwir Asgatarne explains copyright, blidding, recording, royaltes, song offers, setting your lyrice to receive atting your lyrice to receive atting your lyrice to receive and the setting your lyrice to receive and the setting your large trees and the setting to the setting the setting to the setting the s

EARN MONEY congwriding. Amaz-ing free boot tells haw. — L.S.S., 10-11 QC Dryden Chambers, 119 Oxford Street, London, W1. 7p stemp.

LYRICE WANTED - no publication fee. 11 St. Albana Avenue, London, W.4.

ENGAGEMENTS WANTED

AT ACCORDIONIST — 01 878 4542 AT PIANIST — 01-876 4542

NME Classified

REACHES MORE PEOPLE THAN ANY OTHER MUSIC PAPER IN THIS COUNTRY

IT'S YOUR PAPER -- USE IT

WANTED

10p per word

ANYTHING ON Diana Ross and The Supremen. I buy or trade for Dutch articles on your feves, Nico Komstra, Gonoranicatives 8, 1056 TF, Amsendam, Hotsand.

BLORDIN TACKETT, up to 4 worstack.

13th September, Edinburgh Odeon.

Phone 04 22 4000, evenings
Inninediately, Any price considered.

2YLAN BLACKERSPERS tage. Note, 2
Streamfulls Park, Berliest S.

ESENBARS BOV ceeles hiered in England, either sax. Purkhasters.
National Force deporters and service.

Advantationer. 16, 1000 Berlin 30, W.

Marnatelmer. 16, 1000 Berlin 30, W.

ermeny.

INTELLIGENT DESABLED guy, living mely life in own flet seeks girl for fendship. Box no. 3568.

PISTOLS RARITIES - 27 Coriston Crescent, Glenrothes, Fife.

respent, Glernothes, Fife.

30NG LYRICS wanted Esciting reposition Details (s.a.s.): — Robert onkes, 30 Sneyd Helf Road, Blokwich,

TALES FROM The Who. Good price pold. Ring Gary, DI 874 2062 before 5

THE PATHETHE urganity want gigs PM 0202 695513.

THUNDERS, PIETOLS, live tapes — trade for U.S. Shows, Henry Mintoli, $48 Bey S.J., New York, 10304.

INSTRUMENTS WANTED

PURCHASED FOR CASH: good Guitars, Amplifiers. Harumond Organs. Top artoss.—01-836 7811.

INSTRUMENTS FOR SALE

top per word

ONDERS MANUAL Farits elect organ, excellent condition with Yemal empilitier. 250 were, with complete speakers, rearry revs. £550 or near order. Phone Joen. 61 720 7805. smylim GIUSON SQ standard, 1966. £250. Shravebury £3000.

SPECIAL NOTICES

THE PATHETUL WANT GIGS. -

SITUATIONS VACANT

ATTRACTIVE DANCERS, hosteron required to join showgroups, working in top rightspote in Rely. No experience necessary. Full straining given 1910 per week plus commission ofthe fates. Mick Camp. Entertainments. Brighton 723632 or 604619.

or 084619.

EBCAPE EMPLOYMENT on Liners.
OI Plies Experience unnocessary.
Dessits: Mentions Employment Guide.
Price 70p WORKING HOUDAY & Free
Travel Guide. Proce 80p. Malar, Novembereve House. Duthill Avenue, Pioner, Middlesex.

HOMEWORKERS GUIDE available. 50p sech. Home Employment Agency, 3 Tenyard, Swennington, Laignmenthire.

munic digentisatione, redio stetions en-over 400 record compenies, Ideal for joi hunters, DJ's etc. 75p or both for £1 00 R.S.P. 1 Wilfred Court, Southgrove Jandon, N15.

14 & 19 Female fifth of Renaissance. 15 Younger bro' (a teen idol with teeth like his, akready!) to Barry, Maurice and Robin (4,4) 16 See 5. 18 The others are McCartney and McCartney. 19 See 14. 21 Unmarried viny!?! 22 See 1 across.

What have Elvis 'Four Eyes'
Costello, Gene 'Butch Boy'
October and Ron 'Bite Yer Ankles' Harris got in common?

21

9 De Luxe drop-out

Agency .

11 Mistah Cooke . . . Mistah 12

ACROSS
1 & 22 White boy, watch yo' ass, else you gonne come a Caribbean croppert This message issued by Trenchtown Tourist

6 Take their final curtain in "The Last Waltz".

Soul as was. Semi-legendary U.S. session man and producer, contributed the highly contributed the highly influential organ ficks to iffuential organ ficks to if Like A Rolling Stone and Blonde On Blonde (2,6) 13 Neil Sedaka oldie which he wrote for his former childbood sweetheart ("How quaint" — Ed.) Carole King quain (2,5).

