THE SOUND OF MUSIC

1^{D.}

FOLLOWING fast on the success of E.M.I.'s original London cast recording of "The Music Man", H.M.V. proudly announce the release of another great show LP. This is "The Sound Of Music", the hit Rodgers and Hammerstein musical which opened at the Palace Theatre, London recently. The London cast of this show which gives lovely Jean Bayless her first big break in a major musical in the rôle of Maria, assembled in E.M.I.'s St. John's Wood studios, on Sunday May 28th, to record the LP of the show. Other members of the cast include Roger Dann, Constance Shacklock, Eunice Gayson and Harold Caticott. The story is, in fact, a true one, and is a very strong and dramatic one.

Many of the show's songs have already been in the news. Grace Fields recorded the cute "Do-Re-Mi" and "My Favourite Things" on Columbia 45-DB4622. David Hughes and June Bronhill have both made "Climb Ev'ry Mountain". David is on Columbia 45-DB4615, and June on H.M.V. 45-POP871. Other artists who have recorded numbers include Cyril Ornadel, Nick Bennett, Ronnie Ronald and Ivor Emmanuel.