GENESIS INFORMATION. Send ### 10 Geoff Partyn, 11 Jameson Lodge, 58 Shepherda Hill, London, NS 6RW.

DOWN THE SHOWADDYWADDY OFFICIAL FAN CLUB—send big a six with 90p portal order for LUFE MERINGERSHIP! You will receive regular newslaters. Showeaddywaddy pen, mambership bard, personalisty profiles, eagle colour ple and order form for lots on special Showaddywaddy error. Similar Co. Dugs. Mirk. Showeaddywaddy Fan. Scott Shields, Tyme & West.

PETER FRAMFTON - Send a.e.e. to Box 104, Cambridge.

DAVE JANSEN -- 01-699 4010 LES LEWIS -- 01 524 4078. $TOP: MGO disco Phone Alan, 01-330 1561.

THE NEW Road Runner disco -- 01 727 4976.

DISCOTHEQUES

FREE RADIO

"AIR", SCOTLAND'S only megastine, new on sale, teaus 7 or factures on Radio Dubtin, Lond Caroline, 40p (+ 2 p postage) on FRC Scotlend, 647 Howards, Glasjows

HEUE ONE of never sheet now scale bile, fashering Caroline, MF-Amigo, Naver, Themselde Radio, Flashback on Reve copy, and a large s.a.e. to: Naver Sheet Dept. H. Box 110, Orpington, Kerd.

14p per word

FAN CLUBS

14 & 19 Female fifth of

NME X-WORD

В

DOWN

Psychiatrists collectively! Or Kid Strange & Co. (7,2,7). Hendrix LP which, because of sleeve pie of naked women, was sold in States in plain brown 'nodesty' bag (8,8). Sometimes described as best fernale singer Britain ever produced, she made a comeback last year after five years in retirement (5, 1, 1). years in retirement (5,11), 4 Reggae against Recism of the Deep South kind,

Handsworth Rockers

Division! (2,4,4)

$ & 16 His best-known acting tole was as lover-thirf Budgie in TV series of same name.

Two brats moon (anag. 8,4).

Eric Burdon's old band.

10 Video show-off!
17 Darts pianist — keep him happy with the odd lettuce leaf and a warm, straw-lined cage!

20 A chip off the old Woody block.

LAST WEEK'S ANSWERS

ACROSS: I Jillet John; 6 Eno; ACROSS: 1 Jilted John; 6 Eno; 7 Charlie Watts; 8 "Sweet Talkin" Guy"; 10 Miles Davis; 12 Robert; 14 "Viva Roky (Music)"; 16 Bass; 18 and 19 Mervin Gaye; 21 "Judy Teen"; 22 Steam. DOWN: 1 Jackson Browne; 2 "Three Times A Lady"; 3 Joe Walsh; 4 Yes; 5 Bobby Helby, 9 Netl Young; 11 Abba; 13 TV Smith; 15 Vortex; 17 Cream; 20 Acc.

AZZ DIARY

THE 100 CLUB makes a mixed start to September with the African Township band, Jabula on 1st, The Avon Cities Band pins Make Murphy's Storeys Ble Jazz Band on 2nd, Johnny Mars with The Tequils Brown Blues Band on 3rd, and the John Taylor Sextet plus Azimuth on 4th.

Ronnie Scott's has Rosemary Clooney fronting the Jake Hanna Quartet from 18th September for a week, followed by Ernestine Anderson from 25th for a fortnight. The Ronnie Scott Quintet shares both bills.

Looking ahead to the autumn, JCS are showcasing a Mosaic label festival at the Round House with Graham Collier's 12-piece unit, Alan Walteman's trio, Triton, the Stan Sulzman Quartet, Lysis and Howard Riley; that's 8th October. From 30th October-4th November there's a Jazz Week at the Round House with the Milke Gibbs Orchestra, Phil Woods and Nucleus. Eberhard Weber's Colours are also doing a national tour that mouth. On 19th November, JCS have booked a Great Guitars package into the New Gallery, Regent Street, including Herb Ellia, Barney Kessell and the Charile Byrd Trio.

Stargazer are playing at the Fighting Cocks, Whildchurch, Bristol on 13th and 14th September, and at the Hen & Chicken, Bedminster on 16th. The Al Gaye Quartet featuring Brian Lemon is at Pengethley Hotel, Ross On Wye, and the Martin Franklin Quartet plays the Sovereign Cross Hotel, Waiford on 3rd September.

Vinylly, ECM Records are to lasue a ten-album set of acoustic plane by Keith Jarrett in October. Recorded live in Japan, this doorstep chronicles recitals at Kyoto, Osaka, Ngoya, Tokyo and Sapporo from 1976.

Previously unreleased material by Albert Ayler from the Greenwich Village sessions is now out on a double from Impulse, with a masterly sleave-note by Robert Palmer.

Brian Case

Learn to play lead guitar WITH JACK WILCOCK'S

LISTEN & PLAY' TEACHING TAPES Here's the 1978 way to team modern lead guitar playing. Specially recorded lessons by Jack Wilcock who has 17 years' experience of teaching and playing for BBC and EMF record sessions, T.V. and Rime, will save you years of frustreted struggling on your own.

teaching and personal controlled surgesting with the first Why

* You learn in your own home at your own speed,

* Solos and modern lead runs are played for you on 60 minute casestee. You can have the lesson again and again.

* An ability to read music is not necessary.

* An ability to read music is not necessary.

* An ability to read music is not necessary.

* An ability to read music is not necessary.

* An ability to read music is not necessary.

* An ability to read music is great?; 'has enabled me to reach a reasonable standard of playing'.

These are just a few comments from hundreds of satisfied Jack Wiscock students.

* PULL in the coupon for free details and enrolment form.

* POST NOW TO:

* JACK WILCOCK TEACHING TAPES,

* AT HAMES SHOW! A PULLED TO THE.

* AT HAMES SHOW! A PULLET TO THE HAMES SHOW

LISTENGPLAY): "

NME 3

Teaching Tapes

WE HAVE ANOTHER SPECIAL FEATURE ON EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES IN OUR NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE

DON'T MISS IT!

- EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES -

STUDENTS NOTE

It's the one you've all been waiting for ...

THE ME & MY SHADOW BAG!!!

I LIKE the shortest letters best. RTHON CB HUMBROL, Wig And Pen, Edinburgh

TO MICK JONES of The Clash; you have become the most pitiful loser of all time. Remember the days of "no all time. Remember the days of "no drugs" when you used to be a passionate young warrior maniac-depressive artiste? Now you're a sad case of a burnl-out guitar hero whose main cause in life is to fulfill his "around the world tour" ambition, staggering around the stage — mini rock in 'noll falls flat on its mini arse, How dure you?

How dare you? A DISILLUSIONED ARTISTE (STILL) WHO REFUSES TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE JE NE REGRETTE RIENSCENE,

Okay, Joe, that's quite enough — SANDY PEARLMAN

TO JULIE BITCH-ALL IO JULE BITCH-ALL:

1. Lita Ford does NOT LOOK REVOLTING, and there is NOTHING wrong with her movements onstage, or her guitar playing, which, if you listen to
"Johnny Guitar" is amongs! the best you'll hear.

Vicki is NOT "as effervescent as Lot's wile" she has much "stage presence" as Joan does. (Laotioed her onstage refore I noticed Joan!)

Vicki and Lita DO NOT dress 3. Victi and Lita DO NOT dress badly, and Vicki looked even smarter than Joan on Sunday, in her matching leather bomber jacket and trousers. 4. There is NOTHING wrong with Lita's figure: If you had been watching her (which you obviously weren't) you'd have realized that she has lost a lot of weight since last year and has gone really stim. And she looks REAL SLICK in skintight clothes.

clothes.

5. The Runaways' lyrics are NOT appalling. Admittedly Fowley's lyrics were, but listen to/read the words written by the band and even BOB written by the band and even BOB DYLAN would be armazed.

5. Jackie Fox did not intend to give boys a thrill any more than Vickie or Joan do. I don't even consider Currie to be a member of the band. As for Lita, of course she turns boys on! Turning boys on is what lead guitarists are all about?

7. The Runaways will less a long time are all about?

7. The Runaways will last a long time yet. They are all close friends and have no reason to split (apart from bitchy poseurs slagging them?)

8. (a) Joan WILL NOT form a band with Sandy and a few boys. Can't you see that for her, an ALL FEMALE BAND is where it's at? (Yes, we see Samhol.)

BAND is where it's at? (Yes, we see — Sappho).

(b) She will never move to London because Los Angeles is her home. She told one reporter that she wouldn't live anywhere clse!

(e) Joan is nordying to play punk rock. She likes punk, but doesn't want to play it herself. (That's why she plays H.M.)

(d) I would like to see THE WHOLE BAND get as big as you said, so would all their fans. Finally — how DARE you puke all over Joan! I don't care HOW drunk you were! Joan IS NOT inarticulate, I

Thanks all the same Bernie

Edited by JULIE BURCHILL and TONY PARSONS

bet she talks better than you! I am The Runaways' greatest fan, NOT, you! I bet YOU don't collect Runaways posters and badges, and wear a jacket, jeans and shoes like Joan!

(And I'm NOT a pool... Joan's (And I'm NOT a pool... Joan's clothes are Unisex). THE RUNAWAYS ARE THE BEST BAND OF ALL. So stop bitching and slagging them okay. (Should there be a question mark here or is this a compliment? TP & JB, STEVE (20) THE WORLD'S GREATEST RUNAWAYS FAN. No you're acct.—SANDY No you're not! -ROBERTSON e I am! -- JULIE BURCHILL

CALL PARSONS a reviewer CALL PARSONS a reviewer, interviewer even! Don't make me laugh, he expreases his opinions far too openly (as if they mattered!). Of course, I'm on about The Runaways interview a few weeks ago, in which he insulted the beautiful Cheric Currie.

Sod you Mr Partons! You've been

Sod you Mr Parsons! You've been against Cherie from the beginning. She doesn't stand a chance with people like you around, because you don't even give her that chance!

Cherie is Godhead and she deserves much more coverage in your paper than she actually gets (by that I mean a few good words about her!). Come on NME, ignore stupid jerks like Parsons and Burchill and let's see more of Cherie (?) in your paper.

CHERIE RULES O.K.!!!

DAVE, Sunderland.
I Custrie's to smart, how come she left Joan Jett for a one-likt wooder like me?—MORRIS ALBERT

I THINK Suicide are wel pansies. If Johnny Botton wrote a review like Johnny Rollen wrote a review like that about my song I'd kick his head in. No one plays about with me. ERNIE THE WANKER, Crowded easden Bus Shelser Zat is exactly your trouble, my boy — WILHELM REICH

IS IT too soon to say that Nick Logan was last year's thing? CECIL DE LA MILLE Only if you read ROCK ON, Cocil — TP & JB NUMBERED, ya bastards! This week's Black Echoes carries, in Cliff White's column, a justified attack on the non-coverage of soul music in the weekly, supposedly non-specialised music papers!

And TONY PARSONS

Only the great Julie Burchill seems remotely interested in black American music—the rest of the NAE staff appear to judge the music by what they hear on the radio e.g., pap like "Three I imes A Lady"! They blandly state that they just don't make them like they used to. Maybe they were getting their hair cut at the time, but they seemed to have missed Louise Freeman's "He's Making Love To You", Bank's and Hampton's "I'm Goona Have To Tell Her" and Al Green's "Belle". All are from 1977 and all are imports. This is probably the crux of the matter — do infl-time journalists actually go out and do something as vulgar as BULYING records?

To save them this odious task, the NAE could give columns to people who know, and care, about the music BENNY LA TIMORE. Glasgow. Tous away them worry beads, Been, because no more is the NME review room the exclusive tearitiesy of the Wagwam/Egg set. Eves our old triends Pensona mand Morely can these days be found seaking the Ritchle Fumily and Earth Wind snd Fire hetween The Residents sleeves. The campaign against the riddiculous 'real, serious music' bores has been won! Better, smore caring coverage upcoming. The Disco NME — Where the heast cances first four the feet sain't has behind). — Danny Baker (The Contensyo Kid).

Does he seriously think we're letting him do the singles again? — N.S.

WHAT A RIGHT set of hypocritical hastards von lot at the NME are You.

WHAT A RIGHT set of hypocritical bastards you lot at the NME are. You rave on about the Anti-Nazi League and Rock Agginst Racism and yet you give a four-page spread to racist shirt like The Sex Pistols. So shooting "Pakis" with air guns is something to "chortle" about, eh? And Ronald Biggs, a devout Nazi, isn't that bad a guy, eh?

Let me make this close. The NOT.

Biggs, a devour Nazi, isn't that bad a guy, eh?

Let me make this clear, I'm NOT a member of the SWP—I hate Communism. In fact I think David Steel and the Liberals (What label are they on?—Ed) pave the way to Britain's future. You lot aren't helping a bit by glorilying the Pistols and letting them spread their Nazi lith to indoctrinate their thousands of fans in Britain.

ANON.

Coalda't agree more, Anon, but if the rest of our renders react the same way rest of our renders react the same way as you then the Pistols' "thousands of fuso" ain't gomms be around eruch longer, are they? — TP & JB.

Dear Amon: Intrigued you should equate "glorifying" with simply quoting the Brile nods. Do you really want everything spelt out for you? Do you knowstly want so move else to make your own wornl decisions for you? To quote another geezer who long ago forsook the dodgy art of finger-printing — don't underestimate me and I won't underestimate you — NICK KENT.

I FEEL SURP that you and your millions of readers will be interested to learn that I, like fitted John, have been given the push by a young lady-friend.

lady-friend.

We need not go into details — my heart was broken. Suffice to say that I find myself in a situation bearing a remarkable resemblance to Jilted John's, except that my troublesome, heart-breaking young woman is called Jill. Jill of Ipswich. We split up two years age.

years ago.
What a small world it is, I thought. What a small world it is, I thought, when I realised that I was in the same situation as a world-famous rock star. What do your readers think? III.TED CAPTAIN KLUTZ, Happy Meadows, Kent.

More Quo, more Lizzy, Flui!! --

TO BRIAN ROBERTSON: We're

SIMON, DAVE, SPIKE AND ALL LIVERPOOL LIZZY FANS Keep your poncy paws off him, you bent scome gits! — DEREK THE DOG.

WE'VE HAD PLENTY punks against Bowie's latest concerns so here's a testimony to set all those space oddities right. Major Tom may well be lost in space, Greta Garbo's image is dead, but not Ziggy Starduss. For Bowie's latest show was definitely a two-part transformation, the cool white duke first and the most outrageous queen Lady Starduss second; he played a thoroughly convincing set, although out of the three concerts Saturday night was the best. So keep a going, Bowie.

"Stage" is gonna be a Moonage Daydream, and thank to all the young dudes for setting the electric almosphere. One up for David.

ANOTHER ZIGGY Biggleswade.
One up for David? I like it! — IGGY POP.

COULD YOU PLEASE tell me if COULD YOU PLEASE tell me if any member of Led Zeppelin have ever admitted to being gay. I have had many arguments over this because I am a fansatical Bowie fan and would like to prove the person wrong as he will not concede the point. He believes in every word you print.

INFURIATED BOWIE FAN,

Newtonie.

Everyone's bisexual, man --MYRON LA POOVE

LAST SATURDAY, August 5th. LAST SATURDAY, August 5th, was one of the saddest days of the year, because on that day 16 years previously that most beautiful of women died, and who remembered her last week?

Poor Marilyn Monroe, gone but not forgotten. Vive Marilyn!

DAVE.

Like heartest often do no Mary.

Like hospital chow, do ys, Mac? — JOE DIMAGGIO.

WE ARE WRITING with reference to the letter by "A Perunoid Master Of Reality" in the issue dated 12th

Of Reality" in the issue dated 12th August.

Thank you whoever you are for supporting Ozzy and Sabbath and as for all you intellectual techno-rockers at your poncy posh office—if you want to criticise do it constructively and stop tearing apart all the albums and concerts the world's greatest rock band have made. band have made band have made.

So go take your Talking Heads and Yes abuns and stuff 'em up your shit clean aries and leave the Sabbs to get on and rock for us evermore.

All you Sab-rockers get up off your arises right jow and say how you feel for the band and make them the greatest brain-crushing took band in the entire universe. You know it makes sense!

Anyway, peace on ya!!!

TONY "IRON MAN" GOOD WIN, SUE "SUPERNAUT" TAYLOR, JON "CHILLO OF THE GRAVE"
PAYNE, Bewilley, Worcester.

PAYNE, Bewdley, Worcester
P.S. We can read!!!
I can't — OZZY.

NOT EVEN a farewell tour. Bill?
THE DANGEROUS STRANGER
Plas Off — HIDEOUS B
GANGRENE (RETIRED).

IS IT TOO late to fell all Mods to is it TOO late to fee all mods to descend on Wollacombe for the Bank Holiday weekend.

SOMEBODY WHO ISN'T AN ART STUDENT (OR ANY OTHER KIND) AND CAN'T AFFORD TO GO TO READING.

Our wheelchairs are offed and ready to roll — PETE TOWNSHEND AND STEVE MARRIOTT SITTING ON SANDY RICHARDSON'S AND CHIEF IRONSIDE'S LAPS.

IS IT TOO late to say that I don't like BATTOOLSTEE OF EXPIRATION THE BOD DYINT?

A WELL WISHER, Kilmannock.

It's sever too late — ECHO
HELSTROM, SUZE ROTOLO,
ROAN BAEZ, ALLEN GINSBERG AND SARAH LOWNDES
ZIMMERMAN.

SO the £5 album has arrived. Well E.M.I. can go the hell cause I ain't paying. NEIL R. EDELSTEN, Portsay, Banjishur. LP WINNER — SIR JOHN READ

BASTARDS SNOUDS EDITOR. LOSERS — TP & JB

"H's true, ain't it, Tony? Julie's having a Bag, ain't she? is that why she was sick all over my lovely platforms?"

HEYR'E AT IT again. The Boys In Blue, that is. Terry from the Stiff SS shop in Notting Hill will appear in court on September 18 to face obscenity charges for wearing and selling those famed "If It Ain't Stiff It Ain't Worth A Fuck" T-shirts. Terry has been charged under section 24 of the 1834 Vagrancy Act, while the shop itself has been busted for indecency. It's not the first time the Stiff T-shirts have incurred the wrath of the long arm of the law. Earlier in the year magistrates in South Wales lined two "If It Ain't . . . " T-shirt wearers £50 each . . .

T-shirt wearers £50 each . Still soot free and recently seen on the streets, maasan, of Los Angeles: Joe Strummer. Hanging out with Metch Jones, the ever kool Joe was cled in de rigeur leather jacket and sporting his sharp £6die Cochrus baircut when he was spotted by a female native. Spinning round to makes sure she wasn't mistaken, she beamed (oue broad American accent): "John Travolta! Right?".

accent): "John Travolta! Right?".

Contrary to reports in last week's daily papers, Debbie Harry and Chris Stein are not getting married. Surely the over-publicised 'naprials' weren't a figment of publicist Alan Edwards 'much Alan Edwards' much called-upon imagination?.

A ho Debbie is none too keen on our very own Danny Baker after last week's singles column in which Dan gave the thumbs-down to the new Bloodle single "Picture This".

For "Blondle Bashes Baker" d other assorted scam, see page seven Idle Threats Dept. Backstage at recent Victors White Kids soirce, Sid made a ninny of himsel by demanding lensman Denis O'Regan's Dire Stratts bedge at payment for a sasp.

When Den obliged, Sid — ever the gent — upped his price to £1.
In not, he'd smash his camera.
When Den refused, Sid — noble chap — asked for a fiver. The ever-present Namey's attempts to ever-present Nancy's attempts to restrain her other half were to no restrain her other half were to no avail, and as a torrering Sid loomed large over Den, Rich Kids' manager Peter Warmsley offered to hand over £5. "Each", demanded Sid. And so it was, each musician coming away with an extra £5 in his bin thanks to Sid's bullying, "I wasn't scared," Denis insisted

A subdued Sid was fater seen jamming with The Mumps at Max's Kansas City last week. Word has it he's in the States

Word has it he's in the States intent on getting a band together with Johany Thanders. That's if the two can find the stage.

Pattl Saith ditched Base
Oyster Cult small person Allen
Lanier after two and a ball years of biss just before coming to the UK. Apparently she's now taken up with ex. MCSer Pred Sonic Smith. And in what sounds like a fit of penulance, Lanier told his loquacious new girlfriend that Patti had banked a quarter of a million dollars. Let's hear it for the street one more time.

minion dollars. Let's hear it for the street one more time... Den Regarty — who, you will recall, quit Darts to look after his folks — currently forming new band. With his dad on drums, we assume.

London pub-goers are advised to take note of that ropey combo pumping out "Walk On By".

Word has it The Strangters could be on view in a metropolis boozet this week.

Norwesian photographer

boozer this week...
Norwegina photographer Richard Wood was backstage at a recent Elvis Costello gig in Oslo when The Stunted Four-Eyed One hissed that he was not allowed to take pictures backstage and told him to "fuck off". When it became clear that El wanted Richard to leave the building and not use the El wanted Richard to leave the building and not just the backstage area, Wood told the nasty little dwarf that he had paid for a ticket and was going to watch the show. Elvis (who always gets his road crew to do his dirty work) set his roadies on Wood. Wood (a black belt in karate and cousin of ost own Tony Parnon) swatted them against the wall. Elvis ran into his dressing room and locked the

GETS TIRED AND EMOTIONAL

door, Manager Andrew Jakeman told Wood that he was going to call the police and Wood (severely piqued at Costello and Co's attempts to trash £3,000 worth of photocraphic equipment) trash £2,000 worth of photographic equipment) grabbed Jakeman by the throat. The fraces was remporarily sorted out when Chiff Richard's manager invited Wood to watch the show from the gallery with man and Chiff. Meanwhile, Elvis remained locked in the dressing command told swerpers that he num and Curn. Meanwhite, Evis remained locked in the dressing room and told everyone that he was not going on stage until Wood was out of the auditorium. Wood stayed, El eventually emerged and the show started a couple of hours late. Says Wood, "Ton not ANGRY anymore"

Low Reed made the nationals in the U.S. when he was refused permission to perform "I Wanna Be Black" on Midnight Special. Instead, Lou was interviewed on the subject of censorship. Asked if he would play the song to his offspring, Loopy retorted: "Yes, and I play it to my mother".

Four-hour version of Zam's

Four-hour version of Zim's "Renaldo And Clara" opening at the Camden Plaza on at the Car

Paul Rodgers currently producing unknown Sunderland singer Terry Morrison, while singer perty interesting, while the part-time rock star Greg Lake is in the studio with EMI MOR act The King Singers (Best place for him — Ed).

Backstage at a Bowle concert division his to the America house for the concert during his last American tour, David heard to remark that he has no intention of ever producing Low Reed again.

"He's borrowing far too much from my identity," simpered Dave....

Caroline Kennedy, daughter of ex-president JFK went all the or ex-pression of the went all the way to Memphis to take pictures of Eivis Presley's grave and didn't notice until she was on the plane winging her way home that she forgot to put film in her

Robert Stigwood is trying to buy the contracts of John Travolta and Olivia Newton-Squirrel from RCA and MCA respectively. He's offered three miltion bucks for Olivia's two year contract with MCA alone and wants both of 'em for

Mick Jagger, David Bowie, Aretha Franklin and Bette Aretha Frinklin and Beste Midder were all approached by Robert Stigwood to appear in "Sergeant Peppers Etcetera" but they all wanted too much money. He wanted Odlvia Newton-Joba to play Strawberry Fields, Peter Frampers' bit of posh in the movie, but this got blown out because Frampers said that Olivia was taller than him and would make him look said that Olivia was taller than him and would make him look like a real short-arse (which, bf course, he is). Olivia eventually dropped out because she didn't want the goodie-goodie part of Strawberry Fields, but the strumpet-next-door part of Lucy

Bestler albums being e-released on coloured vinyl — Abbey Road" on green, "Sergeant Pepper" as picture disc "The White Album" on white and the two compilations on horrendous red and blue

Even millionaires don't get coeryshing they ask for. When John Reid furned up at Heathrow Just week, arriving in a Roller (what else?), the short Scotsman was not a little miffed when a British Airways stewardes told him that he was too fate for his Concorde flight to New York. As a result, Reid has informed all Rocket Records. nas unformed our Notest exceeded employees—and this includes Elton John—not to fly British Ariways. Said the stewardess: "We're used to passengers being rude so this one didn't really bother me. But you don't expect it from someone in his position."

Obviously, she's not conversant with the ways of the Music Biz

Ras Scables-Millier has challenged the detectable Japan, whom he considers clasies (He has a point — Ed.) to a drinking contest. Japan have accepted and all that's needed now is someone to pay for the drinks

"You're kidding — they called you a what?" JIMMY PURSEY, somewhat agitated, is helped from the agizated, is helped from the Reading stage by a Big Chum. Unbroken by sticks and stones (and cans and skins), Jim was more then a little put out by the rowdy behaviour of a group of Walton and Hershem supporters. Full report and league tables on Pages 40-42.

"Road To Ruin" the Ramones' live album for release in Europe (including the UK). Japan and Australia only, is now scheduled for late autumn release.

Losers Repent Split Dept.
Three members of the late,
unfamented Dammed (Scables,
Dave Vaniae and Captala Stapid) playing a one-off gig at the Electric Ballroom on September 5 with Lemmy.
Scables says he is trying to organise a series of one-off retidencies with various bands as it is better than selling skateboards. Not if you have to watch it, Ratty.

love with Russia. Upon returning to the States after visiting the USSR, Ali told the waiting reporters: "I saw much that pleased me — I only saw one policeman, I didn't see no rguss, I didn't see no rguns, I didn't see no chomosexusia." Retorted Gay News: "There's none so blind!"

According to a report in last week's Evening News, Billy Idol has shucked up with Das O'Consor's daughter Karen. What is it with these punks? Whot with Geldof and The Blaban's daughter according to the state of th What with Geldof and The Bishing's daughter, anybody would think they're just after publicity. Still—doubt if that's true of Phill Line-em-ap'. Lyaott. Caroline Crowther, daughter of TV personality Leslie, has jucked in her job with rock publicist Tony Braissiby (the does Thin Lizzy's PR), because she's expecting a baby. T-Zers understands that Caroline shares a house in North London with Phil.

Well-known rock star Ritchie Blackmore had a full scale punch-up with REO Speedwagon's tour manager in Atlanta when the houselights went up during one of Rainbow's numbers and "Somewhere Over The Rainbow's hearn to well over Somewhere Over 1 he Rainbow 'began to waft over the speakers. Said Ritchie, "Th lights went on, man, and it was like that shit is finished and we're on next!" Maybe the guy just couldn't stand the pain, Rich... "The Alam Edwards office unable to A lan Edwards office unable: confirm or deny reports that Jean-Jacques Burnel attacked musicians and broke down a door at last week's TOTP recording. The BBC say they know nothing about the story, hough UA confirmed the incident did actually take place

China Street would like it known they take their name from a street in Lancaster and not from the fire in China Street Manchester which killed 15 mannesser which killed 15 people last year. The band were most astonished at Plymouth Fiesta last week to be harangued by a guy yefling: "It killed my mother!" — that was the first time they ever heard of the blaze his flat-mate.

DJ Jerry Floyd liable for prosecution in a case of A.B.H. (Actual Bodily Harm to all you pansies) following a brawl with his flat-mate.

Did you know that (according to this week's Gay News) David Cassidy said in 1974, "I've nothing at all to hide. I have many friends, men friends, who I sleep with — and I enjoy it." Pets Townshend-owned book shop Magic Bus is opening at 10 King Street Richmond on October 2. The shop will specialise in music and mysticism

Willy DeVille signed up to do the soundtrack for forthcoming movie Hard Core starring George C Scott . . .

Hot exclusive: Due to countless hours of worry about losing vast profits to bootleggers, CBS now plan to reclease "Dylam: Live In Japan" just before Christmas .

(1) BUZZCOCKS
(3) CLASH CITY ROCKERS Roudervois Bane, meet nemen, ners Prys-Leef, Andr Valain. 25p Keyn, Jos Gibby, Bleck State No. 2. Stool Fullow No. 2. Amend, T.V.O.D., Cook the Eriver, No Dook 1 Senceus, Sel Vict-ons Bly Way. 28p Dolf Up Dolf, Jackson Parlock, 2s. Moory Fools (Sinexain), More & Nove.

(S) CLASH-TOLICE (A) SHAM ARMY (A) CONEY LOU (B) X RAY SPEX (G) X RAY SPEX (G) X RAY SPEX (G) X RAY SPEX

COMPILED FROM TEN BEST SEE FOR SALE SECTION

EDITORIAL

3rd Floor, 5-7 Carnaby Street, London W1V 1PG Phone: 01-439 8761

EDITOR: NEIL SPENCER

Assistant Editor: Phil McNeill News Editor: Derek Johnson Production Editor: Jack Scott Special Projects Editor: Roy Car Associate Editors: Bob Wolfinden, Charles Shaar Mu

Murray

Staff: Tony Stewart Steve Clarke Tony Persons Julie Burchill Monty Smith Angus MacKinnon Paul Rambali

Contributors: Nick Kent Brian Case Mick Farren Mick Farren
Bob Edmands
Tony Benyon
Max Bell
Fred Dellar
Chris Salewicz
Cliff White
Miles Lester Bangs John May Paul Morley Penny Reel Adrian Thrills

New York: Joe Stevens N.Y. 254 6840 Research: Fiona Foulger

ADVERTISEMENT DEPT. Kings Reach Tower Stamford Street, London SE1 9LS

Ad Director: Percy Dickins (01) 261 6080 (U) 261 5080 Classified Ada: Sue Hayward (01) 261 6122 Ad Production: Mike Proctor Frank Lamb

Pete Christopher (01) 261 6207

Ad Manager: Peter Rhodes (01) 261 6251

Publisher: Eric Jackson Editorial Consultant, Andy Grey

IPC Megazines Ltd, Production of any material without permission is strictly

TRAVEL BY TRAIN TO THE KNEBWORTH PARK CONCERT Saturday 9 September

Wakefield Westgate.. 10.96 10.40 10.23 10.27 11.96 11.39 (e = change at Grantham)
In from Stevenege on Sunday follows—

Special trains return follows—
follows—
01.30 and 06.00 to Huntingdon and Peterborough 03.30 to Steeford (connection for Grentham), Doncester, Weisefield westgate, Leads and York.
A best service will operate between Stevenage station and Knabworth Park.

Awayday Return fares to Stevenage

Doncester	£8.02 £9.15

These faces are velid for return travel on Sunday 10 September only by the above services

Trains from London King's Cross to Stevenage

Depart:
01.35	03.05	04.35	06.19	-06.48
07.18	07.25	07.40	06.00	08.32
08.45	09.08	09.16	09.40	09.46
10.08	18.12	10.32	11.00	11.00
11.15	11.40	11.56	12.08	12.18
	A bus sen	vice will operat	e between station and Kne

The Awayday Return fere between King's Cross and Stevenege is £2.00. Awayday Returns isaued after 20.00 hours on Friday 8 September will be available for return travel from Stevenege up to 11.45 on Sunday morning, Leaflata are available from King's Cross Travel Centre giving details of Saturday evening/Sunday morning trains from Stevenege to King's Cross

